Genesis

Author: Moses, traditionally — the first of the five books he wrote under divine inspiration.

Setting: Before Israel existed as a nation — Genesis spans from the creation of the universe to the death of Joseph in Egypt, covering more time than all other Bible books combined.

Where this sits historically: Spans from creation through the death of Joseph (c. 1805 BC); the patriarchal era runs alongside Egypt's Middle Kingdom and the rise of the Mesopotamian city-states.

Contemporaries: The Sumerian and Akkadian civilizations of Abraham's day; the Hyksos and Egyptian Middle Kingdom during Joseph's lifetime. Job is traditionally placed in the patriarchal era.

Big themes:

- Creation — God made everything good; man was made in His image
- The Fall — sin entered through Adam, bringing death and separation from God
- The covenant — God chose Abraham and made unconditional promises about land, descendants, and blessing
- Providence — God works through human failure and evil to accomplish His purposes (Joseph's story)
- The seed — the promise of a coming deliverer runs from Genesis 3:15 through every generation

Key passages: Gen 1:1; 3:15; 12:1–3; 15:6; 50:20

How it fits: Genesis is the foundation of everything. Without the Fall there is no need for redemption; without the Abrahamic covenant there is no Israel, no Messiah, no church. Every major Bible doctrine — creation, sin, covenant, sacrifice, election — has its roots here. Exodus picks up the story four centuries later, when Abraham's descendants have become slaves.

Chapter 1

God created the heavens and the earth in six days — light, sky, land and vegetation, sun and moon and stars, sea creatures and birds, and land animals and man. He made man in his own image, male and female, and gave them dominion over every living thing.

■ NAME NOTE God (GOD) — "The LORD, the Creator" In Hebrew, "Elohim" here — the plural form used with singular verbs to denote majesty.

| 1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. | In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. |
| 2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. | The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the face of the deep. The Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters. |
| 3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. | God said, 'Let there be light,' and there was light. |
| 4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. | God saw that the light was good. He separated the light from the darkness. |
| 5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day. | God called the light 'Day,' and the darkness He called 'Night.' And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day. |
| 6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. | God said, 'Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters to separate the waters from the waters.' |
| 7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. | So God made the firmament and separated the waters under the firmament from the waters above it. And it was so. |
| 8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day. | God called the firmament 'Heaven.' And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day. |

- 9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. God said, 'Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry ground appear.' And it was so.
- 10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. God called the dry ground 'Earth,' and the gathered waters He called 'Seas.' And God saw that it was good.
- 11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. God said, 'Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and fruit trees on the earth that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their kinds.' And it was so.
- 12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good. The earth produced vegetation: seed-bearing plants according to their kinds, and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.
- 13 And the evening and the morning were the third day. There was evening, and there was morning—the third day.
- 14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: God said, 'Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark sacred times, and days and years,
- 15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. let them be lights in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth.' And it was so.
- 16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. God made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.

- 17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth,
- 18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good.
- 19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day. There was evening, and there was morning—the fourth day.
- 20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. God said, 'Let the waters teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the firmament of the heavens.'
- 21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good. So God created the great sea creatures and every living thing that moves, with which the waters teemed, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
- 22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. God blessed them and said, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.'
- 23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day. There was evening, and there was morning—the fifth day.
- 24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so. God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creeping things, and wild animals of the earth according to their kinds.' And it was so.

- 25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good. God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.
- 26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. Then God said, 'Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness. Let them rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the livestock, all the earth, and every creeping thing that moves on the earth.'
- 27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created Him; male and female He created them.
- 28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth. God blessed them and said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and every living thing that moves on the earth.'
- 29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. Then God said, 'Look, I have given You every seed-bearing plant on the face of all the earth, and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They shall be food for You.
- 30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so. to every wild animal of the earth, every bird of the air, and every creature that moves on the earth—everything that has the breath of life—I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so.

God rested on the seventh day and made it holy. He formed Adam from the dust, placed him in the garden of Eden, and commanded him not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God made a woman from Adam's rib and brought her to him as a helper.

- | | |
| 1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. | So the heavens and the earth were completed, with all their vast array. |
| 2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. | On the seventh day God finished the work He had been doing. He rested on the seventh day from all His work. |
| 3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made. | God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it He rested from all the work of creation that He had done. |
| 4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, | These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created, on the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens. |
| 5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. | No shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprung up, because the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth, and there was no man to work the ground. |
| 6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. | But a mist went up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground. |

- 7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. Then the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.

■ NAME NOTE Eden (EE-den) — "Delight, pleasure" The garden God planted in the east where he placed Adam. Location of the tree of life.

- 8 And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. The LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there He placed the man he had formed.
- 9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. The LORD God made every tree grow out of the ground—trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
- 10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four headwaters.

- 11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; The name of the first is Pison; it winds through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.
- 12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone. The gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are also there.

■ NAME NOTE Gihon (GUY-hon) — "Bursting forth" Second river of Eden, winding through Ethiopia (Cush). Ethiopia (ee-thee-OH-pee-uh) — "Cush, burnt face" Region south of Egypt; in Hebrew "Cush," named for Ham's son.

- 13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. The name of the second river is Gihon; it winds through the whole land of Ethiopia.

■ NAME NOTE Hiddekel (HID-eh-kel) — "Rapid, sharp voice" Third river of Eden — the Tigris, running east of Assyria. Euphrates (yoo-FRAY-teez) — "Fruitfulness, to break forth" Fourth river of Eden. The great river that later formed the eastern border of the Promised Land.

| 14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. 15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. 16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: 17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. 18 And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. | The name of the third river is Hiddekel; it runs along the east side of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates. The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. The LORD God commanded the man, 'You are free to eat from any tree in the garden, but You must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for on the day You eat from it You will surely die.' Then the LORD God said, 'It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for Him.' |

The serpent deceived Eve into eating from the forbidden tree, and she gave the fruit to Adam, who also ate. God cursed the serpent, pronounced pain in childbearing for the woman and toil for the man, and drove them out of Eden, placing cherubim to guard the way to the tree of life.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? 2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: | Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, 'Did God really say, You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?' The woman said to the serpent, 'We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden, |
|---|---|

- 3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. but God has said, You shall not eat the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, and you shall not touch it, or you will die.'
- 4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: the serpent said to the woman, 'You will not surely die.
- 5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. For God knows that on the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like gods, knowing good and evil.'
- 6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasing to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some to her husband who was with her. He ate it.
- 7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. Then the eyes of both of them were opened. They realized they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.
- 8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. Then they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.
- 9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou? But the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, 'Where are you?'
- 10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. He answered, 'I heard Your voice in the garden. I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid myself.'

- 11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? God said, 'Who told You that You were naked? Have You eaten from the tree that I commanded You not to eat from?'
- 12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. The man said, 'The woman you gave to be with me—she gave me some of the fruit from the tree. I ate it.'
- 13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. Then the LORD God said to the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman said, 'The serpent deceived me. I ate.'
- 14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: So the LORD God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, you are cursed above all livestock and above every wild animal. On Your belly You shall go, and dust You shall eat all the days of Your life.
- 15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your seed and hers; he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.'
- 16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. To the woman he said, 'I will greatly multiply your pain in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children. Your desire shall be for your husband. He shall rule over you.'
- 17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; to Adam he said, 'Because you listened to the voice of your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat from it—cursed is the ground because of you; in toil you shall eat from it all the days of your life.'

- | | |
|---|---|
| 18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; | It shall produce thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the plants of the field. |
| 19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. | By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread, until you return to the ground, because from it you were taken. For dust you are, and to dust you shall return.' |

■ NAME NOTE Eve (EEV) — "Life-giver" Named by Adam in Genesis 3:20 as the mother of all living. The first woman.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. | Adam named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all the living. |
| 21 Unto Adam also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them. | The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them. |
| 22 And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: | Then the LORD God said, 'Look, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, He must not be allowed to reach out His hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever.' |
| 23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken. | So the LORD God sent Him out of the garden of Eden to work the ground from which He had been taken. |
| 24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life. | He drove the man out, and on the east side of the garden of Eden he placed cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life. |

Cain and Abel brought offerings to the LORD; God accepted Abel's but rejected Cain's, and Cain killed his brother in the field. God cursed Cain to be a wanderer and marked him for protection, and Cain settled in the land of Nod. Adam and Eve had another son, Seth, and through his line men began to call on the name of the LORD.

And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.
- Adam was intimate with his wife Eve. She conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, 'I have gotten a man from the LORD.'*

And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.
- Later she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.*

And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.
- In the course of time, Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD.*

And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering:
- Abel also brought an offering—the firstborn of his flock and their fat. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering,*
- 5

But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.
- But on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry. His face fell.*

And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?
- Then the LORD said to Cain, 'Why are you angry, and why has your face fallen?'*

If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.
- If You do well, will You not be accepted? But if You do not do well, sin is crouching at the door; its desire is for You, but You must rule over it.'*

- 8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him. Cain spoke to his brother Abel, and while they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.
- 9 And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? Then the LORD said to Cain, 'Where is your brother Abel?' He said, 'I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?'
- 10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. The LORD said, 'What have You done? The voice of Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.'
- 11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; Now You are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive Your brother's blood from Your hand.
- 12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth. When You work the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to You. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.'
- 13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear. Cain said to the LORD, 'My punishment is greater than I can bear.'
- 14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me. You have driven me out today from the face of the ground. I shall be hidden from Your face. I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me.'
- 15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him. The LORD said to Him, 'Therefore whoever kills Cain, he shall suffer vengeance sevenfold.' And the LORD put a mark on Cain, so that anyone who found him would not kill him.

- 16 And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden. Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

■ NAME NOTE Enoch (EE-nock) — "Dedicated" Two Enochs appear. First is Cain's son, namesake of the first city. Second is the righteous man in Genesis 5 who "walked with God" and was taken without dying.

- 17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch. Cain was intimate with his wife. She conceived and gave birth to Enoch. Then Cain built a city and named it Enoch, after his son.

■ NAME NOTE Irad (EYE-rad) — "Fugitive, wild donkey" Son of Enoch (Cain's line). Mehujael (meh-HOO-jay-el) — "Smitten of God" Descendant of Cain. Methusael (meh-THOO-sa-el) — "Man of God" Descendant of Cain. Not to be confused with Methuselah of Seth's line. Lamech (LAY-mek) — "Powerful" Two Lamechs: one in Cain's line (Genesis 4, violent boaster), one in Seth's line (Genesis 5, father of Noah).

- 18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech. To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad begat Mehujael, and Mehujael begat Methusael, and Methusael begat Lamech.

■ NAME NOTE Adah (AY-dah) — "Ornament" One of Lamech's two wives (Cain's line). First mention of polygamy in the Bible. Zillah (ZIL-ah) — "Shadow" Lamech's second wife.

- 19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. Lamech took two wives: the name of one was Adah, and the name of the other was Zillah.

- 20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle. Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and raise livestock.

■ NAME NOTE Jubal (JOO-bal) — "Ram's horn, stream" Father of all musicians — the harp and flute.

- 21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ. His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp and flute.

- 22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubalcain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah. Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. Tubal-cain's sister was Naamah.
- 23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt. Lamech said to his wives, 'Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; wives of Lamech, listen to my words. I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for injuring me.
- 24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold. If Cain is avenged sevenfold, then Lamech seventy-sevenfold.'

■ NAME NOTE Seth (SETH) — "Appointed, granted" Third son of Adam and Eve, appointed in place of Abel. Ancestor of Noah and eventually Christ.

- 25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew. Adam was intimate with his wife again. She gave birth to a son and named him Seth, saying, 'God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him.'

■ NAME NOTE Enos (EE-noss) — "Mortal man" Seth's son. In his time "men began to call upon the name of the LORD."

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to call upon the name of the LORD. To Seth also a son was born. He named Him Enosh. At that time people began to call on the name of the LORD.

Chapter 5

The descendants of Adam are listed from Seth to Noah, recording each patriarch's age at the birth of his firstborn and at death. Enoch walked with God and was taken — he did not die. Noah was born to Lamech, and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

- 1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; This is the book of the generations of Adam. On the day that God created man, He made Him in the likeness of God.
- 2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created. Male and female he created them. He blessed them and named them 'Man' on the day they were created.
- 3 And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth: Adam lived 130 years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth.

Chapter 6

The sons of God took the daughters of men as wives, and wickedness filled the earth until every thought of man's heart was only evil. God resolved to destroy all flesh by a flood but found favor in Noah, who was righteous. He commanded Noah to build an ark and bring his family and two of every living creature aboard.

Chapter 7

The LORD told Noah to enter the ark with his household and the animals, and after seven days the flood came. The fountains of the deep burst open and rain fell for forty days and forty nights, covering even the highest mountains. Every living thing on land died; only Noah and those with him in the ark survived.

| 24 | And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days. | The waters prevailed upon the earth 150 days. |

God sent a wind over the earth and the floodwaters receded; the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. Noah sent out a raven and then a dove to test whether the ground was dry, and when the dove did not return he knew the waters had subsided. God told Noah to leave the ark, and Noah built an altar and offered burnt offerings; the LORD vowed never again to curse the ground or destroy every living thing.

- 9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. But the dove found no resting place for the sole of her foot. She returned to him in the ark, for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took her and brought her into the ark with him.
- 10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark; He waited another seven days, and again he sent the dove out of the ark.
- 11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. The dove came back to him in the evening, and in her mouth was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth.
- 12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more. Then he waited another seven days and sent out the dove. But she did not return to him anymore.
- 13 And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry. In Noah's 601st year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and the surface of the ground was dry.
- 14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.
- 15 And God spake unto Noah, saying, Then God spoke to Noah, saying,
- 16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. 'Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

- 17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds, livestock, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—so that they may swarm on the earth and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.'
- 18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him: So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him.
- 19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark. Every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird—everything that moves on the earth—went out of the ark by families.
- 20 And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took some of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.
- 21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. The LORD smelled a sweet savour. The LORD said in His heart, 'I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the intention of man's heart is evil from His youth. Neither will I ever again strike down every living thing as I have done.
- 22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease. While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease.'

Chapter 9

God blessed Noah and his sons, permitted them to eat meat but forbade eating blood, and established the rainbow as the sign of his covenant never to destroy the earth by flood again. Noah planted a vineyard, became drunk, and lay uncovered in his tent; Ham saw his nakedness, but Shem and Japheth covered him. When Noah awoke he cursed Canaan and blessed Shem and Japheth.

Chapter 11

The whole earth shared one language, and the people built a city and tower at Babel to make a name for themselves; the LORD confused their language and scattered them across the earth. The descendants of Shem are listed from Arphaxad to Abram. Terah took his son Abram, Abram's wife Sarai, and his grandson Lot from Ur of the Chaldees toward Canaan, but they settled in Haran, where Terah died.

- | | |
| 1 And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. | Now the whole earth had one language and one speech. |
| 2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there. | As people journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. |
| 3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar. | They said to one another, 'Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.' They used brick for stone and tar for mortar. |
| 4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth. | Then they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered across the face of the whole earth.' |
| 5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded. | But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. |
| 6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do. | The LORD said, 'The people are one. They all have one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. Now nothing they plan to do will be withheld from them.' |
| 7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech. | Come, let us go down and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech.' |
| 8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city. | So the LORD scattered them from there over the face of all the earth. They stopped building the city. |

Abram returned from Egypt to Canaan, wealthy in livestock, silver, and gold, but strife arose between his herdsmen and Lot's because the land could not support them both. Abram let Lot choose first; Lot chose the well-watered plain of the Jordan and settled near Sodom. The LORD promised Abram all the land he could see and seed as numerous as the dust of the earth, and Abram settled by the oaks of Mamre in Hebron.

- 5 And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.
- 6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. The land could not support them dwelling together, for their possessions were so great that they could not remain together.

- 7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land. There was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were dwelling in the land.
- 8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren. So Abram said to Lot, 'Please, let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.
- 9 Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. Is not the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you take the left, then I will go to the right; or if you take the right, then I will go to the left.'

■ NAME NOTE Zoar (ZO-ar) — "Smallness, insignificance" Fifth city of the plain, spared at Lot's request and where he fled during Sodom's destruction. Jordan (JOR-dan) — "Descender" The great river of Palestine, flowing from the north down to the Dead Sea.

- 10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered everywhere—before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as You go toward Zoar.

| 11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. 12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. 13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly. 14 And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: 15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. 16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. 17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. | So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed east. Thus they separated from each other. Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tent near Sodom. Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD. The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, 'Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward, southward, eastward, and westward. For all the land which You see, I will give to You and to Your seed forever. I will make Your seed as the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust of the earth, then your seed could also be counted. Arise, walk through the land in its length and its breadth, for I will give it to You.' |

- 9 And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. God said to Abraham, 'As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations.
- 10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised. This is my covenant which you shall keep, between me and you and your seed after you: every male among you shall be circumcised.
- 11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you. You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.
- 12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed. He who is eight days old among you shall be circumcised, every male throughout your generations, whether born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your seed.
- 13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. Both he who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised. So my covenant shall be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant.
- 14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant. Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant.'

- 15 And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. God said to Abraham, 'As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

| 16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her. | I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her. She shall become nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.' |
| 17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear? | Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, 'Shall a child be born to a man who is 100 years old? Shall Sarah, who is 90 years old, bear a child?' |
| 18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee! | Abraham said to God, 'Oh that Ishmael might live before you!' |

■ NAME NOTE Isaac (EYE-zik) — "He laughs" Son of promise to Abraham and Sarah. Named for the laughter of both parents at the promise. Nearly sacrificed on Moriah.

Chapter 18

Three visitors came to Abraham at the oaks of Mamre; he prepared a meal for them, and the LORD promised that Sarah would bear a son within a year — Sarah laughed when she heard it. The LORD revealed to Abraham his plan to judge Sodom and Gomorrah, and Abraham interceded, bargaining the LORD down from fifty righteous to ten as grounds for sparing the city.

- 2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, He lifted up His eyes and looked, and three men stood in front of Him. When He saw them, He ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed Himself to the ground.
- 3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant: He said, 'My Lord, if I have found favor in Your sight, please do not pass by Your servant.
- 4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree: Let a little water be brought, and wash Your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree,
- 5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said. while I bring a morsel of bread, that You may refresh yourselves; after that You may pass on—since You have come to Your servant.' And they said, 'Do as You have said.'
- 6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth. So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, 'Quick, three measures of fine flour! Knead it and make cakes.'
- 7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it. Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, and gave it to a young man, who hurried to prepare it.
- 8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them. He stood by them under the tree while they ate.
- 9 And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. They said to him, 'Where is Sarah your wife?' And he said, ' in the tent.'

- 10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. The LORD said, 'I will surely return to You about this time next year, and Sarah your wife shall have a son.' And Sarah was listening at the tent door behind him.
- 11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.
- 12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, 'After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my lord also being old?'
- 13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old? The LORD said to Abraham, 'Why did Sarah laugh and say, Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?'
- 14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to You, about this time next year, and Sarah shall have a son.'
- 15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh. But Sarah denied it, saying, 'I did not laugh,' for she was afraid. And he said, 'No, but you did laugh.'
- 16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. Then the men set out from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on their way.
- 17 And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; The LORD said, 'Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do,
- 18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation. All the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

- 19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. For I have chosen Him, that He may command His children and his household after Him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what he has promised him.'
- 20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; Then the LORD said, 'Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great and their sin is very grievous,
- 21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me. If not, I will know.'
- 22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the LORD. So the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the LORD.
- 23 And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Then Abraham drew near and said, 'Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?
- 24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein? Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city. Will you indeed sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous who are in it?
- 25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? Far be it from you to do such a thing—to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be it from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?'
- 26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. The LORD said, 'If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake.'

- 27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes: Abraham answered and said, 'I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord, though I am but dust and ashes.
- 28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it. Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?' And he said, 'I will not destroy it if I find 45 there.'
- 29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake. Again he spoke to him and said, 'Suppose 40 are found there.' He answered, 'I will not do it for the sake of 40.'
- 30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there. Then he said, 'Let not the Lord be angry. I will speak. Suppose 30 are found there.' He answered, 'I will not do it if I find 30 there.'
- 31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake. He said, 'I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose 20 are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of 20 I will not destroy it.'
- 32 And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. Then he said, 'Let not the Lord be angry. I will speak just once more. Suppose 10 are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of 10 I will not destroy it.'
- 33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place. The LORD went on His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Two angels came to Sodom, and Lot took them in; the men of the city surrounded the house demanding the visitors, but the angels struck the mob with blindness and urged Lot to flee. The LORD rained fire and sulfur on Sodom and Gomorrah, destroying the cities of the plain; Lot's wife looked back and became a pillar of salt. Lot and his two daughters escaped to a cave in the hills, where his daughters bore him sons — Moab and Ben-ammi, fathers of the Moabites and Ammonites.

- 8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof. I have two daughters who have not known a man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as is good in your eyes. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.'
- 9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door. But they said, 'Stand back!' And they said, 'This fellow came in to stay. He would be our judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.' Then they pressed hard against the man Lot and drew near to break the door.
- 10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door. But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them and shut the door.
- 11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door. They struck the men at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wore themselves out trying to find the door.
- 12 And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place: Then the men said to Lot, 'Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, or anyone you have in the city, bring them out of the place.
- 13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it. For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against them has become great before the LORD. The LORD has sent us to destroy it.'

- 14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law. So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry His daughters, and said, 'Get up, get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city.' But He seemed to His sons-in-law to be jesting.
- 15 And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, 'Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city.'
- 16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city. But He lingered. So the men seized His hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of His two daughters, the LORD being merciful to Him. They brought Him out and set Him outside the city.
- 17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. When they had brought them outside, He said, 'Escape for Your life. Do not look behind You, and do not stop anywhere in the plain. Escape to the hills, lest You be swept away.'
- 18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord: But Lot said to them, 'Oh, no, my lord!
- 19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have shown me great mercy in saving my life. But I cannot escape to the hills, lest the disaster overtake me and I die.
- 20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. this city is near enough to flee to. It is a little one. Let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and my life shall be saved.'

- 21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken. He said to him, 'I grant you this favor also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.
- 22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive there.' Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.
- 23 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.
- 24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven; Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven.
- 25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. He overthrew those cities and all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.
- 26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. But Lot's wife looked back from behind him. She became a pillar of salt.
- 27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD: Abraham went up early in the morning to the place where He had stood before the LORD.
- 28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the plain. He saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of a furnace.
- 29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt. So it was, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow when he overthrew the cities in which Lot had lived.

- 30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters. Then Lot went up out of Zoar and lived in the hills with his two daughters, for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.
- 31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth: The firstborn said to the younger, 'Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth.
- 32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. Come, let us make our father drink wine. We will lie with him, that we may preserve seed from our father.'
- 33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn went in and lay with her father. He did not know when she lay down or when she arose.
- 34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father. The next day the firstborn said to the younger, 'I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve seed from our father.'
- 35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose. So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him. He did not know when she lay down or when she arose.
- 36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father. Thus both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father.

Chapter 20

Abraham moved to Gerar and again said Sarah was his sister; Abimelech king of Gerar took Sarah, but God warned him in a dream that she was another man's wife. Abimelech restored Sarah to Abraham along with livestock and servants. Abraham prayed, and God healed Abimelech and his household.

- 1 And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar. From there Abraham journeyed toward the south country and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He stayed in Gerar.

■ NAME NOTE Abimelech (uh-BIM-uh-lek) — "My father is king" Title used by Philistine kings of Gerar. Abraham and later Isaac both had dealings with an Abimelech.

- 3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife. But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night and said to Him, 'you are a dead man because of the woman you have taken, for she is a man's wife.'

- 4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation? Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, 'Lord, will you slay even a righteous nation?
- 5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this. Did he not himself say to me, She is my sister? And she herself said, He is my brother. In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this.'
- 6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her. Then God said to Him in the dream, 'Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. It was I who kept you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not let you touch her.
- 7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine. Now therefore return the man's wife, for he is a prophet. He will pray for you, and you shall live. But if you do not return her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.'
- 8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid. So Abimelech rose early in the morning and called all his servants and told them all these things in their hearing. The men were very afraid.
- 9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, 'What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done.'
- 10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing? Abimelech said to Abraham, 'What did you see, that you did this thing?'

Chapter 21

Sarah bore Isaac to Abraham in his old age, just as God had promised. Sarah demanded that Hagar and Ishmael be cast out; God told Abraham to listen to her and promised to make Ishmael a nation as well. God provided water for Hagar in the wilderness, and Abraham made a covenant with Abimelech at Beersheba.

| 1 | And the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken. | The LORD visited Sarah as he had said. The LORD did to Sarah as he had promised. |
| 2 | For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. | Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age at the appointed time of which God had spoken to him. |
| 3 | And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac. | Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore him, Isaac. |
| 4 | And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac being eight days old, as God had commanded him. | Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. |
| 5 | And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him. | Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born to him. |
| 6 | And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me. | Sarah said, 'God has made me laugh; everyone who hears will laugh with me.' |
| 7 | And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age. | She also said, 'Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.' |
| 8 | And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned. | The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. |
| 9 | And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking. | But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking. |

- 16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about a bowshot, for she said, 'Let me not see the death of the child.' And she sat opposite him and lifted up her voice and wept.
- 17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is. God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, 'What troubles you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.
- 18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation. Arise, lift up the boy and hold him by the hand, for I will make him a great nation.'
- 19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink. Then God opened her eyes. She saw a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.
- 20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer. God was with the boy. He grew up. He lived in the wilderness and became an archer.

- 21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt. He lived in the wilderness of Paran. His mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

■ NAME NOTE Phichol (FY-kol) — "Mouth of all" Commander of Abimelech's army in Gerar.

- 22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest: At that time Abimelech and Phichol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, 'God is with you in all that you do.

- 23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. Now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my children or with my descendants. According to the kindness I have shown you, you shall show to me and to the land where you have stayed.'
- 24 And Abraham said, I will swear. Abraham said, 'I will swear.'
- 25 And Abraham reprov'd Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. Then Abraham rebuked Abimelech because of a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized by force.
- 26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day. Abimelech said, 'I do not know who has done this thing. You did not tell me. I have not heard of it until today.'
- 27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant. So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a covenant.
- 28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
- 29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves? Abimelech said to Abraham, 'What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set by themselves?'
- 30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well. He said, 'These seven ewe lambs you shall take from my hand, that they may be a witness for me that I dug this well.'
- 31 Wherefore he called that place Beersheba; because there they sware both of them. Therefore that place was called Beersheba, because there the two of them swore an oath.

- 3 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him. So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son, split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place of which God had told him.
- 4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from afar.
- 5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. Abraham said to his young men, 'Stay here with the donkey. I and the boy will go over there and worship. We will come back to you.'
- 6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together. Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. He took the fire in his hand and the knife, and the two of them walked on together.
- 7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering? Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, 'My father!' And he said, 'Here I am, my son.' He said, 'the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?'
- 8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together. Abraham said, 'My son, God will provide for himself the lamb for a burnt offering.' So the two of them walked on together.
- 9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

- 10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying, Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, of all who went in at the gate of his city, saying,
- 11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead. 'No, my lord, hear me. The field I give to you, and the cave that is in it I give to you. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you; bury your dead.'
- 12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land.

- 13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there. he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, 'But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field; accept it from me. I will bury my dead there.'
- 14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him, Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him,
- 15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead. 'My lord, listen to me. A piece of land worth 400 shekels of silver—what is that between me and you? Bury your dead.'
- 16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant. Abraham listened to Ephron, and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth: 400 shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants.
- 17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was facing Mamre, the field with the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field, throughout its whole area, was made over

- 19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan. After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah facing Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

- 20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

The field and the cave that was in it were made over to Abraham as property for a burying place by the sons of Heth.

Chapter 24

Abraham sent his servant to Mesopotamia to find a wife for Isaac from among his kinsmen, not from the Canaanites. The servant prayed at the well and God guided him to Rebekah, who watered his camels; her family agreed to the match. Rebekah returned to Canaan and became Isaac's wife, and he loved her.

- 1 And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

Now Abraham was old, advanced in years. The LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

- 2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

Abraham said to his oldest servant of his house, who had charge of all he had, 'Put your hand under my thigh,

- 3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

I will make You swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that You will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell,

- 4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

but will go to my country and to my family and take a wife for my son Isaac.'

- 5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

The servant said to him, 'Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?'

- 6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

Abraham said to him, 'See to it that you do not take my son back there.

- 7 The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence. The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, To Your seed I will give this land—He will send His angel before You, and You shall take a wife for my son from there.
- 8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again. But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine; only do not take my son back there.'
- 9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter. So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

■ NAME NOTE Mesopotamia (mess-oh-puh-TAY-mee-uh) — "Between the rivers" Land between the Tigris and Euphrates; Abraham's ancestral homeland.

- 10 And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor. Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, taking all sorts of choice gifts from his master. He arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor.
- 11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water. he made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water at the time of evening, the time when women go out to draw water.
- 12 And he said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham. He said, 'O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today and show mercy to my master Abraham.
- 13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water: I stand here by the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

- 14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master. Let it be that the young woman to whom I shall say, Please let down your jar that I may drink, and who shall say, Drink. I will water your camels also—let her be the one you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I shall know that you have shown mercy to my master.'
- 15 And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. Before he had finished speaking, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel the son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her water jar on her shoulder.
- 16 And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. The young woman was very beautiful to look at, a virgin; no man had known her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up.
- 17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher. Then the servant ran to meet her and said, 'Please give me a little water to drink from your jar.'
- 18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. She said, 'Drink, my lord.' And she quickly let down her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink.
- 19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, 'I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.'
- 20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw water. She drew for all his camels.

Cross-References:

- 29 And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well. Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban. Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.
- 30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well. As soon as he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and heard the words of Rebekah his sister, 'Thus the man spoke to me,' he went to the man. And he was standing by the camels at the spring.
- 31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels. He said, 'Come in, O blessed of the LORD. Why do You stand outside? For I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.'
- 32 And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him. So the man came into the house. He unloaded the camels, and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and there was water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
- 33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on. Then food was set before him to eat. But He said, 'I will not eat until I have told my errand.' He said, 'Speak on.'
- 34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant. So he said, 'I am Abraham's servant.
- 35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses. The LORD has greatly blessed my master. He has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, camels and donkeys.
- 36 And Sarah my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath. Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old, and to him he has given all that he has.

- 37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell: My master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell,
- 38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son. but you shall go to my father's house and to my family and take a wife for my son.
- 39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me. I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not follow me.
- 40 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house: But He said to me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with You and prosper Your way. You shall take a wife for my son from my family, from my father's house.
- 41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath. Then You will be free from my oath, when You come to my family. And if they will not give her to You, You will be free from my oath.
- 42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go: I came today to the spring and said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now you are prospering the way that I go,
- 43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink; I am standing by the spring of water. Let the virgin who comes out to draw water, to whom I shall say, Please give me a little water from Your jar to drink,
- 44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son. who will say to me, Drink. I will draw for Your camels also—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.

- 45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee. Before I had finished speaking in my heart, Rebekah came out with her water jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water. I said to her, Please let me drink.
- 46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also. She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder and said, Drink. I will give your camels drink also. So I drank. She gave the camels drink also.
- 47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands. Then I asked her, Whose daughter are you? She said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him. So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her arms.
- 48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son. Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to take the daughter of my master's kinsman for His son.
- 49 And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left. Now then, if You will show mercy and truth to my master, tell me. If not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left.'
- 50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good. Then Laban and Bethuel answered, 'The thing has come from the LORD; we cannot speak to You bad or good.
- 51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken. Rebekah is before you; take her and go, and let her be the wife of Your master's son, as the LORD has spoken.'

- 52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the earth before the LORD.
- 53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things. The servant brought out jewelry of silver and of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave to her brother and to her mother costly gifts.
- 54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master. he and the men who were with him ate and drank. They spent the night there. When they arose in the morning, he said, 'Send me away to my master.'
- 55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go. Her brother and her mother said, 'Let the young woman remain with us a while, at least ten days; after that she may go.'
- 56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master. But He said to them, 'Do not delay me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master.'
- 57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth. They said, 'Let us call the young woman and ask her.'
- 58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go. They called Rebekah and said to her, 'Will you go with this man?' She said, 'I will go.'
- 59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

- 60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them. They blessed Rebekah and said to her, 'Our sister, may you become the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of those who hate them.'
- 61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way. Then Rebekah and her maidservants arose and rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and went his way.
- 62 And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahairoi; for he dwelt in the south country. Now Isaac had returned from Beer-lahai-roi, and was dwelling in the south.
- 63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming. Isaac went out to meditate in the field toward evening. He lifted up his eyes and saw, and camels were coming.
- 64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel. Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from the camel
- 65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a vail, and covered herself. said to the servant, 'Who is that man walking in the field to meet us?' The servant said, 'It is my master.' So she took her veil and covered herself.
- 66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done. The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.
- 67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death. Then Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother and took Rebekah. She became his wife. He loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Abraham married Keturah and had six more sons, but gave all he owned to Isaac; Abraham died at 175 and was buried at Machpelah. Ishmael's twelve sons are listed, and Ishmael died at 137. Rebekah conceived twins — Esau and Jacob; Esau sold his birthright to Jacob for a bowl of lentil stew.

Chapter 26

A famine drove Isaac to Gerar, where the LORD appeared and confirmed the covenant promises made to Abraham. Isaac told the men of Gerar that Rebekah was his sister, but Abimelech discovered the deception; nonetheless Isaac prospered greatly and dug wells that the Philistines disputed. Abimelech sought a covenant of peace with Isaac at Beersheba, and Esau married Hittite wives who grieved his parents.

- 2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of; The LORD appeared to Him and said, 'Do not go down to Egypt; dwell in the land of which I shall tell You.
- 3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father; stay in this land. I will be with you and will bless you, for to you and to your seed I will give all these lands. I will establish the oath that I swore to Abraham your father.
- 4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; I will multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens and will give to your seed all these lands. And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed,
- 5 Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.'
- 6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar: So Isaac lived in Gerar.
- 7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she was fair to look upon. When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, 'She is my sister,' for he feared to say, 'She is my wife,' thinking, 'The men of the place might kill me because of Rebekah, for she is beautiful to look at.'
- 8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife. When he had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw Isaac caressing Rebekah his wife.

- 9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her. So Abimelech called Isaac and said, 'she is surely your wife. How then could you say, She is my sister?' Isaac said to him, 'Because I thought, Lest I die because of her.'
- 10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us. Abimelech said, 'What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.'
- 11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. So Abimelech commanded all the people, saying, 'Whoever touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.'
- 12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him. Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold. The LORD blessed Him,
- 13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: The man became rich, and gained more and more until he became very wealthy.
- 14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him. He had possessions of flocks and herds and many servants, so that the Philistines envied him.
- 15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth. Now the Philistines had stopped up and filled with earth all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father.
- 16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we. Abimelech said to Isaac, 'Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we.'

- 17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there. So Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar and lived there.
- 18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them. Isaac dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of Abraham his father, which the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham. He gave them the names that his father had called them.
- 19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found there a well of fresh water,

- 20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well Esek; because they strove with him. The herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, 'The water is ours.' So he called the name of the well Esek, because they quarreled with him.

■ NAME NOTE Sitnah (SIT-nuh) — "Hostility, accusation" Second disputed well. The name is the root of "Satan" — the accuser.

- 21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sitnah. Then they dug another well. They quarreled over that also, so he called its name Sitnah.
- 22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land. He moved from there and dug another well. They did not quarrel over it. So He called its name Rehoboth, saying, 'For now the LORD has made room for us. We shall be fruitful in the land.'
- 23 And he went up from thence to Beersheba. From there He went up to Beersheba.

- 24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake. The LORD appeared to Him the same night and said, 'I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not fear, for I am with you and will bless You and multiply Your seed for my servant Abraham's sake.'
- 25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well. So He built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD and pitched his tent there, and there Isaac's servants dug a well.
- NAME NOTE Ahuzzath (uh-HUZ-ath) — "Possession, holder" Friend of Abimelech who accompanied him to make covenant with Isaac.
- 26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phichol the chief captain of his army. Then Abimelech went to Him from Gerar with Ahuzzath His friend and Phichol the commander of His army.
- 27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you? Isaac said to them, 'Why have you come to me, seeing you hate me and have sent me away from you?'
- 28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee; They said, 'We see plainly that the LORD has been with You. So we said, Let there be an oath between us, between You and us, and let us make a covenant with You,
- 29 That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD. that You will do us no harm, just as we have not touched You and have done to You nothing but good and have sent You away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD.'
- 30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. So He made them a feast. They ate and drank.

- 31

And they rose up betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
- In the morning they rose early and exchanged oaths. Then Isaac sent them on their way. They departed from him in peace.
- 32

And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.
- That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug, and said to him, 'We have found water.'

■ NAME NOTE Shebah (SHEE-bah) — "Oath, seven" Name Isaac gave to the well at Beersheba after the oath with Abimelech.

33 And he called it Shebah: therefore the name of the city is Beersheba unto this day.

He called it Shebah; therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

■ NAME NOTE Judith (JOO-dith) — "Praised, Jewess" Hittite wife of Esau; grieved Isaac and Rebekah. Beeri (beh-EE-rye) — "Man of the well" Hittite father of Esau's wife Judith. Bashemath (BASH-uh-math) — "Fragrance, sweet-smelling" Another Hittite wife of Esau, daughter of Elon. Elon (EE-lon) — "Oak, strong" Hittite father of Esau's wife Bashemath.

- 35

Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.
- They made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

Isaac, old and blind, sent Esau to hunt game so he could bless him, but Rebekah and Jacob deceived Isaac with goat skins and savory food, and Jacob received the firstborn's blessing. When Esau returned and the deception was discovered, Isaac trembled and Esau wept bitterly, receiving only a lesser blessing. Esau resolved to kill Jacob, so Rebekah urged Jacob to flee to her brother Laban in Haran.

- 9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth: Go to the flock and bring me from there two good young goats, so that I may prepare from them savory food for Your father, such as He loves.
- 10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death. you shall bring it to Your father to eat, that He may bless You before His death.'
- 11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man: But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, 'my brother Esau is a hairy man. I am a smooth man.
- 12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. Perhaps my father will feel me. I shall seem to him as a deceiver and bring a curse upon myself and not a blessing.'
- 13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. His mother said to him, 'Upon me be your curse, my son; only obey my voice and go, bring them to me.'
- 14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved. So he went and took them and brought them to his mother. His mother prepared savory food, such as his father loved.
- 15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son: Then Rebekah took the best garments of Esau her older son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son.
- 16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck: she put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.
- 17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob. Then she put the savory food and the bread which she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob.
- 18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son? So he went to his father and said, 'My father.' And he said, 'Here I am. Who are you, my son?'

- 19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me. Jacob said to his father, 'I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please arise, sit and eat of my game, that your soul may bless me.'
- 20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me. Isaac said to his son, 'How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?' He said, 'Because the LORD Your God granted me success.'
- 21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. Then Isaac said to Jacob, 'Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not.'
- 22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. So Jacob went near to Isaac his father, who felt him and said, 'The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.'
- 23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him. He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands. So he blessed him.
- 24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am. He said, 'Are you really my son Esau?' He answered, 'I am.'
- 25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. Then he said, 'Bring it near to me, that I may eat of my son's game and my soul may bless you.' So he brought it near to him. He ate. He brought him wine. He drank.
- 26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. Then his father Isaac said to him, 'Come near and kiss me, my son.'

- 27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed: So He came near and kissed Him. And He smelled the smell of His garments and blessed Him, and said, 'See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.
- 28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: May God give You of the dew of heaven and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.
- 29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee. Let peoples serve You, and nations bow down to You. Be lord over Your brothers, and may Your mother's sons bow down to You. Cursed be everyone who curses You, and blessed be everyone who blesses You.'
- 30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, when Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
- 31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me. He also prepared savory food and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, 'Let my father arise and eat of his son's game, that your soul may bless me.'
- 32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau. His father Isaac said to him, 'Who are you?' He answered, 'I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.'
- 33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed. Then Isaac trembled violently and said, 'Who then was it that hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate of it all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, and he shall be blessed.'

- 34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father. When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry and said to his father, 'Bless me, even me also, O my father!'
- 35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing. But he said, 'Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing.'
- 36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me? Esau said, 'Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing.' Then he said, 'Have you not reserved a blessing for me?'
- 37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son? Isaac answered and said to Esau, 'I have made him lord over you. All his brothers I have given him for servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?'
- 38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and wept. Esau said to his father, 'Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father.' And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.
- 39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above; Then Isaac his father answered and said to him, 'Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.
- 40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck. By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother. But when you have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck.'

- 41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob. Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, 'The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.'
- 42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee. But the words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him, ' your brother Esau is comforting himself concerning you by planning to kill you.
- 43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran; Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban my brother in Haran,
- 44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away; stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away,
- 45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day? until your brother's anger turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?'
- 46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me? Then Rebekah said to Isaac, 'I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these, from the daughters of the land, what good shall my life be to me?'

Isaac blessed Jacob and sent him to Padanaram to take a wife from Laban's daughters; Esau, seeing this, married a daughter of Ishmael. On the way, Jacob slept at a certain place and dreamed of a ladder reaching to heaven with angels ascending and descending; the LORD stood above it and renewed the covenant promises. Jacob named the place Bethel and vowed that the LORD would be his God.

| 1 And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. | Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and commanded him, 'You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. |
| 2 Arise, go to Padanaram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother. | Arise, go to Padanaram to the house of Bethuel your mother's father, and take as your wife from there one of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. |
| 3 And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people; | God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, that you may become a company of peoples. |
| 4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham. | May he give the blessing of Abraham to you and to your seed with you, that you may take possession of the land of your sojournings, which God gave to Abraham.' |
| 5 And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padanaram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. | So Isaac sent Jacob away. He went to Padanaram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother. |
| 6 When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padanaram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan; | Now when Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Padanaram to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he commanded him, 'You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan,' |
| 7 And that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Padanaram; | that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Padanaram, |

- 8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father; Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac his father.

■ NAME NOTE Mahalath (MAH-huh-lath) — "Sickness, lyre" Daughter of Ishmael; Esau's third wife, taken to please his father.

- 9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife. So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, in addition to the wives he had, to be his wife.
- 10 And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. Jacob left Beersheba and went toward Haran.
- 11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. He came to a certain place and stayed there that night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place to sleep.
- 12 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. He dreamed, and there was a ladder set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven. And the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.
- 13 And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; The LORD stood above it and said, 'I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to Your seed.
- 14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. Your seed shall be like the dust of the earth, and You shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And in You and in Your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

Jacob arrived in Haran, met Rachel at the well, and agreed to serve Laban seven years for her hand. On the wedding night Laban substituted Leah for Rachel; Jacob discovered the deception in the morning and agreed to serve seven more years for Rachel. The LORD opened Leah's womb because she was unloved, and she bore Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah.

- 1 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east. Then Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the east.
- 2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth. As he looked, he saw a well in the field, and three flocks of sheep lying beside it, for from that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large.
- 3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place. When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.
- 4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. Jacob said to them, 'My brothers, where do you come from?' They said, 'We are from Haran.'
- 5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him. He said to them, 'Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?' They said, 'We know him.'

■ NAME NOTE Rachel (RAY-chul) — "Ewe, female sheep" Younger daughter of Laban; Jacob's beloved wife. Mother of Joseph and Benjamin. Died giving birth to Benjamin.

- 6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep. He said to them, 'Is it well with him?' They said, 'It is well. Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep.'
- 7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them. He said, ' it is still high day; it is not time for the livestock to be gathered together. Water the sheep and go, pasture them.'
- 8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep. But they said, 'We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together and the stone is rolled from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep.'
- 9 And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them. While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them.
- 10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, Jacob came near and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.
- 11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept. Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept aloud.
- 12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: and she ran and told her father. Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman and that he was Rebekah's son. She ran and told her father.
- 13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things. As soon as Laban heard the news about Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things,

- 14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month. Laban said to him, 'Surely you are my bone and my flesh.' And he stayed with him a month.
- 15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be? Then Laban said to Jacob, 'Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?'

■ NAME NOTE Leah (LEE-uh) — "Weary, cow" Older daughter of Laban. Given to Jacob by Laban's deception. Mother of six of the twelve tribes.

- 16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. Now Laban had two daughters: the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
- 17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured. Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and appearance.
- 18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter. Jacob loved Rachel. He said, 'I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.'
- 19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me. Laban said, 'It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me.'
- 20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her. So Jacob served seven years for Rachel. They seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.
- 21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. Then Jacob said to Laban, 'Give me my wife, for my time is completed, that I may go in to her.'
- 22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast. So Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.
- 23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her. But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob. He went in to her.

■ NAME NOTE Zilpah (ZIL-pah) — "Trickling, fragrant dropping" Leah's maidservant, given to Jacob as a wife. Mother of Gad and Asher.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah Zilpah his maid for an handmaid. | Laban gave his female servant Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her servant. |
| 25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me? | In the morning, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, 'What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?' |
| 26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. | Laban said, 'It is not so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. |
| 27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years. | Complete the week of this one. We will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years.' |
| 28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. | Jacob did so, and completed her week. Then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid. | Laban gave his female servant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her servant. |
| 30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years. | So Jacob went in to Rachel also. He loved Rachel more than Leah, and served Laban for another seven years. |
| 31 And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb: but Rachel was barren. | When the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. |

- 32

And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.
- Leah conceived and bore a son. She called his name Reuben, for she said, 'Because the LORD has looked upon my affliction; surely now my husband will love me.'

■ NAME NOTE Simeon (SIM-ee-on) — "Heard" Second son of Jacob and Leah. Later a tribe of Israel.

- 33

And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Simeon.
- She conceived again and bore a son, and said, 'Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, He has given me this son also.' And she called His name Simeon.

■ NAME NOTE Levi (LEE-vye) — "Joined, attached" Third son of Jacob and Leah. Ancestor of the priestly tribe (Moses and Aaron were Levites).

And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Levi.
- Again she conceived and bore a son, and said, 'Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne Him three sons.' Therefore His name was called Levi.

■ NAME NOTE Judah (JOO-duh) — "Praise" Fourth son of Jacob and Leah. Ancestor of King David and of Christ. His name gives us "Jew."

- 35

And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; and left bearing.
- She conceived again and bore a son, and said, 'This time I will praise the LORD.' Therefore she called His name Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

Rachel, barren and envious of Leah, gave her maid Bilhah to Jacob; Bilhah bore Dan and Naphtali, and Leah's maid Zilpah bore Gad and Asher. Leah bore Issachar, Zebulun, and a daughter Dinah; then God remembered Rachel, and she bore Joseph. Jacob bargained with Laban over wages, breeding the speckled and spotted livestock for himself, and grew exceedingly prosperous.

■ NAME NOTE Gad (GAD) — "Good fortune, troop" First son of Zilpah (as Leah's surrogate). Later a tribe east of the Jordan.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 11 And Leah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name Gad. 12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son. | Leah said, 'Good fortune has come!' So she called his name Gad. Leah's servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son. |
|---|--|

■ NAME NOTE Asher (ASH-er) — "Happy, blessed" Second son of Zilpah. Later a tribe on the Mediterranean coast.

|---|---|
| 13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher. 14 And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes. 15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes. | Leah said, 'Happy am I! For women have called me happy.' So she called his name Asher. In the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, 'Please give me some of your son's mandrakes.' But she said to her, 'Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also?' Rachel said, 'Then he may lie with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes.' |
|---|---|

- 16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night. When Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, 'You must come in to me, for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes.' So he lay with her that night.
- 17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son. God listened to Leah. She conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

■ NAME NOTE Issachar (IS-uh-kar) — "Hired, reward" Ninth son of Jacob, fifth of Leah. Later a tribe in the Jezreel valley.

- 18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar. Leah said, 'God has given me my wages because I gave my servant to my husband.' So she called His name Issachar.
- 19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son. Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

■ NAME NOTE Zebulun (ZEB-yoo-lun) — "Dwelling, honor" Tenth son of Jacob, sixth of Leah. Later a tribe in northern Israel.

- 20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun. Then Leah said, 'God has endowed me with a good endowment; now my husband will honor me, because I have borne Him six sons.' So she called His name Zebulun.

■ NAME NOTE Dinah (DIE-nuh) — "Judgment, vindication" Only named daughter of Jacob, born to Leah. Her story unfolds in Genesis 34.

- 21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah. Afterward she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
- 22 And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb. Then God remembered Rachel. God listened to her and opened her womb.

- 23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach: She conceived and bore a son and said, 'God has taken away my reproach.'

■ NAME NOTE Joseph (JO-zef) — "May he add" Eleventh son of Jacob, firstborn of Rachel. Sold into slavery by his brothers, rose to rule Egypt. His story dominates the end of Genesis.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 24 And she called his name Joseph; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son. she called His name Joseph, saying, 'May the LORD add to me another son!'
- 25 And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country. When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, 'Send me away, that I may go to my own home and country.'
- 26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee. Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go, for you know the service that I have given you.'
- 27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake. But Laban said to Him, 'If I have found favor in Your sight, please stay, for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me because of You.'
- 28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it. Name Your wages. I will give it.'
- 29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me. Jacob said to him, 'You yourself know how I have served you, and how your livestock has fared with me.'

- 30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee since my coming; and now when shall I provide for mine own house also? For You had little before I came. It has increased abundantly. The LORD has blessed You wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own household also?
- 31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock. He said, 'What shall I give you?' Jacob said, 'You shall not give me anything. If you will do this for me, I will again pasture your flock and keep it.
- 32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire. Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. They shall be my wages.
- 33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me. So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to look into my wages with you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, if found with me, shall be counted stolen.'
- 34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word. Laban said, 'Good! Let it be as you have said.'
- 35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. But that day Laban removed the male goats that were striped and spotted. All the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every black lamb, and put them in the charge of his sons.

- 36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks. he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob pastured the rest of Laban's flock.
- 37 And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. Then Jacob took fresh sticks of poplar and almond and plane trees, and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white of the sticks.
- 38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink. He set the sticks that he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places, where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink,
- 39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted. the flocks bred in front of the sticks and so the flocks brought forth striped, speckled, and spotted.
- 40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle. Jacob separated the lambs and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped and all the black in the flock of Laban. He put his own droves apart and did not put them with Laban's flock.
- 41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods. Whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding, Jacob would lay the sticks in the troughs before the eyes of the flock, that they might breed among the sticks,
- 42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. but for the feebler of the flock he would not lay them there. So the feebler would be Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.
- 43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses. Thus the man increased greatly and had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Jacob fled from Laban with his wives, children, and livestock after God told him to return to his homeland; Rachel secretly stole her father's household gods. Laban pursued and overtook Jacob in the hill country of Gilead, but God warned Laban in a dream not to harm him. They confronted each other, searched the tents without finding the idols, and made a covenant at a heap of stones before parting in peace.

| 1 And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory. | Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, 'Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what was our father's he has gained all this wealth.' |
| 2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before. | Jacob saw the face of Laban. It was not toward him as before. |
| 3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee. | Then the LORD said to Jacob, 'Return to the land of your fathers and to your family. I will be with you.' |
| 4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock, | So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah into the field to his flock |
| 5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me. | said to them, 'I see that your father's face is not toward me as before. But the God of my father has been with me. |
| 6 And ye know that with all my power I have served your father. | You know that I have served your father with all my strength, |
| 7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me. | yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times. But God did not permit Him to harm me. |
| 8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked. | If he said, The speckled shall be your wages, then all the flock bore speckled. If he said, The striped shall be your wages, then all the flock bore striped. |

- 9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me. Thus God has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.
- 10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled. In the breeding season of the flock I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream that the rams leaping on the flock were striped, speckled, and mottled.
- 11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I. Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.'
- 12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee. He said, 'Lift up your eyes and see, all the rams leaping on the flock are striped, speckled, and mottled, for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.'
- 13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred. I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now arise, go out from this land and return to the land of your family.'
- 14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? Then Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, 'Is there any portion or inheritance left for us in our father's house?'
- 15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money. Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us. He has also entirely consumed our money.
- 16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do. All the wealth that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do.'

- | | |
| 17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels; | So Jacob arose and set his sons and his wives on camels, |
| 18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padanaram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan. | He drove away all his livestock and all his property that he had acquired, the livestock he had gained in Padanaram, to go to the land of Canaan, to his father Isaac. |
| 19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's. | Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father's household gods. |
| 20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled. | Jacob deceived Laban the Syrian, by not telling him that he was fleeing. |

■ NAME NOTE Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — "Heap of witness, rocky region" Hill country east of the Jordan where Jacob and Laban made their covenant. Later a tribal territory.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead. | So he fled with all that he had. He arose and crossed the Euphrates and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead. |
| 22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled. | On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled. |
| 23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead. | He took his kinsmen with him and pursued Jacob for seven days and overtook him in the hill country of Gilead. |
| 24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. | But God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night and said to Him, 'Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.' |
| 25 Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead. | Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsmen pitched tents in the hill country of Gilead. |

- 26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword? Laban said to Jacob, 'What have you done, that you have deceived me and driven away my daughters like captives taken with the sword?
- 27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp? Why did you flee secretly and deceive me, and did not tell me, so that I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with tambourine and lyre?
- 28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing. why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? Now you have done foolishly.
- 29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. It is in my power to do you harm. But the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.
- 30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods? now you have gone away because you longed greatly for your father's house, but why did you steal my gods?'
- 31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me. Jacob answered and said to Laban, 'Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.
- 32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them. Anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsmen, point out what I have that is yours, and take it.' Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

- 33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants. But he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's.
- 34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Laban searched all the tent, but found them not. Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle and sat on them. Laban felt all about the tent but did not find them.
- 35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images. she said to her father, 'Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me.' So he searched but did not find the household gods.
- 36 And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? Then Jacob became angry and argued with Laban. Jacob said to Laban, 'What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me?
- 37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both. For you have felt through all my goods; what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, that they may decide between us two.
- 38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten. These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried. I have not eaten the rams of your flocks.
- 39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. What was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself. From my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

- 40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes. There I was: by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.
- 41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.
- 42 Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight. If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last night.'
- 43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born? Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, 'The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks. All that you see is mine. But what can I do this day for these my daughters or for their children whom they have borne?
- 44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee. Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I. And let it be a witness between you and me.'
- 45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar. So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
- 46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap. Jacob said to his kinsmen, 'Gather stones.' And they took stones and made a heap. They ate there by the heap.

■ NAME NOTE Jegarsahadutha (JEH-gar-sah-ha-DOO-tha) — "Heap of witness (Aramaic)" Laban's Aramaic name for the stone heap; Jacob called it Galeed in Hebrew — same meaning, different language. Galeed (GAL-ee-ed) — "Heap of witness (Hebrew)" Jacob's Hebrew name for the pillar of stones between him and Laban. Root of the name Gilead.

- 47 And Laban called it Jegarsahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed. Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.
- 48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed; Laban said, 'This heap is a witness between you and me today.' Therefore he named it Galeed,

■ NAME NOTE Mizpah (MIZ-pah) — "Watchtower" The "Mizpah benediction" — "The LORD watch between you and me" — comes from this place and moment.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 49 And Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another. also Mizpah, for He said, 'The LORD watch between You and me, when we are out of one another's sight.
- 50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee. If You mistreat my daughters, or if You take wives besides my daughters, although no one is with us, see, God is witness between You and me.'
- 51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee; Then Laban said to Jacob, 'See this heap and the pillar, which I have set between you and me.
- 52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.
- 53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob sware by the fear of his father Isaac. The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us.' So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

- 54 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. Then Jacob offered a sacrifice in the hill country and called his kinsmen to eat bread. They ate bread and spent the night in the hill country.
- 55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place. Early in the morning Laban arose and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his home.

Jacob sent messengers ahead to Esau and learned that Esau was coming to meet him with 400 men; fearful, he divided his company in two and prayed for deliverance. He sent droves of livestock ahead as gifts to appease Esau. That night Jacob wrestled a man until dawn at the ford of the Jabbok; the man touched his hip and dislocated it, but blessed him and renamed him Israel.

- 1 And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met Him.

■ NAME NOTE Mahanaim (ma-ha-NAY-im) — "Two camps, two hosts" Where the angels of God met Jacob as he returned to Canaan. Later an important city east of the Jordan.

- 2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim. When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp!" So He called the name of that place Mahanaim.

■ NAME NOTE Seir (SEE-er) — "Hairy, rough" Mountainous region south of the Dead Sea, land of Esau/Edom. Named for Esau's hairiness.

- 3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom. Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom,
- 4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now: instructing them, "Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, I have stayed with Laban and stayed until now.

- 5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight. I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, male servants, and female servants. I have sent to tell my lord, in order to find favor in your sight.'
- 6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him. The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, 'We came to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you, and there are four hundred men with him.'
- 7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands; Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed. He divided the people who were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies,
- 8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape. thinking, 'If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it, then the other company that is left will escape.'
- 9 And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee: Jacob said, 'O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who said to me, Return to Your country and to Your family, that I may do You good,
- 10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. I am not worthy of the least of all the deeds of mercy and all the faithfulness that You have shown to Your servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan, and now I have become two camps.
- 11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children. Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I fear him, that he may come and attack me, the mothers with the children.

- 12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude. But you said, I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which shall be too numerous to count.'
- 13 And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau his brother; So he stayed there that night, and from what he had with him he took a present for his brother Esau:
- 14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,
- 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals. thirty milk camels and their calves, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.
- 16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove. These he handed over to his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, 'Pass on ahead of me and put a space between drove and drove.'
- 17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee? He instructed the first, 'When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, To whom do you belong? Where are you going? And whose are these ahead of you?
- 18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us. then you shall say, They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a present sent to my lord Esau. And he is also behind us.'
- 19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him. He likewise instructed the second and the third and all who followed the droves, 'You shall say the same thing to Esau when you meet him,

- 20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me. you shall say, Moreover, your servant Jacob is behind us.' For he thought, 'I may appease him with the present that goes ahead of me, and afterward I shall see his face. Perhaps he will accept me.'
- 21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company. So the present passed on ahead of him. He himself stayed that night in the camp.

- 22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok. That same night he arose and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.
- 23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had. He took them and sent them across the stream, and everything else that he had.
- 24 And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day. Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day.
- 25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched the socket of his thigh, and the socket of Jacob's thigh was put out of joint as he wrestled with him.
- 26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day has broken.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go unless you bless me.'
- 27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob. He said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.'

■ NAME NOTE Israel (IZ-ree-el) — "He struggles with God, prince with God" New name given to Jacob after he wrestled the angel at Peniel. Name of the nation descended from his twelve sons.

- 28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed. Then he said, 'Your name shall no more be called Jacob, but Israel; for as a prince you have power with God and with men, and have prevailed.'
- 29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there. Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?' And there he blessed him.

■ NAME NOTE Peniel (pen-EE-el) — "Face of God" Name Jacob gave to the place where he wrestled God face-to-face and lived. Spelled Penuel in the next verse.

- 30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. So Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life has been delivered.'

■ NAME NOTE Penuel (pen-YOO-el) — "Face of God" Same place as Peniel — a spelling variant.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 31 And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh. The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his thigh.
- 32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank. Therefore to this day the children of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh that is on the hip socket, because he touched the socket of Jacob's thigh on the sinew of the thigh.

Esau ran to meet Jacob and they embraced and wept, reconciling after years of separation. Jacob urged Esau to accept his gifts and Esau returned to Seir, while Jacob journeyed to Succoth and then to Shechem in Canaan. There Jacob bought a parcel of land, set up an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

| 1 | And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. | Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two female servants. |
| 2 | And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost. | He put the female servants with their children in front, then Leah with her children, and Rachel and Joseph last of all. |
| 3 | And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. | He himself went on before them, bowing himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. |
| 4 | And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept. | But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him. They wept. |
| 5 | And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant. | When Esau lifted up his eyes and saw the women and children, he said, 'Who are these with you?' Jacob said, 'The children whom God has graciously given your servant.' |
| 6 | Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. | Then the female servants drew near, they and their children, and bowed down. |
| 7 | And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves. | Leah likewise and her children drew near and bowed down. And last Joseph and Rachel drew near. They bowed down. |
| 8 | And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord. | Esau said, 'What do you mean by all this company that I met?' Jacob answered, 'To find favor in the sight of my lord.' |

- 9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself. But Esau said, 'I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.'
- 10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me. Jacob said, 'No, please, if I have found favor in your sight, then accept my present from my hand. For I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you have accepted me.'
- 11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it. Please accept my gift that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.' Thus He urged Him. He took it.
- 12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee. Then Esau said, 'Let us journey on our way. I will go ahead of you.'
- 13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. But Jacob said to him, 'My lord knows that the children are frail, and that the nursing flocks and herds are a care to me. If they are driven hard for one day, all the flocks will die.'
- 14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir. Let my lord pass on ahead of his servant. I will lead on slowly, at the pace of the livestock that are ahead of me and at the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir.'
- 15 And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord. So Esau said, 'Let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.' But he said, 'What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord.'
- 16 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir. So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

■ NAME NOTE Succoth (SUCK-oth) — "Booths, shelters" Town east of the Jordan where Jacob built booths for his livestock. Later site of Israelite worship.

- 17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.
- But Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

■ NAME NOTE Shalem (SHAY-lem) — "Safe, peaceful, complete" Place Jacob arrived "safely" near Shechem. May be a description ("came safely") rather than a proper name. Shechem (SHEK-em) — "Shoulder, ridge" Both a city in central Canaan AND the name of the Hivite prince who defiled Dinah. Same name applies to both.

- 18 And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padanaram; and pitched his tent before the city.
- Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his way from Padanaram. He camped before the city.

■ NAME NOTE Hamor (HAY-mor) — "Donkey, ass" Hivite ruler of Shechem, father of the prince Shechem. Killed by Simeon and Levi.

- 19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.
- from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, he bought for a hundred pieces of money the piece of land on which he had pitched his tent.

■ NAME NOTE Elelohe-Israel (EL-el-OH-hee-IZ-ree-el) — "God, the God of Israel" Name Jacob gave to the altar he built at Shechem, declaring the LORD as his God.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 20 And he erected there an altar, and called it Elelohe-Israel.
- There He erected an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

Chapter 34

Shechem the son of Hamor seized Dinah and violated her, then sought to marry her. Jacob's sons answered deceitfully, demanding that all the men of the city be circumcised as a condition; while the men were still in pain, Simeon and Levi killed every male in the city and took Dinah back. Jacob rebuked them for making him odious among the Canaanites.

|---|---|---|
| 1 | And Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. | Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the women of the land. |
| 2 | And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her. | When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he seized her and lay with her and humiliated her. |
| 3 | And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel. | His soul was drawn to Dinah the daughter of Jacob. He loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to her. |
| 4 | And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife. | So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, 'Get me this girl for my wife.' |
| 5 | And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob held his peace until they were come. | Now Jacob heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah. But his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came. |
| 6 | And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him. | Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him. |
| 7 | And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done. | The sons of Jacob came in from the field as soon as they heard of it, and the men were grieved and very angry, because he had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing must not be done. |

- 8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife. But Hamor spoke with them, saying, 'The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Please give her to him to be his wife.
- 9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you. Make marriages with us: give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.
- 10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein. You shall dwell with us, and the land shall be open to you. Dwell and trade in it, and get property in it.'
- 11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give. Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, 'Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give.
- 12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife. Ask me for as great a bride-price and gift as you will. I will give whatever you say to me. Only give me the young woman to be my wife.'
- 13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister: The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister Dinah.
- 14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us: They said to them, 'We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.
- 15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised; Only on this condition will we agree with you — that you will become as we are, and every male among you be circumcised.

- 16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. Then we will give our daughters to you. We will take your daughters for ourselves. We will dwell with you and become one people.
- 17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone. But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go.'
- 18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son. Their words pleased Hamor and Hamor's son Shechem.
- 19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father. The young man did not delay to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter. Now he was the most honored of all his father's house.
- 20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying, So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying,
- 21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. 'These men are at peace with us; let them dwell in the land and trade in it, for the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives, and let us give them our daughters.
- 22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised. Only on this condition will the men agree to dwell with us to become one people — when every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised.
- 23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us. Will not their livestock, their property, and all their beasts be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will dwell with us.'

- 24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city. All who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.
- 25 And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males. On the third day, when they were sore, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and came against the city while it felt secure, and killed all the males.
- 26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the edge of the sword and took Dinah out of Shechem's house and went away.
- 27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister. The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.
- 28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,
- 29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house. All their wealth and all their little ones and all their wives they took captive, and they plundered all that was in the houses.
- 30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house. Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, 'You have brought trouble on me by making me stink among the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. My numbers are few, and if they gather themselves against me and attack me, I shall be destroyed, both I and my household.'

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

But they said, 'Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?'

Chapter 35

God told Jacob to go to Bethel; Jacob put away his household's foreign gods and built an altar there, and God appeared again, confirming his name as Israel and renewing the covenant promises. Rachel died giving birth to Benjamin on the road to Ephrath and was buried there. Isaac died at 180 in Hebron, and Esau and Jacob buried him.

1 And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

God said to Jacob, 'Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there. Make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau.'

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments:

So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, 'Put away the foreign gods that are among you and purify yourselves and change your garments.'

3 And let us arise, and go up to Bethel; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

Then let us arise and go up to Bethel, so that I may make there an altar to the God Who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.'

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had, and the rings that were in their ears. Jacob hid them under the oak that was near Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

As they journeyed, a terror from God fell upon the cities that were around them, so that they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

- 6 So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people that were with him. Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.

■ NAME NOTE Elbethel (el-BETH-el) — "God of Bethel" Name Jacob gave to the altar at Bethel when he returned there after wrestling the angel.

- 7 And he built there an altar, and called the place Elbethel: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother. There he built an altar and called the place El-bethel, because there God had revealed himself to him when He fled from His brother.

■ NAME NOTE Deborah (DEB-or-uh) — "Bee" Rebekah's nurse. Two Deborahs in Scripture — this one, and later the judge and prophetess in the book of Judges. Allonbachuth (AL-lon-BAH-kooth) — "Oak of weeping" Tree below Bethel where Rebekah's nurse Deborah was buried.

- 8 But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bethel under an oak: and the name of it was called Allonbachuth. Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died. She was buried under an oak below Bethel. So he called its name Allon-bacuth.
- 9 And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padanaram, and blessed him. God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Padanaram, and blessed him.
- 10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel. God said to Him, 'Your name is Jacob; no longer shall your name be called Jacob. But Israel shall be your name.' So he called his name Israel.
- 11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins; God said to Him, 'I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations shall come from you, and kings shall come from your own body.
- 12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land. The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you. I will give the land to your seed after you.'

| 13 And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him. | Then God went up from Him in the place where He had spoken with Him. |
| 14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon. | Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering on it and poured oil on it. |
| 15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Bethel. | So Jacob called the name of the place where God had spoken with him, Bethel. |

|---|---|
| 16 And they journeyed from Bethel; and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour. | Then they journeyed from Bethel. When they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor. She had hard labor. |
| 17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also. | when her labor was at its hardest, the midwife said to her, 'Do not fear, for you have another son.' |

Jacob loved Joseph above all his sons and made him a coat of many colors, which provoked his brothers' hatred; Joseph's dreams of his family bowing down to him deepened their resentment. His brothers conspired to kill him but instead sold him to Midianite merchants for twenty pieces of silver; the merchants took Joseph to Egypt and sold him to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh. The brothers dipped Joseph's coat in goat's blood and deceived Jacob into believing his son was dead.

- 3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a coat of many colors.
- 4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.
- 5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more. Now Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers they hated him even more.
- 6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed: He said to them, 'Hear this dream that I have dreamed:
- 7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf. we were binding sheaves in the field, and my sheaf arose and stood upright. And your sheaves gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf.'
- 8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words. His brothers said to him, 'Are you indeed to reign over us? Are you indeed to rule over us?' So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.
- 9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. Then he dreamed another dream and told it to his brothers and said, 'I have dreamed another dream. The sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me.'

■ NAME NOTE Dothan (DOE-than) — "Two wells, two cisterns" Location north of Shechem where Joseph's brothers cast him into a pit and sold him to the Ishmaelites.

- 17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan. The man said, 'They have gone away, for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan.' So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.
- 18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. They saw him from afar, and before he came near to them they conspired against him to kill him.
- 19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh. They said to one another, 'Here comes this dreamer.
- 20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits. Then we will say that a fierce animal has devoured him. We will see what will become of his dreams.'
- 21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. But when Reuben heard it, he rescued him out of their hands, saying, 'Let us not take his life.'
- 22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again. Reuben said to them, 'Shed no blood; cast him into this pit here in the wilderness, but do not lay a hand on him,' that he might rescue him out of their hands to restore him to his father.
- 23 And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him; So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his coat, the coat of many colors that he wore.
- 24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. they took him and cast him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

- 25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. Then they sat down to eat. And looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmeelites coming from Gilead with their camels bearing gum, balm, and myrrh, on their way to carry it down to Egypt.
- 26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood? Then Judah said to his brothers, 'What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?
- 27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content. Come, let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.' And his brothers listened to him.
- 28 Then there passed by Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt. Then Midianite traders passed by. And they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver. They took Joseph to Egypt.
- 29 And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes.
- 30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go? he He returned to his brothers and said, 'The boy is gone. I, where shall I go?'
- 31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood; Then they took Joseph's coat and slaughtered a young goat and dipped the coat in the blood.
- 32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. They sent the coat of many colors and brought it to their father and said, 'This we have found; please identify whether it is your son's coat or not.'

Chapter 38

Judah married a Canaanite woman and had three sons; his firstborn Er died for his wickedness, and Onan was also slain for refusing to raise up seed for his brother. Judah withheld his third son Shelah from Tamar, so she disguised herself, lay with Judah by the roadside, and conceived twins. When Judah learned the truth he declared her more righteous than himself; she bore Pharez and Zarah.

■ NAME NOTE Hirah (HI-rah) — "Nobility, splendor" Judah's Canaanite friend from the town of Adullam. Adullamite (uh-DUL-uh-mite) — "Inhabitant of Adullam (justice of the people)" From Adullam, a Canaanite town in the lowlands. Later David hid in the cave of Adullam from Saul.

| 1 And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. | At that time Judah went down from his brothers and turned aside to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. |

■ NAME NOTE Shuah (SHOO-ah) — "Depression, wealth" Canaanite whose daughter Judah married. (Note: Shua is a separate person, Abraham's son by Keturah.)

- 2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shuah. He took her and went in to her, ■ NAME NOTE Er (UR) — "Watchful" Judah's firstborn. Put to death by the LORD for his wickedness.

- 3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. she conceived and bore a son. He called His name Er.

■ NAME NOTE Onan (OH-nan) — "Strong, vigorous" Judah's second son. Killed by the LORD for refusing his levirate duty to Tamar. Root of the term "onanism."

- 4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan. She conceived again and bore a son. She called His name Onan.

■ NAME NOTE Shelah (SHEE-lah) — "Request, prayer, quiet" Judah's third son. (Different from Salah in Shem's line.) Judah withheld him from Tamar. Chezib (KEE-zib) — "Deceptive, false" Canaanite town where Shelah was born.

- 5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah; and he was at Chezib, when she bare him. Yet again she bore a son. She called His name Shelah. Judah was in Chezib when she bore Him.

■ NAME NOTE Tamar (TAY-mar) — "Palm tree" Judah's daughter-in-law. Widowed twice; conceived Perez and Zerah by Judah. Named in the genealogy of Christ.

- 6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. Judah took a wife for Er His firstborn. Her name was Tamar.
- 7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him. But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD. The LORD put Him to death.
- 8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. Then Judah said to Onan, 'Go in to Your brother's wife and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up seed for Your brother.'

- 9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother. But Onan knew that the seed would not be His. So whenever He went in to His brother's wife He would waste the semen on the ground, so as not to give seed to His brother.
- 10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also. What He did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD. He put Him to death also.
- 11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house. Then Judah said to Tamar His daughter-in-law, 'Remain a widow in Your father's house, till Shelah my son grows up,' for He feared that He would die, like His brothers. So Tamar went and remained in her father's house.
- NAME NOTE Timnath (TIM-nath) — "Portion, allotted share" Town in the Judean hill country where Judah went to shear sheep. Also spelled Timnah.
- 12 And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite. In the course of time the wife of Judah, Shua's daughter, died. When Judah was comforted, He went up to Timnath to His sheepshearers, He and His friend Hirah the Adullamite.
- 13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep. When Tamar was told, 'Your father-in-law is going up to Timnath to shear his sheep,'
- 14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife. she took off her widow's garments and covered herself with a veil, wrapping herself up, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath. For she saw that Shelah was grown up. She had not been given to Him in marriage.

- 15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face. When Judah saw her, He thought she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.
- 16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me? He turned to her at the roadside and said, 'Come, let me come in to You,' for He did not know that she was His daughter-in-law. She said, 'What will You give me, that You may come in to me?'
- 17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it? He answered, 'I will send You a young goat from the flock.' And she said, 'Will You give me a pledge, until You send it?'
- 18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. He said, 'What pledge shall I give You?' She replied, 'Your signet and Your cord and Your staff that is in Your hand.' So He gave them to her and went in to her. She conceived by Him.
- 19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. Then she arose and went away, and taking off her veil she put on the garments of her widowhood.
- 20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not. When Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite to take back the pledge from the woman's hand, he did not find her.
- 21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place. he asked the men of the place, 'Where is the harlot that was openly by the way side?' And they said, 'No harlot has been here.'
- 22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place. So he returned to Judah and said, 'I have not found her. Also, the men of the place said, No harlot has been here.'

- 23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her. Judah said, 'Let her keep the things as her own, or we shall be laughed at. You see, I sent this young goat, and you did not find her.'
- 24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt. About three months later Judah was told, 'Tamar your daughter-in-law has been immoral. Moreover, she is pregnant by immorality.' And Judah said, 'Bring her out, and let her be burned.'
- 25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff. As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, 'By the man to whom these belong, I am with child.' And she said, 'Please identify whose these are, the signet and the cord and the staff.'
- 26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more. Then Judah identified them and said, 'She is more righteous than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.' And he did not know her again.
- 27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb. When the time of her labor came, there were twins in her womb.
- 28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. When she was in labor, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, 'This one came out first.'

■ NAME NOTE Pharez (FAIR-ez) — "Breach, breaking forth" Twin son of Judah by Tamar. Ancestor of David and of Christ. Also spelled Perez.

- 29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez. But as He drew back His hand, His brother came out. And she said, 'What a breach You have made for Yourself!' Therefore His name was called Pharez.

■ NAME NOTE Zarah (ZAIH-ah) — "Rising, dawn" Twin son of Judah by Tamar, brother of Perez. Also spelled Zerah.

- 30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah. Afterward His brother came out with the scarlet thread on His hand. His name was called Zarah.

Chapter 39

Joseph prospered in Potiphar's house because the LORD was with him, and Potiphar put him in charge of everything he owned. Potiphar's wife repeatedly tried to seduce Joseph; when he refused and fled, she falsely accused him. Potiphar cast Joseph into prison, but the LORD was with him there, and the keeper of the prison put everything in Joseph's charge.

Cross-References:

- 1 And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither. Now Joseph had been brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, had bought him from the Ishmeelites who had brought him down there.
- 2 And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian. The LORD was with Joseph. He became a successful man. He was in the house of His Egyptian master.

- 3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand. His master saw that the LORD was with Him and that the LORD caused all that He did to succeed in His hand.
- 4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. So Joseph found favor in his sight and attended him. He made him overseer of his house and put him in charge of all that he had.
- 5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. From the time that He made Him overseer in His house and over all that He had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake, and the blessing of the LORD was on all that He had, in house and field.
- 6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person, and well favoured. So he left all that he had in Joseph's charge, and because of him he had no concern about anything but the food he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance.
- 7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me. After a time his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, 'Lie with me.'
- 8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand; But he refused and said to his master's wife, 'because of me my master has no concern about anything in the house. He has put everything that he has in my charge.

- 9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?'
- 10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her. As she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not listen to her, to lie beside her or to be with her.
- 11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within. But one day, when he went into the house to do his work and none of the men of the house was there in the house,
- 12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out. she caught him by his garment, saying, 'Lie with me.' But he left his garment in her hand and fled and got out of the house.
- 13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, As soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled out of the house,
- 14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice: she called to the men of her house and said to them, 'See, he has brought among us a Hebrew to laugh at us. He came in to me to lie with me. I cried out with a loud voice.
- 15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out. when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried out, he left his garment beside me and fled and got out of the house.'
- 16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home. Then she laid up his garment by her until his master came home,

Pharaoh's chief cupbearer and chief baker were imprisoned with Joseph, and each had a dream the same night. Joseph interpreted the cupbearer's dream as restoration to his post in three days, and the baker's as execution in three days — both came to pass exactly as Joseph said. The cupbearer forgot Joseph and did not mention him to Pharaoh.

| 23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgot him. | Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him. |

Chapter 41

Two years later Pharaoh dreamed of seven fat cows devoured by seven thin cows and seven plump ears of grain swallowed by seven thin ears; none of his wise men could interpret the dreams. The cupbearer finally remembered Joseph, who was brought from prison and told Pharaoh the dreams meant seven years of plenty followed by seven years of famine. Pharaoh set Joseph over all Egypt to store grain during the years of abundance.

| 1 | And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river. | After two whole years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the Nile, |
| 2 | And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow. | There came up out of the Nile seven cows, attractive and plump. They fed in the reed grass. |
| 3 | And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river. | Seven other cows, ugly and thin, came up out of the Nile after them and stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile. |
| 4 | And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke. | The ugly, thin cows ate up the seven attractive, plump cows. And Pharaoh awoke. |
| 5 | And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good. | He fell asleep and dreamed a second time. And seven ears of grain, plump and good, were growing on one stalk. |
| 6 | And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them. | After them sprouted seven ears, thin and blighted by the east wind. |
| 7 | And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. | The thin ears swallowed up the seven plump, full ears. And Pharaoh awoke. It was a dream. |
| 8 | And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh. | So in the morning his spirit was troubled. He sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was none who could interpret them to Pharaoh. |

- 9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day: Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, 'I remember my offenses today.
- 10 Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker: When Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of the guard,
- 11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. we dreamed on the same night, he and I, each having a dream with its own interpretation.
- 12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret. A young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. When we told him, he interpreted our dreams to us, giving to each man an interpretation.
- 13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged. as he interpreted to us, so it came to pass; I was restored to my office, and the baker was hanged.'
- 14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph. They quickly brought him out of the pit. And when he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came in before Pharaoh.
- 15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it. Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I have had a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.'
- 16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. Joseph answered Pharaoh, 'It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer.'

- 17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river: Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, ' in my dream I was standing on the banks of the Nile.
- 18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow: Seven cows, plump and attractive, came up out of the Nile and fed in the reed grass.
- 19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness: Seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and thin, such as I had never seen in all the land of Egypt.
- 20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine: The thin, ugly cows ate up the first seven plump cows,
- 21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke. but when they had eaten them no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were still as ugly as at the beginning. Then I awoke.
- 22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good: I also saw in my dream seven ears growing on one stalk, full and good.
- 23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them: Seven ears, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprouted after them,
- 24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me. The thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. And I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.'
- 25 And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do. Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, 'The dreams of Pharaoh are one; God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.
- 26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one. The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one.

- 27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. The seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears blighted by the east wind are also seven years of famine.
- 28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh. It is as I told Pharaoh: God has shown to Pharaoh what he is about to do.
- 29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt: There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt,
- 30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land; but after them there will arise seven years of famine. All the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. The famine will consume the land,
- 31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous. the plenty will be unknown in the land because of the famine that follows, for it will be very severe.
- 32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. the doubling of Pharaoh's dream means that the thing is fixed by God. God will shortly bring it about.
- 33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. Now therefore let Pharaoh select a discerning and wise man, and set him over the land of Egypt.
- 34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. Let Pharaoh proceed to appoint overseers over the land and take one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven plentiful years.

- 35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.
- 36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine. That food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine that are to occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish through the famine.'
- 37 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. This proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants.
- 38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is? Pharaoh said to his servants, 'Can we find a man like this, in whom is the Spirit of God?'
- 39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art: Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Since God has shown you all this, there is none so discerning and wise as you are.
- 40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou. You shall be over my house. All my people shall order themselves as you command. Only as regards the throne will I be greater than you.'
- 41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt. Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt.'
- 42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck; Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain about his neck.

- 43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt. he made him ride in his second chariot. And they called out before him, 'Bow the knee!' Thus he set him over all the land of Egypt.
- 44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no one shall lift up hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.'

■ NAME NOTE Zaphnathpaaneah (ZAF-nath-pah-uh-NAY-uh) — "Revealer of secrets, or sustainer of life" Egyptian name Pharaoh gave to Joseph when he made him ruler over Egypt. Asenath (AS-eh-nath) — "Belonging to the goddess Neith" Egyptian wife of Joseph, daughter of the priest of On. Mother of Manasseh and Ephraim. Potipherah (po-TIF-er-ah) — "He whom Ra gave (Egyptian)" Priest of On, father-in-law of Joseph. Related in form to Potiphar but a different man. On (ON) — "Strength, vigor" Egyptian city better known by its Greek name Heliopolis — "city of the sun." Center of sun-worship.

- 45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt. Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah. And he gave him in marriage Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. So Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
- 46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went through all the land of Egypt.
- 47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls. During the seven plentiful years the earth produced abundantly,
- 48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same. He gathered up all the food of these seven years, which occurred in the land of Egypt, and put the food in the cities. He put in every city the food from the fields around it.

- 49 And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number. Joseph stored up grain in great abundance, like the sand of the sea, until he ceased to measure it, for it could not be measured.
- 50 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On bare unto him. Before the year of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph. Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah priest of On, bore them to him.

■ NAME NOTE Manasseh (muh-NAS-uh) — "Making to forget" Joseph's firstborn. Named for how God made Joseph forget his hardship. Later a half-tribe of Israel.

- 51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house. Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, 'For,' he said, 'God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's house.'

■ NAME NOTE Ephraim (EE-fray-im) — "Double fruitfulness" Joseph's second son. Received the greater blessing from Jacob though he was younger. Later a dominant tribe in northern Israel.

Jacob sent ten of his sons to buy grain in Egypt, but kept Benjamin home; Joseph recognized his brothers but concealed his identity, accused them of being spies, and imprisoned them for three days. He kept Simeon as a hostage and sent the others back to Canaan with grain and their money secretly returned in their sacks, demanding they bring Benjamin on their next trip.

- 4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him. But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers, for he feared that harm might happen to him.
- 5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan. Thus the sons of Israel came to buy among the others who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
- 6 And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth. Now Joseph was governor over the land. He was the one who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves before him with their faces to the ground.
- 7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them. But he treated them like strangers and spoke roughly to them. 'Where do you come from?' he said. They said, 'From the land of Canaan, to buy food.'
- 8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. Joseph recognized his brothers. But they did not recognize him.
- 9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamed of them. And he said to them, 'You are spies; you have come to see the nakedness of the land.'
- 10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. They said to him, 'No, my lord, your servants have come to buy food.'
- 11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies. We are all sons of one man. We are honest men. Your servants have never been spies.'
- 12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. He said to them, 'No, it is the nakedness of the land that you have come to see.'

- 13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. They said, 'We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan, and the youngest is this day with our father, and one is no more.'
- 14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies: But Joseph said to them, 'It is as I said to you. You are spies.
- 15 Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither. By this you shall be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you shall not go from this place unless your youngest brother comes here.
- 16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies. Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, while you remain confined, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies.'
- 17 And he put them all together into ward three days. He put them all together in custody for three days.
- 18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God: On the third day Joseph said to them, 'Do this and you will live, for I fear God.
- 19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses: If you are honest men, let one of your brothers remain confined where you are in custody, and let the rest go and carry grain for the famine of your households,
- 20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so. bring your youngest brother to me. So your words will be verified, and you shall not die.' And they did so.

- 21 And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us. Then they said to one another, 'In truth we are guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul when he begged us and we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us.'
- 22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required. Reuben answered them, 'Did I not tell you not to sin against the boy? But you did not listen. So now there comes a reckoning for his blood.'
- 23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter. They did not know that Joseph understood them, for there was an interpreter between them.
- 24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes. Then he turned away from them and wept. And he returned to them and spoke to them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.
- 25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them. Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, and to replace every man's money in his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. This was done for them.
- 26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence. Then they loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed.
- 27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth. as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his money in the mouth of his sack.

- 28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us? He said to his brothers, 'My money has been put back; here it is in the mouth of my sack!' At this their hearts failed them. They turned trembling to one another, saying, 'What is this that God has done to us?'
- 29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying, When they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying,
- 30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. 'The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us and took us to be spies of the land.
- 31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies: But we said to him, We are honest men; we have never been spies.
- 32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no more, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.
- 33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone: Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, By this I shall know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for the famine of your households and go your way.
- 34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land. Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I shall know that you are not spies but honest men. I will deliver your brother to you, and you shall trade in the land.'
- 35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. As they emptied their sacks, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. And when they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were afraid.

- 36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me. Jacob their father said to them, 'You have bereaved me of my children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and now you would take Benjamin. All this has come against me.'
- 37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again. Then Reuben said to his father, 'Kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my hands. I will bring him back to you.'
- 38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. But he said, 'My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead. He is the only one left. If harm should happen to him on the journey that you are to make, you would bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.'

When the grain ran out, Judah persuaded Jacob to let Benjamin go to Egypt with them, pledging his own life as surety. Joseph saw Benjamin, had them brought to his house, released Simeon, and hosted a feast where Benjamin received five times the portion of the others.

- 1 And the famine was sore in the land. Now the famine was severe in the land.
- 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food. When they had eaten the grain that they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, 'Go again, buy us a little food.'
- 3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you. But Judah said to him, 'The man solemnly warned us, saying, you shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

- 4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food: If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.
- 5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you. But if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, you shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'
- 6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother? Israel said, 'Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man that you had another brother?'
- 7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down? They replied, 'The man questioned us carefully about ourselves and our family, saying, Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother? What we told him was in answer to these questions. Could we in any way know that he would say, Bring your brother down?'
- 8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones. Judah said to Israel his father, 'Send the boy with me. We will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.
- 9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever: I will be a pledge of his safety. From my hand you shall require him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.
- 10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time. If we had not delayed, we would now have returned twice.'

- 11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds: Then their father Israel said to them, 'If it must be so, then do this: take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry a present down to the man, a little balm and a little honey, gum, myrrh, pistachio nuts, and almonds.
- 12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight: Take double the money with you. Carry back with you the money that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was an oversight.
- 13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man: Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man.
- 14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved. May God Almighty grant you mercy before the man, and may he send back your other brother and Benjamin. And as for me, if I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.'
- 15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. So the men took this present. They took double the money with them, and Benjamin. They arose and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.
- 16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon. When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, 'Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men are to dine with me at noon.'
- 17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house. The man did as Joseph told him and brought the men to Joseph's house.

- 18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. The men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph's house. They said, 'It is because of the money, which was replaced in our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, so that he may assault us and fall upon us to make us servants and seize our donkeys.'
- 19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house, So they went up to the steward of Joseph's house and spoke with him at the door of the house,
- 20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food: They said, 'Oh, my lord, we came down the first time to buy food.
- 21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand. when we came to the lodging place we opened our sacks, and there was each man's money in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. So we have brought it again with us,
- 22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. we have brought other money down with us to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.'
- 23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them. He replied, 'Peace to you, do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has put treasure in your sacks for you. I received your money.' Then He brought Simeon out to them.
- 24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender. When the man had brought the men into Joseph's house and given them water, They had washed their feet, and when he had given their donkeys fodder,

- 25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there. they prepared the present for Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.
- 26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth. When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present that they had with them and bowed down to him to the ground.
- 27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive? he inquired about their welfare and said, 'Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?'
- 28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance. They said, 'Your servant our father is well; he is still alive.' And they bowed their heads and prostrated themselves.
- 29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son. he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, 'Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? God be gracious to you, my son!'
- 30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there. Then Joseph hurried out, for his compassion grew warm for his brother. He sought a place to weep. And he entered his chamber and wept there.
- 31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread. Then he washed his face and came out. And controlling himself he said, 'Serve the food.'

Chapter 44

Joseph planted his silver cup in Benjamin's sack and sent his steward to overtake the brothers; when the cup was found, all the brothers returned to Joseph's house in dismay. Judah delivered an impassioned plea, recounting Jacob's love for Benjamin and offering himself as a slave in Benjamin's place so the boy could return to their father.

- 3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away with their donkeys.
- 4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good? They had gone only a short distance from the city. Now Joseph said to his steward, 'Up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, Why have you repaid evil for good?
- 5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing. Is it not from this that my lord drinks, and by this that he practices divination? You have done evil in doing this.'
- 6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words. When he overtook them, he spoke to them these words.
- 7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing: They said to him, 'Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing!
- 8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? the money that we found in the mouths of our sacks we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?
- 9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen. Whichever of your servants is found with it shall die. We also will be my lord's servants.'
- 10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless. He said, 'Let it be as you say: he who is found with it shall be my servant, and the rest of you shall be innocent.'
- 11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack. Then each man quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and each man opened his sack.

- 12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. He searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.
- 13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city. Then they tore their clothes, and every man loaded his donkey. They returned to the city.
- 14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground. When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there. They fell before him to the ground.
- 15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine? Joseph said to them, 'What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me can indeed practice divination?'
- 16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found. Judah said, 'What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how can we clear ourselves? God has found out the guilt of your servants; we are my lord's servants, both we and He also in whose hand the cup has been found.'
- 17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father. But he said, 'Far be it from me that I should do so! Only the man in whose hand the cup was found shall be my servant. But as for you, go up in peace to your father.'
- 18 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh. Then Judah went up to him and said, 'Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not your anger burn against your servant, for you are like Pharaoh himself.'
- 19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother? My lord asked his servants, saying, Have you a father, or a brother?

- 20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him. we said to my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a young brother, the child of his old age. His brother is dead. He alone is left of his mother's children. His father loves him.
- 21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. Then you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.
- 22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die. We said to my lord, The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.
- 23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more. Then you said to your servants, Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall not see my face again.
- 24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. When we went back to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.
- 25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food. when our father said, Go again, buy us a little food,
- 26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us. we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother goes with us, then we will go down. For we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.
- 27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons: Then your servant my father said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons.
- 28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since: One left me. I said, Surely he has been torn to pieces. I have never seen him since.

- 29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to the grave.
- 30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life; Now therefore, as soon as I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us, then, as his life is bound up in the boy's life,
- 31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave. as soon as he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.
- 32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever. For your servant became a pledge of safety for the boy to my father, saying, If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall bear the blame before my father all my life.
- 33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren. Now therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the boy as a servant to my lord, and let the boy go back with his brothers.
- 34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father. For how can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear to see the evil that would find my father.'

Joseph could no longer restrain himself and revealed his identity to his brothers, weeping aloud, telling them not to be angry with themselves because God had sent him ahead to preserve life during the famine. Pharaoh invited the whole family to settle in the best of Egypt's land, and the brothers returned to Canaan with wagons and gifts to bring Jacob down to Egypt.

- 1 Then Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren. Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him. He cried, 'Make everyone go out from me.' So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
- 2 And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard. He wept aloud, so that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it.
- 3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence. Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed at his presence.
- 4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt. So Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come near to me, please.' And they came near. And he said, 'I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.
- 5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life. Now do not be distressed or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.
- 6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest. For the famine has been in the land these two years, and there are yet five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.
- 7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors.

- 8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. So it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.
- 9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not: Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; do not wait.

- 14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck. Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

- 15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him. he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them. After that his brothers talked with him.
- 16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants. When the report was heard in Pharaoh's house, 'Joseph's brothers have come,' it pleased Pharaoh and his servants.
- 17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan; Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'Say to your brothers, Do this: load your beasts and go back to the land of Canaan,
- 18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land. take your father and your households, and come to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land.
- 19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. you, Joseph, are commanded to say, Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.
- 20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt is your's. Have no concern for your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'
- 21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.
- 22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment. To each of them he gave a change of clothes, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels of silver and five changes of clothes.

- 32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have. the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock. They have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.
- 33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? When Pharaoh calls you and says, What is your occupation?

- 34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians. you shall say, Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers, in order that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.'

Joseph presented his family to Pharaoh, who granted them the land of Goshen; Jacob blessed Pharaoh and told him he was 130 years old. As the famine continued, Joseph collected all the money, livestock, and land of Egypt for Pharaoh, establishing a law that one-fifth of all produce belonged to the crown. Jacob lived seventeen years in Egypt and made Joseph swear to bury him in Canaan with his fathers.

- 1 Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the land of Goshen. So Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, 'My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan. They are now in the land of Goshen.'
- 2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh. From among his brothers he took five men and presented them to Pharaoh.
- 3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers. Pharaoh said to his brothers, 'What is your occupation?' And they said to Pharaoh, 'Your servants are shepherds, as our fathers were.'
- 4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen. They said to Pharaoh, 'We have come to stay in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. And now, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.'

- 12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families. Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their dependents.
- 13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. Now there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan languished by reason of the famine.
- 14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, in exchange for the grain that they bought. And Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.
- 15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth. When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, 'Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? For our money is gone.'
- 16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail. Joseph answered, 'Give your livestock. I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, if your money is gone.'
- 17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year. So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the herds, and the donkeys. He supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

- 18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands: When that year was ended, they came to him the following year and said to him, 'We will not hide from my lord that our money is all spent. The herds of livestock are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our land.
- 19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate. Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food. We with our land will be servants to Pharaoh. And give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be desolate.'
- 20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's. So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for all the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine was severe on them. The land became Pharaoh's.
- 21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof. As for the people, he moved them into the cities from one end of the border of Egypt to the other.
- 22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands. Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had a fixed allowance from Pharaoh and lived on the allowance that Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.
- 23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land. Then Joseph said to the people, 'I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Now here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

- 24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. at the harvests you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and as food for yourselves and your households, and as food for your little ones.'
- 25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. they said, 'You have saved our lives; may it please my lord, we will be servants to Pharaoh.'
- 26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's. So Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt. It stands to this day, that Pharaoh should have a fifth; the land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh's.
- 27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. Thus Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. And they gained possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied greatly.
- 28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years. Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were 147 years.
- 29 And the time drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt: when the time drew near that Israel must die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, 'If now I have found favor in your sight, put your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. Do not bury me in Egypt,
- 30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said. but let me lie with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying place.' He answered, 'I will do as you have said.'

Jacob adopted Joseph's two sons Ephraim and Manasseh as his own, giving them equal standing with Reuben and Simeon among the tribes of Israel. When blessing them, Jacob deliberately crossed his hands and placed his right hand on the younger Ephraim's head, declaring that Ephraim would be greater than his older brother Manasseh.

- 7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Bethlehem. As for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).'
- 8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? When Israel saw Joseph's sons, he said, 'Who are these?'
- 9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them. Joseph said to his father, 'They are my sons, whom God has given me here.' And He said, 'Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them.'
- 10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. So Joseph brought them near him. He kissed them and embraced them.
- 11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed. Israel said to Joseph, 'I never expected to see your face. God has let me see your seed also.'
- 12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. Then Joseph removed them from his knees and bowed himself with his face to the earth.

- 14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn. Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands intentionally, for Manasseh was the firstborn.
- 15 And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day, He blessed Joseph and said, 'The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God Who has been my shepherd all my life long to this day,
- 16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. the Angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys. In them let my name be carried on, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac. Let them grow into a crowd in the midst of the earth.'
- 17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head. When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.
- 18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. Joseph said to his father, 'Not this way, my father; since this one is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head.'
- 19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. But his father refused and said, 'I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people. He also shall be great. Nevertheless, his younger brother shall be greater than he. His seed shall become a crowd of nations.'

- 20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh. So he blessed them that day, saying, 'By you Israel will pronounce blessings, saying, God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh.' Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh.
- 21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. Then Israel said to Joseph, 'I am about to die. But God will be with you and will bring you again to the land of your fathers.
- 22 Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow. Moreover, I have given to you rather than to your brothers one mountain slope that I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow.'

Jacob gathered his twelve sons and pronounced a prophetic blessing on each, rebuking Reuben for his instability, cursing the anger of Simeon and Levi, and exalting Judah with the promise that the scepter would not depart from him until Shiloh come. After blessing the remaining sons — including Joseph with abundant fruitfulness and Benjamin as a ravenous wolf — Jacob commanded them to bury him in the cave of Machpelah, then drew up his feet into the bed and died.

- 1 And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days. Then Jacob called his sons and said, 'Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall happen to you in days to come.
- 2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father. Assemble and listen, O sons of Jacob, listen to Israel your father.
- 3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the firstfruits of my strength, preeminent in dignity and preeminent in power.

- 33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people. When Jacob finished commanding his sons, he drew up his feet into the bed and breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

Joseph had his father embalmed, and a great company of Egyptians and Israelites carried Jacob's body to Canaan and buried him in the cave of Machpelah. After returning to Egypt, Joseph's brothers feared he would take revenge, but Joseph told them not to fear, declaring that what they meant for evil God meant for good to save many lives. Joseph lived 110 years, saw his great-grandchildren, and before dying made Israel swear to carry his bones out of Egypt when God visited them.

- 1 And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. Then Joseph fell on his father's face and wept over him and kissed him.

- 2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel. Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.
- 3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days. Forty days were required for it, for that is how many are required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.
- 4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, 'If now I have found favor in your eyes, please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
- 5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again. My father made me swear, saying, I am about to die. In the tomb that I hewed out for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me. Now therefore, let me please go up and bury my father. Then I will return.'
- 6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear. Pharaoh answered, 'Go up, and bury your father, as he made you swear.'
- 7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, So Joseph went up to bury his father. With him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
- 8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen. as well as all the household of Joseph, his brothers, and his father's household. Only their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen.

- 9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company. There went up with him both chariots and horsemen. It was a very great company.

- 10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days. When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they lamented there with a very great and grievous lamentation. He made a mourning for his father seven days.

- 11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abelmizraim, which is beyond Jordan. When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning on the threshing floor of Atad, they said, 'This is a grievous mourning by the Egyptians.' Therefore the place was named Abel-mizraim; it is beyond the Jordan.
- 12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them: Thus his sons did for him as he had commanded them,
- 13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre. For his sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field at Machpelah, to the east of Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite to possess as a burying place.
- 14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

Exodus

Author: Moses — he is named as the author within the text itself (Ex 17:14, 24:4, 34:27) and confirmed by Christ (Mark 12:26).

Date written: c. 1445–1405 BC.

Written to: Israel in the wilderness, as a foundational account of how they became a nation.

Setting: Four hundred years after Joseph. Israel has grown into a nation of millions but lives in brutal slavery in Egypt. God is about to act in history more dramatically than at any point since creation.

Where this sits historically: The exodus event itself c. 1446 BC under Egypt's 18th dynasty, with Thutmose III or Amenhotep II as the likely Pharaoh of the oppression and exodus.

Contemporaries: Egypt's New Kingdom — Hatshepsut, Thutmose III, Amenhotep II. Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy are written by Moses in the same forty-year span.

Big themes:

- Redemption — God rescues His people by power, not their merit; the Exodus is the OT's central redemption event

- The name of God — God reveals Himself as "I AM THAT I AM" and as YHWH (the LORD) for the first time in full

- Passover — the blood of a lamb on the doorpost is the only protection from judgment; it points forward to Christ

- The law — the Ten Commandments and the covenant code define how the redeemed people are to live

- The tabernacle — the last half of Exodus is consumed with exact instructions for God's dwelling place among His people

Key passages: Ex 3:14; 12:13; 20:1–17; 25:8; 33:19

How it fits: The Exodus is the event the entire OT looks back to as proof that God saves. The Passover lamb points to Christ (1 Cor 5:7). The tabernacle instructions anticipate Hebrews' theology of the better sanctuary. Leviticus follows directly with the laws governing worship in that tabernacle.

Chapter 1

The children of Israel multiplied greatly in Egypt after Joseph's death until a new Pharaoh who did not know Joseph arose and enslaved them with bitter labor, forcing them to build the store cities of Pithom and Raamses. When oppression failed to slow their growth, Pharaoh ordered the Hebrew midwives to kill every newborn son, but they feared God and disobeyed; finally Pharaoh commanded all his people to cast every Hebrew son into the Nile.

Chapter 2

A Levite woman hid her infant son three months, then placed him in a basket among the reeds of the Nile; Pharaoh's daughter found the child, named him Moses, and raised him in the palace. As an adult Moses killed an Egyptian who was beating a Hebrew, and when the deed became known he fled to Midian, where he married Zipporah the daughter of Reuel. Meanwhile God heard the groaning of Israel in their bondage and remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

■ NAME NOTE Moses (MO-zez) — "Drawn out" The deliverer of Israel. Saved from Pharaoh's death decree by his mother, adopted by Pharaoh's daughter, raised in the palace, fled to Midian, called at the burning bush. Led Israel out of Egypt, received the Law at Sinai. Died at 120.

- 10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter. He became her son. She named him Moses, saying, 'Because I drew him out of the water.'
- 11 And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his brothers and looked on their burdens. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brothers.
- 12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. He looked this way and that, and seeing no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.
- 13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He said to the man in the wrong, 'Why do you strike your companion?'
- 14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. The man said, 'Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?' Then Moses was afraid and said, 'Surely the thing is known.'
- 15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well. When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian. He sat down by a well.
- 16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

- 17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. The shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and saved them, and watered their flock.

■ NAME NOTE Reuel (ROO-el) — "Friend of God" Priest of Midian; Moses's father-in-law. Also called Jethro. Father of Zipporah.

- 18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day? When they came home to their father Reuel, he said, 'How is it that you have come so soon today?'

- 19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock. They said, 'An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and even drew water for us and watered the flock.'

- 20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may eat bread. He said to his daughters, 'Then where is he? Why have you left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.'

■ NAME NOTE Zipporah (ZIP-or-ah) — "Bird, sparrow" Moses's wife, daughter of the priest of Midian. Bore him two sons: Gershom and Eliezer.

- 21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter. Moses was content to dwell with the man. He gave Moses his daughter Zipporah.

■ NAME NOTE Gershom (GUR-shom) — "Stranger there, sojourner" Moses's firstborn son, named for his exile in Midian. (Different from Gershon, Levi's son.)

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land. She gave birth to a son. He called his name Gershom, for he said, 'I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.'

- 23

And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

During those many days the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel groaned because of their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry for rescue from slavery came up to God.
- 24

And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

God heard their groaning. God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.
- 25

And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

God saw the children of Israel. God knew.

Chapter 3

While tending Jethro's flock near Horeb, Moses saw a bush burning with fire that was not consumed; God spoke from the bush, revealing himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and commissioned Moses to deliver Israel from Egypt. When Moses asked God's name, God answered "I AM THAT I AM" and promised to bring the people out to a land flowing with milk and honey, warning that Pharaoh would not let them go except by a mighty hand.

■ NAME NOTE Jethro (JETH-ro) — "Excellence, preeminence" Moses's father-in-law, priest of Midian (same man as Reuel). Later gave Moses wise counsel on delegating judicial authority (Exodus 18). Horeb (HOR-eb) — "Desert, desolate" The mountain of God; another name for Mount Sinai where Moses saw the burning bush and later received the Law.

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led his flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

- 2 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. the angel of the LORD appeared to Him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed.
- 3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. Moses said, 'I will turn aside to see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.'
- 4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. When the LORD saw that He turned aside to see, God called to Him out of the bush, 'Moses, Moses!' And he said, 'Here I am.'
- 5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Then He said, 'Do not come near; take Your sandals off Your feet, for the place on which You are standing is holy ground.'
- 6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon God. he said, 'I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.
- 7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows; Then the LORD said, 'I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters. I know their sorrows,

- 8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
- 9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them. now, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them.
- 10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt. Come, I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.'
- 11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? But Moses said to God, 'Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?'
- 12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain. He said, 'I will be with you, and this shall be the sign for you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain.'
- 13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? Then Moses said to God, 'If I come to the children of Israel and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you. They ask me, What is His name? what shall I say to them?'

- 14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you. God said to Moses, 'I AM THAT I AM.' And he said, 'Say this to the children of Israel: I AM has sent me to you.'
- 15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations. God also said to Moses, 'Say this to the children of Israel: The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations.'
- 16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt: Go and gather the elders of Israel together and say to them, The LORD, the God of Your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, I have observed You and what has been done to You in Egypt,
- 17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey. I promise that I will bring You up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. they will listen to Your voice, and You and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him, The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. And now, please let us go a three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

God gave Moses three signs to prove his authority — the staff turned serpent, the leprous hand, and water turned to blood — and when Moses protested that he was slow of speech, the LORD angrily appointed Aaron as his spokesman. Moses returned to Egypt with his family; on the way the LORD sought to kill him until Zipporah circumcised their son. Aaron met Moses at the mountain of God, and together they gathered Israel's elders, performed the signs, and the people believed and worshiped.

And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:* But the LORD said to Moses, 'Put out your hand and catch it by the tail.' So He put out His hand and caught it. It became a staff in His hand,
- 5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee. 'that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.'
- 6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. The LORD said to Him again, 'Put Your hand inside Your cloak.' And He put His hand inside His cloak, and when He took it out, His hand was leprous like snow.
- 7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, it was turned again as his other flesh. Then God said, 'Put Your hand back inside Your cloak.' So He put His hand back inside His cloak, and when He took it out, it was restored like the rest of His flesh.
- 8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. 'If they will not believe You or listen to the first sign, they may believe the latter sign.'

- 9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land. If they will not believe even these two signs or listen to Your voice, You shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground, and the water that You shall take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground.'
- 10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue. But Moses said to the LORD, 'Oh, my Lord, I am not eloquent, either in the past or since You have spoken to Your servant. But I am slow of speech and of tongue.'
- 11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD? Then the LORD said to Him, 'Who has made man's mouth? Who makes Him mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?
- 12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say. Now therefore go. I will be with Your mouth and teach You what You shall speak.'
- 13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send. But He said, 'Oh, my Lord, please send someone else.'

■ NAME NOTE Aaron (AIR-un) — "Lofty, exalted" Moses's older brother, a Levite. Became Israel's first high priest. Spokesman for Moses before Pharaoh.

- 14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart. Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, 'Is there not Aaron your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. He is coming out to meet You, and when He sees You, He will be glad in His heart.
- 15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do. You shall speak to Him and put the words in His mouth. I will be with Your mouth and with His mouth and will teach You both what You shall do.
- 16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God. He shall speak for You to the people. He shall be your mouth, and you shall be as God to Him.
- 17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs. take in Your hand this staff, with which You shall do the signs.'
- 18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace. Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, 'Please let me go back to my brothers in Egypt to see whether they are still alive.' And Jethro said to Moses, 'Go in peace.'
- 19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life. the LORD said to Moses in Midian, 'Go back to Egypt, for all the men who were seeking your life are dead.'
- 20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod of God in his hand. So Moses took his wife and his sons and had them ride on a donkey, and went back to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in His hand.

- 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go. the LORD said to Moses, 'When you go back to Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the miracles that I have put in your power. But I will harden His heart, so that He will not let the people go.
- 22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my firstborn: Then You shall say to Pharaoh, Thus says the LORD, Israel is my firstborn son,
- 23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn. I say to You, Let my son go that He may serve me. If You refuse to let Him go, I will kill Your firstborn son.'
- 24 And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him. At a lodging place on the way the LORD met Him and sought to put Him to death.
- 25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me. Then Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son's foreskin and cast it at His feet and said, 'Surely a bloody husband You are to me!'
- 26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision. So He let Him alone. Then she said, 'A bloody husband,' because of the circumcision.
- 27 And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him. The LORD said to Aaron, 'Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.' So he went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed Him.
- 28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him. Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD Who had sent Him, and all the signs that He had commanded Him.
- 29 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel: Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

Chapter 5

Moses and Aaron told Pharaoh to let Israel go, but Pharaoh refused and instead increased the people's burden, requiring them to gather their own straw while maintaining the same quota of bricks. The Israelite foremen were beaten when they could not meet the demand, and they blamed Moses and Aaron for making things worse. Moses cried out to the LORD, asking why he had brought more evil upon the people instead of delivering them.

Chapter 6

The LORD reassured Moses, revealing his name JEHOVAH and renewing his covenant promises to bring Israel out of Egypt with great judgments and give them the land sworn to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The genealogy of Reuben, Simeon, and Levi is given, tracing the Levitical line through Kohath and Amram to Moses and Aaron, and through Aaron to his sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. The LORD commanded Moses and Aaron again to go to Pharaoh despite Moses' protest that he was of uncircumcised lips.

■ NAME NOTE Jehovah (jeh-HO-vah) — "The self-existent One, I AM" The personal, covenant name of God — traditionally spelled YHWH in Hebrew. Rendered LORD (all caps) throughout most of the KJV; here spelled out explicitly as JEHOVAH.

- 3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.
- 4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they lived as sojourners.
- 5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant. Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians hold as slaves. I have remembered my covenant.
- 6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments: Say therefore to the children of Israel, I am the LORD. I will bring You out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. I will deliver You from slavery to them. I will redeem You with an outstretched arm and with great acts of judgment.
- 7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. I will take You to be my people. I will be Your God, and You shall know that I am the LORD Your God, Who has brought You out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.
- 8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD. I will bring You into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. I will give it to you for a possession. I am the LORD.'
- 9 And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage. Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel. But they did not listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and harsh slavery.

Chapter 7

The LORD made Moses as God to Pharaoh and Aaron his prophet, warning that he would harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply his signs in Egypt. Aaron's staff became a serpent before Pharaoh and swallowed the staffs of the Egyptian magicians, but Pharaoh's heart remained hard. The LORD sent the first plague: Aaron struck the Nile with his staff and all the water turned to blood, killing the fish and making the river stink for seven days.

- 13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said. Still Pharaoh's heart was hardened. He would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.
- 14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Pharaoh's heart is hardened; he refuses to let the people go.
- 15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand. Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he is going out to the water. Stand on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that turned into a serpent.
- 16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear. you shall say to Him, The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to You, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness. But so far, You have not obeyed.
- 17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. Thus says the LORD, By this You shall know that I am the LORD: with the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water that is in the Nile. It shall turn into blood.
- 18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall lothe to drink of the water of the river. The fish in the Nile shall die, and the Nile will stink, and the Egyptians will grow weary of drinking water from the Nile.'

- 19 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone. the LORD said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, their canals, their ponds, and all their pools of water, so that they may become blood, and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.'
- 20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded. In the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants he lifted up the staff and struck the water in the Nile. All the water in the Nile turned into blood.
- 21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. the fish in the Nile died, and the Nile stank, so that the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile. There was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.
- 22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said. But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts. So Pharaoh's heart remained hardened. He would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.
- 23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also. Pharaoh turned and went into his house. He did not take even this to heart.
- 24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river. all the Egyptians dug along the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink the water of the Nile.

- 25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river. Seven full days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

Chapter 8

The LORD sent frogs that swarmed over all Egypt; Pharaoh begged Moses to remove them and promised to let Israel go, but hardened his heart once the frogs died. The LORD then sent lice from the dust of the ground, and the magicians could not replicate it, confessing "This is the finger of God." Next the LORD sent swarms of flies on all Egypt but protected Goshen; again Pharaoh promised to let Israel go, then hardened his heart when the flies were removed.

- 8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD. Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron and said, 'Plead with the LORD to take away the frogs from me and from my people. I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.'
- 9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only? Moses said to Pharaoh, 'Have the honor of telling me when I am to plead for you and your servants and your people, that the frogs be cut off from you and your houses and be left only in the Nile.'
- 10 And he said, To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that there is none like unto the LORD our God. he said, 'Tomorrow.' Moses said, 'Be it as you say, so that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.'
- 11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only. The frogs shall go away from You and Your houses and Your servants and Your people. They shall be left only in the Nile.'
- 12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. So Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD about the frogs, as He had agreed with Pharaoh.
- 13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields. the LORD did according to the word of Moses. The frogs died out in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields.

- 14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank. they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.
- 15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said. But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart and would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.
- 16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Say to Aaron, Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, so that it may become gnats in all the land of Egypt.'
- 17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. they did so. Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and there were gnats on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats in all the land of Egypt.
- 18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast. The magicians tried by their secret arts to produce gnats. But they could not. So there were gnats on man and beast.
- 19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said. Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, 'This is the finger of God.' But Pharaoh's heart was hardened. He would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.
- 20 And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Rise up early in the morning and present yourself to Pharaoh, as he goes out to the water, and say to him, Thus says the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.'

- 21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are. Or else, if You will not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on You and Your servants and Your people, and into Your houses, and the houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.
- 22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people dwell, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that You may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.
- 23 And I will put a division between my people and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be. Thus I will put a division between my people and Your people. Tomorrow this sign shall happen.'
- 24 And the LORD did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies. the LORD did so. There came great swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh and into his servants' houses. Throughout all the land of Egypt the land was ruined by the swarms of flies.
- 25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land. Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron and said, 'Go, sacrifice to your God within the land.'
- 26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? But Moses said, 'It would not be right to do so, for the sacrifices we offer to the LORD our God are an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice offerings abominable to the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us?'
- 27 We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us. We must go three days' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as He tells us.'

- 28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: intreat for me. So Pharaoh said, 'I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD Your God in the wilderness; only You must not go very far away. Plead for me.'
- 29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. Then Moses said, 'I am going out from you and I will plead with the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow. Only let not Pharaoh cheat again by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.'
- 30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD. So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.
- 31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. the LORD did as Moses asked, and removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; not one remained.
- 32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go. But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and did not let the people go.

Chapter 9

The LORD struck Egypt's livestock with a deadly plague that killed their horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, and sheep, but none of Israel's animals died; still Pharaoh's heart was hardened. Next Moses threw soot toward heaven and it became boils breaking out on man and beast throughout Egypt. Then the LORD sent a devastating hailstorm that destroyed everything in the field — except in Goshen — and Pharaoh confessed he had sinned, but hardened his heart again once the hail stopped.

- 1 Then the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Go in to Pharaoh and say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still, For if You refuse to let them go and still hold them,
- 3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain. the hand of the LORD will fall with a very severe plague upon Your livestock that are in the field, the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds, and the flocks.
- 4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel. But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing of all that belongs to the children of Israel shall die.'
- 5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land. the LORD set a time, saying, 'Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.'
- 6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one. the next day the LORD did this thing. All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one of the livestock of the children of Israel died.
- 7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go. Pharaoh sent, and not one of the livestock of Israel was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened. He did not let the people go.
- 8 And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 'Take handfuls of soot from the kiln, and let Moses throw them in the air in the sight of Pharaoh.

- 9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. It shall become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and become boils breaking out in sores on man and beast throughout all the land of Egypt.'
- 10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast. So they took soot from the kiln and stood before Pharaoh. And Moses threw it in the air. It became boils breaking out in sores on man and beast.
- 11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians. the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils came upon the magicians and upon all the Egyptians.
- 12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses. But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh. He did not listen to them, as the LORD had spoken to Moses.
- 13 And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Rise up early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh and say to him, Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth. For this time I will send all my plagues on You Yourself, and on Your servants and Your people, so that You may know that there is none like me in all the earth.
- 15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth. For by now I could have put out my hand and struck You and Your people with pestilence, and You would have been cut off from the earth.

- 16 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth. But for this purpose I have raised You up, to show You my power, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.
- 17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go? You are still exalting Yourself against my people and will not let them go.
- 18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now. about this time tomorrow I will cause very heavy hail to fall, such as never has been in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.
- 19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. Now therefore send, get Your livestock and all that You have in the field into safe shelter, for every man and beast that is in the field and is not brought home will die when the hail falls on them.'
- 20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses: Then whoever feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh hurried his slaves and his livestock into the houses,
- 22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand toward heaven, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man and beast and every plant of the field, in the land of Egypt.'

- 23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. Then Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven. The LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to the earth. And the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.
- 24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. There was hail and fire flashing continually in the midst of the hail, very heavy hail, such as had never been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
- 25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field. The hail struck down everything that was in the field in all the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And the hail struck down every plant of the field and broke every tree of the field.
- 26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.
- 27 And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. Then Pharaoh sent and called Moses and Aaron and said to them, "This time I have sinned; the LORD is in the right. I and my people are in the wrong.
- 28 Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer. Plead with the LORD, for there has been enough of God's thunder and hail. I will let You go, and You shall stay no longer.'
- 29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's. Moses said to him, 'As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD. The thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that You may know that the earth is the LORD's.

The LORD sent a plague of locusts that devoured every plant left after the hail, covering the face of the whole earth until the land was darkened; Pharaoh begged Moses to remove them, but again hardened his heart. The LORD then sent three days of thick darkness over all Egypt so that no one could see or move, while the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. Pharaoh offered to let the people go but demanded their livestock stay, and Moses refused; Pharaoh then threatened Moses with death if he saw his face again.

- 1 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him: Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of His servants, that I may show these signs of mine among them,
- 2 And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD. that You may tell in the hearing of Your son and Your grandson how I have dealt harshly with the Egyptians and what signs I have done among them, that You may know that I am the LORD.'
- 3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me. So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and said to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, How long will You refuse to humble Yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.
- 4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts into thy coast: For if You refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into Your country,
- 5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field: they shall cover the face of the land, so that no one can see the land. And they shall eat what is left to You after the hail. They shall eat every tree of Yours that grows in the field.
- 6 And they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. they shall fill your houses and the houses of all your servants and of all the Egyptians, as neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen, from the day they came on earth to this day.' Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

- 7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed? Then Pharaoh's servants said to him, 'How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God. Do You not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?'
- 8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but who are they that shall go? So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. And he said to them, 'Go, serve the LORD Your God. But which ones are to go?'
- 9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast unto the LORD. Moses said, 'We will go with our young and our old. We will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast to the LORD.'
- 10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you. But He said to them, 'The LORD be with You, if ever I let You and Your little ones go! Look, You have some evil purpose in mind.'
- 11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence. No! Go, the men among You, and serve the LORD, for that is what You are asking.' And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.
- 12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come upon the land of Egypt and eat every plant in the land, all that the hail has left.'

- 19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. the LORD turned the wind into a very strong west wind, which lifted the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust was left in all the country of Egypt.
- 20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go. But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart. He did not let the children of Israel go.
- 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness to be felt.'
- 22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days: So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was pitch darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.
- 23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. They did not see one another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. But all the children of Israel had light where they lived.
- 24 And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you. Then Pharaoh called Moses and said, 'Go, serve the LORD; Your little ones also may go with You; only let Your flocks and Your herds remain behind.'
- 25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. But Moses said, 'You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.'
- 26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither. Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must take of them to serve the LORD our God. We do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we arrive there.'

| 28 | And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die. | Then Pharaoh said to him, 'Get away from me; take care never to see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die.' |
| 29 | And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more. | Moses said, 'As you say! I will not see your face again.' |

The LORD told Moses he would bring one final plague on Egypt, after which Pharaoh would drive them out completely; the people were to ask their Egyptian neighbors for silver and gold jewelry. Moses announced to Pharaoh that at midnight the LORD would go through Egypt and every firstborn in the land would die, from Pharaoh's heir to the servant's child, but not a dog would stir against Israel.

Chapter 12

The LORD instituted the Passover: each household was to take a lamb without blemish, kill it at twilight, and strike its blood on the doorposts and lintel so that the destroyer would pass over when he struck Egypt's firstborn. At midnight the LORD killed every firstborn in Egypt, from Pharaoh's son to the captive's son, and there was a great cry; Pharaoh urgently sent Israel away that very night. About 600,000 men on foot besides children departed, along with a mixt multitude, taking their unleavened dough and the silver and gold of the Egyptians.

- 14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever. This day shall be for You a memorial day, and You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD; throughout Your generations, as a statute forever, You shall keep it as a feast.
- 15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Seven days You shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day You shall remove leaven out of Your houses, for if anyone eats what is leavened, from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel.
- 16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you. On the first day You shall hold a holy assembly, and on the seventh day a holy assembly. No work shall be done on those days. But what everyone needs to eat, that alone may be prepared by You.
- 17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever. you shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, for on this very day I brought Your hosts out of the land of Egypt. Therefore You shall observe this day throughout Your generations as a statute forever.
- 18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even. In the first month, from the fourteenth day of the month at evening, You shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month at evening.

- 19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land. For seven days no leaven is to be found in Your houses. If anyone eats what is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether He is a sojourner or a native of the land.
- 20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread. You shall eat nothing leavened; in all Your dwelling places You shall eat unleavened bread.'
- 21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover. Then Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them, 'Go and select lambs for yourselves according to your clans, and kill the Passover lamb.
- 22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. Take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. None of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning.
- 23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you. For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians, and when He sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to enter Your houses to strike You.
- 24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever. You shall observe this rite as a statute for You and for Your sons forever.
- 25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service. when You come to the land that the LORD will give You, as He has promised, You shall keep this service.

- 26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service? when Your children say to You, What do You mean by this service?
- 27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped. you shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, for He passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians but spared our houses.' And the people bowed their heads and worshipped.
- 28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they. Then the children of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.
- 29 And it came to pass, that at midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle. At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of the livestock.
- 30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where someone was not dead.
- 31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. Then He summoned Moses and Aaron by night and said, 'Up, go out from among my people, both You and the children of Israel. Go, serve the LORD, as You have said.
- 32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. Take Your flocks and Your herds, as You have said, and be gone, and bless me also!"

- 33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men. The Egyptians were urgent with the people to send them out of the land in haste, for they said, 'We shall all be dead.'
- 34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. So the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading bowls being bound up in their cloaks on their shoulders.
- 35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: The children of Israel had also done as Moses told them, for they had asked the Egyptians for silver and gold jewelry and for clothing.
- 36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And they spoiled the Egyptians. the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.
- 37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children. the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children.
- 38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle. A mixed crowd also went up with them, and very much livestock, both flocks and herds.
- 39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual. they baked unleavened cakes of the dough that they had brought out of Egypt, for it was not leavened, because they were thrust out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.
- 40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years. The time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was 430 years.

- 41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. At the end of 430 years, on that very day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.
- 42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations. It was a night of watching by the LORD, to bring them out of the land of Egypt; so this same night is a night of watching kept to the LORD by all the children of Israel throughout their generations.
- 43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof: the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 'This is the statute of the Passover: no foreigner shall eat of it,
- 44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof. but every slave that is bought for money may eat of it after You have circumcised Him.
- 45 A foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof. No foreigner or hired servant may eat of it.
- 46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof. It shall be eaten in one house; You shall not take any of the flesh outside the house, and You shall not break any of its bones.
- 47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.
- 48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof. If a stranger shall stay with You and would keep the Passover to the LORD, let all His males be circumcised. Then He may come near and keep it; He shall be as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

Chapter 13

The LORD commanded that all firstborn be consecrated to him and that Israel keep the feast of unleavened bread as a memorial of the Exodus, teaching it to their children as a sign on their hand and frontlets between their eyes. God did not lead them by the shorter way through the Philistines' land lest the people turn back at the sight of war, but led them through the wilderness toward the Red sea. The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud and by night in a pillar of fire.

■ NAME NOTE Abib (AY-bib) — "Green ears (of grain)" The first month of the Hebrew sacred calendar, roughly March-April. Later called Nisan. The month of the Exodus.

- 4 This day came ye out in the month Abib. Today, in the month of Abib, You are going out.
- 5 And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month. when the LORD brings You into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which He swore to Your fathers to give You, a land flowing with milk and honey, You shall keep this service in this month.
- 6 Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. Seven days You shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a feast to the LORD.
- 7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters. Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen with You, and no leaven shall be seen with You in all Your territory.
- 8 And thou shalt shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. You shall tell Your son on that day, It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.
- 9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt. it shall be to You as a sign on Your hand and as a memorial between Your eyes, that the law of the LORD may be in Your mouth. For with a strong hand the LORD has brought You out of Egypt.
- 10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year. You shall therefore keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year.
- 11 And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, When the LORD brings You into the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to You and Your fathers, and shall give it to You,

- 12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's. you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn of Your animals that are males shall be the LORD's.
- 13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem. Every firstborn of a donkey You shall redeem with a lamb, or if You will not redeem it You shall break its neck. Every firstborn of man among Your sons You shall redeem.
- 14 And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage: when in time to come Your son asks You, What does this mean? you shall say to Him, By a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.
- 15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem. For when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man and the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all the males that first open the womb. But all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.
- 16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt. It shall be as a mark on Your hand and as frontlets between Your eyes, for by a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.'
- 17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt: When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near. For God said, 'Lest the people change their minds when they see war and return to Egypt.'

But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.
- But God led the people around by the way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up out of the land of Egypt equipped for battle.
- 19

And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.
- Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the children of Israel solemnly swear, saying, 'God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones with you from here.'

- 20

And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.
- they moved on from Succoth and encamped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness.
- 21

And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:
- the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, that they might travel by day and by night.
- 22

He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.
- The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night did not depart from before the people.

Chapter 14

God hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he pursued Israel with his chariots to the shore of the Red sea; the people cried out in fear, but Moses said the LORD would fight for them. The LORD told Moses to stretch out his staff, and a strong east wind divided the sea all night so that Israel walked through on dry ground with walls of water on each side. When the Egyptians pursued, the LORD threw their army into confusion, and the waters returned and drowned Pharaoh's entire host; Israel saw the great work and feared the LORD and believed him and his servant Moses.

- 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Then the LORD said to Moses, saying,

And they did so. When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the mind of Pharaoh and his servants was changed toward the people. They said, 'What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?' So he made ready his chariot and took his army with him, took 600 chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them. |

- 8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand. the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt. He pursued the children of Israel while the children of Israel were going out defiantly.
- 9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baalzephon. The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and his horsemen and his army, and overtook them encamped at the sea, by Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.
- 10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD. When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and the Egyptians were marching after them. They feared greatly. And the children of Israel cried out to the LORD.
- 11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? They said to Moses, 'Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us in bringing us out of Egypt?
- 12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. Is not this what we said to you in Egypt, Leave us alone that we may serve the Egyptians? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.'
- 13 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever. Moses said to the people, 'Fear not, stand firm, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will work for You today. For the Egyptians whom You see today, You shall never see again.

| 14 The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace. 15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward: 16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. 17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. 18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen. 19 And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them: 20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night. | The LORD will fight for You, and You have only to be silent.' The LORD said to Moses, 'Why do you cry to me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward. Lift up Your staff, and stretch out Your hand over the sea and divide it, that the children of Israel may go through the sea on dry ground. I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they shall go in after them. I will get glory over Pharaoh and all his host, his chariots and his horsemen. the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten glory over Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.' Then the angel of God Who was going before the host of Israel moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them, coming between the host of Egypt and the host of Israel. And there was the cloud and the darkness. And it lit up the night without one coming near the other all night. |

- 21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided.
- 22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, the waters being a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.
- 23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. The Egyptians pursued and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots and his horsemen.
- 24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, in the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and of cloud looked down on the Egyptian forces and threw the Egyptian forces into a panic,
- 25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians. clogging their chariot wheels so that they drove heavily. And the Egyptians said, 'Let us flee from before Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians.'
- 26 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.'
- 27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal course when the morning appeared. And as the Egyptians fled into it, the LORD threw the Egyptians into the midst of the sea.

Moses and the children of Israel sang a song of triumph celebrating the LORD's victory at the Red sea, praising him as a warrior who cast Pharaoh's chariots and army into the deep. Miriam led the women in singing and dancing with tambourines. The people then traveled three days into the wilderness of Shur without water; at Marah the water was bitter, but the LORD showed Moses a tree that made it sweet, and at Elim they found twelve wells and seventy palm trees.

Chapter 16

The whole congregation murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness of Sin, wishing they had died in Egypt where they had bread to eat. The LORD sent quail in the evening and manna from heaven each morning — a small, round, white substance tasting like wafers with honey — commanding them to gather a daily portion but double on the sixth day, for the seventh day was a Sabbath rest. Some disobeyed and it bred worms; others went out on the Sabbath and found nothing; Israel ate manna for forty years until they reached Canaan.

■ NAME NOTE Sin (SIN) — "Clay, mire" Wilderness region between Elim and Sinai. Unrelated to the English word for moral transgression — this is the Hebrew place-name. Where manna first fell. Sinai (SY-nye) — "Thorny, or "of Sin (the moon god)" — disputed" The sacred mountain where Moses received the Law. Also called Horeb. Site of the burning bush, the Ten Commandments, and the tabernacle instructions.

- 5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily. On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.'
- 6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt: So Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, 'At evening You shall know that it was the LORD Who brought You out of the land of Egypt,
- 7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us? in the morning You shall see the glory of the LORD, because He has heard Your grumbling against the LORD. For what are we, that You grumble against us?'
- 8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD. Moses said, 'When the LORD gives You in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to the full, because the LORD has heard Your grumbling that You grumble against Him — what are we? Your grumbling is not against us but against the LORD.'
- 9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings. Then Moses said to Aaron, 'Say to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your grumbling.'
- 10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. as soon as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.
- 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD said to Moses,

- 12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God. 'I have heard the grumbling of the children of Israel. Say to them, At twilight You shall eat meat, and in the morning You shall be filled with bread. Then You shall know that I am the LORD Your God.'
- 13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host. In the evening quail came up and covered the camp, and in the morning dew lay around the camp.
- 14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground. when the dew had gone up, there was on the face of the wilderness a fine, flake-like thing, fine as frost on the ground.
- 15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat. When the children of Israel saw it, they said to one another, 'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the LORD has given You to eat.'
- 16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents. This is what the LORD has commanded: Gather of it, each one of you, as much as he can eat. You shall each take an omer, according to the number of the persons that each of You has in his tent.'
- 17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less. the children of Israel did so. They gathered, some more, some less.
- 18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating. But when they measured it with an omer, whoever gathered much had nothing left over, and whoever gathered little had no lack. Each gathered as much as He could eat.

- 19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning. Moses said to them, 'Let no one leave any of it till the morning.'
- 20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them. But they did not listen to Moses. Some left part of it till the morning. It bred worms and stank. And Moses was angry with them.
- 21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted. Morning by morning they gathered it, each as much as he could eat; but when the sun grew hot, it melted.
- 22 And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers each. And when all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,
- 23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. he said to them, 'This is what the LORD has commanded: Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD; bake what You will bake and boil what You will boil. All that is left over lay aside to be kept till the morning.'
- 24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein. So they laid it aside till the morning, as Moses commanded them. It did not stink, and there were no worms in it.
- 25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field. Moses said, 'Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today You will not find it in the field.'
- 26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none. Six days You shall gather it, but on the seventh day, which is a Sabbath, there will be none.'

Chapter 17

At Rephidim the people quarreled with Moses because there was no water; the LORD told Moses to strike the rock at Horeb with his staff, and water came out. Amalek then attacked Israel, and Joshua led the fight while Moses held up the staff of God on the hilltop — when his hands grew weary, Aaron and Hur held them up until sunset, and Israel prevailed. The LORD declared that he would have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

■ NAME NOTE Rephidim (REF-ih-dim) — "Resting places" Israel's camp near Sinai where Moses struck the rock for water, and where Israel fought its first battle against Amalek.

|--|---|
| 1 And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. | All the congregation of the children of Israel moved on from the wilderness of Sin by stages, according to the commandment of the LORD, and camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. |
|--|---|

- 2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD? Therefore the people quarreled with Moses and said, 'Give us water to drink.' And Moses said to them, 'Why do you quarrel with me? Why do You tempt the LORD?'
- 3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? But the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?'
- 4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me. So Moses cried to the LORD, 'What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.'
- 5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go. the LORD said to Moses, 'Pass on before the people, taking with you some of the elders of Israel, and take in your hand the staff with which You struck the Nile, and go.'
- 6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people will drink.' And Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.

■ NAME NOTE Massah (MAS-uh) — "Testing, trial" Name given to the place where Israel tested the LORD, demanding water. Later referenced in Psalm 95 as a warning. Meribah (MER-ih-bah) — "Quarreling, strife" Paired name with Massah for the same event. Israel quarreled with Moses, and Moses quarreled with them for testing God.

- 7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not? he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD by saying, 'Is the LORD among us or not?'
- 8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim. Then Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim.

■ NAME NOTE Joshua (JOSH-oo-uh) — "The LORD is salvation" Son of Nun from the tribe of Ephraim. Moses's assistant and military commander. Leads Israel's first battle here against Amalek. Later succeeds Moses and leads Israel into the Promised Land. The Hebrew form of the name is Yeshua — the same name as Jesus.

- 9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand. So Moses said to Joshua, 'Choose for us men, and go out and fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.'

- 10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. So Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought with Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
- 11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed.
- 12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. But Moses' hands grew weary, so they took a stone and put it under him. He sat on it, while Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side. So his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

| 13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. | Joshua overwhelmed Amalek and his people with the sword. |
| 14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. | Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Write this as a memorial in a book and recite it in the ears of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.' |

■ NAME NOTE Jehovahnissi (jeh-HO-vah-NIS-sigh) — "The LORD is my banner" Name Moses gave to the altar after defeating Amalek. Declared war between the LORD and Amalek from generation to generation.

Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought Zipporah and Moses' two sons to him in the wilderness, rejoiced at all the LORD had done for Israel, and offered sacrifices to God. Seeing Moses judge the people alone from morning to evening, Jethro counseled him to appoint able men as rulers of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens to handle lesser matters. Moses listened to Jethro's advice and set up the system of delegated judges.

| 2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, | Now Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her home, |

- 3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land: along with her two sons. The name of the one was Gershom (for he said, 'I have been a sojourner in a foreign land'),

■ NAME NOTE Eliezer (el-ih-EE-zer) — "God is help" Moses's second son by Zipporah. Named for God's deliverance from Pharaoh's sword. (A different Eliezer was Abraham's steward in Genesis 15.)

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 4 And the name of the other was Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh: the name of the other, Eliezer (for he said, 'The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh').
- 5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God: Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness where he was encamped at the mountain of God.
- 6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her. he sent word to Moses, 'I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her.'
- 7 And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent. Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him. And they asked each other of their welfare and went into the tent.
- 8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardship that had come upon them in the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

- 9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. Jethro rejoiced for all the good that the LORD had done to Israel, in that He had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians.
- 10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. Jethro said, 'Blessed be the LORD, Who has delivered You out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh and has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.
- 11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them. Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because in this affair they dealt arrogantly with the people.'
- 12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God. Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.
- 13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening. The next day Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from morning till evening.
- 14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even? When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, 'What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, while all the people stand around you from morning till evening?'
- 15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God: Moses said to his father-in-law, 'Because the people come to me to inquire of God;
- 16 When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws. when they have a dispute, they come to me and I decide between one person and another. I make them know the statutes of God and His laws.'

- 17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good. Moses' father-in-law said to him, 'What you are doing is not good.
- 18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone. You and the people with you will certainly wear yourselves out, for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it alone.
- 19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God: Now obey my voice; I will give you advice. God be with you! You shall represent the people before God and bring their cases to God,
- 20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do. you shall warn them about the statutes and the laws, and make them know the way in which they must walk and what they must do.
- 21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens: Moreover, look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, men of truth, who hate dishonest gain, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.
- 22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee. let them judge the people at all times. Every great matter they shall bring to you, but any small matter they shall decide themselves. So it will be easier for you. They will bear the burden with you.
- 23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace. If you do this, God so commanding you, then you will be able to endure. All this people also will go to their place in peace.'

24	So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.	So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said.
25	And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.	Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens.
26	And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.	they judged the people at all times. Any hard case they brought to Moses, but any small matter they decided themselves.
27	And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.	Then Moses let his father-in-law depart. He went away to his own country.

Chapter 19

Israel camped before Mount Sinai, and the LORD told Moses that if the people obeyed his voice and kept his covenant they would be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. The people consecrated themselves for three days, washing their clothes and setting bounds around the mountain. On the third day the LORD descended on Sinai in fire with thunder, lightning, a thick cloud, and the sound of a trumpet so loud that the people trembled.

1	In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.	On the third new moon after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.
2	For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.	They set out from Rephidim and came into the wilderness of Sinai. They encamped in the wilderness. There Israel encamped before the mountain,

- 3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel; while Moses went up to God. The LORD called to Him out of the mountain, saying, 'Thus You shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:
- 4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself. You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore You on eagles' wings and brought You to myself.
- 5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: Now therefore, if You will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, You shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine;
- 6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel. you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words that You shall speak to the children of Israel.'
- 7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. So Moses came and called the elders of the people and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded Him.
- 8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD. All the people answered together and said, 'All that the LORD has spoken we will do.' And Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.
- 9 *And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. - 12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death: you shall set limits for the people all around, saying, Take care not to go up into the mountain or touch the edge of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall be put to death.
- 13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount. No hand shall touch Him, but He shall be stoned or shot; whether beast or man, He shall not live. When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain.'
- 14 And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated the people. They washed their garments.
- 15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives. he said to the people, 'Be ready for the third day; do not go near a woman.'
- 16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. On the morning of the third day there were thunders and lightnings and a thick cloud on the mountain and a very loud trumpet blast, so that all the people in the camp trembled.

- 17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount. Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God. They took their stand at the foot of the mountain.
- 18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly. Now Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke because the LORD had descended on it in fire. The smoke of it went up like the smoke of a kiln, and the whole mountain trembled greatly.
- 19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice. as the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke. God answered Him in thunder.
- 20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up. The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.
- 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. the LORD said to Moses, 'Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to the LORD to look and many of them perish.
- 22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them. Also let the priests who come near to the LORD consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break out against them.'
- 23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it. Moses said to the LORD, 'The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for you yourself warned us, saying, Set limits around the mountain and consecrate it.'

Chapter 20

God spoke the Ten Commandments from Mount Sinai: no other gods, no graven images, do not take the LORD's name in vain, keep the Sabbath, honor father and mother, do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not covet. The people stood far off, trembling at the thunder and fire, and begged Moses to speak to them instead of God. The LORD gave instructions for building altars of earth or uncut stone, forbidding steps that would expose nakedness.

Chapter 21

The LORD gave laws governing Hebrew servants — including their release in the seventh year and the rights of a maidservant — and laws regarding violence: the penalty for murder, striking or cursing a parent, and kidnapping was death. The principle of "eye for eye, tooth for tooth" governed bodily injuries, and laws addressed injuries caused by an ox that gored a person to death.

- 13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee. But if He did not lie in wait, but God let Him fall into His hand, then I will appoint for You a place to which He may flee.
- 14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die. But if a man willfully attacks another to kill him by cunning, You shall take Him from my altar, that He may die.
- 15 And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death. Whoever strikes his father or his mother shall be put to death.
- 16 And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death. Whoever steals a man and sells him, and anyone found in possession of him, shall be put to death.
- 17 And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death. Whoever curses his father or his mother shall be put to death.
- 18 And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed: When men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist and the man does not die but takes to his bed,
- 19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed. then if the man rises again and walks outdoors with his staff, he who struck him shall be clear; only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall have him thoroughly healed.
- 20 And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished. When a man strikes his slave, male or female, with a rod and the slave dies under his hand, he shall be avenged.
- 21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money. But if the slave survives a day or two, he is not to be avenged, for the slave is his money.

- 22 If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. When men strive together and hit a pregnant woman, so that her children come out, but there is no harm, the one who hit her shall surely be fined, as the woman's husband shall impose on him. He shall pay as the judges determine.
- 23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, But if there is harm, then you shall pay life for life,
- 24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,
- 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
- 26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake. When a man strikes the eye of his slave, male or female, and destroys it, he shall let the slave go free because of his eye.
- 27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake. If he knocks out the tooth of his slave, male or female, he shall let the slave go free because of his tooth.
- 28 If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit. When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox shall not be liable.
- 29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death. But if the ox has been accustomed to gore in the past, and its owner has been warned but has not kept it in, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death.

Laws governing theft, property damage, and restitution are given, including penalties for stealing livestock, damage by fire, and breach of trust over goods left in safekeeping. Laws regarding sexual sin, sorcery, idolatry, and the treatment of strangers, widows, and orphans are established. Commands are given against lending at interest to the poor, against reviling God or rulers, and requiring firstfruits and firstborn to be given to the LORD.

| 1 | If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. | If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it or sells it, He shall repay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. |
| 2 | If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him. | If a thief is found breaking in and is struck so that He dies, there shall be no bloodguilt for Him, |
| 3 | If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. | but if the sun has risen on Him, there shall be bloodguilt for Him. He shall surely pay. If He has nothing, then He shall be sold for His theft. |
| 4 | If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double. | If the stolen beast is found alive in His possession, whether it is an ox or a donkey or a sheep, He shall pay double. |
| 5 | If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution. | If a man causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over, or lets His beast loose and it feeds in another man's field, He shall make restitution from the best in His own field and in His own vineyard. |
| 6 | If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution. | If fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or the field is consumed, He who started the fire shall make full restitution. |
| 7 | If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double. | If a man gives to his neighbor money or goods to keep safe, and it is stolen from the man's house, then, if the thief is found, he shall pay double. |

- 8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods. If the thief is not found, the owner of the house shall come near to the judges to determine whether he has put his hand to his neighbor's property.
- 9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour. For every breach of trust, whether it is for an ox, for a donkey, for a sheep, for a cloak, or for any kind of lost thing, of which one says, This is it, the case of both parties shall come before the judges. The one whom the judges condemn shall pay double to his neighbor.
- 10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it: If a man gives to his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any beast to keep safe, and it dies or is injured or is driven away, without anyone seeing it,
- 11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good. an oath by the LORD shall be between them both to see whether or not He has put His hand to His neighbor's property. The owner shall accept the oath. He shall not make restitution.
- 12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof. But if it is stolen from Him, He shall make restitution to its owner.
- 13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn. If it is torn by beasts, let Him bring it as evidence. He shall not make restitution for what has been torn.
- 14 And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good. If a man borrows anything of his neighbor, and it is injured or dies, the owner not being with it, He shall make full restitution.

Chapter 23

Laws of justice are given: do not follow a crowd to do evil, do not show partiality to the poor in court, return your enemy's stray animal, and let the land rest every seventh year. The three annual feasts are commanded — Unleavened Bread, Harvest, and Ingathering — and the people are forbidden to boil a kid in its mother's milk. The LORD promised to send an angel before them to drive out the Canaanites, warning Israel not to worship their gods or make covenants with them.

| 1 Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness. | You shall not spread a false report. You shall not join hands with a wicked man to be a malicious witness. |

- 2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment: You shall not fall in with the many to do evil, nor shall You bear witness in a lawsuit, siding with the many, so as to pervert justice,
- 3 Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause. nor shall You be partial to a poor man in His lawsuit.
- 4 If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again. If You meet Your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, You shall bring it back to Him.
- 5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him. If You see the donkey of one who hates You lying down under its burden, You shall refrain from leaving Him with it; You shall rescue it with Him.
- 6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause. You shall not pervert the justice due to Your poor in His lawsuit.
- 7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked. Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and righteous, for I will not acquit the wicked.
- 8 And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous. you shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.
- 9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt. You shall not oppress a sojourner. You know the heart of a sojourner, for you were sojourners in the land of Egypt.
- 10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof: For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield,
- 11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard. but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat. What they leave the beasts of the field may eat. You shall do likewise with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard.

- 12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your servant woman, and the sojourner, may be refreshed.
- 13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth. Pay attention to all that I have said to you, and make no mention of the names of other gods, nor let it be heard on your lips.
- 14 Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year. Three times in the year you shall keep a feast to me.
- 15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:) You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. None shall appear before me empty-handed.
- 16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. You shall keep the Feast of Harvest, of the firstfruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall keep the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.
- 17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord GOD. Three times in the year shall all Your males appear before the Lord GOD.
- 18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning. You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with anything leavened, or let the fat of my feast remain until the morning.

- 19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk. The best of the firstfruits of Your ground You shall bring into the house of the LORD Your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.
- 20 Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared. I send an angel before You to guard You on the way and to bring You to the place that I have prepared.
- 21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. Pay careful attention to Him and obey His voice; do not rebel against Him, for He will not pardon Your transgression, for my name is in Him.
- 22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries. But if You carefully obey His voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to Your enemies and an adversary to Your adversaries.
- 23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off. When my angel goes before You and brings You to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, and I will cut them off,
- 24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. you shall not bow down to their gods nor serve them, nor do as they do, but You shall utterly overthrow them and break their pillars in pieces.
- 25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee. You shall serve the LORD Your God. He will bless Your bread and Your water. I will take sickness away from among You.
- 26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil. None shall miscarry or be barren in Your land; I will fulfill the number of Your days.

Chapter 24

Moses read the book of the covenant to the people and they answered "All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient"; he sprinkled blood on them to ratify the covenant. Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy elders went up and saw the God of Israel with a pavement of sapphire under his feet, and they ate and drank. The LORD called Moses up into the mountain, where he stayed forty days and forty nights to receive the tables of stone.

- 10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness. they saw the God of Israel. There was under His feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness.
- 11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink. he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the children of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.
- 12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them. The LORD said to Moses, 'Come up to me on the mountain and wait there, that I may give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.'
- 13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God. So Moses rose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.
- 14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them. he said to the elders, 'Wait here for us until we return to you. And Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever has a dispute, let him go to them.'
- 15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount. Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

Chapter 25

The LORD commanded Israel to bring a freewill offering of gold, silver, bronze, fine fabrics, skins, wood, oil, spices, and precious stones to build a sanctuary that he might dwell among them. Detailed instructions are given for the ark of the covenant — overlaid with gold, with a mercy seat and two cherubim — the table of showbread, and the seven-branched golden lampstand, all to be made according to the pattern shown on the mountain.

- 25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about. you shall make a rim around it a handbreadth wide, and a molding of gold around the rim.
- 26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof. you shall make for it four rings of gold, and fasten the rings to the four corners at its four legs.
- 27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table. Close to the frame the rings shall lie, as holders for the poles to carry the table.
- 28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them. You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be carried with these.
- 29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them. you shall make its plates and dishes for incense, and its flagons and bowls with which to pour drink offerings; You shall make them of pure gold.
- 30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me alway. you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me regularly.

- 31 And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same. You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand shall be made of hammered work: its base, its stem, its cups, its calyces, and its flowers shall be of one piece with it.
- 32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side: there shall be six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;
- 33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick. three cups made like almond blossoms, each with calyx and flower, on one branch, and three cups made like almond blossoms, each with calyx and flower, on the other branch — so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.
- 34 And in the candlesticks shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers. on the lampstand itself there shall be four cups made like almond blossoms, with their calyces and flowers,
- 35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick. a calyx of one piece with it under each pair of the six branches going out from the lampstand.
- 36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold. Their calyces and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it a single piece of hammered work of pure gold.
- 37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it. You shall make seven lamps for it. And the lamps shall be set up so as to give light on the space in front of it.

38	And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.	Its tongs and their trays shall be of pure gold.
39	Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.	It shall be made, with all these utensils, out of a talent of pure gold.
40	And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.	see that You make them after the pattern for them, which is being shown You on the mountain.'

Chapter 26

Instructions are given for the tabernacle's curtains: ten inner curtains of fine linen with blue, purple, and scarlet, joined by loops and clasps, and eleven curtains of goat hair for the tent covering above. The framework of the tabernacle is described — boards of acacia wood overlaid with gold set in silver sockets — along with the veil of blue, purple, and scarlet separating the holy place from the most holy place.

1	Moreover thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.	'Moreover, you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet yarns; you shall make them with cherubim skillfully worked into them.
2	The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.	The length of each curtain shall be 28 cubits, and the breadth of each curtain 4 cubits; all the curtains shall be the same size.
3	The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.	Five curtains shall be coupled to one another, and the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another.

- 4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second. you shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set. Likewise you shall make them on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set.
- 5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another. Fifty loops you shall make on the one curtain, and fifty loops you shall make on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.
- 6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle. you shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to the other with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be a single whole.
- 7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make. You shall also make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; eleven curtains shall you make.
- 8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure. The length of each curtain shall be 30 cubits, and the breadth of each curtain 4 cubits. The eleven curtains shall be the same size.
- 9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle. You shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and the sixth curtain you shall double over at the front of the tent.
- 10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second. You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set.

- 11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. you shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together that it may be a single whole.
- 12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle. the part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.
- 13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it. the extra that remains in the length of the curtains, the cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and that side, to cover it.
- 14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins. you shall make for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and a covering of goatskins on top.
- 15 And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up. You shall make upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.
- 16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board. Ten cubits shall be the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each frame.
- 17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle. There shall be two tenons in each frame, for fitting together. So shall you do for all the frames of the tabernacle.
- 18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward. You shall make the frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side;

- 19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons. forty bases of silver you shall make under the twenty frames, two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under the next frame for its two tenons;
- 20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards: for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty frames,
- 21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. their forty bases of silver, two bases under one frame, and two bases under the next frame.
- 22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards. for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six frames.
- 23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. you shall make two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear;
- 24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners. they shall be separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring. Thus shall it be with both of them; they shall form the two corners.
- 25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. there shall be eight frames, with their bases of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under one frame, and two bases under another frame.
- 26 And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, You shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,
- 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward. five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the side of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

- 28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. The middle bar, halfway up the frames, shall run from end to end.
- 29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold. You shall overlay the frames with gold and shall make their rings of gold for holders for the bars, and you shall overlay the bars with gold.
- 30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount. Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to the plan for it that you were shown on the mountain.
- 31 And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made: you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen. It shall be made with cherubim skillfully worked into it.
- 32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver. you shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, with hooks of gold, on four bases of silver.
- 33 And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy. you shall hang the veil from the clasps, and bring the ark of the testimony in there within the veil. And the veil shall separate for you the Holy Place from the Most Holy.
- 34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place. You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the testimony in the Most Holy Place.
- 35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side. you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand on the south side of the tabernacle opposite the table, and you shall put the table on the north side.

| 7 | It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together. | It shall have two shoulder pieces attached to its two edges, so that it may be joined together. |
| 8 | And the curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. | the skillfully woven band on it shall be made like it and be of one piece with it, of gold, blue and purple and scarlet yarns, and fine twined linen. |
| 9 | And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel: | You shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, |
| 10 | Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth. | six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth. |

- 11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold. As a jeweler engraves signets, so shall you engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel. You shall enclose them in settings of gold filigree.
- 12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a memorial. you shall set the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on His two shoulders for remembrance.
- 13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold; You shall make settings of gold filigree,
- 14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches. two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords. You shall attach the corded chains to the settings.
- 15 And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it. You shall make a breastpiece of judgment, in skilled work. In the style of the ephod You shall make it — of gold, blue and purple and scarlet yarns, and fine twined linen shall You make it.
- 16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof. It shall be square and doubled, a span its length and a span its breadth.
- 17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row. You shall set in it four rows of stones. A row of sardius, topaz, and carbuncle shall be the first row;
- 18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;

- 19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst. the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
- 20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings. the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold filigree.
- 21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes. There shall be twelve stones with their names according to the names of the sons of Israel. They shall be like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.
- 22 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold. You shall make for the breastpiece twisted chains like cords, of pure gold.
- 23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. you shall make for the breastpiece two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece.
- 24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate. you shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece.
- 25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it. The two ends of the two cords You shall attach to the two settings of filigree, and so attach it in front to the shoulder pieces of the ephod.
- 26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward. You shall make two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.

- 27

And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.
- you shall make two rings of gold, and attach them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, at its seam above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.
- 28

And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.
- they shall bind the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, so that it may lie on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, so that the breastpiece shall not come loose from the ephod.
- 29

And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.
- So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment on His heart, when He goes into the Holy Place, to bring them to regular remembrance before the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE Urim (YOOR-im) — "Lights" Sacred objects kept in the high priest's breastpiece. Used by Aaron to seek guidance from God on judicial and national decisions. Always paired with Thummim. Thummim (THUM-im) — "Perfections, completeness" The other of the two sacred objects in the high priest's breastpiece. Exact nature debated — likely stones for yes/no divine consultation.

And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.
- in the breastpiece of judgment You shall put the Urim and the Thummim. They shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD. Thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on His heart before the LORD regularly.
- 31

And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.
- You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

- 32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent. It shall have an opening for the head in the middle of it, with a woven binding around the opening, like the opening in a garment, so that it may not tear.
- 33 And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about: On its hem You shall make pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet yarns, around its hem, with bells of gold between them,
- 34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about. a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, around the hem of the robe.
- 35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not. it shall be on Aaron when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when He goes into the Holy Place before the LORD, and when He comes out, so that He does not die.
- 36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. You shall make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet, Holy to the LORD.
- 37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be. you shall fasten it on the turban by a cord of blue. It shall be on the front of the turban.
- 38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD. It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear any guilt from the holy things that the children of Israel consecrate as their holy gifts. It shall regularly be on His forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

The consecration ceremony for Aaron and his sons is described: they are to be washed, clothed in the priestly garments, and anointed; a bull is offered as a sin offering and two rams as a burnt offering and ordination offering over seven days. The LORD commands a continual burnt offering of two lambs daily, one in the morning and one at evening, at the door of the tent of meeting. God promises to sanctify the tabernacle and dwell among the children of Israel and be their God.

| 1 | And this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish, | 'Now this is what You shall do to them to consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests. Take one bull of the herd and two rams without blemish, |
| 2 | And unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them. | unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers smeared with oil. You shall make them of fine wheat flour. |
| 3 | And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams. | You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, and bring the bull and the two rams. |
| 4 | And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water. | You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. |
| 5 | And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod: | Then you shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastpiece, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod. |
| 6 | And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre. | you shall set the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban. |
| 7 | Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him. | You shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him. |
| 8 | And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them. | Then you shall bring his sons and put coats on them, |

- 9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons. you shall gird Aaron and his sons with sashes and bind caps on them. And the priesthood shall be theirs by a statute forever. Thus you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.
- 10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock. Then you shall bring the bull before the tent of meeting. Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.
- 11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Then You shall kill the bull before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting,
- 12 And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. shall take part of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with Your finger, and the rest of the blood You shall pour out at the base of the altar.
- 13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the long lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.
- 14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering. But the flesh of the bull and its skin and its dung You shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.
- 15 Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. Then you shall take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,
- 16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar. you shall slaughter the ram and shall take its blood and throw it against the sides of the altar.

- 17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head. Then you shall cut the ram into pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its pieces and its head,
- 18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD. It is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 19 And thou shalt take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. You shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,
- 20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. you shall kill the ram and take part of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron and on the tips of the right ears of his sons, and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toes of their right feet, and throw the rest of the blood against the sides of the altar.
- 21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Then you shall take part of the blood that is on the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and his sons' garments with him. He and his garments shall be holy, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.
- 22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration: You shall also take the fat from the ram and the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails, and the long lobe of the liver and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

- 23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD: one loaf of bread and one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD.
- 24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. You shall put all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.
- 25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Then You shall take them from their hands and burn them on the altar on top of the burnt offering, as a sweet savour before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part. You shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD. It shall be Your portion.
- 27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: you shall consecrate the breast of the wave offering that is waved and the thigh of the priests' portion that is contributed from the ram of ordination, from what was Aaron's and his sons'.
- 28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD. It shall be for Aaron and his sons as a perpetual due from the children of Israel, for it is a contribution. It shall be a contribution from the children of Israel from their peace offerings, their contribution to the LORD.
- 29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them. The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him; they shall be anointed in them and ordained in them.

- 30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place. The son who succeeds him as priest, who comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the Holy Place, shall wear them seven days.
- 31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place. You shall take the ram of ordination and boil its flesh in a holy place.
- 32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket in the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy. They shall eat those things with which atonement was made at their ordination and consecration, but an outsider shall not eat of them, because they are holy.
- 34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy. if any of the flesh for the ordination, or of the bread, remain until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy.
- 35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them. Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. Through seven days shall you ordain them,
- 36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it. every day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement. Also you shall purify the altar, when you make atonement for it, and shall anoint it to consecrate it.

- 37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy. Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and consecrate it, and the altar shall be most holy. Whatever touches the altar shall become holy.
- 38 Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day continually. Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old day by day regularly.
- 39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even: One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight.
- 40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering. with the first lamb a tenth measure of fine flour mingled with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering.
- 41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. The other lamb You shall offer at twilight, and shall offer with it a grain offering and its drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee. It shall be a regular burnt offering throughout Your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with You, to speak to You there.
- 43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory. There I will meet with the children of Israel. It shall be sanctified by my glory.
- 44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office. I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar. Aaron also and his sons I will consecrate to serve me as priests.

Chapter 30

Instructions are given for the golden altar of incense, placed before the veil, where Aaron burns fragrant incense each morning and evening. The LORD commands a half-shekel atonement tax from every man numbered in the census, and describes the bronze basin for washing, the holy anointing oil of myrrh, cinnamon, calamus, cassia, and olive oil, and the sacred incense — all forbidden for common use on pain of being cut off from the people.

- 5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold. You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.
- 6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee. you shall put it in front of the veil that is above the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy seat that is above the testimony, where I will meet with You.
- 7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it. Aaron shall burn fragrant incense on it. Every morning when he dresses the lamps, he shall burn it,
- 8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. when Aaron sets up the lamps at twilight, he shall burn it, a regular incense offering before the LORD throughout Your generations.
- 9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon. You shall not offer unauthorized incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering, and You shall not pour a drink offering on it.
- 10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD. Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once a year. With the blood of the sin offering of atonement He shall make atonement for it once in the year throughout Your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.'
- 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD said to Moses,
- 12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them, when thou numberest them. 'When You take the census of the children of Israel, then each shall give a ransom for His life to the LORD when You number them, that there be no plague among them when You number them.

- 13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. Each one who is numbered in the census shall give this: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as an offering to the LORD.
- 14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD. Everyone who is numbered in the census, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the LORD's offering.
- 15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when You give the LORD's offering to make atonement for Your lives.
- 16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be for a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls. You shall take the atonement money from the children of Israel and shall give it for the service of the tent of meeting, that it may bring the children of Israel to remembrance before the LORD, so as to make atonement for Your lives.'
- 17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD said to Moses,
- 18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein. 'You shall also make a basin of bronze, with its stand of bronze, for washing. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and You shall put water in it,
- 19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat: with which Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet.

- 20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD: When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to burn a offering made by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die.
- 21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations. They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die. It shall be a statute forever to them, even to Him and to His seed throughout their generations.'
- 22 Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD said to Moses,
- 23 Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, 'Take the finest spices: of liquid myrrh 500 shekels, and of sweet-smelling cinnamon half as much, that is, 250, and 250 of aromatic cane,
- 24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin: 500 of cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin of olive oil.
- 25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil. you shall make of these a sacred anointing oil blended as by the perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil.
- 26 And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony, With it You shall anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the testimony,
- 27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,
- 28 And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot. the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils and the basin and its stand.

- 29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy. You shall consecrate them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them will become holy.
- 30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office. You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may serve me as priests.
- 31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations. you shall say to the children of Israel, This shall be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations.
- 32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you. It shall not be poured on the body of an ordinary person, and you shall make no other like it in composition. It is holy. It shall be holy to you.
- 33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people. Whoever compounds any like it or whoever puts any of it on an outsider shall be cut off from his people.'
- 34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight: The LORD said to Moses, "Take sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, sweet spices with pure frankincense (of each shall there be an equal part),
- 35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy: make an incense blended as by the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy.
- 36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy. You shall beat some of it very small, and put part of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting where I shall meet with You. It shall be most holy for You.

And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD.
- the incense that You shall make according to its composition, You shall not make for yourselves. It shall be for You holy to the LORD.
- 38

Whosoever shall make like unto it, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.
- Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from His people.'

Chapter 31

The LORD named Bezaleel of the tribe of Judah and Aholiab of the tribe of Dan as the master craftsmen for building the tabernacle, filling them with the Spirit of God in wisdom, understanding, and skill. The LORD restated the command to keep the Sabbath as a perpetual sign between himself and Israel, declaring that whoever works on it shall be put to death. When he finished speaking with Moses on Sinai, God gave him the two tables of testimony, written with the finger of God.

When Moses delayed on the mountain, the people demanded Aaron make them gods; Aaron collected their gold earrings and fashioned a golden calf, and the people sacrificed to it and rose up to play. The LORD told Moses to go down, and Moses pleaded for the people; descending and seeing the calf and the dancing, he shattered the two tablets in anger. Moses ground the calf to powder, scattered it on the water, and made the people drink it; the sons of Levi killed about three thousand men that day, and the LORD sent a plague upon the people.

| 2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. | So Aaron said to them, 'Take off the rings of gold that are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' |
| 3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. | So all the people took off the rings of gold that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. |
| 4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. | he received the gold from their hand and fashioned it with a graving tool and made a golden calf. And they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' |
| 5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD. | When Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, 'Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD.' |

- 6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. they rose up early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.
- 7 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: the LORD said to Moses, 'Go down, for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.
- 8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. They have turned aside quickly out of the way that I commanded them. They have made for themselves a golden calf and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it and said, These are Your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'
- 9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: the LORD said to Moses, 'I have seen this people. It is a stiff-necked people.
- 10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them, in order that I may make a great nation of You.'
- 11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? But Moses implored the LORD His God and said, 'O LORD, why does Your wrath burn hot against Your people, whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

- 12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. Why should the Egyptians say, With evil intent did He bring them out, to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Your burning anger and relent from this disaster against Your people.
- 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.'
- 14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people. the LORD relented from the disaster that He had spoken of bringing on His people.
- 15 And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand, tablets that were written on both sides; on the front and on the back they were written.
- 16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables. The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.
- 17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, 'There is a noise of war in the camp.'

- 18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear. But he said, 'It is not the sound of shouting for victory, or the sound of the cry of defeat, but the sound of singing that I hear.'
- 19 And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount. as soon as he came near the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger burned hot. He threw the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.
- 20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it. He took the calf that they had made and burned it with fire and ground it to powder and scattered it on the water and made the children of Israel drink it.
- 21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them? Moses said to Aaron, 'What did this people do to you that you have brought such a great sin upon them?'
- 22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief. Aaron said, 'Let not the anger of my lord burn hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil.
- 23 For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. For they said to me, Make us gods who shall go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.
- 24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf. So I said to them, Let any who have gold take it off. So they gave it to me. I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.'
- 25 And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies:) when Moses saw that the people had broken loose (for Aaron had let them break loose, to the derision of their enemies),

- 26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him. then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, 'Who is on the LORD's side? Come to me.' And all the sons of Levi gathered around Him.
- 27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour. he said to them, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Put Your sword on Your side each of You, and go to and fro from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each of You kill His brother and His companion and His neighbor.'
- 28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And that day about three thousand men of the people fell.
- 29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day. Moses said, 'Today you have been ordained for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of his son and of his brother, so that He might bestow a blessing upon You this day.'
- 30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin. The next day Moses said to the people, 'You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for Your sin.'
- 31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. So Moses returned to the LORD and said, 'Alas, this people has sinned a great sin. They have made for themselves gods of gold.'
- 32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. But now, if You will forgive their sin — but if not, please blot me out of Your book that You have written.'

The LORD commanded Israel to depart for the Promised Land but said he would not go up in their midst lest he consume them, for they were a stiff-necked people; the people mourned and stripped off their ornaments. Moses pitched the tent of meeting outside the camp, and the pillar of cloud descended when he entered; the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Moses asked to see God's glory, and the LORD agreed to pass by and proclaim his name, but said no man could see his face and live, placing Moses in the cleft of a rock and covering him with his hand.

- 3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people: lest I consume thee in the way. Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up among You, lest I consume You on the way, for You are a stiff-necked people.'
- 4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments. When the people heard this disastrous word, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.
- 5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee. For the LORD had said to Moses, 'Say to the children of Israel, you are a stiff-necked people; if for a single moment I should go up among You, I would consume You. So now take off Your ornaments, that I may know what to do with You.'
- 6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb. Therefore the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, from Mount Horeb onward.
- 7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp. Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp. He called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.
- 8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle. Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise up, and each would stand at his tent door, and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent.

- 9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses. When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent. The LORD would speak with Moses.
- 10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. when all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise up and worship, each at his tent door.

- 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle. Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. When Moses turned again into the camp, his assistant Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, would not depart from the tent.
- 12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight. Moses said to the LORD, 'See, You say to me, Bring up this people, but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, I know You by name, and You have also found favor in my sight.
- 13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people. Now therefore, if I have found favor in Your sight, please show me now Your ways, that I may know You in order to find favor in Your sight. - 14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest. he said, 'My presence will go with You. I will give You rest.'

- 15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. he said to Him, 'If Your presence will not go with me, do not bring us up from here.
- 16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not in Your going with us, so that we are distinct, I and Your people, from every other people on the face of the earth?'
- 17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name. the LORD said to Moses, 'This very thing that you have spoken I will do, for you have found favor in my sight. I know you by name.'
- 18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. Moses said, 'Please show me your glory.'
- 19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. he said, 'I will make all my goodness pass before You and will proclaim before You my name, The LORD. And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.
- 20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live. But,' he said, 'you cannot see my face, for man shall not see me and live.'
- 21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock: the LORD said, 'there is a place by me where You shall stand on the rock,
- 22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by: while my glory passes by I will put You in a cleft of the rock. I will cover You with my hand until I have passed by.

Chapter 34

The LORD told Moses to cut two new tablets of stone and come up to Sinai alone; the LORD descended in a cloud and proclaimed his name: "The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth." God renewed the covenant, warning against idolatry and intermarriage with the Canaanites, and restating the feasts and the Sabbath. Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights without food or water; when he came down, the skin of his face shone so brightly that the people were afraid to come near him, and he put a veil over his face.

- 5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with Him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.
- 6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, The LORD passed before Him and proclaimed, 'The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and of great mercy and truth,
- 7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children and the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation.'
- 8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth and worshiped.
- 9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O LORD, let my LORD, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for thine inheritance. he said, 'If now I have found favor in your sight, O Lord, please let the Lord go in the midst of us, for it is a stiff-necked people, and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.'
- 10 And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee. he said, 'I am making a covenant. Before all Your people I will do marvels, such as have not been created in all the earth or in any nation. And all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is an awesome thing that I will do with You.

- 27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel. the LORD said to Moses, 'Write these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.'
- 28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. So He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread nor drank water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.
- 29 And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him. When Moses came down from Mount Sinai, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand as he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.
- 30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him. Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, and the skin of his face shone. They were afraid to come near him.
- 31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them. But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them.
- 32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai. Afterward all the children of Israel came near. He commanded them all that the LORD had spoken with Him in Mount Sinai.
- 33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face. when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.

Moses assembled the congregation and restated the command to keep the Sabbath, then called for a freewill offering of materials for the tabernacle — gold, silver, bronze, fabrics, skins, wood, oil, spices, and stones. The people brought willingly, and Moses identified Bezaleel and Aholiab as the craftsmen God had filled with his Spirit to design and build the tabernacle and all its furnishings.

Chapter 36

The craftsmen began building the tabernacle, and the people brought so much material that Moses had to command them to stop giving. The construction of the tabernacle's ten inner curtains of fine linen, the eleven curtains of goat hair, the coverings of ram skins and goatskins, and the boards of acacia wood with their silver sockets is described in detail, matching the pattern God had shown Moses on the mountain.

Likewise he made them on the edge of the outermost curtain of the second set.
- 12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another. He made fifty loops on the one curtain. He made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set. The loops were opposite one another.
- 13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle. he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains one to the other with clasps. So the tabernacle was a single whole.
- 14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. He also made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

- 15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size. The length of each curtain was 30 cubits, and the breadth of each curtain 4 cubits. The eleven curtains were the same size.
- 16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. He coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.
- 17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second. he made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain of the one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the other connecting curtain.
- 18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one. he made fifty clasps of bronze to couple the tent together that it might be a single whole.
- 19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that. he made for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and goatskins.
- 20 And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up. Then he made the upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.
- 21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half. Ten cubits was the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each frame.
- 22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle. Each frame had two tenons for fitting together. He did this for all the frames of the tabernacle.
- 23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward: The frames for the tabernacle he made thus: twenty frames for the south side.

- 24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons. he made forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under one frame for its two tenons, and two bases under the next frame for its two tenons.
- 25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards, For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames
- 26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. their forty bases of silver, two bases under one frame and two bases under the next frame.
- 27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. For the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six frames.
- 28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. He made two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear.
- 29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners. they were separate beneath but joined at the top, at the first ring. He made two of them this way for the two corners.
- 30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets. There were eight frames with their bases of silver: sixteen bases, under every frame two bases.
- 31 And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, He made bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,
- 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward. five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle at the rear westward.
- 33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other. he made the middle bar to run from end to end halfway up the frames.

Bezaleel constructed the ark of the covenant, overlaid it inside and out with pure gold, and made the mercy seat with two golden cherubim with wings spread above it. He also made the table of showbread with its dishes and utensils of pure gold, the seven-branched lampstand of beaten gold, and the altar of incense overlaid with gold, along with the holy anointing oil and the pure incense.

- 8 One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof. one cherub on the one end, and one cherub on the other end. Of one piece with the mercy seat he made the cherubim on its two ends.
- 9 And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy seatward were the faces of the cherubims. The cherubim spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces one to another; toward the mercy seat were the faces of the cherubim.
- 10 And he made the table of shittim wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof: He also made the table of acacia wood. Two cubits was its length, a cubit its breadth, and a cubit and a half its height.

- 11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about. he overlaid it with pure gold and made a molding of gold around it.
- 12 Also he made thereunto a border of an handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about. he made a rim around it a handbreadth wide, and made a molding of gold around the rim.
- 13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof. He cast for it four rings of gold and fastened the rings to the four corners at its four legs.
- 14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to bear the table. Close to the frame were the rings, as holders for the poles to carry the table.
- 15 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table. He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table, and overlaid them with gold.
- 16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold. he made the vessels of pure gold that were to be on the table, its plates and dishes for incense, and its bowls and flagons with which to pour drink offerings.
- 17 And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, were of the same: He also made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work. Its base, its stem, its cups, its calyxes, and its flowers were of one piece with it.
- 18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof: there were six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;

- 19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick. three cups made like almond blossoms, each with calyx and flower, on one branch, and three cups made like almond blossoms, each with calyx and flower, on the other branch — so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.
- 20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers: on the lampstand itself were four cups made like almond blossoms, with their calyxes and flowers,
- 21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. a calyx of one piece with it under each pair of the six branches going out of it.
- 22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold. Their calyxes and their branches were of one piece with it, the whole of it a single piece of hammered work of pure gold.
- 23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold. he made its seven lamps and its tongs and its trays of pure gold.
- 24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof. He made it and all its utensils of a talent of pure gold.
- 25 And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same. He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit, and its breadth was a cubit. It was square, and two cubits was its height. Its horns were of one piece with it.
- 26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about. He overlaid it with pure gold, its top and around its sides and its horns. And he made a molding of gold around it,

The bronze altar of burnt offering and the bronze basin were constructed, and the court of the tabernacle was set up with its pillars, hangings, and gate screen. An accounting of the materials used is given: the gold from the offering totaled twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels, the silver came from the atonement money of 603,550 men at a half-shekel each, and the bronze of the offering was seventy talents and 2,400 shekels.

- 4 And he made for the altar a brasen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it. he made for the altar a grating, a network of bronze, under its ledge, extending halfway down.
- 5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves. He cast four rings on the four corners of the bronze grating as holders for the poles.
- 6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass. He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.
- 7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards. he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar to carry it with them. He made it hollow, with boards.
- 8 And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the lookingglasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. He made the basin of bronze and its stand of bronze, from the mirrors of the ministering women who ministered in the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 9 And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits: he made the court. For the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits;
- 10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. their twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.
- 11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver. for the north side there were hangings a hundred cubits; their twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.
- 12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver. for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their ten pillars. Their ten bases; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

- 13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits. for the front to the east, fifty cubits.
- 14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. The hangings for the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and three bases.
- 15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three. so for the other side; on both sides of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with their three pillars and their three bases.
- 16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen. All the hangings around the court were of fine twined linen.
- 17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver. the bases for the pillars were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. The overlaying of their capitals was also of silver. All the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.
- 18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. the screen for the gate of the court was embroidered with needlework in blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen. It was twenty cubits long and five cubits high in its breadth, corresponding to the hangings of the court.
- 19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters and their fillets of silver. their pillars were four in number. Their four bases were of bronze, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their fillets of silver.
- 20 And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass. all the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court all around were of bronze.

- 21 This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest. These are the records of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, as they were recorded at the commandment of Moses, the responsibility of the Levites under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
- 22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses. Bezaleel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses;
- 23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen. with Him was Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and designer and embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen.
- 24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. All the gold that was used for the work, in all the construction of the sanctuary, the gold from the offering, was twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary.
- 25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: The silver from those of the congregation who were numbered was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, by the shekel of the sanctuary:
- 26 A beka for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men. a beka a head (that is, half a shekel, by the shekel of the sanctuary), for everyone who was numbered in the census, from twenty years old and upward, for 603,550 men.

Chapter 39

The priestly garments were made exactly as the LORD commanded: the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet; the breastplate set with twelve stones; the robe of the ephod with pomegranates and golden bells; the linen coats, the mitre with its golden plate reading "HOLINESS TO THE LORD," and the garments for Aaron's sons. All the work of the tabernacle was completed; the people brought everything to Moses, and he saw that they had done it as the LORD commanded, and Moses blessed them.

- 17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate. they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece.
- 18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it. They attached the two ends of the two cords to the two settings of filigree. Thus they attached it in front to the shoulder pieces of the ephod.
- 19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward. Then they made two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.
- 20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod. they made two rings of gold, and attached them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder pieces of the ephod, at its seam above the skillfully woven band of the ephod.
- 21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses. they bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, so that it should lie on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece should not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 22 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue. He also made the robe of the ephod woven all of blue,
- 23 And there was an hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend. the opening of the robe in it was like the opening in a garment, with a binding around the opening, so that it might not tear.
- 24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. On the hem of the robe they made pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen.

- 25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates; They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates all around the hem of the robe, between the pomegranates —
- 26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses. a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate around the hem of the robe for ministering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 27 And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron, and for his sons, They also made the coats, woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,
- 28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen, the turban of fine linen, and the caps of fine linen, and the linen undergarments of fine twined linen,
- 29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded Moses. the sash of fine twined linen and of blue and purple and scarlet yarns, embroidered with needlework, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 30 And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription, like the engraving of a signet, Holy to the LORD.
- 31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses. they tied to it a cord of blue to fasten it on the turban above, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 32 Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they. Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished, and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses; so they did.

- 33 And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets, Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its hooks, its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;
- 34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the veil of the covering, the covering of tanned rams' skins and goatskins, and the veil of the screen;
- 35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy seat, the ark of the testimony with its poles and the mercy seat;
- 36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread, the table with all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;
- 37 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light, the lampstand of pure gold and its lamps with the lamps set. All its utensils, and the oil for the light;
- 38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door, the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance of the tent;
- 39 The brasen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot, the bronze altar, and its grating of bronze, its poles. All its utensils; the basin and its stand;
- 40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs. All the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;
- 41 The cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. the finely worked garments for ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons for their service as priests.

The LORD commanded Moses to set up the tabernacle on the first day of the first month; Moses erected the structure, placed the ark inside the most holy place, hung the veil, arranged the table, lampstand, and golden altar, and anointed everything with oil. He consecrated Aaron and his sons and set up the court around the tabernacle. When the work was finished, the cloud covered the tent of meeting and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle so that Moses could not enter; the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day and fire by night throughout all Israel's journeys.

- 18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars. Moses erected the tabernacle. He laid its bases, and set up its frames, and put in its bars, and raised up its pillars.
- 19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses. he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 20 And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy seat above upon the ark: He took the testimony and put it into the ark, and put the poles on the ark and set the mercy seat above on the ark.
- 21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses. he brought the ark into the tabernacle and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the testimony, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 22 And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail. He put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the veil,

- 23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses. arranged the bread on it before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 24 And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. He put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle,
- 25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. set up the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the veil: He put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the veil,
- 27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses. burned fragrant incense on it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle. He also set up the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.
- 29 And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses. he set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 30 And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal. He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing,
- 31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat: with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.
- 32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses. When they went into the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus

Date written: c. 1445 BC, while Israel camped at the foot of Sinai.

Setting: Israel has just completed the tabernacle (end of Exodus). The cloud of glory has filled it. Now God speaks from it, laying out exactly how sinful people may approach a holy God.

Where this sits historically: c. 1446–1445 BC at Mount Sinai during Egypt's New Kingdom under the 18th dynasty; Israel encamped at the foot of the mountain for roughly a year.

Contemporaries: Egypt's Thutmose III / Amenhotep II reigns; the Hittite empire ascendant in Anatolia. Exodus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy are written by Moses in this same era.

Big themes:

- Holiness — "Be ye holy; for I am holy" (Lev 11:44) is the book's heartbeat; God's holiness makes ritual purity necessary

- Sacrifice — five types of offering define how sin is covered and fellowship with God is maintained

- Atonement — the Day of Atonement (ch. 16) is the annual reset for the whole nation's sin

- The priesthood — Aaron and his sons are set apart to mediate between God and the people

- Clean and unclean — dietary laws and purity codes mark Israel as distinct from all surrounding nations

How it fits: Leviticus sits at the center of the Pentateuch for a reason — the entire law turns on how to maintain relationship with a holy God. Hebrews 9–10 reads Leviticus as a detailed preview of Christ's once-for-all sacrifice. Without Leviticus, Hebrews is incomprehensible.

Chapter 1

The LORD gives instructions for the burnt offering. An unblemished male from the herd, flock, or a bird is to be killed, its blood thrown against the altar, and the whole animal burned as a sweet savour to the LORD.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 1 And the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, The LORD called Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying,
- 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When any one of You brings an offering to the LORD, You shall bring Your offering of livestock, from the herd or from the flock.
- 3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. If His offering is a burnt offering from the herd, He shall offer a male without blemish. He shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, that He may be accepted before the LORD.
- 4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. He shall lay His hand on the head of the burnt offering. It shall be accepted for Him to make atonement for Him.
- 5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Then He shall kill the bull before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall bring the blood and throw the blood against the sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces. Then He shall flay the burnt offering and cut it into pieces,
- 7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire: the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.
- 8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar: Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, the head, and the fat, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar;

- 9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. but its entrails and its legs He shall wash with water. And the priest shall burn all of it on the altar, as a burnt offering, a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 10 And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish. If His gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, He shall bring a male without blemish,
- 11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar. he shall kill it on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw its blood against the sides of the altar.
- 12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar: he shall cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood that is on the fire on the altar,
- 13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. but the entrails and the legs He shall wash with water. And the priest shall offer all of it and burn it on the altar; it is a burnt offering, a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons. If His offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, then He shall bring His offering of turtledoves or pigeons.
- 15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar: the priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head and burn it on the altar. Its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.

Chapter 3

The LORD gives instructions for the peace offering. The worshipper lays his hand on the animal's head and kills it at the entrance of the tent of meeting; the fat and kidneys are burned on the altar, and Israel is forbidden to eat fat or blood.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 1 And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offer it of the herd; whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. If His offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if He offers an animal from the herd, male or female, He shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.
- 2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and Aaron's sons the priests shall throw the blood against the sides of the altar.
- 3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, from the sacrifice of the peace offering, as a offering made by fire to the LORD, He shall offer the fat covering the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,
- 4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the long lobe of the liver that He shall remove with the kidneys.
- 5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. Then Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering, which is on the wood on the fire; it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering unto the LORD be of the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. If His offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD is an animal from the flock, male or female, He shall offer it without blemish.
- 7 If he offer a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before the LORD. If He offers a lamb for His offering, then He shall offer it before the LORD,

- 8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar. lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it in front of the tent of meeting. Aaron's sons shall throw its blood against the sides of the altar.
- 9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat thereof, and the whole rump, it shall he take off hard by the backbone; and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, Then from the sacrifice of the peace offering He shall offer as a offering made by fire to the LORD its fat; He shall remove the whole fat tail, cut off close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails
- 10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away. the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver that He shall remove with the kidneys.
- 11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD. the priest shall burn it on the altar as a offering made by fire to the LORD.
- 12 And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD. If His offering is a goat, then He shall offer it before the LORD
- 13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about. lay his hand on its head and kill it in front of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall throw its blood against the sides of the altar.
- 14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, Then He shall offer from it, as His offering for a offering made by fire to the LORD, the fat covering the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails

| 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them: 3 If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering. | the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If anyone sins unintentionally in any of the LORD's commandments about things not to be done, and does any one of them, if it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt on the people, then he shall offer for the sin that he has committed a bull from the herd without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering. |

- 4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD. He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD and lay His hand on the head of the bull and kill the bull before the LORD.
- 5 And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation: the anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it into the tent of meeting,
- 6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary. the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle part of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the sanctuary.
- 7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the LORD that is in the tent of meeting. All the rest of the blood of the bull He shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards, all the fat of the bull of the sin offering He shall remove from it, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails
- 9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away, the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver that He shall remove with the kidneys
- 10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. (just as these are taken from the ox of the sacrifice of the peace offerings). The priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.

- 11 And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung, But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung —
- 12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt. all the rest of the bull — he shall carry outside the camp to a clean place, to the ash heap, and shall burn it up on a fire of wood. On the ash heap it shall be burned up.
- 13 And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty; If the whole congregation of Israel sins unintentionally and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, if they do any one of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done, and they realize their guilt,
- 14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. when the sin which they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a bull from the herd for a sin offering and bring it in front of the tent of meeting.
- 15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD. the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be killed before the LORD.
- 16 And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation: Then the anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull into the tent of meeting,
- 17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the veil. the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil.

- 18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is in the tent of meeting before the LORD, and the rest of the blood He shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar. all its fat He shall take from it and burn on the altar.
- 20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. Thus shall he do with the bull. As he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this. And the priest shall make atonement for them. They shall be forgiven.
- 21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation. he shall carry the bull outside the camp and burn it up as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.
- 22 When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty; When a leader sins, doing unintentionally any one of all the things that by the commandments of the LORD His God ought not to be done, and realizes His guilt,
- 23 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish: or the sin which He has committed is made known to Him, He shall bring as His offering a goat, a male without blemish,
- 24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering. shall lay His hand on the head of the goat and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

- 25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.
- 26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him. all its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. So the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin. He shall be forgiven.
- 27 And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and be guilty; If anyone of the common people sins unintentionally in doing any one of the things that by the LORD's commandments ought not to be done, and realizes His guilt,
- 28 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned. or the sin which He has committed is made known to Him, He shall bring for His offering a goat, a female without blemish, for His sin which He has committed.
- 29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. he shall lay His hand on the head of the sin offering and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering.
- 30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar. the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out all the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

- 31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD; and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. all its fat He shall remove, as the fat is removed from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savour unto the LORD. And the priest shall make atonement for him. He shall be forgiven.
- 32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish. If He brings a lamb as His offering for a sin offering, He shall bring a female without blemish
- 33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. lay His hand on the head of the sin offering and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.
- 34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar: Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out all the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.
- 35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him. all its fat He shall remove as the fat of the lamb is removed from the sacrifice of peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it on the altar, on top of the LORD's offerings made by fire. And the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which He has committed. He shall be forgiven.

Chapter 5

The LORD gives laws concerning guilt offerings for specific sins: failing to testify, touching unclean things, and rash oaths. Provision is made for the poor to bring birds or even flour instead of a lamb, and a ram is required for trespasses against the LORD's holy things.

- 1 And if a soul sin, and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall bear his iniquity.*

If anyone sins in that he hears a public adjuration to testify, and though He is a witness, whether He has seen or come to know the matter, yet does not speak, He shall bear His iniquity;
- 2 Or if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and guilty.*

or if anyone touches an unclean thing, whether a carcass of an unclean wild animal or a carcass of unclean livestock or a carcass of unclean swarming things. and if it be hidden from Him, He also shall be unclean and guilty.
- 3 Or if he touch the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.*

or if He touches human uncleanness, of whatever sort the uncleanness may be with which one becomes unclean. It is hidden from Him, when He comes to know it, and realizes His guilt;
- 4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.*

or if anyone utters with his lips a rash oath to do evil or to do good, any sort of rash oath that people swear. It is hidden from Him, when He comes to know it. He realizes His guilt in any of these;
- 5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing:*

when He realizes His guilt in any of these and confesses the sin He has committed,

- 6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin. he shall bring to the LORD as His compensation for the sin that He has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.
- 7 And if he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. But if He cannot afford a lamb, then He shall bring to the LORD as His compensation for the sin that He has committed two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.
- 8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder: He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering. He shall wring its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely,
- 9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering. he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.
- 10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him. Then he shall offer the second for a burnt offering according to the rule. And the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin that he has committed. He shall be forgiven.

- 11 But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering. But if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two pigeons, then he shall bring as his offering for the sin that he has committed a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it and shall put no frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.
- 12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin offering. he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take a handful of it as its memorial portion and burn this on the altar, on the LORD's offerings made by fire; it is a sin offering.
- 13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the priest's, as a meat offering. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he has committed in any one of these things. He shall be forgiven. And the remainder shall be for the priest, as in the grain offering.'
- 14 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering: 'If anyone commits a breach of faith and sins unintentionally in any of the holy things of the LORD, He shall bring to the LORD as His compensation, a ram without blemish out of the flock, valued in silver shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for a guilt offering.

Chapter 6

The LORD gives laws requiring restitution plus a fifth for sins of dishonesty against a neighbor. He then gives the priests detailed instructions for maintaining the perpetual fire on the altar and for properly handling the burnt offering, grain offering, and sin offering.

The burnt offering shall be on the hearth on the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it.
- 10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. the priest shall put on his linen garment and put his linen undergarment on his body. He shall take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt offering on the altar and put them beside the altar.
- 11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place. Then he shall take off his garments and put on other garments and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.
- 12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings. The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it; it shall not go out. The priest shall burn wood on it every morning. He shall arrange the burnt offering on it and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.
- 13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out. Fire shall be kept burning on the altar continually; it shall not go out.
- 14 And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar. this is the law of the grain offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD in front of the altar.
- 15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD. one shall take from it a handful of the fine flour of the grain offering and of its oil and all of the frankincense that is on the grain offering, and shall burn this as its memorial portion on the altar, a sweet savour unto the LORD.

- 16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. the rest of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten unleavened in a holy place. In the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.
- 17 *It shall not be baken with leaven. - 21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD. It shall be made with oil on a griddle. You shall bring it well mixed, in baked pieces like a grain offering, and offer it for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

- 22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt. The priest from among Aaron's sons, who is anointed to succeed him, shall offer it to the LORD as decreed forever. The whole of it shall be burned.
- 23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten. Every grain offering of a priest shall be wholly burned. It shall not be eaten.'

Chapter 7

The LORD completes the laws of the offerings, detailing how the guilt offering and peace offering are to be handled. He forbids eating fat or blood under penalty of being cut off, and assigns the breast and right thigh of the peace offering to the priests as their perpetual portion.

- 7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. The guilt offering is just like the sin offering; there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.
- 8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered. the priest who offers any man's burnt offering shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered.
- 9 And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it. every grain offering baked in the oven and all that is prepared on a pan or a griddle shall belong to the priest who offers it.
- 10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another. every grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall be shared equally among all the sons of Aaron.
- 11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD. this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that one may offer to the LORD.
- 12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried. If He offers it for a thanksgiving, then He shall offer with the thanksgiving sacrifice unleavened loaves mixed with oil, unleavened wafers smeared with oil, and loaves of fine flour well mixed with oil.
- 13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. With the sacrifice of His peace offerings for thanksgiving He shall bring His offering with loaves of leavened bread.
- 14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings. from it He shall offer one loaf from each offering, as a gift to the LORD. It shall belong to the priest who throws the blood of the peace offerings.

- 15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. the flesh of the sacrifice of His peace offering for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of His offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.
- 16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten: But if the sacrifice of His offering is a vow or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that He offers His sacrifice, and on the next day what remains of it shall be eaten.
- 17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire. But what remains of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned up with fire.
- 18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity. If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of His peace offering is eaten on the third day, He who offers it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be credited to Him. It is tainted. He who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.
- 19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof. Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned up with fire. All who are clean may eat flesh,
- 20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. but the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings while He is unclean, that person shall be cut off from His people.

- 21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. if anyone touches an unclean thing, whether human uncleanness or an unclean beast or any unclean detestable creature, and then eats some flesh from the sacrifice of the LORD's peace offerings, that person shall be cut off from His people.

- 29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Whoever offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring His offering to the LORD from the sacrifice of His peace offerings.
- 30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD. His own hands shall bring the LORD's offerings made by fire. He shall bring the fat with the breast, that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before the LORD.
- 31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons.
- 32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. the right thigh you shall give to the priest as a contribution from the sacrifice of your peace offerings.
- 33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part. Whoever among the sons of Aaron offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh for a portion.
- 34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel. For the breast that is waved and the thigh that is contributed I have taken from the children of Israel, out of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the children of Israel.
- 35 This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office; This is the portion of Aaron and of his sons from the LORD's offerings made by fire, from the day they were presented to serve as priests of the LORD.

- 7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith. he put the coat on him and tied the sash around his waist and clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him and tied the skillfully woven band of the ephod around him, binding it to him with the band.
- 8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim. he placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.
- 9 And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses. he set the turban on His head, and on the turban, in front, He set the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them. Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.
- 11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them. he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils and the basin and its stand, to consecrate them.
- 12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him.

- 13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses. Moses brought Aaron's sons and clothed them with coats and tied sashes around their waists and bound caps on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 14 And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering. Then he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.
- 15 And he slew it; and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it. he killed it, and Moses took the blood, and with his finger put it on the horns of the altar around it and purified the altar and poured out the blood at the base of the altar and consecrated it to make atonement for it.
- 16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar. he took all the fat that was on the entrails and the long lobe of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat, and Moses burned them on the altar.
- 17 But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses. But the bull and its skin and its flesh and its dung He burned up with fire outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 18 And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. Then he presented the ram of the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
- 19 And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. he killed it, and Moses threw the blood against the sides of the altar.
- 20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat. He cut the ram into pieces, and Moses burned the head and the pieces and the fat.

- 21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. He washed the entrails and the legs with water, and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering with a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 22 And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. Then he presented the other ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
- 23 And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. he killed it, and Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.
- 24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. Then he presented Aaron's sons, and Moses put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. And Moses threw the blood against the sides of the altar.
- 25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder: Then he took the fat and the fat tail and all the fat that was on the entrails and the long lobe of the liver and the two kidneys with their fat and the right thigh,
- 26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder: out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD He took one unleavened loaf and one loaf of bread with oil and one wafer and placed them on the pieces of fat and on the right thigh.

- 27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. he put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons and waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.
- 28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering with a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses. Moses took the breast and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron and his garments, and also on his sons and his sons' garments. So he consecrated Aaron and his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.
- 31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. Moses said to Aaron and his sons, 'Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.
- 32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire. what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn up with fire.

- 3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering; say to the children of Israel, Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both a year old without blemish, for a burnt offering,
- 4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil: for to day the LORD will appear unto you. an ox and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil, for today the LORD will appear to You.'
- 5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. they brought what Moses commanded in front of the tent of meeting. All the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.
- 6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you. Moses said, 'This is the thing that the LORD commanded You to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to You.'
- 7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded. Then Moses said to Aaron, 'Draw near to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and for the people, and bring the offering of the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded.'
- 8 Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. So Aaron drew near to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.
- 9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar: the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him. He dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar and poured out the blood at the base of the altar.

- 10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses. But the fat and the kidneys and the long lobe of the liver from the sin offering He burned on the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp. The flesh and the skin He burned up with fire outside the camp.
- 12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar. Then he killed the burnt offering, and Aaron's sons handed him the blood. He threw it against the sides of the altar.
- 13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar. they handed the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head. He burned them on the altar.
- 14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar. he washed the entrails and the legs and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.
- 15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first. Then he presented the people's offering and took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people and killed it and offered it as a sin offering, like the first one.
- 16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the manner. he presented the burnt offering and offered it according to the rule.
- 17 And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning. he presented the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

- 18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about, Then he killed the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings for the people. And Aaron's sons handed him the blood. He threw it against the sides of the altar.
- 19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver: But the fat pieces of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail and that which covers the entrails and the kidneys and the long lobe of the liver —
- 20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar: they put the fat pieces on the breasts. He burned the fat pieces on the altar,
- 21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded. but the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses commanded.
- 22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings. Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. He came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings.
- 23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting, and when they came out they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.
- 24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces. fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the pieces of fat on the altar, and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Nadab and Abihu offer unauthorized fire before the LORD, and fire from the LORD consumes them. Moses instructs Aaron not to mourn publicly, the LORD commands the priests not to drink wine when entering the tent of meeting, and Moses rebukes Eleazar and Ithamar for mishandling the sin offering.

And they did according to the word of Moses.
- 8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying, the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying,
- 9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: 'Drink no wine or strong drink, You or Your sons with You, when You go into the tent of meeting, lest You die. It shall be a statute forever throughout Your generations.
- 10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean; You are to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean,
- 11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses. you are to teach the children of Israel all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them by Moses.'
- 12 And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy: Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his surviving sons, 'Take the grain offering that is left of the LORD's offerings made by fire, and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy.
- 13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded. You shall eat it in a holy place, because it is Your due and Your sons' due, from the LORD's offerings made by fire, for so I am commanded.

- 14 And the wave breast and heave shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. But the breast that is waved and the thigh that is contributed You shall eat in a clean place, You and Your sons and Your daughters with You, for they are given as Your due and Your sons' due from the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.
- 15 The heave shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded. The thigh that is contributed and the breast that is waved they shall bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat pieces, to wave for a wave offering before the LORD. It shall be Yours and Your sons' with You as a due forever, as the LORD has commanded.'
- 16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying, Now Moses diligently inquired about the goat of the sin offering. It was burned up! And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the surviving sons of Aaron, saying,
- 17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? 'Why have You not eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, since it is a thing most holy and has been given to You that You may bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?
- 18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You certainly ought to have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.'

- 19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? Aaron said to Moses, 'Today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and yet such things as these have happened to me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would the LORD have approved?'
- 20 And when Moses heard that, he was content. when Moses heard that, he approved.

Chapter 11

The LORD gives laws distinguishing clean from unclean animals. Land animals must chew the cud and have split hooves; water creatures must have fins and scales; specific birds and insects are listed as unclean. Israel is to be holy because the LORD is holy.

- 13 And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospraying, these You shall detest among the birds; they shall not be eaten; they are detestable: the eagle, the ossifrage, and the ospraying,
- 14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind; the vulture, and the kite after His kind,
- 15 Every raven after his kind; every raven of any kind,
- 16 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind, the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after His kind,
- 17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl, the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,
- 18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,
- 19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.
- 20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you. All winged insects that go on all fours are detestable to You.
- 21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth; Yet among the winged insects that go on all fours You may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, with which to hop on the ground.
- 22 Even these of them ye may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind. Of them You may eat: the locust of any kind, the bald locust of any kind, the cricket of any kind, and the grasshopper of any kind.
- 23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you. But all other winged insects that have four feet are detestable to You.

- 24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even. by these You shall become unclean. Whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening,
- 25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. whoever carries any part of their carcass shall wash His clothes and be unclean until the evening.
- 26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean. Every animal that parts the hoof but is not cloven-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean to You. Everyone who touches them shall be unclean.
- 27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even. all that walk on their paws, among the animals that go on all fours, are unclean to You. Whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening.
- 28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you. he who carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to You.
- 29 These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind, these are unclean to You among the swarming things that swarm on the ground: the mole rat, the mouse, the great lizard of any kind,
- 30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole. the gecko, the monitor lizard, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.
- 31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even. These are unclean to You among all that swarm. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

- 32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed. anything on which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it is an article of wood or a garment or a skin or a sack, any article that is used for any purpose. It must be put into water. It shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean.
- 33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it. if any of them falls into any earthenware vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and You shall break it.
- 34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. Any food in it that could be eaten, on which water comes, shall be unclean. And all drink that could be drunk from every such vessel shall be unclean.
- 35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you. everything on which any part of their carcass falls shall be unclean. Whether oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces. They are unclean and shall remain unclean to You.
- 36 Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean. Nevertheless, a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean, but whoever touches a carcass in them shall be unclean.
- 37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean. if any part of their carcass falls upon any seed grain that is to be sown, it is clean.
- 38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you. But if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to You.

- 39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even. if any animal which You may eat dies, whoever touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening,
- 40 And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. whoever eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. And whoever carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.
- 41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten. Every swarming thing that swarms on the ground is detestable; it shall not be eaten.
- 42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination. Whatever goes on its belly, and whatever goes on all fours, or whatever has many feet, any swarming thing that swarms on the ground, You shall not eat, for they are detestable.
- 43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby. You shall not make yourselves detestable with any swarming thing that swarms, and You shall not defile yourselves with them, and become unclean through them.
- 44 For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. For I am the LORD Your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming thing that crawls on the ground.
- 45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. For I am the LORD Who brought You up out of the land of Egypt to be Your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

- 46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth: This is the law about beast and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms on the ground,
- 47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten. to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.'

The LORD gives laws concerning purification after childbirth. A woman is unclean seven days after bearing a son and fourteen days after a daughter, followed by additional days of purification, after which she brings a burnt offering and sin offering to the priest.

Chapter 13

The LORD gives the priests detailed instructions for diagnosing leprous disease in human skin. The priest examines swellings, eruptions, and spots, quarantining the person for observation; leprous disease is also to be identified in garments of wool, linen, or leather.

- 2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests: 'When a person has on the skin of his body a swelling or an eruption or a spot. It turns into a case of leprous disease on the skin of his body, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests,
- 3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean. the priest shall examine the diseased area on the skin of his body. And if the hair in the diseased area has turned white and the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a case of leprous disease. When the priest has examined him, he shall pronounce him unclean.
- 4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days: But if the spot is white in the skin of his body and appears no deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall shut up the diseased person for seven days.
- 5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more: the priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if in his eyes the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up for another seven days.
- 6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. Then the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the diseased area has faded and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

- 7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath shewed himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again: But if the eruption spreads in the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest.
- 8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy. the priest shall look, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.
- 9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest; When a man is afflicted with a leprous disease, he shall be brought to the priest,
- 10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising; the priest shall look. And if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the swelling,
- 11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean. it is a chronic leprous disease in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.
- 12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh; if the leprous disease breaks out in the skin, so that the leprous disease covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, as far as the priest can see,
- 13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean. then the priest shall look, and if the leprous disease has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; it has all turned white. He is clean.
- 14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean. But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean.

- 15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy. the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. Raw flesh is unclean, for it is a leprous disease.
- 16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest; But if the raw flesh recovers and turns white again, then he shall come to the priest,
- 17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean. the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean; he is clean.
- 18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a boil, and is healed, when there is in the skin of one's body a boil that has healed,
- 19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest; in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, then it shall be shown to the priest.
- 20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil. the priest shall look, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous disease that has broken out in the boil.
- 21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in it and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the priest shall shut him up seven days.
- 22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague. if it spreads in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a disease.

- 23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean. But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
- 24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white; Or, when the body has a burn on its skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white,
- 25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. the priest shall examine it, and if the hair in the spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, then it is a leprous disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.
- 26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot and it is no deeper than the skin, but has faded, the priest shall shut him up seven days.
- 27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. the priest shall examine him the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.
- 28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning. But if the spot remains in one place and has not spread in the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar of the burn.
- 29 If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard; When a man or woman has a disease on the head or the beard,

- 30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard. the priest shall examine the disease. And if it appears deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an itch, a leprous disease of the head or the beard.
- 31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall seven days: if the priest examines the itching disease and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up the person with the itching disease for seven days.
- 32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin; on the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch, and if the itch has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,
- 33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more: then he shall shave himself, but the itching area he shall not shave. And the priest shall shut up the person with the itch for another seven days.
- 34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. on the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch, and if the itch has not spread in the skin and appears to be no deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.
- 35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing; But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing,
- 36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean. the priest shall examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.

- 37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean. But if in his eyes the itch is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
- 38 If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots; When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots,
- 39 Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skin; he is clean. the priest shall look, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is leukoderma that has broken out in the skin; he is clean.
- 40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean. If a man's hair falls out from his head, he is bald; he is clean.
- 41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald: yet is he clean. if a man's hair falls out from his forehead, he has baldness of the forehead; he is clean.
- 42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head or his bald forehead. But if there is on the bald head or the bald forehead a reddish-white diseased area, it is a leprous disease breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.
- 43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh; Then the priest shall examine him, and if the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprous disease in the skin of the body,
- 44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head. he is a leprous man, he is unclean. The priest must pronounce him unclean; his disease is on his head.

- 45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. The leprous person who has the disease shall wear torn clothes and let the hair of his head hang loose. He shall cover his upper lip and cry out, Unclean, unclean.
- 46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be. He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease. He is unclean. He shall live alone. His dwelling shall be outside the camp.
- 47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment; When there is a case of leprous disease in a garment, whether a woolen or a linen garment,
- 48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin; in warp or woof of linen or wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin,
- 49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest: if the disease is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin or in the warp or the woof or in any article made of skin, it is a case of leprous disease. It shall be shown to the priest.
- 50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days: the priest shall examine the disease and shut up the diseased thing for seven days.
- 51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean. Then he shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the garment, in the warp or the woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, the disease is a persistent leprous disease; it is unclean.
- 52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire. he shall burn the garment, or the warp or the woof, the wool or the linen, or any article made of skin that is diseased, for it is a persistent leprous disease. It shall be burned in fire.

- 53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; if the priest examines, and if the disease has not spread in the garment, in warp or woof or in any article made of skin,
- 54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more: then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which is the disease. He shall shut it up for another seven days.
- 55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without. Then the priest shall examine the diseased thing after it has been washed. And if the diseased area has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it in fire, whether the rot is on the back or on the front.
- 56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: But if the priest examines, and if the diseased area has faded after it is washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment or the skin or the warp or the woof.
- 57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire. if it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in any article made of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire whatever has the disease.
- 58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean. But the garment, or warp or woof, or any article made of skin from which the disease departs when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and be clean.

59	This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.	This is the law for a case of leprous disease in a garment of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in any article made of skin, for pronouncing it clean or unclean.'

Chapter 14

The LORD gives laws for the cleansing ritual of a healed leper, involving two birds, cedarwood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop. He also gives instructions for diagnosing and cleansing leprous disease in houses, including scraping, replastering, or demolishing the affected structure.

3	And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;	the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall look. Then, if the case of leprous disease is healed in the leprous person,
4	Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:	the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two live clean birds and cedarwood and scarlet yarn and hyssop.
5	And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water:	the priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthenware vessel over fresh water.

- 6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water: He shall take the live bird with the cedarwood and the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, and dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.
- 7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed of the leprous disease. Then he shall pronounce him clean and shall let the living bird go into the open field.
- 8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days. he who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and bathe himself in water. He shall be clean. And after that he may come into the camp, but shall live outside his tent seven days.
- 9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean. on the seventh day he shall shave off all his hair from his head, his beard, and his eyebrows. He shall shave off all his hair, and then he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water. He shall be clean.
- 10 And on the eighth day he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil. on the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish, and a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, and one log of oil.

- 11 And the priest that maketh him clean shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: the priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed and these things before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 12 And the priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: the priest shall take one of the male lambs and offer it for a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.
- 13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy: he shall kill the lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary. For the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest; it is most holy.
- 14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.
- 15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand: Then the priest shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand

- 17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering: some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.
- 18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD. the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.
- 19 And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering: The priest shall offer the sin offering, to make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he shall kill the burnt offering.
- 20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean. the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him. He shall be clean.
- 21 And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat offering, and a log of oil; But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil;
- 22 And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. two turtledoves or two pigeons, whichever he can afford. The one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

- 23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing unto the priest, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD. on the eighth day He shall bring them for His cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the LORD.
- 24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD: the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.
- 25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.
- 27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD: the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in His left hand seven times before the LORD.
- 28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering: the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, in the place where the blood of the guilt offering was put.
- 29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for Him before the LORD.

- 30 And he shall offer the one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get; he shall offer, of the turtledoves or pigeons, whichever He can afford,
- 31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, along with a grain offering. And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for Him who is being cleansed.
- 32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing. This is the law for Him in whom is a case of leprous disease, who cannot afford the offerings for His cleansing.'
- 33 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
- 34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession; 'When You come into the land of Canaan, which I give You for a possession, and I put a case of leprous disease in a house in the land of Your possession,
- 35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house: then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, It seems to me there is some kind of disease in my house.
- 36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house: Then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes in to examine the disease, lest all that is in the house be declared unclean. And afterward the priest shall go in to examine the house.
- 37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall; he shall examine the disease. And if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface,

- 38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days: then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house and shut up the house for seven days.
- 39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house; the priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look. If the disease has spread in the walls of the house,
- 40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city: then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the disease and throw them into an unclean place outside the city.
- 41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place: he shall have the inside of the house scraped all around, and the plaster that they scrape off they shall pour into an unclean place outside the city.
- 42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house. Then they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones. He shall take other plaster and plaster the house.
- 43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered; If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it,
- 44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean. then the priest shall go and look. And if the disease has spread in the house, it is a persistent leprous disease in the house; it is unclean.
- 45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place. he shall break down the house, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house. He shall carry them out of the city to an unclean place.

- 46 Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even. Moreover, whoever enters the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening.
- 47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes. whoever sleeps in the house shall wash his clothes, and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.
- 48 And if the priest shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. But if the priest comes and looks, and if the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, for the disease is healed.
- 49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: for the cleansing of the house he shall take two small birds, with cedarwood and scarlet yarn and hyssop,
- 50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water: he shall kill one of the birds in an earthenware vessel over fresh water
- 51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times: shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the scarlet yarn and the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
- 52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet: Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the fresh water and with the live bird and with the cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet yarn.
- 53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean. he shall let the live bird go out of the city into the open country. So he shall make atonement for the house. It shall be clean.

Chapter 15

The LORD gives laws concerning bodily discharges that cause ceremonial uncleanness. Men with abnormal discharges and women during menstruation or with prolonged bleeding are unclean, and after their discharge ends they must wait seven days and bring offerings to the priest for atonement.

| 2 | Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean. | 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When any man has a discharge from His body, His discharge is unclean. |
| 3 | And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. | this is the law of His uncleanness for a discharge: whether His body runs with His discharge, or His body is blocked up by His discharge, it is His uncleanness. |
| 4 | Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean. | Every bed on which the one with the discharge lies shall be unclean, and everything on which He sits shall be unclean. |

- 5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. anyone who touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever sits on anything on which the one with the discharge has sat shall wash His clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever touches the body of the one with the discharge shall wash His clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. if the one with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean. any saddle on which the one with the discharge rides shall be unclean.
- 10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And whoever carries such things shall wash his clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. Anyone whom the one with the discharge touches without having rinsed His hands in water shall wash His clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 12 And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. an earthenware vessel that the one with the discharge touches shall be broken, and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

- 13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. when the one with a discharge is cleansed of His discharge, then He shall count for Himself seven days for His cleansing, and wash His clothes. And He shall bathe His body in fresh water and shall be clean.
- 14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest: on the eighth day He shall take to Himself two turtledoves or two pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest.
- 15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue. the priest shall use them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for His discharge.
- 16 And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even. If a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even. every garment and every skin on which the semen comes shall be washed with water and be unclean until the evening.
- 18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even. If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe themselves in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 19 And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even. When a woman has a discharge, and the discharge in her body is blood, she shall be in her menstrual impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

- 20 And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean. everything on which she lies during her menstrual impurity shall be unclean. Everything also on which she sits shall be unclean.
- 21 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever touches anything on which she sits shall wash His clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 23 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even. Whether it is the bed or anything on which she sits, when He touches it He shall be unclean until the evening.
- 24 And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean. if any man lies with her and her menstrual impurity comes upon Him, He shall be unclean seven days, and every bed on which He lies shall be unclean.
- 25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean. If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness. As in the days of her menstrual impurity, she shall be unclean.
- 26 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation. Every bed on which she lies during all the days of her discharge shall be treated as the bed of her menstrual impurity. And everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her menstrual impurity.

- 27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even. whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash His clothes and bathe Himself in water and be unclean until the evening.
- 28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. But if she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
- 29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. on the eighth day she shall take to herself two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness. the priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for her unclean discharge.
- 31 Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them. Thus You shall keep the children of Israel separate from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst.'
- 32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith; This is the law for Him who has a discharge and for Him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby;
- 33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean. also for her who is unwell with her menstrual impurity, that is, for anyone, male or female, who has a discharge, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

Chapter 16

The LORD gives instructions for the Day of Atonement, the one day each year when the high priest enters the Most Holy Place. Aaron casts lots over two goats -- one is sacrificed as a sin offering and its blood sprinkled on the mercy seat, while the other is sent into the wilderness as the scapegoat bearing the people's sins.

- 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the LORD, and died;*

The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD and died,
- 2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.*

the LORD said to Moses, 'Tell Aaron your brother not to come at any time into the Holy Place inside the veil, before the mercy seat that is on the ark, so that He may not die. For I will appear in the cloud over the mercy seat.
- 3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.*

But in this way Aaron shall come into the Holy Place: with a bull from the herd for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.
- 4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.*

He shall put on the holy linen coat and shall have the linen undergarment on his body, fasten the linen sash around his waist, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy garments. He shall bathe his body in water and then put them on.
- 5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.*

he shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.
- 6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.*

Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering for himself and shall make atonement for himself and for his house.

- 7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Then He shall take the two goats and set them before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

■ NAME NOTE Azazel (uh-ZAY-zel) — "Removal, entire removal; or possibly a desert demon/place name" The destination of the second goat on the Day of Atonement — sent into the wilderness bearing the sins of Israel confessed over its head. Rendered 'scapegoat' in the KJV. The goat for the LORD was sacrificed; the goat for Azazel carried the sin away.

- 8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat. Aaron shall cast lots over the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scapegoat.
- 9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer him for a sin offering. Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD and use it as a sin offering,
- 10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness. but the goat on which the lot fell for the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent as the scapegoat into the wilderness.
- 11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself: Aaron shall present the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house. He shall kill the bull as a sin offering for himself.
- 12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil: he shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of sweet incense beaten fine. He shall bring it inside the veil

- 13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not: put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is over the testimony, so that He does not die.
- 14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times. he shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with His finger on the front of the mercy seat on the east side, and in front of the mercy seat He shall sprinkle some of the blood with His finger seven times.
- 15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: Then He shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood inside the veil and do with its blood as He did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it over the mercy seat and in front of the mercy seat.
- 16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness. Thus He shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleannesses of the children of Israel and because of their transgressions, all their sins. And so He shall do for the tent of meeting, which dwells with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.
- 17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. No one may be in the tent of meeting from the time He enters to make atonement in the Holy Place until He comes out and has made atonement for Himself and for His house and for all the assembly of Israel.

- 18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. Then He shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around.
- 19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel. he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with His finger seven times, and cleanse it and consecrate it from the uncleannesses of the children of Israel.
- 20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat: when He has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place and the tent of meeting and the altar, He shall present the live goat.
- 21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness: Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel. All their transgressions, all their sins. And he shall put them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness.
- 22 And the goat shall bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness. The goat shall bear all their iniquities on itself to a remote area. He shall let the goat go free in the wilderness.
- 23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there: Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting and shall take off the linen garments that he put on when he went into the Holy Place and shall leave them there.

- 24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people. he shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and put on his garments and come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people and make atonement for himself and for the people.
- 25 And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar. the fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.
- 26 And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. he who lets the goat go to the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
- 27 And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung. the bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried outside the camp. Their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be burned up with fire.
- 28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp. he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may come into the camp.
- 29 And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you: it shall be a statute to you forever that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict yourselves and shall do no work, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among you.
- 30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. For on this day shall atonement be made for You to cleanse You. You shall be clean before the LORD from all Your sins.

Chapter 17

The LORD commands that all sacrifices must be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting and not offered in the open field. He strictly forbids the eating of blood, declaring that the life of the flesh is in the blood and He has given it on the altar to make atonement.

- 3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp, If any one of the house of Israel kills an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or kills it outside the camp,
- 4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people: does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD, bloodguilt shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from among his people.
- 5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD. This is to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices that they sacrifice in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and sacrifice them as peace offerings to the LORD.
- 6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD. the priest shall throw the blood on the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations. So they shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to goat demons, after whom they whore. This shall be a statute forever for them throughout their generations.
- 8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice, you shall say to them, Any one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who stay among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

- 9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people. does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it to the LORD, that man shall be cut off from his people.
- 10 And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood; I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people. If any one of the house of Israel or of the strangers who stay among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood and will cut Him off from among His people.
- 11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul. For the life of the flesh is in the blood. I have given it for You on the altar to make atonement for Your souls, for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul.
- 12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood. Therefore I have said to the children of Israel, No person among You shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger who sojourns among You eat blood.
- 13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust. Any one also of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who stay among them, who takes in hunting any beast or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.
- 14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off. For the life of every creature is its blood: its blood is its life. Therefore I have said to the children of Israel, You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off.

- 6 None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD. None of You shall approach any one of His close relatives to uncover nakedness. I am the LORD.
- 7 The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your father, which is the nakedness of Your mother; she is Your mother, You shall not uncover her nakedness.
- 8 The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your father's wife; it is Your father's nakedness.
- 9 The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your sister, Your father's daughter or Your mother's daughter, whether brought up in the family or in another home.
- 10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs is thine own nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your son's daughter or of Your daughter's daughter, for their nakedness is Your own nakedness.
- 11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she is thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your father's wife's daughter, brought up by Your father, since she is Your sister.
- 12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your father's sister; she is Your father's relative.
- 13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your mother's sister, for she is Your mother's relative.
- 14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt. You shall not uncover the nakedness of Your father's brother, that is, You shall not approach his wife; she is Your aunt.

- 22 Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.
- 23 Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. you shall not lie with any animal and so make Yourself unclean with it, neither shall any woman give herself to an animal to lie with it: it is perversion.
- 24 Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you: Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these things, for by all these the nations I am driving out before you have become unclean,
- 25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth out her inhabitants. the land became unclean, so that I punished its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.
- 26 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: But You shall keep my statutes and my rules and do none of these abominations, either the native or the stranger who sojourns among You
- 27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) (for the people of the land, who were before you, did all of these abominations, so that the land became unclean),
- 28 That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. lest the land vomit You out when You make it unclean, as it vomited out the nations that were before you.
- 29 For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. For everyone who does any of these abominations, the persons who do them shall be cut off from among their people.

- 30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God. So keep my charge never to practice any of these abominable customs that were practiced before You, and never to make yourselves unclean by them: I am the LORD Your God.'

Chapter 19

The LORD commands Israel to be holy as He is holy, giving a wide range of laws covering reverence for parents, Sabbath-keeping, honest dealings, care for the poor and the stranger, just weights, and the command to love your neighbor as yourself.

| 3 Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God. | Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and You shall keep my Sabbaths: I am the LORD Your God. |
| 4 Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God. | Do not turn to idols or make for yourselves any gods of cast metal: I am the LORD Your God. |
| 5 And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will. | When You offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, You shall offer it so that You may be accepted. |
| 6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire. | It shall be eaten the same day You offer it or on the day after, and anything left over until the third day shall be burned up with fire. |

- 7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted. If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is tainted; it will not be accepted,
- 8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. everyone who eats it shall bear His iniquity, because He has profaned what is holy to the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from His people.
- 9 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. When You reap the harvest of Your land, You shall not reap Your field right up to its edge, neither shall You gather the gleanings after Your harvest.
- 10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God. you shall not strip Your vineyard bare, neither shall You gather the fallen grapes of Your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD Your God.
- 11 Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another. You shall not steal; You shall not deal falsely; You shall not lie to one another.
- 12 And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD. You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of Your God: I am the LORD.
- 13 Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning. You shall not oppress Your neighbor or rob Him. The wages of a hired worker shall not remain with You all night until the morning.
- 14 Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD. You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but You shall fear Your God: I am the LORD.

- 15 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour. You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall You judge Your neighbor.
- 16 Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD. You shall not go around as a slanderer among Your people, and You shall not stand up against the life of Your neighbor: I am the LORD.
- 17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him. You shall not hate Your brother in Your heart, but You shall reason frankly with Your neighbor, lest You incur sin because of Him.
- 18 Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of Your own people, but You shall love Your neighbor as Yourself: I am the LORD.
- 19 Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee. You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let Your cattle breed with a different kind. You shall not sow Your field with two kinds of seed, nor shall You wear a garment of cloth made of two kinds of material.
- 20 And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that is a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; she shall be scourged; they shall not be put to death, because she was not free. If a man lies sexually with a woman who is a slave, assigned to another man and not yet ransomed or given her freedom, she shall be punished. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free.
- 21 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, even a ram for a trespass offering. But He shall bring His guilt offering to the LORD, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering.

- 22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him. the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for His sin that He has committed. He shall be forgiven for the sin that He has committed.
- 23 And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you: it shall not be eaten of. When You come into the land and plant any kind of tree for food, then You shall treat its fruit as forbidden. Three years it shall be forbidden to You; it must not be eaten.
- 24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the LORD withal. in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.
- 25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God. But in the fifth year You may eat of its fruit, to increase its yield for You: I am the LORD Your God.
- 26 Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: neither shall ye use enchantment, nor observe times. You shall not eat any flesh with the blood in it. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft.
- 27 Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard. You shall not round off the hair on Your temples or mar the edges of Your beard.
- 28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD. You shall not make any cuts on Your body for the dead or tattoo yourselves: I am the LORD.
- 29 Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness. Do not profane Your daughter by making her a prostitute, lest the land fall into prostitution and the land become full of depravity.

| 9 | For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him. | For anyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death; He has cursed His father or His mother; His blood is upon Him. |
| 10 | And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. | If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. |
| 11 | And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. | If a man lies with his father's wife, he has uncovered His father's nakedness; both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them. |
| 12 | And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them. | If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death; they have committed perversion; their blood is upon them. |
| 13 | If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. | If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them. |
| 14 | And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you. | If a man takes a woman and her mother also, it is depravity; he and they shall be burned with fire, that there may be no depravity among You. |
| 15 | And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. | If a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and You shall kill the animal. |

- 16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. If a woman approaches any animal and lies with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.
- 17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace. They shall be cut off in the sight of the children of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness. He shall bear his iniquity.
- 18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people. If a man lies with a woman during her menstrual period and uncovers her nakedness, he has made naked her fountain. She has uncovered the fountain of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from among their people.
- 19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity. You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to make naked one's relative; they shall bear their iniquity.
- 20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless. If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
- 21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless. If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

- 22 Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out. You shall therefore keep all my statutes and all my rules and do them, that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out.
- 23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. you shall not walk in the customs of the nation that I am driving out before you, for they did all these things, and therefore I detested them.
- 24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have separated you from other people. But I have said to You, You shall inherit their land. I will give it to You to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD Your God, Who has separated You from the peoples.
- 25 Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. You shall therefore separate the clean beast from the unclean, and the unclean bird from the clean. You shall not make yourselves detestable by beast or by bird or by anything with which the ground crawls, which I have set apart for You to hold unclean.
- 26 And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. You shall be holy to me, for I the LORD am holy and have separated You from the peoples, that You should be mine.
- 27 A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them. A man or a woman who is a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard shall surely be put to death. They shall be stoned with stones; their blood shall be upon them.'

Chapter 21

The LORD gives laws restricting how priests may mourn and whom they may marry. The high priest must not uncover his head or tear his clothes in mourning, and no descendant of Aaron with a physical blemish may approach the altar to offer the bread of God.

- 8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy. You shall sanctify Him, for He offers the bread of Your God. He shall be holy to You, for I, the LORD, Who sanctify You, am holy.
- 9 And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire. the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by whoring, profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.
- 10 And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes; The priest who is chief among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose nor tear his clothes.
- 11 Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother; He shall not go in to any dead bodies nor make himself unclean, even for his father or for his mother.
- 12 Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD. He shall not go out of the sanctuary, lest He profane the sanctuary of His God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of His God is on Him: I am the LORD.
- 13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity. he shall take a wife in her virginity.
- 14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. A widow, or a divorced woman, or a woman who has been defiled, or a prostitute — these He shall not marry. But He shall take as his wife a virgin of His own people,
- 15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him. that He may not profane His seed among His people, for I am the LORD Who sanctifies Him.'
- 16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God. 'Speak to Aaron, saying, None of your seed throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the bread of his God.
- 18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous, For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, a man blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long,
- 19 Or a man that is brokenfooted, or brokenhanded, or a man who has an injured foot or an injured hand,
- 20 Or crookbackt, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken: or a hunchback or a dwarf or a man with a defect in his sight or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles.
- 21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish; he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God. No man of the seed of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings made by fire; since He has a blemish, He shall not come near to offer the bread of His God.
- 22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. He may eat the bread of His God, both of the most holy and of the holy things,
- 23 Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the LORD do sanctify them. but He shall not go through the veil or approach the altar, because He has a blemish, that He may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am the LORD Who sanctifies them.'
- 24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel. So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel.

Chapter 22

The LORD gives laws requiring priests to avoid uncleanness when handling holy things, and specifying who in a priest's household may eat the holy food. Sacrificial animals must be without blemish, and no animal may be offered before it is eight days old.

| 2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow unto me: I am the LORD. | 'Speak to Aaron and his sons so that they keep away from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they do not profane my holy name: I am the LORD. |
| 3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD. | Say to them, If any one of all Your seed throughout Your generations approaches the holy things that the children of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while He has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD. |
| 4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him; | None of the seed of Aaron who has a skin disease or a discharge may eat of the holy things until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean through contact with the dead or a man who has had an emission of semen, |
| 5 Or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath; | whoever touches a swarming thing by which he may be made unclean or a person from whom he may take uncleanness, whatever his uncleanness may be — |

- 6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water. the person who touches any such thing shall be unclean until the evening and shall not eat of the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water.
- 7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because it is his food. When the sun goes down he shall be clean, and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because they are his food.
- 8 That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD. He shall not eat what dies of itself or is torn by beasts, and so make Himself unclean by it: I am the LORD.
- 9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them. They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the LORD Who sanctifies them.
- 10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. A lay person shall not eat of a holy thing; no foreign guest of the priest or hired worker shall eat of a holy thing.
- 11 But if the priest buy any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat. But if a priest buys a slave as his property for money, the slave may eat of it, and anyone born in his house may eat of his food.
- 12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she shall not eat of the contribution of the holy things.
- 13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof. But if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced and has no children and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; yet no lay person shall eat of it.

- 14 And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing. if anyone eats of a holy thing unintentionally, he shall add the fifth of its value to it and give the holy thing to the priest.
- 15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD; They shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they contribute to the LORD,
- 16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them. so cause them to bear iniquity and guilt, by eating their holy things: for I am the LORD Who sanctifies them.'
- 17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering; 'Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the children of Israel and say to them, When any one of the house of Israel or of the sojourners in Israel presents a burnt offering as His offering, for any of their vows or freewill offerings that they offer to the LORD,
- 19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats. if it is to be accepted for You it shall be a male without blemish, of the bulls or the sheep or the goats.
- 20 But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable for You.
- 21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein. when anyone offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering from the herd or flock, to be accepted it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.

- 22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. Animals blind or disabled or mutilated or having a discharge or an itch or scabs You shall not offer to the LORD or give them to the LORD as a offering made by fire on the altar.
- 23 Either a bullock or a lamb that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. You may present a bull or a lamb that has a part too long or too short for a freewill offering, but for a vow offering it cannot be accepted.
- 24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land. Any animal that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut You shall not offer to the LORD; You shall not do it within Your land.
- 25 Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you. Neither shall You offer as the bread of Your God any such animals gotten from a foreigner. Since there is a blemish in them, because of their mutilation, they will not be accepted for You.'
- 26 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 27 When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD. When an ox or sheep or goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as a offering made by fire to the LORD.
- 28 And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young both in one day. But You shall not kill an ox or a sheep and her young in the same day.
- 29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will. when You sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, You shall sacrifice it so that You may be accepted.

30	On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.	It shall be eaten on the same day; You shall leave none of it until morning: I am the LORD.
31	Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.	So You shall keep my commandments and do them: I am the LORD.
32	Neither shall ye profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the LORD which hallow you,	you shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the children of Israel. I am the LORD Who sanctifies You,
33	That brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.	who brought You out of the land of Egypt to be Your God: I am the LORD.'

Chapter 23

The LORD establishes Israel's appointed feasts: the weekly Sabbath, Passover and Unleavened Bread, Firstfruits, the Feast of Weeks, the Feast of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement, and the Feast of Tabernacles. Each feast has specific dates, offerings, and observances.

- 9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest: 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest,
- 11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, so that You may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

- 12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD. on the day when You wave the sheaf, You shall offer a male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD.
- 13 And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin. the grain offering with it shall be two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, a offering made by fire to the LORD with a sweet savour, and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin.
- 14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. you shall eat neither bread nor grain parched or fresh until this same day, until You have brought the offering of Your God: it is a statute forever throughout Your generations in all Your dwelling places.
- 15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete: You shall count seven full weeks from the day after the Sabbath, from the day that You brought the sheaf of the wave offering.
- 16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD. You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath. Then You shall present a grain offering of new grain to the LORD.
- 17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD. You shall bring from Your dwelling places two loaves of bread to be waved, made of two tenths of an ephah. They shall be of fine flour. They shall be baked with leaven, as firstfruits to the LORD.

- 18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. you shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, and one bull from the herd and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. you shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of peace offerings.
- 20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.
- 21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations. you shall make a proclamation on the same day. - 22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God. when You reap the harvest of Your land, You shall not reap Your field right up to its edge, nor shall You gather the gleanings after Your harvest. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD Your God.'
- 23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation. 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, You shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with the blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.
- 25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. You shall not do any ordinary work, and You shall present a offering made by fire to the LORD.'
- 26 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. 'Now on the tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. It shall be for You a time of holy convocation, and You shall afflict yourselves and present a offering made by fire to the LORD.
- 28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God. you shall not do any work on that very day, for it is a Day of Atonement, to make atonement for You before the LORD Your God.
- 29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people. For whoever is not afflicted on that very day shall be cut off from His people.
- 30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. whoever does any work on that very day, that person I will destroy from among His people.
- 31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. You shall not do any work. It is a statute forever throughout Your generations in all Your dwelling places.

- 32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath. It shall be to You a Sabbath of solemn rest, and You shall afflict yourselves. On the ninth day of the month beginning at evening, from evening to evening shall You keep Your Sabbath.'
- 33 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD. 'Speak to the children of Israel, saying, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month and for seven days is the Feast of Booths to the LORD.
- 35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein. On the first day shall be a holy convocation; You shall not do any ordinary work.
- 36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly; and ye shall do no servile work therein. For seven days You shall present offerings made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day You shall hold a holy convocation and present a offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a solemn assembly; You shall not do any ordinary work.
- 37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day: These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, which You shall proclaim as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the LORD offerings made by fire, burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day,
- 38 Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD. besides the LORD's Sabbaths and besides Your gifts and besides all Your vow offerings and besides all Your freewill offerings, which You give to the LORD.

- 39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath. On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when You have gathered in the produce of the land, You shall celebrate the feast of the LORD seven days. On the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest.
- 40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. you shall take on the first day the fruit of splendid trees, branches of palm trees and boughs of leafy trees and willows of the brook, and You shall rejoice before the LORD Your God seven days.
- 41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month. You shall celebrate it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It is a statute forever throughout Your generations; You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.
- 42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths: You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All native Israelites shall dwell in booths,
- 43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. that Your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD Your God.'
- 44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD. Thus Moses declared to the children of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Chapter 24

The LORD commands pure olive oil to be kept burning continually in the lampstand and showbread to be set before Him every Sabbath. A man who blasphemed the name of the LORD was brought to Moses, and the LORD commanded that he be stoned; He then restates the law of eye for eye and tooth for tooth.

| 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, | The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, |
| 2 Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually. | 'Command the children of Israel to bring You pure oil from beaten olives for the lamp, that a light may be kept burning regularly. |
| 3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations. | Outside the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall tend it from evening to morning before the LORD regularly. It shall be a statute forever throughout Your generations. |
| 4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the LORD continually. | He shall tend the lamps on the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD regularly. |
| 5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake. | You shall take fine flour and bake twelve loaves from it; two tenths of an ephah shall be in each loaf. |
| 6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD. | you shall set them in two piles, six in a pile, on the table of pure gold before the LORD. |
| 7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD. | you shall put pure frankincense on each pile, that it may go with the bread as a memorial portion as a offering made by fire to the LORD. |
| 8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant. | Every Sabbath day Aaron shall arrange it before the LORD regularly; it is from the children of Israel as a covenant forever. |
| 9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute. | it shall be for Aaron and his sons. They shall eat it in a holy place, since it is for Him a most holy portion out of the LORD's offerings made by fire, a perpetual due.' |

- 10 And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this Israelitish woman's son and a man of Israel strove together in the camp; Now an Israelite woman's son, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel. And the Israelite woman's son and a man of Israel fought in the camp,

■ NAME NOTE Shelomith (SHEL-oh-mith) — "Peaceable" Mother of the man who blasphemed the Name and was stoned. Daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan. The only woman named in Leviticus. Dibri (DIB-rye) — "Eloquent, speaker" Father of Shelomith, of the tribe of Dan. Grandfather of the man executed for blasphemy.

- 11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:) the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name, and cursed. Then they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
- 12 And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them. they put Him in custody, till the will of the LORD should be clear to them.
- 13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. 'Bring out of the camp the one who cursed, and let all who heard him lay their hands on His head, and let all the congregation stone Him.
- 15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin. speak to the children of Israel, saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear His sin.

Chapter 25

The LORD commands the land to rest every seventh year as a Sabbath, and every fiftieth year to be a jubilee when all land returns to its original owner and Hebrew slaves go free. He provides for the redemption of property and persons, declaring that the land is His and the Israelites are His servants.

| 5 That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land. | What grows of itself in Your harvest You shall not reap, and the grapes of Your undressed vine You shall not gather, for it is a year of solemn rest for the land. |
| 6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee, | The Sabbath of the land shall provide food for You, for Yourself and for Your male and female slaves and for Your hired worker and the sojourner who lives with You, |
| 7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat. | for Your cattle and for the wild animals that are in Your land: all its yield shall be for food. |

- 8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years. You shall count seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the time of the seven weeks of years shall give You forty-nine years.
- 9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. Then You shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement You shall sound the trumpet throughout all Your land.

■ NAME NOTE Jubile (JOO-bih-lee) — "Ram's horn (yobel), or shout of joy" The fiftieth year, proclaimed by the blowing of the shofar on the Day of Atonement. All land returned to its original family. All Israelite slaves freed. A picture of comprehensive restoration and liberty. The Liberty Bell inscription comes from Leviticus 25:10: 'Proclaim liberty throughout all the land.'

Cross-References:

- 10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for You, when each of You shall return to His property and each of You shall return to His clan.
- 11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed. That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for You; in it You shall neither sow nor reap what grows of itself nor gather the grapes from the undressed vines.
- 12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field. For it is a jubilee. It shall be holy to You. You may eat the produce of the field.
- 13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession. In this year of jubilee each of You shall return to His property.

- 14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another: if You make a sale to Your neighbor or buy from Your neighbor, You shall not wrong one another.
- 15 According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee: You shall pay Your neighbor according to the number of years after the jubilee. He shall sell to You according to the number of years for crops.
- 16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee. If the years are many, You shall increase the price, and if the years are few, You shall reduce the price, for it is the number of the crops that He is selling to You.
- 17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God. You shall not wrong one another, but You shall fear Your God, for I am the LORD Your God.
- 18 Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety. Therefore You shall do my statutes and keep my rules and perform them, and then You will dwell in the land securely.
- 19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety. The land will yield its fruit, and You will eat Your fill and dwell in it securely.
- 20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase: if You say, What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?
- 21 Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. I will command my blessing on You in the sixth year, so that it will produce a crop sufficient for three years.

- 22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store. When You sow in the eighth year, You will be eating some of the old crop; You shall eat the old until the ninth year, when its crop arrives.
- 23 The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me. The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine. For You are strangers and sojourners with me.
- 24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land. in all the country You possess, You shall allow a redemption of the land.
- 25 If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold. If Your brother becomes poor and sells part of His property, then His nearest redeemer shall come and redeem what His brother has sold.
- 26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it; If a man has no one to redeem it and then himself becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it,
- 27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession. let him calculate the years since he sold it and pay back the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and then return to his property.
- 28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession. But if he does not have sufficient means to recover it, then what he sold shall remain in the hand of the buyer until the year of jubilee. In the jubilee it shall be released. He shall return to his property.
- 29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it. If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, he may redeem it within a year of its sale. For a full year he shall have the right of redemption.

- 30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile. If it is not redeemed within a full year, then the house in the walled city shall belong in perpetuity to the buyer, throughout his generations; it shall not be released in the jubilee.
- 31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile. But the houses of the villages that have no wall around them shall be classified with the fields of the land. They may be redeemed. They shall be released in the jubilee.
- 32 Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time. As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites may redeem at any time the houses in the cities they possess.
- 33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel. if one of the Levites exercises his right of redemption, then the house that was sold in a city they possess shall be released in the jubilee. For the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.
- 34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession. But the fields of pastureland belonging to their cities may not be sold, for that is their permanent possession.
- 35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. If your brother becomes poor and cannot maintain himself with you, you shall support him as though he were a stranger and a sojourner. He shall live with you.
- 36 Take thou no usury of him, or increase: but fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God, that your brother may live beside you.

- 37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase. You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit.
- 38 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God. I am the LORD Your God, Who brought You out of the land of Egypt to give You the land of Canaan, and to be Your God.
- 39 And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant: If Your brother becomes poor beside You and sells Himself to You, You shall not make Him serve as a slave.
- 40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile: He shall be with You as a hired worker and as a sojourner. He shall serve with You until the year of the jubilee.
- 41 And then shall he depart from him, and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return. Then He shall go out from You, He and His children with Him, and go back to His own clan and return to the possession of His fathers.
- 42 For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as bondmen. For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves.
- 43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. You shall not rule over Him ruthlessly but shall fear Your God.
- 44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids. As for Your male and female slaves whom You may have: You may buy male and female slaves from among the nations that are around you.

- 45 Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession. You may also buy from among the strangers who stay with You and their clans that are with You, who have been born in Your land. They may be Your property.
- 46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour. You may bequeath them to Your sons after You to inherit as a possession forever. You may make slaves of them, but over Your brothers the children of Israel You shall not rule, one over another ruthlessly.
- 47 And if a sojourner or stranger wax rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family: If a stranger or sojourner with You becomes rich, and Your brother beside Him becomes poor and sells Himself to the stranger or sojourner with You or to a member of the stranger's clan,
- 48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may redeem him: then after He is sold He may be redeemed. One of His brothers may redeem Him,
- 49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be able, he may redeem himself. or his uncle or his cousin may redeem Him, or a close relative from His clan may redeem Him. Or if He grows rich He may redeem Himself.
- 50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him. He shall calculate with His buyer from the year when He sold Himself to Him until the year of jubilee, and the price of His sale shall vary with the number of years. The time He was with His owner shall be rated as the time of a hired worker.

| 51 | If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. | If there are still many years left, He shall pay proportionally for His redemption some of His sale price. |
| 52 | And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption. | If there remain but a few years until the year of jubilee, He shall calculate and pay for His redemption in proportion to His years of service. |
| 53 | And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight. | He shall treat Him as a worker hired year by year. He shall not rule ruthlessly over Him in Your sight. |
| 54 | And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, both he, and his children with him. | if He is not redeemed by these means, then He and His children with Him shall be released in the year of jubilee. |
| 55 | For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. | For it is to me that the children of Israel are servants. They are my servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD Your God.' |

The LORD promises blessings for obedience -- rain, abundant harvests, peace, and His presence among His people. He warns of escalating punishments for disobedience -- disease, defeat, famine, and exile -- but promises that if they confess their sin, He will remember His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

- 2 Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD. You shall keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.
- 3 If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; If You walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and do them,
- 4 Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. then I will give You Your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.
- 5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. Your threshing shall last to the time of the grape harvest, and the grape harvest shall last to the time for sowing. And You shall eat Your bread to the full and dwell in Your land securely.
- 6 And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. I will give peace in the land, and You shall lie down, and none shall make You afraid. And I will remove harmful beasts from the land, and the sword shall not go through Your land.
- 7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. You shall chase Your enemies. They shall fall before You by the sword.
- 8 And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword. Five of You shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of You shall chase ten thousand, and Your enemies shall fall before You by the sword.
- 9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you. I will turn to You and make You fruitful and multiply You and will confirm my covenant with You.
- 10 And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new. You shall eat old grain long kept, and You shall clear out the old to make way for the new.

- 11 And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you. I will make my dwelling among You, and my soul shall not abhor You.
- 12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people. I will walk among You and will be Your God, and You shall be my people.
- 13 I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright. I am the LORD Your God, Who brought You out of the land of Egypt, that You should not be their slaves. And I have broken the bars of Your yoke and made You walk upright.
- 14 But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments; But if You will not listen to me and will not do all these commandments,
- 15 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: if You spurn my statutes, and if Your soul abhors my rules, so that You will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant,
- 16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. then I will do this to You: I will visit You with panic, with wasting disease and fever that consume the eyes and make the heart ache. And You shall sow Your seed in vain, for Your enemies shall eat it.
- 17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you. I will set my face against You, and You shall be struck down before Your enemies. Those who hate You shall rule over You, and You shall flee when none pursues You.
- 18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. if in spite of this You will not listen to me, then I will discipline You again sevenfold for Your sins,

- 19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass: I will break the pride of Your power. I will make Your heavens like iron and Your earth like bronze.
- 20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits. your strength shall be spent in vain, for Your land shall not yield its increase, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.
- 21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. Then if You walk contrary to me and will not listen to me, I will continue striking You, sevenfold for Your sins.
- 22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate. I will let loose the wild beasts against You, which shall bereave You of Your children and destroy Your livestock and make You few in number, so that Your roads shall be deserted.
- 23 And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; if by this discipline You are not turned to me but walk contrary to me,
- 24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. then I also will walk contrary to You. I myself will strike You sevenfold for Your sins.
- 25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. I will bring a sword upon You, that shall execute vengeance for the covenant. And if You gather within Your cities, I will send pestilence among You, and You shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.
- 26 And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied. When I break Your supply of bread, ten women shall bake Your bread in a single oven and shall dole out Your bread again by weight, and You shall eat and not be satisfied.

- 27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me; But if in spite of this You will not listen to me, but walk contrary to me,
- 28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. then I will walk contrary to You in fury. I myself will discipline You sevenfold for Your sins.
- 29 And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. You shall eat the flesh of Your sons, and You shall eat the flesh of Your daughters.
- 30 And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you. I will destroy Your high places and cut down Your incense altars and cast Your dead bodies upon the dead bodies of Your idols, and my soul will abhor You.
- 31 And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours. I will lay Your cities waste and will make Your sanctuaries desolate. I will not smell Your sweet savours.
- 32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it. I myself will devastate the land, so that Your enemies who settle in it shall be appalled at it.
- 33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste. I will scatter You among the nations. I will unsheathe the sword after you, and Your land shall be a desolation, and Your cities shall be a waste.
- 34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths. Then the land shall enjoy its Sabbaths as long as it lies desolate, while You are in Your enemies' land; then the land shall rest, and enjoy its Sabbaths.
- 35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it. As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, the rest that it did not have on Your Sabbaths when You were dwelling in it.

- 36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth. as for those of You who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight. They shall flee as one flees from the sword. They shall fall when none pursues.
- 37 And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies. They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though none pursues. And You shall have no power to stand before Your enemies.
- 38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. you shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall eat You up.
- 39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them. those of You who are left shall rot away in Your enemies' lands because of their iniquity, and also because of the iniquities of their fathers they shall rot away like them.
- 40 If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me; But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers in their treachery that they committed against me, and also in walking contrary to me,
- 41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity: so that I walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies — if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled and they make amends for their iniquity,
- 42 Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land. then I will remember my covenant with Jacob. I will remember my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham. I will remember the land.

- 43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes. But the land shall be abandoned by them and enjoy its Sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They shall make amends for their iniquity, because they spurned my rules and their soul abhorred my statutes.
- 44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God. Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them, neither will I abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them, for I am the LORD their God.
- 45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD. But I will for their sake remember the covenant with their forefathers, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.'
- 46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses. These are the statutes and rules and laws that the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel through Moses on Mount Sinai.

Chapter 27

The LORD gives laws for the valuation of persons, animals, houses, and fields dedicated to Him by special vows. Valuations are set according to age and sex, and anything devoted may be redeemed by adding a fifth to its value; every tithe of the land and herds is holy to the LORD.

- 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation. 'Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, If anyone makes a special vow to the LORD involving the valuation of persons,
- 3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. then the valuation of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary.
- 4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels. If the person is a female, the valuation shall be thirty shekels.
- 5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. If the person is from five to twenty years of age, the valuation shall be for a male twenty shekels, and for a female ten shekels.
- 6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver. If the person is from a month old up to five years of age, the valuation shall be for a male five shekels of silver, and for a female the valuation shall be three shekels of silver.
- 7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. if the person is sixty years old or over, then the valuation for a male shall be fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.
- 8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him. if someone is too poor to pay the valuation, then he shall be made to stand before the priest, and the priest shall value him; the priest shall value him according to what the vowing person can afford.

- 9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy. If the vow is an animal that may be offered as an offering to the LORD, all of it that He gives to the LORD is holy.
- 10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy. He shall not exchange it or make a substitute for it, good for bad, or bad for good. If He does in fact substitute one animal for another, then both it and the substitute shall be holy.
- 11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest: if it is any unclean animal that may not be offered as an offering to the LORD, then He shall stand the animal before the priest,
- 12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be. the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall be.
- 13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation. But if he wishes to redeem it, he shall add a fifth to the valuation.
- 14 And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand. When a man dedicates his house as a holy gift to the LORD, the priest shall value it as either good or bad; as the priest values it, so it shall stand.
- 15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his. if the donor wishes to redeem His house, He shall add a fifth to the valuation price. It shall be His.
- 16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. If a man dedicates to the LORD part of the land that is His possession, then the valuation shall be in proportion to its seed. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

- 17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand. If He dedicates His field from the year of jubilee, the valuation shall stand.
- 18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation. But if he dedicates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall calculate the price according to the years that remain until the year of jubilee, and a deduction shall be made from the valuation.
- 19 And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him. if he who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, then he shall add a fifth to its valuation price. It shall remain his.
- 20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. But if he does not wish to redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore.
- 21 But the field, when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's. But the field, when it is released in the jubilee, shall be a holy gift to the LORD, like a field that has been devoted. The priest shall be in possession of it.
- 22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession; If He dedicates to the LORD a field that He has bought, which is not a part of His possession,
- 23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD. then the priest shall calculate the amount of the valuation for it up to the year of jubilee, and the man shall give the valuation on that day as a holy gift to the LORD.
- 24 In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong. In the year of jubilee the field shall return to Him from whom it was bought, to whom the land belongs as a possession.

- 25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. Every valuation shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.
- 26 Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's. But a firstborn of animals, which as a firstborn belongs to the LORD, no man may dedicate; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.
- 27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation. if it is an unclean animal, then He shall buy it back at the valuation, and add a fifth to it; or, if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at the valuation.
- 28 Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD. But no devoted thing that a man devotes to the LORD, of anything that He has, whether man or beast, or of His inherited field, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.
- 29 None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death. No one devoted, who is to be devoted for destruction from mankind, shall be ransomed; He shall surely be put to death.
- 30 And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it is holy unto the LORD. Every tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the LORD's; it is holy to the LORD.
- 31 And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof. If a man wishes to redeem some of his tithe, he shall add a fifth to it.

- 32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD. every tithe of herds and flocks, every tenth animal of all that pass under the herdsman's staff, shall be holy to the LORD.
- 33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed. One shall not differentiate between good or bad, neither shall He make a substitute for it. If He does substitute for it, then both it and the substitute shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.'
- 34 These are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel in mount Sinai. These are the commandments that the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Author: Moses — Numbers records events from Moses's own lifetime and he is named as the author of specific sections within the book (Num 33:2).

Date written: c. 1445–1405 BC, during the forty years in the wilderness.

Written to: The nation of Israel in the wilderness, and the second generation preparing to enter Canaan.

Setting: Israel has been at Sinai receiving the law. Numbers opens with a military census, then follows forty years of wilderness wandering — triggered by the nation's refusal to trust God and enter Canaan at Kadesh-barnea.

Where this sits historically: c. 1446–1406 BC — the forty wilderness years between Egypt's 18th dynasty (Amenhotep II) and the eve of Canaan's conquest under Amenhotep III.

Contemporaries: Egypt's Amenhotep II, Thutmose IV, and the early reign of Amenhotep III. Edom, Moab, and Midian are the surrounding nations. Moses writes Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy alongside.

Big themes:

- Unbelief and its cost — ten of twelve spies give a faithless report; the entire generation is condemned to die in the wilderness as a consequence

- Murmuring — the people complain about food, water, leadership, and the journey itself; God's patience is tested repeatedly and His discipline is real

- The holiness of God — Nadab and Abihu, Korah's rebellion, and Moses's striking the rock all illustrate that God's holiness cannot be treated casually

- The second generation — the book ends with a new census of a new generation, ready to try again where their fathers failed

- Prophecy — Balaam's oracles (chs. 22–24) are among the most remarkable messianic prophecies in the OT, spoken by a pagan prophet against his own intentions

Key passages: Num 6:24–26; 14:18; 21:9; 23:19; 24:17

How it fits: Numbers is the wilderness years — the painful gap between redemption (Exodus) and inheritance (Joshua). Paul uses the wilderness generation as a warning to the church (1 Cor 10:1–11). The bronze serpent lifted in the wilderness becomes Christ's own illustration of His crucifixion (John 3:14).

Chapter 1

The LORD commands Moses to take a census of all men twenty years old and older who are able to go to war, tribe by tribe. The total count of Israel's fighting men is 603,550; the Levites are excluded from the military census and assigned to care for the tabernacle.

| 54 | And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they. | Thus the children of Israel did; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they did. |

Chapter 2

The LORD arranges the twelve tribes into four camps of three tribes each around the tabernacle, each under its own standard. Judah's camp is on the east, Reuben's on the south, Ephraim's on the west, and Dan's on the north, with the Levites camped in the middle.

Chapter 3

The LORD takes the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, numbering 22,000 Levite males from a month old and upward. The clans of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari are each assigned positions around the tabernacle and specific duties for its care; the 273 excess firstborn are redeemed with silver.

Cross-References:

- 35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward. the chief of the fathers' house of the clans of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.
- 36 And under the custody and charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto, the appointed guard duty of the sons of Merari involved the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases. All their accessories — all the service relating to these;
- 37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords. also the pillars around the court with their bases, pegs, and cords.
- 38 But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. those who were to camp before the tabernacle on the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons, guarding the sanctuary itself, to protect the children of Israel. And any outsider who came near was to be put to death.
- 39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand. All those listed of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron listed at the commandment of the LORD, by clans, all the males from a month old and upward, were 22,000.
- 40 And the LORD said unto Moses, Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. the LORD said to Moses, 'List all the firstborn males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, taking the number of their names.

- 41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel. you shall take the Levites for me — I am the LORD — instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the cattle of the children of Israel.'
- 42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. So Moses listed all the firstborn among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded Him.
- 43 And all the firstborn males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen. all the firstborn males, according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, as listed, were 22,273.
- 44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 45 Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD. 'Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. The Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.
- 46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites; as the ransom for the 273 of the firstborn of the children of Israel, over and above the number of the Levites,
- 47 Thou shalt even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel is twenty gerahs:) you shall take five shekels per head; You shall take them according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel of twenty gerahs),
- 48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons. give the money to Aaron and his sons as the ransom for those who are over.'

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 49 | And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites: | So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites. |
| 50 | Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. | From the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, 1,365 shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. |
| 51 | And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. | Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. |

The LORD gives instructions for the service of the Levite clans when the camp moves. The Kohathites carry the holy objects after Aaron's sons cover them, the Gershonites carry the curtains and coverings, and the Merarites carry the frames and pillars; the total number of Levites in service is 8,580.

- 12 And they shall take all the instruments of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar: they shall take all the vessels of the service that are used in the sanctuary and put them in a cloth of blue and cover them with a covering of goatskin and put them on the carrying frame.
- 13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon: they shall remove the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth over it.
- 14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it. shall put on it all the utensils of the altar that are used for the service at the altar — the fire pans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar — and they shall spread on it a covering of goatskin, and shall put its poles in place.
- 15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation. when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the sons of Kohath shall come to carry these. But They must not touch the holy things, lest they die. These are the things of the tent of meeting that the sons of Kohath are to carry.

- 16 And to the office of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof. Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil, with oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, of the sanctuary and its vessels.'
- 17 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying,
- 18 Cut ye not off the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites: 'Let not the tribe of the clans of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites,
- 19 But thus do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden: but deal with them in this way that they may live and not die when they come near to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint them each to his task and to his burden.
- 20 But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die. But they shall not go in to look on the holy things even for a moment, lest they die.'
- 21 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 23 From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shalt thou number them; all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. From thirty years old up to fifty years old, You shall list them, all who can come to do duty, to do service in the tent of meeting.

- 24 This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and for burdens: This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens.
- 25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle and the tent of meeting with its covering and the covering of goatskin that is on top of it and the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting
- 26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them: so shall they serve. the hangings of the court and the screen for the gate of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar. Their cords and all the equipment for their service. And they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them.
- 27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens. All the service of the sons of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry and in all that they have to do. And you shall assign to their charge all that they are to carry.
- 28 This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. This is the service of the clans of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting. Their guard duty is to be under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
- 29 As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers; As for the sons of Merari, you shall list them by their clans and their fathers' houses.

- 30 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. From thirty years old up to fifty years old, you shall list them, everyone who can come on duty, to do the service of the tent of meeting.
- 31 And this is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tabernacle of the congregation; the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and sockets thereof, this is what they are charged to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,
- 32 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name ye shall reckon the instruments of the charge of their burden. the pillars around the court with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their accessories. And you shall list by name the objects that they are required to carry.
- 33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. This is the service of the clans of the sons of Merari, the whole of their service in the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.'
- 34 And Moses and Aaron and the chief of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and after the house of their fathers, Moses and Aaron and the chiefs of the congregation listed the sons of the Kohathites, by their clans and their fathers' houses,
- 35 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who could come on duty, for service in the tent of meeting;
- 36 And those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. those listed of them by their clans were 2,750.

- 37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. These were the people listed of the clans of the Kohathites, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron listed according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.
- 38 And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, Those listed of the sons of Gershon, by their clans and their fathers' houses,
- 39 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who could come on duty for service in the tent of meeting —
- 40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand and six hundred and thirty. those listed by their clans and fathers' houses were 2,630.
- 41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD. These are the people listed of the clans of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron listed according to the commandment of the LORD.
- 42 And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, Those listed of the clans of the sons of Merari, by their clans and their fathers' houses,

- 43 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation: from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who could come on duty for service in the tent of meeting —
- 44 Even those that were numbered of them after their families, were three thousand and two hundred. those listed by their clans were 3,200.
- 45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. These are those listed of the clans of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron listed according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.
- 46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of their fathers, All those who were listed of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chiefs of Israel listed, by their clans and their fathers' houses,
- 47 From thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, every one that came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation, from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who could come to do the service of ministry and the service of bearing burdens in the tent of meeting —
- 48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hundred and fourscore. those listed were 8,580.
- 49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service, and according to his burden: thus were they numbered of him, as the LORD commanded Moses. According to the commandment of the LORD, through Moses, each one was listed to his specific task of serving or carrying; thus they were listed by Moses, as the LORD commanded Him.

Chapter 5

The LORD commands the removal of unclean persons from the camp and gives laws requiring restitution for wrongs. He then gives the law of jealousy -- a test by bitter water to determine whether a wife has been unfaithful to her husband.

| 7 Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed. | he shall confess His sin that He has committed. And He shall make full restitution for His wrong, adding a fifth to it and giving it to Him to whom He did the wrong. |

- 8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him. But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for Him.
- 9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his. every contribution, all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, shall be his.
- 10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his. Each one shall keep his own holy things: whatever anyone gives to the priest shall be his.'
- 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him, 'Speak to the children of Israel, If any man's wife goes astray and breaks faith with Him,
- 13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner; if a man lies with her sexually. It is hidden from the eyes of her husband. She is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her, since she was not caught in the act,
- 14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled: if the spirit of jealousy comes over Him and He is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself, or if the spirit of jealousy comes over Him and He is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself,

- 15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance. then the man shall bring his wife to the priest and bring the offering required of her, a tenth of an ephah of barley flour. He shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.
- 16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD: the priest shall bring her near and set her before the LORD.
- 17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water: the priest shall take holy water in an earthenware vessel and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.
- 18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse: the priest shall set the woman before the LORD and unbind the hair of the woman's head and place in her hands the grain offering of remembrance, which is the grain offering of jealousy. And in His hand the priest shall have the water of bitterness that brings the curse.
- 19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse: Then the priest shall make her take an oath, saying to her, If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness while under your husband's authority, be free from this water of bitterness that brings the curse.
- 20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee beside thine husband: But if you have gone astray, though you are under your husband's authority, and if you have defiled yourself. Some man other than your husband has lain with you,

- 21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell; then (the priest shall make the woman take the oath of the curse, and the priest shall say to the woman), the LORD make You a curse and an oath among Your people, when the LORD makes Your thigh fall away and Your body swell.
- 22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. May this water that brings the curse pass into your bowels and make your womb swell and your thigh fall away. And the woman shall say, Amen, Amen.
- 23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water: Then the priest shall write these curses in a book and wash them off into the water of bitterness.
- 24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter. he shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain.
- 25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar: the priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand and shall wave the grain offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar.
- 26 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water. the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering, as its memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.

- 27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people. when he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has broken faith with her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain. Her womb shall swell. Her thigh shall fall away, and the woman shall become a curse among her people.
- 28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed. But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be free and shall conceive children.
- 29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled; This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, though under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself,
- 30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. or when the spirit of jealousy comes over a man and he is jealous over his wife. Then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute all this law over her.
- 31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity.'

Chapter 6

The LORD gives the law of the Nazirite vow: the person must abstain from wine, not cut his hair, and avoid contact with the dead for the duration of the vow. The chapter concludes with the Aaronic blessing: 'The LORD bless thee, and keep thee.'

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims: and he spake unto him.

when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, He heard the voice speaking to Him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim. It spoke to Him.

Chapter 8

The LORD instructs Moses to set up the lampstand and to consecrate the Levites for service by sprinkling them with water of purification, shaving their bodies, and offering sacrifices. The Levites are set apart from the rest of Israel as a wave offering to the LORD, serving in the tent of meeting from age twenty-five to fifty.

- 6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them. 'Take the Levites from among the people of Israel and cleanse them.
- 7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean. this is what You shall do to them to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of purification on them, and let them shave all their body and wash their clothes and cleanse themselves.
- 8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering. Then let them take a bull from the herd and its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, and You shall take another bull from the herd for a sin offering.
- 9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together: you shall bring the Levites before the tent of meeting and assemble the whole congregation of the people of Israel.
- 10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites: When You bring the Levites before the LORD, the people of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites,
- 11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the LORD. Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the people of Israel, that they may do the service of the LORD.
- 12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and You shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD to make atonement for the Levites.
- 13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD. you shall set the Levites before Aaron and his sons, and shall offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

- 14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine. Thus You shall separate the Levites from among the people of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.
- 15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering. after that the Levites shall go in to serve at the tent of meeting, when You have cleansed them and offered them as a wave offering.
- 16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me. For they are wholly given to me from among the people of Israel. Instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn of all the people of Israel, I have taken them for myself.
- 17 For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself. For all the firstborn among the people of Israel are mine, both of man and of beast. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself,
- 18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel. I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the people of Israel.
- 19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary. I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the people of Israel, to do the service for the people of Israel at the tent of meeting and to make atonement for the people of Israel, that there may be no plague among the people of Israel when the people of Israel come near the sanctuary.'

- 20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them. Thus Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the people of Israel did to the Levites. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, the people of Israel did to them.
- 21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. the Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.
- 22 And after that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them. after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons; as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.
- 23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: 'This applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall come to do duty in the service of the tent of meeting.
- 25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more: from the age of fifty years they shall withdraw from the duty of the service and serve no more.
- 26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge. They minister to their brothers in the tent of meeting by keeping guard. But They shall do no service. Thus shall You do to the Levites in assigning their duties.'

Chapter 9

The LORD commands Israel to keep the Passover in the wilderness of Sinai, and provides for those who are unclean or on a journey to keep it one month later. The cloud of the LORD covers the tabernacle, and whenever it lifts the people set out; whenever it settles, they camp.

| 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, | the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, |
| 2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season. | 'Let the people of Israel keep the Passover at its appointed time. |
| 3 In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it. | On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, You shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its rules You shall keep it.' |
| 4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover. | So Moses told the people of Israel that they should keep the Passover. |
| 5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel. | they kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the people of Israel did. |
| 6 And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day: | there were certain people who were unclean through touching a human corpse, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day. They came before Moses and Aaron on that day. |

- 7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel? those men said to Him, 'We are unclean through touching a human corpse. Why are we kept from bringing the LORD's offering at its appointed time among the people of Israel?'
- 8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you. Moses said to them, 'Wait, that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning You.'
- 9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD. 'Speak to the people of Israel, saying, If any one of you or of Your descendants is unclean through touching a dead body, or is on a long journey, He shall still keep the Passover to the LORD.
- 11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. In the second month on the fourteenth day at twilight they shall keep it. They shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.
- 12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break any of its bones; according to all the statute for the Passover they shall keep it.
- 13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. But if a man is clean and is not on a journey, yet refrains from keeping the Passover, that person shall be cut off from His people because He did not bring the LORD's offering at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin.

- 14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. if a stranger sojourns among You and would keep the Passover to the LORD, according to the statute of the Passover and according to its rule, so shall He do. You shall have one statute, both for the sojourner and for the native.'
- 15 And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. On the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony. And at evening it was over the tabernacle like the appearance of fire until morning.
- 16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. So it was always: the cloud covered it by day and the appearance of fire by night.
- 17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. whenever the cloud lifted from over the tent, after that the people of Israel set out, and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the people of Israel camped.
- 18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. At the command of the LORD the people of Israel set out, and at the command of the LORD they camped. As long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.
- 19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the people of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not set out.

- 20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. Sometimes the cloud was a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they remained in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they set out.
- 21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. sometimes the cloud remained from evening until morning. And when the cloud lifted in the morning, they set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud lifted they set out.
- 22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, abiding there, the people of Israel remained in camp and did not set out, but when it lifted they set out.
- 23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. At the command of the LORD they camped, and at the command of the LORD they set out. They kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

The LORD commands Moses to make two silver trumpets for summoning the congregation and signaling the camps to march. Israel departs from Sinai in formation for the first time, and Moses asks Hobab his father-in-law to come with them as a guide.

- 1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. 'Make two silver trumpets. Of hammered work You shall make them, and You shall use them for summoning the congregation and for breaking camp.
- 3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. When both are blown, all the congregation shall gather themselves to You at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
- 4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee. But if they blow only one, then the chiefs, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall gather to You.
- 5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. When You blow an alarm, the camps that are on the east side shall set out.
- 6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys. when You blow an alarm the second time, the camps that are on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out.
- 7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm. But when the assembly is to be gathered together, You shall blow a long blast, but You shall not blow an alarm.
- 8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations. the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets. The trumpets shall be to you for a perpetual statute throughout your generations.

- 9 And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies. when You go to war in Your land against the adversary who oppresses you, then you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, that You may be remembered before the LORD Your God, and You shall be saved from Your enemies.
- 10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God. On the day of Your gladness also, and at Your appointed feasts and at the beginnings of Your months, You shall blow the trumpets over Your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of Your peace offerings. They shall be a reminder of You before Your God: I am the LORD Your God.'
- 11 And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud lifted from over the tabernacle of the testimony,
- 12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran. the people of Israel set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai. And the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran.
- 13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses.
- 14 In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. The standard of the camp of the people of Judah set out first by their companies, and over their company was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

- 15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar. over the company of the tribe of the people of Issachar was Nethanel the son of Zuar.
- 16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon. over the company of the tribe of the people of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.
- 17 And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing the tabernacle. when the tabernacle was taken down, the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari, who carried the tabernacle, set out.
- 18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur. the standard of the camp of Reuben set out by their companies, and over their company was Elizur the son of Shedeur.
- 19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. over the company of the tribe of the people of Simeon was Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.
- 20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel. over the company of the tribe of the people of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
- 21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came. Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things, and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.
- 22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud. the standard of the camp of the people of Ephraim set out by their companies, and over their company was Elishama the son of Ammihud.
- 23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. over the company of the tribe of the people of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

- 24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni. over the company of the tribe of the people of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.
- 25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, which was the rereward of all the camps throughout their hosts: and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. Then the standard of the camp of the people of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out by their companies, and over their company was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
- 26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran. over the company of the tribe of the people of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.
- 27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan. over the company of the tribe of the people of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.
- 28 Thus were the journeyings of the children of Israel according to their armies, when they set forward. This was the order of march of the people of Israel by their companies, when they set out.
- 29 And Moses said unto Hobab, the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father in law, We are journeying unto the place of which the LORD said, I will give it you: come thou with us, and we will do thee good: for the LORD hath spoken good concerning Israel. Moses said to Hobab the son of Raguel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, 'We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, "I will give it to You." Come with us. We will do good to You, for the LORD has promised good to Israel.'
- 30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. But He said to Him, 'I will not go. I will depart to my own land and to my family.'
- 31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us instead of eyes. he said, 'Please do not leave us, for You know where we should camp in the wilderness, and You will serve as eyes for us.'

- 32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee. if You do go with us, whatever good the LORD will do to us, the same will we do to You.'
- 33 And they departed from the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them. So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey. And the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.
- 34 And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp. the cloud of the LORD was over them by day, whenever they set out from the camp.
- 35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee. whenever the ark set out, Moses said, 'Arise, O LORD, and let Your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate You flee before You.'
- 36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel. when it rested, He said, 'Return, O LORD, to the ten thousand thousands of Israel.'

Chapter 11

The people complain about hardship and the LORD's fire burns the outskirts of the camp. They then weep for meat, remembering the food of Egypt; the LORD sends quail in great abundance but strikes the greedy with a severe plague. Moses appoints seventy elders, and the LORD puts His Spirit upon them.

| 1 | And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp. | the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes, and when the LORD heard it, His anger was kindled, and the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some outlying parts of the camp. |
| 2 | And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was quenched. | Then the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire died out. |
| 3 | And he called the name of that place Taberah: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them. | So the name of that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned among them. |
| 4 | And the mixt multitude that was among them fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? | Now the mixt multitude that was among them had a strong craving. And the people of Israel also wept again and said, 'Oh that we had meat to eat! |
| 5 | We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick; | We remember the fish we ate in Egypt that cost nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic. |
| 6 | But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes. | But now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at.' |
| 7 | And the manna was as coriander seed, and the colour thereof as the colour of bdellium. | Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like that of bdellium. |
| 8 | And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil. | The people went about and gathered it and ground it in hand mills or beat it in mortars and boiled it in pots and made cakes of it. And the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil. |

- 9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it. When the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell with it.
- 10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also was displeased. Moses heard the people weeping throughout their clans, everyone at the door of his tent. And the anger of the LORD blazed hotly, and Moses was displeased.
- 11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me? Moses said to the LORD, 'Why have You dealt ill with Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your sight, that You lay the burden of all this people on me?
- 12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry them in thy bosom, as a nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou swarest unto their fathers? Did I conceive all this people? Did I give them birth, that You should say to me, "Carry them in Your bosom, as a nurse carries a nursing child," to the land that You swore to give their fathers?
- 13 Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat. Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they weep before me and say, "Give us meat, that we may eat."
- 14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. I am not able to carry all this people alone; the burden is too heavy for me.
- 15 And if thou deal thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness. If You will treat me like this, kill me at once, if I find favor in Your sight, that I may not see my wretchedness.'

- 16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Gather for me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them take their stand there with You.
- 17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. I will come down and talk with You there. And I will take some of the Spirit that is on You and put it on them. They shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you may not bear it yourself alone.
- 18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat. say to the people, "Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and You shall eat meat, for You have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, 'Who will give us meat to eat? For it was better for us in Egypt.' Therefore the LORD will give You meat, and You shall eat.
- 19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days; You shall not eat just one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days,
- 20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt? but a whole month, until it comes out at Your nostrils and becomes loathsome to You, because You have rejected the LORD Who is among You and have wept before Him, saying, 'Why did we come out of Egypt?'"

- 21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month. But Moses said, 'The people among whom I am number 600,000 on foot, and you have said, "I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole month!"
- 22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them? Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, and be enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, and be enough for them?"
- 23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass unto thee or not. the LORD said to Moses, 'Is the LORD's hand shortened? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not.'
- 24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. And He gathered seventy men of the elders of the people and placed them around the tent.
- 25 And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease. Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Him, and took some of the Spirit that was on Him and put it on the seventy elders. And as soon as the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied. But they did so no more.
- 26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp. Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the Spirit rested on them. They were among those registered. But They had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp.

- 27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. a young man ran and told Moses, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.'
- 28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them. Joshua the son of Nun, the assistant of Moses from his youth, said, 'My lord Moses, stop them.'
- 29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them! But Moses said to him, 'Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit on them!'
- 30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel. Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.
- 31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth. Then a wind from the LORD sprang up and brought quail from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, around the camp, and about two cubits above the ground.
- 32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp. the people rose all that day and all night and all the next day, and gathered the quail. Those who gathered least gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.
- 33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. While the meat was yet between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people. The LORD struck down the people with a very great plague.

- 5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth. the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Miriam. They both came forward.
- 6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream. he said, 'Hear my words: If there is a prophet among You, I the LORD make myself known to Him in a vision; I speak with Him in a dream.
- 7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house. Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house.
- 8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? With Him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles. He beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were You not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?'
- 9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed. the anger of the LORD was kindled against them. He departed.
- 10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. When the cloud removed from over the tent, Miriam was leprous, like snow. And Aaron turned toward Miriam. She was leprous.
- 11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. Aaron said to Moses, 'Oh, my lord, do not punish us because we have done foolishly and have sinned.
- 12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb. Let her not be as one dead, whose flesh is half eaten away when he comes out of his mother's womb.'

Chapter 13

The LORD commands Moses to send twelve spies, one from each tribe, to scout the land of Canaan. After forty days they return with grapes, pomegranates, and figs, but ten of the spies give a fearful report, saying the inhabitants are giants and the land devours its people; only Caleb and Joshua urge Israel to go up.

- 16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua. These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua.
- 17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain: Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan and said to them, 'Go up this way into the south and go up into the hill country,
- 18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many; see what the land is, and whether the people who dwell in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many,
- 19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds; whether the land that they dwell in is good or bad, and whether the cities that they dwell in are camps or strongholds,
- 20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes. whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are trees in it or not. Be of good courage and bring some of the fruit of the land.' Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.
- 21 So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath. So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, as men come to Hamath.
- 22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) They went up into the south, and came to Hebron. Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anak, were there. Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.
- 23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs. they came to the Valley of Eshcol and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes. They carried it on a pole between two of them; they also brought some pomegranates and figs.

- 24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence. That place was called the Valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster that the people of Israel cut down from there.
- 25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days. At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land.
- 26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land. they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the people of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh. They brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.
- 27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. they told him, 'We came to the land to which you sent us. It flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.
- 28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there. However, the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. And besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.
- 29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan. The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south. The Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the hill country. And the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and along the Jordan.'
- 30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. But Caleb quieted the people before Moses and said, 'Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it.'
- 31 But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. Then the men who had gone up with him said, 'We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are.'

- 32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. So they brought to the people of Israel a bad report of the land that they had spied out, saying, "The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that devours its inhabitants. All the people that we saw in it are of great height.
- 33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight. there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, who come from the giants. We seemed to ourselves like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them.'

The people weep, rebel, and threaten to choose a new leader to return to Egypt. The LORD threatens to destroy them, but Moses intercedes; God pardons the nation but decrees that the entire adult generation except Caleb and Joshua will die in the wilderness over forty years. The people then presumptuously try to invade Canaan and are defeated.

- 3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? Why is the LORD bringing us into this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become plunder. Would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?
- 4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt. they said to one another, 'Let us choose a leader and go back to Egypt.'
- 5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the people of Israel.
- 6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes: Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes
- 7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land. said to all the congregation of the people of Israel, 'The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an greatly good land.
- 8 If the LORD delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey. If the LORD delights in us, He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey.
- 9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, neither fear ye the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not. Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not fear the people of the land, for they are our prey. Their protection has been removed from them. The LORD is with us. Do not fear them.'
- 10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel. But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the people of Israel.

- 11 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them? the LORD said to Moses, 'How long will this people despise me? And how long will they not believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them?
- 12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they. I will strike them with pestilence and disinherit them. I will make of You a nation greater and mightier than they.'
- 13 And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;) But Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for You brought up this people in Your might from among them,
- 14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that You, O LORD, are in the midst of this people. For You, O LORD, are seen face to face, and Your cloud stands over them and You go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.
- 15 Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, Now if You kill this people as one man, then the nations who have heard your fame will say,
- 16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness. "Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land that He swore to give them, He has slaughtered them in the wilderness."
- 17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, now, please let the power of the Lord be great as You have promised, saying,

- 18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. "The LORD is longsuffering and abounding in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression. But He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, to the third and the fourth generation."
- 19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now. Please pardon the iniquity of this people, according to the greatness of Your mercy, just as You have forgiven this people, from Egypt until now.'
- 20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to thy word: Then the LORD said, 'I have pardoned, according to Your word.
- 21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. But truly, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD,
- 22 Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice; none of the men who have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have put me to the test these ten times and have not obeyed my voice,
- 23 Surely they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it: shall see the land that I swore to give to their fathers. None of those who despised me shall see it.
- 24 But my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it. But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me fully, I will bring into the land into which he went. His descendants shall possess it.

- 25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea. Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valleys. Turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.'
- 26 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 27 How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. 'How long shall this wicked congregation grumble against me? I have heard the grumbings of the people of Israel, which they grumble against me.
- 28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you: Say to them, "As I live," declares the LORD, "what You have said in my hearing I will do to You:
- 29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, and of all Your number, listed in the census from twenty years old and upward, who have grumbled against me,
- 30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I sware to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. not one shall come into the land where I swore that I would make you dwell, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.
- 31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised. But your little ones, who you said would become plunder, I will bring in. They shall know the land that you have rejected.
- 32 But as for you, your carcases, they shall fall in this wilderness. But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.

- 33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness. your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years and shall bear your whoredoms, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness.
- 34 After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my breach of promise. According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a year for each day, you shall bear your iniquity forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.
- 35 I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die. I, the LORD, have spoken. Surely this will I do to all this wicked congregation who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die."
- 36 And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing up a bad report about the land—
- 37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, died by the plague before the LORD. those men who brought up a bad report of the land died by plague before the LORD.
- 38 But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still. Of those men who went to spy out the land, only Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive.
- 39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. When Moses told these words to all the people of Israel, the people mourned greatly.

- 40 And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned. they rose early in the morning and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, 'Here we are. We will go up to the place that the LORD has promised, for we have sinned.'
- 41 And Moses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper. But Moses said, 'Why are you transgressing the command of the LORD? For that will not succeed.
- 42 Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies. Do not go up, for the LORD is not among You, lest You be struck down before Your enemies.
- 43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before You, and You shall fall by the sword. Because You have turned back from the LORD, the LORD will not be with You.'
- 44 But they presumed to go up unto the hill top: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, departed not out of the camp. But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, even though the ark of the covenant of the LORD and Moses did not depart out of the camp.
- 45 Then the Amalekites came down, and the Canaanites which dwelt in that hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah. Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and defeated them, pursuing them to Hormah.

Chapter 15

The LORD gives additional laws concerning grain and drink offerings that must accompany animal sacrifices in the Promised Land. He commands the wearing of fringes with a blue cord on their garments as a reminder to keep His commandments, and a man found gathering sticks on the Sabbath is stoned to death by the congregation.

- 9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil. then You shall offer with the bull a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with half a hin of oil.
- 10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. you shall offer for the drink offering half a hin of wine, as a offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. Thus it shall be done for each bull or ram, or for each of the male lambs or the young goats.
- 12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number. According to the number that You offer, so shall You do for each one, according to their number.
- 13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. Every native Israelite shall do these things in this way, in offering a offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do. if a stranger is sojourning with You, or anyone is living among you throughout your generations. He wishes to offer a offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD, He shall do as You do.
- 15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD. For the assembly, there shall be one statute for You and for the stranger who sojourns with You, a statute forever throughout Your generations. You and the sojourner shall be alike before the LORD.
- 16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you. One law and one rule shall be for You and for the stranger who sojourns with You.'
- 17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you, 'Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, when you come into the land to which I am bringing You
- 19 Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave offering unto the LORD. when You eat of the bread of the land, You shall present a contribution to the LORD.
- 20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for an heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the threshingfloor, so shall ye heave it. Of the first of Your dough You shall present a loaf as a contribution; like a contribution from the threshing floor, so shall You present it.
- 21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations. Some of the first of Your dough You shall give to the LORD as a contribution throughout Your generations.
- 22 And if ye have erred, and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses, But if You sin unintentionally, and do not observe all these commandments that the LORD has spoken to Moses—
- 23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations; all that the LORD has commanded You by Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandment, and onward throughout Your generations—
- 24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. then if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer one bull from the herd for a burnt offering, a sweet savour unto the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the rule, and one male goat for a sin offering.

- 25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance: the priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the people of Israel. They shall be forgiven, because it was a mistake. They have brought their offering, a offering made by fire to the LORD. Their sin offering before the LORD for their mistake.
- 26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance. all the congregation of the people of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who sojourns among them, because the whole population was involved in the mistake.
- 27 And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering. If one person sins unintentionally, He shall offer a female goat a year old for a sin offering.
- 28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him. the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who makes a mistake, when He sins unintentionally, to make atonement for Him. He shall be forgiven.
- 29 Ye shall have one law for him that sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them. You shall have one law for Him who does anything unintentionally, for Him who is native among the people of Israel and for the stranger who sojourns among them.
- 30 But the soul that doeth ought presumptuously, whether he be born in the land, or a stranger, the same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people. But the person who does anything with a high hand, whether He is native or a stranger, reviles the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among His people.

- 31 Because he hath despised the word of the LORD, and hath broken his commandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him. Because He has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that person shall be utterly cut off; His iniquity shall be on Him.'
- 32 And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day.
- 33 And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation.
- 34 And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him. They put him in custody, because it had not been made clear what should be done to him.
- 35 And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. the LORD said to Moses, 'The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone Him with stones outside the camp.'
- 36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses. all the congregation brought Him outside the camp and stoned Him to death with stones, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 37 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue: 'Speak to the people of Israel, and tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a cord of blue on the tassel of each corner.

39	And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye seek not after your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring:	it shall be a tassel for You to look at and remember all the commandments of the LORD, to do them, not to follow after Your own heart and Your own eyes, which You are inclined to pursue after in unfaithfulness.
40	That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.	So You shall remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to Your God.
41	I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.	I am the LORD Your God, Who brought You out of the land of Egypt to be Your God: I am the LORD Your God.'

Korah, Dathan, and Abiram lead a rebellion of 250 leaders against the authority of Moses and Aaron. The LORD causes the earth to open and swallow Korah's company alive, and fire from the LORD consumes the 250 men offering incense. The next day the congregation grumbles again, and a plague kills 14,700 before Aaron makes atonement.

1	Now Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:	Now Korah the son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men.
2	And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown:	they rose up before Moses, with 250 chiefs of the congregation, chosen from the assembly, well-known men.

- 3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, Ye take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD? They assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron and said to them, 'You have gone too far! For all in the congregation are holy, every one of them. The LORD is among them. Why then do You exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?'
- 4 And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face: When Moses heard it, he fell on his face,
- 5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who are his, and who is holy; and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will he cause to come near unto him. he said to Korah and all His company, 'In the morning the LORD will show who is His, and who is holy, and will bring Him near to Himself. The one whom He chooses He will bring near to Himself.
- 6 This do; Take you censers, Korah, and all his company; Do this: take censers, Korah and all His company;
- 7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sons of Levi. put fire in them and put incense before the LORD tomorrow, and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You have gone too far, sons of Levi!
- 8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi: Moses said to Korah, 'Hear now, you sons of Levi:
- 9 Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? is it too small a thing for You that the God of Israel has separated You from the congregation of Israel, to bring You near to Himself, to do service in the tabernacle of the LORD and to stand before the congregation to minister to them,

- 10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also? that He has brought You near Him. All Your brothers the sons of Levi with You? And would You seek the priesthood also?
- 11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him? Therefore it is against the LORD that You and all Your company have gathered together. What is Aaron that you grumble against him?
- 12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up: Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab. They said, 'We will not come up.
- 13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us? Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also make yourself a prince over us?
- 14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up. Moreover, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up.'
- 15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. Moses was very angry and said to the LORD, 'Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them. I have not harmed one of them.'
- 16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow: Moses said to Korah, 'Be present, you and all your company, before the LORD, You and they and Aaron, tomorrow.

- 17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer. let every one of you take his censer and put incense on it, and every one of you bring before the LORD His censer — 250 censers — you also and Aaron, each his censer.'
- 18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron. So every man took his censer and put fire in it and laid incense on it and stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.
- 19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation. Then Korah assembled all the congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation.
- 20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying,
- 21 Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment. 'Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.'
- 22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation? they fell on their faces and said, 'O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will You be angry with all the congregation?'
- 23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. 'Tell the congregation to get away from the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.'

- 25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him. Then Moses rose and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.
- 26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins. he spoke to the congregation, saying, 'Depart, please, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be swept away in all their sins.'
- 27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children. So they moved away from the dwelling of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side. And Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, together with their wives, their sons. Their little children.
- 28 And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them of mine own mind. Moses said, 'By this you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, and that it has not been of my own accord.
- 29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hath not sent me. If these men die as all men die, or if they are visited by the fate of all mankind, then the LORD has not sent me.
- 30 But if the LORD make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. But if the LORD does something unprecedented, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them. They go down alive into the pit, then You shall know that these men have despised the LORD.'
- 31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them: as soon as He had finished speaking all these words, the ground under them split apart.

- 32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods. the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the people who belonged to Korah and all their goods.
- 33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation. So they and all that belonged to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed over them. They perished from the midst of the assembly.
- 34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also. all Israel who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, 'Lest the earth swallow us up too!'
- 35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense. fire came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men offering the incense.
- 36 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed. 'Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest to take up the censers out of the blaze. Then scatter the fire far and wide, for they have become holy —
- 38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them be made broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel. the censers of these men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Let them be hammered into flat plates as a covering for the altar, for they offered them before the LORD. They have become holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the people of Israel.'
- 39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar: So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned had offered. They were hammered out as a covering for the altar,

- 40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses. to be a reminder to the people of Israel, so that no outsider, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, should draw near to offer incense before the LORD, lest He become like Korah and His company — as the LORD said to Him through Moses.
- 41 But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD. But on the next day all the congregation of the people of Israel grumbled against Moses and against Aaron, saying, 'You have killed the people of the LORD.'
- 42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. when the congregation had assembled against Moses and against Aaron, they turned toward the tent of meeting. And the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.
- 43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation. Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting.
- 44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces. 'Get away from the midst of this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.' And they fell on their faces.
- 46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun. Moses said to Aaron, 'Take your censer, and put fire on it from off the altar and lay incense on it and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun.'

The LORD commands that twelve staffs, one for each tribal leader, be placed in the tent of meeting to settle the dispute over the priesthood. Aaron's staff for the tribe of Levi sprouts, buds, blossoms, and produces ripe almonds overnight, confirming his chosen priesthood.

Chapter 18

The LORD tells Aaron that he and his sons shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary and the priesthood. The Levites are given to serve Aaron, and the priests receive the firstfruits, firstborn offerings, and portions of the sacrifices; the Levites receive all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance, and they in turn tithe to the priests.

- 2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness. bring Your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of Your father, that they may join You and minister to You while You and Your sons with You are before the tent of the testimony.
- 3 And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor ye also, die. They shall keep guard over You and over the whole tent. But They shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary or to the altar lest they, and You, die.
- 4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you. They shall join You and keep guard over the tent of meeting for all the service of the tent, and no outsider shall come near You.
- 5 And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel. you shall keep guard over the sanctuary and over the altar, that there may never again be wrath on the people of Israel.
- 6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. I have taken Your brothers the Levites from among the people of Israel. They are a gift to you, given to the LORD, to do the service of the tent of meeting.
- 7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and within the veil; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death. you and Your sons with You shall guard Your priesthood for all that concerns the altar and that is within the veil. You shall serve. I give Your priesthood as a gift, and any outsider who comes near shall be put to death.'

- 8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever. Then the LORD spoke to Aaron, ' I have given you charge of the contributions made to me, all the consecrated things of the people of Israel. I have given them to you as a portion and to Your sons as a perpetual due.
- 9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons. This shall be Yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs, every grain offering of theirs, every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they render to me, shall be most holy for You and for Your sons.
- 10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee. In a most holy place You shall eat it. Every male may eat it; it is holy to You.
- 11 And this is thine; the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it. This also is Yours: the contribution of their gift, all the wave offerings of the people of Israel. I have given them to you, and to Your sons and daughters with You, as a perpetual due. Everyone who is clean in Your house may eat it.
- 12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee. All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the firstfruits of what they give to the LORD, I give to You.
- 13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it. The first ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be Yours. Everyone who is clean in Your house may eat it.

- 14 Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine. Every devoted thing in Israel shall be Yours.
- 15 Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem. Everything that opens the womb of all flesh, which they offer to the LORD, whether human or animal, shall be Yours. Nevertheless, the firstborn of man You shall redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals You shall redeem.
- 16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs. their redemption price, at a month old You shall redeem them, shall be five shekels in silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.
- 17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD. But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, You shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar and shall burn their fat as a offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD.
- 18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine. But their flesh shall be Yours, as the breast that is waved and as the right thigh are Yours.
- 19 All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee. All the contributions of the holy things that the people of Israel present to the LORD I give to You and to Your sons and daughters with You, as a perpetual due. It is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD for You and for Your seed with You.'

- 20 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. the LORD said to Aaron, 'You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them. I am your portion and Your inheritance among the people of Israel.
- 21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service that they do, their service in the tent of meeting.
- 22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and die. from now on the people of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin and die.
- 23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. But the Levites shall do the service of the tent of meeting. They shall bear their iniquity. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout Your generations, and among the people of Israel they shall have no inheritance.
- 24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance. For the tithe of the people of Israel, which they present as a contribution to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance. Therefore I have said of them that they shall have no inheritance among the people of Israel.'
- 25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

- 26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part of the tithe. 'Speak to the Levites and say to them, when You take from the people of Israel the tithe that I have given you from them for Your inheritance, then You shall present a contribution from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.
- 27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress. your contribution shall be counted to You as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.
- 28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest. So You shall also present a contribution to the LORD from all Your tithes, which You receive from the people of Israel. And from it you shall give the LORD's contribution to Aaron the priest.
- 29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it. Out of all the gifts to You, You shall present every contribution due to the LORD; from each its best part is to be dedicated.'
- 30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress. So You shall say to them, 'When You have offered from it the best of it, then the rest shall be counted to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor, and as produce of the winepress.
- 31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. you may eat it in any place, You and Your households, for it is Your reward in return for Your service in the tent of meeting.

- 32 And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die. you shall bear no sin by reason of it, when You have contributed the best of it. But You shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, lest you die.'

Chapter 19

The LORD gives the law of the red heifer: a perfect, unblemished red cow is slaughtered and burned outside the camp, and its ashes are mixed with water to create the water of purification. Anyone who touches a dead body is unclean seven days and must be sprinkled with this water on the third and seventh day.

- 8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even. The one who burns the heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water and shall be unclean until evening.
- 9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin. a man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place. And they shall be kept for the water for impurity for the congregation of the people of Israel; it is a purification offering.
- 10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever. the one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. And this shall be a perpetual statute for the people of Israel, and for the stranger who sojourns among them.
- 11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. Whoever touches the dead body of any person shall be unclean seven days.
- 12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. He shall cleanse himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so be clean. But if he does not cleanse himself on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not become clean.

- 13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him. Whoever touches a dead person, the body of any human being who has died, and does not cleanse Himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water for impurity was not thrown on Him, He shall be unclean. His uncleanness is still on Him.
- 14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. This is the law when someone dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be unclean seven days.
- 15 And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean. every open vessel that has no cover fastened on it is unclean.
- 16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. Whoever in the open field touches someone who was killed with a sword or who died naturally, or touches a human bone or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.
- 17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereto in a vessel: For the unclean they shall take some ashes of the burnt purification offering, and fresh water shall be added to them in a vessel.
- 18 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave: Then a clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water and sprinkle it on the tent and on all the furnishings and on the persons who were there and on whoever touched the bone, or the slain or the dead or the grave.

- 20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. But the man who is unclean and does not cleanse himself, that person shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, since He has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. Because the water for impurity has not been thrown on Him, He is unclean.
- 21 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even. it shall be a perpetual statute for them. The one who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash His clothes, and the one who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.
- 22 And whatsoever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even. whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and anyone who touches it shall be unclean until evening.'

Chapter 20

The congregation arrives at Kadesh, where Miriam dies. The people quarrel over the lack of water, and the LORD tells Moses to speak to the rock; instead Moses strikes it twice and is forbidden from entering the Promised Land. Edom refuses Israel passage, and Aaron dies on Mount Hor, where Eleazar succeeds him as priest.

- 12 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, 'Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them.'
- 13 This is the water of Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them. These are the waters of Meribah, where the people of Israel quarreled with the LORD, and through them He showed Himself holy.
- 14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the travel that hath befallen us: Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: 'Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the hardship that has come upon us—

- 15 How our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have dwelt in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us, and our fathers: how our fathers went down to Egypt. We lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians dealt harshly with us and our fathers.
- 16 And when we cried unto the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border: when we cried to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. And now we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of Your territory.
- 17 Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders. Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, or drink water from a well. We will go along the King's Highway. We will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory.'
- 18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword. But Edom said to him, 'You shall not pass through, lest I come out with the sword against you.'
- 19 And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet. the people of Israel said to him, 'We will go up by the highway, and if we drink of your water, we and our livestock, then we will pay for it. Let us only pass through on foot — nothing more.'
- 20 And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand. But he said, 'You shall not pass through.' And Edom came out against them with a large army and with a strong force.
- 21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him. Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory, so Israel turned away from him.

- 22 And the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor. they journeyed from Kadesh, and the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.
- 23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom,
- 24 Aaron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my word at the water of Meribah. 'Let Aaron be gathered to his people, for he shall not enter the land that I have given to the people of Israel, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.
- 25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor: Take Aaron and Eleazar his son and bring them up to Mount Hor.
- 26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. strip Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron shall be gathered to his people and shall die there.'
- 27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. Moses did as the LORD commanded. They went up Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.
- 28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount. Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.
- 29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel. when all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel wept for Aaron thirty days.

Chapter 21

Israel defeats the Canaanite king of Arad, then grows impatient and speaks against God and Moses. The LORD sends fiery serpents that kill many; when the people repent, Moses makes a bronze serpent on a pole and all who look at it live. Israel then defeats Sihon king of the Amorites and Og king of Bashan.

| 1 And when king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners. | When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the south, heard that Israel was coming by the way of the spies, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive. |
| 2 And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities. | Israel vowed a vow to the LORD and said, 'If You will indeed give this people into my hand, then I will devote their cities to destruction.' |
| 3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah. | the LORD heeded the voice of Israel and gave over the Canaanites. They devoted them and their cities to destruction. So the name of the place was called Hormah. |
| 4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. | From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the people became impatient on the way. |
| 5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread. | the people spoke against God and against Moses, 'Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water. We detest this worthless food.' |

- 6 And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died. Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people. They bit the people, so that many people of Israel died.
- 7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. the people came to Moses and said, 'We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against You. Pray to the LORD, that He take away the serpents from us.' So Moses prayed for the people.
- 8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. the LORD said to Moses, 'Make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole, and everyone who is bitten, when He sees it, shall live.'
- 9 And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived. So Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on a pole. And if a serpent bit anyone, he would look at the bronze serpent and live.
- 10 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth. the people of Israel set out and camped in Oboth.
- 11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at Ijeabarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising. they set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness that is opposite Moab, toward the sunrise.
- 12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared. From there they set out and camped in the Valley of Zered.
- 13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. From there they set out and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites, for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

- 14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, What he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Arnon, Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, 'What He did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Arnon,
- 15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth upon the border of Moab. the slope of the valleys that extends to the dwelling of Ar, and leans to the border of Moab.'
- 16 And from thence they went to Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water. from there they continued to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, 'Gather the people together, so that I may give them water.'
- 17 Then Israel sang this song, Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it: Then Israel sang this song: 'Spring up, O well! — sing to it! —
- 18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah: the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people excavated, with the scepter and with their staffs.' And from the wilderness they went on to Mattanah,
- 19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth: from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,
- 20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jeshimon. from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah that looks down on the desert.
- 21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,
- 22 Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders. 'Let me pass through your land. We will not turn aside into field or vineyard. We will not drink the water of a well. We will go by the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory.'

- 23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel. But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. He gathered all his people together and went out against Israel to the wilderness and came to Jahaz and fought against Israel.
- 24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. Israel defeated him with the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites, for the border of the Ammonites was strong.
- 25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages thereof. Israel took all these cities. Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.
- 26 For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon. For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, as far as the Arnon.
- 27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared: Therefore the ballad singers say, 'Come to Heshbon, let it be built; let the city of Sihon be established.
- 28 For there is a fire gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon. For fire came out from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon. It devoured Ar of Moab, and swallowed the heights of the Arnon.
- 29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites. Woe to you, O Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has made his sons fugitives. His daughters captives, to an Amorite king, Sihon.

| 30 | We have shot at them; Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon, and we have laid them waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba. | So we overthrew them; Heshbon, as far as Dibon, perished. And we laid waste as far as Nophah; fire spread as far as Medeba.' |
| 31 | Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites. | So Israel lived in the land of the Amorites. |
| 32 | And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there. | Moses sent to spy out Jazer. They captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there. |
| 33 | And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei. | Then they turned and went up by the way to Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan came out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. |
| 34 | And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. | But the LORD said to Moses, 'Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand. All His people. His land. And you shall do to Him as You did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.' |
| 35 | So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land. | So they defeated Him and His sons and all His people, until He had no survivor left. And they possessed His land. |

Balak king of Moab, terrified of Israel, sends messengers to hire the prophet Balaam to curse them. God forbids Balaam to go, then permits him to go with the condition that he speak only God's words; on the way, the LORD's angel blocks the road and Balaam's donkey speaks to him.

- 1 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho. Then the people of Israel set out and camped in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan at Jericho.
- 2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
- 3 And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel. Moab was in great dread of the people, because they were many. Moab was overcome with fear of the people of Israel.
- 4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. Moab said to the elders of Midian, 'This horde will now lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field.' So Balak the son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time,
- 5 He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the son of Beor to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me: sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River in the land of the children of His people, to call Him, saying, 'There is a people who have come out of Egypt. They cover the face of the earth. They are dwelling opposite me.
- 6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. Come now, curse this people for me, since they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land, for I know that He whom You bless is blessed. He whom You curse is cursed.'

- 7 And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak. So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand. And they came to Balaam and gave Him Balak's message.
- 8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam. he said to them, 'Lodge here tonight. I will bring You word again, as the LORD speaks to me.' So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.
- 9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee? God came to Balaam and said, 'Who are these men with You?'
- 10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, Balaam said to God, 'Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent to me, saying,
- 11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out. "There is a people who have come out of Egypt. They cover the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me. Perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out."
- 12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed. God said to Balaam, 'You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.'
- 13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you. So Balaam rose in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, 'Go back to Your own land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with You.'
- 14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us. So the princes of Moab rose and went to Balak and said, 'Balaam refuses to come with us.'
- 15 And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they. Then Balak sent again a larger number of more distinguished officials than these.

- 16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me: they came to Balaam and said to Him, 'Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: "Let nothing hinder You from coming to me,
- 17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people. for I will surely do You great honor, and whatever You say to me I will do. Come, curse this people for me.'"
- 18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. But Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, 'Though Balak were to give me His house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God to do less or more.
- 19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more. So You, too, please stay here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me.'
- 20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do. God came to Balaam at night and said to Him, 'If the men have come to call You, rise, go with them; but only do what I tell You.'
- 21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab. So Balaam rose in the morning and saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab.
- 22 And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. But God's anger was kindled because He went, and the angel of the LORD took His stand in the road as His adversary. Now He was riding on the donkey. His two servants were with Him.

- 23 And the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way. the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in His hand. And the donkey turned aside out of the road and went into the field. And Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the road.
- 24 Then the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on one side and a wall on the other.
- 25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again. when the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed against the wall and pressed Balaam's foot against the wall. So He struck her again.
- 26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. Then the angel of the LORD went ahead and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left.
- 27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff. When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam. And Balaam's anger was kindled. He struck the donkey with His staff.
- 28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times? Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey. She said to Balaam, 'What have I done to You, that You have struck me these three times?'
- 29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee. Balaam said to the donkey, 'Because You have made a fool of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill You.'

- 30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay. the donkey said to Balaam, 'Am I not Your donkey, on which You have ridden all Your life long to this day? Is it my habit to treat You this way?' And He said, 'No.'
- 31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face. Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam. He saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with His drawn sword in His hand. And He bowed down and fell on His face.
- 32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me: the angel of the LORD said to Him, 'Why have You struck Your donkey these three times? I have come out to oppose You because Your way is perverse before me.'
- 33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive. The donkey saw me and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have killed You and let her live.'
- 34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it displease thee, I will get me back again. Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, 'I have sinned, for I did not know that You stood in the road against me. Now therefore, if it is evil in Your sight, I will turn back.'
- 35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak. the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, 'Go with the men, but speak only the word that I tell You.' So Balaam went on with the princes of Balak.

- 36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast. When Balak heard that Balaam had come, He went out to meet Him at the city of Moab, on the border formed by the Arnon, at the extremity of the border.
- 37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote thee to honour? Balak said to Balaam, 'Did I not send to You to call You? Why did You not come to me? Am I not able to honor You?'
- 38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak. Balaam said to Balak, 'I have come to You now. Have I any power of my own to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that must I speak.'
- 39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto Kirjathhuzoth. Then Balaam went with Balak. They came to Kiriath-huzoth.
- 40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him. Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent some to Balaam and to the princes who were with Him.
- 41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people. on the next day Balak took Balaam and brought Him up to Bamoth-baal, and from there He could see the nearest portion of the people.

Chapter 23

Balak brings Balaam to three different high places to curse Israel, but each time the LORD puts a blessing in Balaam's mouth instead. Balaam declares that God is not a man that He should lie, and that He has blessed Israel and cannot reverse it.

- 1 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams. Balaam said to Balak, 'Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.'
- 2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram. Balak did as Balaam said. And Balak and Balaam offered on each altar a bull and a ram.
- 3 And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went to an high place. Balaam said to Balak, 'Stand beside Your burnt offering. I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell You.' And He went to a bare height.
- 4 And God met Balaam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram. God met Balaam, and Balaam said to Him, 'I have arranged the seven altars and have offered on each altar a bull and a ram.'
- 5 And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak. the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, 'Return to Balak, and thus You shall speak.'
- 6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab. he returned to Him, and there He was, standing beside His burnt offering, He and all the princes of Moab.
- 7 And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, defy Israel. Balaam took up his discourse and said, 'From Aram Balak has brought me, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains: "Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, denounce Israel!"
- 8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied? How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced?

- 9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations. For from the top of the crags I see Him, from the hills I see Him; a people dwelling alone, and not counting itself among the nations.
- 10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the upright, and let my end be like his!
- 11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether. Balak said to Balaam, 'What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and here you have done nothing but bless them.'
- 12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth? he answered and said, 'Must I not take care to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?'
- 13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence. Balak said to Him, 'Please come with me to another place, from which You may see them. You shall see only a portion of them and shall not see them all. Then curse them for me from there.'
- 14 And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar. he took Him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.
- 15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder. Balaam said to Balak, 'Stand here beside Your burnt offering, while I meet the LORD over there.'
- 16 And the LORD met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus. the LORD met Balaam and put a word in His mouth and said, 'Return to Balak, and thus shall You speak.'

- 17 And he came to him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What hath the LORD spoken? he came to Him, and there He was, standing beside His burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with Him. And Balak said to Him, 'What has the LORD spoken?'
- 18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor: Balaam took up His discourse and said, 'Rise, Balak, and hear; give ear to me, O son of Zippor.
- 19 God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good? God is not man, that He should lie, or a son of man, that He should change His mind. Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not fulfill it?
- 20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless: and he hath blessed; and I cannot reverse it. I have received a command to bless; He has blessed. I cannot revoke it.
- 21 He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them. He has not observed misfortune in Jacob, nor has he seen trouble in Israel. The LORD their God is with them, and the shout of a king is among them.
- 22 God brought them out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn. God brings them out of Egypt and is for them like the strength of a unicorn.
- 23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God wrought! For there is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel; now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel, "What has God done!"
- 24 Behold, the people shall rise up as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain. A people rises like a lioness; it rouses itself like a lion — it does not lie down until it has devoured the prey and drunk the blood of the slain.'

- 2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him. Balaam lifted up His eyes and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe. And the Spirit of God came upon Him,
- 3 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: he took up his discourse and said, 'The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
- 4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open: the oracle of Him who hears the words of God, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down with His eyes uncovered:
- 5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel! How lovely are your tents, O Jacob, your encampments, O Israel!
- 6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters. Like palm groves that stretch out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.
- 7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted. Water shall flow from His buckets. His seed shall be in many waters; His king shall be higher than Agag. His kingdom shall be exalted.
- 8 God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows. God brings Him out of Egypt and is for Him like the strength of a unicorn; He shall devour the nations, his adversaries, and shall break their bones in pieces and pierce them through with his arrows.
- 9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee. He crouched, He lay down like a lion and like a lioness; who will rouse Him up? Blessed are those who bless You, and cursed are those who curse You.'

- 10 And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times. Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam. He struck His hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, 'I called You to curse my enemies, and You have blessed them these three times.
- 11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour. Therefore now flee to Your own place. I said I would greatly honor You. But The LORD has held You back from honor.'
- 12 And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying, Balaam said to Balak, 'Did I not tell Your messengers whom You sent to me,
- 13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak? "If Balak should give me His house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own will. What the LORD speaks, that will I speak"?
- 14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days. now, I am going to my people. Come, I will let You know what this people will do to Your people in the latter days.'
- 15 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said: he took up his discourse and said, 'The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is opened,
- 16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open: the oracle of Him who hears the words of God, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, Who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down with His eyes uncovered:

- 17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near: a star shall come out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the forehead of Moab and break down all the sons of Sheth.
- 18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly. Edom shall be dispossessed; Seir also, his enemies, shall be dispossessed. Israel is doing valiantly.
- 19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city. one from Jacob shall exercise dominion and destroy the survivors of cities!'
- 20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever. Then he looked on Amalek and took up his discourse and said, 'Amalek was the first among the nations, but its end is destruction.'
- 21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and thou putttest thy nest in a rock. he looked on the Kenite and took up his discourse and said, 'Enduring is your dwelling place, and your nest is set in the rock.
- 22 Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted, until Asshur shall carry thee away captive. Nevertheless, the Kenite shall be wasted when Asshur takes you away captive.'
- 23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this! he took up his discourse and said, 'Alas, who shall live when God does this?
- 24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever. But ships shall come from Kittim and shall afflict Asshur and Eber. He too shall come to destruction.'
- 25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way. Then Balaam rose and went back to his place. And Balak also went his way.

Chapter 25

Israel commits whoredom with the daughters of Moab and worships Baal of Peor, provoking the LORD's anger. A plague kills 24,000 before Phinehas the priest drives a spear through an Israelite man and a Midianite woman; the LORD rewards Phinehas with a covenant of everlasting priesthood.

And Kohath begat Amram.
- 59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. And she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Miriam their sister.
- 60 And unto Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. to Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
- 61 And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD. But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered unauthorized fire before the LORD.
- 62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel. those listed were 23,000, every male from a month old and upward. For they were not listed among the people of Israel, because there was no inheritance given to them among the people of Israel.

And not one of them was left, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. |

The daughters of Zelophehad successfully petition Moses for an inheritance in the Promised Land since their father died without sons, and the LORD establishes the law of inheritance for all Israel. The LORD tells Moses to go up Mount Abarim and see the land, then commissions Joshua the son of Nun as Moses's successor.

- 2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season. 'Command the people of Israel and say to them, "My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, my sweet savour, You shall be careful to offer to me at its appointed time."
- 3 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering. you shall say to them, "This is the offering made by fire that You shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering.
- 4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even; One lamb You shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb You shall offer at twilight;
- 5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil. also a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with a quarter of a hin of beaten oil.
- 6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. It is a regular burnt offering, which was ordained at Mount Sinai for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
- 7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering. Its drink offering shall be a quarter of a hin for each lamb. In the sanctuary You shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.
- 8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD. The other lamb You shall offer at twilight. Like the grain offering of the morning and like its drink offering, You shall offer it as a offering made by fire, a sweet savour unto the LORD.

- 9 And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof: On the Sabbath day, two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering:

Moses gives the law of vows. A man's vow to the LORD is binding in every case, but a woman's vow may be voided by her father if she is in his house, or by her husband on the day he hears of it; if neither objects, her vow stands.

Chapter 31

The LORD commands Moses to execute vengeance on the Midianites for leading Israel into sin at Peor. Twelve thousand Israelite soldiers defeat Midian, killing all the males including the five kings of Midian and Balaam the son of Beor; the plunder is divided between the warriors and the congregation.

| 1 | And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, | The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, |
| 2 | Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites; afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people. | 'Avenge the people of Israel on the Midianites. Afterward you shall be gathered to Your people.' |
| 3 | And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian. | So Moses spoke to the people, saying, 'Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian. |
| 4 | Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war. | You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war.' |
| 5 | So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. | So there were furnished, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe — 12,000 armed for war. |
| 6 | And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. | Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, together with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his hand. |
| 7 | And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. | They warred against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and killed every male. |
| 8 | And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword. | They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. And they also killed Balaam the son of Beor with the sword. |

- 9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. the people of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones. They took as plunder all their cattle, all their flocks. All their goods.
- 10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire. All their cities in the places where they lived. All their encampments, they burned with fire.
- 11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts. they took all the plunder and all the spoil, both of people and of animals.
- 12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho. Then they brought the captives and the plunder and the spoil to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the people of Israel, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.
- 13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp. Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the chiefs of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp.
- 14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle. Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the battle.
- 15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive? Moses said to them, 'Have you let all the women live?
- 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD. these, on Balaam's advice, caused the people of Israel to act treacherously against the LORD in the incident of Peor, and so the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.

- 17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him. Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with Him.
- 18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. But all the young girls who have not known man by lying with Him, keep alive for yourselves.
- 19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day. Encamp outside the camp seven days. Whoever has killed any person and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves and Your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.
- 20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood. You shall also purify every garment, every article of skin, all work of goats' hair, and every article of wood.'
- 21 And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses; Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone to battle: 'This is the statute of the law that the LORD has commanded Moses:
- 22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead, only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,
- 23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water. everything that can stand fire, You shall pass through fire. It shall be clean. Nevertheless, it shall also be purified with the water for impurity. And whatever cannot stand fire, You shall pass through water.
- 24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp. You shall wash Your clothes on the seventh day, and You shall be clean. And afterward You may come into the camp.'

- 25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation: 'Take the count of the plunder that was taken, both of people and of animals, you and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the fathers' houses of the congregation.
- 27 And divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation: divide the plunder into two parts between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.
- 28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep: levy for the LORD a tribute from the men of war who went out to battle, one out of five hundred, of the people and of the oxen and of the donkeys and of the flocks.
- 29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave offering of the LORD. Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as a contribution to the LORD.
- 30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. from the people of Israel's half you shall take one out of every fifty, of the people, of the oxen, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, of every kind of animal, and give them to the Levites who keep guard over the tabernacle of the LORD.'
- 31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep, Now the plunder remaining of the spoil that the men of war had taken was 675,000 sheep,

- 33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves, 72,000 cattle,
- 34 And threescore and one thousand asses, 61,000 donkeys,
- 35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him. 32,000 persons in all, women who had not known man by lying with Him.
- 36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep: the half, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number 337,500 sheep,
- 37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen. the LORD's tribute of sheep was 675.
- 38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve. The cattle were 36,000, of which the LORD's tribute was 72.
- 39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one. The donkeys were 30,500, of which the LORD's tribute was 61.
- 40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons. The persons were 16,000, of which the LORD's tribute was 32 persons.
- 41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses. Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's contribution, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred, from the people of Israel's half, which Moses separated from that of the men who had gone to war —

- 43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep, now the congregation's half was 337,500 sheep,
- 44 And thirty and six thousand beeves, 36,000 cattle,
- 45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred, 30,500 donkeys,
- 46 And sixteen thousand persons;) 16,000 persons —
- 47 Even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Levites, which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. from the people of Israel's half Moses took one of every fifty, both of people and of animals, and gave them to the Levites who kept guard over the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.
- 48 And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Moses: Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, came near to Moses
- 49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us. said to Moses, 'Your servants have counted the men of war who are under our command, and there is not a man missing from us.
- 50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. we have brought the LORD's offering, what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and beads, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.'

| 51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels. | Moses and Eleazar the priest received from them the gold, all of it in worked articles. |
| 52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. | all the gold of the contribution that they contributed to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was 16,750 shekels. |
| 53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.) | The men of war had each taken plunder for Himself. |
| 54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD. | Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the people of Israel before the LORD. |

The tribes of Reuben and Gad, who have large herds, ask Moses for the land east of the Jordan as their inheritance. Moses rebukes them but agrees on the condition that their armed men cross the Jordan and fight alongside the other tribes until Canaan is conquered; the half-tribe of Manasseh also settles east of the Jordan.

- 2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying, the people of Gad and the people of Reuben came and said to Moses and to Eleazar the priest and to the chiefs of the congregation,
- 3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon, 'Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon,
- 4 Even the country which the LORD smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle: the land that the LORD struck down before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock, and Your servants have livestock.'
- 5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan. they said, 'If we have found favor in Your sight, let this land be given to Your servants for a possession. Do not take us across the Jordan.'
- 6 And Moses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here? But Moses said to the people of Gad and to the people of Reuben, 'Shall your brothers go to the war while you sit here?
- 7 And wherefore discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them? Why will You discourage the heart of the people of Israel from going over into the land that the LORD has given them?
- 8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadeshbarnea to see the land. Your fathers did this, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.
- 9 For when they went up unto the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the people of Israel from going into the land that the LORD had given them.

- 10 And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying, the LORD's anger was kindled on that day. He swore, saying,
- 11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not wholly followed me: "None of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not wholly followed me —
- 12 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite, and Joshua the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed the LORD. none except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have wholly followed the LORD."
- 13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed. the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel. He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was gone.
- 14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. you have risen in Your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD against Israel!
- 15 For if ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people. For if You turn away from following Him, He will again abandon them in the wilderness, and You will destroy all this people.'
- 16 And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones: Then they came near to Him and said, 'We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones,

- 17 But we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land. but we will take up arms, ready to go before the people of Israel, until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall live in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.
- 18 We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. We will not return to our homes until each of the people of Israel has gained his inheritance.
- 19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward. For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east.'
- 20 And Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war, Moses said to them, 'If you will do this, if you will take up arms to go before the LORD for the war,
- 21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies from before him, every armed man of You will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until He has driven out His enemies from before Him
- 22 And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. the land is subdued before the LORD; then after that You shall return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel, and this land shall be Your possession before the LORD.
- 23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out. But if You will not do so, You have sinned against the LORD, and be sure Your sin will find You out.
- 24 Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth. Build cities for Your little ones and folds for Your sheep, and do what You have promised.'

- 25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth. the people of Gad and the people of Reuben said to Moses, 'Your servants will do as my lord commands.
- 26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead: Our little ones, our wives, our flocks. All our livestock shall be there in the cities of Gilead,
- 27 But thy servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith. but Your servants will pass over, every man who is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord orders.'
- 28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel: So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel.
- 29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession: Moses said to them, 'If the people of Gad and the people of Reuben, every man who is armed to battle before the LORD, will pass with You over the Jordan and the land shall be subdued before You, then You shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession.
- 30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. But if they will not pass over with You armed, they shall have possessions among You in the land of Canaan.'
- 31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do. the people of Gad and the people of Reuben answered, 'What the LORD has said to Your servants, we will do.
- 32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours. We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan.'

- 33 And Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about. Moses gave to them — to the people of Gad and to the people of Reuben and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph — the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land and its cities with their territories, the cities of the surrounding land.
- 34 And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, the people of Gad built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,
- 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jaazer, and Jogbehah, Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,
- 36 And Bethnimrah, and Bethharan, fenced cities: and folds for sheep. Beth-nimrah and Beth-haran — fortified cities — and folds for sheep.
- 37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, the people of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim,
- 38 And Nebo, and Baalmeon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they builded. Nebo, and Baal-meon (their names were changed) and Sibmah. And they gave other names to the cities that they built.
- 39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it. the sons of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and captured it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.
- 40 And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt therein. Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh. He settled in it.
- 41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them Havothjair. Jair the son of Manasseh went and captured their villages and called them Havvoth-jair.

- 49 And they pitched by Jordan, from Bethjesimoth even unto Abelshittim in the plains of Moab. They camped by the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.
- 50 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying,
- 51 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan; 'Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, when you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
- 52 Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places: then You shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before You and destroy all their figured stones and destroy all their metal images and demolish all their high places.
- 53 And ye shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. you shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given the land to You to possess it.

- 54 And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit. You shall inherit the land by lot according to your clans. To a large clan you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small clan you shall give a small inheritance. Wherever the lot falls for anyone, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.
- 55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those of them whom you let remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They shall trouble you in the land where you dwell.
- 56 Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them. I will do to you as I thought to do to them.'

Chapter 34

The LORD defines the boundaries of the Promised Land on all four sides -- from the wilderness of Zin in the south to Mount Hor in the north, from the Great Sea in the west to the Jordan in the east. He appoints Eleazar the priest and Joshua, along with one leader from each tribe, to divide the land.

Chapter 35

The LORD commands Israel to give the Levites forty-eight cities with their pasturelands, including six cities of refuge where a person who kills another unintentionally may flee from the avenger of blood. The distinction between murder and manslaughter is defined, and the murderer must be put to death.

This shall belong to them as pastureland for their cities.
- 6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add forty and two cities. The cities that You give to the Levites shall be the six cities of refuge, where You shall permit the manslayer to flee, and in addition to them You shall give 42 cities.
- 7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs. All the cities that You give to the Levites shall be 48, with their pasturelands.
- 8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which he inheriteth. as for the cities that You shall give from the possession of the people of Israel, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes You shall take few; each, in proportion to its inheritance that it inherits, shall give of its cities to the Levites.'
- 9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,
- 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan; 'Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, when you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,
- 11 Then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at unawares. then You shall select cities to be cities of refuge for You, that the manslayer who kills any person without intent may flee there.

- 12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment. The cities shall be for You a refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer may not die until He stands before the congregation for judgment.
- 13 And of these cities which ye shall give six cities shall ye have for refuge. of the cities that You give, You shall have six cities of refuge.
- 14 Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge. You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge.
- 15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them: that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither. These six cities shall be for refuge for the people of Israel, and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, that anyone who kills any person without intent may flee there.
- 16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. But if He struck Him down with an iron object, so that He died, He is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death.
- 17 And if he smite him with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. if He struck Him down with a stone in hand, by which a man may die. He died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death.
- 18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. Or if He struck Him down with a wooden weapon in hand, by which a man may die. He died, he is a murderer. The murderer shall be put to death.
- 19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him. The avenger of blood shall Himself put the murderer to death; when He meets Him, He shall put Him to death.
- 20 But if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him by laying of wait, that he die; if He pushed Him out of hatred or hurled something at Him, lying in wait, so that He died,

- 21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him. or in enmity struck Him down with His hand, so that He died, then He who struck the blow shall be put to death. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when He meets Him.
- 22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait, But if He pushed Him suddenly without enmity, or hurled anything on Him without lying in wait
- 23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm: or used a stone that could cause death, and without seeing Him dropped it on Him, so that He died, though He was not His enemy and did not seek His harm,
- 24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments: then the congregation shall judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these rules.
- 25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oil. the congregation shall rescue the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall return Him to His city of refuge to which He had fled. He shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.
- 26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled; But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the boundaries of His city of refuge to which He fled,
- 27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood: the avenger of blood finds Him outside the boundaries of His city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, He shall not be guilty of blood.

- 28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession. For He must remain in His city of refuge until the death of the high priest, but after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of His possession.
- 29 So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings. these things shall be for a statute and rule for You throughout Your generations in all Your dwelling places.
- 30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. If anyone kills a person, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses. But no person shall be put to death on the testimony of one witness.
- 31 Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death. Moreover, You shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death. But He shall be put to death.
- 32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest. you shall accept no ransom for Him who has fled to His city of refuge, that He may return to dwell in the land before the death of the high priest.
- 33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it defileth the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it. You shall not pollute the land in which You live, for blood pollutes the land, and no atonement can be made for the land for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of the one who shed it.
- 34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel. You shall not defile the land in which You live, in the midst of which I dwell, for I the LORD dwell in the midst of the people of Israel.'

Chapter 36

The clan leaders of Manasseh raise a concern that the inheritance of Zelophehad's daughters will transfer to another tribe if they marry outside their tribe. The LORD commands that women who inherit land must marry within their father's tribe, and Zelophehad's daughters marry their cousins.

Deuteronomy

Author: Moses — the book presents itself as Moses's own words (Deut 1:1), and Christ quoted it three times against Satan (Matt 4), attributing its authority to Moses.

Date written: c. 1405 BC, in the final weeks of Moses's life on the plains of Moab.

Written to: The second generation of Israelites — those who were born in the wilderness and had not witnessed the Exodus firsthand.

Setting: Forty years of wandering are ending. The generation that left Egypt has died. A new generation stands on the threshold of Canaan. Moses, forbidden from entering the land, gives three farewell sermons to prepare them.

Where this sits historically: c. 1406 BC on the plains of Moab, just before Israel crosses the Jordan; Egypt is ruled by Amenhotep III and the late 18th dynasty.

Contemporaries: Egypt's Amenhotep III; the Hittites under Suppiluliuma I; the Canaanite city-states fragmented. Joshua, Moses's successor, begins his own narrative immediately after Moses's death here.

Big themes:

- Remember — Moses repeatedly commands the people to remember what God did; covenant faithfulness depends on remembering grace received

- The Shema — "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD" (6:4) is the foundational confession of Israel's faith

- Blessings and curses — obedience brings life and blessing in the land; disobedience brings the curse and ultimately exile (ch. 28)

- Love as the foundation of the law — the commandments are not arbitrary rules but the expression of a covenant relationship with a God who first loved Israel

- A prophet like Moses — God's promise to raise up another prophet (18:15) is fulfilled in Christ (Acts 3:22)

Key passages: Deut 4:39; 6:4–5; 18:15; 28:1–2; 30:19–20

How it fits: Deuteronomy is the covenant document that governs everything from Joshua to 2 Kings. Every judgment on Israel in the historical books is measured against its standards. Jesus quotes it more than any other OT book. It ends with Moses's death and sets the stage for Joshua to lead Israel into the land.

Chapter 1

Moses begins his farewell address to Israel on the plains of Moab, recounting their journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea. He recalls appointing judges, the sending of the spies, and the people's refusal to enter the land, which resulted in the entire adult generation being condemned to die in the wilderness.

| 2 (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir unto Kadeshbarnea.) | It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea. |
| 3 And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them; | In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the people of Israel according to all that the LORD had given Him in command to them, |
| 4 After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei: | after he had defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth and in Edrei. |
| 5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying, | Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law, saying, |
| 6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount: | "The LORD our God said to us in Horeb, "You have stayed long enough at this mountain. |

- 7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates. Turn and set out on Your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all their neighbors in the Arabah, in the hill country, in the lowland, in the south, and by the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.
- 8 Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them. See, I have set the land before You. Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore to Your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them."
- 9 And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone: I said to You at that time, "I am not able to bear You by myself.
- 10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. The LORD Your God has multiplied You, and You are today as numerous as the stars of heaven.
- 11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!) May the LORD, the God of Your fathers, make You a thousand times as many as You are and bless You, as He has promised You!
- 12 How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife? How can I bear by myself the burden and weight and strife of You?
- 13 Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. Choose wise, understanding, and experienced men from Your tribes. I will appoint them as Your heads."
- 14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. You answered me, "The thing that You have spoken is good for us to do."

- 15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. So I took the heads of Your tribes, wise and experienced men, and set them as heads over You, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officers throughout Your tribes.
- 16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. I charged Your judges at that time, "Hear the cases between Your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother and the stranger who is with Him.
- 17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it. You shall not be partial in judgment. You shall hear the small and the great alike. You shall not be intimidated by anyone, for the judgment is God's. And the case that is too hard for You, You shall bring to me. I will hear it."
- 18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do. I commanded You at that time all the things that You should do.
- 19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadeshbarnea. Then we set out from Horeb and went through all that great and terrifying wilderness that You saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us. And we came to Kadesh-barnea.
- 20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us. I said to You, "You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

- 21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged. See, the LORD Your God has set the land before You. Go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of Your fathers, has told You. Do not fear or be dismayed."
- 22 And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. Then all of You came near me and said, "Let us send men before us, that they may explore the land for us and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up and the cities into which we shall come."
- 23 And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe: The plan seemed good to me. I took twelve men from You, one man from each tribe.
- 24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out. They turned and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and spied it out.
- 25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us. they took in their hands some of the fruit of the land and brought it down to us, and brought us word again and said, "It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us."
- 26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God: Yet You would not go up, but rebelled against the command of the LORD Your God.
- 27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. you grumbled in Your tents and said, "Because the LORD hated us He has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us."

- 28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there. Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, 'The people are greater and taller than we are. The cities are great and fortified up to heaven. And besides, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.' "
- 29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them. Then I said to You, "Do not be in dread or afraid of them.
- 30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes; The LORD Your God Who goes before You will Himself fight for You, just as He did for You in Egypt before Your eyes,
- 31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place. in the wilderness, where You have seen how the LORD Your God carried You, as a man carries his son, all the way that you went until You came to this place."
- 32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God, Yet in spite of this word You did not believe the LORD Your God,
- 33 Who went in the way before you, to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day. who went before You in the way to seek You out a place to camp, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show You by what way You should go.
- 34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and sware, saying, the LORD heard Your words and was angry. He swore,
- 35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers, "Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see the good land that I swore to give to Your fathers,

- 36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed the LORD. except Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to Him and to His children I will give the land on which He has trodden, because He has wholly followed the LORD!"
- 37 Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither. Even with me the LORD was angry on Your account and said, "You also shall not go in there.
- 38 But Joshua the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall enter. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.
- 39 Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it. as for your little ones, who you said would become prey, and your children, who today have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there. And to them I will give it. They shall possess it.
- 40 But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea. But as for you, turn around and journey into the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea."
- 41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill country. Then You answered me, "We have sinned against the LORD. We ourselves will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us." And every one of you fastened on his weapons of war and thought it easy to go up into the hill country.
- 42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies. the LORD said to me, "Say to them, 'Do not go up or fight, for I am not among You, lest You be defeated before Your enemies.' "

Chapter 2

Moses recounts how Israel wandered in the wilderness for thirty-eight years until the generation of fighting men had perished. He recalls their passage around Edom, Moab, and Ammon -- lands the LORD had given to Esau and Lot's descendants -- and Israel's defeat of Sihon king of Heshbon.

- 4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore: command the people, 'You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers, the people of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you. So be very careful.
- 5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession. Do not contend with them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even as much as a foot's breadth, because I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.
- 6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink. You shall purchase food from them with money so that you may eat, and you shall also buy water from them with money so that you may drink."
- 7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thine hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing. For the LORD Your God has blessed You in all the work of Your hands. He knows Your going through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD Your God has been with You. You have lacked nothing.'
- 8 And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath, and from Eziongaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. So we went on away from our brothers the people of Esau who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road from Elath and Ezion-geber. And we turned and went in the direction of the wilderness of Moab.
- 9 And the LORD said unto me, Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession. the LORD said to me, "Do not harass Moab or contend with them in battle, for I will not give You any of their land for a possession, because I have given Ar to the people of Lot for a possession."

- 10 The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; (The Emim formerly lived there, a great and numerous people, tall as the Anakim.
- 11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims. Like the Anakim they are also counted as giants, but the Moabites call them Emim.
- 12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them. The Horites also lived in Seir formerly, but the people of Esau dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them and settled in their place, as Israel did to the land of their possession, which the LORD gave to them.)
- 13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered. "Now rise up and go over the brook Zered." So we went over the brook Zered.
- 14 And the space in which we came from Kadeshbarnea, until we were come over the brook Zered, was thirty and eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them. the time from our leaving Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until the entire generation of warriors had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.
- 15 For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed. For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the camp, until they had perished.
- 16 So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people, So as soon as all the men of war had perished and were dead from among the people,
- 17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying, the LORD said to me,
- 18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day: "Today You are to cross the border of Moab at Ar.

- 19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession. when you approach the territory of the people of Ammon, do not harass them or contend with them, for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the people of Lot for a possession."
- 20 (That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims; (It is also counted as a land of giants. Giants formerly lived there—but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim—

- 22 As he did to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day: just as he had done for the people of Esau, who live in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites before them. They dispossessed them and settled in their place even to this day.
- 23 And the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto Azzah, the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.) As for the Avvim, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)
- 24 Rise ye up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle. "Rise up, set out on your journey and go over the Valley of the Arnon. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession of it and contend with him in battle.

- 25 This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee. This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you on the peoples who are under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you."
- 26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon the king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying,
- 27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left. "Let me pass through your land. I will go only along the road. I will turn aside neither to the right nor to the left.
- 28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet; You shall sell me food for money, that I may eat, and give me water for money, that I may drink. Only let me pass through on foot,
- 29 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us. as the people of Esau who live in Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did for me, until I cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us."
- 30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day. But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let us pass through, for the LORD Your God hardened His spirit and made His heart obstinate, that He might give Him into Your hand, as He is this day.
- 31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land. the LORD said to me, "See, I have begun to give Sihon and His land over to You. Begin to take possession, that You may occupy His land."
- 32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. Then Sihon came out against us, He and all His people, to battle at Jahaz.

- 33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people. the LORD our God gave Him over to us. We defeated Him and His sons and all His people.
- 34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain: we captured all His cities at that time and devoted to destruction every city—men, women, and children. We left no survivors.
- 35 Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took. Only the livestock we took as plunder for ourselves, with the spoil of the cities that we captured.
- 36 From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us: From Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and from the city that is in the valley, as far as Gilead, there was not a city too high for us. The LORD our God gave all into our hands.
- 37 Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, and unto all the places by the river Jabbok, and the cities in the mountains, and wheresoever the LORD our God forbad us. Only to the land of the people of Ammon you did not draw near, that is, to all the banks of the river Jabbok and the cities of the hill country, wherever the LORD our God had forbidden us.

Chapter 3

Moses recounts the defeat of Og king of Bashan and the division of the conquered land east of the Jordan to Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. He tells how he pleaded with the LORD to let him cross into the Promised Land, but the LORD refused and told him to commission Joshua instead.

- 1 Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. Then we turned and went up the road to Bashan. And Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

- 2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon. But the LORD said to me, "Do not fear Him, for I have given Him and all His people and His land into Your hand. And You shall do to Him as You did to Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon."
- 3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining. So the LORD our God gave into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people. We struck him down until He had no survivor left.
- 4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. we took all His cities at that time—there was not a city that we did not take from them—sixty cities, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
- 5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwall'd towns a great many. All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides very many unwall'd villages.
- 6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city. we devoted them to destruction, as we did to Sihon the king of Heshbon, devoting to destruction every city—men, women, and children.
- 7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as our plunder.
- 8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon; So we took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the Valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon
- 9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;) (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, while the Amorites call it Senir),

- 10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. all the cities of the tableland and all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
- 11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man. (For only Og the king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the giants. His bed was a bed of iron. Is it not in Rabbah of the people of Ammon? Nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, according to the common cubit.)
- 12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites. When we took possession of this land at that time, I gave to the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory beginning at Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead with its cities.
- 13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants. The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, that is, all the region of Argob, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (All that portion of Bashan is called the land of giants.)
- 14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashanhavothjair, unto this day. Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, that is, Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called the villages after his own name, Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.)
- 15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir. I gave Gilead to Machir.

- 16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; To the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the Valley of the Arnon, with the middle of the valley as a border, as far as the river Jabbok, the border of the people of Ammon;
- 17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under Ashdothpishgah eastward. the Arabah also, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth as far as the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pishgah on the east.
- 18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meet for the war. I commanded You at that time, "The LORD Your God has given You this land to possess. All Your men of valor shall cross over armed before Your brothers, the people of Israel.
- 19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you; Only Your wives, Your little ones, and Your livestock—I know that You have much livestock—shall remain in the cities I have given You,
- 20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession which I have given you. until the LORD gives rest to Your brothers, as to You. They also occupy the land that the LORD Your God is giving them beyond the Jordan. Then each of You may return to His possession that I have given You."
- 21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest. I commanded Joshua at that time, "Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. So will the LORD do to all the kingdoms into which You are about to cross.
- 22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you. You shall not fear them, for it is the LORD Your God Who fights for You."

| 24 | O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might? | "O Lord GOD, You have only begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do such works and mighty acts as Yours? |
| 25 | I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon. | Please let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan, that good hill country and Lebanon." |
| 26 | But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter. | But the LORD was angry with me because of You and would not listen to me. And the LORD said to me, "Enough from You; do not speak to me of this matter again. |
| 27 | Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan. | Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up Your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and look at it with Your eyes, for You shall not go over this Jordan. |
| 28 | But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see. | But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he shall go over at the head of this people. He shall put them in possession of the land that you shall see." |
| 29 | So we abode in the valley over against Bethpeor. | So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor. |

Chapter 4

Moses urges Israel to obey the LORD's statutes so they may live and possess the land. He warns them against making graven images and reminds them of what they saw at Horeb -- they heard a voice but saw no form. He establishes three cities of refuge east of the Jordan.

- 7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for? For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is to us, whenever we call upon Him?
- 8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day? what great nation is there that has statutes and rules so righteous as all this law that I set before You today?
- 9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons; Only take care, and keep Your soul diligently, lest You forget the things that Your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from Your heart all the days of Your life. Make them known to Your children and Your children's children—
- 10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. especially the day You stood before the LORD Your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, "Gather the people to me, that I may let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children so."
- 11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness. you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, while the mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, wrapped in darkness, cloud, and deep gloom.
- 12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice. Then the LORD spoke to You out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of words, but saw no form; there was only a voice.

- 13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone. he declared to You His covenant, which He commanded You to perform, that is, the Ten Commandments. He wrote them on two tablets of stone.
- 14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it. the LORD commanded me at that time to teach You statutes and rules, that You might do them in the land that You are going over to possess.
- 15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire: Therefore watch yourselves very carefully. Since You saw no form on the day that the LORD spoke to You at Horeb out of the midst of the fire,
- 16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female, beware lest You act corruptly by making a carved image for yourselves, in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,
- 17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air, the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,
- 18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth: the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth.
- 19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven. beware lest You raise Your eyes to heaven, and when You see the sun and the moon and the stars, all the host of heaven, You be drawn away and bow down to them and serve them, things that the LORD Your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole heaven.

- 20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day. But the LORD has taken You and brought You out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be a people of His own inheritance, as You are this day.
- 21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance: Furthermore, the LORD was angry with me because of You. He swore that I should not cross the Jordan, and that I should not enter the good land that the LORD Your God is giving You for an inheritance.
- 22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land. For I must die in this land; I must not go over the Jordan. But You shall go over and take possession of that good land.
- 23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee. Take care, lest You forget the covenant of the LORD Your God, which He made with You, and make a carved image, the form of anything that the LORD Your God has forbidden You.
- 24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God. For the LORD Your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.
- 25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger: When You father children and children's children, and have grown old in the land, if You act corruptly by making a carved image in the form of anything, and by doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD Your God, provoking Him to anger,

- 26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. I call heaven and earth to witness against You today, that You will soon utterly perish from the land that You are going over the Jordan to possess. You will not live long in it, but will be utterly destroyed.
- 27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you. the LORD will scatter You among the peoples, and You will be left few in number among the nations where the LORD will drive You.
- 28 And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell. there You will serve gods of wood and stone, the work of human hands, that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.
- 29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul. But from there You will seek the LORD Your God and You will find Him, if You search after Him with all Your heart and with all Your soul.
- 30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice; When You are in tribulation, and all these things come upon You in the latter days, You will return to the LORD Your God and obey His voice.
- 31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them. For the LORD Your God is a merciful God. He will not leave You or destroy You or forget the covenant with Your fathers that He swore to them.

- 32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it? For ask now of the days that are past, from the day God created man on the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, whether such a great thing as this has ever happened or was ever heard of.
- 33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live? Did any people ever hear the voice of a god speaking out of the midst of the fire, as You have heard, and still live?
- 34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for Himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great deeds of terror, all of which the LORD Your God did for You in Egypt before Your eyes?
- 35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; there is none else beside him. To You it was shown, that You might know that the LORD is God; there is no other besides Him.
- 36 Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire. Out of heaven He let You hear His voice, that He might discipline You. And on earth He let You see His great fire, and You heard His words out of the midst of the fire.
- 37 And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt; because He loved Your fathers and chose their seed after them and brought You out of Egypt with His own presence, by His great power,
- 38 To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. driving out before You nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day,

- 39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else. know therefore today, and lay it to Your heart, that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.
- 40 Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever. Therefore You shall keep His statutes and His commandments, which I command You today, that it may go well with You and with Your children after You, and that You may prolong Your days in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You for all time.
- 41 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising; Then Moses set apart three cities in the east beyond the Jordan,
- 42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live: that the manslayer might flee there, anyone who kills his neighbor unintentionally, without having hated him in the past; he could flee to one of these cities and live:
- 43 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites. Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.
- 44 And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: This is the law that Moses set before the people of Israel.
- 45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt, These are the testimonies, the statutes, and the rules, which Moses spoke to the people of Israel when they came out of Egypt,

- 4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire, The LORD spoke with You face to face at the mountain, out of the midst of the fire,
- 5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying, while I stood between the LORD and You at that time, to declare to You the word of the LORD. For You were afraid because of the fire, and You did not go up into the mountain. He said:
- 6 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. "I am the LORD Your God, Who brought You out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.
- 7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me. You shall have no other gods before me.
- 8 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth: You shall not make for Yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.
- 9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the LORD Your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,
- 10 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments. but showing mercy to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
- 11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD thy God will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. You shall not take the name of the LORD Your God in vain, for the LORD Your God will not hold Him guiltless who takes His name in vain.
- 12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee. Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD Your God commanded You.

- 13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work: Six days You shall labor and do all Your work,
- 14 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou. but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD Your God. On it You shall not do any work, You or Your son or Your daughter or Your male servant or Your female servant, or Your ox or Your donkey or any of Your livestock, or the foreigner who is within Your gates, that Your male servant and Your female servant may rest as well as You.
- 15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day. You shall remember that You were a slave in the land of Egypt. The LORD Your God brought You out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD Your God commanded You to keep the Sabbath day.
- 16 Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. Honor Your father and Your mother, as the LORD Your God commanded You, that Your days may be long, and that it may go well with You in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You.
- 17 Thou shalt not kill. You shall not kill.
- 18 Neither shalt thou commit adultery. you shall not commit adultery.
- 19 Neither shalt thou steal. you shall not steal.
- 20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour. you shall not bear false witness against Your neighbor.

- 21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's. you shall not covet Your neighbor's wife. And You shall not desire Your neighbor's house, His field, or His male servant, or His female servant, His ox, or his donkey, or anything that is Your neighbor's.
- 22 These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me. These words the LORD spoke to all Your assembly at the mountain out of the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, with a loud voice. He added no more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.
- 23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders; as soon as You heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, You came near to me, all the heads of Your tribes, and Your elders.
- 24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. you said, "The LORD our God has shown us His glory and greatness. We have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire. This day we have seen God speak with man, and man still live.
- 25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die. Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, we shall die.
- 26 For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of fire as we have, and has still lived?

- 27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it. Go near and hear all that the LORD our God will say, and speak to us all that the LORD our God will speak to You. We will hear and do it."
- 28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken. the LORD heard Your words, when You spoke to me. And the LORD said to me, "I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to You. They are right in all that they have spoken.
- 29 O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever! Oh that they had such a heart as this always, to fear me and to keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their descendants forever!
- 30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again. Go and say to them, "Return to Your tents."
- 31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it. But You, stand here by me. I will tell You the whole commandment and the statutes and the rules that You shall teach them, that they may do them in the land that I am giving them to possess."
- 32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. You shall be careful therefore to do as the LORD Your God has commanded You. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
- 33 Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess. You shall walk in all the way that the LORD Your God has commanded You, that You may live, and that it may go well with You, and that You may live long in the land that You shall possess.

Chapter 6

Moses commands Israel to love the LORD their God with all their heart, soul, and might, and to teach these words diligently to their children. He warns them not to forget the LORD when they enter the Promised Land and enjoy its abundance.

- 15 (For the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth. for the LORD Your God in Your midst is a jealous God—lest the anger of the LORD Your God be kindled against You, and destroy You from off the face of the earth.
- 16 Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah. You shall not put the LORD Your God to the test, as You tested Him at Massah.
- 17 Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee. You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD Your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded You.
- 18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, that it may go well with You, and that You may go in and take possession of the good land that the LORD swore to give to Your fathers
- 19 To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken. by driving out all Your enemies from before You, as the LORD has promised.
- 20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you? When Your son asks You in time to come, "What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the rules that the LORD our God has commanded You?"
- 21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand: then You shall say to Your son, "We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt. And the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
- 22 And the LORD shewed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes: the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and grievous, against Egypt and against Pharaoh and all his household, before our eyes.

Chapter 7

Moses commands Israel to utterly destroy the seven nations of Canaan when they enter the land, making no covenants and no marriages with them. He assures them that the LORD has chosen Israel not because they are great in number but because He loves them and keeps His covenant.

- 2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: when the LORD Your God gives them over to You, and You defeat them, then You must devote them to complete destruction. You shall make no covenant with them and show them no mercy.
- 3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. You shall not intermarry with them, giving Your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for Your sons,
- 4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly. for they would turn away Your sons from following me, to serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD would be kindled against You. He would destroy You quickly.
- 5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire. But thus shall You deal with them: You shall break down their altars and dash in pieces their pillars and chop down their groves and burn their carved images with fire.
- 6 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. For You are a people holy to the LORD Your God. The LORD Your God has chosen You to be a people for His treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.
- 7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: It was not because You were more in number than any other people that the LORD set His love on You and chose You, for You were the fewest of all peoples,

- 8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. but it is because the LORD loves You and is keeping the oath that He swore to Your fathers, that the LORD has brought You out with a mighty hand and redeemed You from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
- 9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; Know therefore that the LORD Your God is God, the faithful God Who keeps covenant and mercy with those who love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations,
- 10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. repays to their face those who hate Him, by destroying them. He will not be slack with one who hates Him. He will repay Him to His face.
- 11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them. You shall therefore be careful to do the commandment and the statutes and the rules that I command You today.
- 12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers: because You listen to these rules and keep and do them, the LORD Your God will keep with You the covenant and the mercy that He swore to Your fathers.
- 13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee. He will love You, bless You, and multiply You. He will also bless the fruit of Your womb and the fruit of Your ground, Your grain and Your wine and Your oil, the increase of Your herds and the young of Your flock, in the land that He swore to Your fathers to give You.

- 14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle. You shall be blessed above all peoples. There shall not be male or female barren among You or among Your livestock.
- 15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. the LORD will take away from You all sickness, and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which You knew, will He inflict on You. But He will lay them on all who hate You.
- 16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee. you shall consume all the peoples that the LORD Your God will give over to You. Your eye shall not pity them, neither shall You serve their gods, for that would be a snare to You.
- 17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? If You say in Your heart, "These nations are greater than I. How can I dispossess them?"
- 18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt; you shall not be afraid of them but You shall remember what the LORD Your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt,
- 19 The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid. the great trials that Your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD Your God brought You out. So will the LORD Your God do to all the peoples of whom You are afraid.
- 20 Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed. Moreover, the LORD Your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left and hide themselves from You are destroyed.

| 21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible. | You shall not be in dread of them, for the LORD Your God is in Your midst, a great and awesome God. |
| 22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee. | The LORD Your God will clear away these nations before You little by little. You may not make an end of them at once, lest the wild beasts grow too numerous for You. |
| 23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed. | But the LORD Your God will give them over to You and throw them into great confusion, until they are destroyed. |

You shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them or take it for yourselves, lest You be ensnared by it, for it is an abomination to the LORD Your God. |
| 26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing. | you shall not bring an abominable thing into Your house and become devoted to destruction like it. You shall utterly detest and abhor it, for it is devoted to destruction. |

Moses reminds Israel that the LORD humbled them and fed them manna in the wilderness for forty years to teach them that man does not live by bread alone. He warns them not to forget the LORD when they are prosperous in the Promised Land, lest they credit their own power for their wealth.

Chapter 9

Moses warns Israel not to think their righteousness is why the LORD drives out the nations before them -- it is because of those nations' wickedness. He recounts the golden calf incident at Horeb, reminding them of their repeated rebellions and his forty-day intercession on their behalf.

| 1 | Hear, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven, | Hear, O Israel: you are to cross over the Jordan today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than You, cities great and fortified up to heaven, |
| 2 | A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak! | a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom You know, and of whom You have heard it said, "Who can stand before the sons of Anak?" |
| 3 | Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee. | Know therefore today that He who goes over before you as a consuming fire is the LORD Your God. He will destroy them and subdue them before You. So You shall drive them out and make them perish quickly, as the LORD has promised You. |
| 4 | Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee. | Do not say in Your heart, after the LORD Your God has pushed them back before You, "It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me in to possess this land," whereas it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is driving them out before You. |

- 5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Not because of Your righteousness or the uprightness of Your heart are You going in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD Your God is driving them out from before You, and that He may confirm the word that the LORD swore to Your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
- 6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people. Know, therefore, that the LORD Your God is not giving You this good land to possess because of Your righteousness, for You are a stubborn people.
- 7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD. Remember and do not forget how You provoked the LORD Your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day You came out of the land of Egypt until You came to this place, You have been rebellious against the LORD.
- 8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. Even at Horeb You provoked the LORD to wrath. The LORD was so angry with You that He was ready to destroy You.
- 9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water: When I went up the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD made with You, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water.

- 10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of God, and on them were all the words that the LORD had spoken with You on the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.
- 11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant. at the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.
- 12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. Then the LORD said to me, "Arise, go down quickly from here, for Your people whom You have brought from Egypt have acted corruptly. They have turned aside quickly out of the way that I commanded them; they have made themselves a metal image."
- 13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: Furthermore the LORD said to me, "I have seen this people. It is a stubborn people.
- 14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. Let me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make of You a nation mightier and greater than they."
- 15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire. And the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

- 16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. I looked, and there You had sinned against the LORD Your God. You had made yourselves a golden calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way that the LORD had commanded You.
- 17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes. So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before Your eyes.
- 18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights. I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin that You had committed, in doing what was evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger.
- 19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also. For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure that the LORD bore against You, so that He was ready to destroy You. But the LORD listened to me that time also.
- 20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. the LORD was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him. And I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.
- 21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. Then I took the sinful thing You had made, the calf, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust. And I threw the dust of it into the brook that ran down from the mountain.
- 22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibrothhattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath. At Taberah also, and at Massah and at Kibroth-hattaavah, You provoked the LORD to wrath.

- 23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadeshbarnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. when the LORD sent You from Kadesh-barnea, saying, "Go up and take possession of the land that I have given You," then You rebelled against the command of the LORD Your God and did not believe Him or obey His voice.
- 24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew You.
- 25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you. So I lay prostrate before the LORD for those forty days and forty nights, because the LORD had said He would destroy You.
- 26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. I prayed to the LORD, "O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people and Your heritage, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
- 27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not regard the stubbornness of this people, or their wickedness or their sin,
- 28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness. lest the land from which You brought us say, 'Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land that He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.'
- 29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm. For they are Your people and Your heritage, whom You brought out by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm."

Moses recounts how the LORD gave him two new tablets of stone to replace the ones he broke, and how the ark was made to hold them. He reminds Israel that the LORD requires them to fear Him, walk in His ways, love Him, and serve Him with all their heart and soul.

- 8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day. At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD to stand before the LORD to minister to Him and to bless in His name, to this day.
- 9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him. Therefore Levi has no portion or inheritance with His brothers. The LORD is His inheritance, as the LORD Your God said to Him.
- 10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee. I myself stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights. The LORD listened to me that time also. The LORD was unwilling to destroy You.
- 11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them. the LORD said to me, "Arise, go on Your journey at the head of the people, so that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give them."
- 12 And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, now, Israel, what does the LORD Your God require of You, but to fear the LORD Your God, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, to serve the LORD Your God with all Your heart and with all Your soul,
- 13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good? to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding You today for Your good?

Chapter 11

Moses urges Israel to love the LORD and keep His commandments, reminding them of the great things they saw with their own eyes in Egypt and the wilderness. He sets before them a blessing for obedience and a curse for disobedience, to be proclaimed from Mount Gerizim and Mount Ebal.

- 7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did. For Your eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD that He did.
- 8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it; You shall therefore keep the whole commandment that I command You today, that You may be strong, and go in and take possession of the land that You are going over to possess,
- 9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey. that You may live long in the land that the LORD swore to Your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs: For the land that You are entering to take possession of it is not like the land of Egypt, from which You have come, where You sowed Your seed and irrigated it, like a garden of vegetables.
- 11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven: But the land that You are going over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water by the rain from heaven,
- 12 A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year. a land that the LORD Your God cares for. The eyes of the LORD Your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

- 13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, if You will indeed obey my commandments that I command You today, to love the LORD Your God, and to serve Him with all Your heart and with all Your soul,
- 14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. he will give the rain for Your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, that You may gather in Your grain and Your wine and Your oil.
- 15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full. he will give grass in Your fields for Your livestock, and You shall eat and be full.
- 16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; Take care lest Your heart be deceived, and You turn aside and serve other gods and worship them;
- 17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you. then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against You. He will shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain, and the land will yield no fruit, and You will perish quickly off the good land that the LORD is giving You.
- 18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall therefore lay up these words of mine in Your heart and in Your soul, and You shall bind them as a sign on Your hand. They shall be as frontlets between Your eyes.
- 19 And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. You shall teach them to Your children, talking of them when You are sitting in Your house, and when You are walking by the way, and when You lie down, and when You rise.

- 20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates: You shall write them on the doorposts of Your house and on Your gates,
- 21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth. that Your days and the days of Your children may be multiplied in the land that the LORD swore to Your fathers to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.
- 22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him; For if You will be careful to do all this commandment that I command You to do, loving the LORD Your God, walking in all His ways, and holding fast to Him,
- 23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves. then the LORD will drive out all these nations before You, and You will dispossess nations greater and mightier than You.
- 24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be. Every place on which the sole of Your foot treads shall be Yours. Your territory shall be from the wilderness to Lebanon and from the River, the river Euphrates, to the western sea.
- 25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you. No one shall be able to stand against you. The LORD Your God will lay the fear of You and the dread of You on all the land that You shall tread, as He promised You.
- 26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; See, I am setting before You today a blessing and a curse:

Chapter 12

Moses commands Israel to destroy all the pagan worship sites in the land and to bring their sacrifices only to the place the LORD chooses. He permits the eating of meat in any town but forbids the eating of blood, which must be poured out on the ground like water.

- 1 These are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth. These are the statutes and rules that You shall be careful to do in the land that the LORD, the God of Your fathers, has given You to possess, all the days that You live on the earth.
- 2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree: You shall surely destroy all the places where the nations whom you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.
- 3 And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place. You shall tear down their altars and dash in pieces their pillars and burn their groves with fire. You shall chop down the carved images of their gods and destroy their name out of that place.
- 4 Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God. You shall not worship the LORD Your God in that way.
- 5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come: But You shall seek the place that the LORD Your God will choose out of all Your tribes to put His name and make His dwelling there. There You shall go,
- 6 And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks: there You shall bring Your burnt offerings and Your sacrifices, Your tithes and the contribution that You present, Your vow offerings, Your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of Your herd and of Your flock.
- 7 And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee. there You shall eat before the LORD Your God, and You shall rejoice, You and Your households, in all that You undertake, in which the LORD Your God has blessed You.

- 8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes. You shall not do according to all that we are doing here today, everyone doing whatever is right in His own eyes,
- 9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you. for You have not yet come to the rest and to the inheritance that the LORD Your God is giving You.
- 10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety; But when You go over the Jordan and live in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You to inherit, and when He gives You rest from all Your enemies around You, so that You live in safety,
- 11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD: then to the place that the LORD Your God will choose, to make His name dwell there, there You shall bring all that I command You: Your burnt offerings and Your sacrifices, Your tithes and the contribution that You present. All Your finest vow offerings that You vow to the LORD.
- 12 And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you. you shall rejoice before the LORD Your God, You and Your sons and Your daughters, Your male servants and Your female servants, and the Levite that is within Your towns, since He has no portion or inheritance with You.
- 13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest: Take care that You do not offer Your burnt offerings at any place that You see,

- 14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee. but only at the place that the LORD will choose in one of Your tribes. There You shall offer Your burnt offerings, and there You shall do all that I am commanding You.
- 15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart. However, You may slaughter and eat meat within any of Your towns, as much as You desire, according to the blessing of the LORD Your God that He has given You. The unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle and as of the deer.
- 16 Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water. Only You shall not eat the blood; You shall pour it out on the ground like water.
- 17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand: You may not eat within Your towns the tithe of Your grain or of Your wine or of Your oil, or the firstborn of Your herd or of Your flock, or any of Your vow offerings that You vow, or Your freewill offerings or the contribution that You present,
- 18 But thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto. but You shall eat them before the LORD Your God in the place that the LORD Your God will choose, You and Your son and Your daughter, Your male servant and Your female servant, and the Levite who is within Your towns. And You shall rejoice before the LORD Your God in all that You undertake.
- 19 Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth. Take care that You do not neglect the Levite as long as You live in Your land.

- 20 When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh; thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after. When the LORD Your God enlarges Your territory, as He has promised You, and You say, "I will eat meat," because You crave meat, You may eat meat whenever You desire.
- 21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after. If the place that the LORD Your God will choose to put His name there is too far from You, then You may kill any of Your herd or Your flock that the LORD has given You, as I have commanded You, and You may eat within Your towns whenever You desire.
- 22 Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. Just as the gazelle or the deer is eaten, so You may eat of it. The unclean and the clean alike may eat of it.
- 23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh. Only be sure that You do not eat the blood, for the blood is the life, and You shall not eat the life with the flesh.
- 24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. You shall not eat it; You shall pour it out on the earth like water.
- 25 Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD. You shall not eat it, that all may go well with You and with Your children after You, when You do what is right in the sight of the LORD.
- 26 Only thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose: But the holy things that are due from You, and Your vow offerings, You shall take, and You shall go to the place that the LORD will choose,

- 27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh. offer Your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD Your God. The blood of Your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD Your God, but the flesh You may eat.
- 28 Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God. Be careful to obey all these words that I command You, that it may go well with You and with Your children after You forever, when You do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD Your God.
- 29 When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land; When the LORD Your God cuts off before You the nations whom you go in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,
- 30 Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. take care that You be not ensnared to follow them, after they have been destroyed before You, and that You do not inquire about their gods, saying, "How did these nations serve their gods?"—that I also may do the same."
- 31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. You shall not worship the LORD Your God in that way, for every abominable thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods, for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.
- 32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it. Everything that I command You, You shall be careful to do. You shall not add to it or take from it.

Moses gives laws for dealing with those who entice Israel to worship other gods. A false prophet, a close family member, or the inhabitants of a city who lead others into idolatry are all to be put to death without pity.

- 16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be an heap for ever; it shall not be built again. You shall gather all its spoil into the midst of its open square and burn the city and all its spoil with fire, as a whole burnt offering to the LORD Your God. It shall be a heap forever. It shall not be built again.
- 17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thine hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers; None of the devoted things shall stick to Your hand, that the LORD may turn from His burning anger and show You mercy and have compassion on You and multiply You, as He swore to Your fathers,
- 18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God. if You obey the voice of the LORD Your God, keeping all His commandments that I am commanding You today, and doing what is right in the sight of the LORD Your God.

Chapter 14

Moses restates the laws of clean and unclean animals, listing which may and may not be eaten. He commands Israel to tithe all the yield of their seed each year and to give a special tithe every third year for the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow.

| 1 | Ye are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. | You are the children of the LORD Your God. You shall not cut yourselves or make any baldness on Your foreheads for the dead. |
| 2 | For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth. | For You are a people holy to the LORD Your God. The LORD has chosen You to be a people for His treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. |
| 3 | Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. | You shall not eat any abomination. |
| 4 | These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, | These are the animals You may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, |
| 5 | The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois. | the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. |
| 6 | And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat. | Every animal that parts the hoof and has the hoof cloven in two and chews the cud, among the animals, You may eat. |

- 7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; even the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you. Yet of those that chew the cud or have the hoof cloven You shall not eat these: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not part the hoof, are unclean for You.
- 8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase. the pig, because it parts the hoof but does not chew the cud, is unclean for You. Their flesh You shall not eat. Their carcasses You shall not touch.
- 9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat: Of all that are in the waters You may eat these: whatever has fins and scales You may eat.
- 10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you. whatever does not have fins and scales You shall not eat; it is unclean for You.
- 11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat. You may eat all clean birds.
- 12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray, But these are the ones You shall not eat: the eagle, the ossifrage, and the ospray,
- 13 And the glade, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind, the glade, and the kite, and the vulture after His kind;
- 14 And every raven after his kind, every raven of any kind;
- 15 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind, the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after His kind;
- 16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan, the little owl, and the great owl, and the swan;
- 17 And the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant,
- 18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

- 19 And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten. all winged insects are unclean for You; they shall not be eaten.
- 20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat. All clean winged things You may eat.
- 21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk. You shall not eat anything that has died naturally. You may give it to the stranger who is within Your towns, that He may eat it, or You may sell it to a foreigner, for You are a people holy to the LORD Your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.
- 22 Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year. You shall tithe all the yield of Your seed that comes from the field year by year.
- 23 And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always. before the LORD Your God, in the place that He will choose, to make His name dwell there, You shall eat the tithe of Your grain, of Your wine, and of Your oil, and the firstborn of Your herd and flock, that You may learn to fear the LORD Your God always.
- 24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee: if the way is too long for You, so that You are not able to carry the tithe, when the LORD Your God blesses You, because the place is too far from You, which the LORD Your God chooses, to set His name there,
- 25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: then You shall turn it into money and bind up the money in Your hand and go to the place that the LORD Your God chooses

- 26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household, spend the money for whatever You desire—oxen or sheep or wine or strong drink, whatever Your appetite craves. And You shall eat there before the LORD Your God and rejoice, You and Your household.
- 27 And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee. you shall not neglect the Levite who is within Your towns, for He has no portion or inheritance with You.
- 28 At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates: At the end of every three years You shall bring out all the tithe of Your produce in the same year and lay it up within Your towns.
- 29 And the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest. the Levite, because He has no portion or inheritance with You, and the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, who are within Your towns, shall come and eat and be filled, that the LORD Your God may bless You in all the work of Your hands that You do.

Chapter 15

Moses gives the law of the sabbatical year: every seventh year, debts owed by fellow Israelites are to be released. He commands generosity toward the poor and gives laws concerning the release of Hebrew servants in the seventh year, sending them away liberally provided.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

- 1 At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release. At the end of every seven years you shall grant a release.

- 2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release. this is the manner of the release: every creditor shall release what He has lent to His neighbor. He shall not exact it of His neighbor, His brother, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed.
- 3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release; Of a foreigner You may exact it, but whatever of Yours is with Your brother Your hand shall release.
- 4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it: But there will be no poor among You; for the LORD will bless You in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You for an inheritance to possess—
- 5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day. if only You will strictly obey the voice of the LORD Your God, being careful to do all this commandment that I command You today.
- 6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee. For the LORD Your God will bless You, as He promised You, and You shall lend to many nations, but You shall not borrow, and You shall rule over many nations. But they shall not rule over You.
- 7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother: If among You, one of Your brothers should become poor, in any of Your towns within Your land that the LORD Your God is giving You, You shall not harden Your heart or shut Your hand against Your poor brother,
- 8 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth. but You shall open wide Your hand to Him and lend Him sufficient for His need, whatever it may be.

- 9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee. Take care lest there be an unworthy thought in Your heart and You say, "The seventh year, the year of release is near," and Your eye look grudgingly on Your poor brother, and You give Him nothing. He cry to the LORD against You, and You be guilty of sin.
- 10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto. You shall give to Him freely, and Your heart shall not be grudging when You give to Him, because for this the LORD Your God will bless You in all Your work and in all that You undertake.
- 11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land. For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore I command You, "You shall open wide Your hand to Your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in Your land."
- 12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. If Your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to You, He shall serve You six years, and in the seventh year You shall let Him go free from You.
- 13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty: when You let Him go free from You, You shall not let Him go empty-handed.
- 14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him. You shall furnish Him liberally out of Your flock, out of Your threshing floor, and out of Your winepress. As the LORD Your God has blessed You, You shall give to Him.

- 15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day. You shall remember that You were a slave in the land of Egypt. The LORD Your God redeemed You; therefore I command You this today.
- 16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee; But if He says to You, "I will not go out from You," because He loves You and Your household, since He is well off with You,
- 17 Then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise. then You shall take an awl, and put it through His ear into the door. He shall be Your slave forever. And to Your female slave You shall do the same.
- 18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest. It shall not seem hard to You when You let Him go free from You, for at half the cost of a hired worker He has served You six years. And the LORD Your God will bless You in all that You do.
- 19 All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, neither shear the firstling of thy sheep. All the firstborn males that are born of Your herd and flock You shall dedicate to the LORD Your God. You shall do no work with the firstborn of Your herd, nor shear the firstborn of Your flock.
- 20 Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household. You shall eat it, You and Your household, before the LORD Your God year by year at the place that the LORD will choose.
- 21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God. But if it has any blemish, if it is lame or blind or has any serious blemish whatever, You shall not sacrifice it to the LORD Your God.

- 4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning. No leaven shall be seen with You in all Your territory for seven days, nor shall any of the flesh that You sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain all night until morning.
- 5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee: You may not offer the Passover sacrifice within any of Your towns that the LORD Your God is giving You,
- 6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt. but at the place that the LORD Your God will choose, to make His name dwell in it, there You shall offer the Passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, at the time You came out of Egypt.
- 7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents. you shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD Your God will choose. And in the morning You shall turn and go to Your tents.
- 8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein. For six days You shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD Your God. You shall do no work on it.
- 9 Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn. You shall count seven weeks. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain.
- 10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee: Then You shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD Your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from Your hand, which You shall give as the LORD Your God blesses You.

- 11 And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there. you shall rejoice before the LORD Your God, You and Your son and Your daughter, Your male servant and Your female servant, the Levite who is within Your towns, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow who are among You, at the place that the LORD Your God will choose, to make His name dwell there.
- 12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes. You shall remember that You were a slave in Egypt. You shall be careful to observe these statutes.
- 13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine: You shall keep the feast of tabernacles seven days, when You have gathered in the produce from Your threshing floor and Your winepress.
- 14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates. You shall rejoice in Your feast, You and Your son and Your daughter, Your male servant and Your female servant, the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow who are within Your towns.
- 15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice. For seven days You shall keep the feast to the LORD Your God at the place that the LORD will choose, because the LORD Your God will bless You in all Your produce and in all the work of Your hands, so that You will be altogether joyful.

- 16 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty: Three times a year all Your males shall appear before the LORD Your God at the place that He will choose: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of tabernacles. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.
- 17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee. Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD Your God that He has given You.
- 18 Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment. You shall appoint judges and officers in all Your towns that the LORD Your God is giving You, throughout Your tribes. They shall judge the people with righteous judgment.
- 19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. You shall not pervert justice. You shall not show partiality, and You shall not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of the righteous.
- 20 That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. Justice, and only justice, You shall follow, that You may live and inherit the land that the LORD Your God is giving You.
- 21 Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee. You shall not plant any tree as a grove beside the altar of the LORD Your God that You shall make.
- 22 Neither shalt thou set thee up any image; which the LORD thy God hateth. you shall not set up a pillar, which the LORD Your God hates.

Chapter 17

Moses gives laws concerning idolaters who are to be executed on the testimony of two or three witnesses, and difficult legal cases that must be referred to the Levitical priests. He gives instructions for the future king of Israel, who must not multiply horses, wives, or wealth, and must write a copy of the law and read it all his days.

| 5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die. | then You shall bring out to Your gates that man or woman who has done this evil thing, and You shall stone that man or woman to death with stones. |

- 6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. On the evidence of two witnesses or of three witnesses the one who is to die shall be put to death; a person shall not be put to death on the evidence of one witness.
- 7 *The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.
- 8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose; If any case arises requiring a decision between one kind of homicide and another, one kind of legal right and another, or one kind of assault and another, any case within Your towns that is too difficult for You, then You shall arise and go up to the place that the LORD Your God will choose.
- 9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment: you shall come to the Levitical priests and to the judge who is in office in those days, and You shall consult them. They shall declare to You the decision.
- 10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee: Then You shall do according to what they declare to You from that place that the LORD will choose. And You shall be careful to do according to all that they direct You.

- 11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left. According to the instructions that they give You, and according to the decision that they pronounce to You, You shall do. You shall not turn aside from the verdict that they declare to You, either to the right hand or to the left.
- 12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel. The man who acts presumptuously by not obeying the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD Your God, or the judge, that man shall die. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.
- 13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously. all the people shall hear and fear and not act presumptuously again.
- 14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me; When You come to the land that the LORD Your God is giving You, and You possess it and dwell in it and then say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me,"
- 15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother. you may indeed set a king over You whom the LORD Your God will choose. One from among Your brothers You shall set as king over You. You may not put a foreigner over You, who is not Your brother.
- 16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way. Only He must not acquire many horses for Himself or cause the people to return to Egypt in order to acquire many horses, since the LORD has said to You, "You shall never return that way again."

| 5 | For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever. | For the LORD Your God has chosen Him out of all Your tribes to stand and minister in the name of the LORD, Him and His sons forever. |
| 6 | And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourned, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose; | if a Levite comes from any of Your towns out of all Israel, where He lives—and He may come when He desires—to the place that the LORD will choose, |
| 7 | Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD. | then He may minister in the name of the LORD His God, like all His fellow Levites who stand to minister there before the LORD. |
| 8 | They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony. | They shall have equal portions to eat, besides what He receives from the sale of His patrimony. |
| 9 | When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. | When You come into the land that the LORD Your God is giving You, You shall not learn to follow the abominable practices of those nations. |

- 10 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, There shall not be found among You anyone who burns his son or his daughter as an offering, anyone who practices divination or tells fortunes or interprets omens, or a sorcerer

- 12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee. for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD. And because of these abominations the LORD Your God is driving them out before You.
- 13 Thou shalt be perfect with the LORD thy God. You shall be blameless before the LORD Your God,
- 14 For these nations, which thou shalt possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered thee so to do. for these nations, which You are about to dispossess, listen to fortune-tellers and to diviners. But as for You, the LORD Your God has not allowed You to do this.
- 15 The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken; The LORD Your God will raise up for You a Prophet like me from among You, from Your brothers—it is to Him You shall listen—
- 16 According to all that thou desiredst of the LORD thy God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not. just as You desired of the LORD Your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when You said, "Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die."
- 17 And the LORD said unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken. the LORD said to me, "They are right in what they have spoken.

Chapter 19

Moses gives the law of the cities of refuge for those who kill unintentionally, and commands that three cities be set aside in the Promised Land with three more added if the LORD enlarges their territory. He gives the law requiring two or three witnesses for any charge, with false witnesses receiving the punishment they intended for the accused.

Chapter 20

Moses gives the laws of warfare. The priests are to encourage the army before battle, and officers are to send home anyone who has built a new house, planted a vineyard, betrothed a wife, or is afraid. When besieging a city, Israel is to offer peace first; distant cities that refuse are put to the sword, but the seven nations of Canaan are to be utterly destroyed.

- 6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. is there any man who has planted a vineyard and has not yet enjoyed its fruit? Let Him go back to His house, lest He die in the battle and another man enjoy its fruit.
- 7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her. is there any man who has betrothed a wife and has not taken her? Let Him go back to His house, lest He die in the battle and another man take her."
- 8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart. the officers shall speak further to the people, and say, "Is there any man who is fearful and fainthearted? Let Him go back to His house, lest He make the heart of His fellows melt like His own."
- 9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people. when the officers have finished speaking to the people, then commanders shall be appointed at the head of the people.
- 10 When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it. When You draw near to a city to fight against it, offer terms of peace to it.
- 11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee. if it responds to You peaceably and it opens to You, then all the people who are found in it shall do forced labor for You and shall serve You.
- 12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it: But if it makes no peace with You, but makes war against You, then You shall besiege it.
- 13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword: when the LORD Your God gives it into Your hand, You shall put all its males to the sword,

- 14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. but the women and the little ones, the livestock, and everything else in the city, all its spoil, You shall take as plunder for yourselves. And You shall enjoy the spoil of Your enemies, which the LORD Your God has given You.
- 15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations. Thus You shall do to all the cities that are very far from You, which are not cities of the nations here.
- 16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth: But in the cities of these peoples that the LORD Your God is giving You for an inheritance, You shall save alive nothing that breathes,
- 17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee: but You shall devote them to complete destruction, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, as the LORD Your God has commanded,
- 18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God. that they may not teach You to do according to all their abominable practices that they have done for their gods, and so You sin against the LORD Your God.
- 19 When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege: When You besiege a city for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, You shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them. You may eat from them, but You shall not cut them down. Are the trees in the field human, that they should be besieged by You?

- 20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.
- Only the trees that You know are not trees for food You may destroy and cut down, that You may build siegeworks against the city that makes war with You, until it falls.

Chapter 21

Moses gives laws for unsolved murders, requiring the nearest city's elders to perform a ritual with a heifer. He also gives laws concerning the rights of a wife taken captive in war, the inheritance rights of the firstborn son, and the stoning of a rebellious son.

- 1 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him: If in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You to possess someone is found slain, lying in the open country, and it is not known who killed Him,
- 2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain: then Your elders and Your judges shall come out. They shall measure the distance to the surrounding cities.
- 3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke; the elders of the city that is nearest to the slain man shall take a heifer that has never been worked and that has not pulled in a yoke.
- 4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley: the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley.

- 5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried: Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, for the LORD Your God has chosen them to minister to Him and to bless in the name of the LORD, and by their word every dispute and every assault shall be settled.
- 6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley: all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley,

- 13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife. she shall take off the clothes she was captured in and shall remain in Your house and lament her father and her mother a full month. After that You may go in to her and be her husband. She shall be Your wife.
- 14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her. But if You no longer delight in her, You shall let her go where she wants. But You shall not sell her for money, nor shall You treat her as a slave, since You have humiliated her.
- 15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers that was hated: If a man has two wives, the one loved and the other unloved, and both the loved and the unloved have borne Him children, and if the firstborn son belongs to the unloved,
- 16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn: then on the day when He assigns His possessions as an inheritance to His sons, He may not treat the son of the loved as the firstborn in preference to the son of the unloved, who is the firstborn,
- 17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. but He shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the unloved, by giving Him a double portion of all that He has, for He is the firstfruits of His strength. The right of the firstborn is His.

Moses gives laws requiring Israelites to return lost animals and help with fallen beasts of burden. He gives laws against wearing the opposite sex's clothing, taking a mother bird with her young, building a roof parapet, mixing seeds, yoking an ox with a donkey, and mixing fabrics. He also gives laws concerning sexual purity and marriage.

- 1 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother. You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray and ignore them. You shall take them back to your brother.
- 2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again. if he does not live near you and you do not know who he is, you shall bring it home to your house. It shall stay with you until your brother seeks it. Then you shall return it to him.
- 3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself. you shall do the same with his donkey or with his garment, or with any lost thing of your brother's, which he loses and you find; you may not ignore it.
- 4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again. You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way and ignore them. You shall help him to lift them up again.
- 5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God. A woman shall not wear a man's garment, nor shall a man put on a woman's cloak, for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD Your God.
- 6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with the young: If You come across a bird's nest in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, You shall not take the mother with the young.

- 7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days. You shall let the mother go, but the young You may take for Yourself, that it may go well with You, and that You may live long.
- 8 When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence. When You build a new house, You shall make a parapet for Your roof, that You may not bring the guilt of blood upon Your house, if anyone should fall from it.
- 9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled. You shall not sow Your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole yield be forfeited, the crop that You have sown and the yield of the vineyard.
- 10 Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together. You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.
- 11 Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together. You shall not wear cloth of wool and linen mixed together.
- 12 Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself. You shall make Yourself tassels on the four corners of the garment with which You cover Yourself.
- 13 If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her, If any man takes a wife and goes in to her and then hates her
- 14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid: accuses her of misconduct and brings a bad name upon her, saying, "I took this woman, and when I came near her, I did not find in her evidence of virginity,"
- 15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate: then the father of the young woman and her mother shall take and bring out the evidence of her virginity to the elders of the city in the gate.

- 16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her; the father of the young woman shall say to the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man to marry. He hates her;
- 17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. now he has accused her of misconduct, saying, 'I did not find in your daughter evidence of virginity.' And yet this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity." And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.
- 18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him; Then the elders of that city shall take the man and punish him.
- 19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days. they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought a bad name upon a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife. He may not divorce her all his days.
- 20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel: But if the thing is true, that evidence of virginity was not found in the young woman,
- 21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you. then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done an outrageous thing in Israel by whoring in her father's house. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.
- 22 If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel. If a man is found lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.

- 23 If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; If there is a betrothed virgin, and a man meets her in the city and lies with her,
- 24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you. then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones, the young woman because she did not cry for help though she was in the city, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.
- 25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die: But if in the open country a man meets a young woman who is betrothed, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.
- 26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter: But you shall do nothing to the young woman; she has committed no offense punishable by death. For this case is like that of a man attacking and murdering his neighbor,
- 27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her. because he met her in the open country, and though the betrothed young woman cried for help there was no one to rescue her.
- 28 If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; If a man meets a virgin who is not betrothed, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are found,
- 29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. then the man who lay with her shall give to the young woman's father fifty shekels of silver. She shall be his wife, because he has violated her. He may not divorce her all his days.

- 30 A man shall not take his father's wife, nor discover his father's skirt. A man shall not take his father's wife, so that he does not uncover his father's nakedness.

Moses gives laws about who may and may not enter the assembly of the LORD. He gives regulations for the cleanliness of the military camp, the protection of escaped slaves, the prohibition of prostitution, restrictions on charging interest to fellow Israelites, and the keeping of vows.

Chapter 24

Moses gives laws concerning divorce and remarriage, the exemption of a newly married man from military service, and the prohibition of taking millstones as a pledge. He gives laws protecting hired servants, forbidding the punishment of children for their fathers' sins, and requiring that the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow receive gleanings from the harvest.

- 1 When a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

When a man takes a wife and marries her, if then she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, then let him write her a certificate of divorce and put it in her hand and send her out of his house,
- 2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

she departs out of his house, and if she goes and becomes another man's wife,
- 3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife;

the latter man hates her and writes her a certificate of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter man dies, who took her to be his wife,
- 4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

then her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has been defiled, for that is an abomination before the LORD. And You shall not bring sin upon the land that the LORD Your God is giving You for an inheritance.
- 5 When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be liable for any other public duty. He shall be free at home one year to be happy with his wife whom He has taken.
- 6 No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

No one shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge, for that would be taking a life in pledge.

- 7 If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you. If a man is found stealing one of his brothers of the people of Israel, and if he treats him as a slave or sells Him, then that thief shall die. So You shall purge the evil from Your midst.
- 8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do. Take care, in a case of a skin disease, to be very careful to do according to all that the Levitical priests shall direct You. As I commanded them, so You shall be careful to do.
- 9 Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt. Remember what the LORD Your God did to Miriam on the way as You came out of Egypt.
- 10 When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge. When You make Your neighbor a loan of any sort, You shall not go into His house to collect His pledge.
- 11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee. You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the pledge out to you.
- 12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge: if he is a poor man, you shall not sleep in his pledge.
- 13 In any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and bless thee: and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God. You shall restore to Him the pledge as the sun sets, that He may sleep in His cloak and bless You. And it shall be righteousness for You before the LORD Your God.
- 14 Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates: You shall not oppress a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether He is one of Your brothers or one of the foreigners who are in Your land within Your towns.

- 15 At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it: lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee. You shall give Him His wages on the same day, before the sun sets (for He is poor and counts on it), lest He cry against You to the LORD, and You be guilty of sin.
- 16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers. Each one shall be put to death for his own sin.
- 17 Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's raiment to pledge: You shall not pervert the justice due to the sojourner or to the fatherless, or take a widow's garment in pledge,
- 18 But thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing. but You shall remember that You were a slave in Egypt and the LORD Your God redeemed You from there; therefore I command You to do this.
- 19 When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands. When You reap Your harvest in Your field and forget a sheaf in the field, You shall not go back to get it. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that the LORD Your God may bless You in all the work of Your hands.
- 20 When thou beatest thine olive tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When You beat Your olive trees, You shall not go over them again. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.
- 21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. When You gather the grapes of Your vineyard, You shall not strip it afterward. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

- 5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her. If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the dead man shall not be married outside the family to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in to her and take her as his wife and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.
- 6 And it shall be, that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel. the first son whom she bears shall succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.
- 7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. if the man does not wish to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders and say, "My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his brother's name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me."
- 8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her; Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him, and if he persists, saying, "I do not wish to take her,"
- 9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house. then his brother's wife shall go up to him in the presence of the elders and pull his sandal off his foot and spit in his face. And she shall answer and say, "So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house."
- 10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed. the name of his house shall be called in Israel, "The house of him whose sandal was pulled off."

- 11 When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets: When men fight with one another and the wife of the one draws near to rescue her husband from the hand of him who is beating him and puts out her hand and seizes him by the private parts,
- 12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her. then you shall cut off her hand. Your eye shall have no pity.
- 13 Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small. You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, a large and a small.
- 14 Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small. You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, a large and a small.
- 15 But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have: that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. A full and fair weight You shall have, a full and fair measure You shall have, that Your days may be long in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You.
- 16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God. For all who do such things, all who act dishonestly, are an abomination to the LORD Your God.
- 17 Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt; Remember what Amalek did to You on the way as You came out of Egypt,
- 18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God. how He attacked You on the way when You were faint and weary, and cut off Your tail, those who were lagging behind You. He did not fear God.

- 19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it. Therefore when the LORD Your God has given You rest from all Your enemies around You, in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You for an inheritance to possess, You shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; You shall not forget.

Moses commands Israel to bring the firstfruits of the land to the priest and recite a confession recounting their history from Jacob to the exodus. He also commands the third-year tithe for the Levite, stranger, fatherless, and widow, and declares that Israel and the LORD have mutually pledged themselves to each other.

- 2 That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there. you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which You harvest from Your land that the LORD Your God is giving You, and You shall put it in a basket, and You shall go to the place that the LORD Your God will choose, to make His name dwell there.
- 3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us. you shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and say to Him, "I declare today to the LORD Your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our fathers to give us."

- 4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God. Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD Your God.
- 5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous: you shall make response before the LORD Your God, "A wandering Aramean was my father. And He went down into Egypt and stayed there, few in number, and there He became a nation, great, mighty, and populous.
- 6 And the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage: the Egyptians treated us harshly and humiliated us and laid on us hard labor.
- 7 And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression: Then we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers. The LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression.
- 8 And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders: the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great deeds of terror, with signs and wonders.
- 9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey. he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God: now, see, I bring the first of the fruit of the ground, which You, O LORD, have given me." And You shall set it down before the LORD Your God and worship before the LORD Your God.

- 11 And thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you. you shall rejoice in all the good that the LORD Your God has given to You and to Your house, You, and the Levite, and the stranger who is among You.
- 12 When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled; When You have finished paying all the tithe of Your produce in the third year, which is the year of tithing, giving it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, so that they may eat within Your towns and be filled,

Moses and the elders command Israel to set up large plastered stones on Mount Ebal when they cross the Jordan and write the words of the law on them. Six tribes are to stand on Mount Gerizim to bless and six on Mount Ebal to curse, and the Levites pronounce twelve curses for specific sins, to which the people answer 'Amen.'

Chapter 28

Moses pronounces blessings for obedience -- prosperity, victory, and honor among the nations -- and curses for disobedience -- disease, drought, defeat, madness, and exile. The curses grow in severity, climaxing in siege, cannibalism, and the scattering of Israel among all nations from one end of the earth to the other.

- 8 The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. The LORD will command the blessing on You in Your barns and in all that You undertake. And He will bless You in the land that the LORD Your God is giving You.
- 9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways. The LORD will establish You as a people holy to Himself, as He has sworn to You, if You keep the commandments of the LORD Your God and walk in His ways.
- 10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee. all the peoples of the earth shall see that You are called by the name of the LORD. They shall be afraid of You.
- 11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee. the LORD will make You abound in prosperity, in the fruit of Your womb and in the fruit of Your livestock and in the fruit of Your ground, within the land that the LORD swore to Your fathers to give You.
- 12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow. The LORD will open to You His good treasury, the heavens, to give the rain to Your land in its season and to bless all the work of Your hands. And You shall lend to many nations, but You shall not borrow.
- 13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them: the LORD will make You the head and not the tail, and You shall only go up and not down, if You obey the commandments of the LORD Your God, which I command You today, being careful to do them,

- 14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. if You do not turn aside from any of the words that I command You today, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.
- 15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee: But if You will not obey the voice of the LORD Your God or be careful to do all His commandments and His statutes that I command You today, then all these curses shall come upon You and overtake You.
- 16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall You be in the city, and cursed shall You be in the field.
- 17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store. Cursed shall be Your basket and Your kneading bowl.
- 18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Cursed shall be the fruit of Your womb and the fruit of Your ground, the increase of Your herds and the young of Your flock.
- 19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out. Cursed shall You be when You come in, and cursed shall You be when You go out.
- 20 The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me. The LORD will send on You curses, confusion, and frustration in all that You undertake to do, until You are destroyed and perish quickly on account of the evil of Your deeds, because You have forsaken me.
- 21 The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it. The LORD will make the pestilence stick to You until He has consumed You off the land that You are entering to take possession of it.

- 22 The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish. The LORD will strike You with wasting disease and with fever, inflammation and fiery heat, and with drought and with blight and with mildew. They shall pursue You until You perish.
- 23 And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. the heavens over Your head shall be bronze, and the earth under You shall be iron.
- 24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed. The LORD will make the rain of Your land powder and dust. From heaven it shall come down on You until You are destroyed.
- 25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. The LORD will cause You to be defeated before Your enemies. You shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them. And You shall be a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 26 And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away. your dead body shall be food for all birds of the air and for the beasts of the earth, and there shall be no one to frighten them away.
- 27 The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed. The LORD will strike You with the boils of Egypt, and with tumors and scabs and itch, of which You cannot be healed.
- 28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart: The LORD will strike You with madness and blindness and confusion of mind,

- 29 And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee. you shall grope at noonday, as the blind grope in darkness, and You shall not prosper in Your ways. And You shall be only oppressed and robbed continually, and there shall be no one to help you.
- 30 Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof. You shall betroth a wife, but another man shall ravish her. You shall build a house, but You shall not dwell in it. You shall plant a vineyard, but You shall not enjoy its fruit.
- 31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to save thee. Your ox shall be slaughtered before Your eyes, but You shall not eat any of it. Your donkey shall be seized before Your face and shall not be returned to You. Your sheep shall be given to Your enemies, and there shall be no one to help you.
- 32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand. Your sons and Your daughters shall be given to another people, while Your eyes look on and fail with longing for them all day long, but You shall be helpless.
- 33 The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway: A nation that You have not known shall eat up the fruit of Your ground and of all Your labors, and You shall be only oppressed and crushed continually,
- 34 So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. so that You are driven mad by the sights that Your eyes see.

- 35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head. The LORD will strike You on the knees and on the legs with grievous boils of which You cannot be healed, from the sole of Your foot to the crown of Your head.
- 36 The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone. The LORD will bring You and Your king whom You set over You to a nation that neither You nor Your fathers have known. And there You shall serve other gods of wood and stone.
- 37 And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee. you shall become a horror, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples where the LORD will lead You away.
- 38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it. You shall carry much seed into the field and shall gather in little, for the locust shall consume it.
- 39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them. You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but You shall neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes, for the worm shall eat them.
- 40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit. You shall have olive trees throughout all Your territory, but You shall not anoint Yourself with the oil, for Your olives shall drop off.
- 41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity. You shall father sons and daughters. But they shall not be Yours, for they shall go into captivity.
- 42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume. The cricket shall possess all Your trees and the fruit of Your ground.
- 43 The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. The sojourner who is among You shall rise higher and higher above You, and You shall come down lower and lower.

- 44 He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail. He shall lend to You, and You shall not lend to Him. He shall be the head, and You shall be the tail.
- 45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee: All these curses shall come upon You and pursue You and overtake You till You are destroyed, because You did not obey the voice of the LORD Your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes that He commanded You.
- 46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever. They shall be a sign and a wonder against You and Your seed forever.
- 47 Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things; Because You did not serve the LORD Your God with joyfulness and gladness of heart, because of the abundance of all things,
- 48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee. therefore You shall serve Your enemies whom the LORD will send against You, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness, and lacking everything. And He will put a yoke of iron on Your neck until He has destroyed You.
- 49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; The LORD will bring a nation against You from far away, from the end of the earth, swooping down like the eagle, a nation whose language You do not understand,
- 50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young: a hard-faced nation who shall not respect the old or show mercy to the young.

- 51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee. It shall eat the seed of Your cattle and the fruit of Your ground, until You are destroyed; it also shall not leave You grain, wine, or oil, the increase of Your herds or the young of Your flock, until they have caused You to perish.
- 52 And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee. They shall besiege You in all Your towns, until Your high and fortified walls, in which You trusted, come down throughout all Your land. And they shall besiege You in all Your towns throughout all Your land, which the LORD Your God has given You.
- 53 And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee: you shall eat the fruit of Your womb, the flesh of Your sons and daughters, whom the LORD Your God has given You, in the siege and in the distress with which Your enemies shall distress You.
- 54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave: The man who is the most tender and refined among you will begrudge food to his brother, to the wife he embraces, and to the last of the children whom he has left,
- 55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates. so that he will not give to any of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating, because he has nothing else left, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your towns.

- 56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, The most tender and refined woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because she is so delicate and tender, will begrudge to the husband she embraces, to her son and to her daughter,
- 57 And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates. her afterbirth that comes out from between her feet and her children whom she bears, because lacking everything she will eat them secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your towns.
- 58 If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD; If You are not careful to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that You may fear this glorious and awesome name, the LORD Your God,
- 59 Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance. then the LORD will bring on You and Your seed extraordinary afflictions, afflictions severe and lasting, and sicknesses grievous and lasting.
- 60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee. he will bring upon You again all the diseases of Egypt, of which You were afraid. They shall cling to You.
- 61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed. Every sickness also and every affliction that is not recorded in the book of this law, the LORD will bring upon You, until You are destroyed.

- 62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldst not obey the voice of the LORD thy God. Whereas You were as numerous as the stars of heaven, You shall be left few in number, because You did not obey the voice of the LORD Your God.
- 63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it. as the LORD took delight in doing You good and multiplying You, so the LORD will take delight in bringing ruin upon You and destroying You. And You shall be plucked off the land that You are entering to take possession of it.
- 64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone. the LORD will scatter You among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there You shall serve other gods of wood and stone, which neither You nor Your fathers have known.
- 65 And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind: among these nations You shall find no respite, and there shall be no resting place for the sole of Your foot, but the LORD will give You there a trembling heart and failing eyes and a languishing soul.
- 66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life: Your life shall hang in doubt before You. Night and day You shall be in dread and have no assurance of Your life.
- 67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see. In the morning You shall say, "If only it were evening!" and at evening You shall say, "If only it were morning!" because of the dread that Your heart shall feel, and the sights that Your eyes shall see.

- 68 And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.
- the LORD will bring You back in ships to Egypt, a journey that I promised that You should never make again. There You shall offer yourselves for sale to Your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.

Chapter 29

Moses makes a covenant with Israel in Moab, in addition to the one at Horeb, rehearsing the LORD's mighty acts in Egypt and the wilderness. He warns that the LORD's anger will burn against anyone who secretly turns to idolatry, and declares that the secret things belong to the LORD but the revealed things belong to Israel and their children forever.

- 1 These are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. These are the words of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the people of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant that He had made with them at Horeb.
- 2 And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land; Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that the LORD did before Your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land,
- 3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: the great trials that Your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders.
- 4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. But to this day the LORD has not given You a heart to understand or eyes to see or ears to hear.
- 5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot. I have led You forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on You, and Your sandals have not worn off Your feet.

- 6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God. You have not eaten bread, and You have not drunk wine or strong drink, that You may know that I am the LORD Your God.
- 7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them: when you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out against us to battle. But we defeated them.
- 8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. We took their land and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.
- 9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do. Therefore keep the words of this covenant and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.
- 10 Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, You are standing today, all of You, before the LORD Your God: the heads of Your tribes, Your elders, and Your officers, all the men of Israel,
- 11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: your little ones, Your wives, and the sojourner who is in Your camp, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water,
- 12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day: so that You may enter into the sworn covenant of the LORD Your God, which the LORD Your God is making with You today,
- 13 That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. that he may establish you today as his people, and that he may be your God, as He promised you, and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

- 14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath; It is not with you alone that I am making this sworn covenant,
- 15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day: but with whoever is standing here with us today before the LORD our God, and with whoever is not here with us today.
- 16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by; For You know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed.
- 17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:) you have seen their detestable things, their idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, which were among them.)
- 18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood; Beware lest there be among You a man or woman or clan or tribe whose heart is turning away today from the LORD our God to go and serve the gods of those nations. Beware lest there be among You a root bearing poisonous and bitter fruit,
- 19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add drunkenness to thirst: one who, when He hears the words of this sworn covenant, blesses Himself in His heart, saying, "I shall be safe, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart." This will lead to adding drunkenness to thirst.
- 20 The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven. The LORD will not be willing to forgive Him, but rather the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will smoke against that man, and the curses written in this book will settle on Him. The LORD will blot out His name from under heaven.

- 21 And the LORD shall separate him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law: the LORD will single Him out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.
- 22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD hath laid upon it; the next generation, Your children who rise up after You, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, will say, when they see the afflictions of that land and the sicknesses with which the LORD has made it sick—
- 23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: the whole land burned out with brimstone and salt, nothing sown and nothing growing, where no plant grows, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and wrath—
- 24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger? all the nations will say, "Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What caused the heat of this great anger?"
- 25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: Then people will say, "It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt,
- 26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had not given unto them: went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods whom they had not known and whom He had not allotted to them.

- 3 That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee. then the LORD Your God will restore Your fortunes and have mercy on You. He will gather You again from all the peoples where the LORD Your God has scattered You.
- 4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee: If Your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of heaven, from there the LORD Your God will gather You, and from there He will take You.
- 5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers. the LORD Your God will bring You into the land that Your fathers possessed, that You may possess it. And He will make You more prosperous and numerous than Your fathers.
- 6 And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live. the LORD Your God will circumcise Your heart and the heart of Your seed, so that You will love the LORD Your God with all Your heart and with all Your soul, that You may live.
- 7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee. the LORD Your God will put all these curses on Your foes and enemies who persecuted You.
- 8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day. you shall again obey the voice of the LORD and keep all His commandments that I command You today.

- 9 And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers: The LORD Your God will make You abundantly prosperous in all the work of Your hand, in the fruit of Your womb and in the fruit of Your cattle and in the fruit of Your ground. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering You, as He took delight in Your fathers,
- 10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul. when You obey the voice of the LORD Your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes that are written in this Book of the Law, when You turn to the LORD Your God with all Your heart and with all Your soul.
- 11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off. For this commandment that I command You today is not too hard for You, neither is it far off.
- 12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? It is not in heaven, that You should say, "Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?"
- 13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it? Neither is it beyond the sea, that You should say, "Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?"
- 14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it. But the word is very near You. It is in Your mouth and in Your heart, so that You can do it.
- 15 See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; See, I have set before You today life and good, death and evil.

- 16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. If You obey the commandments of the LORD Your God that I command You today, by loving the LORD Your God, by walking in His ways, and by keeping His commandments and His statutes and His rules, then You shall live and multiply. The LORD Your God will bless You in the land that You are entering to take possession of it.
- 17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; But if Your heart turns away, and You will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them,
- 18 I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it. I declare to You today, that You shall surely perish. You shall not live long in the land that You are going over the Jordan to enter and possess.
- 19 I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: I call heaven and earth to witness against You today, that I have set before You life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that You and Your seed may live,
- 20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD swear unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. loving the LORD Your God, obeying His voice and holding fast to Him, for He is Your life and length of days, that You may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to Your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

Moses, now 120 years old, tells Israel he can no longer go out and come in, and commissions Joshua before all the people. He writes the law and commands the Levites to read it to all Israel every seven years at the Feast of Tabernacles. The LORD tells Moses that Israel will break the covenant after his death.

- 7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for You shall go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and You shall put them in possession of it.
- 8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed. It is the LORD Who goes before You. He will be with You; He will not leave You or forsake You. Do not fear or be dismayed."
- 9 And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel. Then Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.
- 10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, Moses commanded them, "At the end of every seven years, at the set time in the year of release, at the feast of tabernacles,
- 11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing. when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD Your God at the place that He will choose, You shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
- 12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law: Assemble the people, men, women, and little ones, and the sojourner within Your towns, that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD Your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law,

- 13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD Your God, as long as You live in the land that You are going over the Jordan to possess."
- 14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. The LORD said to Moses, 'The days approach when you must die. Call Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, that I may give Him a charge.' And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting.
- 15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle. the LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud. And the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance of the tent.
- 16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. The LORD said to Moses, 'You are about to lie down with your fathers. Then this people will rise and whore after the foreign gods among them in the land that they are entering. They will forsake me and break my covenant that I have made with them.
- 17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us? Then my anger will be kindled against them in that day. I will forsake them and hide my face from them. They will be devoured. And many evils and troubles will come upon them, so that they will say in that day, 'Have not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us?'

- 18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods. I will surely hide my face in that day because of all the evil that they have done, because they have turned to other gods.
- 19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. Now therefore write this song and teach it to the people of Israel. Put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the people of Israel.
- 20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swear unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant. For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to give to their fathers. They have eaten and are full and grown fat, they will turn to other gods and serve them, and despise me and break my covenant.
- 21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear. when many evils and troubles have come upon them, this song shall confront them as a witness (for it will live unforgotten in the mouths of their seed). For I know what they are inclined to do even today, before I have brought them into the land that I swore to give.
- 22 Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel. Moses therefore wrote this song the same day and taught it to the people of Israel.
- 23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swear unto them: and I will be with thee. And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, "Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the people of Israel into the land that I swore to give them. I will be with you."

- 24 And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, When Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book to the very end,
- 25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD,
- 26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee. "Take this Book of the Law and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD Your God, that it may be there for a witness against You.
- 27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death? For I know how rebellious and stubborn You are. Even today while I am yet alive with You, You have been rebellious against the LORD. How much more after my death!
- 28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them. Assemble to me all the elders of Your tribes and Your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears and call heaven and earth to witness against them.
- 29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands. For I know that after my death You will surely act corruptly and turn aside from the way that I have commanded You. And in the days to come, evil will befall You, because You will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger through the work of Your hands."
- 30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended. Then Moses spoke the words of this song until they were finished, in the ears of all the assembly of Israel:

Chapter 32

Moses recites the Song of Moses before all Israel, declaring God's faithfulness and Israel's future unfaithfulness. The song recounts how the LORD found Israel in the wilderness and carried them, how they grew fat and forsook Him, and how He will vindicate His people in the end. Afterward the LORD tells Moses to go up Mount Nebo to die.

- 24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. they shall be wasted with hunger, and devoured by plague and poisonous pestilence; I will send the teeth of beasts against them, with the venom of things that crawl in the dust.
- 25 The sword without, and terror within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs. Outdoors the sword shall bereave, and indoors terror, for the young man and the young woman, the nursing child with the man of gray hairs.
- 26 I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men: I would have said, "I will cut them to pieces; I will wipe them from human memory,"
- 27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this. had I not feared provocation by the enemy, lest their adversaries should misunderstand, lest they should say, "Our hand is triumphant, it was not the LORD Who did all this."
- 28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them. For they are a nation void of counsel, and there is no understanding in them.
- 29 O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! If they were wise, they would understand this; they would discern their latter end!
- 30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up? How could one have chased a thousand, and two have put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?
- 31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. For their rock is not as our Rock; our enemies themselves being judges.

- 32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter: For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison; their clusters are bitter;
- 33 Their wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps. their wine is the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of asps.
- 34 Is not this laid up in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures? Is not this laid up in store with me, sealed up in my treasures?
- 35 To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste. Vengeance is mine, and recompense, for the time when their foot shall slip; for the day of their calamity is at hand. Their doom comes swiftly.
- 36 For the LORD shall judge his people, and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left. For the LORD will vindicate His people and have compassion on His servants, when he sees that their power is gone and there is none remaining, bond or free.
- 37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, Then He will say, "Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge,
- 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection. who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offering? Let them rise up and help You; let them be Your protection!
- 39 See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. See now that I, even I, am He, and there is no god beside me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal. There is none that can deliver out of my hand.
- 40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. For I lift up my hand to heaven and swear, As I live forever,

- 41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me. if I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand takes hold on judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and will repay those who hate me.
- 42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh—with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy."
- 43 Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people. Rejoice, O nations, with His people, for He will avenge the blood of His servants and render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful to His land and to His people.
- 44 And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun. Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun.
- 45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel: when Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel,
- 46 And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. he said to them, "Take to heart all the words by which I am warning you today, that you may command them to your children, that they may be careful to do all the words of this law.
- 47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. For it is no empty word for you, but your very life, and by this word you shall live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to possess."

Chapter 34

Moses goes up Mount Nebo and the LORD shows him all the Promised Land from Gilead to the western sea. Moses dies there at 120 years old, his eye undimmed and his strength unabated, and the LORD buries him in an unknown grave. Joshua the son of Nun succeeds him, but no prophet like Moses has arisen in Israel since.

Joshua

Author: Joshua, traditionally — he is named as the author within the book (Josh 24:26), with later additions noting his death.

Date written: Core material written during or shortly after Joshua's leadership, c. 1400–1375 BC; final editing possibly by Phinehas or Samuel.

Written to: The nation of Israel as it settled into the Promised Land.

Setting: Moses is dead. Forty years of wilderness wandering are over. Israel stands on the east bank of the Jordan, and God commands them to cross and possess the land He promised to Abraham four centuries earlier.

Where this sits historically: c. 1406–1380 BC, the conquest of Canaan during Egypt's late 18th dynasty under Amenhotep III and the Amarna age that followed.

Contemporaries: Egypt's Amenhotep III / Akhenaten and the Amarna letters describing chaos in Canaan; the Hittite empire's rise. Judges follows directly after Joshua's death.

Big themes:

- Fulfillment of promise — every step into Canaan is God keeping the oath He swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob

- Holy war — the conquest is an act of divine judgment on the Canaanite nations; Israel is God's instrument of justice, not merely an invading army

- Faith in action — Rahab's faith (ch. 2), the Jordan crossing (ch. 3), and Jericho's walls (ch. 6) all demonstrate that victory comes through trusting God's word, not military strength

- Land as inheritance — the detailed allotments of chapters 13–21 are not bureaucratic tedium; every tribe receiving land is a fulfillment of the covenant

- Covenant renewal — the book opens and closes with commands to keep the law; Joshua's farewell speech (ch. 24) forces a decision: whom will you serve?

Key passages: Josh 1:8–9; 2:11; 3:17; 6:20; 24:15

How it fits: Joshua is the fulfillment of the Exodus — everything Moses promised about entering the land comes true here. Hebrews 4 uses Israel's rest in Canaan as a type of the believer's rest in Christ. Judges opens immediately after Joshua's death, showing how quickly the nation forgot what God had done.

Chapter 1

God commanded Joshua to lead Israel across the Jordan into the Promised Land, promising to be with him as He was with Moses. The eastern tribes pledged their obedience, and Joshua ordered the people to prepare provisions for crossing within three days.

- 1

Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying,
- After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' assistant,

■ NAME NOTE — Joshua (JOSH-oo-ah) — "the LORD is salvation" — Son of Nun, of the tribe of Ephraim. Moses' assistant and successor who led Israel across the Jordan into the Promised Land. His name is the Hebrew form of "Jesus" — he is a type of Christ bringing God's people into their inheritance.

- 10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, Joshua commanded the officers of the people,
- 11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it. "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, 'Prepare your provisions, for within three days You are to pass over this Jordan to go in to take possession of the land that the LORD Your God is giving You to possess.' "
- 12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying, to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said,

- 13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land. "Remember the word that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded You, saying, 'The LORD Your God is providing You a place of rest and will give You this land.'
- 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass over before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them; Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan. But all the men of valor among you shall cross over armed before your brothers and shall help them,
- 15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising. until the LORD gives rest to Your brothers as He has to You. They also take possession of the land that the LORD Your God is giving them. Then You shall return to the land of Your possession and shall possess it, the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave You beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."
- 16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go. they answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
- 17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses. Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD Your God be with You, as He was with Moses!
- 18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage. Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys Your words, whatever You command Him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

Joshua sent two spies to Jericho, where the prostitute Rahab hid them from the king and confessed that the LORD had given Israel the land. The spies swore to spare Rahab and her family, instructing her to tie a scarlet cord in her window.

- 1

And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there.
- Joshua the son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, especially Jericho." And they went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab and lodged there.

■ NAME NOTE — Rahab (RAY-hab) — "broad, spacious" — A prostitute of Jericho who hid the Israelite spies and confessed faith in the LORD. She and her family were spared when Jericho fell. She married Salmon, bore Boaz, and entered the lineage of Christ (Matthew 1:5; Hebrews 11:31).

- when the gate was about to be closed at dark, the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them."

- 6 But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. But she had brought them up to the roof and hid them with the stalks of flax that she had laid in order on the roof.
- 7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate. So the men pursued after them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords. And the gate was shut as soon as the pursuers had gone out.
- 8 And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof; Before the men lay down, she came up to them on the roof
- 9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given You the land, and that the fear of You has fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before You.
- 10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before You when You came out of Egypt, and what You did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom You devoted to destruction.
- 11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. as soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no spirit left in any man because of You, for the LORD Your God, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath.
- 12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token: Now then, please swear to me by the LORD that, as I have dealt kindly with You, You also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a sure sign

- 13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. that You will save alive my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death."
- 14 And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee. the men said to her, "Our life for Yours even to death! If You do not tell this business of ours, then when the LORD gives us the land we will deal kindly and faithfully with You."
- 15 Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was built into the city wall, so that she lived in the wall.
- 16 And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way. she said to them, "Go into the hills, or the pursuers will meet You, and hide there three days until the pursuers have returned. Then afterward You may go Your way."
- 17 And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear. The men said to her, "We will be guiltless with respect to this oath of Yours that You have made us swear.
- 18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. when we come into the land, You shall tie this scarlet cord in the window through which You let us down, and You shall gather into Your house Your father and mother, Your brothers, and all Your father's household.
- 19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him. Then if anyone goes out of the doors of your house into the street, His blood shall be on His own head. We shall be guiltless. But if a hand is laid on anyone who is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head.

Chapter 3

The priests carrying the ark of the covenant stepped into the Jordan, and the waters were cut off so that all Israel crossed on dry ground. God exalted Joshua in the sight of Israel, confirming his leadership as He had confirmed Moses.

- 2 And it came to pass after three days, that the officers went through the host; At the end of three days the officers went through the camp
- 3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD Your God being carried by the Levitical priests, then You shall set out from Your place and follow it.
- 4 Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. Yet there shall be a distance between You and it, about 2,000 cubits in length. Do not come near it, in order that You may know the way You shall go, for You have not passed this way before."
- 5 And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you. Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among You."
- 6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people. Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on before the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.
- 7 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.
- 8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, ye shall stand still in Jordan. as for You, command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, 'When You come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, You shall stand still in the Jordan.' "

- 9 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God. Joshua said to the people of Israel, "Come here and listen to the words of the LORD Your God."
- 10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites. Joshua said, "Here is how you shall know that the living God is among you and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Jebusites.
- 11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan. the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is passing over before you into the Jordan.
- 12 Now therefore take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man. Now therefore take twelve men from the tribes of Israel, from each tribe a man.
- 13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon an heap. when the soles of the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off from flowing, and the waters coming down from above shall stand in one heap."
- 14 And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people; So when the people set out from their tents to pass over the Jordan with the priests bearing the ark of the covenant before the people,
- 15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,) as soon as those bearing the ark had come as far as the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the brink of the water (now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest),

- 4 Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man: Then Joshua called the twelve men from the people of Israel, whom he had appointed, a man from each tribe.
- 5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take ye up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel: Joshua said to them, "Pass on before the ark of the LORD Your God into the midst of the Jordan, and take up each of You a stone upon His shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel,
- 6 That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones? that this may be a sign among You. When Your children ask in time to come, 'What do those stones mean to You?'
- 7 Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever. then You shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the people of Israel a memorial forever."
- 8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. the people of Israel did just as Joshua commanded and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel, as the LORD told Joshua. And they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged and laid them down there.
- 9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day. Joshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood. They are there to this day.

- 10 For the priests which bare the ark stood in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hasted and passed over. For the priests bearing the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people passed over in haste.
- 11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people. when all the people had finished passing over, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over before the people.
- 12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them: The sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh passed over armed before the people of Israel, as Moses had told them.
- 13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho. About 40,000 ready for war passed over before the LORD for battle, to the plains of Jericho.
- 14 On that day the LORD magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel. They stood in awe of Him just as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.
- 15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying, the LORD said to Joshua,
- 16 Command the priests that bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan. "Command the priests bearing the ark of the testimony to come up out of the Jordan."
- 17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan. So Joshua commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan."

- 18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and flowed over all his banks, as they did before. when the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the midst of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up on dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.
- 19 And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho. The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month. They encamped at Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.
- 20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal. those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up at Gilgal.
- 21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean these stones? he said to the people of Israel, "When your children ask their fathers in times to come, 'What do these stones mean?'

- 23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: For the LORD Your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for You until You passed over, as the LORD Your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up for us until we passed over,
- 24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the LORD your God for ever. so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, that You may fear the LORD Your God forever."

Chapter 5

Joshua circumcised the generation born in the wilderness, and Israel kept the Passover at Gilgal. The manna ceased, and the commander of the LORD's army appeared to Joshua near Jericho.

| 1 And it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. | As soon as all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the people of Israel until they had crossed over, their hearts melted and there was no longer any spirit in them because of the people of Israel. |
| 2 At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time. | At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the people of Israel again the second time." |
| 3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. | So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the people of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. |
| 4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt. | this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way after they came out of Egypt. |
| 5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, them they had not circumcised. | Though all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people who were born on the way in the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised. |

- 6 For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, a land that floweth with milk and honey. For the people of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the men of war who came out of Egypt, perished, because they did not obey the voice of the LORD; the LORD swore to them that He would not let them see the land that the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. So it was their children, whom he raised up in their place, that Joshua circumcised. For they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.
- 8 And it came to pass, when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, till they were whole. When the circumcising of the whole nation was finished, they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed.
- 9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called Gilgal unto this day. the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." And so the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.
- 10 And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even in the plains of Jericho. While the people of Israel were encamped at Gilgal, they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening on the plains of Jericho.
- 11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and parched corn in the selfsame day. the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate of the old corn of the land, unleavened cakes and parched corn.

- 12 And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. the manna ceased the day after they ate of the old corn of the land. And there was no longer manna for the people of Israel. But they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.
- 13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? When Joshua was by Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and a man was standing before him with his drawn sword in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us, or for our adversaries?"
- 14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant? he said, "No; but I am the commander of the army of the LORD. Now I have come." And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped and said to Him, "What does my lord say to His servant?"
- 15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so. the commander of the LORD's army said to Joshua, "Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

Chapter 6

Israel marched around Jericho once a day for six days, and seven times on the seventh day, after which the walls fell flat at the sound of the trumpets and the people's shout. The city was devoted to destruction, but Rahab and her family were spared.

- 1 Now Jericho was straitly shut up because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in. Now Jericho was shut up inside and outside because of the people of Israel. None went out, and none came in.

- 2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the king thereof, and the mighty men of valour. the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and mighty men of valor.
- 3 And ye shall compass the city, all ye men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days. You shall march around the city, all the men of war going around the city once. Thus shall You do for six days.
- 4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. Seven priests shall bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. On the seventh day You shall march around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow the trumpets.
- 5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him. when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when You hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout, and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people shall go up, everyone straight before him."
- 6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD."
- 7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before the ark of the LORD. he said to the people, "Go forward. March around the city and let the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD."

- 8 And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. just as Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them.
- 9 And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rearward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. The armed men were walking before the priests who were blowing the trumpets, and the rear guard was walking after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.
- 10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout. But Joshua commanded the people, "You shall not shout or make your voice heard, neither shall any word go out of your mouth, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout."
- 11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp. So He caused the ark of the LORD to circle the city, going about it once. And they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp.
- 12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.
- 13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rearward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets. the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD walked on. They blew the trumpets continually. And the armed men were walking before them, and the rear guard was walking after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.

- 14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days. the second day they marched around the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did for six days.
- 15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times. On the seventh day they rose early, at the dawn of day, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times. It was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times.
- 16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city. at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for the LORD has given You the city.
- 17 And the city shall be accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. the city and all that is within it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live, because she hid the messengers whom we sent.
- 18 And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. But You, keep yourselves from the things devoted to destruction, lest when You have devoted them You take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel a thing for destruction and bring trouble upon it.
- 19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD. But all silver and gold, and every vessel of bronze and iron, are holy to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD."

- 20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him. They captured the city.
- 21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword. Then they devoted all in the city to destruction, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and donkeys, with the edge of the sword.
- 22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware unto her. But to the two men who had spied out the land, Joshua said, "Go into the prostitute's house and bring out from there the woman and all who belong to her, as you swore to her."
- 23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel. So the young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab and her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. And they brought all her relatives and put them outside the camp of Israel.
- 24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. they burned the city with fire, and everything in it. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.
- 25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. But Rahab the prostitute and her father's household and all who belonged to her, Joshua saved alive. And she has lived in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

- 26

And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.
- Joshua laid an oath on them at that time, saying, "Cursed before the LORD be the man who rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho. At the cost of His firstborn shall He lay its foundation, and at the cost of His youngest son shall He set up its gates."
- 27

So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.
- So the LORD was with Joshua. His fame was in all the land.

Chapter 7

Achan took devoted things from Jericho, and Israel was defeated at Ai with thirty-six men killed. God revealed Achan's sin by lot, and Achan and all he had were stoned and burned in the Valley of Achor.

- 1

But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the accursed thing: for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.
- But the people of Israel broke faith in regard to the devoted things, for Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things. And the anger of the LORD burned against the people of Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Achan (AY-kan) — "troubler" — A man of the tribe of Judah who secretly took plunder from Jericho that God had devoted to destruction. His sin caused Israel's defeat at Ai and brought judgment on his entire household. The Valley of Achor ("trouble") is named after him.

And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Bethaven, on the east side of Bethel, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.
- Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai.

- 3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few. they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not have all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and attack Ai. Do not make the whole people toil up there, for they are few."
- 4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai. So about three thousand men went up there from the people. And they fled before the men of Ai,
- 5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water. the men of Ai killed about thirty-six of their men and chased them before the gate as far as Shebarim and struck them at the descent. And the hearts of the people melted and became as water.
- 6 And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, He and the elders of Israel. And they put dust on their heads.
- 7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan! Joshua said, "Alas, O Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell beyond the Jordan!
- 8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies! O Lord, what can I say, when Israel has turned its backs before its enemies!

- 9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name? For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it and will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. And what will You do for Your great name?"
- 10 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! Why have you fallen on your face?"
- 11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant that I commanded them; they have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen and lied and put them among their own belongings.
- 12 Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you. Therefore the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will be with You no more, unless You destroy the devoted things from among You.
- 13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you. Get up! Consecrate the people and say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says the LORD, God of Israel, "There are devoted things in Your midst, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted things from among You."

- 14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man. In the morning You shall be brought near by Your tribes. And the tribe that the LORD takes by lot shall come near by clans. And the clan that the LORD takes shall come near by households. And the household that the LORD takes shall come near man by man.
- 15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel. he who is taken with the devoted things shall be burned with fire, He and all that He has, because He has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because He has done an outrageous thing in Israel.' "
- 16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken: So Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was taken.
- 17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarahites: and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken: he brought near the clans of Judah, and the clan of the Zerahites was taken. And he brought near the clan of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken.
- 18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. he brought near his household man by man, and Achan the son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.
- 19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me. Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel and give praise to Him. And tell me now what You have done; do not hide it from me."

- 20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done: Achan answered Joshua, "Truly I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I did:
- 21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it. when I saw among the spoil a beautiful Babylonish garment, and 200 shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing 50 shekels, then I coveted them and took them. And see, they are hidden in the earth inside my tent, with the silver underneath."
- 22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran unto the tent; and, behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it. So Joshua sent messengers. They ran to the tent. It was hidden in his tent with the silver underneath.
- 23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and laid them out before the LORD. they took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the people of Israel. And they laid them down before the LORD.
- 24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver and the cloak and the bar of gold, and his sons and daughters and his oxen and donkeys and sheep and his tent and all that he had. And they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.
- 25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. Joshua said, "Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD brings trouble on You today." And all Israel stoned Him with stones. They burned them with fire and stoned them with stones.

- 26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day; so the LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor, unto this day. they raised over Him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from His burning anger. Therefore, to this day the name of that place is called the Valley of Achor.

Israel defeated Ai using an ambush strategy commanded by the LORD, killing all 12,000 inhabitants and hanging the king. Joshua then built an altar on Mount Ebal and read the entire law before all Israel.

- 1 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear and do not be dismayed. Take all the fighting men with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into Your hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.
- 2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it. you shall do to Ai and its king as You did to Jericho and its king. Only its spoil and its livestock You shall take as plunder for yourselves. Lay an ambush against the city, behind it."
- 3 So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. So Joshua and all the fighting men arose to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose 30,000 mighty men of valor and sent them out by night.
- 4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready: he commanded them, " you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it. Do not go very far from the city. But all of you remain ready.

- 5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them, I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. And when they come out against us just as before, we shall flee before them.
- 6 (For they will come out after us) till we have drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them. they will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city. For they will say, 'They are fleeing from us, just as before.' So we will flee before them.
- 7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. Then You shall rise up from the ambush and seize the city, for the LORD Your God will give it into Your hand.
- 8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. See, I have commanded you. as soon as You have taken the city, You shall set the city on fire. You shall do according to the word of the LORD. See, I have commanded You."
- 9 Joshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people. So Joshua sent them out. And they went to the place of ambush and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai, while Joshua spent that night among the people.
- 10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. Joshua arose early in the morning and mustered the people and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.
- 11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai. all the fighting men who were with him went up and drew near before the city and encamped on the north side of Ai, with a valley between them and Ai.

- 12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. He took about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.
- 13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. So they stationed the forces, the main encampment that was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city. But Joshua spent that night in the valley.
- 14 And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hastened and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city. as soon as the king of Ai saw this, he and all his people, the men of the city, hurried and went out early to the appointed place before the Arabah to meet Israel in battle. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.
- 15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them and fled in the direction of the wilderness.
- 16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city.
- 17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel. Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. They left the city open and pursued Israel.
- 18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city. Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city.

- 19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire. the men in the ambush rose quickly out of their place, and as soon as He had stretched out His hand, they ran and entered the city and captured it. And they hurried to set the city on fire.
- 20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers. So when the men of Ai looked back, they saw the smoke of the city going up to heaven. They had no power to flee this way or that way. And the people who fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers.
- 21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai. when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, then they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.
- 22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. the others came out from the city against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side and some on that side, and Israel struck them down, until there was left none that survived or escaped.
- 23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua. But the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him near to Joshua.
- 24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them, all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it down with the edge of the sword.

- 25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai. all who fell that day, both men and women, were 12,000, all the people of Ai.
- 26 For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. For Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin until he had devoted all the inhabitants of Ai to destruction.
- 27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua. Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as their plunder, according to the word of the LORD that He commanded Joshua.
- 28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation unto this day. So Joshua burned Ai and made it forever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day.
- 29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until eventide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day. he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening. And at sunset Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.
- 30 Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal, At that time Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal,
- 31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the people of Israel, as it is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, "an altar of uncut stones, upon which no man has wielded an iron tool." And they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD and sacrificed peace offerings.

- 32 And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. there, in the presence of the people of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.
- 33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger, as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Israel. all Israel, sojourner as well as native born, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark before the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, to bless the people of Israel.
- 34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law. afterward He read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law.
- 35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that were conversant among them. There was not a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the sojourners who lived among them.

The Gibeonites deceived Joshua and the leaders into making a peace treaty by pretending to be from a distant land. When the deception was discovered three days later, Israel honored the oath but made the Gibeonites woodcutters and water carriers.

- 1 And it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof; As soon as all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland and all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, heard of this,
- 2 That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord. they gathered together as one to fight against Joshua and Israel.
- 3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai, But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,
- 4 They did work wilily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up; they on their part acted with cunning and went and made ready provisions and took worn-out sacks for their donkeys, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and mended,
- 5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy. with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes. And all their provisions were dry and crumbly.
- 6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make ye a league with us. they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant country, so now make a covenant with us."
- 7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you? But the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a covenant with you?"

- 8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye? They said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you? And where do you come from?"
- 9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt, They said to Him, "From a very distant country Your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD Your God. For we have heard a report of Him. All that He did in Egypt,
- 10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashtaroth. all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth.
- 11 Wherefore our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us. So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, "Take provisions in your hand for the journey and go to meet them and say to them, "We are your servants. Come now, make a covenant with us.""
- 12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; and now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy: Here is our bread. It was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey on the day we set out to come to you, but now, it is dry and crumbly.
- 13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey. These wineskins were new when we filled them. They have burst. And these garments and sandals of ours are worn out from the very long journey."
- 14 And the men took of their victuals, and asked not counsel at the mouth of the LORD. So the men took some of their provisions, but did not ask counsel from the LORD.

- 15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware unto them. Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live, and the leaders of the congregation swore to them.
- 16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. At the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and that they lived among them.
- 17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjathjearim. the people of Israel set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.
- 18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. But the people of Israel did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.
- 19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them. But all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we may not touch them.
- 20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them. This we will do to them: let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath that we swore to them."
- 21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised them. the leaders said to them, "Let them live." So they became cutters of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, just as the leaders had said of them.

- 22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us? Joshua summoned them. He said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you dwell among us?"
- 23 Now therefore ye are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God. Now therefore you are cursed. Some of you shall never be anything but servants, cutters of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God."
- 24 And they answered Joshua, and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. They answered Joshua, "Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before You—so we feared greatly for our lives because of You and did this thing.
- 25 And now, behold, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do. now, we are in Your hand. Whatever seems good and right in Your sight to do to us, do it."
- 26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not. So He did this to them and delivered them out of the hand of the people of Israel. They did not kill them.
- 27 And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which he should choose. But Joshua made them that day cutters of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place that He should choose.

Chapter 10

Five Amorite kings attacked Gibeon, and Joshua marched all night from Gilgal to rescue them; the LORD threw the enemy into confusion, cast great hailstones, and the sun stood still until Israel had avenged themselves. Joshua then conquered the southern cities of Makkedah, Libnah, Lachish, Eglon, Hebron, and Debir.

| 1 Now it came to pass, when Adonizedek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; | As soon as Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, heard how Joshua had captured Ai and had devoted it to destruction, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, |
| 2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty. | he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai. All its men were warriors. |
| 3 Wherefore Adonizedek king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying, | So Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, |
| 4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel. | "Come up to me and help me, and let us strike Gibeon. For it has made peace with Joshua and with the people of Israel." |

- 5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it. Then the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, gathered their forces and went up with all their armies and encamped against Gibeon and made war against it.
- 6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us. the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, "Do not relax your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country are gathered against us."
- 7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour. So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him. All the mighty men of valor.
- 8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee. the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hands. Not a man of them shall stand before you."
- 9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night. So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal.
- 10 And the LORD discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Bethhoron, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah. the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who struck them with a great blow at Gibeon and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon and struck them as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

- 11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bethhoron, that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword. as they fled before Israel, while they were going down the ascent of Beth-horon, the LORD threw down large stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah. They died. There were more who died because of the hailstones than the sons of Israel killed with the sword.
- 12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. At that time Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the sons of Israel. He said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still at Gibeon, and moon, in the Valley of Aijalon."
- 13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day. the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation took vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the book of Jasher? The sun stopped in the midst of heaven and did not hurry to set for about a whole day.
- 14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought for Israel. There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD heeded the voice of a man, for the LORD fought for Israel.
- 15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.
- 16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah. These five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.
- 17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah. it was told to Joshua, "The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah."
- 18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them: Joshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave and set men by it to guard them,

- 19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand. but do not stay there yourselves. Pursue Your enemies; attack their rear guard. Do not let them enter their cities, for the LORD Your God has given them into Your hand."
- 20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities. When Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished striking them with a very great blow, until they were wiped out, and when the remnant that remained of them had entered into the fortified cities,
- 21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah. Not a man moved his tongue against any of the people of Israel.
- 22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave. Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me from the cave."
- 23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. they did so, and brought those five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
- 24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. when they brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, "Come near; put your feet on the necks of these kings." Then they came near and put their feet on their necks.

- 25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and courageous. For thus the LORD will do to all Your enemies against whom You fight."
- 26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death. He hanged them on five trees. And they hung on the trees until evening.
- 27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day. But at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded. They took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves. They set large stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.
- 28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did unto the king of Jericho. As for Makkedah, Joshua captured it on that day and struck it, and its king, with the edge of the sword. He devoted to destruction every person in it; he left none remaining. And he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.
- 29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah: Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah.
- 30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho. the LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel. And He struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left none remaining in it. And He did to its king as He had done to the king of Jericho.

- 31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it: Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish and laid siege to it and fought against it.
- 32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah. the LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel. He captured it on the second day and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah.
- 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining. Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish. And Joshua struck him and his people, until he left none remaining.
- 34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it: Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon. And they laid siege to it and fought against it.
- 35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. they captured it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword. And every person in it he devoted to destruction that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
- 36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it: Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron. And they fought against it
- 37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein. captured it and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns, and every person in it. He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon, and devoted it to destruction and every person in it.

- 38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought against it: Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned back to Debir and fought against it
- 39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king. he captured it with its king and all its towns. And they struck them with the edge of the sword and devoted to destruction every person in it; he left none remaining. Just as he had done to Hebron and to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and to its king.
- 40 So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. So Joshua struck the whole land, the hill country and the south and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings. He left none remaining, but devoted to destruction all that breathed, just as the LORD God of Israel commanded.
- 41 And Joshua smote them from Kadeshbarnea even unto Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even unto Gibeon. Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea as far as Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon.
- 42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. Joshua captured all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.
- 43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal. Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

Jabin king of Hazor assembled a vast northern coalition against Israel at the waters of Merom, but the LORD gave them into Joshua's hand. Joshua burned Hazor, hamstringed the horses, destroyed the Anakim, and took the whole land as the LORD had commanded Moses.

- 1 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, When Jabin, king of Hazor, heard of this, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,
- 2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphoth-dor on the west,
- 3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
- 4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many. they came out with all their troops, a great horde, in number like the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.
- 5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel. all these kings joined their forces and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.
- 6 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will give over all of them, slain, to Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."
- 7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. So Joshua and all his warriors came suddenly against them by the waters of Merom and fell upon them.

- 8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and unto Misrephothmaim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining. the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel, who struck them and chased them as far as great Zidon and Misrephoth-maim, and eastward as far as the Valley of Mizpeh. And they struck them until He left none remaining.
- 9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire. Joshua did to them just as the LORD said to Him: He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.
- 10 And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. Joshua turned back at that time and captured Hazor and struck its king with the sword, for Hazor formerly was the head of all those kingdoms.
- 11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. they struck with the sword all who were in it, devoting them to destruction; there was none left that breathed. And he burned Hazor with fire.
- 12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. all the cities of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua captured, and struck them with the edge of the sword, devoting them to destruction, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.
- 13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn. But none of the cities that stood on mounds did Israel burn, except Hazor alone; that Joshua burned.

- 14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe. all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the people of Israel took for their plunder. But every person they struck with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them. They did not leave any who breathed.
- 15 As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. Just as the LORD had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.
- 16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same; So Joshua took all that land, the hill country and all the south country and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland
- 17 Even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. And he captured all their kings and struck them and put them to death.
- 18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
- 19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle. There was not a city that made peace with the people of Israel except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. They took all in battle.
- 20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. For it was the LORD's doing to harden their hearts that they should come against Israel in battle, in order that they should be devoted to destruction and should receive no mercy but be destroyed, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Chapter 13

God told the aging Joshua that much land remained to be possessed and commanded him to divide it among the nine and a half tribes. The territories of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh east of the Jordan are described, and the tribe of Levi received no land inheritance.

The LORD said to Him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to possess. |
| 2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri, | This is the land that yet remains: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshuri |

- 3 From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avites: (from Sihor, which is east of Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is counted as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avites,
- 4 From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites: in the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites,
- 5 And the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrising, from Baalgad under mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath. the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to the entering into Hamath,
- 6 All the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon unto Misrephothmaim, and all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee. all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians. I myself will drive them out from before the people of Israel. Only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded You.
- 7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh, Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Manasseh."
- 8 With whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them; With the other half of the tribe of Manasseh the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

- 9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Medeba unto Dibon; from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon;
- 10 And all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, unto the border of the children of Ammon; all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;
- 11 And Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah; Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and all Bashan unto Salcah;
- 12 All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out. all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the remnant of the giants); these Moses had defeated and driven out.
- 13 Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites until this day. Yet the people of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maachathites, but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day.
- 14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as he said unto them. To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance. The offerings made by fire to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as He said to them.
- 15 And Moses gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families. Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the people of Reuben according to their clans.
- 16 And their coast was from Aroer, that is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Medeba; Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba;

- 17 Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamothbaal, and Bethbaalmeon, Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plain; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,
- 18 And Jahazah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,
- 19 And Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zarethshahar in the mount of the valley, Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley,
- 20 And Bethpeor, and Ashdothpishgah, and Bethjeshimoth, Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pishgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,
- 21 And all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, which reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses smote with the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, which were dukes of Sihon, dwelling in the country. that is, all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.
- 22 Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them. Balaam also, the son of Beor, the one who practiced divination, was killed with the sword by the people of Israel among the rest of their slain.
- 23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof. the boundary of the people of Reuben was the Jordan as a boundary. This was the inheritance of the people of Reuben, according to their clans with their cities and villages.
- 24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families. Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the people of Gad, according to their clans.
- 25 And their coast was Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah; Jazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is east of Rabbah,

- 26 And from Heshbon unto Ramathmizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim unto the border of Debir; from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir,
- 27 And in the valley, Betharam, and Bethnimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of Chinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward. in the valley Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan as a boundary, to the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.
- 28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages. This is the inheritance of the people of Gad according to their clans, with their cities and villages.
- 29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families. Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh. It was allotted to the half-tribe of the people of Manasseh according to their clans.
- 30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities: Their territory extended from Mahanaim, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og king of Bashan. All the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities,
- 31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families. half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. These were allotted to the people of Machir the son of Manasseh for the half of the people of Machir according to their clans.
- 32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward. These are the inheritances that Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho.

- 33 But unto the tribe of Levi, Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them. But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, just as He said to them.

Chapter 14

The land of Canaan was distributed by lot at Gilgal under the oversight of Eleazar and Joshua. Caleb, now eighty-five years old and still strong, claimed Hebron as his inheritance because he had wholly followed the LORD.

- 1 And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. These are the inheritances that the people of Israel received in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel gave them to inherit.
- 2 By lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. Their inheritance was by lot, just as the LORD had commanded through Moses, for the nine and a half tribes.
- 3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them. For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and a half tribes beyond the Jordan, but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.
- 4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance. For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. And no portion was given to the Levites in the land, but only cities to live in, with their pasturelands for their livestock and their substance.
- 5 As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land. The people of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

- 6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said unto Moses the man of God concerning me and thee in Kadeshbarnea. Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. And Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadesh-barnea concerning you and me.

■ NAME NOTE — Caleb (KAY-leb) — "dog" (a term of loyalty) — Son of Jephunneh the Kenezite, one of only two spies (with Joshua) who brought a faithful report of Canaan. At 85 years old he claimed the hill country of Hebron and drove out the giants, saying "Give me this mountain" (14:12).

- 7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadeshbarnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart. I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land. I brought Him word again as it was in my heart.
- 8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God. But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholly followed the LORD my God.
- 9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God. Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which Your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for You and Your children forever, because You have wholly followed the LORD my God.'
- 10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old. now, the LORD has kept me alive, just as He said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. And now, I am this day eighty-five years old.

Chapter 15

The boundaries and cities of the territory allotted to the tribe of Judah are detailed, stretching from Edom in the south to the Mediterranean. Caleb drove out the Anakim from Hebron, and Othniel captured Kiriath-sepher to win Caleb's daughter Achsah; the Jebusites in Jerusalem could not be driven out.

- 1 This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast. The allotment for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their clans reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south.
- 2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward: their south boundary ran from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.
- 3 And it went out to the south side to Maalehakrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadeshbarnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa: It goes out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Kadesh-barnea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, turns about to Karka,
- 4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast. passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Brook of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary.
- 5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan: the east boundary is the Salt Sea, to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan.
- 6 And the border went up to Bethhogla, and passed along by the north of Betharabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben: the boundary goes up to Beth-hoglah and passes along north of Beth-arabah. And the boundary goes up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.

- 7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of Enshemesh, and the goings out thereof were at Enrogel: the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. And the boundary passes along to the waters of En-shemesh and ends at En-rogel.
- 8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward: Then the boundary goes up by the Valley of the Son of Hinnom at the southern shoulder of the Jebusite (that is, Jerusalem). And the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the Valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of the giants.
- 9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain of the water of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, which is Kirjathjearim: Then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and from there to the cities of Mount Ephron. Then the boundary bends around to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim).
- 10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the north side, and went down to Bethshemesh, and passed on to Timnah: the boundary circles west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passes along to the northern shoulder of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), and goes down to Beth-shemesh and passes along by Timnah.
- 11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron northward: and the border was drawn to Shicron, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea. The boundary goes out to the shoulder of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends around to Shikkeron and passes along to Mount Baalah and goes out to Jabneel. Then the boundary comes to an end at the sea.

- 12 And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast thereof. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about according to their families. the west boundary was the Great Sea with its coastline. This is the boundary around the people of Judah according to their clans.
- 13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron. According to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, he gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh a portion among the people of Judah, Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).
- 14 And Caleb drove thence the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmi, the children of Anak. Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmi, the descendants of Anak.
- 15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjathsepher. he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir. Now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher.
- 16 And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjathsepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife. Caleb said, "Whoever strikes Kiriath-sepher and captures it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as wife."
- 17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife. Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it. And he gave him Achsah his daughter as wife.
- 18 And it came to pass, as she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou? When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. And she got off her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What do you want?"
- 19 She answered, Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs. She said to him, "Give me a blessing. Since you have given me a south land, give me also springs of water." And he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

- 20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their clans.
- 21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the coast of Edom southward were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, The cities belonging to the tribe of the people of Judah in the extreme south, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,
- 22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah, Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,
- 23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithnan, Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
- 24 Ziph, and Telem, and Bealoth, Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,
- 25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerieth, and Hezron, which is Hazor, Hazor-hadattah, Kerieth-hezron (that is, Hazor),

Chapter 17

The territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh west of the Jordan is described, including the inheritance granted to the daughters of Zelophehad. The people of Joseph complained that their allotment was too small, and Joshua told them to clear the forested hill country.

| 1 There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. | Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a man of war. |

- 2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families. allotments were made to the rest of the people of Manasseh by their clans, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These were the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph, by their clans.
- 3 But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. Now Zelophehad the son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, but only daughters, and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
- 4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. They approached Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the leaders and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our brothers." So according to the mouth of the LORD He gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father.
- 5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan; Thus there fell to Manasseh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan,
- 6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead. because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the people of Manasseh.

- 7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of Entappuah. The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, which is east of Shechem. Then the boundary goes along southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.
- 8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim; The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the boundary of Manasseh belonged to the people of Ephraim.
- 9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea: Then the boundary goes down to the brook Kanah. These cities, to the south of the brook, among the cities of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the boundary of Manasseh goes along the north side of the brook and ends at the sea,
- 10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east. the land to the south being Ephraim's and that to the north being Manasseh's, with the sea forming its boundary. On the north Asher is reached, and on the east Issachar.
- 11 And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Bethshean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries. Also in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh had Bethshean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; three countries.
- 12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. Yet the people of Manasseh could not take possession of those cities, but the Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land.

- 13 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out. When the people of Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.
- 14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed me hitherto? Then the people of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, "Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, although I am a numerous people, since all along the LORD has blessed me?"
- 15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee. Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up by yourselves to the forest, and there clear ground for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."
- 16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Bethshean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel. The people of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. Yet all the Canaanites who dwell in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-shean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel."
- 17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only: Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, "You are a numerous people and have great power. You shall not have one allotment only,
- 18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong. but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders. For you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots and though they are strong."

Chapter 18

The tabernacle was set up at Shiloh, and Joshua sent surveyors to map the remaining land into seven portions. The territory of Benjamin was allotted by lot, situated between Judah and Joseph.

- 7 But the Levites have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them. The Levites have no portion among You, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage. And Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."
- 8 And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh. So the men arose and went, and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, "Go up and down in the land and write a description and return to me. And I will cast lots for You here before the LORD in Shiloh."
- 9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh. So the men went and passed up and down in the land and wrote in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions. Then they came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh,
- 10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions. Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. And there Joshua apportioned the land to the people of Israel, to each his portion.
- 11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. The lot of the tribe of the people of Benjamin according to its clans came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the people of Judah and the people of Joseph.

- 12 And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Bethaven. On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan. Then the boundary goes up to the shoulder north of Jericho, then up through the hill country westward. It ends at the wilderness of Beth-aven.
- 13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward; and the border descended to Atarothadar, near the hill that lieth on the south side of the nether Bethharon. From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the shoulder of Luz (that is, Bethel), then the boundary goes down to Ataroth-addar, on the mountain that lies south of Lower Beth-horon.
- 14 And the border was drawn thence, and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Bethharon southward; and the goings out thereof were at Kirjathbaal, which is Kirjathjearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter. Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the west side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Beth-horon. It ends at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a city of the people of Judah. This forms the western side.
- 15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjathjearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nephtoah: the south side begins at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim. And the boundary goes from there to Ephron, to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.
- 16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to Enrogel, Then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of the giants. And it then goes down the Valley of Hinnom, south of the shoulder of the Jebusites, and downward to En-rogel.

- 17 And was drawn from the north, and went forth to Enshemesh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over against the going up of Adummim, and descended to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, Then it bends in a northerly direction going on to En-shemesh, and from there goes to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim. Then it goes down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.
- 18 And passed along toward the side over against Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah: passing on to the north side of the shoulder of Beth-arabah, it goes down to the Arabah.
- 19 And the border passed along to the side of Bethhoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north bay of the salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south coast. Then the boundary passes on to the north shoulder of Beth-hoglah. And the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern boundary.
- 20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families. The Jordan forms its boundary on the east side. This is the inheritance of the people of Benjamin, according to their clans, boundary by boundary all around.
- 21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Bethhoglah, and the valley of Keziz, Now the cities of the tribe of the people of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz,
- 22 And Betharabah, and Zemaraim, and Bethel, Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,
- 23 And Avim, and Parah, and Ophrah, Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,
- 24 And Chepharhammonai, and Ophni, and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages: Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, Geba—twelve cities with their villages.
- 25 Gibeon, and Ramah, and Beeroth, Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,
- 26 And Mizpeh, and Chephirah, and Mozah, Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah,
- 27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Taralah, Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

- 28

And Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath, and Kirjath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.
- Zela, Haeleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriath-jearim—fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the people of Benjamin according to their clans.

Chapter 19

The remaining six tribes—Simeon, Zebulun, Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Dan—received their allotments by lot. Joshua himself received the city of Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim.

This was the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Simeon according to their clans.
- 9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them. The inheritance of the people of Simeon formed part of the territory of the people of Judah. Because the portion of the people of Judah was too large for them, the people of Simeon obtained an inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.
- 10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid. The third lot came up for the people of Zebulun, according to their clans. And the boundary of their inheritance reached as far as Sarid.
- 11 And their border went up toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbasheth, and reached to the river that is before Jokneam; Their border went up westward toward Maralah and reached as far as Dabbesheth, then reached the brook that is before Jokneam.
- 12 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising unto the border of Chislothabor, and then goeth out to Daberath, and goeth up to Japhia, From Sarid it turned eastward toward the sunrising to the border of Chisloth-tabor, then went out to Daberath and up to Japhia.

- 27 And turneth toward the sunrising to Bethdagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphtahel toward the north side of Bethemek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand, Then it turned toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon and reached to Zebulun and to the valley of Iphtahel northward to Beth-emek and Neiel, then went out to Cabul on the north,
- 28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto great Zidon; with Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as great Zidon.
- 29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib: Then the boundary turned to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre, and turned to Hosah, ending at the sea in the region of Achzib,
- 30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. Ummah also, Aphek, and Rehob — twenty-two cities with their villages.
- 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Asher, according to their clans — these cities with their villages.
- 32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families. The sixth lot came out for the people of Naphtali, for the people of Naphtali, according to their clans.
- 33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan: Their border ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and from Adami-nekeb and Jabneel as far as Lakkum, ending at the Jordan.
- 34 And then the coast turneth westward to Aznothtabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising. Then the border turned westward to Aznoth-tabor and went out from there to Hukkok, reaching to Zebulun on the south, to Asher on the west, and to Judah at the Jordan toward the sunrising.

- 35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,
- 36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,
- 37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and Enhazor, Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor,
- 38 And Iron, and Migdalel, Horem, and Bethanath, and Bethshemesh; nineteen cities with their villages. Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh — nineteen cities with their villages.
- 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Naphtali, according to their clans — the cities and their villages.
- 40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the people of Dan, according to their clans.
- 41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Irshemesh, The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-shemesh,
- 42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah, Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,
- 43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron, Elon, Timnah, Ekron,
- 44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,
- 45 And Jehud, and Beneberak, and Gathrimmon, Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon,
- 46 And Mejarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the territory over against Joppa.

- 47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. When the territory of the people of Dan was lost to them, the people of Dan went up and fought against Leshem, and after capturing it and striking it with the sword they possessed it and settled in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their ancestor.
- 48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Dan, according to their clans—these cities with their villages.
- 49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them: When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the people of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua the son of Nun.
- 50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnathserah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein. By command of the LORD they gave Him the city that He asked, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And He rebuilt the city and lived in it.
- 51 These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country. These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the people of Israel distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Chapter 20

Six cities of refuge were designated—three west of the Jordan and three east—where anyone who killed a person accidentally could flee and be safe from the avenger of blood.

Then they shall take him into the city and give him a place. He shall remain with them. |
| 5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime. | if the avenger of blood pursues him, they shall not give up the manslayer into his hand, because he struck his neighbor unknowingly, and did not hate him in the past. |
| 6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled. | he shall remain in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of him who is high priest at the time. Then the manslayer may return to his own town and his own home, to the town from which he fled.' " |

- 2 And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle. they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, "The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given cities to dwell in, along with their pasturelands for our livestock."
- 3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs. So the people of Israel gave to the Levites, out of their inheritance, by command of the LORD, these cities and their pasturelands.
- 4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. The lot came out for the clans of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot thirteen cities from the tribe of Judah, the tribe of Simeon, and the tribe of Benjamin.
- 5 And the rest of the children of Kohath had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities. the rest of the Kohathites received by lot from the clans of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.
- 6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. The Gershonites received by lot from the clans of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.
- 7 The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. The Merarites according to their clans received from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

- 8 And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses. These cities and their pasturelands the people of Israel gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.
- 9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here mentioned by name, Out of the tribe of the people of Judah and out of the tribe of the people of Simeon they gave these cities which are mentioned by name,
- 10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot. which went to the descendants of Aaron of the clans of the Kohathites, who were of the people of Levi, for theirs was the first lot.
- 11 And they gave them the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it. They gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is, Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the pasturelands around it.
- 12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh as his possession.
- 13 Thus they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburbs, Thus they gave to the descendants of Aaron the priest Hebron with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Libnah with its pasturelands,
- 14 And Jattir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs, Jattir with its pasturelands, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands,
- 15 And Holon with her suburbs, and Debir with her suburbs, Holon with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands,
- 16 And Ain with her suburbs, and Juttah with her suburbs, and Bethshemesh with her suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes. Ain with its pasturelands, Juttah with its pasturelands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasturelands — nine cities out of those two tribes.

- 27 And unto the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with her suburbs; two cities. To the Gershonites, one of the clans of the Levites, out of the other half-tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with its pasturelands — two cities.
- 28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, Out of the tribe of Issachar: Kishion with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands,
- 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, Engannim with her suburbs; four cities. Jarmuth with its pasturelands, and En-gannim with its pasturelands — four cities.
- 30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, Out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands,
- 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Rehob with her suburbs; four cities. Helkath with its pasturelands, and Rehob with its pasturelands — four cities.
- 32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammothdor with her suburbs, and Kartan with her suburbs; three cities. Out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Hammoth-dor with its pasturelands, and Kartan with its pasturelands — three cities.
- 33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs. All the cities of the Gershonites according to their clans were thirteen, with their pasturelands.
- 34 And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, To the clans of the descendants of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zebulun: Jokneam with its pasturelands, Kartah with its pasturelands,

- 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities. Dimnah with its pasturelands, and Nahalal with its pasturelands — four cities.
- 36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, Out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer with its pasturelands, Jahzah with its pasturelands,
- 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Mephaath with her suburbs; four cities. Kedemoth with its pasturelands, and Mephaath with its pasturelands — four cities.
- 38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, Out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasturelands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Mahanaim with its pasturelands,
- 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all. Heshbon with its pasturelands, and Jazer with its pasturelands — four cities in all.
- 40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were by lot twelve cities. All the cities of the descendants of Merari, according to their clans, the rest of the clans of the Levites — those allotted to them — were twelve cities in all.
- 41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight cities with their suburbs. All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the people of Israel were forty-eight cities with their pasturelands.
- 42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities. These cities each had its pasturelands around it. So it was with all these cities.
- 43 And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land that He swore to give to their fathers. And they took possession of it. They settled there.

- 44 And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their fathers: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. the LORD gave them rest on every side just as He had sworn to their fathers. Not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands.
- 45 There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass. Not one word of all the good promises that the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.

Chapter 22

Joshua sent the eastern tribes home with his blessing, and they built a large altar by the Jordan. The western tribes nearly went to war over it, but learned the altar was a memorial witness, not for rival sacrifice, and the conflict was peacefully resolved.

- 1 Then Joshua called the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, At that time Joshua summoned the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh
- 2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you: said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded You and have obeyed my voice in all that I have commanded You.
- 3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. You have not forsaken Your brothers these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD Your God.

- 4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan. now the LORD Your God has given rest to Your brothers, as He promised them. Therefore turn and go to Your tents in the land where Your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave You on the other side of the Jordan.
- 5 But take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul. Only be very careful to observe the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded You, to love the LORD Your God, and to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and to hold fast to Him and to serve Him with all Your heart and with all Your soul."
- 6 So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents. So Joshua blessed them and sent them away. They went to their tents.
- 7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan, but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their brothers on the west side of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents and blessed them,
- 8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren. he said to them, "Go back to your tents with much wealth and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers."

- 9 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. So the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, parting from the people of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had possessed themselves by command of the LORD through Moses.
- 10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to. when they came to the region of the Jordan that is in the land of Canaan, the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of imposing size.
- 11 And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. the people of Israel heard it said, " the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built the altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region about the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the people of Israel."
- 12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them. when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the people of Israel gathered at Shiloh to make war against them.
- 13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, Then the people of Israel sent to the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

- 14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel. with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel.
- 15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying, they came to the people of Reuben, the people of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead. They said to them,
- 16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day against the LORD? "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, 'What is this breach of faith that You have committed against the God of Israel in turning away today from following the LORD by building yourselves an altar this day in rebellion against the LORD?
- 17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD, Have we not had enough of the sin at Peor from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves, and for which there came a plague upon the congregation of the LORD,
- 18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel. that You must turn away today from following the LORD? And if You rebel today against the LORD, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.

- 19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God. But now, if the land of Your possession is unclean, pass over into the LORD's land where the LORD's tabernacle stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us. Only do not rebel against the LORD or make us as rebels by building for yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.
- 20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity. Did not Achan the son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And He did not perish alone for His iniquity.' "
- 21 Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel, Then the people of Reuben, the people of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel,
- 22 The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, save us not this day, "The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows. Let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith against the LORD, do not spare us today
- 23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meat offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it; for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD. Or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings or peace offerings on it, may the LORD Himself take vengeance.
- 24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel? No, but we did it from fear that in time to come Your children might say to our children, 'What have You to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

- 25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD. For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and You, You people of Reuben and people of Gad. You have no portion in the LORD.' So Your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD.
- 26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice: Therefore we said, 'Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,
- 27 But that it may be a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD. but to be a witness between us and You, and between our generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in His presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and peace offerings, so Your children will not say to our children in time to come, "You have no portion in the LORD."
- 28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you. we thought, 'If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we should say, 'Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and You.'
- 29 God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle. Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before His tabernacle!"

- 30 And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, it pleased them. When Phinehas the priest and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the people of Manasseh spoke, it was good in their eyes.
- 31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD. Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the people of Reuben and the people of Gad and the people of Manasseh, "Today we know that the LORD is in our midst, because You have not committed this breach of faith against the LORD. Now You have delivered the people of Israel from the hand of the LORD."
- 32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the chiefs, returned from the people of Reuben and the people of Gad in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the people of Israel, and brought back word to them.
- 33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt. the report was good in the eyes of the people of Israel. And the people of Israel blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them to destroy the land where the people of Reuben and the people of Gad were settled.
- 34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God. The people of Reuben and the people of Gad called the altar Witness, "For," they said, "it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Chapter 23

Joshua, old and near death, summoned all Israel and charged them to be faithful to the law of Moses and to avoid the remaining nations. He warned that if they intermarried with the Canaanites and served their gods, the LORD would bring disaster upon them.
