| 3 And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you. | you have seen all that the LORD Your God has done to all these nations for Your sake, for it is the LORD Your God Who has fought for You. |
| 4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward. | I have allotted to You as an inheritance for Your tribes those nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west. |
| 5 And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you. | The LORD Your God will push them back before You and drive them out of Your sight. And You shall possess their land, just as the LORD Your God promised You. |

- 6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left; Therefore, be very strong to keep and to do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right hand nor to the left,
- 7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them: that you may not mix with these nations remaining among you or make mention of the names of their gods or swear by them or serve them or bow down to them,
- 8 But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day. but You shall hold fast to the LORD Your God just as You have done to this day.
- 9 For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day. For the LORD has driven out before You great and strong nations. And as for You, no man has been able to stand before You to this day.
- 10 One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. One man of You puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD Your God Who fights for You, just as He promised You.
- 11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God. Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD Your God.
- 12 Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: For if You turn back and cling to the remnant of these nations remaining among You and make marriages with them, so that You associate with them and they with You,

- 13 Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. know for certain that the LORD Your God will no longer drive out these nations before You. But they shall be a snare and a trap for You, a whip on Your sides and thorns in Your eyes, until You perish from off this good land that the LORD Your God has given You.
- 14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof. "And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and You know in Your hearts and souls, all of You, that not one word has failed of all the good things that the LORD Your God promised concerning You. All have come to pass for You; not one of them has failed.
- 15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. But just as all the good things that the LORD Your God promised concerning You have been fulfilled for You, so the LORD will bring upon You all the evil things, until He has destroyed You from off this good land that the LORD Your God has given You,
- 16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you. if You transgress the covenant of the LORD Your God, which He commanded You, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against You, and You shall perish quickly from off the good land that He has given to You."

Judges

Author: Unknown — Jewish tradition credits Samuel, which fits the period and his role in closing the era of the judges.

Written to: Israel under the early kings, as an explanation of why the nation needed strong, God-appointed leadership.

Setting: Joshua is dead. The tribes have taken portions of Canaan but have not driven out all the inhabitants. Over roughly three hundred years, a recurring cycle of apostasy, oppression, repentance, and deliverance defines the nation's history.

Where this sits historically: c. 1380–1050 BC — the long judges era spanning roughly three centuries between the conquest and the rise of the monarchy, while Egypt's empire weakened and the Sea Peoples (Philistines) settled the coast.

Contemporaries: Egypt's late 18th, 19th, and 20th dynasties (Akhenaten through Ramesses III); Philistia, Moab, Midian, and Ammon as Israel's recurring oppressors. Ruth is set within this same period.

Big themes:

- The cycle of sin — Israel abandons God, suffers under foreign oppressors, cries out, is rescued by a judge, and then returns to sin once the judge dies; this pattern repeats twelve times
- "Every man did that which was right in his own eyes" — the book's haunting refrain (17:6, 21:25) diagnoses the disease beneath the cycle
- The judges — twelve deliverers ranging from the faithful (Deborah, Gideon early) to the deeply flawed (Samson); God uses broken instruments
- Canaanite influence — every failure traces back to tolerating what God commanded Israel to destroy
- The need for a king — not any king, but a king after God's own heart; Judges is the argument that Israel needs David

Key passages: Judg 2:16; 6:14; 11:29; 13:24; 21:25

How it fits: Judges picks up the moment Joshua ends and spans the gap to Samuel. The increasingly horrific events of the final chapters (the Levite's concubine, the near-destruction of Benjamin) show a nation in free fall. Ruth is set in this same period — a small counterpoint of grace. 1 Samuel opens with the answer: a prophet, then a king.

- 8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of 110 years.
- 9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnathserah, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the hill Gaash. they buried Him within the boundaries of His inheritance in Timnathserah, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of the mountain of Gaash.
- 10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel. all that generation also were gathered to their fathers. And there arose another generation after them who did not know the LORD or the work that He had done for Israel.
- 11 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim: the people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals.
- 12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed down to them. And they provoked the LORD to anger.

- 13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth. They abandoned the LORD and served the Baals and the Ashtaroth.
- 14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. He gave them over to plunderers, who plundered them. And He sold them into the hand of their surrounding enemies, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.
- 15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed. Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them for harm, as the LORD had warned, and as the LORD had sworn to them. And they were in terrible distress.
- 16 Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them. Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who plundered them.
- 17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so. Yet they did not listen to their judges, for they whored after other gods and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the way in which their fathers had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD. They did not do so.
- 18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them. Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge. He saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For the LORD was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who afflicted and oppressed them.

Chapter 6

Israel was impoverished by seven years of Midianite raids, and the angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon at the winepress, calling him to deliver Israel. Gideon tore down his father's altar to Baal and twice tested God with a fleece.

| 1 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. | The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. The LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years. |
| 2 And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds. | the hand of Midian overpowered Israel, and because of Midian the people of Israel made for themselves the dens that are in the mountains and the caves and the strongholds. |
| 3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them; | For whenever Israel planted crops, the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them. |

- 4 And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass. They would encamp against them and devour the produce of the land, as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel and no sheep or ox or donkey.
- 5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it. For they would come up with their livestock and their tents; they would come like locusts in number—both they and their camels could not be counted—so that they laid waste the land as they came in.
- 6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD. Israel was brought very low because of Midian. And the people of Israel cried out for help to the LORD.
- 7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites, When the people of Israel cried out to the LORD on account of the Midianites,
- 8 That the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; the LORD sent a prophet to the people of Israel. And he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led You up from Egypt and brought You out of the house of slavery.
- 9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land; I delivered You from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all who oppressed You, and drove them out before You and gave You their land.
- 10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice. I said to You, 'I am the LORD Your God; You shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land You dwell.' But You have not obeyed my voice."

11 And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the terebinth at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress to hide it from the Midianites.

■ NAME NOTE — Gideon (GID-ee-un) — "feller, great warrior" — Son of Joash the Abiezrite, called by the angel of the LORD while threshing wheat in hiding. God reduced his army from 32,000 to 300 to prove that victory belongs to the LORD. Also called Jerubbaal ("let Baal contend").

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

Gideon said to him, "Please, my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His wonderful deeds that our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has forsaken us and given us into the hand of Midian."

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

the LORD turned to Him and said, "Go in this might of Yours and save Israel from the hand of Midian; do not I send You?"

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

he said to him, "Please, Lord, how can I save Israel? my clan is the weakest in Manasseh. I am the least in my father's house."

- 16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man. the LORD said to Him, "But I will be with You, and You shall strike the Midianites as one man."
- 17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me. he said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Your eyes, then show me a sign that it is You who speak with me."
- 18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. Please do not depart from here until I come to You and bring out my present and set it before You." And He said, "I will stay till You return."
- 19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it. So Gideon went into his house and prepared a young goat and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the terebinth and presented them.
- 20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. the angel of God said to Him, "Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour the broth over them." And He did so.
- 21 Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight. Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes. And fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. And the angel of the LORD vanished from His sight.
- 22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! for because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face. Then Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD. And Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! For now I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."

- 23 And the LORD said unto him, Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die. But the LORD said to Him, "Peace be to You. Do not fear; You shall not die."
- 24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovahshalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and called it Jehovahshalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.
- 25 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: That night the LORD said to Him, "Take Your father's bull, and the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal that Your father has, and cut down the grove that is by it
- 26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down. build an altar to the LORD Your God on the top of the stronghold here, with stones laid in due order. Then take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down."
- 27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night. So Gideon took ten men of his servants and did as the LORD had told Him. But because He was too afraid of His family and the men of the town to do it by day, He did it by night.
- 28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built. When the men of the town rose early in the morning, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the grove beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar that had been built.

- 29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing. they said to one another, "Who has done this thing?" And after they had searched and inquired, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing."
- 30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it. Then the men of the town said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, for he has broken down the altar of Baal and cut down the grove that was by it."
- 31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar. But Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let Him contend for himself, because His altar has been broken down."
- 32 Therefore on that day he called him Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar. Therefore on that day Gideon was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, "Let Baal contend against him," because he broke down his altar.
- 33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel. Now all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the East came together. They crossed the Jordan and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.
- 34 But the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet; and Abiezer was gathered after him. But the Spirit of the LORD clothed Gideon. He sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow Him.

- 35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet them. he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh. They too were called out to follow him. And he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali. They went up to meet them.
- 36 And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, Then Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said,
- 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said. I am laying a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have said."
- 38 And it was so: for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.
- 39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. Then Gideon said to God, "Let not your anger burn against me; let me speak just once more. Please let me test just once more with the fleece. Please let it be dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground let there be dew."
- 40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground. God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Chapter 7

God reduced Gideon's army from 32,000 to 300 men by the test at the water. The 300 surrounded the Midianite camp at night with torches, jars, and trumpets; the enemy panicked and fled, and Israel pursued and defeated them.

| 1 | Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Harod: so that the host of the Midianites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. | Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod. And the camp of Midian was north of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. |

" Then 22,000 of the people returned, and 10,000 remained. |
| 4 | And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many; bring them down unto the water, and I will try them for thee there: and it shall be, that of whom I say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same shall not go. | the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Take them down to the water. I will test them for you there, and anyone of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with You,' shall go with You, and anyone of whom I say to you, 'This one shall not go with You,' shall not go." |

- 5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down upon his knees to drink. So He brought the people down to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, "Every one who laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set by Himself. Likewise, every one who kneels down to drink."
- 6 And the number of them that lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. the number of those who lapped, putting their hands to their mouths, was 300 men. But all the rest of the people knelt down to drink water.
- 7 And the LORD said unto Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place. the LORD said to Gideon, "With the 300 men who lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hand, and let all the others go every man to his home."
- 8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men: and the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley. So the people took provisions in their hands, and their trumpets, and He sent all the rest of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the 300 men. And the camp of Midian was below Him in the valley.
- 9 And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for I have delivered it into thine hand. That same night the LORD said to Him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into Your hand.
- 10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host: But if You are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah Your servant.

- 11 And thou shalt hear what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host. you shall hear what they say, and afterward Your hands shall be strengthened to go down against the camp." Then He went down with Purah His servant to the outposts of the armed men who were in the camp.
- 12 And the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude. the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the East lay along the valley like locusts in abundance. Their camels were without number, as the sand that is on the seashore in abundance.
- 13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along. When Gideon came, a man was telling a dream to his comrade. And he said, "I dreamed a dream, and a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian and came to the tent and struck it so that it fell and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat."
- 14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host. his comrade answered, "This is no other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has given into His hand Midian and all the camp."
- 15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian. As soon as Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, He worshipped. And He returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise, for the LORD has given the host of Midian into Your hand."

- 16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers. he divided the 300 men into three companies and put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars, with torches inside the jars.
- 17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall ye do. he said to them, "Look at me, and do likewise. When I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.
- 18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.' "
- 19 So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands. So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch. And they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands.
- 20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon. Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars. They held in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow. And they cried out, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"
- 21 And they stood every man in his place round about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled. Every man stood in his place around the camp. All the army ran. They cried out and fled.

- 22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Bethshittah in Zererath, and to the border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath. When they blew the 300 trumpets, the LORD set every man's sword against his comrade and against all the army. And the army fled as far as Bethshittah in Zererath, as far as the border of Abelmeholah, unto Tabbath.
- 23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites. the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all Manasseh. They pursued after Midian.
- 24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Bethbarah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Bethbarah and Jordan. Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and capture the waters against them, as far as Bethbarah, and also the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were called out. They captured the waters as far as Bethbarah, and also the Jordan.
- 25 And they took two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan. they captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb. Then they pursued Midian. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon across the Jordan.

Chapter 8

Gideon pursued and captured the Midianite kings Zebah and Zalmunna east of the Jordan. He refused the people's offer to make him king but made a golden ephod that became a snare to Israel; after his death, the people returned to Baal worship.

- 9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head? Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If You bring me home again to fight against the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be Your head."
- 10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy words. the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will be witness between us, if we do not do as You say."
- 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the LORD in Mizpah. So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and leader over them. And Jephthah spoke all His words before the LORD at Mizpah.
- 12 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land? Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, saying, "What do you have against me, that you have come to me to fight in my land?"
- 13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan. Now therefore restore those lands again peaceably."
- 14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon: Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites,

- 15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon: and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.
- 16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came to Kadesh; But when Israel came up from Egypt and walked through the wilderness to the Red sea and came to Kadesh,
- 17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh. Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Let me pass through your land.' But the king of Edom would not listen. In the same way they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.
- 18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab. Then they journeyed through the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab. They came by the east side of the land of Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab.
- 19 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place. Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon. Israel said to him, 'Please let us pass through your land to our place.'
- 20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. Instead, Sihon gathered all his people together, encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

- 21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. The LORD God of Israel gave Sihon and all His people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country.
- 22 And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan. They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness to the Jordan.
- 23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it? So now the LORD God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel — and should You possess it?
- 24 Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh thy god giveth thee to possess? So whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, them will we possess. Will You not possess what Chemosh Your god gives You to possess? So whatever the LORD our God has driven out from before us, that we will possess.
- 25 And now art thou any thing better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them, Are You any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did He ever contend with Israel, or did He ever fight against them?
- 26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and in Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time? While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of the Arnon — for three hundred years — why did You not recover them in that time?

- 27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. I therefore have not sinned against You, but You do me wrong by making war against me. May the LORD, the Judge, be judge this day between the people of Israel and the people of Ammon."
- 28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him. But the king of the Ammonites did not listen to the words of Jephthah that he sent him.
- 29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon. Then the Spirit of the LORD was upon Jephthah. He passed through Gilead and Manasseh and passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead He passed on to the Ammonites.
- 30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, Jephthah made a vow to the LORD and said, "If You will give the Ammonites into my hand,
- 31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering. then whatever comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the Ammonites shall be the LORD's. I will offer it up for a burnt offering."
- 32 So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands. So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them. The LORD gave them into His hand.

- 33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel. he struck them from Aroer to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a great blow. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.
- 34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter. Then Jephthah came to His home at Mizpah. And His daughter came out to meet Him with tambourines and with dancing. She was His only child; besides her He had neither son nor daughter.
- 35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back. as soon as He saw her, He tore His clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and You have become the cause of great trouble to me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD. I cannot take back my vow."
- 36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon. she said to Him, "My father, You have opened Your mouth to the LORD; do to me according to what has gone out of Your mouth, now that the LORD has avenged You on Your enemies, on the Ammonites."
- 37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows. So she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: leave me alone two months, that I may go up and down on the mountains and weep for my virginity, I and my companions."

- 38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains. he said, "Go." Then He sent her away for two months. She departed, she and her companions, and wept for her virginity on the mountains.
- 39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, at the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to His vow that He had made. She had never known a man. And it became a custom in Israel
- 40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year. that the daughters of Israel went year by year to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

- 3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me? when I saw that You would not save me, I took my life in my hand and crossed over against the Ammonites. The LORD gave them into my hand. Why then have You come up to me this day to fight against me?"

- 2 And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and bare not. There was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. And his wife was barren and had no children.
- 3 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, " you are barren and have not borne children, but You shall conceive and bear a son.
- 4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing: Therefore be careful and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean,
- 5 For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite unto God from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. for You shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall come upon His head, for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb. He shall begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines."
- 6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name: Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of God came to me. His appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome. I did not ask Him where He was from. He did not tell me His name.
- 7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death. But he said to me, ' you shall conceive and bear a son. So then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of His death.' "

- 8 Then Manoah intreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. Then Manoah prayed to the LORD and said, "O Lord, please let the man of God whom You sent come again to us and teach us what we are to do with the child who will be born."

But Manoah her husband was not with her.
- 10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day. So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, " the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."
- 11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am. Manoah arose and went after his wife and came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to this woman?" And he said, "I am."

- 13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware. the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful.

All that I commanded her let her observe."

- 15 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid for thee. Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Please let us detain You and prepare a young goat for You."
- 16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD. the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "If You detain me, I will not eat of Your food. But if You prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD." (For Manoah did not know that He was the angel of the LORD.)
- 17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour? Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is Your name, so that, when Your words come true, we may honor You?"
- 18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? the angel of the LORD said to Him, "Why do You ask my name, seeing it is wonderful?"
- 19 So Manoah took a kid with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wondrously; and Manoah and his wife looked on. So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to the one who works wonders, and Manoah and his wife were watching.

And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.* when the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD went up in the flame of the altar. And Manoah said unto his wife, We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God."

But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

But his wife said to Him, "If the LORD had meant to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering at our hands, or shown us all these things, or now announced to us such things as these."

| 1 But it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in. | After some days, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife with a young goat. And he said, "I will go in to my wife in the chamber." But her father would not allow him to go in. |
| 2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her. | her father said, "I really thought that you utterly hated her, so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please take her instead." |
| 3 And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure. | Samson said to them, "This time I shall be innocent in regard to the Philistines, when I do them harm." |
| 4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails. | So Samson went and caught 300 foxes and took torches. And he turned them tail to tail and put a torch between each pair of tails. |

- 5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives. when he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines and set fire to the stacked grain and the standing grain, as well as the olive orchards.
- 6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire. Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?" And they said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and given her to his companion." And the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.
- 7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease. Samson said to them, "If this is what you do, I swear I will be avenged on you, and after that I will quit."
- 8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam. he struck them hip and thigh with a great blow. He went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.
- 9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi. Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah and made a raid on Lehi.
- 10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us. the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us."
- 11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. Then 3,000 men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?" And he said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

- 12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves. they said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not attack me yourselves."
- 13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock. They said to him, "No; we will only bind you and give you into their hands. We will surely not kill you." So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.
- 14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands. When He came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet Him. Then the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon Him, and the ropes that were on His arms became as flax that has caught fire. His bonds melted off His hands.
- 15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put out His hand and took it, and with it He struck 1,000 men.
- 16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men. Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps upon heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey have I struck down a thousand men."
- 17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramathlehi. As soon as he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone out of his hand. And that place was called Ramathlehi.

- 18 And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? he was very thirsty. He called upon the LORD and said, "You have granted this great salvation by the hand of Your servant, and shall I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?"
- 19 But God clave an hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof Enhakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day. God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came out from it. And when He drank, His spirit returned. He revived. Therefore the name of it was called Enhakkore; it is at Lehi to this day.
- 20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years. he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Chapter 16

Samson loved Delilah, who pressed him until he revealed that his strength lay in his Nazirite vow and his uncut hair. The Philistines shaved his head, gouged out his eyes, and imprisoned him, but his hair grew back and he pulled down the temple of Dagon, killing more in his death than in his life.

- 1 Then went Samson to Gaza, and saw there an harlot, and went in unto her. Samson went to Gaza, and there he saw a prostitute. He went in to her.
- 2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him. The Gazites were told, "Samson has come here." And they surrounded the place and set an ambush for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept quiet all night, saying, "Let us wait till the light of the morning; then we will kill him."

■ NAME NOTE — Delilah (deh-LY-lah) — "delicate, languishing" — A woman of the Valley of Sorek whom the Philistine lords bribed with 1,100 pieces of silver each to discover the secret of Samson's strength. Through persistent nagging she broke him down and betrayed him to his enemies.

- 8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried. She bound him with them.
- 9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known. Now she had men lying in ambush in an inner chamber. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the bowstrings, as a thread of flax snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.
- 10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound. Then Delilah said to Samson, "you have mocked me and told me lies. Please tell me how you might be bound."
- 11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man. he said to her, "If they bind me with new ropes that have not been used, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."
- 12 Delilah therefore took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread. So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And the men lying in ambush were in an inner chamber. But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.
- 13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web. Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me how you might be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and fasten it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak and be like any other man."

- 14 And she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web. So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web. And she made them tight with the pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.
- 15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth. she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and you have not told me where your great strength lies."
- 16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; when she pressed him hard with her words day after day, and urged him, his soul was vexed to death.
- 17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man. he told her all his heart, and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head, for I have been a Nazarite to God from my mother's womb. If my head is shaved, then my strength will leave me. I shall become weak and be like any other man."
- 18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand. When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up again, for he has told me all his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money in their hands.

- 19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. She made him sleep on her knees. And she called a man and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. Then she began to torment him. His strength left him.
- 20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him. she said, "The Philistines are upon You, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep and said, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." But He did not know that the LORD had left Him.
- 21 But the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house. the Philistines seized Him and gouged out His eyes and brought Him down to Gaza and bound Him with bronze shackles. And He ground at the mill in the prison.
- 22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaven. But the hair of His head began to grow again after it had been shaved.
- 23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to rejoice. They said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand."
- 24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us. when the people saw him, they praised their god. For they said, "Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has killed many of us."

- 25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars. when their hearts were merry, they said, "Call Samson, that he may entertain us." So they called Samson out of the prison. He entertained them. They made him stand between the pillars.
- 26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them. Samson said to the young man who held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them."
- 27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport. Now the house was full of men and women. All the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about 3,000 men and women, who looked on while Samson entertained.
- 28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. Then Samson called to the LORD and said, "O Lord GOD, please remember me and please strengthen me only this once, O God, that I may be avenged on the Philistines for my two eyes."
- 29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested. He leaned his weight against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other.

- 30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life. Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines." Then he bowed with all his strength, and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those he had killed during his life.
- 31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And he had judged Israel twenty years. Then his brothers and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Chapter 17

A man named Micah in the hill country of Ephraim set up a shrine with a carved image, an ephod, and household gods, and hired a wandering Levite as his personal priest. The refrain declares that in those days there was no king in Israel, and every man did what was right in his own eyes.

And His mother said, "Blessed be my son by the LORD."

- 3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image: now therefore I will restore it unto thee. he restored the 1,100 pieces of silver to His mother. And His mother said, "I dedicate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image. Now therefore I will restore it to You."
- 4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah. So when He restored the money to His mother, His mother took 200 pieces of silver and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into a graven image and a molten image. - 2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there. So the people of Dan sent five able men from the whole number of their tribe, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it. And they said to them, "Go and explore the land." And they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.
- 3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? When they were by the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite. They turned aside there and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"
- 4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest. He said to them, "This is how Micah deals with me: he has hired me, and I am his priest."
- 5 And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. They said to him, "Inquire of God, we pray, that we may know whether the journey on which we are going will be prosperous."
- 6 And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go. the priest said to them, "Go in peace. The way in which You go is before the LORD."
- 7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man. Then the five men departed and came to Laish and saw the people who were there, how they lived in security, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking nothing that is in the earth and possessing wealth, and how they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.

- 8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye? Then they came to their brothers at Zorah and Eshtaol, and their brothers said to them, "What do You report?"
- 9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land. They said, "Arise, and let us go up against them, for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Will You do nothing? Do not be slow to go and enter in to possess the land.
- 10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth. When You go, You will come to a people unsuspecting, and the land is broad — for God has given it into Your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is on the earth."
- 11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war. So six hundred men of the family of the Danites, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, set out armed with weapons of war.
- 12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjathjearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahanehdan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjathjearim. They went up and encamped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. That is why that place is called Mahaneh-dan to this day; it lies behind Kiriath-jearim.
- 13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah. From there they passed on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.
- 14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do. Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish said to their brothers, "Do You know that in these houses there are an ephod, household gods, a carved image, and a metal image? Now therefore consider what You will do."

- 15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and saluted him. they turned aside there and came to the house of the young man the Levite, at the house of Micah, and greeted him.

The priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.
- 18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye? When these men went into Micah's house and brought out the carved image, the ephod, the household gods, and the metal image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"
- 19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel? They said to him, "Keep silent. Put your hand on your mouth and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"
- 20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people. the priest's heart was glad. He took the ephod, the household gods, and the carved image, and went along with the people.
- 21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them. So they turned and departed, putting the little ones and the livestock and the goods in front of them.

- 22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. When they were a good distance from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the people of Dan.
- 23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company? they called out to the people of Dan, who turned around and said to Micah, "What is the matter with you, that you come with such a company?"
- 24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee? He said, "You have taken away my gods that I made, and the priest, and gone away. What have I left? How then do you ask me, 'What is the matter with you?' "
- 25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon thee, and thou lose thy life, with the lives of thy household. the people of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall upon you, and you lose your life with the lives of your household."
- 26 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house. Then the people of Dan went their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.
- 27 And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire. But the people of Dan took what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him. They came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, and struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.
- 28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by Bethrehob. And they built a city, and dwelt therein. there was no deliverer because it was far from Sidon. They had no dealings with anyone. It was in the valley that belongs to Bethrehob. Then they rebuilt the city and lived in it.

- 3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. Then her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of donkeys. And she brought him into her father's house. And when the girl's father saw him, he came with joy to meet him.
- 4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there. his father-in-law, the girl's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days. So they ate and drank and spent the night there.
- 5 And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way. On the fourth day they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a piece of bread, and afterward you may go."
- 6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry. So they sat down and ate and drank, the two of them together. And the girl's father said to the man, "Be content to stay the night and let your heart be merry."
- 7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again. When the man rose up to go, his father-in-law urged him, so he spent the night there again.
- 8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them. On the fifth day he arose early in the morning to go, and the girl's father said, "Strengthen your heart and wait until the afternoon." So they ate, the two of them.

- 9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home. When the man rose up to go, he and his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Now the day is drawing toward evening — please spend the night. The day is coming to an end. Lodge here and let your heart be merry. Tomorrow you will get up early for your journey and go home."
- 10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, his concubine also was with him. But the man would not spend the night. He rose up and departed and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him two saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him.
- 11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it. When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come, let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."
- 12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeah. His master said to him, "We will not turn aside into the city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel, but we will pass on to Gibeah."
- 13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah. He said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places and spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah."
- 14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which belongeth to Benjamin. So they passed on and went their way. And the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

- 15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he sat him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodging. they turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gibeah. And he went in and sat down in the open square of the city, for no one took them into his house to spend the night.
- 16 And, behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeah: but the men of the place were Benjamites. an old man was coming from his work in the field at evening. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim. He was sojourning in Gibeah. The men of the place were Benjaminites.
- 17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou? he lifted up his eyes and saw the traveler in the open square of the city. And the old man said, "Where are you going? And where do you come from?"
- 18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Bethlehemjudah toward the side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I: and I went to Bethlehemjudah, but I am now going to the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to house. he said to Him, "We are passing from Bethlehemjudah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehemjudah. I am going to the house of the LORD, but no one has taken me into his house.
- 19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing. We have straw and feed for our donkeys, with bread and wine for me and Your female servant and the young man with Your servants. There is no lack of anything."
- 20 And the old man said, Peace be with thee; howsoever let all thy wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street. the old man said, "Peace be to You; I will care for all Your wants. Only, do not spend the night in the square."
- 21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet, and did eat and drink. So He brought Him into His house and gave the donkeys feed. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

- 22 Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Belial, beset the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thine house, that we may know him. As they were making their hearts merry, the men of the city, worthless fellows, surrounded the house, beating on the door. And they said to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may know him."
- 23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, nay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly. the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers, do not act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, do not do this vile thing."
- 24 Behold, here is my daughter a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble ye them, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not so vile a thing. Here is my virgin daughter, and his concubine. I will bring them out now. Humble them and do with them what seems good to you, but to this man do not do this vile thing."
- 25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning; and when the day began to spring, they let her go. But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and made her go out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go.
- 26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light. as morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, until it was light.

- 27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. her master rose up in the morning, and when he opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, there was his concubine lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.
- 28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place. He said to her, "Get up, let us be going." But there was no answer. Then he put her on the donkey, and the man rose up and went away to his home.
- 29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel. when he entered his house, he took a knife, and taking hold of his concubine he divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.
- 30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your minds. all who saw it said, "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt until this day; consider it, take counsel, and speak."

Chapter 20

All Israel assembled against Gibeah to punish the crime, but Benjamin refused to surrender the guilty men. Israel was twice defeated before the LORD gave them victory on the third day at the battle of Gibeah; nearly the entire tribe of Benjamin was destroyed, with only 600 men surviving.

- 3 *(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) - 6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. I took my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel, for they have committed abomination and outrage in Israel.
- 7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel. you people of Israel, all of you, give your advice and counsel here."

- 8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house. all the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house.
- 9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it; But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot.
- 10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel. We will take ten men of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of every thousand, and a thousand of every ten thousand, to bring provisions for the people, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin they may deal with all the outrage they have committed in Israel."
- 11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man. So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, united as one man.
- 12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you? the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What evil is this that has been done among you?
- 13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel: Now therefore give up the men, the worthless fellows in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and put away evil from Israel." But the people of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the people of Israel.
- 14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. the people of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the people of Israel.

- 15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men. the people of Benjamin numbered on that day from the cities 26,000 men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered 700 chosen men.
- 16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss. Among all these soldiers were 700 chosen men who were left-handed; every one of them could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.
- 17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war. the men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, numbered 400,000 men who drew the sword; all these were men of war.
- 18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first. The people of Israel arose and went up to the house of God and inquired of God, "Which of us shall go up first to fight against the people of Benjamin?" - 23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.) (The people of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and they inquired of the LORD, "Shall we again draw near to battle against our brothers, the people of Benjamin?" And the LORD said, "Go up against them.")
- 24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. so the people of Israel came near against the people of Benjamin the second day.

They wept and sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening. They offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.
- 27 And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, the people of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days,

- 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand. and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, "Shall we go out yet again to battle against our brothers, the people of Benjamin, or shall we cease?" The LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into Your hand."
- 29 And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah. So Israel set men in ambush around Gibeah.
- 30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times. the people of Israel went up against the people of Benjamin on the third day and set themselves in battle order against Gibeah, as at other times.
- 31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel. the people of Benjamin went out against the people and were drawn away from the city. They began to strike and kill some of the people, as at other times, on the highways, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, in the open field, killing about thirty men of Israel.
- 32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways. the people of Benjamin said, "They are being defeated before us, as at the first." But the people of Israel said, "Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways."
- 33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baaltamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah. all the men of Israel rose up out of their place and set themselves in battle order at Baal-tamar, and the men of Israel in ambush rushed out of their places, out of the open ground west of Gibeah.

- 34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them. Ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came against Gibeah, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjaminites did not know that disaster was close upon them.
- 35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword. the LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and the people of Israel destroyed 25,100 men of Benjamin that day. All these were men who drew the sword.
- 36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah. So the people of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel gave ground to Benjamin because they trusted in the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah.
- 37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword. Then the men in ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah; the men in ambush moved out and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.
- 38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city. Now the appointed signal between the men of Israel and the men in ambush was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city.
- 39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle. So when the men of Israel turned in the battle, Benjamin began to strike and kill about thirty men of Israel. They said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle."

- 40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven. But when the cloud began to rise out of the city in a column of smoke, the Benjaminites looked behind them, and the whole city was going up in smoke to the heavens.
- 41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them. Then the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, for they saw that disaster had come upon them.
- 42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. They turned their backs before the men of Israel toward the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in the midst of them.
- 43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising. They surrounded the Benjaminites, chased them, and trod them down at their resting place, as far as opposite Gibeah toward the sunrising.
- 44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour. Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell, all of them men of valor.
- 45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them. They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. Five thousand men of them were cut down on the highways, and they pursued them hard to Gidom and killed two thousand more men of them.
- 46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour. So all who fell that day of Benjamin were 25,000 men who drew the sword, all of them men of valor.

Israel grieved that Benjamin was nearly wiped out and devised two plans to provide wives for the 600 survivors—taking women from Jabesh-gilead and allowing the men to seize dancers at Shiloh. The book closes with the refrain that there was no king in Israel, and every man did what was right in his own eyes.

- 5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, He shall surely be put to death. the people of Israel said, "Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For they had taken a great oath concerning Him who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death."
- 6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. the people of Israel had compassion for Benjamin their brother and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel this day."
- 7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives? What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives?"
- 8 And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpah to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabeshgilead to the assembly. They said, "Which of the tribes of Israel did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah?" And no one had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.
- 9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead there. For when the people were mustered, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead were there.
- 10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children. So the congregation sent there 12,000 of their bravest men and commanded them, "Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones."
- 11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man. This is what You shall do: every male and every woman who has lain with a man you shall devote to destruction."

- 12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabeshgilead four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. Among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead they found 400 young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.
- 13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably unto them. the whole congregation sent word to the people of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon and proclaimed peace to them.
- 14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabeshgilead: and yet so they sufficed them not. Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead. But they were not enough for them.
- 15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. the people had compassion for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.
- 16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?"
- 17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel. They said, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe may not be blotted out of Israel.
- 18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin. Yet we cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the people of Israel have sworn, 'Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'"

- 19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah. So they said, "There is a yearly feast of the LORD at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."
- 20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards; They commanded the people of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,
- 21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. and watch. When the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out from the vineyards and snatch each man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.
- 22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty. And when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, 'Be generous to them for our sake; because we did not take for each man of them his wife in battle, and you did not give them to them, else You would now be guilty."
- 23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them. the people of Benjamin did so and took their wives, according to their number, from the dancers whom they carried off. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, rebuilt the towns, and lived in them.
- 24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance. the people of Israel departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.

- 25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes. In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in His own eyes.

Ruth

Author: Unknown — Jewish tradition names Samuel, though this is uncertain.

Date written: The events occur during the period of the judges (c. 1150–1100 BC); the book was likely written in the early monarchy, possibly c. 1000 BC.

Written to: The people of Israel, to demonstrate God's providence and the inclusion of the nations in His redemptive plan.

Setting: "In the days when the judges ruled" — a dark, lawless era in Israel. A family from Bethlehem emigrates to Moab to escape famine. The husband and both sons die. The widow Naomi returns to Israel with her Moabite daughter-in-law Ruth, and God's providence unfolds through an unlikely kinsman-redeemer named Boaz.

Where this sits historically: c. 1100 BC during the latter judges era, in a famine that drove Naomi's family from Bethlehem to Moab; the Philistines dominate the coastal plain.

Contemporaries: The judges of Israel — possibly Jephthah, Ibzan, or Samson; Egypt's 20th dynasty in decline. Ruth's great-grandson David will be born about a century later.

Big themes:

- Providence — God is never mentioned performing miracles, but His hand guides every coincidence and kindness in the story

- *The kinsman-redeemer — Boaz's role as goel (redeemer) who buys back Naomi's land and takes Ruth as his wife is one of the OT's clearest pictures of what Christ does for the church*

- Loyalty — Ruth's declaration to Naomi ("whither thou goest, I will go") is one of Scripture's greatest statements of covenantal faithfulness

- The Gentile in the covenant — Ruth is a Moabite, yet she is grafted into Israel and into the line of David

- Reversal — Naomi goes out full and returns empty; she returns empty and is filled again; God restores what was lost

Key passages: Ruth 1:16–17; 2:12; 3:9; 4:14–15; 4:17

How it fits: Ruth is placed between Judges and 1 Samuel as a breath of grace in the darkest period of Israel's history. Its climax — the birth of Obed, father of Jesse, father of David — anchors Ruth directly in the Davidic and ultimately messianic lineage. Matthew 1:5 names Ruth in the genealogy of Christ.

Chapter 1

Naomi loses her husband and both sons in Moab and sets out to return to Bethlehem. She urges her daughters-in-law to stay behind; Orpah turns back, but Ruth refuses to leave and pledges her loyalty. They arrive in Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

- 1

Now it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehemjudah went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

In the days when the judges ruled there was a famine in the land, and a man of Bethlehemjudah went to stay in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons.
- 2

And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehemjudah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehemjudah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.

■ NAME NOTE — Elimelech (eh-LIM-eh-lek) — "my God is king" — A man of Bethlehem who took his family to Moab during a famine. His death there, along with his two sons, set the stage for the story of redemption through Ruth and Boaz.

■ NAME NOTE — Naomi (nay-OH-mee) — "pleasant" — Wife of Elimelech, mother-in-law to Ruth and Orpah. After losing her husband and both sons in Moab, she renamed herself Mara ("bitter") but lived to see God's providence restore her through Ruth's marriage to Boaz.

■ NAME NOTE — Mahlon (MAH-lon) — "sickly" — One of Naomi's two sons who married a Moabite woman (Ruth) and died in Moab without children.

■ NAME NOTE — Chilion (KIL-ee-on) — "wasting" — Naomi's other son who married Orpah and died in Moab without children.

- 3

But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died. She was left with her two sons.
- 4

And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelt there about ten years.

These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. They lived there about ten years,

■ NAME NOTE — Orpah (OR-pah) — "back of the neck" — Naomi's Moabite daughter-in-law who, at Naomi's urging, turned back to Moab and her gods. Her departure contrasts with Ruth's famous declaration of loyalty.

■ NAME NOTE — Ruth (ROOTH) — "friend, companion" — A Moabite widow who refused to leave her mother-in-law Naomi, declaring "your people shall be my people, and your God my God." She became the wife of Boaz and the great-grandmother of King David, entering the lineage of Christ (Matthew 1:5).

- 11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters; why will you go with me? Have I yet sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?

For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God.
- 17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me. Where You die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the LORD do so to me and more also if anything but death parts me from You."

Chapter 2

Ruth goes out to glean and happens upon the field of Boaz, a wealthy kinsman of Elimelech. Boaz shows her unusual kindness, commanding his workers to protect her and leave extra grain for her. When Ruth tells Naomi the man's name, Naomi recognizes God's providence — Boaz is one of their kinsman-redeemers.

■ NAME NOTE — Boaz (BOH-az) — "strength" — A wealthy landowner of Bethlehem, kinsman to Elimelech, who becomes Ruth's kinsman-redeemer and husband. So she came. She has continued from early morning until now, except for a short rest." |

- 8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearst thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens: Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Now, listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women.
- 9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn. Let your eyes be on the field that they are reaping, and go after them. Have I not charged the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink what the young men have drawn."
- 10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger? Then she fell on her face, bowing to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a foreigner?"
- 11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore. But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told to me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.
- 12 The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust. The LORD repay You for what You have done, and a full reward be given You by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings You have come to trust!"

- 13 Then she said, Let me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens. Then she said, "I have found favor in Your eyes, my lord, for You have comforted me and spoken kindly to Your servant, though I am not one of Your servants."
- 14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left. at mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come here and eat some bread and dip your morsel in the vinegar." So she sat beside the reapers. He passed to her roasted grain. And she ate until she was satisfied. She had some left over.
- 15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and reproach her not: When she rose to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not reproach her.
- 16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not. also let fall some handfuls of purpose for her and leave it for her to glean, and do not rebuke her."
- 17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley. So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned. It was about an ephah of barley.
- 18 And she took it up, and went into the city: and her mother in law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed. she took it up and went into the city. Her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She also brought out and gave her what food she had left over after being satisfied.

- 19 And her mother in law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz. her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and said, "The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz."
- 20 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed be he of the LORD, who hath not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one of our next kinsmen. Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Naomi also said to her, "The man is a close relative of ours, one of our redeemers."
- 21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest. Ruth the Moabitess said, "Besides, he said to me, 'You shall keep close by my young men until they have finished all my harvest.' "
- 22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other field. Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, that they meet you not in any other field."
- 23 So she kept fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law. So she kept close to the young women of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Chapter 3

Naomi instructs Ruth to go to the threshing floor at night and lie at Boaz's feet. Ruth asks Boaz to act as her redeemer; he agrees but reveals there is a nearer kinsman who has the first right. He sends her home with six measures of barley, promising to settle the matter that day.

- 2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshingfloor. Is not Boaz our relative, with whose young women you were? See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.
- 3 Wash thyself therefore, and anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking. Wash therefore and anoint yourself, and put on your cloak and go down to the threshing floor, but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.
- 4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do. But when he lies down, observe the place where he lies. - 10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich. he said, "May You be blessed by the LORD, my daughter. You have made this last kindness greater than the first in that You have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich.
- 11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous woman. now, my daughter, do not be afraid. I will do for You all that You ask, for all my fellow townspeople know that You are a worthy woman.
- 12 And now it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit there is a kinsman nearer than I. now it is true that I am a redeemer. Yet there is a redeemer nearer than I.
- 13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning. Remain tonight, and in the morning, if He will redeem You, good; let Him do it. But if He is not willing to redeem You, then, as the LORD lives, I will redeem You. Lie down until the morning."
- 14 And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor. So she lay at his feet until the morning, but arose before one could recognize another. He measured out six measures of barley and put it on her. Then she went into the city.
- 16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, "Who are you, my daughter?" Then she told her all that the man had done for her,
- 17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law. saying, "These six measures of barley he gave to me, for he said to me, 'You must not go back empty-handed to your mother-in-law.' "
- 18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day. She replied, "Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest but will settle the matter today."

Chapter 4

Boaz confronts the nearer kinsman at the city gate; the man declines to redeem when he learns Ruth is part of the transaction. Boaz publicly takes Ruth as his wife, and the LORD gives her a son — Obed, the father of Jesse, the father of David.

- 1 Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down. Now Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And the redeemer, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by. So Boaz said, "Turn aside, friend; sit down here." And he turned aside and sat down.
- 2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down. he took ten men of the elders of the city and said, "Sit down here." So they sat down.

- 3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's: Then he said to the redeemer, "Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belonged to our relative Elimelech.
- 4 And I thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it. So I thought I would tell you of it and say, 'Buy it in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it. But if you will not, tell me, that I may know, for there is no one besides you to redeem it. I come after you." And he said, "I will redeem it."
- 5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. Then Boaz said, "The day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of the dead, in order to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance."
- 6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it. Then the redeemer said, "I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I impair my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it."
- 7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel. Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging: to confirm a transaction, the one drew off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was the manner of attesting in Israel.
- 8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe. So when the redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself," he drew off his sandal.

- 9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi. Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses this day that I have bought from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and to Mahlon.
- 10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day. Also Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, I have bought to be my wife, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance, that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his native place. You are witnesses this day."
- 11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel: and do thou worthily in Ephratah, and be famous in Bethlehem: Then all the people who were at the gate and the elders said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman, who is coming into your house, like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May You act worthily in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem,
- 12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman. may Your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the seed that the LORD will give You by this young woman."
- 13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son. So Boaz took Ruth. She became his wife. And he went in to her. The LORD gave her conception. She bore a son.
- 14 And the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel. Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, Who has not left you this day without a redeemer, and may His name be renowned in Israel!

1 Samuel

Author: Anonymous — possibly Samuel wrote portions (cf. 1 Chr 29:29), with later prophetic editors compiling the whole. Samuel could not have written the account of his own death (ch. 25).

Date written: Core material from Samuel's lifetime (c. 1050 BC); final compilation likely c. 900–700 BC.

Written to: The nation of Israel, to record the transition from the age of judges to the age of kings.

Setting: Israel is a loose tribal confederation under failing priestly leadership (Eli). The Philistines are the dominant regional power. The people are about to demand a king, and God will give them one — first Saul, then David.

Where this sits historically: c. 1100–1010 BC, covering the end of the judges era through the deaths of Samuel and Saul; Philistia is Israel's dominant rival; Egypt is in decline.

Contemporaries: Egypt's 21st dynasty (Tanite period); the Philistine pentapolis at its peak; Phoenicia organizing under Tyre and Sidon. Samuel, Saul, and the young David himself are the era's leading figures.

Big themes:

- The failure of man's king — Saul begins with promise but ends rejected; human initiative and God's anointing are not the same thing

- God's sovereign choice — He rejects Saul and chooses David while he is still a shepherd boy; the LORD looks on the heart

- Samuel — prophet, priest, and judge, the last and greatest of the judges, who bridges two eras of Israel's history

- Faith against impossible odds — David and Goliath (ch. 17) is the defining image of trusting God when the human situation is hopeless

- The ark — its capture by the Philistines and eventual return shows that God's glory cannot be taken or contained by force

Key passages: 1 Sam 2:2; 8:7; 13:14; 16:7; 17:45

How it fits: 1 Samuel completes what Judges left unresolved — Israel needs leadership, but not the kind they think. Saul's failure clears the way for David, whose covenant with God in 2 Samuel 7 becomes the backbone of all OT messianic hope.

Chapter 1

Hannah, one of Elkanah's two wives, was barren and wept bitterly before the LORD at Shiloh, vowing that if He gave her a son she would dedicate him to God. The LORD remembered her, and she bore a son named Samuel.

| 1 | Now there was a certain man of Ramathaimzophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite: | There was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. |
| 2 | And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. | He had two wives. The name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. |

■ NAME NOTE — Hannah (HAN-ah) — "grace, favor" — The barren wife of Elkanah who prayed with such intensity at the tabernacle that Eli thought her drunk. God answered her prayer with a son — Samuel — whom she dedicated to the LORD's service. Her prayer of thanksgiving (2:1–10) foreshadows Mary's Magnificat.

|---|---|---|
| 3 | And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there. | Now this man used to go up year by year from his city to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD. |
|---|---|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Eli (EE-ly) — "ascended" — The high priest and judge of Israel at Shiloh. Though personally devout, he failed to restrain his corrupt sons Hophni and Phinehas, and God's judgment fell on his house. He died at 98 when he heard the ark of God had been captured.

- 4 And when the time was that Elkanah offered, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, He would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.
- 5 But unto Hannah he gave a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb. But to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb.
- 6 And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. Her rival used to provoke her grievously to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.
- 7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat. So it went on year after year. As often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat.
- 8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better to thee than ten sons? Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"
- 9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD. After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh, Hannah rose. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.
- 10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly.

- 11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head. She vowed a vow and said, "O LORD of hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your servant and remember me and not forget Your servant, but will give to Your servant a son, then I will give Him to the LORD all the days of His life, and no razor shall touch His head."
- 12 And it came to pass, as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth. As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.
- 13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved. Her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli took her to be a drunk woman.
- 14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee. Eli said to her, "How long will you keep on being drunk? Put away your wine from you."
- 15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman troubled in spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink. But I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.
- 16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto. Do not regard Your servant as a worthless woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation."
- 17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him. Then Eli answered, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition that you have made to Him."

- 18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad. She said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went her way and ate. Her countenance was no longer sad.
- 19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered her. They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD, then returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife. The LORD remembered her.
- 20 Wherefore it came to pass, when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She called his name Samuel, for she said, "I have asked for him from the LORD."

■ NAME NOTE — Samuel (SAM-yoo-el) — "heard of God" — The last judge and first prophet of the monarchy period. Dedicated to the LORD before birth, he grew up serving in the tabernacle at Shiloh. He anointed both Saul and David as king over Israel.

- 22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever. But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, so that he may appear before the LORD and dwell there forever."

Chapter 2

Hannah sang a prayer of thanksgiving for Samuel's birth, praising the LORD who raises the poor. Meanwhile, Eli's sons Hophni and Phinehas were corrupt priests; a man of God prophesied the end of Eli's house.

My mouth derides my enemies, because I rejoice in Your salvation. |

The barren has borne seven. But She who has many children is forlorn. |

For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and on them He has set the world. |

- 9 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. He will guard the feet of his faithful ones, but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness, for not by might shall a man prevail.
- 10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed. The adversaries of the LORD shall be shattered; against them He will thunder in heaven. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; He will give strength to His king and exalt the power of His anointed."
- 11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest. Then Elkanah went home to Ramah. And the boy was ministering to the LORD in the presence of Eli the priest.
- 12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not the LORD. Now the sons of Eli were worthless men. They did not know the LORD.
- 13 And the priests' custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand; The custom of the priests with the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand,
- 14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither. He would thrust it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or pot. All that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.
- 15 Also before they burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw. Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give meat for the priest to roast, for he will not accept boiled meat from you but only raw."

- 16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force. If the man said to him, "Let the fat be burned first, and then take as much as you wish," he would say, "No, you must give it now, and if not, I will take it by force."
- 17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD: for men abhorred the offering of the LORD. Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.
- 18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy clothed with a linen ephod.
- 19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. His mother used to make for Him a little robe and take it to Him each year when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

- 21 And the LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD. Indeed the LORD visited Hannah. She conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew in the presence of the LORD.
- 22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Now Eli was very old. He kept hearing all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who were serving at the entrance to the tent of meeting.
- 23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings by all this people. He said to them, "Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all these people."

- 24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD'S people to transgress. No, my sons; it is no good report that I hear the LORD's people spreading abroad.
- 25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because the LORD would have them slain. If someone sins against a man, God will mediate for Him, but if someone sins against the LORD, Who can intercede for Him?" But they would not listen to the voice of their father, for it was the will of the LORD to put them to death.
- 26 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the LORD, and also with men. Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and also with men.
- 27 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? There came a man of God to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Did I indeed reveal myself to the house of Your father when they were in Egypt subject to the house of Pharaoh?
- 28 And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel? Did I choose Him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? I gave to the house of Your father all my offerings by fire from the people of Israel.
- 29 Wherefore kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people? Why then do You scorn my sacrifices and my offerings that I commanded for my dwelling, and honor Your sons above me by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?"

- 30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: 'I promised that Your house and the house of Your father should go in and out before me forever,' but now the LORD declares: 'Far be it from me, for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be treated with contempt.
- 31 Behold, the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house. See, the days are coming when I will cut off Your strength and the strength of Your father's house, so that there will not be an old man in Your house.
- 32 And thou shalt see an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever. Then in distress You will look on all the prosperity that will be bestowed on Israel, and there shall not be an old man in Your house forever.
- 33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age. The only one of You whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep His eyes out and to grieve His heart. All the descendants of Your house shall die in the flower of their age.
- 34 And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas; in one day they shall die both of them. This shall be the sign to You that will come upon Your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: both of them shall die on the same day.
- 35 And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed for ever. I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind. And I will build Him a sure house. He shall go in and out before my anointed forever.

- 36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a piece of bread. Everyone who is left in Your house shall come to implore Him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread and shall say, "Please put me in one of the priests' places, that I may eat a morsel of bread."""

- 8 *They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath." So they brought the ark of the God of Israel there.
- 9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts. But after they had brought it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic. He afflicted the men of the city, both young and old, with tumors.
- 10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people. So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. But as soon as the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought around to us the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our people."
- 11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not kill us and our people." For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there.
- 12 And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven. The men who did not die were struck with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

And Samuel said, Behold that which is left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. - 33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth. Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him, for you are but a youth. He has been a man of war from his youth."
- 34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father. And when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb from the flock,
- 35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. I went after it and struck it and delivered the lamb out of its mouth. And if it arose against me, I caught it by its beard and struck it and killed it.
- 36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. Your servant has struck down both lions and bears, and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, for he has defied the armies of the living God."
- 37 David said moreover, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the LORD be with thee. David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go. The LORD be with you!"

- 38 And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail. Then Saul clothed David with his armor. He put a helmet of bronze on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail,
- 39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him. David strapped his sword over his armor. And he tried in vain to go, for he had not tested them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot go with these, for I have not tested them." So David put them off.
- 40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine. Then he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the brook and put them in his shepherd's pouch. His sling was in his hand. He approached the Philistine.
- 41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him. The Philistine moved forward and came near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him.
- 42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance. When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was but a youth, ruddy and of a fair countenance.
- 43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
- 44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field. The Philistine said to David, "Come to me. I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field."

- 45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied. Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a javelin. But I come to You in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom You have defied.
- 46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will give the carcasses of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. This day the LORD will deliver You into my hand. I will strike You down and cut off Your head. And I will give the dead bodies of the host of the Philistines this day to the birds of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,
- 47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD'S, and he will give you into our hands. That all this assembly may know that the LORD saves not with sword and spear. For the battle is the LORD's. He will give You into our hand."
- 48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. When the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.
- 49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth. David put his hand in his bag and took out a stone and slung it and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead. He fell on his face to the ground.
- 50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine and killed him. There was no sword in the hand of David.

- 51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.
- 52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron. The men of Israel and Judah rose with a shout and pursued the Philistines until they came to the valley and to the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.
- 53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. The people of Israel came back from chasing the Philistines. They plundered their camp.
- 54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent. David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem. But he put his armor in his tent.
- 55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell. As soon as Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."
- 56 And the king said, Enquire thou whose son the stripling is. The king said, "Inquire whose son the boy is."
- 57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. As David returned from the striking down of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

- 58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Bethlehemite. Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

And this was good in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

- 6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick. As they were coming home, when David returned from striking down the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy, and with musical instruments.

- 9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward. Saul eyed David from that day on.
- 10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand. The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul. He raved within his house while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand.
- 11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided out of his presence twice. Saul hurled the spear, for he thought, "I will pin David to the wall." But David evaded him twice.
- 12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul. Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with Him but had departed from Saul.

He thinks, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as the LORD lives and as Your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."
- 4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee. Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you."

When I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow, or the third day, if He is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?"
- 13 The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. But should it please my father to do You harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan and more also if I do not disclose it to you and send You away, that You may go in safety. - 17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul. Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him, for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
- 18 Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty. Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty.
- 19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone Ezel. On the third day go down quickly to the place where you hid yourself on that day of trouble, and remain beside the stone Ezel.
- 20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark. I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a mark.
- 21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; as the LORD liveth. I will send the boy and say, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, take them,' then You are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for You and there is no danger.
- 22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away. But if I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go, for the LORD has sent You away.
- 23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever. As for the matter of which You and I have spoken, the LORD is between You and me forever."

- 24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat. So David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon came, the king sat down to eat food.
- 25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty. The king sat on his seat, as at other times, on the seat by the wall. Jonathan sat opposite, and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty.
- 26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean. Yet Saul did not say anything that day, for he thought, "Something has happened to him. He is not clean; surely he is not clean."
- 27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day? But on the second day, the day after the new moon, David's place was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"
- 28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem: Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem.
- 29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table. He said, 'Let me go, for our clan holds a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me get away and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."

- 30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness? Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan. He said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"
- 31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die. For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Therefore send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die."
- 32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done? Then Jonathan answered Saul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"
- 33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David. But Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him. So Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death.
- 34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame. Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, because his father had disgraced him.
- 35 And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him. In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him a little boy.
- 36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. He said to his boy, "Run and find the arrows that I shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

And Ahimelech came to meet David trembling and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no one with you?"
- 2 And David said unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place. David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has charged me with a matter and said to me, 'Let no one know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.' I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.
- 3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present. Now then, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here."
- 4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. The priest answered David, "I have no common bread on hand, but there is holy bread—if the young men have kept themselves from women."
- 5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel. David answered the priest, "Truly women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition. The vessels of the young men are holy even when it is an ordinary journey. How much more today will their vessels be holy?"
- 6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away. So the priest gave him the holy bread, for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."
- 9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me. The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the Valley of Elah, there it is, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it, for there is none but that here." And David said, "There is none like that; give it to me."

Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, 'Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

Saul was sitting at Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand. All his servants were standing about him.
- 7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds; Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, people of Benjamin; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds,
- 8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day? That all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in ambush, as at this day."

- 9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub,

- 14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house? Then Ahimelech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and goes at your bidding, and is honored in your house?"

- 15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more. Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for Him? Far be it from me! Let not the king impute anything to his servant or to all the house of my father, for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little."

They knew that he fled and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not put out their hand to strike the priests of the LORD.

- 22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house. David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house.
- 23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard. Stay with me; do not be afraid, for he who seeks my life seeks your life. With me you shall be safe."

| 1 And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi. | When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, "See, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi." |
| 2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. | Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel and went to seek David and his men in front of the Rocks of the Wild Goats. |

- 3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. He came to the sheepfolds beside the road, where there was a cave, and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.
- 4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. The men of David said to him, "Here is the day of which the LORD said to You, 'I will give Your enemy into Your hand, and You shall do to Him as it seems good to You.' " Then David arose and stealthily cut off a corner of Saul's robe.
- 5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. Afterward David's heart struck him, because he had cut off a corner of Saul's robe.
- 6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD'S anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD. He said to His men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to put out my hand against Him, seeing He is the LORD's anointed."
- 7 So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. So David persuaded his men with these words and did not permit them to attack Saul. And Saul rose up and left the cave and went on his way.
- 8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself. Afterward David also arose and went out of the cave, and called after Saul, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth and paid homage.
- 9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'See, David seeks your harm'?"

- 10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the LORD'S anointed. See, this day Your eyes have seen how the LORD gave You today into my hand in the cave. And some told me to kill You. But I spared You. I said, 'I will not put out my hand against my lord, for He is the LORD's anointed.'
- 11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. See, my father, see the corner of Your robe in my hand. For by the fact that I cut off the corner of Your robe and did not kill You, You may know and see that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against You, though You hunt my life to take it.
- 12 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. May the LORD judge between me and You, may the LORD avenge me against You, but my hand shall not be against You.
- 13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes wickedness.' But my hand shall not be against you.
- 14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea. After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea!
- 15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand. May the LORD therefore be judge and give sentence between me and You, and see to it and plead my cause and deliver me from Your hand."
- 16 And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. As soon as David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

| 17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil. | He said, "You are more righteous than I, for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil. |
| 18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not. | You have declared this day how You have dealt well with me, in that You did not kill me when the LORD put me into Your hands. |
| 19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day. | For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away safe? So may the LORD reward You with good for what You have done to me this day. |
| 20 And now, behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand. | Now, see, I know that You shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in Your hand. |
| 21 Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. | Swear to me therefore by the LORD that You will not cut off my seed after me, and that You will not destroy my name out of my father's house." |
| 22 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto the hold. | David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold. |

- 7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we touched them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel. I hear that you have shearers. Now your shepherds have been with us. We did not harm them. They missed nothing all the time they were in Carmel.
- 8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David. Ask your young men. They will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we come on a good day. Please give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David.' "
- 9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased. When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David, and then they waited.
- 10 And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master. Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants these days who are breaking away from their masters.
- 11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be? Shall I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"
- 12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings. So David's young men turned away and came back and told him all this.
- 13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the stuff. David said to his men, "Every man strap on his sword!" And every man strapped on his sword. David also strapped on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.

- 14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he railed on them. But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "See, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master. He shouted at them.
- 15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields: Yet the men were very good to us. We suffered no harm. We did not miss anything when we were in the fields, as long as we went with them.
- 16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.
- 17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him. Now therefore know this and consider what you should do, for harm is determined against our master and against all his house. He is such a worthless man that one cannot speak to him."
- 18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses. Then Abigail made haste and took two hundred loaves and two skins of wine and five sheep already prepared and five seahs of parched grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys.
- 19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal. She said to her young men, "Go on before me; see, I come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
- 20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them. As she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her. She met them.

- 21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good. Now David had said, "Surely it was in vain that I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him. He has returned me evil for good.
- 22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. God do so to the enemies of David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as any that pisseth against the wall of all who belong to him."
- 23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got down from the donkey and fell before David on her face and bowed to the ground.
- 24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid. She fell at his feet and said, "On me alone, my lord, be the guilt. Please let your servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your servant.
- 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send. Let not my lord regard this worthless man, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him. But I your servant did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.
- 26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as Your soul lives, because the LORD has restrained You from bloodguilt and from saving Yourself with Your own hand, now then let Your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be as Nabal.
- 27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord. Now let this present that Your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord.

- 28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days. Please forgive the trespass of Your servant. For the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in You so long as You live.
- 29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling. If men rise up to pursue You and to seek Your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living in the care of the LORD Your God. And the lives of Your enemies He shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling.
- 30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel; When the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning You and has appointed You prince over Israel,
- 31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid. My lord shall have no cause of grief or pangs of conscience for having shed blood without cause or for my lord working salvation Himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, remember Your servant."
- 32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me: David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent You this day to meet me!
- 33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand. Blessed be Your discretion, and blessed be You, who have kept me this day from bloodguilt and from working salvation with my own hand!

- 34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall. For as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has restrained me from hurting You, unless You had hurried and come to meet me, truly by morning there would not have been left to Nabal so much as any that pisseth against the wall."
- 35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person. Then David received from her hand what she had brought him. And he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have obeyed your voice. I have granted your petition."
- 36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. Abigail came to Nabal, and there he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. So she told him nothing at all until the morning light.
- 37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things. His heart died within him. He became like a stone.
- 38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the LORD smote Nabal, that he died. About ten days later the LORD struck Nabal. He died.

- 39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the LORD, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife. When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD Who has avenged the insult I received at the hand of Nabal, and has kept back His servant from wrongdoing. The LORD has returned the evil of Nabal on His own head." Then David sent and spoke to Abigail, to take her as his wife.
- 40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife. When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife."
- 41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. She rose and bowed with her face to the ground and said, "See, your servant is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord."
- 42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. Abigail hurried and rose and mounted a donkey. Her five young women attended her. She followed the messengers of David and became his wife.
- 43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives. David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and both of them became his wives.
- 44 But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, which was of Gallim. Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

Chapter 26

The Ziphites again betrayed David's location to Saul, and David crept into Saul's camp at night, taking his spear and water jug while he slept. David rebuked Abner for failing to guard the king, and Saul again confessed he had sinned.

| 1 And the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? | Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is not David hiding himself on the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?" |
| 2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. | So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph with three thousand chosen men of Israel to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. |
| 3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. | Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, beside the road. But David remained in the wilderness. When he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness, |
| 4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deed. | David sent out spies and learned that Saul had indeed come. |
| 5 And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him. | Then David rose and came to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner the son of Ner, the commander of his army. Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him. |
| 6 Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee. | Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you." |

- 7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him. So David and Abishai went to the army by night. And there lay Saul sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head, and Abner and the army lay around him.
- 8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time. Then Abishai said to David, "God has given your enemy into your hand this day. Now please let me pin Him to the earth with one stroke of the spear. I will not strike Him twice."
- 9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD'S anointed, and be guiltless? But David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him, for who can put out His hand against the LORD's anointed and be guiltless?"
- 10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the LORD shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike Him, or His day will come to die, or He will go down into battle and perish.
- 11 The LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. The LORD forbid that I should put out my hand against the LORD's anointed. But take now the spear that is at His head and the jar of water, and let us go."
- 12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them. So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head. They went away. No man saw it or knew it, nor did any awake, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.
- 13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them: Then David went over to the other side and stood far off on the top of the hill, with a great distance between them.

- 14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king? David called to the army and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" Then Abner answered, "Who are you who calls to the king?"
- 15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? Who is your equal in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord.
- 16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the LORD'S anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster. This thing that You have done is not good. As the LORD lives, You deserve to die, because You have not kept watch over Your lord, the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is and the jar of water that was at His head."
- 17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. Saul recognized David's voice and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king."
- 18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand? He said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? What evil is on my hands?"
- 19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD Who has stirred You up against me, may He accept an offering, but if it is men, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out this day that I should have no share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.'

- 20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains. Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the LORD, for the king of Israel has come out to seek a single flea like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains."
- 21 Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly. Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. See, I have acted foolishly, and have made a great mistake."
- 22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it. David answered and said, "Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and take it."
- 23 The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD'S anointed. The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and his faithfulness, for the LORD gave You into my hand today. I would not put out my hand against the LORD's anointed.
- 24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. See, as Your life was precious this day in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may He deliver me out of all tribulation."
- 25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place. Then Saul said to David, "Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

- 7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor. Then Saul said to his servants, "Seek out for me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "See, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at En-dor."
- 8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee. So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went, he and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine unto me by the familiar spirit and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you."
- 9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die? The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, from the land. Why then are you laying a trap for my life to bring about my death?"
- 10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing. But Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon You for this thing."
- 11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel. Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

- 13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth. The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What do you see?" And the woman said to Saul, "I saw gods ascending out of the earth."
- 14 And he said unto her, What form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. He said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up. He is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel. He bowed with his face to the ground and paid homage.
- 15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do. Then Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" Saul answered, "I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me. God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams. Therefore I have summoned you to tell me what I shall do."
- 16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy? Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from You and become Your enemy?"
- 17 And the LORD hath done to him, as he spake by me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David: The LORD has done to You as He spoke by me, for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of Your hand and given it to Your neighbor, David.
- 18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day. Because You did not obey the voice of the LORD and did not carry out His fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to You this day.

- 19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. Moreover, the LORD will give Israel also with You into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow You and Your sons shall be with me. The LORD will give the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines."
- 20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. Then Saul fell at once full length on the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.
- 21 And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me. The woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "See, your servant has obeyed you. I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to what you said to me.
- 22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength, when thou goest on thy way. Now therefore, you also obey your servant. Let me set a morsel of bread before you, and eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."
- 23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed. He refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him. He listened to their words. So he arose from the earth and sat on the bed.
- 24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house. She quickly killed it. She took flour and kneaded it and baked unleavened bread of it,

- 25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night. She put it before Saul and his servants. They ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

And the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, that he may return to the place to which you have assigned him. For I have found nothing wrong in You from the day of Your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords do not approve of You.

2 Samuel

Author: Unknown — likely compiled from court records, possibly by Nathan, Gad, or other prophetic writers associated with David's reign (cf. 1 Chr 29:29).

Date written: c. 930–722 BC, drawing on earlier sources; final form perhaps during the divided monarchy.

Written to: The people of Israel, as part of the unified historical account running from Judges through Kings.

Setting: Saul is dead. Israel is without a king. 2 Samuel covers David's entire reign — his rise to power over a divided nation, his military victories, the Davidic covenant, his great sin with Bathsheba, and the long consequences that followed.

Where this sits historically: c. 1010–970 BC — David's united reign over all Israel from Hebron and then Jerusalem; the surrounding empires are weak, giving Israel its widest historical borders.

Contemporaries: Hiram I of Tyre (David's ally); Egypt's weak 21st dynasty; the Aramean kingdoms of Zobah and Damascus; the prophets Nathan and Gad. 1 Chronicles retells this same period from a priestly angle.

Big themes:

- The Davidic covenant — God's unconditional promise that David's line will rule forever and that a son of David will build God's house (2 Sam 7) is the theological center of the book and of the entire Bible's royal storyline
- Sin and its consequences — David's adultery with Bathsheba and murder of Uriah trigger a chain of violence within his own household that never fully subsides
- Grace in failure — David falls catastrophically, but God does not abandon him or revoke His covenant; David's repentance (Ps 51) is the model for the penitent
- Leadership and loyalty — Joab, Absalom, Mephibosheth, and Shimei each illustrate different responses to power and covenant
- Jerusalem — David captures the city and makes it the political and spiritual center of the nation

Key passages: 2 Sam 7:12–16; 11:4; 12:13; 22:2–4; 23:5

How it fits: 2 Samuel is the fulfillment of the Davidic promise that begins in 1 Samuel and runs through the entire OT. The covenant of chapter 7 is the lens through which every subsequent king is evaluated. The NT opens by calling Jesus "the son of David" — 2 Samuel is where that title gets its weight.

■ NAME NOTE — Bathsheba (bath-SHEE-bah) — "daughter of the oath" — Wife of Uriah the Hittite, taken by David in adultery. After Uriah's death she became David's wife and bore Solomon, through whom the messianic line continued. She later secured the throne for Solomon against Adonijah's claim.

■ NAME NOTE — Uriah (yoo-RY-ah) — "the LORD is my light" — A Hittite soldier in David's army, one of his mighty men, and husband of Bathsheba. | 2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: | The rich man had very many flocks and herds, |
| 3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter. | But the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. And he brought it up. It grew up with him and with his children. It used to eat of his morsel and drink from his cup and lie in his arms. It was like a daughter to him. |

- 4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him. Now there came a traveler to the rich man. He was unwilling to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the guest who had come to him. But he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."
- 5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die: Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die,
- 6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. He shall restore the lamb fourfold, because He did this thing, and because He had no pity."
- 7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul; Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I anointed you king over Israel. I delivered you out of the hand of Saul.
- 8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things. I gave You Your master's house and Your master's wives into Your arms and gave You the house of Israel and of Judah. And if this were too little, I would add to You as much more.
- 9 Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. Why have You despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in His sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and have taken his wife to be Your wife and have killed Him with the sword of the Ammonites.

- 10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from Your house, because You have despised me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'
- 11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun. Thus says the LORD, 'I will raise up evil against You out of Your own house. And I will take Your wives before Your eyes and give them to Your neighbor. He shall lie with Your wives in the sight of this sun.
- 12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. For You did it secretly. But I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.' "
- 13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die. David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin; you shall not die.
- 14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die. Nevertheless, because by this deed You have utterly scorned the LORD, the child who is born to you shall die."
- 15 And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick. Then Nathan went to his house. And the LORD afflicted the child that Uriah's wife bore to David. He became sick.
- 16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth. David therefore sought God on behalf of the child. And David fasted and went in and lay all night on the ground.
- 17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. The elders of his house stood beside him, to raise him from the ground. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

- 18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead? On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "While the child was still alive, we spoke to him. He did not listen to us. How then can we say to him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm."
- 19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David understood that the child was dead. And David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They said, "He is dead."
- 20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat. Then David arose from the earth and washed and anointed Himself and changed His clothes and went into the house of the LORD and worshiped. He then went to His own house. And when He asked, they set food before Him. He ate.
- 21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread. Then His servants said to him, "What is this thing that You have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."
- 22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live? He said, "While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'"

- 23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me. But now He is dead. Why should I fast? Can I bring Him back again? I shall go to Him. But He will not return to me."
- 24 And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him. Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her. She bore a son. He called His name Solomon. And the LORD loved Him
- 25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD. Sent a message by Nathan the prophet. So he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.
- 26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal city.
- 27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters. Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the city of waters.
- 28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my name. Now therefore gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and take it, lest I take the city and it be called by my name."
- 29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah and fought against it and took it.
- 30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. He took the crown of their king from his head. The weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone. It was placed on David's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

- 31

And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.
- He brought out the people who were in it and set them to labor with saws and iron picks and iron axes and made them toil at the brick kilns. And thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Chapter 13

David's son Amnon raped his half-sister Tamar, and David was furious but did nothing. Two years later, Absalom avenged Tamar by having his servants kill Amnon at a feast, then fled to Geshur.

- 1

And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.
- Now Absalom, David's son, had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar. And Amnon the son of David loved her.

■ NAME NOTE — Tamar (TAY-mar) — "palm tree" — Absalom's beautiful sister (David's daughter). She was violated by her half-brother Amnon, who then cruelly rejected her. This crime triggered Absalom's vengeful murder of Amnon and ultimately his rebellion against David.

■ NAME NOTE — Amnon (AM-non) — "faithful" — David's firstborn son. He violated his half-sister Tamar and was murdered two years later by Absalom's servants at a sheep-shearing feast — the beginning of the sword that would not depart from David's house.

And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.
- Amnon was so tormented that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin. It seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.

- 3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man. But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother. And Jonadab was a very crafty man.
- 4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister. He said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon told him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
- 5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand. Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, that I may see it and eat it from her hand.' "
- 6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand. So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. And when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand."
- 7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat. Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him."
- 8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes. So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. And she took dough and kneaded it and made cakes in his sight and baked the cakes.

- 9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me. And they went out every man from him. She took the pan and poured them out before him. But he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Send out everyone from me." So everyone went out from him.
- 10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother. Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.
- 11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister. But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."
- 12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in Israel: do not thou this folly. She answered him, "No, my brother, do not violate me, for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do this outrageous thing.
- 13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee. As for me, where could I carry my shame? And as for you, you would be as one of the outrageous fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you."
- 14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her. But he would not listen to her, and being stronger than she, he violated her and lay with her.
- 15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. Then Amnon hated her with very great hatred, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Get up! Go!"

- 16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her. But she said to him, "No, my brother, for this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me." But he would not listen to her.
- 17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. He called the young man who served him and said, "Put this woman out of my presence and bolt the door after her."
- 18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. Now she was wearing a long robe with sleeves, for thus were the virgin daughters of the king dressed. So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her.
- 19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying. Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long robe that she wore. And she laid her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went.
- 20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house. Her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother; do not take this to heart." So Tamar lived, a desolate woman, in her brother Absalom's house.
- 21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth. When King David heard of all these things, he was very angry.
- 22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad, for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had violated his sister Tamar.

- 23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baalhazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons. After two full years Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king's sons.
- 24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants go with thy servant. Absalom came to the king and said, "See, your servant has sheepshearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant."
- 25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him. But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you." He pressed him. But he would not go but gave him his blessing.
- 26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee? Then Absalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?"
- 27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. But Absalom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.
- 28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be valiant. Then Absalom commanded his servants, "Mark when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, 'Strike Amnon,' then kill him. Do not fear; have I not commanded you? Be courageous and be valiant."
- 29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled. So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and each mounted his mule and fled.

- 30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left. While they were on the way, news came to David, "Absalom has struck down all the king's sons, and not one of them is left."
- 31 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. Then the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the earth. And all his servants who were standing by tore their garments.
- 32 And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. But Jonadab the son of Shimeah, David's brother, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons, for Amnon alone is dead. For by the command of Absalom this has been determined from the day he violated his sister Tamar.
- 33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead. Now therefore let not my lord the king so take it to heart as to think that all the king's sons are dead, for Amnon alone is dead."
- 34 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him. But Absalom fled. And the young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked, and there came much people by the road behind him by the side of the mountain.
- 35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy servant said, so it is. Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it is."
- 36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore. As soon as he had finished speaking, the king's sons came and lifted up their voice and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.

- 37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmi, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day. But Absalom fled and went to Talmi the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son day after day.
- 38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.
- 39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead. The soul of the king longed to go out to Absalom, because he was comforted about Amnon, since he was dead.

Chapter 14

Joab sent a wise woman from Tekoa to persuade David to bring Absalom back from exile. David permitted Absalom's return to Jerusalem but refused to see him for two years, until Absalom forced a meeting by setting Joab's field on fire.

- 1 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom. Now Joab the son of Zeruiah knew that the king's heart went out to Absalom.
- 2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead: Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments. Do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead.
- 3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth. Go to the king and speak to him in this way." And Joab put the words in her mouth.
- 4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king. When the woman of Tekoa came to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and paid homage and said, "Help, O king!"

- 5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead. The king said to her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead.
- 6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. Your servant had two sons. They quarreled with one another in the field. There was no one to separate them, and one struck the other and killed him.
- 7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth. Now the whole clan has risen against your servant. They say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed.' And so they would destroy the heir also. Thus they would quench my coal that is left and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."
- 8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee. Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house. I will give orders concerning you."
- 9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless. The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father's house; let the king and his throne be guiltless."
- 10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. The king said, "If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me. He shall never touch you again."

- 11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth. Then she said, "Please let the king invoke the LORD Your God, that the avenger of blood kill no more, and my son not be destroyed." He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of Your son shall fall to the ground."
- 12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on. Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king." He said, "Speak."
- 13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished. The woman said, "Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.
- 14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him. We must all die; we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God doth not respect any person. He devises means so that the banished one will not remain an outcast.
- 15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid. Now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid, and your servant thought, 'I will speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.
- 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. For the king will hear and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together from the heritage of God.'

- 17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee. Your servant thought, 'The word of my lord the king will set me at rest,' for my lord the king is like the angel of God to discern good and evil. The LORD Your God be with You!"
- 18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. Then the king answered the woman, "Do not hide from me anything I ask you." And the woman said, "Let my lord the king speak."
- 19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" The woman answered and said, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, one cannot turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has said. It was your servant Joab who commanded me; it was he who put all these words in the mouth of your servant."
- 20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth. In order to change the course of things your servant Joab did this. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God to know all things that are on earth."
- 21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again. Then the king said to Joab, "See now, I grant this; go, bring back the young man Absalom."

- 22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant. Joab fell on his face to the ground and paid homage and blessed the king. And Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has granted the request of his servant."
- 23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. So Joab arose and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
- 24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face. The king said, "Let him dwell apart in his own house; he is not to come into my presence." So Absalom lived apart in his own house and did not come into the king's presence.
- 25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. Now in all Israel there was no one so much to be praised for his handsome appearance as Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
- 26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight. When he cut the hair of his head (for at the end of every year he used to cut it; when it was heavy on him, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the king's weight.
- 27 And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance. There were born to Absalom three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of a fair countenance.
- 28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. So Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, without coming into the king's presence.

- 29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come. Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but Joab would not come to him. And he sent a second time, but Joab would not come.
- 30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. Then he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is next to mine. He has barley there; go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.
- 31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire? Then Joab arose and came to Absalom at his house and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"
- 32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me. Absalom answered Joab, "I sent word to you, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king, to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to still be there."' Now therefore let me see the king's face, and if there is guilt in me, let him put me to death."
- 33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom. Then Joab went to the king and told him. And he summoned Absalom. So he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

Go quickly, lest he overtake us quickly and bring down ruin on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

- 15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint. The king's servants said to the king, "See, your servants are ready to do whatever my lord the king decides."

- 19 Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also an exile. Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you also go with us? Go back and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your home.
- 20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee. You came only yesterday, and shall I today make You wander about with us, since I go I know not where? Go back and take Your brothers with You, and may the LORD show mercy and truth to You."
- 21 And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be. But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will Your servant be."

- 22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. David said to Ittai, "Go then, pass on." So Ittai the Gittite passed on, with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.
- 23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness. All the land wept aloud as all the people passed by, and the king crossed the brook Kidron. All the people passed on toward the wilderness.

All the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God until the people had all passed out of the city.
- 25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation: Then the king said to Zadok, "Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and let me see both it and His dwelling place.
- 26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, here am I, let him do to me as seemeth good unto him. But if He says, 'I have no pleasure in You,' here I am, let Him do to me what seems good to Him."
- 27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a seer? return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Go back to the city in peace, with your two sons, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
- 28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."

And all the people who were with him covered their heads. They went up, weeping as they went.

And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.* It was told David, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

- 34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me defeat the counsel of Ahithophel. But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father's servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,' then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.
- 35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. Are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? So whatever you hear from the king's house, tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.* The king said, "And where is your master's son?" Ziba said to the king, "See, he remains in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give me back the kingdom of my father.' "
- 4 *Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. - 8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and, behold, thou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man. The LORD has avenged on You all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of Your son Absalom. See, your evil is on you, for you are a man of blood."

- 9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head. Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head."
- 10 And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, because the LORD hath said unto him, Curse David. Who shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so? But the king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? If He is cursing because the LORD has said to Him, 'Curse David,' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"
- 11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came forth of my bowels, seeketh my life: how much more now may this Benjamite do it? let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath bidden him. David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "See, my own son seeks my life; how much more now may this Benjaminite! Leave Him alone, and let Him curse, for the LORD has told Him to.
- 12 It may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good for his cursing this day. It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction and that the LORD will repay me with good for His cursing today."
- 13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and cast dust. So David and his men went on the road, while Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went and threw stones at him and flung dust.

- 17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why wentest thou not with thy friend? Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"
- 18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide. Hushai said to Absalom, "No, for whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, His I will be, and with Him I will remain.
- 19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence. Again, whom should I serve? Should it not be His son? As I have served Your father, so I will serve You."
- 20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do. Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your counsel. What shall we do?"
- 21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hands of all that are with thee be strong. Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house. All Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened."
- 22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof. And Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

- 23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom. Now in those days the counsel that Ahithophel gave was as if one consulted the word of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel esteemed, both by David and by Absalom.

Chapter 17

- 6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his saying? if not; speak thou. When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "Thus has Ahithophel spoken. Shall we do as he says? If not, you speak."
- 7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath given is not good at this time. Then Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good."
- 8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chafed in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. Hushai said, "You know that your father and his men are mighty men, and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Besides, your father is expert in war; he will not spend the night with the troops."
- 9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom. Even now he has hidden himself in one of the pits or in some other place. And as soon as some of the people fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom.'
- 10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men. Then even the valiant man, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt with fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that those who are with him are valiant men.
- 11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person. But my counsel is that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Beersheba, as the sand by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

- 12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. So we shall come upon him in some place where he is to be found. We shall light on him as the dew falls on the ground, and of him and all the men with him not one will be left.
- 13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city. We shall drag it into the valley, until not even a pebble is to be found there."
- 14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom. Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring harm upon Absalom.
- 15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Thus and so did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel, and thus and so have I counseled.
- 16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him. Now therefore send quickly and tell David, 'Do not stay tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.' "
- 17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by Enrogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David. Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En-rogel. A female servant was to go and tell them. They were to go and tell King David, for they were not to be seen entering the city.

- 18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down. But a young man saw them and told Absalom. So both of them went away quickly and came to the house of a man at Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard. They went down into it.
- 19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known. The woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth and scattered grain on it, and nothing was known of it.
- 20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. When Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house, they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water." And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.
- 21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you. After they had gone, the men came up out of the well, and went and told King David. - 22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan. Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they crossed the Jordan. By daybreak not one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.
- 23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order, and hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father. When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and went off home to his own city. He set his house in order and hanged himself. He died and was buried in the tomb of his father.

David's army defeated Absalom's forces in the battle of the forest of Ephraim, where 20,000 men fell. Absalom's head was caught in an oak tree, and Joab killed him despite David's order to deal gently with him; David wept for his son.

- 1 And David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. Then David mustered the men who were with him and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.
- 2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also. David sent out the army, one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the men, "I myself will also go out with you."
- 3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou succour us out of the city. But the men said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore it is better that you support us from the city."
- 4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands. The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.
- 5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom. The king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders about Absalom.
- 6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood of Ephraim; So the army went out into the field against Israel, and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.

- 7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. The men of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men.
- 8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. The battle spread over the face of all the country, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword.
- 9 And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away. Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. His head caught fast in the oak. He was suspended between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on.
- 10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. A certain man saw it and told Joab, "I just saw Absalom hanging in an oak."
- 11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle. Joab said to the man who told him, "What, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have been glad to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt."
- 12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Beware that none touch the young man Absalom. But the man said to Joab, "Even if I felt in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver, I would not reach out my hand against the king's son, for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, 'For my sake protect the young man Absalom.'"

- 13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me. On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me."
- 14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. Joab said, "I will not waste time like this with you." And he took three javelins in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the oak.
- 15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him. Ten young men, Joab's armor-bearers, surrounded Absalom and struck him and killed him.
- 16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people. Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the troops came back from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the troops.
- 17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent. They took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the forest and raised over him a very great heap of stones. And all Israel fled every one to his own home.
- 18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself the pillar that is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." He called the pillar after his own name. It is called Absalom's monument to this day.
- 19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath avenged him of his enemies. Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me run and carry news to the king that the LORD has delivered Him from the hand of His enemies."

- 20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. Joab said to him, "You are not to carry news today. You may carry news another day, but today you shall carry no news, because the king's son is dead."
- 21 Then said Joab to Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran. Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed before Joab and ran.
- 22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready? Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said again to Joab, "Come what may, please let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why will you run, my son, seeing that you have no news ready?"
- 23 But howsoever, said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and overran Cushi. "Come what may," he said, "I will run." So he said to him, "Run." Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and outran the Cushite.
- 24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone. Now David was sitting between the two gates, and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate by the wall and lifted up his eyes and looked, and there was a man running alone.
- 25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near. The watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he drew nearer and nearer.
- 26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings. The watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the gate and said, "See, another man running alone!" The king said, "He also brings news."

- 27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings. The watchman said, "I think the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "He is a good man and comes with good news."
- 28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king. Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, "All is well." And he bowed before the king with his face to the earth and said, "Blessed be the LORD Your God, Who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king."
- 29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was. The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant and your servant, I saw a great commotion. But I do not know what it was."
- 30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still. The king said, "Turn aside and stand here." So he turned aside and stood still.
- 31 And, behold, Cushite came; and Cushi said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee. The Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "Good news for my lord the king! For the LORD has delivered You this day from the hand of all who rose up against You."
- 32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is. The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?" And the Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up against you for evil be like that young man."

- 6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well. Because you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. For you have made it clear today that commanders and servants are nothing to you, for today I know that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased.
- 7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now. Now therefore arise, go out and speak kindly to Your servants, for I swear by the LORD, if You do not go, not a man will stay with you this night, and this will be worse for You than all the evil that has come upon You from Your youth until now."
- 8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel had fled every man to his tent. Then the king arose and sat in the gate. And the people were all told, "See, the king is sitting in the gate." And all the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his own home.
- 9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom. All the people were arguing throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies and saved us from the hand of the Philistines, and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom.
- 10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back? But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?"

- 11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house. King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar the priests: "Say to the elders of Judah, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel has come to the king?'"
- 12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king? You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?"
- 13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. Say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if you are not commander of my army from now on in place of Joab.' "
- 14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants. He swayed the heart of all the men of Judah as one man, so that they sent word to the king, "Return, both you and all your servants."
- 15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan. So the king came back to the Jordan, and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and to bring the king over the Jordan.
- 16 And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahurim, hurried to come down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
- 17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king. With him were a thousand men from Benjamin. And Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan before the king,

- 18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan; They crossed the ford to bring over the king's household and to do his pleasure. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was about to cross the Jordan,
- 19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. Said to the king, "Let not my lord hold me guilty or remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. Let not the king take it to heart.
- 20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king. For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, see, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."
- 21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD'S anointed? Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"
- 22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel? But David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be as an adversary to me? Shall anyone be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?"
- 23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him. The king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king gave him his oath.

- 24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace. Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. He had neither taken care of his feet nor trimmed his beard nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came back in safety.
- 25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest thou not with me, Mephibosheth? When he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"
- 26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame. He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me, for your servant said to him, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, that I may ride on it and go with the king.' For your servant is lame.
- 27 And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes. He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.
- 28 For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king? For all my father's house were but men doomed to death before my lord the king, but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to cry to the king?"
- 29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land. The king said to him, "Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land."
- 30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house. Mephibosheth said to the king, "Oh, let him take it all, since my lord the king has come safely home."

- 31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan. Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim. He went on with the king to the Jordan, to escort him over the Jordan.
- 32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. He had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.
- 33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem. The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me. I will provide for you with me in Jerusalem."
- 34 And Barzillai said unto the king, How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem? But Barzillai said to the king, "How many years have I still to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"
- 35 I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king? I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?
- 36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward? Your servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward?
- 37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee. Please let your servant turn back, that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham. Let him go over with my lord the king, and do for him whatever seems good to you."

- 38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee. The king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me. I will do for him whatever seems good to you. All that you desire of me I will do for you."
- 39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place. Then all the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over. And the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. He returned to his own home.
- 40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel. The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him. All the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, brought the king on his way.
- 41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan? Then all the men of Israel came to the king and said to the king, "Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away and brought the king and his household over the Jordan. All David's men with him?"
- 42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift? All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is our close relative. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense? Or has he given us any gift?"

- 43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.
- The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king, and in David also we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?" But the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

Chapter 20

- Now there happened to be there a worthless man, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite. And he blew the trumpet and said, "We have no portion in David. We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tents, O Israel!"
- 2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.
- So all the men of Israel withdrew from David and followed Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah followed their king steadfastly from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

- 3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood. David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to keep the house and put them in a house under guard and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as if in widowhood.
- 4 Then said the king to Amasa, Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present. Then the king said to Amasa, "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and be here yourself."
- 5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him. So Amasa went to summon Judah. But he delayed beyond the set time that had been appointed him.
- 6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and escape us. David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your lord's servants and pursue him, lest he get himself to fortified cities and escape from us."
- 7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. There went out after him Joab's men and the Cherethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men. They went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
- 8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out. When they were at the great stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing a soldier's garment, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his hip, and as he went forward it fell out.

- 9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.
- 10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. But Amasa did not notice the sword that was in Joab's hand. And Joab struck him with it in the stomach and spilled his entrails to the ground without striking a second blow. He died. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba the son of Bichri.
- 11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab. One of Joab's young men took his stand beside Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab."
- 12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the highway. And the man saw that all the people stopped. So he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stopped.
- 13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. When he was taken out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba the son of Bichri.
- 14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Bethmaachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-maacah. All the Berites assembled and followed him in.

- 15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Bethmaachah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. All the men who were with Joab came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacadah. They cast up a mound against the city. It stood against the rampart. They were battering the wall to throw it down.
- 16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee. Then a wise woman called from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab, 'Come here, that I may speak to you.' "
- 17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear. He came near her, and the woman said, "Are you Joab?" He answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant." And he answered, "I am listening."
- 18 Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter. Then she said, "They used to say in former times, 'Let them but ask counsel at Abel,' and so they settled a matter.
- 19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why will You swallow up the heritage of the LORD?"
- 20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. Joab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, that I should swallow up or destroy!

And David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, "There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house, because he put the Gibeonites to death."
- 2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.) So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not of the people of Israel but of the remnant of the Amorites. Although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had sought to strike them down in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.
- 3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the LORD? David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for You? And how shall I make atonement, that You may bless the heritage of the LORD?"
- 4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you. The Gibeonites said to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel." And he said, "What do you say that I shall do for you?"
- 5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel, They said to the king, "The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us, so that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel,

- 6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them. Let seven of His sons be given to us, so that we may hang them before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD." And the king said, "I will give them."
- 7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD'S oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
- 8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite: The king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth. And she did not allow the birds of the air to come upon them by day, or the wild animals by night.
- 11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. When David was told what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

And after that God was intreated for the land.* They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father. - 17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel. But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid and attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, "You shall no longer go out with us to battle, lest you quench the lamp of Israel."
- 18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant. After this there was again war with the Philistines at Gob. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.* Next to Him was Shammah, the son of Agee the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the men fled from the Philistines.
- 12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory. But He took His stand in the midst of the plot and defended it and struck down the Philistines. The LORD worked a great victory.
- 13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim. Three of the thirty chief men went down and came about harvest time to David at the cave of Adullam, when a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

- 15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate! David said longingly, "Oh, that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!"
- 16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD. Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate and carried and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it. He poured it out to the LORD
- 17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men. Said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this. Shall I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" Therefore He would not drink it. These things the three mighty men did.
- 18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three. Now Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And He wielded his spear against three hundred men and killed them and won a name among the three.
- 19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three. He was the most renowned of the three and became their commander. But He did not attain to the first three.

- 20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow: Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds. He struck down two heroes of Moab. He also went down and struck down a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

The Egyptian had a spear in His hand, but Benaiah went down to him with a staff and snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed Him with His own spear.
- 22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men. These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and won a name beside the three mighty men.
- 23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him over his guard. He was renowned among the thirty. But he did not attain to the three. And David set him over his bodyguard.

- 2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people. So the king said to Joab, the commander of the army, who was with him, "Go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the number of the people."
- 3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing? But Joab said to the king, "May the LORD Your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king still see it, but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"
- 4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. But the king's word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.
- 5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward Jazer: They crossed the Jordan and began from Aroer, and from the city that is in the middle of the valley, toward Gad and on to Jazer.
- 6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtimhodshi; and they came to Danjaan, and about to Zidon, Then they came to Gilead, and to Kadesh in the land of the Hittites. They came to Dan, and from Dan they went around to Sidon,
- 7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beersheba. Came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites. They went out to the south of Judah at Beersheba.
- 8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

- 9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king: in Israel there were 800,000 valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were 500,000.
- 10 And David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. But David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."
- 11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, When David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying,
- 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. "Go and say to David, 'Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer You. Choose one of them, that I may do it to You.' "
- 13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me. So Gad came to David and told him, and said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I shall return to him who sent me."
- 14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are great: and let me not fall into the hand of man. Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercy is great; but let me not fall into the hand of man."

- 15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men. So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning until the appointed time. And there died of the people from Dan to Beersheba 70,000 men.
- 16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite. When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the calamity and said to the angel who was working destruction among the people, "It is enough; now stay your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.
- 17 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house. Then David spoke to the LORD when He saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, "See, I have sinned. I have done wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand be against me and against my father's house."
- 18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite. Gad came that day to David and said to him, "Go up, raise an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."
- 19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded. So David went up at Gad's word, as the LORD commanded.
- 20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground. When Araunah looked down, he saw the king and his servants coming on toward him. And Araunah went out and paid homage to the king with his face to the ground.

- 21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people. Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, in order to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be averted from the people."
- 22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood. Then Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Here are the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood."
- 23 All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept thee. All this, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD Your God accept You."
- 24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. But the king said to Araunah, "No. But I will buy it from You for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
- 25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel. David built there an altar to the LORD and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD responded to the plea for the land, and the plague was averted from Israel.

1 Kings

Author: Unknown — Jewish tradition names Jeremiah, but the book draws on royal annals, temple records, and prophetic accounts compiled by unnamed authors over generations.

Date written: Final compilation c. 560 BC, during or shortly after the Babylonian exile.

Written to: The exiled nation, to trace the history of Israel's monarchy from its height to its collapse.

Setting: 1 Kings opens at David's deathbed and covers roughly four centuries — Solomon's golden reign, the kingdom's division after his death, and the spiraling decline of both Israel and Judah.

Where this sits historically: c. 970–850 BC — Solomon's reign, the kingdom's split in 930 BC, and the divided monarchy through Ahab's death; Egypt's 22nd dynasty under Shishak invades Judah in 925 BC.

Contemporaries: Hiram I of Tyre; Shishak of Egypt; the Aramean kings Ben-Hadad I and II; the prophets Elijah and Micaiah. 2 Chronicles retells the Judah side of this same era.

Big themes:

- Wisdom and its limits — Solomon's wisdom is unmatched, but it cannot save him from the idolatry his foreign wives bring in

- The temple — its construction and dedication occupy the center of the book; it is the place where God's name dwells

- The divided kingdom — the ten northern tribes break away under Jeroboam, and Israel is never reunited in the OT

- Elijah — his sudden appearance in chapter 17 dominates the latter half; he confronts Ahab, Jezebel, and the prophets of Baal

- Covenant faithfulness as the measure of every king — each king is judged by one standard: did he walk as David walked?

Key passages: 1 Kgs 3:9; 8:27–30; 11:11; 17:1; 18:39

How it fits: 1 Kings is the direct sequel to 2 Samuel. It shows what happens when the covenant is kept (Solomon's early reign) and what happens when it is broken (the division, Jeroboam's golden calves, Ahab's reign). The prophetic ministries of Elijah and Elisha that dominate 1–2 Kings are the background against which Isaiah and the later prophets preach.

Chapter 1

King David was old and feeble, and his son Adonijah attempted to seize the throne with the support of Joab and Abiathar. Bathsheba and Nathan intervened, and David ordered Solomon to be anointed king at Gihon; Adonijah's supporters scattered.

- 1 Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat. Now King David was old and advanced in years. And although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.
- 2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat. Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young woman be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king and be in his service. Let her lie in your arms, that my lord the king may be warm."
- 3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. So they sought for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.
- 4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not. The young woman was very beautiful. She was of service to the king and attended to him, but the king had no relations with her.
- 5 Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. Now Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." And he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.
- 6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Absalom. His father had never at any time displeased him by asking, "Why have you done thus and so?" He was also a very handsome man. He was born next after Absalom.
- 7 And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him. He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. And they followed Adonijah and helped him.

- 8

But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and David's mighty men were not with Adonijah.
- 9

And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zohemoth, which is by Enrogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened cattle by the Serpent's Stone, which is beside En-rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king's sons. All the royal officials of Judah,
- 10

But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he called not.

But he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the mighty men or Solomon his brother.

■ NAME NOTE — Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — "peace" — David and Bathsheba's son, Israel's third king. The wisest man who ever lived, builder of the first temple in Jerusalem, author of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon. His foreign wives led him into idolatry in old age, and God tore the kingdom from his son.

Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

Now therefore come, let me give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

- 13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign? Go in at once to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your servant, saying, "Solomon your son shall reign after me. He shall sit on my throne"? Why then is Adonijah king?'"
- 14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words. While you are still talking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

- 20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. Now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.
- 21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders. Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders."

- 25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah. For he has gone down this day and has sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. And look, they are eating and drinking before him, and saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!'
- 26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called. But me, your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he has not invited.

- 27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him? Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not told your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

He shall sit on my throne in my place,' even so will I do this day."

All the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"
- 40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them. All the people went up after him, playing on pipes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth was split by their noise.
- 41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar? Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "What does this uproar in the city mean?"

- 42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came; and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings. While he was still speaking, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and bring good news."
- 43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king. Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king,
- 44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule: The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites. And they had him ride on the king's mule.
- 45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard. Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. They have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. That is the noise that you have heard.
- 46 And also Solomon sitteth on the throne of the kingdom. Solomon sits on the royal throne.
- 47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed. Moreover, the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May your God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours, and make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed himself on the bed.
- 48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it. The king also said, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has granted someone to sit on my throne this day, my own eyes seeing it.' "

- 2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man; "I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man,
- 3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself: Keep the charge of the LORD Your God, walking in His ways and keeping His statutes, His commandments, His rules. His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever You turn,
- 4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel. That the LORD may establish His word that He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If Your sons pay close attention to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, You shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'
- 5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. Moreover, You also know what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner the son of Ner, and Amasa the son of Jether, whom He killed, putting in time of peace blood that had been shed in war, and putting the blood of war on the belt around His waist and on the sandals on His feet.
- 6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace. Act therefore according to Your wisdom, but do not let His gray head go down to the grave in peace.

- 7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother. But deal loyally with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from Absalom your brother.
- 8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword. There is also with You Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim. But when He came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to Him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put You to death with the sword.'
- 9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood. Now therefore do not hold Him guiltless, for You are a wise man. You will know what You ought to do to Him, and You shall bring His gray head down with blood to the grave."
- 10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David.
- 11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
- 12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly. So Solomon sat on the throne of David his father. His kingdom was firmly established.
- 13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably. Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She said, "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably."
- 14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on. Then he said, "I have something to say to you." She said, "Speak."

- 15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD. He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel fully expected me to reign. However, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother's, for it was His from the LORD.
- 16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on. Now I have one request to make of You; do not refuse me." She said to Him, "Speak."
- 17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife. He said, "Please ask King Solomon—he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife."
- 18 And Bathsheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king. Bathsheba said, "Very well; I will speak for you to the king."
- 19 Bathsheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat on his throne and had a seat brought for the king's mother. She sat on his right hand.
- 20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay. Then she said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." And the king said to her, "Make your request, my mother, for I will not refuse you."
- 21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife. She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife."

- 22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. King Solomon answered his mother, "And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, for he is my older brother, and on his side are Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah."
- 23 Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life. Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "God do so to me and more also if this word does not cost Adonijah his life!"
- 24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day. Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me and placed me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today."
- 25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died. So King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. He struck him down. He died.
- 26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted. To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your estate, for You deserve death. But I will not at this time put You to death, because You carried the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you shared in all my father's affliction."
- 27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. So Solomon expelled Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD that He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

- 28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. When the news came to Joab—for Joab had supported Adonijah although he had not supported Absalom—Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD and caught hold of the horns of the altar.
- 29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him. When it was told King Solomon, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD. He is beside the altar," Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down."
- 30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. So Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD and said to Him, "The king commands, 'Come out.' " But he said, "No, I will die here." Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."
- 31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father. The king replied to him, "Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him, and thus take away from me and from my father's house the guilt for the blood that Joab shed without cause.
- 32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah. The LORD will bring back His bloody deeds on His own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than Himself, Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

- 33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD. So shall their blood come back on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever. But for David and for his descendants and for his house and for His throne there shall be peace from the LORD forevermore."
- 34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and put Him to death. And He was buried in His own house in the wilderness.
- 35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar. The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in place of Joab, and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.
- 36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither. Then the king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there to any place whatever.
- 37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head. For on the day you go out and cross the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall die. Your blood shall be on your own head."
- 38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. Shimei said to the king, "What you say is good; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.
- 39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath. But at the end of three years two of Shimei's servants ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. And when it was told Shimei, "See, your servants are in Gath,"

- 40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. Shimei arose and saddled a donkey and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants. He went and brought his servants back from Gath.
- 41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again. When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned,
- 42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good. The king sent and summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and solemnly warn You, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day You go out and go to any place whatever, You shall surely die'? And You said to me, 'What You say is good; I will obey.'"
- 43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with? Why then have You not kept Your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I charged You?"
- 44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head; The king also said to Shimei, "You know in your own heart all the harm that you did to David my father. So the LORD will bring back your harm on Your own head.
- 45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever. But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever."
- 46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon. Then the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. He went out and struck him down. He died. So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

And you have kept for him this great mercy and have given him a son to sit on his throne this day.
- 7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child. - 10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.

- 12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee. See, I now do according to your word. - 18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. Then on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. And we were alone. There was no one else with us in the house; only we two were in the house.

- 19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. This woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him.

- 21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, he was dead. But when I looked at him closely in the morning, he was not the child that I had borne."

- 3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. "You know that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD His God because of the warfare with which His enemies surrounded Him, until the LORD put them under the soles of His feet.
- 4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent. But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary nor misfortune.
- 5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name. So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to David my father, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.'
- 6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians. Now therefore command that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me. And my servants will join Your servants. I will pay You for Your servants whatever wages You set, for You know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."
- 7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people. As soon as Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son to be over this great people."
- 8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message you sent to me. I am ready to do all you desire in the matter of cedar and cypress timber.

- 9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. My servants shall bring it down to the sea from Lebanon. I will make it into rafts to go by sea to the place you direct. And I will have them broken up there, and you shall receive it. And you shall meet my wishes by providing food for my household."
- 10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire. So Hiram supplied Solomon with all the timber of cedar and cypress that he desired,
- 11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year. While Solomon gave Hiram 20,000 cors of wheat as food for his household, and 20,000 cors of beaten oil. - 3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house. The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits long, equal to the width of the house, and ten cubits deep in front of the house.
- 4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights. He made for the house windows with recessed frames.
- 5 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about: He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running around the walls of the house, both the nave and the inner sanctuary. And He made side chambers all around.
- 6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened into the walls of the house. The lowest story was five cubits wide, the middle one was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide. For around the outside of the house He made offsets on the wall in order that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.
- 7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. When the house was built, it was with stone prepared at the quarry, so that neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron was heard in the house while it was being built.
- 8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third. The entrance for the lowest story was on the south side of the house, and one went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle story to the third.
- 9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar. So He built the house and finished it. He made the ceiling of the house of beams and planks of cedar.

- 10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar. He built the structure against the whole house, each story five cubits high. It was joined to the house with timbers of cedar.
- 11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon,
- 12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father: "Concerning this house that you are building, if you will walk in my statutes and obey my rules and keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father.
- 13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel. I will dwell among the children of Israel and will not forsake my people Israel."
- 14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it. So Solomon built the house and finished it.
- 15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir. He lined the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar. From the floor of the house to the rafters of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood. He covered the floor of the house with boards of cypress.
- 16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place. He built twenty cubits of the rear of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the rafters. He built this within as an inner sanctuary, as the Most Holy Place.
- 17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long. The house, that is, the nave in front of the inner sanctuary, was forty cubits long.

- 18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. The cedar within the house was carved in the form of gourds and open flowers. All was cedar; no stone was seen.
- 19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. The inner sanctuary He prepared in the innermost part of the house, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.
- 20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar. The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high. He overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid an altar of cedar.
- 21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. He drew chains of gold across, in front of the inner sanctuary, and overlaid it with gold.
- 22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold. He overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold.
- 23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high. In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olivewood, each ten cubits high.
- 24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. Five cubits was the length of one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the length of the other wing of the cherub; it was ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.
- 25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size. The other cherub also measured ten cubits; both cherubim had the same measure and the same form.

- 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub.
- 27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. He put the cherubim in the innermost part of the house. And the wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one touched the one wall, and a wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; their other wings touched each other in the middle of the house.
- 28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. He overlaid the cherubim with gold.
- 29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without. Around all the walls of the house he carved engraved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, in the inner and outer rooms.
- 30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without. The floor of the house he overlaid with gold in the inner and outer rooms.
- 31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall. For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olivewood; the lintel and the doorposts formed a pentagonal frame.
- 32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees. He covered the two doors of olivewood with carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers. He overlaid them with gold and spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees.
- 33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall. So also he made for the entrance to the nave doorposts of olivewood, in the form of a square,

- 2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits and its breadth fifty cubits and its height thirty cubits. It was built on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.
- 3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row. It was covered with cedar above the chambers that were on the forty-five pillars, fifteen in each row.
- 4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks. There were window frames in three rows, and window opposite window in three tiers.
- 5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks. All the doorways and windows had square frames, and window was opposite window in three tiers.
- 6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them. He made the Hall of Pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits. There was a porch in front with pillars, and a canopy in front of them.
- 7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other. He made the Hall of the Throne where he was to pronounce judgment, even the Hall of Judgment. It was finished with cedar from floor to rafters.
- 8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch. His own house where he was to dwell, in the other court back of the hall, was of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter whom he had taken in marriage.

- 9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court. All these were made of costly stones, cut according to measure, sawed with saws, back and front, even from the foundation to the coping, and from the outside to the great court.
- 10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. The foundation was of costly stones, huge stones, stones of eight and ten cubits.
- 11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars. Above were costly stones, cut according to measurement, and cedar.
- 12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house. The great court had three courses of cut stone all around and a course of cedar beams; so had the inner court of the house of the LORD and the vestibule of the house.
- 13 And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. King Solomon sent and brought Hiram from Tyre.
- 14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work. He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali. His father was a man of Tyre, a worker in bronze. And he was full of wisdom, understanding, and skill for making any work in bronze. He came to King Solomon and did all his work.
- 15 For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about. He cast two pillars of bronze. Eighteen cubits was the height of one pillar, and a line of twelve cubits measured its circumference.

- 16 And he made two chapters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits: He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits.
- 17 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter. There were lattices of checker work with wreaths of chain work for the capitals on the tops of the pillars, a lattice for the one capital and a lattice for the other capital.
- 18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter. Likewise he made pomegranates in two rows around the one latticework to cover the capital that was on the top of the one pillar. He did the same with the other capital.
- 19 And the chapters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits. Now the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars in the vestibule were of lily-work, four cubits.
- 20 And the chapters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapter. The capitals were on the two pillars and also above the rounded projection that was beside the lattice-work. There were 200 pomegranates in two rows around each capital.
- 21 And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz. He set up the pillars at the vestibule of the temple. He set up the right pillar and called its name Jachin. He set up the left pillar and called its name Boaz.
- 22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished. On the tops of the pillars was lily-work. Thus the work of the pillars was finished.

- 23 And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. Then he made the sea of cast metal. It was round, ten cubits from brim to brim, and five cubits high, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.
- 24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast. Under its brim were gourds, for ten cubits, compassing the sea all around. The gourds were in two rows, cast with it when it was cast.
- 25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward. It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The sea was set on them. All their rear parts were inward.
- 26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths. Its thickness was a handbreadth, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It held two thousand baths.
- 27 And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. He also made the ten stands of bronze. Each stand was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high.
- 28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges: This was the construction of the stands: they had panels, and the panels were set in the frames,
- 29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work. On the panels that were set in the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. On the frames, both above and below the lions and oxen, there were wreaths of hanging work.

- 30 And every base had four brassen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition. Each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and at the four corners were supports for a basin. The supports were cast with wreaths at the side of each.
- 31 And the mouth of it within the chapter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round. Its opening was within the crown and above it was a cubit high; its opening was round, as a pedestal is made, a cubit and a half deep. At its opening there were carvings, and its panels were square, not round.
- 32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. The four wheels were underneath the panels. The axles of the wheels were in the stand, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half.
- 33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten. The wheels were made like a chariot wheel; their axles, their rims, their spokes. Their hubs were all cast.
- 34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself. There were four supports at the four corners of each stand. The supports were of one piece with the stand.
- 35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same. On the top of the stand there was a round band half a cubit high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its panels were of one piece with it.

- 36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about. On the surfaces of its stays and on its panels, he carved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around.
- 37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size. After this manner he made the ten stands. All of them were cast alike, of the same measure and the same form.
- 38 Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. He made ten basins of bronze. Each basin held forty baths, each basin measured four cubits, and there was a basin for each of the ten stands.
- 39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south. He set five of the stands on the south side of the house, and five on the north side of the house. And he set the sea on the southeast corner of the house.
- 40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD: Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram finished all the work that He did for King Solomon on the house of the LORD:
- 41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; The two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, and the two lattice-works to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars;
- 42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars; The 400 pomegranates for the two lattice-works, two rows of pomegranates for each lattice-work, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars;
- 43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases; The ten stands, and the ten basins on the stands;

- 44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea; The one sea, and the twelve oxen underneath the sea;
- 45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass. The pots, the shovels, and the basins. All these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze.
- 46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan. In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.
- 47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out. Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because there were so many of them; the weight of the bronze was not determined.
- 48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was, So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table for the bread of the Presence,
- 49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, The lampstands of pure gold, five on the south side and five on the north, before the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;
- 50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple. The cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, and fire pans, of pure gold. The sockets of gold, for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the nave of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

Thus all the work that King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, the silver, the gold, and the vessels, and stored them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

Chapter 8

Solomon assembled Israel and brought the ark into the temple, and the glory of the LORD filled the house. Solomon dedicated the temple with a lengthy prayer and offered 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep as peace offerings.

- 26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father. Now therefore, O God of Israel, let Your word be confirmed, which You have spoken to Your servant David my father.
- 27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded? But will God indeed dwell on the earth? heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you; how much less this house that I have built!

- 39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;) Then hear in heaven Your dwelling place and forgive and act and render to each whose heart You know, according to all His ways (for You, You only, know the hearts of all the children of mankind),

- 41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake; Likewise, when a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, comes from a far country for Your name's sake
- 42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house; (for they shall hear of Your great name and Your mighty hand, and of Your outstretched arm), when He comes and prays toward this house,
- 43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house that I have built is called by Your name.

- 44 If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name: If Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You shall send them. They pray to the LORD toward the city that You have chosen and the house that I have built for Your name,
- 45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. Then hear in heaven their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause.
- 46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near; If they sin against You—for there is no one who does not sin—and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near,
- 47 Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness; Yet if they turn their heart in the land to which they have been carried captive, and repent and plead with You in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned and have acted perversely and wickedly,'
- 48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name: If they repent with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who carried them captive, and pray to You toward their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city that You have chosen, and the house that I have built for Your name,
- 49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause, Then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause

- 50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:
- 51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:
- 52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.
- 53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.
- 54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.
- 55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,
- Forgive Your people who have sinned against You. All their transgressions that they have committed against You, and grant them compassion in the sight of those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them
- (for they are Your people, and Your heritage, which You brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the iron furnace),
- That Your eyes may be open to the plea of Your servant and to the plea of Your people Israel, giving ear to them whenever they call to You.
- For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your heritage, as You declared through Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."
- Now as Solomon finished offering all this prayer and plea to the LORD, He arose from before the altar of the LORD, where He had knelt with hands outstretched toward heaven.
- He stood and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

- 56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant. "Blessed be the LORD Who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. Not one word has failed of all His good promise, which He spoke by Moses his servant.
- 57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us: The LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us or forsake us,
- 58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers. That He may incline our hearts to Him, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments, His statutes. His rules, which He commanded our fathers.
- 59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require: Let these words of mine, with which I have pleaded before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, and may He maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of his people Israel, as each day requires,
- 60 That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else. That all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no other.
- 61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day. Let Your heart therefore be wholly true to the LORD our God, walking in His statutes and keeping His commandments, as at this day."
- 62 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. Then the king. All Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

- 63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.
- 64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD, for there He offered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat pieces of the peace offerings.
- 65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with Him, a great assembly, from the entering in of Hamath to the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.
- 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people. On the eighth day He sent the people away. They blessed the king and went to their homes joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David his servant and to Israel his people.

- 8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him: But he abandoned the counsel that the old men gave him and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.
- 9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter? He said to them, "What do you advise that we answer this people who have said to me, 'Lighten the yoke that your father put on us'?"
- 10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. The young men who had grown up with him said to him, "Thus shall you speak to this people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you lighten it for us,' thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.'
- 11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips. But I will discipline you with scorpions.' "

- 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had said, "Come to me again the third day."
- 13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him; The king answered the people harshly, and forsaking the counsel that the old men had given him,
- 14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. He spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy. But I will add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips. But I will discipline you with scorpions."
- 15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat. So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of affairs brought about by the LORD that He might fulfill His word, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents. When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, "What portion do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David." So Israel went to their tents.
- 17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. But Rehoboam reigned over the people of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah.

- 18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was taskmaster over the forced labor. All Israel stoned him to death with stones. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.
- 19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.
- 20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only. When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. There was none that followed the house of David but the tribe of Judah only.
- 21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 chosen warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.
- 22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying, But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:
- 23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying, "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,

- 24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD. "Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up or fight against Your relatives the people of Israel. Every man return to his home, for this thing is from me.' " So they listened to the word of the LORD and went home again, according to the word of the LORD.
- 25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel. Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. And he went out from there and built Penuel.
- 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David: Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will turn back to the house of David.
- 27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah. If this people go up to offer sacrifices in the temple of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."
- 28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. So the king took counsel and made two calves of gold. And he said to the people, "You have gone up to Jerusalem long enough. See your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt."
- 29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. He set one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan.
- 30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan. Then this thing became a sin, for the people went as far as Dan to be before one of them.

- 31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi. He also made temples on high places and appointed priests from among all the people, who were not of the Levites.
- 32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. Jeroboam appointed a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the feast that was in Judah. He offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made.
- 33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense. He went up to the altar that he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he had devised from his own heart. And he instituted a feast for the people of Israel and went up to the altar to make offerings.

His heart was not wholly true to the LORD His God, as the heart of David his father. |
| 4 | Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: | Nevertheless, for David's sake the LORD His God gave Him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up His son after Him, and establishing Jerusalem, |
| 5 | Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. | Because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded Him all the days of His life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. |
| 6 | And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. | Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. |
| 7 | Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? - 11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as David his father had done.
- 12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. He put away the sodomites out of the land and removed all the idols that His fathers had made.
- 13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron. He also removed Maacah his mother from being queen mother because she had made an idol in a grove. And Asa destroyed her idol and burned it at the brook Kidron.
- 14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days. But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless, the heart of Asa was wholly true to the LORD all His days.
- 15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels. He brought into the house of the LORD the sacred gifts of His father and His own sacred gifts, silver, and gold, and vessels.
- 16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

- 18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Benhadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,
- 19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.
- 20 And Benhadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abelbethmaachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
- 21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.
- 22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
- Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house and gave them into the hands of his servants. And King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived in Damascus, saying,
- "Let there be a covenant between me and You, as there was between my father and Your father. I am sending to You a present of silver and gold. Go, break Your covenant with Baasha king of Israel, that He may withdraw from me."
- Ben-hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel and struck Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah. All Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.
- When Baasha heard of it, he stopped building Ramah and lived in Tirzah.
- Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, none was exempt. They carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been building, and with them King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.

- 23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might. All that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.
- 24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead. Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

- 27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against Him. And Baasha struck Him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.
- 28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead. So Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah and reigned in his place.
- 29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite: As soon as He was king, He killed all the house of Jeroboam. He left to the house of Jeroboam not one that breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD that He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite.

Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

It was for the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned and that he made Israel to sin, and because of the anger to which He provoked the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 31

Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Chapter 16

Baasha's house was condemned by the prophet Jehu, and his son Elah was assassinated by Zimri, who reigned only seven days before Omri took power. Omri built Samaria, and his son Ahab married Jezebel and served Baal, doing more evil than all the kings before him.

- 1

Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

The word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,

- 2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; "Since I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with their sins,
- 3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house. I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat. Anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city the dogs shall eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field the birds of the heavens shall eat."
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Baasha and what he did. His might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead. Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried at Tirzah, and Elah his son reigned in his place.
- 7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him. Moreover, the word of the LORD came by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, both because of all the evil that He did in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of His hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and also because he destroyed it.
- 8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years. In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah. He reigned two years.

- 9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah. But his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him. When he was at Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah,
- 10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.
- 11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends. When he began to reign, as soon as he had seated himself on his throne, he struck down all the house of Baasha. He did not leave him one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsmen nor of his friends.
- 12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,
- 13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. For all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah His son, which they sinned and which they made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their idols.
- 14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that He did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines,

- 16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. The troops who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired. He has also struck down the king." Therefore all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp.
- 17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. So Omri went up from Gibbethon. All Israel with him. They besieged Tirzah.
- 18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died. When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire and died,
- 19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. Because of His sins that He committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD, walking in the way of Jeroboam, and for his sin which he committed, making Israel to sin.
- 20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the conspiracy that He made, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.
- 22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. But the people who followed Omri overcame the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king.

- 23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah. In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel. He reigned for twelve years; six years he reigned at Tirzah.

He fortified the hill and called the name of the city that he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill.
- 25 But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him. Omri did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and did more evil than all who were before Him.
- 26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. For He walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in the sins that he made Israel to sin, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their idols.
- 27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Omri that he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead. Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his son reigned in his place.
- 29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years. In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. As if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he took for his wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal and worshiped him.

- 6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. So they divided the land between them to pass through it. Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another direction by himself.
- 7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah? As Obadiah was on the way, Elijah met him. And Obadiah recognized him and fell on his face and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"
- 8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Elijah is here.' "
- 9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me? He said, "How have I sinned, that you would give your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?"
- 10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not. As the LORD Your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek You. And when they would say, 'He is not here,' He would take an oath of the kingdom or nation, that they had not found You.
- 11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here. Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here."'
- 12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth. As soon as I have gone from You, the Spirit of the LORD will carry You I know not where. And so, when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will kill me, although I Your servant have feared the LORD from my youth.

- 13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water? Has it not been told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifties in a cave and fed them with bread and water?
- 14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me. Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here". He will kill me.'
- 15 And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day. Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to Him today."
- 16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah. So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.
- 17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?"
- 18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim. He answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but You have, and Your father's house, because You have abandoned the commandments of the LORD and followed the Baals.
- 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table. Now therefore send and gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table."
- 20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. So Ahab sent to all the people of Israel and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

- 21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word. Elijah came near to all the people and said, "How long will you halt between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, then follow Him." And the people did not answer him a word.
- 22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD, but Baal's prophets are 450 men.
- 23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: Let two bulls be given to us, and let them choose one bull for themselves and cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it. And I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood and put no fire to it.
- 24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken. You call upon the name of Your god. I will call upon the name of the LORD, and the God Who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people answered, "It is well spoken."
- 25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under. Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many, and call upon the name of your god, but put no fire to it."

- 26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made. They took the bull that was given them. They prepared it and called upon the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, answer us!" But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they limped around the altar that they had made.
- 27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked. At noon Elijah mocked them, saying, "Cry aloud, for he is a god. Either He is musing, or He is relieving himself, or He is on a journey, or perhaps He is asleep and must be awakened."
- 28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them. They cried aloud and cut themselves after their custom with swords and lances, until the blood gushed out upon them.
- 29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded. As midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice. No one answered; no one paid attention.
- 30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that had been thrown down.
- 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name: Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be Your name,"

- 32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed. With the stones He built an altar in the name of the LORD. And He made a trench around the altar, as great as would contain two seahs of seed.
- 33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood. He put the wood in order and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. And He said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood."
- 34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. He said, "Do it a second time." And they did it a second time. And He said, "Do it a third time." And they did it a third time.
- 35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water. The water ran around the altar and filled the trench also with water.
- 36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word. At the time of the offering of the oblation, Elijah the prophet came near and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word.
- 37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again. Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that You, O LORD, are God, and that You have turned their hearts back."
- 38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

- 39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God. When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, "The LORD, He is God; the LORD, He is God."

And he said, Go again seven times.* He said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea." And he went up and looked and said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go again," seven times.
- 44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not. At the seventh time he said, "a little cloud like a man's hand is rising from the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot and go down, lest the rain stop you.' "

- 4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. But He Himself went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a broom tree. And He asked that He might die, saying, "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

For the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left. They seek my life, to take it away."

Let us put sackcloth on our waists and ropes on our heads and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."

- 32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Benhadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother. So they tied sackcloth around their waists and put ropes on their heads and went to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please let me live.' " And he said, "Does he still live? He is my brother."
- 33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Benhadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Benhadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. Now the men were watching for a sign. They quickly took it up from him and said, "Yes, Ben-hadad is your brother." Then he said, "Go and bring him." Then Ben-hadad came out to him. He caused him to come up into the chariot.
- 34 And Benhadad said unto him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away. Ben-hadad said to him, "The cities that my father took from your father I will restore, and you may establish bazaars for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria." And Ahab said, "I will let you go on these terms." So he made a covenant with him and let him go.
- 35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him. A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to His fellow at the command of the LORD, "Strike me, please." But the man refused to strike him.
- 36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him. Then He said to Him, "Because You have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, as soon as You have gone from me, a lion shall strike You down." - 38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. So the prophet departed and waited for the king by the way, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes.
- 39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver. As the king passed, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle, and a soldier turned and brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'"
- 40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it. As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone." The king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."
- 41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets. Then he hurried to take the bandage away from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets.
- 42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people. He said to Him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because You have let go out of Your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore Your life shall be for His life, and Your people for His people.'"
- 43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria. The king of Israel went to his house vexed and sullen and came to Samaria.

Date written: Final form c. 560–550 BC, after the fall of Jerusalem, possibly in Babylon.

Written to: The exiled nation of Israel and Judah, to explain why they were in captivity and what it meant.

Setting: 2 Kings opens with Elijah's translation and closes with the king of Judah eating at the table of Babylon's king — a seventy-year arc from the peak of prophetic ministry to the depths of national ruin.

Where this sits historically: c. 850–560 BC — the divided kingdom through the fall of Samaria (722 BC, Assyria) and the fall of Jerusalem (586 BC, Babylon); the rise of Assyria and Babylon dominates the period.

Contemporaries: The prophets Elisha, Jonah, Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, Micah, Jeremiah, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, and Nahum all preach during these centuries; Assyria's Tiglath-Pileser III, Sargon II, and Sennacherib; Babylon's Nebuchadnezzar; Daniel and Ezekiel are taken into exile while these events unfold.

Big themes:

- The prophetic word fulfilled — every major event, from Jehu's coup to the fall of Samaria to the destruction of Jerusalem, happens exactly as a prophet foretold

- The divided kingdom unravels — Israel (northern) falls to Assyria in 722 BC; Judah (southern) falls to Babylon in 586 BC

- Elisha — his ministry dominates the early chapters, with a concentration of miracles unmatched since Moses

- Hezekiah and Josiah — two kings who genuinely sought God, and whose reforms show what faithfulness looks like even in decline

- Covenant consequences — the exile is not bad luck; it is the curses of Deuteronomy 28 falling exactly as Moses said they would

Key passages: 2 Kgs 2:11; 5:14; 17:7–8; 19:35; 22:8

How it fits: 2 Kings is the final chapter of the Deuteronomistic history (Deuteronomy–Kings). It answers the question Israel asked in exile: "Why did this happen to us?" The answer is covenantal. 2 Chronicles retells the same story from a priestly perspective; Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel prophesied during the events of 2 Kings' later chapters.

- 8 And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground. Then Elijah took his cloak and rolled it up and struck the water, and the water was parted to the one side and to the other, till the two of them could go over on dry ground.
- 9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you." And Elisha said, "Please let there be a double portion of your spirit on me."

- 10 And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so. He said, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it shall be so for you, but if you do not see me, it shall not be so."

And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.* Now when the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him opposite them, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him and bowed to the ground before him.

- 16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. They said to Him, " now, there are with Your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek Your master. It may be that the Spirit of the LORD has caught Him up and cast Him on some mountain or into some valley." And He said, "You shall not send."
- 17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not. But when they urged Him until He was ashamed, He said, "Send." They sent fifty men. And for three days they sought Him but did not find Him.
- 18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not? They came back to Him while He was staying at Jericho. He said to them, "Did I not say to You, 'Do not go'?"
- 19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground barren. Now the men of the city said to Elisha, " the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees, but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful."
- 20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him. He said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.
- 21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land. Then He went to the spring of water and threw salt in it and said, "Thus says the LORD, I have healed this water; from now on neither death nor miscarriage shall come from it."
- 22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake. So the water has been healed to this day, according to the word that Elisha spoke.

- 5 But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
- 6 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel. So King Jehoram marched out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel.
- 7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses. He went and sent word to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to battle against Moab?" And he said, "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."
- 8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. Then he said, "By which way shall we march?" Jehoshaphat answered, "By the way of the wilderness of Edom."
- 9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them. So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom set out, and when they had made a circuit of seven days' journey, there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them.
- 10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab! Then the king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."

- 11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hands of Elijah. Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?" Then one of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."
- 12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with Him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
- 13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab. Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of Your father and to the prophets of Your mother." But the king of Israel said to him, "No; it is the LORD Who has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab."
- 14 And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee. Elisha said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I have regard for Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would neither look at you nor see You.
- 15 But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. But now bring me a musician." And when the musician played, the hand of the LORD came upon Him.
- 16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches. He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I will make this dry streambed full of pools.'

- 17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts. For thus says the LORD, 'You shall not see wind or rain, but that streambed shall be filled with water, so that You shall drink, You, Your livestock, and Your animals.'
- 18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand. This is a light thing in the sight of the LORD. He will also give the Moabites into Your hand,
- 19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. You shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree and stop up all springs of water and ruin every good piece of land with stones."
- 20 And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water. The next morning, about the time of offering the sacrifice, water came from the direction of Edom, until the country was filled with water.
- 21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border. When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to put on armor, from the youngest to the oldest, were called out and were drawn up at the border.
- 22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood: When they rose early in the morning and the sun shone on the water, the Moabites saw the water opposite them as red as blood.
- 23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil. They said, "This is blood; the kings have surely fought together and struck one another down. Now then, Moab, to the spoil!"

- 24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country. But when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose and struck the Moabites, till they fled before them. And they went forward, striking the Moabites as they fled.
- 25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it. They overthrew the cities, and every man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it. They stopped every spring of water and felled every good tree, till only its stones were left in Kir-hareseth, and the slingers surrounded and struck it.
- 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not. When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him 700 swordsmen to break through, opposite the king of Edom. But they could not.
- 27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land. Then he took his oldest son who was to reign in his place and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. And there came great wrath against Israel. And they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

- 2 *And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? - 11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there. One day he came there. He turned into the chamber and rested there.
- 12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him. He said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her, she stood before him.
- 13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people. He said to him, "Say now to her, 'See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you? Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?'" She answered, "I dwell among my own people."
- 14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old. He said, "What then is to be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son. Her husband is old."

- 15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door. He said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway.
- 16 And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie unto thine handmaid. He said, "At this season, about this time next year, you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my lord, O man of God; do not lie to your servant."
- 17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life. But the woman conceived. She bore a son at that season, according to the time of life, as Elisha had said to her.
- 18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. When the child had grown, he went out one day to his father among the reapers.
- 19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother. He said to his father, "Oh, my head, my head!" The father said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother."
- 20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. When he had lifted him and brought him to his mother, the child sat on her lap till noon, and then he died.
- 21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out. She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God and shut the door behind Him and went out.
- 22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. Then she called to her husband and said, "Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may quickly go to the man of God and come back again."
- 23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well. He said, "Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath." She said, "All is well."

- 24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee. Then she saddled the donkey. She said to her servant, "Urge the animal on; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you."
- 25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite: So she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her coming, He said to Gehazi His servant, "Look, there is the Shunammite.
- 26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well. Run at once to meet her and say to her, 'Is all well with you? Is all well with your husband? Is all well with the child?'" And she answered, "All is well."
- 27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me. When she came to the mountain to the man of God, she caught hold of His feet. And Gehazi came to push her away. But the man of God said, "Leave her alone, for she is in bitter distress. The LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me."
- 28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me? Then she said, "Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?"
- 29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child. He said to Gehazi, "Tie up Your garment and take my staff in Your hand and go. If You meet anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not reply. And lay my staff on the face of the child."
- 30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her. Then the mother of the child said, "As the LORD lives and as You Yourself live, I will not leave You." So He arose and followed her.

- 31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or sign of life. Therefore He returned to meet Him and told Him, "The child has not awakened."
- 32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed. When Elisha came into the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed.
- 33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD. So He went in and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the LORD.
- 34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then He got up and lay on the child, putting his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on His eyes. His hands on His hands. And as He stretched Himself upon Him, the flesh of the child became warm.
- 35 Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. Then He got up again and walked once back and forth in the house, and went up and stretched Himself upon Him. The child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.
- 36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then He summoned Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So He called her. And when she came to Him, He said, "Pick up Your son."
- 37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out. She came and fell at His feet, bowing to the ground. Then she picked up her son and went out.

- 38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal: and there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets. Elisha came again to Gilgal when there was a famine in the land. And as the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Set on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."
- 39 And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not. One of them went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine and gathered from it his lap full of wild gourds, and came and cut them up into the pot of stew, not knowing what they were.
- 40 So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof. They poured out some for the men to eat. But as they were eating the stew, they cried out, "O man of God, there is death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.
- 41 But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot. He said, "Then bring flour." And he threw it into the pot and said, "Pour some out for the men, that they may eat." And there was no harm in the pot.
- 42 And there came a man from Baalshalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat. A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in His sack. And Elisha said, "Give to the men, that they may eat."
- 43 And his servitor said, What, should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave thereof. But His servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred men?" So He repeated, "Give them to the men, that they may eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left.' "

- 7 And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me. When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Only consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."
- 8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? - 17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. Then Naaman said, "If not, please let there be given to Your servant two mule-loads of earth, for from now on Your servant will not offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any god but the LORD.
- 18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing. In this matter may the LORD pardon Your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my arm. My master has sent me to say, 'There have just now come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.'"

- 23 *And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. - 25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. He went in and stood before his master, and Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant went nowhere."
- 26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? But he said to him, "Did not my heart go when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Was it a time to accept money and garments, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male servants and female servants?
- 27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow. Therefore the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your descendants forever." So he went out from his presence a leper, like snow.

Now the king had dispatched a man from his presence. But before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take off my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold the door fast against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"
- 33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer? While He was still talking with them, the messenger came down to him and said, "This trouble is from the LORD! Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

Chapter 7

- 6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us. For the LORD had made the army of the Syrians hear the sound of chariots and of horses, the sound of a great army, so that they said to one another, "the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt to come against us."
- 7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. So they fled away in the twilight and abandoned their tents, their horses. Their donkeys, leaving the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.
- 8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it. When these lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent and ate and drank and carried off silver and gold and clothing and went and hid them. Then they came back and entered another tent and carried off things from it and went and hid them.
- 9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household. Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news. If we are silent and wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come; let us go and tell the king's household."
- 10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were. So they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city and told them, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and there was no one to be seen or heard there, nothing but horses tied and donkeys tied and the tents as they were."

- 11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within. Then the gatekeepers called out. It was told within the king's household.
- 12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city. The king arose in the night and said to his servants, "I will tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the open country, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive and get into the city.' "
- 13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed;) and let us send and see. One of his servants said, "Let some men take five of the remaining horses, seeing that those who are left here will fare like the whole crowd of Israel who have already perished. Let us send and see."
- 14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. So they took two horsemen, and the king sent them after the army of the Syrians, saying, "Go and see."
- 15 And they went after them unto Jordan: and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king. So they went after them as far as the Jordan. All the way was littered with garments and equipment that the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king.
- 16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.
- Now the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. And the people trampled him in the gate, so that he died, as the man of God had said when the king came down to him.
- 18

And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:
- For when the man of God had said to the king, "Two measures of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria,"
- 19

And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.
- The captain had answered the man of God, "If the LORD Himself should make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?" And He had said, "You shall see it with Your own eyes, but You shall not eat of it."
- 20

And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.
- So it happened to Him, for the people trampled him in the gate and he died.

- 5 *And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, here is the woman, and here is her son whom Elisha restored to life."
- 6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now. When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed an official for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, together with all the produce of the fields from the day that she left the land until now."

- 8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? The king said to Hazael, "Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through Him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
- 9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease? So Hazael went to meet Him, and took a present with Him, all kinds of goods of Damascus, forty camel-loads. When He came and stood before Him, He said, "Your son Ben-hadad king of Syria has sent me to You, saying, 'Shall I recover from this sickness?'"
- 10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die. Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover,' but the LORD has shown me that He shall certainly die."
- 11 And he settled his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. He fixed his gaze and stared at him, until he was embarrassed. And the man of God wept.
- 12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child. Hazael said, "Why does my lord weep?" He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel. You will set on fire their fortresses, and you will kill their young men with the sword and dash in pieces their little ones and rip open their pregnant women."

- 13 And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria. Hazael said, "What is Your servant, who is but a dog, that He should do this great thing?" Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that You are to be king over Syria."
- 14 Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover. Then he departed from Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me that you would certainly recover."
- 15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead. But the next day he took the cloth and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, till he died. And Hazael became king in his place.

And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.
- 19 Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him alway a light, and to his children. Yet the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David his servant, since he promised to give a lamp to him and to His sons forever.
- 20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. In His days Edom revolted from the rule of Judah and set up a king of their own.

- 21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents. Then Joram passed over to Zair with all his chariots and rose by night. He and his chariot commanders struck the Edomites who had surrounded Him. But His army fled home.
- 22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. So Edom revolted from the rule of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.
- 23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Now the rest of the acts of Joram and all that He did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah?

- 5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain. When he came, the commanders of the army were in council. And he said, "I have a word for you, O commander." And Jehu said, "To which of us all?" And he said, "To you, O commander."
- 6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. So He arose and went into the house. And the young man poured the oil on His head, saying to Him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I anoint You king over the people of the LORD, over Israel.
- 7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.
- 8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel: For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, both bond and free in Israel.
- 9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah: I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah.
- 10 And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled. The dogs shall eat Jezebel in the plot of ground at Jezreel, and none shall bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.

- 11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication. When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, they said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the fellow and his talk."
- 12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. They said, "That is not true; tell us now." And He said, "Thus and so He spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, I anoint You king over Israel.'"
- 13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. Then in haste every man of them took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps. They blew the trumpet and proclaimed, "Jehu is king."
- 14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramothgilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria. Thus Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram with all Israel had been on guard at Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Syria,
- 15 But king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel. But King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. So Jehu said, "If this is your decision, then let no one slip out of the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel."
- 16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram. Then Jehu mounted his chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to visit Joram.

- 17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel. He saw the company of Jehu as he came and said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"
- 18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again. So a man on horseback went to meet him and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Turn around and ride behind me." And the watchman reported, "The messenger reached them. But he is not coming back."
- 19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, "Thus the king says, 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Turn around and ride behind me."
- 20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously. Again the watchman reported, "He reached them. But he is not coming back. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously."
- 21 And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. Joram said, "Make ready." And they made ready his chariot. Then Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah set out, each in his chariot, and went to meet Jehu, and met him in the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.

- 22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many? When Joram saw Jehu, he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" He answered, "What peace can there be, so long as the whorings and the sorceries of your mother Jezebel are so many?"
- 23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah. Then Joram reined about and fled, saying to Ahaziah, "Treachery, O Ahaziah!"
- 24 And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and shot Joram between the shoulders, so that the arrow pierced his heart. He sank in his chariot.
- 25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him; Jehu said to Bidkar his aide, "Take him up and throw Him on the plot of ground belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. For remember, when You and I rode side by side behind Ahab his father, how the LORD uttered this oracle against Him:
- 26 Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD. 'As surely as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of His sons, declares the LORD, I will repay You on this plot of ground, declares the LORD.' Now therefore take Him up and throw Him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

- 27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there. When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu pursued him and said, "Shoot him also." And they shot him in the chariot at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there.
- 28 And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David. His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.
- 29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah began to reign over Judah.
- 30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it. And she painted her eyes and adorned her head and looked out the window.
- 31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? As Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it peace, you Zimri, murderer of your master?"
- 32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. He lifted up his face to the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.
- 33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. He said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down. And some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses. He trampled over her.
- 34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter. Then he went in and ate and drank. And he said, "See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter."

- 35

And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands.
- 36

Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

When they came back and told Him, He said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite: 'In the plot of ground at Jezreel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel,
- 37

And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

The corpse of Jezebel shall be as dung on the surface of the field in the plot at Jezreel, so that no one can say, This is Jezebel.' "

Jehu of Israel — 841–814 BC

Chapter 10

Jehu slaughtered all seventy of Ahab's sons and all his supporters, then destroyed the worshipers of Baal by luring them into the temple and massacring them. However, Jehu did not depart from the golden calves at Bethel and Dan; Hazael of Syria began to conquer Israel's territory.

And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,

Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of the city, to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying,
- 2

Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

"Now then, as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, fortified cities also, and weapons,

- 3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. Select the best and fittest of your master's sons and set him on his father's throne and fight for your master's house."
- 4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand? But they were greatly afraid and said, "the two kings could not stand before him. How then can we stand?"
- 5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes. So he who was over the palace household. He who was over the city, together with the elders and the guardians, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants. We will do all that you tell us. We will not make anyone king. Do whatever is good in your eyes."
- 6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up. Then he wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you are ready to obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time." Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were bringing them up.
- 7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel. When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and slaughtered them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.
- 8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning."

- 9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these? Then in the morning, when he went out, he stood and said to all the people, "You are innocent. It was I who conspired against my master and killed him, but who struck down all these?"
- 10 Know now that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake by his servant Elijah. Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what He said by His servant Elijah."
- 11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsfolks, and his priests, until he left him none remaining. So Jehu struck down all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, all his great men and his close friends and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
- 12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing house in the way, Then he set out and went to Samaria. On the way, when he was at the shearing house,
- 13 Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen. Jehu met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. He said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are the relatives of Ahaziah. We came down to visit the royal princes and the sons of the queen mother."
- 14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them. He said, "Take them alive." And they took them alive and slaughtered them at the pit of the shearing house, forty-two persons. He spared none of them.

- 15 And when he was departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. When he departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. And he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart true to my heart as mine is to yours?" And Jehonadab answered, "It is." Jehu said, "If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand. And Jehu took him up with him into the chariot.
- 16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot. He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So He had Him ride in his chariot.
- 17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake to Elijah. When He came to Samaria, He struck down all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had wiped them out, according to the word of the LORD that He spoke to Elijah.
- 18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much. Then Jehu assembled all the people and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much.
- 19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers and all his priests. Let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu did it with cunning in order to destroy the worshipers of Baal.
- 20 And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it. Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it.

- 21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another. Jehu sent throughout all Israel. All the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they entered the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other.
- 22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments. He said to him who was in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out the vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out the vestments for them.
- 23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only. Then Jehu went into the house of Baal with Jehonadab the son of Rechab. He said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search, and see that there is no servant of the LORD here among You, but only the worshipers of Baal."
- 24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him. Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside and said, "The man who allows any of those whom I give into your hands to escape shall forfeit his life."
- 25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu commanded the guard and the officers, "Go in and strike them down; let not a man escape." So when they put them to the sword, the guard and the officers cast them out and went into the inner room of the house of Baal,

- 26 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them. They brought out the pillar that was in the house of Baal and burned it.
- 27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day. They demolished the pillar of Baal, and demolished the house of Baal, and made it a latrine to this day.
- 28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel. Thus Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel.
- 29 Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan. But Jehu did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin—that is, the golden calves that were in Bethel and in Dan.
- 30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. The LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."
- 31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin. But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all His heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin.
- 32 In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel; In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel:
- 33 From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. From the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon, that is, Gilead and Bashan.

- 4 And the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son. But in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of the Carites and of the guard, and had them come to Him in the house of the LORD. And He made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD. He showed them the king's son.
- 5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house; He commanded them, "This is the thing that you shall do: one third of you, those who come off duty on the Sabbath and guard the king's house
- 6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down. (another third being at the gate Sur and a third at the gate behind the guards) shall guard the palace.

And whoever approaches the ranks is to be put to death. Be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in."
- 9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. The captains did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each captain took his men who were to come on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

- 10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD. The priest gave to the captains the spears and shields that had been King David's, which were in the house of the LORD.

- 12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king. Then he brought out the king's son and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony. Joash of Judah — 835–796 BC

| 3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. | Nevertheless, the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and made offerings on the high places. |
| 4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, | Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, the money for which each man is assessed—the money from the assessment of persons—and the money that a man's heart prompts him to bring into the house of the LORD, |
| 5 Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wheresoever any breach shall be found. | Let the priests take, each from His donor, and let them repair the house wherever any need of repairs is discovered." |
| 6 But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. | But by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had made no repairs on the house. |

- 7 Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.
- 8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.
- 9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.
- 10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.
- 11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,
- Then King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the house? Now therefore take no more money from your donors, but hand it over for the repair of the house."
- So the priests agreed that they would take no more money from the people, and that they would not repair the house.
- Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest and bored a hole in the lid of it and set it beside the altar on the right side as one entered the house of the LORD. And the priests who guarded the threshold put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.
- Whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's secretary and the high priest came up and they bagged and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.
- Then they would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. And they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the house of the LORD,

- 13 Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD: But there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, or any vessels of gold, or of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD,
- 14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD. For that was given to the workmen who were repairing the house of the LORD with it.
- 15 Moreover they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully. They did not ask for an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to pay out to the workmen, for they dealt honestly.
- 16 The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'. The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.
- 17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. At that time Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath and took it. But when Hazael set His face to go up against Jerusalem,

Jehoash of Israel — 798–782 BC

Jehoahaz and then Jehoash reigned over Israel, continuing in Jeroboam's sins, though the LORD showed Israel mercy. Elisha fell ill and died; even after death, a corpse thrown into his grave revived upon touching his bones.

| 1 | In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. | In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria. He reigned seventeen years. |
| 2 | And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom. | He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin; He did not depart from them. |
| 3 | And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, all their days. | The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. He gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael. |
| 4 | And Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. | Then Jehoahaz sought the favor of the LORD. The LORD listened to Him, for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Syria oppressed them. |
| 5 | (And the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime. | (Therefore the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians, and the people of Israel lived in their homes as formerly. |
| 6 | Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.) | Nevertheless, they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, which he made Israel to sin, but walked in them. The grove also remained in Samaria.) |

- 7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing. For there was not left to Jehoahaz an army of more than fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.
- 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did. His might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead. So Jehoahaz slept with his fathers. They buried him in Samaria, and Joash his son reigned in his place.
- 10 In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria. He reigned sixteen years.
- 11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked therein. He also did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he made Israel to sin. But He walked in them.
- 12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, and the might with which He fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?
- 13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

- 14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. Now when Elisha had fallen sick with the illness of which he was to die, Joash king of Israel went down to him and wept before him, saying, "My father, my father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"
- 15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows. And he took unto him bow and arrows. Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows.
- 16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. Then he said to the king of Israel, "Draw the bow," and he drew it. And Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands.
- 17 And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD'S deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them. He said, "Open the window eastward," and He opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot," and he shot. And he said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, the arrow of victory over Syria! For You shall fight the Syrians in Aphek until You have made an end of them."
- 18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed. He said, "Take the arrows," and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground with them." And he struck three times and stopped.
- 19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice. Then the man of God was angry with Him and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck down Syria until you had made an end of it. But now you will strike down Syria only three times."
- 20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. So Elisha died. They buried him. Now bands of Moabites used to invade the land in the spring of the year.

And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

As a man was being buried, a marauding band was seen and the man was thrown into the grave of Elisha, and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.
- 22

But Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

Now Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.
- 23

And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet.

But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them. He turned toward them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, nor has he cast them from His presence until now.
- 24

So Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his stead.

When Hazael king of Syria died, Ben-hadad His son became king in His place.
- 25

And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

Then Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again from Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities that He had taken from Jehoahaz his father in war. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

- 3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. But He walked in the way of the kings of Israel. He even burned His son as an offering, according to the despicable practices of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.
- 4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.
- 5 Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to wage war on Jerusalem. Come up and rescue me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me."

The king of Assyria marched up against Damascus and took it, carrying its people captive to Kir. He killed Rezin.
- 10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was at Damascus. And King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a model of the altar, and its pattern, exact in all its details.
- 11 And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. Uriah the priest built the altar; in accordance with all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Uriah the priest made it, before King Ahaz arrived from Damascus.
- 12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon. When the king came from Damascus, the king viewed the altar. Then the king drew near to the altar and went up on it
- 13 And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar. Burned his burnt offering and his grain offering and poured his drink offering and threw the blood of his peace offerings against the altar.

- 14 And he brought also the brasen altar, which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. The bronze altar that was before the LORD He removed from the front of the house, from the place between His altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of His altar.
- 15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to enquire by. King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering and the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land. THE ASSYRIAN PERIOD ENDS — 612 BC

For nearly three centuries Assyria has dominated the ancient Near East — its armies the most feared on earth, its capital Nineveh the largest city in the world. In 722 BC the Assyrians scattered the northern kingdom of Israel, dragging its ten tribes into exile. But now Nineveh itself has fallen — destroyed by Babylon and the Medes — and the empire that broke Israel lies in ruins. The chapter you are about to read recounts how the northern kingdom came to that end. A power vacuum opens across the world, and Babylon is rising to fill it.

Hoshea of Israel — 732–722 BC (last king of Israel)

Hoshea, the last king of Israel, was conquered by Shalmaneser of Assyria, and Samaria fell after a three-year siege. The people of Israel were carried into exile because they had forsaken the LORD and served other gods; foreign peoples were settled in their land.

- 8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made. Walked in the customs of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel, and in the customs that the kings of Israel had practiced.

They went after false idols and became false. They followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do as they did.

- 26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land. So the king of Assyria was told, "The nations that you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land. Therefore He has sent lions among them. They are killing them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land."
- 27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land. Then the king of Assyria commanded, "Send there one of the priests whom you carried away from there, and let him go and dwell there and teach them the law of the god of the land."

- 28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel and taught them how they should fear the LORD.
- 29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt. But every nation still made gods of its own and put them in the shrines of the high places that the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities in which they lived.

- 33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence. So they feared the LORD but also served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.
- 34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; To this day they do according to the former manner. They do not fear the LORD. They do not follow the statutes or the rules or the law or the commandment that the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel.

- 35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: The LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, "You shall not fear other gods or bow yourselves to them or serve them or sacrifice to them,
- 36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. But You shall fear the LORD, Who brought You out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm. You shall bow yourselves to Him, and to Him You shall sacrifice.
- 37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. The statutes and the rules and the law and the commandment that He wrote for You, You shall always be careful to do. You shall not fear other gods,
- 38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods. You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with You. You shall not fear other gods,
- 39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. But You shall fear the LORD Your God. He will deliver You out of the hand of all Your enemies."
- 40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. However, they would not listen. But they did according to their former manner.
- 41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day. So these nations feared the LORD and also served their carved images. Their children did likewise. Their children's children—as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

- 20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? In whom do you now trust, that you have rebelled against me?
- 21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him. You are trusting now in Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. - 9 And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house burnt he with fire. He burned the house of the LORD and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house He burned down.
- 10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about. All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

- 11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away. The rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the crowd, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile.
- 12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.
- 13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon. The pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried the bronze to Babylon.

- 17 The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work. The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and on it was a capital of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits. A latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, were all around the capital. And the second pillar had the same, with the latticework.

- 18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah the second priest and the three keepers of the threshold;
- 19 And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city: From the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and five men of the king's council who were found in the city. - 20 And Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah: Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
- 21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away out of their land. The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken into exile out of its land.
- 22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler. Over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, governor.

- 23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. Now when all the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah, namely, Ishmael the son of Netaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite.
- 24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you. Gedaliah swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid because of the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon. It will be well with you."
- 25 But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah. But in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Netaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck down Gedaliah and put him to death along with the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.
- 26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees. Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces arose and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.
- 27 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the year that he began to reign did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, graciously freed Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison.

1 Chronicles

Author: Ezra the priest, traditionally — compiling and editing court records, genealogical registers, and prophetic writings into a unified account for the returned exiles.

Date written: c. 450–430 BC.

Written to: The post-exilic community in Jerusalem, who had returned from Babylon and needed to reconnect with their heritage and their God.

Setting: The exiles have returned from Babylon but the nation is a shadow of its former self. The Chronicler writes to help them understand who they are — children of Abraham, heirs of David, stewards of the temple.

Where this sits historically: Written c. 450 BC during the Persian period after the return from exile, but retells David's reign (c. 1010–970 BC) as a priestly retrospective for the restoration community.

Contemporaries: Of writing — Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi — the post-exilic community under Persian rule. The events recounted parallel 2 Samuel.

Big themes:

- Genealogy as identity — the long genealogies of chapters 1–9 are not filler; they anchor the returned community to every generation from Adam forward

- David — 1 Chronicles is almost entirely devoted to David's reign, with particular focus on his preparations for the temple

- Worship — the organization of the Levites, singers, priests, and gatekeepers shows that proper worship is as important as military or political strength

- The ark — David's desire to bring the ark to Jerusalem and his care in doing it correctly dominates the middle chapters

- Divine election — God chose David, chose Jerusalem, chose the tribe of Judah; the Chronicler keeps this to the foreground

Key passages: 1 Chr 1:1; 17:11–14; 22:9–10; 28:9; 29:14

How it fits: Chronicles covers the same period as Samuel and Kings but was written after the exile with a different purpose: not to explain why Israel fell, but to give the restoration community a foundation for worship and hope. 1 Chronicles ends at David's death, with the temple project fully planned and handed to Solomon.

| 17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. | David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies, though my hands have done no wrong, may the God of our fathers see and rebuke it." |

- 18 Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. Then the Spirit came on Amasai, chief of the thirty. He said, "We are Yours, David, and with you, son of Jesse! Peace, peace to You, and peace to Your helpers, for Your God helps You." And David received them and made them commanders of raiding parties.
- 19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. Some of the men of Manasseh deserted to David when he came with the Philistines for the battle against Saul. Yet he did not help the Philistines, for the rulers of the Philistines took counsel and sent him away, saying, "He will desert to his master Saul at the cost of our heads."

- 38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. All these warriors, drawn up in battle order, came to Hebron with full intent to make David king over all Israel. Likewise, all the rest of Israel were of one mind to make David king.
- 39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them. They were there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had made preparation for them.

- 40 Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel. Also their neighbors, as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen — provisions of flour, cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep in abundance, for there was joy in Israel.

- 3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel? But Joab said, "May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord's servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should it be a cause of guilt for Israel?"
- 4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. But the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came back to Jerusalem.
- 5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. Joab gave the sum of the numbering of the people to David. In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah four hundred seventy thousand who drew the sword.
- 6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab. But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.
- 7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. But God was displeased with this thing. He struck Israel.
- 8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. David said to God, "I have sinned greatly in that I have done this thing. But now, please take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."
- 9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying, The LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,
- 10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee. "Go and say to David, 'Thus says the LORD, Three things I offer You; choose one of them, that I may do it to You.' "

- 11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Choose what You will:
- 12 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me. Either three years of famine, or three months of devastation by Your foes, with the sword of Your enemies overtaking You, or else three days of the sword of the LORD, pestilence on the land, with the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now decide what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."
- 13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man. Then David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man."
- 14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.
- 15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but as he was about to destroy it, the LORD saw and repented Him of the evil and said to the angel who was working destruction, "It is enough; now stay Your hand." And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

- 16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. David lifted his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, and in His hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.
- 17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued. David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be counted? It is I who have sinned and done great evil. But these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, let Your hand be against me and against my father's house. But do not let the plague be on Your people."
- 18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite. Now the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David to go up and raise an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
- 19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD. So David went up at Gad's word, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.
- 20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. Now Ornan turned and saw the angel. His four sons who were with him hid themselves. Ornan was threshing wheat.
- 21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David and went out from the threshing floor and paid homage to David with his face to the ground.

- 22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build on it an altar to the LORD — give it to me at its full price — that the plague may be averted from the people."
- 23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all. Then Ornan said to David, "Take it, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him. See, I give the oxen for the burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for the grain offering. I give it all."
- 24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. But King David said to Ornan, "No. But I will buy them for the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is Yours, nor offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing."
- 25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. So David paid Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the site.
- 26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. David built there an altar to the LORD and presented burnt offerings and peace offerings and called on the LORD. He answered Him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.
- 27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof. Then the LORD commanded the angel. He put his sword back into its sheath.
- 28 At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered Him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, He sacrificed there.

- 29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon. For the tent of the LORD that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon,
- 30 But David could not go before it to enquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD. But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for He was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

You shall not build a house to my name, because You have shed so much blood before me on the earth.
- 9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. A son shall be born to you who shall be a man of rest. - 11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee. Now, my son, the LORD be with You, so that You may succeed in building the house of the LORD Your God, as He has spoken concerning You.
- 12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God. Only may the LORD grant You discretion and understanding, that when He gives You charge over Israel You may keep the law of the LORD Your God.
- 13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed. Then You will prosper if You are careful to observe the statutes and the rules that the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Fear not; do not be dismayed.
- 14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto. With great pains I have provided for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing, for there is so much of it; timber and stone too I have provided. - 3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service. With the help of Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, David organized them according to their appointed duties in their service.

- 4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers. Since more leaders were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, they were organized accordingly: sixteen heads of fathers' houses from the sons of Eleazar, and eight from the sons of Ithamar.
- 5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar. They were organized by lot, one group as well as the other, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.

- 1 And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and the captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem. David assembled at Jerusalem all the leaders of Israel — the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands, the commanders of hundreds, the stewards of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the valiant men, to Jerusalem.
- 2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building: Then King David rose to his feet and said: "Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD and for the footstool of our God. I made preparations for building.
- 3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed blood. But God said to me, 'You may not build a house for my name, for You are a man of war and have shed blood.'
- 4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel: Yet the LORD God of Israel chose me from all my father's house to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah my father's house, and among my father's sons He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel.
- 5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. Of all my sons — for the LORD has given me many sons — He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

- 6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. He said to me, 'It is Solomon your son who shall build my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son. I will be his father.
- 7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day. I will establish his kingdom forever if he continues resolute in keeping my commandments and my rules, as he is today.'
- 8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever. Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek all the commandments of the LORD Your God, that You may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance to Your children after You forever.
- 9 And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever. You, Solomon my son, know the God of Your father and serve Him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If You seek Him, He will be found by You, but if You forsake Him, He will cast You off forever.
- 10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it. Take care now, for the LORD has chosen You to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong and do it."

- 13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD. For the divisions of the priests and of the Levites. All the work of the service in the house of the LORD; for all the vessels for the service in the house of the LORD.
- 14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service: He gave Him the weight of gold for all golden vessels for each service, the weight of silver vessels for each service,
- 15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof; and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick. The weight of the golden lampstands and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps. - 17 Also pure gold for the fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver: Pure gold for the forks, the basins, and the cups; for the golden bowls and the weight of each; for the silver bowls and the weight of each;

- 18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. For the altar of incense made of refined gold, and its weight; also His plan for the golden chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.
- 19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern. "All this He made clear to me in writing from the hand of the LORD, all the work to be done according to the plan."
- 20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. Then David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous and do it. Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, is with You. He will not leave You or forsake You, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished.
- 21 And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment. The divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God — every willing man who has skill for any kind of service is with You. The leaders and all the people will be fully at your commandment."

- 2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. So I have provided for the house of my God, so far as I was able, the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the bronze for the things of bronze, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, besides great quantities of onyx and stones for setting, antimony, colored stones, all sorts of precious stones, and marble.
- 3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, Moreover, in addition to all that I have provided for the holy house, I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, and because of my devotion to the house of my God I give it to the house of my God:
- 4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal: Three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, for overlaying the walls of the houses,
- 5 *The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating Himself today to the LORD?"

- 6 Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly, Then the leaders of fathers' houses made their freewill offerings, as did also the leaders of the tribes, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and the officers over the king's work.

- 8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.
- 9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. Then the people rejoiced because these had given willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.
- 10 Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever. Therefore David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly. David said: "Blessed are you, O LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever.
- 11 Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all. Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory and the majesty, for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is Yours. Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and You are exalted as head above all.

- 12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Both riches and honor come from You, and You rule over all. In Your hand are power and might, and in Your hand it is to make great and to give strength to all.
- 13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name. Now we thank You, our God, and praise Your glorious name.
- 14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer willingly like this? For all things come from You, and of Your own have we given You.
- 15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding. For we are strangers before You and sojourners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no abiding.
- 16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own. O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building You a house for Your holy name comes from Your hand and is all Your own.
- 17 *I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart I have freely offered all these things, and now I have seen Your people who are present here offering freely and joyously to You.
- 18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee: O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep forever such purposes and thoughts in the hearts of Your people, and direct their hearts toward You.

- 19 And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which I have made provision. Grant to Solomon my son a whole heart that he may keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, performing all, and that he may build the palace for which I have made provision."
- 20 And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king. Then David said to all the assembly, "Bless the LORD Your God." And all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and paid homage to the LORD and to the king.
- 21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel: They offered sacrifices to the LORD, and on the next day offered burnt offerings to the LORD — a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
- 22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest. They ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. 2 Chronicles

Author: Ezra the priest, traditionally — Jewish tradition identifies him as the compiler of Chronicles from earlier temple records, royal annals, and the writings of the prophets.

Date written: c. 450–430 BC, after the return from Babylon.

Written to: The returned exiles in Jerusalem, who needed to understand their identity and the legitimacy of their worship.

Setting: 2 Chronicles opens at the height of Solomon's glory and traces the kingdom of Judah from the temple's dedication to the fall of Jerusalem and the Babylonian exile — ending with Cyrus's decree of return.

Where this sits historically: Written c. 450 BC during the Persian period; covers Solomon through the exile (c. 970–586 BC) from a temple-centered, priestly viewpoint.

Contemporaries: Of writing — Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi. The events recounted parallel 1 and 2 Kings; the same prophets — Elijah, Elisha, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and others — are at work in the background.

Big themes:

- The temple — 2 Chronicles begins with its dedication and ends with its destruction; the temple is the spine of the whole narrative

- David's dynasty — the Chronicler traces only the southern kingdom (Judah), keeping the Davidic line in view as God's chosen vessel

- Revival and apostasy — the pattern of spiritual decline, divine judgment, and reformation repeats through king after king

- Prayer — decisive moments turn on whether the king and people cry out to God (Jehoshaphat, Hezekiah, Josiah)

- Exile as consequence — the fall of Jerusalem is presented not as political failure but as the inevitable result of persistent covenant breaking

Key passages: 2 Chr 7:14; 15:2; 20:12; 33:12–13; 36:22–23

How it fits: 2 Chronicles retells the same era covered by 1–2 Kings but with a priestly lens: temple worship, the Levites, and covenant faithfulness dominate the story. The final two verses deliberately echo the opening of Ezra, making Chronicles-Ezra-Nehemiah a continuous narrative of Israel's story from David to the restoration.

- 32 Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house; Likewise, when a foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, comes from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when He comes and prays toward this house,
- 33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, in order that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house that I have built is called by Your name.

- 34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name; If Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You shall send them. They pray to You toward this city that You have chosen and the house that I have built for Your name,
- 35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. Then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and maintain their cause.
- 36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near; If they sin against You — for there is no one who does not sin — and you are angry with them and give them to an enemy, so that they are carried away captive to a land far or near,
- 37 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly; Yet if they turn their heart in the land to which they have been carried captive and repent and plead with You in the land of their captivity, saying, 'We have sinned and have acted perversely and wickedly,'
- 38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name: If they repent with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity to which they were carried captive, and pray toward their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city that You have chosen, and the house that I have built for Your name,

| 1 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house. | As soon as Solomon finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. |
| 2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. | The priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house. |

- 3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever. When all the people of Israel saw the fire come down and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshipped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, "For He is good, for His mercy endures forever."
- 4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.
- 5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. King Solomon offered as a sacrifice twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
- 6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. The priests stood at their posts; the Levites also, with the instruments for music to the LORD that King David had made for giving thanks to the LORD — for His mercy endures forever — whenever David offered praises by their ministry; opposite them the priests sounded trumpets. All Israel stood.
- 7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat. Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD, for there He offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat.

- 8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt. At that time Solomon held the feast for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.
- 9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they had kept the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast seven days.
- 10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. On the twenty-third day of the seventh month He sent the people away to their homes, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David and to Solomon and to Israel his people.
- 11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected. Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house. All that Solomon had planned to do in the house of the LORD and in His own house He successfully accomplished.
- 12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice. Then the LORD appeared to Solomon in the night and said to him: "I have heard Your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.
- 13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or command the locust to devour the land, or send pestilence among my people,

- 14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. If my people who are called by my name humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land.
- 15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.
- 16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually. For now I have chosen and consecrated this house that my name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will be there for all time.
- 17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments; As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, doing according to all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my rules,
- 18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel. Then I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'You shall not lack a man to rule Israel.'
- 19 But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; But if you turn aside and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them,

Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.
- 21

And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?
- 22

And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.
- Then I will pluck you up from my land that I have given you, and this house that I have consecrated for my name, I will cast out of my sight. I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.
- This house that was exalted, everyone passing by will be astonished and say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?'
- Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods and worshiped them and served them. Therefore He has brought all this disaster on them.' "

- 8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were grown up with him, that stood before him. But he abandoned the counsel that the old men gave him and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.

Thus shall you say to them: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's thigh.'
- 11 For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. Now, whereas my father laid on you a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. But I will add to it. My father disciplined you with whips. But I will discipline you with scorpions."
- 15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of affairs brought about by God that the LORD might fulfill His word, which He spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 16 And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents. When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, "What portion have we in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each of you to your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David." So all Israel went to their tents.

- 13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts. The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel presented themselves to him from all their territories.
- 14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD: For the Levites left their common lands and their holdings and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons cast them out from serving as priests of the LORD,

I will not destroy them. But I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
- 8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries. Nevertheless, they shall be servants to Him, that they may know my service and the service of the kingdoms of the countries."

- 5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not. He assembled the priests and the Levites and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of Your God from year to year, and see that You act quickly." But the Levites did not act quickly.
- 6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief and said to him, "Why have You not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the congregation of Israel for the tent of testimony?"
- 7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim. For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also used all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD for the Baals.

- 11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's secretary and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the Levites, when they saw that there was much money in it, the king's secretary and the chief priest's officer would come and empty the chest and take it and return it to its place. Thus they did day after day, and collected money in abundance.

They restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it.

- 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made utensils for the house of the LORD, both for the service and for the burnt offerings, and dishes for incense and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD regularly all the days of Jehoiada.

He stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do You break the commandments of the LORD, so that You cannot prosper? Because You have forsaken the LORD, He has forsaken You.' "
- 21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. But they conspired against Him, and by command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.
- 22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it. Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him, but killed his son. And when He was dying, He said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"
- 23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. At the end of the year the army of the Syrians came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.
- 24 *For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

- When they had departed from him, leaving him severely wounded, his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. They buried him in the city of David. But they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.
- 26

And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.
- Those who conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonite, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabite.

- 2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not with a whole heart.
- 3 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. As soon as the royal power was firmly his, he killed his servants who had struck down the king his father.
- 4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin. But He did not put their children to death, according to what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "Fathers shall not die because of their children, nor children die because of their fathers, but each one shall die for his own sin."
- 5 Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. Then Amaziah assembled Judah and set them by fathers' houses under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those twenty years old and upward, and found that they were three hundred thousand choice men, fit for war, able to handle spear and shield.
- 6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. He hired also one hundred thousand mighty warriors from Israel for one hundred talents of silver.
- 7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim. But a man of God came to Him and said, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with You, for the LORD is not with Israel, with all these Ephraimites.

- 8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down. But if You go, be strong for the battle. Yet God shall make You fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to cast down."
- 9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this. Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give You much more than this."
- 10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger. Then Amaziah set apart the army that had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home again. And they became very angry with Judah and returned home in fierce anger.
- 11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. But Amaziah took courage and led his people out and went to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand men of Seir.
- 12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. The people of Judah captured another ten thousand alive and took them to the top of a rock and threw them down from the top of the rock. They were all dashed to pieces.
- 13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Bethhoron, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil. But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, not letting them go with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down three thousand people in them and took much plunder.

- 14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. After Amaziah came from striking down the Edomites, he brought the gods of the men of Seir and set them up as His gods and worshiped them, making offerings to them.
- 15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? Therefore the LORD was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have You sought the gods of a people who did not deliver their own people from Your hand?"
- 16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel. But as he was speaking, the king said to him, "Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?" So the prophet stopped, but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."

- 18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle. Joash king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, "A thistle on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' and a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thistle."

- 19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee? You say, 'See, I have struck down Edom,' and your heart has lifted you up in boastfulness. But now stay at home. Why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"
- 20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. But Amaziah would not listen, for it was of God, in order that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought the gods of Edom.
- 21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belongeth to Judah. So Joash king of Israel went up. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
- 22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent. Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his home.
- 23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem for four hundred cubits, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.
- 24 And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obededom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. He seized all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Now consecrate yourselves, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of Your fathers, and carry out the filth from the holy place.
- 6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God. They have forsaken Him and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD and turned their backs.
- 7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. They also shut the doors of the vestibule and put out the lamps and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.

- 8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes. Therefore the wrath of the LORD came on Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as You see with Your own eyes.
- 9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. For our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.
- 10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us.
- 11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense. My sons, do not now be negligent, for the LORD has chosen You to stand in His presence, to minister to Him and to be His ministers and make offerings to Him."
- 12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah: Then the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites. Of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel. Of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;

- 16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron. The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it. They brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it and carried it out to the brook Kidron.
- 17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. They began to consecrate on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. Then for eight days they consecrated the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.
- 18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof. Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the bread of the Presence and all its utensils.
- 19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. All the vessels that King Ahaz discarded during his reign when he was faithless, we have made ready and consecrated. They are before the altar of the LORD."
- 20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. Then Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the officials of the city and went up to the house of the LORD.

- 21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And He commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.
- 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and threw it against the altar. And they slaughtered the rams and their blood was thrown against the altar. And they slaughtered the lambs and their blood was thrown against the altar.
- 23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them: Then the male goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly. They laid their hands on them,
- 24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. The priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.
- 25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets. He stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the commandment of David and of Gad the king's seer and of Nathan the prophet, for the commandment was from the LORD through His prophets.
- 26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

- 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD began also, and the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David king of Israel.
- 28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.
- 29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped.
- 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness. They bowed down and worshiped.
- 31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings. Then Hezekiah said, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come near; bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings. All who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

- 32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.
- 33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. The consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.
- 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. But the priests were too few and could not flay all the burnt offerings, so until other priests had consecrated themselves, their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was finished — for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in consecrating themselves.
- 35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. Besides the great number of burnt offerings, there was the fat of the peace offerings, and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.
- 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly. Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had prepared the people, for the thing came about suddenly.

And the people took confidence from the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.
- 9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying, After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria, who was besieging Lachish with all his forces, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,

- 10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem? "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what are you trusting, that you endure the siege in Jerusalem?
- 11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when He tells You, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?
- 12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, "Before one altar you shall worship, and on it you shall make your offerings"?
- 13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand? Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to deliver their lands out of my hand?
- 14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? Who among all the gods of those nations that my fathers devoted to destruction was able to deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?
- 15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand? Now, therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver His people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand!"

- 16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. His servants said still more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.
- 17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. He wrote letters to cast contempt on the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who have not delivered their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his people from my hand."
- 18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. They shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.
- 19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man. They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as they spoke of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.
- 20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. Then Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this and cried to heaven.
- 21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword. The LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to His own land. And when He came into the house of His god, some of His own sons struck Him down there with the sword.

- 22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all His enemies. He provided for them on every side.
- 23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. Many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from that time onward.
- 24 In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign. In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD. He answered Him and gave Him a sign.
- 25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. But Hezekiah did not make return according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore wrath came upon him and Judah and Jerusalem.
- 26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah. But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both He and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.
- 27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. He made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of desirable objects;
- 28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. Storehouses also for the yield of grain, wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds.

- 29

Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.
- He likewise provided cities for himself and flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very great possessions.
- 30

This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
- This same Hezekiah closed the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
- 31

Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.
- So in the matter of the envoys of the princes of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been done in the land, God left Him to himself, in order to test Him and to know all that was in His heart.
- 32

Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
- Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
- 33

And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.
- Hezekiah slept with his fathers. They buried him in the upper part of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Chapter 33

Manasseh reigned fifty-five years and committed the worst abominations of any king, rebuilding the high places and setting up idols in the temple. God allowed him to be captured by Assyria; in his affliction he repented, and God restored him. His son Amon reigned wickedly and was assassinated.

Josiah of Judah — 640–609 BC

Chapter 34

Josiah began to seek the LORD as a boy and in his twelfth year purged Judah of idols. During temple repairs the Book of the Law was found; Josiah tore his clothes, consulted the prophetess Huldah, and renewed the covenant before the LORD.

- 1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign. He reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.
- 2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left.
- 3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the groves, and the carved and the molten images.

- 4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. They broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence. He cut down the images that were on high above them. He broke in pieces the groves and the carved images and the molten images, made dust of them, and scattered it over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.
- 5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.
- 6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about. In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around,
- 7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem. He broke down the altars and the groves and beat the graven images into powder and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.
- 8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. Now in the eighteenth year of His reign, when He had purged the land and the house, He sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD His God.

- 9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem. They came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the gatekeepers, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house: They gave it to the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. And the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD gave it for repairing and restoring the house.
- 11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. They gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, and timber for binders and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.
- 12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. The men did the work faithfully. Over them were set Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to have oversight. The Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music,
- 13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters. Were over the burden-bearers and directed all who did work in every kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.

- 14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. While they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given through Moses.
- 15 And Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan. Then Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.
- 16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it. Shaphan brought the book to the king, and further reported to the king, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.
- 17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD and have given it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."
- 18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it before the king.
- 19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.
- 20 And the king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, The king commanded Hilkiyah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,

- 21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book. "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."
- 22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect. So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe — she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter — and they spoke to her to that effect.

■ NAME NOTE — Huldah (HUL-duh) — "weasel" — A prophetess in Jerusalem during the reign of King Josiah. When the Book of the Law was discovered in the temple, the king's officials consulted her rather than Jeremiah or Zephaniah. She confirmed that God's judgment would come upon Judah for its unfaithfulness, but that Josiah would be spared because of his tender heart.

You need not carry it on Your shoulders. Now serve the LORD Your God and His people Israel. |
| 4 | And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. | Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses by your divisions, following the written directions of David king of Israel and the written directions of Solomon his son. |
| 5 | And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites. | Stand in the holy place according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of your brothers the lay people, and according to the division of the Levites by fathers' house. |
| 6 | So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. | Slaughter the Passover lamb and consecrate yourselves, and prepare for Your brothers, to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses." |

- 7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. Then Josiah contributed to the lay people, as Passover offerings for all who were present, lambs and young goats from the flock to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possessions.
- 8 And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. His officials contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and three hundred bulls.
- 9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen. Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand lambs and five hundred bulls.
- 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment. When the service had been prepared for, the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command.
- 11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them. They slaughtered the Passover lamb, and the priests threw the blood that they received from them while the Levites flayed the animals.

- 12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. They set aside the burnt offerings that they might distribute them according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the bulls.
- 13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people. They roasted the Passover lamb with fire according to the rule. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the lay people.
- 14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat parts until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
- 15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. The singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. The gatekeepers were at each gate. They did not need to depart from their service, for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.
- 16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. So all the service of the LORD was prepared that day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

- 17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. The people of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.
- 18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. No Passover like it had been kept in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as was kept by Josiah, and the priests and the Levites. All Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.
- 20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him.
- 21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. But Neco sent envoys to him, saying, "What have we to do with each other, king of Judah? I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with which I am at war. And God has commanded me to hurry. Cease opposing God, Who is with me, lest He destroy you."
- 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. Nevertheless, Josiah did not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to fight in the plain of Megiddo.

- 23

And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

The archers shot King Josiah. And the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded."
- 24

His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

So his servants took him out of the chariot and carried him in his second chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. And he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

Jeremiah also uttered a lament for Josiah. All the singing men and singing women have spoken of Josiah in their laments to this day. They made these a rule in Israel; they are written in the Laments.
- 26

Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD,

Now the rest of the acts of Josiah. His good deeds according to what is written in the Law of the LORD,
- 27

And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

His acts, from first to last, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah each reigned over Judah in succession, doing evil and ignoring the prophets. Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the temple and carried Judah into exile in Babylon; the land rested seventy years until Cyrus of Persia decreed the return.

THE PERSIAN PERIOD BEGINS — 538 BC

Babylon has fallen to Cyrus the Persian without a single battle — the city taken in a night while Belshazzar feasted. In his first year as king of the new empire, Cyrus issues a decree allowing the Jews to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple — exactly as the prophet Isaiah had foretold, naming Cyrus by name two centuries before he was born (Isaiah 44:28; 45:1). The seventy years of exile, measured out by Jeremiah, are ending. Persia will reign over the known world for the next two hundred years, and the Old Testament closes inside its borders.

Ezra

Author: Ezra the priest, traditionally — Jewish and Christian tradition consistently names him as the author of both Ezra and Nehemiah, which were originally a single scroll.

Date written: c. 457–440 BC, compiled from official Persian records, letters, and Ezra's personal memoirs.

Written to: The Jewish community in Jerusalem and the returned exiles, to establish the legitimacy of the restoration and its leadership.

Setting: The Babylonian exile is over. Cyrus the Great has issued his decree allowing the Jews to return. Over roughly eighty years, two waves of exiles come back to Jerusalem — the first under Zerubbabel, the second under Ezra himself.

Where this sits historically: c. 538–458 BC, the early Persian period; Cyrus the Great's decree (538 BC) opens the book, and Ezra's own arrival under Artaxerxes I (458 BC) closes it.

Contemporaries: The prophets Haggai and Zechariah at the temple rebuild (520 BC); Daniel still alive in early years; Nehemiah arrives in Jerusalem soon after Ezra; Persia ruled by Cyrus, Darius I, Xerxes, and Artaxerxes I across the span.

Big themes:

- Restoration — God keeps His promises; the seventy years of exile end exactly as Jeremiah prophesied

- The temple — rebuilding the house of God is the central act of the return and faces fierce opposition

- The word of God — Ezra's ministry is defined by reading, studying, and teaching the law

- Separation — the returned community must not intermarry with the surrounding peoples; the purity of the covenant line matters

- Persian sovereignty — God works through pagan kings (Cyrus, Darius, Artaxerxes) to accomplish His purposes

Key passages: Ezra 1:1–3; 3:11; 6:14; 7:10; 9:6

How it fits: Ezra is the direct sequel to 2 Chronicles — the last verse of Chronicles and the first verses of Ezra overlap. The book bridges the gap between captivity and the restoration community. Nehemiah continues the story, and together the two books complete the OT historical narrative.

Chapter 1

In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, the LORD stirred his spirit to decree that the Jews could return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple. Cyrus also returned the gold and silver vessels Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the house of God.

Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

■ NAME NOTE — Cyrus (SY-rus) — "sun" or "throne" — Cyrus the Great, founder of the Persian Empire, who conquered Babylon in 539 BC. God called him by name through Isaiah (44:28, 45:1) over a century before his birth. He issued the decree allowing the Jewish exiles to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple, fulfilling Jeremiah's prophecy.

- 11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. Also I make a decree: if anyone alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of his house. Being set up, let him be hanged on it. His house shall be made a dunghill.

- 12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed. May the God Who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who shall put out a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God that is in Jerusalem. I Darius make a decree; let it be done with all diligence."

- 19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. On the fourteenth day of the first month, the returned exiles kept the Passover.
- 20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were clean. So they slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the returned exiles, for their fellow priests, and for themselves.
- 21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, It was eaten by the people of Israel who had returned from exile, and also by everyone who had joined them and separated Himself from the uncleanness of the peoples of the land to worship the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel. They kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, for the LORD had made them joyful and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, so that he aided them in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

As I reviewed the people and the priests, I found there none of the sons of Levi.
- 16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of insight.

- 18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; By the good hand of our God on us, they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, son of Israel, namely Sherebiah with His sons and kinsmen, eighteen;

- 21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.
- 22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, "The hand of our God is for good on all who seek Him, and the power of His wrath is against all who forsake Him."
- 23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us. So we fasted and implored our God for this. He listened to our entreaty.

- 25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered: I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God that the king and his counselors and his lords and all Israel there present had offered.

- 27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. Twenty bowls of gold worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of fine bright bronze as precious as gold.

- 29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. Guard them and keep them until You weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites and the heads of fathers' houses in Israel at Jerusalem, within the chambers of the house of the LORD."
- 30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God. So the priests and the Levites took over the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.

- 33 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites; On the fourth day, within the house of our God, the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed into the hands of Meremoth the priest, son of Uriah, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them were the Levites, Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui.
- 34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time. The whole was counted and weighed, and the weight of everything was recorded.

And the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass."
- 3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished. As soon as I heard this, I tore my garment and my cloak and pulled hair from my head and beard and sat appalled.
- 4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice. Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away, gathered to me while I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.
- 5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, At the evening sacrifice I rose from my fasting, with my garment and my cloak torn, and fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God,
- 6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. Saying: "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to You, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.
- 7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. From the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt. And for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as it is today.

- 8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. But now for a little space grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

- 12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. Therefore do not give Your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters for Your sons, and never seek their peace or prosperity, that You may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to Your children forever.'

- 11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. Now then make confession to the LORD, the God of Your fathers and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."
- 12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "It is so; we must do as You have said.

It is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a task for one day or for two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.

Nehemiah

Author: Nehemiah, primarily — large sections are written in first-person memoir. Ezra the priest likely compiled or edited the final form, as Ezra-Nehemiah was originally one scroll.

Date written: c. 432–420 BC, after Nehemiah's second term as governor concluded.

Written to: The Jewish community in Jerusalem and the diaspora, to record the completion of the restoration under Nehemiah's leadership.

Setting: Nearly a century after the first exiles returned under Zerubbabel. Jerusalem's temple has been rebuilt, but the city walls lie in ruins — leaving the people defenseless and the city dishonored. Nehemiah, cupbearer to the Persian king Artaxerxes, receives word of this and obtains royal permission to go and rebuild.

Where this sits historically: The events fall in 445–433 BC under the Persian king Artaxerxes I (Longimanus), with Sanballat governing Samaria and Tobiah ruling in Ammon as Nehemiah's chief opponents.

Contemporaries: Ezra was teaching the law in Jerusalem, Malachi was prophesying against priestly corruption and mixed marriages, and the Persian empire stretched from India to the Aegean under Artaxerxes.

Big themes:

- Prayer and action — Nehemiah's response to every crisis is first to pray, then to act; the book is saturated with brief, urgent prayers

- Opposition — Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem use ridicule, threat, conspiracy, and compromise to stop the work; Nehemiah refuses every distraction

- The wall — rebuilding Jerusalem's walls in fifty-two days is presented as an act of God, not merely human effort

- Covenant renewal — Ezra reads the law to the assembled people (ch. 8), and the nation makes a written commitment to keep it

- Persistent reform — Nehemiah's second term (ch. 13) shows how quickly the community reverts; reform must be continually renewed

Key passages: Neh 1:5–6; 2:17–18; 4:14; 6:15–16; 8:8

How it fits: Nehemiah completes the restoration narrative that began in Ezra. Together, Ezra-Nehemiah brings the OT historical books to their close. After Nehemiah, the OT falls silent for four hundred years until John the Baptist appears. Malachi, written in this same era, ends with the promise of Elijah's return.

Chapter 1

Nehemiah, cupbearer to King Artaxerxes in Susa, received word from his brother Hanani that Jerusalem’s walls were broken down and its gates burned. Nehemiah wept, fasted, and prayed, confessing Israel’s sins and asking God for favor before the king.

■ NAME NOTE — Nehemiah (nee-heh-MY-ah) — "the LORD comforts" — Son of Hachaliah, cupbearer to the Persian king Artaxerxes. On hearing that Jerusalem's walls lay in ruins, he obtained royal permission to rebuild them. A man of prayer and decisive action, he served as governor of Judah.

Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with some men from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had survived the exile, and about Jerusalem.
- 3

And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

They said to me, "The survivors who are left from the exile in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for several days, fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

I said, "LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, Who keeps His covenant and mercy with those who love Him and keep His commandments —

- 6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, to hear the prayer Your servant prays before You day and night for the people of Israel. I confess the sins we have committed against You — yes, I and my father's house have sinned.
- 7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. We have acted very corruptly against you. We have not kept the commandments, statutes, and judgments you commanded your servant Moses.
- 8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: Please remember the word you commanded your servant Moses: 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;
- 9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, then even if your exiles are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen for my name to dwell.'
- 10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. These are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power and your strong hand.

- 11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer. O Lord, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight to fear your name. Give your servant success today, and grant him favor in the presence of this man." For I was the king's cupbearer.

Chapter 2

The king noticed Nehemiah's sadness and granted him letters and an escort to go to Jerusalem and rebuild the walls. Nehemiah inspected the ruined walls by night and rallied the people to build, despite the mockery of Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem.

- 1 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, wine was before him. I took up the wine and gave it to the king. I had never before been sad in his presence.

■ NAME NOTE — Artaxerxes (ar-tah-ZERK-seez) — "great warrior" — Artaxerxes I Longimanus, king of Persia c. 465–424 BC. He authorized both Ezra's mission (Ezra 7) and Nehemiah's governorship to rebuild Jerusalem's walls. His decree is the basis for the prophetic timeline of Daniel 9:25.

- 2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, So the king said to me, "Why is your countenance sad, since you are not sick? This can only be sadness of heart." Then I was very much afraid.
- 3 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my countenance not be sad, when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

- 4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. The king said to me, "What do you want?" So I prayed to the God of heaven,
- 5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, please send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, so that I may rebuild it."
- 6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. The king said to me (with the queen sitting beside him), "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" It pleased the king to send me. I gave him a time.
- 7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; I also said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River, so that they will let me pass through until I reach Judah;
- 8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy." The king granted these requests, for the good hand of my God was on me.
- 9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. Then I came to the governors of the region beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officers and horsemen with me.

- 10

When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.
- When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard this, it troubled them greatly that someone had come to seek the welfare of the people of Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Sanballat (san-BAL-at) — "Sin (the moon-god) has given life" — Governor of Samaria, a Horonite (from Beth-horon). The chief opponent of Nehemiah's rebuilding project, who used mockery, threats, conspiracy, and false accusations to try to stop the work.

■ NAME NOTE — Tobiah (toh-BY-ah) — "the LORD is good" — An Ammonite official allied with Sanballat against Nehemiah. Despite his Israelite-sounding name, he opposed the rebuilding and later infiltrated the temple itself, being given a chamber by the priest Eliashib (13:4-7).

Are you rebelling against the king?"
- 20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem. I replied to them, "The God of heaven will give us success. We His servants will rise up and build. But you have no share, no right, and no claim in Jerusalem."

Chapter 4

Sanballat and Tobiah mocked the rebuilding and then plotted a military attack; Nehemiah armed the workers and set half the men as guards. The builders worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other, and the work continued day and night.

- 2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? saying before his associates and the army of Samaria, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish it in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubble — burned ones at that?"
- 3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. Tobiah the Ammonite was nearby and said, "Whatever they are building — even a fox could break down their stone wall!"
- 4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: Hear us, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.
- 5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders. Cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.
- 6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work. So we rebuilt the wall, and the whole wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.
- 7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of Jerusalem's walls was progressing and the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.
- 8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and throw it into confusion.

- 9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. But we prayed to our God and set a guard as protection against them day and night.
- 10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing; there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall."
- 11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. Our enemies said, "Before they know it or see us, we will be right among them and kill them and put an end to the work."
- 12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. When the Jews who lived near them came to us, they kept warning us ten times over, "From all the places where they live they will attack us."
- 13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. So I stationed men in the lower parts of the space behind the wall, in open places. I stationed them by families, with their swords, spears, and bows.
- 14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. After looking things over I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives, and your homes."
- 15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. When our enemies heard that we knew their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to His own work.

- 16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The officers stood behind the whole house of Judah
- 17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. who were building on the wall. Those who carried loads did their work with one hand holding the load and the other hand holding a weapon.
- 18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. Each builder wore his sword at his side while he worked. The man who sounded the trumpet stayed close to me.
- 19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "The work is extensive and spread out. We are widely separated on the wall, one far from another.
- 20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us."
- 21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. So we carried on the work with half of the men holding spears, from the break of dawn until the stars came out.
- 22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. At that time I also told the people, "Let every man and his servant stay inside Jerusalem at night, so that they can stand guard by night and work by day."

So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.
- So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who were with me ever took off our clothes, except every one put them off for washing.

Chapter 5

The people cried out against the wealthy nobles who were charging interest and seizing their lands and children during the famine. Nehemiah rebuked the nobles, made them return what they had taken, and set an example by refusing the governor's food allowance for twelve years.

And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.
- Now there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their fellow Jews.
- 2

For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.
- Some were saying, "We, our sons and daughters, are many. We must get grain so that we can eat and stay alive."
- 3

Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.
- Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields, vineyards, and houses to get grain because of the famine."
- 4

There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.
- Still others said, "We have had to borrow money for the king's tax on our fields and vineyards."

- 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards. "Now our flesh is the same as our brothers' flesh; our children are the same as theirs. Yet we are forcing our sons and daughters into slavery. Some of our daughters are already enslaved. We are powerless to help, for our fields and vineyards now belong to others."
- 6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. When I heard their outcry and these words, I was very angry.
- 7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. After thinking it over, I confronted the nobles and officials and said to them, "You are charging interest on loans to your own brothers!" So I called a great assembly to deal with them.
- 8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer. I said to them, "We, as best we could, have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to the nations. But now you are selling your own brothers. They must be bought back by us?" They were silent and could find nothing to say.
- 9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, so that the reproach of our enemies will not fall on us?"
- 10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury. "I myself, my brothers, and my servants are also lending money and grain to the people. But let us stop this practice of charging interest.

- 11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, and also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. Please give back to them this very day their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses, and also the interest you are charging them — a hundredth of the money, grain, new wine, and olive oil."
- 12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. They replied, "We will restore it and will require nothing more from them. We will do exactly as you say." So I called the priests and made the nobles and officials swear an oath to do what they had promised.
- 13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise. I also shook out my garment and said, "In this way may God shake out every man from his house and from his property who does not keep this promise. May He be shaken out and emptied!" And all the assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. The people did as they had promised.
- 14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. Furthermore, from the day I was appointed as their governor in the land of Judah — from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years — neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.
- 15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. The earlier governors who preceded me had placed heavy burdens on the people, taking forty shekels of silver from them for food and wine. Their subordinates also lorded it over the people. But I did not act this way, out of the fear of God.

Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem tried four times to lure Nehemiah to a meeting to harm him, then hired a false prophet to frighten him into hiding in the temple. Nehemiah refused every trap, and the wall was finished in fifty-two days.

But they thought to do me mischief.* Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me saying, "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me.
- 3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? So I sent messengers to them saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"
- 4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. They sent the same message to me four times, and each time I sent the same reply.
- 5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.
- 6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. In it was written: "It is reported among the nations — and Geshem confirms it — that you and the Jews are planning to rebel, and that is why you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you intend to become their king.
- 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. You have also appointed prophets to proclaim about you in Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now this report will go to the king. So come, let us meet together."
- 8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. I sent a reply saying, "Nothing of what you say has happened. You are inventing it all yourself."

- 9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands. For they were all trying to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will drop from the work. It will not be done." But now, O God, strengthen my hands.
- 10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. Then I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his home. He said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, for they are coming to kill you — indeed, tonight they are coming to kill you."
- 11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Could someone like me enter the temple to save his life? I will not go in."
- 12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. I realized that God had not sent him, but that He had spoken this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired Him.
- 13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. He was hired to frighten me, so that I would act in this way and sin. Then they could give me a bad reputation and discredit me.
- 14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear. Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these deeds of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to intimidate me.
- 15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.

- 2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, for he was a faithful man who feared God more than many.
- 3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun is hot. While the guards are still on duty, let them shut and bar the doors. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own homes."
- 4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

I found the genealogical record of those who had come up in the first return. I found written in it:
- 6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town:

Chapter 8

Ezra read the Book of the Law aloud to all the people from morning until midday at the Water Gate, and the Levites helped the people understand it. The people wept when they heard the law, but Nehemiah told them to rejoice; they then celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles.

Cross-References:

- 1 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

All the people gathered together as one in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.
- 2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly — both men and women and all who could understand — on the first day of the seventh month.
- 3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

He read from it in the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those who could understand. All the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.
- 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. Standing beside him on his right were Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.
- 5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above them. When he opened it, all the people stood up.

- 6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Ezra praised the LORD, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" lifting up their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.
- 7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah — the Levites — helped the people understand the Law while the people stood in their places.
- 8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. They read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining it so that the people could understand what was being read.
- 9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD Your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.
- 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength. Nehemiah said to them, "Go, eat rich food and drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is Your strength."
- 11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. The Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for this day is holy; do not grieve."

- 12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them. Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions and celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.
- 13 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. On the second day the heads of families of all the people, together with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to study the words of the Law.
- 14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: They found written in the Law that the LORD had commanded through Moses that the people of Israel should live in shelters during the feast of the seventh month,
- 15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. that they should proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hill country and bring back branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make shelters," as it is written.
- 16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. So the people went out and brought branches and built shelters for themselves — each on His rooftop, in His courtyard, in the courts of the house of God, in the square at the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

| 17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness. 18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner. | The whole assembly of those who had returned from exile built shelters and lived in them. The people of Israel had not done this from the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day. And there was very great rejoicing. Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day held a solemn assembly, according to the rule. |

The Israelites assembled in fasting and sackcloth and confessed their sins. The Levites led a long prayer recounting God's faithfulness from Abraham through the exodus, the wilderness, the conquest, the judges, and the exile, acknowledging that God was just in all that had come upon them.

- 4 Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God. Standing on the Levites' platform were Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani. They cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God.
- 5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. The Levites — Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah — said, "Stand up and bless the LORD Your God from everlasting to everlasting. Blessed be Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.
- 6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. You are the LORD, You alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You preserve all of them. The host of heaven worships You.
- 7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; You are the LORD God, Who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and gave Him the name Abraham.
- 8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: You found His heart faithful before You and made a covenant with Him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites — to give it to His descendants. You have kept Your promise, for You are righteous.
- 9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea; You saw the affliction of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry by the Red Sea.

- 10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants, and against all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly they treated our ancestors. You made a name for yourself that endures to this day.
- 11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. You divided the sea before them, so they passed through it on dry ground. But their pursuers you hurled into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.
- 12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. You led them with a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night to light the way they were to take.
- 13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments: You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments.
- 14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant: You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commandments, statutes, and a law through your servant Moses.
- 15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them. You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger and brought forth water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in and possess the land you had sworn with your hand to give them.

- 16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, But they and our ancestors acted arrogantly. They became stubborn and did not obey your commandments.
- 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. They refused to listen and did not remember the wonders you performed among them. They stiffened their necks and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return to slavery. But you are a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, longsuffering and of great kindness, and you did not abandon them.
- 18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; Even when they made for themselves a golden calf and said, 'This is your God Who brought you up out of Egypt,' and committed great blasphemies,
- 19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Yet you in your great mercy did not abandon them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not stop leading them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night to light their way.
- 20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water when they were thirsty.
- 21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. For forty years you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

- 22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. You gave them kingdoms and peoples and divided the lands among them. They took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan.
- 23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven and brought them into the land you had told their ancestors to enter and possess.
- 24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. So their descendants went in and possessed the land. You subdued the Canaanites before them and handed their kings and the peoples of the land over to them, to do with as they pleased.
- 25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness. They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. They ate and were satisfied and became well-fed and lived in luxury in your great goodness.
- 26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. But they were disobedient and rebelled against you. They threw your law behind their backs and killed your prophets who had warned them to return to you. They committed terrible blasphemies.

- 27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. So you handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they cried out to you in the time of their suffering, you heard from heaven, and according to your great mercy you gave them deliverers who rescued them from the hands of their enemies.
- 28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; But as soon as they had relief, they did evil again before you. So you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies. They ruled over them. Then when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven and delivered them many times in your mercy.
- 29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. You warned them to return to your law. But they acted arrogantly and did not obey your commandments. They sinned against your ordinances — by which a person will live if he does them. They stubbornly turned their backs, stiffened their necks, and would not listen.
- 30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. For many years you bore with them. You warned them by your Spirit through your prophets, yet they would not listen. So you handed them over to the peoples of the surrounding lands.
- 31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. Yet in your great mercy you did not utterly destroy them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.

- 32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. Now therefore, our God — the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, Who keeps covenant and mercy — do not let all the hardship seem small to you that has come upon us: our kings, our officials, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors. All your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.
- 33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly: You have been righteous in all that has come upon us, for you have acted faithfully and we have acted wickedly.
- 34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. Our kings, our officials, our priests, and our ancestors have not kept your law or paid attention to your commandments and warnings you gave them.
- 35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. Even in their own kingdom, despite all your great goodness toward them and despite the broad and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you and did not turn from their wicked ways.
- 36 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: See, we are slaves today — slaves in the land you gave to our ancestors so they could eat its fruit and its good gifts.

Chapter 10

The leaders, Levites, and priests sealed a written covenant, and the people bound themselves by oath to walk in God’s law. They pledged not to intermarry with surrounding peoples, to keep the Sabbath, to support the temple with the yearly third-of-a-shekel tax, and to bring their tithes and firstfruits.
