- 7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand. She made the whole earth drunk. The nations drank her wine. Therefore they have now gone mad.
- 8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get balm for her pain — perhaps she can be healed.
- 9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. 'We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed. Let us leave her and each go to our own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies. It rises as high as the heavens.'
- 10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. The LORD has vindicated us. Come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done.
- 11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. "Sharpen the arrows! Take up the shields! The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes, because His purpose is to destroy Babylon. The LORD will take vengeance — vengeance for His temple.
- 12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon. Lift up a banner against the walls of Babylon! Reinforce the guard. Station the watchmen. Prepare an ambush! The LORD will carry out His purpose, His decree against the people of Babylon.
- 13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness. You who live by many waters and are rich in treasures, Your end has come — the time for You to be cut off.

- 14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee. The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself: I will fill You with troops, as with a swarm of locusts. They will shout in triumph over You.
- 15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding. "He made the earth by His power. He founded the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.
- 16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. When He thunders, the waters in the heavens roar. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses.
- 17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. Everyone is senseless and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is shamed by His idols. His images are a fraud — they have no breath in them.
- 18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. They are worthless, the objects of mockery. When their judgment comes, they will perish.
- 19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things — including the people of his inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.
- 20 Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; "You are My war club, My weapon for battle — with You I shatter nations. With You I destroy kingdoms.
- 21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; With You I shatter horse and rider. With You I shatter chariot and driver.

- 22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; With You I shatter man and woman.
With You I shatter old man and youth.
With You I shatter young man and young woman.
- 23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers. With You I shatter shepherd and flock.
With You I shatter farmer and oxen.
With You I shatter governors and officials.
- 24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD. But I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia for all the wrong they have done in Zion," says the LORD.
- 25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyeth all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. "I am against You, destroying mountain, You who destroy the whole earth," says the LORD. "I will stretch out My hand against You, roll You off the cliffs, and make You a burned-out mountain.
- 26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD. No rock will be taken from You for a cornerstone, nor any stone for a foundation, for You will be desolate forever," says the LORD.
- 27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers. "Lift up a banner in the land! Blow the trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations for battle against her. Summon against her these kingdoms: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander against her. Send up horses like a swarm of locusts.

- 28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. Prepare the nations for battle against her — the kings of the Medes, their governors and all their officials, and all the countries they rule.
- 29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant. The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand — to lay waste the land of Babylon so that no one will live there.
- 30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken. Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting. They remain in their strongholds. Their strength is exhausted. They have become like women. Her dwellings are set on fire. The bars of her gates are broken.
- 31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, One courier follows another. Messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured,
- 32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. the river crossings seized, the marshes set on fire, and the soldiers terrified."
- 33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled. The time to harvest her will soon come."
- 34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicacies, he hath cast me out. "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured us, he has thrown us into confusion. He has made us an empty jar. Like a serpent he has swallowed us and filled his stomach with our delicacies, and then has spewed us out.

- 35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. May the violence done to our flesh be on Babylon," say the inhabitants of Zion. "May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia," says Jerusalem.
- 36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "See, I will defend Your cause and take vengeance for You. I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
- 37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant. Babylon will become a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and scorn, a place where no one lives.
- 38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps. Her people all roar like young lions. They growl like lion cubs.
- 39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD. But while they are aroused, I will set out a feast for them and make them drunk, so that they shout with laughter — then sleep forever and not wake," says the LORD.
- 40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats. "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.
- 41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! How Sheshach will be captured, the boast of the whole earth seized! What a horror Babylon will be among the nations!
- 42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of his waves. The sea will rise over Babylon. Its roaring waves will cover her.
- 43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert land — a land where no one lives and through which no one travels.

- 44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. I will punish Bel in Babylon and make Him spew out what He has swallowed. The nations will no longer stream to him. And the wall of Babylon will fall.
- 45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. Come out of her, My people! Run for Your lives! Run from the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. Do not lose heart or be afraid when rumors are heard in the land. One rumor comes this year, another the next — rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.
- 47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon. Her whole land will be disgraced and all her slain will fall within her.
- 48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD. Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon, for out of the north destroyers will attack her," says the LORD.
- 49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth. Babylon must fall because of Israel's slain, just as the slain in all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.
- 50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. You who have escaped the sword, leave and do not linger! Remember the LORD in a distant land and call Jerusalem to mind.

- 51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house. "We are disgraced, for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's house."
- 52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan. "But days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will punish her idols, and throughout her land the wounded will groan."
- 53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD. Even if Babylon reaches the sky and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers against her," says the LORD.
- 54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans: "The sound of a cry comes from Babylon — the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians."
- 55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered: The LORD is destroying Babylon. He will silence her noisy din. Waves of enemies will rage like great waters. The roar of their voices will resound,
- 56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite. for a destroyer will come against Babylon. Her warriors will be captured, and their bows will be broken. For the LORD is a God of retribution. He will repay in full.
- 57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. I will make her officials and wise men drunk, her governors, officers, and warriors as well. They will sleep forever and not wake," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

- 58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Babylon's thick wall will be leveled and her high gates set on fire. The peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, the nations' labor is only fuel for the flames."
- 59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. This is the message Jeremiah gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when He went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of his reign.
- 60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. Jeremiah had written on a scroll about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon — all that had been recorded concerning Babylon.
- 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words; He said to Seraiah, "When You get to Babylon, see that You read all these words aloud.
- 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. Then say, 'LORD, You have said You will destroy this place, so that neither people nor animals will live in it. It will be desolate forever.'
- 63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: When You finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates.
- 64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah. Then say, 'So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring on her. And her people will fall.'" The words of Jeremiah end here.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem, and in the fourth month the famine was severe. The city was broken up, Zedekiah was captured, and his sons were killed before his eyes. Nebuzaradan burned the temple, the palace, and every great house in Jerusalem, broke down the walls, and carried the people into exile. Jehoiachin was released from prison in Babylon and given a place at the king's table for the rest of his life.

| 1 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. | Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah. She was from Libnah. |
| 2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. | He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. |
| 3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. | It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end He thrust them from His presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. |
| 4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. | So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They camped outside the city and built siege works all around it. |
| 5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. | The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. |
| 6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. | By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people. |

- 7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. Then the city wall was broken through. Although the Babylonians had surrounded the city, all the soldiers fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden. They fled toward the Arabah.
- 8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. But the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered.
- 9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him. He was captured and taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.
- 10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed all the officials of Judah.
- 11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death. Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon where he put him in prison till the day of his death.
- 12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.

- 13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire: He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building He burned down.
- 14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the imperial guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.
- 15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.
- 16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen. But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
- 17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands, and the bronze Sea that were in the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.
- 18 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.

- 19 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away. The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, lampstands, dishes, and bowls used for drink offerings — whatever was made of pure gold or silver.
- 20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight. The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea, and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD — all these could not be weighed.
- 21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow. Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference. Each was four fingers thick and hollow.
- 22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was five cubits high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar.
- 23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about. There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides. The total number of pomegranates above the surrounding network was one hundred.
- 24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three doorkeepers.

- 25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city. Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and seven of the king's advisors. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land, and sixty of the common people who were found inside the city.
- 26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
- 27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land. There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into exile, away from her land.
- 28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty: This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;
- 29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons: in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year, 832 people from Jerusalem;
- 30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. in his twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan the commander of the imperial guard took into exile 745 Jews. There were 4,600 people in all.

- 31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison. In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison.
- 32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon. He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
- 33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.
- 34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life. Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, until the day of his death.

Lamentations

Author: Jeremiah, traditionally — Jewish and early Christian tradition uniformly attribute the book to him, consistent with his eyewitness presence at Jerusalem's fall and his deep grief over the city.

Date written: c. 586 BC, in the immediate aftermath of Jerusalem's destruction by Nebuchadnezzar.

Written to: The surviving remnant in Judah and the exiles in Babylon, giving voice to the grief of a nation in ruins.

Setting: Jerusalem has fallen. The temple is burned. The royal family is dead or in chains. The population is deported or left in a devastated land. Lamentations is written in the smoking rubble of everything Israel held sacred.

Where this sits historically: Written in 586 BC, the year Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon broke through the walls, burned Solomon's temple, blinded King Zedekiah, and deported most of Judah to Babylon.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was still in the land (soon forced down to Egypt), Ezekiel and Daniel were already prophesying among the Babylonian exiles, and Obadiah had just announced Edom's doom for its role in Jerusalem's fall.

Big themes:

- Grief without denial — the book does not minimize the horror of what happened; it gives full expression to suffering, loss, and desolation as an act of honest faith

- Confession — Judah's suffering is acknowledged as deserved; the city sinned grievously and the LORD is righteous in His judgment

- The mercy of God in darkness — chapter 3 turns on one pivot: "It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed" (3:22); even in the worst judgment, His compassion does not fail

- Waiting on God — the response to catastrophe is not despair but a return to God, who alone can restore

- Acrostic structure — four of the five chapters are Hebrew acrostic poems (each verse beginning with a successive letter of the alphabet), showing careful artistry even in lamentation

Key passages: Lam 1:12; 3:22–23; 3:40; 5:19–21

How it fits: Lamentations is the emotional sequel to the narrative of 2 Kings 25. Where 2 Kings records the events, Lamentations records the grief. It stands as the OT's guide to suffering — how to feel the full weight of loss while still turning toward God. Its central verse (3:22–23) became one of the NT church's most beloved statements of hope.

Chapter 1

The poet mourns Jerusalem sitting alone like a widow, once great among the nations but now paying tribute. Her allies have betrayed her, her people have gone into captivity, and her enemies prosper because the LORD has afflicted her for her many transgressions. Jerusalem herself cries out that there is no sorrow like her sorrow and acknowledges that the LORD is righteous, for she has rebelled against His commands.

| 1 How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary! | How the city sits alone — once full of people! She has become like a widow. She was great among the nations, a princess among the provinces. Now she is made to pay tribute. |
| 2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies. | She weeps bitterly in the night. Tears run down her cheeks. Among all her lovers there is no one to comfort her. All her friends have betrayed her. They have become her enemies. |
| 3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits. | Judah has gone into exile because of her suffering and harsh slavery. She lives among the nations and finds no rest. All her pursuers caught her in a narrow place. |
| 5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy. | Her enemies have become rulers. Her foes prosper. For the LORD has made her suffer because of her many transgressions. Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — "crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command." When the Bible speaks of Israel's transgressions, it means they deliberately broke the covenant with God.

| 6 | And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. | All the splendor has left the daughter of Zion. Her princes are like deer that find no pasture. They flee without strength before the one who pursues them. |
| 7 | Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths. | Jerusalem, in the days of her suffering and wandering, remembers all the precious things she had in days of old. When her people fell into enemy hands and there was no one to help, her enemies looked on and mocked at her downfall. |
| 8 | Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward. | Jerusalem has sinned greatly. Therefore she has become filthy. All who honored her now despise her, for they have seen her shame. She herself sighs and turns away. |
| 9 | Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself. | Her uncleanness clung to her skirts. She gave no thought to her future. Her fall was astonishing. She had no comforter. "O LORD, look on my suffering, for the enemy has triumphed." |
| 10 | The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation. | The enemy stretched out his hand over all her treasures. She watched as nations entered her sanctuary — the nations you commanded should not enter your congregation. |

- 11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile. All her people groan as they search for bread. They trade their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. "Look, O LORD, and take note, for I have become despised."
- 12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. "Is it nothing to You, all who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow — the sorrow the LORD has brought on me in the day of His fierce anger."
- 13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day. From above He sent fire into my bones and it spread through them. He spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He has left me desolate, in misery all day long.
- 14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up. The yoke of my transgressions has been fastened by His hand. They are twisted together and laid on my neck. He has drained my strength. The LORD has handed me over to those I cannot resist.
- 15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. The Lord has rejected all my mighty warriors. He summoned an army against me to crush my young men. The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah like grapes in a winepress.
- 16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. For these things I weep. My eyes overflow with tears. Any comforter who might restore me is far away. My children are desolate because the enemy has triumphed.

- 17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them. Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her. The LORD has commanded that Jacob's neighbors should be his enemies. Jerusalem is as unclean in their midst.
- 18 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. "The LORD is righteous, for I rebelled against His commands. Listen, all You peoples, and see my sorrow. My young women and my young men have gone into captivity."
- 19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls. I called to my allies, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders perished in the city while searching for food to keep themselves alive.
- 20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death. "Look, O LORD, for I am in distress. My stomach churns. My heart is wrung within me, for I have been very rebellious. In the streets the sword kills. At home there is death."
- 21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me. They have heard my groaning. There is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble. They are glad that You have done it. But You will bring the day You have announced, and they will become like me.
- 22 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint. "Let all their wickedness come before You. Deal with them as You have dealt with me for all my transgressions. For my groans are many and my heart is sick."

The poet describes the LORD acting as an enemy against His own people — swallowing up the dwellings of Jacob, destroying the temple, and making Zion forget her festivals. Her prophets gave false visions and did not expose her iniquity. Children faint in the streets, women eat their own offspring, and the poet cries out for Zion to pour out her heart like water before the Lord.

| 1 How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger! | How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud of His anger! He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel. He did not remember His footstool in the day of His anger. |
| 2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. | The Lord has swallowed up without pity all the dwellings of Jacob. In his wrath he has torn down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. He has brought them down to the ground. He has dishonored the kingdom and its princes. |
| 3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. | In His fierce anger He has cut off every defender of Israel. He has pulled back His right hand from before the enemy. He has burned against Jacob like a blazing fire that consumes everything around it. |
| 4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire. | He has bent his bow like an enemy. He has taken His stand like a foe with His right hand raised. He has killed all who were precious in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion. He poured out His wrath like fire. |
| 5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. | The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds. He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. |

- 6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. He has torn down His tabernacle as easily as a garden shed. He has destroyed His appointed place. The LORD has made Zion forget her festivals and her Sabbaths. In His fierce anger He has rejected king and priest alike.
- 7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. The Lord has abandoned His altar and rejected His sanctuary. He has handed over the walls of her palaces to the enemy. They shout in the house of the LORD as on a day of appointed festival.
- 8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line; he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. The LORD purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion. He stretched out the measuring line. He did not hold back His hand from destroying. He made the rampart and the wall lament. They sank into ruin together.
- 9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. Her gates have sunk into the ground. He has destroyed and broken their bars. Her king and princes are among the nations. The law is no more. Her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.
- 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence. They have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

My stomach churns. My heart is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, as children and infants faint in the streets of the city. They cry to their mothers, "Where is food and drink?" as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as their lives pour out on their mothers' laps. "What can I say to You? What can I compare to You, O daughter of Jerusalem? What can I equal you to, that I might comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? Your wound is as deep as the sea. Who can heal You?" Your prophets have seen false and worthless visions for You. They did not expose Your iniquity to turn away Your captivity. The visions they proclaimed were lies and delusions. |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than 'sin' — the corruption beneath the sinful act." When Lamentations speaks of iniquity, it points not just to what Israel did wrong, but to the deep moral corruption that drove their rebellion against God.

- 15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? All who pass by clap their hands at You. They hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city they called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?"
- 16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. All Your enemies open their mouths against You. They hiss and grind their teeth and say, "We have swallowed her up. This is the day we were waiting for. We have found it. We have seen it."
- 17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries. The LORD has done what He planned. He has carried out His word that He commanded long ago. He has torn down without pity. He has let Your enemy gloat over You and has given power to Your foes.
- 18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease. Their heart cried out to the Lord. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears flow like a river day and night. Give Yourself no relief. Let Your eyes have no rest.
- 19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street. Rise, cry out in the night. At the beginning of every watch, pour out Your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift Your hands to Him for the lives of Your children, who faint from hunger on every street corner.

The poet speaks as one who has suffered under God's wrath — driven into darkness, walled in, and torn apart. Yet in the middle of his despair he declares that it is because of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, that His compassions are new every morning, and that great is His faithfulness. He calls the people to examine their ways and return to the LORD, then cries out for God to judge his enemies.

| 13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins. | He drove the arrows from His quiver deep into my body. |
| 14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day. | I have become the mockery of all my people — their song all day long. |
| 15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood. | He has filled me with bitterness. He has made me drink deeply of wormwood. |
| 16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes. | He has ground my teeth on gravel. He has pressed my face into the dust. |

- 17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity. You have banished my soul from peace. I have forgotten what prosperity is.
- 18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD: I said, "My strength and my hope have perished from the LORD."
- 19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. I remember my suffering and my wandering — the bitterness and the poison.
- 20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me. My soul remembers and is brought low within me.
- 21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope. Yet this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:
- 22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. It is because of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed. His compassions never fail.
- 23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. They are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness.
- 24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul. "Therefore I will hope in Him."
- 25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him.
- 26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD. It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.
- 27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.
- 28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him. Let Him sit alone in silence when God lays it on Him.
- 29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope. Let Him put His face in the dust — there may yet be hope.

| 39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? | Why should any living person complain when punished for His sins? |
| 40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD. | Let us examine and test our ways and turn back to the LORD. |
| 41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. | Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven. |
| 42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned. | We have sinned and rebelled. You have not forgiven. |
| 43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied. | You wrapped Yourself in anger and pursued us. You have killed without pity. |

- 44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through. You covered Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer could pass through.
- 45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people. You have made us filth and garbage among the peoples.
- 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
- 47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction. We have experienced panic and the pit — devastation and destruction.
- 48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people. Rivers of tears flow from my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, My eyes will keep flowing without stopping
- 50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven. until the LORD looks down and sees from heaven.
- 51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city. My eyes bring me pain because of all the women of my city.
- 52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause. My enemies hunted me relentlessly like a bird — though I had done nothing wrong.
- 53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me. They threw me alive into a pit and dropped a stone on top of me.
- 54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off. The waters closed over my head. I said, "I am finished."
- 55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon. I called on Your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit.
- 56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry. You heard my voice. Do not hide Your ear from my cry for relief, from my plea.
- 57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not. You came near when I called on You. You said, "Do not be afraid."

Chapter 4

The poet mourns how the gold has grown dim and the precious sons of Zion are counted as clay pots. Famine has devastated the city — children beg for bread, compassionate women have boiled their own children, and the punishment exceeds that of Sodom. The LORD has poured out His full wrath because of the sins of her prophets and priests. The poet warns Edom that the cup will pass to her as well.

| 1 How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street. | How the gold has grown dim! How the finest gold has changed! The sacred stones lie scattered at every street corner. |
| 2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! | The precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold — now they are counted as mere clay pots, the work of a potter's hands. |
| 3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. | Even jackals nurse their young, but the daughter of my people has become heartless — like an ostrich in the desert. |
| 4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them. | The nursing infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth from thirst. Children beg for bread, but no one gives them any. |
| 5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. | Those who once ate fine food are starving in the streets. Those who grew up in luxury are picking through garbage heaps. |
| 6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. | The punishment for the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the penalty of Sodom, which was destroyed in a moment with no one to help her. |
| 7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire: | Her Nazarites were purer than snow and whiter than milk. They were more ruddy in body than rubies. Their appearance was like sapphire. |
| 8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. | Now their faces are blacker than soot. They are not recognized in the streets. Their skin has shrunk to their bones. It has dried up and become like wood. |

- 9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field. Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger, who waste away, pierced by the lack of food from the fields.
- 10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people. Compassionate women boiled their own children. Their children became their food during the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof. The LORD has given full vent to His wrath. He has poured out His fierce anger. He set a fire in Zion that consumed her very foundations.
- 12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem. The kings of the earth could not believe — nor could any of the world's inhabitants — that an enemy or foe would ever enter the gates of Jerusalem.
- 13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. It happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous within her.
- 14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, insomuch that men could not touch their garments. They staggered through the streets like blind men, so defiled with blood that no one could touch their clothing.
- 15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. "Go away! Unclean!" people cried to them. "Go away! Away! Do not touch!" When they fled and wandered, the nations said, "They will stay here no longer."

- 16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders. The LORD Himself scattered them. He will look on them no more. The people showed no respect to the priests and no honor to the elders.
- 17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us. Our eyes strained with watching for help that never came. We kept watch from our towers for a nation that could not save us.
- 18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. They hunt our steps so we cannot walk in our own streets. Our end is near. Our days are numbered. Our end has come.
- 19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky. They chased us over the mountains. They lay in ambush for us in the desert.
- 20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. The anointed of the LORD — the breath of our life — was caught in their traps, the one of whom we said, "Under His shadow we will live among the nations."
- 21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked. Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz. But the cup will pass to you as well. You will get drunk and expose Yourself.
- 22 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins. Your punishment is complete, O daughter of Zion. He will not send you into exile again. But He will punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom. He will expose your sins.

Chapter 5

The poet pleads with the LORD to remember what has happened — their inheritance given to strangers, their people made orphans, servants ruling over them, and women violated in Zion.

The joy of their hearts has ceased and their dancing has turned to mourning. Yet he affirms that the LORD reigns forever and pleads, "Turn us to Yourself, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old."

Ezekiel

Author: Ezekiel son of Buzi, a priest — the book is written almost entirely in first person and dated with remarkable precision to specific days of the Babylonian calendar.

Date written: c. 593–571 BC, during the Babylonian exile; the dates given within the book span twenty-two years.

Written to: The Jewish exiles in Babylon, particularly the community at Tel-abib by the river Chebar.

Setting: Ezekiel is already in Babylon with the first wave of exiles (597 BC) when his ministry begins. He prophesies for over twenty years — while Jerusalem still stands, through its fall (586 BC), and into the early restoration period. He ministers to a community in shock, stripped of temple, land, and king.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied from 593 to 571 BC at the height of Nebuchadnezzar's Neo-Babylonian empire, beside the river Chebar in southern Mesopotamia, before, during, and after the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah preached in the dying days of Jerusalem, Daniel served in the Babylonian court, and Obadiah and Habakkuk both prophesied in the same Babylonian-era window.

- The glory of the LORD — the book opens with an overwhelming vision of God's throne-chariot (ch. 1) and traces where the glory goes: out of the temple (chs. 8–11), into exile, and back to a restored temple (chs. 40–48)

- Individual responsibility — "The soul that sinneth, it shall die" (18:4, 20); each person stands before God on their own account

- The valley of dry bones — the resurrection of a nation from death is one of the OT's most vivid prophetic images (ch. 37)

- Judgment on Israel and the nations — extended oracles against Jerusalem, Egypt, Tyre, and surrounding nations fill the middle section

- The restored temple — the final nine chapters describe an idealized temple in extraordinary detail, pointing to God's ultimate dwelling with His people

Key passages: Ezek 1:28; 11:19–20; 18:4; 36:26–27; 37:5

How it fits: Ezekiel is the exile's prophet, as Isaiah was the pre-exile prophet and Jeremiah the fall prophet. His temple vision in chapters 40–48 is the OT background to Revelation's new Jerusalem. His new heart/new spirit promise (36:26–27) is the OT's closest anticipation of the NT doctrine of regeneration.

Ezekiel sees a vision of four living creatures and the glory of the LORD above them. The wheels within wheels move wherever the Spirit directs, and above the firmament sits a throne of sapphire with a figure like fire surrounded by brightness like a rainbow.

■ NAME NOTE — Ezekiel (ee-ZEE-kee-ul) — "God strengthens" — A priest and prophet taken into exile in Babylon with King Jehoiachin in 597 BC. He received dramatic visions and preached to the Jewish exiles in Babylonia.

| 5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. | From within it came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the form of a human being. |
| 6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. | Each had four faces and four wings. |

- 7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass. Their legs were straight. Their feet were like the hooves of a calf, gleaming like polished bronze.
- 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. Under their wings on each of their four sides they had human hands. All four of them had faces and wings.
- 9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; every one went straight forward. Their wings touched one another. They did not turn when they moved. Each one went straight forward.
- 10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. As for the form of their faces: each had a human face on the front, a lion's face on the right side, an ox's face on the left side, and an eagle's face on the back.
- 11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. Such were their faces. Their wings were spread upward. Two wings of each creature touched the wings of the creatures on either side, and two wings covered their bodies.
- 12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. Each one moved straight forward. Wherever the Spirit would go, they went. They did not turn when they moved.
- 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among them. The fire was bright, and lightning flashed from the fire.

- 14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. The living creatures moved back and forth like flashes of lightning.
- 15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces. As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of the four-faced creatures.
- 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. The wheels and their construction gleamed like topaz. All four wheels looked the same. Each wheel appeared to be a wheel intersecting a wheel.
- 17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went. When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning.
- 18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four. Their rims were high and awesome. All four rims were full of eyes all around.
- 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose with them.
- 20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. Wherever the Spirit would go, the creatures went, and the wheels rose alongside them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

- 21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. When the creatures moved, the wheels moved. When the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose with them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.
- 22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was something like a firmament, dazzling like crystal, stretched out overhead.
- 23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. Under the firmament their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another. Each creature had two wings covering its body on each side.
- 24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty — a tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.
- 25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. There came a voice from above the firmament over their heads. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.
- 26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. Above the firmament over their heads was something like a throne — it looked like sapphire. On the likeness of the throne above was a figure that looked like a man.

- 27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. I saw that from what appeared to be His waist up, He looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire. From His waist down He looked like fire, and brilliant light surrounded Him.
- 28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day — that was how the brilliant light around Him looked. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

The LORD commissions Ezekiel to speak to a rebellious Israel, whether they listen or refuse. He is given a scroll written on both sides with words of lamentation, mourning, and grief.

- 14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. The Spirit lifted me up and carried me away. I went in bitterness and anguish of spirit, but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.
- 15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days. I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who lived by the river Chebar. I sat among them, overwhelmed, for seven days.

- 16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:
- 17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. "Son of man, I have made You a watchman for the house of Israel. Hear the word from My mouth and warn them on My behalf."
- 18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "When I say to the wicked, 'You will certainly die,' and you do not warn him or speak to warn him from his wicked ways to save his life — that wicked man will die in his iniquity. But I will hold you responsible for his blood."
- 19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you warn the wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked ways, he will die in his iniquity. But you will have saved yourself."
- 20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I put a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin. His righteous deeds will not be remembered, and I will hold you responsible for his blood."
- 21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took the warning. And you will have saved yourself."

Chapter 4

The LORD commands Ezekiel to act out the siege of Jerusalem on a clay tablet. He is to lie on his left side 390 days for Israel's iniquity and 40 days on his right side for Judah's, eating rationed bread baked over dung as a sign of the famine to come.

| 3 | Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. | "Then take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between You and the city. Turn Your face toward it, and it will be under siege. Press the siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel." |
| 4 | Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. | "Then lie on Your left side and put the iniquity of the house of Israel on Yourself. For the number of days You lie on it, You will bear their iniquity." |
| 5 | For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. | "I have assigned You one day for each year of their iniquity — 390 days. That is how long You will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel." |
| 6 | And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. | "When You have finished that, lie down again on Your right side and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah for forty days. I have assigned You one day for each year." |
| 7 | Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. | "Turn Your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with Your arm bared, and prophesy against it." |

- 8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege. "I will tie You with ropes so You cannot turn from one side to the other until You have finished the days of Your siege."
- 9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. "Take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Put them in one container and make bread for Yourself. Eat it during the 390 days You lie on Your side."
- 10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. "Eat it by weight — twenty shekels a day — measuring it out at set times."
- 11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. "You will also drink water by measure — one sixth of a hin — drinking it at set times."
- 12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight. "Eat it like a barley cake and bake it over human dung in their sight."
- 13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. The LORD said, "This is how the children of Israel will eat their defiled bread among the nations where I will drive them."
- 14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, I have never been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten anything that died on its own or was torn by wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth."

I will let You use cow's dung instead of human dung. Prepare Your bread over that." He said to me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the food supply in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight and in anxiety. They will drink water by measure and in despair." "This is so they will lack bread and water. They will be appalled at one another and waste away because of their iniquity." |

Ezekiel shaves his head and divides the hair into three parts — one burned, one struck with a sword, one scattered to the wind — picturing how Jerusalem's people will perish by famine, sword, and exile. The LORD declares He will execute unprecedented judgment because the city has defiled His sanctuary.

- 3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. "Take a few strands of hair and tuck them in the folds of Your robe."
- 4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. "Then take some of these and throw them into the fire and burn them. From there fire will spread to all the house of Israel."
- 5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her. This is what the Lord GOD says: "This is Jerusalem. I placed her at the center of the nations, with lands all around her."
- 6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them. "She has rebelled against My laws and decrees more wickedly than the nations around her. She has rejected My laws and has not lived by My decrees."
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you; Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "Because You have been more unruly than the nations around you, not living by My decrees or following My laws — not even following the practices of the surrounding nations —"
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "I Myself am against You, and I will execute judgment in Your midst in the sight of the nations."
- 9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations. "Because of all Your abominations, I will do to You what I have never done before and will never do again."

- 10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds. "In Your midst, fathers will eat their children and children will eat their fathers. I will execute judgment on You and scatter all Your survivors to every direction."
- 11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. "Therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because You have defiled My sanctuary with all Your vile images and detestable practices, I will cut You down. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity."
- 12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. "A third of Your people will die of plague and famine inside the city. A third will fall by the sword outside the walls. A third I will scatter to every direction and pursue with a drawn sword."
- 13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. "So My anger will be spent and My wrath against them satisfied. When I have vented My fury on them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in My zeal."
- 14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by. "I will make You a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by."

Chapter 6

The LORD pronounces judgment against the mountains of Israel and their high places. The altars and idols will be destroyed and the slain will fall among them, but a remnant will survive among the nations and remember the LORD.

This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am bringing a sword against You, and I will destroy Your high places."
- 4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. "Your altars will be laid waste and Your incense altars will be broken. I will throw down Your slain before Your idols."
- 5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. "I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols and scatter Your bones around Your altars."
- 6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. "In all Your settlements, the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be laid waste, so that Your altars will be ruined and desolate, Your idols smashed and abolished, Your incense altars cut down, and everything You have made wiped out."

- 8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. "But I will spare some — survivors of the sword among the nations when you are scattered through the lands."

- 9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. "Then Your survivors will remember Me among the heathen where they are taken captive. I was broken by their whorish hearts that turned from Me, and by their eyes that went after their idols. They will despise themselves for the evil they have done and for all their abominations."
- 10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them. "They will know that I am the LORD. I did not threaten in vain to bring this disaster on them."
- 11 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. This is what the Lord GOD says: "Clap Your hands and stamp Your foot and cry out, 'Alas!' over all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, for they will fall by sword, famine, and plague."
- 12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. "Those far away will die of plague. Those nearby will fall by the sword. Those who survive and are spared will die of famine. I will spend My fury on them."
- 13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols. "You will know that I am the LORD when their dead lie among their idols — around their altars, on every high hill, on every mountaintop, under every green tree and every leafy oak — the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols."

- 7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. "Doom has come on You, You who live in the land. The time has come. The day is near. There is confusion, not joy, on the mountains."
- 8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations. "Soon I will pour out My wrath on You and spend My anger against You. I will judge You according to Your ways and punish You for all Your abominations."
- 9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth. "My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. - 11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs: neither shall there be wailing for them. "Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of the people will remain — not their wealth or anything of theirs. No one will mourn for them."
- 12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. "The time has come. The day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice or the seller mourn, for wrath is on the whole crowd."

- 13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. "The seller will not recover what was sold even if He lives, for the vision concerns all the people. No one will turn back. Because of their iniquity, no one will be able to sustain their lives."
- 14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. "They sound the trumpet and make everything ready, but no one goes into battle — for My wrath is on all of them."
- 15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. "The sword is outside. Plague and famine are inside. Those in the countryside will die by the sword. Those in the city will be consumed by famine and plague."
- 16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. "Those who survive and escape will flee to the mountains. They will be like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning — each one over their own iniquity."
- 17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. "Every hand will go limp. Every knee will be weak as water."
- 18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. "They will put on sackcloth. Terror will cover them. Shame will be on every face and every head will be shaved."

Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it — for it became the stumbling block of their iniquity."
- 20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. "They took pride in their beautiful jewelry and used it to make their vile idols and detestable images. Therefore I will make it an unclean thing to them."
- 21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. "I will give it as plunder to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, and they will defile it."
- 22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. "I will turn My face away from them, and they will desecrate My treasured place. Robbers will break into it and defile it."
- 23 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. "Prepare chains, for the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence."
- 24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. "I will bring the most ruthless of heathen to take possession of their houses. Chapter 8

The Spirit transports Ezekiel in a vision to the temple in Jerusalem. He sees escalating abominations — an idol of jealousy at the gate, elders burning incense to carved images in secret, women weeping for Tammuz, and men bowing to the sun with their backs to the temple.

The hand of the Lord GOD fell on me there. |
| 2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber. | I looked and saw a figure that looked like fire. From what appeared to be His waist down was fire. From His waist up He was brilliant — like glowing metal. |

- 3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God brought me to Jerusalem — to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes God's jealousy stood.
- 4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain. The glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision I had seen in the plain.
- 5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. He said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." I looked toward the north, and there at the entrance north of the altar gate was this idol that provokes jealousy.
- 6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations. He said to me, "Son of man, do You see what they are doing — the great abominations the house of Israel is committing here, driving Me far from My sanctuary? But You will see even greater abominations."
- 7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and I looked and saw a hole in the wall.
- 8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. He said to me, "Son of man, dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall and saw a doorway.
- 9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked abominations they are doing here."

- 10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. I went in and looked, and I saw every form of crawling creature and unclean animal and all the idols of the house of Israel — carved all over the walls.
- 11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Standing before them were seventy of the elders of the house of Israel. Jaazaniah son of Shaphan stood among them. Each man had his incense burner in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.
- 12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He said to me, "Son of man, have You seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each of them is in His own room full of carved idols. They say, 'The LORD doesn't see us. The LORD has abandoned the land.'"
- 13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. He also said to me, "You will see even greater abominations than these."
- 14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD's house. There I saw women sitting and weeping for Tammuz.
- 15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. He said to me, "Do You see this, Son of man? You will see abominations even greater than these."

- 16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and at the entrance to the temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men. Their backs were toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east. They were bowing down to the sun in the east.
- 17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. He said to me, "Have You seen this, Son of man? Is it a trivial thing for the house of Judah to do the abominations they are doing here? They have filled the land with violence and repeatedly provoked Me to anger. Look — they are even putting the branch to their nose."
- 18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them. "Therefore I will deal with them in fury. My eye will not spare and I will have no pity. Even if they shout in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

Six executioners with destroying weapons are summoned, along with a man in linen carrying a writing kit. The man marks the foreheads of those who grieve over Jerusalem's abominations, and the rest are slaughtered without pity — beginning at the sanctuary.

- 1 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. He called in my hearing with a loud voice, "Bring the executioners of the city here, each with a weapon of destruction in his hand."

- 2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar. Six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man dressed in linen who carried a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.
- 3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub where it had been and moved to the threshold of the house. The LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit.
- 4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. The LORD said to Him, "Go through the city — through Jerusalem — and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and mourn over all the abominations being done in the city."
- 5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: To the others He said in my hearing, "Follow Him through the city and strike. Do not let Your eye spare, and have no pity."
- 6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. "Kill old men, young men, young women, little children, and women — but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the house.

Ezekiel sees the glory of the LORD depart from the threshold of the temple and stand over the cherubim. Coals of fire are scattered over the city, and the cherubim with their wheels rise from the earth as the glory moves to the east gate.

Words in this chapter:

- 1 Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. I looked and saw that above the firmament over the heads of the cherubim there was something like a sapphire stone — the appearance of the likeness of a throne.
- 2 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. The LORD spoke to the man in linen and said, "Go between the wheels under the cherubim. Fill Your hands with burning coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." He went in as I watched.
- 3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. The cherubim were standing on the south side of the house when the man went in. The cloud filled the inner court.
- 4 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. The glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the house. The house was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the radiance of the LORD's glory.
- 5 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far as the outer court — like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks.
- 6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. When God commanded the man in linen, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside the wheels.

- 7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire between the cherubim. He took some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out.
- 8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings. The cherubim appeared to have the form of human hands under their wings.
- 9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone. I looked and saw four wheels beside the cherubim — one wheel beside each cherub. The wheels gleamed like topaz.
- 10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. All four wheels looked the same — as if a wheel were within a wheel.
- 11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. When they moved, they went in any of the four directions without turning. They followed the direction the head was facing and did not turn as they moved.
- 12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. Their entire bodies — including their backs, hands, and wings — and the wheels were covered with eyes all around, all four of them.
- 13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel. As for the wheels, they were called "the whirling wheels" as I heard.

- 14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. Each of the cherubim had four faces: the first was the face of a cherub, the second a human face, the third a lion's face, and the fourth an eagle's face.
- 15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar. The cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the river Chebar.
- 16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side.
- 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still. When they rose, the wheels rose with them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.
- 18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims. Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the house and stopped above the cherubim.
- 19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. The cherubim spread their wings and rose up from the earth as I watched. The wheels were beside them as they went. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's house. The glory of the God of Israel was above them.
- 20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims. These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar. I recognized that they were cherubim.

- 21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. Each had four faces and four wings. Under their wings was the likeness of human hands.
- 22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward. Their faces looked just like the faces I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one moved straight forward.

Chapter 11

The glory of the LORD departs from the city and stands on the mountain east of Jerusalem. Yet the LORD promises to gather His scattered people, give them one heart, put a new spirit within them, and replace their heart of stone with a heart of flesh.

Cross-References:

- 1 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house, which faces east. At the entrance of the gate I saw twenty-five men. Among them were Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah — leaders of the people.
- 2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city: The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked advice in this city."
- 3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. "They say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This city is the pot, and we are the meat.'"
- 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. "Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, Son of man."

- 5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. The Spirit of the LORD came on me and said, "Speak: 'This is what the LORD says. That is what You have said, house of Israel. I know what comes into Your mind, every single one of those thoughts.'"
- 6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. "You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead."
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "The bodies You have thrown down in this city are the meat, and this city is the pot — but I will bring You out of it."
- 8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. "You dread the sword, so I will bring a sword against You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. "I will bring You out of the city and hand You over to foreigners. I will execute judgment on You."
- 10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "You will fall by the sword. I will judge You at the border of Israel. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel: "This city will not be Your pot, and You will not be the meat in it. I will judge You at the border of Israel."
- 12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you. "You will know that I am the LORD, for You have not lived by My statutes or followed My laws. Instead You have followed the practices of the heathen around you."

- 13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? While I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. I fell facedown and cried out, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You completely destroy the remnant of Israel?"
- 14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. "Son of man, the people of Jerusalem have said about your fellow exiles and all the house of Israel, 'They are far from the LORD. This land has been given to us as our possession.'"
- 16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. "Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Although I sent them far away among the heathen and scattered them among the lands, yet I have been a small sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone."
- 17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. "Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will gather You from the peoples and assemble You from the lands where You have been scattered, and I will give You back the land of Israel."
- 18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. "When they return, they will remove all its vile images and detestable idols."

| 19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: | "I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh." |
| 20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. | "Then they will follow My statutes and keep My laws and carry them out. They will be My people, and I will be their God." |
| 21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD. | "But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols, I will bring their deeds on their own heads, declares the Lord GOD." |
| 22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. | Then the cherubim spread their wings, and the wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was above them. |
| 23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. | The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stopped on the mountain to the east of the city. |
| 24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. | Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles in Babylonia. After this the vision I had seen went away from me. |
| 25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me. | I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me. |

The LORD commands Ezekiel to pack his belongings and dig through the wall in the sight of the people as a sign of exile. The prince in Jerusalem will carry his bags on his shoulder at twilight, and every vision and prophecy will shortly be fulfilled — no longer delayed.

They have eyes to see but do not see, ears to hear but do not hear — for they are a rebellious house." |
| 3 | Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. | "Son of man, pack Your belongings for exile and move out in the daytime as they watch. | 6 | In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. | "Carry Your pack on Your shoulders and go out in the dark. Cover Your face so You cannot see the ground — for I have made You a sign to the house of Israel." |

- 7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. I did as I was commanded. By day I brought out my belongings as though going into exile. In the evening I dug through the wall by hand. I carried my pack out in the dark and bore it on my shoulder as they watched.
- 8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:
- 9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? "Son of man, did the house of Israel — that rebellious house — not ask You what You were doing?"
- 10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: This message concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel who are there."
- 11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove and go into captivity. "Say: I am a sign to You. As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives."
- 12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. "The prince among them will put his pack on his shoulder in the dark and go out through the wall. They will dig a hole through the wall to carry him through. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land."
- 13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. "I will throw My net over him and catch him in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it — and there he will die."
- 14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. "I will scatter in every direction all his helpers and all his troops, and I will pursue them with a drawn sword."

- 15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries. "They will know that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the lands."
- 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "But I will spare a few of them from sword, famine, and plague, so they may confess all their abominations among the heathen where they go. Chapter 13

The LORD condemns the false prophets of Israel who prophesy peace when there is no peace, whitewashing a flimsy wall. He also denounces the women who sew magic bands and veils to hunt souls for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread.

I will say to You, 'The wall is gone, and so are those who whitewashed it.'"
- 16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD. "These are the prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Lord GOD."
- 17 Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, "Now, Son of man, set Your face against the daughters of Your people who prophesy from their own imagination. Prophesy against them."
- 18 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you? "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible it will be for the women who sew magic bands on every wrist and make veils for people of every height to trap souls. Will You trap the souls of My people and keep Your own souls alive?"

- 19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies? "You have defiled Me among My people for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread. By lying to My people who love a lie, You have killed those who should not die and kept alive those who should not live."
- 20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against Your magic bands with which You trap people like birds. I will tear them from Your arms and set free the people you have trapped."
- 21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will tear off Your veils and rescue My people from Your hands. They will no longer fall prey to Your power. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life: "Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies when I had not caused them grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so preserved their lives —"
- 23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "therefore You will no longer see false visions or give predictions. I will rescue My people from Your hands. You will know that I am the LORD."

Chapter 14

Elders come to Ezekiel, but the LORD declares they have set up idols in their hearts. He warns that even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in a sinful land, they could save only themselves by their own righteousness — not their sons or daughters.

| 1 Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. | Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. |
| 2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them? | "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and placed the stumbling block of their iniquity right in front of them. Should I let them inquire of Me at all?" |
| 4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; | "Speak to them and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: When any Israelite sets up idols in His heart and puts the stumbling block of His iniquity before Him, and then comes to a prophet — I the LORD will answer Him according to His many idols." |
| 5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. | "I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel who have all abandoned Me for their idols." |

- 7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: "When any Israelite or any foreigner living in Israel separates Himself from Me, sets up idols in His heart, puts the stumbling block of His iniquity before Him, and comes to a prophet to ask Me something — I the LORD will answer Him Myself."
- 8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a byword. I will cut Him off from among My people. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. "And if a prophet is deceived and speaks a message, I the LORD have allowed that prophet to be deceived. I will stretch out My hand against Him and destroy Him from among My people Israel."
- 10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him; "Both the prophet and the person who consults him will bear the punishment for their iniquity."
- 11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD. "This is so the house of Israel will no longer stray from Me and will no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. They will be My people and I will be their God, declares the Lord GOD."
- 12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:

- 13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by trespassing grievously, I will stretch out My hand against it and cut off its food supply. I will send famine on it and cut off man and beast from it."
- 14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD. "Even if these three men — Noah, Daniel, and Job — were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts: "If I send wild animals through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no one will travel through it because of the animals —"
- 16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate."
- 17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it: "Or if I bring a sword against that country and say, 'Let the sword pass through the land,' and I kill its people and their animals —"
- 18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved."
- 19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast: "Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath on it with bloodshed to kill its people and their animals —"

- 20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could not save son or daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness."
- 21 For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast? "For this is what the Lord GOD says: How much worse will it be when I send My four dreadful judgments against Jerusalem — sword, famine, wild animals, and plague — to kill its people and their animals!"
- 22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. "Yet there will be survivors — sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come to You, and when You see their behavior and their actions, You will be comforted about the disaster I have brought on Jerusalem — about everything I have brought on it."
- 23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD. "They will comfort You when You see how they have behaved. You will know that I did not do without cause everything I have done in it, declares the Lord GOD."

Chapter 15

The LORD compares Jerusalem to a useless vine — its wood cannot even be made into a peg. Since it was worthless even when whole, how much more useless is it now that fire has burned it? The LORD will make the land desolate because of their unfaithfulness.

Chapter 16

The LORD tells Jerusalem's history as an allegory: she was an abandoned infant whom He rescued, raised, and married. She became exceedingly beautiful but played the harlot with every nation around her, worse than Sodom and Samaria — yet the LORD will remember His covenant and establish an everlasting covenant with her.

| 2 | Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, | "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her abominations." |
| 3 | And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite. | "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and birth were in the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite and Your mother a Hittite." |
| 4 | And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. | "On the day You were born, Your umbilical cord was not cut, You were not washed with water, You were not rubbed with salt, and You were not wrapped in cloths." |
| 5 | None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born. | "No one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for You. You were thrown out into the open field on the day You were born — despised and rejected." |
| 6 | And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live. | "Then I passed by and saw You there, struggling in Your blood. ■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — "a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people." When God entered into a covenant with Jerusalem, He made a permanent, binding commitment — not a casual contract but a sworn oath.

Your clothing was fine linen, costly fabric, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You grew very beautiful and became a queen." |

- 14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. "Your fame spread among the heathen because of your beauty, for it was perfect because of the splendor I gave You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was. "But You trusted in Your beauty and used Your fame to become a harlot. You lavished Your favors on everyone who passed by and Your beauty became His."
- 16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. "You took some of Your clothes and made colorful shrines, where You played the harlot. Such things should not happen and should not occur."
- 17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them, "You also took the beautiful jewelry I gave You — the gold and silver — and You made for Yourself male idols and committed whoredom with them."
- 18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them. "You took Your embroidered clothes and covered them. You set My oil and My incense before them."
- 19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD. "Also the food I gave You — the fine flour, olive oil, and honey I fed You — you offered as a fragrant aroma before them. That is what happened, declares the Lord GOD."
- 20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, "And You took Your sons and daughters whom You bore to Me and sacrificed them as food to idols. Was Your whoredom not enough?"

- 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? "You slaughtered My children and sacrificed them to the idols."
- 22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood. "In all Your abominations and Your whoredom You did not remember the days of Your youth — when You were naked and bare, struggling in Your blood."
- 23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD;) "After all Your wickedness — how terrible it will be for You, declares the Lord GOD —"
- 24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street. "you built Yourself a shrine and made Yourself a high place in every public square."
- 25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy legs to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms. "At every street corner You built Your shrines and degraded Your beauty, offering Yourself to anyone who passed by and multiplying your whoredoms."
- 26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger. "You committed fornication with the Egyptians, Your neighbors of great flesh, and multiplied Your whoredoms to provoke Me to anger."
- 27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. "Therefore I stretched out My hand against You and reduced Your food supply. I handed You over to the desire of those who hate You — the daughters of the Philistines, who were appalled by Your shameless conduct."

- 28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied. "You also played the harlot with the Assyrians because You were never satisfied. You played the harlot with them and still could not be satisfied."
- 29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. "You multiplied Your whoredoms in the land of Canaan all the way to Chaldea, yet even then You were not satisfied."
- 30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; "How sick Your heart is, declares the Lord GOD, that You did all these things — the brazen acts of a shameless harlot."
- 31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire; "When You built Your shrines at every street corner and Your high places in every public square, You were unlike a harlot — you refused payment."
- 32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband! "You were an adulterous wife who takes strangers instead of her own husband!"
- 33 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom. "Every harlot receives payment, but You gave gifts to all Your lovers, paying them to come to You from all around for Your whoredoms."
- 34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary. "You were the opposite of other women. No one solicited you — you solicited them. You paid Your lovers instead of receiving payment. You were completely different."
- 35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD: "Therefore, You harlot, hear the word of the LORD!"

- 36 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because You poured out Your lust and exposed Your nakedness in Your whoredom with Your lovers — with all Your vile idols — and because You gave them Your children's blood —"
- 37 Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. "therefore I am going to gather all Your lovers with whom You found pleasure — all those You loved and all those You hated. I will gather them against You from all around and strip You naked in front of them, and they will see Your complete nakedness."
- 38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. "I will punish You as women who commit adultery and shed blood are punished. I will bring on You the blood of wrath and jealousy."
- 39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare. "I will hand You over to them, and they will tear down Your shrines and demolish Your high places. They will strip off Your clothes, take Your beautiful jewelry, and leave You naked and bare."
- 40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords. "They will bring a crowd against You and stone You and cut You to pieces with their swords."

- 41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. "They will burn Your houses with fire and execute judgment on You in the sight of many women. I will put an end to Your whoredom, and You will no longer pay lovers."
- 42 So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. "Then My wrath against You will be spent and My jealousy will depart. I will be calm and no longer angry."
- 43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations. "Because You did not remember the days of Your youth but enraged Me with all these things — I will surely bring Your conduct down on Your own head, declares the Lord GOD. Did You not add indecency to all Your other abominations?"
- 44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. "Everyone who uses proverbs will apply this to You: 'Like mother, like daughter.'"
- 45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lothed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite. "You are a true daughter of Your mother, who despised her husband and her children. You are a true sister of Your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and Your father an Amorite."

- 47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. "You have not merely walked in their ways or done their abominations. In a very short time You were more corrupt than they in all Your ways."
- 48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, Your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what You and Your daughters have done."
- 49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. "Now this was the iniquity of Your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness. They did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy."
- 50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. "They were haughty and did detestable things before Me. Therefore I removed them when I saw it."
- 51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done. "Samaria did not commit half Your sins. You have done more abominations than they have. By all the abominations You have done, You have made Your sisters look righteous."
- 52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters. "Bear Your own disgrace, for You have given Your sisters reason to appear righteous. Since You sinned more abominably than they did, they are more righteous than You. Be ashamed and bear Your disgrace, for You have made Your sisters appear righteous."

- 53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: "But I will bring again their captivity — the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters — and I will bring again Your captives in the midst of them."
- 54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them. "so that You may bear Your disgrace and be ashamed of all You have done in becoming a comfort to them."
- 55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. "Your sisters — Sodom and her daughters, and Samaria and her daughters — will return to what they were before. You and Your daughters will also return to what You were before."
- 56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, "In Your days of pride You did not even mention Your sister Sodom."
- 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about. "That was before Your wickedness was exposed. Now You are the object of scorn for the daughters of Aram and all her neighbors, and for the daughters of the Philistines — all those around You who despise You."
- 58 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD. "You will bear the consequences of Your lewdness and Your abominations, declares the LORD."
- 59 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I will deal with You as You deserve, because You have despised the oath by breaking the covenant."

Chapter 17

Ezekiel tells a riddle of two great eagles and a vine. The first eagle represents Babylon, which planted Zedekiah as a vassal king; but the vine turned toward a second eagle — Egypt — breaking the covenant. The LORD declares that He Himself will plant a tender twig on a high mountain, and it will become a noble cedar.

- 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: A great eagle with powerful wings, long feathers, and full plumage of varied colors came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar."
- 4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. "He broke off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of traders. He planted it in a city of merchants."
- 5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. "He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil. He put it beside plentiful waters and set it like a willow."
- 6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. "It sprouted and became a spreading vine — low-growing but wide. Its branches turned toward Him, and its roots grew down into the soil. So it became a vine, produced branches, and put out leafy boughs."
- 7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. "But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. This vine bent its roots toward Him and stretched its branches toward Him, looking for water from the soil where it was planted."
- 8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. "It had been planted in good soil beside abundant waters so it could produce branches, bear fruit, and become a splendid vine."

- 9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of its spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Will it thrive? Will not the first eagle pull up its roots and strip off its fruit so it withers? All its fresh growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots."
- 10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew. "Even though it was planted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strikes it — wither away in the very beds where it grew?"
- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; "Say to that rebellious house: Don't you know what these things mean? The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and its officials, and brought them back to Babylon."
- 13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: "He took a member of the royal family and made a covenant with him, binding him with an oath. He also took away the leading men of the land."
- 14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. "This was so that the kingdom would be kept low, unable to rise again — surviving only by keeping the covenant."

- 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? "But the king of Judah rebelled against Babylon by sending envoys to Egypt to get horses and a great army. Will he succeed? Can he break the covenant and escape?"
- 16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, He will die in Babylon — in the land of the king who put him on the throne and whose oath he despised and whose covenant He broke."
- 17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons: "Pharaoh with his mighty army and great forces will not help him in the war when siege ramps are built and siege towers erected to destroy many lives."
- 18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape. "He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his word and done all these things, he will not escape."
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on His own head the oath He despised and the covenant He broke."
- 20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. "I will throw My net over Him and catch Him in My snare. I will bring Him to Babylon and enter into judgment with Him there for the trespass He committed against Me."

The LORD declares that the soul that sins shall die — each person bears their own iniquity. A righteous man who turns to wickedness will die; a wicked man who repents and does what is right will live. The LORD takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked but calls all to repent and live.

| 3 | As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. | "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, You will no longer use this proverb in Israel." |
| 4 | Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. | "Every soul belongs to Me — the soul of the father and the soul of the son alike. The soul that sins is the one who will die." |
| 5 | But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right, | "Suppose a man is righteous and does what is just and right." |
| 6 | And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman, | "He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of Israel. He does not defile His neighbor's wife or sleep with a woman during her period." |
| 7 | And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; | "He does not oppress anyone but returns what a borrower pledged. | 8 | He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man, | "He does not lend money at interest or take a profit. | 9 | Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD. | "He follows My decrees and keeps My laws faithfully. That man is righteous. He will surely live, declares the Lord GOD." |

- 10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things, "But suppose this man has a violent son who sheds blood and does any of these things —"
- 11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife, "though the father did not do any of them. The son eats at the mountain shrines, defiles his neighbor's wife,"
- 12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, "oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not return what he took as a pledge, looks to idols, and does detestable things."
- 13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him. "He lends at interest and takes a profit. Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely die. His blood will be on his own head."
- 14 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like, "But suppose this violent son has a son who sees all the sins his father committed, and though he sees them, he does not do such things."
- 15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, "He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor's wife."
- 16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment, "He does not oppress anyone or hold back any pledge. He does not commit robbery but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked."

- 17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. "He withholds his hand from sin and takes no interest or profit. He keeps My laws and follows My decrees. He will not die for his father's iniquity. He will surely live."
- 18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, even he shall die in his iniquity. "But his father will die for his own iniquity, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people."
- 19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live. "Yet you say, 'Why? Does not the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and done them, he will surely live."
- 20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. The soul that sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
- 21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. "But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins and keeps all My decrees, doing what is just and right — he will surely live. He will not die."
- 22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. "None of the offenses he has committed will be counted against him. Because of the righteous things he has done, he will live."

- 23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? "Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Lord GOD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?"
- 24 But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. "But if a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits iniquity, doing all the abominations the wicked person does, will they live? None of the righteous things they have done will be remembered. In their trespass that they have trespassed and in their sin that they have sinned, they will die."
- 25 Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear me, house of Israel: Is My way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?"
- 26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. "If a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits sin, they die for it. They die because of the sin they have committed."
- 27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. "But if a wicked person turns away from the wickedness they have committed and does what is just and right, they will save their life."
- 28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. "Because they considered all the offenses they had committed and turned away from them, they will surely live. They will not die."

Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye. | "Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Chapter 19

Ezekiel takes up a lament for the princes of Israel. Their mother is pictured as a lioness whose cubs were captured — one taken to Egypt, the other to Babylon. She is then compared to a vine once fruitful and strong, now plucked up, withered, and burned with fire.

Elders come to inquire of the LORD, but He refuses them and recounts Israel's long history of rebellion — in Egypt, in the wilderness, and in the land. Yet for the sake of His name, He will gather them from the nations, purge the rebels, and bring them to the mountain of Israel where they will serve Him.

- 3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Have You come to inquire of Me? As surely as I live, I will not let You inquire of Me, declares the Lord GOD."
- 4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers: "Will You judge them? Will You judge them, Son of man? Confront them with the abominations of their fathers."
- 5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God; "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel and raised My hand in oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, I made Myself known to them in Egypt. I raised My hand to them and said, 'I am the LORD Your God.'"
- 6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands: "On that day I swore to bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them — a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands."
- 7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. "I said to them: Each of You — throw away the vile things You set Your eyes on. Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD Your God."
- 8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. "But they rebelled against Me and would not listen. They did not throw away the vile things they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them and accomplish My anger against them in Egypt."

- 9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt. "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen among whom they lived. In their sight I made Myself known to Israel by bringing them out of Egypt."
- 10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. "So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the desert."
- 11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. "I gave them My decrees and laws. The man who obeys them will live by them."
- 12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them. "I also gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between Me and them, so they would know that I am the LORD Who makes them holy."
- 13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. "But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the desert. They did not follow My decrees but rejected My laws — though the man who obeys them will live by them — and they greatly desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them in the desert and destroy them."
- 14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen who had seen Me bring them out."
- 15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; "Also, I swore to them in the desert that I would not bring them into the land I had given them — the land flowing with milk and honey, most beautiful of all lands —"

- 16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. "because they rejected My laws, did not follow My decrees, and desecrated My Sabbaths. Their hearts were devoted to their idols."
- 17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. "Yet I looked on them with pity. I did not destroy them or put an end to them in the desert."
- 18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: "I said to their children in the desert: Do not follow your fathers' decrees or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols."
- 19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; "I am the LORD Your God. Follow My decrees and keep My laws and carry them out."
- 20 And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. "Keep My Sabbaths holy. They will be a sign between Me and You so You may know that I am the LORD Your God."
- 21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. "But the children rebelled against Me too. They did not follow My decrees or keep My laws — though the man who obeys them will live by them — and they desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them in the desert and accomplish My anger against them."
- 22 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. "But I held back My hand. I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen who had seen Me bring them out."

- 23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries; "Also, in the desert I swore to scatter them among the heathen and disperse them through the lands."
- 24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. "This was because they had not obeyed My laws but had rejected My decrees and desecrated My Sabbaths, and their eyes had followed after their fathers' idols."
- 25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live; "So I gave them over to statutes that were not good and laws through which they could not live."
- 26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD. "I let them become defiled through their gifts — sacrificing every firstborn — so that I could fill them with horror. Then they would know that I am the LORD."
- 27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. "Therefore, Son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: In this also Your fathers blasphemed Me, in that they committed a trespass against Me."
- 28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. "When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices there. They brought their offerings that provoked Me. They placed their fragrant incense there and poured out their drink offerings."

- 29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day. "Then I said to them: What is this high place You go to? It is called Bamah to this day."
- 30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations? "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Will You defile yourselves the way Your ancestors did and lust after their vile images?"
- 31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. "When You offer Your gifts — when You sacrifice Your children in the fire — you continue to defile yourselves with all Your idols to this day. And should I let You inquire of Me, house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will not let You inquire of Me."
- 32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. "What You have in mind will never happen — your thought that You will be like the heathen, like the peoples of the other lands, serving wood and stone."
- 33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will rule over You with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath."
- 34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. "I will bring You out from the nations and gather you from the countries where You have been scattered — with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath."
- 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. "I will bring You into the wilderness of the nations and there I will execute judgment on you face to face."

- 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. "As I judged Your ancestors in the wilderness of Egypt, so I will judge You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant: "I will take note of You as You pass under My rod, and I will bring You into the bond of the covenant."
- 38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will purge You of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land where they are living as strangers, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts and with your idols. "As for You, house of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: Go and serve Your idols, every one of you! But afterward you will surely listen to Me and no longer profane My holy name with Your gifts and Your idols."
- 40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. "For on My holy mountain — the high mountain of Israel — the whole house of Israel will serve Me in the land, declares the Lord GOD. There I will accept them. There I will require Your offerings and Your choice gifts, along with all Your holy things."
- 41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. "I will accept You as a fragrant offering when I bring You out from the heathen and gather you from the lands where you have been scattered. I will be proved holy through You in the sight of the heathen."

- 42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers. "You will know that I am the LORD when I bring You into the land of Israel — the land I swore to give Your ancestors."
- 43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. "There You will remember Your conduct and all the actions by which You have defiled yourselves. You will despise yourselves for all the evil You have done."
- 44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. "You will know that I am the LORD when I deal with You for My name's sake and not according to Your evil ways and Your corrupt practices, house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD."
- 45 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field; "Son of man, set Your face toward the south. Preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the southern region."
- 47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. "Say to the southern forest: Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to set fire to You, and it will consume every green tree and every dry tree in You. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it."
- 48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. "Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it. It will not be quenched."

- 49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables? Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! People are saying of me, 'Isn't he just telling parables?'"

Chapter 21

The LORD draws His sword from its sheath against the land of Israel — it is sharpened and polished for slaughter. The king of Babylon stands at the crossroads using divination, and the lot falls on Jerusalem. The crown will be removed until He comes whose right it is.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, "Son of man, set Your face toward Jerusalem. Preach against the sanctuaries and prophesy against the land of Israel."
- 3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. "Say to the land of Israel: This is what the LORD says: I am against You. I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off from You both the righteous and the wicked."
- 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: "Because I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will go out from its sheath against everyone from south to north."
- 5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more. "Then all flesh will know that I the LORD have drawn My sword from its sheath. It will not return again."
- 6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. "Groan, Son of man — groan with anguish and a broken heart before them."

- 7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD. "When they ask You why You are groaning, say: Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear and every hand will go limp. Every spirit will faint and every knee will be weak as water. It is coming! It will be fulfilled, declares the Lord GOD."
- 8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished: "Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord says: A sword, a sword is sharpened and polished —"
- 10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree. "sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Shall we rejoice? The sword despises every wooden scepter."
- 11 And he gave it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. "The sword is handed to the polisher to make it ready for the slayer's hand."
- 12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh. "Cry out and wail, Son of man, for it is destined for My people. It is for all the princes of Israel. They are thrown to the sword along with My people. Strike Your thigh in grief."
- 13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD. "Testing will surely come. And what if the scepter, which the sword despises, does not continue? declares the Lord GOD."

- 14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers. "So prophesy, Son of man. Clap Your hands together. Let the sword strike twice, even three times. It is the sword for the slain — the sword for the great slaughter that surrounds them."
- 15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter. "I have stationed the sword for slaughter at all their gates, so that hearts will melt with fear and many will stumble. Ah, it is made to flash like lightning! It is drawn for slaughter."
- 17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have spoken it. "I too will clap My hands, and My wrath will be spent. I the LORD have spoken."
- 18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. "Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take. Both roads lead from the same country. Make a signpost where the road forks and leads to a city."
- 20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended. "Mark out one road for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites and another to Judah and fortified Jerusalem."

- 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. "For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen. He will cast lots with arrows, he will consult his idols, he will examine the liver."
- 22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a siege fort. "Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a siege ramp, and to erect siege works."
- 23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. "It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn oaths, but he will remind them of their guilt and take them captive."
- 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have made Your guilt known — your transgressions exposed and Your sins revealed in all You do — because You are brought to remembrance, You will be taken captive."
- 25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, "And You, profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come — the time of final punishment —"
- 26 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. "this is what the Lord GOD says: Take off the turban. Remove the crown. Things will not remain as they are. Lift up the lowly and bring down the proud."

- 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. "A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin. It will not be restored until He comes to whom it rightfully belongs. To Him I will give it."
- 28 And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering: "Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says about the Ammonites and their contempt: A sword, a sword, drawn for slaughter — polished to consume, to flash like lightning —"
- 29 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end. "while false visions are seen for you and lying divinations are told about you. The sword will be laid on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come — the time of final punishment."
- 30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity. "Return the sword to its sheath! I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your origin."
- 31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and I will deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. "I will pour out My wrath on you and breathe out My fiery anger against you. I will hand you over to brutal men, skilled in destruction."
- 32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it. "You will be fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow throughout the land. You will be remembered no more, for I the LORD have spoken."

The LORD catalogs Jerusalem's sins: bloodshed, idolatry, dishonoring parents, oppressing the stranger, profaning the Sabbath. Princes, priests, prophets, and people alike are corrupt. The LORD sought someone to stand in the gap but found no one, and so He pours out His wrath.

- 11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. "In You one man commits a detestable offense with His neighbor's wife. Another shamefully defiles His daughter-in-law. Another violates His sister, His own father's daughter."
- 12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD. "In You people accept bribes to shed blood. You take interest and profit and make gain from Your neighbors by extortion. And You have forgotten Me, declares the Lord GOD."
- 13 Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. "I will surely strike My hands together at the unjust gain You have made and at the blood that has been shed in You."
- 14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. "Will Your courage hold out or Your hands remain strong in the day I deal with You? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it."

- 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. "Son of man, the house of Israel has become worthless to Me. They are all the impurities — bronze, tin, iron, and lead — left inside a furnace. They have become like slag from silver."
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have all become slag, I will gather You into Jerusalem."
- 20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. "As silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are gathered into a furnace to be melted with a blast of fire, so I will gather You in My anger and My wrath. I will put You in the furnace and melt You."
- 21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. "I will gather You and blow on You with My fiery wrath. You will be melted inside the city."

- 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. "The conspiracy of her prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing its prey. They devour people. They seize treasure and precious things. They make many widows within her."
- 26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. "Her priests do violence to My law and profane My holy things. They do not distinguish between the holy and the common. They do not teach the difference between the unclean and the clean. They shut their eyes to My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them."

- 30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. "I looked for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand before Me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found no one."

The LORD tells the allegory of two sisters, Aholah and Aholibah — Samaria and Jerusalem. Both played the harlot with the nations around them, lusting after Assyria and Babylon. Aholah fell first; yet Aholibah did not learn but surpassed her sister's whoredoms, and judgment comes upon her.

| 12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. | "She too lusted after the Assyrians — governors and commanders, warriors in full dress, mounted horsemen — all handsome young men." |
| 13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way, | "I saw that she too had defiled herself. Both of them had gone the same way." |

- 14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion, "But she carried her whoredom still further. She saw men carved on a wall — figures of Chaldeans drawn in red,"
- 15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity: "dressed with belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads — all of them looked like Babylonian commanders, like men of Chaldea, the land of their birth."
- 16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea. "At the sight of them she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea."
- 17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them. "Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust."
- 18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister. "When she carried on her whoredom openly and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister."
- 19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. "Yet she multiplied her whoredom, remembering the days of her youth when she had been a harlot in Egypt."
- 20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. "She lusted after their lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses."
- 21 So thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth. "So You longed for the lewdness of Your youth, when in Egypt Your bosom was caressed and Your young breasts fondled."

- 22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side; "Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stir up Your lovers against You — those You turned away from in disgust — and I will bring them against You from every side."
- 23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. "The Babylonians and all the Chaldeans — the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa — and all the Assyrians with them, all of them handsome young men, governors and commanders — great lords and renowned warriors — all of them riding horses."
- 24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments. "They will come against You with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a crowd of people. They will take up positions against You on every side with armor and shields and helmets. I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge You by their own standards."
- 25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. "I will direct My jealous anger against You, and they will deal with You in fury. They will cut off Your nose and Your ears, and those who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away Your sons and daughters, and Your survivors will be consumed by fire."
- 26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. "They will also strip off Your clothes and take away Your fine jewelry."

- 27 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. "So I will put an end to Your lewdness and the whoredom You began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt anymore."
- 28 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated: "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to hand You over to those You hate — to those You turned away from in disgust."
- 29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. "They will deal with You in hatred and take everything You have worked for, leaving You naked and bare. The shame of Your whoredom will be exposed — your lewdness and Your whoredoms."
- 30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. "These things will be done to You because You have pursued the heathen with lust and defiled yourself with their idols."
- 31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand. "You have followed in the path of Your sister, so I will put her cup into Your hand."
- 32 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much. "This is what the Lord GOD says: You will drink Your sister's cup — a cup large and deep. You will be laughed at and mocked. The cup holds so much."
- 33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. "You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow — the cup of ruin and desolation, the cup of Your sister Samaria."

- 34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. "You will drink it and drain it dry and chew its pieces — and You will tear out Your own breasts. For I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD."
- 35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have forgotten Me and thrust Me behind Your back, You must bear the consequences of Your lewdness and whoredom."
- 36 The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations; The LORD said to me, "Son of man, will You judge Oholah and Oholibah? Confront them with their abominations."
- 37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them. "For they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols and even sacrificed their children — whom they bore to Me — as food for idols."
- 38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths. "They have also done this to Me: At that same time they defiled My sanctuary and desecrated My Sabbaths."
- 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house. "On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered My sanctuary and desecrated it. That is what they did in My house."

- 40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thy face, and deckedst thyself with ornaments, "They even sent messengers for men who came from far away — when a messenger was sent to them, they came. For their sake You bathed Yourself, painted Your eyes, and put on Your jewelry."
- 41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil. "You sat on an elegant couch with a table spread before it. On it You placed My incense and My oil."
- 42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. "The noise of a carefree crowd was around her. Drunkards were brought from the desert along with men of the common sort, and they put bracelets on the wrists of Oholah and Oholibah and beautiful crowns on their heads."
- 43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them? "Then I said about the one worn out by adultery, 'Now let them use her as a harlot, for that is all she is.'"
- 44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women. "And they slept with her as men sleep with a harlot. So they slept with Oholah and Oholibah, these shameless women."
- 45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. "But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment due adulteresses and women who shed blood — because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands."
- 46 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled. "This is what the Lord GOD says: Bring a mob against them and hand them over to terror and plunder."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. 48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. 49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. | "The mob will stone them and cut them down with swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses." "So I will put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not imitate Your lewdness." "You will suffer the penalty for Your lewdness and bear the consequences of Your idol worship. Then You will know that I am the Lord GOD." |

On the very day Nebuchadnezzar begins the siege of Jerusalem, the LORD gives Ezekiel the parable of the boiling pot full of rust and corruption. That evening Ezekiel's wife dies, and the LORD forbids him to mourn — a sign that when the temple falls, the people's grief will be too great for tears.

- 4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. "Put into it the pieces of meat — every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with the best bones."
- 5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein. "Take the pick of the flock. Pile the wood beneath it. Bring it to a boil and cook the bones in it."
- 6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible for the city of bloodshed — the pot now encrusted with filth, whose deposit will not go away! Empty it piece by piece without casting lots for the pieces."
- 7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; "For the blood she shed is in her midst. She poured it on the bare rock. She did not pour it on the ground, where the dust would cover it."
- 8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. "To stir up My wrath and take revenge, I put her blood on the bare rock so that it would not be covered."
- 9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible for the city of bloodshed! I too will pile the wood high."
- 10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. "So heap on the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well, mixing in the spices, and let the bones be charred."
- 11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed. "Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows, so that its impurities may be melted and its deposit burned away."

- 12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire. "It has frustrated all efforts. Its heavy deposit has not been removed — not even by fire."
- 13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee. "Now Your impurity is lewdness. Because I tried to cleanse You but You would not be cleansed from Your impurity, You will not be clean again until My wrath against You has subsided."
- 14 I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD. "I the LORD have spoken. The time has come for Me to act. I will not hold back. I will not have pity. I will not relent. You will be judged according to Your conduct and Your actions, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. "Son of man, with one blow I am about to take away from You the delight of Your eyes. Yet do not lament or weep or let Your tears flow."
- 17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. "Groan quietly. Do not mourn for the dead. Keep Your turban on Your head and Your sandals on Your feet. Do not cover the lower part of Your face or eat the customary food of mourners."
- 18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. I spoke to the people in the morning, and that evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.
- 19 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? The people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things mean for us? Why are You behaving this way?"

- 20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, I answered them, "The word of the LORD came to me:"
- 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. "Say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to desecrate My sanctuary — the stronghold You are so proud of, the delight of Your eyes, the desire of Your heart. The sons and daughters You left behind will fall by the sword."
- 22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. "And You will do as I have done. You will not cover the lower part of Your face or eat the bread of mourners."
- 23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another. "You will keep Your turbans on Your heads and Your sandals on Your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of Your sins and groan among yourselves."
- 24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. "Ezekiel will be a sign to you. You will do just as He has done. When this happens, You will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, "And You, Son of man — on the day I take away their stronghold — their joy and pride, the delight of their eyes, their heart's desire — and their sons and daughters as well —"
- 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? "on that day a fugitive will come to You and report it to You in person."

- 27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "At that time Your mouth will be opened. You will speak with the fugitive and be silent no more. You will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Chapter 25

The LORD pronounces judgment against four neighboring nations: Ammon for rejoicing over the temple's destruction, Moab for saying Judah is like all other nations, Edom for taking vengeance on Judah, and the Philistines for acting in revenge with spite. All will know that He is the LORD.

- 17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them. "I will carry out great vengeance on them and punish them in My wrath. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I take vengeance on them."

The LORD pronounces judgment against Tyre for rejoicing over Jerusalem's fall. Many nations will come against her like waves of the sea. Nebuchadnezzar will besiege her, her walls will be broken down, and her very stones and timbers will be cast into the waters. She will never be rebuilt.

- 16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee. "Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at You."
- 17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! "They will take up a lament concerning You and say to You: 'How You are destroyed, You city of sailors — the renowned city, strong on the sea! She and her inhabitants spread their terror over all who lived there!'"

Ezekiel takes up a lament for Tyre, depicting her as a magnificent merchant ship built from the finest materials and trading with all the known world. Her riches, wares, and merchants are catalogued in detail — but she will sink into the heart of the seas, and the nations will be horrified at her end.

- 3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty. "Say to Tyre, situated at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples on many coasts: This is what the Lord GOD says: You say, Tyre, 'I am perfect in beauty.'"
- 4 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. "Your domain was on the high seas. Your builders brought Your beauty to perfection."
- 5 They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee. "They made all Your planks from pine trees of Senir. They took a cedar from Lebanon to make the mast for You."
- 6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim. "Of oaks from Bashan they made Your oars. Of cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus they made Your deck, inlaid with ivory."
- 7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. "Your sail was of embroidered linen from Egypt and served as Your banner. Your awning was of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah."
- 8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots. "Men of Sidon and Arvad were Your oarsmen. Your skilled men, Tyre, were aboard as Your sailors."
- 9 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. "Veteran craftsmen of Byblos were on board as caulkers of Your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to You to trade for Your wares."

- 10 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. "Men of Persia, Lydia, and Put served as soldiers in Your army. They hung their shields and helmets on Your walls, bringing You splendor."
- 11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect. "Men of Arvad and Helech manned Your walls all around. The men of Gammad were in Your towers. They hung their shields around Your walls and brought Your beauty to perfection."
- 12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs. "Tarshish did business with You because of Your great wealth of goods. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for Your merchandise."
- 13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market. "Greece, Tubal, and Meshech traded with You. They bartered human beings and articles of bronze for Your wares."
- 14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. "From Beth Togarmah they exchanged warhorses, work horses, and mules for Your merchandise."
- 15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony. "The men of Rhodes traded with You, and many coastlands were Your customers. They brought You ivory tusks and ebony as payment."
- 16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. "Aram did business with You because of Your many products. They exchanged turquoise, purple fabric, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies for Your merchandise."

- 17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. "Judah and the land of Israel traded with You. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, and confections, honey, olive oil, and balm for Your wares."
- 18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. "Damascus did business with You because of Your many products and Your great wealth. They offered wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar."
- 19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. "Vedan and Javan from Uzal bought Your merchandise. They exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and calamus for Your wares."
- 20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots. "Dedan traded in saddlecloths for riding."
- 21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants. "Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were Your customers. They traded with You in lambs, rams, and goats."
- 22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. "The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with You. For Your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all spices and precious stones and gold."
- 23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants. "Haran, Canneh, and Eden and merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad traded with You."
- 24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and brodered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise. "In Your marketplace they traded with You in choice garments, blue fabric, embroidered work and multicolored rugs, and tightly wound cords."

- 25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas. "The ships of Tarshish served as carriers for Your wares. You were filled with heavy cargo as You sailed the sea."
- 26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas. "Your oarsmen took You out to the high seas. But the east wind has shattered You in the heart of the sea."
- 27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. "Your wealth, merchandise, and wares, Your mariners and sailors, Your caulkers, Your merchants and soldiers, and all the other people on board will sink into the heart of the sea on the day of Your shipwreck."
- 28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots. "The coastlands will quake when Your sailors cry out."
- 29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; "All who handle the oars will abandon their ships. The mariners and all the sailors will stand on the shore."
- 30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: "They will raise their voice and cry out bitterly over You. They will throw dust on their heads and roll in the ashes."
- 31 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. "They will shave their heads because of You and put on sackcloth. They will weep over You with anguish of soul and bitter mourning."

The LORD condemns the prince of Tyre, who says "I am a god" in his pride, and declares he will die the death of the uncircumcised. A lament follows for the king of Tyre — once in Eden, full of wisdom and beauty, the anointed cherub on the holy mountain of God — cast down because of his corruption. The LORD also pronounces judgment on Sidon.

- 2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God: "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre: This is what the Lord GOD says: In the pride of Your heart You say, 'I am a god. I sit on the throne of a god in the heart of the seas.' But You are a mere mortal and not a god, even though You think You are as wise as a god."
- 3 Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: "Are You wiser than Daniel? Is no secret hidden from you?"
- 4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: "By Your wisdom and understanding You have gained wealth for Yourself and amassed gold and silver in Your treasures."
- 5 By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: "By Your great skill in trading You have increased Your wealth, and because of Your wealth Your heart has grown proud."
- 6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You think You are wise — as wise as a god —"
- 7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. "I am going to bring foreigners against You, the most ruthless of nations. They will draw their swords against Your beauty and wisdom and pierce Your shining splendor."
- 8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas. "They will bring You down to the pit, and You will die a violent death in the heart of the seas."
- 9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee. "Will You then say, 'I am a god,' in the presence of those who kill You? You will be just a mortal, not a god, in the hands of those who slay You."

- 10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. "You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners. For I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD."
- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. "Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: This is what the Lord GOD says: You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty."
- 13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. "You were in Eden, the garden of God. Every precious stone adorned You — ruby, topaz, and emerald, chrysolite, onyx, and jasper, lapis lazuli, turquoise, and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold. On the day You were created they were prepared."
- 14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. "You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained You. You were on the holy mountain of God. You walked among the fiery stones."
- 15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. "You were blameless in Your ways from the day You were created till iniquity was found in You."
- 16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. "Through Your widespread trade You were filled with violence, and You sinned. So I drove You in disgrace from the mountain of God, and I expelled You, guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones."

- 17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee. "Your heart became proud on account of Your beauty. You corrupted Your wisdom because of Your splendor. So I threw You to the earth. I made a spectacle of You before kings."
- 18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. "By Your many sins and dishonest trade You have desecrated Your sanctuaries. So I made a fire come out from You, and it consumed You. I reduced You to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching."
- 19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more. "All the nations who knew you are appalled at you. You have come to a horrible end and will be no more."
- 20 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 21 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it, "Son of man, set Your face against Sidon. Prophecy against it."
- 22 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Sidon, and among You I will display My glory. They will know that I am the LORD when I inflict punishment on her and show Myself holy within her."
- 23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "I will send a plague upon her and make blood flow in her streets. The slain will fall within her, with the sword against her on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

- 24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the LORD GOD. "No longer will the people of Israel have malicious neighbors who are painful briars and sharp thorns. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 25 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. "This is what the Lord GOD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the heathen where they have been scattered, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of the heathen. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to My servant Jacob."
- 26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God. "They will live there in safety and will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live in safety when I inflict punishment on all their neighbors who treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God."

The LORD sets His face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon lying in his rivers who says "My river is my own; I have made it." Egypt will become a desolation for forty years, then be restored as a lowly kingdom. Nebuchadnezzar will receive the spoils of Egypt as wages for his service against Tyre.

- 3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Pharaoh king of Egypt, you great monster lying among Your streams, who says, 'The Nile belongs to me. I made it for myself.'"
- 4 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales. "But I will put hooks in Your jaws and make the fish of Your streams stick to Your scales. I will pull You out from among Your streams, with all the fish sticking to Your scales."
- 5 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I will give thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. "I will leave You in the desert — you and all the fish of Your streams. You will fall on the open field and not be gathered or picked up. I will give You as food to the wild animals and the birds."
- 6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. "Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. You have been a staff of reed for the house of Israel."
- 7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand. "When they grasped You with their hands, You splintered and tore open their shoulders. When they leaned on You, You broke and their backs were wrenched."

- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will bring a sword against You and kill Your people and their animals."
- 9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. "Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD. Because You said, 'The Nile is mine and I made it' —"
- 10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia. "therefore I am against You and against Your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste, from Migdol to Aswan, as far as the border of Cush."
- 11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. "No foot of man or animal will pass through it. No one will live there for forty years."
- 12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. "I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate forty years among ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries."
- 13 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered: "Yet this is what the Lord GOD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered."
- 14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom. "I will bring Egypt back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom."

- 15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. "It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations."
- 16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. "Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the people of Israel but will remind them of their sin in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, In the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:
- 18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it: "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre. Every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army got no reward from Tyre for the campaign he had led against it."
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder it as pay for His army."
- 20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. "I have given Him Egypt as a reward for His efforts because He and His army did it for Me, declares the Lord GOD."

- 21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "On that day I will make a horn of the house of Israel grow, and I will open Your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The LORD declares a day of doom for Egypt and her allies. The sword of Babylon will come against her, the rivers will be dried up, the idols destroyed, and the cities laid waste from Migdol to Syene. The LORD will break the arms of Pharaoh and strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon.

- 15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. "I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes."
- 16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily. "I will set fire to Egypt. Pelusium will writhe in agony. Thebes will be torn apart. Memphis will be in constant distress."
- 17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity. "The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the cities will go into captivity."
- 18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. "Dark will be the day at Tahpanhes when I break the yoke of Egypt. There her proud strength will come to an end. She will be covered with clouds, and her villages will go into captivity."
- 19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD. "So I will inflict punishment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD."
- 20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, "In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:

- 21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage so that it may become strong enough to hold a sword."
- 22 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms — the good arm as well as the broken one — and make the sword fall from His hand."
- 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. "I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries."
- 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. "I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before the king of Babylon like a mortally wounded man."
- 25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. "I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. They will know that I am the LORD when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he brandishes it against Egypt."
- 26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The LORD compares Pharaoh to a great cedar in Lebanon — towering above all the trees, its top among the thick branches, envied by all the trees of Eden. But because it grew proud, it was cut down and cast to the earth by the most terrible of the nations, and all who dwelt in its shade departed.

- 8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. "The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor could the junipers equal its boughs, nor the plane trees compare with its branches. No tree in the garden of God could match its beauty."
- 9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. "I made it beautiful with abundant branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden in the garden of God."
- 10 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because it towered on high and set its top among the thick boughs, and because it was proud of its height —"
- 11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. "I handed it over to the ruler of the heathen, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside."
- 12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. "The most ruthless of foreign nations cut it down and left it. Its branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys. Its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth left its shade and went away."
- 13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches: "All the birds settled on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived among its branches."

- 14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit. "No other trees by the waters are to grow tall and set their tops among the thick foliage. No other well-watered tree is to reach such a height. They are all destined for death — for the depths of the earth — among mortals who go down to the pit."
- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. "This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day it was brought down to hell I caused mourning. I covered the deep springs with darkness for it, I held back its streams, and the great waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field withered away."
- 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. "I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to hell with those who go down to the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the finest and best of Lebanon — all the trees that were well-watered — were consoled in the depths of the earth."
- 17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen. "They too, like the great tree, had gone down to hell, to those killed by the sword — those who had lived in its shade among the heathen."

- 18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD. "Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with You in glory and greatness? Yet You too will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel takes up a lament for Pharaoh, comparing him to a great monster in the seas. The LORD will cast His net over Egypt and leave her carcass on the open field for the birds and beasts. Egypt will descend to the pit and lie among the uncircumcised with Assyria, Elam, Meshech, Tubal, Edom, and Sidon.

You are like a monster in the seas, thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet and muddying the streams."
- 3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net. "This is what the Lord GOD says: With a great throng of people I will cast My net over You, and they will haul You up in My net."

- 4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee. "I will throw You on the land and hurl You on the open field. I will let all the birds of the sky settle on You and all the wild animals gorge themselves on You."
- 5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height. "I will spread Your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with Your remains."
- 6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee. "I will drench the land with Your flowing blood all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with Your flesh."
- 7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. "When I snuff You out, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars. I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light."
- 8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD. "All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over You. I will bring darkness over Your land, declares the Lord GOD."
- 9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known. "I will trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring about Your destruction among the nations — among lands you have not known."
- 10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall. "I will cause many peoples to be appalled at You, and their kings will shudder with horror because of You when I brandish My sword before them. On the day of Your downfall each of them will tremble every moment for His own life."

- 11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you."

They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes will be destroyed."
- 13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. "I will destroy all her cattle from beside abundant waters. No human foot will trouble them anymore, nor will the hooves of cattle churn them up."
- 14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD. "Then I will let her waters settle and make her streams flow like oil, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD. "When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of everything in it — when I strike down all who live there — then they will know that I am the LORD."
- 16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD. "This is the lament they will chant for her. - 23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. "Their graves are in the depths of the pit and her army lies around her grave. All of them fell by the sword — those who had spread terror in the land of the living."
- 24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. "Elam is there with all her hordes around her grave. Chapter 33

The LORD restates Ezekiel's role as watchman for the house of Israel. He reaffirms that the righteous who turns to sin will die, and the wicked who repents will live. News arrives that Jerusalem has fallen. The LORD rebukes those still in the ruins who claim the land by right of Abraham, and He warns that the exiles listen to Ezekiel's words but do not act on them.

- 3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; "and He sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people —"
- 4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. "then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning and the sword comes and takes His life, His blood will be on His own head."
- 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. "Since He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, His blood will be on His own head. If He had taken warning, He would have saved Himself."
- 6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. "But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes someone's life, that person's life will be taken because of their sin, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their blood."
- 7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. "Son of man, I have made You a watchman for the house of Israel. So hear the word I speak and give them warning from Me."
- 8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "When I say to the wicked, 'You wicked person, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you responsible for their blood."
- 9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sin, though you yourself will have been delivered."

- 10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? "Son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'This is what you are saying: Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?'"
- 11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? "Say to them: As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from Your evil ways! Why will You die, house of Israel?"
- 12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. "Son of man, say to your people: The righteousness of the righteous will not save them when they disobey. As for the wickedness of the wicked, they will not fall by it when they turn from it. The righteous person will not be able to live by their righteousness when they sin."
- 13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it. "If I tell the righteous person that they will surely live, but then they trust in their righteousness and do evil, none of their righteous acts will be remembered. They will die for the evil they have done."
- 14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; "And if I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' but they then turn away from their sin and do what is just and right —"

- 15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. "if they return what they took as a pledge for a loan, give back what they have stolen, follow the decrees that give life, and do no evil — they will surely live. They will not die."
- 16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. "None of the sins they have committed will be counted against them. They have done what is just and right. They will surely live."
- 17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. "Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' But it is their way that is not fair."
- 18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby. "If the righteous turn from their righteousness and do evil, they will die for it."
- 19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. "And if the wicked turn away from their wickedness and do what is just and right, they will live by doing so."
- 20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways. "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' I will judge each of you according to your own ways, house of Israel."
- 21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen!"
- 22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD had been on me. He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. My mouth was opened and I was silent no longer.

- 23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. "Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many. Surely the land has been given to us as our possession.'"
- 25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? "Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: You eat meat with the blood still in it, You look to Your idols, and You shed blood. Should You then possess the land?"
- 26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land? "You rely on Your sword, You do detestable things, and each of You defiles His neighbor's wife. Should You then possess the land?"
- 27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. "Say this to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, those in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of plague."
- 28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. "I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will become so desolate that no one will cross them."
- 29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed. "Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations they have committed."

- 30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD. "As for You, Son of man, Your people are talking together about You by the walls and at the doors of the houses. They say to one another, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.'"
- 31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. "My people come to You, as they usually do, and sit before You to hear Your words, but they do not put them into practice. Their mouths speak of love, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain."
- 32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. "Indeed, to them You are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear Your words but do not put them into practice."
- 33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them. "When all this comes true — and it surely will — then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Chapter 34

The LORD condemns the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves instead of the flock, leaving the sheep scattered and prey to wild beasts. He declares He Himself will search for His sheep, gather them, and feed them on the mountains of Israel. He will set one shepherd over them — His servant David — and make a covenant of peace with them.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:

- 2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says to the shepherds: How terrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock?"
- 3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. "You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool, and slaughter the choice animals, but You do not take care of the flock."
- 4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. "You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally."
- 5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. "So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. When they were scattered, they became food for all the wild animals."
- 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them. "My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them."
- 7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; "Therefore, You shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:"

- 8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because My flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals — and because My shepherds did not search for My flock but cared for themselves rather than for My flock —"
- 9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; "therefore, You shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:"
- 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. "This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for My flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them."
- 11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I Myself will search for My sheep and look after them."
- 12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. "As a shepherd looks after His scattered flock when He is with them, so will I look after My sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness."
- 13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. "I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land."

- 14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel. "I will tend them in good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel."
- 15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. "I Myself will tend My sheep and have them lie down, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. "I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice."
- 17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats. "As for You, My flock, this is what the Lord GOD says: I will judge between one sheep and another — between rams and goats."
- 18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? "Is it not enough for You to feed on the good pasture? Must You also trample the rest of Your pasture with Your feet? Is it not enough for You to drink clear water? Must You also muddy the rest with Your feet?"
- 19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. "Must My flock feed on what You have trampled and drink what You have muddied with Your feet?"
- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says to them: I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep."

- 21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; "Because You shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with Your horns until You have driven them away —"
- 22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle. "I will save My flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another."
- 23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. "I will place over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will tend them. He will tend them and be their shepherd."
- 24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it. "I the LORD will be their God, and My servant David will be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken."
- 25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. "I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live in the desert and sleep in the forests in safety."
- 26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. "I will make them and the places surrounding My hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season. There will be showers of blessing."
- 27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. "The trees of the field will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops. The people will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them."

The LORD pronounces judgment against Mount Seir — Edom — because of her perpetual hatred against Israel and her desire to possess both nations' lands. Because she rejoiced when Israel's inheritance was desolate, the LORD will make her a perpetual desolation.

Chapter 36

The LORD promises to restore the mountains of Israel, not for Israel's sake but for His holy name which they profaned among the nations. He will sprinkle clean water on them, give them a new heart and a new spirit, put His Spirit within them, and cause them to walk in His statutes.

- 3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people: "Therefore prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Because they ravaged and hounded You from every side so that You became the possession of the rest of the heathen and the object of people's gossip and slander —"
- 4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about; "therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the deserted towns that have been plundered and ridiculed by the rest of the heathen around you —"
- 5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey. "this is what the Lord GOD says: In My burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the heathen, and against all Edom, for with wholehearted joy and spiteful minds they took My land as their possession so that they might plunder its pastureland."
- 6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: This is what the Lord GOD says: I speak in My jealous wrath because You have suffered the scorn of the heathen."

- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I swear with uplifted hand that the heathen around you will also suffer scorn."
- 8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come. "But You, mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit for My people Israel, for they will soon come home."
- 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown: "I am concerned for You and will look on You with favor. You will be plowed and sown."
- 10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded: "I will multiply the number of people on You — even the whole house of Israel. The towns will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt."
- 11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will increase the number of people and animals living on You, and they will be fruitful and become numerous. I will settle people on You as in the past and will make You prosper more than before. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men. "I will cause people — My people Israel — to live on You. They will possess You, and You will be their inheritance. You will never again deprive them of their children."
- 13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because people say to You, 'You devour men and bereave Your nation of its children' —"
- 14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD. "therefore You will no longer devour men or make Your nation childless, declares the Lord GOD."

- 15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD. "No longer will I make You hear the taunts of the heathen. No longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause Your nation to fall, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman. "Son of man, when the house of Israel was living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness in My sight."
- 18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it: "So I poured out My wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols."
- 19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. "I dispersed them among the heathen, and they were scattered through the countries. I judged them according to their conduct and their actions."
- 20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. "And wherever they went among the heathen they profaned My holy name, for it was said of them, 'These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave His land.'"
- 21 But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. "I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen where they had gone."

- 22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: It is not for Your sake, house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of My holy name, which You have profaned among the heathen where you have gone."
- 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. "I will show the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the heathen — the name you have profaned among them. Then the heathen will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when I am proved holy through You before their eyes."
- 24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. "For I will take You out of the heathen. I will gather you from all the countries and bring You back into Your own land."
- 25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. "I will sprinkle clean water on You, and You will be clean. I will cleanse You from all Your impurities and from all Your idols."
- 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. "I will give You a new heart and put a new spirit in You. I will remove from You Your heart of stone and give You a heart of flesh."
- 27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. "And I will put My Spirit in You and move You to follow My decrees and be careful to keep My laws."
- 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. "Then You will live in the land I gave Your ancestors. You will be My people, and I will be Your God."

- 29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you. "I will save You from all Your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful and will not bring famine on You."
- 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen. "I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that You will no longer suffer disgrace among the heathen because of famine."
- 31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. "Then You will remember Your evil ways and wicked deeds, and You will despise yourselves for Your sins and detestable practices."
- 32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. "I want You to know that I am not doing this for Your sake, declares the Lord GOD. Be ashamed and disgraced for Your conduct, house of Israel!"
- 33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded. "This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I cleanse You from all Your sins, I will resettle Your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt."
- 34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. "The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it."
- 35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited. "They will say, 'This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.'"
- 36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. "Then the heathen around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it."

The LORD sets Ezekiel in a valley of dry bones and commands him to prophesy to them. Breath enters the bones and they live — a vast army. The vision means Israel will be raised from the grave of exile and restored to their land. Ezekiel then joins two sticks together as a sign that Judah and Israel will become one nation under one king — the LORD's servant David.

- 12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. "Therefore prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: My people, I am going to open Your graves and bring You up from them. I will bring You back to the land of Israel."
- 13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, "Then You, My people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open Your graves and bring You up from them."
- 14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD. "I will put My Spirit in You and You will live, and I will settle You in Your own land. Then You will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD."
- 15 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: "Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him.' Then take another stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Joseph — that is, to Ephraim — and all the house of Israel associated with him.'"
- 17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. "Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand."
- 18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? "When your people ask you, 'Won't you tell us what you mean by this?' —"

- 19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. "say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph — which is in Ephraim's hand — and of the Israelite tribes associated with Him, and join it to Judah's stick. I will make them into a single stick of wood. They will be one in My hand."
- 20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes. "Hold before their eyes the sticks You have written on."
- 21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will take the Israelites out of the heathen where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land."
- 22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: "I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over all of them and they will never again be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms."
- 23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. "They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offenses, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, and I will cleanse them. They will be My people, and I will be their God."

- 24 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. "My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow My laws and be careful to keep My decrees."
- 25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. "They will live in the land I gave to My servant Jacob, the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their children's children will live there forever, and David My servant will be their prince forever."
- 26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. "I will make a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and increase their numbers, and I will put My sanctuary among them forever."
- 27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. "My tabernacle shall be with them. I will be their God, and they will be My people."
- 28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore. "Then the heathen will know that I the LORD make Israel holy, when My sanctuary is among them forever."

Chapter 38

The LORD declares that in the latter days, Gog of the land of Magog — chief prince of Meshech and Tubal — will lead a vast coalition against the restored Israel. But when Gog comes against the land, the LORD's fury will rise: He will strike with earthquake, pestilence, blood, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:

- 2

Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,
- "Son of man, set Your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against Him."*

■ NAME NOTE — Gog (GAHG) — A name for the great end-time enemy who leads a coalition of nations against Israel. Possibly a title rather than a personal name. He leads armies from the land of Magog in the far north.

■ NAME NOTE — Magog (MAY-gog) — The land from which Gog comes, described as being in the far north. In prophecy it represents the nations that will gather against Israel in the last days (also referenced in Revelation 20:8).

And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:
- "I will turn You around, put hooks in Your jaws and bring You out with Your whole army — your horses, Your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords."*
- 5

Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:
- "Persia, Cush, and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets."*
- 6

Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.
- "Also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops — the many nations with You."*
- 7

Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.
- "Get ready. Be prepared — you and all Your hordes assembled around You. You be their commander."*

- 8 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. "After many days You will be called to arms. In future years You will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety."
- 9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee. "You and all Your troops and the many nations with You will go up, advancing like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the land."
- 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought: "This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day thoughts will come into Your mind and You will devise an evil scheme."
- 11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, "You will say, 'I will invade a land of unwalled villages. I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people — all of them living without walls and without gates and bars.'"
- 12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. "I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the center of the land."

- 13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil? "Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages will say to You, 'Have You come to plunder? Have You gathered Your hordes to loot — to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?'"
- 14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? "Therefore, Son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: This is what the Lord GOD says: In that day, when My people Israel are living in safety, will You not know it?"
- 15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: "You will come from Your place in the far north, You and many nations with You — all of them riding on horses — a great horde, a mighty army."
- 16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. "You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, Gog, I will bring You against My land, so that the heathen may know Me when I am proved holy through You before their eyes."
- 17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? "This is what the Lord GOD says: You are the one I spoke of in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel. At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring You against them."
- 18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. "This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, My hot anger will be aroused, declares the Lord GOD."

The LORD completes the prophecy against Gog: his armies will fall on the mountains of Israel, and it will take seven months to bury the dead and seven years to burn the weapons. The LORD will display His glory among the nations, and Israel will know that He is the LORD their God from that day forward.

- 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years: "Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel — the small shields and large shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel."
- 10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. "They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Lord GOD."
- 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamongog. "On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel — in the valley of those who travel east toward the sea. It will block the way of travelers, because Gog and all His hordes will be buried there. It will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land. "For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land."
- 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. "All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I display My glory will be a memorable day for them, declares the Lord GOD."

- 14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. "Men will be regularly employed to cleanse the land. They will travel throughout the land, and whenever they see human bones, they will set up a marker beside them until the grave-diggers have buried them in the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog. "As they travel through the land, when any of them sees a human bone, they will put up a marker beside it so that the grave-diggers may bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land. "Also a town called Hamonah will be there. And so they will cleanse the land."
- 17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. "Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: Call out to every kind of bird and all the wild animals: 'Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for You — the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There You will eat flesh and drink blood.'"
- 18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. "'You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as though they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls — all of them fattened animals from Bashan.'"
- 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. "'At the sacrifice I am preparing for You, You will eat fat till You are gluttoned and drink blood till You are drunk.'"

- 20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. "At My table You will eat Your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind, declares the Lord GOD."
- 21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. "I will display My glory among the heathen, and all the heathen will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay on them."
- 22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. "From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God."
- 23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. "And the heathen will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they trespassed against Me. Therefore I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword."
- 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them. "I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid My face from them."
- 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name; "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name."
- 26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. "After they have borne their shame and all their trespasses whereby they trespassed against Me, when they lived safely in their land with no one to make them afraid —"

In the twenty-fifth year of exile, the LORD brings Ezekiel in a vision to a high mountain in Israel and shows him a man with a measuring rod. The man measures the outer court, its gates — east, north, and south — and the inner court with its gates, tables for sacrifice, and chambers in meticulous detail.

- 3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze. He was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in His hand.
- 4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. The man said to me, "Son of man, look carefully and listen closely. Pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Report everything you see to the house of Israel."
- 5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall. It was one rod thick and one rod high.
- 6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. Then he went to the east gate and climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate — it was one rod deep.
- 7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. Each alcove was one rod long and one rod wide. Between the alcoves was a space of five cubits. The threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.
- 8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed. He measured the portico of the gateway — it was one rod deep.

- 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward. Then he measured the portico of the gateway: eight cubits. Its jambs were two cubits. The gateway portico faced the temple.
- 10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side. All three were the same size, and the jambs on each side were the same size.
- 11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gateway — ten cubits — and the length of the gateway — thirteen cubits.
- 12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit wide on each side. The alcoves were six cubits square.
- 13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. Then he measured the gateway from the top of one alcove to the top of the opposite one — a width of twenty-five cubits, opening facing opening.
- 14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. He measured along the jambs all around the interior of the gateway — sixty cubits — and the court extended to the gateway all around.
- 15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits.

- 16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees. The alcoves and the recesses inside the gateway all around, and likewise the portico, had narrow windows with palm trees decorating the jambs.
- 17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. Then he brought me into the outer court. There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all around the court. Thirty rooms faced the pavement.
- 18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. The pavement alongside the gates corresponded to the length of the gates — this was the lower pavement.
- 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward. Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court — one hundred cubits on the east side and also on the north side.
- 20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. Then he measured the length and width of the north gate of the outer court.
- 21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. Its alcoves — three on each side — and its jambs and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

- 22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. Its windows, its portico, and its palm trees had the same measurements as those of the east gate. Seven steps led up to it with its portico facing them.
- 23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits. The inner court had a gate facing the north gate, just as it had one facing the east gate. He measured from one gate to the opposite gate — one hundred cubits.
- 24 After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. Then he led me to the south side. I saw a gate facing south. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others.
- 25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. The gateway and its portico had windows all around, like the windows of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico facing them, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on each side.
- 27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits. The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side — one hundred cubits.
- 28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate. He measured the south gate, and it had the same measurements as the others.

- 29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had the same measurements. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. The porticos all around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.
- 31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.
- 32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures. Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side and measured the gateway. It had the same measurements as the others.
- 33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had the same measurements. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.
- 35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures; Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others.

- 36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.
- 38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering. A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings were washed.
- 39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings were slaughtered.
- 40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance of the north gateway, were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables.
- 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices. So there were four tables on one side and four on the other — eight tables in all — on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.
- 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

- 43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering. Double hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the sacrificial flesh.
- 44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms — one at the side of the north gate facing south, and another at the side of the south gate facing north.
- 45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. He said to me, "The room facing south is for the priests who guard the temple."
- 46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him. "The room facing north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may come near the LORD to minister before Him."
- 47 So he measured the court; an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house. Then He measured the inner court — a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, a perfect square. And the altar was in front of the temple.
- 48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico — five cubits on each side. The width of the gateway was fourteen cubits, and its projecting walls were three cubits wide on each side.

- 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side. The portico was twenty cubits wide and twelve cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs, and there were pillars on each side of the jambs.

The man measures the main hall of the temple, the most holy place, the walls, side chambers, and the building behind the temple. The walls are decorated with carved cherubim and palm trees, and the temple has a wooden altar described as the table that is before the LORD.

- 1 Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. Then the man brought me to the main hall and measured the jambs — six cubits wide on each side was the width of the entrance.
- 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits wide. He measured the main hall — forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.
- 3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance — two cubits thick. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits wide.
- 4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place. He measured the length of the inner sanctuary — twenty cubits — and its width — twenty cubits across the end of the main hall. He said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

- 5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. Then he measured the wall of the temple — six cubits thick — and the width of the side rooms all around the temple — four cubits wide.
- 6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty on each level. They fit into recesses in the wall of the temple all around. So the rooms were supported by the temple wall but not inserted into it.
- 7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst. The side rooms around the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple went upward in stages, so the structure widened as it went higher. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle story.
- 8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it — the foundations of the side rooms were a full rod, or six long cubits, high.
- 9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within. The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple
- 10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. and the priests' rooms was twenty cubits wide all around the temple.

- 11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about. The entrance of the side rooms from the open area were on the north side and on the south side. The open area was five cubits wide all around.
- 12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and the building itself was ninety cubits long.
- 13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long; Then he measured the temple — it was a hundred cubits long. The courtyard at the back of the building, including its walls, was also a hundred cubits long.
- 14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. The width of the front of the temple and the courtyard to the east was also a hundred cubits.
- 15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; He measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, with its galleries on each side — one hundred cubits.
- 16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; The inner sanctuary, the outer hall, and the court — as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows and galleries around the three of them — were paneled with wood all around from ground level up to the windows.

- 17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure. The area above the outside of the entrance, and throughout the interior of the inner sanctuary, the outer hall, and all the walls around were decorated all around.
- 18 And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; The walls were carved with cherubim and palm trees. Between each cherub was a palm tree. Each cherub had two faces.
- 19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about. A human face was toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face was toward the palm tree on the other. They were carved all around the whole temple.
- 20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple. From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.
- 21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other. The doorposts of the outer sanctuary were square. In front of the Most Holy Place was something that looked like
- 22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD. a wooden altar — three cubits high and two cubits square. Its corners, its base, and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."
- 23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. The outer sanctuary and the Most Holy Place each had a double door.
- 24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. Each door had two panels — two swinging panels for each door.

- 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without. On the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees, like those carved on the walls. A wooden overhang covered the front of the portico.
- 26 And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks. The sidewalls of the portico had narrow windows with palm trees on each side. The side rooms of the temple also had overhangs.

The man measures the priestly chambers on the north and south sides of the temple, where the priests will eat the most holy offerings and change their garments. He then measures the outer perimeter of the entire temple complex — five hundred cubits on each side — to separate the holy from the common.

Cross-References:

- 1 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north. Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms opposite the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall on the north side.
- 2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide.
- 3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. Facing the twenty cubits of the inner court and facing the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery in three tiers.

- 4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north. In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long. Their doors were on the north.
- 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. The upper rooms were narrower because the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building.
- 6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. The rooms on the top floor had no pillars, as the courts had. So they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors.
- 7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and to the outer court — fifty cubits long.
- 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits. The row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long. In contrast, the row on the side next to the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long.
- 9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court. The lower rooms had an entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.
- 10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building. On the south side along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall, were rooms

- 11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. with a passageway in front of them. These were like the rooms on the north. They had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions.
- 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them. Similar to the doorways on the north were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passageway — the passageway parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.
- 13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. Then He said to me, "The north and south rooms facing the temple courtyard are the priests' rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings — the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings — for the place is holy."
- 14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people. "Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people."

The glory of the LORD returns to the temple through the east gate — the same glory Ezekiel saw by the river Chebar. The LORD declares this is the place of His throne where He will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The measurements and consecration of the altar are given, along with seven days of purification offerings.

| 1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east: | Then the man brought me to the gate facing east. |

- 2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory. The glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with His glory.
- 3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face. The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when He came to destroy the city, and like the visions I had seen by the river Chebar. I fell facedown.
- 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east.
- 5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.
- 6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me. While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple.
- 7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. He said: "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel will never again defile My holy name — neither they nor their kings — by their whoredom and the funeral offerings for their kings at their death."

- 8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. "When they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in My anger."
- 9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. "Now let them put away from Me their whoredom and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will live among them forever."
- 10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. "Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider its perfection."
- 11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them. "If they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple — its arrangement, its exits and entrances, its whole design and all its regulations and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations."
- 12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. "This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple."

- 13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher base of the altar. These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits, that cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth: Its gutter is a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a rim of one span around the edge. And this is the height of the altar:
- 14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. From the gutter on the ground up to the lower ledge it is two cubits high and one cubit wide, and from the smaller ledge up to the larger ledge it is four cubits high and one cubit wide.
- 15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns. The altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns project upward from the hearth.
- 16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof. The altar hearth is twelve cubits long and twelve cubits wide — a square.
- 17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east. The upper ledge is also a square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide. All around the altar is a gutter of one cubit with a rim of half a cubit. The steps of the altar face east.
- 18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. Then He said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood on the altar when it is built."

The east gate of the sanctuary is to remain shut because the LORD has entered through it; only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. The Levites who went astray will serve in the temple but not approach the altar; only the sons of Zadok, who remained faithful, will minister before the LORD.

- 3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. "The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way."
- 4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell facedown.
- 5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. The LORD said to me, "Son of man, look carefully. Listen carefully. Pay attention to everything I tell You concerning all the regulations and instructions about the temple of the LORD. Note carefully the entrance to the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary."
- 6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, "Say to the rebellious house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Enough of Your detestable practices, house of Israel!"
- 7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations. "In addition to all Your other detestable practices, You brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart and flesh into My sanctuary, desecrating My temple while You offered Me food, fat, and blood. You broke My covenant by doing all these detestable things."
- 8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. "Instead of carrying out Your duty in regard to My holy things, You put others in charge of My sanctuary."

- 9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel. "This is what the Lord GOD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter My sanctuary — not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites."
- 10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. "The Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray and who wandered from Me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin."
- 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. "They may serve in My sanctuary, having supervisory duties at the gates of the temple and serving in it. They may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them."
- 12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. "But because they served the people in the presence of their idols and made the house of Israel fall into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Lord GOD."
- 13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. "They are not to come near to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or My most holy offerings. They must bear the shame of the detestable things they have done."
- 14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. "Yet I will put them in charge of the duties of the temple and all the work that is to be done in it."

- 15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: "But the Levitical priests, who are descendants of Zadok and who guarded My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, are to come near to minister before Me. They are to stand before Me to offer sacrifices of fat and blood, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. "They alone are to enter My sanctuary. They alone are to come near My table to minister before Me and perform My service."
- 17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. "When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen clothes. They must not wear any woolen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple."
- 18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. "They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire."
- 19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. "When they go out into the outer court where the people are, they are to take off the clothes they have been ministering in and are to leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that the people are not consecrated through contact with their garments."
- 20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. "They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep their hair trimmed."

- 21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. "No priest is to drink wine when He enters the inner court."
- 22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before. "They must not marry widows or divorced women. They may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests."
- 23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. "They are to teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean."
- 24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths. "In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to My ordinances. They are to keep My laws and My decrees for all My appointed festivals, and they are to keep My Sabbaths holy."
- 25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. "A priest must not defile Himself by going near a dead person. However, for a father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister He may make Himself unclean."
- 26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. "After a priest is cleansed, He must wait seven days."
- 27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD. "On the day He goes into the inner court of the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, He is to offer a sin offering for Himself, declares the Lord GOD."
- 28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. "I am to be the only inheritance the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel. I will be their possession."

The LORD designates a holy portion of the land for the sanctuary, the priests, the Levites, and the city. The prince is given his own land on either side and is charged to use just balances, weights, and measures. Regulations for the prince's offerings at Passover and the feast of tabernacles are established.

| 1 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. | "When You divide the land by lot for an inheritance, you are to present to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district — twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits wide. The entire area will be holy." |
| 2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. | "Of this, a section five hundred cubits square is to be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits of open land around it." |

- 3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. "In the sacred district, measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. In it will be the sanctuary — the Most Holy Place."
- 4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary. "It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary."
- 5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers. "An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in."
- 6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. "You are to give the city as its property an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long, adjoining the sacred portion. It will belong to all the house of Israel."
- 7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. "The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the city property. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border."

- 8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes. "This land will be his possession in Israel. And My princes will no longer oppress My people but will allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes."
- 9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. "This is what the Lord GOD says: You have gone far enough, princes of Israel! Give up Your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing My people, declares the Lord GOD."
- 10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. "You are to use accurate scales, an accurate ephah, and an accurate bath."
- 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. "The ephah and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer and the ephah a tenth of a homer. The homer is to be the standard measure for both."
- 12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. "The shekel is to consist of twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels equal one mina."
- 13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley: "This is the special gift You are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley."
- 14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer: "The prescribed portion of olive oil, measured by the bath, is a tenth of a bath from each cor, which consists of ten baths or one homer — for ten baths are equivalent to a homer."

- 15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD. "Also one sheep is to be taken from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the people, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. "All the people of the land will be required to give this special gift to the prince in Israel."
- 17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel. "It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons, and the Sabbaths — at all the appointed festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel."
- 18 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary: "This is what the Lord GOD says: In the first month on the first day You are to take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary."
- 19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. "The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court."

- 20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house. "You are to do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. So you are to make atonement for the temple."
- 21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. "In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover. For seven days the bread eaten is to be without yeast."
- 22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering. "On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land."
- 23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. "Every day during the seven days of the festival He is to provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat as a sin offering each day."
- 24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah. "He is to provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."
- 25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil. "During the seven days of the festival, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, He is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil."

Chapter 46

Regulations are given for the prince's worship at the east gate on the Sabbath and New Moon, and for the people's movement through the gates during the appointed feasts. The prince may give portions of his inheritance to his sons permanently but only lend to his servants. Ezekiel is

- 1 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened. "This is what the Lord GOD says: The gate of the inner court facing east is to be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it is to be opened."
- 2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. "The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He is to worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening."
- 3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. "On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance of that gateway."
- 4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. "The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect."
- 5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as He wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."

- 6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. "On the day of the New Moon He is to offer a young bull, six lambs, and a ram, all without defect."
- 7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as He wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."
- 8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. "When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico of the gateway, and he is to go out the same way."
- 9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it. "When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed festivals, whoever enters by the north gate to worship is to go out by the south gate, and whoever enters by the south gate is to go out by the north gate. No one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each is to go out through the opposite gate."
- 10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. "The prince is to be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out."
- 11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering is to be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."

- 12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go out; and after his going out, one shall shut the gate. "When the prince provides a freewill offering — whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings — as a freewill offering to the LORD, the east gate is to be opened for Him. He is to offer His burnt offering or His fellowship offerings as He does on the Sabbath day. Then He shall go out, and after He has gone out, the gate will be shut."
- 13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning. "Every day You are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD. You are to do this every morning."
- 14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. "You are also to provide a grain offering with it every morning — a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour. The grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance."
- 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering. "So the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil shall be provided every morning as a regular burnt offering."
- 16 Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. "This is what the Lord GOD says: If the prince makes a gift from his inheritance to one of His sons, it will also belong to His descendants. It is to be their property by inheritance."
- 17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. "If, however, he makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, the servant may keep it until the year of freedom. At that time it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs to his sons only; it shall be theirs."

- 18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession. "The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people, driving them off their property. He is to give his sons their inheritance out of his own property, so that none of My people will be separated from his property."
- 19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north, which belonged to the priests. And I saw a place at the far end on the west side.
- 20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people. He said to me, "This is the place where the priests will cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people there."
- 21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. He then brought me out into the outer court and led me around to its four corners. In each corner of the outer court was another court —
- 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure. enclosed courts forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide — all four of them were the same size.
- 23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stonework, with cooking places built below the ledge all around the inside.

- 24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

He said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple are to cook the sacrifices of the people."

Chapter 47

Ezekiel sees water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, growing from ankle-deep to knee-deep to a river that cannot be crossed. Wherever the river flows, everything will live — even the Dead Sea will be healed and filled with fish. The boundaries of the restored land are set for the twelve tribes, and strangers who dwell among them will receive an inheritance.

- 1 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.
- 2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.
- 3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

Then he brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was trickling from the south side.

As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits and then led me through water that was ankle-deep.

- 4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist.
- 5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in — a river that no one could cross.
- 6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this?" Then he led me back to the bank of the river.
- 7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. When I arrived back at the bank, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river.
- 8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. He said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, where it enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into the sea, the salty water there becomes fresh."
- 9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. "Everything that lives and moves, wherever the rivers come, will live. There will be a very great number of fish, because these waters flow there and the waters will be healed. Everything will live wherever the river comes."

- 10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi even unto Eneglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. "Fishermen will stand along the shore. From En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds — like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea."
- 11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. "But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh. They will be left for salt."
- 12 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. "Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing."
- 13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. "This is what the Lord GOD says: These are the boundaries by which You are to divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph."
- 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance. "You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to Your ancestors, this land will become Your inheritance."
- 15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; "This is to be the boundary of the land: On the north side it will run from the Mediterranean Sea by the Hethlon road past Lebo Hamath to Zedad —"

- 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazarhatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran. "Berothah and Sibraim, which lie on the border between Damascus and Hamath, to Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran."
- 17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazarenan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. "The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan, along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern boundary."
- 18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side. "On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This will be the eastern boundary."
- 19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward. "On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern boundary."
- 20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side. "On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the western boundary."
- 21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel. "You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel."

- 22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. "You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners residing among You and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites. Along with You they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel."
- 23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD. "In whatever tribe a foreigner resides, there You are to give them their inheritance, declares the Lord GOD."

The land is divided among the twelve tribes from north to south, with the holy portion in the center containing the sanctuary, the priestly and Levitical territories, and the city. The city has twelve gates named after the twelve tribes of Israel. The name of the city from that day forward shall be "The LORD is there."

Cross-References:

- 1 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazarenan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan. These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern end, Dan will have one portion. It will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo Hamath — Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath, extending from east to west.
- 2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher. Adjoining the territory of Dan from east to west will be a portion for Asher.
- 3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali. Adjoining the territory of Asher from east to west will be a portion for Naphtali.

- 4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh. Adjoining the territory of Naphtali from east to west will be a portion for Manasseh.
- 5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim. Adjoining the territory of Manasseh from east to west will be a portion for Ephraim.
- 6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben. Adjoining the territory of Ephraim from east to west will be a portion for Reuben.
- 7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah. Adjoining the territory of Reuben from east to west will be a portion for Judah.
- 8 And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. "Adjoining the territory of Judah from east to west will be the special gift you are to present — twenty-five thousand cubits wide and as long as any of the tribal portions from east to west — with the sanctuary in the center."
- 9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth. "The special portion You offer to the LORD will be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide."
- 10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof. "This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be twenty-five thousand cubits on the north side, ten thousand cubits wide on the west side, ten thousand cubits wide on the east side, and twenty-five thousand cubits on the south side. The LORD's sanctuary will be in the center."

- 11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. "This will be for the consecrated priests — the sons of Zadok — who kept My charge and did not go astray when the Israelites went astray, as the Levites did."
- 12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites. "It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites."
- 13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. "Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. Its total length will be twenty-five thousand cubits and its width ten thousand cubits."
- 14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD. "They must not sell or exchange any of it. This is the best of the land and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD."
- 15 And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. "The remaining area — five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long — will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for open land. The city will be in the center."
- 16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. "These will be its measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500, the east side 4,500, and the west side 4,500."

- 17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. "The open land surrounding the city will be 250 cubits on the north, 250 on the south, 250 on the east, and 250 on the west."
- 18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the produce thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city. "What remains of the special portion will be ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand to the west, adjoining the sacred portion. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city."
- 19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. "The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel."
- 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. "The entire special portion will be a square, twenty-five thousand cubits on each side. Set it apart as the sacred portion, along with the property of the city."
- 21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. "What remains on both sides of the sacred portion and the city property will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border. Both of these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the center."

- 22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. "So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the center of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin."
- 23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. "As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin will have one portion from the east side to the west side."
- 24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Benjamin from east to west, Simeon will have one portion."
- 25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Simeon from east to west, Issachar will have one portion."
- 26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Issachar from east to west, Zebulun will have one portion."
- 27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Zebulun from east to west, Gad will have one portion."
- 28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea. "The southern boundary of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea."
- 29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD. "This is the land You are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, declares the Lord GOD."
- 30 And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. "These are the exits of the city: Beginning on the north side, which is 4,500 cubits long —"

- 31 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. "the three gates on the north side will be named after the tribes of Israel: the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi."
- 32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. "On the east side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan."
- 33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun. "On the south side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun."
- 34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali. "On the west side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali."
- 35 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there. "The total circumference of the city will be 18,000 cubits. And the name of the city from that time on will be: THE LORD IS THERE."

Daniel

THE BABYLONIAN PERIOD BEGINS — 605 BC

Author: Daniel — the book is written partly in third person (chs. 1–6) and partly in first person (chs. 7–12); Christ Himself refers to "Daniel the prophet" (Matt 24:15), confirming his authorship.

Written to: The Jewish exiles in Babylon and the scattered nation of Israel, to encourage faithfulness under foreign domination and to reveal God's plan for the ages.

Setting: Daniel is taken to Babylon as a youth in the first deportation (605 BC). He rises to high office in the Babylonian and then Persian courts, living as a faithful Jew among the most powerful empires in the world. He writes during the very period when the fate of nations is being decided.

Where this sits historically: Spans c. 605–535 BC under Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius the Mede, and Cyrus the Great — the rise and fall of the Neo-Babylonian empire and the dawn of the Medo-Persian empire that would let Israel return.

Contemporaries: Ezekiel ministered to the exiles by the river Chebar in Daniel's same lifetime, while Jeremiah prophesied (and then died) back in Judah and Egypt, and Cyrus's decree (538 BC) launched the return that Haggai and Zechariah would soon address.

- Faithfulness under pressure — Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego all face death rather than compromise; God is faithful to those who are faithful to Him

- God rules the kingdoms of men — Nebuchadnezzar's dream, his madness, Belshazzar's feast, and the succession of empires all demonstrate that no earthly king holds power apart from God

- Apocalyptic prophecy — the second half of Daniel contains visions of four world empires, a coming prince, the abomination of desolation, and the resurrection of the dead

- The Son of man — Daniel 7:13–14 contains the clearest OT vision of the Messiah receiving an everlasting kingdom; Jesus used this title for Himself

- Prayer — Daniel prays three times daily facing Jerusalem (6:10); his prayer in chapter 9 is the model of intercessory confession

Key passages: Dan 2:44; 3:17–18; 6:10; 7:13–14; 9:24

How it fits: Daniel bridges the exile and restoration periods. His seventy-weeks prophecy (ch. 9) is the OT's most precise messianic timetable. Jesus quoted Daniel in the Olivet Discourse; Revelation draws on Daniel's imagery throughout. Without Daniel, much of NT prophecy is inexplicable.

Chapter 1

Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem and carried off young men of Judah's nobility to serve in Babylon's court. Daniel and his three friends refused the king's food, ate only vegetables and water, and God gave them knowledge and wisdom ten times greater than all the magicians in the kingdom.

| 1 | In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. | In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. |
| 2 | And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. | The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the house of God. He carried these to the land of Shinar, to the house of His god, and placed the articles in the treasury of His god. |
| 3 | And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes; | The king told Ashpenaz, the chief of his court officials, to bring some of the people of Israel — those from the royal family and the nobility — |
| 4 | Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans. | young men without any physical defect, handsome, skilled in all wisdom, knowledgeable, quick to understand, and able to serve in the king's palace. He wanted them taught the language and literature of the Babylonians. |
| 5 | And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. | The king assigned them a daily portion of his own food and wine. They were to be trained for three years, after which they would serve before the king. |

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: Among those chosen were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah — all from the tribe of Judah.

■ NAME NOTE — Daniel (DAN-yel) — "God is my judge" — A young man from the tribe of Judah taken captive to Babylon. He became one of the greatest prophets of the Old Testament, known for his faithfulness to God under intense pressure.

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. The chief official gave them new names. Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

■ NAME NOTE — Hananiah / Shadrach (hah-NAY-nee-ah / SHAY-drak) — Hananiah means "the LORD is gracious." He was given the Babylonian name Shadrach, a pagan name honoring a Babylonian god. He is one of the three Hebrew men thrown into the fiery furnace.

■ NAME NOTE — Mishael / Meshach (MISH-ay-el / MEE-shak) — Mishael means "Who is what God is?" He was given the Babylonian name Meshach. One of Daniel's three faithful companions.

■ NAME NOTE — Azariah / Abednego (az-ah-RY-ah / ah-BED-nee-go) — Azariah means "the LORD has helped." He was given the Babylonian name Abednego, meaning "servant of Nebo," a Babylonian idol. One of Daniel's three faithful companions.

■ NAME NOTE — Nebuchadnezzar (neb-uh-kad-NEZ-er) — A Babylonian name meaning "may Nebo protect the boundary." He was the most powerful king of the Neo-Babylonian Empire, who conquered Jerusalem and carried Israel into captivity.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's food or wine. He asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.

- 9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. God caused the chief official to show Daniel kindness and goodwill.
- 10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king. The chief official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who assigned your food and drink. If he sees that you look worse than the other young men your age, it will cost me my head before the king."
- 11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Daniel then spoke to the steward whom the chief official had placed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.
- 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. "Please test us for ten days," he said. "Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink."
- 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. Then compare our appearance with the young men who eat the king's food, and treat us according to what you see.
- 14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. The steward agreed to this and tested them for ten days.
- 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat. At the end of ten days, Daniel and his friends looked healthier and better nourished than all the young men who ate the king's food.
- 16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse. So the steward took away their portion of food and wine and gave them vegetables instead.

Chapter 2

Nebuchadnezzar demanded his wise men tell him his dream and its meaning, or die. Daniel prayed, and God revealed the vision: a great statue with a head of gold, chest of silver, belly of bronze, legs of iron, and feet of iron mixed with clay. A stone cut without hands struck the statue, destroyed it, and became a great mountain filling the whole earth.

- 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. The king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers to tell him what he had dreamed. They came and stood before the king.
- 3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. The king told them, "I have had a dream that troubles me, and I must know what it means."
- 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The astrologers answered the king in Aramaic: "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it."
- 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. The king replied to the astrologers, "This is what I have firmly decided: if you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut to pieces and your houses turned into rubble."
- 6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. "But if you tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive gifts, rewards, and great honor from me. So tell me the dream and its interpretation."
- 7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. They answered again, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."
- 8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. The king replied, "I know for certain that you are trying to gain time, because you see that my decision is firm."

- 9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. "If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one punishment for you. You have agreed to lie to me in hopes that the situation will change. Tell me the dream, and then I will know that you can interpret it."
- 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. The astrologers answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks. No king, however great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter, or astrologer."
- 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. "What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among men."
- 12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. Because of this, the king was enraged and furious. He ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon.
- 13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain. The decree was issued for the wise men to be put to death, and men were sent to find Daniel and his friends to kill them as well.
- 14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: Daniel spoke wisely and carefully to Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon.
- 15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. He asked Arioch, "Why has the king issued such a harsh decree?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.

- 16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation. Daniel went to the king and asked for time, promising to give the king the interpretation.
- 17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: Daniel returned home and told Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter.
- 18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven about this mystery, so that He and His friends would not be executed with the rest of Babylon's wise men.
- 19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. During the night, the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven.
- 20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: Daniel said: "Praise be to the name of God forever and ever. Wisdom and power are His.
- 21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He changes times and seasons. He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those with understanding.
- 22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. He reveals deep and hidden things. He knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with Him.
- 23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter. I thank You and praise You, O God of my fathers. You have given me wisdom and strength. You have made known to me what we asked of You — You have made known to us the king's dream."

- 24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon. "Do not execute the wise men," Daniel told him. "Bring me before the king and I will interpret the dream for him."
- 25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said, "I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king the interpretation."
- 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? The king asked Daniel, whose Babylonian name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me what I dreamed and what it means?"
- 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician, or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about.
- 28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the days to come. Your dream and the visions you had while lying in bed are these:
- 29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. As you lay in bed, O king, your thoughts turned to things that are to come, and the Revealer of mysteries showed you what will happen.

- 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart. This mystery has not been revealed to me because I have greater wisdom than anyone else. It has been revealed so that you, O king, may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your heart."
- 31 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. "O king, you saw a great statue. It was enormous, brilliant, and awe-inspiring as it stood before you.
- 32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, Its head was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,
- 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay.
- 34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. While you were watching, a stone was cut out — but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and crushed them.
- 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were all crushed together and became like chaff on a summer threshing floor. The wind swept them away without leaving a trace. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.
- 36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. That was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation.

- 37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. You, O king, are a king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion, power, strength, and glory.
- 38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. In your hands He has placed all mankind, the animals of the field, and the birds of the air. He has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.
- 39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom — one of bronze — will rule over the whole earth.
- 40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron. Just as iron breaks and crushes everything, this kingdom will crush and break all the others.
- 41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. The feet and toes you saw — partly of baked clay and partly of iron — mean that this kingdom will be divided. It will have some of the strength of iron, since you saw iron mixed with clay.
- 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.
- 43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. As you saw iron mixed with clay, so people will mix, but they will not remain united, just as iron does not mix with clay.

- 44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. It will not be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever.
- 45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. This is the meaning of the stone cut from the mountain — not by human hands — that broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold to pieces. The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true, and its interpretation is reliable."
- 46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him.
- 47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldst reveal this secret. The king said to Daniel, "Truly your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and a Revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery."
- 48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. Then the king elevated Daniel to a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men.

Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.
- At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to oversee the affairs of the province of Babylon. Daniel himself remained at the royal court.

Chapter 3

Nebuchadnezzar set up a golden image and commanded all to bow down to it. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused and were cast into a fiery furnace heated seven times hotter — but a fourth figure appeared with them in the fire, and they came out without even the smell of smoke on them.

Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.
- King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue ninety feet tall and nine feet wide and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
- He then sent word to gather the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other provincial officials to come to the dedication of the statue he had set up.

- 3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the statue, and they stood before it.
- 4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, Then a herald called out loudly, "People of every nation and language, this is what you are commanded:
- 5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.
- 6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Anyone who does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."
- 7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. When the music played, all the peoples, nations, and men of every language fell down and worshipped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
- 8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. At this time some astrologers came forward and denounced the Jews.
- 9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever. They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

- 10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image: You have issued a decree, O king, that everyone who hears the music must fall down and worship the gold statue.
- 11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Anyone who does not fall down and worship is to be thrown into a blazing furnace.
- 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. But there are some Jews you have appointed over the affairs of Babylon — Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego — who pay no attention to you, O king. They do not serve your gods and will not worship the gold statue you have set up."
- 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought before him.
- 14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold statue I have set up?"

- 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? Now, if you are ready to fall down and worship the statue I made when you hear the music, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?"
- 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter.
- 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will rescue us from your hand, O king.
- 18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. But even if He does not, know this, O king: we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up."
- 19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual.
- 20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. He commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.

- 21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. So these men were bound in their robes, tunics, turbans, and other clothes, and thrown into the blazing furnace.
- 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Because the king's order was so urgent and the furnace so hot, the flames killed the soldiers who threw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego into it.
- 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. And the three men — Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego — fell, still tied up, into the blazing furnace.
- 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men into the fire?" They replied, "Certainly, O king."
- 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."
- 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire. Nebuchadnezzar approached the opening of the blazing furnace and called, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.

Nebuchadnezzar dreamed of a great tree cut down by a watcher from heaven. Daniel interpreted: the king would be driven from men and live like an animal for seven times until he acknowledged that the Most High rules the kingdoms of men. It came to pass exactly as Daniel said, and afterward Nebuchadnezzar praised and honored the King of heaven.

| 1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. | King Nebuchadnezzar, to all peoples, nations, and languages throughout the earth: May your peace be great! |
| 2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me. | It is my pleasure to tell You about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me. |
| 3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. | How great are His signs! How mighty His wonders! His kingdom is an eternal kingdom. His dominion lasts from generation to generation. |
| 4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace: | I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, living in comfort. |
| 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. | I had a dream that frightened me. As I lay in bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind terrified me. |
| 6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. | So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream. |
| 7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. | When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and diviners came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me. |
| 8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying, | Finally, Daniel came before me — the one named Belteshazzar after my god, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. I told Him the dream, saying, |

- 9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. "Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and no mystery is too hard for you. Here is my dream. Tell me its interpretation.
- 10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great. These were the visions I had while lying in bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the middle of the land. It was very tall.
- 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: The tree grew large and strong, and its top touched the sky. It was visible to the ends of the earth.
- 12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and it provided food for all. The wild animals rested in its shade and the birds lived in its branches. Every creature was fed from it.
- 13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven; In the vision, while I lay in bed, I saw a watcher and an holy one come down from heaven.
- 14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches: He called out loudly: 'Cut down the tree and trim off its branches. Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

- 15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: But leave the stump and its roots in the ground, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field. Let it be drenched with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth.
- 16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, until seven times pass over him.'
- 17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men. This sentence is decreed by the watchers, this decision by the holy ones. The purpose is that the living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. He gives them to anyone he pleases and sets over them the lowliest of men."
- 18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee. "This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now tell me its interpretation, Belteshazzar, because none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."
- 19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies. Then Daniel, called Belteshazzar, was deeply troubled for a time, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you." Daniel replied, "My lord, may the dream apply to your enemies and its meaning to your foes!

- 20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth —
- 21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation: whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant, providing food for all, giving shelter to the wild animals and nesting places to the birds —
- 22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. that tree is you, O king! You have grown great and strong. Your greatness has reached to the heavens, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.
- 23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him; The king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven and saying, 'Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump and its roots in the ground, bound with iron and bronze in the grass of the field. Let him be drenched with dew and live with the animals until seven times pass over him.'
- 24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: This is the interpretation, O king. This is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king:

That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.
- You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass over You until You acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he pleases.
- 26

And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.
- The command to leave the stump means that Your kingdom will be restored to You when You acknowledge that Heaven rules.
- 27

Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.
- Therefore, O king, please accept my advice. Break with Your sins by doing what is right, and put an end to Your iniquity by showing mercy to the poor. It may be that Your prosperity will continue."

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-ik-wih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than 'sin' — the corruption beneath the sinful act." Where sin is missing the mark, iniquity is the warped nature that makes a person keep missing it.

- 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. Even as the words were on his lips, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, this is what is decreed for you: Your royal authority has been taken from you.
- 32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. Seven times will pass over You until You acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he pleases."
- 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. Immediately that very hour the sentence was carried out. Nebuchadnezzar was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.
- 34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: At the end of that time I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High. I honored and glorified Him who lives forever. His dominion is an eternal dominion. His kingdom endures from generation to generation.
- 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing. He does as He pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No one can hold back his hand or say to him, "What have You done?"

At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.
- At the same time my sanity returned. My honor and splendor were restored for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles came to me, and I was restored to my throne. I became even greater than before.

Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.
- Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven. Everything he does is right and all His ways are just. And those who walk in pride He is able to humble.

Chapter 5

King Belshazzar held a great feast using the golden vessels taken from the temple in Jerusalem. A hand appeared and wrote on the wall: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. Daniel interpreted the writing — God had numbered Belshazzar's kingdom and finished it, weighed him and found him wanting. That very night Belshazzar was slain and Darius the Mede took the kingdom.

- 1

Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.
- King Belshazzar made a great feast for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine in their presence.

■ NAME NOTE — Belshazzar (bel-SHAZ-er) — "Bel, protect the king" — Son of Nabonidus and co-regent of Babylon; grandson of Nebuchadnezzar. Slain the night Babylon fell to Persia.

Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.
- While he was drinking the wine, Belshazzar gave orders to bring in the gold and silver vessels that his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them.

- 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. So they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them.
- 4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. They drank wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone.
- 5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. At that very moment, the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote.
- 6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. The king's countenance changed and his thoughts troubled him, so that his hip joints gave way and his knees knocked together.
- 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. The king called out to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. He said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me its interpretation shall be clothed in purple, have a gold chain placed around his neck, and be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."
- 8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof. All the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant.

- 9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished. So King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his countenance changed in him, and his nobles were baffled.
- 10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: The queen, hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall. She said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you or your countenance be changed.
- 11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in Him. In the days of your father, this man was found to have light, understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar your father — your father the king — appointed him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners.
- 12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation. This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have a keen mind, knowledge, and understanding — able to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel; he will tell you what this means."
- 13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? So Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "Are you that Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?

- 14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, understanding, and outstanding wisdom.
- 15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing: The wise men and astrologers were brought before me to read this writing and tell me its meaning, but they could not give the interpretation.
- 16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom. I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you shall be clothed in purple, have a gold chain placed around your neck, and be made the third ruler in the kingdom."
- 17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.
- 18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour: O king, the Most High God gave Your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor.

- 19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. Because of the greatness He gave Him, all peoples, nations, and men of every language feared and trembled before Him. He put to death those He wanted to put to death; He spared those He wanted to spare; He promoted those He wanted to promote; He humbled those He wanted to humble.
- 20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: But when His heart became proud and His spirit grew arrogant, He was deposed from His royal throne and stripped of His glory.
- 21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will. He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys, ate grass like cattle, and His body was drenched with the dew of heaven — until He acknowledged that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men and sets over them whoever he chooses.
- 22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; But you, his son Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this.

- 23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: Instead, you have set yourself up against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels from His house brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone — which cannot see or hear or understand. But the God Who holds your very breath in His hand and controls all your ways — Him you have not honored.
- 24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written. Therefore He sent the hand that wrote this inscription.
- 25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. This is the inscription that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.
- 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. This is what these words mean: MENE — God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.
- 27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. TEKEL — you have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.
- 28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. PERES — your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.
- 29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.
- 30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain.

- 31

And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.
- Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of sixty-two.

Chapter 6

Daniel's enemies tricked Darius into signing a decree forbidding prayer to anyone but the king for thirty days. Daniel continued praying three times daily toward Jerusalem and was cast into the den of lions. God shut the lions' mouths, and the next morning Daniel was found unharmed. Darius decreed that all should fear the God of Daniel.

- 1

It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;
- It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom,

■ NAME NOTE — Darius (duh-RY-us) — Persian/Median name meaning "possessor" — Darius the Mede took Babylon after Belshazzar's death. He appointed Daniel as one of three chief administrators over the entire empire.

And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.
- with three administrators over them, of whom Daniel was one. The satraps were accountable to them so that the king would not suffer any loss.
- 3

Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.
- Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.
- 4

Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.
- At this, the administrators and satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs. But they could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent.

- 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Finally these men said, "We will never find any basis for charges against this Daniel unless it has to do with the law of his God."
- 6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. So these administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and said: "O King Darius, live forever!
- 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions' den.
- 8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."
- 9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. So King Darius put the decree in writing.
- 10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. When Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as He had done before.
- 11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then these men came together and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.

- 12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: "Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or man except to you, O king, would be thrown into the lions' den?" The king answered, "The decree stands — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."
- 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day."
- 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him. When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed. He was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.
- 15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed."
- 16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!"

- 17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation might not be changed.
- 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him. Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating. No entertainment was brought to him, and he could not sleep.
- 19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den.
- 20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"
- 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. Daniel answered, "O king, live forever!
- 22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. My God sent his angel, and He shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in His sight. Nor have I done any wrong before you, O king."
- 23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God. The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. When Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

Daniel will see a vision of four great beasts rising from the sea — a lion, a bear, a leopard, and a fourth beast dreadful and terrible with ten horns. The Ancient of days will sit in judgment, and one like the Son of man will come with the clouds of heaven and receive an everlasting kingdom that will never be destroyed.

- 1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions while lying on his bed. He wrote down the substance of his dream.
- 2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea.
- 3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. Four great beasts, each different from the others, came up out of the sea.
- 4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. The first was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it.
- 5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. There before me was a second beast, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up and eat your fill of flesh!'
- 6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. After that, I looked, and there before me was another beast, one that looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like those of a bird. This beast had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

- 7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast — terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.
- 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. While I was thinking about the horns, another horn — a little one — came up among them. Three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth that spoke boastfully.
- 9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. As I looked, thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took His seat. His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of His head was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze.
- 10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. A river of fire was flowing, coming out from before Him. Thousands upon thousands attended Him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened.
- 11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.

- 12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. The other beasts had been stripped of their authority, but were allowed to live for a period of time.
- 13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like the Son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.
- 14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. He was given authority, glory, and sovereign power. All peoples, nations, and men of every language worshiped Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.
- 15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. I, Daniel, was troubled in my spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me.
- 16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this. He told me and gave me the interpretation of these things:
- 17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth.
- 18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever — yes, forever and ever.

- 19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws — the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left.
- 20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell — the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully.
- 21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,
- 22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.
- 23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. He gave me this explanation: 'The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.
- 24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; He will subdue three kings.

Daniel will see a vision of a ram with two horns — Media and Persia — conquered by a he-goat with a great horn — Greece. The great horn will be broken and four kingdoms will arise in its place. A king of fierce countenance will arise in the latter time, destroying many and standing against the Prince of princes, but he will be broken without hand.

| 1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. | In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me. |

- 2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam. In the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal.
- 3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one grew up later.
- 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. I watched the ram as it charged toward the west, north, and south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became great.
- 5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.
- 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at it in great rage.
- 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. I watched it attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it. The goat knocked it to the ground and trampled on it, and no one could rescue the ram from its power.

- 8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. The goat became very great, but at the height of its power its large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.
- 9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew greatly toward the south and east and toward the Beautiful Land.
- 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.
- 11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was brought low.
- 12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered. Because of transgression, the host of the saints and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did and truth was thrown to the ground.
- 13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled — the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host that will be trampled underfoot?"
- 14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."

- 15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man.
- 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision."

■ NAME NOTE — Gabriel (GAY-bree-el) — "God is my strength" — One of the named archangels in Scripture. He appears to Daniel to explain visions, and later to Zechariah and Mary in the New Testament.

- 17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision. As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell face down. He said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision concerns the time of the end."
- 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and raised me to my feet.
- 19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be. He said: "I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time of the end.
- 20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.
- 21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king.

- 22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. The four horns that replaced the one that was broken off represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power.
- 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a king of fierce countenance and understanding dark sentences will arise.
- 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men and the holy people.
- 25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power.
- 26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days. The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given you is true, but seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."
- 27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it. I, Daniel, was worn out. I lay exhausted for several days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Daniel prayed and confessed the sins of his people, pleading for God's mercy on Jerusalem. The angel Gabriel appeared and revealed the prophecy of seventy weeks determined upon Israel — to finish transgression, make an end of sins, and bring in everlasting righteousness. Messiah the Prince will come and be cut off, and the city and sanctuary will be destroyed.

- 7 O LORD, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O LORD, righteousness belongs to You, but to us confusion of face, as it is this day — the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where You have scattered us because of the trespass they have trespassed against You.
- 8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. O LORD, we and our kings, our princes, and our fathers are covered with shame because we have sinned against You.
- 9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him.
- 10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. We have not obeyed the LORD our God or kept the laws He gave us through His servants the prophets.
- 11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. All Israel has transgressed Your law and turned away, refusing to obey You. Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against You.
- 12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing on us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

- 13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us; yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our iniquities and giving attention to Your truth.
- 14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice. The LORD did not hesitate to bring disaster on us, for the LORD our God is righteous in everything He does; yet we have not obeyed Him.
- 15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. Now, O Lord our God, Who brought Your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for Yourself a name that endures to this day — we have sinned; we have done wickedly.
- 16 O LORD, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. O Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, turn away Your anger and wrath from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and Your people an object of scorn to all those around us.
- 17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of Your servant. For Your sake, O Lord, look with favor on Your desolate sanctuary.

- 18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. Give ear, O my God, and hear. Open Your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears Your Name. We do not make requests of You because we are righteous, but because of Your great mercy.
- 19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For Your sake, O my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your Name."
- 20 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the LORD my God for His holy hill —
- 21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice.
- 22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. He instructed me and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding.
- 23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. As soon as you began to pray, an answer was given, which I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision:

- 24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
- 25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.
- 26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.
- 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.
- Seventy weeks are determined upon your people and upon your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
- Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.
- After the sixty-two weeks, Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. The people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed.
- He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. In the middle of that week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. For the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

After three weeks of mourning and fasting, Daniel saw a vision of a glorious man clothed in linen by the river Tigris. The angel told Daniel he was greatly beloved and explained that the prince of Persia had withstood him twenty-one days until Michael came to help. He came to reveal what will happen to Daniel's people in the latter days.

| ¹ In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. | In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel — whose name was also Belteshazzar. The message was true, but the time appointed was long. He understood the message and had understanding of the vision. |
| ² In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks. | At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three full weeks. |
| ³ I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. | I ate no choice food. No meat or wine touched my lips, and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over. |
| ⁴ And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel; | On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Hiddekel — |
| ⁵ Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: | I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist. |
| ⁶ His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. | His body was like topaz, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a crowd. |

- 7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves.
- 8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision. I had no strength left; my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless.
- 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, face down to the ground.
- 10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.
- 11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. He said, "Daniel, you who are greatly beloved, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up trembling.
- 12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. Then he continued, "Do not fear, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, Your words were heard, and I have come in response to them."

- 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.

■ NAME NOTE — Michael (MY-kul) — "Who is like God?" — One of the chief archangels. He is described as the great prince who stands guard over Israel. He appears in Daniel, Jude, and Revelation.

- 16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. Then one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke. - 17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe."
- 18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength.

- 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me. "Do not be afraid, O man greatly beloved," he said. "Peace! Be strong now; be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength."
- 20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come. So he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come."
- 21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince. But first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.

The angel reveals a detailed prophecy of wars between the kings of the north and south — from Persia through Greece and the kingdoms that follow. A vile person will rise, set up the abomination of desolation, and exalt himself above every god. He will prosper until the indignation is accomplished, then come to his end with none to help him.

- 2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. Now then, I will tell you the truth. Three more kings will appear in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

- 3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases.
- 4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those. After he has appeared, his empire will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted and given to others.
- 5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power.
- 6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times. After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power will not last. In those days she will be betrayed, together with her royal escort and her father and the one who supported her.
- 7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious.

- 8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. He will also seize their gods, their metal images, and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the North alone.
- 9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country.
- 10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.
- 11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated.
- 12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant.
- 13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped.

- 14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent men among your own people will rebel in fulfillment of the vision, but without success.
- 15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. Then the king of the North will come and build up siege works and capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their elite troops will not have the strength to stand.
- 16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. The invader will do as he pleases; no one will be able to stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it.
- 17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. He will determine to come with the full power of his kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him.
- 18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back on him.
- 19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found. After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall, to be seen no more.

- 20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.
- 21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honor of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue.
- 22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant. Then an overwhelming army will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed.
- 23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power.
- 24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot, and wealth among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses — but only for a time.
- 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. With a large army he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him.

- 26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. Those who eat from the king's provisions will try to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle.
- 27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time.
- 28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country.
- 29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before.
- 30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. Ships of the western coastlands will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant.
- 31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.
- 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist Him.

- 33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Those who are wise will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.
- 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere will join them.
- 35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.
- 36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.
- 37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all.
- 38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Instead of them, he will honor a god of fortresses; a god unknown to His fathers. He will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.
- 39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge Him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.

- 40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. At the time of the end the king of the South will engage him in battle, and the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots and cavalry and a great fleet of ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through them like a flood.
- 41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many countries will fall, but Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will be delivered from his hand.
- 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape. He will extend his power over many countries; Egypt will not escape.
- 43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt, with the Libyans and Cushites in submission.
- 44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. But reports from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many.
- 45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him. He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

Michael the great prince will stand up, and there will be a time of trouble such as never was. Many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake — some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Daniel is told to seal the book until the time of the end, and he will rest and stand in his lot at the end of the days.

Hosea

Author: Hosea son of Beeri — the book names him (Hos 1:1) and is written in a distinctive personal voice throughout; he is the only writing prophet from the northern kingdom.

Date written: c. 755–715 BC, spanning the reigns of four kings of Judah and the final years of the northern kingdom before Assyria destroyed it in 722 BC.

Written to: The northern kingdom of Israel (also called Ephraim in the book), though the warnings speak to the whole nation.

Setting: Israel is prosperous outwardly under Jeroboam II but spiritually corrupt — Baal worship has intermingled with the worship of the LORD. Hosea is commanded to marry a woman who proves unfaithful, and his marriage becomes a living parable of God's relationship with Israel.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 755–715 BC under Jeroboam II of Israel and the Judean kings Uzziah through Hezekiah, in the very years that the Assyrian empire under Tiglath-Pileser III and Shalmaneser V conquered Samaria in 722 BC.

Contemporaries: Amos was preaching in the north alongside Hosea, while Isaiah and Micah prophesied in the southern kingdom under the same threat from Assyria.

Big themes:

- Spiritual adultery — Israel's idolatry is repeatedly depicted as harlotry; the covenant is a marriage, and Baal worship is betrayal

- God's relentless love — despite Israel's unfaithfulness, God refuses to give them up entirely (11:8); His love persists through discipline

- Judgment as discipline, not abandonment — the Assyrian exile is the consequence of covenant breaking, but it is not the end of the story

- Return and restoration — the book ends with an invitation to return to the LORD and promises of restoration beyond the judgment

- Knowledge of God — "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" (4:6); knowing God — not just knowing about Him — is the heart of covenant faithfulness

Key passages: Hos 1:2; 4:6; 6:6; 11:8–9; 14:4

How it fits: Hosea prophesied while Amos, Isaiah, and Micah were also active. His book is the first of the twelve Minor Prophets in canonical order. Matthew quotes Hosea 11:1 as fulfilled in the flight to Egypt (Matt 2:15); Paul quotes Hosea 1:10 and 2:23 to describe Gentile inclusion (Rom 9:25–26).

Chapter 1

The LORD commands Hosea to marry a wife of whoredoms as a picture of Israel's unfaithfulness. Gomer bears three children: Jezreel, Lo-ruhamah ("no mercy"), and Lo-ammi ("not My people"). Yet the LORD promises that in the very place where Israel was rejected, they will be called sons of the living God.

- 1

The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri, during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the reign of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Hosea (ho-ZAY-uh) — "salvation" — A prophet of Israel in the 8th century BC. God called him to marry an unfaithful woman as a living picture of Israel's unfaithfulness to the LORD.

- 2

The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

This was the beginning of the LORD's message through Hosea. The LORD said to Him, "Go, take a wife of whoredoms and have children of whoredoms, for the land has committed great whoredom in departing from the LORD."
- 3

So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

So He went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore Him a son.

And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

The LORD said to Him, "Name Him Jezreel, because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

- 5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. In that day I will break Israel's bow in the Valley of Jezreel."
- 6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away. Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. The LORD said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-ruhamah — for I will no longer show mercy to Israel or forgive them.
- 7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. But I will show mercy to Judah, and I will save them — not by bow or sword or battle, not by horses or horsemen, but by the LORD their God."
- 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. After Gomer had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived again and gave birth to a son.
- 9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God. The LORD said, "Name Him Lo-ammi — for You are not My people, and I am not Your God."
- 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God. Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. In the very place where it was said to them, "You are not My people," they will be called "sons of the living God."
- 11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel. The people of Judah and the people of Israel will come together and appoint one leader. They will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

The LORD charges unfaithful Israel like a husband charges his adulterous wife. She chased after her lovers and did not know that the LORD gave her the grain, wine, and oil. He will hedge up her way with thorns until she says, "I will go back to my first husband." Then the LORD will allure her, speak tenderly to her, and betroth her to Himself forever.

- 7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. She will chase after her lovers but not catch them. She will look for them but not find them. Then she will say, "I will go back to my first husband, for I was better off then than now."
- 8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. She did not know that I was the one giving her the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil — and that I lavished silver and gold on her, which they used for Baal.
- 9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. Therefore I will take back My grain when it ripens and My new wine when it is ready. I will take away My wool and My linen, which I gave her to cover her nakedness.
- 10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand. So I will expose her shame before the eyes of her lovers, and no one will take her out of My hands.
- 11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. I will stop all her celebrations — her yearly festivals, her New Moons, her Sabbath days, all her appointed feasts.
- 12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. I will ruin her vines and her fig trees, which she said were payment from her lovers. I will turn them into a thicket, and wild animals will devour them.
- 13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD. I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals, when she adorned herself with rings and jewelry and went after her lovers — and forgot Me, declares the LORD.

- 14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. Therefore I am now going to draw her away and lead her into the desert, and speak tenderly to her.
- 15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. There I will give her back her vineyards and will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. She will sing there as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up out of Egypt.
- 16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali. "In that day," declares the LORD, "you will call Me 'my husband.' You will no longer call Me 'my master.'"
- 17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips; no longer will their names be invoked.
- 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely. In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the birds in the sky, and the creatures that move along the ground. I will abolish the bow and sword and battle from the land, so that all may rest in safety.
- 19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. I will betroth You to Me forever. I will betroth You in righteousness and justice, in love and mercy.
- 20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD. I will betroth You in faithfulness, and You will know the LORD.
- 21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; In that day I will respond," declares the LORD — "I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth;

Chapter 3

The LORD commands Hosea to love his adulterous wife again and buy her back — a picture of how the LORD loves Israel despite her unfaithfulness. She is to remain faithful for many days, for Israel will abide many days without a king, without a prince, and without a sacrifice. Afterward they will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king.

Chapter 4

The LORD brings a charge against Israel: there is no truth, no mercy, no knowledge of God in the land. "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." The priests feed on the people's sin, and the spirit of whoredoms has led them astray — they sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn incense under every green tree.

Because You have rejected knowledge, I also reject You as My priests. Because You have ignored the law of Your God, I also will ignore Your children. |
| 7 | As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. | The more priests there were, the more they sinned against Me; they exchanged their glory for something shameful. |
| 8 | They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity. | They feed on the sins of My people and relish their iniquity. |
| 9 | And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings. | And it will be: like people, like priests. I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds. |
| 10 | For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD. | They will eat but not have enough; they will commit whoredom but not increase, because they have left off to take heed to the LORD to give themselves |

- 12 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God. They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of whoredoms has caused them to err; they have gone a whoring from under their God.
- 13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery. They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shade is good. Therefore Your daughters shall commit whoredom, and Your spouses shall commit adultery.
- 14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall. I will not punish Your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor Your spouses when they commit adultery, because the men themselves are separated with whores and sacrifice with harlots. A people without understanding will come to ruin!
- 15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth. Even if You, Israel, commit adultery, do not let Judah become guilty. Do not go to Gilgal; do not go up to Beth Aven. Do not swear, "As the LORD lives!"
- 16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. Israel has slid back like a backsliding heifer. Now the LORD will feed them like a lamb in a large place.
- 17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone. Ephraim is joined to idols — leave Him alone!
- 18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye. Even when their drinks are gone, they keep on committing adultery. Their rulers dearly love shameful ways.

Chapter 5

Judgment falls on the priests, the people, and the royal house — all have gone deep into corruption. Ephraim and Judah will stumble in their iniquity. The LORD will tear them like a lion and go away until they acknowledge their guilt and seek His face in their affliction.

- 11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment. Ephraim is oppressed, trampled in judgment, intent on pursuing idols.
- 12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. I am like a moth to Ephraim, like rot to the people of Judah.
- 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. When Ephraim saw His sickness, and Judah saw His sores, then Ephraim turned to Assyria, and sent to the great king for help. But He is not able to cure You, not able to heal Your sores.

Chapter 6

Israel calls out to return to the LORD who has torn them but will heal them. Yet the LORD responds: "Your goodness is like a morning cloud, and like the early dew it goes away." He desires mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. Ephraim and Judah have transgressed the covenant.

Chapter 7

The iniquity of Ephraim and the wickedness of Samaria are exposed — they are full of deceit, theft, and drunkenness. Their kings fall one after another, and none of them call on the LORD. Ephraim is like a cake not turned — half-baked, mixing himself among the peoples, calling to Egypt and Assyria instead of the LORD.

They practice deceit; thieves break into houses, bandits rob in the streets. |
| 2 | And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face. | But they do not realize that I remember all their evil deeds. Their sins engulf them; they are always before Me. |
| 3 | They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. | They delight the king with their wickedness, the princes with their lies. |
| 4 | They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened. | They are all adulterers, burning like an oven whose fire the baker need not stir from the kneading of the dough till it rises. |
| 5 | In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorn. | On the day of the festival of our king, the princes become inflamed with wine, and he joins hands with the mockers. |
| 6 | For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. | Their hearts are like an oven; they approach him with intrigue. Their passion smolders all night; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire. |
| 7 | They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. | All of them are hot as an oven; they devour their rulers. All their kings fall, and none of them calls on Me. |
| 8 | Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned. | Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat loaf not turned over. |

- 9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not. Foreigners sap his strength, but he does not realize it. His hair is sprinkled with gray, but he does not notice.
- 10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this. Israel's arrogance testifies against Him, but despite all this He does not return to the LORD His God or seek Him.
- 11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless — now calling to Egypt, now turning to Assyria.
- 12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. When they go, I will throw My net over them; I will pull them down like birds in the sky. When I hear them flocking together, I will catch them.
- 13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me. Woe to them, because they have fled from Me! Destruction to them, because they have rebelled against Me! I long to redeem them but they speak lies against Me.
- 14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. They do not cry out to Me from their hearts but wail on their beds. - 15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. I trained them and strengthened their arms, but they plot evil against Me.
- 16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt. They do not turn to the Most High; they are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their insolent words. For this they will be ridiculed in the land of Egypt.

The trumpet sounds the alarm — an eagle hovers over the house of the LORD because Israel has broken the covenant and rebelled against the law. They set up kings without the LORD's approval and made idols of silver and gold. Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples; they will reap the whirlwind.

- 7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. They sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no head; it will produce no flour. Were it to yield grain, foreigners would swallow it up.
- 8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. Israel is swallowed up; now she is among the nations like something no one wants.
- 9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. For they have gone up to Assyria like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has sold herself to lovers.
- 10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes. Even though they have sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them together. They will begin to waste away under the oppression of the mighty king.
- 11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin. Ephraim has built many altars for sin offerings, but these have become altars for sinning.
- 12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing. I wrote for them the many things of My law, but they regarded them as something foreign.
- 13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt. Though they offer sacrifices as gifts to Me, and though they eat the meat, the LORD is not pleased with them. Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt.
- 14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof. Israel has forgotten their Maker and built palaces; Judah has fortified many towns. But I will send fire on their cities that will consume their fortresses.

Israel will not rejoice like other nations, for she has gone a whoring from her God. The days of visitation and recompense have come. The prophet is called a fool, and Ephraim is snared. Because of the greatness of their iniquity, the LORD will cast them away — they will be wanderers among the nations.

- 6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them; thorns shall be in their tabernacles. Even if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them. Their treasures of silver will be taken over by nettles, and thorns will be in their tabernacles.
- 7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred. The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand. Let Israel know this. Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac.
- 8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim, yet snares await Him on all His paths, and hostility in the house of His God.
- 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. They have sunk deep into corruption, as in the days of Gibeah. God will remember their iniquity; He will punish them for their sins.
- 10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your fathers, it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig tree. But when they came to Baal Peor, they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol and became as vile as the thing they loved.
- 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception. Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird — no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.
- 12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! Even if they rear children, I will bereave them of every one. Woe to them when I turn away from them!

Chapter 10

Israel is a luxuriant vine that bears fruit for itself — the more prosperous the land, the more altars and images they built. Their altars will be broken down and their images destroyed. The LORD calls them to sow in righteousness and reap in mercy, to break up the fallow ground — but they have plowed wickedness and will reap iniquity.

- 2 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images. Their heart is deceitful, and now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will demolish their altars and destroy their sacred stones.
- 3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us? Then they will say, "We have no king because we did not revere the LORD. But even if we had a king, what could He do for us?"
- 4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. They make many promises, take false oaths, and make agreements; therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a plowed field.
- 5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. The people of Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven. Its people will mourn over it, and so will its idolatrous priests — those who had rejoiced over its splendor, because it will be taken from them into exile.
- 6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. It will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced; Israel will be ashamed of its foreign alliances.
- 7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water. Samaria and its king will float away like a twig on the surface of the waters.
- 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. The high places of wickedness will be destroyed — it is the sin of Israel. Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"
- 9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them. Since the days of Gibeah, You have sinned, O Israel, and there you have remained. Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

- 10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows. When I please, I will punish them; nations will be gathered against them to put them in bonds for their double sin.
- 11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her fair neck. I will drive Ephraim, Judah must plow, and Jacob must break up the ground.
- 12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. Sow righteousness for yourselves, reap the fruit of mercy, and break up Your unplowed ground; for it is time to seek the LORD, until He comes and showers His righteousness on You.
- 13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. But You have planted wickedness, You have reaped evil, You have eaten the fruit of deception. Because You have depended on Your own strength and on Your many warriors,
- 14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children. the roar of battle will rise against Your people, so that all Your fortresses will be devastated — as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.
- 15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off. So will it happen to you, Bethel, because your wickedness is great. When that day dawns, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Chapter 11

The LORD remembers how He loved Israel as a child and called His son out of Egypt. But the more He called them, the further they went from Him. He taught Ephraim to walk, took them by the arms, drew them with cords of love — yet they refused to return. "How shall I give you up, Ephraim?" His compassion is stirred; He will not execute the fierceness of His anger.

Chapter 12

Ephraim feeds on wind and pursues the east wind — making treaties with Assyria and sending oil to Egypt. The LORD has a controversy with Judah as well. Jacob wrestled with the angel and prevailed; the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet He preserved them. Ephraim has provoked the LORD bitterly, and his blood will be left on him.

Chapter 13

When Ephraim spoke, men trembled — but he sinned through Baal and died. They continue to sin, making molten images. Therefore the LORD will be to them like a lion, like a leopard, like a bear robbed of her cubs. "O Israel, you have destroyed yourself, but in Me is your help." The LORD will ransom them from the power of the grave and redeem them from death.

Chapter 14

The LORD calls Israel to return and bring words of repentance: "Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously." Assyria will not save them, and they will no longer call their idols their gods. Joel

Author: Joel son of Pethuel — the book names him (Joel 1:1); beyond this, nothing is known of his personal life or circumstances.

Date written: Uncertain — early date c. 835 BC (reign of Joash) is traditional; some place it later. The absence of any mention of Assyria or Babylon may support an early date.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem, in response to a catastrophic locust plague and drought.

Setting: A devastating locust swarm has stripped the land. The harvest is destroyed, the grain offering cannot be made, and the people face genuine famine. Joel uses this physical disaster as the entry point for one of the OT's most far-reaching prophetic visions — the Day of the LORD.

Where this sits historically: Date uncertain — traditionally placed c. 835 BC during the boy-king Joash's reign in Judah under the regency of Jehoiada the priest, before either the Assyrian or Babylonian crises had reached Jerusalem.

Contemporaries: Under the early date, Elisha was still ministering in the northern kingdom, Athaliah's house had just been overthrown, and Jehu's dynasty ruled Israel.

Big themes:

- The locust plague as divine judgment — the natural disaster is not random; it is the LORD calling His people to repentance

- The Day of the LORD — a recurring theme throughout the prophets; Joel develops it as a day of cosmic darkness, divine judgment on all nations, and ultimate deliverance for God's people

- True repentance — "rend your heart, and not your garments" (2:13); God wants inward return, not outward ritual

- The outpouring of the Spirit — Joel 2:28–32 promises that God will pour out His Spirit on all flesh; Peter quoted this passage on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:16–21)

- Restoration of the land — God promises to restore the years the locust has eaten (2:25); physical blessing follows spiritual return

Key passages: Joel 1:4; 2:12–13; 2:28–32; 3:14; 3:16

How it fits: Joel is brief but theologically pivotal — his Day of the LORD vision is the framework Amos, Zephaniah, and Revelation all build on. His Spirit-outpouring prophecy is the OT's clearest promise of Pentecost. Peter's identification of Pentecost with Joel 2 makes this short book one of the most NT-quoted of the Minor Prophets.

Chapter 1

A devastating plague of locusts has stripped the land bare — what one swarm left, the next devoured. The fields are ruined, the vines dried up, the grain offering and drink offering cut off from the house of the LORD. Joel calls the priests and elders to proclaim a solemn fast and cry out to the LORD, for the day of the LORD is at hand.

Chapter 2

The trumpet sounds in Zion — a great army like locusts darkens the land, and the day of the LORD is near. Yet the LORD calls: "Turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning — rend your heart and not your garments." If they repent, the LORD will pour out His Spirit on all flesh — sons and daughters will prophesy, old men will dream dreams, young men will see visions.

Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming. It is close at hand — |
| 2 | A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. | a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. Like dawn spreading across the mountains, a large and mighty army comes — such as never was in ancient times nor ever will be in ages to come. |
| 3 | A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. | Before them fire devours; behind them a flame blazes. Before them the land is like the garden of Eden; behind them, a desert waste — nothing escapes them. |
| 4 | The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. | They have the appearance of horses; they gallop along like cavalry. |
| 5 | Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. | With a noise like that of chariots they leap over the mountaintops, like a crackling fire consuming stubble, like a mighty army drawn up for battle. |
| 6 | Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. | At the sight of them, nations are in anguish; every face turns pale. |
| 7 | They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: | They charge like warriors; they scale walls like soldiers. They all march in line, not swerving from their course. |

| 8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. 9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. 10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining: 11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? 12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: 13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. | They do not jostle each other; each marches straight ahead. They plunge through defenses without breaking ranks. They rush upon the city; they run along the wall. They climb into the houses; like thieves they enter through the windows. Before them the earth shakes, the heavens tremble, the sun and moon are darkened, and the stars no longer shine. The LORD thunders at the head of His army; His forces are beyond number, and mighty is the army that obeys His command. The day of the LORD is great; it is dreadful. Who can endure it? "Even now," declares the LORD, "return to Me with all Your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning." Tear Your heart, and not Your garments. Return to the LORD Your God, for He is gracious and merciful, longsuffering, and of great kindness — and He relents from sending calamity. |

- 14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God? Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave behind a blessing — grain offerings and drink offerings for the LORD Your God.
- 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Sound the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly.
- 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Gather the people, consecrate the assembly; bring together the elders, gather the children, those nursing at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave His room and the bride her chamber.
- 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Let the priests, who minister before the LORD, weep between the temple porch and the altar. Let them say, "Spare Your people, LORD. Do not make Your inheritance an object of scorn, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?' "
- 18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Then the LORD will be jealous for His land and take pity on His people.
- 19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen: The LORD will reply to them: "I am sending You grain, new wine, and olive oil, enough to satisfy You fully; never again will I make You an object of scorn to the nations.

- 20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things. I will drive the northern horde far from You, pushing it into a parched and barren land — its eastern ranks into the Dead Sea and its western ranks into the Mediterranean Sea. And its stench will go up; its smell will rise." Surely He has done great things!
- 21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. Do not be afraid, land of Judah; be glad and rejoice. Surely the LORD has done great things!
- 22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. Do not be afraid, You wild animals, for the pastures in the wilderness are becoming green. The trees are bearing their fruit; the fig tree and the vine yield their riches.
- 23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. Be glad, people of Zion, rejoice in the LORD Your God, for He has given You the autumn rains because He is faithful. He sends You abundant showers — both autumn and spring rains, as before.
- 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. The threshing floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
- 25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. I will repay You for the years the locusts have eaten — the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm — My great army that I sent among You.

- 26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. You will have plenty to eat, until You are full, and You will praise the name of the LORD Your God, Who has worked wonders for You; never again will My people be shamed.
- 27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. Then You will know that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD Your God, and that there is no other; never again will My people be shamed.
- 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, Your old men will dream dreams, Your young men will see visions.
- 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. Even on My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days.
- 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth — blood and fire and billows of smoke.
- 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
- 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call. And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, even among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

Chapter 3

The LORD will gather all nations into the valley of Jehoshaphat and judge them for scattering His people and dividing His land. The nations are called to beat their plowshares into swords — but the LORD will roar from Zion. In that day the mountains will drip with new wine, the hills will flow with milk, and the LORD will dwell in Zion forever.

Amos

Author: Amos of Tekoa — "burden bearer" — a shepherd ("herdman") and a "gatherer of sycamore fruit" (7:14). He was a country prophet from the southern kingdom of Judah, called by God to leave his flocks and figs and prophesy in the northern kingdom of Israel. He was not trained in any prophetic school: "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son" (7:14).

Date written: c. 760–750 BC, during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (793–753 BC) and Uzziah of Judah (792–740 BC). Amos dates his own ministry "two years before the earthquake" (1:1) — possibly the same earthquake remembered two centuries later in Zechariah 14:5. Amos is the chronologically earliest of the writing prophets, among the oldest written sermons in Scripture.

Written to: The northern kingdom of Israel — and especially its corrupt religious center at Bethel and its prosperous nobility in Samaria.

Setting: The northern kingdom is at the peak of material prosperity under Jeroboam II. Borders are expanded; trade is flourishing; the wealthy build summer houses and winter houses, lie on beds of ivory, drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments. But underneath: the poor are sold for a pair of shoes; the helpless are crushed at the gate; merchants use false balances. The religion is feasts and tithes — at Bethel, at Gilgal, at Beersheba — but it is offered to a calf, not to the LORD. God sends Amos, a southerner and a working man with no prophetic pedigree, to declare that the LORD will spare them no longer. Amaziah the priest at Bethel orders Amos to go home; Amos refuses and prophesies the priest's own ruin.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 760–750 BC under Jeroboam II of Israel and Uzziah of Judah, two years before a famous earthquake (1:1), and roughly forty years before the Assyrians destroyed Samaria in 722 BC.

Contemporaries: Hosea was just beginning his ministry in the north, Jonah had recently been sent to Nineveh, and Isaiah and Micah would take up their callings in Judah within a generation.

Big themes:

- The universal scope of God's moral demand — the oracle against the nations in chapters 1–2 sweeps in a circle and lands on Judah and Israel last
- The inseparability of social justice from true worship — the LORD's hatred of religion that ignores oppression of the poor
- The day of the LORD as darkness, not light, for the impenitent (5:18–20)
- The famine of hearing the words of the LORD (8:11) — a more terrible judgment than hunger or thirst
- The LORD's freedom to use unschooled workmen as His prophets (7:14–15)
- The final hope — the raising up of the tabernacle of David that is fallen (9:11)

Key passages: Amos 3:7 (the LORD reveals His secret to His servants the prophets); 4:11 (a firebrand plucked out of the burning); 5:18–24 (the day of the LORD and the demand for justice); 7:14–15 (Amos's defense — "I was no prophet"); 8:11 (the famine of hearing the word of the LORD); 9:11–15 (the tabernacle of David rebuilt and the final restoration)

How it fits: Amos is the Old Testament's strongest prophetic cry for social justice — particularly the protection of the poor against economic and judicial oppression. Amos 9:11 ("the tabernacle of David that is fallen") is quoted by James in Acts 15:16 to establish, from the Old Testament itself, that God always intended to call Gentiles into His people through Christ. Amos demonstrates that the God of Israel is also the God of all the nations — and that He judges every nation, including His own, by the same righteous standard.

Chapter 1

The LORD roars from Zion and pronounces judgment on the nations surrounding Israel: Damascus, Gaza, Tyre, and Edom. For three transgressions and for four, He will not turn away their punishment — because of their cruelties in war, their slave trading, and their unrelenting rage.

■ NAME NOTE — Amos (AY-mos) — "burden bearer" — A shepherd and fig-tree farmer from Tekoa in Judah, called by God to prophesy to the northern kingdom of Israel. He was not a professional prophet but an ordinary working man (see 7:14–15).

■ NAME NOTE — Tekoa (teh-KOH-ah) — "pitching of tents" — A small town in the hill country of Judah, about ten miles south of Jerusalem and six miles south of Bethlehem. Amos's home; later the home of the wise woman who pleaded with David for Absalom (2 Samuel 14).

■ NAME NOTE — Uzziah (uh-ZY-ah) — "the LORD is my strength" — King of Judah, c. 792–740 BC; also called Azariah. A largely good king whose reign was long and prosperous, but who was struck with leprosy for proudly entering the temple to burn incense (2 Chronicles 26).

■ NAME NOTE — Jeroboam (jair-uh-BOH-am) — "the people contend" — Here, Jeroboam II, son of Joash, king of the northern kingdom of Israel c. 793–753 BC. Not to be confused with the first Jeroboam, who founded the northern kingdom and set up the calf shrines. The second Jeroboam was militarily and economically successful, but morally and religiously corrupt — the setting of Amos's prophecy.

- 2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither. He said: "The LORD will roar from Zion, and lift up His voice from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither."

■ NAME NOTE — Carmel (KAR-mel) — "garden, fruitful field" — A fertile mountain ridge in northern Israel running down to the Mediterranean coast near modern Haifa. Famous as the site of Elijah's contest with the prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18). Its proverbial fruitfulness makes the threat of its withering all the more striking.

- 3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron,

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Amos's signature phrase, "For three transgressions of X, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof," is repeated eight times in chapters 1 and 2 — a deliberate, mounting indictment that finally encircles God's own people Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (duh-MAS-kus) — Ancient capital of Syria (Aram), northeast of Israel. Israel's persistent enemy throughout the divided-kingdom period; Hazael and Ben-hadad were two of its most aggressive kings (v4).

- 4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. I will send a fire on the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

- 5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD. I will also break the bar of Damascus. I will cut off the people who live in the plain of Aven, and the one who holds the sceptre from the house of Eden. The people of Syria will go into captivity to Kir," says the LORD.
- 6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they carried away the whole population as captives, to deliver them up to Edom,

■ NAME NOTE — Gaza (GAH-zah) — "strong place" — The chief city of the five Philistine cities on the Mediterranean coast southwest of Israel. Strategically positioned on the trade route between Egypt and the north.

- 7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof: I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces.
- 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD. I will cut off the people who live in Ashdod, and the one who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon. I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord GOD.

■ NAME NOTE — Philistines (FIL-is-teens) — The non-Semitic people who occupied the coastal plain southwest of Israel; their five chief cities were Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Ekron, and Gath. Israel's most persistent enemy throughout the period of the Judges and the early monarchy. Amos says (9:7) that the LORD brought them from Caphtor (Crete) — making clear that even Israel's enemies are under the LORD's sovereign hand.

- 9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they delivered up the whole population of captives to Edom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant,

■ NAME NOTE — Tyrus (TY-rus) — The KJV form of Tyre, the great Phoenician trading city on the Mediterranean coast north of Israel. Allied with Israel in David and Solomon's day (the "brotherly covenant"); Hiram of Tyre supplied cedar for the temple. By Amos's day Tyre had broken faith and was trafficking Israelite captives to Edom.

- 10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof. I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, and it will devour its palaces."
- 11 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because He pursued His brother with the sword and cast off all pity. His anger tore on without end, and He kept His wrath forever.

■ NAME NOTE — Edom (EE-dum) — "red" — The nation descended from Esau, Jacob's twin brother (Genesis 25:30; 36:1). Located south and east of the Dead Sea. Their constant hostility toward Israel — "his brother" — is treated by the prophets as a particularly grievous betrayal. The whole book of Obadiah is devoted to Edom's judgment.

- 12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah. I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

■ NAME NOTE* — Ammon (AM-un) — The nation descended from Lot's younger daughter (Genesis 19:38). Located east of the Jordan, north of Moab. Their capital was Rabbah (modern Amman, Jordan). Like Moab, Ammon was repeatedly at war with Israel.

Chapter 2

The LORD continues His judgments against Moab and then turns to Judah and Israel. Israel is condemned for selling the righteous for silver and the poor for a pair of shoes, for oppressing the afflicted, and for profaning the LORD's holy name. God reminds them He brought them out of Egypt and raised up prophets among them — yet they silenced the prophets and corrupted the Nazarites.

■ NAME NOTE — Moab (MOH-ab) — The nation descended from Lot's elder daughter (Genesis 19:37). Located east of the Dead Sea, between Edom and Ammon. Ruth the great-grandmother of David was a Moabitess (Ruth 1:4; Matthew 1:5). The crime named here — burning the bones of the king of Edom to lime — was a violation of common decency even against an enemy, and the LORD judges it.

But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kirioth. Moab will die in the midst of an uproar, with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.
- 3

And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

I will cut off the judge from her midst, and kill all her princes with Him," says the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they have despised the law of the LORD and have not kept His commandments, and their lies caused them to err — the lies their fathers walked after —

■ NAME NOTE — Judah (JOO-dah) — "praise" — The southern kingdom of God's people, with its capital at Jerusalem. After the death of Solomon the twelve tribes split: ten formed the northern kingdom of Israel; two (Judah and Benjamin) formed the southern kingdom of Judah. Amos's home. The oracle has been circling the pagan nations; now it turns inward — first on Judah, then on Israel.

- 5

But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."
- 6

Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes.

■ NAME NOTE — Israel (IZ-ree-el) — "he strives with God" — The name God gave to Jacob (Genesis 32:28). Here, the northern kingdom — ten tribes — with its capital at Samaria, its royal house in Jeroboam II, and its calf-shrines at Bethel and Dan. The oracle finally rests where it was always going to rest. Israel's catalog of crimes is far longer than any of the pagan nations'.

Chapter 3

"You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities." The LORD does nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets. Israel's enemies will surround the land, pull down her strongholds, and plunder her palaces — the altars of Bethel will be torn down.

■ NAME NOTE — Egypt (EE-jipt) — The land of Israel's bondage and great deliverance. The exodus is the LORD's foundational saving act in the OT, repeatedly invoked by the prophets as the basis of His claim on Israel. Throughout Amos, the LORD reminds Israel: I brought you up out of Egypt — therefore you owe Me obedience.

■ WORD NOTE — Secret (SEE-krit) — God's hidden counsel — His settled plan, kept from the world but disclosed to those He chooses. The LORD reveals His "secret" to His servants the prophets: He never sends judgment unannounced. Before the lion roars, the herald goes ahead. The Hebrew word (sod) carries the sense of intimate council — the prophet is admitted into the LORD's inner counsel and entrusted with His mind.

■ NAME NOTE — Bethel (BETH-el) — "house of God" — A town about twelve miles north of Jerusalem. After the division of the kingdom, Jeroboam I set up a golden calf there, with a rival temple and priesthood, so the northern tribes would not return to Jerusalem to worship (1 Kings 12:28–33). By Amos's day it was the chief sanctuary of the northern kingdom — "the king's chapel" (7:13) — and the great target of his prophetic fire.

Chapter 4

The LORD rebukes the wealthy women of Samaria — the "kine of Bashan" — who oppress the poor and crush the needy. He sent famine, drought, blight, pestilence, and overthrow like Sodom — yet they did not return to Him. "Therefore prepare to meet your God, O Israel."

- 1

*Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters,
Bring, and let us drink.*
- Hear this word, You kine of Bashan on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor and crush the needy, who say to their masters, "Bring, and let us drink."*

■ NAME NOTE — Bashan (BAY-shan) — The fertile high plateau east of the Sea of Galilee, famous in the OT for its rich pastureland and the fatness of its cattle (Psalm 22:12; Deuteronomy 32:14). "Kine of Bashan" — well-fed, sleek heifers — is Amos's withering nickname for the pampered noblewomen of Samaria, who grow fat by oppressing the poor and demanding that their husbands bring them more wine.

Gilgal multiply transgression; and

- "Come to Bethel — and transgress! At Gilgal — multiply transgression! Bring Your sacrifices every morning, and
Your tithes every three years.*

■ NAME NOTE — Gilgal (GIL-gal) — "circle of stones" — The site of Israel's first encampment after crossing the Jordan under Joshua (Joshua 4:19–20). A place of honorable memory had become, by Amos's day, a center of corrupt cultic worship. Amos's command "come to Bethel and transgress" is bitter irony — go ahead, keep doing your religion; you only multiply your guilt.

Chapter 5

Amos takes up a lament: "The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise." The LORD calls them to seek Him and live — to seek good and not evil, to establish justice in the gate. He despises their feast days and will not accept their offerings. "Let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."

■ NAME NOTE — Beersheba (beer-SHEE-bah) — "well of the oath" — A town in the far south of Judah, on the edge of the wilderness; associated with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all worshipped the LORD there. By Amos's day Beersheba had also been turned into a popular pilgrim shrine for the northern Israelites. The LORD's command is striking: do not go on pilgrimage to these holy places — seek Me directly, and live.

For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will come to nothing." |
| 6 | Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el. | Seek the LORD, and You shall live — or He will break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there will be no one to quench it in Bethel. |
| 7 | Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth, | You who turn judgment into wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth — |

| 9 | That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress. | who strengthens the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled comes against the fortress. |
| 10 | They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly. | They hate the one who rebukes in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks uprightly. |

- 11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them. Therefore, because You tread on the poor and take from Him burdens of wheat, You have built houses of hewn stone, but You will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, but You will not drink their wine.
- 12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right. For I know Your many transgressions and Your mighty sins. You afflict the just, You take a bribe, and You turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
- 13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in that time, for it is an evil time.
- 14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken. Seek good, and not evil, that You may live. And so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with You, as You have said.
- 15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate. It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
- 16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing. Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, says: "Wailing will be in all streets, and in all the highways they will say, 'Alas! Alas!' They will call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.
- 17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD. And in all vineyards there will be wailing — for I will pass through Your midst," says the LORD.

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great biblical theme: the day on which the LORD finally and openly intervenes in human history to judge the wicked and vindicate His people. The Israelites of Amos's day were looking forward to it as Israel's triumph and the nations' defeat. Amos turns the doctrine around: for impenitent Israel, the day of the LORD will be darkness, not light — because Israel itself has joined the nations in rebellion. The same theme runs through Joel, Zephaniah, Malachi, and finds its NT fulfillment in the second coming of Christ.

Chapter 6

Woe to the complacent in Zion and the overconfident in Samaria — they lie on beds of ivory, feast on lambs and calves, sing idle songs, and drink wine by the bowlful, yet they grieve not over the ruin of Joseph. ■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — Israel's greatest king (c. 1010–970 BC), composer of many of the psalms, ancestor of the Messiah. Amos here names David as the model and inventor of sacred musical instruments — a contrast with the rich of Samaria, who use music for self-indulgence rather than for worship. David's name will return at the climax of the book (9:11) in the great promise of the rebuilt "tabernacle of David."

Chapter 7

The LORD shows Amos three visions: a plague of grasshoppers and a fire — both of which He relents from after Amos intercedes — and a plumb line set against Israel, which He will not pass by again. Amaziah the priest of Bethel opposes Amos, but Amos replies that the LORD took him from following the flock and sent him to prophesy against Israel.

- | | | |

| 1 | Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. | This is what the Lord GOD showed me: He was forming grasshoppers at the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth — the latter growth after the king's mowings. |
| 2 | And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. | When they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech You! By whom will Jacob arise? For he is small." |
| 3 | The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD. | The LORD repented concerning this. "It will not be," said the LORD. |
| 4 | Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part. | This is what the Lord GOD showed me: the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and consumed a part. |

■ NAME NOTE — Amaziah (am-uh-ZY-ah) — "the LORD is mighty" — The priest of Bethel (the king's chapel) in the days of Jeroboam II. He sends word to the king accusing Amos of conspiracy, and orders Amos to flee back to Judah and prophesy there for his bread. Amos answers him with one of the most striking self-defenses in all Scripture (vv14–15) — and then with the LORD's word of personal judgment on Amaziah himself (v17).

The land is not able to bear all his words.
- 11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land. For this is what Amos says: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of their own land.' "
- 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: Amaziah also said to Amos, "Seer, go! Flee away to the land of Judah; there eat bread, and prophesy there.
- 13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court. But do not prophesy any more at Bethel, for it is the king's chapel and the king's court."
- 14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit: Then Amos answered, and said to Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son. I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit.

Chapter 8

The LORD shows Amos a basket of summer fruit — the end has come for Israel. He condemns those who trample the needy, who cannot wait for the Sabbath to end so they can cheat with dishonest scales. The LORD will send a famine — not of bread or water, but of hearing the words of the LORD — and they will search for His word but not find it.

Chapter 9

Amos sees the Lord standing beside the altar, commanding destruction — none will escape, whether they dig into hell or climb to heaven. Yet the LORD will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob. In that day He will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and Israel will be planted on their own land and never again be pulled up.

- 1 I saw the LORD standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered. I saw the Lord standing on the altar, and He said: "Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake. Cut them on the head, all of them — and I will slay the last of them with the sword. He who flees of them will not flee away, and he who escapes of them will not be delivered.
- 2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down: Though they dig into hell, from there shall My hand take them. Though they climb up to heaven, from there will I bring them down.
- 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them: Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out from there. Though they be hidden from My sight in the bottom of the sea, from there will I command the serpent, and he will bite them.
- 4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good. And though they go into captivity before their enemies, from there will I command the sword, and it will slay them. I will set My eyes on them for evil, and not for good."
- 5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. The Lord GOD of hosts is He who touches the land, and it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn. It rises up wholly like a flood, and is drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.
- 6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name. It is He who builds his stories in the heaven, and has founded His troop on the earth. He calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth — the LORD is His name.

■ NAME NOTE — Ethiopia (ee-thee-OH-pee-ah) — In the OT, the land south of Egypt — also called Cush — modern Sudan / upper Nile region. Amos's point is sweeping: in the LORD's sovereign view of the nations, Israel is no more privileged by physical descent than the distant Ethiopians. The LORD's care over Israel's exodus is matched by His care over the Philistines and the Syrians — He is the God of all nations, who orders all migrations and judges all peoples by the same standard.

■ NAME NOTE — Caphtor (KAF-tor) — The original homeland of the Philistines, identified with Crete (or possibly Cyprus or the broader Aegean coast). The Philistines were sea-peoples who migrated to Canaan; Amos says here that the LORD Himself brought them — a startling claim that all the movements of all the nations are under His hand.

■ NAME NOTE — Kir (KEER) — The original homeland of the Syrians (Aramaean); location uncertain, possibly east of the Tigris. Earlier in the book (1:5), Kir is also the destination of the Syrian exile. Amos's God is the God of every exodus, including those of Israel's enemies.

- 7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

"Are You not as children of the Ethiopians to Me, children of Israel?" says the LORD. "Have I not brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? And the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?"

The eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth — saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says the LORD.

"For I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least grain will fall on the earth.

All the sinners of My people will die by the sword — those who say, 'The evil will not overtake nor prevent us.'

■ WORD NOTE — The tabernacle of David — The fallen royal house of David — his dynasty, his throne, his rule over the people of God. Amos's final word of hope: the LORD Himself will rebuild it. James quotes this verse at the Jerusalem Council in Acts 15:16–17 to prove from the OT that God always intended to call Gentiles ("the residue of men... and all the Gentiles, upon whom My name is called") into the people of God through the risen Son of David — Jesus Christ. The rebuilt tabernacle of David is the kingdom of the Messiah, into which Jews and Gentiles together are gathered.

Obadiah

Author: Obadiah, whose name means "servant of the LORD" or "worshipper of the LORD." Nothing certain is known about him personally. The name Obadiah appears twelve times in the Old Testament for various men, but none of them can be clearly identified with this prophet. His book and his name are all we have.

Date written: Two main views. (a) Around 845 BC, soon after the Edomite raid on Jerusalem during the reign of Jehoram (2 Chr 21:16–17); or (b) around 585 BC, soon after Edom's complicity in the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem (Ps 137:7; Lam 4:21–22). Either way, the book is addressed in the wake of Edom's gloating betrayal of Judah.

Written to: Edom — the descendants of Esau, Jacob's twin brother, who lived in the rocky highlands southeast of the Dead Sea (the region of Petra). By extension, the book is also written to comfort Judah.

Setting: Jerusalem has been violated by foreign invaders. Edom, instead of helping their brother nation, has stood on the heights mocking — even cutting off the escape routes of fleeing Jews. Obadiah pronounces God's judgment on Edom for their pride, their violence against their brother, and their gloating in Judah's day of disaster — while declaring that Israel's God will yet have the final word: "and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S."

Where this sits historically: Most likely written c. 586 BC, just after Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian armies destroyed Jerusalem and Edom collaborated by hunting down fleeing Judeans.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was lamenting the fall of Jerusalem from within the ruined city, Ezekiel was already prophesying among the Babylonian exiles, and Daniel was serving in Nebuchadnezzar's court.

Big themes:

- Pride goes before destruction — Edom's mountain stronghold is no shield against God
- Kinship betrayed — the unique guilt of harming a brother
- God's judgment on the nations that harm His covenant people
- The indestructibility of God's purposes for Zion
- The eschatological day of the LORD — when the kingdoms of this world become the kingdom of our God

Key passages: Obadiah 1:3 (pride of heart); 1:10 (violence against thy brother Jacob); 1:15 (the day of the LORD); 1:17 (deliverance upon mount Zion); 1:21 (the kingdom shall be the LORD's)

How it fits: Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament — only 21 verses. It is the OT's chief oracle against Edom and a primary text on the eschatological day of the LORD, when God will judge all nations and establish His kingdom. The final clause — "and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S" — anticipates the kingdom theme that runs through the rest of Scripture and reaches its consummation in Revelation 11:15.

Chapter 1

The LORD pronounces judgment against Edom for her pride and for her violence against her brother Jacob. Though she made her nest among the stars, she will be brought down. On the day Jerusalem fell, Edom stood by, rejoiced, looted, and cut off the fugitives. The day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen, and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

- 1

The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord GOD says concerning Edom. We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador has been sent among the heathen: "Arise, and let us rise up against her in battle."

■ NAME NOTE — Edom (EE-dum) — "red" — The nation descended from Esau (Jacob's twin brother), occupying the rocky territory southeast of the Dead Sea around Petra. Edom and Israel had a long history of hostility (Num 20:14–21; 2 Sam 8:13–14; 2 Kgs 8:20–22).

- 2

Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

I have made You small among the heathen. You are greatly despised.
- 3

The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

The pride of Your heart has deceived You. You live in the clefts of the rock, and Your home is on the heights. You say in Your heart, "Who shall bring me down to the ground?"
- 4

Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

Though You lift Yourself up like the eagle, and though You set Your nest among the stars, from there I will bring You down, says the LORD.

You should not have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. You should not have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

■ NAME NOTE — Joseph (JO-suff) — "may God add" — Jacob's eleventh son; sold into Egypt by his brothers; rose to be Pharaoh's second-in-command; saved his family in famine. "The house of Joseph" = the northern tribes (Ephraim and Manasseh).

They shall possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. |

■ WORD NOTE — the south — KJV consistently renders the Hebrew negeb as "the south" — a direction, not a transliterated place name. Modern translations often print "the Negev," but the KJV reading treats it as the southern region of Judah. The modern column preserves "the south."

- 20

And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

The captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, as far as Zarephath. The captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

■ NAME NOTE — Sepharad (SEP-ah-rad) — Location uncertain — possibly Sardis in Asia Minor, or a region of Media; named here as the place of certain Israelite exiles.

- 21

And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

■ WORD NOTE — Saviours (SAYV-yurs) — KJV term for God-raised deliverers — leaders He uses to rescue His people and bring His justice. Modern translations often say "deliverers," but the KJV word points to the same Hebrew root from which we get the name Yeshua / Jesus. The final Saviour of mount Zion is Christ Himself, and through Him the kingdom belongs forever to the LORD.

Jonah

Author: Jonah son of Amittai — the same prophet named in 2 Kings 14:25 who prophesied during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (c. 793–753 BC). He was a native of Gath-hepher in Galilee, in the tribe of Zebulun.

Date written: 8th century BC. The events probably took place c. 780–760 BC, at the height of Assyria's cruelty against the surrounding nations.

Written to: A Hebrew audience. The book is a narrative about the prophet, not a sermon to Nineveh — Israel reads over Jonah's shoulder and sees its own heart.

Setting: The LORD commands Jonah to go to Nineveh — the capital of Assyria, the empire then threatening Israel — and cry against it for its wickedness. Jonah refuses. He boards a ship sailing the opposite direction, toward Tarshish (likely southern Spain — the far western edge of the known world). A great storm threatens the ship; Jonah confesses; the sailors throw him overboard at his own request; the LORD prepares a great fish to swallow him; Jonah prays from inside the fish's belly. After three days and three nights the fish vomits him onto dry land. The LORD's word comes a second time; this time Jonah obeys; the entire city of Nineveh repents in sackcloth and ashes; the LORD spares them. Jonah is furious. The book closes with God's gentle rebuke of His sulking prophet under a withered gourd.

Where this sits historically: The events fall c. 780–760 BC during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel and the Assyrian king Ashur-dan III, when Nineveh was the dominant metropolis of the ancient Near East.

Contemporaries: Elisha had recently died, Amos and Hosea would begin prophesying in the north within a generation, and Uzziah was reigning over Judah.

Big themes:

- The universal scope of God's mercy — reaching even to the worst of pagan empires
- The LORD's absolute sovereignty over the sea, the great fish, the gourd, the worm, and the east wind
- The resistance of the human heart to God's mercy toward those we hate
- Jonah as a type of Christ — three days and three nights in the fish picturing Christ's death and resurrection (Matt 12:39–40)
- The LORD's compassion on those who do not know their right hand from their left
- The failure of even a called prophet to share his Master's heart

Key passages: Jonah 1:1–3 (the call and the flight); 1:17 (the great fish); 2:9 ("Salvation is of the LORD"); 3:4–10 (the repentance of Nineveh); 4:2 (Jonah's complaint); 4:11 (the LORD's final question)

How it fits: Jonah is the most narratively unique of the Minor Prophets — a story about a prophet rather than a collection of his oracles. Jesus cites Jonah as a sign of His own death and resurrection (Matt 12:39–40; 16:4) and as a witness against the impenitent (Matt 12:41; Luke 11:32). The book is the OT's clearest picture of God's mercy reaching beyond Israel to the Gentiles — anticipating the gospel going to all nations. It is also the OT's most pointed exposure of the contradiction in the human heart when our preferences conflict with God's mercy.

Chapter 1

Jonah fled from the LORD's command to preach to Nineveh and boarded a ship to Tarshish. A great storm struck, the sailors cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. At his own word they threw him into the sea, and the storm ceased. The LORD prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and he was in its belly three days and three nights.

■ NAME NOTE — Jonah (JOH-nuh) — "dove" — A Hebrew prophet during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (8th century BC); a native of Gath-hepher in Galilee (2 Kgs 14:25; Josh 19:13). The LORD sent him to preach to Nineveh, the capital of Assyria — Israel's greatest enemy. His story is the OT's clearest single picture of God's mercy reaching to the Gentiles.

■ NAME NOTE — Amittai (uh-MIT-eye) — "truthful, faithful" — Jonah's father. Named only here and in 2 Kings 14:25.

■ NAME NOTE — Gath-hepher (GATH-HEE-fer) — Jonah's hometown (2 Kgs 14:25); a Galilean village in the tribe of Zebulun, a few miles north of Nazareth.

- "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before Me."

■ NAME NOTE — Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — Capital of the Assyrian Empire, on the east bank of the Tigris River (across from modern Mosul, Iraq). One of the largest cities of the ancient world — "an exceeding great city of three days' journey" (Jonah 3:3). The Assyrians were notorious for their cruelty in warfare.

■ NAME NOTE — Tarshish (TAR-shish) — A distant western port, almost certainly Tartessos in southern Spain. For a man fleeing an east-bound errand to Nineveh, Tarshish was "the ends of the earth" in the opposite direction.

■ NAME NOTE — Joppa (JOP-uh) — Ancient port on the Mediterranean coast (modern Jaffa, part of Tel Aviv); the natural harbor for any sea voyage out of Israel. Also where Peter received the vision of the great sheet (Acts 10).

Chapter 2

From inside the belly of the great fish, Jonah prayed to the LORD. He cried out from the depths of the sea, and the LORD heard him. Jonah declared, "Salvation is of the LORD." The LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

■ WORD NOTE — *Hell (HEL) — The place of the dead and of God's judgment. KJV uses one word — "hell" — for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. Modern translations often substitute "Sheol," "the grave," or "the depths" — but the KJV preserves the single word "hell." Here Jonah is using it figuratively: from the depths of dying, as good as in the grave, he cried out and the LORD heard him.

All Your billows and Your waves passed over me. |
| 4 | Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. | Then I said, 'I am cast out of Your sight — yet I will look again toward Your holy temple.' |
| 5 | The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. | The waters surrounded me, even to the soul; the deep closed in around me; the weeds were wrapped about my head. |

Yet You have brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God. |

■ WORD NOTE — Corruption (kuh-RUP-shun) — Decay; the grave; the rotting that begins after death. KJV "brought up my life from corruption" means: You rescued me from the pit where my body would have rotted. Some modern translations say "the pit" — KJV keeps the stronger word.

| 8 | They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy. | Those who hold to lying vanities forsake their own mercy. |

Chapter 3

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: "Go to Nineveh." Jonah obeyed and preached, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The entire city believed God — from the king to the least of them — and put on sackcloth and fasted. God saw their repentance and relented from the disaster.

■ WORD NOTE — Sackcloth (SAK-kloth) — A coarse, rough cloth — usually of goat's hair — worn next to the skin as a sign of mourning, repentance, or grief. To put on sackcloth was to publicly humble oneself before God.

Chapter 4

Jonah was furious that the LORD spared Nineveh and admitted he fled precisely because he knew God was gracious and merciful, longsuffering and abundant in mercy. The LORD prepared a gourd for shade, then a worm to destroy it and a scorching east wind. That is why I fled beforehand to Tarshish. For I knew that You are a gracious God, and merciful, longsuffering, and of great kindness, and One who repents of the evil. |
|---|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suff-er-ing) — Patient with people who are difficult; slow to grow angry. KJV's distinctive rendering of the Hebrew "slow to anger." It pictures God bearing long with sinners — giving them time to repent, as He did with Nineveh. The same word describes God's patience with us (2 Pet 3:9).

■ WORD NOTE — Gourd (GORD) — A fast-growing leafy plant — probably the castor-oil plant or a kind of vine — with broad leaves that throw a wide shade. The point is not the species but that the LORD "prepared" it, just as He prepared the great fish, the worm, and the east wind. The whole book turns on what the LORD prepares.

■ WORD NOTE — East wind (EEST WIND) — In the geography of Israel, the east wind blew off the desert: hot, dry, and scorching — what we would call a sirocco. KJV calls it "vehement" — fierce, violent. It is the LORD's fourth and final "prepared" instrument in the book.

Micah

Author: Micah the Morasthite — his name means "who is like the LORD?" A contemporary of Isaiah, Micah came from Moresheth-gath in the Shephelah, the foothills of Judah southwest of Jerusalem. He was a country prophet rather than a court prophet — a man of the villages who knew the bite of corrupt judges, dishonest merchants, and grasping landowners firsthand.

Date written: c. 735–700 BC, during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah (1:1). His ministry spans the fall of the northern kingdom (722 BC) and the Assyrian invasion of Judah under Sennacherib (701 BC).

Written to: Both kingdoms — "Hear, all ye people" (1:2). The book addresses both Samaria, the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel, and Jerusalem, the capital of the southern kingdom of Judah.

Setting: Assyria is rising. The northern kingdom is in its final years and will fall to Sargon II in 722 BC. Judah is corrupt: princes who hate good and love evil, prophets who divine for money, priests who teach for hire, judges who take bribes, rich men full of violence, merchants with false balances, idolatry on the high places. Micah preaches judgment on both kingdoms — and then comfort: the LORD will gather a remnant; a ruler will come forth from Bethlehem Ephratah whose goings forth are from everlasting; the mountain of the LORD's house will be established above the hills, and all nations shall flow to it.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 735–700 BC under Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, through the Assyrian destruction of Samaria (722 BC) and Sennacherib's invasion of Judah (701 BC).

Contemporaries: Isaiah ministered in Jerusalem alongside Micah, while Hosea was still active in the dying northern kingdom and the Assyrian kings Tiglath-Pileser III, Shalmaneser V, Sargon II, and Sennacherib ruled in sequence.

Big themes:

- Judgment on the corrupt leaders of both Samaria and Jerusalem
- The social sins of injustice, oppression, false weights, and violence
- The future glory of the mountain of the LORD's house and the universal reign of peace
- The Messiah from Bethlehem whose origins are from everlasting (5:2)
- What the LORD requires (6:8 — do justly, love mercy, walk humbly)
- The LORD's incomparable mercy in pardoning iniquity and casting sins into the depths of the sea (7:18–20)
- The truth of God's covenant promises to Abraham and Jacob (7:20)

Key passages: Micah 4:1–3 (the mountain of the LORD's house); 5:2 (Bethlehem the birthplace of the Messiah); 6:6–8 (what doth the LORD require); 7:18–20 (Who is a God like unto thee).

How it fits:* Micah is the Old Testament's clearest single prediction of the Messiah's birthplace — Bethlehem Ephratah — quoted by the chief priests in Matthew 2:6 when Herod asked where the Christ should be born. Micah 6:8 — "do justly, love mercy, walk humbly with thy God" — is among the most quoted ethical passages in all of Scripture. With Isaiah, his contemporary, Micah is the major prophet of the 8th-century BC Assyrian crisis as it bore on Judah. He sees the storm coming, names the sins that brought it, and points past the storm to the Ruler from Bethlehem and to the God who delights in mercy.*

Chapter 1

The LORD comes down from His holy temple to tread upon the high places of the earth. Samaria will be made a heap of rubble — her images beaten to pieces and her idols burned. The wound is incurable and reaches to the gate of Jerusalem itself. Micah mourns for the cities of Judah one by one.

■ NAME NOTE — Micah (MY-kuh) — "Who is like the LORD?" — A prophet from Moresheth-gath in the Shephelah of Judah, a contemporary of Isaiah. He prophesied during the 8th century BC, warning of judgment on both Israel and Judah while also foretelling the birth of the Messiah in Bethlehem. He is called "the Morasthite" — that is, the man from Moresheth.

■ NAME NOTE — Moresheth (MOR-eh-sheth) — Also called Moresheth-gath (1:14) — Micah's hometown, a small village in the Shephelah (the foothills of Judah) about twenty-five miles southwest of Jerusalem, near Gath and Lachish. Micah was a country prophet from a country town.

■ NAME NOTE — Samaria (suh-MAIR-ee-uh) — The capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel, built by King Omri on a hill he bought from Shemer (1 Kings 16:24). It stands here for the whole northern kingdom — the ten tribes — which fell to Assyria in 722 BC.

■ NAME NOTE — Jerusalem (juh-ROO-suh-lem) — "city of peace" — The capital of the southern kingdom of Judah, the city of David, the place of the temple. It stands here for the whole southern kingdom — Judah and Benjamin.

■ NAME NOTE — Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah — Three successive kings of Judah whose reigns span Micah's ministry (c. 750–686 BC). Jotham was a good king; Ahaz was wicked and brought idolatry into Jerusalem; Hezekiah was a great reformer whose prayer turned away the Assyrian invasion of 701 BC (2 Kings 18–20; Isaiah 36–39).

Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

Hear, all You peoples. Listen, O earth, and everything in it. Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you — the Lord from His holy temple.
- 3

For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

For the LORD comes forth out of His place. He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.
- 4

And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

The mountains will melt beneath Him, and the valleys will split apart — like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep slope.
- 5

For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem?

■ NAME NOTE — Jacob (JAY-kub) — "supplanter, heel-grabber" — The son of Isaac, grandson of Abraham. God renamed him Israel (Genesis 32:28). "Jacob" here stands for the whole covenant people descended from him — both kingdoms together.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Transgression is the open, deliberate stepping over of God's law — sin as rebellion, not just as mistake.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "transgression" is crossing the line, "iniquity" is the crooked, bent quality of a heart turned away from God.

Micah's home village of Moresheth was nearby — "Moresheth-gath" means "Moresheth near Gath." "Tell it not in Gath" echoes David's lament for Saul (2 Samuel 1:20): do not let the enemies of God's people rejoice.*

For the one who lives in Maroth waited anxiously for good — but evil came down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

You who live in Lachish, harness the chariot to the swift horse. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in You.

■ NAME NOTE — Lachish (LAY-kish) — A major fortified city in the Shephelah of Judah, second only to Jerusalem in importance. Sennacherib of Assyria besieged and captured Lachish in 701 BC — a campaign he commemorated in carved reliefs in his palace at Nineveh. Micah says the sins of the northern kingdom had taken root here first.

Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

Therefore You will give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath. The houses of Achzib will be a deception to the kings of Israel.
- 15

Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.

I will yet bring an heir to You, O inhabitant of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

■ NAME NOTE — Adullam (uh-DUL-am) — A town in the Shephelah of Judah, famous for the cave where David hid from Saul and gathered his band of outcasts (1 Samuel 22:1). "The glory of Israel will come to Adullam" — that is, the leaders of the land will flee to caves and hiding places, as David once did.

Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

Make Yourself bald and shave Your head for the children You delight in. Make Your baldness as wide as the eagle's, for they have gone from You into captivity.

Chapter 2

Woe to those who lie awake plotting wickedness and seize fields and houses by violence. The LORD plans disaster against this family of oppressors. False prophets tell the people what they want to hear, but the LORD will gather the remnant of Israel like sheep in a fold, and their king will pass through before them with the LORD at their head.

■ WORD NOTE — The remnant (REM-nunt) — A key theological term in the Old Testament prophets. The "remnant" is the small faithful portion of God's people preserved through judgment — a believing minority left after the unfaithful many have fallen. Through the remnant God keeps His covenant promises alive. Paul applies the term to the saved among Israel in Romans 9–11.

Chapter 3

Micah rebukes the leaders of Israel who hate good and love evil, who tear the skin from the people and eat their flesh. The prophets lead the people astray — they cry "Peace" when they are fed, but declare war against those who give them nothing. Because of them, Zion will be plowed like a field and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble.

Chapter 4

In the last days the mountain of the LORD's house will be established above all mountains, and nations will flow to it. - 5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. For all peoples will walk, every one in the name of his god — but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
- 6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted; In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame. I will gather the one driven away, and the one I have afflicted.
- 7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. I will make the lame a remnant, and the one cast far off a strong nation. The LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from now on, even for ever.
- 8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. And You, O tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion — to You it will come, even the former dominion. The kingdom will come to the daughter of Jerusalem.
- 9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. Now why do You cry out aloud? Is there no king in You? Has Your counselor perished, that pains have seized You like a woman in labor?
- 10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. Be in pain and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor. ■ WORD NOTE — Heathen (HEE-thun) — Used here (and at 5:8, 5:15, 7:16) for the Gentile nations outside Israel's covenant — the pagan peoples in their ignorance of the true God. KJV uses "heathen" throughout the prophets for these nations.

Chapter 5

Out of Bethlehem Ephratah — small among the clans of Judah — will come forth the ruler of Israel, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. ■ NAME NOTE — Bethlehem Ephratah (BETH-leh-hem EF-rah-tah) — Bethlehem means "house of bread"; Ephratah ("fruitful") is the older name of the district. Bethlehem was the hometown of David (1 Samuel 16:1) and the birthplace of Jesus Christ (Matthew 2:1, Luke 2:4). This verse is the Old Testament's single clearest prediction of the Messiah's birthplace — quoted by the chief priests to Herod in Matthew 2:6. "Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting" testifies to the eternal pre-existence of the Christ.

When he treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight principal men. |

■ NAME NOTE — Assyria (uh-SEE-ree-uh) — The empire to the northeast of Israel, with its capital at Nineveh. In Micah's day Assyria was the rising power of the ancient world. It destroyed the northern kingdom (Samaria) in 722 BC and invaded Judah under Sennacherib in 701 BC. In this passage "the Assyrian" stands for every enemy of God's people that will be broken before the Messiah.

- 6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders. They will lay waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances. So He will deliver us from the Assyrian when He comes into our land and treads within our borders.
- 7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men. The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass — which does not wait for man nor delay for the sons of men.

■ WORD NOTE — Gentiles (JEN-tylez) — The nations outside Israel; the same peoples elsewhere called "heathen." "Gentile" comes from Latin and "heathen" from Old English, but both translate the same Hebrew word (goyim).

Chapter 6

The LORD brings His case against Israel before the mountains. He asks what He has done to weary them — He brought them out of Egypt, sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before them. O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

O My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered Him — from Shittim to Gilgal — that You may know the righteousness of the LORD."

■ NAME NOTE — Balak (BAY-lak) — King of Moab in the days of Moses; he hired the prophet Balaam to curse Israel as they camped on the plains of Moab before entering the Promised Land (Numbers 22–24). God turned every curse into a blessing.

■ NAME NOTE — Balaam (BAY-lum) — Son of Beor; a prophet from Pethor on the Euphrates whom Balak hired to curse Israel. Though he spoke true words from God when forced (Numbers 23–24), Balaam loved the wages of unrighteousness (2 Peter 2:15) and later led Israel into sin at Peor (Numbers 25, 31:16; Revelation 2:14).

■ NAME NOTE — Beor (BEE-or) — The father of Balaam.

■ NAME NOTE — Shittim (SHIT-tim) — Also called Abel-shittim; the last camp of Israel on the east side of the Jordan, on the plains of Moab opposite Jericho. It was here Balak and Balaam's plot unfolded and here Israel sinned with the daughters of Moab (Numbers 25).

■ NAME NOTE — Gilgal (GIL-gal) — The first camp of Israel west of the Jordan after they crossed on dry ground under Joshua. Here they were circumcised and kept the first Passover in the land (Joshua 4–5). "From Shittim to Gilgal" sums up Israel's miraculous entry into the Promised Land.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. The Hebrew word here (chesed) is the great covenant word — God's faithful, loyal love to His people, which He commands them to show one another. KJV translates it "mercy" or "lovingkindness," never "steadfast love."

- For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels. So I will make you a desolation, and her inhabitants a hissing. Therefore you will bear the reproach of My people.

■ NAME NOTE — Omri (OM-ree) — King of the northern kingdom of Israel c. 885–874 BC; founder of the dynasty that included his son Ahab. Omri built Samaria as his capital (1 Kings 16:24) and "did worse than all that were before him" (1 Kings 16:25). His "statutes" were the corrupt patterns of idolatry and injustice he established.

■ NAME NOTE — Ahab (AY-hab) — Son of Omri; king of Israel c. 874–853 BC. He married Jezebel of Sidon, set up Baal worship in Samaria, and persecuted the prophets of the LORD (1 Kings 16–22). The "house of Ahab" stands for the most concentrated wickedness of the northern kingdom.

Micah laments — the godly man has perished, every man hunts his brother with a net, and a man's enemies are the men of his own household. Yet "I will look to the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation." The LORD will shepherd His people again, the nations will see and be ashamed. Who is a God like the LORD — who pardons iniquity and casts all their sins into the depths of the sea?

- 1 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit. Woe is me! For I am like one when they have gathered the summer fruits, like the grape gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat. My soul desired the firstripe fruit.
- 2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. The good man has perished from the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood. Every man hunts his brother with a net.
- 3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. They do evil with both hands eagerly. The prince asks, and the judge asks for a bribe. The great man speaks out his evil desire, and so they weave it together.
- 4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity. The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen — your visitation — comes. Now will be their confusion.
- 5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. Do not trust in a friend. Do not put confidence in a guide. Keep the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.
- 6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. For the son dishonors the father. The daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies are the men of his own house.
- 7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. Therefore I will look to the LORD. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

Nahum

Date written: Between 663 BC (when Thebes fell, mentioned as past in 3:8) and 612 BC (when Nineveh itself fell). Probably c. 650–620 BC.

Written to: Nineveh — the capital of the Assyrian Empire — and by extension to Judah, as comfort. The name "Nahum" means "comfort"; the whole book is the comfort that Assyria, the great oppressor, will fall.

Setting: A century before Nahum, the prophet Jonah had been sent to Nineveh, and the city had repented. By Nahum's day, Assyria had returned to its ferocious cruelty — sacking Israel (722 BC), besieging Jerusalem (701 BC), and ruling the ancient Near East with terror. Nahum prophesies the imminent and total destruction of Nineveh. His prophecy was fulfilled with stunning precision in 612 BC when a coalition of Medes, Babylonians, and Scythians sacked Nineveh so thoroughly that the city was lost to history until rediscovered in the 1840s.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 650–620 BC under the reigns of Manasseh and Josiah of Judah, after Assyria's sack of Thebes in 663 BC but before the coalition of Medes and Babylonians destroyed Nineveh in 612 BC.

Contemporaries: Zephaniah was preaching in Jerusalem in the same window, while Jeremiah was just beginning his ministry and the young king Josiah was preparing the reforms of 622 BC.

Big themes:

- The LORD is slow to anger but great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked (1:3)
- Divine judgment falls on nations that exalt themselves in cruelty
- The LORD is a stronghold in the day of trouble for those who trust Him (1:7)
- God's vengeance is real, righteous, and certain
- The eventual ruin of every oppressor — the comfort of the oppressed in God's certain justice

Key passages: Nahum 1:3 (slow to anger, great in power); 1:7 (the LORD is good, a stronghold); 1:15 (the feet of him that bringeth good tidings — quoted in Rom 10:15); 3:1 (woe to the bloody city).

How it fits: Nahum is the OT's chief oracle against Assyria. With Jonah (also addressed to Nineveh), it forms a two-book commentary on God's patience and God's wrath: Jonah preaches that God will spare a repentant Nineveh; Nahum, a century later, preaches that God will destroy an impenitent Nineveh. The doxological opening (1:2–8) is one of the OT's strongest celebrations of God's avenging holiness. Nahum 1:15's "feet of him that bringeth good tidings" is taken up by Paul in Romans 10:15 and applied to gospel preachers.

Chapter 1

The LORD is a jealous God who avenges and is furious — He will not acquit the wicked. He is longsuffering, but His way is in the whirlwind and the storm. He is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble, and He knows those who trust in Him. Nineveh's destruction is decreed — the LORD will make an utter end of her.

■ NAME NOTE — Nahum (NAY-hum) — "comfort, consolation" — The Hebrew prophet who wrote this book; his very name proclaims the book's message: Assyria's fall is the comfort of God's oppressed people.

■ NAME NOTE — Elkoshite (EL-kosh-ite) — From Elkosh, an unknown town (possibly in southern Judah, possibly in Galilee; some traditions place it in Assyria itself among the Israelite exiles).

- 2

God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

God is jealous, and the LORD takes vengeance. The LORD takes vengeance and is filled with fury. The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries, and He reserves wrath for His enemies.
- 3

The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.
- 4

He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; He dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languishes.

■ NAME NOTE — Bashan, Carmel, Lebanon — Three famously fertile regions of the Levant; the LORD's anger withers them. Bashan is the rich pastureland east of the Sea of Galilee; Carmel is the fruitful mountain ridge by the Mediterranean; Lebanon is the famous land of the great cedars.

Chapter 2

The destroyer advances against Nineveh — chariots race through the streets like lightning, the gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace dissolves. The city that was once the den of lions is plundered and emptied. The LORD of hosts declares He is against her, and her chariots will burn in the smoke.

Chapter 3

Woe to the bloody city of Nineveh — full of lies, robbery, and endless prey. The crack of whips, the rumble of wheels, the flash of swords fill the streets. ■ NAME NOTE — No / populous No (NO) — The KJV name for Thebes, the ancient capital of Upper Egypt, on the Nile. Habakkuk

Author: Habakkuk the prophet — he names himself in 1:1 and 3:1. He was very likely a Levitical temple musician, given the musical and liturgical features of chapter 3 ("Shigionoth," "Selah," and the closing dedication "To the chief singer on my stringed instruments").

Date written: c. 612–605 BC — after Assyria's fall and the destruction of Nineveh (612 BC), with Babylon (the Chaldeans) rising rapidly, but before Nebuchadnezzar's first invasion of Judah in 605 BC.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem — though the book is structured as a dialogue between the prophet and the LORD rather than as a sermon to the people.

Setting: Habakkuk is wrestling with God. He sees the wickedness of Judah — injustice, violence, perverted law, the wicked surrounding the righteous — and asks God how long this will go on. God answers: "Look — I am raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation, to punish you." Habakkuk is more troubled, not less. How can a holy God use a more wicked nation to punish a less wicked one? God answers again: the wicked will not endure; the just shall live by his faith; the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD. The book ends with the prophet's confession of trust — even when the fig tree does not blossom, even when the flock is cut off, "yet will I rejoice in the LORD."

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was preaching the same coming Babylonian judgment in Jerusalem, Daniel was about to be deported to Nebuchadnezzar's court, and Zephaniah's recent oracles still echoed in Judah.

Big themes:

- The problem of evil and divine silence — how long will God let wickedness go on?
- God's sovereign use of pagan nations as instruments of judgment
- The certainty of God's holy character even when His ways are mysterious
- The just shall live by his faith — the cornerstone verse of the Reformation
- Woe to the proud and violent — five woes pronounced over the Chaldeans
- The LORD is in His holy temple — silence the only proper response
- Rejoicing in God even when every visible blessing fails

Key passages: Habakkuk 1:2–4 (the prophet's complaint); 1:13 (a holy God who cannot look on iniquity); 2:4 ("the just shall live by his faith"); 2:14 (the earth filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD); 2:20 (let all the earth keep silence); 3:17–19 (the great confession of faith).

How it fits: Habakkuk's "the just shall live by his faith" (2:4) is quoted three times in the New Testament — Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, and Hebrews 10:38 — and it is the verse whose meaning, when grasped by Martin Luther, sparked the Protestant Reformation. It is the Old Testament's clearest single statement of justification by faith. The closing confession (3:17–19) is among the most beloved expressions of faith in trial in all of Scripture.

Chapter 1

Habakkuk cries out to the LORD: "How long shall I cry, and You will not hear?" Violence and wickedness surround him. The LORD answers: He is raising up the Chaldeans — a bitter and swift nation — to execute judgment. Habakkuk is astonished: How can a holy God use a nation more wicked than Judah to punish them?

■ NAME NOTE — Habakkuk (huh-BAK-uk) — "embrace" or "wrestler" — A prophet of Judah, very likely a Levitical temple musician, who wrestled with God in dialogue about evil and divine justice. His name is fitting: he embraces God and wrestles with Him at the same time.

| 2 | O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save! | O LORD, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear? I cry out to You of violence, and You will not save. |
| 3 | Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention. | Why do You show me iniquity, and make me look on grievance? Plundering and violence are before me, and there are those who stir up strife and contention. |
| 4 | Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth. | Therefore the law is slack, and judgment never goes forth. The wicked surround the righteous, so wrong judgment proceeds. |
| 5 | Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you. | Look among the heathen, and consider, and be greatly amazed. For I will work a work in your days that you would not believe, even if it were told you. |

- I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, who march through the breadth of the land to possess dwellings that are not theirs.

■ NAME NOTE — Chaldeans (kal-DEE-uns) — The Semitic people whose royal house dominated the neo-Babylonian Empire under Nabopolassar and his son Nebuchadnezzar. KJV consistently uses "Chaldeans" — never "Babylonians." They would invade Judah in 605, 597, and 586 BC, finally destroying Jerusalem and the temple.

Chapter 2

Habakkuk stands on his watchtower to wait for the LORD's answer. The LORD replies: "Write the vision and make it plain — the just shall live by his faith." Five woes follow against the arrogant conqueror — for plundering nations, building by bloodshed, filling the earth with violence, shaming his neighbor, and trusting in idols. "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HELL) — The place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant; the abode of the dead. KJV uses one word for what the Hebrew Sheol and Greek Hades/Gehenna name; modern translations sometimes weaken this to "the grave." Here in 2:5 the proud man's appetite is "enlarged as hell" — a bottomless hunger that swallows all and is never satisfied.

Chapter 3

Habakkuk prays in awe, remembering the LORD's mighty works — His glory covers the heavens, pestilence goes before Him, and He marches through the earth in indignation. Though the fig tree does not blossom, the vines fail, and the fields yield no food, yet Habakkuk will rejoice in the LORD and joy in the God of his salvation.

- ¹ A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth. A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

■ WORD NOTE — Shigionoth (shig-ee-OH-noth) — A musical or liturgical term in Hebrew; its precise meaning is uncertain. It appears in the title of Psalm 7 (in the singular, Shiggaion) and here in the plural. It likely indicates a passionate, irregular, or wandering style of song — fitting for the wild lyric that follows. Like Selah, it is preserved untranslated.

- ² O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy. O LORD, I have heard Your speech, and I was afraid. O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years; in the midst of the years make it known. In wrath remember mercy.
- ³ God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise.

■ WORD NOTE — Selah (SEH-lah) — A musical or liturgical interjection in Hebrew poetry; its meaning is uncertain — possibly "pause," "lift up," or a directive to the temple musicians to play an interlude. It appears throughout the Psalms and three times in this chapter (3:3, 3:9, 3:13). It is preserved untranslated as a feature of the original Hebrew text.

■ NAME NOTE — Teman (TEE-man) — A region of Edom, south of Judah; named for a grandson of Esau (Genesis 36:11). Often paired in Scripture with the wilderness setting of Israel's early encounters with God.

■ NAME NOTE — Paran (PAY-ran) — A mountainous region in the southern Sinai, associated with the giving of the law (Deuteronomy 33:2) and Israel's wilderness wanderings. Habakkuk pictures God advancing from the south, as at Sinai.

- ⁴ And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power. His brightness was like the light. He had rays coming out of His hand, and there was the hiding of His power.
- ⁵ Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet. Before Him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at His feet.

- 6

- He stood and measured the earth. He looked and drove apart the nations. The everlasting mountains were scattered, and the perpetual hills bowed down. His ways are everlasting.
- 7

I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.
- I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

■ NAME NOTE — Cushan (KOO-shan) — Likely a tribe of Midian or a region near it; otherwise obscure. Paired here with Midian as a southern people that trembled before the LORD's advance.

■ NAME NOTE — Midian (MID-ee-un) — A nomadic people descended from Abraham through Keturah (Genesis 25:1–2); recalled here for their defeat under Gideon (Judges 7), when the LORD threw their camp into terror.

Zephaniah

Author: Zephaniah — whose name means "the LORD hides" or "the LORD has hidden." He names himself in 1:1 as the son of Cushi, the great-great-grandson of Hizkiah (Hezekiah) the godly king of Judah. This gives Zephaniah the most distinguished pedigree of any of the writing prophets — he is of royal blood, kin to the kings of Judah.

Date written: c. 640–625 BC, during the reign of Josiah (640–609 BC), king of Judah. The book most likely belongs to the early years of Josiah's reign, before the great reform of 622 BC, since it still describes idolatry rampant in Jerusalem — Baal worship, Malcham, the host of heaven, and the Chemarim priests still serving openly.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem in the early years of Josiah's reign, with oracles also pronounced against the surrounding nations — Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia, and Assyria.

Setting: Judah had spent most of the previous century in deep apostasy under Manasseh and Amon. The young king Josiah was now on the throne. Reform was coming, but it had not yet come. Into this moment Zephaniah preached the great day of the LORD — a day of darkness and thick darkness, a day near and hastening greatly — first against Judah, then against the nations, and finally against all the earth. Yet beyond the judgment lies the surprising final note: a humble remnant gathered to call upon the LORD with one consent, and a singing King in the midst of His people.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 640–625 BC during the early years of Josiah's reign, while Assyria was tottering and Nabopolassar of Babylon was beginning to challenge it for empire.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was beginning his ministry, Nahum was announcing Nineveh's doom, and the boy-king Josiah was preparing the great reform that would follow the rediscovery of the law in 622 BC.

Big themes:

- The great day of the LORD — dark, near, hastening — a day of wrath, trouble, darkness, and the trumpet
- The universal scope of God's judgment — Judah, the nations, and the whole earth all fall under the same day
- The call to seek the LORD, seek righteousness, seek meekness while the door is still open (2:3)
- The gathering of a poor and humble remnant who trust in the name of the LORD
- The King in the midst of His people — rejoicing over them with joy, resting in His love, rejoicing over them with singing (3:17)
- The conversion of the nations to a pure language calling upon the name of the LORD with one consent (3:9)

Key passages: Zephaniah 1:14–18 (the great day of the LORD); 2:3 (seek the LORD, seek meekness); 3:9 (a pure language); 3:14–17 (the singing King in the midst of His people)

How it fits: Zephaniah is the OT's clearest single oracle on the day of the LORD as a global, cosmic, eschatological day. The book moves in three movements: universal judgment falling first on Judah (ch. 1), then on the surrounding nations (ch. 2), then the final note — a singing King in the midst of a saved and rejoicing remnant (3:14–17). The image of the LORD rejoicing over His own people "with singing" is one of the most stunning portraits of God's affection for His people in all of Scripture. The book that opens with utter desolation closes with the heart of God making music over His redeemed.

Chapter 1

The LORD will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the land — man and beast, birds and fish, the stumbling blocks with the wicked. He will stretch out His hand against Judah and Jerusalem and cut off every remnant of Baal worship. The great day of the LORD is near — a day of wrath, distress, darkness, and alarm. Neither silver nor gold will deliver them.

■ NAME NOTE — Amon (AY-mon) — King of Judah 642–640 BC; son of the wicked Manasseh and father of the godly Josiah; assassinated by his own servants after a brief reign of two years (2 Kgs 21:18–26).

■ NAME NOTE — Baal (BAY-al) — "lord, master" — The chief god of the Canaanites; a storm-and-fertility deity whose worship plagued Israel and Judah for centuries. The most persistent rival to the worship of the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE — Chemarims (KEM-ah-rims) — KJV term for the idolatrous black-robed priests of the high places; servants of false gods in Judah. The word appears again at 2 Kings 23:5 and Hosea 10:5.

■ WORD NOTE — Chemarims (KEM-ah-rims) — The KJV's word for the idolatrous priests of Judah's high places. They were the official priests of Baal and the false gods — black-robed servants of the very religions the LORD had commanded Israel to tear down. Josiah would later put them out of office (2 Kgs 23:5).

■ NAME NOTE — Malcham (MAL-kam) — KJV form of Milcom / Molech; the chief god of the Ammonites, worshiped with child sacrifice (1 Kgs 11:5; 2 Kgs 23:10). The double-worship described here — swearing by the LORD and by Malcham — is the very split-heart idolatry the prophets condemned.

■ WORD NOTE — Malcham — KJV form of Milcom, also called Molech in other passages. The Ammonite god to whom children were burned in the fire — the most savage idolatry of the surrounding nations. Solomon first brought this worship into Jerusalem (1 Kgs 11:5–7), and it festered there for centuries until Josiah destroyed it (2 Kgs 23:10).

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great theme of the prophets, and the central theme of Zephaniah. It is a day fixed by God — a day of His direct action — when He breaks into history to judge sin, vindicate His people, and establish His kingdom. The day has near fulfillments (the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC, the fall of Nineveh in 612 BC) and a final, cosmic fulfillment yet to come. Zephaniah is the OT's clearest single oracle on this day.

Chapter 2

The LORD calls on the humble of the land to seek righteousness and meekness before the day of His anger. He pronounces judgment against the nations: Philistia will be destroyed, Moab and Ammon judged like Sodom and Gomorrah, Ethiopia will fall by the sword, and Assyria will be made desolate — Nineveh a dwelling for wild beasts.

Chapter 3

Woe to Jerusalem — the oppressing city that does not obey the LORD. Her princes are roaring lions, her judges are evening wolves, her prophets are treacherous, her priests have profaned the sanctuary. Yet after judgment, the LORD will turn to the peoples a pure language. He will take away the proud and leave a meek and humble remnant. "The LORD your God in your midst is mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over you with joy, He will rest in His love, He will joy over you with singing."

But they rose early and corrupted all their doings.
- 8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. Therefore wait You upon Me," says the LORD, "until the day that I rise up to the prey. ■ WORD NOTE — One consent — KJV idiom meaning "with one shoulder" — like men shouldering the same yoke together. It is the picture of the nations united in worship of the LORD, every shoulder bent in the same direction. The promise is of a great Gentile turning, when the cleansed peoples speak with a pure language and serve the LORD as one.

Haggai

Author: Haggai the prophet — his name means "festal" or "my feast." He is a post-exilic prophet contemporary with Zechariah; the book is structured around four dated messages he delivered in 520 BC.

Date written: 520 BC — the second year of Darius I of Persia. The book gives precise dates for each of the four messages: Aug 29, Oct 17, Dec 18, and again Dec 18 of that year.

Written to: The returned Jewish exiles in Jerusalem and Judah — especially their civil leader Zerubbabel (the governor) and their religious leader Joshua (the high priest).

Setting: About 16 years before Haggai prophesied, a first wave of Jewish exiles had returned from Babylon under Zerubbabel (538 BC) and begun rebuilding the temple. After laying the foundation, they had stopped — discouraged by opposition, distracted by their own homes, and content to leave God's house in ruins. By 520 BC, drought and economic hardship had set in. Haggai delivers four messages calling the people to "Consider your ways" — to see that their poverty is divine discipline for neglecting God's house — and to rise up and build. Within 23 days the work resumes; within four years the second temple is complete.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied in 520 BC under Darius I of Persia, eighteen years after Cyrus's decree had freed the exiles and only a few decades after the Persians had conquered Babylon.

Contemporaries: Zechariah began prophesying two months after Haggai, while Zerubbabel served as governor of Judah and Joshua as high priest; Ezra and Nehemiah would arrive in Jerusalem in the following generations.

Big themes:

- Covenant priorities — build God's house before paneling your own; what you put first reveals what you truly worship
- Divine providence — "I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come"
- The greater glory of the latter temple — fulfilled when Christ Himself walked into it
- Zerubbabel as God's chosen signet — the Messianic line preserved through the post-exilic governor of Judah
- The LORD of hosts — the One who stirs the spirit of leaders and people alike to do His work

Key passages: Hag 1:5–7 ("Consider your ways"); 2:6–9 (the desire of all nations and the glory of the latter house); 2:23 (Zerubbabel as signet).

How it fits: Haggai is one of three post-exilic prophets (with Zechariah and Malachi). Together, these three close the OT canon. Haggai is the shortest and most focused — four messages, one purpose: rebuild the temple. The Messianic note in 2:7 ("the desire of all nations") is quoted in Hebrews 12:26–27 as pointing forward to Christ. Zerubbabel appears in the genealogies of Matthew 1:12 and Luke 3:27, preserving the Davidic line through which the Christ would come.

Chapter 1

The returned exiles have built their own paneled houses while the LORD's house lies in ruins. Because of this, the LORD has withheld rain and blessing — they sow much but harvest little. Haggai calls them to go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. Zerubbabel, Joshua, and all the remnant obeyed, and the LORD stirred their spirit to begin the work.

■ NAME NOTE — Haggai (HAG-eye or HAG-ay-eye) — "festal, festive" — A post-exilic prophet of c. 520 BC; otherwise unknown personally. His four dated messages make up this book.

■ NAME NOTE — Darius (duh-RY-us) — Darius I "the Great," king of Persia 522–486 BC; the same Darius who appears in Ezra 5–6 and Daniel 6 (though Darius the Mede in Dan 6 is debated as a different ruler).

■ NAME NOTE — Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-uh-bul) — "seed of Babylon" or "born in Babylon" — Davidic-line governor of post-exilic Judah; led the first wave of returnees from Babylon (Ezra 2:2); rebuilt the foundation of the second temple; God's chosen signet (Hag 2:23); ancestor of Christ (Matt 1:12).

■ NAME NOTE — Shealtiel (sheh-AL-tee-el) — "I have asked of God" — Father of Zerubbabel; son of Jeconiah the captive king (Matt 1:12).

■ NAME NOTE — Joshua (JOSH-yoo-uh) — "the LORD saves" — The high priest of the post-exilic restoration (also called "Jeshua" in Ezra-Nehemiah). Featured prominently in the visions of Zechariah 3.

■ NAME NOTE — Josedech (JOS-eh-dek) — KJV "Josedech" (in Ezra-Nehemiah spelled "Jozadak"); the father of Joshua the high priest; carried into Babylon when Jerusalem fell (1 Chr 6:14–15).

■ WORD NOTE — LORD of hosts (LORD of HOSTS) — Hebrew Yahweh Sabaoth — "the LORD of armies." A title for God as the Commander of all heavenly and earthly forces; the One who has every host at His disposal. The title appears 14 times in this short book and underscores that the God calling Israel to build is the God who commands every army in heaven and on earth.

Chapter 2

The LORD encourages the builders: though this temple seems as nothing compared to Solomon's, "The desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory." The glory of this latter house will be greater than the former. The LORD promises that from this day He will bless them, and He declares Zerubbabel His chosen servant — "I will make you as a signet ring, for I have chosen you."

Zechariah

Author: Zechariah ("the LORD remembers") the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet (1:1). A post-exilic prophet and almost certainly a priest as well — Iddo is listed among the priests who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel (Neh 12:4, 16). Zechariah is a contemporary of Haggai and a younger man; his ministry begins two months after Haggai's, and he is described in 2:4 as a "young man."

Date written: c. 520–480 BC. The eight night visions of chapters 1–6 are precisely dated to the second year of Darius the Persian (520 BC). The oracles of chapters 7–8 are dated to the fourth year of Darius (518 BC). Chapters 9–14 are undated and were likely composed several decades later, after the temple was complete and the post-exilic community had matured.

Written to: The returned Jewish exiles in Jerusalem and Judah — especially the two leaders of the restoration, Zerubbabel the governor and Joshua the high priest. Through them, the book speaks to the whole post-exilic remnant, and to the church in every age.

Setting: The same setting as Haggai. The temple foundation has been laid; the work has stalled for sixteen years; Haggai has just begun preaching the people back to work. Two months into Haggai's ministry, Zechariah begins his own. Where Haggai preaches with the urgency of a foreman, Zechariah preaches with the imagery of an apocalyptic seer — eight night visions in a single night (chs. 1–6), then two years of oracles on fasting and the future glory of Zion (chs. 7–8), then late in life, twin oracles of the coming King and the coming Day (chs. 9–14). Zechariah is the most extensively Messianic prophet of the OT after Isaiah.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied from 520 BC into the early decades of the fifth century under Darius I and possibly into the reign of Xerxes I, as the second temple was completed in 516 BC and the Persian empire stretched from Egypt to India.

Contemporaries: Haggai was prophesying alongside him in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel and Joshua led the post-exilic community, and across the empire Daniel had only recently died and Esther's generation was rising.

Big themes:

- God's jealous love for Zion — "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy" (1:14)
- The cleansing of the high priest as a type of justification — filthy garments removed, fine garments given, iniquity taken away (ch. 3)
- The BRANCH — the Messiah who is both King and Priest, who builds the temple of the LORD (3:8; 6:12–13)
- "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts" (4:6)
- The King coming to Zion lowly, riding on an ass (9:9)
- The betrayal of the Shepherd for thirty pieces of silver, thrown to the potter (11:12–13)

- The mourning over Him whom they have pierced (12:10)
 - The smitten Shepherd and the scattered sheep (13:7)
 - The Day of the LORD when His feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives (14:4)
 - The universal reign of the LORD as King over all the earth (14:9)
- Key passages:* Zech 1:14–17; 3:8–10; 4:6; 6:12–13; 9:9; 11:12–13; 12:10; 13:1; 13:7; 14:4–9

How it fits: Zechariah is the most Messianic of the Minor Prophets and one of the most Messianic books in the entire OT. It is quoted or alluded to repeatedly in the Passion narratives — the King on a donkey (Matt 21:5; John 12:15), the thirty pieces of silver (Matt 27:9), the potter's field (Matt 27:9–10), the pierced One (John 19:37; Rev 1:7), the smitten Shepherd and scattered sheep (Matt 26:31). It is quoted heavily in the book of Revelation — the four horsemen, the two olive trees, the riders on the horses. Together with Daniel, Zechariah provides the OT framework for NT apocalyptic. The closing chapter (14) is the OT's clearest single picture of the second coming of Christ to the Mount of Olives.

Chapter 1

The LORD calls the people to return to Him, not to be like their fathers who ignored the prophets. Zechariah sees a vision of a man riding a red horse among the myrtle trees — the horsemen report that all the earth sits still and is at rest. The LORD declares He is sore displeased with the nations at ease and will return to Jerusalem with mercies; His house will be rebuilt.

■ NAME NOTE — Zechariah (zek-ah-RYE-ah) — "the LORD remembers" — A post-exilic prophet and priest who ministered alongside Haggai in Jerusalem beginning in 520 BC, in the second year of Darius the Persian. His name itself is the theme of his book: God remembers His covenant, His city, and His promise of Messiah.

■ NAME NOTE — Berechiah (ber-eh-KYE-ah) — "the LORD blesses" — The father of Zechariah, named here to identify the prophet. Christ refers to him in Matt 23:35.

■ NAME NOTE — Iddo (ID-doh) — "timely" or "His witness" — Zechariah's grandfather; one of the priests who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel (Neh 12:4, 16). This places Zechariah in a priestly line as well as a prophetic one.

■ WORD NOTE — LORD of hosts — A title that appears more than 50 times in Zechariah. "Hosts" means "armies" — the heavenly armies of angels and the starry hosts of the sky. The LORD of hosts is God as Commander of all heaven's forces and Ruler of all that He has made. Modern translations that render this "LORD Almighty" lose the military imagery; this version keeps the KJV form throughout.

■ WORD NOTE — The angel of the LORD — A figure who appears throughout the OT, often speaking and acting as God Himself yet distinguished from the Father. He receives worship that no created angel would receive (Josh 5:14), forgives sin (Ex 23:21), and identifies Himself as God (Ex 3:2–6). Christian tradition has long understood the angel of the LORD to be a pre-incarnate appearance of the Son of God — Christ before His birth in Bethlehem. He appears again and again in Zechariah, both interpreting visions and standing among His people.

- Then I said, "What are these coming to do?" And He said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up His head. But these craftsmen have come to terrify them and to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Chapter 2

Zechariah sees a man with a measuring line going to measure Jerusalem. An angel declares that Jerusalem will be inhabited as towns without walls because of the multitude of people and cattle. The LORD Himself will be a wall of fire around her and the glory in her midst. "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for I am coming and I will dwell in your midst."

Chapter 3

Zechariah sees Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, with Satan at his right hand to accuse him. ■ NAME NOTE — Joshua (JOSH-yoo-ah) — "the LORD saves" — The high priest of the post-exilic community, son of Jehozadak. The same name in Hebrew as the Joshua who succeeded Moses, and the same name in Hebrew as "Jesus" in the NT. Joshua and Zerubbabel together led the rebuilding of the temple (Ezra 3; Hag 1:1). Here in Zech 3, his cleansing pictures the justification of every sinner.

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tan) — "the adversary" or "the accuser" — The chief enemy of God and of God's people; the one who tempted Eve in Eden (Gen 3), accused Job before the throne (Job 1–2), and tempted Christ in the wilderness (Matt 4). Here he accuses Joshua the high priest, and is rebuked by the LORD Himself.

■ WORD NOTE — The BRANCH — A Messianic title used by Isaiah (Isa 11:1; "a Branch shall grow out of his roots"), Jeremiah (Jer 23:5; 33:15; "a righteous Branch"), and Zechariah (3:8; 6:12). The Hebrew word means a fresh green shoot springing from a cut-down tree — a picture of the Messiah coming from the line of David after the kingdom has been cut down. The KJV preserves it in all-caps as a name; the modern column keeps that exactly. In 6:12 the BRANCH builds the temple of the LORD and is both King and Priest — fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

Zechariah sees a golden candlestick with seven lamps and two olive trees on either side. The angel declares to Zerubbabel: "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of hosts." The mountain before Zerubbabel will become a plain, and he will bring forth the headstone with shouts of "Grace, grace to it!" The two olive trees are the two anointed ones who stand before the Lord of the whole earth.

And I said, "I have looked, and there is a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it, with seven pipes to the seven lamps that are on the top of it. |
| 3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. | And two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on its left side." |
| 4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? | So I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" |
| 5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. | Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do You not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord." |
| 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. | Then He answered and said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. |

■ NAME NOTE — Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-ah-bel) — "seed of Babylon" or "born in Babylon" — The governor of Judah after the return from exile; a descendant of David through King Jehoiachin, and an ancestor of Christ in both genealogies (Matt 1:12; Luke 3:27). He led the rebuilding of the temple alongside Joshua the high priest. Haggai and Zechariah both addressed prophecies directly to him; in Haggai 2:23 the LORD calls him "My signet ring," a sign of restored Davidic kingship.

anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.* Then He said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

Chapter 5

Zechariah sees a flying scroll — the curse going out over the whole land against every thief and every one who swears falsely. He then sees a woman called Wickedness sitting in a basket, and two women with wings like the wings of a stork carry the basket away to the land of Shinar to build a house for it.

Chapter 6

Zechariah sees four chariots with horses of different colors going out from between two mountains of brass — the four spirits of heaven going throughout the earth. The LORD commands Zechariah to make crowns for Joshua the high priest and declare: "The man whose name is the BRANCH shall build the temple of the LORD, and He shall bear the glory and sit and rule on His throne — and He shall be a priest on His throne."

Chapter 7

The people ask whether they should continue fasting as they have done during the seventy years of exile. The LORD replies: "When you fasted, did you really fast for Me?" He calls for true justice, mercy, and compassion — not empty rituals. Their fathers refused to listen and made their hearts like flint, so great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Chapter 8

The LORD declares He is jealous for Zion with great fury. He will return and dwell in Jerusalem, and it will be called the city of truth. Old men and old women will again sit in the streets, and boys and girls will play in them. The fasts of mourning will become feasts of joy. Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem.

Chapter 9

The LORD pronounces judgment against the surrounding nations — Hadrach, Damascus, Tyre, Sidon, and the Philistine cities. "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Your King is coming to you — righteous and having salvation, lowly and riding upon a donkey." He will speak peace to the heathen, and His dominion will be from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth.

- 1

The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.
- The burden of the word of the LORD against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be its resting place. For the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE — Hadrach (HAY-drak) — An ancient Aramean district north of Damascus, mentioned in Assyrian records but only here in the Bible. Marks the northern starting point of the LORD's sweep of judgment across the lands surrounding Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (dah-MAS-kus) — The ancient capital of Syria (Aram), one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. The leading city of the northern enemies of Israel throughout the OT period.

- 2

And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise.
- And Hamath shall also border on it, as shall Tyrus and Zidon, though they are very wise.

■ NAME NOTE — Hamath (HAY-math) — A major Syrian city on the Orontes River, north of Damascus; the traditional northern boundary of Israel's promised territory (Num 13:21; 1 Kings 8:65).

■ NAME NOTE — Tyrus and Zidon (TYE-rus, ZYE-don) — The KJV forms of Tyre and Sidon, the two great Phoenician seaports on the Mediterranean coast north of Israel. Famous for wealth, seafaring, and ungodly pride (cf. Ezek 26–28). KJV spelling preserved.

- 3

And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.
- And Tyrus built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like dust and fine gold like the mire of the streets.
- 4

Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.
- But the Lord will cast her out, and He will strike her power on the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire.
- 5

Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
- Ashkelon shall see it and fear; Gaza also shall see it and be very sorrowful, and Ekron too, for her hope shall be put to shame. The king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

■ NAME NOTE — Ekron, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ashdod — Four of the five chief cities of the Philistines on the southern coastal plain of Palestine. (The fifth, Gath, is not mentioned here.) Long-standing enemies of Israel since the days of the Judges and Samuel.

■ NAME NOTE — Greece (GREES) — Here, the rising Greek power that would within two centuries conquer the Persian empire under Alexander the Great (333 BC). This is the only place in the OT where Greece is named directly as a future enemy of Israel — fulfilled in the Maccabean wars against the Seleucid Greeks two and a half centuries after Zechariah wrote.

Chapter 10

The LORD will give showers of rain — ask Him, not the idols and diviners who speak vanity. The LORD of hosts has visited His flock and will make them as His goodly horse in battle. From Judah will come the cornerstone, the tent peg, and the battle bow. He will strengthen Judah and save Joseph, whistling for them and gathering them, for He has redeemed them.

1 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

Ask the LORD for rain in the time of the latter rain. So the LORD shall make bright clouds and give them showers of rain, and grass in the field for everyone.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie. They have told false dreams; they comfort in vain. Therefore the people went their way like a flock; they were troubled because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

My anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats. For the LORD of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and has made them like His majestic horse in battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

Out of Him came forth the corner, out of Him the nail, out of Him the battle bow, out of Him every ruler together.

Chapter 11

Zechariah acts out a parable as a shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter. He takes two staffs — Beauty and Bands — and feeds the flock. He is paid thirty pieces of silver, which the LORD tells him to cast to the potter in the house of the LORD. He breaks both staffs: the covenant with the peoples, and the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

Chapter 12

The LORD will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the surrounding peoples and a burdensome stone for all nations — whoever lifts it will be cut to pieces. In that day the LORD will defend Jerusalem. "They shall look upon Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him as one mourns for an only son."

- 1 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

The burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel, says the LORD, Who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within Him:
- 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

"I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the peoples round about, when they shall be in the siege against both Judah and Jerusalem.
- 3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

And on that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all peoples. All who try to lift it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.
- 4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with terror and its rider with madness. And I will keep My eyes open on the house of Judah, and I will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.
- 5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.'
- 6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

On that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf. And they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left. And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, in Jerusalem.

■ NAME NOTE — Hadadrimmon (had-ad-RIM-mon) — A place in the valley of Megiddon, almost certainly named for the death of King Josiah, who was killed in battle there by Pharaoh Necho (2 Kings 23:29; 2 Chron 35:22–25). The mourning for Josiah became a national lament, kept up for generations.

■ NAME NOTE — Megiddon (meh-GID-on) — The KJV form of Megiddo; a strategic fortress city at the pass into the plain of Jezreel. The site of many decisive battles in OT history; the name later becomes "Armageddon" (har-Megiddon, "mountain of Megiddo") in Rev 16:16.

Chapter 13

On that day a fountain will be opened for sin and for uncleanness. The LORD will cut off the names of the idols and remove the unclean spirit and the false prophets from the land. "Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, against the man that is My fellow" — the shepherd will be struck and the sheep scattered. Two parts will be cut off, but a third will be refined through fire and will call on the LORD's name.

They shall call on My name, and I will hear them. I will say, 'It is My people,' and they shall say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

Chapter 14

The day of the LORD comes — all nations gather against Jerusalem, the city is taken, but the LORD goes forth to fight against those nations. His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, and it will split in two. Living waters will flow from Jerusalem, and the LORD will be king over all the earth. Every survivor from the nations will go up year by year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

- 1 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. The day of the LORD is coming, and Your plunder shall be divided in Your midst.

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great theme of the prophets; the appointed day when the LORD brings final judgment on the wicked and final salvation to His people. Sometimes near (the fall of a particular kingdom), sometimes far (the second coming of Christ), and often both at once. Zechariah 14 is the OT's clearest single picture of the day of the LORD at the end of the age, when Christ returns to the Mount of Olives in person.

- 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle. The city shall be taken, the houses plundered, and the women ravished. Half of the city shall go out into captivity, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
- 3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. Then the LORD shall go out and fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle.

And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.
- And on that day His feet shall stand upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east. And the mount of Olives shall split in the middle toward the east and toward the west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

■ NAME NOTE — The mount of Olives — A ridge running north and south just east of Jerusalem, across the Kidron Valley from the temple mount. The place where David fled from Absalom (2 Sam 15:30), where Ezekiel saw the glory of the LORD depart from the temple (Ezek 11:23), where Christ taught the Olivet discourse (Matt 24), agonized in Gethsemane (Matt 26:36), and from which He ascended into heaven (Acts 1:9-12) — with the promise that He would return to the same place "in like manner" (Acts 1:11). Zech 14:4 is the OT prophecy of that return.

And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.
- And You shall flee to the valley of the mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal. Yes, You shall flee, just as You fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with You.

■ NAME NOTE — Azal (AY-zal) — A place east of Jerusalem; the far end of the new valley split open through the Mount of Olives. Mentioned only here in Scripture.

■ NAME NOTE — Uzziah (uh-ZYE-ah) — King of Judah c. 792-740 BC; one of the longer-reigning kings of the southern kingdom (2 Chron 26). The great earthquake "in the days of Uzziah" was so severe it was still remembered two centuries later in Zechariah's day, and Amos dated his prophecy by it (Amos 1:1).

- 16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles. And it shall come to pass that everyone who is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.
- 17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain. And it shall be that whoever does not come up of all the families of the earth to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, on them there shall be no rain.
- 18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. And if the family of Egypt does not go up and come, then they shall have no rain. There shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike the heathen that do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

- 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles. This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all nations that do not come up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
- 20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar. On that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD. And the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.
- 21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts. Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts. And all who sacrifice shall come and take of them, and boil in them. And on that day there shall no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Malachi

Author: Malachi — whose name means "my messenger." It may be a personal name or a prophetic title for an unnamed prophet; the book gives no biographical data, no genealogy, and no royal date marker.

Date written: c. 460–430 BC, after the second temple has been rebuilt (1:10, 3:1) and the priesthood and tithing system are in operation again. He is contemporary with — or just after — Nehemiah's reforms (Neh 13), rebuking the same generation for the same sins: intermarriage, withholding tithes, and contempt for the temple service.

Written to: The post-exilic Jewish community in Judah — especially the priests (1:6–2:9), who are leading the people in cynicism rather than worship.

Setting: A century after the return from Babylon, the initial fervor has long faded. The temple has been rebuilt for nearly a century but is treated as a chore. The priests are offering blemished animals — the leftovers — and yawning at their service (1:6–14). Men are divorcing their faithful wives to marry pagan women (2:10–16). The people are withholding tithes (3:8–10). They cynically ask, "Where is the God of judgment?" and complain that it is vain to serve God (2:17, 3:14). Malachi confronts these sins with the same disputation pattern eight times over: God states a charge; the people protest, "Wherein?"; God answers. The book closes with the promise of the coming Day of the LORD — preceded by the return of Elijah — when the wicked shall be ashes under the soles of the feet of the righteous, and the Sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 460–430 BC under Persian rule (Artaxerxes I), alongside or just after Nehemiah's reforms, and a century after Cyrus had first let the exiles return.

Contemporaries: Nehemiah was governing Jerusalem and confronting the same sins of intermarriage and tithe-neglect, and Ezra had recently led his own reforms; after Malachi the OT prophetic voice falls silent for four hundred years.

Big themes:

- God's covenant love for Jacob over Esau — the bedrock answer to "Wherein hast thou loved us?"

- The LORD's hatred of profaned worship and blemished offerings — half-hearted religion offends Him more than no religion at all

- The LORD hates putting away — He is the witness of the marriage covenant and detests faithless divorce

- The cynicism of "It is vain to serve God" — and the LORD's answer: a book of remembrance, and a day when the righteous shall be discerned from the wicked

- The promised messenger preparing the way of the Lord (3:1) — fulfilled in John the Baptist

- The great and dreadful day of the LORD — burning as an oven for the wicked, healing in His wings for those who fear His name

- The promise of Elijah's return (4:5–6) — fulfilled in John the Baptist per our Lord's own word (Matt 11:14, 17:12–13)

Key passages: Mal 1:2 (Jacob have I loved); 2:16 (he hateth putting away); 3:1 (My messenger); 3:6 (I am the LORD, I change not); 3:10 (windows of heaven and tithes); 4:2 (Sun of righteousness); 4:5–6 (Elijah)

How it fits: Malachi is the last book of the Old Testament, closing the canon with two great promises: the messenger who will prepare the way (3:1), and the Elijah who will come before the great and dreadful day (4:5–6). After Malachi, four hundred silent years pass before the angel Gabriel speaks to Zacharias in Luke 1 about the birth of John the Baptist — the very messenger Malachi foretold. The last image of the OT is the Sun of righteousness arising with healing in His wings — the last Messianic picture before the New Testament itself begins.

Chapter 1

"I have loved you," says the LORD — yet Israel asks, "How have You loved us?" The LORD points to His choice of Jacob over Esau. The priests dishonor His name by offering polluted bread, blind and lame animals on His altar. "From the rising of the sun to its going down, My name shall be great among the heathen," but Israel has profaned it.

■ NAME NOTE — Malachi (MAL-uh-kye) — "my messenger" — Possibly a personal name; possibly a title for an unnamed prophet writing under his prophetic designation. The last canonical prophet of the Old Testament.

■ WORD NOTE — LORD of hosts (LORD of HOHSTS) — A divine title used by Malachi twenty-four times in just four chapters. "Hosts" means armies — the angelic armies of heaven and the starry hosts above. The title declares that the LORD commands every power in heaven and earth. He is not a local or limited God; He is the Commander of every army that exists.

■ NAME NOTE — Esau (EE-saw) — "hairy" — Jacob's twin brother; father of the Edomites. The Old Testament's standing symbol of profane indifference to spiritual blessing — he sold his birthright for a single meal (Heb 12:16–17).

■ NAME NOTE — Jacob (JAY-kub) — "supplanter" — Esau's twin brother; father of the twelve tribes of Israel. The Old Testament's standing symbol of God's electing love. Paul quotes this very verse in Romans 9:13 — "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."

■ NAME NOTE — Edom (EE-dum) — The nation descended from Esau, settled south of the Dead Sea in the rugged region around Mount Seir. A standing enemy of Israel throughout the OT.

Chapter 2

The LORD rebukes the priests for failing to honor His name and corrupting the covenant of Levi. He condemns Judah for dealing treacherously — they have married the daughters of a foreign god and have broken faith with the wives of their youth. "The LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates putting away" — yet they have wearied the LORD with their words, saying, "Where is the God of judgment?"

■ NAME NOTE — Levi (LEE-vie) — Third son of Jacob; ancestor of the Levitical priesthood. "The covenant of Levi" is the perpetual covenant of priestly service first given in Numbers 18 and reaffirmed to Phinehas in Numbers 25:12–13. Malachi's complaint is that the present priests have corrupted that covenant.

- 10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers? Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why then do we deal treacherously each man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?
- 11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which He loved, and has married the daughter of a strange god.
- 12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. The LORD will cut off the man who does this — the master and the scholar — from the tabernacles of Jacob, and the one who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.
- 13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. And this is another thing You do: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, so that He no longer regards the offering, nor receives it with good will from Your hand.
- 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. Yet You say, "For what reason?" Because the LORD has been the witness between You and the wife of Your youth, against whom You have dealt treacherously — though she is Your companion, and the wife of Your covenant.

- 15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. Did He not make them one, though He had the remainder of the Spirit? And why one? That He might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to Your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

■ WORD NOTE — Putting away (PUT-ing uh-WAY) — KJV term for divorce — literally, sending the wife away. The KJV preserves the active, deliberate force of the Hebrew: a man putting his wife away. The verse says the LORD hates this — not merely the broken result, but the deliberate act of casting off the wife of one's covenant.

- 16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. "For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates putting away — for it covers one's garment with violence," says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore take heed to Your spirit, that You do not deal treacherously."
- 17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? You have wearied the LORD with Your words. Yet You say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that You say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of judgment?"

The LORD will send His messenger to prepare the way, and the Lord they seek will suddenly come to His temple. He will be like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap, purifying the sons of Levi. The LORD rebukes Israel for robbing Him in tithes and offerings: "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, and prove Me now — I will open the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing you cannot contain." A book of remembrance is written for those who fear the LORD.

- 1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. "I will send My messenger, and He shall prepare the way before Me. And the Lord whom You seek shall suddenly come to His temple — even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. He shall come," says the LORD of hosts.
- 2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: "But who can endure the day of His coming? Who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap.
- 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver. He shall purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness.
- 4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem shall be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.
- 5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. "And I will come near to You for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against the false swearers, against those who oppress the hired worker in His wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and those who turn aside the stranger from His right and do not fear Me," says the LORD of hosts.

■ WORD NOTE — Tithe (TYTHE) — The tenth part — a tenth of one's grain, herd, flock, and increase, brought into the storehouse of the LORD for the support of the priests, the Levites, the widow, the fatherless, and the stranger. To withhold the tithe is to rob God of what is His.

Chapter 4

The day is coming that will burn like an oven — the proud and the wicked will be stubble. But for those who fear the LORD's name, the Sun of righteousness will arise with healing in His wings. "Remember the law of Moses My servant." The LORD will send Elijah the prophet before the great and dreadful day of the LORD, and he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers.

■ WORD NOTE — Sun of righteousness (SUN of RY-chuhs-ness) — A Messianic title found only here in all of Scripture. As the rising sun drives away the night and brings life, light, and warmth to a frozen world, so the Messiah rises upon those who fear His name. The phrase "with healing in his wings" pictures the sun's rays as outstretched wings carrying healing to the earth.

■ NAME NOTE — Elijah (ee-LY-juh) — "my God is the LORD" — The ninth-century BC prophet who confronted Ahab and Jezebel, called down fire on Mount Carmel, and was taken up alive in a whirlwind (2 Kgs 2). Here promised to return before the great and dreadful day of the LORD. Our Lord Jesus identified John the Baptist as the Elijah promised here (Matt 11:14; 17:12–13).

THE 400 SILENT YEARS

Malachi's voice falls silent around 430 BC. For the next four centuries no prophet speaks for God in Israel — no vision, no oracle, no word from heaven. The Persian empire that allowed the temple to be rebuilt gives way to the Greek empire when Alexander the Great sweeps east in 332 BC, and Greek replaces Aramaic as the language of trade and learning. The Maccabean revolt of 167 BC liberates Jerusalem from the desecrations of Antiochus IV Epiphanes — but Rome arrives in 63 BC and absorbs Judea into its growing empire. During this long silence, Jewish scholars in Alexandria translate the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek (the Septuagint), and a body of literature is written that the 1611 KJV included as the Apocrypha — Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Sirach, Wisdom, and others — though these books are not part of the Protestant canon. When God speaks again, He speaks from Galilee, in the cry of an infant, four hundred years after Malachi laid down his pen.

Matthew

THE ROMAN PERIOD

Author: Matthew (also called Levi), one of the twelve apostles — a former tax collector who left everything to follow Jesus. Early church testimony from Papias (c. AD 125) onward consistently names him as the author.

Date written: c. AD 50–70, likely before the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70.

Written to: Primarily a Jewish audience — Matthew's Gospel is saturated with OT quotations and fulfillment formulas ("that it might be fulfilled") that would resonate most deeply with readers steeped in the Hebrew Scriptures.

Setting: The Roman province of Judea under occupation. Jesus of Nazareth, a carpenter from Galilee, launches a three-year public ministry, gathers twelve disciples, and fulfills dozens of OT prophecies before being crucified and rising from the dead.

Where this sits historically: Written under the early Roman Empire during the reigns of Claudius and Nero — likely before the Jewish War of AD 66–70 that ended with the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple under Titus.

Contemporaries: Mark and the early Pauline epistles (Galatians, 1–2 Thessalonians, 1–2 Corinthians, Romans) were being written in the same window, while James the brother of the Lord still led the Jerusalem church.

Big themes:

- Jesus as the Jewish Messiah — Matthew opens with a genealogy tracing Jesus to Abraham and David; He is the long-promised King

- The kingdom of heaven — Matthew uses this phrase thirty-two times; the Sermon on the Mount (chs. 5–7) is the kingdom's constitution

- Fulfillment of Scripture — Matthew quotes the OT more than any other Gospel, showing repeatedly that Jesus's life, death, and resurrection happened "that it might be fulfilled"

- Discipleship — the Great Commission (28:18–20) bookends a Gospel that is centrally concerned with making and teaching disciples

- The five discourses — Matthew organizes Jesus's teaching into five great blocks (chs. 5–7, 10, 13, 18, 24–25), possibly echoing the five books of Moses

Key passages: Matt 1:21; 5:3–12; 16:16; 26:28; 28:18–20

How it fits: Matthew stands first in the NT canon as the bridge between the two Testaments — the OT's promises on one side, Christ's fulfillment on the other. It is the most quoted Gospel in the early church fathers. Mark, Luke, and John each present the same story from different angles; together the four Gospels give the complete portrait of Christ.

Chapter 1

Matthew traces the genealogy of Jesus Christ from Abraham through David to Joseph. An angel appears to Joseph in a dream, telling him that Mary's child is conceived by the Holy Ghost and that He shall be called JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins.

- 1

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

This is the book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — "the LORD saves" — The name given by the angel, meaning God rescues His people from their sins. He is also called Christ, meaning "Anointed One" or Messiah.

- 2

Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brothers.

■ WORD NOTE — Begat (bih-GAT) — An old word meaning "fathered" or "became the father of." The KJV uses "begat" throughout the genealogies to show the direct line of descent. It is kept here because it is a distinctive term of KJV genealogies.

- 3

Judas begat Phares and Zara by Thamar; Phares begat Esrom; Esrom begat Aram.
- 4

Aram begat Aminadab; Aminadab begat Naasson; Naasson begat Salmon.
- 5

And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; Salmon begat Booz by Rachab; Booz begat Obed by Ruth; Obed begat Jesse.

- 6

And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

- 7

Solomon begat Roboam; Roboam begat Abia; Abia begat Asa.
- 8

And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

Asa begat Josaphat; Josaphat begat Joram; Joram begat Ozias.

- 9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias; Ozias begat Joatham; Joatham begat Achaz; Achaz begat Ezekias.
- 10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; Ezekias begat Manasses; Manasses begat Amon; Amon begat Josias.
- 11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon: Josias begat Jechonias and his brothers, around the time they were carried away to Babylon.
- 12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel; After they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; Salathiel begat Zorobabel.
- 13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; Zorobabel begat Abiud; Abiud begat Eliakim; Eliakim begat Azor.
- 14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; Azor begat Sadoc; Sadoc begat Achim; Achim begat Eliud.
- 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; Eliud begat Eleazar; Eleazar begat Matthan; Matthan begat Jacob.
- 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, Who is called Christ.
- 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations. So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations. From David to the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations. From the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

- 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. His mother Mary was pledged in marriage to Joseph. Before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — The Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. The KJV consistently uses "Ghost" where other translations say "Spirit." Both words translate the same Greek word. "Holy Ghost" is kept here as the KJV-faithful term.

Cross-References:

- 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. Joseph her husband was a righteous man. He did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to divorce her quietly.
- 20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. While He was thinking about this, an angel of the Lord appeared to Him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. What is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.
- 21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. She will give birth to a son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins."
- 22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:
- 23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. "A virgin shall be with child and will give birth to a son. They shall call His name Emmanuel" — which means, God with us.

- 12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. Rejoice and be greatly glad, for great is Your reward in heaven. In the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before You.
- 13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything — it is thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.
- 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.
- 15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket, but on a lampstand. It gives light to everyone in the house.
- 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Let Your light shine before men in this way, so that they may see Your good works and glorify Your Father who is in heaven.
- 17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them.
- 18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Truly I tell You, until heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle will pass from the Law until all is fulfilled.

■ WORD NOTE — Hel (HEL) — The place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word, "hell," for several different Hebrew and Greek words — Sheol, Hades, and Gehenna. All refer to the realm of judgment and are kept as "hell" throughout this translation.

Chapter 7

Jesus concludes the Sermon on the Mount with teaching about judging others, asking and receiving from God, the narrow gate, and recognizing false prophets by their fruits. He closes with the parable of the wise man who built his house on a rock and the foolish man who built on sand.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 1 | Judge not, that ye be not judged. | "Do not judge, so that You will not be judged. |
| 2 | For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. | With the judgment You use, You will be judged. With the measure You use, it will be measured back to You. |
| 3 | And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? | Why do You see the speck in Your brother's eye but do not notice the plank in Your own eye? |
| 4 | Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? | How can You say to Your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of Your eye,' when there is a plank in Your own eye? |
| 5 | Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye. | You hypocrite! First take the plank out of Your own eye. Then You will see clearly to remove the speck from Your brother's eye. |
| 6 | Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. | Do not give what is holy to dogs. Do not throw Your pearls before swine, lest they trample them underfoot and turn and tear You to pieces. |
| 7 | Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: | Ask, and it will be given to You. Seek, and You will find. Knock, and it will be opened to You. |
| 8 | For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. | Everyone who asks receives. Everyone who seeks finds. To everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. |
| 9 | Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? | Which of You, if His son asks for bread, will give Him a stone? |
| 10 | Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? | Or if He asks for a fish, will He give Him a snake? |

|---|--|
| 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? | If You then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to Your children, how much more will Your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! |
| 12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. | So in everything, do to others what You would have them do to You. This is the Law and the Prophets. |
| 13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: | Enter through the narrow gate. Wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many go through it. |
| 14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. | Narrow is the gate and difficult is the way that leads to life, and few find it. |
| 15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. | Watch out for false prophets. They come to You in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. |
| 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? | You will know them by their fruits. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? |
| 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. | Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, and every bad tree bears evil fruit. |
| 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. | A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. |
| 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. | Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. |
| 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. | So You will know them by their fruits. |

|--|---|
| 21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. | Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven — but only the one who does the will of My Father in heaven. Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and cast out demons in Your name, and do many mighty works in Your name?' Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew You. Depart from Me, You who practice iniquity.' |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing. Stronger than the word "sin" — it points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself. Where sin is a miss of the mark, iniquity is the inner crookedness that causes the missing.

Jesus heals a leper, the centurion's servant, and Peter's mother-in-law, then casts out demons and heals many who are sick. He calms a violent storm on the sea and drives a legion of demons out of two men in the country of the Gergesenes.

- 16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: When evening came, they brought to Him many who were possessed with demons. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick.
- 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses. This was to fulfill what was spoken by Esaias the prophet: "He himself took our infirmities and carried our sicknesses."
- 18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. When Jesus saw large crowds around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side.
- 19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. A certain scribe came and said to Him, "Master, I will follow You wherever You go."
- 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Jesus said to Him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
- 21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."
- 22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead. But Jesus said to Him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."
- 23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.

- 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves. But Jesus was asleep.
- 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. His disciples came and woke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"
- 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are You afraid, O You of little faith?" Then He rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.
- 27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! The men were amazed, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!"
- 28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. When He arrived on the other side in the country of the Gergesenes, two men possessed with demons came out of the tombs to meet Him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way.
- 29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? They cried out, "What do You want with us, Jesus, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the appointed time?"
- 30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. A large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away.
- 31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. The demons begged Him, "If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

- 32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. He said to them, "Go." They came out and went into the pigs. The whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the waters.
- 33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils. Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the city, and reported everything — including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.
- 34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts. The whole city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Chapter 9

Jesus heals a paralytic, forgives his sins, and calls Matthew the tax collector to follow Him. He raises a ruler's daughter from the dead, heals a woman with a twelve-year flow of blood, gives sight to two blind men, and casts out a demon from a mute man.

- 1 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city. Jesus got into the boat, crossed over, and came to His own city.
- 2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. Some men brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, "Take courage, son. Your sins are forgiven."
- 3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. Some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming."
- 4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do You think evil in Your hearts?"

- | | |

| 5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk? | For which is easier — to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? |
| 6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. | But so that You may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" — He then said to the paralyzed man — "Rise, take up Your mat, and go to Your house." |
| 7 And he arose, and departed to his house. | The man rose and went to his house. |
| 8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men. | When the crowds saw it, they were filled with awe and glorified God, Who had given such authority to men. |
| 9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him. | As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to Him, "Follow Me." Matthew rose and followed him. |

| 10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. | As Jesus reclined at table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples. |
| 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? | When the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, "Why does Your Master eat with tax collectors and sinners?" |
| 12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. | When Jesus heard this, He said, "Those who are well have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick do. |

- 13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
- 14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? Then the disciples of John came to him and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?"
- 15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast. Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn while the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then they will fast.
- 16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. The patch pulls away from the garment and the tear becomes worse.
- 17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins burst, the wine spills out, and the skins are ruined. They put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."
- 18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. While He was saying these things, a ruler came and knelt before Him, saying, "My daughter has just died. But come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live."
- 19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. Jesus rose and followed Him, and so did His disciples.
- 20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment: A woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the edge of His garment.

- 21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole. She said to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I will be healed."
- 22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. Jesus turned and saw her. He said, "Take courage, daughter. Your faith has made You well." The woman was healed from that moment.
- 23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, When Jesus came to the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd,
- 24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. He said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping." They laughed at Him.
- 25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose. When the crowd had been put outside, He went in and took her by the hand. The girl arose.
- 26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land. The report of this spread throughout all that land.
- 27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us. As Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"
- 28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. When He entered the house, the blind men came to Him. Jesus said to them, "Do You believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."
- 29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. Then He touched their eyes, saying, "Let it be done to You according to Your faith."
- 30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. Their eyes were opened. Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about this."

| 31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country. | But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout all that region. |
| 32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. | As they were going out, they brought to Him a mute man who was possessed with a demon. |
| 33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. | When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!" |
| 34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils. | But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons." |
| 35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. | Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. |
| 36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. | When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. |
| 37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; | He said to His disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. |
| 38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. | Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest." |

Chapter 10

Jesus sends the twelve apostles out with authority to heal the sick, raise the dead, and cast out demons, instructing them to go only to the lost sheep of Israel. He warns them of persecution, teaches them not to fear those who can kill the body, and declares that whoever confesses Him before men, He will confess before the Father.

- 18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.
- 19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. When they hand You over, do not worry about how or what You will say. What You are to say will be given to You in that hour.
- 20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. For it is not You who speaks, but the Spirit of Your Father speaking through You.
- 21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father His child. Children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.
- 22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. You will be hated by all for My name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.
- 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. When they persecute You in one city, flee to the next. Truly I tell You, You will not have gone through all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.
- 24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. A disciple is not above His teacher, nor a servant above His master.
- 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of his household!

- 26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. So do not fear them. There is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known.

Chapter 11

John the Baptist, imprisoned, sends messengers to ask Jesus if He is the promised Messiah, and Jesus points to His miracles as evidence. Jesus rebukes the cities of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum for their unbelief and invites the weary and heavy-laden to come to Him for rest.

Chapter 12

The Pharisees accuse Jesus of breaking the Sabbath when His disciples pluck grain, and Jesus heals a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath. The Pharisees attribute His power to Beelzebub, and Jesus warns that blasphemy against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven. He declares that His true family are those who do the will of His Father.

- 4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? how he entered the house of God and ate the showbread, which was not lawful for Him to eat, nor for those with Him, but only for the priests?
- 5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break the Sabbath and yet are guiltless?
- 6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple. I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.
- 7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. If you had known what this means — 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice' — you would not have condemned the guiltless.
- 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day. For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
- 9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue: Departing from there, He went into their synagogue.
- 10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. A man was there with a withered hand. They asked Jesus, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" — so they could accuse Him.
- 11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? He said to them, "Which of You, if He has one sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out?
- 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days. How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

- 13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other. Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and it was restored — as whole as the other.
- 14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him. The Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.
- 15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all; Jesus, knowing this, withdrew from there. Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all.
- 16 And charged them that they should not make him known: He warned them not to make Him known,
- 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, so that what was spoken by Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled:
- 18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. "My servant whom I have chosen, My beloved in whom My soul delights — I will put My Spirit on Him, and He will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.
- 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. He will not quarrel or cry out. No one will hear his voice in the streets.
- 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick He will not snuff out, until He leads justice to victory.
- 21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust. In His name the Gentiles will hope."
- 22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Him. He healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw.

- 23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? All the people were amazed and said, "Can this be the Son of David?"
- 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils. But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man casts out demons only by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."
- 25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin. Every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
- 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
- 27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. If I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your own sons cast them out? They will be your judges.
- 28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to You.
- 29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. How can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless He first ties up the strong man? Then He can rob His house.
- 30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Whoever is not with Me is against Me. Whoever does not gather with Me scatters.
- 31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. Therefore I tell You, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men. But the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven.

- 32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven — not in this age or in the age to come.
- 33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad. The tree is known by its fruit.
- 34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. You brood of vipers! How can You speak good things when You are evil? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.
- 35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. The good man brings good things out of His good treasure. The evil man brings evil things out of His evil treasure.
- 36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. I tell You that on the day of judgment, men will give account for every careless word they speak.
- 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. By Your words You will be justified, and by Your words You will be condemned."
- 38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Master, we want to see a sign from You."
- 39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: He answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign. But no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonas.

- 40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. For just as Jonas was in the belly of the great fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.
- 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and something greater than Jonas is here.
- 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it. For she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and something greater than Solomon is here.
- 43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finds none.
- 44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then it says, 'I will return to my house from where I came.' When it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order.
- 45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there. The final state of that man is worse than the first. So it will be with this evil generation."
- 46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. While He was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak with Him.

Jesus teaches the crowds in parables, including the sower, the wheat and tares, the mustard seed, the leaven, the hidden treasure, the pearl of great price, and the dragnet. His own people in Nazareth reject Him, and He marvels at their unbelief.

- 5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. They sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow.
- 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. When the sun rose, they were scorched. Since they had no root, they withered away.
- 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them.
- 8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Still other seeds fell on good soil and produced a crop — a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold.
- 9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Whoever has ears, let him hear."
- 10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? The disciples came and asked Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"
- 11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. He answered, "It has been given to You to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.
- 12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Whoever has, more will be given to him, and he will have great abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from Him.
- 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. This is why I speak to them in parables — because seeing, they do not see; and hearing, they do not hear or understand.

- 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: In them the prophecy of Esaias is fulfilled: 'You will keep on hearing but never understand, and You will keep on seeing but never perceive.
- 15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. For this people's heart has grown dull. Their ears are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes and hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn — and I would heal them.'
- 16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. But blessed are Your eyes, because they see, and Your ears, because they hear.
- 17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Truly I tell You, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what You see but did not see it, and to hear what You hear but did not hear it.
- 18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. Hear then the parable of the sower.
- 19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in His heart. This is what was sown along the path.
- 20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.

- 21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. But He has no root in Himself. He lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, He quickly falls away.
- 22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
- 23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. As for what was sown on good ground, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He produces fruit — some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."
- 24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.
- 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. While men were sleeping, His enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, then went away.
- 26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. When the grain sprouted and formed heads, the weeds also appeared.
- 27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? The servants of the master came and said to Him, 'Sir, did You not sow good seed in Your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'
- 28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? He said to them, 'An enemy did this.' The servants asked Him, 'Do You want us to go and pull them up?'

- 29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. He said, 'No, lest when You gather the weeds You root up the wheat with them.
- 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I will tell the reapers: Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."
- 31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field.
- 32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it grows, it becomes the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."
- 33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. He spoke another parable to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened."
- 34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them: Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables. He did not say anything to them without using a parable.
- 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: "I will open My mouth in parables. I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."

- 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. Then Jesus sent the crowds away and went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."
- 37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.
- 38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The field is the world. The good seed are the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one.
- 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world. The reapers are the angels.
- 40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. As the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this world.
- 41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom everything that causes sin and all who practice iniquity.
- 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. They will throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
- 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let him hear.
- 44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again. Then in his joy he went and sold everything He had and bought that field.

- 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls.
- 46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. When He found one pearl of great value, He went and sold everything He had and bought it.
- 47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind.
- 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. When it was full, men drew it to shore. They sat down and sorted the good fish into containers, but threw out the bad ones.
- 49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, So it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous
- 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. and throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
- 51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Jesus said to them, "Have You understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."
- 52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. He said to them, "Therefore every scribe trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who brings out of His treasure things new and old."
- 53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. When Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

- 13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities. When Jesus heard this, He withdrew from there by boat to a remote place by Himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.
- 14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. When Jesus came ashore, He saw a large crowd. He was moved with compassion for them and healed their sick.
- 15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals. When evening came, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy themselves food."
- 16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat. Jesus said, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."
- 17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. They said to Him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish."
- 18 He said, Bring them hither to me. He said, "Bring them here to Me."
- 19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. He directed the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and two fish, He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.
- 20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. They all ate and were satisfied. They picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.
- 21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children. The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

- 22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away.
- 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on a mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone.
- 24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. The boat was already far from shore, being tossed by the waves, for the wind was against them.
- 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. In the fourth watch of the night — between three and six in the morning — Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.
- 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. "It is a ghost!" they said, and they cried out in fear.
- 27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. But Jesus immediately spoke to them: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."
- 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to You on the water."
- 29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus.
- 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. But when He noticed the strong wind, He was afraid. Beginning to sink, He cried out, "Lord, save me!"

| 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? | Immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught Him. He said, "O You of little faith, why did You doubt?" |
| 32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. | When they got into the boat, the wind died down. |
| 33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. | Those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God." |
| 34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. | When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. |
| 35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; | The men of that place recognized Him and sent word throughout all the surrounding region. They brought to Him all who were sick. |
| 36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole. | They begged Him to let them touch even the edge of His garment. All who touched it were completely healed. |

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for placing their traditions above the commandments of God and teaches that what defiles a man comes from the heart, not from unwashed hands. He heals the daughter of a Canaanite woman and feeds four thousand men with seven loaves and a few fish.

| 9 | But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. | Their worship of Me is empty, for they teach human rules as though they were God's commands." |
| 10 | And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: | He called the crowd to Him and said, "Listen and understand. |
| 11 | Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. | It is not what goes into the mouth that makes a person unclean. It is what comes out of the mouth that makes a person unclean." |

- 12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"
- 13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. He answered, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.
- 14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Leave them alone. They are blind guides leading the blind. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."
- 15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable. Peter said to him, "Explain this parable to us."
- 16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Jesus said, "Are You still so slow to understand?"
- 17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? Don't You see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?
- 18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and those things make a person unclean.
- 19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: From the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, and slander.
- 20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man. These are what make a person unclean. But eating with unwashed hands does not make a person unclean."
- 21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. Jesus left from there and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

- 22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. A Canaanite woman from that region came to Him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is badly tormented by a demon."
- 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. He did not answer her a word. His disciples came and urged Him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us."
- 24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
- 25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But she came and knelt before Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"
- 26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."
- 27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."
- 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour. Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, Your faith is great! Let it be done for You as You wish." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.
- 29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there. Jesus left that place and went along the Sea of Galilee. He went up on a hillside and sat down.

- 30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them: Large crowds came to Him, bringing the lame, the blind, the mute, the crippled, and many others, and laid them at His feet. He healed them.
- 31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel. The crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. They praised the God of Israel.
- 32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way. Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "I feel compassion for this crowd. They have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way."
- 33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude? His disciples said to Him, "Where would we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a large crowd?"
- 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. Jesus asked them, "How many loaves do You have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."
- 35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. He told the crowd to sit down on the ground.
- 36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to the disciples. The disciples gave them to the crowd.
- 37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full. They all ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Chapter 16

The Pharisees and Sadducees demand a sign, and Jesus warns His disciples of their leaven. Peter confesses that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, and Jesus reveals that He must go to Jerusalem, suffer, be killed, and rise again on the third day.

| 1 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. | The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested Him by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven. |
| 2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. | He replied, "When evening comes, You say, 'It will be good weather, for the sky is red.' |
| 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? | And in the morning You say, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to read the sky, but You cannot read the signs of the times. |
| 4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed. | A wicked and unfaithful generation asks for a sign. No sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." He left them and went away. |
| 5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. | When the disciples crossed to the other side of the lake, they had forgotten to bring bread. |

- 6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Jesus said to them, "Watch out — be on guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. They discussed this among themselves, saying, "He said this because we didn't bring bread."
- 8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Knowing their discussion, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are You talking among yourselves about having no bread?"
- 9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Don't You remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets You gathered?
- 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets You gathered?
- 11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? How do You not understand that I was not talking about bread? Guard yourselves against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Then they understood that He was not telling them to guard against the leaven in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- 13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
- 14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others say Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

- 15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? "But who do you say I am?" He asked.
- 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
- 17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Jesus replied, "Blessed are You, Simon son of Jonah! Flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father in heaven.
- 18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church. The gates of hell will not overcome it.
- 19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."
- 20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ. Then He instructed the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.
- 21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. From that time on, Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem. He would suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes. He would be killed, and on the third day be raised to life.
- 22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This will never happen to You!"

| 2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. | There He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. |
| 3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. | Moses and Elijah appeared and were talking with him. |
| 4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. | Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I will make three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." |
| 5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. | While He was still speaking, a bright cloud came over them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him!" |
| 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. | When the disciples heard this, they fell face down and were terrified. |
| 7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. | Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," He said. "Do not be afraid." |
| 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. | When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. |
| 9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. | As they came down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Tell no one what you have seen until the Son of Man is raised from the dead." |

- 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come? His disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
- 11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things. Jesus replied, "Elijah does come first, and will restore all things.
- 12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. But I tell You, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize Him but did to Him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands."
- 13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist. Then the disciples understood that He was talking to them about John the Baptist.
- 14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, When they came to the crowd, a man came to Jesus, knelt before Him, and said,
- 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. "Lord, have mercy on my son. He has seizures and suffers greatly. He often falls into the fire and often into the water.
- 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. I brought Him to Your disciples, but they could not heal Him."
- 17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with You? How long shall I put up with You? Bring Him here to Me."
- 18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of Him. The boy was healed from that very hour.

- 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? Afterward the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"
- 20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. He said to them, "Because of Your unbelief. Truly I tell You, if You have faith as small as a mustard seed, You can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for You."
- 21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting. But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.
- 22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men: While they were gathered in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.
- 23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised to life." The disciples were deeply grieved.
- 24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and asked, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"
- 25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? "Yes, He does," Peter replied. When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke to Him first: "What do You think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect taxes — from their own sons or from others?"
- 26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free. "From others," Peter answered. "Then the sons are exempt," Jesus said to Him.

- 27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.
- But so that we may not offend them, go to the sea and cast a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, and when You open its mouth, You will find a coin. Take it and give it to them for My tax and Yours."

Chapter 18

Jesus teaches about humility, warning His disciples that they must become like little children to enter the kingdom of heaven. He tells the parable of the lost sheep and the parable of the unforgiving servant, and instructs on how to handle sin within the church.

| 10 | Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. | See that You do not look down on one of these little ones. I tell You that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven. |
| 11 | For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. | The Son of Man came to save what was lost. |
| 12 | How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? | What do You think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one wanders away, will He not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? |
| 13 | And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. | If He finds it, truly I tell You, He is happier over that one sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not wander off. |
| 14 | Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish. | In the same way, it is not the will of Your Father in heaven that any of these little ones should perish. |

- 15 Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. If Your brother sins against You, go and show Him His fault — just between the two of You. If He listens to You, You have won Your brother back.
- 16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. But if He will not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be confirmed by the testimony of two or three witnesses.
- 17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. If He refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If He refuses to listen even to the church, treat Him as You would a pagan or a tax collector.
- 18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Truly I tell You, whatever You bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever You loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.
- 19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Again, truly I tell You, if two of You on earth agree about anything You ask for, it will be done for You by My Father in heaven.
- 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. For where two or three gather in My name, I am there with them."
- 21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother when He sins against me? Up to seven times?"
- 22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Jesus answered, "I tell You, not seven times, but seventy times seven.

- 23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. The kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with His servants.
- 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. As He began the accounting, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to Him.
- 25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. Since He could not pay, the master ordered that He, his wife, His children, and all that He had be sold to repay the debt.
- 26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. The servant fell on his knees before him. "Be patient with me," he begged, "and I will pay back everything."
- 27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. The servant's master felt compassion for him, released Him, and forgave the debt.
- 28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. But when that same servant went out, He found one of His fellow servants who owed Him a hundred denarii. He grabbed Him and choked Him. "Pay back what You owe me!" he demanded.
- 29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. His fellow servant fell on His knees and begged Him, "Be patient with me, and I will pay You back."
- 30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. But he refused. He went and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt.
- 31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. When the other servants saw what had happened, they were deeply distressed and told their master everything.

"You wicked servant," he said, "I forgave all that debt of yours because you begged me. Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?" In his anger, the master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured until he paid back all he owed. This is how My heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart." |

Jesus teaches on marriage and divorce, blesses little children, and tells a rich young man to sell all he has and follow Him. The young man goes away sorrowful, and Jesus tells His disciples it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.

- 6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate."
- 7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? "Why then," they asked, "did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?"
- 8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of Your hard hearts. But it was not this way from the beginning.
- 9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. I tell You that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another commits adultery."
- 10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. The disciples said to Him, "If that is how it is between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry."
- 11 But he said unto them, Not all men can receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. Jesus replied, "Not everyone can accept this teaching — only those to whom it has been given.

He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.* Some are born without the ability to marry. Some are made that way by others. And some choose to live that way for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who can accept this accept it."
- 13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. Then little children were brought to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.
- 14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me and do not stop them. The kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
- 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence. He placed His hands on them and then left from there.
- 16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? A man came to Jesus and asked, "Master, what good thing must I do to have eternal life?"
- 17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. Jesus said, "Why do You ask Me about what is good? There is only One who is good. If You want to enter life, keep the commandments."
- 18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, "Which ones?" he asked. Jesus replied, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,
- 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. honor Your father and mother, and love Your neighbor as Yourself."

- 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? The young man said, "I have kept all these. What do I still lack?"
- 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. Jesus answered, "If You want to be perfect, go and sell what You own and give the money to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow Me."
- 22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. When the young man heard this, He went away sad, because He had great wealth.
- 23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I tell You, it is hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Chapter 20

Jesus tells the parable of the laborers in the vineyard, where those hired last receive the same wage as those hired first. He foretells His crucifixion and resurrection a third time, rebukes the ambition of James and John's mother, and heals two blind men near Jericho.

| 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. | He agreed to pay the workers a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard. |
| 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, | About nine in the morning He went out and saw others standing idle in the marketplace. |

- 4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. He told them, "You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay You what is right." So they went.
- 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. He went out again about noon and at three in the afternoon and did the same.
- 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? About five in the afternoon He went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, "Why have You been standing here all day doing nothing?"
- 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. "Because no one has hired us," they answered. He said to them, "You also go and work in my vineyard."
- 8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to His foreman, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first."
- 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. The workers hired about five in the afternoon came, and each received a denarius.
- 10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. When the workers hired first came, they expected to receive more. But each of them also received a denarius.
- 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, When they received it, they grumbled against the landowner.

- 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. "These workers hired last worked only one hour," they said, "and You have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and heat of the day."
- 13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? He answered one of them, "Friend, I am not treating You unfairly. Didn't You agree to work for a denarius?"
- 14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Take Your pay and go. I want to give the last worker hired the same as I gave You.
- 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are You envious because I am generous?"
- 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen. So the last will be first, and the first will be last. For many are called, but few are chosen."
- 17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them, As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside and said to them,
- 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, "We are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death
- 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. and hand Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged, and crucified. On the third day He will be raised to life."
- 20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her sons. She knelt down and asked something of Him.

- 21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. "What do You want?" He asked. She said, "Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at Your right hand and the other at Your left in Your kingdom."
- 22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. Jesus replied, "You don't know what You are asking. Can You drink the cup I am going to drink?" "We can," they answered.
- 23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink from My cup. But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant — it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."
- 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. When the other ten disciples heard about this, they were indignant at the two brothers.
- 25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.
- 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; It is not to be that way with You. Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant,
- 27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: and whoever wants to be first must be your slave —
- 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

| 31 | And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. | The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!" |
| 32 | And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you? | Jesus stopped and called them. "What do You want Me to do for You?" He asked. |

| 34 | So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him. | Jesus felt compassion for them and touched their eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed Him. |

Jesus enters Jerusalem riding on a donkey as crowds cry 'Hosanna to the Son of David.' He drives out the money changers from the temple, curses a fig tree that withers, and challenges the chief priests and elders with the parables of the two sons and the wicked husbandmen.

- 2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of You, and at once You will find a donkey tied there, with her colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to Me.
- 3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and He will send them right away."
- 4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:
- 5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'See, your King comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"
- 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.
- 7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.
- 8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
- 9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. The crowds that went ahead of Him and those that followed shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"
- 10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"
- 11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. The crowds answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

- 12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, Jesus entered the temple of God and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves.
- 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. He said to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but You have made it a den of thieves."
- 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. The blind and the lame came to Him at the temple, and He healed them.
- 15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things He did, and the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant.
- 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? "Do You hear what these children are saying?" they asked Him. "Yes," Jesus replied. "Have You never read, 'From the mouths of children and infants You have ordained praise'?"
- 17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there. He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where He stayed that night.
- 18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered. Early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He was hungry.
- 19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. Seeing a fig tree by the road, He went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, "May You never bear fruit again!" At once the fig tree withered.

- 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?" they asked.
- 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. Jesus replied, "Truly I tell You, if You have faith and do not doubt, You can do not only what was done to the fig tree, but also say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and it will be done.
- 22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Whatever You ask for in prayer, if You believe, You will receive."
- 23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? Jesus entered the temple, and while He was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You this authority?"
- 24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things. Jesus replied, "I will also ask You one question. If You answer Me, I will tell You by what authority I do these things.
- 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him? John's baptism — where did it come from? From heaven, or from men?" They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Then why didn't You believe Him?'"
- 26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet. But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the people, for they all regard John as a prophet."

- 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." He said to them, "Neither will I tell You by what authority I am doing these things.
- 28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. What do You think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.'
- 29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. 'I will not,' he answered, but later He changed His mind and went.
- 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. The father went to the second son and said the same. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but He did not go.
- 31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. Which of the two did the will of His father?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell You, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of You.
- 32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe Him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed Him. And even after You saw this, You did not repent and believe Him.
- 33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country: Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then He rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.
- 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. When harvest time approached, He sent His servants to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit.

- 35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. But the farmers seized His servants. They beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.
- 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. Then He sent more servants than the first group, and they treated them the same way.
- 37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. Last of all, He sent His son to them. "They will respect my son," he said.
- 38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. But when the farmers saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come, let us kill Him and take His inheritance."
- 39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. So they seized Him, threw Him out of the vineyard, and killed Him.
- 40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will He do to those farmers?"
- 41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end," they replied, "and He will rent the vineyard to other farmers who will give Him His share at harvest time."
- 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Jesus said to them, "Have You never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"
- 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. Therefore I tell You that the kingdom of God will be taken from You and given to a people who will produce its fruit.

| 44 | And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. | Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on." |
| 45 | And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. | When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they knew He was speaking about them. |
| 46 | But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet. | They looked for a way to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the crowd, because the people regarded him as a prophet. |

Jesus tells the parable of the marriage feast, where those first invited refuse to come and the king sends his servants into the highways. The Pharisees, Sadducees, and Herodians test Him with questions about paying tribute to Caesar, the resurrection, and the greatest commandment.

| 1 | And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said, | Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying, |
| 2 | The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, | "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for His son. |
| 3 | And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. | He sent His servants to call those who had been invited to the banquet, but they refused to come. |
| 4 | Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. | Then He sent more servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.' |

| 5 | But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: | But they paid no attention and went away — one to His field, another to His business. |
| 6 | And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. | The rest seized His servants, mistreated them, and killed them. |
| 7 | But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. | The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. |
| 8 | Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. | Then he said to his servants, "The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited were not worthy. |
| 9 | Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. | Go to the street corners and invite anyone you find to the banquet.' |
| 10 | So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. | So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both bad and good. The wedding hall was filled with guests. |
| 11 | And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: | But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. |
| 12 | And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. | "Friend," he asked, "how did you get in here without wedding clothes?" The man had no answer. |
| 13 | Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. | Then the king told the servants, "Tie him hand and foot and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." |

- 14 For many are called, but few are chosen. For many are called, but few are chosen."
- 15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. Then the Pharisees went out and made plans to trap Jesus in His words.
- 16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. They sent their disciples to Him along with the Herodians. "Master," they said, "we know You are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God truthfully. You are not influenced by others, because You pay no attention to who they are.
- 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? Tell us then, what is Your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
- 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are You trying to trap Me?"
- 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. Show Me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought Him a denarius.
- 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? He asked them, "Whose image is this, and whose inscription?"
- 21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. "Caesar's," they replied. He said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and give to God what is God's."
- 22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way. When they heard this, they were amazed. They left Him and went away.
- 23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him with a question.

- 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. "Master," they said, "Moses told us that if a man dies without children, his brother must marry the widow and have children for him.
- 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother.
- 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh.
- 27 And last of all the woman died also. Last of all, the woman died.
- 28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. So then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven? They all had her."
- 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. Jesus replied, "You are wrong because You know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God.
- 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. At the resurrection, people will neither marry nor be given in marriage. They will be like the angels in heaven.
- 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, But about the resurrection of the dead — have You not read what God said to You:
- 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead but of the living."
- 33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine. When the crowd heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.
- 34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they came together.

| 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. | Jesus replied, "Love the Lord Your God with all Your heart and with all Your soul and with all Your mind. |

| 41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, | While the Pharisees were gathered, Jesus asked them, |
| 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. | "What do You think about the Christ? Whose son is He?" "The son of David," they replied. |
| 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, | He said to them, "How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls Him 'Lord'? For He says, |
| 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? | "The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand until I put Your enemies under Your feet."" |
| 45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son? | If then David calls him 'Lord,' how can he be his son?" |
| 46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions. | No one could answer him a word, and from that day on no one dared to question him any further. |

Jesus pronounces seven woes on the scribes and Pharisees, calling them hypocrites, blind guides, and whitewashed tombs. He laments over Jerusalem, declaring that her house is left desolate and that she will not see Him again until she says, 'Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord.'

| 3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. | So practice and obey everything they tell you. But do not follow their example, because they do not practice what they teach. |
| 4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. | They tie up heavy loads and put them on other people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them. |
| 5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, | Everything they do is done for people to see. They make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long. |

| 10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ. | Nor are You to be called 'Master,' for You have one Master — the Christ. |
| 11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. | The greatest among You will be Your servant. |
| 12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted. | Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted. |
| 13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. | Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. You yourselves do not enter, and You block those who are trying to enter. |
| 14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. | Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You devour widows' houses and for appearance make long prayers. Therefore You will receive the greater damnation. |

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. The KJV uses "damnation" and "damned" where some modern translations say "judgment" or "condemnation." The KJV word is stronger — it points to the ultimate, irreversible verdict of God against unrepentant sin.

| 15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. | Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when You have won Him, You make Him twice as much a child of hell as You are. |
| 16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! | Woe to You, blind guides! You say, "If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing. But if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by His oath." |

- 17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?
- 18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. You also say, "If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing. But if anyone swears by the gift on the altar, he is bound by His oath."
- 19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred?
- 20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. Therefore, whoever swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it.
- 21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. Whoever swears by the temple swears by it and by the One who lives in it.
- 22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon. And whoever swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the One who sits on it.
- 23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You give a tenth of Your spices — mint, anise, and cumin. But You have neglected the more important matters of the law: judgment, mercy, and faith. You should have practiced these without neglecting the others.
- 24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.
- 25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

- 26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside will also be clean.
- 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean.
- 28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. In the same way, on the outside You appear righteous to others, but on the inside You are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
- 29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous.
- 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. You say, "If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part in shedding the blood of the prophets."
- 31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. By saying this, You testify against yourselves that You are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.
- 32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Go ahead, then, and complete what Your ancestors started!
- 33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will You escape the damnation of hell?

- 33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. In the same way, when You see all these things, You know that it is near, right at the door.
- 34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Truly I tell You, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.
- 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.
- 36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But about that day or hour no one knows — not even the angels in heaven — but My Father only.
- 37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

- 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, In the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, right up to the day Noah entered the ark.
- 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. They knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and swept them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.
- 40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two men will be in the field — one will be taken and the other left.
- 41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill — one will be taken and the other left.
- 42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore keep watch, because You do not know on what day Your Lord will come.
- 43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, He would have stayed awake and not let His house be broken into.
- 44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. So You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when You do not expect Him.
- 45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom the master has put in charge of his household to give them their food at the proper time?
- 46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. It will go well for that servant whose master finds Him doing this when He returns.
- 47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. Truly I tell You, He will put Him in charge of all His possessions.

48	But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;	But suppose that servant is wicked and says to Himself, "My master is delayed,"
49	And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;	and He begins to strike His fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.
50	The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,	The master of that servant will come on a day He does not expect and at an hour He is not aware of.
51	And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.	He will cut Him to pieces and assign Him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins, the parable of the talents, and describes the final judgment when the Son of man separates the nations as a shepherd separates sheep from goats. Those who served the least of His brethren enter eternal life, and those who did not are cast into everlasting punishment.

1	Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.	At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
2	And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.	Five of them were foolish and five were wise.
3	They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:	The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them.
4	But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.	The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps.
5	While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.	The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep.

- 6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. At midnight the cry rang out: "Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet Him!"
- 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.
- 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. The foolish ones said to the wise, "Give us some of Your oil — our lamps are going out."
- 9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. "No," they replied, "there may not be enough for both us and You. Go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves."
- 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The ones who were ready went in with Him to the wedding banquet. The door was shut.
- 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. Later the others also came. "Lord! Lord!" they said. "Open the door for us!"
- 12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. But He replied, "Truly I tell You, I do not know You."
- 13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. Therefore keep watch, because You do not know the day or the hour.
- 14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. It is like a man going on a journey who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them.
- 15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. To one He gave five talents, to another two talents, and to another one talent — each according to His ability. Then He went on His journey.

- 16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. The man who had received five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more.
- 17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. In the same way, the one with two talents gained two more.
- 18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. But the man who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.
- 19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.
- 20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. The man who had received five talents came and brought the other five. "Master," he said, "you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more."
- 21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"
- 22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. The man with two talents also came. "Master," he said, "you entrusted me with two talents. See, I have gained two more."
- 23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"

- 24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: Then the man who had received one talent came. "Master," he said, "I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.
- 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. Here is what belongs to you."
- 26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed: His master replied, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed?
- 27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. Then you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.
- 28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten talents.
- 29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.
- 30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And throw that worthless servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
- 31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne.

- 32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people from one another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
- 33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. He will put the sheep on His right and the goats on His left.
- 34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: Then the King will say to those on his right, "Come, you who are blessed by My Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
- 35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: For I was hungry and you gave Me food. I was thirsty and you gave Me drink. I was a stranger and you took Me in.
- 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. I was naked and you clothed Me. I was sick and you looked after Me. I was in prison and you came to visit Me."
- 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink?
- 38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
- 39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? When did we see You sick or in prison and go to visit You?"
- 40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. The King will reply, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me."

Chapter 26

Jesus observes the Last Supper with His disciples, institutes the new covenant in His blood, and prays in agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. Judas betrays Him with a kiss, and Jesus is arrested, tried before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin, and denied three times by Peter.

- 2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. "As You know, the Passover is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."
- 3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people gathered at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas.
- 4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. They made plans to arrest Jesus secretly and kill Him.
- 5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people. "But not during the feast," they said, "or there may be a riot among the people."
- 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper,
- 7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat. a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume and poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table.
- 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked.
- 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. "This could have been sold for a great deal of money and given to the poor."
- 10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. Aware of their reaction, Jesus said to them, "Why are You bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for Me.
- 11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. The poor You will always have with You, but You will not always have Me.
- 12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

- 13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her. Truly I tell You, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."
- 14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, Then one of the twelve — the one called Judas Iscariot — went to the chief priests
- 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?" They counted out thirty silver coins for him.
- 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him. From that time on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.
- 17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
- 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell Him, 'The Master says: My time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with My disciples at Your house.'"
- 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover. So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.
- 20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the twelve.
- 21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. While they were eating, He said, "Truly I tell You, one of You will betray Me."

- 22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? They were deeply grieved and began to say to Him one after another, "Surely not I, Lord?"
- 23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. He answered, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with Me will betray Me.
- 24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for Him if He had not been born."
- 25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said. Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, "Surely not I, Master?" Jesus answered, "You have said it."
- 26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to His disciples. He said, "Take and eat; this is My body."
- 27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of You.
- 28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. This is My blood of the new testament, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.
- 29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. I tell You, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with You in My Father's kingdom."
- 30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

- 31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. Then Jesus told them, "This very night You will all fall away because of Me. For it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'
- 32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. But after I am raised, I will go ahead of You into Galilee."
- 33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Peter declared, "Even if all the others fall away because of You, I never will."
- 34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Jesus answered, "Truly I tell You, this very night, before the rooster crows, You will deny Me three times."
- 35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Peter said, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny You." And all the other disciples said the same.
- 36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. Then Jesus went with His disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and He said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."
- 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him and began to be sorrowful and deeply troubled.
- 38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. He said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me."
- 39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. Going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will."

- 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Then He returned to His disciples and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Could you not keep watch with Me for one hour?"
- 41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
- 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done."
- 43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.
- 44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. So He left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.
- 45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Then He returned to the disciples and said to them, "Are You still sleeping and resting? The hour has come. The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.
- 46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. Rise! Let us go! My betrayer is approaching."
- 47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. While He was still speaking, Judas — one of the twelve — arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and elders of the people.
- 48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. Now the betrayer had arranged a sign with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him."
- 49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him. Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Master!" and kissed him.

- 50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. Jesus replied, "Friend, why have You come?" Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus, and arrested Him.
- 51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear. Then one of Jesus' companions reached out His hand, drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.
- 52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. "Put Your sword back in its place," Jesus said. "For all who draw the sword will die by the sword.
- 53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? Do You think I cannot call on My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels?
- 54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"
- 55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. At that hour Jesus said to the crowd, "Have You come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as though I were a criminal? Every day I sat in the temple teaching, and You did not arrest Me.
- 56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. But all this has taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.
- 57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had assembled.

- 58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end. But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He went in and sat with the guards to see how things would turn out.
- 59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; The chief priests and the whole council looked for false testimony against Jesus so they could put Him to death.
- 60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, But they found none, even though many false witnesses came forward. Finally two came forward
- 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. and said, "This fellow declared, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"
- 62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? Then the high priest stood up and said to Him, "Are You not going to answer? What is this testimony these men are bringing against You?"
- 63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. But Jesus was silent. The high priest said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God."
- 64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Jesus said to Him, "You have said it. But I tell You: From now on You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."
- 65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. Then the high priest tore His clothes and said, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look — now You have heard the blasphemy."

- 66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. What do You think?" "He deserves death," they answered.
- 67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, Then they spit in His face and struck Him with their fists. Others slapped Him
- 68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee? and said, "Prophecy to us, Christ! Who hit You?"
- 69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came to Him and said, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."
- 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. But He denied it before them all. "I don't know what You are talking about," he said.
- 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. Then He went out to the gateway, where another servant girl saw Him and said to the people there, "This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth."
- 72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. He denied it again, with an oath: "I do not know the man!"
- 73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. After a little while, those standing there came up to Peter and said, "Surely you are one of them — your accent gives you away."
- 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. Then he began to call down curses, and he swore to them, "I do not know the man!" Immediately a rooster crowed.
- 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. Then Peter remembered the words Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, You will deny Me three times." He went outside and wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

Judas, filled with remorse, returns the thirty pieces of silver and hangs himself. Jesus is tried before Pontius Pilate, scourged, mocked by the soldiers, and crucified at Golgotha. He cries out to God, gives up His spirit, and is buried in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathaea.

| 1 | When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: | Early in the morning, all the chief priests and elders of the people made a plan to have Jesus put to death. |
| 2 | And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. | They bound Him, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pontius Pilate, the governor. |
| 3 | Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, | When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, He was filled with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders. |
| 4 | Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. | "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood." "What is that to us?" they replied. "That is Your responsibility." |
| 5 | And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. | So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. |
| 6 | And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. | The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." |
| 7 | And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. | So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. |
| 8 | Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. | That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. |

- 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on Him by the people of Israel,
- 10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."
- 11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked Him, "Are You the king of the Jews?" "You have said so," Jesus replied.
- 12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. When He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer.
- 13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear the testimony they are bringing against You?"
- 14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge — to the great amazement of the governor.
- 15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. Now it was the governor's custom at the feast to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd.
- 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. At that time they had a notable prisoner called Barabbas.
- 17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to You: Barabbas, or Jesus Who is called Christ?"
- 18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. For He knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to Him.

- 19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him a message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of Him."
- 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.
- 21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas. "Which of the two do You want me to release to You?" asked the governor. "Barabbas," they answered.
- 22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. "What shall I do, then, with Jesus Who is called Christ?" Pilate asked. They all answered, "Crucify him!"
- 23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. "Why? What crime has He committed?" asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him!"
- 24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that a riot was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!"
- 25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. All the people answered, "His blood is on us and on our children!"
- 26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then He released Barabbas to them. But He had Jesus flogged and handed Him over to be crucified.

- 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around Him.
- 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him.
- 29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! They twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a staff in His right hand. Then they knelt in front of Him and mocked Him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said.
- 30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. They spit on Him and took the staff and struck Him on the head again and again.
- 31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. After they had mocked Him, they took off the robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.
- 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.
- 33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, They came to a place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull").
- 34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. There they offered Jesus wine mixed with gall to drink, but after tasting it, He refused to drink it.
- 35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. When they had crucified Him, they divided up His clothes by casting lots, to fulfill what the prophet said: "They divided My garments among them and cast lots for My clothing."

- 36 And sitting down they watched him there; And sitting down they kept watch over Him there.
- 37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Above His head they placed the written charge against Him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, Those who passed by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads
- 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days — save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"
- 41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, In the same way the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders mocked Him.
- 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. "He saved others," they said, "but He can't save Himself! He's the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him.
- 43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. He trusts in God. Let God rescue Him now if He wants Him — for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"
- 44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. In the same way the criminals who were crucified with Him also hurled insults at Him.
- 45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. From the sixth hour until the ninth hour, darkness came over all the land.

- 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" — which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"
- 47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling Elijah."
- 48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink.
- 49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. The rest said, "Leave Him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."
- 50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He gave up His spirit.
- 51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks split.
- 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, The tombs broke open and many bodies of holy people who had died were raised to life.
- 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. They came out of the tombs after Jesus' resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.
- 54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified and said, "Surely He was the Son of God!"

- 55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for His needs.
- 56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.
- 57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: As evening approached, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus, came.
- 58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.
- 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
- 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a large stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.
- 61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.
- 62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate.
- 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. "Sir," they said, "we remember that while He was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.'

| 64 | Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. | So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first." |
| 65 | Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can. | "Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." |
| 66 | So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch. | So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and setting the guard. |

Chapter 28

An angel rolls away the stone from the tomb and announces to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary that Jesus has risen from the dead. The risen Jesus appears to the women and later to the eleven disciples in Galilee, where He commissions them to go and make disciples of all nations.

| 1 | In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. | After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. |
| 2 | And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. | There was a great earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled back the stone, and sat on it. |
| 3 | His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: | His face was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. |
| 4 | And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. | The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. |

- 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that You are looking for Jesus, Who was crucified.
- 6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. He is not here; He has risen, just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay.
- 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. Then go quickly and tell His disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of You into Galilee. There You will see Him.' Now I have told You."
- 8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word. So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell His disciples.
- 9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," He said. They came to Him, clasped His feet, and worshiped Him.
- 10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see Me."
- 11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.
- 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, When the chief priests met with the elders and made a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money
- 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. and told them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'

Mark

Author: John Mark, companion of Paul and Barnabas and later close associate of Peter — Papias (c. AD 125) records that Mark wrote down Peter's preaching about Jesus, explaining the Gospel's eyewitness vividness and Petrine perspective.

Date written: c. AD 55–65, likely the earliest of the four Gospels.

Written to: Primarily a Roman Gentile audience — Mark explains Jewish customs, translates Aramaic phrases, and uses Latin loanwords; he writes for readers who were not raised on the Hebrew Scriptures.

Setting: The Roman empire under Nero or Claudius. The early church is spreading rapidly through persecution. Mark writes to ground his readers in the historical reality of who Jesus is and what He did.

Where this sits historically: Likely written from Rome during or just after Nero's persecution of Christians (AD 64–67) following the Great Fire of Rome, and before the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70.

Contemporaries: Peter and Paul were preaching and being martyred in Rome in this same window, while Matthew, Luke, and the later Pauline epistles (1–2 Timothy, Titus) were taking shape.

Big themes:

- Jesus as the Servant — Mark presents Jesus as the one who came "not to be ministered unto, but to minister" (10:45); there is no birth narrative, no genealogy — only action

- Immediacy — "straightway" (immediately) appears over forty times; Mark's Gospel moves at pace, one event following another with urgent energy

- The authority of Jesus — over demons, disease, nature, and death; every chapter reinforces that this man commands with absolute authority

- The messianic secret — Jesus repeatedly tells those He heals to tell no one; the full identity of the Messiah is only revealed at the cross

- The cross — Mark devotes more proportional space to the passion narrative than any other Gospel; the servant's greatest act is His death

Key passages: Mark 1:1; 1:15; 8:29; 10:45; 16:6

How it fits: Mark is the shortest and most action-driven Gospel — the ideal starting point for someone reading the Gospels for the first time. It captures Peter's preaching, which means it preserves the most direct apostolic eyewitness tradition. The longer ending (16:9–20) is part of the canonical TR text and closes the Gospel with resurrection appearances and the Great Commission.

Chapter 1

John the Baptist preaches in the wilderness and baptizes Jesus in the Jordan, where the Spirit descends and the Father's voice declares Jesus His beloved Son. Jesus calls Simon, Andrew, James, and John, casts out an unclean spirit in the synagogue at Capernaum, heals Simon's mother-in-law, and cleanses a leper.

| 4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. | John baptized in the wilderness. He preached a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. |
| 5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. | People from all over Judaea and Jerusalem went out to Him. They were all baptized by Him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. |
| 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey; | John wore clothes made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around His waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. |
| 7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. | He preached, saying, "One mightier than I comes after me. I am not worthy to stoop down and untie His sandals." |

- 8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. I have baptized You with water, but He will baptize You with the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the old English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a mere force — He is God, fully personal, who lives in every believer.

- 9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — Greek form of Hebrew Yeshua, "the LORD saves" — The Son of God, the Messiah, the central figure of the gospel. He is fully God and fully man.

- 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: As He came up out of the water, He immediately saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove.
- 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. A voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son. In You I am well pleased."
- 12 And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness. Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.
- 13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels served Him.
- 14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, After John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God.
- 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. He said, "The time is fulfilled. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe the gospel."

| 16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. | As He walked along the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. |
|--|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Simon (SY-mun) — Hebrew Simeon, "he has heard" — The apostle later named Peter, a fisherman from Galilee and one of the twelve.

■ NAME NOTE — Andrew (AN-droo) — Greek, "manly" — Brother of Simon Peter, also a fisherman, and one of the twelve apostles.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. | Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make You fishers of men." |
| 18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him. | At once they left their nets and followed Him. |
| 19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets. | Going a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in the boat mending their nets. |

■ NAME NOTE — James (JAYMZ) — Greek form of Hebrew Jacob, "supplanter" or "one who follows at the heel" — Son of Zebedee and brother of John; one of the twelve apostles and part of Jesus' inner circle.

■ NAME NOTE — Zebedee (ZEB-uh-dee) — Hebrew, "gift of God" — A Galilean fisherman, father of James and John.

| 20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him. | He called them at once. They left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed Him. |
| 21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. | They went into Capernaum. On the Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught. |

- 22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes. The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one with authority and not like the scribes.
- 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, There was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. He cried out,
- 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. "Leave us alone! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God."
- 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Jesus rebuked Him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of Him."
- 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. The unclean spirit convulsed the man, cried out with a loud voice, and came out of him.
- 27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him. Everyone was so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? What new teaching is this? He commands even the unclean spirits with authority, and they obey Him."
- 28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee. His fame spread at once throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.
- 29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. As soon as they left the synagogue, they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
- 30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They told Jesus about her right away.

- 31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. The fever left her at once, and she began to serve them.
- 32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. That evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.
- 33 And all the city was gathered together at the door. The whole city was gathered at the door.
- 34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him. He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. He did not permit the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.
- 35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, He got up and went out to a solitary place and prayed.
- 36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him. Simon and those with him went searching for him.
- 37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee. When they found Him, they said, "Everyone is looking for You."
- 38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth. He said to them, "Let us go to the nearby towns so I can preach there also. That is why I have come."
- 39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils. He preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee and drove out demons.
- 40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. A leper came to Him, kneeling down and begging, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

He reached out and touched Him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." As soon as He spoke, the leprosy left the man at once and he was cleansed. Jesus gave Him a strict warning and sent Him away at once. He said to him, "Say nothing to anyone. Go, show yourself to the priest and offer what Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." Instead, the man went out and began to spread the news freely, telling everyone about it. As a result, Jesus could no longer openly enter a town. He stayed in the open country, and people came to Him from everywhere. |

Jesus heals a paralytic lowered through the roof, forgiving his sins and proving His authority by the miracle. He calls Levi the tax collector, eats with sinners, and defends His disciples when the Pharisees question them about fasting and plucking grain on the Sabbath.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house. 2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. | After some days He returned to Capernaum, and word spread that He was in the house. So many people gathered that there was no room left, not even at the door. He preached the word to them. |
|---|--|

- 3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four. Some men came, bringing a paralyzed man carried by four of them.
- 4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay. They could not get near Jesus because of the crowd, so they made an opening in the roof above Him. They broke through and lowered the mat on which the paralyzed man lay.
- 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, "Son, Your sins are forgiven."
- 6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Some scribes were sitting there, reasoning in their hearts:
- 7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? "Why does this man speak like this? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"
- 8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Jesus knew in His spirit that they were reasoning this way within themselves. He said to them, "Why are You reasoning these things in Your hearts?"
- 9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? Which is easier — to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take Your mat, and walk'?
- 10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) So that You may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins — He said to the paralyzed man:
- 11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. "I tell You, get up, take Your mat, and go home."

- | | |

| 12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. 13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. | At once the man got up, picked up his mat, and walked out in front of everyone. They were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this." Jesus went out again along the seashore. The whole crowd came to Him and He taught them. As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to Him, "Follow Me." Levi got up and followed Him. |

- 18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, "Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"
- 19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. Jesus said to them, "Can the guests at a wedding fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast."
- 20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days.
- 21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If He does, the new patch pulls away from the old cloth and the tear becomes worse.
- 22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. No one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins and both the wine and the skins are ruined. New wine must be poured into new wineskins.
- 23 And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. One Sabbath Jesus was walking through the grain fields, and His disciples began to pick heads of grain as they went.
- 24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? The Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"
- 25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him? He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and was hungry — he and those who were with him?"

| 26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? | He entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the showbread, which is lawful only for priests to eat. He also gave some to His companions. |
| 27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: | He also said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." |
| 28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. | Therefore the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath. |

Chapter 3

Jesus heals a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath, provoking the Pharisees to plot against Him. He withdraws to the sea, appoints the twelve apostles, and warns that blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand. | He entered the synagogue again. A man with a withered hand was there. |
| 2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. | They watched Jesus closely to see whether He would heal the man on the Sabbath, looking for a reason to accuse Him. |
| 3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth. | He said to the man with the withered hand, "Step forward." |
| 4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. | Then He said to them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath — to do good or to do evil? To save life or to kill?"
They were silent. |

- 5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. He looked around at them with anger, deeply grieved at their hardness of heart. He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored.
- 6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. The Pharisees went out at once and began plotting with the Herodians against Jesus, looking for a way to destroy Him.
- 7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea, Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. A great crowd from Galilee followed Him.
- 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him. People came from Judaea, Jerusalem, Idumaea, and from beyond the Jordan. Those from the region of Tyre and Sidon — a great crowd — came to Him when they heard what great things He was doing.
- 9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him. He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, so they would not crush Him.
- 10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues. He had healed many, and those who had diseases were pressing around Him trying to touch Him.
- 11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. Whenever unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and cried out, "You are the Son of God."
- 12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known. He sternly warned them not to make Him known.

- 13 And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him. He went up on a mountain and called to Him those He wanted. They came to Him.
- 14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, He appointed twelve — that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach
- 15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils: and to have authority to heal sicknesses and cast out demons.
- 16 And Simon he surnamed Peter; He appointed Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter;

■ NAME NOTE — Peter (PEE-ter) — Greek Petros, "rock" — The new name Jesus gave to Simon. He became the leading apostle and a pillar of the early church.

- 17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder: James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James — He surnamed them Boanerges, which means "Sons of Thunder";

■ NAME NOTE — Boanerges (boh-ah-NER-geez) — Aramaic, "sons of thunder" — The nickname Jesus gave to James and John, possibly reflecting their bold, fiery temperament.

- 18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite;
- 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house. and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. They went into a house.

■ NAME NOTE — Judas Iscariot (JOO-dus is-KAIR-ee-ut) — "Judas" is Greek for Hebrew Judah, "praise"; "Iscariot" likely means "man of Kerioth," a town in Judah — The apostle who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver.

- 20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. The crowd gathered again so that Jesus and His disciples could not even eat.

Chapter 4

Jesus teaches the crowds from a boat, telling the parable of the sower, the parable of the seed growing secretly, and the parable of the mustard seed. He calms a violent storm on the sea, and the disciples marvel, asking, 'What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?'

| 1 | And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. | Again He began to teach beside the sea. Such a large crowd gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea. The whole crowd was on the shore facing the water. |
| 2 | And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine, | He taught them many things by parables, and in His teaching He said: |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 3 | Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow: | "Listen! A farmer went out to sow His seed." |
| 4 | And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. | As He sowed, some seed fell along the path. The birds came and ate it up. |
| 5 | And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: | Some fell on rocky ground where the soil was shallow. It sprang up quickly because it had no depth of soil. |
| 6 | But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. | When the sun rose, it was scorched. Because it had no root, it withered away. |
| 7 | And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. | Some fell among thorns. The thorns grew up, choked the plant, and it produced no fruit. |
| 8 | And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred. | Still other seed fell on good ground. It came up, grew, and produced a crop — some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times what was sown. |
| 9 | And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. | He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear." |
| 10 | And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable. | When He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parables. |
| 11 | And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: | He said to them, "To You it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God. But to those outside, everything comes in parables." |

- 12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. This is so that seeing they may see and not understand, and hearing they may hear and not grasp it — lest they should turn and their sins be forgiven.
- 13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables? He said to them, "Don't You understand this parable? Then how will You understand any of the parables?"
- 14 The sower soweth the word. The farmer sows the word.
- 15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. These are the ones along the path where the word is sown: when they hear it, Satan comes at once and takes away the word that was sown in them.
- 16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; These are the ones sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy.
- 17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. But they have no root in themselves and last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.
- 18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, Others are like seed sown among thorns. They hear the word,
- 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful.

- 20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred. And these are the ones sown on good ground — those who hear the word, receive it, and bear fruit: some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times.
- 21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? He said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not set on a lampstand?"
- 22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing kept secret that will not come to light.
- 23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.
- 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given. He said to them, "Pay careful attention to what you hear. The measure you give will be the measure you receive — and more will be added to you.
- 25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. To the one who has, more will be given. From the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away."
- 26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; He also said, "The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.
- 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. He sleeps and rises night and day. The seed sprouts and grows — he does not know how.
- 28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. The earth produces by itself: first the blade, then the head of grain, then the full grain in the head.

- 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. When the grain is ripe, he puts in the sickle at once, because the harvest has come."
- 30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God? What parable shall we use for it?"
- 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: "It is like a mustard seed. When it is sown in the ground, it is the smallest of all seeds on the earth.
- 32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all garden plants. It puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can nest in its shade."
- 33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. With many such parables He spoke the word to them, as they were able to understand it.
- 34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples. He did not speak to them without a parable. But when He was alone with His disciples, He explained everything to them.
- 35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side. On that same day, when evening came, He said to them, "Let us cross to the other side."
- 36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships. They dismissed the crowd and took Him along, just as He was, in the boat. Other boats were with Him.
- 37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. A great windstorm arose. The waves beat into the boat so that it was nearly full of water.

- | | | |

| 38 | And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? | Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke Him and said, "Master, don't You care that we are perishing?" |
| 39 | And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. | He got up and rebuked the wind. He said to the sea, "Peace! Be still." The wind died down and there was a great calm. |
| 40 | And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? | He said to them, "Why are You so fearful? Do You still have no faith?" |
| 41 | And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? | They were greatly afraid and said to one another, "Who is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?" |

| 1 | And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. | They crossed to the other side of the sea, into the region of the Gadarenes. |
| 2 | And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, | As Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs to meet Him. |
| 3 | Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains: | This man lived among the tombs. No one could bind him anymore, not even with chains. |

- 4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him. He had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he tore the chains apart and broke the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to tame him.
- 5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones. Night and day he wandered among the tombs and in the hills, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
- 6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, When He saw Jesus from a distance, He ran and worshiped Him.
- 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. He cried out in a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God's name, I beg You — don't torment me!"
- 8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit. For Jesus had said to Him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit."
- 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many. Jesus asked Him, "What is Your name?" He answered, "My name is Legion, for we are many."
- 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. He begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region.
- 11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. A large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside nearby.
- 12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. The demons begged Him, "Send us into the pigs. Let us enter them."

- 13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea. Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs, and the herd — about two thousand — rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned.
- 14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. Those who tended the pigs fled and spread the news in the town and countryside. People came out to see what had happened.
- 15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons sitting there, dressed and in His right mind. They were afraid.
- 16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine. Those who had seen it described what had happened to the man who had been demon-possessed, and also about the pigs.
- 17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts. Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their region.
- 18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed begged to go with him.
- 19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. But Jesus would not allow it. He said to Him, "Go home to Your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for You and how He had compassion on You."
- 20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. The man went away and began to tell in Decapolis how much Jesus had done for Him. Everyone was amazed.

| 21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea. | When Jesus had crossed back by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the sea. |
| 22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, | One of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jairus, came. When He saw Jesus, He fell at His feet |

■ NAME NOTE — Jairus (JAY-ih-rus) — Greek form of Hebrew Yair, "he enlightens" — A synagogue ruler whose twelve-year-old daughter Jesus raised from the dead.

| 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. | and pleaded with Him greatly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay Your hands on her so she may be healed and live." |
| 24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him. | Jesus went with Him. A large crowd followed and pressed around Him. |
| 25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, | A woman who had suffered a blood discharge for twelve years |
| 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, | had suffered greatly under many doctors. She had spent all she had, and instead of getting better she grew worse. |
| 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. | Having heard about Jesus, she came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment. |
| 28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. | For she said, "If I touch even His clothes, I will be healed." |

- 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. At once the flow of her blood stopped. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.
- 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? Jesus immediately knew that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched My clothes?"
- 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing around You, and yet You ask, 'Who touched Me?'"
- 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. He kept looking around to see who had done it.
- 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. The woman, knowing what had happened to her, came with fear and trembling. She fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.
- 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be free from your affliction."
- 35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? While He was still speaking, some people came from the ruler of the synagogue's house and said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Master any further?"
- 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe. Jesus overheard what they said. He told the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid. Just believe."
- 37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

| 38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. | When they arrived at the house of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw the commotion — people weeping and wailing loudly. |
| 39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. | He went in and said to them, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping." |
| 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying. | They laughed at Him. But He put them all out. He took the child's father and mother and those who were with Him, and went in where the child was lying. |
| 41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise. | He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to You, arise." |
| 42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. | The girl got up at once and began to walk around. She was twelve years old. They were completely astonished. |
| 43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat. | He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and told them to give her something to eat. |

- 2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard Him were astonished. "Where did this man get all this?" they asked. "What wisdom has been given to Him? How are such miracles done by His hands?"
- 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him. "Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joses, Juda, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?" They were offended at Him.
- 4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in His own hometown, among His own relatives, and in His own house."
- 5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them.
- 6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching. He was amazed at their unbelief. Then He went around teaching from village to village.
- 7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits; He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority over unclean spirits.
- 8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse: He instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff — no bag, no bread, no money in their belt.
- 9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats. They were to wear sandals but not take an extra shirt.

- 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For Herod himself had sent men to arrest John and had him bound in prison. He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom Herod had married.
- 18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. John had told Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
- 19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not: So Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not.
- 20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy man, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and a holy man. He kept him safe. When Herod heard him, he did many things, and listened to him gladly.
- 21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee; A suitable day came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee.
- 22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you."
- 23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. He swore to her, "Whatever you ask, I will give you — up to half my kingdom."
- 24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. She went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" Her mother said, "The head of John the Baptist."

- 25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist. She came back in at once to the king and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."
- 26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her. The king was deeply sorry, but because of his oath and his guests he did not want to refuse her.
- 27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, He immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went and beheaded John in the prison
- 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother. and brought his head on a platter. He gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.
- 29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb. When John's disciples heard about this, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.
- 30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him all they had done and taught.
- 31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while." So many people were coming and going that they did not even have time to eat.
- 32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. They went away by boat to a solitary place by themselves.
- 33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. But many people saw them leaving and recognized them. They ran on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.

- 34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. When Jesus landed and saw the large crowd, He had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. He began to teach them many things.
- 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed: When it was already late in the day, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place and it is already very late."
- 36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. "Send the people away so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."
- 37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? He answered, "You give them something to eat." They said to Him, "Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread and give it to them to eat?"
- 38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. He said, "How many loaves do You have? Go and see." When they found out, they said, "Five — and two fish."
- 39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. He directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass.
- 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. They sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.
- 41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves and gave them to His disciples to set before the people. He divided the two fish among them all.
- 42 And they did all eat, and were filled. They all ate and were satisfied.

- 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. The disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish.
- 44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men. The number of men who had eaten was about five thousand.
- 45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people. At once He made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd.
- 46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray. After He had sent them away, He went up on a mountain to pray.
- 47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and He was alone on land.
- 48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. He saw them straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. Shortly before dawn He came to them, walking on the sea. He was about to pass by them.
- 49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out: When they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought He was a ghost and cried out.
- 50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. They all saw Him and were terrified. But immediately He spoke to them and said, "Take courage. It is I. Don't be afraid."
- 51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were completely astonished.

|----|--|---|
| 52 | For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened. | They had not understood about the loaves. Their hearts were hardened. |
| 53 | And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. | When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. |
| 54 | And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, | As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. |
| 55 | And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. | They ran throughout the whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard He was. |
| 56 | And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole. | Wherever He went — into villages, towns, or countryside — they laid the sick in the marketplaces. They begged Him to let them touch even the edge of His garment. All who touched it were healed. |

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for holding to human traditions while neglecting the commandments of God. He teaches that defilement comes from the heart, not from unwashed hands, then heals the daughter of a Syrophenician woman and a deaf man with a speech impediment.

| 1 | Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem. | The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus. |
| 2 | And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault. | They saw some of His disciples eating bread with hands that were defiled — that is, unwashed. They found fault with this. |

- 3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands carefully, holding to the tradition of the elders.
- 4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables. When they come from the marketplace they do not eat unless they wash. They also observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and dining couches.
- 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands? The Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders? Why do they eat with unwashed hands?"
- 6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. He answered them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written: 'This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.'"
- 7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. "'Their worship of Me is worthless. They teach as doctrines the commandments of men.'"
- 8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. You have set aside the commandment of God to hold to the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups — and You do many other like things."
- 9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. He also said to them, "You skillfully set aside God's commandment in order to keep Your own tradition."
- 10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

- 11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. But you say that if a man tells his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might have received from me is Corban' — that is, a gift devoted to God — He is no longer required to do anything for His father or mother.
- 12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; That way you let him do nothing more for his father or mother.
- 13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye. So you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. You do many things like that.
- 14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand: He called the crowd to Him again and said, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand."
- 15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can defile him. It is the things that come out of a man that defile him.
- 16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.
- 17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. When He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples asked Him about the parable.
- 18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you see that nothing that enters a man from outside can defile him?"
- 19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats? "It does not enter his heart but his stomach, and then is expelled, purging all foods."

- 20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. He said, "What comes out of a man — that is what defiles him."
- 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, For from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,
- 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.
- 23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man. All these evil things come from inside a man and defile him.
- 24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. Jesus left there and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon. He entered a house and wanted no one to know he was there, but he could not stay hidden.
- 25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him. She came and fell at His feet.
- 26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by birth. She begged Him to drive the demon out of her daughter.
- 27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. Jesus said to her, "Let the children be satisfied first. It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."
- 28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. She answered, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."
- 29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. Then He told her, "Because of what You have said, go. The demon has left Your daughter."

- 30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed. She went home and found her child lying on the bed — the demon was gone.
- 31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. Then Jesus departed from the region of Tyre and Sidon and came to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of Decapolis.
- 32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. There they brought to Him a man who was deaf and could barely speak. They begged Jesus to place His hand on Him.
- 33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; Jesus took Him aside from the crowd, put His fingers into His ears, and touched His tongue with saliva.
- 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. Looking up to heaven, He sighed and said to the man, "Ephphatha," which means, "Be opened."
- 35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. At once the man's ears were opened, his tongue was freed, and he began to speak clearly.
- 36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it; Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more he commanded them, the more they spread the news.
- 37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak. People were completely astonished and said, "He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Chapter 8

Jesus feeds four thousand people with seven loaves, refuses the Pharisees' demand for a sign, and heals a blind man at Bethsaida. Peter confesses that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus foretells His suffering, death, and resurrection, calling on His followers to take up their cross.

| 1 In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, | In those days, when there was again a large crowd with nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and said to them, |
| 2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: | "I have compassion on this crowd because they have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat." |
| 3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far. | "If I send them home hungry, they will faint on the way. Some of them have come from a great distance." |
| 4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? | His disciples answered, "From where could anyone get enough bread to feed these people here in the wilderness?" |
| 5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. | He asked them, "How many loaves do You have?" "Seven," they said. |
| 6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. | He directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to His disciples to distribute. They set them before the crowd. |
| 7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. | They also had a few small fish. He gave thanks for these and told the disciples to distribute them as well. |
| 8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets. | The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. |
| 9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away. | About four thousand people had eaten. He sent them away. |

- 10 And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. He got into the boat with His disciples at once and went to the region of Dalmanutha.
- 11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. The Pharisees came out and began to question Him. To test Him, they demanded a sign from heaven.
- 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, "Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell You, no sign will be given to this generation."
- 13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side. He left them and got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.
- 14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf. The disciples had forgotten to bring bread. They had only one loaf with them in the boat.
- 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. Jesus warned them, "Watch out — beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."
- 16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. They discussed this among themselves: "He said this because we have no bread."
- 17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened? Jesus knew what they were saying. He said, "Why are You talking about having no bread? Don't You yet see or understand? Is Your heart still hardened?"
- 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? "Do You have eyes and fail to see? Do You have ears and fail to hear? Don't You remember?"
- 19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. "When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did You pick up?" "Twelve," they said.

- 20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. "And when the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many basketfuls did You pick up?" "Seven," they said.
- 21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand? He said to them, "Do You still not understand?"
- 22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch Him.
- 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. He spit on the man's eyes and put his hands on him. He asked, "Do you see anything?"
- 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. He looked up and said, "I see people — they look like trees walking around."
- 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. Jesus put His hands on the man's eyes again. He opened his eyes, and his sight was restored — he saw everything clearly.
- 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town. Jesus sent Him home, saying, "Don't go into the village or tell anyone in the village."
- 27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? Jesus and His disciples went out to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, "Who do people say I am?"
- 28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets. They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."

- 29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. "But who do You say I am?" He asked. Peter answered, "You are the Christ."
- 30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. He warned them not to tell anyone about him.
- 31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things. He would be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, and after three days He would rise again.
- 32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. He spoke plainly about this. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.
- 33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. Jesus turned and looked at His disciples, then rebuked Peter. He said, "Get behind Me, Satan! You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."
- 34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said, "Whoever wants to come after Me must deny himself, take up His cross, and follow Me."
- 35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. Whoever wants to save his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it.
- 36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? What does it profit a man to gain the whole world yet forfeit his soul?

| 37 | Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? | What can a man give in exchange for his soul? |
| 38 | Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. | Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation — the Son of Man will be ashamed of Him when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels. |

Chapter 9

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John on a high mountain, and Moses and Elijah appear with Him. He casts out a demon the disciples could not, foretells His death and resurrection a second time, and teaches that whoever would be greatest must be servant of all.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. | He said to them, "Truly I tell You, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power." |
| 2 | And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them. | After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him. He led them up a high mountain alone by themselves. He was transfigured before them. |
| 3 | And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them. | His clothes became dazzling white — whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. |
| 4 | And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. | Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. |
| 5 | And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. | Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 6 | For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid. | He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. |
| 7 | And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. | Then a cloud came and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him." |
| 8 | And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves. | Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one with them anymore except Jesus. |
| 9 | And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. | As they came down the mountain, He commanded them to tell no one what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. |
| 10 | And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean. | They kept the matter to themselves, asking each other what "rising from the dead" meant. |
| 11 | And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come? | They asked Him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" |
| 12 | And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. | He said to them, "Elijah does come first and restores all things. But how is it written of the Son of Man that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt?" |
| 13 | But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him. | "Truly I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, just as it is written about him." |
| 14 | And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. | When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the scribes arguing with them. |

- 15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. As soon as the crowd saw Jesus, they were greatly amazed and ran to greet Him.
- 16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? He asked the scribes, "What are You arguing with them about?"
- 17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; A man in the crowd answered, "Master, I brought you my son, who has a spirit that makes Him mute."
- 18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. "Wherever it takes hold of Him, it throws Him down. He foams at the mouth, gnashes His teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they could not."
- 19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. He answered, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with You? How long shall I put up with You? Bring the boy to Me."
- 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. They brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.
- 21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. Jesus asked His father, "How long has this been happening to Him?" "From childhood," He said.
- 22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. "It has often thrown Him into fire and into water to kill Him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."
- 23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. Jesus said to Him, "If You can believe — all things are possible to the one who believes."

- 24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. The father of the child cried out at once, "Lord, I believe — help my unbelief!"
- 25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. When Jesus saw that the crowd was running to see what was happening, He rebuked the unclean spirit. He said, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command You — come out of Him and never enter Him again."
- 26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. The spirit cried out, convulsed the boy violently, and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He is dead."
- 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose. But Jesus took Him by the hand and lifted Him up, and He stood up.
- 28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? After Jesus went indoors, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not drive it out?"
- 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting. He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing except prayer and fasting."
- 30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. They left that place and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know where they were.
- 31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. He was teaching His disciples, telling them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after three days He will rise."
- 32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him. They did not understand what He meant and were afraid to ask Him about it.

- 33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? They came to Capernaum. When He was in the house, He asked them, "What were You arguing about on the road?"
- 34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. They were silent, because on the road they had argued about who was the greatest.
- 35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."
- 36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, He took a little child and set Him in the middle of them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them,
- 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. "Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me. Whoever receives Me receives not Me but the One who sent Me."
- 38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us. John said to him, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we told Him to stop, because He was not one of us."
- 39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. Jesus said, "Do not stop Him. No one who does a miracle in My name can soon speak evil of Me."
- 40 For he that is not against us is on our part. Whoever is not against us is for us.
- 41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, truly I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. Truly I tell You, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose His reward.

- 42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for Him to have a large millstone hung around His neck and to be thrown into the sea.
- 43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: If Your hand causes You to sin, cut it off. It is better to enter life maimed than to go into hell with two hands — into the fire that never goes out.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word — "hell" — where the Greek uses three different words (Sheol, Hades, and Gehenna). All three refer to the place of the departed or the place of final punishment. Hell is real, it is terrible, and it is forever.

Chapter 10

Jesus teaches on divorce and blesses little children brought to Him. A rich young ruler refuses to sell all and follow Him, and Jesus tells His disciples that with God all things are possible. He foretells His death a third time, rebukes the ambition of James and John, and heals blind Bartimaeus near Jericho.

- 8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh.
- 9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate.
- 10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter. In the house His disciples asked Him again about this.
- 11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her."
- 12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.
- 13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. People were bringing little children to Jesus for Him to touch them. The disciples rebuked those who brought them.
- 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. When Jesus saw this, He was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to Me. Do not stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."
- 15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Truly I tell You, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.
- 16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. He took the children in His arms, placed His hands on them, and blessed them.

- 17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? As He was going out on the road, a man ran up and knelt before him. He asked, "Good Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
- 18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Jesus said to Him, "Why do You call Me good? No one is good except God alone."
- 19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor Your father and mother.
- 20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. The man replied, "Master, all these I have kept since I was young."
- 21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. Jesus looked at Him and loved Him. He said, "One thing You lack. Go, sell everything You have and give to the poor, and You will have treasure in heaven. Then come, take up Your cross, and follow Me."
- 22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. The man's face fell at these words. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.
- 23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!"
- 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! The disciples were amazed at His words. Jesus said again, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!"

- 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.
- 26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? They were even more amazed and said to one another, "Who then can be saved?"
- 27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible. Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. All things are possible with God."
- 28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Peter said to him, "We have left everything to follow You."
- 29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, Truly I tell You, Jesus answered, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for My sake and for the gospel's sake,
- 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. who will not receive a hundred times as much in this present age — houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and lands, along with persecutions — and in the age to come, eternal life.
- 31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.
- 32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him, They were on the road going up to Jerusalem. Jesus walked ahead of them. The disciples were amazed and those following were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him.

- 33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles: "We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles."
- 34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. "They will mock Him, spit on Him, flog Him, and kill Him. After three days He will rise again."
- 35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire. James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Master," they said, "we want You to do whatever we ask."
- 36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? He said to them, "What do You want Me to do for You?"
- 37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. They said, "Grant us to sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory."
- 38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? Jesus said to them, "You do not know what You are asking. Can You drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"
- 39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and You will be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with."
- 40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared. "But to sit on My right or left is not Mine to give. It belongs to those for whom it has been prepared."

| 42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. | Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them." |
| 43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: | It shall not be so among You. Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant. |
| 44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. | Whoever wants to be first among you must be slave of all. |
| 45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. | For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. |
| 46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. | They came to Jericho. As Jesus and His disciples were leaving Jericho with a large crowd, blind Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus was sitting by the roadside begging. |

■ NAME NOTE — Bartimaeus (bar-tih-MAY-us) — Aramaic, "son of Timaeus"
— A blind beggar near Jericho whose persistent cry for mercy led Jesus to restore his sight.

- 3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither. "If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'"
- 4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him. They went and found the colt tied outside in the street at a doorway. They untied it.
- 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? Some people standing there asked, "What are You doing, untying that colt?"
- 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go. They answered as Jesus had told them, and the people let them go.
- 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him. They brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and He sat on it.
- 8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way. Many people spread their cloaks on the road. Others spread branches they had cut from the fields.
- 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"
- 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!"
- 11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve. Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

- 12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: The next day, when they came from Bethany, He was hungry.
- 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. Seeing a fig tree in the distance with leaves on it, He went to see if it had any fruit. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs.
- 14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. Jesus said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard this.
- 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves; They came to Jerusalem. Jesus entered the temple and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.
- 16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. He would not allow anyone to carry goods through the temple courts.
- 17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves. He was teaching them and said, "Is it not written: 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But You have made it a den of thieves."
- 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine. The chief priests and scribes heard this and began to look for a way to destroy Him. They feared Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.
- 19 And when even was come, he went out of the city. When evening came, they went out of the city.
- 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. In the morning as they walked along, they saw that the fig tree had withered from its roots.

- 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has withered."
- 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. Jesus answered, "Have faith in God."
- 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Truly I tell You, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in His heart but believes that what He says will happen — it will be done for Him.
- 24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. Therefore I tell You, whatever You ask for in prayer, believe that You have received it, and it will be Yours.
- 25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. When You stand praying, forgive whatever You have against anyone, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive You Your sins.
- 26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses. But if You do not forgive, neither will Your Father in heaven forgive Your sins.
- 27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, They came again to Jerusalem. While He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.
- 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things? They asked, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?"

Chapter 12

Jesus tells the parable of the wicked husbandmen and silences the Pharisees, Herodians, and Sadducees who try to trap Him with questions about tribute, the resurrection, and the greatest commandment. He warns against the scribes and commends a poor widow who casts two mites into the treasury.

| 2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. | At harvest time He sent a servant to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from them. |
| 3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. | But they seized the servant, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. |
| 4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. | He sent another servant to them. They struck Him on the head and treated Him shamefully. |
| 5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. | He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others — they beat some and killed others. |
| 6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. | He had one more to send — a beloved son. He sent Him last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' |
| 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. | But those farmers said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill Him and the inheritance will be ours.' |
| 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. | They took Him, killed Him, and threw Him out of the vineyard. |
| 9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. | What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and give the vineyard to others. |

- 12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way. They wanted to arrest Him but were afraid of the crowd, because they understood He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.
- 13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. They sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to catch Him in His words.
- 14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? They came and said to Him, "Master, we know that You are truthful and show no partiality to anyone. You do not look at the outward appearance of men but teach the way of God truthfully. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"
- 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it. "Should we pay or not?" Knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, "Why are You testing Me? Bring Me a denarius so I can look at it."
- 16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's. They brought one. He asked, "Whose image and inscription is this?" "Caesar's," they said.
- 17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him. Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." They were amazed at Him.
- 18 Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked,
- 19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. "Master, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother."

- 20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed. There were seven brothers. The first one took a wife and died without leaving children.
- 21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise. The second one married the widow and also died without leaving children. The third did the same.
- 22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also. In fact, none of the seven left children. Last of all, the woman died too.
- 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. At the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven were married to her."
- 24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God? Jesus said to them, "Is this not the reason You are wrong — that You do not know the scriptures or the power of God?"
- 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven. When the dead rise, they neither marry nor are given in marriage. They are like the angels in heaven.
- 26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? As for the dead rising — have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to Him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?
- 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err. He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken."

- 28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? One of the scribes came and heard them arguing. When He noticed that Jesus had given them a good answer, He asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"
- 29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: Jesus answered, "The first is: 'Hear, O Israel — the Lord our God is one Lord.'"
- 30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. "'You shall love the Lord Your God with all Your heart, and with all Your soul, and with all Your mind, and with all Your strength.' This is the first commandment."
- 31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. "The second is this: 'You shall love Your neighbor as Yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."
- 32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he; The scribe said to him, "Well said, Master. You have spoken the truth — that He is one and there is no other besides Him."
- 33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. "To love Him with all the heart, all the understanding, and all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself — that is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."
- 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question. When Jesus saw that He answered wisely, He said to Him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any more questions.

- 35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David? While He was teaching in the temple, Jesus said, "How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?"
- 36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David himself, speaking by the Holy Ghost, said: 'The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.'
- 37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly. David himself calls him 'Lord.' How then can he be his son?" The large crowd listened to Him with delight.
- 38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces, In His teaching He said, "Watch out for the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes and receive greetings in the marketplaces."
- 39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts: "They love the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts."
- 40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation. "They devour widows' houses and for a show make long prayers. These men will receive greater damnation."
- 41 And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. Jesus sat across from the treasury and watched the crowd putting money into it. Many rich people put in large amounts.
- 42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing. But a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny.
- 43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury: He called His disciples together and said, "Truly I tell You, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others."

- 44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living. "They all gave out of their wealth. But she, out of her poverty, put in everything — all she had to live on."

Chapter 13

Jesus foretells the destruction of the temple and the signs of the end, including wars, earthquakes, famines, and false Christs. He describes His coming in the clouds with great power and glory and warns His disciples to watch, for no one knows the day or the hour.

- 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet. "When You hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is not yet."
- 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows. "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of sorrows."
- 9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. "You must watch out for yourselves. They will hand You over to the courts. You will be beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them."
- 10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations. "The gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations."
- 11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost. "When they arrest You and hand You over, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Say whatever is given You in that hour, for it is not You who speak but the Holy Ghost."
- 12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. "Brother will betray brother to death, and a father His child. Children will rise against their parents and have them put to death."
- 13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. "You will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who stands firm to the end will be saved."

- 14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains: "When you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not — let the reader understand — then those who are in Judaea should flee to the mountains."
- 15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house: "Let no one on the housetop go down or enter the house to take anything out."
- 16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment. "Let no one in the field go back to get his cloak."
- 17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! "How terrible it will be in those days for pregnant women and for nursing mothers!"
- 18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. "Pray that your flight will not take place in winter."
- 19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be. "For in those days there will be such distress as has not been seen from the beginning of God's creation until now, and will never be seen again."
- 20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. "If the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has cut them short."
- 21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not: "At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there He is!' — do not believe it."
- 22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. "For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and miracles to deceive, if possible, even the elect."

- 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. "But watch out — I have told You everything ahead of time."
- 24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light."
- 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. "The stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken."
- 26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory."
- 27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. "He will send out His angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of heaven."
- 28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts out leaves, You know that summer is near."
- 29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. "In the same way, when You see these things happening, know that it is near — right at the door."
- 30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. "Truly I tell You, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened."
- 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away."
- 32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. "But about that day or hour no one knows — not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

| 33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. | "Watch out! Stay alert and pray. You do not know when that time will come." |
| 34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. | "It is like a man going on a journey. He leaves his house and puts His servants in charge, each with their assigned task. He commands the doorkeeper to keep watch." |
| 35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: | "Therefore keep watch — for You do not know when the master of the house will come: whether in the evening, at midnight, at the crow of the rooster, or in the morning." |
| 36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. | "If He comes suddenly, do not let Him find You sleeping." |
| 37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch. | "What I say to You I say to everyone: Watch!" |

Chapter 14

A woman anoints Jesus with costly spikenard at Bethany, and Judas agrees to betray Him. Jesus observes the Last Supper, prays in the Garden of Gethsemane, is betrayed by Judas, arrested, tried before the high priest, and denied three times by Peter.

| 1 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death. | The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were two days away. The chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill Him. |
| 2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people. | "But not during the feast," they said, "or the people may riot." |

- 3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. While Jesus was in Bethany, reclining at table in the house of Simon the leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on His head.
- 4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? Some who were there were indignant and said to each other, "Why this waste of perfume?"
- 5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her. "It could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor." They rebuked her harshly.
- 6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me. Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are You bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to Me."
- 7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. "The poor You will always have with You, and You can help them whenever You wish. But You will not always have Me."
- 8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying. "She did what she could. She anointed My body beforehand for burial."
- 9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. "Truly I tell You, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."
- 10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them. Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.

- 11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him. When they heard this they were delighted and promised to give him money. So Judas watched for a good opportunity to hand him over.
- 12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover? On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, His disciples asked Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
- 13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him. He sent two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city. A man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him."
- 14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? "Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, 'The Master says: Where is My guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'"
- 15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us. "He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."
- 16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. The disciples left and went into the city. They found things just as He had told them and prepared the Passover.
- 17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. When evening came, He arrived with the twelve.
- 18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me. While they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell You, one of You will betray Me — one who is eating with Me."

- 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? They were grieved and began to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"
- 20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish. He said to them, "It is one of the twelve — one who dips bread into the bowl with Me."
- 21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born. "The Son of Man goes as it is written about Him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had never been born."
- 22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, and broke it. He gave it to them and said, "Take — this is My body."
- 23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. Then He took a cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.
- 24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. He said to them, "This is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many."
- 25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. "Truly I tell You, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
- 26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
- 27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of Me this night. For it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'"
- 28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. "But after I am raised up, I will go before You into Galilee."

- 29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. Peter said to him, "Even if everyone falls away, I will not."
- 30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. Jesus said to Him, "Truly I tell You, today — this very night — before the rooster crows twice, You will deny Me three times."
- 31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. But Peter insisted all the more, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." All the others said the same.
- 32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. They came to a place called Gethsemane. He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."
- 33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; He took Peter, James, and John with him. He began to be deeply distressed and troubled.
- 34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch. He said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch."
- 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from Him.
- 36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will."
- 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour? He came back and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?"

- 38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. "Watch and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
- 39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. He went away again and prayed, saying the same words.
- 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him. When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to Him.
- 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. He came back a third time and said to them, "Are You still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners."
- 42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. "Get up, let us go. Look — My betrayer is near."
- 43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. At once, while He was still speaking, Judas — one of the twelve — arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.
- 44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. The betrayer had given them a signal: "The man I kiss is the one. Arrest him and lead him away securely."
- 45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him. Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed him.
- 46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him. The men seized Jesus and arrested Him.
- 47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. One of those standing nearby drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

- 48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me? Jesus said to them, "Have You come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as though I were a robber?"
- 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled. "Every day I was with You in the temple teaching, and You did not arrest Me. But the scriptures must be fulfilled."
- 50 And they all forsook him, and fled. Then all His disciples left Him and fled.
- 51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: A young man was following Him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth over His body. They grabbed Him,
- 52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. but He left the linen cloth and ran away naked.
- 53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. They led Jesus to the high priest. All the chief priests, elders, and scribes gathered together.
- 54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. Peter followed Jesus at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. He sat with the guards and warmed Himself at the fire.
- 55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none. The chief priests and the whole council were looking for testimony against Jesus in order to put Him to death. But they found none.
- 56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. Many gave false testimony against Him, but their testimony did not agree.
- 57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, Some stood up and gave this false testimony against Him:

- 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands and in three days build another not made with hands.'"
- 59 But neither so did their witness agree together. But even on this point their testimony did not agree.
- 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? Then the high priest stood up in the middle and asked Jesus, "Do You have no answer? What is this testimony these men are bringing against You?"
- 61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer. The high priest asked Him again, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"
- 62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Jesus said, "I am. And You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven."
- 63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses? The high priest tore His clothes. "What further need do we have of witnesses?" he said.
- 64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. "You have heard the blasphemy. What do You think?" They all condemned Him as deserving death.
- 65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands. Some began to spit on Him. They blindfolded Him and struck Him, saying, "Prophecy!" The guards also took Him and beat Him.
- 66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by.

- 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with Jesus of Nazareth."
- 68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. But He denied it. "I don't know or understand what You're talking about," he said. He went out into the entrance, and a rooster crowed.
- 69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. The servant girl saw him there and again said to those standing nearby, "This man is one of them."
- 70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. He denied it again. A little later those standing there said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean."
- 71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. He began to call down curses, and he swore, "I do not know this man you are talking about."
- 72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept. At once a rooster crowed a second time. Peter remembered how Jesus had said to Him, "Before the rooster crows twice, You will deny Me three times." He broke down and wept.

Chapter 15

Jesus is delivered to Pontius Pilate, who offers to release Him, but the crowd demands Barabbas. The soldiers mock Jesus, crown Him with thorns, and crucify Him at Golgotha. He cries out, gives up His spirit, and Joseph of Arimathaea buries Him in a tomb hewn from rock.

| 1 And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate. | Very early in the morning the chief priests, with the elders, scribes, and the whole council, reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate. |

| 2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it. | Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "You have said so." |
| 3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. | The chief priests accused Him of many things, but He answered nothing. |
| 4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. | Pilate asked him again, "Do you have no answer? See how many things they are accusing You of." |
| 5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled. | But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate was amazed. |
| 6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. | Now at the feast He was accustomed to release to them one prisoner — whichever one they asked for. |
| 7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. | A man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the uprising. |

■ NAME NOTE — Barabbas (buh-RAB-us) — Aramaic, "son of the father" — A murderer and insurrectionist who was released instead of Jesus, a striking picture of substitution: the guilty set free while the innocent is condemned.

| 8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them. | The crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do for them as he always did. |
|--|--|

- 9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Pilate answered them, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
- 10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy. He knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over.
- 11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas to them instead.
- 12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? "What then do you want me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked.
- 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. They shouted back, "Crucify Him!"
- 14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. "Why? What crime has He committed?" Pilate asked. They shouted even louder, "Crucify him!"
- 15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged and handed Him over to be crucified.
- 16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band. The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace — that is, the Praetorium — and called the whole company of soldiers together.
- 17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, They clothed Him in purple and twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on Him.
- 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! They began to call out to Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
- 19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. They struck His head with a staff and spit on Him. Falling on their knees, they mocked worship before Him.

- 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. When they had finished mocking Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.
- 21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. They forced a man named Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, who was coming in from the country, to carry His cross.
- 22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha — which means "The Place of a Skull."
- 23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. They offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it.
- 24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. When they crucified Him, they divided His clothes by casting lots to decide what each would get.
- 25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. It was the third hour when they crucified Him.
- 26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. The written notice of the charge against Him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. They crucified two robbers with Him, one on His right and one on His left.
- 28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. So the scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors."
- 29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, Those who passed by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads and saying, "So! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days —"
- 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross. "Come down from the cross and save Yourself!"

- 31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save. In the same way the chief priests and scribes mocked Him among themselves. "He saved others," they said, "but He cannot save Himself!"
- 32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him. "Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now so that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with Him also insulted Him.
- 33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. When the sixth hour came, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour.
- 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? At the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" — which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"
- 35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias. When some who stood by heard this, they said, "Listen, He is calling Elijah."
- 36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down. Someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He put it on a stick and offered it to Jesus to drink. "Let Him alone," He said. "Let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down."
- 37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. Jesus cried out with a loud voice and gave up the spirit.
- 38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.
- 39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he cried out and gave up the spirit, He said, "Truly this man was the Son of God."

- 40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

■ NAME NOTE — Mary Magdalene (MAIR-ee MAG-duh-leen) — "Mary from Magdala," a town on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee — She had been delivered of seven demons by Jesus and became one of His most devoted followers, the first to see Him after His resurrection.

- 41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem. These women had followed Jesus and served Him when He was in Galilee. Many other women who had come up with Him to Jerusalem were also there.
- 42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, When evening came, because it was the Day of Preparation — the day before the Sabbath —
- 43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who was Himself waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

■ NAME NOTE — Joseph of Arimathaea (JOH-zuf of air-ih-muh-THEE-uh) — "Joseph from Arimathaea," a town northwest of Jerusalem — A wealthy member of the Sanhedrin who was a secret disciple of Jesus. He claimed the body of Jesus and placed it in his own new tomb.

- 5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side. They were alarmed.
- 6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. "Do not be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him."
- 7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. "But go and tell His disciples — and Peter — that he is going ahead of you into Galilee. You will see Him there, just as He told you."
- 8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid. They went out and fled from the tomb. Trembling and amazed, they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.
- 9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.
- 10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.
- 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.
- 12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. After this, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they walked along in the country.
- 13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them. These two went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them either.

Luke

Author: Luke, "the beloved physician" (Col 4:14) and travel companion of Paul — the only Gentile author in the NT. The same author wrote Acts; together Luke-Acts forms a two-volume work addressed to Theophilus.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, likely during Paul's imprisonment at Caesarea when Luke had access to eyewitnesses in Judea.

Written to: Theophilus — a Gentile, probably a Roman official of some rank — and through him the wider Gentile world seeking an orderly account of Christian origins.

Setting: Luke investigates "from the very first" (1:3), interviewing eyewitnesses and consulting sources to produce the most comprehensive of the four Gospels. He begins before the birth of John the Baptist and ends at the ascension.

Where this sits historically: Written during Nero's reign while Paul was imprisoned (in Caesarea c. AD 57–59 or Rome c. AD 60–62), with Festus and later Albinus governing Judea on the eve of the Jewish revolt.

Contemporaries: Paul was composing the prison epistles (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon), Mark's Gospel was circulating, and James the Just was leading the Jerusalem church until his martyrdom around AD 62.

Big themes:

- Jesus as Saviour of all — Luke emphasizes Gentiles, women, the poor, and social outcasts more than any other Gospel; salvation is for everyone
- Prayer — Luke records Jesus praying more than any other Gospel writer; ten instances of prayer appear only in Luke
- The Holy Spirit — the Spirit is prominent from the birth narratives through to Pentecost; Luke-Acts together trace the Spirit's work
- Praise — the birth narrative contains four great hymns (Magnificat, Benedictus, Gloria, Nunc Dimittis) found only in Luke
- Parables of grace — the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, and the Pharisee and Tax Collector are found only in Luke

Key passages: Luke 1:46–55; 2:10–11; 4:18; 15:20; 24:45–47

How it fits: Luke provides the most detailed infancy narrative and the most carefully ordered account of the journey to Jerusalem. His Gospel bridges from Jewish roots (the temple, the law, the prophets) to the universal mission that Acts then traces to Rome. Together Luke-Acts is the longest single contribution to the NT by any one author.

Chapter 1

The angel Gabriel appears to Zacharias in the temple, announcing that his wife Elisabeth will bear a son named John. Gabriel then visits the virgin Mary in Nazareth and tells her she will conceive the Son of the Highest by the Holy Ghost. Mary visits Elisabeth, sings the Magnificat, and John the Baptist is born.

Chapter 3

John the Baptist preaches repentance and baptizes in the Jordan, warning the crowds to bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. Jesus is baptized, the Holy Ghost descends on Him like a dove, and the Father's voice declares Him His beloved Son. Luke traces Jesus's genealogy from Joseph back through David and Abraham to Adam.

Chapter 4

Jesus, full of the Holy Ghost, is tempted by the devil in the wilderness for forty days and overcomes every temptation with Scripture. He reads from Isaiah in the synagogue at Nazareth and declares the prophecy fulfilled, but the people of His hometown reject Him and try to throw Him off a cliff. He casts out demons and heals the sick in Capernaum.

- 32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power. They were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority.
- 33 And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean devil, and he cried out with a loud voice,
- 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God. "Leave us alone! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God."

- 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. Jesus rebuked Him and said, "Be silent, and come out of Him!" The devil threw the man down in the middle of the crowd and came out of Him without hurting Him.
- 36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. They were all amazed and said to one another, "What kind of word is this? With authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"
- 37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about. News about Him spread to every place in the surrounding region.
- 38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. He left the synagogue and entered Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a severe fever, and they asked Him to help her.
- 39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them. He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She immediately rose and began serving them.
- 40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. When the sun was setting, all who had sick people with various diseases brought them to Him. He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them.
- 41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. Devils also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are Christ the Son of God!" He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Christ.

Chapter 5

Jesus teaches from Simon's boat, then commands a miraculous catch of fish so great the nets begin to break. He cleanses a leper, heals a paralytic lowered through the roof, and calls Levi the tax collector to follow Him.

|---|---|--|
| 1 | And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, | One day, as the crowd pressed around Him to hear the word of God, He was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. |
| 2 | And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. | He saw two boats at the shore of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. |
| 3 | And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. | He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then He sat down and taught the people from the boat. |
| 4 | Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. | When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." |

- 5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. Simon answered, "Master, we have worked hard all night and caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the net."
- 6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake. When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net began to break.
- 7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.
- 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees and said, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."
- 9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: He was astonished — and so were all who were with Him — at the catch of fish they had taken.
- 10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. So also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching men."
- 11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him. When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.
- 12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. While He was in one of the cities, a man full of leprosy saw Jesus. He fell on His face and begged Him, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

- 13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. Jesus stretched out His hand and touched Him, saying, "I am willing — be clean." Immediately the leprosy left Him.
- 14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. He told him to tell no one, but said, "Go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a witness to them."
- 15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. But the news about Him spread even more. Large crowds came together to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.
- 16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. But He would withdraw to deserted places and pray.
- 17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. One day as He was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee and Judaea and from Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was present to heal.
- 18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. Some men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they tried to bring him in and lay Him before Jesus.
- 19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. Finding no way to bring Him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered Him on His mat through the tiles into the middle of the room, right before Jesus.

| 20 | And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. | When He saw their faith, He said, "Man, Your sins are forgiven You." |
| 21 | And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? | The scribes and Pharisees began to question this, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" |
| 22 | But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? | Jesus knew their thoughts and answered them, "Why are You reasoning in Your hearts?" |
| 23 | Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? | Which is easier — to say, 'Your sins are forgiven You,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? |
| 24 | But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. | But so that You may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" — He said to the paralyzed man — "I say to You, rise, take up Your mat, and go home." |
| 25 | And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. | Immediately He rose before them all, took up what He had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. |
| 26 | And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day. | They were all amazed and glorified God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today." |
| 27 | And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. | After this He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. He said to Him, "Follow Me." |

■ NAME NOTE — Levi (LEE-vy) — "joined" or "attached" — Also called Matthew. A tax collector whom Jesus called to be His disciple. He left everything to follow Christ.

38	But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.	New wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved.
39	No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.	No one who has drunk old wine wants the new right away, for He says, "The old is better."

Chapter 6

Jesus defends His disciples for plucking grain on the Sabbath and heals a man with a withered hand, provoking the scribes and Pharisees. He chooses the twelve apostles and delivers the Sermon on the Plain, teaching about blessings and woes, loving one's enemies, judging others, and building on a sure foundation.

1	And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.	On a Sabbath, as He was passing through the grain fields, His disciples plucked heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them.
2	And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?	Some of the Pharisees said, "Why are You doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"
3	And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;	Jesus answered them, "Have You not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with Him —

- 4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? how He entered the house of God and took and ate the showbread, and gave some to those with Him? This bread is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests alone."
- 5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
- 6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. On another Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught. A man was there whose right hand was withered.
- 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. The scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath, so they could find a reason to accuse Him.
- 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. But He knew their thoughts and said to the man with the withered hand, "Rise and stand in the middle." He rose and stood there.
- 9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? Jesus said to them, "I ask You one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil? To save life or to destroy it?"
- 10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. He looked around at all of them and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored.
- 11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus. They were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

- 12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. In those days He went out to the mountain to pray and spent the whole night in prayer to God.
- 13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; When day came, He called His disciples and chose twelve of them, whom He named apostles:
- 14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, Simon (whom he named Peter), Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,
- 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes,
- 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor. Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.
- 17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; He came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples was there, along with a great number of people from all Judaea and Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. They came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases.
- 18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. Those troubled by unclean spirits were also healed.
- 19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. The whole crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was going out from Him and healing everyone.
- 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. He lifted up His eyes on His disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again. | Give, and it will be given to You — good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into Your lap. For with the measure You use, it will be measured back to You." |
| 39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? | He also told them a parable: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a ditch? |

- 40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. A disciple is not above His teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like His teacher.
- 41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Why do You see the speck in Your brother's eye but fail to notice the beam in Your own eye?
- 42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. How can You say to Your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck from Your eye,' when You don't see the beam in Your own eye? You hypocrite — first take the beam out of Your own eye, and then You will see clearly to remove the speck from Your brother's eye.
- 43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. A good tree does not produce corrupt fruit, and a corrupt tree does not produce good fruit.
- 44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. Every tree is known by its own fruit. People do not gather figs from thorns, or grapes from a bramble bush.
- 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. A good man brings forth good from the good stored in His heart. An evil man brings forth evil from the evil stored in His heart. For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.
- 46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Why do You call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I say?
- 47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and does them — I will show You what He is like.

- 48 He is like a man which built an house, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. He is like a man who built a house and dug deep, laying the foundation on rock. When the flood rose, the stream beat against that house but could not shake it, because it was built on rock.
- 49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great. But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream beat against it, it immediately collapsed, and the ruin was great."

Chapter 7

Jesus heals the centurion's servant from a distance, marveling at the centurion's faith, and raises a widow's dead son at Nain. John the Baptist sends messengers asking if Jesus is the one who was to come, and Jesus answers by pointing to His miracles. A sinful woman washes Jesus's feet with her tears and anoints them with ointment, and Jesus forgives her sins.

A large crowd from the city was with her.

- 13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, "Do not weep."
- 14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. He came and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stopped. He said, "Young man, I say to You, arise."
- 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave Him back to His mother.
- 16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people. Fear came on everyone, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us!" and "God has visited His people!"
- 17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about. This report about Him spread through all Judaea and the surrounding region.
- 18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things. The disciples of John told him about all these things.
- 19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? John called two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for another?"
- 20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? When the men came to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?'"
- 21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight. In that same hour He healed many people of sicknesses and afflictions and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind.

- 22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. He answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them.
- 23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. Blessed is the one who is not offended by Me."
- 24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind? When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
- 25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. What did You go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear fine clothes and live in luxury are in royal palaces.
- 26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. What did You go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell You, and much more than a prophet.
- 27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. This is the one about whom it is written: 'I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.'
- 28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. I tell You, among those born of women there is no greater prophet than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than He."
- 29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. All the people who heard him, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God's justice, having been baptized with John's baptism.

She brought an alabaster flask of ointment, |

- 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears. She wiped them with her hair, kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
- 39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman is touching Him — she is a sinner."
- 40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on. Jesus answered Him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said, "Master, say it."
- 41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. "A certain creditor had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty.
- 42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? When neither of them could pay, He cancelled both debts. Which of them will love Him more?"
- 43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. Simon answered, "The one who had the larger debt cancelled, I suppose." He said to Him, "You have judged correctly."
- 44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Turning to the woman he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house. You gave Me no water for My feet, but she washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.
- 45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. You gave Me no kiss, but she has not stopped kissing My feet since I came in.

Chapter 8

Jesus travels through cities and villages preaching, accompanied by the twelve and several women who provide for Him. He tells the parable of the sower, calms a storm on the sea, casts a legion of demons out of a man among the tombs, heals a woman with a twelve-year flow of blood, and raises Jairus's daughter from the dead.

| 4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: | When a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable: |
| 5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. | "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path, was trampled, and the birds of the air devoured it. |
| 6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. | Some fell on the rock, and as it grew up it withered away because it had no moisture. |
| 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. | Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. |
| 8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. | Other seed fell on good ground and grew up and produced a hundredfold." As He said this, He called out, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear." |
| 9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? | His disciples asked Him what this parable meant. |
| 10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. | He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to others I speak in parables, so that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. |
| 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. | Now this is what the parable means: The seed is the word of God. |
| 12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. | Those along the path are those who hear, but then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. |

- 13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Those on the rock are those who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, and in a time of testing they fall away.
- 14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. The seed that fell among thorns — these are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches, and pleasures, and they never mature.
- 15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. The seed on the good ground — these are those who hear the word with an honest and good heart, hold it fast, and produce fruit with patience.
- 16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light. No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. He puts it on a stand so that those who enter may see the light.
- 17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, and nothing is hidden that will not be known and come to light.
- 18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Therefore take care how you hear. Whoever has, more will be given to him. Whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him."
- 19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. His mother and brothers came to Him, but they could not reach Him because of the crowd.
- 20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. Someone told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You."

- 21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it. He answered them, "My mother and My brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."
- 22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth. One day He got into a boat with His disciples and said, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." They set out.
- 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. As they were sailing He fell asleep. A windstorm came down on the lake, the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.
- 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. They came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" He rose and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. They stopped, and there was calm.
- 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him. He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Afraid and amazed, they said to one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"
- 26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. They sailed to the region of the Gadarenes, which is across from Galilee.
- 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When He stepped ashore, a man from the city met him who had had devils for a long time. He wore no clothes and did not live in a house but among the tombs.

- 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. When He saw Jesus, He cried out, fell down before Him, and said with a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!"
- 29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was bound with chains and shackles, He would break them and be driven by the devil into the wilderness.
- 30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. Jesus asked Him, "What is Your name?" He said, "Legion," because many devils had entered Him.
- 31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. They begged Him not to command them to go into the abyss.
- 32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. A large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside. The devils begged Him to let them enter the pigs, and He allowed it.
- 33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. The devils came out of the man and entered the pigs. The herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.
- 34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside.

- 35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the devils had gone, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in His right mind. They were afraid.
- 36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed. Those who had seen it told them how the demon-possessed man had been healed.
- 37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again. The whole crowd from the region of the Gadarenes asked Him to leave them, for they were seized with great fear. So He got into the boat and returned.
- 38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, The man from whom the devils had gone begged to be with Him. But Jesus sent Him away, saying,
- 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him. "Return to Your home and tell how much God has done for You." He went away and proclaimed throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for Him.
- 40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him.
- 41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: A man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet. He begged Him to come to His house,

■ NAME NOTE — Jairus (JAY-ih-rus) — "he will enlighten" or "God enlightens"
 — A ruler of the synagogue whose daughter Jesus raised from the dead.

- 10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. When the apostles returned, they told Him all they had done. He took them and withdrew privately to a place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
- 11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing. When the crowds learned of it, they followed Him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.
- 12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. As the day began to draw to a close, the twelve came to Him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are here in a deserted place."
- 13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people. But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish — unless we go and buy food for all this people."
- 14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company. There were about five thousand men. He said to His disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."
- 15 And they did so, and made them all sit down. They did so, and had everyone sit down.
- 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. He took the five loaves and two fish, looked up to heaven, and gave thanks. - 18 And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am? One day as He was praying alone with His disciples nearby, He asked them, "Who do the people say that I am?"
- 19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again. They answered, "John the Baptist. Others say Elijah, and others say that one of the ancient prophets has risen."
- 20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God. He said to them, "But who do You say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God."
- 21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing; He strictly charged them and commanded them to tell this to no one,
- 22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day. saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes. He must be killed, and on the third day be raised."
- 23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. He said to all, "If anyone wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up His cross daily and follow Me.
- 24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.
- 25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits Himself?

- 26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in His own glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.
- 27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God. But truly I tell You, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."
- 28 And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. About eight days after saying these things, He took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray.
- 29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. As He prayed, the fashion of His countenance was altered, and His clothes became white and gleaming.
- 30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: Two men were talking with Him — Moses and Elijah —
- 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. who appeared in glory and spoke of His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.
- 32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep. When they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him.
- 33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. As the men were parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — not knowing what he was saying.

- 34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. While He was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.
- 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son — hear Him!"
- 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.
- 37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him. On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him.
- 38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child. A man in the crowd cried out, "Master, I beg you, look on my son, for He is my only child.
- 39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him. A spirit seizes Him and He suddenly cries out. It throws Him into convulsions and He foams at the mouth. It bruises Him and barely leaves Him.
- 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not. I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."
- 41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither. Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with You and bear with You? Bring Your son here."

- 42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. As the boy was coming, the devil threw him down and convulsed him. Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.
- 43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, They were all amazed at the majesty of God. While everyone was marveling at all Jesus did, He said to His disciples,
- 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men. "Let these words sink into Your ears: the Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men."
- 45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying. But they did not understand what He said. It was hidden from them so they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.
- 46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. An argument arose among them about which of them was the greatest.
- 47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, Jesus, knowing the thought of their hearts, took a child and set Him by His side.
- 48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. He said to them, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives the One who sent Me. For the one who is least among you all is the one who is great."
- 49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us. John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out devils in your name, and we stopped Him because He does not follow with us."

- 50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us. Jesus said to Him, "Do not stop Him, for the one who is not against us is for us."
- 51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, When the time drew near for Him to be taken up, He set His face steadfastly to go to Jerusalem.
- 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. He sent messengers ahead of Him, and they went into a village of the Samaritans to prepare for Him.
- 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. But the people did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.
- 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven and consume them, as Elijah did?"
- 55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. But He turned and rebuked them and said, "You do not know what spirit you are of.
- 56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village. For the Son of Man has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." And they went to another village.
- 57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "Lord, I will follow you wherever You go."
- 58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Jesus said to Him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

| 59 | And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. | He said to another, "Follow Me." But He said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." |
| 60 | Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. | Jesus said to Him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. But You go and proclaim the kingdom of God." |
| 61 | And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. | Another said, "Lord, I will follow You, but let me first say farewell to those at my home." |
| 62 | And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God. | Jesus said to Him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God." |

Jesus sends out seventy disciples ahead of Him into every city. He pronounces woe on Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum for their unbelief, and tells the parable of the Good Samaritan. He visits the home of Martha and Mary, commending Mary for choosing the better part.

| 1 | After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come. | After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them out two by two ahead of Him into every city and place where He Himself was about to come. |
| 2 | Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. | He said to them, "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. Pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest. |
| 3 | Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. | Go — I send You out as lambs among wolves. |
| 4 | Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. | Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals. Greet no one along the road. |

| 5 | And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. | Into whatever house You enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' |
| 6 | And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. | If a son of peace is there, Your peace will rest on Him. If not, it will return to You. |
| 7 | And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. | Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the worker is worthy of His wages. Do not go from house to house. |
| 8 | And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: | Whenever You enter a city and they receive You, eat what is set before You. |
| 9 | And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. | Heal the sick there and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to You.' |
| 10 | But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, | But when You enter a city and they do not receive You, go into its streets and say, |
| 11 | Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. | 'Even the dust of Your city that clings to our feet we wipe off against You. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.' |
| 12 | But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. | I tell You, it will be more bearable for Sodom on that day than for that city. |
| 13 | Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. | Woe to You, Chorazin! Woe to You, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in You had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. |

- 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you. It will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for You.
- 15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell. And You, Capernaum — will You be lifted up to heaven? You will be brought down to hell.
- 16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Whoever listens to you listens to Me. Whoever rejects you rejects Me. And whoever rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."
- 17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the devils are subject to us in Your name!"
- 18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.
- 19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will hurt you by any means.
- 20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this — that the spirits are subject to you — but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."
- 21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. At that moment Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was Your good pleasure.

- 22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."
- 23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: Turning to His disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what You see.
- 24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. For I tell You that many prophets and kings wanted to see what You see but did not see it, and to hear what You hear but did not hear it."
- 25 And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? A certain lawyer stood up to test Him, saying, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"
- 26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? He said to Him, "What is written in the law? How do You read it?"
- 27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. He answered, "You shall love the Lord Your God with all Your heart, with all Your soul, with all Your strength, and with all Your mind; and Your neighbor as Yourself."
- 28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. He said to Him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and You will live."
- 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? But wanting to justify Himself, He said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

- 30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Jesus answered, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and He fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped Him of His clothes, beat Him, and left Him half dead.
- 31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. A priest happened to be going down that road. When he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.
- 32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.
- 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came to where the man was. When he saw him, he had compassion on him.
- 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. He went to him, bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
- 35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. He said, "Take care of him, and whatever more you spend I will repay you when I come back."
- 36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"
- 37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. He said, "The one who showed mercy on him." Jesus said to Him, "Go and do likewise."

- 38

Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.
- As they went on their way, He entered a village. A woman named Martha received him into her house.

■ NAME NOTE — Martha (MAR-thuh) — "lady" or "mistress of the house" — Sister of Mary and Lazarus of Bethany. She welcomed Jesus into her home and is known for her service.

And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.
- She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his word.
- 40

But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.
- But Martha was distracted with much serving. She came to Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her to help me."
- 41

And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:
- The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things.
- 42

But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.
- But one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken away from her."

Chapter 11

Jesus teaches His disciples to pray and gives them a model prayer. He casts out a demon and refutes the accusation that He works by Beelzebub, declaring that a kingdom divided against itself cannot stand. He pronounces woes on the Pharisees and lawyers for their hypocrisy.

- 1 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. One day He was praying in a certain place. When He stopped, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."
- 2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. He said to them, "When You pray, say: Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
- 3 Give us day by day our daily bread. Give us day by day our daily bread.
- 4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."
- 5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; He said to them, "Which of You will have a friend, and will go to Him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves,

- 26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there. The final condition of that man is worse than the first."

- 27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nursed You!"
- 28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. But He said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"
- 29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet. When the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet.

When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body is full of darkness. |
| 35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. | Be careful, then, that the light in you is not darkness. |
| 36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light. | If your whole body is full of light, with no dark part, then it will be completely bright, as when a lamp gives you light with its bright rays. |
| 37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. | As He was speaking, a Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. He went in and reclined at the table. |
| 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. | The Pharisee was surprised to see that he did not first wash before dinner. |
| 39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. | The Lord said to Him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but your inside is full of greed and wickedness. |
| 40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also? | You fools! Did not He who made the outside also make the inside? |
| 41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you. | Give what is inside as charity, and all things will be clean for you. |

- 42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you should have done, without leaving the others undone.
- 43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.
- 44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."
- 45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also. One of the lawyers answered Him, "Master, in saying these things You insult us too."
- 46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch those burdens with even one of your fingers.
- 47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
- 48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. So you are witnesses that you approve of your fathers' deeds — they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs.
- 49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: Therefore the wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,'

| 52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. | Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering." |
| 53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: | When He left there, the scribes and Pharisees began to press Him fiercely and to interrogate Him about many things, |

Jesus warns His disciples against the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy, and teaches them not to fear those who can kill the body. He tells the parable of the rich fool who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God, and urges His followers to be watchful and ready for the Son of man's coming.

| 1 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. | When countless thousands of people had gathered, so that they were trampling one another, He began to say to His disciples first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. |

Yes, I tell You, fear Him. |

Chapter 13

Jesus warns that unless the people repent, they will likewise perish, and He tells the parable of the barren fig tree. He heals a woman bent over for eighteen years on the Sabbath, teaches about the narrow gate, and laments over Jerusalem.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. | At that time, some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. |
| 2 | And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? | Jesus answered them, "Do You think those Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered this way?" |
| 3 | I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. | No, I tell You. But unless You repent, You will all likewise perish. |
| 4 | Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? | Or those eighteen on whom the tower of Siloam fell and killed them — do You think they were worse sinners than all others who lived in Jerusalem? |
| 5 | I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. | No, I tell You. But unless You repent, You will all likewise perish." |
| 6 | He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. | He also told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. |
| 7 | Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? | He said to the keeper of his vineyard, "Three years now I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and found none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?" |
| 8 | And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: | The keeper answered Him, 'Sir, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. |
| 9 | And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. | If it bears fruit next year, good. If not, then cut it down.' " |

| 10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. | He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. |
| 11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. | There was a woman who had a spirit of illness for eighteen years. She was bent double and could not straighten up at all. |
| 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. | When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, You are set free from Your illness." |
| 13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. | He laid His hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight and praised God. |
| 14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. | The ruler of the synagogue was angry because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath. He said to the people, "There are six days in which people ought to work. Come on those days and be healed — not on the Sabbath day." |
| 15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? | The Lord answered Him, "You hypocrite! Does not each of You on the Sabbath untie His ox or his donkey from the stall and lead it away to water?" |
| 16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? | Should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has bound for eighteen years, be set free from this bond on the Sabbath day?" |
| 17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. | When He said this, all His opponents were put to shame. All the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he was doing. |

| 18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? | Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to?" |
| 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it. | It is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches." |
| 20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? | Again He said, "What shall I compare the kingdom of God to?" |
| 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. | It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour until the whole batch was leavened." |
| 22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. | He traveled through towns and villages, teaching as He made His way to Jerusalem. |
| 23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, | Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" He said to them, |
| 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. | "Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. |
| 25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: | Once the master of the house rises and shuts the door, you will stand outside and knock, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us.' He will answer, 'I do not know where you are from.' |
| 26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. | Then you will say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence. You taught in our streets.' |

- 27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.'

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than the word "sin." Iniquity points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself, not just the act.

Chapter 14

Jesus heals a man with dropsy on the Sabbath in the house of a Pharisee and teaches about humility at feasts. He tells the parable of the great supper, where those first invited refuse and the poor and outcast are brought in, and warns that those who follow Him must count the cost.

| 7 | And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them, | When He noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, He told them a parable. |
| 8 | When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; | "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the place of honor. A more distinguished man than you may have been invited. |
| 9 | And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. | The host who invited both of you will come and say, 'Give this man your seat.' Then you will have to take the lowest seat in shame. |
| 10 | But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. | But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place. Then your host will come and say, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' That will bring you honor in front of everyone at the table. |
| 11 | For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. | For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted." |
| 12 | Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. | He also said to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, or your rich neighbors. They may invite you back and repay you. |
| 13 | But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: | But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. |

| 15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. | When one of those at the table heard this, He said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" |
| 16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many: | Jesus replied, "A man gave a great banquet and invited many people. |
| 17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. | At the time of the banquet, He sent His servant to tell those invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' |
| 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. | 20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. | Another said, 'I have just married a wife, and so I cannot come.' |
| 21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. | The servant came and reported this to his master. The master of the house became angry and said to His servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city and bring in the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.' |
| 22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. | The servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and there is still room.' |

- 23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. The master said to the servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full.
- 24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper. I tell You, not one of those who were invited will taste my banquet.' "
- 25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned and said to them,
- 26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. "If anyone comes to Me and does not love Me more than his father and mother, his wife and children, His brothers and sisters — yes, even His own life — he cannot be My disciple.
- 27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.
- 28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Which of You, wanting to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost — whether He has enough to complete it?
- 29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Otherwise, if He lays the foundation and cannot finish, everyone who sees it will mock Him,
- 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.'
- 31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or what king, going to war against another king, does not first sit down and consider whether he can meet the one coming against him with twenty thousand — when he himself has only ten thousand?

Chapter 15

Jesus tells three parables about what was lost and found: the parable of the lost sheep, the parable of the lost coin, and the parable of the prodigal son. In each parable there is great joy in heaven over one sinner who repents.

- 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. When he had spent everything, a severe famine struck that whole country, and he began to be in need.
- 15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. He went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.
- 16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.
- 17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more than enough food, and here I am starving to death!
- 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, I will get up and go to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
- 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants." '
- 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. So he got up and went to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, threw his arms around him, and kissed him.
- 21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
- 22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

- 24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found.' And they began to celebrate.
- 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. Now the older son was in the field. As he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.
- 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. He called one of the servants and asked what was happening.
- 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. The servant told him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he received him back safe and well.'
- 28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. The older son became angry and refused to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.
- 29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: The son answered his father, 'Look, all these years I have worked for you and never disobeyed your commands. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends.
- 30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. But when this son of yours, who has wasted your property with prostitutes, came back — you killed the fattened calf for him!'
- 31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. The father said to him, 'Son, you have always been with me, and everything I have is yours.
- 32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found. But it was right that we should celebrate and be glad. For this brother of yours was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found.' "

Chapter 16

Jesus tells the parable of the unjust steward and teaches about faithfulness in that which is least and the impossibility of serving both God and mammon. He tells of the rich man and Lazarus, where the rich man dies and is tormented in hell while Lazarus rests in Abraham's bosom.

- 1 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. Jesus also said to His disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting His possessions.
- 2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. He called the manager in and said, 'What is this I hear about You? Give an account of Your management, because You can no longer be manager.'
- 3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. The manager said to himself, 'What will I do? My master is taking away my job. I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.
- 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from this position, people will welcome me into their homes.'
- 5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? He called in each of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'
- 6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied. The manager said, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write four hundred.'
- 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' 'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied. He said, 'Take your bill and write eight hundred.'

| 8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. | The master commended the dishonest manager for acting shrewdly. For the people of this world are shrewder in dealing with their own kind than the people of the light. |
| 9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. | I tell you, use worldly wealth to make friends for yourselves, so that when it fails, they will welcome you into eternal dwellings. |
| 10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. | Whoever is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much. Whoever is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. |
| 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? | If then you have not been faithful in the use of worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? |
| 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? | And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is your own? |
| 13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. | No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money." |
| 14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. | The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. |
| 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. | He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of men. But God knows Your hearts. What is highly valued among men is an abomination in God's sight. |

| 16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. 18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. 19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, | The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is pressing into it. It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest part of the Law to fall away. Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. - 25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received good things, while Lazarus received evil things. But now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.'
- 26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you. Those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.'
- 27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: Then he said, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house,

Chapter 17

Jesus teaches His disciples about offenses, forgiveness, and faith, telling them that faith the size of a mustard seed can uproot a tree. He cleanses ten lepers, and only one — a Samaritan — returns to give thanks. He teaches about the coming of the kingdom of God and the day of the Son of man.

| 19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole. | Then He said to Him, "Rise and go. Your faith has made You well." |
| 20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: | When the Pharisees asked Jesus when the kingdom of God would come, He answered, "The kingdom of God does not come with signs to be observed. |
| 21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you. | People will not say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For the kingdom of God is within You." |
| 22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. | Then He said to the disciples, "The time will come when You will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but You will not see it. |
| 23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them. | People will say, 'Look there!' or 'Look here!' Do not go after them or follow them. |
| 24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day. | For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so will the Son of Man be in His day. |
| 25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation. | But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. |
| 26 And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. | Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. |
| 27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. | People were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, right up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all. |

| 28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; | It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. |
| 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. | But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. |
| 30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. | It will be just like that on the day the Son of Man is revealed. |
| 31 In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back. | On that day, no one on the housetop, with belongings in the house, should come down to take them. Likewise, no one in the field should turn back. |
| 32 Remember Lot's wife. | Remember Lot's wife! |
| 33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it. | Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. |

| 35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left. | Two women will be grinding grain together. One will be taken and the other left. |
| 36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. | Two men will be in the field. One will be taken and the other left. |
| 37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together. | They asked Him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together." |

Jesus tells the parable of the persistent widow and the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector who went up to the temple to pray. He blesses little children, tells a rich ruler to sell all he has, foretells His death and resurrection, and heals a blind man near Jericho.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; | Jesus told them a parable to show that they should always pray and not give up. |
| 2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: | He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about people. |
| 3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. | In that city there was a widow who kept coming to Him, saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.' |
| 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; | For a while He refused. But finally He said to Himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor care about people, |
| 5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. | yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice — so that she will not wear me out by her constant coming.' " |
| 6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. | The Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says. |
| 7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? | Will not God bring about justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He keep putting them off? |
| 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? | I tell You, He will see that they get justice quickly. Yet when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?" |
| 9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: | He also told this parable to some who were confident in their own righteousness and looked down on everyone else: |

| 10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. | "Two men went up to the temple to pray — one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. |
| 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. | The Pharisee stood and prayed about himself: 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men — robbers, evildoers, adulterers — or even like this tax collector. |
| 12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. | I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.' |
| 13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. | But the tax collector stood far away. He would not even lift His eyes toward heaven, but beat His chest and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.' |
| 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. | I tell you, this man went home justified before God — not the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted." |

| 9 | And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. | Jesus said to Him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since He also is a son of Abraham." |
| 10 | For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. | For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost. |
| 11 | And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear. | As they were listening to these things, He went on to tell a parable. He was near Jerusalem, and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear at any moment. |

- 12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. He said, "A certain nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for Himself and then return."
- 13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. He called His ten servants and gave them ten pounds, saying to them, 'Do business with this until I come back.'
- 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'
- 15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. When he returned, having received the kingdom, he commanded the servants to whom he had given the money to be called before him. He wanted to know how much each one had gained by trading.
- 16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. The first came and said, 'Lord, your pound has made ten more pounds.'
- 17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. He said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, you will have authority over ten cities.'
- 18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. The second came and said, 'Lord, your pound has made five more pounds.'
- 19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. He said to him as well, 'You will be over five cities.'
- 20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: Another came and said, 'Lord, here is your pound. I kept it stored away in a cloth.'
- 21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. 'I was afraid of you, because you are a strict man. You take up what you did not put down, and you reap what you did not sow.'

- 22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: He said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant. You knew that I was a strict man, taking up what I did not put down and reaping what I did not sow.'
- 23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? 'Therefore, why did you not put my money in the bank? Then at my coming I could have collected it with interest.'
- 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. He said to those standing nearby, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'
- 25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) They said to him, 'Lord, he already has ten pounds.'
- 26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given. But from the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.'
- 27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. 'But those enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them — bring them here and kill them in my presence.'
- 28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem. After Jesus said these things, He went on ahead, going up toward Jerusalem.
- 29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, When He drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples ahead.
- 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither. He said, "Go into the village ahead of You. As You enter, You will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here."

- 31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him. "If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say this: 'The Lord has need of it.'"
- 32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them. Those who were sent went and found it just as He had told them.
- 33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are You untying the colt?"
- 34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him. They said, "The Lord has need of it."
- 35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon. They brought it to Jesus, threw their garments on the colt, and set Jesus on it.
- 36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way. As He rode along, people spread their clothes on the road.
- 37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen; When He came near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen.
- 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest. They said, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"
- 39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples. Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Him, "Master, rebuke Your disciples."
- 40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out. He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."
- 41 And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, When He drew near and saw the city, He wept over it.

- 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children. Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died without children.
- 30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless. The second took her as wife, and he also died childless.
- 31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died. The third took her, and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children.
- 32 Last of all the woman died also. Finally, the woman also died.
- 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife. "In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."
- 34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage: Jesus said to them, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage."
- 35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: "But those who are considered worthy to reach that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage."
- 36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. "They can no longer die, for they are like the angels. They are children of God, being children of the resurrection."
- 37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. "That the dead are raised — even Moses showed this at the burning bush, when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'"

| 40 | And after that they durst not ask him any question at all. | After that they did not dare to ask Him anything else. |
| 41 | And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son? | He said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son?" |

Chapter 21

Jesus commends a poor widow who casts two mites into the treasury, giving more than all the rest. He foretells the destruction of the temple and the signs of the end — wars, earthquakes, persecution, and Jerusalem surrounded by armies — and warns His disciples to watch and pray.

| 1 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. | He looked up and saw the wealthy putting their gifts into the offering box. |
| 2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. | He also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. |
| 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: | He said, "Truly I say to You, this poor widow has put in more than all of them." |
| 4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. | "For all these have given out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all the living she had." |
| 5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, | As some were speaking about the temple — how it was adorned with beautiful stones and offerings — He said, |
| 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. | "As for these things that You see — the days will come when there will not be left one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." |
| 7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? | They asked Him, "Master, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?" |
| 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. | He said, "Watch out that You are not deceived. Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and 'The time is near.' Do not go after them." |

| 19 | In your patience possess ye your souls. | "By Your endurance You will gain Your lives." |
| 20 | And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. | "When You see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, know that its destruction is near." |
| 21 | Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. | "Then let those who are in Judaea flee to the mountains. Let those who are inside the city get out. Let those who are in the countryside not enter it." |
| 22 | For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. | "For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill everything that is written." |
| 23 | But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. | "How terrible it will be for those who are pregnant and for nursing mothers in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people." |
| 24 | And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. | "They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all nations. Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled." |
| 25 | And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; | "There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. On earth the nations will be in anguish and confusion as the seas roar and toss." |
| 26 | Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. | "People will faint from terror at what is coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken." |

- 27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory."
- 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. "When these things begin to happen, stand up and lift Your heads, because Your redemption is drawing near."
- 29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; He told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees."
- 30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. "When they put out leaves, You see for yourselves and know that summer is already near."
- 31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. "So also, when You see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near."
- 32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. "Truly I say to You, this generation will not pass away until all has been fulfilled."
- 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away."
- 34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. "Be careful, or Your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness, and the worries of this life. That day will close on You suddenly."
- 35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. "For it will come like a trap on everyone who lives on the face of the whole earth."
- 36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. "So watch at all times, and pray that You may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

| 11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? | "Say to the owner of the house, 'The Master asks you: Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'" |
| 12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. | "He will show you a large upper room that is furnished. Prepare it there." |
| 13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. | They went and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover. |
| 14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. | When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the twelve apostles were with Him. |
| 15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: | He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." |
| 16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. | "For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." |

- 17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: He took the cup and gave thanks and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves."
- 18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. "For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."
- 19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."
- 20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. In the same way, He took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you."
- 21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. "But the hand of the one who betrays Me is with Me on the table."
- 22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! "The Son of Man goes as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"
- 23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. They began to ask one another which of them it was who would do this.
- 24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was to be considered the greatest.
- 25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called benefactors."
- 26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. "But it must not be that way among You. Instead, the greatest among You must be like the youngest, and the leader like the one who serves."

| 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. | He said, "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours, be done." |
| 43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. | An angel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him. |
| 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. | Being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground. |
| 45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, | When He rose from prayer and came to His disciples, He found them asleep, exhausted from grief. |

- 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you do not enter into temptation."
- 47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. While He was still speaking, a crowd arrived. The one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came close to Jesus to kiss Him.
- 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? But Jesus said to Him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"
- 49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? When those around Him saw what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"
- 50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. One of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
- 51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. Jesus answered, "No more of this!" He touched the man's ear and healed him.
- 52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple, and the elders who had come to seize Him, "Have You come out with swords and clubs as if You were coming against a robber?"
- 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. "Every day I was with You in the temple, and You did not lay a hand on Me. But this is Your hour — the time when darkness rules."
- 54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. They seized Him, led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest's house. Peter followed at a distance.

Jesus is brought before Pilate and Herod, who find no fault in Him, but the crowd demands His crucifixion and the release of Barabbas. Jesus is crucified between two thieves, and one repents and is promised paradise. Jesus commits His spirit to the Father and dies, and Joseph of Arimathaea buries Him.

| 1 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. | The whole assembly rose and brought Him before Pilate. They began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Christ, a king." |
|--|---|

- 3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it. Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "You say so."
- 4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man. Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no guilt in this man."
- 5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. They pressed harder, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee all the way to this place."
- 6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean. When Pilate heard "Galilee," he asked whether the man was a Galilean.
- 7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time. When He learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.
- 8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. When Herod saw Jesus, He was greatly pleased, for He had wanted to see Him for a long time. He had heard many things about Him and hoped to see some miracle performed by Him.
- 9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing. He questioned Jesus at length, but Jesus gave Him no answer.
- 10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. The chief priests and scribes stood there, accusing Him forcefully.
- 11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. Herod and his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked Him. They put a splendid robe on Him and sent Him back to Pilate.

| 12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves. 13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: 15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him. 16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him. 17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) 18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: | That same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other. Before this, they had been enemies. Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people. He said to them, "You brought this man to me as one who was misleading the people. I have examined him before you and found no guilt in Him regarding the charges you bring against Him." "Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. He has done nothing deserving of death." "I will therefore punish Him and release Him." For it was necessary for him to release one prisoner to them at the feast. They all cried out together, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!" |

| 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. | A third time He said to them, "Why? What wrong has He done? I have found no reason to put Him to death. I will therefore punish Him and release Him." |
| 23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. | But they kept urgently demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests won out. |
| 24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. | Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted. |
| 25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. | He released the man who had been thrown in prison for rebellion and murder — the one they demanded — and He handed Jesus over to their will. |
| 26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. | As they led Him away, they seized a man named Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and placed the cross on Him to carry it behind Jesus. |

■ NAME NOTE — Simon of Cyrene (SY-ren-ee) — A man from Cyrene in North Africa who was compelled to carry Jesus' cross. His sons Alexander and Rufus were apparently known to the early church (Mark 15:21).

Chapter 24

Women come to the tomb on the first day of the week and find it empty, and two angels announce that Jesus has risen. The risen Jesus walks with two disciples on the road to Emmaus and reveals Himself to them in the breaking of bread. He appears to the gathered disciples, commissions them as witnesses, and ascends into heaven from Bethany.

John

Author: John the apostle, son of Zebedee — the "beloved disciple" who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper and stood at the cross. Early church testimony from Irenaeus onward consistently identifies him as the author.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, later than the other three Gospels, written from Ephesus near the end of John's life.

Written to: The church broadly, with a clearly stated evangelistic purpose: "that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name" (20:31).

Setting: The other three Gospels are already in circulation. John writes a supplementary Gospel, omitting much they cover and adding material found nowhere else — the wedding at Cana, Nicodemus, the Samaritan woman, Lazarus, the Upper Room Discourse.

Where this sits historically: Composed late in the reign of Domitian (AD 81–96), a generation after Jerusalem's destruction in AD 70, when emperor-worship and incipient gnostic teaching threatened the churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, writing alongside his own epistles and Revelation, while Clement of Rome was preparing his letter to Corinth and Christians were facing Domitian's persecution.

Big themes:

- The deity of Christ — John opens at the eternal beginning ("In the beginning was the Word") and closes with Thomas's confession ("My Lord and my God"); the full divinity of Jesus is the book's first premise

- The seven "I AM" sayings — Bread of Life, Light of the World, Door, Good Shepherd, Resurrection and Life, Way/Truth/Life, True Vine; each echoes God's "I AM" to Moses

- The seven signs — water to wine, healing the nobleman's son, healing at Bethesda, feeding five thousand, walking on water, healing the blind man, raising Lazarus; each points to Jesus's identity

- The Holy Spirit as Comforter — chapters 14–16 contain the fullest NT teaching on the person and work of the Holy Spirit before Pentecost

- Life — the word "life" (Greek: ζωή) appears thirty-six times; John's Gospel is a book about eternal life and how to receive it

Key passages: John 1:1; 1:14; 3:16; 11:25–26; 14:6

How it fits: John's Gospel is both the simplest (a child can understand 3:16) and the most profound (theologians have never exhausted 1:1). It is the Gospel most quoted in evangelism and most studied in the academy. The prologue (1:1–18) is the NT's fullest statement of the pre-existent, incarnate Word.

Chapter 1

John declares that the eternal Word was with God and was God, and that through Him all things were made. The Word became flesh and dwelt among men. John the Baptist testifies that Jesus is the Lamb of God, and Jesus calls His first disciples — Andrew, Simon Peter, Philip, and Nathanael.

■ WORD NOTE — The Word (Greek: Logos) — In Greek thought, the Logos was the divine reason or principle that orders the universe. John takes this concept and fills it with the full weight of Hebrew revelation: the Word is not an idea — He is a Person. He is God's eternal self-expression, the one through whom all things were made. John's opening verse echoes Genesis 1:1 ("In the beginning") to show that Jesus existed before creation, was with the Father, and was Himself fully God. "The Word became flesh" (v. 14) is the miracle at the center of Christianity.

| 1 | In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. | In the beginning was the Word. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. |
| 2 | The same was in the beginning with God. | He was with God in the beginning. |
| 3 | All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. | All things were made through Him. Nothing that has been made was made without Him. |
| 4 | In him was life; and the life was the light of men. | In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. |
| 5 | And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. | The light shines in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. |
| 6 | There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. | There was a man sent from God whose name was John. |

■ NAME NOTE — John (the Baptist) (JON) — "the LORD is gracious" — A prophet sent by God to prepare the way for the Messiah. He preached repentance and baptized in the Jordan River. He is called "the Baptist" to distinguish him from John the apostle, the author of this Gospel.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 7 | The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. | He came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through Him. |
| 8 | He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. | He was not the Light, but came to bear witness to the Light. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. | The true Light, which gives light to every man, was coming into the world. |
| 10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. | He was in the world. The world was made through Him, yet the world did not know Him. |
| 11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not. | He came to His own people, and His own people did not receive Him. |
| 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: | But to all who did receive Him — to those who believed in His name — He gave the right to become children of God. |
| 13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. | These were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. |

■ WORD NOTE — Only begotten (OH-nlee bih-GOT-ten) — "the unique, one-of-a-kind Son." Christ is God's Son in a way that no one else can be. He was not created — He was eternally generated from the Father. When John says Jesus is the "only begotten Son," he is saying Jesus shares the very nature of God in a way that is completely unique. No other human, angel, or being can be called this.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve. It is not a reward for good behavior. It is God giving us what we need, not what we deserve. "Grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" means the full, free gift of God's favor arrived in the person of Jesus.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. | The Word became flesh and lived among us. We saw His glory — the glory of the only begotten of the Father — full of grace and truth. |
| 15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. | John testified about him and cried out, "This is the one I spoke of: He who comes after me ranks above me, because he was before me." |
| 16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. | From His fullness we have all received grace upon grace. |

- 17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. The law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
- 18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. No one has ever seen God. The only begotten Son, who is in the Father's embrace, has made Him known.
- 19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? This is John's testimony: when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask Him, "Who are You?"
- 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. He did not refuse to answer. He openly declared, "I am not the Christ."
- 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No."
- 22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? Then they said, "Who are you? We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"
- 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. He replied, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as the prophet Isaiah said."
- 24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.
- 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? They questioned Him further: "Then why do You baptize, if You are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
- 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; John answered them, "I baptize with water. But there is one standing among You whom You do not know.

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 27 | He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. | He is the one who comes after me, but ranks before me. I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandal." |
| 28 | These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. | These things took place in Bethabara, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. |
| 29 | The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. | The next day John saw Jesus coming toward Him and said, "Look — the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world! |

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — Greek form of the Hebrew Yeshua, meaning "the LORD saves." The angel commanded this name before His birth (Matthew 1:21), because He would save His people from their sins. He is the central figure of all four Gospels and of all Scripture.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 30 | This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. | This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me.' |
| 31 | And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. | I myself did not know Him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was so that He might be revealed to Israel." |
| 32 | And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. | Then John testified, "I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove and remain on Him. |

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — The Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit" (from Old English g^hst). The Holy Ghost is fully God — equal with the Father and the Son. He inspired the Scriptures, convicts the world of sin, and lives in every believer.

|----|--|--|
| 33 | And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. | I myself did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The one on whom You see the Spirit descend and remain — He is the one who baptizes with the Holy Ghost.' |
|----|--|--|

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 34 | And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God. | I have seen it and I testify that this is the Son of God." |
| 35 | Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; | The next day John was standing there again with two of his disciples. |
| 36 | And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! | As He watched Jesus walk by, He said, "Look — the Lamb of God!" |
| 37 | And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. | The two disciples heard Him say this and they followed Jesus. |
| 38 | Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou? | Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, "What are You looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which means Master), "where are You staying?" |
| 39 | He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. | He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him that day. It was about the tenth hour. |

■ NAME NOTE — Andrew (AN-droo) — "manly" — A fisherman from Bethsaida, brother of Simon Peter. He was one of the first two disciples called by Jesus. Andrew is often seen bringing others to Jesus — first his brother Peter, and later the boy with loaves and fish (John 6:8–9).

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 40 | One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. | One of the two who heard John and followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. |
| 41 | He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. | Andrew first found his own brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means the Christ). |
| 42 | And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. | He brought Him to Jesus. Jesus looked at Him and said, "You are Simon the son of Jona. You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter, a rock). |

■ NAME NOTE — Philip (FIL-ip) — "lover of horses" — A disciple of Jesus from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip is notable in John's Gospel for his questions to Jesus (John 14:8) and for bringing Nathanael to Christ.

- 43

The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.
- The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow Me."
- 44

Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
- Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
- 45

Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.
- Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and the prophets also wrote about — Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

■ NAME NOTE — Nathanael (nuh-THAN-ee-ul) — "God has given" — A disciple of Jesus, likely the same person as Bartholomew in the other Gospels. He is introduced as a man of honest character — Jesus calls him an Israelite in whom there is no deceit. His swift confession of Jesus as the Son of God shows his sincerity.

Chapter 2

Jesus attends a wedding in Cana of Galilee and turns water into wine, His first miracle. He travels to Jerusalem for the Passover and drives the money changers out of the temple, declaring, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.'

- 2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. Jesus and His disciples had also been invited to the wedding.
- 3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."
- 4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come."
- 5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells You."
- 6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

- 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." They filled them to the brim.
- 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. Then He said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." They took it.
- 9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, When the master of the feast tasted the water now turned into wine — not knowing where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew — he called the bridegroom
- 10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. and said to Him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the cheaper wine after people have had plenty. But You have kept the good wine until now."
- 11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him. This was the first of Jesus's signs, done in Cana of Galilee. He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.
- 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. After this He went down to Capernaum with His mother, His brothers, and His disciples. They stayed there only a few days.
- 13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, The Jews' Passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
- 14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: In the temple He found those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting at their tables.

- 15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; Making a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple — the sheep and the oxen as well. He poured out the money-changers' coins and overturned their tables.
- 16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away from here. Do not make My Father's house a house of trade."
- 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for Your house will consume Me."
- 18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? The Jews then said to Him, "What sign can You show us for doing these things?"
- 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."
- 20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? The Jews said, "This temple took forty-six years to build, and You will raise it up in three days?"
- 21 But he spake of the temple of his body. But He was speaking about the temple of His body.
- 22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. When He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this. They believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.
- 23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in His name when they saw the signs He was doing.
- 24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all people.

- 25

And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.
- He had no need for anyone to testify about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

Chapter 3

Nicodemus, a Pharisee and ruler of the Jews, comes to Jesus by night, and Jesus tells him that a man must be born again to see the kingdom of God. Jesus declares that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

■ NAME NOTE — Nicodemus (nik-oh-DEE-mus) — "victory of the people" — A Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews who came to Jesus at night. He appears three times in John's Gospel (here, at 7:50, and at 19:39). His nighttime visit likely reflects both caution and genuine searching. His conversation with Jesus produced some of the most famous words in all of Scripture.

| 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. | Truly, truly, I say to You, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen, but You do not receive our testimony. |
| 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? | If I have told You earthly things and You do not believe, how will You believe if I tell You heavenly things? |
| 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. | No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven — the Son of Man Who is in heaven. |
| 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: | Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, |

- 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but have eternal life.
- 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
- 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him.
- 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. Whoever believes in him is not condemned. But whoever does not believe is condemned already, because He has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
- 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. This is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds were evil.
- 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. Everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, for fear that His deeds will be exposed.
- 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that His deeds have been done in God.
- 22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. After this Jesus and His disciples went into the land of Judaea. He stayed there with them and baptized.

- 23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there. People came and were baptized.
- 24 For John was not yet cast into prison. For John had not yet been thrown into prison.
- 25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. A dispute arose between some of John's disciples and a Jew about purification.
- 26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him. They came to John and said, "Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan — the one You testified about — He is baptizing, and everyone is going to Him."
- 27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it is given to him from heaven.
- 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but that I have been sent before Him.
- 29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears Him, greatly rejoices at the bridegroom's voice. This joy of mine is now complete.
- 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. He must increase, but I must decrease.
- 31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all. He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of earthly things. He who comes from heaven is above all.

| 32 | And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony. | He testifies to what He has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony. |
| 33 | He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true. | Whoever receives his testimony has certified that God is true. |
| 34 | For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. | He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure to Him. |
| 35 | The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. | The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. |
| 36 | He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. | Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life. Whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on Him. |

Jesus speaks with a Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, revealing that He is the Messiah and offering her living water. Many Samaritans believe because of His words. He then heals a nobleman's son in Capernaum from a distance, His second sign.

- 5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. So He came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.
- 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from the journey, sat down beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.
- 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."
- 8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) His disciples had gone into the city to buy food.
- 9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. The Samaritan woman said to Him, "How is it that You, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.
- 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. Jesus answered her, "If You knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to You, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given You living water."
- 11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do You get that living water?"
- 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? Are You greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock."

- 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again.
- 14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give Him will become in Him a spring of water welling up to everlasting life."
- 15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."
- 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. Jesus said to her, "Go, call Your husband, and come back here."
- 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband: The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband.'
- 18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly. You have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. You spoke the truth."
- 19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.
- 20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."
- 21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when You will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.
- 22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. You worship what You do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.

- 23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. But the hour is coming — and is now here — when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is seeking such people to worship Him.
- 24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth."
- 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ). When He comes, He will tell us all things."
- 26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. Jesus said to her, "I who speak to You am He."
- 27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? Just then His disciples came back. They were surprised that He was talking with a woman, but no one said, "What are you seeking?" or "Why are you talking with her?"
- 28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, The woman left her water jar and went back into the city. She said to the people,
- 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"
- 30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him. They left the city and came to Him.
- 31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. Meanwhile, His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat something."
- 32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. But He said to them, "I have food to eat that You do not know about."
- 33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

- 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work.
- 35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. Do You not say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell You — lift up Your eyes and see that the fields are already white for harvest.
- 36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. The reaper is already receiving His wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper may rejoice together.
- 37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. For in this the saying holds true: 'One sows and another reaps.'
- 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. I sent You to reap what You did not work for. Others have worked, and You have entered into their labor."
- 39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. Many Samaritans from that city believed in Him because of the woman's testimony: "He told me everything I ever did."
- 40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. So when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days.
- 41 And many more believed because of his own word; Many more believed because of His own word.
- 42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world. They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what You said. We have heard Him ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

- 43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee. After the two days He departed from there for Galilee.
- 44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. For Jesus Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in His own hometown.
- 45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast. When He arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, having seen all the things He had done in Jerusalem at the feast — for they had also gone to the feast.
- 46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. Jesus came again to Cana in Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. There was a royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum.
- 47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judaea to Galilee, He went to Him and begged Him to come down and heal His son, who was close to death.
- 48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. Jesus said to Him, "Unless You see signs and wonders, You will not believe."
- 49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. The official said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."
- 50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. Jesus said to Him, "Go. Your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to Him and went on His way.
- 51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. As He was on His way down, His servants met him and told him, "Your son is alive."

| 52 | Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. | He asked them the hour when He had begun to recover. They said to Him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left Him." |
| 53 | So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. | The father knew it was the same hour when Jesus had said to Him, "Your son will live." He Himself believed, and His whole household. |
| 54 | This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee. | This was the second sign Jesus did after coming from Judaea into Galilee. |

Chapter 5

Jesus heals a man who had been lame for thirty-eight years at the pool of Bethesda on the Sabbath. The Jews persecute Him for healing on the Sabbath, and Jesus declares that He does what He sees the Father doing, claiming equal authority with God to give life and execute judgment.

- | | | |

| 1 | After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. | After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. |
| 2 | Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. | Now there is in Jerusalem, by the Sheep Gate, a pool called Bethesda in Hebrew, which has five covered colonnades. |
| 3 | In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. | In these lay a great crowd of sick people — the blind, the lame, and the paralyzed — waiting for the moving of the water. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath and judgment we have earned by our sin. Mercy and grace are related but distinct: grace gives us what we do not deserve; mercy holds back what we do deserve. Both flow freely from God toward those who trust in Him.

- 4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. For at certain times an angel went down into the pool and stirred the water. Whoever stepped in first after the water was stirred was healed of whatever disease He had.
- 5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. One man there had been ill for thirty-eight years.
- 6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? When Jesus saw Him lying there and knew that He had already been there a long time, He said to Him, "Do You want to be made well?"
- 7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am making my way, someone else steps in before me."
- 8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. Jesus said to Him, "Get up, pick up Your mat, and walk."
- 9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. Immediately the man was made well. He picked up his mat and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath.
- 10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat."
- 11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. He answered them, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"
- 12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your mat and walk'?"

- 13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. The man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was in the place.
- 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. Afterward Jesus found Him in the temple and said to Him, "See — you are well! Sin no more, or something worse may happen to You."
- 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus Who had made Him well.
- 16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day. This was why the Jews were persecuting Jesus — because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.
- 17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I am working."
- 18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. This made the Jews all the more determined to kill Him — not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.
- 19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, the Son can do nothing on His own — only what He sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.
- 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He Himself does. He will show Him even greater works than these, so that You will be amazed.

- 21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. For just as the Father raises the dead and quickens them, so also the Son quickens whom He will.

■ WORD NOTE — Quickened (KWIK-end) — Made alive; spiritually brought from death to life by God. This word describes the miracle of salvation — a soul that was dead in sin is made alive by God's power. Jesus says here that He has this same power as the Father — to raise the dead and give life. This is one of the great claims to His deity.

- 22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son,
- 23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.
- 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever hears My word and believes in him who sent Me has everlasting life. He does not come into condemnation but has passed from death to life.
- 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. Truly, truly, I say to You, the hour is coming — and is now here — when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.
- 26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son also to have life in Himself.
- 27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man.
- 28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all who are in the graves will hear His voice

- 29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. and will come out — those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of damnation.

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When Jesus speaks of the "resurrection of damnation," He means the judgment that ends in eternal punishment. The word is strong on purpose. It is not merely "condemnation" in the legal sense — it is the final verdict that has permanent consequences. Scripture is clear that both destinies are real and eternal.

Chapter 6

Jesus feeds five thousand men with five barley loaves and two small fish, then walks on the sea to His disciples' boat. He declares, 'I am the bread of life,' and teaches that whoever eats His flesh and drinks His blood has eternal life. Many disciples leave Him, but Peter confesses, 'You have the words of eternal life.'

| 5 | When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? | When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward Him, He said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread so that these people may eat?" |
| 6 | And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. | He said this to test Him, for He Himself knew what He was going to do. |
| 7 | Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. | Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread would not be enough for each one of them to get even a little." |
| 8 | One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, | One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, |
| 9 | There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? | "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish. But what are they for so many people?" |

- 10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number.
- 11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated. He did the same with the fish, giving out as much as they wanted.
- 12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. When they had all eaten their fill, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing is wasted."
- 13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with the pieces left over from the five barley loaves — what remained after everyone had eaten.
- 14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. When the people saw the miracle Jesus had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world!"
- 15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. Jesus, knowing that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountain by Himself alone.
- 16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea.
- 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. They got into a boat and started across the sea toward Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
- 18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. The sea grew rough because a strong wind was blowing.

- 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat. They were frightened.
- 20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. But He said to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid."
- 21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. Then they were glad to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land where they were going.
- 22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not gotten into it with His disciples — His disciples had gone away alone.
- 23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.
- 24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.
- 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

- 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, You are looking for Me not because You saw miracles, but because You ate the loaves and were filled.
- 27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to everlasting life — which the Son of Man will give You. For on Him God the Father has set His seal."
- 28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? They said to Him, "What must we do to be doing the works of God?"
- 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God: that You believe in Him whom He has sent."
- 30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? So they said to Him, "Then what sign will You do, so that we may see it and believe You? What work will You perform?"
- 31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"
- 32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven. My Father gives You the true bread from heaven.
- 33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."
- 34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. They said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

- 35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me shall never hunger, and whoever believes in Me shall never thirst.
- 36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. But I told You that You have seen Me and still do not believe.
- 37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and whoever comes to Me I will never cast out.
- 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of Him who sent Me.
- 39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. This is the will of Him who sent Me: that I should lose none of all He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day.
- 40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. For this is the will of My Father: that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have everlasting life, and I will raise Him up at the last day."
- 41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. The Jews grumbled about Him because He said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."
- 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"
- 43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. Jesus answered them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves.

- 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws Him. And I will raise Him up at the last day.
- 45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. It is written in the Prophets: 'They shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to Me.
- 46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God — He has seen the Father.
- 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever believes in Me has everlasting life.
- 48 I am that bread of life. I am the bread of life.
- 49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died.
- 50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.
- 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. The bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."
- 52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? The Jews then argued with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"
- 53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, unless You eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, You have no life in You.

- 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise Him up at the last day.
- 55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink.
- 56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in Him.
- 57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on Me will also live because of Me.
- 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. This is the bread that came down from heaven — not like the bread the fathers ate and died. Whoever eats this bread will live forever."
- 59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. He said these things while teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.
- 60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it? When many of His disciples heard this, they said, "This is a hard saying. Who can accept it?"
- 61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? But Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples were grumbling about it, said to them, "Does this offend You?"
- 62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? What if You were to see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?
- 63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. It is the Spirit Who quickens — the flesh is of no help at all. The words that I have spoken to You are spirit and they are life.

Chapter 7

Jesus goes up to Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles and teaches in the temple, dividing the crowds over whether He is the Christ. On the last day of the feast He cries out, 'If any man thirst, let him come to Me and drink.' The Pharisees send officers to arrest Him, but they return empty-handed.

| 1 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. | After this, Jesus traveled through Galilee. He would not go through Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him. |
| 2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. | Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was near. |
| 3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. | His brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go to Judea so Your disciples there can see the works You are doing. |
| 4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. | No one does things in secret when he wants to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world." |
| 5 For neither did his brethren believe in him. | For not even His brothers believed in Him. |
| 6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready. | Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but Your time is always ready. |
| 7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. | The world cannot hate You, but it hates Me because I testify that its works are evil. |
| 8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. | You go up to the feast. I am not going up to this feast yet, because My time has not yet fully come." |
| 9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. | After saying this, He stayed in Galilee. |
| 10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. | But after His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He also went up — not openly, but in private. |
| 11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? | The Jews were looking for Him at the feast and said, "Where is He?" |

- 12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. There was a lot of muttering about him among the crowd. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "No — He leads the people astray."
- 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. But no one spoke openly about him out of fear of the Jews.
- 14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. About the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching.
- 15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? The Jews were amazed and said, "How does this man know so much, having never studied?"
- 16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not My own. It comes from Him who sent Me.
- 17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. If anyone chooses to do God's will, He will know whether this teaching is from God or whether I speak on My own.
- 18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Whoever speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory. But whoever seeks the glory of him who sent him — that man is true, and there is no falsehood in him.
- 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? Did Moses not give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill Me?"
- 20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? The crowd answered, "You have a devil! Who is trying to kill You?"
- 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel. Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and You are all amazed.

- 22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. Moses gave you circumcision — not that it came from Moses, but from the fathers — and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.
- 23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry at Me for making a man completely well on the Sabbath?
- 24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Do not judge by outward appearances. Judge with right judgment."
- 25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? Some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Is this not the man they are trying to kill?
- 26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? Here He is, speaking openly, and they say nothing to Him! Can it be that the rulers really know that this is the Christ?
- 27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is. Yet we know where this man is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from."
- 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. Then Jesus cried out in the temple as He taught, "You know Me, and You know where I am from. But I have not come on My own. He who sent Me is true, and him you do not know.
- 29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."
- 30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. Then they tried to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.

- 31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done? Yet many in the crowd believed in Him. They said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than this man has done?"
- 32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about Him. The chief priests and Pharisees sent officers to arrest Him.
- 33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. Jesus said, "I am with You only a little while longer, and then I go to Him who sent Me.
- 34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come. You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, You cannot come."
- 35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? The Jews said to one another, "Where does He intend to go that we cannot find Him? Will He go to those scattered among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?
- 36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? What does He mean when He says, 'You will look for Me but will not find Me,' and 'Where I am, You cannot come'?"
- 37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.
- 38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of His belly will flow rivers of living water."
- 39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) He said this about the Spirit, for the Holy Ghost had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

- 40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet. When the people heard these words, some of them said, "This really is the Prophet."
- 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Others said, "This is the Christ." But others said, "Will the Christ come from Galilee?"
- 42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? Does the Scripture not say that the Christ comes from the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"
- 43 So there was a division among the people because of him. So there was a division among the people over him.
- 44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on him.
- 45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did You not bring Him?"
- 46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. The officers answered, "No one ever spoke like this man!"
- 47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? The Pharisees answered them, "Have you also been deceived?"
- 48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in Him?
- 49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed. But this crowd, who do not know the law — they are accursed."
- 50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) Nicodemus — the one who had come to Jesus before, and who was one of them — said to them,
- 51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth? "Does our law judge a man without first hearing from him and finding out what He is doing?"

Chapter 8

The scribes and Pharisees bring a woman caught in adultery to Jesus, and He tells them, 'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.' Jesus declares, 'I am the light of the world,' and tells the Jews that before Abraham was, 'I AM,' provoking them to take up stones against Him.

| 1 | Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. | Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. |
| 2 | And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. | Early in the morning He came again into the temple. All the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. |
| 3 | And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, | The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. They placed her in front of everyone |
| 4 | They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. | and said to Him, "Master, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery. |
| 5 | Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? | Moses commanded us in the law to stone such women. What do You say?" |
| 6 | This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. | They said this to trap Him, so they would have grounds to accuse Him. But Jesus bent down and wrote with His finger on the ground. |

- 7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. When they kept pressing Him, He stood up and said to them, "Let Him who is without sin among You be the first to throw a stone at her."
- 8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. He bent down again and wrote on the ground.
- 9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. One by one, convicted by their own conscience, they went away — beginning with the oldest and ending with the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.
- 10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are Your accusers? Has no one condemned you?"
- 11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn You. Go, and sin no more."
- 12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jesus spoke to them again, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."
- 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. The Pharisees said to Him, "You are testifying about Yourself. Your testimony is not true."
- 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is true. I know where I came from and where I am going. But You do not know where I come from or where I am going."

- 15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. You judge by human standards. I judge no one.
- 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true — for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent Me.
- 17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. It is written in Your law that the testimony of two men is true.
- 18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. I am one who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me."
- 19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also. They said to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If You knew Me, You would know My Father also."
- 20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come. He spoke these words in the treasury, while teaching in the temple. No one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.
- 21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. Jesus said to them again, "I am going away. You will look for Me, and You will die in Your sin. Where I am going, You cannot come."
- 22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews said, "Will He kill Himself? Is that what He means by saying, 'Where I am going, You cannot come'?"
- 23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. He said to them, "You are from below. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world.
- 24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. That is why I told You that You will die in Your sins. For if You do not believe that I am He, You will die in Your sins."

- 25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning. They said to Him, "Who are You?" Jesus answered, "Just what I have been telling You from the beginning.
- 26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. I have much to say about You and much to judge. But He who sent Me is true, and I tell the world what I have heard from Him."
- 27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father. They did not understand that He was speaking to them about the Father.
- 28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. So Jesus said to them, "When You have lifted up the Son of Man, then You will know that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own. I speak just what the Father has taught Me.
- 29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. He who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, for I always do what pleases Him."
- 30 As he spake these words, many believed on him. As He spoke these words, many believed in Him.
- 31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in Him, "If You continue in My word, You are truly My disciples.
- 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. You will know the truth, and the truth will set You free."
- 33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants and have never been enslaved to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free'?"
- 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin.

- 35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. A slave does not remain in the house forever. The Son remains forever.
- 36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. So if the Son sets You free, You will be truly free.
- 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. I know that you are Abraham's descendants. Yet you seek to kill Me because My word finds no place in you.
- 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. I speak of what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."
- 39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. They answered Him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If You were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did.
- 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. But now you seek to kill Me — a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.
- 41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. You are doing the works of your father." They said to Him, "We were not born of fornication. We have one Father — God Himself."
- 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Jesus said to them, "If God were Your Father, You would love Me. I came from God and I am here. I did not come on My own — He sent Me.
- 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Why do You not understand what I say? It is because You cannot bear to hear My word.

- 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. You are of your father the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language — for he is a liar and the father of lies.
- 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.
- 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? Which of you can charge Me with sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?
- 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear them is that you are not of God."
- 48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? The Jews answered Him, "Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and have a devil?"
- 49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. Jesus answered, "I do not have a devil. I honor My Father, and You dishonor Me.
- 50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. I am not seeking My own glory. There is One who seeks it and judges.
- 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Truly, truly, I say to You, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death."
- 52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. The Jews said to Him, "Now we know You have a devil! Abraham died, and so did the prophets. Yet you say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.'

Chapter 9

Jesus heals a man born blind by anointing his eyes with clay and sending him to wash in the pool of Siloam. The Pharisees interrogate the man and his parents, refusing to accept the miracle, and cast him out of the synagogue. Jesus finds him and reveals Himself as the Son of God.

| 1 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. | As Jesus walked along, He saw a man who had been blind from birth. |
| 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? | His disciples asked Him, "Master, who sinned — this man or his parents — that he was born blind?" |
| 3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. | Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned. He was born blind so that the works of God might be displayed in Him. |
| 4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. | I must do the works of Him who sent Me while it is still day. Night is coming, when no one can work. |
| 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. | As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." |
| 6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, | After saying this, He spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva. He spread the mud on the man's eyes |
| 7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing. | He said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So the man went and washed, and came back seeing. |
| 8 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? | His neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar asked, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" |
| 9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. | Some said, "It is him." Others said, "No, he just looks like him." But the man himself said, "I am the one." |
| 10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened? | So they asked him, "How were your eyes opened?" |

- 11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud and spread it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. I went and washed, and I received my sight."
- 12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not. They asked Him, "Where is He?" He said, "I don't know."
- 13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. They brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees.
- 14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. Now it was the Sabbath day when Jesus had made the mud and opened His eyes.
- 15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. The Pharisees asked Him again how He had received His sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I see."
- 16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And there was a division among them.
- 17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. They asked the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."
- 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight.

- 19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? They asked his parents, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How does he now see?"
- 20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.
- 21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him, he shall speak for himself. But how he now sees, we do not know. We do not know who opened his eyes. He is of age — ask him. He can speak for himself."
- 22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed Jesus to be the Christ, He would be put out of the synagogue.
- 23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. That is why His parents said, "He is of age — ask Him."
- 24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. So they called the man who had been blind a second time and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."
- 25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. He answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I don't know. One thing I know — I was blind, and now I see."
- 26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? They asked him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"
- 27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? He answered them, "I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

- 28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples. Then they insulted him and said, "You are His disciple. We are disciples of Moses.
- 29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. We know that God spoke to Moses. As for this man, we do not know where he comes from."
- 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. The man answered them, "This is remarkable — you do not know where He comes from, yet He opened my eyes.
- 31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. We know that God does not listen to sinners. But if anyone worships God and does His will, God listens to Him.
- 32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. Never since the world began has anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.
- 33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."
- 34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. They answered him, "You were born entirely in sin, and are you teaching us?" And they threw him out.
- 35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? Jesus heard that they had thrown Him out. When He found Him, He said, "Do You believe in the Son of God?"
- 36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? He answered, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"
- 37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. Jesus said to Him, "You have seen Him. It is He who is speaking with you now."

| 38 | And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. | He said, "Lord, I believe." And He worshipped Him. |
| 39 | And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. | Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment — so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." |
| 40 | And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? | Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard this and said to Him, "Are we blind also?" |
| 41 | Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth. | Jesus said to them, "If You were blind, You would have no sin. But now You say, 'We see.' Therefore Your sin remains." |

Jesus declares, 'I am the good shepherd' who lays down His life for the sheep, and 'I am the door' by which the sheep enter. He teaches that He and the Father are one, and the Jews take up stones to kill Him for blasphemy. He withdraws beyond the Jordan, where many believe in Him.

| 1 | Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. | "Truly, truly, I tell You — whoever does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way is a thief and a robber. |
| 2 | But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. | But whoever enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. |
| 3 | To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. | The gatekeeper opens for Him. The sheep hear His voice. He calls His own sheep by name and leads them out. |

- | | |

| 4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. | When He has brought out all His own, He goes before them, and the sheep follow Him because they know His voice. |
| 5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. | They will not follow a stranger. They will run from Him, because they do not know the voice of strangers." |
| 6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. | Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what He was saying to them. |
| 7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. | So Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I tell You — I am the door of the sheep. |
| 8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. | All who came before Me are thieves and robbers. The sheep did not listen to them. |
| 9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. | I am the door. Whoever enters through Me will be saved. He will come in and go out and find pasture. |
| 10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. | The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life — and have it in full measure. |
| 11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. | I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. |
| 12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. | The hired hand is not the shepherd. The sheep are not His own. When He sees the wolf coming, He abandons the sheep and runs. The wolf catches them and scatters the flock. |
| 13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. | He runs because He is a hired hand and does not care about the sheep. |

- 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and My sheep know Me.
- 15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. Just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father — I lay down My life for the sheep.
- 16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also. They will hear My voice, and there will be one flock and one shepherd.
- 17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. The Father loves Me because I lay down My life so that I may take it up again.
- 18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. No one takes it from Me. I lay it down of My own will. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This command I received from My Father."
- 19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. There was again a division among the Jews because of these words.
- 20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Many of them said, "He has a devil and is out of His mind. Why listen to Him?"
- 21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? Others said, "These are not the words of someone possessed by a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?"
- 22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. The Feast of Dedication came, and it was winter in Jerusalem.
- 23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's Porch.
- 24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. The Jews gathered around Him and said, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

- 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. Jesus answered them, "I told You, and You do not believe. The works I do in My Father's name — they testify about Me.
- 26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. But You do not believe, because You are not among My sheep — as I said to You.
- 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: My sheep hear My voice. I know them, and they follow Me.
- 28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. I give them eternal life. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.
- 29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.
- 30 I and my Father are one. I and the Father are one."
- 31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him.
- 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? Jesus answered them, "I have shown You many good works from My Father. For which of those works are You stoning Me?"
- 33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. The Jews answered Him, "We are not stoning You for a good work, but for blasphemy — because You, being a man, make yourself God."
- 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in Your law, 'I said, You are gods'?
- 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; He called them gods — those to whom the word of God came — and Scripture cannot be broken.

Chapter 11

Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead after four days in the tomb, weeping at the grave before commanding, 'Lazarus, come forth.' Many Jews believe in Him because of this sign. The chief priests and Pharisees, alarmed by the growing crowds, plot to put Jesus to death, and Caiaphas prophesies that Jesus would die for the nation.

■ NAME NOTE — Lazarus (LAZ-uh-rus) — Greek form of the Hebrew Eleazar, meaning "God is my help." He was a close friend of Jesus and the brother of Mary and Martha. His death and resurrection in John 11 is the greatest miracle recorded in this Gospel — a powerful sign that Jesus is the resurrection and the life.

■ NAME NOTE — Mary (MAIR-ee) — Hebrew Miryam, meaning "beloved" or "bitter." This Mary is the sister of Martha and Lazarus, from the village of Bethany. She is known for her devoted posture at the feet of Jesus (Luke 10:39) and for anointing Him with costly ointment (John 12:3). She is distinct from Mary the mother of Jesus and Mary Magdalene.

■ NAME NOTE — Martha (MAR-thuh) — Aramaic, meaning "lady" or "mistress of the house." She is the sister of Mary and Lazarus. Martha is known for her active, serving nature (Luke 10:40) and for her bold confession of faith in Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God (John 11:27).

| 3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. | So His sisters sent word to Jesus, saying, "Lord, the one You love is sick." |
| 4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. | When Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness is not unto death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." |
| 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. | Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. |
| 6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. | So when He heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed two more days in the place where He was. |
| 7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. | After that He said to His disciples, "Let us go to Judaea again." |
| 8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? | The disciples said to Him, "Master, the Jews were just trying to stone You, and You are going back there?" |
| 9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. | Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because He sees the light of this world. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 10 | But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him. | But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because there is no light in Him." |
| 11 | These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. | After saying this, He told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I am going to wake him." |
| 12 | Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well. | His disciples said, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." |
| 13 | Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. | Jesus had spoken of His death, but they thought He was talking about actual sleep. |
| 14 | Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. | So Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. |
| 15 | And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. | I am glad for Your sake that I was not there — so that You may believe. But let us go to Him." |
| 16 | Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. | Thomas, called Didymus, said to the other disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him." |

■ NAME NOTE — Thomas (TOM-us) — *From the Aramaic word for "twin." He is also called Didymus (DID-ih-mus), the Greek word for "twin." Thomas appears in John's Gospel as a disciple marked by honest doubt and deep loyalty. Though he is remembered for doubting the resurrection (John 20:24–25), he also makes one of the greatest confessions of faith: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28).*

| 17 | Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. | When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. |
| 18 | Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: | Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away. |

- 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. Many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them over the death of their brother.
- 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him. But Mary stayed seated in the house.
- 21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.
- 22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You."
- 23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
- 24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."
- 25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me, though he die, yet shall he live.
- 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do You believe this?"
- 27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. She said to Him, "Yes, Lord. I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, Who was to come into the world."
- 28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary quietly, saying, "The Master is here and is calling for you."
- 29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

- 30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. Jesus had not yet entered the village — He was still in the place where Martha had met him.
- 31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. The Jews who were with Mary in the house comforting her saw her get up quickly and go out. They followed her, thinking she was going to the tomb to weep there.
- 32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet, saying, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."
- 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled. When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and troubled.
- 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. He asked, "Where have You laid Him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
- 35 Jesus wept. Jesus wept.
- 36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! Then the Jews said, "See how He loved Him!"
- 37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? But some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have kept this man from dying?"
- 38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.

- 39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a bad odor — He has been dead four days."
- 40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell You that if You believe, You will see the glory of God?"
- 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. So they took away the stone. Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
- 42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. I knew that You always hear Me. But I said this for the sake of the people standing here, so that they may believe that You sent Me."
- 43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. When He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"
- 44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. The man who had been dead came out, his hands and feet wrapped in burial cloths, and His face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unwrap Him and let Him go."
- 45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. Many of the Jews who had come to Mary and had seen what Jesus did believed in Him.
- 46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done. But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

- 47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a council meeting and said, "What are we doing? This man is performing many signs.
- 48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation. If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him. Then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation."
- 49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all.
- 50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. You do not understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people than that the whole nation should perish."
- 51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; He did not say this of His own accord. Being high priest that year, He prophesied that Jesus would die for that nation.
- 52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. Not for that nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God Who were scattered abroad.
- 53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. So from that day on they plotted to put Him to death.
- 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence into a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews. He went from there to a region near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and He stayed there with His disciples.

Chapter 12

Mary anoints Jesus's feet with costly spikenard at Bethany, and Judas objects. Jesus enters Jerusalem riding on a young donkey as the crowd cries 'Hosanna,' fulfilling prophecy. He declares that the hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified and that if He is lifted up, He will draw all men to Himself.

- 4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon — the one who would betray him — said,
- 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred coins and given to the poor?"
- 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. He said this not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief. He kept the money bag and used to steal from what was put in it.
- 7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this. Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept it for the day of My burial.
- 8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always. The poor You will always have with You, but You will not always have Me."
- 9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. A large crowd of the Jews learned that He was there. They came not only for Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.
- 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; But the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well,
- 11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. because on account of Him, many of the Jews were leaving and believing in Jesus.
- 12 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, The next day, the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

- 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord — the King of Israel!"
- 14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as it is written:
- 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. "Fear not, daughter of Zion. See, Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt."
- 16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. His disciples did not understand this at first. But when Jesus was glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.
- 17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. The crowd that had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify about it.
- 18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. This was also why the crowd went out to meet Him — because they had heard that He had done this miracle.
- 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. So the Pharisees said to one another, "Do you see that you gain nothing? Look — the whole world has gone after Him."
- 20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: Now there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the feast.
- 21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to Him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

- 22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip then went and told Jesus.
- 23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
- 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. Truly, truly, I say to You, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it produces much fruit.
- 25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. Whoever loves his life will lose it. Whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.
- 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am, My servant will also be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor Him.
- 27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Now My soul is troubled. What shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? No — for this reason I came to this hour.
- 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."
- 29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. The crowd standing there heard it and said it was thunder. Others said, "An angel spoke to Him."
- 30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Jesus answered, "This voice came not for My sake, but for Yours.
- 31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.

- 32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself."
- 33 This he said, signifying what death he should die. He said this to show what kind of death He was going to die.
- 34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? The crowd answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever. How can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
- 35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. Jesus said to them, "The light is with You for a little while longer. Walk while You have the light, so that darkness does not overtake You. The one who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.
- 36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. While You have the light, believe in the light, so that You may become children of light." When Jesus had said this, He departed and hid Himself from them.
- 37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: Although He had done so many miracles before them, they still did not believe in Him,
- 38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"
- 39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, For this reason they could not believe. Isaiah also said,

- 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so that they would not see with their eyes or understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them."
- 41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him. Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of Him.
- 42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: Nevertheless, even among the rulers many believed in Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so they would not be put out of the synagogue.
- 43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
- 44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in Me does not believe in Me alone, but in Him who sent Me.
- 45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. Whoever sees Me sees him who sent Me.
- 46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. I have come as a light into the world, so that whoever believes in Me should not remain in darkness.
- 47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. If anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge Him — for I came not to judge the world but to save the world.
- 48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Whoever rejects Me and does not receive My words has a judge — the very word I have spoken will judge Him on the last day.
- 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. I have not spoken on My own authority. The Father who sent Me has Himself commanded Me what to say and what to speak.

- 50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting; whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak. I know that His commandment is everlasting life. So whatever I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me."

Chapter 13

Jesus washes His disciples' feet at the Last Supper, commanding them to serve one another as He has served them. He reveals that one of them will betray Him, and Judas goes out into the night. Jesus gives a new commandment: 'Love one another, as I have loved you.'

- 1 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. Before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.
- 2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; During supper, the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray him.
- 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; Jesus knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God.
- 4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. He rose from supper, laid aside His outer garments, and took a towel and wrapped it around Himself.
- 5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, wiping them with the towel He had wrapped around Himself.
- 6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you washing my feet?"

- 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Jesus answered, "You do not understand what I am doing now, but You will understand afterward."
- 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "If I do not wash You, You have no part with Me."
- 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"
- 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. Jesus said to Him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash except for His feet — he is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of You."
- 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. For He knew who was going to betray Him. That is why He said, "Not all of You are clean."
- 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? When He had washed their feet and put on His garments and sat down again, He said to them, "Do You understand what I have done to You?"
- 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. You call Me Master and Lord, and You are right, for that is what I am.
- 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. If I then, Your Lord and Master, have washed Your feet, You also ought to wash one another's feet.
- 15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. I have given You an example, so that You should do just as I have done to You.
- 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. Truly, truly, I say to You, a servant is not greater than His master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

- 17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. If You know these things, You are blessed if You do them.
- 18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. I am not speaking of all of You. I know those I have chosen. But the Scripture must be fulfilled: 'He who ate bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'
- 19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. I am telling You this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen You may believe that I am He.
- 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever receives the one I send receives Me. Whoever receives Me receives him who sent Me."
- 21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. When Jesus had said this, He was troubled in spirit. He testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to You, one of You will betray Me."
- 22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom He was speaking.
- 23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. One of His disciples — the one whom Jesus loved — was reclining at Jesus' side.
- 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. Simon Peter motioned to him to ask Jesus whom He meant.
- 25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? That disciple leaned back against Jesus and said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"
- 26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I have dipped it." He dipped the piece of bread and gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

- 27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to Him, "What You are going to do, do quickly."
- 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. None of those at the table knew why He said this to Him.
- 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. Some thought that, since Judas had the money bag, Jesus was telling Him to buy what they needed for the feast, or that He should give something to the poor.
- 30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night. So after receiving the piece of bread, Judas went out immediately. It was night.
- 31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. When He had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him.
- 32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and He will glorify Him at once.
- 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. Little children, I am with You only a little while longer. You will seek Me. As I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going You cannot come,' so I say to You now.
- 34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. A new commandment I give to You: that You love one another. Just as I have loved You, You also are to love one another.
- 35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. By this all people will know that You are My disciples — if You have love for one another."

Chapter 14

Jesus comforts His disciples, telling them He goes to prepare a place for them and that He is the way, the truth, and the life. He promises to send the Comforter — the Holy Ghost — who will teach them all things and bring to remembrance everything He has said.

| 1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. | "Do not let Your hearts be troubled. You believe in God — believe also in Me. |
| 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. | In My Father's house there are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told You. I am going to prepare a place for You. |
| 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. | And if I go and prepare a place for You, I will come again and receive You to Myself, so that where I am, there You may be also. |
| 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. | And where I am going, You know the way." |
| 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? | Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" |

- 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jesus said to Him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.
- 7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. If You had known Me, You would have known My Father also. From now on, You do know Him and have seen Him."
- 8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that is enough for us."
- 9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Jesus said to Him, "Have I been with You so long, and You still do not know Me, Philip? Whoever has seen Me has seen the Father. How can You say, 'Show us the Father'?"
- 10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Do You not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to You I do not speak on My own authority. The Father who lives in Me does His works.
- 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me — or else believe because of the works themselves.
- 12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever believes in Me will do the works I do. He will do even greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.
- 13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. Whatever You ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.
- 14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If You ask anything in My name, I will do it.

15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

If You love Me, keep My commandments.

■ WORD NOTE — Comforter (KUM-fer-ter) — The Holy Ghost, the third Person of the Trinity, whom Jesus promised to send to His followers. Some translations say "Helper" or "Advocate" — the KJV says Comforter, the One who walks alongside you, strengthens you, and never leaves. He is not merely a feeling but a Person.

Cross-References:

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

I will ask the Father, and He will give You another Comforter, to be with You forever —

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

even the Spirit of truth. The world cannot receive Him, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. But You know Him, for He lives with You and will be in You.

18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

I will not leave You comfortless. I will come to You.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

A little while longer and the world will see Me no more. But You will see Me. Because I live, You will live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

On that day You will know that I am in My Father, and You are in Me, and I am in You.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Whoever has My commandments and keeps them — he is the one who loves Me. Whoever loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love Him and reveal Myself to Him."

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

Judas — not Iscariot — said to him, "Lord, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?"

- 23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jesus answered Him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love Him, and We will come to Him and make Our home with Him.
- 24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. Whoever does not love Me does not keep My words. The word You hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.
- 25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. I have said these things while I am still with You.
- 26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. But the Comforter — the Holy Ghost — whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach You all things and bring to Your remembrance all that I have said to You.
- 27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Peace I leave with You. My peace I give to You. Not as the world gives do I give to You. Do not let Your hearts be troubled, and do not be afraid.
- 28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. You heard Me say, 'I am going away, and I will come back to You.' If You loved Me, You would rejoice, because I am going to the Father — for the Father is greater than I.
- 29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. I have told You this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen You may believe.
- 30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. I will not talk much more with you, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no claim on Me.

Chapter 15

Jesus teaches, 'I am the true vine,' and calls His disciples to abide in Him as branches abide in the vine. He commands them to love one another as He has loved them, warns that the world will hate them as it hated Him, and promises that the Comforter will come to testify of Him.

Chapter 16

Jesus warns His disciples that they will be put out of the synagogues and that those who kill them will think they are serving God. He promises that the Comforter will come to convict the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. He tells them that their sorrow will be turned to joy, and declares, 'I have overcome the world.'

For if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to You. But if I go, I will send Him to You. |
| 8 | And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: | When He comes, He will convict the world concerning sin, and righteousness, and judgment: |

| 13 | Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. | When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide You into all truth. He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak. He will declare to You the things that are to come. |
| 14 | He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. | He will glorify Me, for He will take what is Mine and declare it to You. |
| 15 | All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. | All that the Father has is Mine. That is why I said He will take what is Mine and declare it to You. |

- 16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. A little while and You will see Me no more. Then again a little while, and You will see Me, because I am going to the Father."
- 17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? Some of His disciples said to one another, "What does He mean by saying, 'A little while and You will not see Me, and again a little while and You will see Me,' and 'because I am going to the Father'?"
- 18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith. They kept asking, "What does He mean by 'a little while'? We do not know what He is talking about."
- 19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me? Jesus knew they wanted to ask Him, so He said to them, "Are You discussing among yourselves what I meant by 'a little while and You will not see Me, and again a little while and You will see Me'?"
- 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. Truly, truly, I say to You, You will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but Your sorrow will turn to joy.
- 21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour has come. But when she has delivered the baby, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a child has been born into the world.
- 22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. So also You have sorrow now. But I will see You again, and Your hearts will rejoice. No one will take your joy from you.

- 23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. On that day You will ask Me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to You, whatever You ask the Father in My name, He will give it to You.
- 24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. Until now You have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and You will receive, so that Your joy may be complete.
- 25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. I have said these things to You in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak in figures but will tell You plainly about the Father.
- 26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: On that day You will ask in My name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on Your behalf —
- 27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. for the Father Himself loves You, because You have loved Me and have believed that I came from God.
- 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. I came from the Father and entered the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."
- 29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. His disciples said, "Now You are speaking plainly and not using figures of speech.
- 30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Now we know that You know all things. You do not need anyone to ask you anything. By this we believe that You came from God."
- 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Jesus answered them, "Do You now believe?

- 32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. The hour is coming — indeed, it has already come — when You will be scattered, each to His own home, and will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with Me.
- 33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. I have said these things to You so that in Me You may have peace. In the world You will have trouble. But take courage — I have overcome the world."

Chapter 17

Jesus prays to the Father, asking Him to glorify the Son so that the Son may glorify the Father. He prays for His disciples, asking the Father to keep them from the evil one and to sanctify them through the truth. He prays for all who will believe through their word, that they may be one as He and the Father are one.

| 13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. | Now I am coming to You. I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have My joy made complete in themselves. |
| 14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. | I have given them Your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. |
| 15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. | I am not asking You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from the evil one. |
| 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. | They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. |
| 17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. | Sanctify them in Your truth — Your word is truth. |
| 18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. | As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. |
| 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. | For their sake I sanctify Myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth. |
| 20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; | I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word, |
| 21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. | that they all may be one. Just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, may they also be one in Us, so that the world may believe that You have sent Me. |
| 22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: | The glory You have given Me I have given to them, so that they may be one, just as We are one — |

Chapter 18

Judas leads a band of soldiers to the Garden of Gethsemane, and Jesus is arrested after Peter cuts off the ear of the high priest's servant. Jesus is questioned before Annas and Caiaphas, and Peter denies Him three times. Jesus is brought before Pontius Pilate, who finds no fault in Him, but the crowd demands Barabbas.

- 3 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. So Judas, having obtained a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
- 4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? Then Jesus, knowing all that was coming on Him, stepped forward and said to them, "Whom are You seeking?"
- 5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.
- 6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. When He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.
- 7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. He asked them again, "Whom are You seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."
- 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: Jesus answered, "I told You that I am He. So if You are looking for Me, let these others go."
- 9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. This was to fulfill the word He had spoken: "Of those You gave Me, I have lost none."
- 10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
- 11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath. Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given Me?"

- 12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, So the band of soldiers, along with their commander and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound Him.
- 13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. They led Him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.
- 14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better for one man to die for the people.
- 15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest and entered the courtyard of the high priest with Jesus,
- 16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. but Peter stood outside at the door. The other disciple — the one known to the high priest — went out and spoke to the woman at the door and brought Peter in.
- 17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. The servant woman at the door said to Peter, "Are you not also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not."
- 18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.
- 19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. The high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching.

- 20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Jesus answered Him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews gather. I said nothing in secret.
- 21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. Why do You ask Me? Ask those who heard Me what I said to them. They know what I said."
- 22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? When He said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with His hand, saying, "Is that how You answer the high priest?"
- 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Jesus answered Him, "If I said something wrong, testify about the wrong. But if I spoke rightly, why do You strike Me?"
- 24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.
- 25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "Are you not also one of His disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not."
- 26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? One of the servants of the high priest — a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off — said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"
- 27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew. Peter denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

- 28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled but could eat the Passover.
- 29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? So Pilate went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"
- 30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. They answered him, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you."
- 31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge Him by your own law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death."
- 32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die. This was to fulfill the word of Jesus, which He spoke to show what kind of death He would die.
- 33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? So Pilate entered the headquarters again and called Jesus and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"
- 34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Jesus answered, "Do You say this on Your own, or did others tell You about Me?"
- 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed You over to me. What have You done?"

Chapter 19

Pilate has Jesus scourged and the soldiers crown Him with thorns and mock Him. Pilate delivers Jesus to be crucified at Golgotha, where He is nailed to the cross between two others. Jesus commits His mother to John's care, declares 'It is finished,' and gives up His spirit. Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus bury Him.
