- 60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, But they found none, even though many false witnesses came forward. Finally two came forward
- 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. and said, "This fellow declared, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"
- 62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? Then the high priest stood up and said to Him, "Are You not going to answer? What is this testimony these men are bringing against You?"
- 63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. But Jesus was silent. The high priest said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God."
- 64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Jesus said to Him, "You have said it. But I tell You: From now on You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."
- 65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. Then the high priest tore His clothes and said, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look — now You have heard the blasphemy.
- 66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. What do You think?" "He deserves death," they answered.
- 67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, Then they spit in His face and struck Him with their fists. Others slapped Him

- 68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee? and said, "Prophecy to us, Christ! Who hit You?"
- 69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee. Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came to Him and said, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."
- 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. But He denied it before them all. "I don't know what You are talking about," he said.
- 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. Then He went out to the gateway, where another servant girl saw Him and said to the people there, "This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth."
- 72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man. He denied it again, with an oath: "I do not know the man!"
- 73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. After a little while, those standing there came up to Peter and said, "Surely you are one of them — your accent gives you away."
- 74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew. Then he began to call down curses, and he swore to them, "I do not know the man!" Immediately a rooster crowed.
- 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly. Then Peter remembered the words Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, You will deny Me three times." He went outside and wept bitterly.

Words in this chapter:

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Caiaphas (KY-ah-fas) — The Jewish high priest during Jesus's trial — he declared it better for one man to die for the nation; he unwittingly prophesied Christ's death for all people.

Gethsemane (geth-SEM-ah-nee) — A garden at the foot of the Mount of Olives — the place where Jesus prayed the night of His betrayal; his name means 'olive press.'

Chapter 27

Judas, filled with remorse, returns the thirty pieces of silver and hangs himself. Jesus is tried before Pontius Pilate, scourged, mocked by the soldiers, and crucified at Golgotha. He cries out to God, gives up His spirit, and is buried in the tomb of Joseph of Arimathaea.

| 1 | When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: | Early in the morning, all the chief priests and elders of the people made a plan to have Jesus put to death. |
| 2 | And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor. | They bound Him, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pontius Pilate, the governor. |
| 3 | Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, | When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, He was filled with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders. |
| 4 | Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. | "I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood." "What is that to us?" they replied. "That is Your responsibility." |
| 5 | And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself. | So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. |

- 6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money."
- 7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners.
- 8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day.
- 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on Him by the people of Israel,
- 10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."
- 11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked Him, "Are You the king of the Jews?" "You have said so," Jesus replied.
- 12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. When He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer.
- 13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee? Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear the testimony they are bringing against You?"
- 14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly. But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge — to the great amazement of the governor.
- 15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would. Now it was the governor's custom at the feast to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd.

- 16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. At that time they had a notable prisoner called Barabbas.
- 17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to You: Barabbas, or Jesus Who is called Christ?"
- 18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him. For He knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to Him.
- 19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him a message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of Him."
- 20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.
- 21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas. "Which of the two do You want me to release to You?" asked the governor. "Barabbas," they answered.
- 22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. "What shall I do, then, with Jesus Who is called Christ?" Pilate asked. They all answered, "Crucify him!"
- 23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. "Why? What crime has He committed?" asked Pilate. But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him!"

- 24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that a riot was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!"
- 25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. All the people answered, "His blood is on us and on our children!"
- 26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then He released Barabbas to them. But He had Jesus flogged and handed Him over to be crucified.
- 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around Him.
- 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him.
- 29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! They twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a staff in His right hand. Then they knelt in front of Him and mocked Him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said.
- 30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. They spit on Him and took the staff and struck Him on the head again and again.
- 31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. After they had mocked Him, they took off the robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

- 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross.
- 33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, They came to a place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull").
- 34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. There they offered Jesus wine mixed with gall to drink, but after tasting it, He refused to drink it.
- 35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. When they had crucified Him, they divided up His clothes by casting lots, to fulfill what the prophet said: "They divided My garments among them and cast lots for My clothing."
- 36 And sitting down they watched him there; And sitting down they kept watch over Him there.
- 37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Above His head they placed the written charge against Him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. Two criminals were crucified with Him, one on His right and one on His left.
- 39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, Those who passed by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads
- 40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days — save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"
- 41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, In the same way the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders mocked Him.

- 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. "He saved others," they said, "but He can't save Himself! He's the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him.
- 43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. He trusts in God. Let God rescue Him now if He wants Him — for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'"
- 44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. In the same way the criminals who were crucified with Him also hurled insults at Him.
- 45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. From the sixth hour until the ninth hour, darkness came over all the land.
- 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" — which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"
- 47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling Elijah."
- 48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink.
- 49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. The rest said, "Leave Him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."
- 50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He gave up His spirit.
- 51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks split.

- 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, The tombs broke open and many bodies of holy people who had died were raised to life.
- 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. They came out of the tombs after Jesus' resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.
- 54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified and said, "Surely He was the Son of God!"
- 55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for His needs.
- 56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Josés, and the mother of Zebedee's children. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Josés, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.
- 57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: As evening approached, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus, came.
- 58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.
- 59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
- 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a large stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

| 61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre. 62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. 64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. 65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can. 66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch. | Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb. The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate. "Sir," they said, "we remember that while He was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.' So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first." "Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and setting the guard. |

Words in this chapter:

Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani (EL-ee EL-ee LAH-mah sah-BAK-thah-nee) — Jesus's cry from the cross — Aramaic for 'My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?' (Psalm 22:1).

Eli (EE-ly) — The high priest who raised Samuel — his sons Hophni and Phinehas were corrupt; he died when he heard the ark was captured; his name means 'my God.'

Pilate (PY-lat) — Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea — he found no fault in Jesus but allowed the crucifixion under pressure from the Jewish leaders.

Golgotha (GOL-gah-thah) — The hill outside Jerusalem where Jesus was crucified — an Aramaic word meaning 'place of the skull'; called Calvary in Latin.

Chapter 28

An angel rolls away the stone from the tomb and announces to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary that Jesus has risen from the dead. The risen Jesus appears to the women and later to the eleven disciples in Galilee, where He commissions them to go and make disciples of all nations.

| 1 | In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. | After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. |
| 2 | And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. | There was a great earthquake. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled back the stone, and sat on it. |
| 3 | His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: | His face was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. |
| 4 | And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. | The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. |
| 5 | And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. | The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that You are looking for Jesus, Who was crucified. |
| 6 | He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. | He is not here; He has risen, just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay. |

- 7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. Then go quickly and tell His disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of You into Galilee. There You will see Him.' Now I have told You."
- 8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word. So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell His disciples.
- 9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," He said. They came to Him, clasped His feet, and worshiped Him.
- 10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see Me."
- 11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened.
- 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, When the chief priests met with the elders and made a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money
- 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. and told them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'
- 14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. If this report reaches the governor, we will satisfy Him and keep You out of trouble."
- 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day. So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely spread among the Jews to this day.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Mark

Author: John Mark, companion of Paul and Barnabas and later close associate of Peter — Papias (c. AD 125) records that Mark wrote down Peter's preaching about Jesus, explaining the Gospel's eyewitness vividness and Petrine perspective.

Date written: c. AD 55–65, likely the earliest of the four Gospels.

Written to: Primarily a Roman Gentile audience — Mark explains Jewish customs, translates Aramaic phrases, and uses Latin loanwords; he writes for readers who were not raised on the Hebrew Scriptures.

Setting: The Roman empire under Nero or Claudius. The early church is spreading rapidly through persecution. Mark writes to ground his readers in the historical reality of who Jesus is and what He did.

Where this sits historically: Likely written from Rome during or just after Nero's persecution of Christians (AD 64–67) following the Great Fire of Rome, and before the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70.

Contemporaries: Peter and Paul were preaching and being martyred in Rome in this same window, while Matthew, Luke, and the later Pauline epistles (1–2 Timothy, Titus) were taking shape.

Big themes:

- Jesus as the Servant — Mark presents Jesus as the one who came "not to be ministered unto, but to minister" (10:45); there is no birth narrative, no genealogy — only action
- Immediacy — "straightway" (immediately) appears over forty times; Mark's Gospel moves at pace, one event following another with urgent energy
- The authority of Jesus — over demons, disease, nature, and death; every chapter reinforces that this man commands with absolute authority
- The messianic secret — Jesus repeatedly tells those He heals to tell no one; the full identity of the Messiah is only revealed at the cross
- The cross — Mark devotes more proportional space to the passion narrative than any other Gospel; the servant's greatest act is His death

Key passages: Mark 1:1; 1:15; 8:29; 10:45; 16:6

How it fits: Mark is the shortest and most action-driven Gospel — the ideal starting point for someone reading the Gospels for the first time. It captures Peter's preaching, which means it preserves the most direct apostolic eyewitness tradition. The longer ending (16:9–20) is part of the canonical TR text and closes the Gospel with resurrection appearances and the Great Commission.

Chapter 1

John the Baptist preaches in the wilderness and baptizes Jesus in the Jordan, where the Spirit descends and the Father's voice declares Jesus His beloved Son. Jesus calls Simon, Andrew, James, and John, casts out an unclean spirit in the synagogue at Capernaum, heals Simon's mother-in-law, and cleanses a leper.

| 7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. | He preached, saying, "One mightier than I comes after me. I am not worthy to stoop down and untie His sandals." |

- 8 I indeed have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. I have baptized You with water, but He will baptize You with the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the old English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a mere force — He is God, fully personal, who lives in every believer.

- 9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — Greek form of Hebrew Yeshua, "the LORD saves" — The Son of God, the Messiah, the central figure of the gospel. He is fully God and fully man.

- 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: As He came up out of the water, He immediately saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove.
- 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. A voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son. In You I am well pleased."
- 12 And immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness. Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.
- 13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels served Him.
- 14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, After John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God.
- 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. He said, "The time is fulfilled. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe the gospel."

- 16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. As He walked along the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

■ NAME NOTE — Simon (SY-mun) — Hebrew Simeon, "he has heard" — The apostle later named Peter, a fisherman from Galilee and one of the twelve.

■ NAME NOTE — Andrew (AN-droo) — Greek, "manly" — Brother of Simon Peter, also a fisherman, and one of the twelve apostles.

- 17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make You fishers of men."
- 18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him. At once they left their nets and followed Him.
- 19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets. Going a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in the boat mending their nets.

■ NAME NOTE — James (JAYMZ) — Greek form of Hebrew Jacob, "supplanter" or "one who follows at the heel" — Son of Zebedee and brother of John; one of the twelve apostles and part of Jesus' inner circle.

■ NAME NOTE — Zebedee (ZEB-uh-dee) — Hebrew, "gift of God" — A Galilean fisherman, father of James and John.

- 20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him. He called them at once. They left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed Him.
- 21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught. They went into Capernaum. On the Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught.

- 22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes. The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one with authority and not like the scribes.
- 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, There was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. He cried out,
- 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. "Leave us alone! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God."
- 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Jesus rebuked Him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of Him."
- 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. The unclean spirit convulsed the man, cried out with a loud voice, and came out of him.
- 27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him. Everyone was so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? What new teaching is this? He commands even the unclean spirits with authority, and they obey Him."
- 28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee. His fame spread at once throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.
- 29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. As soon as they left the synagogue, they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
- 30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They told Jesus about her right away.

- 31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. The fever left her at once, and she began to serve them.
- 32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils. That evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.
- 33 And all the city was gathered together at the door. The whole city was gathered at the door.
- 34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him. He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. He did not permit the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.
- 35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, He got up and went out to a solitary place and prayed.
- 36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him. Simon and those with him went searching for him.
- 37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee. When they found Him, they said, "Everyone is looking for You."
- 38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth. He said to them, "Let us go to the nearby towns so I can preach there also. That is why I have come."
- 39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils. He preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee and drove out demons.
- 40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. A leper came to Him, kneeling down and begging, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Chapter 2

Jesus heals a paralytic lowered through the roof, forgiving his sins and proving His authority by the miracle. He calls Levi the tax collector, eats with sinners, and defends His disciples when the Pharisees question them about fasting and plucking grain on the Sabbath.

- 1 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house. After some days He returned to Capernaum, and word spread that He was in the house.
- 2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. So many people gathered that there was no room left, not even at the door. He preached the word to them.
- 3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four. Some men came, bringing a paralyzed man carried by four of them.
- 4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay. They could not get near Jesus because of the crowd, so they made an opening in the roof above Him. They broke through and lowered the mat on which the paralyzed man lay.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 5 | When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. | When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, "Son, Your sins are forgiven." |
| 6 | But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, | Some scribes were sitting there, reasoning in their hearts: |
| 7 | Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? | "Why does this man speak like this? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" |
| 8 | And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? | Jesus knew in His spirit that they were reasoning this way within themselves. He said to them, "Why are You reasoning these things in Your hearts?" |
| 9 | Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? | Which is easier — to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take Your mat, and walk'? |
| 10 | But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) | So that You may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins — He said to the paralyzed man: |
| 11 | I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. | "I tell You, get up, take Your mat, and go home." |
| 12 | And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. | At once the man got up, picked up his mat, and walked out in front of everyone. They were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this." |
| 13 | And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. | Jesus went out again along the seashore. The whole crowd came to Him and He taught them. |

- 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him. As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to Him, "Follow Me." Levi got up and followed Him.

■ NAME NOTE — Levi (LEE-vy) — Hebrew, "joined" or "attached" — The tax collector also known as Matthew, son of Alphaeus. He became one of the twelve apostles.

- 15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. Jesus was reclining at table in Levi's house. Many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Jesus and His disciples, for there were many who followed Him.
- 16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When the scribes and Pharisees saw Him eating with tax collectors and sinners, they asked His disciples, "Why does He eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"
- 17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Jesus heard this and said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick do. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
- 18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? The disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, "Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"
- 19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. Jesus said to them, "Can the guests at a wedding fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast."

- 20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days.
- 21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse. No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If He does, the new patch pulls away from the old cloth and the tear becomes worse.
- 22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. No one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins and both the wine and the skins are ruined. New wine must be poured into new wineskins.
- 23 And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. One Sabbath Jesus was walking through the grain fields, and His disciples began to pick heads of grain as they went.
- 24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? The Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"
- 25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him? He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and was hungry — he and those who were with him?"
- 26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him? He entered the house of God in the time of Abiathar the high priest and ate the showbread, which is lawful only for priests to eat. He also gave some to His companions.
- 27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath: He also said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."

Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

Therefore the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

Words in this chapter:

- meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.
- shewbread (SHOW-bred) — Twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on the golden table in the Holy Place each Sabbath — representing the twelve tribes before God; also called 'bread of the Presence.'
- Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'
- Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Chapter 3

Jesus heals a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath, provoking the Pharisees to plot against Him. He withdraws to the sea, appoints the twelve apostles, and warns that blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven.

And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

He entered the synagogue again. A man with a withered hand was there.

- 2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him. They watched Jesus closely to see whether He would heal the man on the Sabbath, looking for a reason to accuse Him.
- 3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth. He said to the man with the withered hand, "Step forward."
- 4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. Then He said to them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath — to do good or to do evil? To save life or to kill?" They were silent.
- 5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. He looked around at them with anger, deeply grieved at their hardness of heart. He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored.
- 6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. The Pharisees went out at once and began plotting with the Herodians against Jesus, looking for a way to destroy Him.
- 7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea,
- 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him. People came from Judaea, Jerusalem, Idumaea, and from beyond the Jordan. Those from the region of Tyre and Sidon — a great crowd — came to Him when they heard what great things He was doing.
- 9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him. He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, so they would not crush Him.

| 17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder: | James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James — He surnamed them Boanerges, which means "Sons of Thunder"; |

■ NAME NOTE — Boanerges (boh-ah-NER-geez) — Aramaic, "sons of thunder" — The nickname Jesus gave to James and John, possibly reflecting their bold, fiery temperament.

- 19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house. and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. They went into a house.

■ NAME NOTE — Judas Iscariot (JOO-dus is-KAIR-ee-ut) — "Judas" is Greek for Hebrew Judah, "praise"; "Iscariot" likely means "man of Kerioth," a town in Judah — The apostle who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver.

- 20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. The crowd gathered again so that Jesus and His disciples could not even eat.
- 21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. When His own family heard about this, they went to take charge of Him, for they said, "He is out of His mind."
- 22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils. The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub, and by the prince of demons he casts out demons."
- 23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? Jesus called them to Him and spoke to them in parables: "How can Satan cast out Satan?"
- 24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
- 25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand. If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
- 26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand — his end has come.
- 27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder his house.
- 28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: Truly I tell you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter.

- 29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Ghost never has forgiveness. He is in danger of eternal damnation.

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. "Eternal damnation" means there is no appeal and no end — it is the irreversible consequence of rejecting God's mercy.

- 30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit. He said this because they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."
- 31 There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him. Then His brothers and His mother came. Standing outside, they sent word to Him, calling for Him.
- 32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. A crowd was sitting around Him. They told Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are outside looking for You."
- 33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren? He answered them, "Who is My mother and My brothers?"
- 34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! He looked at those sitting in a circle around Him and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers."
- 35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother. Whoever does the will of God is My brother, My sister, and My mother.

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

Chapter 4

Jesus teaches the crowds from a boat, telling the parable of the sower, the parable of the seed growing secretly, and the parable of the mustard seed. He calms a violent storm on the sea, and the disciples marvel, asking, 'What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?'

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land. | Again He began to teach beside the sea. Such a large crowd gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea. The whole crowd was on the shore facing the water. |
| 2 | And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine, | He taught them many things by parables, and in His teaching He said: |
| 3 | Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow: | "Listen! A farmer went out to sow His seed." |
| 4 | And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. | As He sowed, some seed fell along the path. The birds came and ate it up. |
| 5 | And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: | Some fell on rocky ground where the soil was shallow. It sprang up quickly because it had no depth of soil. |
| 6 | But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. | When the sun rose, it was scorched. Because it had no root, it withered away. |

- 7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. Some fell among thorns. The thorns grew up, choked the plant, and it produced no fruit.
- 8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred. Still other seed fell on good ground. It came up, grew, and produced a crop — some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times what was sown.
- 9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."
- 10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable. When He was alone, those around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parables.
- 11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: He said to them, "To You it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God. But to those outside, everything comes in parables."
- 12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them. This is so that seeing they may see and not understand, and hearing they may hear and not grasp it — lest they should turn and their sins be forgiven.
- 13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables? He said to them, "Don't You understand this parable? Then how will You understand any of the parables?"
- 14 The sower soweth the word. The farmer sows the word.
- 15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. These are the ones along the path where the word is sown: when they hear it, Satan comes at once and takes away the word that was sown in them.

- 16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; These are the ones sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy.
- 17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. But they have no root in themselves and last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.
- 18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, Others are like seed sown among thorns. They hear the word,
- 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful.
- 20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred. And these are the ones sown on good ground — those who hear the word, receive it, and bear fruit: some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times.
- 21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? He said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not set on a lampstand?"
- 22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing kept secret that will not come to light.
- 23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.

- 24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given. He said to them, "Pay careful attention to what you hear. The measure you give will be the measure you receive — and more will be added to you.
- 25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. To the one who has, more will be given. From the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away."
- 26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; He also said, "The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.
- 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. He sleeps and rises night and day. The seed sprouts and grows — he does not know how.
- 28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. The earth produces by itself: first the blade, then the head of grain, then the full grain in the head.
- 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come. When the grain is ripe, he puts in the sickle at once, because the harvest has come."
- 30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God? What parable shall we use for it?"
- 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth: "It is like a mustard seed. When it is sown in the ground, it is the smallest of all seeds on the earth.
- 32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all garden plants. It puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can nest in its shade."

- 33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. With many such parables He spoke the word to them, as they were able to understand it.
- 34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples. He did not speak to them without a parable. But when He was alone with His disciples, He explained everything to them.
- 35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side. On that same day, when evening came, He said to them, "Let us cross to the other side."
- 36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships. They dismissed the crowd and took Him along, just as He was, in the boat. Other boats were with Him.
- 37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. A great windstorm arose. The waves beat into the boat so that it was nearly full of water.
- 38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke Him and said, "Master, don't You care that we are perishing?"
- 39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He got up and rebuked the wind. He said to the sea, "Peace! Be still." The wind died down and there was a great calm.
- 40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? He said to them, "Why are You so fearful? Do You still have no faith?"
- 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? They were greatly afraid and said to one another, "Who is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Words in this chapter:

candlestick — The golden lampstand in the tabernacle — a seven-branched stand of hammered gold that burned pure olive oil and lit the Holy Place; also called the menorah.

Chapter 5

Jesus casts a legion of demons out of a man among the tombs in the country of the Gadarenes, sending them into a herd of swine. He heals a woman with a twelve-year flow of blood who touches His garment, and raises Jairus's daughter from the dead.

- | | | |
| 1 | And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. | They crossed to the other side of the sea, into the region of the Gadarenes. |
| 2 | And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, | As Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs to meet Him. |
| 3 | Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains: | This man lived among the tombs. No one could bind him anymore, not even with chains. |
| 4 | Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him. | He had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he tore the chains apart and broke the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to tame him. |

- 5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones. Night and day he wandered among the tombs and in the hills, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
- 6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, When He saw Jesus from a distance, He ran and worshipped Him.
- 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not. He cried out in a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God's name, I beg You — don't torment me!"
- 8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit. For Jesus had said to Him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit."
- 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many. Jesus asked Him, "What is Your name?" He answered, "My name is Legion, for we are many."
- 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country. He begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region.
- 11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. A large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside nearby.
- 12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them. The demons begged Him, "Send us into the pigs. Let us enter them."
- 13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea. Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs, and the herd — about two thousand — rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned.

- 14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done. Those who tended the pigs fled and spread the news in the town and countryside. People came out to see what had happened.
- 15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons sitting there, dressed and in His right mind. They were afraid.
- 16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine. Those who had seen it described what had happened to the man who had been demon-possessed, and also about the pigs.
- 17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts. Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their region.
- 18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed begged to go with him.
- 19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. But Jesus would not allow it. He said to Him, "Go home to Your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for You and how He had compassion on You."
- 20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. The man went away and began to tell in Decapolis how much Jesus had done for Him. Everyone was amazed.
- 21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea. When Jesus had crossed back by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the sea.

- 22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, One of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jairus, came. When He saw Jesus, He fell at His feet

■ NAME NOTE — Jairus (JAY-ih-rus) — Greek form of Hebrew Yair, "he enlightens" — A synagogue ruler whose twelve-year-old daughter Jesus raised from the dead.

- 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. and pleaded with Him greatly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay Your hands on her so she may be healed and live."
- 24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him. Jesus went with Him. A large crowd followed and pressed around Him.
- 25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years, A woman who had suffered a blood discharge for twelve years
- 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, had suffered greatly under many doctors. She had spent all she had, and instead of getting better she grew worse.
- 27 When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. Having heard about Jesus, she came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment.
- 28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole. For she said, "If I touch even His clothes, I will be healed."
- 29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. At once the flow of her blood stopped. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.
- 30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? Jesus immediately knew that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched My clothes?"

- 31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing around You, and yet You ask, 'Who touched Me?'"
- 32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. He kept looking around to see who had done it.
- 33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. The woman, knowing what had happened to her, came with fear and trembling. She fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth.
- 34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be free from your affliction."
- 35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? While He was still speaking, some people came from the ruler of the synagogue's house and said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Master any further?"
- 36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe. Jesus overheard what they said. He told the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid. Just believe."
- 37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.
- 38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw the commotion — people weeping and wailing loudly.
- 39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. He went in and said to them, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping."

- 40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying. They laughed at Him. But He put them all out. He took the child's father and mother and those who were with Him, and went in where the child was lying.
- 41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to You, arise."
- 42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment. The girl got up at once and began to walk around. She was twelve years old. They were completely astonished.
- 43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat. He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Words in this chapter:

Talitha cumi (TAL-ih-thah KOO-mee) — Aramaic words spoken by Jesus meaning 'Little girl, I say to you, arise' — the exact words He used to raise Jairus's daughter.

Chapter 6

Jesus sends the twelve apostles out two by two with authority over unclean spirits. Herod beheads John the Baptist in prison. Jesus feeds five thousand men with five loaves and two fish, then walks on the sea to His disciples.

| 1 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him. | Jesus left there and went to His hometown. His disciples followed Him. |
| 2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? | When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard Him were astonished. "Where did this man get all this?" they asked. "What wisdom has been given to Him? How are such miracles done by His hands?" |
| 3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him. | "Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joses, Juda, and Simon? Are not his sisters here with us?" They were offended at Him. |
| 4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. | Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in His own hometown, among His own relatives, and in His own house." |
| 5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. | He could do no mighty work there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. |
| 6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching. | He was amazed at their unbelief. Then He went around teaching from village to village. |
| 7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits; | He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority over unclean spirits. |

■ NAME NOTE — Herod (HEHR-ud) — Greek, "son of a hero" — Herod Antipas, tetrarch of Galilee. He imprisoned and beheaded John the Baptist.

|---|--|
| 15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets. | Others said, "He is Elijah." Still others said, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." |
|---|--|

- 16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead. When Herod heard this he said, "John, whom I beheaded — he has been raised from the dead."
- 17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For Herod himself had sent men to arrest John and had him bound in prison. He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom Herod had married.
- 18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. John had told Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
- 19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not: So Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not.
- 20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy man, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and a holy man. He kept him safe. When Herod heard him, he did many things, and listened to him gladly.
- 21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee; A suitable day came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his nobles, military commanders, and the leading men of Galilee.
- 22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee. When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you."
- 23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. He swore to her, "Whatever you ask, I will give you — up to half my kingdom."

- 24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. She went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" Her mother said, "The head of John the Baptist."
- 25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist. She came back in at once to the king and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."
- 26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her. The king was deeply sorry, but because of his oath and his guests he did not want to refuse her.
- 27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, He immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went and beheaded John in the prison
- 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother. and brought his head on a platter. He gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.
- 29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb. When John's disciples heard about this, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.
- 30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him all they had done and taught.
- 31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while." So many people were coming and going that they did not even have time to eat.
- 32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. They went away by boat to a solitary place by themselves.

- 33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. But many people saw them leaving and recognized them. They ran on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them.
- 34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. When Jesus landed and saw the large crowd, He had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. He began to teach them many things.
- 35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed: When it was already late in the day, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place and it is already very late."
- 36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. "Send the people away so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."
- 37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? He answered, "You give them something to eat." They said to Him, "Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread and give it to them to eat?"
- 38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. He said, "How many loaves do You have? Go and see." When they found out, they said, "Five — and two fish."
- 39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass. He directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass.
- 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. They sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

- 41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves and gave them to His disciples to set before the people. He divided the two fish among them all.
- 42 And they did all eat, and were filled. They all ate and were satisfied.
- 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes. The disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish.
- 44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men. The number of men who had eaten was about five thousand.
- 45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people. At once He made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd.
- 46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray. After He had sent them away, He went up on a mountain to pray.
- 47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and He was alone on land.
- 48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. He saw them straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. Shortly before dawn He came to them, walking on the sea. He was about to pass by them.
- 49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out: When they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought He was a ghost and cried out.

Words in this chapter:

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.

Gomorrah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for holding to human traditions while neglecting the commandments of God. He teaches that defilement comes from the heart, not from unwashed hands, then heals the daughter of a Syrophenician woman and a deaf man with a speech impediment.

- | | | |
| 1 | Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem. | The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus. |
| 2 | And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault. | They saw some of His disciples eating bread with hands that were defiled — that is, unwashed. They found fault with this. |
| 3 | For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. | The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands carefully, holding to the tradition of the elders. |

- 4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables. When they come from the marketplace they do not eat unless they wash. They also observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, copper vessels, and dining couches.
- 5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands? The Pharisees and scribes asked Him, "Why do Your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders? Why do they eat with unwashed hands?"
- 6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. He answered them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written: 'This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.'"
- 7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. "'Their worship of Me is worthless. They teach as doctrines the commandments of men.'"
- 8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. You have set aside the commandment of God to hold to the tradition of men, such as the washing of pots and cups — and You do many other like things."
- 9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. He also said to them, "You skillfully set aside God's commandment in order to keep Your own tradition."
- 10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.'

- 11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. But you say that if a man tells his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might have received from me is Corban' — that is, a gift devoted to God — He is no longer required to do anything for His father or mother.
- 12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; That way you let him do nothing more for his father or mother.
- 13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye. So you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. You do many things like that.
- 14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand: He called the crowd to Him again and said, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand."
- 15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can defile him. It is the things that come out of a man that defile him.
- 16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.
- 17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable. When He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples asked Him about the parable.
- 18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him; He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you see that nothing that enters a man from outside can defile him?"
- 19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats? "It does not enter his heart but his stomach, and then is expelled, purging all foods."

- 20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. He said, "What comes out of a man — that is what defiles him."
- 21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, For from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,
- 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.
- 23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man. All these evil things come from inside a man and defile him.
- 24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. Jesus left there and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon. He entered a house and wanted no one to know he was there, but he could not stay hidden.
- 25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet: A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him. She came and fell at His feet.
- 26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by birth. She begged Him to drive the demon out of her daughter.
- 27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. Jesus said to her, "Let the children be satisfied first. It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."
- 28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs. She answered, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."
- 29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. Then He told her, "Because of what You have said, go. The demon has left Your daughter."

| 30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed. 31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis. 32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. 33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue; 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. 35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. 36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it; 37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak. | She went home and found her child lying on the bed — the demon was gone. Then Jesus departed from the region of Tyre and Sidon and came to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of Decapolis. There they brought to Him a man who was deaf and could barely speak. They begged Jesus to place His hand on Him. Jesus took Him aside from the crowd, put His fingers into His ears, and touched His tongue with saliva. Looking up to heaven, He sighed and said to the man, "Ephphatha," which means, "Be opened." At once the man's ears were opened, his tongue was freed, and he began to speak clearly. Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more he commanded them, the more they spread the news. People were completely astonished and said, "He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak." |

Words in this chapter:

Ephphatha (EF-ah-thah) — Aramaic word Jesus spoke meaning 'Be opened' — said when He healed a deaf man.

corban (KOR-ban) — A Hebrew term meaning 'gift dedicated to God' — in Mark 7, Jesus rebukes those who used it to avoid caring for their parents.

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Chapter 8

Jesus feeds four thousand people with seven loaves, refuses the Pharisees' demand for a sign, and heals a blind man at Bethsaida. Peter confesses that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus foretells His suffering, death, and resurrection, calling on His followers to take up their cross.

| 1 | In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, | In those days, when there was again a large crowd with nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples and said to them, |
| 2 | I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: | "I have compassion on this crowd because they have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat." |
| 3 | And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far. | "If I send them home hungry, they will faint on the way. Some of them have come from a great distance." |
| 4 | And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? | His disciples answered, "From where could anyone get enough bread to feed these people here in the wilderness?" |
| 5 | And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. | He asked them, "How many loaves do You have?" "Seven," they said. |

- 6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. He directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to His disciples to distribute. They set them before the crowd.
- 7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. They also had a few small fish. He gave thanks for these and told the disciples to distribute them as well.
- 8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets. The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.
- 9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away. About four thousand people had eaten. He sent them away.
- 10 And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. He got into the boat with His disciples at once and went to the region of Dalmanutha.
- 11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. The Pharisees came out and began to question Him. To test Him, they demanded a sign from heaven.
- 12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, "Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell You, no sign will be given to this generation."
- 13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side. He left them and got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.
- 14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf. The disciples had forgotten to bring bread. They had only one loaf with them in the boat.

- 15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod. Jesus warned them, "Watch out — beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."
- 16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread. They discussed this among themselves: "He said this because we have no bread."
- 17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened? Jesus knew what they were saying. He said, "Why are You talking about having no bread? Don't You yet see or understand? Is Your heart still hardened?"
- 18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? "Do You have eyes and fail to see? Do You have ears and fail to hear? Don't You remember?"
- 19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. "When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did You pick up?" "Twelve," they said.
- 20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. "And when the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many basketfuls did You pick up?" "Seven," they said.
- 21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand? He said to them, "Do You still not understand?"
- 22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch Him.
- 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. He spit on the man's eyes and put his hands on him. He asked, "Do you see anything?"

- 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. He looked up and said, "I see people — they look like trees walking around."
- 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. Jesus put His hands on the man's eyes again. He opened his eyes, and his sight was restored — he saw everything clearly.
- 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town. Jesus sent Him home, saying, "Don't go into the village or tell anyone in the village."
- 27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? Jesus and His disciples went out to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, "Who do people say I am?"
- 28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets. They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."
- 29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. "But who do You say I am?" He asked. Peter answered, "You are the Christ."
- 30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. He warned them not to tell anyone about him.
- 31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things. He would be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes. He would be killed, and after three days He would rise again.
- 32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. He spoke plainly about this. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

| 33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men. | Jesus turned and looked at His disciples, then rebuked Peter. He said, "Get behind Me, Satan! You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men." |
| 34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. | He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said, "Whoever wants to come after Me must deny himself, take up His cross, and follow Me." |
| 35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. | Whoever wants to save his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. |
| 36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? | What does it profit a man to gain the whole world yet forfeit his soul? |

| 38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. | Whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation — the Son of Man will be ashamed of Him when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels. |

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.

Chapter 9

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John on a high mountain, and Moses and Elijah appear with Him. He casts out a demon the disciples could not, foretells His death and resurrection a second time, and teaches that whoever would be greatest must be servant of all.

- | | | |
| 1 | And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. | He said to them, "Truly I tell You, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power." |
| 2 | And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them. | After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him. He led them up a high mountain alone by themselves. He was transfigured before them. |
| 3 | And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them. | His clothes became dazzling white — whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. |

- | | | |
| 4 | And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. | Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. |
| 5 | And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. | Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." |
| 6 | For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid. | He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. |
| 7 | And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. | Then a cloud came and covered them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him." |
| 8 | And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves. | Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one with them anymore except Jesus. |
| 9 | And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. | As they came down the mountain, He commanded them to tell no one what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. |
| 10 | And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean. | They kept the matter to themselves, asking each other what "rising from the dead" meant. |
| 11 | And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come? | They asked Him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" |
| 12 | And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. | He said to them, "Elijah does come first and restores all things. But how is it written of the Son of Man that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt?" |

- 13 But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him. "Truly I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, just as it is written about him."
- 14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the scribes arguing with them.
- 15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. As soon as the crowd saw Jesus, they were greatly amazed and ran to greet Him.
- 16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them? He asked the scribes, "What are You arguing with them about?"
- 17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; A man in the crowd answered, "Master, I brought you my son, who has a spirit that makes Him mute."
- 18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. "Wherever it takes hold of Him, it throws Him down. He foams at the mouth, gnashes His teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they could not."
- 19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. He answered, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with You? How long shall I put up with You? Bring the boy to Me."
- 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. They brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.
- 21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. Jesus asked His father, "How long has this been happening to Him?" "From childhood," He said.

- 22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. "It has often thrown Him into fire and into water to kill Him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."
- 23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth. Jesus said to Him, "If You can believe — all things are possible to the one who believes."
- 24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. The father of the child cried out at once, "Lord, I believe — help my unbelief!"
- 25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. When Jesus saw that the crowd was running to see what was happening, He rebuked the unclean spirit. He said, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command You — come out of Him and never enter Him again."
- 26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead. The spirit cried out, convulsed the boy violently, and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He is dead."
- 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose. But Jesus took Him by the hand and lifted Him up, and He stood up.
- 28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? After Jesus went indoors, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why could we not drive it out?"
- 29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting. He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing except prayer and fasting."
- 30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. They left that place and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know where they were.

- 31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day. He was teaching His disciples, telling them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after three days He will rise."
- 32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him. They did not understand what He meant and were afraid to ask Him about it.
- 33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way? They came to Capernaum. When He was in the house, He asked them, "What were You arguing about on the road?"
- 34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest. They were silent, because on the road they had argued about who was the greatest.
- 35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."
- 36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them, He took a little child and set Him in the middle of them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them,
- 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me. "Whoever receives one of these little children in My name receives Me. Whoever receives Me receives not Me but the One who sent Me."
- 38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us. John said to him, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we told Him to stop, because He was not one of us."

- 39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me. Jesus said, "Do not stop Him. No one who does a miracle in My name can soon speak evil of Me."
- 40 For he that is not against us is on our part. Whoever is not against us is for us.
- 41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, truly I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward. Truly I tell You, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose His reward.
- 42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for Him to have a large millstone hung around His neck and to be thrown into the sea.
- 43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: If Your hand causes You to sin, cut it off. It is better to enter life maimed than to go into hell with two hands — into the fire that never goes out.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word — "hell" — where the Greek uses three different words (Sheol, Hades, and Gehenna). All three refer to the place of the departed or the place of final punishment. Hell is real, it is terrible, and it is forever.

- 44 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.
- 45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: If Your foot causes You to sin, cut it off. It is better to enter life lame than to be thrown into hell with two feet — into the fire that never goes out.
- 46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.

| 47 | And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: | If Your eye causes You to sin, pluck it out. It is better to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to be thrown into hell with two eyes, |
| 48 | Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. | where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched. |
| 49 | For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. | Everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt. |
| 50 | Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. | Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can You make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another. |

Words in this chapter:

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Chapter 10

Jesus teaches on divorce and blesses little children brought to Him. A rich young ruler refuses to sell all and follow Him, and Jesus tells His disciples that with God all things are possible. He foretells His death a third time, rebukes the ambition of James and John, and heals blind Bartimaeus near Jericho.

| 1 | And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again. | Jesus left there and went into the region of Judaea and beyond the Jordan. Crowds gathered around Him again, and as was His custom, He taught them. |
| 2 | And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. | Some Pharisees came to Him and asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. |
| 3 | And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? | He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" |
| 4 | And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away. | They said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away." |
| 5 | And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. | Jesus said to them, "Moses wrote this commandment for you because of the hardness of Your hearts." |
| 6 | But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. | But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. |
| 7 | For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; | For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, |
| 8 | And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. | and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. |
| 9 | What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. | What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate. |
| 10 | And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter. | In the house His disciples asked Him again about this. |
| 11 | And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. | He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her." |

- 12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery. And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.
- 13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. People were bringing little children to Jesus for Him to touch them. The disciples rebuked those who brought them.
- 14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. When Jesus saw this, He was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to Me. Do not stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."
- 15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. Truly I tell You, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.
- 16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. He took the children in His arms, placed His hands on them, and blessed them.
- 17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? As He was going out on the road, a man ran up and knelt before him. He asked, "Good Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
- 18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Jesus said to Him, "Why do You call Me good? No one is good except God alone."
- 19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor Your father and mother.
- 20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. The man replied, "Master, all these I have kept since I was young."

- 21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. Jesus looked at Him and loved Him. He said, "One thing You lack. Go, sell everything You have and give to the poor, and You will have treasure in heaven. Then come, take up Your cross, and follow Me."
- 22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. The man's face fell at these words. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.
- 23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!"
- 24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! The disciples were amazed at His words. Jesus said again, "Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!"
- 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.
- 26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? They were even more amazed and said to one another, "Who then can be saved?"
- 27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible. Jesus looked at them and said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. All things are possible with God."
- 28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Peter said to him, "We have left everything to follow You."

- 29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, Truly I tell You, Jesus answered, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for My sake and for the gospel's sake,
- 30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. who will not receive a hundred times as much in this present age — houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and lands, along with persecutions — and in the age to come, eternal life.
- 31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.
- 32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him, They were on the road going up to Jerusalem. Jesus walked ahead of them. The disciples were amazed and those following were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him.
- 33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles: "We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles."
- 34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. "They will mock Him, spit on Him, flog Him, and kill Him. After three days He will rise again."
- 35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire. James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Master," they said, "we want You to do whatever we ask."

- 36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? He said to them, "What do You want Me to do for You?"
- 37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. They said, "Grant us to sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory."
- 38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? Jesus said to them, "You do not know what You are asking. Can You drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"
- 39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and You will be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with."
- 40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared. "But to sit on My right or left is not Mine to give. It belongs to those for whom it has been prepared."
- 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. When the other ten heard this, they were indignant at James and John.
- 42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them."
- 43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: It shall not be so among You. Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant.
- 44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. Whoever wants to be first among you must be slave of all.

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Bartimaeus (bar-tih-MEE-us) — A blind beggar sitting by the road in Jericho who cried out to Jesus — his persistent faith earned him the healing of his sight; his name means 'son of Timaeus.'

Jericho (JEHR-ih-ko) — The first city Israel conquered in Canaan — its walls fell when the priests blew their trumpets on the seventh day after seven days of marching; its name may mean 'city of the moon.'

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Jesus enters Jerusalem riding on a colt as the crowds cry 'Hosanna' and spread their garments in the road. He drives out the money changers from the temple, curses a barren fig tree that withers by the next morning, and teaches about faith and prayer.

| 2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him. | He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of You. As soon as You enter it, You will find a colt tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here." |
| 3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither. | "If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'" |
| 4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him. | They went and found the colt tied outside in the street at a doorway. They untied it. |
| 5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? | Some people standing there asked, "What are You doing, untying that colt?" |
| 6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go. | They answered as Jesus had told them, and the people let them go. |
| 7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him. | They brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and He sat on it. |
| 8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way. | Many people spread their cloaks on the road. Others spread branches they had cut from the fields. |
| 9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord: | Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" |
| 10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest. | "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!" |

- 11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve. Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.
- 12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry: The next day, when they came from Bethany, He was hungry.
- 13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet. Seeing a fig tree in the distance with leaves on it, He went to see if it had any fruit. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs.
- 14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. Jesus said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard this.
- 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves; They came to Jerusalem. Jesus entered the temple and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.
- 16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple. He would not allow anyone to carry goods through the temple courts.
- 17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves. He was teaching them and said, "Is it not written: 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But You have made it a den of thieves."
- 18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine. The chief priests and scribes heard this and began to look for a way to destroy Him. They feared Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.

- 19 And when even was come, he went out of the city. When evening came, they went out of the city.
- 20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. In the morning as they walked along, they saw that the fig tree had withered from its roots.
- 21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has withered."
- 22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. Jesus answered, "Have faith in God."
- 23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Truly I tell You, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in His heart but believes that what He says will happen — it will be done for Him.
- 24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. Therefore I tell You, whatever You ask for in prayer, believe that You have received it, and it will be Yours.
- 25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. When You stand praying, forgive whatever You have against anyone, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive You Your sins.
- 26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses. But if You do not forgive, neither will Your Father in heaven forgive Your sins.
- 27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, They came again to Jerusalem. While He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.

- 28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things? They asked, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?"
- 29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Jesus said to them, "I will ask You one question. Answer Me and I will tell You by what authority I do these things."
- 30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me. "Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? Answer Me."
- 31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? They argued among themselves: "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Then why did You not believe Him?'"
- 32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed. "But if we say, 'From men' —" they feared the people, for everyone regarded John as truly a prophet.
- 33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell You by what authority I do these things."

Words in this chapter:

Hosanna (ho-ZAN-ah) — Hebrew cry meaning 'Save us, we pray!' — used as a shout of praise and welcome for the coming King.

Jesus tells the parable of the wicked husbandmen and silences the Pharisees, Herodians, and Sadducees who try to trap Him with questions about tribute, the resurrection, and the greatest commandment. He warns against the scribes and commends a poor widow who casts two mites into the treasury.

| 1 And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. | He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for a winepress, and built a watchtower. He rented it to farmers and went away on a journey." |
| 2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. | At harvest time He sent a servant to the farmers to collect some of the fruit of the vineyard from them. |
| 3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. | But they seized the servant, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. |
| 4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. | He sent another servant to them. They struck Him on the head and treated Him shamefully. |
| 5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. | He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others — they beat some and killed others. |
| 6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. | He had one more to send — a beloved son. He sent Him last of all, saying, "They will respect my son." |

- 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. But those farmers said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill Him and the inheritance will be ours.'
- 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. They took Him, killed Him, and threw Him out of the vineyard.
- 9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and give the vineyard to others.
- 10 And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: Have You not read this scripture: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.'
- 11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? 'This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?'
- 12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way. They wanted to arrest Him but were afraid of the crowd, because they understood He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went away.
- 13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. They sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to catch Him in His words.
- 14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not? They came and said to Him, "Master, we know that You are truthful and show no partiality to anyone. You do not look at the outward appearance of men but teach the way of God truthfully. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"
- 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it. "Should we pay or not?" Knowing their hypocrisy, He said to them, "Why are You testing Me? Bring Me a denarius so I can look at it."

- 16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Caesar's. They brought one. He asked, "Whose image and inscription is this?" "Caesar's," they said.
- 17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him. Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." They were amazed at Him.
- 18 Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked,
- 19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. "Master, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother."
- 20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed. There were seven brothers. The first one took a wife and died without leaving children.
- 21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise. The second one married the widow and also died without leaving children. The third did the same.
- 22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also. In fact, none of the seven left children. Last of all, the woman died too.
- 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. At the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For all seven were married to her."
- 24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God? Jesus said to them, "Is this not the reason You are wrong — that You do not know the scriptures or the power of God?"

- 25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven. When the dead rise, they neither marry nor are given in marriage. They are like the angels in heaven.
- 26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? As for the dead rising — have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to Him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?
- 27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err. He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken."
- 28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? One of the scribes came and heard them arguing. When He noticed that Jesus had given them a good answer, He asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"
- 29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: Jesus answered, "The first is: 'Hear, O Israel — the Lord our God is one Lord.'"
- 30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. "'You shall love the Lord Your God with all Your heart, and with all Your soul, and with all Your mind, and with all Your strength.' This is the first commandment."
- 31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. "The second is this: 'You shall love Your neighbor as Yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."
- 32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: The scribe said to him, "Well said, Master. You have spoken the truth — that He is one and there is no other besides Him."

- 33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. "To love Him with all the heart, all the understanding, and all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself — that is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."
- 34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question. When Jesus saw that He answered wisely, He said to Him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any more questions.
- 35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David? While He was teaching in the temple, Jesus said, "How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?"
- 36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David himself, speaking by the Holy Ghost, said: 'The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.'
- 37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly. David himself calls him 'Lord.' How then can he be his son?" The large crowd listened to Him with delight.
- 38 And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces, In His teaching He said, "Watch out for the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes and receive greetings in the marketplaces."
- 39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts: "They love the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts."
- 40 Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation. "They devour widows' houses and for a show make long prayers. These men will receive greater damnation."

Words in this chapter:

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Chapter 13

Jesus foretells the destruction of the temple and the signs of the end, including wars, earthquakes, famines, and false Christs. He describes His coming in the clouds with great power and glory and warns His disciples to watch, for no one knows the day or the hour.

- | | |
| 1 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here! | As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Master, look — what stones and what buildings!" |
| 2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. | Jesus said to Him, "Do You see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another — every one will be thrown down." |
| 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, | As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, |
| 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? | "Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that all these things are about to be fulfilled?" |
| 5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you: | Jesus began to say to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you." |
| 6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. | "Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am Christ,' and will deceive many." |
| 7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet. | "When You hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is not yet." |

- 8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows. "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles. These are the beginnings of sorrows."
- 9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them. "You must watch out for yourselves. They will hand You over to the courts. You will be beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them."
- 10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations. "The gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations."
- 11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost. "When they arrest You and hand You over, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Say whatever is given You in that hour, for it is not You who speak but the Holy Ghost."
- 12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death. "Brother will betray brother to death, and a father His child. Children will rise against their parents and have them put to death."
- 13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. "You will be hated by everyone because of My name. But the one who stands firm to the end will be saved."

- 14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains: "When you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not — let the reader understand — then those who are in Judaea should flee to the mountains."
- 15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house: "Let no one on the housetop go down or enter the house to take anything out."
- 16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment. "Let no one in the field go back to get his cloak."
- 17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! "How terrible it will be in those days for pregnant women and for nursing mothers!"
- 18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter. "Pray that your flight will not take place in winter."
- 19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be. "For in those days there will be such distress as has not been seen from the beginning of God's creation until now, and will never be seen again."
- 20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days. "If the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has cut them short."
- 21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not: "At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there He is!' — do not believe it."
- 22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. "For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and miracles to deceive, if possible, even the elect."

- 23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. "But watch out — I have told You everything ahead of time."
- 24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light."
- 25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. "The stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken."
- 26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory."
- 27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. "He will send out His angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the farthest end of the earth to the farthest end of heaven."
- 28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts out leaves, You know that summer is near."
- 29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. "In the same way, when You see these things happening, know that it is near — right at the door."
- 30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. "Truly I tell You, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened."
- 31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away."
- 32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. "But about that day or hour no one knows — not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

- | | |
| 33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. | "Watch out! Stay alert and pray. You do not know when that time will come." |
| 34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. | "It is like a man going on a journey. He leaves his house and puts His servants in charge, each with their assigned task. He commands the doorkeeper to keep watch." |
| 35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrow, or in the morning: | "Therefore keep watch — for You do not know when the master of the house will come: whether in the evening, at midnight, at the crow of the rooster, or in the morning." |
| 36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. | "If He comes suddenly, do not let Him find You sleeping." |
| 37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch. | "What I say to You I say to everyone: Watch!" |

Words in this chapter:

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Chapter 14

A woman anoints Jesus with costly spikenard at Bethany, and Judas agrees to betray Him. Jesus observes the Last Supper, prays in the Garden of Gethsemane, is betrayed by Judas, arrested, tried before the high priest, and denied three times by Peter.

- 9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. "Truly I tell You, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."
- 10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them. Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.
- 11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him. When they heard this they were delighted and promised to give him money. So Judas watched for a good opportunity to hand him over.
- 12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover? On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, His disciples asked Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
- 13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him. He sent two of His disciples and said to them, "Go into the city. A man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him."
- 14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? "Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, 'The Master says: Where is My guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'"
- 15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us. "He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."
- 16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. The disciples left and went into the city. They found things just as He had told them and prepared the Passover.

- 17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. When evening came, He arrived with the twelve.
- 18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me. While they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell You, one of You will betray Me — one who is eating with Me."
- 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? They were grieved and began to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another said, "Is it I?"
- 20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish. He said to them, "It is one of the twelve — one who dips bread into the bowl with Me."
- 21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born. "The Son of Man goes as it is written about Him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had never been born."
- 22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, and broke it. He gave it to them and said, "Take — this is My body."
- 23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it. Then He took a cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them, and they all drank from it.
- 24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. He said to them, "This is My blood of the new testament, which is shed for many."
- 25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. "Truly I tell You, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
- 26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

- 27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of Me this night. For it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'"
- 28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. "But after I am raised up, I will go before You into Galilee."
- 29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. Peter said to him, "Even if everyone falls away, I will not."
- 30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. Jesus said to Him, "Truly I tell You, today — this very night — before the rooster crows twice, You will deny Me three times."
- 31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. But Peter insisted all the more, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." All the others said the same.
- 32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. They came to a place called Gethsemane. He said to His disciples, "Sit here while I pray."
- 33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; He took Peter, James, and John with him. He began to be deeply distressed and troubled.
- 34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch. He said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch."
- 35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from Him.

- 36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will."
- 37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour? He came back and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?"
- 38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. "Watch and pray so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
- 39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. He went away again and prayed, saying the same words.
- 40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him. When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to Him.
- 41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. He came back a third time and said to them, "Are You still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners."
- 42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. "Get up, let us go. Look — My betrayer is near."
- 43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. At once, while He was still speaking, Judas — one of the twelve — arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.
- 44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. The betrayer had given them a signal: "The man I kiss is the one. Arrest him and lead him away securely."

- 45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him. Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed him.
- 46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him. The men seized Jesus and arrested Him.
- 47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. One of those standing nearby drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.
- 48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me? Jesus said to them, "Have You come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as though I were a robber?"
- 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled. "Every day I was with You in the temple teaching, and You did not arrest Me. But the scriptures must be fulfilled."
- 50 And they all forsook him, and fled. Then all His disciples left Him and fled.
- 51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: A young man was following Him, wearing nothing but a linen cloth over His body. They grabbed Him,
- 52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. but He left the linen cloth and ran away naked.
- 53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. They led Jesus to the high priest. All the chief priests, elders, and scribes gathered together.
- 54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire. Peter followed Jesus at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. He sat with the guards and warmed Himself at the fire.

- 55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none. The chief priests and the whole council were looking for testimony against Jesus in order to put Him to death. But they found none.
- 56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. Many gave false testimony against Him, but their testimony did not agree.
- 57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, Some stood up and gave this false testimony against Him:
- 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands. "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands and in three days build another not made with hands.'"
- 59 But neither so did their witness agree together. But even on this point their testimony did not agree.
- 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? Then the high priest stood up in the middle and asked Jesus, "Do You have no answer? What is this testimony these men are bringing against You?"
- 61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer. The high priest asked Him again, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"
- 62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Jesus said, "I am. And You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven."
- 63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses? The high priest tore His clothes. "What further need do we have of witnesses?" he said.
- 64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death. "You have heard the blasphemy. What do You think?" They all condemned Him as deserving death.

- 65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands. Some began to spit on Him. They blindfolded Him and struck Him, saying, "Prophecy!" The guards also took Him and beat Him.
- 66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by.
- 67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with Jesus of Nazareth."
- 68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew. But He denied it. "I don't know or understand what You're talking about," he said. He went out into the entrance, and a rooster crowed.
- 69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. The servant girl saw him there and again said to those standing nearby, "This man is one of them."
- 70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto. He denied it again. A little later those standing there said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean."
- 71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. He began to call down curses, and he swore, "I do not know this man you are talking about."
- 72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept. At once a rooster crowed a second time. Peter remembered how Jesus had said to Him, "Before the rooster crows twice, You will deny Me three times." He broke down and wept.

- Abba (AB-ah) — Aramaic word for 'Father' — an intimate address to God, showing the believer's adoption as God's child.
- passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.
- Gethsemane (geth-SEM-ah-nee) — A garden at the foot of the Mount of Olives — the place where Jesus prayed the night of His betrayal; his name means 'olive press.'

Chapter 15

Jesus is delivered to Pontius Pilate, who offers to release Him, but the crowd demands Barabbas. The soldiers mock Jesus, crown Him with thorns, and crucify Him at Golgotha. He cries out, gives up His spirit, and Joseph of Arimathaea buries Him in a tomb hewn from rock.

| 4 | And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. | Pilate asked him again, "Do you have no answer? See how many things they are accusing You of." |
| 5 | But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled. | But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate was amazed. |
| 6 | Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. | Now at the feast He was accustomed to release to them one prisoner — whichever one they asked for. |
| 7 | And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. | A man called Barabbas was in prison with the rebels who had committed murder during the uprising. |

■ NAME NOTE — Barabbas (buh-RAB-us) — Aramaic, "son of the father" — A murderer and insurrectionist who was released instead of Jesus, a striking picture of substitution: the guilty set free while the innocent is condemned.

| 8 | And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them. | The crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do for them as he always did. |
| 9 | But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? | Pilate answered them, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" |
| 10 | For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy. | He knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over. |
| 11 | But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. | But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas to them instead. |
| 12 | And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? | "What then do you want me to do with the man you call the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked. |

- 13 And they cried out again, Crucify him. They shouted back, "Crucify Him!"
- 14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. "Why? What crime has He committed?" Pilate asked. They shouted even louder, "Crucify him!"
- 15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged and handed Him over to be crucified.
- 16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band. The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace — that is, the Praetorium — and called the whole company of soldiers together.
- 17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, They clothed Him in purple and twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on Him.
- 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! They began to call out to Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
- 19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. They struck His head with a staff and spit on Him. Falling on their knees, they mocked worship before Him.
- 20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. When they had finished mocking Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.
- 21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. They forced a man named Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, who was coming in from the country, to carry His cross.
- 22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha — which means "The Place of a Skull."

- 23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. They offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it.
- 24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take. When they crucified Him, they divided His clothes by casting lots to decide what each would get.
- 25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. It was the third hour when they crucified Him.
- 26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. The written notice of the charge against Him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left. They crucified two robbers with Him, one on His right and one on His left.
- 28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors. So the scripture was fulfilled which says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors."
- 29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, Those who passed by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads and saying, "So! You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days —"
- 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross. "Come down from the cross and save Yourself!"
- 31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save. In the same way the chief priests and scribes mocked Him among themselves. "He saved others," they said, "but He cannot save Himself!"
- 32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him. "Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down from the cross now so that we may see and believe." Those who were crucified with Him also insulted Him.

He put it on a stick and offered it to Jesus to drink. "Let Him alone," He said. "Let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." |
| 37 | And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. | Jesus cried out with a loud voice and gave up the spirit. |
| 38 | And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. | The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. |
| 39 | And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. | When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he cried out and gave up the spirit, He said, "Truly this man was the Son of God." |
| 40 | There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; | There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. |

■ NAME NOTE — Mary Magdalene (MAIR-ee MAG-duh-leen) — "Mary from Magdala," a town on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee — She had been delivered of seven demons by Jesus and became one of His most devoted followers, the first to see Him after His resurrection.

- 41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem. These women had followed Jesus and served Him when He was in Galilee. Many other women who had come up with Him to Jerusalem were also there.
- 42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, When evening came, because it was the Day of Preparation — the day before the Sabbath —
- 43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus. Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who was Himself waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

■ NAME NOTE — Joseph of Arimathaea (JOH-zuf of air-ih-muh-THÉE-uh) — "Joseph from Arimathaea," a town northwest of Jerusalem — A wealthy member of the Sanhedrin who was a secret disciple of Jesus. He claimed the body of Jesus and placed it in his own new tomb.

- 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead. He called the centurion and asked him if Jesus had been dead for some time.
- 45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. When he found out from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph.
- 46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre. Joseph bought fine linen. He took Jesus down from the cross, wrapped Him in the linen, and placed Him in a tomb cut out of rock. He rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.
- 47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

Words in this chapter:

centurion (sen-TYUR-ee-un) — A Roman army officer commanding approximately 100 soldiers — several centurions in the NT show unusual faith in Jesus.

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Pilate (PY-lat) — Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea — he found no fault in Jesus but allowed the crucifixion under pressure from the Jewish leaders.

Simon of Cyrene (sy-REEN) — A man from Cyrene (North Africa) who was compelled by Roman soldiers to carry Jesus's cross to Golgotha.

Golgotha (GOL-gah-thah) — The hill outside Jerusalem where Jesus was crucified — an Aramaic word meaning 'place of the skull'; called Calvary in Latin.

Chapter 16

Three women come to the tomb at sunrise and find the stone rolled away and an angel who tells them Jesus has risen. The risen Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene, to two disciples on the road, and to the eleven, commissioning them to preach the gospel to every creature before ascending into heaven.

| 1 | And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. | When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so they could go and anoint Jesus. |
| 2 | And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. | Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they went to the tomb. |

- 3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? They were asking each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?"
- 4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. When they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away — it was very large.
- 5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side. They were alarmed.
- 6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. "Do not be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him."
- 7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. "But go and tell His disciples — and Peter — that he is going ahead of you into Galilee. You will see Him there, just as He told you."
- 8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid. They went out and fled from the tomb. Trembling and amazed, they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.
- 9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.
- 10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. She went and told those who had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.
- 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.

| 12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. | After this, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they walked along in the country. |
| 13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them. | These two went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them either. |
| 14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. | Later He appeared to the eleven as they were eating. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He rose. |
| 15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. | He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." |
| 16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. | "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be damned." |
| 17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; | "These signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons. They will speak in new tongues." |
| 18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. | "They will pick up snakes with their hands. If they drink anything deadly, it will not harm them. They will lay their hands on the sick, and they will get well." |
| 19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. | After the Lord had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. |
| 20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen. | They went out and preached everywhere. The Lord worked with them and confirmed His word by the signs that followed. Amen. |

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Luke

Author: Luke, "the beloved physician" (Col 4:14) and travel companion of Paul — the only Gentile author in the NT. The same author wrote Acts; together Luke-Acts forms a two-volume work addressed to Theophilus.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, likely during Paul's imprisonment at Caesarea when Luke had access to eyewitnesses in Judea.

Written to: Theophilus — a Gentile, probably a Roman official of some rank — and through him the wider Gentile world seeking an orderly account of Christian origins.

Setting: Luke investigates "from the very first" (1:3), interviewing eyewitnesses and consulting sources to produce the most comprehensive of the four Gospels. He begins before the birth of John the Baptist and ends at the ascension.

Where this sits historically: Written during Nero's reign while Paul was imprisoned (in Caesarea c. AD 57–59 or Rome c. AD 60–62), with Festus and later Albinus governing Judea on the eve of the Jewish revolt.

Contemporaries: Paul was composing the prison epistles (Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon), Mark's Gospel was circulating, and James the Just was leading the Jerusalem church until his martyrdom around AD 62.

Big themes:

- Jesus as Saviour of all — Luke emphasizes Gentiles, women, the poor, and social outcasts more than any other Gospel; salvation is for everyone
- Prayer — Luke records Jesus praying more than any other Gospel writer; ten instances of prayer appear only in Luke
- The Holy Spirit — the Spirit is prominent from the birth narratives through to Pentecost; Luke-Acts together trace the Spirit's work
- Praise — the birth narrative contains four great hymns (Magnificat, Benedictus, Gloria, Nunc Dimittis) found only in Luke
- Parables of grace — the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, and the Pharisee and Tax Collector are found only in Luke

Key passages: Luke 1:46–55; 2:10–11; 4:18; 15:20; 24:45–47

How it fits: Luke provides the most detailed infancy narrative and the most carefully ordered account of the journey to Jerusalem. His Gospel bridges from Jewish roots (the temple, the law, the prophets) to the universal mission that Acts then traces to Rome. Together Luke-Acts is the longest single contribution to the NT by any one author.

Chapter 1

The angel Gabriel appears to Zacharias in the temple, announcing that his wife Elisabeth will bear a son named John. Gabriel then visits the virgin Mary in Nazareth and tells her she will conceive the Son of the Highest by the Holy Ghost. Mary visits Elisabeth, sings the Magnificat, and John the Baptist is born.

- 30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn. "Favour" and "grace" translate the same Greek word (charis). Grace is God giving us what we do not deserve.

- 31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. You will conceive in your womb and give birth to a son, and you shall call His name JESUS.
- 32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: He will be great and will be called the Son of the Highest. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David.
- 33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and his kingdom will have no end."
- 34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not known a man?"
- 35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. The angel answered her, "The Holy Ghost will come upon You, and the power of the Highest will overshadow You. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of You will be called the Son of God.
- 36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. Your cousin Elisabeth has also conceived a son in her old age. This is the sixth month for her who was called barren.
- 37 For with God nothing shall be impossible. For nothing is impossible with God."

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

dayspring — The dawn or rising sun — used poetically in Job 38:12 and Luke 1:78 to describe God's arrival bringing light after darkness.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

Aaron (AIR-on) — Moses's older brother and Israel's first high priest — spokesperson for Moses before Pharaoh; his descendants served as priests throughout Israel's history.

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Elisabeth (eh-LIZ-ah-beth) — The mother of John the Baptist, wife of Zacharias, and a relative of Mary — her name means 'God is my oath.'

Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.

| 37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day. | and she was a widow of about eighty-four years. She never left the temple but served God with fasting and prayer night and day. |
| 38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. | Coming up at that very moment, she gave thanks to the Lord and spoke about Him to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. |
| 39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. | When they had done everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth. |
| 40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. | The child grew and grew strong, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon Him. |
| 41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover. | His parents went to Jerusalem every year for the feast of the Passover. |

- 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. When He was twelve years old, they went up according to the custom of the feast.
- 43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it. When the days were over and they were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it.
- 44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. Thinking He was in the traveling group, they went a day's journey. Then they began looking for Him among their relatives and friends.
- 45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him. When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for Him.
- 46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. After three days they found Him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
- 47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers. All who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers.
- 48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. When they saw Him, they were amazed. His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us like this? Your father and I have been searching for You with great anxiety."
- 49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business? He said to them, "Why were You searching for Me? Did You not know that I must be about My Father's business?"
- 50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. But they did not understand what He said to them.

Words in this chapter:

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Asher (ASH-er) — Jacob's eighth son, by Zilpah — his tribe settled in the fertile coastal region of northern Canaan; his name means 'happy' or 'blessed.'

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Simeon (SIM-ee-on) — Jacob's second son by Leah — with Levi, he slaughtered the men of Shechem; his tribe was scattered in Israel; his name means 'he hears.'

Bethlehem (BETH-leh-hem) — A town in Judah — birthplace of David and of Jesus; its name means 'house of bread'; Boaz and Ruth lived here.

Chapter 3

John the Baptist preaches repentance and baptizes in the Jordan, warning the crowds to bring forth fruits worthy of repentance. Jesus is baptized, the Holy Ghost descends on Him like a dove, and the Father's voice declares Him His beloved Son. Luke traces Jesus's genealogy from Joseph back through David and Abraham to Adam.

- 7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? He said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You generation of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"
- 8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Produce fruit in keeping with repentance, and do not start saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you, God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones.
- 9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."
- 10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then? The people asked him, "What shall we do then?"
- 11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. He answered them, "Whoever has two coats, let him share with the one who has none. Whoever has food, let him do likewise."
- 12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? Tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, "Master, what shall we do?"
- 13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you. He said to them, "Collect no more than you are authorized to collect."
- 14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. Soldiers also asked him, "And what about us — what shall we do?" - 15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not; The people were in a state of expectation, and everyone was wondering in their hearts whether John might be the Christ.
- 16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire: John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But One mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize You with the Holy Ghost and with fire.
- 17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clear His threshing floor. He will gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire."
- 18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people. With many other exhortations He preached the good news to the people.
- 19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by John for Herodias his brother Philip's wife and for all the evil things Herod had done,
- 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison. added to it all by shutting John up in prison.
- 21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, When all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. As He was praying, heaven was opened,
- 22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased. and the Holy Ghost descended on Him in bodily form like a dove. A voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased."

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Adam (AD-um) — The first man, formed from the dust of the earth — his name in Hebrew means 'man' or 'from the ground (adamah).'

Caiaphas (KY-ah-fas) — The Jewish high priest during Jesus's trial — he declared it better for one man to die for the nation; he unwittingly prophesied Christ's death for all people.

Enoch (EE-nok) — A man who 'walked with God' — he did not die but was taken by God; ancestor of Noah; father of Methuselah.

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Chapter 4

Jesus, full of the Holy Ghost, is tempted by the devil in the wilderness for forty days and overcomes every temptation with Scripture. He reads from Isaiah in the synagogue at Nazareth and declares the prophecy fulfilled, but the people of His hometown reject Him and try to throw Him off a cliff. He casts out demons and heals the sick in Capernaum.

- 20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. He closed the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on Him.
- 21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. He began to say to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."
- 22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son? All spoke well of Him and were amazed at the gracious words coming from His mouth. They said, "Is this not Joseph's son?"
- 23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country. He said to them, "You will certainly quote this proverb to Me: 'Physician, heal yourself.' Do here in your hometown what we have heard You did in Capernaum."
- 24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country. He said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown.
- 25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, and great famine came over all the land.
- 26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. Yet Elijah was sent to none of them — only to Zarephath, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.
- 27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed — only Naaman the Syrian."

- 28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, All in the synagogue were filled with fury when they heard these things.
- 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong. They rose up, drove Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, intending to throw Him off the cliff.
- 30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way. But He passed through the midst of them and went on His way.
- 31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days. He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbath days.
- 32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power. They were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority.
- 33 And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean devil, and he cried out with a loud voice,
- 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God. "Leave us alone! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are — the Holy One of God."
- 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. Jesus rebuked Him and said, "Be silent, and come out of Him!" The devil threw the man down in the middle of the crowd and came out of Him without hurting Him.
- 36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. They were all amazed and said to one another, "What kind of word is this? With authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"

| 41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. | Devils also came out of many, crying out and saying, "You are Christ the Son of God!" He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Christ. |
| 42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them. | When day came, He left and went to a deserted place. The people looked for him, came to him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them. |
| 43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent. | But He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for that is why I was sent." |
| 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee. | He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee. |

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Elisha (eh-LY-shah) — Elijah's successor who received a double portion of his spirit — performed many miracles including raising the dead; his name means 'God is salvation.'

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Chapter 5

Jesus teaches from Simon's boat, then commands a miraculous catch of fish so great the nets begin to break. He cleanses a leper, heals a paralytic lowered through the roof, and calls Levi the tax collector to follow Him.

| ¹ And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, | One day, as the crowd pressed around Him to hear the word of God, He was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. |

- 2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. He saw two boats at the shore of the lake. The fishermen had left them and were washing their nets.
- 3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then He sat down and taught the people from the boat.
- 4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch."
- 5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. Simon answered, "Master, we have worked hard all night and caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the net."
- 6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake. When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net began to break.
- 7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.
- 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees and said, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."
- 9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken: He was astonished — and so were all who were with Him — at the catch of fish they had taken.

- 10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. So also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will be catching men."
- 11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him. When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.
- 12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. While He was in one of the cities, a man full of leprosy saw Jesus. He fell on His face and begged Him, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."
- 13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. Jesus stretched out His hand and touched Him, saying, "I am willing — be clean." Immediately the leprosy left Him.
- 14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. He told him to tell no one, but said, "Go and show yourself to the priest, and offer what Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a witness to them."
- 15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. But the news about Him spread even more. Large crowds came together to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.
- 16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. But He would withdraw to deserted places and pray.

- 17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. One day as He was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee and Judaea and from Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was present to heal.
- 18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. Some men brought on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they tried to bring him in and lay Him before Jesus.
- 19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. Finding no way to bring Him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered Him on His mat through the tiles into the middle of the room, right before Jesus.
- 20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. When He saw their faith, He said, "Man, Your sins are forgiven You."
- 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? The scribes and Pharisees began to question this, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"
- 22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? Jesus knew their thoughts and answered them, "Why are You reasoning in Your hearts?"
- 23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? Which is easier — to say, 'Your sins are forgiven You,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'?
- 24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. But so that You may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" — He said to the paralyzed man — "I say to You, rise, take up Your mat, and go home."

- 25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. Immediately He rose before them all, took up what He had been lying on, and went home glorifying God.
- 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day. They were all amazed and glorified God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."
- 27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. After this He went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. He said to Him, "Follow Me."

■ NAME NOTE — Levi (LEE-vy) — "joined" or "attached" — Also called Matthew. A tax collector whom Jesus called to be His disciple. He left everything to follow Christ.

- 28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him. Levi left everything, rose up, and followed Him.
- 29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them. Levi made a great banquet for Him at His house. A large crowd of tax collectors and others were reclining at the table with them.
- 30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? The scribes and Pharisees complained to His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"
- 31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. Jesus answered them, "Those who are well have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick do.
- 32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
- 33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink? They said to Him, "John's disciples fast often and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees do likewise. But Your disciples eat and drink."

| 34 | And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? | He said to them, "Can You make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?" |
| 35 | But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. | The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them — then they will fast in those days." |
| 36 | And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old. | He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and sews it on an old one. If He does, the new piece will not match the old. |
| 37 | And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish. | No one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will be spilled, and the skins will be ruined. |
| 38 | But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. | New wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved. |
| 39 | No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better. | No one who has drunk old wine wants the new right away, for He says, 'The old is better.'" |

publican — A Jewish tax collector working for Rome — despised by fellow Jews as a traitor and swindler; also called 'tax collectors' in modern translations.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Chapter 6

Jesus defends His disciples for plucking grain on the Sabbath and heals a man with a withered hand, provoking the scribes and Pharisees. He chooses the twelve apostles and delivers the Sermon on the Plain, teaching about blessings and woes, loving one's enemies, judging others, and building on a sure foundation.

| 1 And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. | On a Sabbath, as He was passing through the grain fields, His disciples plucked heads of grain, rubbed them in their hands, and ate them. |
| 2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? | Some of the Pharisees said, "Why are You doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?" |
| 3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him; | Jesus answered them, "Have You not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with Him — |
| 4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? | how He entered the house of God and took and ate the showbread, and gave some to those with Him? This bread is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests alone." |
| 5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. | He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." |

| 6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. | On another Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught. A man was there whose right hand was withered. |
| 7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. | The scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath, so they could find a reason to accuse Him. |
| 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. | But He knew their thoughts and said to the man with the withered hand, "Rise and stand in the middle." He rose and stood there. |
| 9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? | Jesus said to them, "I ask You one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil? To save life or to destroy it?" |
| 10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other. | He looked around at all of them and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored. |
| 11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus. | They were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus. |
| 12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. | In those days He went out to the mountain to pray and spent the whole night in prayer to God. |
| 13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; | When day came, He called His disciples and chose twelve of them, whom He named apostles: |

- | | |

| 14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, | Simon (whom he named Peter), Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, |
| 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, | Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, |
| 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor. | Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor. |
| 17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; | He came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples was there, along with a great number of people from all Judaea and Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. They came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. |
| 18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. | Those troubled by unclean spirits were also healed. |
| 19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all. | The whole crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was going out from Him and healing everyone. |
| 20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. | He lifted up His eyes on His disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. |
| 21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh. | Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. |
| 22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. | Blessed are You when people hate You, exclude You, insult You, and reject Your name as evil because of the Son of Man. |

| 23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets. | Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for Your reward is great in heaven. Their fathers treated the prophets the same way. |
| 24 But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation. | But woe to You who are rich, for You have already received Your comfort. |
| 25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. | Woe to You who are full now, for You will hunger. Woe to You who laugh now, for You will mourn and weep. |
| 26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets. | Woe to You when everyone speaks well of You, for that is what their fathers did to the false prophets. |
| 27 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, | But I say to You who hear: Love Your enemies. Do good to those who hate You. |
| 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you. | Bless those who curse You. Pray for those who mistreat You. |
| 29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also. | To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also. To the one who takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt either. |
| 30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. | Give to everyone who asks of You. From the one who takes your things, do not demand them back. |
| 31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. | Do to others as You would have them do to You. |
| 32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. | If You love those who love You, what credit is that to You? Even sinners love those who love them. |
| 33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. | If You do good to those who do good to You, what credit is that to You? Even sinners do the same. |

- 34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. If You lend to those from whom You expect repayment, what credit is that to You? Even sinners lend to sinners to get back the same amount.
- 35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. But love Your enemies, do good, and lend without expecting anything back. Your reward will be great, and You will be children of the Highest, for He is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.
- 36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful. Be merciful, just as Your Father is merciful.
- 37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: Do not judge, and You will not be judged. Do not condemn, and You will not be condemned. Forgive, and You will be forgiven.
- 38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again. Give, and it will be given to You — good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be poured into Your lap. For with the measure You use, it will be measured back to You."
- 39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch? He also told them a parable: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a ditch?
- 40 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master. A disciple is not above His teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like His teacher.
- 41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Why do You see the speck in Your brother's eye but fail to notice the beam in Your own eye?

|--|--|
| 42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. | How can You say to Your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck from Your eye,' when You don't see the beam in Your own eye? You hypocrite — first take the beam out of Your own eye, and then You will see clearly to remove the speck from Your brother's eye. |
| 43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. | A good tree does not produce corrupt fruit, and a corrupt tree does not produce good fruit. |
| 44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. | Every tree is known by its own fruit. People do not gather figs from thorns, or grapes from a bramble bush. |
| 45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. | A good man brings forth good from the good stored in His heart. An evil man brings forth evil from the evil stored in His heart. For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. |
| 46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? | Why do You call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I say? |
| 47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: | Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and does them — I will show You what He is like. |
| 48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. | He is like a man who built a house and dug deep, laying the foundation on rock. When the flood rose, the stream beat against that house but could not shake it, because it was built on rock. |

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great. But the one who hears and does not act is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream beat against it, it immediately collapsed, and the ruin was great."

Words in this chapter:

shewbread (SHOW-bred) — Twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on the golden table in the Holy Place each Sabbath — representing the twelve tribes before God; also called 'bread of the Presence.'

Chapter 7

Jesus heals the centurion's servant from a distance, marveling at the centurion's faith, and raises a widow's dead son at Nain. John the Baptist sends messengers asking if Jesus is the one who was to come, and Jesus answers by pointing to His miracles. A sinful woman washes Jesus's feet with her tears and anoints them with ointment, and Jesus forgives her sins.

- 1 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum. When He had finished all His sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.
- 2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die. A certain centurion had a servant who was dear to Him, and the servant was sick and near death.

| 3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant. | When the centurion heard about Jesus, He sent some elders of the Jews to Him, asking Him to come and heal His servant. |
| 4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this: | When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to do this, |
| 5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue. | for He loves our nation and built us a synagogue." |
| 6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof: | Jesus went with them. When He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. |
| 7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed. | Therefore I did not think myself worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. |
| 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. | For I myself am a man placed under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to one, 'Go,' and He goes; to another, 'Come,' and He comes; to my servant, 'Do this,' and He does it." |
| 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. | When Jesus heard this, he marveled at the centurion and turned to the crowd following him. He said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith." |
| 10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick. | When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant well. |

- 11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. Soon afterward He went to a city called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went with Him.
- 12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. As He drew near to the gate of the city, a man who had died was being carried out — the only son of His mother, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was with her.
- 13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, "Do not weep."
- 14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. He came and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stopped. He said, "Young man, I say to You, arise."
- 15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave Him back to His mother.
- 16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people. Fear came on everyone, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us!" and "God has visited His people!"
- 17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about. This report about Him spread through all Judaea and the surrounding region.
- 18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things. The disciples of John told him about all these things.
- 19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? John called two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for another?"

- 20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? When the men came to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?'"
- 21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight. In that same hour He healed many people of sicknesses and afflictions and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind.
- 22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. He answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have the gospel preached to them.
- 23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. Blessed is the one who is not offended by Me."
- 24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind? When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
- 25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. What did You go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear fine clothes and live in luxury are in royal palaces.
- 26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. What did You go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell You, and much more than a prophet.
- 27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. This is the one about whom it is written: 'I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.'

- | | |
| 28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. | I tell You, among those born of women there is no greater prophet than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than He." |
| 29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. | All the people who heard him, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God's justice, having been baptized with John's baptism. |
| 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him. | But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God's purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John. |
| 31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? | The Lord said, "To what then shall I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? |
| 32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept. | They are like children sitting in the marketplace, calling to one another: 'We played the flute for You, and You did not dance; we sang a lament, and You did not weep.' |
| 33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil. | For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and You say, 'He has a devil.' |
| 34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! | The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and You say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' |
| 35 But wisdom is justified of all her children. | Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children." |

- 36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. One of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with Him. He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table.
- 37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, A woman of the city who was a sinner learned that he was reclining at the Pharisee's house. She brought an alabaster flask of ointment,
- 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears. She wiped them with her hair, kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
- 39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman is touching Him — she is a sinner."
- 40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on. Jesus answered Him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said, "Master, say it."
- 41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty. "A certain creditor had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii and the other fifty.
- 42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most? When neither of them could pay, He cancelled both debts. Which of them will love Him more?"
- 43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged. Simon answered, "The one who had the larger debt cancelled, I suppose." He said to Him, "You have judged correctly."

| 44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. 45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet. 46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. 47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little. 48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. 49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also? 50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace. | Turning to the woman he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house. You gave Me no water for My feet, but she washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You gave Me no kiss, but she has not stopped kissing My feet since I came in. You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with ointment. Therefore I tell you, her many sins are forgiven — she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little loves little." He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." Those reclining at the table began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace." |

Jesus travels through cities and villages preaching, accompanied by the twelve and several women who provide for Him. He tells the parable of the sower, calms a storm on the sea, casts a legion of demons out of a man among the tombs, heals a woman with a twelve-year flow of blood, and raises Jairus's daughter from the dead.

| 1 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, | After this He traveled through every city and village, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with Him, |
| 2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils, | and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary called Magdalene, out of whom seven devils had gone, |
| 3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance. | Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others. These women served Him out of their own means. |
| 4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable: | When a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable: |
| 5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. | "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path, was trampled, and the birds of the air devoured it. |
| 6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. | Some fell on the rock, and as it grew up it withered away because it had no moisture. |

- 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it. Some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it.
- 8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Other seed fell on good ground and grew up and produced a hundredfold." As He said this, He called out, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."
- 9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? His disciples asked Him what this parable meant.
- 10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to others I speak in parables, so that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.
- 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Now this is what the parable means: The seed is the word of God.
- 12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. Those along the path are those who hear, but then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.
- 13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. Those on the rock are those who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, and in a time of testing they fall away.
- 14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. The seed that fell among thorns — these are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches, and pleasures, and they never mature.

- 15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. The seed on the good ground — these are those who hear the word with an honest and good heart, hold it fast, and produce fruit with patience.
- 16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light. No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. He puts it on a stand so that those who enter may see the light.
- 17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, and nothing is hidden that will not be known and come to light.
- 18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Therefore take care how you hear. Whoever has, more will be given to him. Whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him."
- 19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. His mother and brothers came to Him, but they could not reach Him because of the crowd.
- 20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. Someone told him, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You."
- 21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it. He answered them, "My mother and My brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."
- 22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth. One day He got into a boat with His disciples and said, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." They set out.

- 23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. As they were sailing He fell asleep. A windstorm came down on the lake, the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.
- 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. They came to Him and woke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" He rose and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. They stopped, and there was calm.
- 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him. He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Afraid and amazed, they said to one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"
- 26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. They sailed to the region of the Gadarenes, which is across from Galilee.
- 27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs. When He stepped ashore, a man from the city met him who had had devils for a long time. He wore no clothes and did not live in a house but among the tombs.
- 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not. When He saw Jesus, He cried out, fell down before Him, and said with a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!"
- 29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was bound with chains and shackles, He would break them and be driven by the devil into the wilderness.

- 30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him. Jesus asked Him, "What is Your name?" He said, "Legion," because many devils had entered Him.
- 31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. They begged Him not to command them to go into the abyss.
- 32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. A large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside. The devils begged Him to let them enter the pigs, and He allowed it.
- 33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked. The devils came out of the man and entered the pigs. The herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.
- 34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country. When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside.
- 35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the devils had gone, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in His right mind. They were afraid.
- 36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed. Those who had seen it told them how the demon-possessed man had been healed.
- 37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again. The whole crowd from the region of the Gadarenes asked Him to leave them, for they were seized with great fear. So He got into the boat and returned.

| 38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, | The man from whom the devils had gone begged to be with Him. But Jesus sent Him away, saying, |
| 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him. | "Return to Your home and tell how much God has done for You." He went away and proclaimed throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for Him. |
| 40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. | When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all waiting for Him. |
| 41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house: | A man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet. He begged Him to come to His house, |
- NAME NOTE — Jairus (JAY-ih-rus) — "he will enlighten" or "God enlightens" — A ruler of the synagogue whose daughter Jesus raised from the dead.

| 42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him. | for He had an only daughter about twelve years old, and she was dying. As Jesus went, the crowd pressed around Him. |
| 43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any, | A woman who had a discharge of blood for twelve years — who had spent all she had on doctors and could not be healed by any of them — |
| 44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchd. | came up behind Him and touched the edge of His garment. Immediately her discharge of blood stopped. |

- 45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? Jesus said, "Who touched Me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowd surrounds you and presses in on You — how can You ask, 'Who touched Me?'"
- 46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. Jesus said, "Someone has touched Me, for I know that power has gone out from Me."
- 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. When the woman saw that she was discovered, she came trembling. Falling down before Him, she declared in front of all the people why she had touched him and how she had been healed immediately.
- 48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. He said to her, "Daughter, be of good comfort — your faith has made you whole. Go in peace."
- 49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master. While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the synagogue's house and said, "Your daughter is dead. Trouble not the Master."
- 50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole. Hearing this, Jesus answered Him, "Do not be afraid — only believe, and she will be made well."
- 51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. When He came to the house, He allowed no one to enter with him except Peter, James, John, and the child's father and mother.
- 52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth. All were weeping and mourning for her. He said, "Do not weep. She is not dead, but sleeping."
- 53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead. They laughed at Him, knowing she was dead.

| 54 | And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise. | He took her by the hand and called out, "Child, arise!" |
| 55 | And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat. | Her spirit returned, and she got up immediately. He directed that something be given to her to eat. |
| 56 | And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done. | Her parents were astonished, but He directed them to tell no one what had happened. |

Jesus sends the twelve apostles out to preach and heal, then feeds five thousand men with five loaves and two fish. Peter confesses that Jesus is the Christ, and Jesus foretells His death and resurrection. Jesus is transfigured on a mountain before Peter, James, and John.

| 2 | And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. | He sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. |
| 3 | And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece. | He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey — no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, and no extra coat. |
| 4 | And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart. | Whatever house You enter, stay there until You leave that place. |
| 5 | And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. | Wherever they do not receive You, shake off the dust from Your feet as a testimony against them when You leave that city." |
| 6 | And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where. | They left and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere. |
| 7 | Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead; | Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was happening, and he was perplexed. Some were saying that John had risen from the dead, |
| 8 | And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. | others that Elijah had appeared, and others that one of the ancient prophets had risen. |
| 9 | And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him. | Herod said, "John I had beheaded — but who is this about whom I hear such things?" He wanted to see Jesus. |
| 10 | And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. | When the apostles returned, they told Him all they had done. He took them and withdrew privately to a place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. |

- 11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing. When the crowds learned of it, they followed Him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.
- 12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place. As the day began to draw to a close, the twelve came to Him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are here in a deserted place."
- 13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people. But He said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish — unless we go and buy food for all this people."
- 14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company. There were about five thousand men. He said to His disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."
- 15 And they did so, and made them all sit down. They did so, and had everyone sit down.
- 16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. He took the five loaves and two fish, looked up to heaven, and gave thanks. He broke them and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.
- 17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets. They all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of broken pieces were taken up as leftovers.
- 18 And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am? One day as He was praying alone with His disciples nearby, He asked them, "Who do the people say that I am?"

| 28 And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. | About eight days after saying these things, He took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. |
| 29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. | As He prayed, the fashion of His countenance was altered, and His clothes became white and gleaming. |
| 30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: | Two men were talking with Him — Moses and Elijah — |
| 31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. | who appeared in glory and spoke of His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. |
| 32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. | Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep. When they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him. |
| 33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. | As the men were parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — not knowing what he was saying. |
| 34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. | While He was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. |
| 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. | A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son — hear Him!" |

| 36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. | When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen. |
| 37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him. | On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him. |
| 38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child. | A man in the crowd cried out, "Master, I beg you, look on my son, for He is my only child. |
| 39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him. | A spirit seizes Him and He suddenly cries out. It throws Him into convulsions and He foams at the mouth. It bruises Him and barely leaves Him. |
| 40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not. | I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." |
| 41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither. | Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with You and bear with You? Bring Your son here." |
| 42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. | As the boy was coming, the devil threw him down and convulsed him. Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. |
| 43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, | They were all amazed at the majesty of God. While everyone was marveling at all Jesus did, He said to His disciples, |

- 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men. "Let these words sink into Your ears: the Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men."
- 45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying. But they did not understand what He said. It was hidden from them so they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.
- 46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. An argument arose among them about which of them was the greatest.
- 47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, Jesus, knowing the thought of their hearts, took a child and set Him by His side.
- 48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great. He said to them, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives the One who sent Me. For the one who is least among you all is the one who is great."
- 49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us. John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out devils in your name, and we stopped Him because He does not follow with us."
- 50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us. Jesus said to Him, "Do not stop Him, for the one who is not against us is for us."
- 51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, When the time drew near for Him to be taken up, He set His face steadfastly to go to Jerusalem.
- 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. He sent messengers ahead of Him, and they went into a village of the Samaritans to prepare for Him.

- 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. But the people did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem.
- 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven and consume them, as Elijah did?"
- 55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. But He turned and rebuked them and said, "You do not know what spirit you are of.
- 56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village. For the Son of Man has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." And they went to another village.
- 57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "Lord, I will follow you wherever You go."
- 58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Jesus said to Him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
- 59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. He said to another, "Follow Me." But He said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."
- 60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God. Jesus said to Him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. But You go and proclaim the kingdom of God."
- 61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house. Another said, "Lord, I will follow You, but let me first say farewell to those at my home."

- 62 *And Jesus said unto him, No man, Jesus said to Him, "No one who puts having put his hand to the plough, and his hand to the plow and looks back is looking back, is fit for the kingdom of fit for the kingdom of God."
God.*

Words in this chapter:

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

victuals (VIT-ulz) — Food provisions — supplies of food for a journey or army; also spelled 'victuals.'

Samaritans (sah-MEHR-ih-tanz) — People of mixed descent who lived in Samaria after the Assyrian conquest — Jews despised them as half-breeds who had corrupted their religion; Jesus's parable of the Good Samaritan shocked His audience.

Chapter 10

Jesus sends out seventy disciples ahead of Him into every city. He pronounces woe on Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum for their unbelief, and tells the parable of the Good Samaritan. He visits the home of Martha and Mary, commending Mary for choosing the better part.

- 1 *After these things the Lord appointed After this the Lord appointed seventy other seventy also, and sent them two others and sent them out two by two and two before his face into every city ahead of Him into every city and place and place, whither he himself would where He Himself was about to come.

| 2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. | He said to them, "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. Pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest. |
| 3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. | Go — I send You out as lambs among wolves. |
| 4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way. | Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals. Greet no one along the road. |
| 5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house. | Into whatever house You enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' |
| 6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. | If a son of peace is there, Your peace will rest on Him. If not, it will return to You. |
| 7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. | Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the worker is worthy of His wages. Do not go from house to house. |
| 8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: | Whenever You enter a city and they receive You, eat what is set before You. |
| 9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. | Heal the sick there and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to You.' |
| 10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, | But when You enter a city and they do not receive You, go into its streets and say, |
| 11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. | 'Even the dust of Your city that clings to our feet we wipe off against You. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.' |

- 12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. I tell You, it will be more bearable for Sodom on that day than for that city.
- 13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Woe to You, Chorazin! Woe to You, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in You had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
- 14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you. It will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for You.
- 15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell. And You, Capernaum — will You be lifted up to heaven? You will be brought down to hell.
- 16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. Whoever listens to you listens to Me. Whoever rejects you rejects Me. And whoever rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."
- 17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the devils are subject to us in Your name!"
- 18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. He said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.
- 19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will hurt you by any means.
- 20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this — that the spirits are subject to you — but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

- 21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. At that moment Jesus rejoiced in the Spirit and said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was Your good pleasure.
- 22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."
- 23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: Turning to His disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what You see.
- 24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. For I tell You that many prophets and kings wanted to see what You see but did not see it, and to hear what You hear but did not hear it."
- 25 And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? A certain lawyer stood up to test Him, saying, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"
- 26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readeest thou? He said to Him, "What is written in the law? How do You read it?"
- 27 And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. He answered, "You shall love the Lord Your God with all Your heart, with all Your soul, with all Your strength, and with all Your mind; and Your neighbor as Yourself."
- 28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. He said to Him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and You will live."

- 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? But wanting to justify Himself, He said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"
- 30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Jesus answered, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and He fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped Him of His clothes, beat Him, and left Him half dead.
- 31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. A priest happened to be going down that road. When he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.
- 32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.
- 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came to where the man was. When he saw him, he had compassion on him.
- 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. He went to him, bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
- 35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. He said, "Take care of him, and whatever more you spend I will repay you when I come back."
- 36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves? Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

| 37 | And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. | He said, "The one who showed mercy on him." Jesus said to Him, "Go and do likewise." |
| 38 | Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. | As they went on their way, He entered a village. A woman named Martha received him into her house. |

■ NAME NOTE — Martha (MAR-thuh) — "lady" or "mistress of the house" — Sister of Mary and Lazarus of Bethany. She welcomed Jesus into her home and is known for her service.

| 39 | And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. | She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his word. |
| 40 | But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. | But Martha was distracted with much serving. She came to Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her to help me." |
| 41 | And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: | The Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. |
| 42 | But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. | But one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken away from her." |

Words in this chapter:

Jericho (JEHR-ih-ko) — The first city Israel conquered in Canaan — its walls fell when the priests blew their trumpets on the seventh day after seven days of marching; its name may mean 'city of the moon.'

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 11

Jesus teaches His disciples to pray and gives them a model prayer. He casts out a demon and refutes the accusation that He works by Beelzebub, declaring that a kingdom divided against itself cannot stand. He pronounces woes on the Pharisees and lawyers for their hypocrisy.

| 1 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples. | One day He was praying in a certain place. When He stopped, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples." |
| 2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. | He said to them, "When You pray, say: Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. |
| 3 Give us day by day our daily bread. | Give us day by day our daily bread. |
| 4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. | Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." |
| 5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; | He said to them, "Which of You will have a friend, and will go to Him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, |
| 6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? | for a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to set before Him'? |

| 7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. | And He will answer from inside, 'Do not bother me. The door is already shut and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give You anything.' |
| 8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. | I tell You, though He will not get up and give Him anything because He is His friend, yet because of His persistent asking He will rise and give Him as much as He needs. |
| 9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. | So I say to You: Ask, and it will be given to You. Seek, and You will find. Knock, and it will be opened to You. |
| 10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. | For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. |
| 11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? | What father among You, if His son asks for bread, will give Him a stone? Or if He asks for a fish, will give Him a snake instead? |
| 12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? | Or if He asks for an egg, will give Him a scorpion? |
| 13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? | If You then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to Your children, how much more will Your heavenly Father give the Holy Ghost to those who ask Him!" |
| 14 And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. | He was casting out a devil, and it was mute. When the devil had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the people marveled. |
| 15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils. | But some of them said, "He casts out devils by Beelzebub, the ruler of the devils." |

- 16 And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven. Others, to test Him, demanded a sign from heaven.
- 17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. But He knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin, and a divided house falls.
- 18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? You say I cast out devils by Beelzebub.
- 19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. And if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? They will be your judges.
- 20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. But if I cast out devils by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.
- 21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe.
- 22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. But when one stronger than he comes and overpowers him, he takes away his full armor in which he trusted and divides his spoils.
- 23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters.
- 24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finding none it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'

- | | | |
| 26 | Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. | Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there. The final condition of that man is worse than the first." |
| 27 | And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked. | As He said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nursed You!" |
| 28 | But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. | But He said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!" |
| 29 | And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet. | When the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. |
| 30 | For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. | For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. |
| 31 | The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. | The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And a greater than Solomon is here. |

| 33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light. | No one lights a lamp and puts it in a hidden place or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who come in may see the light. |
| 34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. | Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when your eye is evil, your body is full of darkness. |
| 35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. | Be careful, then, that the light in you is not darkness. |
| 36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light. | If your whole body is full of light, with no dark part, then it will be completely bright, as when a lamp gives you light with its bright rays. |
| 37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. | As He was speaking, a Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. He went in and reclined at the table. |
| 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. | The Pharisee was surprised to see that he did not first wash before dinner. |
| 39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. | The Lord said to Him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but your inside is full of greed and wickedness. |

- 40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also? You fools! Did not He who made the outside also make the inside?
- 41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you. Give what is inside as charity, and all things will be clean for you.
- 42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you should have done, without leaving the others undone.
- 43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets. Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.
- 44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."
- 45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also. One of the lawyers answered Him, "Master, in saying these things You insult us too."
- 46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch those burdens with even one of your fingers.
- 47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

- | | |
| 48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. | So you are witnesses that you approve of your fathers' deeds — they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs. |
| 49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: | Therefore the wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,' |
| 50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; | so that the blood of all the prophets shed from the foundation of the world may be charged against this generation — |
| 51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. | from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Truly I tell you, it will be charged against this generation. |
| 52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. | Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering." |
| 53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: | When He left there, the scribes and Pharisees began to press Him fiercely and to interrogate Him about many things, |
| 54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him. | lying in wait for Him and seeking to catch something from His mouth to accuse Him. |

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

- Abel (AY-bel) — Adam and Eve's second son — a shepherd whose offering God accepted; murdered by his brother Cain; in the NT, a model of faith.
- Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).
- Zacharias (zak-ah-RY-as) — A priest and the father of John the Baptist — struck mute when he doubted the angel's announcement; his name means 'the LORD remembers.'
- Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — The capital of Assyria — the great city to which Jonah was sent; when he preached, the whole city repented; it was later destroyed as Nahum prophesied.

Chapter 12

Jesus warns His disciples against the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy, and teaches them not to fear those who can kill the body. He tells the parable of the rich fool who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God, and urges His followers to be watchful and ready for the Son of man's coming.

| 3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. | Therefore whatever You have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what You have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the rooftops. |
| 4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. | I tell You, My friends: do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more. |
| 5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. | But I will warn You whom to fear: fear Him who, after killing, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell You, fear Him. |

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — The place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word — "hell" — for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. Here it refers to God's final judgment.

This night Your soul will be required of You. Then whose will those things be that You have stored up?' |
| 21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God. | That is what happens to the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God." |
| 22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on. | He said to His disciples, "Therefore I tell You, do not worry about Your life — what You will eat — or about Your body — what You will wear. |
| 23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment. | Life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. |
| 24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls? | Consider the ravens — they neither sow nor reap. They have no storehouse or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more are You worth than birds! |
| 25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? | Which of You by worrying can add a single hour to His life? |
| 26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest? | If then You are not able to do even a very small thing, why do You worry about the rest? |
| 27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. | Consider how the lilies grow. They neither toil nor spin. Yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. |

| 28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith? | If God clothes the grass of the field — which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace — how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith! |
| 29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. | Do not seek what you will eat or what you will drink, and do not be anxious. |
| 30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. | For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. |
| 31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. | Instead, seek His kingdom, and these things will be added to you. |
| 32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. | Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. |
| 33 Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth. | Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves with purses that do not grow old — a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. |
| 34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. | For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. |
| 35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning; | Let your loins be girded, and your lamps burning, |
| 36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. | Be like men who are waiting for their master to return from a wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks they can open the door for him immediately. |

| 37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. 38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. 39 And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. 40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not. 41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all? 42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? 43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. 44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. | Blessed are those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself for service, have them recline at the table, and come and serve them. If he comes in the second or third watch and finds them ready — blessed are those servants. Know this: if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour You do not expect." Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us or to everyone?" The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager whom the master will put in charge of his household staff, to give them their portion at the right time? Blessed is that servant whom the master finds doing this when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. |

- 45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is taking a long time to come,' and begins to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk,
- 46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. the master of that servant will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not know. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.
- 47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. That servant who knew his master's will but did not prepare himself or act according to his will shall be beaten with many blows.
- 48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more. But the one who did not know and did things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone to whom much is given, much will be required. From the one entrusted with much, even more will be asked.
- 49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled? I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!
- 50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! I have a baptism to undergo, and how great is My distress until it is accomplished!
- 51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.
- 52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. From now on, five in one household will be divided — three against two, and two against three.

| 53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. | Father will be divided against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law. |
| 54 And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is. | He also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. |
| 55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass. | When you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be heat,' and it happens. |
| 56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time? | You hypocrites! You know how to read the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to read this present time? |
| 57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right? | Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? |
| 58 When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison. | When you go with your accuser before a magistrate, try to settle with him on the way, or he may drag you before the judge, the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. |
| 59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite. | I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the very last penny." |

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

Jesus warns that unless the people repent, they will likewise perish, and He tells the parable of the barren fig tree. He heals a woman bent over for eighteen years on the Sabbath, teaches about the narrow gate, and laments over Jerusalem.

- 1 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. At that time, some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.
- 2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? Jesus answered them, "Do You think those Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered this way?"
- 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. No, I tell You. But unless You repent, You will all likewise perish.

| 4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. 6 He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. 7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground? 8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: 9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. 10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. 12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. 13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. | Or those eighteen on whom the tower of Siloam fell and killed them — do You think they were worse sinners than all others who lived in Jerusalem? No, I tell You. But unless You repent, You will all likewise perish." He also told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it and found none. He said to the keeper of his vineyard, 'Three years now I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree and found none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?' The keeper answered Him, 'Sir, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. If it bears fruit next year, good. If not, then cut it down.' " He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. There was a woman who had a spirit of illness for eighteen years. She was bent double and could not straighten up at all. When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, You are set free from Your illness." He laid His hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight and praised God. |

- 14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. The ruler of the synagogue was angry because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath. He said to the people, "There are six days in which people ought to work. Come on those days and be healed — not on the Sabbath day."
- 15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? The Lord answered Him, "You hypocrite! Does not each of You on the Sabbath untie His ox or his donkey from the stall and lead it away to water?"
- 16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? Should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has bound for eighteen years, be set free from this bond on the Sabbath day?"
- 17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. When He said this, all His opponents were put to shame. All the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he was doing.
- 18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to?"
- 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it. It is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a great tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches."
- 20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? Again He said, "What shall I compare the kingdom of God to?"
- 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour until the whole batch was leavened."

- 22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. He traveled through towns and villages, teaching as He made His way to Jerusalem.
- 23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" He said to them,
- 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. "Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able.
- 25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: Once the master of the house rises and shuts the door, you will stand outside and knock, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us.' He will answer, 'I do not know where you are from.'
- 26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. Then you will say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence. You taught in our streets.'
- 27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.'

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than the word "sin." Iniquity points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself, not just the act.

- 28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God — but you yourselves cast out.
- 29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. People will come from east and west, from north and south, and will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

| 30 | And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last. | Indeed, there are those who are last who will be first, and those who are first who will be last." |
| 31 | The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod will kill thee. | At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to Him, "Leave this place and go away, for Herod wants to kill you." |
| 32 | And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. | He said to them, "Go tell that fox, 'I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.' |
| 33 | Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem. | Still, I must go on today and tomorrow and the next day — for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem. |
| 34 | O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! | O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you! How often I wanted to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings — but you would not! |
| 35 | Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. | Your house is left to you desolate. Truly I say to you, you will not see Me until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.' " |

Pilate (PY-lat) — Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea — he found no fault in Jesus but allowed the crucifixion under pressure from the Jewish leaders.

Chapter 14

Jesus heals a man with dropsy on the Sabbath in the house of a Pharisee and teaches about humility at feasts. He tells the parable of the great supper, where those first invited refuse and the poor and outcast are brought in, and warns that those who follow Him must count the cost.

- | | | |
| 1 | And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him. | One Sabbath, Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, and they were watching Him closely. |
| 2 | And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. | There in front of Him was a man who had dropsy. |
| 3 | And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? | Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day, or not?" |
| 4 | And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go; | They were silent. So He took the man, healed him, and sent him away. |
| 5 | And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day? | Then He said to them, "Which of you, if your ass or your ox falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?" |
| 6 | And they could not answer him again to these things. | They could not reply to this. |
| 7 | And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them, | When He noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, He told them a parable. |

- | | |
| 8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him; | "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the place of honor. A more distinguished man than you may have been invited. |
| 9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. | The host who invited both of you will come and say, 'Give this man your seat.' Then you will have to take the lowest seat in shame. |
| 10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. | But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place. Then your host will come and say, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' That will bring you honor in front of everyone at the table. |
| 11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. | For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted." |
| 12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. | He also said to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a supper, do not invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, or your rich neighbors. They may invite you back and repay you. |
| 13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: | But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. |
| 14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. | You will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." |

- | | |
| 15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. | When one of those at the table heard this, He said to Jesus, "Blessed is the one who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!" |
| 16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many: | Jesus replied, "A man gave a great banquet and invited many people. |
| 17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. | At the time of the banquet, He sent His servant to tell those invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' |
| 18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. | But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, 'I have bought a field, and I must go see it. Please excuse me.' |
| 19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. | Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out. Please excuse me.' |
| 20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. | Another said, 'I have just married a wife, and so I cannot come.' |
| 21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. | The servant came and reported this to his master. The master of the house became angry and said to His servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city and bring in the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.' |
| 22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. | The servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and there is still room.' |
| 23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. | The master said to the servant, 'Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full.' |

- 24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper. I tell You, not one of those who were invited will taste my banquet.' "
- 25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, Large crowds were traveling with Jesus. He turned and said to them,
- 26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. "If anyone comes to Me and does not love Me more than his father and mother, his wife and children, His brothers and sisters — yes, even His own life — he cannot be My disciple.
- 27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.
- 28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Which of You, wanting to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost — whether He has enough to complete it?
- 29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Otherwise, if He lays the foundation and cannot finish, everyone who sees it will mock Him,
- 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.'
- 31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or what king, going to war against another king, does not first sit down and consider whether he can meet the one coming against him with twenty thousand — when he himself has only ten thousand?
- 32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. If he cannot, he sends a delegation while the other king is still far away and asks for terms of peace.

| 33 | So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. | In the same way, any one of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be My disciple. |
| 34 | Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? | Salt is good. But if salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? |
| 35 | It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. | It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile — it is thrown out. Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear." |

Jesus tells three parables about what was lost and found: the parable of the lost sheep, the parable of the lost coin, and the parable of the prodigal son. In each parable there is great joy in heaven over one sinner who repents.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. | All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to hear Him. |
|---|---|--|

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. | The Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." |
| 3 | And he spake this parable unto them, saying, | So He told them this parable: |
| 4 | What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? | "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost one until he finds it? |
| 5 | And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. | When he finds it, he joyfully lifts it onto his shoulders. |
| 6 | And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. | When he arrives home, he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me! I have found my lost sheep.' |
| 7 | I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. | I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. |
| 8 | Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? | Or what woman, having ten silver coins and losing one, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? |
| 9 | And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. | When she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me! I have found the coin I had lost.' |
| 10 | Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. | In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents." |

| 11 And he said, A certain man had two sons: | He also said, "A man had two sons. |
| 12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. | The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So the father divided his property between them. |
| 13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. | Not long after, the younger son gathered everything together and traveled to a distant country. There he squandered his wealth with wild living. |
| 14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. | When he had spent everything, a severe famine struck that whole country, and he began to be in need. |
| 15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. | He went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. |
| 16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. | He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything. |
| 17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! | When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more than enough food, and here I am starving to death! |
| 18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, | I will get up and go to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. |
| 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. | I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants." ' |

- 20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. So he got up and went to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, threw his arms around him, and kissed him.
- 21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
- 22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.
- 23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let us eat and celebrate!
- 24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found.' And they began to celebrate.
- 25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. Now the older son was in the field. As he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.
- 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. He called one of the servants and asked what was happening.
- 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. The servant told him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he received him back safe and well.'
- 28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. The older son became angry and refused to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.

| 29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: | The son answered his father, 'Look, all these years I have worked for you and never disobeyed your commands. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. |
| 30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. | But when this son of yours, who has wasted your property with prostitutes, came back — you killed the fattened calf for him! |
| 31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. | The father said to him, 'Son, you have always been with me, and everything I have is yours. |
| 32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found. | But it was right that we should celebrate and be glad. For this brother of yours was dead and is alive again. He was lost and is found.' " |

Words in this chapter:

fain — Gladly; willingly — 'he would fain have filled his belly' means he was desperate to eat.

Chapter 16

Jesus tells the parable of the unjust steward and teaches about faithfulness in that which is least and the impossibility of serving both God and mammon. He tells of the rich man and Lazarus, where the rich man dies and is tormented in hell while Lazarus rests in Abraham's bosom.

- | | |
| 1 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. | Jesus also said to His disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting His possessions. |
| 2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. | He called the manager in and said, 'What is this I hear about You? Give an account of Your management, because You can no longer be manager.' |
| 3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. | The manager said to himself, 'What will I do? My master is taking away my job. I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. |
| 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. | I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from this position, people will welcome me into their homes.' |
| 5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? | He called in each of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' |
| 6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. | 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied. The manager said, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write four hundred.' |
| 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. | Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' 'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied. He said, 'Take your bill and write eight hundred.' |

| 8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. | The master commended the dishonest manager for acting shrewdly. For the people of this world are shrewder in dealing with their own kind than the people of the light. |
| 9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. | I tell you, use worldly wealth to make friends for yourselves, so that when it fails, they will welcome you into eternal dwellings. |
| 10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. | Whoever is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much. Whoever is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. |
| 11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? | If then you have not been faithful in the use of worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? |
| 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? | And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to someone else, who will give you what is your own? |
| 13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. | No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money." |
| 14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. | The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. |
| 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. | He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of men. But God knows Your hearts. What is highly valued among men is an abomination in God's sight. |

| 16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. | The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is pressing into it. |
| 17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. | It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest part of the Law to fall away. |
| 18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery. | Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. And everyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery. |
| 19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: | There was a rich man who dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. |
| 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, | At his gate lay a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores. |

■ NAME NOTE — Lazarus (LAZ-uh-russ) — "God is my help" — A poor, sick beggar in Jesus' parable about wealth and the afterlife.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. | He longed to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. |
| 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; | The beggar died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. |
| 23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. | In hell, the rich man was in torment. He looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus at his side. |

| 24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. | He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in this fire.' |
| 25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. | But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received good things, while Lazarus received evil things. But now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.' |
| 26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. | Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you. Those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.' |
| 27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: | Then he said, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house, |
| 28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. | for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.' |
| 29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. | Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them listen to them.' |
| 30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. | 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' |
| 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead. | Abraham said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.' " |

mammon (MAM-un) — An Aramaic word for wealth or riches — Jesus used it as a personified rival to God, warning that no one can serve both God and Mammon.

Lazarus (LAZ-ah-rus) — The brother of Mary and Martha whom Jesus raised from the dead after four days in the tomb — his name is a form of Eleazar, meaning 'God has helped.'

Chapter 17

Jesus teaches His disciples about offenses, forgiveness, and faith, telling them that faith the size of a mustard seed can uproot a tree. He cleanses ten lepers, and only one — a Samaritan — returns to give thanks. He teaches about the coming of the kingdom of God and the day of the Son of man.

| 1 Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! | Jesus said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks will come — but woe to the one through whom they come! |
| 2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. | It would be better for Him to have a millstone hung around His neck and be thrown into the sea than to cause one of these little ones to stumble. |
| 3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. | Watch yourselves. If Your brother sins against You, rebuke Him. If He repents, forgive Him. |

- 4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. Even if He sins against You seven times in a day and seven times comes back to You saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive Him."
- 5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"
- 6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. The Lord replied, "If You had faith as small as a grain of mustard seed, You could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey You.
- 7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat? Which of You, having a servant who is plowing or tending sheep, will say to Him when He comes in from the field, 'Come right in and sit down to eat'?
- 8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Will He not say instead, 'Prepare my supper, get dressed and serve me while I eat and drink — and after that You may eat and drink'?
- 9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not. Does He thank the servant because he did what was commanded? I think not.
- 10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do. So You also, when You have done everything commanded of You, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have only done our duty.' "
- 11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. As Jesus made His way to Jerusalem, He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

| 28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; | It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. |
| 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. | But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. |

Words in this chapter:

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Noah (NO-ah) — The righteous man God chose to preserve humanity and the animals through the Flood — he built the ark at God's command; his name means 'rest' or 'comfort.'

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 18

Jesus tells the parable of the persistent widow and the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector who went up to the temple to pray. He blesses little children, tells a rich ruler to sell all he has, foretells His death and resurrection, and heals a blind man near Jericho.

- | | |

| 1 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint; | Jesus told them a parable to show that they should always pray and not give up. |
| 2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: | He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about people. |
| 3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. | In that city there was a widow who kept coming to Him, saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.' |
| 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; | For a while He refused. But finally He said to Himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor care about people, |
| 5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. | yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice — so that she will not wear me out by her constant coming.' " |
| 6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith. | The Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says. |
| 7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? | Will not God bring about justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He keep putting them off? |
| 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? | I tell You, He will see that they get justice quickly. Yet when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?" |

| 9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. 12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. 13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. | He also told this parable to some who were confident in their own righteousness and looked down on everyone else: "Two men went up to the temple to pray — one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed about himself: 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men — robbers, evildoers, adulterers — or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.' But the tax collector stood far away. He would not even lift His eyes toward heaven, but beat His chest and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.' I tell you, this man went home justified before God — not the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted." |

| 21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. | The ruler said, "All these I have kept since I was a boy." |

Sell everything You have and give to the poor, and You will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." |
| 23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. | When the ruler heard this, He became very sorrowful, for He was very wealthy. |
| 24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! | Jesus looked at Him and said, "How hard it is for the wealthy to enter the kingdom of God! |

| 31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. | Jesus took the Twelve aside and said to them, "We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. |
| 32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: | He will be handed over to the Gentiles. They will mock Him, insult Him, and spit on Him. |
| 33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. | They will flog Him and kill Him. On the third day He will rise again." |

publican — A Jewish tax collector working for Rome — despised by fellow Jews as a traitor and swindler; also called 'tax collectors' in modern translations.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Jericho (JEHR-ih-ko) — The first city Israel conquered in Canaan — its walls fell when the priests blew their trumpets on the seventh day after seven days of marching; its name may mean 'city of the moon.'

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Chapter 19

Zacchaeus the tax collector climbs a sycamore tree to see Jesus, and Jesus declares salvation has come to his house. Jesus tells the parable of the ten pounds and enters Jerusalem riding on a colt as the crowds praise God. He weeps over the city and drives the merchants out of the temple.

- 18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. The second came and said, 'Lord, your pound has made five more pounds.'
- 19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. He said to him as well, 'You will be over five cities.'
- 20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: Another came and said, 'Lord, here is your pound. I kept it stored away in a cloth.'
- 21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. 'I was afraid of you, because you are a strict man. You take up what you did not put down, and you reap what you did not sow.'
- 22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: He said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant. You knew that I was a strict man, taking up what I did not put down and reaping what I did not sow.'

- 23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? 'Therefore, why did you not put my money in the bank? Then at my coming I could have collected it with interest.'
- 24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. He said to those standing nearby, 'Take the pound from him and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'
- 25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) They said to him, 'Lord, he already has ten pounds.'
- 26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given. But from the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.'
- 27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. 'But those enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them — bring them here and kill them in my presence.'
- 28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem. After Jesus said these things, He went on ahead, going up toward Jerusalem.
- 29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, When He drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples ahead.
- 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither. He said, "Go into the village ahead of You. As You enter, You will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here."
- 31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him. "If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say this: 'The Lord has need of it.'"
- 32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them. Those who were sent went and found it just as He had told them.

Chapter 20

The chief priests and scribes challenge Jesus's authority, and He answers with the parable of the wicked husbandmen. They try to trap Him with questions about paying tribute to Caesar and the resurrection of the dead, but He silences them each time.

| 1 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders, | One day as He was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came up to Him with the elders. |
| 2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? | They said to Him, "Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?" |
| 3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me: | He answered them, "I also will ask You a question. Tell me:" |
| 4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? | "Was the baptism of John from heaven, or from men?" |
| 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not? | They discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did You not believe Him?'" |
| 6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet. | "But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet." |
| 7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was. | So they answered that they did not know where it was from. |
| 8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. | Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell You by what authority I do these things." |

- 9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time. Then He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, rented it out to farmers, and went away to a distant country for a long time."
- 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. At harvest time He sent a servant to the farmers to collect some of the fruit. But the farmers beat Him and sent Him away empty-handed.
- 11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. He sent another servant, but they beat that one too, treated Him shamefully, and sent Him away empty-handed.
- 12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out. He sent a third, and they wounded Him too and threw Him out.
- 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him. Then the owner of the vineyard said, "What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect Him when they see Him."
- 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. But when the farmers saw Him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, "This is the heir. Let us kill Him so that the inheritance will be ours."
- 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? So they threw Him out of the vineyard and killed Him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?
- 16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid. He will come and destroy those farmers and give the vineyard to others. When they heard this, they said, "May that never happen!"

- 17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written: 'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone'?"
- 18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. "Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces. And when it falls on anyone, it will crush him."
- 19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them. The chief priests and the scribes wanted to arrest Him that very hour, but they feared the people. They knew he had spoken this parable against them.
- 20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor. They watched Him closely and sent spies who pretended to be sincere. They hoped to catch Him in something He said, so they could hand Him over to the authority of the governor.
- 21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly: They asked Him, "Master, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and that You show no partiality. You teach the way of God truthfully."
- 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no? "Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
- 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me? He saw through their trickery and said to them, "Why do You tempt Me?"
- 24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar's. "Show Me a denarius. Whose image and inscription does it have?" They answered, "Caesar's."
- 25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's. He said to them, "Then give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God."

- 26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace. They could not trap Him in His words before the people. They marveled at his answer and were silent.
- 27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him, Some of the Sadducees — who deny that there is a resurrection — came to Him and asked,
- 28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. "Master, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up children for his brother."
- 29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children. Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died without children.
- 30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless. The second took her as wife, and he also died childless.
- 31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died. The third took her, and in the same way all seven died, leaving no children.
- 32 Last of all the woman died also. Finally, the woman also died.
- 33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife. "In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will she be? For all seven had her as wife."
- 34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage: Jesus said to them, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage."
- 35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: "But those who are considered worthy to reach that age and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage."

- 36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. "They can no longer die, for they are like the angels. They are children of God, being children of the resurrection."
- 37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. "That the dead are raised — even Moses showed this at the burning bush, when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'"
- 38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. "He is not the God of the dead but of the living, for all are alive to Him."
- 39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said. Some of the scribes answered, "Master, you have spoken well."
- 40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all. After that they did not dare to ask Him anything else.
- 41 And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son? He said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son?"
- 42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, "David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at My right hand,'"
- 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool. "'until I make Your enemies Your footstool.'"
- 44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son? "David therefore calls him Lord. How then is he his son?"
- 45 Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples, While all the people were listening, he said to his disciples,
- 46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts; "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at feasts."
- 47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation. "They devour widows' houses and for a show make long prayers. These will receive greater damnation."

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When Jesus warns of "greater damnation," He is speaking of a heavier sentence of divine judgment.

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

Chapter 21

Jesus commends a poor widow who casts two mites into the treasury, giving more than all the rest. He foretells the destruction of the temple and the signs of the end — wars, earthquakes, persecution, and Jerusalem surrounded by armies — and warns His disciples to watch and pray.

| 1 | And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. | He looked up and saw the wealthy putting their gifts into the offering box. |
| 2 | And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. | He also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. |
| 3 | And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: | He said, "Truly I say to You, this poor widow has put in more than all of them." |

- | | |

| 4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. | "For all these have given out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all the living she had." |
| 5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, | As some were speaking about the temple — how it was adorned with beautiful stones and offerings — He said, |
| 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. | "As for these things that You see — the days will come when there will not be left one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." |
| 7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? | They asked Him, "Master, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?" |
| 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. | He said, "Watch out that You are not deceived. Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and 'The time is near.' Do not go after them." |
| 9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by. | "When You hear of wars and uprisings, do not be terrified. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away." |
| 10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: | Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom." |
| 11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. | "There will be great earthquakes in various places, famines, and plagues. There will be terrifying events and great signs from heaven." |

| 12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. | "But before all this, they will lay their hands on You and persecute You. They will hand You over to synagogues and prisons, bringing You before kings and governors because of My name." |
| 13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony. | "This will be Your opportunity to testify." |
| 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: | "Settle it in Your hearts not to plan Your defense beforehand." |
| 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. | "For I will give You words and wisdom that none of Your opponents will be able to contradict or resist." |
| 16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. | "You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends. Some of You will be put to death." |
| 17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. | "You will be hated by everyone because of My name." |
| 18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish. | "But not a hair of Your head will perish." |
| 19 In your patience possess ye your souls. | "By Your endurance You will gain Your lives." |
| 20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. | "When You see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, know that its destruction is near." |
| 21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. | "Then let those who are in Judaea flee to the mountains. Let those who are inside the city get out. Let those who are in the countryside not enter it." |

- 22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. "For these are days of vengeance, to fulfill everything that is written."
- 23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. "How terrible it will be for those who are pregnant and for nursing mothers in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people."
- 24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. "They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all nations. Jerusalem will be trampled by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled."
- 25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; "There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. On earth the nations will be in anguish and confusion as the seas roar and toss."
- 26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. "People will faint from terror at what is coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken."
- 27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. "Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory."
- 28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. "When these things begin to happen, stand up and lift Your heads, because Your redemption is drawing near."

| 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. | "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away." |
| 34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. | "Be careful, or Your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness, and the worries of this life. That day will close on You suddenly." |
| 35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. | "For it will come like a trap on everyone who lives on the face of the whole earth." |
| 36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. | "So watch at all times, and pray that You may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man." |
| 37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. | Every day He was teaching in the temple. At night He went out and stayed on the mount called the Mount of Olives. |
| 38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him. | All the people came to him early in the morning at the temple to hear Him. |

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

Chapter 22

Judas agrees to betray Jesus for money, and Jesus observes the Last Supper with His disciples, instituting the new covenant in His blood. He prays in agony on the Mount of Olives, is betrayed by Judas, arrested, denied three times by Peter, and beaten and mocked by the guards.

| 1 | Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. | The Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was drawing near. |
| 2 | And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people. | The chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to kill Him, because they feared the people. |
| 3 | Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. | Then Satan entered into Judas, who was called Iscariot, one of the twelve. |
| 4 | And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them. | He went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers how He might betray Jesus to them. |
| 5 | And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money. | They were glad and agreed to give Him money. |
| 6 | And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. | He agreed and looked for an opportunity to betray Him when the crowd was not around. |

| 7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed. | The day of Unleavened Bread came, when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. |
| 8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. | He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, so we may eat it." |
| 9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? | They said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare it?" |
| 10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in. | He said to them, "When you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters." |
| 11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? | "Say to the owner of the house, 'The Master asks you: Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'" |
| 12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. | "He will show you a large upper room that is furnished. Prepare it there." |
| 13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. | They went and found it just as He had told them, and they prepared the Passover. |
| 14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him. | When the hour came, He reclined at the table, and the twelve apostles were with Him. |
| 15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: | He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer." |
| 16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. | "For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." |

- 17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: He took the cup and gave thanks and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves."
- 18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. "For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."
- 19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."
- 20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. In the same way, He took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new testament in My blood, which is shed for you."
- 21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. "But the hand of the one who betrays Me is with Me on the table."
- 22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! "The Son of Man goes as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"
- 23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing. They began to ask one another which of them it was who would do this.
- 24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest. A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was to be considered the greatest.
- 25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called benefactors."
- 26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. "But it must not be that way among You. Instead, the greatest among You must be like the youngest, and the leader like the one who serves."

| 27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. | "For who is greater — the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as the One who serves." |
| 28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. | "You are those who have stood by Me through My trials." |
| 29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; | "I appoint to You a kingdom, just as My Father has appointed one to Me." |
| 30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. | "You will eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and You will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel." |
| 31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: | The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat." |
| 32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. | "But I have prayed for you that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." |
| 33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. | He said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death." |
| 34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. | He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today before you deny three times that you know Me." |
| 35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. | He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing." |

- 36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. He said to them, "But now, let the one who has a purse take it, and likewise a bag. And let the one who has no sword sell his cloak and buy one."
- 37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end. "For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in Me: 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.' What is written about Me is reaching its fulfillment."
- 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. They said, "Lord, look, here are two swords." He said to them, "That is enough."
- 39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him. He went out and made His way, as was His custom, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples followed Him.
- 40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. When He arrived at the place, He said to them, "Pray that you do not enter into temptation."
- 41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, He withdrew from them about a stone's throw away, knelt down, and prayed.
- 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. He said, "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours, be done."
- 43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him. An angel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him.
- 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. Being in agony, He prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
- 45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, When He rose from prayer and came to His disciples, He found them asleep, exhausted from grief.

- 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. He said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you do not enter into temptation."
- 47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him. While He was still speaking, a crowd arrived. The one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came close to Jesus to kiss Him.
- 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? But Jesus said to Him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"
- 49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? When those around Him saw what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"
- 50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. One of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
- 51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. Jesus answered, "No more of this!" He touched the man's ear and healed him.
- 52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves? Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple, and the elders who had come to seize Him, "Have You come out with swords and clubs as if You were coming against a robber?"
- 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. "Every day I was with You in the temple, and You did not lay a hand on Me. But this is Your hour — the time when darkness rules."
- 54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. They seized Him, led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest's house. Peter followed at a distance.

- 55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. When they had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them.
- 56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him. A servant girl saw him sitting by the fire. She stared at him and said, "This man was with him too."
- 57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not. He denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."
- 58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. A little later someone else saw him and said, "You are one of them too." Peter said, "Man, I am not."
- 59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean. About an hour later someone else insisted, "This man was certainly with him, for he is a Galilean."
- 60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." Immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.
- 61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Peter remembered the word of the Lord — how he had said to Him, "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times."
- 62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly. Peter went out and wept bitterly.
- 63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him. The men who were holding Jesus mocked Him and struck Him.
- 64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee? They blindfolded Him, hit Him, and demanded, "Prophecy! Who struck You?"
- 65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him. They said many other blasphemous things against Him.

66	And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,	When day came, the elders of the people — the chief priests and scribes — assembled together and led Him before their council.
67	Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:	They said, "If You are the Christ, tell us." He said to them, "If I tell You, You will not believe."
68	And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.	"And if I ask You, You will not answer Me or let Me go."
69	Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.	"But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."
70	Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.	They all said, "Are You then the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say that I am."
71	And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.	They said, "What further need do we have of testimony? We have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

Words in this chapter:

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Chapter 23

Jesus is brought before Pilate and Herod, who find no fault in Him, but the crowd demands His crucifixion and the release of Barabbas. Jesus is crucified between two thieves, and one repents and is promised paradise. Jesus commits His spirit to the Father and dies, and Joseph of Arimathaea buries Him.

| 1 | And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. | The whole assembly rose and brought Him before Pilate. |
| 2 | And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. | They began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Christ, a king." |
| 3 | And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it. | Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "You say so." |
| 4 | Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man. | Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no guilt in this man." |
| 5 | And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. | They pressed harder, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee all the way to this place." |
| 6 | When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean. | When Pilate heard "Galilee," he asked whether the man was a Galilean. |
| 7 | And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time. | When He learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. |

| 8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him. | When Herod saw Jesus, He was greatly pleased, for He had wanted to see Him for a long time. He had heard many things about Him and hoped to see some miracle performed by Him. |
| 9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing. | He questioned Jesus at length, but Jesus gave Him no answer. |
| 10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him. | The chief priests and scribes stood there, accusing Him forcefully. |
| 11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate. | Herod and his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked Him. They put a splendid robe on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. |
| 12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves. | That same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other. Before this, they had been enemies. |
| 13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, | Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people. |
| 14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: | He said to them, "You brought this man to me as one who was misleading the people. I have examined him before you and found no guilt in Him regarding the charges you bring against Him." |
| 15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him. | "Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. He has done nothing deserving of death." |
| 16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him. | "I will therefore punish Him and release Him." |
| 17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) | For it was necessary for him to release one prisoner to them at the feast. |

- 18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: They all cried out together, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!"

■ NAME NOTE — Barabbas (buh-RAB-us) — "son of the father" — A notorious prisoner who had been put in prison for insurrection and murder. The crowd chose his release over Jesus.

- 19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.) This was a man who had been thrown into prison for a rebellion in the city and for murder.
- 20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, spoke to them again.
- 21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. But they kept shouting, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"
- 22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. A third time He said to them, "Why? What wrong has He done? I have found no reason to put Him to death. I will therefore punish Him and release Him."
- 23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. But they kept urgently demanding with loud voices that He be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests won out.
- 24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. Pilate gave his verdict that their demand should be granted.
- 25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. He released the man who had been thrown in prison for rebellion and murder — the one they demanded — and He handed Jesus over to their will.
- 26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. As they led Him away, they seized a man named Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and placed the cross on Him to carry it behind Jesus.

■ NAME NOTE — Simon of Cyrene (SY-ren-ee) — A man from Cyrene in North Africa who was compelled to carry Jesus' cross. His sons Alexander and Rufus were apparently known to the early church (Mark 15:21).

| 32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death. | Two others — criminals — were also led out to be put to death with Him. |
| 33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. | When they came to the place called Calvary, they crucified Him there, along with the criminals — one on His right and one on His left. |
| 34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. | Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." They divided His clothes by casting lots. |

- 45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. The sun was darkened, and the curtain of the temple was torn in two.
- 46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit." Having said this, He breathed His last.
- 47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. When the centurion saw what had happened, he praised God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man."
- 48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned. All the crowds who had gathered for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, went home beating their chests.
- 49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things. All those who knew Him, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.
- 50 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just: There was a man named Joseph, a member of the council. He was a good and righteous man.
- 51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. He had not agreed with their decision and action. He was from Arimathaea, a town in Judea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God.
- 52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.
- 53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid. He took it down and wrapped it in linen cloth. He placed it in a tomb cut from rock, in which no one had ever been laid.
- 54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. That day was the Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was beginning.

| 55 | And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid. | The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how His body was placed. |
| 56 | And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment. | Then they went back and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested, according to the commandment. |

Women come to the tomb on the first day of the week and find it empty, and two angels announce that Jesus has risen. The risen Jesus walks with two disciples on the road to Emmaus and reveals Himself to them in the breaking of bread. He appears to the gathered disciples, commissions them as witnesses, and ascends into heaven from Bethany.

| 19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: | He said to them, "What things?" | 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him. | "How the chief priests and our rulers handed Him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified Him." |
| 21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done. | "We had hoped that He was the one to redeem Israel. Besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened." |
| 22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre; | "Some women from our group also astonished us. They were at the tomb early this morning." |
| 23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. | "When they did not find His body, they came back saying they had seen a vision of angels who said He was alive." |
| 24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. | "Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Him." |
| 25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: | He said to them, "How foolish You are, and how slow of heart to believe everything the prophets have spoken!" |
| 26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? | "Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and then enter into His glory?" |
| 27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. | Beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was written about Himself throughout all the Scriptures. |

- 28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further. They drew near to the village they were heading to, and He acted as though He would go on further.
- 29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. But they urged Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is nearly over." So He went in to stay with them.
- 30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. While He was at the table with them, He took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them.
- 31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. Their eyes were opened and they recognized Him. Then He vanished from their sight.
- 32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"
- 33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, They got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and those with them gathered together.
- 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. These were saying, "The Lord has truly risen and has appeared to Simon!"
- 35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread. The two told what had happened on the road, and how they had recognized Him in the breaking of the bread.
- 36 And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. While they were still talking about these things, Jesus Himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be to You."
- 37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. They were startled and frightened, thinking they were seeing a ghost.

- 38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? He said to them, "Why are You troubled? Why do doubts arise in Your hearts?"
- 39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. "Look at My hands and My feet — it is I Myself. Touch Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as You see I have."
- 40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet. When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
- 41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? While they still could not believe it for joy and were marveling, He said to them, "Have You anything here to eat?"
- 42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. They gave Him a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb.
- 43 And he took it, and did eat before them. He took it and ate it in their presence.
- 44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me. He said to them, "These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you — that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled."
- 45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, Then He opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.
- 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: He said to them, "This is what is written: the Christ must suffer and rise from the dead on the third day."
- 47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. "Repentance and forgiveness of sins must be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem."

48	And ye are witnesses of these things.	"You are witnesses of these things."
49	And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.	"I am sending the promise of My Father upon You. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until You are clothed with power from on high."
50	And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.	He led them out as far as Bethany. He lifted up His hands and blessed them.
51	And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.	While He was blessing them, He was parted from them and carried up into heaven.
52	And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:	They worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.
53	And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.	They were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

John

Author: John the apostle, son of Zebedee — the "beloved disciple" who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper and stood at the cross. Early church testimony from Irenaeus onward consistently identifies him as the author.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, later than the other three Gospels, written from Ephesus near the end of John's life.

Written to: The church broadly, with a clearly stated evangelistic purpose: "that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name" (20:31).

Setting: The other three Gospels are already in circulation. John writes a supplementary Gospel, omitting much they cover and adding material found nowhere else — the wedding at Cana, Nicodemus, the Samaritan woman, Lazarus, the Upper Room Discourse.

Where this sits historically: Composed late in the reign of Domitian (AD 81–96), a generation after Jerusalem's destruction in AD 70, when emperor-worship and incipient gnostic teaching threatened the churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, writing alongside his own epistles and Revelation, while Clement of Rome was preparing his letter to Corinth and Christians were facing Domitian's persecution.

Big themes:

- The deity of Christ — John opens at the eternal beginning ("In the beginning was the Word") and closes with Thomas's confession ("My Lord and my God"); the full divinity of Jesus is the book's first premise
- The seven "I AM" sayings — Bread of Life, Light of the World, Door, Good Shepherd, Resurrection and Life, Way/Truth/Life, True Vine; each echoes God's "I AM" to Moses
- The seven signs — water to wine, healing the nobleman's son, healing at Bethesda, feeding five thousand, walking on water, healing the blind man, raising Lazarus; each points to Jesus's identity
- The Holy Spirit as Comforter — chapters 14–16 contain the fullest NT teaching on the person and work of the Holy Spirit before Pentecost
- Life — the word "life" (Greek: ■) appears thirty-six times; John's Gospel is a book about eternal life and how to receive it

Key passages: John 1:1; 1:14; 3:16; 11:25–26; 14:6

How it fits: John's Gospel is both the simplest (a child can understand 3:16) and the most profound (theologians have never exhausted 1:1). It is the Gospel most quoted in evangelism and most studied in the academy. The prologue (1:1–18) is the NT's fullest statement of the pre-existent, incarnate Word.

John declares that the eternal Word was with God and was God, and that through Him all things were made. The Word became flesh and dwelt among men. John the Baptist testifies that Jesus is the Lamb of God, and Jesus calls His first disciples — Andrew, Simon Peter, Philip, and Nathanael.

■ WORD NOTE — The Word (Greek: Logos) — In Greek thought, the Logos was the divine reason or principle that orders the universe. John takes this concept and fills it with the full weight of Hebrew revelation: the Word is not an idea — He is a Person. He is God's eternal self-expression, the one through whom all things were made. John's opening verse echoes Genesis 1:1 ("In the beginning") to show that Jesus existed before creation, was with the Father, and was Himself fully God. "The Word became flesh" (v. 14) is the miracle at the center of Christianity.

| 1 | In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. | In the beginning was the Word. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. |
| 2 | The same was in the beginning with God. | He was with God in the beginning. |
| 3 | All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. | All things were made through Him. Nothing that has been made was made without Him. |
| 4 | In him was life; and the life was the light of men. | In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. |
| 5 | And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. | The light shines in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not. |
| 6 | There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. | There was a man sent from God whose name was John. |

■ NAME NOTE — John (the Baptist) (JON) — "the LORD is gracious" — A prophet sent by God to prepare the way for the Messiah. He preached repentance and baptized in the Jordan River. He is called "the Baptist" to distinguish him from John the apostle, the author of this Gospel.

| 7 | The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. | He came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that all might believe through Him. |
| 8 | He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. | He was not the Light, but came to bear witness to the Light. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world. | The true Light, which gives light to every man, was coming into the world. |
| 10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. | He was in the world. The world was made through Him, yet the world did not know Him. |
| 11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not. | He came to His own people, and His own people did not receive Him. |
| 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: | But to all who did receive Him — to those who believed in His name — He gave the right to become children of God. |
| 13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. | These were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. |

■ WORD NOTE — Only begotten (OH-nlee bih-GOT-ten) — "the unique, one-of-a-kind Son." Christ is God's Son in a way that no one else can be. He was not created — He was eternally generated from the Father. When John says Jesus is the "only begotten Son," he is saying Jesus shares the very nature of God in a way that is completely unique. No other human, angel, or being can be called this.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve. It is not a reward for good behavior. It is God giving us what we need, not what we deserve. "Grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" means the full, free gift of God's favor arrived in the person of Jesus.

| 14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. | The Word became flesh and lived among us. We saw His glory — the glory of the only begotten of the Father — full of grace and truth. |
| 15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. | John testified about him and cried out, "This is the one I spoke of: He who comes after me ranks above me, because he was before me." |
| 16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. | From His fullness we have all received grace upon grace. |

- 17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. The law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
- 18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. No one has ever seen God. The only begotten Son, who is in the Father's embrace, has made Him known.
- 19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? This is John's testimony: when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask Him, "Who are You?"
- 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. He did not refuse to answer. He openly declared, "I am not the Christ."
- 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No. They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No."
- 22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? Then they said, "Who are you? We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"
- 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias. He replied, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as the prophet Isaiah said."
- 24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees.
- 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? They questioned Him further: "Then why do You baptize, if You are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
- 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; John answered them, "I baptize with water. But there is one standing among You whom You do not know.

| 27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose. | He is the one who comes after me, but ranks before me. I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandal." |
| 28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. | These things took place in Bethabara, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. |
| 29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. | The next day John saw Jesus coming toward Him and said, "Look — the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world! |

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — Greek form of the Hebrew Yeshua, meaning "the LORD saves." The angel commanded this name before His birth (Matthew 1:21), because He would save His people from their sins. He is the central figure of all four Gospels and of all Scripture.

| 30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. | This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me.' |
| 31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. | I myself did not know Him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was so that He might be revealed to Israel." |
| 32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him. | Then John testified, "I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove and remain on Him. |

| 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. | I myself did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The one on whom You see the Spirit descend and remain — He is the one who baptizes with the Holy Ghost.' |

| 34 | And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God. | I have seen it and I testify that this is the Son of God." |
| 35 | Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; | The next day John was standing there again with two of his disciples. |
| 36 | And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! | As He watched Jesus walk by, He said, "Look — the Lamb of God!" |
| 37 | And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. | The two disciples heard Him say this and they followed Jesus. |
| 38 | Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou? | Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, "What are You looking for?" They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which means Master), "where are You staying?" |
| 39 | He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour. | He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where He was staying, and they stayed with Him that day. It was about the tenth hour. |

■ NAME NOTE — Andrew (AN-droo) — "manly" — A fisherman from Bethsaida, brother of Simon Peter. He was one of the first two disciples called by Jesus. Andrew is often seen bringing others to Jesus — first his brother Peter, and later the boy with loaves and fish (John 6:8–9).

- | | | |
| 40 | One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. | One of the two who heard John and followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. |
| 41 | He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. | Andrew first found his own brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means the Christ). |
| 42 | And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. | He brought Him to Jesus. Jesus looked at Him and said, "You are Simon the son of Jona. You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter, a rock). |

■ NAME NOTE — Philip (FIL-ip) — "lover of horses" — A disciple of Jesus from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip is notable in John's Gospel for his questions to Jesus (John 14:8) and for bringing Nathanael to Christ.

|---|--|
| 43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me. 44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. | The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow Me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and the prophets also wrote about — Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." |
|---|--|

■ NAME NOTE — Nathanael (nuh-THAN-ee-ul) — "God has given" — A disciple of Jesus, likely the same person as Bartholomew in the other Gospels. He is introduced as a man of honest character — Jesus calls him an Israelite in whom there is no deceit. His swift confession of Jesus as the Son of God shows his sincerity.

|---|---|
| 46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! 48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. 49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel. | Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him and said, "Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is no deceit!" Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?" Jesus answered, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw You." Nathanael answered Him, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" |

- 50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. Jesus answered, "Do You believe because I told You I saw You under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these."
- 51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man. He said to Him, "Truly, truly, I say to You, You will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

only begotten — The unique, one-of-a-kind Son — Christ is God's Son in a way no one else can be; 'begotten' is not about birth but eternal relationship.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Chapter 2

Jesus attends a wedding in Cana of Galilee and turns water into wine, His first miracle. He travels to Jerusalem for the Passover and drives the money changers out of the temple, declaring, 'Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.'

- | | |
| 1 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: | On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. |
| 2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. | Jesus and His disciples had also been invited to the wedding. |
| 3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. | When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine." |
| 4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. | Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come." |
| 5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. | His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells You." |
| 6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. | Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. |
| 7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. | Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." They filled them to the brim. |
| 8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it. | Then He said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." They took it. |

- 9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, When the master of the feast tasted the water now turned into wine — not knowing where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew — he called the bridegroom
- 10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. and said to Him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the cheaper wine after people have had plenty. But You have kept the good wine until now."
- 11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him. This was the first of Jesus's signs, done in Cana of Galilee. He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.
- 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days. After this He went down to Capernaum with His mother, His brothers, and His disciples. They stayed there only a few days.
- 13 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, The Jews' Passover was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
- 14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: In the temple He found those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting at their tables.
- 15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; Making a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple — the sheep and the oxen as well. He poured out the money-changers' coins and overturned their tables.
- 16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise. He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away from here. Do not make My Father's house a house of trade."

- | | |
|--|---|
| 17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. | His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for Your house will consume Me." |
| 18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? | The Jews then said to Him, "What sign can You show us for doing these things?" |
| 19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. | Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." |
| 20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? | The Jews said, "This temple took forty-six years to build, and You will raise it up in three days?" |
| 21 But he spake of the temple of his body. | But He was speaking about the temple of His body. |
| 22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. | When He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this. They believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. |
| 23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. | While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in His name when they saw the signs He was doing. |
| 24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, | But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all people. |
| 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man. | He had no need for anyone to testify about man, for he himself knew what was in man. |

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Chapter 3

Nicodemus, a Pharisee and ruler of the Jews, comes to Jesus by night, and Jesus tells him that a man must be born again to see the kingdom of God. Jesus declares that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.

■ NAME NOTE — Nicodemus (nik-oh-DEE-mus) — "victory of the people" — A Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews who came to Jesus at night. He appears three times in John's Gospel (here, at 7:50, and at 19:39). His nighttime visit likely reflects both caution and genuine searching. His conversation with Jesus produced some of the most famous words in all of Scripture.

| 1 | There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: | There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. |
| 2 | The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. | He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with Him." |
| 3 | Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. | Jesus answered Him, "Truly, truly, I say to You, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." |

- 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter his mother's womb a second time and be born?"
- 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to You, unless a man is born of water and of the Spirit, He cannot enter the kingdom of God.
- 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.
- 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. Do not be amazed that I said to You, 'You must be born again.'
- 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. The wind blows where it will. You hear its sound, but You do not know where it comes from or where it goes. That is how it is with everyone born of the Spirit."
- 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?"
- 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Jesus answered, "You are a teacher of Israel and You do not understand these things?
- 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. Truly, truly, I say to You, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen, but You do not receive our testimony.
- 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? If I have told You earthly things and You do not believe, how will You believe if I tell You heavenly things?
- 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven — the Son of Man Who is in heaven.

- 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
- 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but have eternal life.
- 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
- 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but so that the world might be saved through Him.
- 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. Whoever believes in him is not condemned. But whoever does not believe is condemned already, because He has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
- 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. This is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds were evil.
- 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. Everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, for fear that His deeds will be exposed.
- 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that His deeds have been done in God.
- 22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. After this Jesus and His disciples went into the land of Judaea. He stayed there with them and baptized.

- 23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there. People came and were baptized.
- 24 For John was not yet cast into prison. For John had not yet been thrown into prison.
- 25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. A dispute arose between some of John's disciples and a Jew about purification.
- 26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him. They came to John and said, "Rabbi, the one who was with you beyond the Jordan — the one You testified about — He is baptizing, and everyone is going to Him."
- 27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven. John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it is given to him from heaven.
- 28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but that I have been sent before Him.
- 29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears Him, greatly rejoices at the bridegroom's voice. This joy of mine is now complete.
- 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. He must increase, but I must decrease.
- 31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all. He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of earthly things. He who comes from heaven is above all.

| 32 | And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony. | He testifies to what He has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony. |
| 33 | He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true. | Whoever receives his testimony has certified that God is true. |
| 34 | For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. | He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure to Him. |
| 35 | The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. | The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand. |
| 36 | He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. | Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life. Whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on Him. |

Words in this chapter:

Nicodemus (nik-oh-DEE-mus) — A Pharisee and member of the Sanhedrin who visited Jesus at night — Jesus told him 'you must be born again'; he later helped prepare Jesus's body for burial.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Chapter 4

Jesus speaks with a Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, revealing that He is the Messiah and offering her living water. Many Samaritans believe because of His words. He then heals a nobleman's son in Capernaum from a distance, His second sign.

| 1 When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, | When the Lord learned that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John |
| 2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) | (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples did), |
| 3 He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee. | He left Judaea and went back to Galilee. |
| 4 And he must needs go through Samaria. | He had to pass through Samaria. |
| 5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. | So He came to a city of Samaria called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. |
| 6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour. | Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from the journey, sat down beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. |
| 7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. | A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." |
| 8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.) | His disciples had gone into the city to buy food. |
| 9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. | The Samaritan woman said to Him, "How is it that You, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans. |

- 10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. Jesus answered her, "If You knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to You, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given You living water."
- 11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do You get that living water?"
- 12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? Are You greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock."
- 13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again.
- 14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. The water that I will give Him will become in Him a spring of water welling up to everlasting life."
- 15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw. The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."
- 16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. Jesus said to her, "Go, call Your husband, and come back here."
- 17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband: The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband.'
- 18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly. You have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. You spoke the truth."

- 19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.
- 20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."
- 21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when You will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.
- 22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. You worship what You do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.
- 23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. But the hour is coming — and is now here — when true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is seeking such people to worship Him.
- 24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth."
- 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (He who is called Christ). When He comes, He will tell us all things."
- 26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. Jesus said to her, "I who speak to You am He."
- 27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? Just then His disciples came back. They were surprised that He was talking with a woman, but no one said, "What are you seeking?" or "Why are you talking with her?"

- 28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, The woman left her water jar and went back into the city. She said to the people,
- 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"
- 30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him. They left the city and came to Him.
- 31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. Meanwhile, His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat something."
- 32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of. But He said to them, "I have food to eat that You do not know about."
- 33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"
- 34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work."
- 35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. Do You not say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell You — lift up Your eyes and see that the fields are already white for harvest.
- 36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. The reaper is already receiving His wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper may rejoice together.
- 37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. For in this the saying holds true: 'One sows and another reaps.'
- 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. I sent You to reap what You did not work for. Others have worked, and You have entered into their labor."

- 39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. Many Samaritans from that city believed in Him because of the woman's testimony: "He told me everything I ever did."
- 40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. So when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days.
- 41 And many more believed because of his own word; Many more believed because of His own word.
- 42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world. They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said. We have heard him ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."
- 43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee. After the two days He departed from there for Galilee.
- 44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. For Jesus Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in His own hometown.
- 45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast. When He arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, having seen all the things He had done in Jerusalem at the feast — for they had also gone to the feast.
- 46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. Jesus came again to Cana in Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. There was a royal official whose son was sick in Capernaum.

- 47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judaea to Galilee, He went to Him and begged Him to come down and heal His son, who was close to death.
- 48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe. Jesus said to Him, "Unless You see signs and wonders, You will not believe."
- 49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die. The official said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."
- 50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way. Jesus said to Him, "Go. Your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to Him and went on His way.
- 51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. As He was on His way down, His servants met him and told him, "Your son is alive."
- 52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. He asked them the hour when He had begun to recover. They said to Him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left Him."
- 53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house. The father knew it was the same hour when Jesus had said to Him, "Your son will live." He Himself believed, and His whole household.
- 54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee. This was the second sign Jesus did after coming from Judaea into Galilee.

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Samaritans (sah-MEHR-ih-tanz) — People of mixed descent who lived in Samaria after the Assyrian conquest — Jews despised them as half-breeds who had corrupted their religion; Jesus's parable of the Good Samaritan shocked His audience.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 5

Jesus heals a man who had been lame for thirty-eight years at the pool of Bethesda on the Sabbath. The Jews persecute Him for healing on the Sabbath, and Jesus declares that He does what He sees the Father doing, claiming equal authority with God to give life and execute judgment.

1	After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.	After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
2	Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.	Now there is in Jerusalem, by the Sheep Gate, a pool called Bethesda in Hebrew, which has five covered colonnades.
3	In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.	In these lay a great crowd of sick people — the blind, the lame, and the paralyzed — waiting for the moving of the water.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath and judgment we have earned by our sin. Mercy and grace are related but distinct: grace gives us what we do not deserve; mercy holds back what we do deserve. Both flow freely from God toward those who trust in Him.

| 4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. 5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? 7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. 8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. 9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. 10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. 11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. | For at certain times an angel went down into the pool and stirred the water. Whoever stepped in first after the water was stirred was healed of whatever disease He had. One man there had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw Him lying there and knew that He had already been there a long time, He said to Him, "Do You want to be made well?" The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am making my way, someone else steps in before me." Jesus said to Him, "Get up, pick up Your mat, and walk." Immediately the man was made well. He picked up his mat and walked. Now that day was the Sabbath. So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat." He answered them, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'" |

- 12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your mat and walk'?"
- 13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. The man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was in the place.
- 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. Afterward Jesus found Him in the temple and said to Him, "See — you are well! Sin no more, or something worse may happen to You."
- 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus Who had made Him well.
- 16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day. This was why the Jews were persecuting Jesus — because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.
- 17 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I am working."
- 18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. This made the Jews all the more determined to kill Him — not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.
- 19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, the Son can do nothing on His own — only what He sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.

| 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. 21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. | For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He Himself does. He will show Him even greater works than these, so that You will be amazed. For just as the Father raises the dead and quickens them, so also the Son quickens whom He will. |

■ WORD NOTE — Quickened (KWIK-end) — Made alive; spiritually brought from death to life by God. This word describes the miracle of salvation — a soul that was dead in sin is made alive by God's power. Jesus says here that He has this same power as the Father — to raise the dead and give life. This is one of the great claims to His deity.

- | | |

| 22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: 23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. 25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; 27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. | The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever hears My word and believes in him who sent Me has everlasting life. He does not come into condemnation but has passed from death to life. Truly, truly, I say to You, the hour is coming — and is now here — when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has granted the Son also to have life in Himself. He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man. |
|--|---|

- 28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all who are in the graves will hear His voice
- 29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. and will come out — those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of damnation.

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When Jesus speaks of the "resurrection of damnation," He means the judgment that ends in eternal punishment. The word is strong on purpose. It is not merely "condemnation" in the legal sense — it is the final verdict that has permanent consequences. Scripture is clear that both destinies are real and eternal.

- 30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. I can do nothing on My own. I judge as I hear, and My judgment is just — because I seek not My own will but the will of Him who sent Me.
- 31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. If I testify about Myself, My testimony is not true.
- 32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that His testimony about Me is true.
- 33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. You sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.
- 34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. Not that I accept human testimony — but I say these things so that You may be saved.
- 35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. John was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a time in His light.

- 36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. But I have a testimony greater than John's. The works that the Father has given Me to accomplish — the very works that I am doing — bear witness about Me that the Father has sent Me.
- 37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. The Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have never heard His voice or seen His form.
- 38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. You do not have His word living in You, for You do not believe the one He has sent.
- 39 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. You search the Scriptures because You think that in them You have eternal life. It is they that testify about Me,
- 40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. yet You refuse to come to Me so that You may have life.
- 41 I receive not honour from men. I do not receive glory from people.
- 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. But I know You — you do not have the love of God within You.
- 43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. I have come in My Father's name, and You do not receive Me. If another comes in His own name, You will receive Him.
- 44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? How can You believe, when You receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?
- 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. Do not think that I will accuse You to the Father. There is one who accuses You — Moses, on whom you have set your hope.
- 46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. If you believed Moses, you would believe Me — for he wrote about Me.

But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?
- But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?"

Words in this chapter:

- damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.
- sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Chapter 6

Jesus feeds five thousand men with five barley loaves and two small fish, then walks on the sea to His disciples' boat. He declares, 'I am the bread of life,' and teaches that whoever eats His flesh and drinks His blood has eternal life. Many disciples leave Him, but Peter confesses, 'You have the words of eternal life.'

After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

After these things Jesus crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias.

And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

A great crowd followed Him, because they saw the miracles He was doing on the sick.

And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

Jesus went up on a mountain and sat down there with His disciples.

And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near.

- 5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread so that these people may eat?"
- 6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. He said this to test Him, for He Himself knew what He was going to do.
- 7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread would not be enough for each one of them to get even a little."
- 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,
- 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish. But what are they for so many people?"
- 10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number.
- 11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to those who were seated. He did the same with the fish, giving out as much as they wanted.
- 12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. When they had all eaten their fill, He said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftover pieces so that nothing is wasted."

- 13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with the pieces left over from the five barley loaves — what remained after everyone had eaten.
- 14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. When the people saw the miracle Jesus had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world!"
- 15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. Jesus, knowing that they were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, withdrew again to the mountain by Himself alone.
- 16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea.
- 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. They got into a boat and started across the sea toward Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.
- 18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. The sea grew rough because a strong wind was blowing.
- 19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat. They were frightened.
- 20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. But He said to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid."
- 21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. Then they were glad to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land where they were going.

- 22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not gotten into it with His disciples — His disciples had gone away alone.
- 23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.
- 24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus.
- 25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"
- 26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, You are looking for Me not because You saw miracles, but because You ate the loaves and were filled.
- 27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to everlasting life — which the Son of Man will give You. For on Him God the Father has set His seal."
- 28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? They said to Him, "What must we do to be doing the works of God?"

- 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God: that You believe in Him whom He has sent."
- 30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work? So they said to Him, "Then what sign will You do, so that we may see it and believe You? What work will You perform?"
- 31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Our fathers ate manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"
- 32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven. My Father gives You the true bread from heaven.
- 33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."
- 34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. They said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."
- 35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me shall never hunger, and whoever believes in Me shall never thirst.
- 36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. But I told You that You have seen Me and still do not believe.
- 37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and whoever comes to Me I will never cast out.
- 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of Him who sent Me.

- 39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. This is the will of Him who sent Me: that I should lose none of all He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day.
- 40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. For this is the will of My Father: that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have everlasting life, and I will raise Him up at the last day."
- 41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. The Jews grumbled about Him because He said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."
- 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"
- 43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. Jesus answered them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves.
- 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws Him. And I will raise Him up at the last day.
- 45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. It is written in the Prophets: 'They shall all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to Me.
- 46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God — He has seen the Father.
- 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever believes in Me has everlasting life.
- 48 I am that bread of life. I am the bread of life.

- 49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died.
- 50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die.
- 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. The bread that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."
- 52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat? The Jews then argued with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"
- 53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, unless You eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, You have no life in You.
- 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise Him up at the last day.
- 55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink.
- 56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in Him.
- 57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on Me will also live because of Me.
- 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. This is the bread that came down from heaven — not like the bread the fathers ate and died. Whoever eats this bread will live forever."

- 59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. He said these things while teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.
- 60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it? When many of His disciples heard this, they said, "This is a hard saying. Who can accept it?"
- 61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you? But Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples were grumbling about it, said to them, "Does this offend You?"
- 62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before? What if You were to see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?
- 63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. It is the Spirit Who quickens — the flesh is of no help at all. The words that I have spoken to You are spirit and they are life.
- 64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. But there are some of You who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was that would betray Him.
- 65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. He said, "This is why I told You that no one can come to Me unless it is granted him by the Father."
- 66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. After this, many of His disciples turned back and no longer walked with Him.
- 67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? So Jesus said to the twelve, "Do You want to go away as well?"
- 68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Chapter 7

Jesus goes up to Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles and teaches in the temple, dividing the crowds over whether He is the Christ. On the last day of the feast He cries out, 'If any man thirst, let him come to Me and drink.' The Pharisees send officers to arrest Him, but they return empty-handed.

| 1 | After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. | After this, Jesus traveled through Galilee. He would not go through Judea because the Jews were seeking to kill Him. |
| 2 | Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand. | Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was near. |
| 3 | His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. | His brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go to Judea so Your disciples there can see the works You are doing. |
| 4 | For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. | No one does things in secret when he wants to be known openly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world." |
| 5 | For neither did his brethren believe in him. | For not even His brothers believed in Him. |
| 6 | Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready. | Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but Your time is always ready. |
| 7 | The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. | The world cannot hate You, but it hates Me because I testify that its works are evil. |
| 8 | Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. | You go up to the feast. I am not going up to this feast yet, because My time has not yet fully come." |
| 9 | When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. | After saying this, He stayed in Galilee. |

- 10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. But after His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He also went up — not openly, but in private.
- 11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? The Jews were looking for Him at the feast and said, "Where is He?"
- 12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people. There was a lot of muttering about him among the crowd. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "No — He leads the people astray."
- 13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. But no one spoke openly about him out of fear of the Jews.
- 14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. About the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching.
- 15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? The Jews were amazed and said, "How does this man know so much, having never studied?"
- 16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not My own. It comes from Him who sent Me.
- 17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. If anyone chooses to do God's will, He will know whether this teaching is from God or whether I speak on My own.
- 18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Whoever speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory. But whoever seeks the glory of him who sent him — that man is true, and there is no falsehood in him.
- 19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? Did Moses not give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill Me?"

- 20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee? The crowd answered, "You have a devil! Who is trying to kill You?"
- 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel. Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and You are all amazed.
- 22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. Moses gave you circumcision — not that it came from Moses, but from the fathers — and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.
- 23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day? If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath so the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry at Me for making a man completely well on the Sabbath?
- 24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Do not judge by outward appearances. Judge with right judgment."
- 25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? Some of the people of Jerusalem said, "Is this not the man they are trying to kill?"
- 26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? Here He is, speaking openly, and they say nothing to Him! Can it be that the rulers really know that this is the Christ?
- 27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is. Yet we know where this man is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where he is from."
- 28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. Then Jesus cried out in the temple as He taught, "You know Me, and You know where I am from. But I have not come on My own. He who sent Me is true, and him you do not know.

- 29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."
- 30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. Then they tried to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on him, because his hour had not yet come.
- 31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done? Yet many in the crowd believed in Him. They said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than this man has done?"
- 32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about Him. The chief priests and Pharisees sent officers to arrest Him.
- 33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. Jesus said, "I am with You only a little while longer, and then I go to Him who sent Me.
- 34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come. You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, You cannot come."
- 35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? The Jews said to one another, "Where does He intend to go that we cannot find Him? Will He go to those scattered among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?"
- 36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? What does He mean when He says, 'You will look for Me but will not find Me,' and 'Where I am, You cannot come'?"
- 37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.

- 38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of His belly will flow rivers of living water."
- 39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) He said this about the Spirit, for the Holy Ghost had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.
- 40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet. When the people heard these words, some of them said, "This really is the Prophet."
- 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Others said, "This is the Christ." But others said, "Will the Christ come from Galilee?"
- 42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? Does the Scripture not say that the Christ comes from the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"
- 43 So there was a division among the people because of him. So there was a division among the people over him.
- 44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him. Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on him.
- 45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did You not bring Him?"
- 46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man. The officers answered, "No one ever spoke like this man!"
- 47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? The Pharisees answered them, "Have you also been deceived?"
- 48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in Him?
- 49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed. But this crowd, who do not know the law — they are accursed."

| 50 | Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) | Nicodemus — the one who had come to Jesus before, and who was one of them — said to them, |
| 51 | Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth? | "Does our law judge a man without first hearing from him and finding out what He is doing?" |
| 52 | They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. | They answered Him, "Are You from Galilee too? Look it up — no prophet arises from Galilee." |

Words in this chapter:

Feast of Tabernacles — Also called the Feast of Booths — a seven-day harvest festival where Israel lived in temporary shelters, remembering the wilderness wandering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Bethlehem (BETH-leh-hem) — A town in Judah — birthplace of David and of Jesus; its name means 'house of bread'; Boaz and Ruth lived here.

Chapter 8

The scribes and Pharisees bring a woman caught in adultery to Jesus, and He tells them, 'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.' Jesus declares, 'I am the light of the world,' and tells the Jews that before Abraham was, 'I AM,' provoking them to take up stones against Him.

| 1 | Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. | Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. |
| 2 | And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them. | Early in the morning He came again into the temple. All the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. |
| 3 | And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, | The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery. They placed her in front of everyone |
| 4 | They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. | and said to Him, "Master, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery. |
| 5 | Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? | Moses commanded us in the law to stone such women. What do You say?" |
| 6 | This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. | They said this to trap Him, so they would have grounds to accuse Him. But Jesus bent down and wrote with His finger on the ground. |
| 7 | So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. | When they kept pressing Him, He stood up and said to them, "Let Him who is without sin among You be the first to throw a stone at her." |
| 8 | And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. | He bent down again and wrote on the ground. |

- 9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. One by one, convicted by their own conscience, they went away — beginning with the oldest and ending with the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.
- 10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are Your accusers? Has no one condemned you?"
- 11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more. She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn You. Go, and sin no more."
- 12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Jesus spoke to them again, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."
- 13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. The Pharisees said to Him, "You are testifying about Yourself. Your testimony is not true."
- 14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is true. I know where I came from and where I am going. But You do not know where I come from or where I am going."
- 15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. You judge by human standards. I judge no one.
- 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true — for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father who sent Me.
- 17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. It is written in Your law that the testimony of two men is true.

- 18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. I am one who testifies about Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies about Me."
- 19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also. They said to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If You knew Me, You would know My Father also."
- 20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come. He spoke these words in the treasury, while teaching in the temple. No one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.
- 21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come. Jesus said to them again, "I am going away. You will look for Me, and You will die in Your sin. Where I am going, You cannot come."
- 22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews said, "Will He kill Himself? Is that what He means by saying, 'Where I am going, You cannot come'?"
- 23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. He said to them, "You are from below. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world.
- 24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. That is why I told You that You will die in Your sins. For if You do not believe that I am He, You will die in Your sins."
- 25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning. They said to Him, "Who are You?" Jesus answered, "Just what I have been telling You from the beginning.

- 26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. I have much to say about You and much to judge. But He who sent Me is true, and I tell the world what I have heard from Him."
- 27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father. They did not understand that He was speaking to them about the Father.
- 28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. So Jesus said to them, "When You have lifted up the Son of Man, then You will know that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own. I speak just what the Father has taught Me.
- 29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. He who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, for I always do what pleases Him."
- 30 As he spake these words, many believed on him. As He spoke these words, many believed in Him.
- 31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in Him, "If You continue in My word, You are truly My disciples.
- 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. You will know the truth, and the truth will set You free."
- 33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? They answered Him, "We are Abraham's descendants and have never been enslaved to anyone. How can you say, 'You will be made free?'"
- 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to You, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin.
- 35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. A slave does not remain in the house forever. The Son remains forever.
- 36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. So if the Son sets You free, You will be truly free.

- 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. I know that you are Abraham's descendants. Yet you seek to kill Me because My word finds no place in you.
- 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. I speak of what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."
- 39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. They answered Him, "Abraham is our father." Jesus said to them, "If You were Abraham's children, you would do what Abraham did.
- 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. But now you seek to kill Me — a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do this.
- 41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. You are doing the works of your father." They said to Him, "We were not born of fornication. We have one Father — God Himself."
- 42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Jesus said to them, "If God were Your Father, You would love Me. I came from God and I am here. I did not come on My own — He sent Me.
- 43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word. Why do You not understand what I say? It is because You cannot bear to hear My word.
- 44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. You are of your father the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language — for he is a liar and the father of lies.

- 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. But because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me.
- 46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? Which of you can charge Me with sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe Me?
- 47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God. Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear them is that you are not of God."
- 48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? The Jews answered Him, "Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and have a devil?"
- 49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. Jesus answered, "I do not have a devil. I honor My Father, and You dishonor Me.
- 50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. I am not seeking My own glory. There is One who seeks it and judges.
- 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death. Truly, truly, I say to You, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death."
- 52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. The Jews said to Him, "Now we know You have a devil! Abraham died, and so did the prophets. Yet you say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.'
- 53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets died too! Who do you make Yourself out to be?"
- 54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me — He of whom You say, 'He is our God.'

Chapter 9

Jesus heals a man born blind by anointing his eyes with clay and sending him to wash in the pool of Siloam. The Pharisees interrogate the man and his parents, refusing to accept the miracle, and cast him out of the synagogue. Jesus finds him and reveals Himself as the Son of God.

- | | | |
| 1 | And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. | As Jesus walked along, He saw a man who had been blind from birth. |
| 2 | And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? | His disciples asked Him, "Master, who sinned — this man or his parents — that he was born blind?" |
| 3 | Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him. | Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned. He was born blind so that the works of God might be displayed in Him. |
| 4 | I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. | I must do the works of Him who sent Me while it is still day. Night is coming, when no one can work. |
| 5 | As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. | As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." |
| 6 | When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, | After saying this, He spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva. He spread the mud on the man's eyes |
| 7 | And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing. | He said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So the man went and washed, and came back seeing. |
| 8 | The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? | His neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar asked, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" |

- 9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he. Some said, "It is him." Others said, "No, he just looks like him." But the man himself said, "I am the one."
- 10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened? So they asked him, "How were your eyes opened?"
- 11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud and spread it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. I went and washed, and I received my sight."
- 12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not. They asked Him, "Where is He?" He said, "I don't know."
- 13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind. They brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees.
- 14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. Now it was the Sabbath day when Jesus had made the mud and opened His eyes.
- 15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. The Pharisees asked Him again how He had received His sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I see."
- 16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a sinful man do such signs?" And there was a division among them.
- 17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. They asked the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

- 18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight.
- 19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? They asked his parents, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How does he now see?"
- 20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.
- 21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him, he shall speak for himself. But how he now sees, we do not know. We do not know who opened his eyes. He is of age — ask him. He can speak for himself."
- 22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed Jesus to be the Christ, He would be put out of the synagogue.
- 23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him. That is why His parents said, "He is of age — ask Him."
- 24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner. So they called the man who had been blind a second time and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."
- 25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. He answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I don't know. One thing I know — I was blind, and now I see."
- 26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? They asked him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

- 27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples? He answered them, "I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"
- 28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples. Then they insulted him and said, "You are His disciple. We are disciples of Moses.
- 29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. We know that God spoke to Moses. As for this man, we do not know where he comes from."
- 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. The man answered them, "This is remarkable — you do not know where He comes from, yet He opened my eyes.
- 31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. We know that God does not listen to sinners. But if anyone worships God and does His will, God listens to Him.
- 32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. Never since the world began has anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.
- 33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."
- 34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out. They answered him, "You were born entirely in sin, and are you teaching us?" And they threw him out.
- 35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? Jesus heard that they had thrown Him out. When He found Him, He said, "Do You believe in the Son of God?"
- 36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? He answered, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

|----|--|--|
| 37 | And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. | Jesus said to Him, "You have seen Him. It is He who is speaking with you now." |
| 38 | And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him. | He said, "Lord, I believe." And He worshipped Him. |
| 39 | And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. | Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment — so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." |
| 40 | And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also? | Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard this and said to Him, "Are we blind also?" |
| 41 | Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth. | Jesus said to them, "If You were blind, You would have no sin. But now You say, 'We see.' Therefore Your sin remains." |

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Chapter 10

Jesus declares, 'I am the good shepherd' who lays down His life for the sheep, and 'I am the door' by which the sheep enter. He teaches that He and the Father are one, and the Jews take up stones to kill Him for blasphemy. He withdraws beyond the Jordan, where many believe in Him.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. | "Truly, truly, I tell You — whoever does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way is a thief and a robber. |
| 2 | But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. | But whoever enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. |
| 3 | To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. | The gatekeeper opens for Him. The sheep hear His voice. He calls His own sheep by name and leads them out. |
| 4 | And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. | When He has brought out all His own, He goes before them, and the sheep follow Him because they know His voice. |
| 5 | And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. | They will not follow a stranger. They will run from Him, because they do not know the voice of strangers." |
| 6 | This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. | Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what He was saying to them. |
| 7 | Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. | So Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly, I tell You — I am the door of the sheep. |
| 8 | All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. | All who came before Me are thieves and robbers. The sheep did not listen to them. |
| 9 | I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. | I am the door. Whoever enters through Me will be saved. He will come in and go out and find pasture. |

- 10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life — and have it in full measure.
- 11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep.
- 12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hired hand is not the shepherd. The sheep are not His own. When He sees the wolf coming, He abandons the sheep and runs. The wolf catches them and scatters the flock.
- 13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. He runs because He is a hired hand and does not care about the sheep.
- 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and My sheep know Me.
- 15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. Just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father — I lay down My life for the sheep.
- 16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also. They will hear My voice, and there will be one flock and one shepherd.
- 17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. The Father loves Me because I lay down My life so that I may take it up again.
- 18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. No one takes it from Me. I lay it down of My own will. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This command I received from My Father."
- 19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings. There was again a division among the Jews because of these words.

- 20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Many of them said, "He has a devil and is out of His mind. Why listen to Him?"
- 21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? Others said, "These are not the words of someone possessed by a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?"
- 22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter. The Feast of Dedication came, and it was winter in Jerusalem.
- 23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's Porch.
- 24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. The Jews gathered around Him and said, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."
- 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. Jesus answered them, "I told You, and You do not believe. The works I do in My Father's name — they testify about Me.
- 26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. But You do not believe, because You are not among My sheep — as I said to You.
- 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: My sheep hear My voice. I know them, and they follow Me.
- 28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. I give them eternal life. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand.
- 29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.
- 30 I and my Father are one. I and the Father are one."
- 31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. The Jews picked up stones again to stone Him.

- 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? Jesus answered them, "I have shown You many good works from My Father. For which of those works are You stoning Me?"
- 33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. The Jews answered Him, "We are not stoning You for a good work, but for blasphemy — because You, being a man, make yourself God."
- 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in Your law, 'I said, You are gods'?"
- 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; He called them gods — those to whom the word of God came — and Scripture cannot be broken.
- 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? Do You say of the one whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?
- 37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. If I am not doing the works of My Father, do not believe Me.
- 38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. But if I am, even if You do not believe Me, believe the works — so that You may know and understand that the Father is in Me and I am in the Father."
- 39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, So they tried again to seize Him, but He escaped from their hands.
- 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode. He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had first baptized, and he stayed there.
- 41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true. Many people came to Him and said, "John performed no sign, but everything John said about this man was true."
- 42 And many believed on him there. And many believed in Him there.

Words in this chapter:

Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

Chapter 11

Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead after four days in the tomb, weeping at the grave before commanding, 'Lazarus, come forth.' Many Jews believe in Him because of this sign. The chief priests and Pharisees, alarmed by the growing crowds, plot to put Jesus to death, and Caiaphas prophesies that Jesus would die for the nation.

Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.
- Now a certain man was sick — Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

■ NAME NOTE — Lazarus (LAZ-uh-rus) — Greek form of the Hebrew Eleazar, meaning "God is my help." He was a close friend of Jesus and the brother of Mary and Martha. His death and resurrection in John 11 is the greatest miracle recorded in this Gospel — a powerful sign that Jesus is the resurrection and the life.

- This was the Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped His feet with her hair. It was her brother Lazarus who was sick.

■ NAME NOTE — Mary (MAIR-ee) — Hebrew Miryam, meaning "beloved" or "bitter." This Mary is the sister of Martha and Lazarus, from the village of Bethany. She is known for her devoted posture at the feet of Jesus (Luke 10:39) and for anointing Him with costly ointment (John 12:3). She is distinct from Mary the mother of Jesus and Mary Magdalene.

■ NAME NOTE — Martha (MAR-thuh) — Aramaic, meaning "lady" or "mistress of the house." She is the sister of Mary and Lazarus. Martha is known for her active, serving nature (Luke 10:40) and for her bold confession of faith in Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God (John 11:27).

| 3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. | So His sisters sent word to Jesus, saying, "Lord, the one You love is sick." |
| 4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. | When Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness is not unto death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it." |
| 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. | Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. |
| 6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. | So when He heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed two more days in the place where He was. |
| 7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again. | After that He said to His disciples, "Let us go to Judaea again." |
| 8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? | The disciples said to Him, "Master, the Jews were just trying to stone You, and You are going back there?" |

| 13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. | Jesus had spoken of His death, but they thought He was talking about actual sleep. |
| 14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. | So Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. |
| 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. | I am glad for Your sake that I was not there — so that You may believe. But let us go to Him." |
| 16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him. | Thomas, called Didymus, said to the other disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him." |

■ NAME NOTE — Thomas (TOM-us) — From the Aramaic word for "twin." He is also called Didymus (DID-ih-mus), the Greek word for "twin." Thomas appears in John's Gospel as a disciple marked by honest doubt and deep loyalty. Though he is remembered for doubting the resurrection (John 20:24–25), he also makes one of the greatest confessions of faith: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28).

| 17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. | When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. |
| 18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off: | Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away. |
| 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. | Many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them over the death of their brother. |
| 20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. | When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him. But Mary stayed seated in the house. |
| 21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. | Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. |
| 22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. | But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You." |

- 23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
- 24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."
- 25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me, though he die, yet shall he live."
- 26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do You believe this?"
- 27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. She said to Him, "Yes, Lord. I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, Who was to come into the world."
- 28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary quietly, saying, "The Master is here and is calling for you."
- 29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him. When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.
- 30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him. Jesus had not yet entered the village — He was still in the place where Martha had met him.
- 31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. The Jews who were with Mary in the house comforting her saw her get up quickly and go out. They followed her, thinking she was going to the tomb to weep there.

- 32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Mary came where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet, saying, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."
- 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled. When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit and troubled.
- 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. He asked, "Where have You laid Him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."
- 35 Jesus wept. Jesus wept.
- 36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him! Then the Jews said, "See how He loved Him!"
- 37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? But some of them said, "Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have kept this man from dying?"
- 38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it.
- 39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a bad odor — He has been dead four days."
- 40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell You that if You believe, You will see the glory of God?"

- 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. So they took away the stone. Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
- 42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. I knew that You always hear Me. But I said this for the sake of the people standing here, so that they may believe that You sent Me."
- 43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. When He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"
- 44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. The man who had been dead came out, his hands and feet wrapped in burial cloths, and His face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unwrap Him and let Him go."
- 45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him. Many of the Jews who had come to Mary and had seen what Jesus did believed in Him.
- 46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done. But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.
- 47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles. So the chief priests and the Pharisees called a council meeting and said, "What are we doing? This man is performing many signs.
- 48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation. If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him. Then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation."

- 49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all.
- 50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. You do not understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people than that the whole nation should perish."
- 51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; He did not say this of His own accord. Being high priest that year, He prophesied that Jesus would die for that nation.
- 52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. Not for that nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God Who were scattered abroad.
- 53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death. So from that day on they plotted to put Him to death.
- 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence into a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples. Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews. He went from there to a region near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and He stayed there with His disciples.
- 55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. The Jewish Passover was near. Many people went up to Jerusalem from the countryside before the Passover to purify themselves.
- 56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? They were looking for Jesus and saying to one another as they stood in the temple, "What do You think? Will He not come to the feast?"

- 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him. Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where Jesus was, He should report it so they might arrest Him.

Words in this chapter:

Caiaphas (KY-ah-fas) — The Jewish high priest during Jesus's trial — he declared it better for one man to die for the nation; he unwittingly prophesied Christ's death for all people.

Lazarus (LAZ-ah-rus) — The brother of Mary and Martha whom Jesus raised from the dead after four days in the tomb — his name is a form of Eleazar, meaning 'God has helped.'

Chapter 12

Mary anoints Jesus's feet with costly spikenard at Bethany, and Judas objects. Jesus enters Jerusalem riding on a young donkey as the crowd cries 'Hosanna,' fulfilling prophecy. He declares that the hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified and that if He is lifted up, He will draw all men to Himself.

- 1 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived — the one he had raised from the dead.
- 2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. They made a supper for Him there. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him.

- 3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. Mary took a pound of very costly ointment of spikenard. She anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped His feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.
- 4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, Then one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon — the one who would betray him — said,
- 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred coins and given to the poor?"
- 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein. He said this not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief. He kept the money bag and used to steal from what was put in it.
- 7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this. Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept it for the day of My burial.
- 8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always. The poor You will always have with You, but You will not always have Me."
- 9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. A large crowd of the Jews learned that He was there. They came not only for Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.
- 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; But the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well,
- 11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. because on account of Him, many of the Jews were leaving and believing in Jesus.

- 12 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, The next day, the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.
- 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord — the King of Israel!"
- 14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as it is written:
- 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. "Fear not, daughter of Zion. See, Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt."
- 16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. His disciples did not understand this at first. But when Jesus was glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.
- 17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. The crowd that had been with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to testify about it.
- 18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. This was also why the crowd went out to meet Him — because they had heard that He had done this miracle.
- 19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. So the Pharisees said to one another, "Do you see that you gain nothing? Look — the whole world has gone after Him."
- 20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: Now there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the feast.

- 21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to Him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."
- 22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip then went and told Jesus.
- 23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
- 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. Truly, truly, I say to You, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it produces much fruit.
- 25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. Whoever loves his life will lose it. Whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.
- 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am, My servant will also be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor Him.
- 27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Now My soul is troubled. What shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour? No — for this reason I came to this hour.
- 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. Father, glorify Your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."
- 29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. The crowd standing there heard it and said it was thunder. Others said, "An angel spoke to Him."

- 30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Jesus answered, "This voice came not for My sake, but for Yours.
- 31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.
- 32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself."
- 33 This he said, signifying what death he should die. He said this to show what kind of death He was going to die.
- 34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man? The crowd answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever. How can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"
- 35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. Jesus said to them, "The light is with You for a little while longer. Walk while You have the light, so that darkness does not overtake You. The one who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.
- 36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. While You have the light, believe in the light, so that You may become children of light." When Jesus had said this, He departed and hid Himself from them.
- 37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: Although He had done so many miracles before them, they still did not believe in Him,
- 38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

- 39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, For this reason they could not believe. Isaiah also said,
- 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so that they would not see with their eyes or understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them."
- 41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him. Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory and spoke of Him.
- 42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: Nevertheless, even among the rulers many believed in Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, so they would not be put out of the synagogue.
- 43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. They loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
- 44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in Me does not believe in Me alone, but in Him who sent Me.
- 45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. Whoever sees Me sees him who sent Me.
- 46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. I have come as a light into the world, so that whoever believes in Me should not remain in darkness.
- 47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. If anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge Him — for I came not to judge the world but to save the world.
- 48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Whoever rejects Me and does not receive My words has a judge — the very word I have spoken will judge Him on the last day.

- 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. I have not spoken on My own authority. The Father who sent Me has Himself commanded Me what to say and what to speak.
- 50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak. I know that His commandment is everlasting life. So whatever I speak, I speak just as the Father has told Me."

Words in this chapter:

Hosanna (ho-ZAN-ah) — Hebrew cry meaning 'Save us, we pray!' — used as a shout of praise and welcome for the coming King.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 13

Jesus washes His disciples' feet at the Last Supper, commanding them to serve one another as He has served them. He reveals that one of them will betray Him, and Judas goes out into the night. Jesus gives a new commandment: 'Love one another, as I have loved you.'

- | | |
| 1 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. | Before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. |
| 2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; | During supper, the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray him. |
| 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; | Jesus knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was going to God. |
| 4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. | He rose from supper, laid aside His outer garments, and took a towel and wrapped it around Himself. |
| 5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. | Then He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet, wiping them with the towel He had wrapped around Himself. |
| 6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? | He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you washing my feet?" |
| 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. | Jesus answered, "You do not understand what I am doing now, but You will understand afterward." |
| 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. | Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "If I do not wash You, You have no part with Me." |
| 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. | Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!" |

- 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. Jesus said to Him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash except for His feet — he is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of You."
- 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. For He knew who was going to betray Him. That is why He said, "Not all of You are clean."
- 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? When He had washed their feet and put on His garments and sat down again, He said to them, "Do You understand what I have done to You?"
- 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. You call Me Master and Lord, and You are right, for that is what I am.
- 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. If I then, Your Lord and Master, have washed Your feet, You also ought to wash one another's feet.
- 15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. I have given You an example, so that You should do just as I have done to You.
- 16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. Truly, truly, I say to You, a servant is not greater than His master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.
- 17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. If You know these things, You are blessed if You do them.
- 18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. I am not speaking of all of You. I know those I have chosen. But the Scripture must be fulfilled: 'He who ate bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'
- 19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. I am telling You this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen You may believe that I am He.

- 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever receives the one I send receives Me. Whoever receives Me receives him who sent Me."
- 21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. When Jesus had said this, He was troubled in spirit. He testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to You, one of You will betray Me."
- 22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom He was speaking.
- 23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. One of His disciples — the one whom Jesus loved — was reclining at Jesus' side.
- 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. Simon Peter motioned to him to ask Jesus whom He meant.
- 25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? That disciple leaned back against Jesus and said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"
- 26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I have dipped it." He dipped the piece of bread and gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
- 27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. After Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to Him, "What You are going to do, do quickly."
- 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. None of those at the table knew why He said this to Him.
- 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. Some thought that, since Judas had the money bag, Jesus was telling Him to buy what they needed for the feast, or that He should give something to the poor.

- 30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night. So after receiving the piece of bread, Judas went out immediately. It was night.
- 31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him. When He had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him.
- 32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him. If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself, and He will glorify Him at once.
- 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you. Little children, I am with You only a little while longer. You will seek Me. As I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going You cannot come,' so I say to You now.
- 34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. A new commandment I give to You: that You love one another. Just as I have loved You, You also are to love one another.
- 35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. By this all people will know that You are My disciples — if You have love for one another."
- 36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going You cannot follow Me now, but You will follow afterward."
- 37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake. Peter said, "Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for You."
- 38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice. Jesus answered, "Will You lay down Your life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to You, the rooster will not crow until You have denied Me three times."

Words in this chapter:

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Chapter 14

Jesus comforts His disciples, telling them He goes to prepare a place for them and that He is the way, the truth, and the life. He promises to send the Comforter — the Holy Ghost — who will teach them all things and bring to remembrance everything He has said.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. | "Do not let Your hearts be troubled. You believe in God — believe also in Me. |
| 2 | In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. | In My Father's house there are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told You. I am going to prepare a place for You. |
| 3 | And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. | And if I go and prepare a place for You, I will come again and receive You to Myself, so that where I am, there You may be also. |
| 4 | And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. | And where I am going, You know the way." |

- 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?"
- 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Jesus said to Him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.
- 7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. If You had known Me, You would have known My Father also. From now on, You do know Him and have seen Him."
- 8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that is enough for us."
- 9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Jesus said to Him, "Have I been with You so long, and You still do not know Me, Philip? Whoever has seen Me has seen the Father. How can You say, 'Show us the Father'?"
- 10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. Do You not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to You I do not speak on My own authority. The Father who lives in Me does His works.
- 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me — or else believe because of the works themselves.
- 12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. Truly, truly, I say to You, whoever believes in Me will do the works I do. He will do even greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.
- 13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. Whatever You ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. | If You ask anything in My name, I will do it. |
| 15 If ye love me, keep my commandments. | If You love Me, keep My commandments. |

■ WORD NOTE — Comforter (KUM-fer-ter) — The Holy Ghost, the third Person of the Trinity, whom Jesus promised to send to His followers. Some translations say "Helper" or "Advocate" — the KJV says Comforter, the One who walks alongside you, strengthens you, and never leaves. He is not merely a feeling but a Person.

- | | |
| 16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; | I will ask the Father, and He will give You another Comforter, to be with You forever — |
| 17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. | even the Spirit of truth. The world cannot receive Him, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. But You know Him, for He lives with You and will be in You. |
| 18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. | I will not leave You comfortless. I will come to You. |
| 19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. | A little while longer and the world will see Me no more. But You will see Me. Because I live, You will live also. |
| 20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. | On that day You will know that I am in My Father, and You are in Me, and I am in You. |
| 21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. | Whoever has My commandments and keeps them — he is the one who loves Me. Whoever loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love Him and reveal Myself to Him." |
| 22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? | Judas — not Iscariot — said to him, "Lord, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us and not to the world?" |

- 23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. Jesus answered Him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love Him, and We will come to Him and make Our home with Him.
- 24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. Whoever does not love Me does not keep My words. The word You hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.
- 25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. I have said these things while I am still with You.
- 26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. But the Comforter — the Holy Ghost — whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach You all things and bring to Your remembrance all that I have said to You.
- 27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Peace I leave with You. My peace I give to You. Not as the world gives do I give to You. Do not let Your hearts be troubled, and do not be afraid.
- 28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. You heard Me say, 'I am going away, and I will come back to You.' If You loved Me, You would rejoice, because I am going to the Father — for the Father is greater than I.
- 29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. I have told You this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen You may believe.
- 30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. I will not talk much more with you, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no claim on Me.

Chapter 15

Jesus teaches, 'I am the true vine,' and calls His disciples to abide in Him as branches abide in the vine. He commands them to love one another as He has loved them, warns that the world will hate them as it hated Him, and promises that the Comforter will come to testify of Him.

- | | |
| 1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. | "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. |
| 2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. | Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away. Every branch that does bear fruit He prunes, so that it may bear more fruit. |
| 3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. | You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to You. |

- 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. Remain in Me, and I in You. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can You, unless You remain in Me.
- 5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. I am the vine; You are the branches. Whoever remains in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit. Apart from Me You can do nothing.
- 6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown away like a branch and withers. Such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.
- 7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. If You remain in Me and My words remain in You, ask whatever You wish, and it will be done for You.
- 8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. This is how My Father is glorified — that You bear much fruit and show yourselves to be My disciples.
- 9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. As the Father has loved Me, so I have loved You. Remain in My love.
- 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. If You keep My commandments, You will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love.
- 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full. I have said these things to You so that My joy may be in You, and that Your joy may be complete.
- 12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. This is My commandment: that You love one another as I have loved You.
- 13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. No one has greater love than this — that someone lay down his life for his friends.
- 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. You are My friends if You do what I command You.

- 15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you. I no longer call You servants, because a servant does not know what His master is doing. I have called You friends, for I have made known to You everything I have heard from My Father.
- 16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. You did not choose Me, but I chose You. I appointed You to go and bear fruit — fruit that will last — so that whatever You ask the Father in My name, He may give it to You.
- 17 These things I command you, that ye love one another. These things I command You: that You love one another.
- 18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If the world hates You, know that it hated Me before it hated You.
- 19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. If You were of the world, the world would love You as its own. But because You are not of the world — because I chose You out of the world — the world hates You.
- 20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. Remember the word I said to You: 'A servant is not greater than His master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute You. If they kept My word, they will keep Yours also.
- 21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. They will do all these things to You on account of My name, because they do not know Him who sent Me.
- 22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

- | | | |
| 23 | He that hateth me hateth my Father also. | Whoever hates Me hates My Father also. |
| 24 | If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. | If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not have had sin. But now they have seen and hated both Me and My Father. |
| 25 | But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. | But this has happened so that the word written in their law might be fulfilled: 'They hated Me without cause.' |
| 26 | But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: | But when the Comforter comes — whom I will send to You from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father — He will testify about Me. |
| 27 | And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning. | And You also will testify, because You have been with Me from the beginning. |

Words in this chapter:

Comforter — The Helper who walks alongside — the Holy Spirit, sent by Christ; some translations say 'Helper' or 'Advocate,' but KJV says Comforter.

Chapter 16

Jesus warns His disciples that they will be put out of the synagogues and that those who kill them will think they are serving God. He promises that the Comforter will come to convict the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment. He tells them that their sorrow will be turned to joy, and declares, 'I have overcome the world.'

- | | | |
| 1 | These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. | "I have told You these things so that You will not fall away. |
| 2 | They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. | They will put You out of the synagogues. Indeed, the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. |
| 3 | And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. | They will do these things because they have not known the Father or Me. |
| 4 | But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. | I have said these things to You so that when their hour comes You may remember that I told You of them. I did not say this to You from the beginning, because I was with You. |
| 5 | But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? | But now I am going to Him who sent Me. None of You asks Me, 'Where are You going?' |
| 6 | But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. | But because I have said these things, sorrow has filled Your hearts. |
| 7 | Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. | But I tell You the truth: it is to Your benefit that I go away. For if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come to You. But if I go, I will send Him to You. |
| 8 | And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: | When He comes, He will convict the world concerning sin, and righteousness, and judgment: |

- 9 Of sin, because they believe not on me; concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me;
- 10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father and You will see Me no more;
- 11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. concerning judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
- 12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.
- 13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide You into all truth. He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak. He will declare to You the things that are to come.
- 14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. He will glorify Me, for He will take what is Mine and declare it to You.
- 15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All that the Father has is Mine. That is why I said He will take what is Mine and declare it to You.
- 16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. A little while and You will see Me no more. Then again a little while, and You will see Me, because I am going to the Father."
- 17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? Some of His disciples said to one another, "What does He mean by saying, 'A little while and You will not see Me, and again a little while and You will see Me,' and 'because I am going to the Father'?"

- 18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith. They kept asking, "What does He mean by 'a little while'? We do not know what He is talking about."
- 19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me? Jesus knew they wanted to ask Him, so He said to them, "Are You discussing among yourselves what I meant by 'a little while and You will not see Me, and again a little while and You will see Me'?"
- 20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. Truly, truly, I say to You, You will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but Your sorrow will turn to joy.
- 21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour has come. But when she has delivered the baby, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a child has been born into the world.
- 22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. So also You have sorrow now. But I will see You again, and Your hearts will rejoice. No one will take your joy from you.
- 23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. On that day You will ask Me nothing. Truly, truly, I say to You, whatever You ask the Father in My name, He will give it to You.
- 24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. Until now You have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and You will receive, so that Your joy may be complete.

| 25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. | I have said these things to You in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak in figures but will tell You plainly about the Father. |
| 26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: | On that day You will ask in My name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on Your behalf — |
| 27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. | for the Father Himself loves You, because You have loved Me and have believed that I came from God. |
| 28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. | I came from the Father and entered the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father." |
| 29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. | His disciples said, "Now You are speaking plainly and not using figures of speech. |
| 30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. | Now we know that You know all things. You do not need anyone to ask you anything. By this we believe that You came from God." |
| 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? | Jesus answered them, "Do You now believe? |
| 32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. | The hour is coming — indeed, it has already come — when You will be scattered, each to His own home, and will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with Me. |
| 33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. | I have said these things to You so that in Me You may have peace. In the world You will have trouble. But take courage — I have overcome the world." |

Jesus prays to the Father, asking Him to glorify the Son so that the Son may glorify the Father. He prays for His disciples, asking the Father to keep them from the evil one and to sanctify them through the truth. He prays for all who will believe through their word, that they may be one as He and the Father are one.

Glorify Your Son so that the Son may glorify You, |

| 4 | I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. | I have glorified You on earth. I have finished the work You gave Me to do. |
| 5 | And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. | Now, Father, glorify Me in Your own presence with the glory I had with You before the world existed. |
| 6 | I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. | I have made Your name known to the people you gave Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. |
| 7 | Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee. | Now they know that everything You have given Me is from You. |
| 8 | For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. | I have given them the words You gave Me, and they have received them. They know truly that I came from You, and they have believed that You sent Me. |
| 9 | I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. | I am praying for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those You have given Me, for they are Yours. |
| 10 | And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them. | All that is Mine is Yours, and what is Yours is Mine, and I am glorified in them. |
| 11 | And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. | I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name — the name You have given Me — so that they may be one, just as We are one. |

- 12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. While I was with them, I kept them in Your name. I protected those You gave Me, and none of them has been lost except the son of perdition, so that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
- 13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. Now I am coming to You. I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have My joy made complete in themselves.
- 14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I have given them Your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
- 15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. I am not asking You to take them out of the world, but to keep them from the evil one.
- 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
- 17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. Sanctify them in Your truth — Your word is truth.
- 18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world.
- 19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth. For their sake I sanctify Myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.
- 20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word,
- 21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. that they all may be one. Just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, may they also be one in Us, so that the world may believe that You have sent Me.

Chapter 18

Judas leads a band of soldiers to the Garden of Gethsemane, and Jesus is arrested after Peter cuts off the ear of the high priest's servant. Jesus is questioned before Annas and Caiaphas, and Peter denies Him three times. Jesus is brought before Pontius Pilate, who finds no fault in Him, but the crowd demands Barabbas.

| 1 | When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples. | When Jesus had said these things, He went out with His disciples across the brook Cedron, where there was a garden, and He and His disciples entered it. |
| 2 | And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples. | Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with His disciples. |
| 3 | Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. | So Judas, having obtained a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. |
| 4 | Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? | Then Jesus, knowing all that was coming on Him, stepped forward and said to them, "Whom are You seeking?" |
| 5 | They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. | They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. |
| 6 | As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. | When He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground. |

- 7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. He asked them again, "Whom are You seeking?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth."
- 8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: Jesus answered, "I told You that I am He. So if You are looking for Me, let these others go."
- 9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. This was to fulfill the word He had spoken: "Of those You gave Me, I have lost none."
- 10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
- 11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath. Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given Me?"
- 12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, So the band of soldiers, along with their commander and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound Him.
- 13 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. They led Him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.
- 14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better for one man to die for the people.
- 15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest. Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest and entered the courtyard of the high priest with Jesus,

- 16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter. but Peter stood outside at the door. The other disciple — the one known to the high priest — went out and spoke to the woman at the door and brought Peter in.
- 17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. The servant woman at the door said to Peter, "Are you not also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not."
- 18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. Now the servants and officers had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.
- 19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine. The high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and about His teaching.
- 20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Jesus answered Him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews gather. I said nothing in secret.
- 21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. Why do You ask Me? Ask those who heard Me what I said to them. They know what I said."
- 22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? When He said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with His hand, saying, "Is that how You answer the high priest?"
- 23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Jesus answered Him, "If I said something wrong, testify about the wrong. But if I spoke rightly, why do You strike Me?"

- 24 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.
- 25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "Are you not also one of His disciples?" He denied it and said, "I am not."
- 26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? One of the servants of the high priest — a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off — said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?"
- 27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew. Peter denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.
- 28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover. Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled but could eat the Passover.
- 29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? So Pilate went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"
- 30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. They answered him, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you."
- 31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge Him by your own law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death."
- 32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die. This was to fulfill the word of Jesus, which He spoke to show what kind of death He would die.

- 33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? So Pilate entered the headquarters again and called Jesus and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"
- 34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Jesus answered, "Do You say this on Your own, or did others tell You about Me?"
- 35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed You over to me. What have You done?"
- 36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would have been fighting to keep Me from being handed over to the Jews. But My kingdom is not from here."
- 37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world — to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice."
- 38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all. Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" After he said this, he went back out to the Jews and told them, "I find no fault in Him at all."
- 39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"
- 40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber. They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

Words in this chapter:

Pilate (PY-lat) — Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea — he found no fault in Jesus but allowed the crucifixion under pressure from the Jewish leaders.

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Chapter 19

Pilate has Jesus scourged and the soldiers crown Him with thorns and mock Him. Pilate delivers Jesus to be crucified at Golgotha, where He is nailed to the cross between two others. Jesus commits His mother to John's care, declares 'It is finished,' and gives up His spirit. Joseph of Arimathaea and Nicodemus bury Him.

| ¹ Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. | Then Pilate took Jesus and had Him flogged. |
| ² And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, | The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head. They dressed Him in a purple robe |
| ³ And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. | and kept coming up to Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They struck Him with their hands. |

- 4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Pilate went out again and said to them, "See, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that I find no fault in Him."
- 5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man! So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Look at the man!"
- 6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. When the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify Him — I find no fault in Him."
- 7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. The Jews answered Him, "We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God."
- 8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid.
- 9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. He went back into the headquarters and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave Him no answer.
- 10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? So Pilate said to him, "You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release You and authority to crucify You?"
- 11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me at all unless it had been given You from above. Therefore the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin."

- 12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. From then on Pilate sought to release him. But the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar."
- 13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement — in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.
- 14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! It was the day of Preparation for the Passover, about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Look at Your King!"
- 15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. They cried out, "Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."
- 16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. So He handed Him over to them to be crucified. They took Jesus,
- 17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: and He went out, carrying His own cross, to the place called the Place of a Skull — in the Hebrew, Golgotha.
- 18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. There they crucified Him, along with two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.
- 19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

- 20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. It was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.
- 21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews;' but rather, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'"
- 22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."
- 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His garments and divided them into four parts — one for each soldier. But His tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.
- 24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be." This was to fulfill the Scripture: "They divided My clothes among them, and for My clothing they cast lots." These things the soldiers did.
- 25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. Standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.
- 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to His mother, "Woman, see Your son!"

- 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. Then He said to the disciple, "See your mother!" From that hour the disciple took her into his own home.
- 28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now finished, said — to fulfill the Scripture — "I am thirsty."
- 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. A jar full of sour wine was standing there. They put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to His mouth.
- 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished." He bowed His head and gave up the ghost.
- 31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) sought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross on the Sabbath — for that Sabbath was a high day — so they asked Pilate to have their legs broken and the bodies taken away.
- 32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who had been crucified with Him.
- 33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.
- 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.

- 35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. The one who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows He is telling the truth, so that You also may believe.
- 36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of His bones will be broken."
- 37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. And again another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they pierced."
- 38 And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea — who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews — asked Pilate for permission to take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away Jesus' body.
- 39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight. Nicodemus also came — the man who had first come to Jesus at night — bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.
- 40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the Jewish burial custom.
- 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. Now there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.
- 42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Words in this chapter:

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Golgotha (GOL-gah-thah) — The hill outside Jerusalem where Jesus was crucified — an Aramaic word meaning 'place of the skull'; called Calvary in Latin.

Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb early on the first day of the week and finds it empty. The risen Jesus appears to her, then to the disciples behind locked doors, showing them His hands and His side. Thomas, absent the first time, sees Jesus eight days later and confesses, 'My Lord and my God.'

- | | | |
| 1 | The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. | On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark. She saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. |
| 2 | Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. | She ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple — the one whom Jesus loved — and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him." |
| 3 | Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. | Peter went out, along with the other disciple, and they were going to the tomb. |

|---|---|
| 4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. | Both were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. |
| 5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. | Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. |
| 6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, | Then Simon Peter came, following him, and he went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, |
| 7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. | and the face cloth that had been on His head — not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself. |
| 8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. | Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. He saw and believed. |
| 9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. | For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead. |
| 10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home. | Then the disciples went back to their own homes. |
| 11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, | But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. As she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb. |
| 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. | She saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain — one at the head and one at the feet. |
| 13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. | They said to her, "Woman, why are You weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him." |

- 14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know it was Jesus.
- 15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are You weeping? Whom are You seeking?" Thinking He was the gardener, she said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him."
- 16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!" — which means Master.
- 17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to My brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to My Father and Your Father, and to My God and Your God.'"
- 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. Mary Magdalene went and told the disciples, "I have seen the Lord" — and she told them what He had said to her.
- 19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with You."
- 20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

- 21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with You. As the Father has sent Me, so I am sending You."
- 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Ghost."
- 23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. If You forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven. If you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained."
- 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. Now Thomas, one of the twelve — called Didymus — was not with them when Jesus came.
- 25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. So the other disciples told Him, "We have seen the Lord." But He said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in His hands, put my finger into the nail marks, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."
- 26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas was with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Eight days later, His disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked, but Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with You."
- 27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Do not be faithless, but believing."
- 28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

Chapter 21

The risen Jesus appears to seven disciples at the Sea of Tiberias and directs them to a miraculous catch of 153 fish. He restores Peter with three questions — 'Do you love Me?' — and commissions him to feed His sheep. Jesus foretells Peter's death and speaks concerning the beloved disciple.

- 1 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself. After this, Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed Himself in this way.
- 2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples. Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other of His disciples were together.
- 3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.
- 4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore. Yet the disciples did not know it was Jesus.
- 5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. Jesus said to them, "Children, have You caught any fish?" They answered Him, "No."
- 6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and You will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.
- 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment — for he was stripped for work — and threw himself into the sea.
- 8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes. The other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from land — only about a hundred yards.

- 9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid on it and bread.
- 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish You have just caught."
- 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. So Simon Peter went and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish — a hundred and fifty-three of them. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.
- 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?" They knew it was the Lord.
- 13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish.
- 14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. This was now the third time that Jesus revealed Himself to the disciples after He had risen from the dead.
- 15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. When they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love You." He said to Him, "Feed My lambs."
- 16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He said to Him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to Him, "Tend My sheep."

- 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He said to Him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do You love Me?" He said to Him, "Lord, You know all things. You know that I love You." Jesus said to Him, "Feed My sheep.
- 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Truly, truly, I say to You, when You were young, You used to dress Yourself and go wherever You wanted. But when You are old, You will stretch out Your hands and another will dress You and carry You where You do not want to go."
- 19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. He said this to show by what kind of death Peter would glorify God. After saying this, He said to Him, "Follow Me."
- 20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following — the one who had also leaned against him at supper and had said, "Lord, who is it that will betray You?"
- 21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?"
- 22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. Jesus said to Him, "If I want Him to wait until I come, what is that to You? You follow Me."
- 23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? So this word spread among the brothers that that disciple would not die. Yet Jesus had not said to Him that He would not die, but, "If I want Him to wait until I come, what is that to You?"

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Acts

Author: Luke, the physician — Acts is the direct sequel to the Gospel of Luke, addressed to the same Theophilus and continuing the narrative from the ascension of Christ.

Date written: c. AD 62, ending abruptly with Paul under house arrest in Rome — a natural stopping point if Luke wrote before Paul's trial concluded.

Written to: Theophilus and the wider Gentile world, to provide an orderly account of the gospel's spread from Jerusalem to Rome.

Setting: The risen Christ has ascended. Fifty days later the Holy Spirit falls on the gathered disciples. Acts traces the next thirty years — from that upper room in Jerusalem to Paul in chains in the capital of the empire.

Where this sits historically: Spans the reigns of Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero (c. AD 30–62), ending with Paul under house arrest in Nero's Rome before the persecutions that followed the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote most of his epistles (Galatians through Romans, and the prison letters) during the events Acts narrates, while Peter, James, Barnabas, Silas, Timothy, and Apollos all played active roles in the spreading church.

Big themes:

- The Holy Spirit — He is the book's main actor; the Spirit empowers, directs, corrects, and sends throughout; Acts cannot be understood apart from Pentecost
- The gospel to all nations — Acts traces the exact progression Jesus promised: "Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (1:8)
- The church is born — Acts records the first sermons, the first converts, the first persecution, the first Gentile believers, and the first missionary journeys
- Peter and Paul — the book divides roughly in half between Peter's ministry (chs. 1–12) and Paul's three missionary journeys and arrest (chs. 13–28)
- Persecution and growth — the church does not grow despite persecution; it often grows through it; every attempt to stop the gospel accelerates it

Key passages: Acts 1:8; 2:38; 4:12; 8:37; 17:31

How it fits: Acts is the hinge between the Gospels and the Epistles. It explains how the church got from a room in Jerusalem to congregations in Corinth, Ephesus, Rome, and beyond. Every Pauline epistle was written to churches or people mentioned in Acts. Without Acts, the NT letters float without their historical anchor.

Pauline epistles tied to Acts:

| Letter | Date | Acts moment |

|---|---|---|

| James | c. AD 45–49 | Before the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15) |

Galatians	c. AD 48–49	Around the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15)
1 Thessalonians	c. AD 50–51	Second missionary journey, from Corinth (Acts 17–18)
2 Thessalonians	c. AD 51–52	Shortly after 1 Thessalonians (Acts 18)
1 Corinthians	c. AD 55	Third journey, from Ephesus (Acts 19)
2 Corinthians	c. AD 56	From Macedonia, after leaving Ephesus (Acts 20)
Romans	c. AD 57	End of third journey, from Corinth (Acts 20)
Ephesians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Philippians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Colossians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Philemon	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)

Chapter 1

Jesus commanded His apostles to wait in Jerusalem for the promise of the Holy Ghost, then ascended into heaven from the Mount of Olives. The disciples returned to Jerusalem, continued in prayer, and chose Matthias to replace Judas as the twelfth apostle.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, | In my first book, Theophilus, I wrote about everything Jesus began to do and to teach, |
| 2 | Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen: | up to the day He was taken up into heaven. Before that, through the Holy Ghost, He had given instructions to the apostles He had chosen. |
| 3 | To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: | After His suffering, He showed Himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that He was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. |
| 4 | And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. | While He was with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem. "Wait for the gift My Father promised," He said, "which You have heard Me speak about." |

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. The word "Ghost" here is an older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is fully God, co-equal with the Father and the Son.

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 5 | For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence. | "John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Ghost." |
| 6 | When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? | When they came together, they asked Him, "Lord, will You restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?" |
| 7 | And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. | He said to them, "It is not for You to know the times or dates the Father has set by His own authority." |
| 8 | But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. | "But You will receive power when the Holy Ghost comes on You. You will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." |
| 9 | And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. | After He said this, He was taken up before their very eyes. A cloud hid Him from their sight. |
| 10 | And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; | They were looking intently up into the sky as He was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. |
| 11 | Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. | "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do You stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, Who has been taken from You into heaven, will come back in the same way You have seen Him go into heaven." |

- 12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, which is about a sabbath day's walk from the city.
- 13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, James, John, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.
- 14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women, Mary the mother of Jesus, and His brothers.
- 15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) In those days Peter stood up among the believers — a group of about a hundred and twenty —
- 16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. and said, "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Ghost spoke long ago through David concerning Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus."
- 17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. He was one of our number and shared in this ministry.
- 18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. With the payment he received for his wickedness, Judas bought a field. There he fell headlong, his body burst open, and all his insides spilled out.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself — the bent nature that produces evil deeds.

- 19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so that field is called in their language Aceldama, that is, Field of Blood.
- 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take. "For," said Peter, "it is written in the book of Psalms: 'May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,' and, 'May another take his place of leadership.'"
- 21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, "Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus was with us,
- 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. beginning from John's baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. One of these must become a witness with us of His resurrection."
- 23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. They put forward two men: Joseph called Barsabas, also known as Justus, and Matthias.
- 24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, Then they prayed, "Lord, You know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two You have chosen
- 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs."

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God has set; breaking a specific command. Where "sin" is missing the mark, "transgression" is deliberately stepping over a known boundary.

- 26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles. Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias. He was added to the eleven apostles.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 2

The Holy Ghost fell on the day of Pentecost, and the apostles spoke in tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. Peter preached to the crowd, proclaiming the resurrection of Christ, and about three thousand souls were baptized and added to the church.

| 2 | And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. | Suddenly a sound like a violent rushing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. |
| 3 | And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. | They saw what appeared to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. |
| 4 | And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. | All of them were filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability. |
| 5 | And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. | Now there were living in Jerusalem devout Jews from every nation under heaven. |
| 6 | Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. | When this sound was heard, a crowd gathered in confusion, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. |
| 7 | And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? | Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans?" |
| 8 | And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? | "Then how is it that each of us hears them in our own native language?" |
| 9 | Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, | "Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea, and Cappadocia; from Pontus and Asia, |

- 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, from Phrygia and Pamphylia; from Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism;
- 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. Cretans and Arabians — we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own languages!"
- 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? They were all amazed and perplexed. "What does this mean?" they asked one another.
- 13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. But others mocked them and said, "They have had too much wine."
- 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: Then Peter stood up with the eleven, raised his voice, and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, listen carefully and let me explain this to you."
- 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. "These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It is only nine in the morning."
- 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; "No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:"
- 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: "'In the last days, God says, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams."
- 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: "'On My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy."

- 19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: "I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below — blood and fire and billows of smoke."
- 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come: "'The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.'"
- 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. "And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."
- 22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: "Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to You through miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did among You through Him, as You yourselves know."
- 23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: "This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge, and you, with the help of wicked men, put Him to death by nailing Him to the cross."
- 24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. "But God raised him from the dead, freeing Him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on Him."
- 25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: "David said about him: 'I saw the Lord always before me. Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.'"
- 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: "'Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest in hope,'"

- 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. "because You will not abandon me to hell, nor will You let Your Holy One see decay."

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word — "hell" — to translate several Hebrew and Greek words (Sheol, Hades, Gehenna). In Acts 2:27, it refers to the place of the departed, from which God did not allow Christ to remain.

- 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. "You have made known to me the paths of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence."
- 29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. "Brothers, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day."
- 30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; "But David was a prophet and knew that God had promised Him on oath that of the fruit of His loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up Christ to sit on His throne."
- 31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. "Seeing what was to come, David spoke of the resurrection of Christ: that He was not abandoned to hell, nor did His body see decay."
- 32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. "God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of it."
- 33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear. "Exalted to the right hand of God, He has received from the Father the promised Holy Ghost and has poured out what You now see and hear."
- 34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, "For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said, 'The LORD said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand

| 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool. | until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet." |
| 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. | "Therefore let all Israel be certain of this: God has made this Jesus, whom You crucified, both Lord and Christ." |
| 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? | When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" |
| 38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. | Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of Your sins. You will receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve or earn. Grace is not a reward for good behavior — it is God freely giving what we do not merit because of His love.

| 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. | "The promise is for You and Your children and for all who are far off — for all whom the Lord our God will call." |
| 40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. | With many other words He warned them and urged them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." |
| 41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. | Those who accepted His message were baptized, and about three thousand people were added to their number that day. |
| 42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. | They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, to fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer. |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 43 | And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. | Everyone was filled with awe, and the apostles performed many wonders and signs. |
| 44 | And all that believed were together, and had all things common; | All the believers were together and shared everything they had. |
| 45 | And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. | They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. |
| 46 | And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, | Every day they met together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, |
| 47 | Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. | praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. |

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Pentecost (PEN-teh-cost) — The Feast of Weeks — celebrated fifty days after Passover; the harvest festival; in the NT, the day the Holy Spirit came on the early church.

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Rome (ROME) — Capital of the Roman Empire — Paul wrote his letter to the Romans to the church there; he was eventually imprisoned and martyred in Rome.

Chapter 3

Peter healed a man lame from birth at the temple gate called Beautiful, commanding him to walk in the name of Jesus Christ. He then preached to the astonished crowd, calling them to repentance and declaring Jesus as the promised prophet spoken of by Moses.

- | | | |
| 1 | Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. | One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer — at three in the afternoon. |
| 2 | And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; | A man crippled from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple. |
| 3 | Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. | When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. |
| 4 | And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. | Peter looked straight at him, and so did John. "Look at us," Peter said. |
| 5 | And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. | So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them. |
| 6 | Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. | Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give You. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk." |
| 7 | And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. | Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up. At once the man's feet and ankles became strong. |

- 8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. He jumped to his feet and began to walk. He went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping and praising God.
- 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God: When all the people saw him walking and praising God,
- 10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the Beautiful Gate. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.
- 11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. While the man held on to Peter and John, all the people came running to them at the place called Solomon's Porch, utterly astonished.
- 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? When Peter saw this, he said to them, "Men of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness?"
- 13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. "The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob — the God of our fathers — has glorified His Son Jesus. You handed Him over to be killed and denied Him before Pilate, even though he had decided to let him go."
- 14 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; "You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to You."
- 15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. "You killed the author of life, but God raised Him from the dead. We are witnesses of this."

- | | |
|---|--|
| 16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. | "By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through Him that has completely healed Him, as You can all see." |
|---|--|

■ WORD NOTE — Faith (FAYTH) — trust and confidence placed in God and His Word. Faith is not merely believing facts — it is personally relying on God, taking Him at His word, and acting on that trust.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. | "Now, brothers, I know that You acted in ignorance, as did Your leaders." |
| 18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. | "But this is how God fulfilled what He had foretold through all the prophets — that His Christ would suffer." |
| 19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; | "Repent therefore, and turn back, so that Your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord," |
| 20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: | "and that He may send the Christ Who has been appointed for You — Jesus." |
| 21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. | "Heaven must receive Him until the time comes for God to restore everything, as He promised long ago through His holy prophets." |
| 22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. | "For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people. You must listen to everything He tells you.'" |

- 23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. "Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from among his people."
- 24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. "All the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have foretold these days."
- 25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. "You are the children of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.'"

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. God's covenants are not mere contracts — they are sacred, unbreakable commitments backed by His own character.

- 26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. "When God raised up His Son Jesus, He sent Him first to You to bless You by turning each of You from Your iniquities."

Words in this chapter:

wot — Know or knew — an archaic form of 'know'; 'I wot not' means 'I do not know.'

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Pilate (PY-lat) — Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor of Judea — he found no fault in Jesus but allowed the crucifixion under pressure from the Jewish leaders.

Samuel (SAM-yoo-el) — A prophet and the last of the judges — dedicated to God from birth; anointed both Saul and David as king; his name means 'heard of God' or 'asked of God.'

Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

Chapter 4

The priests and Sadducees arrested Peter and John for preaching the resurrection, but the number of believers grew to about five thousand. Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, declared before the council that salvation is found in no other name than Jesus Christ.

- | | |
| 1 And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, | While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees came up to them. |
| 2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. | They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. |
| 3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide. | They seized Peter and John and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening. |
| 4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. | But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand. |
| 5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, | The next day the rulers, elders, and scribes met in Jerusalem. |

- 6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and all the others of the high priest's family were there.
- 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"
- 8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people,
- 9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; if we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame, and asked how he was healed,
- 10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. then know this, You and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom You crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you completely healed."
- 11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. "Jesus is the stone You builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone."
- 12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved."
- 13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and realized that they were ordinary men with no formal education, they were astonished. They recognized that these men had been with Jesus.

- 14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say.
- 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, They ordered them to leave the council and then talked the matter over among themselves.
- 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. "What are we going to do with these men?" they asked. "Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed a notable miracle, and we cannot deny it."
- 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. "But to stop this from spreading further among the people, we must warn them to speak no longer to anyone in this name."
- 18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. They called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.
- 19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. But Peter and John replied, "Which is right in God's eyes — to listen to you or to Him? You be the judges."
- 20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. "As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard."
- 21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened.
- 22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed. The man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

- 23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them. On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported what the chief priests and elders had said to them.
- 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: When the people heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. "Lord," they said, "You made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them."
- 25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? "You spoke through the mouth of your servant David: 'Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?'"
- 26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. "'The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord and against His anointed one.'"
- 27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, "Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against Your holy Child Jesus, whom You anointed."
- 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. "They did what Your power and will had decided beforehand should happen."
- 29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, "Now, Lord, see their threats and enable Your servants to speak Your word with great boldness."
- 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus. "Stretch out Your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of Your holy Child Jesus."

- 31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost and spoke the word of God boldly.
- 32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any possession was his own, but they shared everything they had.
- 33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on them all.
- 34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, There were no needy persons among them. Those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales,
- 35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. and placed it at the apostles' feet. It was distributed to anyone who had need.
- 36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas — meaning "son of encouragement" —

■ NAME NOTE — Barnabas (BAR-nuh-bus) — "son of encouragement" — A Levite from Cyprus who became a key leader and traveling companion of the apostle Paul. He introduced Paul to the Jerusalem church and later worked with him on the first missionary journey.

- 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet. sold a field he owned, brought the money, and placed it at the apostles' feet.

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

Caiaphas (KY-ah-fas) — The Jewish high priest during Jesus's trial — he declared it better for one man to die for the nation; he unwittingly prophesied Christ's death for all people.

Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.

Chapter 5

Ananias and Sapphira lied to the Holy Ghost about the price of their land and both fell dead, bringing great fear on the whole church. The apostles performed many signs and wonders, were arrested again by the high priest, and were beaten but rejoiced that they were counted worthy to suffer for the name of Christ.

| 1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, | Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property. |

- 2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. With his wife's full knowledge He kept back part of the money for Himself and brought only a portion and placed it at the apostles' feet.
- 3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Ghost and kept for Yourself some of the money You received for the land?"
- 4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. "Didn't the property belong to You before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at Your disposal? What made You think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God."
- 5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. When Ananias heard this, He fell down and died. Great fear seized all who heard what had happened.
- 6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. Some young men came forward, wrapped up His body, carried Him out, and buried Him.
- 7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.
- 8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?" "Yes," she said, "that is the price."
- 9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The feet of the men who buried Your husband are at the door, and they will carry You out also."

- 10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. At that moment she fell down at His feet and died. The young men came in, found her dead, and carried her out and buried her beside her husband.
- 11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things. Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.
- 12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. The apostles performed many signs and wonders among the people. All the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Porch.
- 13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them. No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people.
- 14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.) Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number.
- 15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and placed them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.
- 16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. Crowds also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those troubled by unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.
- 17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, Then the high priest and all his associates — who were members of the sect of the Sadducees — were filled with jealousy.
- 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.

- 19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, saying,
- 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. "Go, stand in the temple courts and tell the people all about this new life."
- 21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. At daybreak they entered the temple courts and began to teach. When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin — the full assembly of the elders of Israel — and sent to the jail for the apostles.
- 22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, But when the officers arrived at the jail, they did not find them there. They went back and reported,
- 23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. "We found the jail securely locked with the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside."
- 24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this, they were baffled and wondered what this could lead to.
- 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then someone came and reported, "The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts and teaching the people."
- 26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them.

- 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, Having brought the apostles, they placed them before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest.
- 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."
- 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Peter and the other apostles replied, "We must obey God rather than men."
- 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. "The God of our fathers raised Jesus from the dead — whom You killed by hanging Him on a tree."
- 31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. "God exalted Him to His own right hand as Prince and Savior to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel."
- 32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. "We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God has given to those who obey Him."
- 33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death.
- 34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.

- 35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men. Then He addressed the council: "Men of Israel, consider carefully what You intend to do to these men."
- 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. "Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to Him. He was killed, all His followers were scattered, and it all came to nothing."
- 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. "After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered."
- 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: "Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone. Let them go. If their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail."
- 39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. "But if it is from God, You will not be able to stop these men. You will only find yourselves fighting against God."
- 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in, had them flogged, commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
- 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. The apostles left the Sanhedrin rejoicing because they had been counted worthy to suffer disgrace for the Name.
- 42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

Words in this chapter:

Sanhedrin (san-HEE-drin) — The supreme Jewish council of 71 members — the highest religious and legal authority in Judea; it tried Jesus and later persecuted the apostles.

Ananias (an-ah-NY-as) — Several NT figures share this name — notably the disciple who laid hands on Saul of Tarsus after his conversion, restoring his sight; also the man who lied to the Holy Spirit in Acts 5.

Chapter 6

The apostles appointed seven men, including Stephen, to serve the daily distribution so that they could devote themselves to prayer and the word. Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders, and his opponents in the synagogue brought false witnesses against him before the council.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

Sanhedrin (san-HEE-drin) — The supreme Jewish council of 71 members — the highest religious and legal authority in Judea; it tried Jesus and later persecuted the apostles.

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Chapter 7

Stephen delivered a sweeping defense before the council, tracing Israel's history from Abraham through Moses to Solomon. He accused them of resisting the Holy Ghost as their fathers had done, and they stoned him to death as he saw heaven opened and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God.

- | | | |
| 1 | Then said the high priest, Are these things so? | Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are these charges true?" |
| 2 | And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, | Stephen replied: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran." |
| 3 | And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. | "He said to him, 'Leave your country and your people and go to the land I will show you.'" |

- 4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, after his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. "So he left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. After his father died, God sent him to this land where you are now living."
- 5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. "God gave him no inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. But God promised Him that He and His descendants after Him would possess the land, even though at that time Abraham had no child."
- 6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. "God spoke to Him this way: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land, and they will be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.'"
- 7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. "'But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,' God said, 'and afterward they will come out and worship me in this place.'"
- 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs. "Then He gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs."
- 9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, "Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, they sold him as a slave into Egypt. But God was with Him
- 10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the favor of Pharaoh king of Egypt. So Pharaoh made him ruler over Egypt and all his household."

- 11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. "Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our ancestors could not find food."
- 12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. "When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers there on their first visit."
- 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. "On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family."
- 14 And Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. "After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family, seventy-five in all."
- 15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, "Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our ancestors died."
- 16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. "Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor in Shechem for a certain sum of money."
- 17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, "As the time drew near for God to fulfill His promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased."
- 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph. "Then a different king, who knew nothing about Joseph, became ruler of Egypt."
- 19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. "He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our ancestors by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die."

- 20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: "At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child. For three months he was raised in his father's house."
- 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. "When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and raised him as her own son."
- 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. "Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action."
- 23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. "When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites."
- 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: "He saw one of them being mistreated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defense and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian."
- 25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. "Moses thought that his own people would realize that God was using Him to rescue them, but they did not."
- 26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? "The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting. He tried to make peace between them and said, 'Men, you are brothers; why are you hurting each other?'"
- 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? "But the man who was mistreating the other pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?'"
- 28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday? "'Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'"

- 29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. "When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he lived as an outsider and had two sons."
- 30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. "After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the wilderness near Mount Sinai."
- 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, "When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord say:"
- 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. "'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look."
- 33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground. "Then the Lord said to Him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.'"
- 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. "'I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.'"
- 35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. "This is the same Moses they had rejected with the words, 'Who made you ruler and judge?' He is the one God sent to be their ruler and deliverer through the angel that appeared to him in the bush."
- 36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. "He led them out and performed wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness."

- 37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear. "This is the Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people.'"
- 38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us: "He was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors. He received living words to pass on to us."
- 39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, "But our ancestors refused to obey him. They rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt."
- 40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. "They told Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt — we don't know what has happened to him.'"
- 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. "That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and celebrated what their own hands had made."
- 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? "But God turned away from them and gave them over to the worship of the heavenly bodies. This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets: 'Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the wilderness, house of Israel?'"
- 43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. "'You have taken up the tabernacle of Molek and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.'"

- 44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. "Our ancestors had the tabernacle of witness with them in the wilderness. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen."

■ WORD NOTE — Tabernacle (TAB-ur-nak-ul) — the tent of meeting; Israel's portable worship structure where God's presence dwelt among His people. God gave Moses the exact design for this tent on Mount Sinai, and it served as the center of Israelite worship until Solomon built the permanent temple.

- 45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David; "Our ancestors who came after received the tabernacle and brought it with them when they took the land from the nations God drove out before them. It remained in the land until the time of David."
- 46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. "David enjoyed God's favor and asked that He might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob."
- 47 But Solomon built him an house. "But it was Solomon who built a house for him."
- 48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, "However, the Most High does not live in houses made by human hands. As the prophet says:"
- 49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest? "'Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will You build for me? says the Lord. Or where will my resting place be?'"
- 50 Hath not my hand made all these things? "'Has not my hand made all these things?'"
- 51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. "You stubborn people! You are uncircumcised in heart and ears. You are just like Your ancestors — you always resist the Holy Ghost."

- 52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: "Was there ever a prophet Your ancestors did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered Him."
- 53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. "You who have received the law that was given through angels but have not obeyed it."
- 54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and ground their teeth at Him.
- 55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, But Stephen, full of the Holy Ghost, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.
- 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. "Look," he said, "I see heaven open and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God."
- 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at Him.
- 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.
- 59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. While they were stoning Him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."
- 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. Then He fell on His knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When He had said this, He fell asleep.

Words in this chapter:

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Aaron (AIR-on) — Moses's older brother and Israel's first high priest — spokesperson for Moses before Pharaoh; his descendants served as priests throughout Israel's history.

Saul (SAWL) — Israel's first king, from the tribe of Benjamin — tall and impressive; disobeyed God and was rejected; God chose David to replace him; his name means 'asked for.'

Canaan (KAY-nan) — The Promised Land — the territory from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean, promised to Abraham and his descendants; later renamed Israel.

Haran (HEHR-an) — The city in upper Mesopotamia where Abraham's family stopped on the way from Ur — where Terah died and where Jacob later fled to Laban.

Sinai (SY-ny) — The mountain in the wilderness where God gave Moses the Ten Commandments — also called Horeb; the place of the covenant between God and Israel.

Chapter 8

A great persecution scattered the church from Jerusalem, and Philip went down to Samaria where many believed and were baptized. Philip then met the Ethiopian eunuch on the road to Gaza, preached Jesus to him from Isaiah, and baptized him after the eunuch confessed his faith in Christ.

| 1 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. | Saul approved of Stephen's death. On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judaea and Samaria. |
| 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. | Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. |
| 3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. | But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison. |
| 4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. | Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. |
| 5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. | Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed Christ there. |
| 6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. | When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. |
| 7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. | With shrieks, unclean spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. |
| 8 And there was great joy in that city. | So there was great joy in that city. |

- 9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: Now for some time a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great,
- 10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and said, "This man is rightly called the Great Power of God."
- 11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his sorcery.
- 12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. But when they believed Philip as he proclaimed the good news of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.
- 13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles he saw.
- 14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to Samaria.
- 15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: When they arrived, they prayed for the new believers there that they might receive the Holy Ghost,
- 16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) because the Holy Ghost had not yet come on any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

- 17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.
- 18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, When Simon saw that the Holy Ghost was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, He offered them money
- 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Ghost."
- 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Peter answered: "May your money go to destruction with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money."
- 21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. "You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God."
- 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. "Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord in the hope that He may forgive you for having such a thought in your heart."
- 23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. "For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin."
- 24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me. Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me so that nothing you have said may happen to me."
- 25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. After they had further proclaimed the word of the Lord and testified about Jesus, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.

- 26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert. Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road — the desert road — that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza."
- 27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of the Kandake — queen of the Ethiopians. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship,
- 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the prophet.
- 29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."
- 30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readeſt? Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.
- 31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.
- 32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: This is the passage of Scripture the eunuch was reading: "He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he did not open his mouth."
- 33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. "In His humiliation He was deprived of justice. Who can speak of His descendants? For His life was taken from the earth."

- 34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about — himself or someone else?"
- 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told Him the good news about Jesus.
- 36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What prevents me from being baptized?"
- 37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." The eunuch answered, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."
- 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. He gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him.
- 39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on His way rejoicing.
- 40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea. Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled through that region, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Words in this chapter:

Samaritans (sah-MEHR-ih-tanz) — People of mixed descent who lived in Samaria after the Assyrian conquest — Jews despised them as half-breeds who had corrupted their religion; Jesus's parable of the Good Samaritan shocked His audience.

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Chapter 9

Saul was struck down by a light from heaven on the road to Damascus, and the Lord Jesus spoke to him directly. Ananias laid hands on him, his sight was restored, and he was baptized. Saul immediately began preaching Christ in the synagogues, and the disciples in Jerusalem eventually accepted him through Barnabas.

- | | | |
| 1 | And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, | Meanwhile, Saul was still threatening to kill the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest |
| 2 | And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. | and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way — whether men or women — he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. |
| 3 | And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: | As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. |
| 4 | And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? | He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?" |

- 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. "Who are You, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom You are persecuting," He replied. "It is hard for You to kick against the goads."
- 6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. Trembling and astonished, Saul asked, "Lord, what do you want me to do?" The Lord said to Him, "Get up and go into the city. You will be told what you must do."
- 7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone.
- 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.
- 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. For three days he was blind and did not eat or drink anything.
- 10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to Him in a vision, "Ananias!" "Yes, Lord," He answered.
- 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, The Lord told Him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying."
- 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. "In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight."

- 13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: "Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your people in Jerusalem."
- 14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. "And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name."
- 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is My chosen instrument to carry My name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel."
- 16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. "I will show him how much he must suffer for My name."
- 17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing His hands on Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, Who appeared to You on the road as You were coming here, has sent me so that You may see again and be filled with the Holy Ghost."
- 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized.
- 19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. After taking some food, he regained his strength. Saul spent several days with the disciples in Damascus.
- 20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. At once He began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God.

- 21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? All those who heard him were astonished and asked, "Isn't he the man who caused havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name? And hasn't he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?"
- 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.
- 23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him: After many days had gone by, the Jewish leaders conspired to kill Him.
- 24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. But Saul learned of their plot. Day and night they kept watch at the city gates in order to kill him.
- 25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket. But his followers took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.
- 26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple.
- 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to Him, and how in Damascus He had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.
- 28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

- 29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. He talked and debated with the Hellenistic Jews, but they tried to kill him.
- 30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. When the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.
- 31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied. Then the church throughout Judaea, Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace and was strengthened. Living in the fear of the Lord and encouraged by the Holy Ghost, it increased in numbers.
- 32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. As Peter traveled about the country, he went to visit the Lord's people who lived at Lydda.
- 33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy. There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years.
- 34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. "Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals You. Get up and roll up Your mat." Immediately Aeneas got up.
- 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord. All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw Him and turned to the Lord.
- 36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha — which in Greek is Dorcas. She was always doing good and helping the poor.

- 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber. About that time she became sick and died. Her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.
- 38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Please come at once!"
- 39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.
- 40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up.
- 41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive. He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive.
- 42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord. This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.
- 43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner. Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Ananias (an-ah-NY-as) — Several NT figures share this name — notably the disciple who laid hands on Saul of Tarsus after his conversion, restoring his sight; also the man who lied to the Holy Spirit in Acts 5.

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

Saul (SAWL) — Israel's first king, from the tribe of Benjamin — tall and impressive; disobeyed God and was rejected; God chose David to replace him; his name means 'asked for.'

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 10

The centurion Cornelius received a vision from God directing him to send for Peter, and Peter received a vision declaring all foods clean. Peter went to Cornelius's house and preached the gospel, and the Holy Ghost fell on the Gentiles, who spoke in tongues and were baptized.

■ NAME NOTE — Cornelius (cor-NEE-lee-us) — "horn" — A Roman centurion stationed at Caesarea, described as devout and God-fearing. He became the first Gentile convert recorded in Acts, marking a turning point in the mission of the church to all nations.

- | | | |
| 2 | A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. | He and all his household were devout and God-fearing; He gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. |
| 3 | He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. | One day at about three in the afternoon He had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, Who came to Him and said, "Cornelius!" |
| 4 | And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. | Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God." |
| 5 | And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: | "Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter." |
| 6 | He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. | "He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea." |
| 7 | And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; | When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants. |
| 8 | And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. | He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa. |
| 9 | On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: | About noon the following day, as the men were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. |

- | | |
| 10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, | He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. |
| 11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: | He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. |
| 12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. | It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds. |
| 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. | Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat." |
| 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. | "Surely not, Lord!" Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean." |
| 15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. | The voice spoke to him a second time: "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean." |
| 16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. | This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven. |
| 17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, | While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found out where Simon's house was and stopped at the gate. |
| 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there. | They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there. |

- 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to Him, "Three men are looking for You."
- 20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. "Get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."
- 21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? Peter went down and said to the men, "I'm the one you're looking for. Why have you come?"
- 22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. The men replied, "We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man, who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told Him to ask you to come to His house so that He could hear what you have to say."
- 23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests. The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the believers from Joppa went along.
- 24 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. The following day he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.
- 25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence.
- 26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. But Peter made him get up. "Stand up," he said, "I am only a man myself."

- 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together. While talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.
- 28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. He said to them: "You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with or visit a Gentile. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean."
- 29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? "So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I ask why you sent for me?"
- 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. At three in the afternoon I was praying in my house, when suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me
- 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. and said, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor.'"
- 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. "'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, who lives by the sea.'"
- 33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. "So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us."
- 34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: Then Peter began to speak: "I now truly see that God shows no favoritism,"

- 35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. "but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right."
- 36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) "You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, Who is Lord of all."
- 37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; "You know what has happened throughout the province of Judaea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached —"
- 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and power, and how He went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with Him."
- 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: "We are witnesses of everything He did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed Him by hanging Him on a tree,"
- 40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; "but God raised Him from the dead on the third day and caused Him to be seen."
- 41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. "He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen — by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead."
- 42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. "He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead."

Chapter 11

Peter reported to the Jerusalem church how God gave the Holy Ghost to the Gentiles, and the brethren glorified God, saying He had also granted repentance to the Gentiles. The scattered believers preached the word as far as Antioch, where Barnabas and Saul taught a great number, and the disciples were first called Christians.

- | | |
| 1 And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. | The apostles and the believers throughout Judaea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. |
| 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, | So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticized him |
| 3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. | and said, "You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them." |
| 4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying, | Starting from the beginning, Peter explained everything to them precisely as it had happened. |
| 5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me: | "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was." |

- 6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. "I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds."
- 7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat. "Then I heard a voice telling me, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.'"
- 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. "'Surely not, Lord!' I replied. 'Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'"
- 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. "The voice spoke from heaven a second time: 'Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.'"
- 10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven. "This happened three times, and then it was all pulled up to heaven again."
- 11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me. "Right then three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying."
- 12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house: "The Spirit told me to have no hesitation about going with them. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's house."
- 13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; "He told us how he had seen an angel appear in his house and say, 'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter.'"
- 14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved. "'He will bring you a message through which you and all your household will be saved.'"
- 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning. "As I began to speak, the Holy Ghost came on them as He had come on us at the beginning."

- 16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. "Then I remembered what the Lord had said: 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Ghost.'"
- 17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? "So if God gave them the same gift He gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was I to think that I could stand in God's way?"
- 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life. When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance to life."
- 19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. Now those who had been scattered by the persecution that broke out when Stephen was killed traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, spreading the word only among Jews.
- 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. Some of them, however, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus.
- 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. The Lord's hand was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.
- 22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. News of this reached the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

| 23 | Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. | When he arrived and saw what the grace of God had done, He was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts. |
| 24 | For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. | He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord. |
| 25 | Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: | Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul. |
| 26 | And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. | When he found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch. |
| 27 | And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. | During this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. |
| 28 | And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. | One of them, named Agabus, stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world. This happened during the reign of Claudius. |
| 29 | Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea: | The disciples, as each one was able, decided to provide help for the brothers and sisters living in Judaea. |
| 30 | Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul. | This they did, sending their gift to the elders by Barnabas and Saul. |

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

faith — Trust and reliance on God — not mere intellectual belief, but active dependence on His word and promises.

grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

Chapter 12

Herod killed James the brother of John and imprisoned Peter, but an angel of the Lord delivered Peter from prison by night. Herod searched for Peter without success and later accepted divine praise from the crowd at Caesarea; an angel of the Lord struck him, and he was eaten of worms and died.

| ¹ Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. | It was about this time that King Herod arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to persecute them. |
| ² And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. | He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword. |
| ³ And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) | When he saw that this met with approval among the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Festival of Unleavened Bread. |

| 4 | And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. | After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after Easter. |
| 5 | Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. | So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for Him. |
| 6 | And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. | The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries stood guard at the entrance. |
| 7 | And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. | Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. "Quick, get up!" he said, and the chains fell off Peter's wrists. |
| 8 | And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. | Then the angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals." And Peter did so. "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me," the angel told him. |
| 9 | And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. | Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision. |
| 10 | When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. | They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him. |

- 11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know without a doubt that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's clutches and from everything the Jewish people were hoping would happen."
- 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying.
- 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer the door.
- 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed she ran back without opening the door and exclaimed, "Peter is at the door!"
- 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. "You're out of your mind," they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."
- 16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.
- 17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place. Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell James and the other brothers and sisters about this," he said, and then he left for another place.
- 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.

- 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode. After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then Herod went from Judaea to Caesarea and stayed there.
- 20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country. He had been quarreling with the people of Tyre and Sidon; they now joined together and sought an audience with him. After securing the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king's country for their food supply.
- 21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people.
- 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. They shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not of a man."
- 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost. Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel of the Lord struck Him down, and He was eaten by worms and died.
- 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. But the word of God continued to spread and flourish.
- 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark. When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission, they returned from Jerusalem, taking with them John, also called Mark.

Words in this chapter:

Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.

Chapter 13

The Holy Ghost sent Barnabas and Saul from Antioch on the first missionary journey, and they sailed to Cyprus where Saul — now called Paul — struck the sorcerer Elymas blind. Paul preached in the synagogue at Antioch in Pisidia, declaring justification by faith in Christ, and many Gentiles believed.

| 1 | Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. | Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. |
| 2 | As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. | While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Ghost said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." |
| 3 | And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. | So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off. |
| 4 | So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. | The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. |

■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small" or "humble" — The apostle formerly known as Saul of Tarsus. A Pharisee who had persecuted the church, Paul was dramatically converted on the road to Damascus (Acts 9). He became the greatest missionary of the early church, author of thirteen New Testament epistles, and the apostle to the Gentiles.

You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?" |

- 11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. "Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind for a time, not even able to see the light of the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over Him, and He groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand.
- 12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.
- 13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem. From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem.
- 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. From Perga they went on to Antioch in Pisidia. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down.
- 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a word of exhortation for the people, please speak."
- 16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand and said: "Fellow Israelites and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me."
- 17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it. "The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt and with mighty power He led them out of that country."

| 18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness. | "For about forty years He endured their conduct in the wilderness." |
| 19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot. | "And when He had destroyed seven nations in Canaan, He gave their land to His people as their inheritance." |
| 20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. | "All this took about 450 years. After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet." |
| 21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years. | "Then the people asked for a king, and he gave them Saul son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years." |
| 22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will. | "After removing Saul, he made David their king. God testified concerning Him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after My own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'" |
| 23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: | "From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as He promised." |
| 24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. | "Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel." |
| 25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose. | "As John was completing his work, he said: 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not the one You are looking for. But there is someone coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'" |

- 26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. "Fellow children of Abraham and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent."
- 27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. "The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus, yet in condemning Him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath."
- 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. "Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed."
- 29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. "When they had carried out all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb."
- 30 But God raised him from the dead: "But God raised him from the dead,"
- 31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. "and for many days He was seen by those who had traveled with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to our people."
- 32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, "We tell you the good news: what God promised our ancestors
- 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: 'You are My Son; today have I begotten You.'"

- 34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. "God raised him from the dead so that He will never be subject to decay. As God has said, 'I will give you the sure mercies of David.'"
- 35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. "So it is also stated elsewhere: 'You will not let your Holy One see decay.'"
- 36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: "Now when David had served God's purpose in His own generation, He fell asleep; He was buried with His ancestors and His body decayed."
- 37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption. "But the One whom God raised from the dead did not see decay."
- 38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: "Therefore, my friends, I want You to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to You."
- 39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. "Through Him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses."

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fyde) — declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. Justification is not being made righteous by our actions — it is God the Judge pronouncing us "not guilty" because Jesus paid our penalty.

- 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; "Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to You:"
- 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you. "'Look, You scoffers, wonder and perish, for I am going to do something in your days that you would never believe, even if someone told you.'"

- 42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak further about these things on the next Sabbath.
- 43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.
- 44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.
- 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. They began to contradict what Paul was saying and heaped abuse on him.
- 46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles."
- 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. "For this is what the Lord has commanded us: 'I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'"
- 48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed.

| 49 | And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. | The word of the Lord spread through the whole region. |
| 50 | But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. | But the Jewish leaders stirred up the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region. |
| 51 | But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. | So they shook the dust off their feet as a warning to them and went to Iconium. |
| 52 | And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost. | And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost. |

Words in this chapter:

Benjamin (BEN-jah-min) — Jacob's twelfth and youngest son, Rachel's second — his tribe settled around Jerusalem; his name means 'son of my right hand.'

Simeon (SIM-ee-on) — Jacob's second son by Leah — with Levi, he slaughtered the men of Shechem; his tribe was scattered in Israel; his name means 'he hears.'

Chapter 14

Paul and Barnabas preached in Iconium, fled to Lystra and Derbe, and at Lystra Paul healed a man crippled from birth. The crowd tried to worship them as gods, but Jews from Antioch and Iconium stirred up the people, stoned Paul, and left him for dead. He rose up, and they returned through the cities strengthening the disciples.

| 1 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. | At Iconium Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue. They spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. |
| 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. | But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the other Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. |
| 3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. | So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of His grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders. |
| 4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. | The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles. |
| 5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, | There was a plot afoot among both Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, to mistreat them and stone them. |
| 6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about: | But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country, |
| 7 And there they preached the gospel. | where they continued to preach the gospel. |
| 8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: | In Lystra there sat a man who was lame. He had been lame from birth and had never walked. |

- 9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed
- 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. and called out, "Stand up on your feet!" At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.
- 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"
- 12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. Barnabas they called Jupiter, and Paul they called Mercurius because he was the chief speaker.
- 13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.
- 14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting:
- 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: "Friends, why are you doing this? We too are only human, like you. We are bringing you good news, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, Who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and everything in them."
- 16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. "In the past, He let all nations go their own way."

- 17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. "Yet He has not left Himself without testimony: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; He provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy."
- 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them. Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.
- 19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.
- 20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. But after the disciples had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.
- 21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, They preached the gospel in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,
- 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said.
- 23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust.
- 24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia.

| 25 | And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: | When they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. |
| 26 | And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. | From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. |
| 27 | And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. | On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. |
| 28 | And there they abode long time with the disciples. | They stayed there a long time with the disciples. |

Words in this chapter:

faith — Trust and reliance on God — not mere intellectual belief, but active dependence on His word and promises.

grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

Chapter 15

Men from Judaea insisted that Gentile believers must be circumcised to be saved, so Paul and Barnabas went to Jerusalem for the apostles and elders to settle the matter. James declared that Gentiles should not be burdened with the law beyond a few necessary things, and the council sent a letter confirming this decision. Paul and Barnabas parted ways over John Mark, with Barnabas sailing to Cyprus and Paul choosing Silas for his second journey.

- | | |
| 2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. | Paul and Barnabas strongly disagreed and debated with these men. It was decided that Paul and Barnabas, along with some others, should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. |
| 3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. | Sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria. They reported the conversion of the Gentiles, and this brought great joy to all the brothers. |
| 4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. | When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them. |
| 5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. | But some believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and said, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and commanded to keep the law of Moses." |
| 6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter. | The apostles and elders gathered together to consider this matter. |

- 7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a long time ago God chose among us that through my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of the gospel and believe.
- 8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; God, Who knows the heart, confirmed this by giving them the Holy Ghost, just as He did to us.
- 9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.
- 10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? So why do You put God to the test by placing on the disciples a burden that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?
- 11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we are saved, just as they are."
- 12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. The whole crowd became silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they described the miracles and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.
- 13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: When they finished speaking, James said, "Brothers, listen to me.
- 14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. Simeon has described how God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for His name.
- 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, This agrees with the words of the prophets, as it is written:

- 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: 'After this I will return and rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen. I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,
- 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord — all the Gentiles on whom My name is called,' says the Lord, who does all these things.
- 18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. God has known all His works from the beginning of the world.
- 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: Therefore my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God.
- 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. Instead we should write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from things that are strangled, and from blood.
- 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. For from ancient generations Moses has had those who proclaim him in every city. He is read in the synagogues every Sabbath day."
- 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to send chosen men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas — Judas called Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers.
- 23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: They wrote a letter by their hand which said: "The apostles and elders and brothers, to the brothers of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: Greetings.

- 24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words and unsettled your souls — saying you must be circumcised and keep the law — we gave them no such instruction.
- 25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, So it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
- 26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things to you by word of mouth.
- 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; It seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us to place no greater burden on You than these necessary things:
- 29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. Abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. If You keep yourselves from these, You will do well. Farewell."
- 30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle: When the men were sent off, they went to Antioch. Gathering the congregation together, they delivered the letter.
- 31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation. When the people read it, they rejoiced at the encouragement it gave.
- 32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, encouraged the brothers with many words and strengthened them.

| 33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. | After they had stayed there for some time, the brothers sent them off in peace to the apostles. |
| 34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. | But Silas chose to remain there. |
| 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. | Paul and Barnabas also stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, along with many others. |
| 36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. | Some days later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the brothers in every city where we preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." |
| 37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. | Barnabas wanted to take with them John, who was called Mark. |
| 38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. | Paul did not think it wise to take him, since he had left them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. |
| 39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; | There was such a sharp disagreement between them that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. |
| 40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. | Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of God. |
| 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches. | He traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches. |

Words in this chapter:

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Silas (SY-las) — Paul's missionary companion on the second journey — a prophet and Roman citizen who was jailed with Paul in Philippi and prayed and sang with him at midnight.

Chapter 16

Paul chose Timothy as a companion, and the Spirit directed them to Macedonia where Lydia believed and was baptized at Philippi. Paul cast a spirit of divination out of a slave girl, was beaten and imprisoned with Silas, and at midnight an earthquake opened the prison doors. The jailer and his household believed and were baptized that night.

| 1 Then came he to Derbe and Lystra:
and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a

A disciple was there named
Timotheus, the son of a Jewish woman who believed, but his father was a
Greek. |

■ NAME NOTE — Timotheus (tih-MOH-thee-us) — Timothy; Paul's young companion and co-worker, who became one of his closest associates in ministry.

| 2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium. | He was spoken well of by the brothers
at Lystra and Iconium. |

| 3 | Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek. | Paul wanted Timothy to travel with him. He took him and circumcised him because of the Jews in that region, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. |
| 4 | And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. | As they traveled through the cities, they delivered to the believers the decisions that had been handed down by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. |
| 5 | And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. | So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew in number every day. |
| 6 | Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, | They traveled through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Ghost from preaching the word in Asia. |
| 7 | After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not. | When they came to Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit did not allow them. |
| 8 | And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas. | Passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas. |
| 9 | And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. | A vision appeared to Paul during the night — a man of Macedonia was standing and appealing to him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." |
| 10 | And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them. | After Paul had seen the vision, we immediately sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them. |

- 11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; Setting sail from Troas, we went straight to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis.
- 12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days. From there we went to Philippi, which is a leading city of that part of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We stayed in that city for some days.
- 13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither. On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer. We sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there.
- 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. A woman named Lydia, a seller of purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, was listening. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what Paul was saying.
- NAME NOTE — Lydia (LID-ee-ah) — A businesswoman from Thyatira who sold purple cloth; the first recorded convert in Europe, and a generous host to Paul's team.
- 15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." She persuaded us to come.
- 16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: As we were going to the place of prayer, a slave girl met us who had a spirit of divination. She brought her masters great profit by fortune-telling.

- 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. She followed Paul and the rest of us and cried out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, Who are telling You the way of salvation."
- 18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. She kept doing this for many days. Paul became greatly troubled. He turned and said to the spirit, "I command You in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." It came out that very hour.
- 19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, When her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.
- 20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, They brought them before the magistrates, saying, "These men are Jews and are greatly disturbing our city.
- 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. They are teaching customs that are not lawful for us to accept or practice, since we are Romans."
- 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. The crowd joined in the attack against them. The magistrates tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered them to be beaten with rods.
- 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: After inflicting many blows on them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them securely.
- 24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. Receiving this order, he put them in the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

- 25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.
- 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. All the doors immediately flew open, and everyone's chains were loosened.
- 27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. The jailer woke up and saw the prison doors standing open. He drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped.
- 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. But Paul called out loudly, "Do not harm yourself — we are all here!"
- 29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, The jailer called for lights and rushed in. Trembling, he fell down before Paul and Silas.
- 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? He brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"
- 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. They said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and You will be saved — you and Your household."
- 32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. They spoke the word of the Lord to Him and to all who were in His house.
- 33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. He took them that same hour of the night and washed their wounds. He and His entire household were baptized right away.

Chapter 17

Paul preached in Thessalonica where some Jews and many Greeks believed, but the unbelieving Jews stirred up a mob. The brethren sent Paul and Silas to Berea where the people searched the scriptures daily, and Paul went on to Athens where he preached on Mars' hill, declaring the unknown God and the resurrection of Christ.

| 1 | Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: | Passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. |
| 2 | And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, | As was his custom, Paul went in to them and for three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, |
| 3 | Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. | explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus, whom I am proclaiming to You, is the Christ," He said. |
| 4 | And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. | Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a great number of devout Greeks and a good many leading women. |

- 5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. But the unbelieving Jews were filled with jealousy. They recruited some wicked men from the marketplace, gathered a mob, and threw the city into an uproar. They attacked the house of Jason, looking for Paul and Silas to bring them before the crowd.
- 6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; When they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city rulers, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too!
- 7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. Jason has welcomed them. They all act against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king — Jesus."
- 8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. These things stirred up the crowd and the city rulers who heard them.
- 9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go. They made Jason and the others post bond, and then released them.
- 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.
- 11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. The people of Berea were more honorable than those in Thessalonica. They received the word with great eagerness and searched the Scriptures every day to see if these things were true.

- | | |
| 12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few. | Many of them believed, as did a good number of prominent Greek women and men. |
| 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. | When the Jews of Thessalonica learned that Paul was proclaiming the word of God at Berea, they came there too and stirred up the crowds. |
| 14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still. | The brothers immediately sent Paul away to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind. |
| 15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. | Those escorting Paul brought him as far as Athens. They left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible. |
| 16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. | While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled to see how full of idols the city was. |
| 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him. | So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the devout people, and in the marketplace every day with those he met. |
| 18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. | Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also debated with Him. Some said, "What is this chatterbox trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be proclaiming foreign gods" — because He was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. |

- 19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? They took hold of Him and brought Him to the Areopagus. They said, "May we know what this new teaching is that You are presenting?
- 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. Some of the things You say sound strange to us. We want to know what they mean."
- 21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.
- 22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. Paul stood in the middle of Mars' hill and said, "Men of Athens, I see that in every way you are too superstitious.
- 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. As I walked around and looked carefully at the things You worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. It is this very God — whom You worship without knowing — that I am declaring to You.
- 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; God, Who made the world and everything in it, is Lord of heaven and earth. He does not live in temples made by human hands.
- 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; He is not served by human hands as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives life and breath and everything to everyone.
- 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; From one blood He made every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth. He determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands.

- WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. When Paul says the Godhead cannot be made of gold or stone, he means God in His full divine nature is beyond anything crafted by human hands.

But now He commands all people everywhere to repent. He has set a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising Him from the dead." When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked. Others said, "We will hear you again about this." So Paul left from among them. |

- 34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. But some men joined him and believed. Among them were Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Words in this chapter:

godhead — The divine nature of God — the Trinity considered as one being; God in His full divine essence.

Athens (ATH-enz) — The intellectual capital of ancient Greece — Paul preached on the Areopagus (Mars Hill) here, engaging with Greek philosophers about the 'unknown god.'

Chapter 18

Paul came to Corinth, lived with Aquila and Priscilla, and worked as a tentmaker while preaching in the synagogue every sabbath. The Lord told Paul in a vision not to be afraid, and he stayed a year and six months teaching the word. Apollos, an eloquent Alexandrian Jew, began preaching in Ephesus and was instructed more perfectly by Aquila and Priscilla.

- 1 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; After these things Paul left Athens and came to Corinth.

- 2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and came unto them. There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them.
- 3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Since he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and they worked together — for they were tentmakers by trade.
- 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.
- 5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself entirely to the word. He testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
- 6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. When they resisted and insulted Him, He shook out His clothes and said to them, "Your blood is on Your own heads. I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."
- 7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. He left from there and went to the house of a man named Justus, a worshipper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.
- 8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with His entire household. Many of the Corinthians who heard also believed and were baptized.

- 9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: The Lord spoke to Paul one night in a vision: "Do not be afraid. Keep speaking — do not be silent.
- 10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. For I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to harm you. I have many people in this city."
- 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. Paul stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- 12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat.
- 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. They said, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways contrary to the law."
- 14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If this were a matter of wrongdoing or serious crime, I would have reason to hear your complaint.
- 15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters. But since it is a question about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves. I am not willing to be a judge of such matters."
- 16 And he drave them from the judgment seat. He drove them away from the judgment seat.
- 17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things. Then all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio paid no attention to any of it.

- 18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. Paul stayed on for many more days. Then he said farewell to the brothers and sailed for Syria, with Priscilla and Aquila. He had his head shaved at Cenchrea because he had made a vow.
- 19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. They came to Ephesus, where he left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.
- 20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not; When they asked him to stay longer, he declined.
- 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. He said farewell to them, saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return to you again if God wills." Then He sailed from Ephesus.
- 22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch. When he landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, then went down to Antioch.
- 23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. After spending some time there, he left and traveled through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.
- 24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. A Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well-versed in the Scriptures.
- 25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. He had been taught the way of the Lord. He spoke with great enthusiasm and taught accurately the things about Jesus, though He knew only the baptism of John.

Words in this chapter:

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Apollos (ah-POL-os) — A learned Jewish Christian from Alexandria — eloquent in the Scriptures and mighty in argument; Priscilla and Aquila taught him a more accurate understanding of the faith.

Aquila (AK-wih-lah) — A Jewish tent-maker from Pontus who worked and traveled with Paul — expelled from Rome by Emperor Claudius; husband of Priscilla; his name means 'eagle.'

Priscilla (prih-SIL-ah) — Wife of Aquila, a tent-maker couple who hosted a church in their home — worked with Paul and taught Apollos; her name is a Latin diminutive of Prisca ('ancient').

Corinth (KOR-inth) — A major commercial city in southern Greece — Paul founded a church here on his second journey; the city's notorious immorality shaped many of Paul's letters.

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Chapter 19

Paul arrived in Ephesus, laid hands on twelve disciples who received the Holy Ghost, and taught for two years so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word. God worked special miracles through Paul, and the seven sons of Sceva were overpowered by an evil spirit. The silversmith Demetrius stirred up a riot because Paul's preaching threatened the worship of Diana.

| 1 | And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, | While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul traveled through the upper regions and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples there |
| 2 | He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. | and asked them, "Did You receive the Holy Ghost when You believed?" They replied, "We have not even heard that there is a Holy Ghost." |
| 3 | And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. | He said, "Then what baptism did you receive?" They said, "John's baptism." |
| 4 | Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. | Paul said, "John baptized with a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the One coming after him — that is, in Christ Jesus." |
| 5 | When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. | When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. |

|---|---|
| 6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. | When Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Ghost came on them. They spoke with tongues and prophesied. |
| 7 And all the men were about twelve. | There were about twelve men in all. |
| 8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. | He went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, arguing and persuading them about the kingdom of God. |
| 9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. | But when some became stubborn and refused to believe — speaking evil of the Way before the crowd — Paul left them. He took the disciples with him and reasoned daily in the school of Tyrannus. |
| 10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. | This went on for two years, so that all who lived in Asia — both Jews and Greeks — heard the word of the Lord Jesus. |
| 11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul: | God did extraordinary miracles through Paul's hands. |
| 12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. | Even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were brought to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. |
| 13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. | Some itinerant Jewish exorcists also tried invoking the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits. They would say, "I command You by the Jesus whom Paul preaches." |
| 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. | Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. |

- 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? The evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know — but who are you?"
- 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. The man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered all of them. He attacked with such force that they fled from the house naked and wounded.
- 17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. This became known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus. Fear came over all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor.
- 18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds. Many who had believed came and openly confessed what they had done.
- 19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. Many who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they counted up the value, it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver.
- 20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. In this way the word of God grew mightily and spread.
- 21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. After these things were completed, Paul resolved in the Spirit to travel through Macedonia and Achaia and then go to Jerusalem. He said, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."
- 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season. He sent two of his helpers — Timothy and Erastus — to Macedonia, while he himself stayed in Asia for a while.
- 23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way. About that time there arose a serious disturbance about the Way.

- 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen; A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Diana, provided a great deal of business for the craftsmen.
- 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth. He called them together, along with the workers in similar trades, and said, "Men, you know that our prosperity comes from this business.
- 26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: You see and hear that this Paul has persuaded and turned away a great many people — not only in Ephesus but almost throughout all Asia. He says that gods made by human hands are not real gods.
- 27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth. Our trade is in danger of falling into disrepute. Not only that, but the temple of the great goddess Diana may be discredited and her greatness destroyed — she whom all Asia and the world worship."
- 28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. When they heard this, they were filled with rage and began shouting, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
- 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre. The city was filled with confusion. They seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's traveling companions, and rushed together into the theater.
- 30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. Paul wanted to go in to the crowd, but the disciples would not let him.

- 31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. Even some of the leading officials of Asia who were his friends sent word urging him not to venture into the theater.
- 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. Some shouted one thing and some another. The assembly was in confusion. Most of the people did not even know why they had gathered.
- 33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people. Some from the crowd pulled Alexander forward, the Jews having pushed him out front. Alexander motioned with his hand and wanted to make a defense to the crowd.
- 34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all shouted together for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
- 35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? The city clerk quieted the crowd and said, "Men of Ephesus, who does not know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the great goddess Diana and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?"
- 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. Since these things cannot be denied, you should be calm and do nothing rash.
- 37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. You have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

Words in this chapter:

justification — Being declared not guilty by God — legally counted as righteous because of Christ's perfect record credited to the believer.

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

Chapter 20

Paul traveled through Macedonia and Greece, and at Troas he preached until midnight when the young man Eutychus fell from a window and was taken up dead, but Paul embraced him and his life came back. Paul called the Ephesian elders to Miletus and warned them that grievous wolves would enter among them, commending them to God and to the word of His grace.

| 1 | And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia. | After the uproar ended, Paul sent for the disciples. After encouraging them, he said farewell and set out for Macedonia. |
| 2 | And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, | He traveled through that region, encouraging the believers with many words. Then he came to Greece, |
| 3 | And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. | where he stayed for three months. When the Jews plotted against him just as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. |
| 4 | And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. | He was accompanied to Asia by Sopater of Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians, Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, as well as Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia. |
| 5 | These going before tarried for us at Troas. | These men went ahead and waited for us at Troas. |
| 6 | And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days. | We sailed from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread and joined them at Troas in five days. We stayed there for seven days. |
| 7 | And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight. | On the first day of the week, the disciples gathered to break bread. Paul spoke to them since he planned to leave the next day. He continued speaking until midnight. |

- 8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together. There were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered.
- 9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead. A young man named Eutychus was sitting in the window and sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. Overcome by sleep, he fell from the third floor and was picked up dead.
- 10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. Paul went down, threw himself on the young man, and embraced him. He said, "Do not be alarmed — his life is in him."
- 11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. Paul went back upstairs, broke bread, and ate. He talked with them for a long time — until daybreak — then left.
- 12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted. The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.
- 13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot. We went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, where we were to take Paul on board. He had arranged this because he intended to travel there on foot.
- 14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene.
- 15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus. Sailing from there, we came the next day opposite Chios. The day after, we arrived at Samos and waited at Trogyllium. The following day we reached Miletus.

- 16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so he would not have to spend time in Asia. He was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.
- 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. From Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church.
- 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, When they came to him, he said to them, "You know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day I arrived in Asia.
- 19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: I served the Lord with great humility, with tears, and through trials that came from the plots of the Jews.
- 20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, I did not hold back anything that was helpful to you. I taught you publicly and from house to house.
- 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. I declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Now I am going to Jerusalem, compelled by the Spirit. I do not know what will happen to me there.
- 23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. Only I know that in every city the Holy Ghost warns me that chains and hardship await me.

- 24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. None of these things move me. I do not count my life of any value to myself, so long as I can finish the race and complete the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus — to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.
- 25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Now I know that none of You among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God will see my face again.
- 26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. Therefore I declare to You this day that I am innocent of the blood of everyone.
- 27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. For I did not hold back from declaring to You the whole counsel of God.
- 28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost has made You overseers. Shepherd the church of God, which He purchased with His own blood.
- 29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. I know that after I leave, fierce wolves will come in among You and will not spare the flock.
- 30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Even from Your own group, men will arise speaking twisted things in order to draw disciples away after them.
- 31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. So stay alert. Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each one of you night and day with tears.

| 32 | And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. | Now I commit You to God and to the word of His grace. He is able to build You up and give You an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. |
| 33 | I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. | I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. |
| 34 | Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me. | You yourselves know that these hands have provided for my own needs and for those who were with me. |
| 35 | I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. | In all things I have shown You that by working hard like this we must help the weak. We must remember the words of the Lord Jesus: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." |
| 36 | And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all. | When He had finished speaking, He knelt down and prayed with all of them. |
| 37 | And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, | They all wept greatly, fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him. |
| 38 | Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship. | They grieved most of all over his words — that they would see his face no more. Then they walked with him to the ship. |

Words in this chapter:

Pentecost (PEN-teh-cost) — The Feast of Weeks — celebrated fifty days after Passover; the harvest festival; in the NT, the day the Holy Spirit came on the early church.

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Macedonia (mas-eh-DO-nee-ah) — A region of northern Greece — Paul received a vision of a man from Macedonia calling for help; he brought the gospel to Europe through cities like Philippi and Thessalonica.

Chapter 21

Paul sailed to Jerusalem despite warnings from the brethren that bonds and afflictions awaited him. He met with James and the elders and agreed to purify himself at the temple, but Jews from Asia stirred up the crowd against him. The Roman soldiers rescued Paul from the mob and allowed him to address the people.

| 1 And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: | After we had parted from them and set sail, we went straight to Cos. The next day we went to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. |
| 2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. | We found a ship crossing to Phenicia, went aboard, and set sail. |

We landed at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo. |
| 4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. | We found the disciples there and stayed seven days. Through the Spirit they urged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. |

- 5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. When our time was up, we left and continued on our way. All the disciples, with their wives and children, escorted us outside the city. We knelt down on the beach and prayed.
- 6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again. Then we said farewell to one another, we boarded the ship, and they went back home.
- 7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. We completed our voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and stayed with them one day.
- 8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. The next day we left and came to Caesarea. We entered the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven, and stayed with him.
- 9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.
- 10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. While we were staying there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judaea.
- 11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. Coming to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet with it, and said, "The Holy Ghost says this: 'The Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.'"
- 12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. When we heard this, both we and the local people begged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

- 13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."
- 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. When He could not be persuaded, we stopped urging Him and said, "The will of the Lord be done."
- 15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. After these days we packed our bags and went up to Jerusalem.
- 16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us and brought us to the home of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.
- 17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly.
- 18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. The next day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present.
- 19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. After greeting them, Paul reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through His ministry.
- 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: When they heard this, they praised the Lord. They said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and they are all zealous for the law."

- 21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. They have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses — telling them not to circumcise their children or walk according to the customs.
- 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. What is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.
- 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; Do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow.
- 24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. Take them and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses so they can have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that the reports about you are false — that you yourself also live in obedience to the law.
- 25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. As for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent them a letter with our decision that they should abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality."
- 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. Then Paul took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them and went into the temple. He announced the completion of the days of purification, when an offering would be made for each of them.

- 27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from Asia saw him in the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,
- 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place! He has also brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place."
- 29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul and assumed Paul had brought him into the temple.
- 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut. The whole city was stirred up and the people came running together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and the doors were immediately shut.
- 31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. While they were trying to kill him, a report reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
- 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul. He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
- 33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done. The commander came up, arrested Paul, and ordered him to be chained with two chains. He then asked who he was and what he had done.

- 34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another. Since the commander could not find out the facts because of the uproar, he ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks.
- 35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people. When Paul reached the steps, the soldiers had to carry him because of the violent pressure of the crowd.
- 36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him. The crowd followed, shouting, "Away with him!"
- 37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek? As Paul was about to be taken into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I say something to you?" The commander replied, "Do you know Greek?"
- 38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers? "Aren't you the Egyptian who stirred up a revolt some time ago and led four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?"
- 39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people. Paul replied, "I am a Jew, a citizen of Tarsus in Cilicia — no insignificant city. Please let me speak to the people."
- 40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying, The commander gave permission, so Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd with his hand. When silence fell, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 22

Paul spoke to the crowd in Hebrew, telling them of his conversion on the road to Damascus and his commission to preach to the Gentiles. The crowd listened until he mentioned the Gentiles, then cried out for his death. The chief captain ordered him to be examined by scourging, but Paul revealed his Roman citizenship and was spared.

- 5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify to this. I also received letters from them to the brothers in Damascus. I went there to arrest those people and bring them back to Jerusalem to be punished.

- 8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom You are persecuting.'
- 9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. My companions saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the One speaking to me.
- 10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. I asked, 'What shall I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go into Damascus. There You will be told everything You are appointed to do.'
- 11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand of those who were with me into Damascus.
- 12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, A man named Ananias, a devout man according to the law who had a good reputation among all the Jews living there,

- 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. came to me, stood beside me, and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' That very hour I was able to see him.
- 14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear his voice.
- 15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. For you will be His witness to all people of what you have seen and heard.
- 16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. Now, why do you wait? Get up, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name.'
- 17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; When I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance
- 18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. and saw the Lord saying to me, 'Hurry and leave Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.'
- 19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat those who believed in You in every synagogue.
- 20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I myself was standing by, approving of his death, and keeping the clothes of those who were killing him.'
- 21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. But He said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

- 22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, "Away with such a man from the earth! He is not fit to live!"
- 23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and hurling dust into the air,
- 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him. the commander ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks. He directed that he be examined by flogging so he could find out why they were shouting against him like this.
- 25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? As they stretched him out for the flogging, Paul said to the centurion standing nearby, "Is it lawful for you to flog a Roman citizen who has not been condemned?"
- 26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and said, "Be careful what you do. This man is a Roman citizen."
- 27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea. The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me — are you a Roman citizen?" Paul said, "Yes."
- 28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born. The commander replied, "I paid a large sum for my citizenship." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen."
- 29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. Those who were about to question him withdrew at once. The commander himself was alarmed when he realized Paul was a Roman citizen and he had put him in chains.

- 30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
- The next day, wanting to find out the real reason Paul was being accused by the Jews, the commander released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole council to assemble. He brought Paul down and set him before them.

Words in this chapter:

centurion (sen-TYUR-ee-un) — A Roman army officer commanding approximately 100 soldiers — several centurions in the NT show unusual faith in Jesus.

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Chapter 23

Paul stood before the council and set the Pharisees against the Sadducees by declaring his hope in the resurrection of the dead. The Lord stood by Paul that night and told him he must also bear witness at Rome. More than forty Jews conspired to kill Paul, but his nephew uncovered the plot, and the chief captain sent Paul by night under heavy guard to the governor Felix at Caesarea.

- 1 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
- Paul looked straight at the council and said, "Brothers, I have lived before God with a completely clear conscience to this day."

- 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. The high priest Ananias commanded those standing near him to strike him on the mouth.
- 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by ordering me to be struck."
- 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? Those standing nearby said, "Are you insulting God's high priest?"
- 5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. Paul said, "Brothers, I did not know that he was the high priest. It is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"
- 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. When Paul saw that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he called out in the council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I am on trial for my hope in the resurrection of the dead."
- 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.
- 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. The Sadducees say there is no resurrection, and no angel or spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge all of these.
- 9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. There was a great uproar. Some of the scribes who were on the Pharisees' side stood up and argued strongly: "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

- 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. When the argument became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn apart by them, he ordered the soldiers to go down, take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.
- 11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage! As you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome."
- 12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. When day came, some Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath. They said they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.
- 13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. There were more than forty of them who made this oath.
- 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul.
- 15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. Now then, together with the council, make a request to the commander to bring Paul down to you tomorrow, as if you were going to examine his case more carefully. We are ready to kill him before he gets here."
- 16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. But the son of Paul's sister heard about this plot. He went into the barracks and told Paul.

- 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander. He has something to tell him."
- 18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. The centurion took the young man to the commander and said, "The prisoner Paul called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you."
- 19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside privately, and asked, "What is it you have to tell me?"
- 20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as if they intend to inquire more carefully into his case."
- 21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. Do not agree to it. More than forty of them are lying in ambush for him. They have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, waiting for your promise."
- 22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me. The commander dismissed the young man with a warning: "Tell no one that you have reported this to me."

- 23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; He called two of his centurions and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready to march to Caesarea, along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at nine tonight."
- 24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. He also told them to provide horses for Paul to ride, so he could be brought safely to Felix the governor.
- 25 And he wrote a letter after this manner: He wrote a letter as follows:
- 26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. "Claudius Lysias, to His Excellency the governor Felix: Greetings.
- 27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. I came with my troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.
- 28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: Wanting to know what charge they were bringing against him, I brought him before their council.
- 29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. I found that he was accused about questions of their law, but no charge against him deserved death or imprisonment.
- 30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Fare thee well. When I was informed that there was a plot against this man, I sent him to you at once. I have also told his accusers to present their case before you. Farewell."

Words in this chapter:

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

Rome (ROME) — Capital of the Roman Empire — Paul wrote his letter to the Romans to the church there; he was eventually imprisoned and martyred in Rome.

Chapter 24

The high priest Ananias and the orator Tertullus brought charges against Paul before Governor Felix, accusing him of being a ringleader of sedition. Paul defended himself, declaring his faith in the resurrection and his clear conscience before God. Felix heard him often over two years but left him in prison, hoping for a bribe.

| 1 And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. | Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought charges against Paul before the governor. |
| 2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, | When Paul was summoned, Tertullus began the prosecution: "Since through you we enjoy great peace, and since reforms are being made for this nation through your foresight, |
| 3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. | we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with all gratitude. |
| 4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. | But not to take up too much of your time, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. |
| 5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: | We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. |

- 6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. He even tried to desecrate the temple, so we seized him.
- 7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, But the commander Lysias came and took him away from us by force,
- 8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. commanding his accusers to come before you. By questioning him yourself, you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we bring against him."
- 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so. The Jews also joined in the accusation, asserting that these things were true.
- 10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: When the governor motioned for Paul to speak, Paul replied, "Knowing that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I am glad to make my defense.
- 11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. You can verify that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.
- 12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone or stirring up a crowd — not in the temple, not in the synagogues, not anywhere in the city.
- 13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. They cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me.
- 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: However, I do admit this to you: I worship the God of our fathers according to the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything written in the Law and in the Prophets.

- 15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. I have the same hope in God that these men themselves hold — that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.
- 16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Because of this I always try to keep my conscience clear before God and before men.
- 17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. After many years away, I came to Jerusalem to bring gifts for the poor to my nation and to present offerings.
- 18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult. Some Jews from Asia found me doing this in the temple — I had been purified and there was no crowd, no riot.
- 19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me. They are the ones who should be here before you to bring charges, if they have anything against me.
- 20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, Or let these men here state what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the council —
- 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. unless it was for this one thing I called out while standing among them: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'
- 22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your cause. Felix, who had a fairly accurate understanding of the Way, adjourned the hearing. He said, "When the commander Lysias comes down, I will decide your case."

| 23 | And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. | He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard but to give him some freedom and to allow his friends to take care of his needs. |
| 24 | And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. | Some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. |
| 25 | And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. | As Paul talked about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix grew frightened and said, "That's enough for now. When I find a convenient time, I will send for you." |
| 26 | He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. | At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him. |
| 27 | But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a favour, left Paul bound. | After two years, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. Wanting to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison. |

Words in this chapter:

Festus (FES-tus) — The Roman governor who heard Paul's case after Felix — he found no Roman charge against Paul but offered to send him to Jerusalem; Paul appealed to Caesar.

Chapter 25

Festus succeeded Felix as governor, and the Jews pressed their case against Paul. When Festus proposed sending him back to Jerusalem, Paul appealed to Caesar. King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and Festus presented Paul's case to them, having found no charge worthy of death.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem. | Three days after arriving in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. |
| 2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, | The chief priests and leading men of the Jews presented their case against Paul to Festus and urged him |
| 3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. | to grant them a favor by having Paul transferred to Jerusalem — for they were planning to ambush and kill him along the way. |
| 4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. | Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea and that he himself would be going there soon. |
| 5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. | "Let those among you who are able come down with me," he said, "and if this man has done anything wrong, they can press charges against him there." |
| 6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting in the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought. | After staying with them more than ten days, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day he took his seat on the judgment bench and ordered Paul to be brought in. |

- 7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him. They brought many serious charges against him that they could not prove.
- 8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all. Paul said in his defense, "I have committed no offense against the Jewish law, against the temple, or against Caesar."
- 9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried before me there on these charges?"
- 10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. Paul replied, "I am standing before Caesar's court, where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well.
- 11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar. If I am guilty and have done something worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges these men are bringing against me are false, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"
- 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go. Festus conferred with his council and then replied, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go."
- 13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus. Some days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.

- 14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: Since they spent several days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king. He said, "There is a man here left as a prisoner by Felix.
- 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him. When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him and asked for a verdict against him.
- 16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over any man to be condemned before he has faced his accusers and had a chance to defend himself against the charges.
- 17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth. When they came here, I did not delay. The very next day I sat on the judgment bench and ordered the man to be brought in.
- 18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: When his accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected.
- 19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. Instead they had some disputes with Him about their own religion and about a man named Jesus Who had died, whom Paul claimed was alive.
- 20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. Since I was unsure how to investigate such questions, I asked whether He would be willing to go to Jerusalem to stand trial on these matters.

- 21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar. But when Paul appealed to be held over for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him held until I could send him to Caesar."
- 22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself." "Tomorrow," said Festus, "you will hear him."
- 23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great ceremony and entered the audience hall along with the military commanders and leading men of the city. At Festus's command, Paul was brought in.
- 24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him — both in Jerusalem and here — shouting that he should not be allowed to live any longer.
- 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. I found that he had done nothing deserving death. But since he himself has appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.
- 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this examination I may have something to write.
- 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him. It seems absurd to me to send a prisoner without specifying the charges against him."

Agrippa (ah-GRIP-ah) — King Herod Agrippa II before whom Paul made his defense in Acts 26 — he told Paul 'you almost persuade me to be a Christian.'

Chapter 26

Paul made his defense before King Agrippa, recounting his former life as a Pharisee, his conversion on the road to Damascus, and his commission to preach to both Jews and Gentiles. Agrippa said, "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian," and both Agrippa and Festus agreed that Paul had done nothing worthy of death or bonds.

| 1 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: | Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself." Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: |
| 2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews: | "I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, to be able to defend myself before you today against all the accusations of the Jews. |
| 3 Epecially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. | I am especially glad because you are an expert in all the Jewish customs and controversies. I beg you to listen to me patiently. |
| 4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; | All the Jews know the way I lived from my youth — first among my own people and then in Jerusalem. |

- 5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. They have known me for a long time. If they are willing to testify, they can say that I lived as a Pharisee — the strictest sect of our religion.
- 6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: Now I stand on trial because of my hope in what God promised our fathers.
- 7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. This is the promise our twelve tribes hope to receive as they earnestly serve God day and night. King Agrippa, it is because of this hope that the Jews are accusing me.
- 8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? Why should any of you think it incredible that God raises the dead?
- 9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. I myself once thought I should do everything possible to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
- 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. And I did so in Jerusalem. I shut up many of the saints in prison, having received authority from the chief priests. When they were put to death, I cast my vote against them.
- 11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. Many times I went through every synagogue and punished them. I tried to force them to blaspheme. My rage against them was so great that I even hunted them down in foreign cities.
- 12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests.

- 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me. About noon, O king, I saw a light from heaven — brighter than the sun — blazing around me and those traveling with me.
- 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. We all fell to the ground. I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'
- 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. I asked, 'Who are You, Lord?' The Lord replied, 'I am Jesus, whom You are persecuting.'
- 16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; Now get up and stand on Your feet. I have appeared to You for this purpose — to appoint You as a servant and a witness of what You have seen and what I will show You.
- 17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, I will rescue You from Your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending You to them
- 18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. to open their eyes so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then they will receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.'
- 19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: So, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.

- 20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. First to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem, throughout all the region of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, I declared that they should repent and turn to God and show their repentance by their deeds.
- 21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me. Because of this the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.
- 22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come: To this day I have had God's help, so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I say nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen —
- 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. that the Christ would suffer, and that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and would bring light to our own people and to the Gentiles."
- 24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. While Paul was making his defense, Festus interrupted loudly: "You are out of your mind, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane."
- 25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. Paul replied, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus. What I am saying is true and reasonable.
- 26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. The king knows about these things. I can speak freely to him. I am certain that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner.
- 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

Chapter 27

Paul sailed for Rome as a prisoner and warned the crew that the voyage would end in disaster, but the centurion ignored him. A violent storm called Euroclydon drove the ship for fourteen days, and an angel told Paul that all aboard would be saved. The ship ran aground on the island of Melita, and all two hundred seventy-six souls escaped safely to land.

| 1 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, Paul and certain other prisoners were delivered unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. | When it was decided that we would sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, of the Imperial Regiment. |
| 2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. | We boarded a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to ports along the coast of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us. |
| 3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself. | The next day we put in at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends and receive care. |
| 4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. | From there we put out to sea again and sailed along the sheltered side of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. |
| 5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. | When we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we reached Myra in Lycia. |
| 6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. | There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board. |
| 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; | We sailed slowly for many days and with difficulty arrived off Cnidus. The wind did not allow us to continue, so we sailed along the sheltered side of Crete, past Salmone. |

- 8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea. We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.
- 9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, Much time had passed, and sailing had become dangerous because by now it was past the Day of Atonement. So Paul warned them,
- 10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives. "Men, I can see that this voyage is going to result in disaster and great loss — not only to the cargo and the ship, but to our own lives as well."
- 11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul. But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the ship's owner than by what Paul said.
- 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west. Since the harbor was not suitable for wintering, most of the crew voted to sail on. They hoped to reach Phoenix and winter there — a harbor in Crete facing southwest and northwest.
- 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete. When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had what they wanted. They weighed anchor and sailed along the coast of Crete.
- 14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. But before long a violent wind called Euroclydon swept down from the island.
- 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. The ship was caught by the storm and could not face the wind, so we gave way to it and were driven along.

- 16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat: As we passed to the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were barely able to secure the lifeboat.
- 17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven. When they had hoisted it up, they used ropes to brace the hull of the ship. Fearing they would run aground on the sandbars, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along.
- 18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; We were being violently battered by the storm, so the next day they began throwing the cargo overboard.
- 19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship. On the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.
- 20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away. When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.
- 21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not sailed from Crete. You would have avoided this damage and loss.
- 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship. But now I urge you to keep up your courage. Not one of you will lose his life — only the ship will be lost.
- 23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me
- 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'

- 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. So keep up your courage, men. I believe God that it will happen exactly as He told me.
- 26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island. But we must run aground on some island."
- 27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country; On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea. About midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land.
- 28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. They took soundings and found the water was twenty fathoms deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was fifteen fathoms deep.
- 29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. Afraid that we would run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.
- 30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors lowered the lifeboat into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow.
- 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. But Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."
- 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall away.
- 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. "For fourteen days," he said, "you have been in suspense and have gone without food — you have not eaten anything.

- 34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. Now I urge you to eat something. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head."
- 35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. After he said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then He broke it and began to eat.
- 36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves.
- 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. There were 276 of us on the ship.
- 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.
- 39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. When daylight came, they did not recognize the land. But they saw a bay with a sandy beach, and they decided to run the ship aground there if they could.
- 40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. They cut away the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that held the rudders, hoisted the foresail to the wind, and headed for the beach.
- 41 But striking into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. But they struck a sandbar and the ship ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, while the stern was broken to pieces by the force of the waves.
- 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping.

- | | |

| 43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: 44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land. | But the centurion wanted to spare Paul's life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. The rest followed, some on planks and some on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely. |

Words in this chapter:

prevent — To come before or precede — in the KJV, 'prevent' usually means 'get there first,' not 'stop from happening.'

strake — Peeled (past tense of 'streak') — in Genesis 30:37, Jacob 'straked' rods by peeling white streaks in them.

Day of Atonement — Yom Kippur — the holiest day of Israel's year; the only day the high priest entered the Most Holy Place to make atonement for the nation's sins.

Chapter 28

On Melita, Paul was bitten by a viper but suffered no harm, and he healed the father of Publius and many others on the island. Paul arrived at Rome and dwelt two whole years in his own hired house under guard, preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita. | Once we were safe, we learned that the island was called Melita. |
| 2 | And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. | The native people showed us unusual kindness. They lit a fire and welcomed all of us, because it was raining and cold. |
| 3 | And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. | Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and laid it on the fire. A viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand. |
| 4 | And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth him not to live. | When the natives saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "This man must be a murderer. Even though he escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live." |
| 5 | And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm. | But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. |
| 6 | Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. | The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god. |
| 7 | In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously. | Near that place was the estate of the leading man of the island, whose name was Publius. He welcomed us and showed us generous hospitality for three days. |

- 8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. His father was sick in bed with fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him. He prayed and laid his hands on the man and healed him.
- 9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed: When this happened, the rest of the sick people on the island came and were healed.
- 10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary. They honored us in many ways. When we were about to sail, they supplied us with everything we needed.
- 11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. After three months we sailed in a ship of Alexandria that had wintered at the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.
- 12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. We put in at Syracuse and stayed three days.
- 13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli: From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.
- 14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome. There we found brothers who invited us to stay with them for seven days. Then we went on toward Rome.
- 15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. The brothers there had heard about us and came to meet us as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

- 16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. When we arrived in Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard. Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier to guard him.
- 17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Three days later Paul called together the local Jewish leaders. When they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was handed over to the Romans as a prisoner from Jerusalem.
- 18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. After examining me, they wanted to release me, because there was no charge against me that deserved death.
- 19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of. But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar — not that I had any accusation to bring against my own nation.
- 20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. For this reason I have asked to see you and speak with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain."
- 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee. They replied, "We have not received any letters from Judaea about you, nor have any of the brothers who have come here reported or said anything bad about you.
- 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. But we want to hear what you think, for we know that people everywhere are speaking against this sect."

- 23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. They set a day to meet with Him, and a large number came to where He was staying. From morning until evening He explained and testified about the kingdom of God. He tried to persuade them about Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets.
- 24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. Some were convinced by what He said, but others refused to believe.
- 25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, They disagreed among themselves and began to leave. Paul said one final word: "The Holy Ghost spoke the truth to your fathers through the prophet Isaiah
- 26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: when he said, 'Go to this people and say, "You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."
- 27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. For the heart of this people has grown dull. Their ears can barely hear, and they have shut their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn — and I would heal them.'
- 28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. Therefore let it be known to you that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles. They will listen!"
- 29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves. When he had said these words, the Jews left, debating vigorously among themselves.

Words in this chapter:

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Romans

Author: Paul the apostle — the opening verse names him, and the personal details throughout (especially ch. 16) are consistent with his other letters. Tertius served as his scribe (16:22).

Date written: c. AD 57, from Corinth, during Paul's third missionary journey, before his final visit to Jerusalem.

Written to: The church at Rome — a congregation Paul had not yet visited, composed of both Jewish and Gentile believers.

Setting: Paul is planning his first visit to Rome and wants to prepare the church theologically, then use Rome as a base for a mission to Spain. He writes his most systematic letter as an introduction to his gospel.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero in the relatively peaceful early years of his reign, just years after Claudius had expelled the Jews from Rome (AD 49) and shortly before Paul's arrest in Jerusalem.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote alongside the composition of 1–2 Corinthians, while Phebe of Cenchrea, Aquila, Priscilla, Timothy, and many others named in chapter 16 were active in the gospel mission.

Big themes:

- The righteousness of God — all have sinned and fall short; God provides righteousness as a free gift through faith in Christ
- Justification by faith alone — Abraham was justified by faith before circumcision (ch. 4); the law cannot save, only condemn; faith in Christ is the only basis of acceptance before God
- The wrath of God — chapters 1–3 establish that all mankind is under divine judgment; the good news requires this bad news as its foundation
- Sanctification — chapters 6–8 address the believer's life: dead to sin, alive to God, walking by the Spirit
- God's sovereign plan for Israel and the Gentiles — chapters 9–11 are the most thorough NT treatment of election, Israel's hardening, and the future of the Jewish people

Key passages: Rom 1:16–17; 3:23–24; 5:8; 6:23; 8:28; 10:9–10

How it fits: Romans is the NT's fullest systematic statement of the gospel. Luther called it "the chief part of the New Testament and the very purest gospel." It is the theological foundation on which Galatians, Ephesians, and all of Paul's other letters rest. No book in the NT has done more to shape Christian doctrine.

Chapter 1

Paul introduces himself and declares that the gospel is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes. He argues that God's wrath is revealed against all ungodliness, because men suppress the truth and worship the creature rather than the Creator, and God gives them over to a reprobate mind.

- 10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. asking that somehow, by God's will, I may at last succeed in coming to You.
- 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; I long to see You, so that I may share some spiritual gift to strengthen You—
- 12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both Yours and mine.
- 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. I do not want You to be unaware, brothers, that I have often intended to come to You but have been hindered until now, so that I might have some fruit among You as well as among the rest of the Gentiles.
- 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. I am under obligation both to Greeks and to non-Greeks, both to the wise and to the foolish.
- 15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. So I am eager to preach the gospel to You also who are in Rome.
- 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes — to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
- 17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. In it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, as it is written: "The just shall live by faith."
- 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness.

- 19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. What can be known about God is plain to them, for God has shown it to them.
- 20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: His invisible qualities — His eternal power and Godhead — have been clearly seen since the creation of the world, understood through what has been made. So they are without excuse.

■ WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. When Paul says God's "Godhead" is seen in creation, he means the very essence of what God is — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — is visible in the things He made.

- 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Although they knew God, they did not honor Him as God or give thanks to Him. Their thinking became worthless, and their foolish hearts were darkened.
- 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, Claiming to be wise, they became fools.
- 23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like mortal man, birds, four-footed animals, and reptiles.
- 24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Therefore God gave them over to the impure desires of their hearts, to dishonoring their bodies among themselves.
- 25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. They exchanged the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, Who is blessed forever. Amen.

- 26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: For this reason God gave them over to vile affections. Even their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature.
- 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was met. In the same way the men abandoned natural relations with women and burned with desire for one another. Men committed shameful acts with men and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.
- 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, He gave them over to a corrupt mind to do things that should not be done.
- 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, They are filled with every kind of unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, greed, evil, envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice. They are gossips,
- 30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant, and boastful. They invent new forms of evil and disobey their parents.
- 31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: They have no sense, break their covenants, have no natural affection, are implacable, and show no mercy.
- 32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. Though they know God's decree — that those who do such things deserve death — they not only do them but approve of others who practice them.

Words in this chapter:

godhead — The divine nature of God — the Trinity considered as one being; God in His full divine essence.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Rome (ROME) — Capital of the Roman Empire — Paul wrote his letter to the Romans to the church there; he was eventually imprisoned and martyred in Rome.

Chapter 2

Paul argues that the moralist who judges others is equally guilty before God, because God judges impartially according to truth. He warns that the Jew who boasts in the law yet breaks it dishonors God, and that true circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter.

| 1 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. | Therefore You are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judges. ■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. When God is longsuffering, He holds back His judgment, giving sinners time to repent. It is not weakness — it is deliberate, patient mercy.

- 21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? you then who teach others — do You not teach Yourself? You who preach against stealing, do You steal?
- 22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? You who say one should not commit adultery, do You commit adultery? You who hate idols, do You rob temples?
- 23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? You who boast in the law, do You dishonor God by breaking the law?
- 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of You," as it is written.
- 25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Circumcision has value if You obey the law, but if You break the law, Your circumcision has become uncircumcision.
- 26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? So if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the requirements of the law, will not His uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?
- 27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law? The one who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will judge You who, with Your written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.
- 28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: A person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision something outward in the flesh.

- 29

But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.
- A person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. Such a person's praise is not from men but from God.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Chapter 3

Paul concludes that all people — Jew and Gentile — are under sin and that no flesh is justified by the deeds of the law. The righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe, and God set forth Christ as a propitiation through His blood.

- 1

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
- What advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?
- 2

Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.
- Much in every way. First, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God.
- 3

For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
- What if some were unfaithful? Does their unfaithfulness cancel out the faithfulness of God?

| 4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. 5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) 6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? 8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. | Not at all! Let God be true though every man a liar, as it is written: "That you may be justified in Your words, and prevail when You are judged." But if our unrighteousness highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous in bringing His wrath? I am speaking in human terms. Not at all! For then how could God judge the world? But if through my lie God's truth abounds to His glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner? And why not do evil so that good may come — as some slander us by saying that we preach? Their damnation is just. |
|--|---|
- WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When Paul says "their damnation is just," he means those who twist the gospel into a license for sin deserve God's condemnation.

| 9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: 11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. | What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all. We have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin, as it is written: "There is no one righteous, not even one. There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God. |

- 12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. All have turned away. Together they have become worthless. There is no one who does good — not even one."

- 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: "Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."
- 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood: "Their feet are swift to shed blood."

- 20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Therefore no flesh will be justified in His sight by works of the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.
- 21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; But now the righteousness of God has been revealed apart from the law, though the law and the prophets testify to it.
- 22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: This righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction,

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fyde) — being declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. Justification is God's verdict: "Not guilty." It is not earned — it is received by faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEMP-shun) — to buy back, to set free by paying a price. Christ's death was the ransom price that purchased our freedom from sin and its penalty.

■ WORD NOTE — Propitiation (proh-PISH-ee-AY-shun) — the sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin. When Paul says Jesus is our propitiation, he means Christ took the punishment we deserved so God's wrath against our sin was fully paid.

| 26 | To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. | He did this to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time — that He is just and the one who justifies the person who has faith in Jesus. |

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

propitiation — The sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin — Christ took the punishment we deserved so God's wrath was fully paid.

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

Chapter 4

Paul argues that Abraham was justified by faith, not works, and that his faith was counted to him for righteousness before he was circumcised. The promise came through the righteousness of faith so that it might be by grace and be sure to all the seed — not to those of the law only, but to all who share Abraham's faith.

| 1 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? | What then shall we say was gained by Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? |

| 2 | For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. | If Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about — but not before God. |
| 3 | For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. | What does the scripture say?
"Abraham believed God, and it was counted to Him as righteousness." |
| 4 | Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. | Now to one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as something owed. |
| 5 | But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. | But to one who does not work but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness. |
| 6 | Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, | David also describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works: |
| 7 | Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. | "Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. |
| 8 | Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin. | Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin." |

■ WORD NOTE — Imputed (im-PYOO-ted) — credited to your account. Our sin was charged to Christ; His righteousness is credited to us. When God imputes righteousness, He counts it as ours even though we did not earn it.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Iniquity is not just what you do wrong, but the bent nature inside you that drives it.

| 9 | Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. | Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. |

| 10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: 12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised. 13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: 15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. | How then was it counted? Was it before or after he was circumcised? It was not after but before he was circumcised. He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness might be imputed to them also. He is also the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised. The promise to Abraham and his seed that he would inherit the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is those who follow the law who are heirs, then faith is useless and the promise is nullified. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. While sin is missing the mark, transgression is knowingly stepping over the boundary God established.

- 16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, Therefore the promise comes by faith so that it may rest on grace, and be guaranteed to all Abraham's seed — not only to those under the law but also to those who share Abraham's faith, for he is the father of us all—
- 17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. as it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom He believed — the God Who quickens the dead and calls into existence things that do not exist.

■ WORD NOTE — Quickened (KWIK-end) — made alive; spiritually brought from death to life by God. When God quickens, He gives life where there was none — to dead bodies, and to dead souls. It is not revival of something fading; it is resurrection power.

- 18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him: "So shall your seed be."
- 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb: He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the deadness of Sarah's womb.
- 20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; He did not waver in unbelief regarding the promise of God, but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God.
- 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. He was fully convinced that God was able to do what He had promised.
- 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
- 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him,

24	But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;	but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead —
25	Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.	He was delivered over for our sins and raised for our justification.

Words in this chapter:

- imputed — Credited to your account — our sin charged to Christ, His righteousness counted as ours.
- justification — Being declared not guilty by God — legally counted as righteous because of Christ's perfect record credited to the believer.
- Sarah (SAIR-ah) — Abraham's wife and mother of Isaac — her name means 'princess'; she laughed when told she would bear a son at age 90.

Chapter 5

Paul declares that being justified by faith brings peace with God and access to His grace. He argues that as sin and death entered the world through Adam, much more does the free gift of righteousness and life abound through Jesus Christ to all who receive it.

1	Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:	Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Atonement (ah-TONE-ment) — the payment for sin that brings God and man back together. Christ's death on the cross was the atoning sacrifice — it satisfied God's justice and restored the broken relationship between God and man.

- | | |

| 12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: | Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man and death through sin, so death spread to all men, because all sinned. |
| 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. | Sin was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted against someone when there is no law. |
| 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. | Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who was a figure of the One to come. |

For if many died through one man's sin, how much more has the grace of God and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflowed to the many! |
| 16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification. | The gift is not like the result of one man's sin. The judgment following one sin brought condemnation, but the free gift following many transgressions brought justification. |

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

similitude — A likeness or visible form — used when God appears in a shape or when something resembles something else closely.

Adam (AD-um) — The first man, formed from the dust of the earth — his name in Hebrew means 'man' or 'from the ground (adamah).'

Chapter 6

Paul argues that believers who have been baptized into Christ's death must not continue in sin, because they have died to sin and are alive to God. He instructs them to yield their members as instruments of righteousness, for sin shall not have dominion over those who are under grace, not the law.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? | What shall we say then? Should we go on sinning so that grace may increase? |
| 2 | God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? | Not at all! We who died to sin — how can we live in it any longer? |
| 3 | Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? | Do You not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? |
| 4 | Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. | We were therefore buried with Him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. |
| 5 | For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: | If we have been united with Him in a death like His, we will certainly also be united with Him in a resurrection like His. |
| 6 | Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. | We know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be slaves to sin. |

- 7 For he that is dead is freed from sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin.
- 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: Now if we have died with Christ, we believe we will also live with Him.
- 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. We know that Christ, having been raised from the dead, will never die again. Death no longer has dominion over Him.
- 10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. The death He died, He died to sin once for all. The life He lives, He lives to God.
- 11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Do not let sin reign in Your mortal body so that You obey its evil desires.
- 13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. Do not offer the members of Your body to sin as instruments of unrighteousness. Instead, offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and offer the members of Your body to Him as instruments of righteousness.
- 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. Sin shall not have dominion over You, for You are not under the law but under grace.
- 15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Not at all!

- 16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? Do You not know that if You present yourselves to someone as obedient servants, you are the servants of the one You obey — whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?
- 17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. But thanks be to God that, though You were once servants of sin, You have wholeheartedly obeyed the pattern of teaching to which You were entrusted.
- 18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. Having been set free from sin, You have become servants of righteousness.
- 19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness. I am speaking in human terms because of Your natural limitations. Just as You once offered Your members as servants to impurity and iniquity, leading to more iniquity — now offer them as servants to righteousness, leading to holiness.
- 20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. When You were servants of sin, You were free from the control of righteousness.
- 21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. What benefit did You gain from the things You are now ashamed of? The end of those things is death.
- 22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. But now that You have been set free from sin and have become servants of God, the benefit You reap leads to holiness, and the end result is everlasting life.
- 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Words in this chapter:

grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Chapter 7

Paul explains that believers are dead to the law through the body of Christ, freed to serve in newness of spirit. He describes the inner struggle with sin: the law is holy and good, but sin dwelling in the flesh wages war against the mind, so that the good he would do he does not, and the evil he would not do he practices.

|---|---|
| 1 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? | Do You not know, brothers — for I am speaking to those who know the law — that the law has authority over a person only as long as He lives? |
| 2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. | A married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as He lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage. |

- 3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. So if she joins with another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.
- 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. Likewise, my brothers, You also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that You may belong to another — to Him who was raised from the dead — that we might bear fruit for God.
- 5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. When we were in the flesh, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.
- 6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.
- 7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Not at all! I would not have known sin except through the law. I would not have known what it was to covet if the law had not said, "You shall not covet."
- 8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead. But sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin is dead.
- 9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. | The very commandment that was meant to bring life proved to bring death to me. |
| 11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. | Sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. |
| 12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. | So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good. |
| 13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. | Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? Not at all! It was sin, producing death in me through what is good, so that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become extremely sinful. |
| 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. | We know that the law is spiritual. But I am fleshly, sold under sin. |
| 15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. | I do not understand what I am doing. I do not do what I want to do, but I do what I hate. |
| 16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. | If I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. |
| 17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. | So it is no longer I who do it, but sin that lives in me. |
| 18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. | I know that nothing good lives in me — that is, in my flesh. The desire to do good is present in me, but I cannot carry it out. |
| 19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. | I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do — I keep on doing it. |
| 20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. | If I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin living in me that does it. |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. 22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. | So I find this law at work: whenever I want to do good, evil is right there with me. I delight in the law of God in my inner being, but I see another law at work in my members, waging war against the law of my mind and taking me captive to the law of sin that is at work in my members. What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God — through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I myself serve the law of God, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. |

Words in this chapter:

concupiscence (kon-KYOO-pih-sense) — sinful desire; the inward craving to do what God forbids

carnal (KAR-nul) — of the flesh; sold under sin — the condition of human nature apart from the Spirit

Chapter 8

Paul declares that there is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus who walk after the Spirit, and that the Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God. He argues that all things work together for good to those who love God, and that nothing — neither death, nor life, nor any creature — shall be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. | There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, Who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. |
| 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. | For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death. |
| 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: | For what the law could not do, because it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin. He condemned sin in the flesh, |
| 4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. | so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. |
| 5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. | Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh. Those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. |
| 6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. | The mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace. |
| 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. | The mind set on the flesh is hostile to God — it does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. |

- 8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.
- 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in You. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, He does not belong to Him.
- 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if Christ is in You, then even though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit gives life because of righteousness.
- 11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. If the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in You, He who raised Christ from the dead will also quicken Your mortal bodies through His Spirit who lives in You.
- 12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. So then, brothers, we are not obligated to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
- 13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For if You live according to the flesh, You will die. But if by the Spirit You put to death the deeds of the body, You will live.
- 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
- 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. You have not received a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear. You have received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba, Father."
- 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

- 17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. If we are children, then we are heirs — heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ — if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.
- 18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing to the glory that will be revealed in us.
- 19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the eager longing of creation waits for the revealing of the sons of God.
- 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, For the creation was subjected to frustration — not by its own choice but by the will of the One who subjected it — in hope
- 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.
- 22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth up to the present time.
- 23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption — the redemption of our bodies.
- 24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? We are saved in hope. But hope that is seen is not hope — who hopes for what He already sees?
- 25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

- 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.
- 27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. He who searches the hearts knows what the Spirit's mind is, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.
- 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.
- 29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Those He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers.
- 30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Those He predestined He also called; those He called He also justified; those He justified He also glorified.
- 31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? What shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?
- 32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? He who did not spare his own Son but delivered him up for us all — will He not also, along with Him, freely give us all things?
- 33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God Who justifies.

Words in this chapter:

Abba (AB-ah) — Aramaic word for 'Father' — an intimate address to God, showing the believer's adoption as God's child.

wit — To know — 'to wit' means 'that is to say' or 'namely'; 'wot ye not' means 'don't you know?'

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Chapter 9

Paul expresses great sorrow for Israel and argues that God's word has not failed, because not all who are of Israel are truly Israel. He defends God's sovereign right to show mercy on whom He will and to harden whom He will, as the potter has power over the clay.

- 6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: It is not as though God's word has failed. Not all who are descended from Israel are Israel.
- 7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. Not all of Abraham's children are his true descendants, but "Through Isaac your seed will be named."
- 8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed. This means it is not the children of the flesh who are God's children, but the children of the promise who are counted as the seed.
- 9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son. For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son."
- 10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac; Not only that, but when Rebecca had conceived children by one man — our forefather Isaac—
- 11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;) before the twins were born and had done anything good or bad — so that God's purpose in election would stand, not by works but by His call—
- 12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. she was told: "The older will serve the younger."
- 13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated. As it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."
- 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? Not at all!
- 15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion. For He says to Moses: "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

- | | |
| 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. | So then, it does not depend on human will or effort, but on God Who shows mercy. |
| 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. | The scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose — to display My power in you, so that My name might be proclaimed throughout all the earth." |
| 18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. | So then, He has mercy on whom He will, and He hardens whom He will. |
| 19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? | You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who can resist His will?" |
| 20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? | But who are you, O man, to argue with God? Will what is molded say to the one who molds it, "Why have you made me like this?" |
| 21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? | Does not the potter have authority over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honored use and another for common use? |
| 22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: | What if God, wanting to show His wrath and make His power known, bore with great longsuffering the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction— |
| 23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, | in order to make known the riches of His glory on vessels of mercy, which He had prepared beforehand for glory— |

- 24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? even us whom He has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles?
- 25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. As He says in Hosea: "Those who were not My people I will call My people, and her who was not beloved I will call beloved."
- 26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. "In the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' there they will be called children of the living God."
- 27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved."
- 28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. "For the Lord will carry out His sentence on the earth completely and without delay."
- 29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha. As Isaiah said previously: "If the Lord of Sabaoth had not left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom and been made like Gomorrah."
- 30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. What shall we say then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it — the righteousness that is by faith.
- 31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness. But Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it.

- 32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,
- 33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. as it is written: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone that causes stumbling and a rock of offense. Whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

Words in this chapter:

Esau (EE-saw) — Isaac's firstborn son — hairy and a skilled hunter; sold his birthright to Jacob for lentil stew; ancestor of the Edomites.

Hosea (ho-ZAY-ah) — A prophet whose marriage to an unfaithful wife illustrated Israel's unfaithfulness to God — his name means 'salvation.'

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Gomorrah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 10

Paul declares that Israel has a zeal for God but not according to knowledge, seeking to establish their own righteousness rather than submitting to the righteousness of God. He proclaims that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved, and that faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. | Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved. |
| 2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. | I testify on their behalf that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. |
| 3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. | For being ignorant of God's righteousness and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they have not submitted to God's righteousness. |
| 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. | Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. |
| 5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them. | Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law: "The person who does these things will live by them." |
| 6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:) | But the righteousness based on faith says: "Do not say in Your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" — that is, to bring Christ down— |
| 7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) | or "Who will descend into the deep?" — that is, to bring Christ up from the dead. |

- 8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; But what does it say? "The word is near You, in Your mouth and in Your heart" — that is, the word of faith that we preach.
- 9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. If You confess with Your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in Your heart that God raised Him from the dead, You will be saved.
- 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. With the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved.
- 11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. The scripture says: "Whosoever believes in him will not be put to shame."
- 12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. There is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord is Lord of all and bestows His riches on all who call on Him.
- 13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."
- 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? How shall they hear without someone preaching?
- 15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! How shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!"
- 16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? But not all have obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says: "Lord, who has believed our message?"

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 17 | So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. | So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. |
| 18 | But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. | But I ask: Have they not heard? Yes, certainly: "Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world." |
| 19 | But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. | But I ask: Did not Israel know? First, Moses says: "I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation. By a foolish nation I will make you angry." |
| 20 | But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. | Then Isaiah boldly says: "I was found by those who did not seek Me. I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me." |
| 21 | But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. | But to Israel He says: "All day long I have held out My hands to a disobedient and argumentative people." |

Paul argues that God has not cast away Israel, for a remnant according to the election of grace remains. He uses the olive tree to illustrate how Gentile branches were grafted in and warns them not to boast, declaring that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles comes in, and so all Israel shall be saved.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. | I ask then: has God rejected his people? Not at all! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. |
| 2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, | God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah — how he pleaded with God against Israel? |
| 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. | "Lord, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me." |
| 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. | But what was God's answer to Him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." |
| 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. | So too, at the present time, there is a remnant chosen by grace. |
| 6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. | And if it is by grace, it is no longer by works — otherwise grace would no longer be grace. |
| 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded | What then? What Israel was seeking, it did not obtain, but the elect did obtain it. The others were hardened, |

- 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, to this very day."
- 9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: David says: "Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution to them."
- 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always. Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and make their backs bend forever."
- 11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. I ask then: did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, through their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous.
- 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? Now if their transgression brings riches to the world, and their failure brings riches to the Gentiles, how much more will their fullness bring!
- 13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make the most of my ministry,
- 14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to jealousy and save some of them.
- 15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? For if their rejection brought reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?
- 16 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. If the firstfruits are holy, the whole batch is holy. If the root is holy, so are the branches.

- 17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; If some of the branches were broken off, and you — a wild olive shoot — were grafted in among them to share in the richness of the olive root,
- 18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. do not boast over those branches. If you do boast, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root that supports you.
- 19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in."
- 20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: True. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid.
- 21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you either.
- 22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. Consider therefore the goodness and severity of God — severity toward those who fell, but goodness toward you, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you too will be cut off.
- 23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
- 24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? After all, if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more easily will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree!

- 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. I do not want you to be unaware of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.
- 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: Then all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The Deliverer will come from Zion. He will turn godlessness away from Jacob.
- 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. This is My covenant with them when I take away their sins."
- 28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. As regards the gospel, they are enemies for your sake. But as regards election, they are beloved for the sake of the patriarchs.
- 29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. For the gifts and the calling of God are without repentance.
- 30 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience,
- 31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. so they too have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they also may now receive mercy.
- 32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. For God has confined all men in disobedience so that He may show mercy to all.
- 33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and how inscrutable His ways!
- 34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His adviser?"

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 35 | Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? | "Or who has given a gift to Him that He should be repaid?" |
| 36 | For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. | For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen. |

Words in this chapter:

wot — Know or knew — an archaic form of 'know'; 'I wot not' means 'I do not know.'

Benjamin (BEN-jah-min) — Jacob's twelfth and youngest son, Rachel's second — his tribe settled around Jerusalem; his name means 'son of my right hand.'

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 12

Paul urges believers to present their bodies as a living sacrifice and to be transformed by the renewing of their minds. He instructs them on the use of spiritual gifts within the body of Christ and on practical duties: love without hypocrisy, patience in tribulation, hospitality, and overcoming evil with good.

- | | |
| 1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. | I urge You, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present Your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God — which is Your reasonable service. |
| 2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. | Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of Your mind, so that You may discern what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God. |
| 3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. | By the grace given to me, I say to every one of you: do not think of yourself more highly than You ought, but think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith God has given You. |
| 4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: | Just as we have many members in one body and these members do not all have the same function, |
| 5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. | so we who are many are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. |
| 6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; | We have different gifts according to the grace given to us. If prophecy — use it in proportion to Your faith. |
| 7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or he that teacheth, on teaching; | If serving — serve. If teaching — teach. |
| 8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. | If encouraging — encourage. If giving — give generously. If leading — lead with diligence. If showing mercy — do it cheerfully. |

| 9 | Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. | Let love be sincere. Hate what is evil; hold fast to what is good. |
| 10 | Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; | Love one another with brotherly affection. In honor, put others before yourselves. |
| 11 | Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; | Do not be lazy, but be fervent in spirit. Serve the Lord. |
| 12 | Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; | Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, and be constant in prayer. |
| 13 | Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. | Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality. |
| 14 | Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. | Bless those who persecute You — bless and do not curse. |
| 15 | Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. | Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. |
| 16 | Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. | Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited. |
| 17 | Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. | Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Do what is right in the eyes of everyone. |
| 18 | If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. | If it is possible, as far as it depends on You, live at peace with everyone. |
| 19 | Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. | Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath. "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord." |
| 20 | Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. | "If Your enemy is hungry, feed Him. If He is thirsty, give Him a drink. In doing so, You will heap burning coals on His head." |

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.
- Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Words in this chapter:

- faith — Trust and reliance on God — not mere intellectual belief, but active dependence on His word and promises.
- grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.
- mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Chapter 13

Paul instructs believers to submit to governing authorities, for the powers that be are ordained of God, and whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God. He summarizes the law in the command to love one's neighbor and urges the church to put on the armour of light, for salvation is nearer than when they first believed.

- 1

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.
- Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God.

Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
- Therefore whoever resists the authority resists what God has ordained, and those who resist will bring damnation on themselves.

- 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Do what is good and you will have his approval.
- 4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. For he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid — He does not carry the sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.
- 5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Therefore it is necessary to be in submission, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience.
- 6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, devoting themselves to this very thing.
- 7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.
- 8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Owe no one anything except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.
- 9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The commandments — you shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet — and any other commandment are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

- | | |

| 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. 12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. 13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. 14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof. | Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. Do this, knowing the time — that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is almost over; the day is near. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us behave properly, as in the daytime — not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy. Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no plans to gratify the desires of the flesh. |

Chapter 14

Paul instructs believers to receive the weak in faith without passing judgment on disputable matters such as eating and observing days. He argues that every person shall give account of himself to God, and that the kingdom of God is not about food and drink but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations. | Accept the one who is weak in faith, but do not quarrel over opinions. |
| 2 | For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs. | One person believes He may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. |
| 3 | Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. | Let not the one who eats despise the one who does not, and let not the one who does not eat judge the one who does, for God has accepted Him. |
| 4 | Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. | Who are You to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And He will stand, for the Lord is able to make Him stand. |
| 5 | One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. | One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. |
| 6 | He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. | Whoever observes the day, observes it to the Lord. Whoever eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God. Whoever does not eat, abstains to the Lord and gives thanks to God. |
| 7 | For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. | For none of us lives to Himself, and none of us dies to Himself. |

- 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. If we live, we live to the Lord; if we die, we die to the Lord. Whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.
- 9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. For this very reason Christ died and came back to life — that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.
- 10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. Why then do You judge Your brother? Or why do You look down on Your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.
- 11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. As it is written: "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God."
- 12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.
- 13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Let us therefore stop judging one another. Instead, make up Your mind not to put a stumbling block or obstacle in Your brother's way.
- 14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. I am convinced, as one who is in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself. But to the one who considers something to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
- 15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. If Your brother is grieved because of what You eat, You are no longer walking charitably. Do not destroy by Your food the one for whom Christ died.
- 16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of: Do not let what You consider good to be spoken of as evil.

|---|---|
| 17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. 18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. 19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. 20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. 21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. 22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. 23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin. | For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. Whoever serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men. So then, let us pursue what makes for peace and what builds one another up. Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for anyone to eat in a way that causes someone else to stumble. It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else that will cause Your brother to stumble or be offended or made weak. The faith that You have, keep between Yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves. But whoever doubts is damned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith — and everything that does not come from faith is sin. |

Chapter 15

Paul urges the strong to bear with the weak and to follow Christ's example of selflessness, declaring that Christ became a minister to the Jews and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. He shares his ambition to preach where Christ has not been named and outlines his plans to visit Rome on his way to Spain.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. | We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. |
| 2 | Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. | Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build Him up. |
| 3 | For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. | For even Christ did not please Himself, but as it is written: "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." |
| 4 | For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. | For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that through the endurance and encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. |
| 5 | Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: | May the God of endurance and encouragement grant You to be of one mind with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, |
| 6 | That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. | so that together You may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. |

- 7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. Therefore accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us, to the glory of God.
- 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: I tell You that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness — to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs—
- 9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. As it is written: "Therefore I will praise You among the Gentiles, and sing to Your name."
- 10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. Again it says: "Rejoice, You Gentiles, together with His people."
- 11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. And again: "Praise the Lord, all You Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise Him."
- 12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. And again Isaiah says: "The Root of Jesse will come — He who rises to rule the Gentiles. In him the Gentiles will hope."
- 13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. May the God of hope fill You with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Ghost You may overflow with hope.
- 14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. I myself am satisfied about You, my brothers, that You yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.
- 15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, But I have written to You rather boldly on some points, as a reminder to You, because of the grace God gave me

- 16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest in the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable — sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctified (SANK-tih-fyde) — made holy; set apart for God.

Sanctification is the ongoing work of the Holy Ghost in the believer's life, making us more like Christ and setting us apart from the world.

- 17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. I have reason to boast in Christ Jesus about the things that pertain to God.
- 18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience — by word and deed,
- 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God — so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.
- 20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation: Thus I make it my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ has not already been named, rather than building on someone else's foundation.
- 21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see; and they that have not heard shall understand. As it is written: "Those who have never been told about Him will see, and those who have never heard will understand."
- 22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you. This is why I have been so often hindered from coming to You.
- 23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you; But now, with no more room for work in these regions, and having longed for many years to come to You,

- 24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company. I hope to see You in passing as I travel to Spain. I hope to enjoy Your company for a while and then to have You assist me on my journey there.
- 25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. For now, I am going to Jerusalem to serve the saints.
- 26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.
- 27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things. They were pleased to do this, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings.
- 28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. When I have completed this and have delivered this contribution securely to them, I will come to You on my way to Spain.
- 29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. I know that when I come to You, I will come with the full blessing of the gospel of Christ.
- 30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; I urge You, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in earnest prayer to God on my behalf.
- 31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints; Pray that I may be delivered from those in Judea who do not believe, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints,

- 32

That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

so that by God's will I may come to You with joy and be refreshed together with You.
- 33

Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

Paul commends Phoebe to the church and greets many believers by name, including Priscilla and Aquila who risked their own necks for his life. He warns them to mark those who cause divisions contrary to the doctrine they have learned and closes with a doxology to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ.

- 1

I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

I commend to You our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church at Cenchrea.

That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

Receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints, and help her with whatever she needs from You, for she has been a great help to many people, including me.

| 16 Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you. | Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet You. |
| 17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. | I urge You, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the teaching You have learned. Avoid them. |
| 18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. | For such people do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ but their own belly. By good words and fair speeches they deceive the hearts of the simple. |
| 19 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. | Your obedience is known to all, and I rejoice over You. But I want You to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil. |
| 20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. | The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with You. |

Words in this chapter:

Aquila (AK-wih-lah) — A Jewish tent-maker from Pontus who worked and traveled with Paul — expelled from Rome by Emperor Claudius; husband of Priscilla; his name means 'eagle.'

Priscilla (prih-SIL-ah) — Wife of Aquila, a tent-maker couple who hosted a church in their home — worked with Paul and taught Apollos; her name is a Latin diminutive of Prisca ('ancient').

1 Corinthians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Sosthenes named as co-sender (1:1); Paul founded the Corinthian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 18).

Date written: c. AD 54–55, from Ephesus during Paul's third missionary journey, in response to reports and questions from the Corinthian church.

Written to: The church at Corinth — a congregation in one of the most cosmopolitan and morally corrupt port cities in the Roman empire, plagued by factionalism, sexual immorality, and theological confusion.

Setting: Corinth was a city of extraordinary wealth, social diversity, and sexual license. The church reflected its environment — divided over personalities, tolerating open sin, misusing spiritual gifts, and confused about the resurrection. Paul writes to correct, instruct, and restore order.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus during the early years of Nero's reign, while Gallio's earlier ruling at Corinth (Acts 18, c. AD 51) had established a legal precedent of Roman tolerance toward Paul's mission.

Contemporaries: Apollos, Cephas (Peter), Timothy, and Sosthenes were all active leaders in this same window, and Paul wrote this letter shortly before composing 2 Corinthians and Romans.

Big themes:

- The cross as the center — against Corinthian boasting in wisdom and eloquence, Paul insists that "Christ crucified" is the only message that has power to save
- Church unity — factionalism ("I am of Paul," "I am of Apollos") is rebuked; the church is one body with many members
- Holiness in a pagan city — sexual immorality, lawsuits between believers, and idol-food are all addressed with the reminder that believers are temples of the Holy Ghost
- Charity — chapter 13 defines the love that must govern every exercise of spiritual gifts; without it, everything is nothing
- The resurrection — chapter 15 is the NT's fullest treatment of Christ's bodily resurrection and the resurrection of believers; it is the foundation of the whole Christian faith

Key passages: 1 Cor 1:18; 6:19–20; 13:4–7; 15:3–4; 15:55–57

How it fits: 1 Corinthians is the most practical of Paul's major letters — it addresses nearly every disorder a congregation can face. Chapter 13 on charity and chapter 15 on the resurrection are among the most read passages in all of Scripture. It was written from Ephesus shortly before Romans.

Chapter 1

Paul rebukes the Corinthians for their divisions, as some claim to follow Paul, Apollos, Cephas, or Christ. He argues that the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish but the power of God to those who are saved, and that God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise.

| 1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, | Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, and our brother Sosthenes, |
| 2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: | To the church of God that is in Corinth — to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints — together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: |
| 3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. | Grace to You and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; | I give thanks to my God always for You because of the grace of God that was given You in Christ Jesus. |
| 5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; | In Him You were enriched in every way — in all speech and in all knowledge— |
| 6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: | because the testimony about Christ was confirmed in You. |
| 7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: | You are not lacking in any spiritual gift as You wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. | He will also keep You firm to the end, so that You will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. | God is faithful, by whom You were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. |

- 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. I urge You, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of You agree and that there be no divisions among You. Be united in the same mind and the same judgment.
- 11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. It has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among You, my brothers.
- 12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. What I mean is this: each of You says, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ."
- 13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul?
- 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; I am thankful that I baptized none of You except Crispus and Gaius,
- 15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. so that no one can say you were baptized in my name.
- 16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.
- 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel — not with wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.
- 18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For the message of the cross is foolishness to them that perish, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

- 19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the intelligent."
- 20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? Where is the wise man? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?
- 21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of what is preached to save those who believe.
- 22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom,
- 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but we preach Christ crucified — a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,
- 24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.
- 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
- 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: Brothers, consider Your calling: not many of You were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth.
- 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.

- 28

And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

God chose the lowly things of this world, the despised things — and the things that are not — to bring to nothing the things that are,
- 29

That no flesh should glory in his presence.

so that no one may boast before God.
- 30

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

It is because of Him that You are in Christ Jesus, Who has become for us wisdom from God — that is, our righteousness, sanctification, and redemption—

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (sank-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — being made holy; the lifelong process of being set apart for God. Justification is the one-time verdict of "not guilty." Sanctification is the ongoing work of God making us holy in our daily lives.

- 31

That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Therefore, as it is written: "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

Words in this chapter:

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

sanctification — Being made holy — the lifelong process of being set apart for God and growing to look more like Christ.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Apollos (ah-POL-os) — A learned Jewish Christian from Alexandria — eloquent in the Scriptures and mighty in argument; Priscilla and Aquila taught him a more accurate understanding of the faith.

Corinth (KOR-inth) — A major commercial city in southern Greece — Paul founded a church here on his second journey; the city's notorious immorality shaped many of Paul's letters.

Chapter 2

Paul recalls that he came to Corinth not with eloquent wisdom but in weakness, determined to know nothing except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. He teaches that the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God, and that the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit because they are spiritually discerned.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God. | When I came to You, brothers, I did not come with eloquence or human wisdom as I proclaimed to You the testimony of God. |
| 2 | For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. | I resolved to know nothing while I was with You except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. |
| 3 | And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. | I came to You in weakness, in fear, and with great trembling. |
| 4 | And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: | My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, |
| 5 | That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. | so that Your faith might not rest on human wisdom but on the power of God. |
| 6 | Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: | We do, however, speak wisdom among the mature. But it is not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are passing away. |

- 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: We speak God's wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden — the wisdom God ordained before the ages for our glory.
- 8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. None of the rulers of this age knew it, for if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
- 9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him."
- 10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. But God has revealed it to us by His Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.
- 11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. For who knows a man's thoughts except the man's own spirit? In the same way, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.
- 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit Who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us.
- 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. We speak of these things not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Ghost, interpreting spiritual truths in spiritual words.
- 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to Him. He cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned.

15	But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.	The spiritual person judges all things, but He Himself is not subject to anyone's judgment.
16	For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.	"For who has known the mind of the Lord, that He may instruct Him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

Chapter 3

Paul calls the Corinthians carnal because of their jealousy and strife, saying he planted and Apollos watered but God gave the increase. He warns that each man's work will be tested by fire, and that the temple of God is holy — for if any man destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him.

1	And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.	Brothers, I could not address You as spiritual people but as people of the flesh — as infants in Christ.
2	I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.	I fed You with milk, not solid food, for You were not ready for it. Indeed, You are still not ready,

| 3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? 4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? 5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? 6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. 7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. 9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. 10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. - 13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. each one's work will become clear. The Day will bring it to light, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what kind of work each has done.
- 14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If what He has built survives, He will receive a reward.
- 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. If His work is burned up, He will suffer loss — though He Himself will be saved, but only as through fire.
- 16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? Do You not know that You are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in You?
- 17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy Him. For God's temple is holy, and You are that temple.
- 18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in the ways of this age, He should become a fool so that He may become wise.
- 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. The wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their own craftiness."
- 20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. And again: "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."
- 21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; So let no one boast in men. For all things belong to you —
- 22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours; whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future — all are yours,

- 23
- And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.*

and You are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

Paul teaches that apostles are stewards of the mysteries of God and that it is the Lord who judges, so they should not judge before the time. He contrasts the Corinthians' pride with the apostles' suffering, and warns them as a father that he will come to them and test not their words but their power.

- 1

Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

This is how one should regard us — as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

Now it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.
- 3

But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

With me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by You or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.

- 4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not acquitted by this. It is the Lord who judges me.
- 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. Therefore do not judge anything before the appointed time — wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of the heart. Then each person will receive His praise from God.
- 6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, so that you may learn from us the meaning of "not beyond what is written," so that none of You will be puffed up in favor of one against another.
- 7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? For who makes You different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? If You received it, why do You boast as if You did not receive it?
- 8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. Already You have all You want! Already You have become rich! Without us You have become kings! How I wish You really were kings, so that we might be kings with You!
- 9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. For I think that God has set forth us apostles last, as men appointed to death; for we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.

- 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. We are fools for Christ's sake, but You are so wise in Christ! We are weak, but You are strong! You are honored, but we are despised!
- 11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty. We are poorly clothed, brutally treated, and have no settled home.
- 12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure it.
- 13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. When we are slandered, we answer kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the garbage of the world — right up to this moment.
- 14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. I am not writing this to shame You, but to warn You as my dear children.
- 15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Even if You had ten thousand guardians in Christ, You do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became Your father through the gospel.
- 16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. I urge You, then, be imitators of me.
- 17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. That is why I sent You Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind You of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.
- 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. Some of You have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to You.

- | | |

| 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. 21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? | But I will come to You soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power. For the kingdom of God is not in words but in power. What do You prefer? Chapter 5

Paul rebukes the church for tolerating a man living in fornication with his father's wife and commands them to deliver him to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved. He instructs them to purge out the old leaven, for Christ our passover is sacrificed for us, and not to keep company with any so-called brother living in open sin.

|---|--|
| 1 It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. | It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among You — and of a kind that even unbelievers do not tolerate: a man is sleeping with his father's wife. |
| 2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. | And You are proud! Should You not rather have mourned? The one who did this should be removed from your midst. |
| 3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, | Even though I am absent in body, I am present with You in spirit. And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. |
| 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, | When You are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, |
| 5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. | hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord Jesus. |
| 6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? | Your boasting is not good. Do You not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough? |
| 7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: | Remove the old yeast so that You may be a fresh batch, as You truly are without yeast. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. |
| 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. | Therefore let us keep the feast — not with the old yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 9 | I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators: | I wrote to You in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— |
| 10 | Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. | not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, for then You would have to go out of the world. |
| 11 | But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. | But now I am writing to You not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is sexually immoral, greedy, an idolater, a slanderer, a drunkard, or a swindler — not even to eat with such a person. |
| 12 | For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? | What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are You not to judge those inside? |
| 13 | But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. | God will judge those outside. "Remove the wicked person from among you." |

Chapter 6

Paul rebukes believers for taking disputes before unbelieving judges instead of settling them within the church. He warns that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God and declares that the body is the temple of the Holy Ghost — therefore they must flee fornication and glorify God in their body.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? | When any of You has a dispute with another, how dare You take it before the unrighteous rather than before the saints? |
| 2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? | Do You not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by You, are You not competent to judge trivial matters? |
| 3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? | Do You not know that we will judge angels? How much more, then, things of this life! |
| 4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church. | If You have disputes about such matters, why do You appoint as judges those who are of no standing in the church? |
| 5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren? | I say this to shame You. Is there really no one among you wise enough to judge between his brothers? |
| 6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. | Instead, one brother takes another to court — and this before unbelievers! |
| 7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded? | The very fact that You have lawsuits among yourselves is already a failure. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? |

- 8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Instead, You yourselves wrong and cheat — and You do this to Your brothers!
- 9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Do You not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor the effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
- 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.
- 11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. Such were some of You. But You were washed, You were sanctified, You were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.
- 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be mastered by anything.
- 13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. "Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will do away with both. But the body is not for sexual immorality — it is for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.
- 14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. God raised the Lord and will also raise us by His power.
- 15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. Do You not know that Your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and join them to a prostitute? Not at all!

- | | |
|---|---|
| 16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. 17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. 18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. 19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? 20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. | Do You not know that He who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? "The two," He says, "will become one flesh." But He who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him. Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the one who is sexually immoral sins against his own body. Do You not know that Your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost Who is in You, whom You have from God? You are not Your own, for You were bought with a price. So glorify God in Your body and in Your spirit, which are God's. |

Chapter 7

Paul addresses questions about marriage, teaching that each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband, and that the married should not seek to be loosed. He counsels the unmarried and widows that it is good to remain single as he is, but if they cannot exercise self-control, it is better to marry than to burn.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. | Now concerning the things you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. |
| 2 | Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. | But because of the temptation to sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband. |
| 3 | Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. | The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband. |
| 4 | The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. | The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. Likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. |
| 5 | Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. | Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. |
| 6 | But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. | I say this as a concession, not as a command. |
| 7 | For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. | I wish that all men were as I am. But each person has his own gift from God — one of one kind and one of another. |
| 8 | I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. | To the unmarried and to widows I say: it is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am. |

- 9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. It is better to marry than to burn with passion.
- 10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: To the married I give this charge — not I, but the Lord — a wife must not separate from her husband.
- 11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. But if she does separate, she must either remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.
- 12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. To the rest I say — I, not the Lord — if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever and she is willing to live with Him, He must not divorce her.
- 13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. And if a woman has a husband who is an unbeliever and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him.
- 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his believing wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.
- 15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace. But if the unbeliever leaves, let them leave. The brother or sister is not bound in such circumstances. God has called us to live in peace.
- 16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

- 17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches. Each person should live the life the Lord has assigned to Him and to which God has called Him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.
- 18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not seek to become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.
- 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. What matters is keeping the commandments of God.
- 20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Each person should remain in the condition in which he was called.
- 21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it trouble you — although if you can gain your freedom, do so.
- 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. For the one who was a slave when called in the Lord is the Lord's free man. Likewise, the one who was free when called is Christ's slave.
- 23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. You were bought with a price; do not become servants of men.
- 24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God. Brothers, each person should remain with God in the condition in which He was called.
- 25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. Now concerning virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

- 26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. I think that in view of the present distress, it is good for a man to remain as he is.
- 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. Are You bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are You free from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
- 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you. But if You do marry, You have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare You that.
- 29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on, those who have wives should live as if they had none;
- 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; those who mourn, as if they did not mourn; those who rejoice, as if they did not rejoice; those who buy, as if they did not own anything;
- 31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. those who make use of the world, as if they did not make full use of it. For the present form of this world is passing away.
- 32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: I want You to be free from anxiety. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord — how He may please the Lord.
- 33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. But the married man is concerned about worldly things — how He may please his wife—

- 34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. and His interests are divided. The unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is concerned about worldly things — how she may please her husband.
- 35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. I am saying this for Your own benefit, not to put any restriction on You, but to promote what is right and to help You give Your undivided attention to the Lord.
- 36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. If any man thinks He is behaving improperly toward His virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and need so requires, let Him do as He will — he does not sin: let them marry.
- 37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. But the man who stands firm in his resolve — who is under no compulsion but has control over his own desire and has made up his mind to keep her as his fiancée — does well.
- 38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. So then, he who marries his fiancée does well, and he who does not marry does even better.
- 39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only in the Lord.
- 40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God. In my judgment, she is happier if she remains unmarried. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

Paul addresses food offered to idols, teaching that an idol is nothing and that there is one God and one Lord Jesus Christ. He warns that knowledge puffs up but charity builds up, and that believers must be careful not to use their liberty in a way that causes a weaker brother to stumble.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. | Now concerning food offered to idols: we know that "we all possess knowledge." Knowledge puffs up, but charity builds up. |
| 2 | And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. | If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know it as He ought to know it. |
| 3 | But if any man love God, the same is known of him. | But if anyone loves God, He is known by God. |
| 4 | As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. | So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: we know that an idol is nothing in the world and that there is no God but one. |

- 5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth — and there are many such gods and lords—
- 6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we exist. And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things were made and through whom we exist.
- 7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some people, still accustomed to idols, eat such food as if it were really sacrificed to an idol, and their weak conscience is defiled.
- 8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. Food does not bring us near to God — we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.
- 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. Be careful, however, that Your freedom does not become a stumbling block to the weak.
- 10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; For if someone with a weak conscience sees you, who have knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, will He not be encouraged to eat what is sacrificed to idols?
- 11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by Your knowledge.
- 12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. When You sin against Your brothers in this way and wound their weak conscience, You sin against Christ.

Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.
- Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to fall, I will never eat meat again, rather than cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

Paul defends his apostleship and his right to financial support from those he serves, though he has not used that right so as not to hinder the gospel. He declares that he makes himself servant to all in order to win more, and disciplines his body like an athlete so that after preaching to others he himself is not disqualified.

- 1

Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?
- Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are You not my work in the Lord?

If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.
- Even if I am not an apostle to others, I certainly am to You! For You are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
- 3

Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,
- This is my defense to those who would examine me:

- | | |
|---|---|
| 4 Have we not power to eat and to drink? | Do we not have the right to eat and to drink? |
| 5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? | Do we not have the right to take a believing wife along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas? |
| 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working? | Or is it only I and Barnabas who have no right to stop working for a living? |
| 7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? | Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Who tends a flock and does not drink the milk from the flock? |
| 8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? | Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law also say the same? |
| 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? | For in the law of Moses it is written: "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain." Is it about oxen that God is concerned? |
| 10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. | Surely He says this for our sake, doesn't He? Yes, it was written for us, because the one who plows and the one who threshes should both work in the hope of sharing in the harvest. |
| 11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? | If we sowed spiritual seed among you, is it too much to reap a material harvest from you? |
| 12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. | If others exercise this right over You, should we not even more? But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we endure everything so as not to put any obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. |

- 13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Do You not know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the offerings of the altar?
- 14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.
- 15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to get such treatment. I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of this boast.
- 16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, since I am compelled to preach it. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!
- 17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. If I do this voluntarily, I have a reward. But if not voluntarily, I am still entrusted with a stewardship.
- 18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel. What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and not make full use of my rights in the gospel.
- 19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. Though I am free from everyone, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; | To the Jews I became like a Jew in order to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law, so I might win those under the law. |
| 21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. | To those outside the law I became like one outside the law — not being outside God's law but inside Christ's law — in order to win those outside the law. |
| 22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. | To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some. |
| 23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. | I do all this for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings. |
| 24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. | Do You not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. |
| 25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. | Everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. They do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. |
| 26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: | Therefore I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight like a man beating the air. |
| 27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. | No, I beat my body and make it my slave, so that after preaching to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize. |

Words in this chapter:

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

Chapter 10

Paul warns that Israel's failures in the wilderness were written for our example, and urges them to flee from idolatry. He teaches that the cup of blessing and the bread are a communion in the blood and body of Christ, and that believers cannot partake of the Lord's table and the table of devils. Whether they eat or drink, they should do all to the glory of God.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; | I do not want You to be unaware, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea. |
| 2 | And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; | They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. |
| 3 | And did all eat the same spiritual meat; | They all ate the same spiritual food, |
| 4 | And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. | and all drank the same spiritual drink. They drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. |
| 5 | But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. | Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the wilderness. |

| 6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. 10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. 12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. 13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. 14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. | Now these things happened as examples for us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did. Do not become idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play." We must not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did — and in one day twenty-three thousand of them fell. We must not test Christ, as some of them did — and were killed by snakes. And do not grumble, as some of them did — and were killed by the destroying angel. These things happened to them as examples and were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the world are come. So if You think You are standing firm, be careful that You do not fall. No temptation has overtaken You except what is common to man. God is faithful — He will not let You be tempted beyond what You can bear. With the temptation He will also provide a way of escape, so that You may be able to endure it. Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. I speak to sensible people — judge for yourselves what I say. |

- 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? The cup of blessing that we bless — is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break — is it not a participation in the body of Christ?
- 17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.
- 18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? Consider the people of Israel: do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?
- 19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? What am I saying then? That food sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?
- 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. No, I am saying that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want You to be participants with demons.
- 21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the Lord's table and the table of demons.
- 22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? Are we trying to provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?
- 23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not. "All things are lawful," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up.
- 24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor.
- 25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: Eat whatever is sold in the market without raising any question on the grounds of conscience.

| 26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. 27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. 28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: 29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience? 30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: 33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved. | "For the earth is the Lord's, and everything in it." If an unbeliever invites You to a meal and You want to go, eat whatever is placed before You without raising questions of conscience. But if someone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, both for the sake of the one who told you and for the sake of conscience. I mean the other person's conscience, not Your own. For why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience? If I take part in a meal with thankfulness, why am I condemned for something I give thanks for? So whether You eat or drink or whatever You do, do it all to the glory of God. Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God— just as I try to please everyone in everything I do. I do not seek my own good but the good of many, so that they may be saved. |

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 11

Paul teaches on head coverings, declaring that the head of every man is Christ, the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. He rebukes the Corinthians for their divisions at the Lord's supper and delivers the institution of communion, warning that whoever eats and drinks unworthily eats and drinks damnation to himself.

| 1 Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. | Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. |
| 2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. | I praise You for remembering me in everything and for holding to the traditions just as I passed them on to You. |
| 3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. | I want You to know that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. |
| 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. | Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors His head. |
| 5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven. | Every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head — it is just as if she had her head shaved. |

- 6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or her head shaved, she should cover her head.
- 7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of the man.
- 8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. For man did not come from woman, but woman from man.
- 9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.
- 10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels. For this reason a woman ought to have power on her head, because of the angels.
- 11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.
- 12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God. For as woman was made from man, so man is now born of woman. And everything comes from God.
- 13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered? Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?
- 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears his hair long, it is a disgrace to him,
- 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her as a covering.
- 16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no such practice — nor do the churches of God.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. | In the following instructions I do not praise you, because your meetings do more harm than good. |
| 18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. | First of all, when you come together as a church, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. |
| 19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. | No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you are approved. |
| 20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. | When you come together in one place, it is not really to eat the Lord's Supper. |
| 21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. | For when you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anyone else. One remains hungry while another gets drunk. |
| 22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. | Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? Certainly not! |
| 23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: | For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to You: the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, took bread, |
| 24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. | and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said: "Take, eat — this is My body which is broken for You. Do this in remembrance of Me." |

- 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new testament in My blood. Do this, as often as You drink it, in remembrance of Me."
- 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. For as often as You eat this bread and drink this cup, You proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.
- 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.
- 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. A person should examine Himself before eating the bread and drinking the cup.
- 29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the Lord's body eats and drinks damnation to Himself.
- 30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. That is why many among You are weak and sick, and a number of You have fallen asleep.
- 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But if we judged ourselves properly, we would not come under judgment.
- 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. When we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.
- 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. So then, my brothers, when You come together to eat, wait for one another.

- 34

And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.
- If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when You meet together You do not come under judgment. The other matters I will set in order when I come.

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

Chapter 12

Paul teaches that there are diversities of gifts but the same Spirit, and that the Spirit distributes to each one individually as He wills. He uses the human body to illustrate that every member is necessary — the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you" — and that God has set the members in the body as it pleases Him.

- 1

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.
- Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want You to be unaware.

Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.
- You know that when You were Gentiles, You were led astray to mute idols, however You were led.

|--|---|

- 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body — whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free — and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.
- 14 For the body is not one member, but many. Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.
- 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.
- 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.
- 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?
- 18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.
- 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? If they were all one part, where would the body be?
- 20 But now are they many members, yet but one body. As it is, there are many parts, but one body.
- 21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need You!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need You!"
- 22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary,

- 23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. and those we think less honorable we clothe with special honor. Our unpresentable parts are treated with special modesty,
- 24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: while our presentable parts have no such need. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lack it,
- 25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.
- 26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it. If one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.
- 27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. Now You are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.
- 28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helpful deeds, gifts of leadership, and different kinds of tongues.
- 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?
- 30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?
- 31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way. But eagerly desire the greater gifts. And now I will show You the most excellent way.

Chapter 13

Paul declares that without charity, all gifts are nothing — tongues, prophecy, knowledge, and even faith that moves mountains amount to nothing without love. Charity suffers long and is kind, does not envy or boast, bears all things and endures all things. Prophecies, tongues, and knowledge will pass away, but faith, hope, and charity abide — and the greatest of these is charity.

- 1

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
- If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but have not charity, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. In 1 Corinthians 13, Paul uses this word where most modern translations say "love." The KJV uses "charity" because this kind of love is not mere feeling — it is the highest, most self-giving love that comes from God Himself.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
- If I have the gift of prophecy and can understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have faith that can move mountains, but have not charity, I am nothing.

| 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. | If I give all I possess to the poor and give my body to be burned, but have not charity, I gain nothing. |
| 4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, | Charity is patient. Charity is kind. It does not envy. It does not boast. It is not proud. |
| 5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; | It does not behave rudely. It is not self-seeking. It is not easily angered. It keeps no record of wrongs. |
| 6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; | It does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. |
| 7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. | It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. |
| 8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. | Charity never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. |
| 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. | For we know in part and we prophesy in part, |
| 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away. | but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away. |
| 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. | When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. |
| 12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. | Now we see through a glass, darkly — but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. |

- 13
- And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.*

And now these three remain: faith, hope, and charity. But the greatest of these is charity.

Words in this chapter:

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

Chapter 14

Paul teaches that prophecy is greater than tongues in the assembly because it edifies the church, while tongues without interpretation edify only the speaker. He instructs that all things in worship must be done decently and in order, with no more than two or three speaking in tongues, and each in turn with an interpreter.

- 1

Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

Pursue charity, and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially prophecy.

For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God. No one understands him — he utters mysteries in the Spirit.
- 3

But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and comfort.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 4 | He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. | The one who speaks in a tongue builds himself up, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. |
| 5 | I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. | I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have You prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he also interprets, so that the church may be built up. |
| 6 | Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? | Now, brothers, if I come to You speaking in tongues, what good will I be to You unless I bring some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? |
| 7 | And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? | Even lifeless instruments, like the flute or harp, must give distinct notes — otherwise how will anyone know what is being played? |
| 8 | For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? | If the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle? |
| 9 | So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. | So it is with You. Unless You speak words that can be understood, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air. |
| 10 | There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. | Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning. |
| 11 | Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. | If then I do not understand the meaning of what someone is saying, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. |

- 12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. So it is with You. Since You are eager for spiritual gifts, try to excel in those that build up the church.
- 13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. For this reason, the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret what He says.
- 14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. If I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.
- 15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind.
- 16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? Otherwise, if You are praising God in the spirit, how can someone who does not understand say "Amen" to your thanksgiving? He does not know what You are saying.
- 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. You may be giving thanks very well, but the other person is not built up.
- 18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of You.
- 19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. But in the church I would rather speak five words with my mind to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.
- 20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. Brothers, do not be childish in Your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in Your thinking be mature.

- 21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. In the law it is written: "With people of strange tongues and other lips I will speak to this people, and even then they will not hear Me, says the Lord."
- 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe. So then tongues are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for believers, not unbelievers.
- 23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that You are out of Your minds?
- 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: But if an unbeliever or someone who does not understand comes in while everyone is prophesying, He will be convicted by all and judged by all.
- 25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth. The secrets of His heart will be revealed. He will fall down and worship God, declaring, "God is truly among You."
- 26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. What then shall we say, brothers? When You come together, each one has a hymn, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Everything must be done to build up the church.
- 27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. If anyone speaks in a tongue, two — or at most three — should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret.

- 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to Himself and to God.
- 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge. Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said.
- 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop.
- 31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. For You can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may learn and be encouraged.
- 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. The spirits of the prophets are subject to the control of prophets.
- 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. For God is not a God of disorder but of peace — as in all the churches of the saints.
- 34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. Let Your women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also says the law.
- 35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church. If they want to inquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home. It is shameful for a woman to speak in the church.
- 36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only? Did the word of God originate with You? Or are You the only people it has reached?
- 37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I am writing to You is the Lord's command.

38	But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.	If anyone ignores this, he will be ignored.
39	Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.	Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.
40	Let all things be done decently and in order.	But everything should be done in a proper and orderly way.

Words in this chapter:

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

Chapter 15

Paul declares the gospel: that Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again the third day according to the scriptures, and appeared to more than five hundred brethren. He argues that if Christ is not risen then faith is vain, but now Christ is risen and become the firstfruits of them that slept. He reveals the mystery that at the last trumpet the dead shall be raised incorruptible and death shall be swallowed up in victory.

1	Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;	Now, brothers, I want to remind You of the gospel I preached to You, which You received and on which You have taken Your stand.

| 2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. 3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; 4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: 5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: 6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. 7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. 8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. | By this gospel You are saved, if You hold firmly to the word I preached to You — otherwise You have believed in vain. For what I received I passed on to You as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day according to the scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all He appeared to me also, as to one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace to me was not without effect. - 12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of You say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
- 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised.
- 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is Your faith.
- 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that He raised Christ from the dead. But He did not raise Him if in fact the dead are not raised.
- 16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either.
- 17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. And if Christ has not been raised, Your faith is futile; You are still in Your sins.
- 18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.
- 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.
- 20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
- 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man.
- 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be quickened.

- 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. But each in His own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at His coming those who belong to Christ.
- 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. Then comes the end, when He delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.
- 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.
- 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.
- 27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. For He has put everything under His feet. Now when it says that everything has been put under Him, it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put everything under Christ.
- 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. When all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to the One who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all.
- 29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them?
- 30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? And why do we endanger ourselves every hour?
- 31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. I face death every day — as surely as I boast about You in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- 32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. If I fought wild beasts at Ephesus with nothing more than human motives, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."
- 33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Do not be misled: "Bad company corrupts good character."
- 34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. Come back to Your senses and stop sinning. Some people are ignorant of God — I say this to Your shame.
- 35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?"
- 36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die: How foolish! What You sow does not come to life unless it dies.
- 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: When You sow, You do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed — perhaps wheat or something else.
- 38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. But God gives it a body as He has determined, and to each kind of seed its own body.
- 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. Not all flesh is the same: people have one kind, animals have another, birds another, and fish another.
- 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly bodies is different from that of the earthly bodies.
- 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. The sun has one kind of glory, the moon another, and the stars another. And star differs from star in glory.

- 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable.
- 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.
- 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.
- 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living soul." The last Adam became a quickening spirit.
- 46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.
- 47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. The first man was from the earth — earthy. The second man is the Lord from heaven.
- 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. As was the man from the earth, so also are those who are of the earth. As is the Man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.
- 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the man of earth, we will also bear the image of the Man from heaven.
- 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
- 51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, Listen, I tell you a mystery: we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 52 | In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. | in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. The trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. |
| 53 | For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. | For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. |
| 54 | So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. | So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." |
| 55 | O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? | "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" |
| 56 | The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. | The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. |
| 57 | But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. | But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 58 | Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. | Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move You. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, knowing that Your labor in the Lord is not in vain. |

Words in this chapter:

quicken — Made alive — spiritually brought from death to life by God; used for resurrection and spiritual rebirth.

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Adam (AD-um) — The first man, formed from the dust of the earth — his name in Hebrew means 'man' or 'from the ground (adamah).'

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Chapter 16

Paul gives instructions for the collection for the saints in Jerusalem, directing each person to set aside something on the first day of the week. He outlines his travel plans, commends Timothy and Apollos to them, and closes with exhortations to watch, stand fast in the faith, and let all things be done with charity.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. | Now concerning the collection for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also are to do. |
| 2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. | On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and save it up, as he may prosper, so that there will be no collections when I come. |
| 3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. | When I arrive, I will send those whom you have approved with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem. |
| 4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me. | If it seems worth my going also, they will go with me. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 5 | Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia. | I will visit you after passing through Macedonia, for I intend to pass through Macedonia. |
| 6 | And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go. | Perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey to wherever I go. |
| 7 | For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. | I do not want to see you now just in passing. I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. |
| 8 | But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. | But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, |
| 9 | For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. | for a wide and effective door has opened to me, and there are many who oppose me. |
| 10 | Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. | When Timothy comes, see to it that he is at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord just as I am. |
| 11 | Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren. | So let no one look down on him. Send him on his way in peace so that he may return to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers. |
| 12 | As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time. | Now regarding our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to visit you with the brothers, but it was not at all his will to come now. He will come when he has opportunity. |
| 13 | Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. | Watch, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong. |
| 14 | Let all your things be done with charity. | Do everything in charity. |

Words in this chapter:

Maranatha (mah-rah-NAH-thah) — Aramaic phrase meaning 'Our Lord, come!' — a prayer for Christ's return, used in early Christian worship.

Pentecost (PEN-teh-cost) — The Feast of Weeks — celebrated fifty days after Passover; the harvest festival; in the NT, the day the Holy Spirit came on the early church.

Aquila (AK-wih-lah) — A Jewish tent-maker from Pontus who worked and traveled with Paul — expelled from Rome by Emperor Claudius; husband of Priscilla; his name means 'eagle.'

Priscilla (prih-SIL-ah) — Wife of Aquila, a tent-maker couple who hosted a church in their home — worked with Paul and taught Apollos; her name is a Latin diminutive of Prisca ('ancient').

Macedonia (mas-eh-DO-nee-ah) — A region of northern Greece — Paul received a vision of a man from Macedonia calling for help; he brought the gospel to Europe through cities like Philippi and Thessalonica.

2 Corinthians

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in 1:1 and 10:1, and writes with great emotional intensity from beginning to end. Timothy joins him in the greeting (1:1) but Paul is plainly the author.

Date written: c. AD 56, from somewhere in Macedonia, during Paul's third missionary journey. The letter was written between 1 Corinthians and Romans.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small, humble" — Born Saul of Tarsus; a Pharisee and persecutor of the early church who was confronted by the risen Christ on the road to Damascus and became the great apostle to the Gentiles. He founded the Corinthian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 18) and wrote them at least four letters, of which 1 and 2 Corinthians survive.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Corinth (KOR-inth) — A wealthy Greek seaport on the narrow isthmus joining mainland Greece to the Peloponnese; the commercial capital of southern Greece. Famous for its luxury, two harbors, the temple of Aphrodite, and notorious sexual immorality. Paul spent a year and a half there founding the church (Acts 18) and to it he addressed both Corinthian epistles.

Written to: The church at Corinth, the wealthy Greek port city Paul had founded on his second missionary journey (Acts 18), and to which he had already written 1 Corinthians.

Setting: After 1 Corinthians, Paul made a brief "painful visit" to Corinth (2:1) and then wrote a "severe letter" (2:3–4; 7:8) calling the church to discipline a particular sinner. Titus carried that letter and returned to Paul in Macedonia with the news that the church had repented and disciplined the offender. Greatly relieved, Paul wrote 2 Corinthians — partly to express his joy at their repentance and his pastoral love for them; partly to defend his apostolic authority against rival "super-apostles" (11:5; 12:11) who had infiltrated Corinth; and partly to organize the offering for the suffering saints in Jerusalem (chs. 8–9).

Where this sits historically: Written from Macedonia under Nero (c. AD 56), shortly after Paul had been driven out of Ephesus by the silversmiths' riot (Acts 19) and only a year before he carried the Jerusalem collection to Judea.

Contemporaries: Titus, Timothy, Luke, and Silas were Paul's coworkers in Macedonia at this time, while Peter ministered eastward and James continued to lead the Jerusalem church awaiting Paul's relief offering.

Big themes: the comfort of God in tribulation (1:3–11); the new covenant ministry of glory (ch. 3); treasure in earthen vessels (ch. 4); the ministry of reconciliation (5:11–21); generosity in giving (chs. 8–9); the defense of Paul's apostleship against false apostles (chs. 10–13); Paul's "thorn in the flesh" and the sufficiency of grace (12:7–10); the Trinitarian benediction (13:14).

Key passages: 2 Corinthians 1:3–4; 3:18; 4:7–10; 4:17–18; 5:17–21; 8:9; 9:6–8; 12:9–10; 13:14.

How it fits: 2 Corinthians is the most personal and emotional of Paul's letters. It is the chief NT text on Christian suffering and comfort, on the new covenant ministry, on substitutionary atonement (5:21), and on the principles of Christian giving. The Trinitarian benediction in 13:14 is the most explicit Trinitarian formula in the New Testament.

Chapter 1

Paul blesses God as the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation so that we may comfort others. He defends his sincerity toward the Corinthians and explains that he delayed his visit not out of fickleness but to spare them pain.

- 1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

From Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and from Timothy our brother — to the church of God which is at Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — also Timotheus in older KJV spelling — "honoring God" — Paul's beloved younger co-worker; the son of a Jewish-Christian mother (Eunice) and a Greek father. Paul met him at Lystra on the second missionary journey (Acts 16:1–3) and treated him almost as a son in the faith. Paul wrote him two personal letters (1 and 2 Timothy).

■ NAME NOTE — Achaia (uh-KAY-yuh) — The Roman province covering southern Greece, including Corinth and Athens; Corinth was its capital. When Paul addresses "all the saints in all Achaia" he includes the believers in surrounding towns who looked to the Corinthian church.

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace to You from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Every time Paul opens a letter with "grace and peace," he is reminding you that everything God does for you comes freely, out of His love alone.

- 3

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort,

|--|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. It is not the same as grace (which gives good things we don't deserve) — mercy holds back the punishment we do deserve.

| 8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: | Brothers, we do not want You to be unaware of the trouble we faced in Asia. We were pressed beyond measure, beyond our own strength, so that we despaired even of life itself. |

■ NAME NOTE — Asia (AY-zuh) — The Roman province on the western coast of modern-day Turkey, with Ephesus as its capital. This is not the whole continent but the region where Paul had ministered for nearly three years (Acts 19). The "trouble in Asia" likely refers to the riot at Ephesus or to some other near-death affliction Paul suffered there.

- 12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. Our boast is this: the testimony of our conscience that we have conducted ourselves in the world — and especially toward You — in simplicity and godly sincerity, not by fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God.
- 13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end; For we write nothing to You other than what You read and understand. And I hope You will understand it fully,

- 16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea. to pass through Your city on my way to Macedonia, then to come back to You from Macedonia, and have You send me on my way to Judaea.

■ NAME NOTE — Silas (SY-lus) — also Silvanus in this verse — A leading member of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22); Paul's traveling companion through much of the second missionary journey, including the founding of the Corinthian church (Acts 18:5). Silvanus is the Latin form; Silas is the Greek shortened form used in Acts. Both refer to the same man.

Chapter 2

Paul explains that his earlier letter was written out of much affliction and tears, not to grieve them but so they would know his abundant love. He urges them to forgive and comfort the repentant offender, lest Satan gain an advantage, and describes the triumphal spread of the gospel as a sweet fragrance of Christ.

| 1 | But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness. | So I made up my mind not to make another painful visit to You. |
| 2 | For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? | For if I cause You grief, who is left to make me glad but the very one whom I have grieved? |
| 3 | And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. | And this is the very reason I wrote what I did — so that when I came I would not be saddened by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence in You all, that my joy would be the joy of You all. |

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tun) — "the adversary, the accuser" — The fallen angel who opposes God and tempts and accuses God's people. Paul's warning here is sober: the devil exploits unforgiveness in a church to divide and destroy it.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, | When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, the Lord had opened a door for me there. |
| 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia. | But I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took my leave of them and went on into Macedonia. |

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert and trusted co-worker of Paul; one of his most reliable troubleshooters. Paul sent him to Corinth with the "severe letter" and waited anxiously in Macedonia for his return (2:13; 7:6–7, 13–15). Paul later left him to organize the church on Crete, and addressed the epistle to Titus to him there.

■ NAME NOTE — Macedonia (mas-eh-DO-nee-ah) — A Roman province in northern Greece. Paul received the famous "Macedonian vision" in Acts 16 calling him to bring the gospel into Europe; from it came the churches at Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea. Paul is writing this letter from somewhere in Macedonia, probably Philippi.

| 14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. | But thanks be to God, Who always leads us in triumph in Christ and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of Him everywhere. |
| 15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: | For we are to God the sweet aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing. |

| 17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. | For we are not like so many, who peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as men sent from God. |

Paul declares that the Corinthians themselves are his letter of commendation, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God on the tables of the heart. He contrasts the ministry of the old covenant — the letter that kills — with the ministry of the new covenant — the Spirit that gives life — and declares that where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? | Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others do, letters of recommendation to You or from You? |
| 2 | Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: | You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by all men, |
| 3 | Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart. | because You show that You are a letter from Christ delivered by us — written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. |
| 4 | And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: | Such is the confidence we have through Christ toward God. |

- 5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from ourselves — our sufficiency is from God,

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. A covenant is stronger than a contract — it is a vow that changes who you are to each other. Here Paul contrasts the old covenant (the law of Moses) with the new covenant (life in the Spirit through Christ).

- 6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. who has also made us able ministers of the new testament — not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.
- 7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: Now if the ministry that brought death, engraved in letters on stones, came with such glory that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance — a glory that was passing away —
- 8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather more glorious? how much more glorious will the ministry of the Spirit be?
- 9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. For if the ministry that brought condemnation was glorious, how much more does the ministry that brings righteousness overflow with glory.
- 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. Indeed, what once was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory.
- 11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. For if what was passing away came with glory, much more does what remains come with glory.
- 12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech: Since we have such a hope, we are very bold in our speech.

| 13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished: 14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. 15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. 16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. 17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. 18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. | We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so that the children of Israel could not gaze on the end of what was passing away. But their minds were blinded, for to this day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the old testament — and only in Christ is it taken away. Even to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies upon their hearts. But whenever the heart turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. |

Paul declares that the god of this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, but God has shined the light of the knowledge of His glory in the face of Jesus Christ. He describes the treasure of the gospel carried in earthen vessels, and though outwardly perishing, the inward man is renewed day by day — for the afflictions are light and momentary compared to the eternal weight of glory.

|---|---|---|
| 1 | Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; | Therefore, since we have this ministry by the mercy we have received, we do not lose heart. |
| 2 | But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. | We have renounced the hidden things of shame, refusing to walk in craftiness or to handle the word of God deceitfully. Instead, by the open declaration of the truth, we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. |
| 3 | But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: | But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing — |
| 4 | In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. | the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, so that the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should not shine on them. |
| 5 | For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. | For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord — and ourselves as Your servants for Jesus' sake. |
| 6 | For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. | For God, Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. |
| 7 | But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. | But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the excellency of the power may be of God and not of us. |

- 8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair;
- 9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.
- 10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. We are always carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, so that the life of Jesus also may be made known in our body.
- 11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be made known in our mortal flesh.
- 12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. So then death is at work in us, but life in You.
- 13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; We have the same spirit of faith as is written: "I believed, and therefore have I spoken." We also believe, and therefore speak,
- 14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus, and will present us together with You in His presence.
- 15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. For all these things are for Your sakes, so that grace, having reached more and more people, may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.
- 16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. Therefore we do not lose heart. Though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day.

- 17

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen — for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.
- 18

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

Paul teaches that when our earthly body is dissolved, we have a building of God eternal in the heavens, and that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. He declares that if any man is in Christ he is a new creature, and that God has given us the ministry of reconciliation — for He made Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

- 1

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is taken down, we have a building from God — a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

- 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: For in this present body we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,
- 3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. if indeed, having been clothed, we shall not be found naked.
- 4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened — not that we wish to be unclothed, but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
- 5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, Who also has given us the Spirit as an earnest of what is to come.
- 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord —
- 7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) for we walk by faith, not by sight.
- 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. We are confident, I say, and we would prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.
- 9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. So we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be pleasing to Him.
- 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for the things done in the body, according to what He has done, whether good or bad.

- 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. Therefore, knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is plain also to Your consciences.
- 12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. We are not commending ourselves to You again, but giving You reason to be proud of us — so You will have an answer for those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.
- 13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. If we are out of our minds, it is for God; and if we are in our right mind, it is for You.
- 14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: For the love of Christ constrains us, because we have come to this conclusion: that one died for all, and therefore all died.
- 15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.
- 16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. From now on, then, we regard no man after the flesh. Even if we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know Him so no longer.
- 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. Therefore if any man be in Christ, He is a new creature: old things are passed away; look, all things are become new.
- 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; And all things are of God, Who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation:

Chapter 6

Paul urges the Corinthians not to receive the grace of God in vain and describes the hardships of his ministry — in afflictions, labors, watchings, and fastings. He commands them to be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers, for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness, or what communion has light with darkness.

Now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult or slow; God's slowness to anger. It is not weakness — it is the power to keep loving when you have every reason to give up. God is longsuffering toward sinners, not wanting any to perish.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the old English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is fully God — He comforts, teaches, convicts of sin, and gives new life to those who believe.

■ NAME NOTE — Belial (BEE-lee-al) — "worthlessness, wickedness" — A Hebrew word that became a name for Satan, the supreme worthless one. To call someone a "son of Belial" in the OT was to call them godless and depraved. Paul here uses Belial as a personal name for the devil — the absolute moral opposite of Christ.

Chapter 7

Paul urges the Corinthians to cleanse themselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit and expresses his joy over Titus's report of their repentance. He distinguishes godly sorrow, which produces repentance leading to salvation, from the sorrow of the world, which produces death.

- 1

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
- Therefore, dearly beloved, since we have these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
- Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one.
- 3

I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together.
- I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die with us and to live with us.

| 4 | Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. | Great is my boldness of speech toward you; great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort; I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation. |
| 5 | For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. | For when we came into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest. We were troubled on every side: outside were conflicts, inside were fears. |
| 6 | Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus; | But God, Who comforts those who are downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, |
| 7 | And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more. | and not by his coming only, but also by the consolation with which he was comforted in you when he told us of your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent zeal toward me — so that I rejoiced even more. |
| 8 | For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. | For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it now — though I once did regret it. I see that the same letter made you sorry, though only for a season. |
| 9 | Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. | Now I rejoice — not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. You were made sorry in a godly way, so that you suffered no loss through us. |
| 10 | For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. | For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world produces death. |

| 11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter. | See what this very thing — your godly sorrow — produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what readiness to set things right! In every way you have shown yourselves to be clear in this matter. |
| 12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. | So then, though I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but so that our earnest care for you might be made plain to you in the sight of God. |
| 13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. | Therefore we were comforted by your comfort. And we rejoiced exceedingly the more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. |
| 14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth. | For if I have boasted anything to him about you, I am not ashamed; but just as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting to Titus has proved true. |
| 15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. | And his affection for you is even greater as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling. |
| 16 I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things. | I rejoyce that I have complete confidence in you. |

Chapter 8

Paul holds up the generosity of the Macedonian churches as an example, urging the Corinthians to complete the collection they began the year before. He reminds them that the Lord Jesus Christ, though He was rich, became poor for their sakes, so that through His poverty they might be rich.

| 1 Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; | Now, brothers, we want You to know about the grace of God which has been given to the churches of Macedonia: |
| 2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. | how in the midst of a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the riches of their generosity. |
| 3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; | For I testify that they gave according to their ability — yes, and beyond their ability — entirely on their own, |
| 4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. | begging us with much entreaty that we would receive their gift and let them share in the ministry to the saints. |
| 5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. | And they did this not as we had hoped — they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us, by the will of God. |

- 6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, he would also complete this grace in you as well.
- 7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. But as you abound in everything — in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us — see that you abound in this grace also.
- 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. I am not speaking by commandment, but by occasion of the eagerness of others — and to test the sincerity of your love.
- 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. For You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ — that though He was rich, yet for Your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich.
- 10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. And in this I give my advice: this is best for You, who began a year ago not only to give but also to be eager to give.
- 11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. Now finish doing it, so that just as You were ready in willingness, You may also complete it out of what You have.
- 12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For if the willingness is there first, the gift is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he does not have.
- 13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: I do not mean that others should be eased and You burdened,

- 14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: but that there should be equality — that now at this time Your abundance may supply their lack, so that their abundance may also supply Your lack, that there may be equality.
- 15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. As it is written: "He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."
- 16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. But thanks be to God, Who put the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.
- 17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you. For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself even more eager, he is coming to you of his own accord.
- 18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches; And we have sent along with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is known throughout all the churches.
- 19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: And not only that, but he was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which is administered by us to the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our ready mind,
- 20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: guarding against this — that no man should blame us in our administration of this generous gift.
- 21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. For we are providing what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of men.

| 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. 24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf. | And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved to be diligent in many things, and is now even more diligent because of the great confidence he has in you. If anyone inquires about Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. Therefore show to them, and before the churches, the proof of Your love and of our boasting about You. |

Paul encourages the Corinthians to give generously to the collection, teaching that he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. He declares that God loves a cheerful giver and is able to make all grace abound toward them, so that they always have sufficiency in all things.

- | | |
| 1 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: | As concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you, |
| 2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. | for I know your eagerness, of which I boast to the Macedonians, saying that Achaia was ready a year ago — and your zeal has stirred up the majority of them. |
| 3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: | Yet I have sent the brothers so that our boasting about you would not be in vain in this matter, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be. |
| 4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. | Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we — not to say you — would be ashamed of this same confident boasting. |
| 5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. | So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go ahead to you and arrange beforehand the bounty you had promised, so that it would be ready as a generous gift and not as a grudging one. |
| 6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. | But this I say: he which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. |
| 7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. | Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. |

|---|---|
| 8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: 9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. 10 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) 11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. 12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; 13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; 14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. 15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. | And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, so that always, having all sufficiency in all things, you may abound in every good work. As it is written: "He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever." Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed sown, and will increase the fruits of your righteousness. You will be enriched in everything for all generosity, which through us produces thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God. While by the proof of this ministry they glorify God for Your confessed obedience to the gospel of Christ, and for Your generous giving to them and to all men, and by their prayer for You, in which they long after You for the exceeding grace of God in You. Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift! |

Chapter 10

Paul defends his authority, declaring that though he walks in the flesh, he does not war after the flesh — the weapons of his warfare are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. He warns those who accuse him of being bold only in letters that when he comes in person, his actions will match his words.

- | | |
|---|--|
| ¹ Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: | Now I, Paul, myself appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ — I who am timid when face to face with You, but bold when away from You. |
| ² But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. | I beg You that when I am present I may not have to be as bold as I now intend to be against some who think we are walking according to the flesh. |
| ³ For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: | For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh. |
| ⁴ (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) | For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. |
| ⁵ Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; | We cast down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and we bring every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; |
| ⁶ And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. | and we are ready to punish every disobedience, once Your obedience is complete. |

- 7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. Do You look on things after the outward appearance? If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let Him consider this again — that just as He is Christ's, so also are we.
- 8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: For even if I should boast somewhat more about our authority — which the Lord has given us for building You up and not for tearing You down — I would not be ashamed.
- 9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. I do not want it to seem that I am trying to terrify You with my letters.
- 10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. "For His letters," they say, "are weighty and powerful, but His bodily presence is weak, and His speech contemptible."
- 11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. Let such a person consider this: what we are in word by letters when absent, such we will also be in deed when present.
- 12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves; but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. For we dare not class or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
- 13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but only according to the measure of the sphere which God has assigned to us — a measure that reaches even to You.

|--|---|
| 14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: 15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand. 17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. 18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth. | For we are not stretching ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to You — for we did come as far as You with the gospel of Christ. We do not boast beyond our measure in the labors of other men, but we have hope that as Your faith grows, our sphere of work will be greatly enlarged among You, according to our rule, so that we may preach the gospel in the regions beyond You, and not boast in another man's territory in things already prepared. But He who glories, let him glory in the Lord. For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends. |

Chapter 11

Paul warns that false apostles disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness, just as Satan transforms himself into an angel of light. He reluctantly boasts of his sufferings — beaten, stoned, shipwrecked, in perils on every side — to show that his credentials surpass those of the false teachers troubling Corinth.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. | I wish you would bear with me a little in my folly — and indeed you do bear with me. |
| 2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. | For I am jealous over You with a godly jealousy. I have promised You to one husband, to present You as a chaste virgin to Christ. |
| 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. | But I fear that, just as the serpent beguiled Eve by his subtilty, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. |
| 4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. | For if someone comes preaching another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if You receive another spirit, which You have not received, or another gospel, which You have not accepted — you bear with Him easily enough. |
| 5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. | For I consider that I am in no way behind the very chiefest apostles. |
| 6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things. | Even though I am untrained in speech, I am not so in knowledge — but in every way we have been thoroughly made known to You in all things. |
| 7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? | Did I commit an offence by humbling myself so that You might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to You free of charge? |

- | | | |
| 8 | I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service. | I robbed other churches, taking wages from them, to serve You. |
| 9 | And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. | And when I was with You and in need, I was a burden to no one. For what I lacked, the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I have kept myself from being burdensome to You, and so will I continue to keep myself. |
| 10 | As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. | As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. |
| 11 | Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth. | Why? Because I do not love You? God knows I do. |
| 12 | But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. | But what I am doing, I will continue to do, in order to cut off the opportunity from those who want one — so that in their boasting they may be found just as we are. |
| 13 | For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. | For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. |
| 14 | And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. | And no wonder — for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. |
| 15 | Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. | It is no great thing, then, if his ministers also are transformed as ministers of righteousness — whose end shall be according to their works. |
| 16 | I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. | I say again, let no man think me a fool. But if you do, then receive me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. |

- 17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. What I am saying, I do not say according to the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
- 18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. Since many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.
- 19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. For you suffer fools gladly, since you yourselves are so wise.
- 20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. For you put up with it if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man strikes you on the face.
- 21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. To my shame, I say that we were too weak for that! But in whatever anyone is bold — I speak foolishly — I am bold also.
- 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.
- 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool.) I am more so — in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more often, in deaths frequently.
- 24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. From the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one.
- 25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been adrift on the deep.

- 26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; I have been in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils from my own countrymen, in perils from the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
- 27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
- 28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Besides all those outward things, there is what comes on me daily: the care of all the churches.
- 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I do not burn with grief?
- 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. If I must boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weaknesses.
- 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie.
- 32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, wanting to arrest me;

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (duh-MAS-kus) — The ancient capital of Syria, northeast of Galilee; one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. It was on the road to Damascus that Saul of Tarsus was confronted by the risen Christ and converted (Acts 9). Paul's escape from the city in a basket, told here, is also recorded in Acts 9:23–25.

■ NAME NOTE — Aretas (AIR-uh-tas) — Aretas IV, king of the Nabataean Arabs, whose territory bordered Damascus. He ruled from roughly 9 BC to AD 40. His daughter had been married to Herod Antipas before Herod divorced her for Herodias, sparking enmity between Aretas and the Herods. At this time Aretas held political control of Damascus, and his governor was hunting for Paul.

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.	and I was let down through a window in a basket by the wall, and so escaped His hands.

Chapter 12

Paul tells of a man caught up to the third heaven who heard unspeakable words, and reveals that he was given a thorn in the flesh to keep him humble. The Lord told him, "My grace is sufficient for thee: for My strength is made perfect in weakness," and Paul declares that when he is weak, then he is strong.

1 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.	It is not really profitable for me to boast. Nevertheless, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

■ WORD NOTE — Thorn in the flesh — A painful, persistent affliction. Paul does not say what his "thorn" was — it may have been a physical ailment, an opposition, or some other ongoing trouble. The lesson is not what the thorn was, but what it did: it kept Paul humble and made him lean wholly on the sufficient grace of Christ.

| 7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. 8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. | And to keep me from being exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh — a messenger of Satan to buffet me — so I would not be exalted above measure. Three times I pleaded with the Lord that it might depart from me. |

- 9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. And He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for you: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Therefore most gladly will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
- 10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake — for when I am weak, then am I strong.
- 11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing. I have become a fool in boasting; You compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by You, since in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing.
- 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. Truly the signs of an apostle were performed among You in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty deeds.
- 13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong. For in what way were You inferior to the other churches, except that I myself was not a burden to You? Forgive me this wrong.
- 14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. Now for the third time I am ready to come to You; and I will not be a burden to You, for I seek not Yours, but You. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
- 15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. And I will most gladly spend and be spent for You — though the more abundantly I love You, the less I am loved.

| 16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile. 17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you? 18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps? 19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying. 20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: 21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed. | But be it so: I did not burden You. Nevertheless — they say — being crafty, I caught You with guile. Did I take advantage of You through any of those I sent to You? I urged Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps? Again, do You think we are excusing ourselves to You? We speak before God in Christ. But all things, dearly beloved, are for Your building up. For I fear that when I come, I shall not find You as I wish, and that I shall be found by You not as You wish — that there may be quarrels, envyings, outbursts of wrath, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults; and that when I come again, my God may humble me among You, and I shall mourn over many who have sinned before and have not repented of the uncleanness, fornication, and lasciviousness which they have committed. |

Paul warns that on his third visit he will not spare those who continue in sin, and urges the Corinthians to examine themselves to see whether they are in the faith. He closes with a prayer for their perfection and the benediction: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all."

| 1 | This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established. | This will be the third time I am coming to You. "In the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established." |
| 2 | I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: | I have already warned You, and as if present the second time I now warn You while still absent — those who have sinned before, and all the rest — that if I come again, I will not spare. |
| 3 | Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. | You are demanding a proof that Christ is speaking in me — He who is not weak toward you, but mighty in you. |
| 4 | For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. We also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God toward You. |

■ WORD NOTE — Reprobate (REH-pruh-bayt) — Failed, rejected, disqualified after testing. The Greek word was used of metal that did not pass the assay test. To be "reprobate" is to be exposed as counterfeit — a Christian whose claim to faith does not stand up under examination.

Galatians

Author: Paul the apostle — one of the most personally intense of his letters; he writes with urgency and at one point anger at a church he founded being led astray.

Date written: c. AD 48–49 (early date) or c. AD 53–55 (later date); possibly the earliest of Paul's letters if written before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15.

Written to: The churches of Galatia — a region in central Asia Minor (modern Turkey) where Paul had planted congregations on his first missionary journey.

Setting: After Paul left, Jewish-Christian teachers (Judaizers) entered the Galatian churches insisting that Gentile believers must be circumcised and keep the Mosaic law in addition to faith in Christ. Paul writes in alarm: this is not a minor adjustment but a different gospel entirely.

Where this sits historically: Written under Claudius (early date) or early Nero (later date), at the dawn of the Gentile mission and either just before or just after the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15 settled the question of circumcision.

Contemporaries: Peter, Barnabas, James the brother of the Lord, and Titus all appear in the letter's narrative, with the Jerusalem Council taking place around the same window.

Big themes:

- Justification by faith alone — the Judaizers are perverting the gospel; a man is not justified "by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ" (2:16)
- No other gospel — Paul pronounces a double curse on anyone who preaches a different gospel, even if an angel preaches it
- Freedom in Christ — believers are no longer under the law as a covenant of obligation; Christ has set them free
- The fruit of the Spirit — chapter 5 contrasts walking in the flesh with walking in the Spirit, listing the nine-fold fruit that the Spirit produces
- The cross — "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ" (6:14)

Key passages: Gal 1:8–9; 2:16; 2:20; 3:13; 5:22–23

How it fits: Galatians is Romans in miniature — compressed, urgent, and personal. Luther called it his "Katie von Bora" (his dear wife). It is the Magna Carta of Christian liberty, the clearest NT statement that salvation is by faith apart from works of law. Every time the church drifts toward works-righteousness, Galatians is the corrective.

Chapter 1

Paul marvels that the Galatians are so quickly turning to a different gospel and pronounces a curse on anyone who preaches another gospel than what they received. He defends his apostleship, declaring that the gospel he preaches came not from man but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

| 1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) | Paul, an apostle — not appointed by men nor through any man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead— |
| 2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: | and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Paul uses grace as his opening word in every letter because it sums up the entire gospel — God gives freely, not because of anything we do, but because of who He is.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, | Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, |
| 4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: | who gave Himself for our sins in order to deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father— |
| 5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. | to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen. |
| 6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: | I marvel that You are so soon removed from Him who called You into the grace of Christ to another gospel— |
| 7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. | which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing You into confusion and are trying to distort the gospel of Christ. |
| 8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. | But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to You, let Him be eternally condemned! |

- 9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. As we have already said, so now I say again: if anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what You received, let Him be eternally condemned!
- 10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. Am I now trying to win the approval of men, or of God? Am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.
- 11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. I want You to know, brothers, that the gospel I preached is not of human origin.
- 12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by a revelation from Jesus Christ.
- 13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: For You have heard of my former way of life in Judaism — how intensely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it.
- 14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers.
- 15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, But when God, Who set me apart from birth and called me by His grace, was pleased
- 16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, my immediate response was not to consult any human being.
- 17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. I did not go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 18 | Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. | Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with Him fifteen days. |
| 19 | But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother. | I saw none of the other apostles — only James, the Lord's brother. |
| 20 | Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. | I assure You before God that what I am writing You is no lie. |
| 21 | Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; | Then I went to Syria and Cilicia. |
| 22 | And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: | I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. |
| 23 | But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. | They only heard the report: "The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." |
| 24 | And they glorified God in me. | And they praised God because of me. |

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 2

Paul recounts going up to Jerusalem where the apostles added nothing to his gospel, and how he withstood Peter to his face at Antioch for withdrawing from the Gentiles. He declares that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by the faith of Jesus Christ, and that he is crucified with Christ — the life he now lives, he lives by the faith of the Son of God.

|---|--|--|
| 1 | Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. | Then after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem, this time with Barnabas. I took Titus along also. |
| 2 | And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. | I went in response to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I did this privately with those held in high esteem, for fear that I was running or had run my race in vain. |
| 3 | But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: | Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek. |
| 4 | And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: | This matter arose because some false brothers had been secretly brought in. They crept in to spy out the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, wanting to bring us into slavery. |
| 5 | To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. | We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with You. |
| 6 | But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) they in conference added nothing to me: | As for those who were held in high esteem — whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism — they added nothing to my message. |
| 7 | But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; | On the contrary, they recognized that I had been entrusted with the task of preaching the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised. |

- 8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) For God Who worked through Peter as an apostle to the circumcised also worked through me as an apostle to the Gentiles.
- 9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision. James, Cephas, and John, those regarded as pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.
- 10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.
- 11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
- 12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself, fearing those of the circumcision group.
- 13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray.
- 14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all: "You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?"

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fide) — declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. To be justified is not to be made morally perfect — it is to be declared innocent in God's courtroom. God counts Christ's perfect record as yours the moment you believe.

| 16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. | know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. So we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law — because by works of the law no flesh will be justified. |
| 17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid. | But if, in seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are also found to be sinners, does that mean Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not! |
| 18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. | If I rebuild what I tore down, I prove that I am a transgressor. |
| 19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. | For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. |
| 20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. | I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me. |
| 21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. | I do not set aside the grace of God. For if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing! |

Paul rebukes the foolish Galatians, asking whether they received the Spirit by the works of the law or by the hearing of faith. He argues that the law was a schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that the promise to Abraham came through faith, and that in Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek, bond nor free, male nor female — all are one in Christ Jesus.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? | O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched You, that You should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been clearly set forth, crucified among You? |
| 2 | This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? | I would like to learn just one thing from You: Did You receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by believing what You heard? |
| 3 | Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? | Are You so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are You now trying to finish by means of the flesh? |
| 4 | Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. | Have You experienced so much in vain — if it really was in vain? |

- 5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? So again I ask: does God give You His Spirit and work miracles among You by the works of the law, or by Your believing what You heard?
- 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. So also: "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to Him for righteousness."
- 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham.
- 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed through you."
- 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. So those who rely on faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.
- 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse, as it is written: "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law."
- 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. Clearly no one who relies on the law is justified before God, because "the righteous will live by faith."
- 12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, it says, "The person who does these things will live by them."
- 13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us — for it is written: "Cursed is every one that hangs on a tree."

- 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. A covenant is stronger than a contract — it is an unbreakable vow. Paul's point here is that God's covenant with Abraham cannot be cancelled by the law that came 430 years later.

- 15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Brothers and sisters, let me take an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or add to a human covenant that has been duly established, so it is in this case.
- 16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. Scripture does not say "and to seeds," meaning many people, but "and to Your seed," meaning one person, who is Christ.
- 17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. What I mean is this: the law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise.
- 18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on the promise. But God in His grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (tranz-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. It is stronger than just "doing wrong" — it means you knew where the boundary was and stepped over it deliberately. The law made Israel's transgressions plain and visible.

- 19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was given through angels and entrusted to a mediator.
- 20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. A mediator, however, implies more than one party; but God is one.
- 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Not at all! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.
- 22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But Scripture has shut up everyone under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
- 23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Before this faith came, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed.
- 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
- 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. But after faith has come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
- 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. You are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
- 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. For all of You who were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28	There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.	There is neither Jew nor Greek, neither slave nor free, neither male nor female, for You are all one in Christ Jesus.
29	And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.	If You belong to Christ, then You are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

Paul explains that before faith came, we were kept under the law like children under tutors, but when the fulness of time came, God sent forth His Son to redeem those under the law so they might receive the adoption of sons. He uses the allegory of Sarah and Hagar to illustrate the difference between the bondage of the law and the freedom of the promise.

1	Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;	What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a servant, even though he is the owner of everything.
2	But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.	He is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.

- 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: So also, when we were children, we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world.
- 4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,
- 5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption as sons.
- 6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Because You are His sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, the Spirit Who calls out, "Abba, Father."
- 7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Therefore You are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
- 8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods. Formerly, when You did not know God, You were enslaved to those who by nature are not gods.
- 9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? But now that You know God — or rather are known by God — how is it that You are turning back to those weak and miserable forces? Do You wish to be enslaved by them all over again?
- 10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. You are observing special days, months, seasons, and years.
- 11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. I fear for You, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on You.
- 12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. I plead with You, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like You. You did me no wrong.

- 13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. As You know, it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to You.
- 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. And my temptation which was in my flesh You did not despise or reject; but You received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
- 15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Where, then, is Your blessing? I can testify that, if You could have done so, You would have torn out Your eyes and given them to me.
- 16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Have I now become Your enemy by telling You the truth?
- 17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. Those people are zealous to win You over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate You from us, so that You may have zeal for them.
- 18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. It is good to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always and not only when I am with You.
- 19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, My dear children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in You—
- 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you. how I wish I could be with You now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about You!
- 21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? Tell me, You who want to be under the law, are You not aware of what the law says?
- 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman.

- 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a divine promise.
- 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. These things are being taken figuratively: the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves — this is Hagar.
- 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that now is, and is in bondage with her children.
- 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.
- 27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. For it is written: "Rejoice, you who are childless. Break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor. For the desolate woman has more children than she who has a husband."
- 28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise.
- 29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now.
- 30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."
- 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free. Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Words in this chapter:

- Abba (AB-ah) — Aramaic word for 'Father' — an intimate address to God, showing the believer's adoption as God's child.
- Hagar (HAY-gar) — Sarah's Egyptian handmaid — given to Abraham as a wife; mother of Ishmael; met the angel of the LORD at the well in the wilderness.
- Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.
- Sinai (SY-ny) — The mountain in the wilderness where God gave Moses the Ten Commandments — also called Horeb; the place of the covenant between God and Israel.

Chapter 5

Paul urges the Galatians to stand fast in the liberty of Christ and not to submit again to the yoke of bondage, warning that if they are circumcised as a requirement for salvation, Christ profits them nothing. He contrasts the works of the flesh — fornication, idolatry, hatred, and the like — with the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance.

- 1

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
- It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
- Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to You at all.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 3 | For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. | Again I testify to every man who is circumcised that he is a debtor to do the whole law. |
| 4 | Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. | You who are trying to be justified by the law have been alienated from Christ; You have fallen away from grace. |
| 5 | For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. | For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope. |
| 6 | For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. | For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love. |
| 7 | Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? | You were running a good race. Who cut in on You to keep You from obeying the truth? |
| 8 | This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. | That kind of persuasion does not come from the One who calls you. |
| 9 | A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. | A little leaven leavens the whole lump. |
| 10 | I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. | I am confident in the Lord that You will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion will have to pay the penalty, whoever he may be. |
| 11 | And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. | Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. |
| 12 | I would they were even cut off which trouble you. | As for those who are disturbing You, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves! |

| 13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. 16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. 17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, 21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. | You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use Your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love. For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love Your neighbor as Yourself." If You keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or You will be destroyed by each other. So I say, walk by the Spirit, and You will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that You are not to do whatever You want. But if You are led by the Spirit, You are not under the law. The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions; and envy, murders, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn You, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. It is one of the nine fruits of the Spirit listed here. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is the strength to keep loving when you have every reason to give up.

- | | | |

| 22 | But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, | But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, |
| 23 | Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. | meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. |
| 24 | And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. | Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. |
| 25 | If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. | Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. |
| 26 | Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another. | Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other. |

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Chapter 6

Paul instructs believers to restore the fallen in meekness, to bear one another's burdens, and to do good to all men especially those of the household of faith. He warns not to be deceived — God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap — and closes by declaring that neither circumcision nor uncircumcision matters, but a new creature in Christ.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. | Brothers, if a man is overtaken in a fault, you who are spiritual should restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering Yourself, lest You also be tempted. |
| 2 | Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. | Carry each other's burdens, and in this way You will fulfill the law of Christ. |
| 3 | For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. | If anyone thinks he is something when he is not, he deceives Himself. |
| 4 | But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. | Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take pride in Himself alone, without comparing Himself to someone else. |
| 5 | For every man shall bear his own burden. | For each one should carry his own load. |
| 6 | Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. | Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. |
| 7 | Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. | Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap. |
| 8 | For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. | Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. Whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. |
| 9 | And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. | Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. |

- | | |

| 10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith. 11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand. 12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. 14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. | Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. See what large letters I use as I write to You with my own hand! Those who want to impress people by means of the flesh are trying to compel You to be circumcised. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. Not even those who are circumcised keep the law, yet they want You to be circumcised so that they may boast about Your circumcision in the flesh. May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. Paul closes with this blessing — peace and mercy — as a summary of what God gives to all who walk by the rule of the gospel.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. 17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. | Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule — to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. |

- 18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with Your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.
-

Words in this chapter:

faith — Trust and reliance on God — not mere intellectual belief, but active dependence on His word and promises.

grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Ephesians

Author: Paul the apostle — a prisoner at the time of writing (3:1, 4:1, 6:20); one of the four "Prison Epistles" written during his Roman imprisonment.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Rome during Paul's first imprisonment.

Written to: The church at Ephesus, and possibly circulated to neighboring churches in Asia Minor.

Setting: Paul spent three years in Ephesus (Acts 19–20), his longest stay in any city. The church there was mature and well-taught. Writing from prison, Paul composes what many consider his most exalted letter — elevated in tone, sweeping in scope, almost entirely without personal corrections.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, while the apostle awaited trial in chains and Burrus or Tigellinus served as Praetorian Prefect.

Contemporaries: Tychicus carried this letter alongside Colossians and Philemon, while Luke, Timothy, Aristarchus, and Epaphras were with Paul in Rome and Peter ministered in the eastern provinces.

Big themes:

- Election and grace — God chose believers in Christ before the foundation of the world; salvation begins in eternity past with the Father's sovereign choice
- The church as the body of Christ — Ephesians contains the NT's richest ecclesiology; the church is Christ's body, His bride, His temple, and the fullness of Him who fills all in all
- Jew and Gentile united — the "middle wall of partition" between Jew and Gentile has been broken down; in Christ there is one new man
- Walking worthy — chapters 4–6 apply the theological foundation of chapters 1–3; knowing who you are in Christ determines how you live
- Spiritual warfare — the full armour of God (6:10–18) is needed because believers fight not against flesh and blood but against spiritual powers

Key passages: Eph 1:4–5; 2:8–9; 2:14; 4:4–6; 6:10–11

How it fits: Ephesians is the high-water mark of NT ecclesiology. It is the companion letter to Colossians, written at the same time and delivered by the same messenger. Where Romans answers "How is a man saved?", Ephesians answers "What has God made of those who are saved?" Together they are Paul's masterwork.

Chapter 1

Paul blesses God for choosing believers in Christ before the foundation of the world and predestinating them to the adoption of children according to the good pleasure of His will. He prays that the Ephesians would know the hope of their calling, the riches of God's inheritance in the saints, and the exceeding greatness of His power toward those who believe.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Ephesians is perhaps the deepest explanation of grace in all of Paul's letters. He will show that salvation, adoption, redemption, and eternal life all come purely by grace — not by anything we do.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. | Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: | Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. |
| 4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: | For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight in love. |
| 5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, | He predestined us for adoption as His sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with His pleasure and will— |
| 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. | to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He has made us accepted in the beloved. |

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEM-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. In the ancient world, a slave could be redeemed when someone paid the price to free them. Christ paid the price — His own blood — to redeem us from the slavery of sin and death.

- | | |
|--|---|

| 8 | Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; | that He lavished on us. With all wisdom and understanding, |
| 9 | Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: | He made known to us the mystery of His will according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Christ, |
| 10 | That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: | to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment — to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. |
| 11 | In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: | In Him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of Him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of His will, |
| 12 | That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. | so that we, who were the first to put our hope in Christ, might be to the praise of His glory. |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 13 | In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, | In Him You also trusted, after You heard the word of truth, the gospel of Your salvation. In Him also, after You believed, You were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, |
| 14 | Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. | who is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory. |
| 15 | Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, | For this reason, ever since I heard about Your faith in the Lord Jesus and Your love for all the saints, |

| 18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, | I pray that the eyes of Your heart may be enlightened so that You may know the hope to which He has called You, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, |
| 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, | and the incomparably great power toward us who believe. That power is like the working of His mighty strength, |
| 20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, | which He exerted when He raised Christ from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly realms, |
| 21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: | far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked — not only in the present age but also in the one to come. |
| 22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, | God placed all things under His feet and appointed Him to be head over everything for the church, |
| 23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all. | which is His body — the fullness of Him who fills everything in every way. |

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Chapter 2

Paul teaches that believers were dead in trespasses and sins but God, who is rich in mercy, quickened them together with Christ — by grace they are saved through faith, and that not of themselves, it is the gift of God, not of works. He declares that Christ has broken down the wall of partition between Jew and Gentile, making of the two one new man in Himself.

■ WORD NOTE — Quickened (KWIK-end) — made alive; spiritually brought from death to life by God. This is not physical resurrection — it is the moment God breathes new spiritual life into someone who was dead in sin. Only God can do this; no one can quicken themselves.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (tranz-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. It is stronger than just "doing wrong" — it means stepping deliberately over a known boundary. Paul pairs it with "sins" to show the full depth of human guilt before God.

- 1 And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; God quickened You — you who were dead in Your transgressions and sins,

- 2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: in which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience.
- 3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. Among whom we all also had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. Ephesians 2 is one of the greatest mercy passages in the Bible — we were dead, deserving wrath, and God responded with mercy and love.

- 4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, But because of His great love for us, God, Who is rich in mercy,
- 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) even when we were dead in sins, He quickened us together with Christ — it is by grace You have been saved.
- 6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus,
- 7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. in order that in the coming ages He might show the incomparable riches of His grace expressed in His kindness to us in Christ Jesus.
- 8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: For it is by grace You have been saved, through faith — and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—
- 9 Not of works, lest any man should boast. not by works, so that no one can boast.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. 11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; | For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them. Therefore, remember that formerly You who are Gentiles by birth — called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "the circumcision" (which is done in the body by human hands)— |
|---|--|

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. The Gentiles had been strangers to God's covenants — the promises made to Abraham, Moses, and David. Through Christ, they are now brought inside those promises.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: 13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. 14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; 15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; 16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: | remember that at that time You were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus You who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For He is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us, by setting aside in His flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in Himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which He put to death their hostility. |
|---|---|

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 17 | And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. | He came and preached peace to You who were far away and peace to those who were near. |
| 18 | For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. | For through Him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit. |
| 19 | Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God; | Now therefore You are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God, |
| 20 | And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; | built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the chief cornerstone. |
| 21 | In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: | In Him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. |
| 22 | In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. | And in Him You too are being built together to become a dwelling place of God through the Spirit. |

Words in this chapter:

quicken — Made alive — spiritually brought from death to life by God; used for resurrection and spiritual rebirth.

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 3

Paul reveals the mystery hidden from past ages: that the Gentiles are fellow heirs with Israel, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. He prays that the Ephesians would be strengthened with might by the Spirit in the inner man and would know the love of Christ which passes knowledge.

| 2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward: | Surely You have heard about the administration of God's grace that was given to me for You, |
| 3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, | that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly. |
| 4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) | In reading this, then, You will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, |
| 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; | which was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets. |
| 6 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: | that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, |
| 7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. | I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of His power. |

- 8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; Although I am less than the least of all the Lord's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the boundless riches of Christ,
- 9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: and to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world has been hidden in God, Who created all things by Jesus Christ,
- 10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms,
- 11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: according to His eternal purpose that He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. In Him and through faith in Him we may approach God with freedom and confidence.
- 13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. I ask You, therefore, not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for You, which are Your glory.
- 14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name.
- 16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; I pray that out of His glorious riches He may strengthen You with power through His Spirit in Your inner being,
- 17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, so that Christ may dwell in Your hearts through faith. And I pray that You, being rooted and established in love,

| 18 | May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; | may have power, together with all the Lord's people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, |
| 19 | And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. | and to know this love that surpasses knowledge — that You may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. |
| 20 | Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, | Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, |
| 21 | Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. | to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen. |

Chapter 4

Paul urges believers to walk worthy of their calling with humility, gentleness, and longsuffering, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit. He teaches that Christ gave apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers to build up the body until all come to the unity of the faith, and instructs them to put off the old man and put on the new man created in righteousness and true holiness.

I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge You to live a life worthy of the calling You have received.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. It is one of the core virtues Paul lists for the Christian walk. Longsuffering does not just endure — it endures without becoming bitter or harsh.

- 2

With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

With complete humility and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love.
- 3

Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

There is one body and one Spirit, just as You were called to one hope when You were called—
- 5

One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

one Lord, one faith, one baptism—
- 6

One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.
- 7

But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.
- 8

Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

Therefore He says: "When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."
- 9

(Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

What does "He ascended" mean except that He also descended to the lower, earthly regions?
- 10

He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; | So Christ Himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers, |
| 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: | to equip His people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up |
| 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: | until we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, |
| 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; | Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. |
| 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: | Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of Him who is the head, that is, Christ. |
| 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. | From Him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love as each part does its work. |
| 17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, | So I tell You this, and insist on it in the Lord, that You must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. |

- 18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts.
- 19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, with a continual lust for more.
- 20 But ye have not so learned Christ; That is not the way of life You learned
- 21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: when You heard about Christ and were taught in Him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus.
- 22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; You were taught, with regard to Your former way of life, to put off Your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires;
- 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; to be made new in the attitude of Your minds;
- 24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. and that You put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.
- 25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Therefore, each of You must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to Your neighbor, for we are all members of one body.
- 26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: "In Your anger do not sin": Do not let the sun go down while You are still angry,
- 27 Neither give place to the devil. and do not give the devil a foothold.

| 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. 29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. | Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, so that they will have something to share with those in need. Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, so that it may benefit those who listen. And do not grieve the Holy Ghost of God, with whom You were sealed for the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave You. |

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Chapter 5

Paul instructs believers to walk in love as Christ loved us and gave Himself for us, to have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, and to walk circumspectly, redeeming the time. He teaches on marriage, declaring that husbands are to love their wives as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it, and that this is a great mystery concerning Christ and the church.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; | Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children |
| 2 | And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. | and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. |
| 3 | But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; | But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among You, as is fitting for saints, |
| 4 | Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. | Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not fitting, but rather the giving of thanks. |
| 5 | For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. | For this You know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. |
| 6 | Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. | Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God's wrath comes on those who are disobedient. |
| 7 | Be not ye therefore partakers with them. | Therefore do not be partners with them. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: | For You were once darkness, but now You are light in the Lord. Live as children of light |
| 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) | (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth) |
| 10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. | and find out what pleases the Lord. |
| 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. | Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. |
| 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. | It is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. |
| 13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. | But everything exposed by the light becomes visible — and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. |
| 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. | This is why it is said: "Wake up, sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on You." |
| 15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, | Be very careful, then, how You live — not as unwise but as wise, |
| 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. | making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. |
| 17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. | Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. |
| 18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; | Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to reckless behavior. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; | speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from Your heart to the Lord, |
| 20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; | always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. | Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. |
| 22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. | Wives, submit yourselves to Your own husbands as You do to the Lord. |
| 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. | For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, His body, of which He is the Savior. |
| 24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. | Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. |
| 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; | Husbands, love Your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her |

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctify (SANK-tih-fy) — to set apart as holy; to make clean and consecrated for God. Sanctification is the lifelong process of being made holy. Here Christ sanctifies the church — He sets her apart, cleanses her, and makes her fit to stand before God without spot or blemish.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, | to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, |
| 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. | and to present her to Himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. |

- | | |

| 28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. 29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: 30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. 31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. 32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. 33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband. | In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church— For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh." This is a profound mystery — but I am talking about Christ and the church. However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves Himself, and the wife must respect her husband. |

Chapter 6

Paul instructs children to obey their parents, fathers not to provoke their children, servants to obey their masters as unto Christ, and masters to treat their servants justly. He commands believers to put on the whole armour of God — the belt of truth, breastplate of righteousness, shield of faith, helmet of salvation, and sword of the Spirit — to stand against the wiles of the devil.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. | Children, obey Your parents in the Lord, for this is right. |
| 2 | Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) | "Honor Your father and mother" — which is the first commandment with a promise— |
| 3 | That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. | "so that it may go well with You and that You may enjoy long life on the earth." |
| 4 | And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. | Fathers, do not exasperate Your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord. |
| 5 | Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; | Servants, be obedient to those who are Your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ, |
| 6 | Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; | Obey not only when they are watching — as those who want to please men — but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from Your heart. |
| 7 | With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: | Serve wholeheartedly, as if You were serving the Lord, not people, |
| 8 | Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. | because You know that the Lord will reward each one for whatever good he does, whether he is slave or free. |

- 9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. And, You masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that Your Master also is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with Him.
- 10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.
- 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.
- 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.
- 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground. After you have done everything, stand.
- 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness,
- 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.
- 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.
- 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Philippians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Timothy named as co-sender (1:1); one of the four Prison Epistles written during Paul's Roman imprisonment.

Date written: c. AD 61–62, from Rome.

Written to: The church at Philippi — the first church Paul planted in Europe (Acts 16), a congregation with whom he had a uniquely warm and trusting relationship.

Setting: Paul is in prison, facing a possible death sentence. The Philippians have sent a financial gift via Epaphroditus, who then became seriously ill. Paul writes to thank them, report on his situation, address minor tensions in the church, and warn against Judaizing teachers.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome late in Paul's first imprisonment under Nero, after Burrus's death (AD 62) when the climate for Christians in the empire was beginning to harden.

Contemporaries: Timothy and Epaphroditus were at Paul's side, while the prison letters Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon were composed in this same window.

Big themes:

- Joy — "rejoice" and "joy" appear sixteen times in four chapters; this is the most joyful of Paul's letters, written from a prison cell
- The mind of Christ — the great Christ-hymn of 2:5–11 is the NT's fullest statement of the incarnation; Christ, though equal to God, took the form of a servant and humbled Himself to the cross
- Contentment — Paul has learned "in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content" (4:11); contentment is not a personality trait but a learned discipline
- Partnership in the gospel — the Philippians are Paul's ministry partners; he uses the language of business partnership (koinonia) to describe their shared investment in the gospel
- Pressing toward the mark — the Christian life is an active, forward-straining pursuit of knowing Christ and attaining the resurrection

Key passages: Phil 1:21; 2:5–8; 3:10; 4:7; 4:11–13

How it fits: Philippians is the most personal of Paul's congregational letters. Written in chains, it is the NT's proof that joy is not circumstantial. Chapter 2's Christ-hymn is one of the most studied Christological passages in the NT, and 4:6–7 on prayer and peace has comforted the church in every generation since.

Chapter 1

Paul thanks God for the Philippians' partnership in the gospel and prays that their love would abound more and more in knowledge. He declares that his imprisonment has served to advance the gospel, and that for him to live is Christ and to die is gain, though he remains confident that he will stay and continue with them for their joy and progress in the faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Paul writes Philippians from prison, yet the letter is full of joy. That joy is rooted in grace — the certainty that God's favor rests on His people not because of what they do but because of what Christ has done.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. | Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, | I thank my God every time I remember You. |
| 4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, | In all my prayers for all of You, I always pray with joy |
| 5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; | because of Your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, |
| 6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: | being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. |
| 7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. | It is right for me to feel this way about all of You, since I have You in my heart. Whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of You share in God's grace with me. |
| 8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. | For God is my witness, how greatly I long for You all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. |

- 9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; And this is my prayer: that Your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,
- 10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; so that You may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,
- 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God.
- 12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; Now I want You to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually served to advance the gospel.
- 13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.
- 14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. And because of my chains, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord and dare all the more to proclaim the gospel without fear.
- 15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.
- 16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.
- 17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.

- 18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,
- 19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, for I know that through Your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.
- 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.
- 21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.
- 22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!
- 23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far;
- 24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. but it is more necessary for You that I remain in the body.
- 25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of You for Your progress and joy in the faith,
- 26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. so that through my being with You again Your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

- 27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see You or only hear about You in my absence, I will know that You stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel
- 28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. without being frightened in any way by those who oppose You. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that You will be saved — and that by God.
- 29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; For it has been granted to You on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him,
- 30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me. since You are going through the same struggle You saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

wot — Know or knew — an archaic form of 'know'; 'I wot not' means 'I do not know.'

Chapter 2

Paul urges the Philippians to be like-minded, esteeming others better than themselves, and points to Christ, who though He was in the form of God made Himself of no reputation, took the form of a servant, humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death — even the death of the cross. He instructs them to work out their own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in them both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

| 1 | If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, | Therefore if You have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from His love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, |
| 2 | Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. | then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind. |
| 3 | Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. | Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, |
| 4 | Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. | not looking to Your own interests but each of You to the interests of the others. |
| 5 | Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: | Let this mind be in You, which was also in Christ Jesus: |
| 6 | Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: | Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, |
| 7 | But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: | but made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men. |
| 8 | And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. | And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death — even the death of the cross. |

- 9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: Therefore God has also highly exalted Him and given Him a name which is above every name,
- 10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth,
- 11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
- 12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Therefore, my dear friends, as You have always obeyed — not only in my presence but now much more in my absence — continue to work out Your salvation with fear and trembling,
- 13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. for it is God Who works in You to will and to act in order to fulfill His good purpose.
- 14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings: Do everything without grumbling or arguing,
- 15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; so that You may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation. Then You will shine among them like stars in the sky
- 16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain. as You hold firmly to the word of life. This will enable me to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.
- 17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from Your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of You.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me. | So You too should be glad and rejoice with me. |
| 19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. | I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about You. |
| 20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. | I have no one else like him who will genuinely care for your welfare. |
| 21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. | For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. |
| 22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. | But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel. |
| 23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. | I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. |
| 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. | And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon. |
| 25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants. | But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs. |
| 26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick. | For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Here Paul uses it in a broader sense: God's compassion shown to Epaphroditus in sparing his life. Mercy is not only judicial — it also describes every moment God tenderly holds back suffering from those He loves.

| 27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation: 30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me. | Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him — and not on Him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety. So then, welcome him in the Lord with great joy and honor people like Him, because He almost died for the work of Christ. He risked His life to make up for the help You yourselves could not give me. |

faith — Trust and reliance on God — not mere intellectual belief, but active dependence on His word and promises.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Chapter 3

Paul warns against those who put confidence in the flesh, listing his own impressive credentials as a Hebrew of the Hebrews and a Pharisee, but counting all things loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus his Lord. He presses toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, and declares that our citizenship is in heaven.

| 1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe. | Further, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to You again, and it is a safeguard for You. |
| 2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. | Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. |
| 3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh. | For it is we who are the circumcision — we who serve God by His Spirit, who boast in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh— |
| 4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: | though I myself have reasons for such confidence. If someone else thinks they have reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: |
| 5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; | circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; |
| 6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless. | as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for righteousness based on the law, faultless. |
| 7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. | But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. |
| 8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, | Yes, no doubt, and I count all things as loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as dung, that I may win Christ |

- 9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: and be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ — the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith.
- 10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; I want to know Christ — yes, to know the power of His resurrection and participation in His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death,
- 11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead. and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.
- 12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. Not that I have already obtained all this or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.
- 13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead,
- 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.
- 15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point You think differently, that too God will make clear to You.
- 16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

Their minds are set on earthly things. For our conversation is in heaven, from where we also look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables Him to bring everything under His control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like His glorious body. |

Paul urges the Philippians to rejoice in the Lord always and to be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving to let their requests be made known to God. He teaches them to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, and lovely, and declares that he can do all things through Christ who strengthens him.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. | Therefore, my brothers and sisters, You whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, dear friends! |
| 2 | I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. | I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. |
| 3 | And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life. | Yes, and I ask You, my true companion, help these women since they have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life. |
| 4 | Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. | Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! |
| 5 | Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. | Let Your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. |
| 6 | Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. | Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present Your requests to God. |
| 7 | And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. | And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard Your hearts and Your minds in Christ Jesus. |

- 8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable — if anything is excellent or praiseworthy — think about such things.
- 9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. Whatever You have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me — put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with You.
- 10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last You renewed Your concern for me. Indeed, You were concerned, but You had no opportunity to show it.
- 11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.
- 12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.
- 13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. I can do all things through Christ Who gives me strength.
- 14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction. Yet it was good of You to share in my trouble.

| 15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. 16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity. 17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account. 18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God. 19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. 20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. 21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you. 22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household. 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. | Moreover, as You Philippians know, in the early days of Your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except You only. For even when I was in Thessalonica, You sent me aid more than once when I was in need. Not that I desire Your gifts; what I desire is that more be credited to Your account. I have received full payment and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts You sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. And my God will meet all Your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen. Greet all God's people in Christ Jesus. The brothers and sisters who are with me send greetings. All God's people here send You greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with Your spirit. Amen. |

Colossians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Timothy named as co-sender (1:1); one of the four Prison Epistles.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Rome, delivered by Tychicus along with Ephesians and the letter to Philemon.

Written to: The church at Colossae — a congregation in the Lycus Valley of Asia Minor that Paul had not personally founded; it was planted by Epaphras (1:7).

Setting: A "Colossian heresy" has emerged — a syncretistic teaching combining Jewish elements (circumcision, food laws, calendar observance) with angel worship and mystical "philosophy." It amounts to adding requirements to Christ for full spiritual experience. Paul's response is to lift Christ higher.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, just years after a devastating earthquake (AD 60) had struck the Lycus Valley cities of Colossae, Laodicea, and Hierapolis.

Contemporaries: Epaphras, Tychicus, Onesimus, Aristarchus, Luke, and Mark were all with Paul as he wrote, and Ephesians and Philemon were carried alongside this letter.

Big themes:

- The supremacy of Christ — the great Christ-hymn of 1:15–20 is the most exalted statement of Christ's pre-eminence in the NT; He is before all things, the firstborn of all creation, and in Him all things hold together
- Complete in Christ — believers are "complete in him" (2:10); nothing needs to be added to Christ for full standing before God
- The new life in Christ — chapters 3–4 move from doctrine to practice; the old self is put off, the new self put on, and all of life is done "in the name of the Lord Jesus"
- False philosophy — "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit" (2:8); the Colossian error is the template for every subsequent attempt to supplement the gospel
- The mystery revealed — the gospel hidden for ages is now made known: "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (1:27)

Key passages: Col 1:15–18; 1:27; 2:8–10; 3:1–3; 3:17

How it fits: Colossians is the companion letter to Ephesians — both written at the same time, delivered by the same messenger, addressing similar themes. Where Ephesians focuses on the church as Christ's body, Colossians focuses on Christ as the head of that body. The TR reading of 1:14 — "redemption through his blood" — grounds the letter's soteriology in the atonement.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the Colossians' faith and prays that they would be filled with the knowledge of God's will. He declares the supremacy of Christ — the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature, by whom all things were created — and that in Him all fulness dwells, and through His blood He has reconciled all things to Himself.

- 1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,
- Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

- 2

To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- To God's holy people in Colosse, the faithful brothers and sisters in Christ: grace and peace to You from God our Father.
- 3

We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
- We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for You,
- 4

Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
- because we have heard of Your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love You have for all God's people—
- 5

For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
- the hope stored up for You in heaven and about which You have already heard in the true message of the gospel

Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
- that has come to You. In the same way, the gospel is bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world — just as it has been doing among You since the day You heard it and truly understood God's grace.
- 7

As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
- You learned it from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf,
- 8

Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.
- and who also told us of Your love in the Spirit.

- 9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; For this reason, since the day we heard about You, we have not stopped praying for You. We continually ask God to fill You with the knowledge of His will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives,
- 10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; so that You may live a life worthy of the Lord and please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is strength held back. God is longsuffering toward sinners, bearing with them rather than judging immediately.

- 11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; being strengthened with all power according to His glorious might so that You may have great endurance and longsuffering, and giving joyful thanks to the Father,
- 12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who has qualified You to share in the inheritance of His holy people in the kingdom of light.
- 13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son He loves,

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (reh-DEMP-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. In the ancient world, a slave could be redeemed — bought out of bondage. Christ redeemed us from sin's slavery by paying with His own blood. We were bought back at infinite cost.

- 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.
- 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature.

- 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: For in Him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities — all things have been created through Him and for Him.
- 17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.
- 18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. And He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything He might have the supremacy.
- 19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell; For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him,
- 20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through His blood, shed on the cross.
- 21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled Once You were alienated from God and were enemies in Your minds because of Your evil behavior. But now He has reconciled You
- 22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight: by Christ's physical body through death to present You holy in His sight, without blemish and free from accusation—
- 23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 2

Paul warns against being deceived by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, and declares that in Christ dwells all the fulness of the godhead bodily. He teaches that believers are complete in Christ, that the handwriting of ordinances against them was nailed to the cross, and that no man should judge them in matters of food, drink, holy days, or sabbaths.

| 1 | For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; | I want You to know how hard I am contending for You and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally. |
| 2 | That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; | My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, |
| 3 | In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. | in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. |
| 4 | And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words. | I tell You this so that no one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments. |
| 5 | For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. | For though I am absent from You in body, I am present with You in spirit and delight to see how disciplined You are and how firm Your faith in Christ is. |

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 6 | As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: | So then, just as You received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live Your lives in Him, |
| 7 | Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. | rooted and built up in Him, strengthened in the faith as You were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. |
| 8 | Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. | See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ. |
| 9 | For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. | For in Christ all the fullness of the Godhead lives in bodily form, |

■ WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. Paul says the entire Godhead — Father, Son, and Holy Ghost — fully dwells in bodily form in Jesus Christ. This is a key verse on Christ's full divinity.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 10 | And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: | and in Christ You have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every power and authority. |
| 11 | In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: | In Him also You were circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ, |
| 12 | Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. | having been buried with Him in baptism, in which You were also raised with Him through Your faith in the working of God, Who raised Him from the dead. |

- 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; When You were dead in Your sins and in the uncircumcision of Your flesh, God made You alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins,
- 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us. He has taken it away, nailing it to the cross.
- 15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.
- 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration, or a Sabbath day.
- 17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.
- 18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify You. Such a person also goes into great detail about what they have seen; they are puffed up with idle notions by their unspiritual mind.
- 19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. They have lost connection with the head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.
- 20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, Since You died with Christ to the elemental spiritual forces of this world, why, as though You still belonged to the world, do You submit to its rules:

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 21 | (Touch not; taste not; handle not; | "Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!"? |
| 22 | Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? | These rules, which have to do with things that all perish with use, are based on merely human commands and teachings. |
| 23 | Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. | Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom with their self-imposed worship, their false humility, and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence. |

Words in this chapter:

godhead — The divine nature of God — the Trinity considered as one being; God in His full divine essence.

quicken — Made alive — spiritually brought from death to life by God; used for resurrection and spiritual rebirth.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Chapter 3

Paul instructs believers to set their affection on things above, to put to death the earthly members — fornication, uncleanness, evil desire, and covetousness — and to put on the new man renewed in knowledge after the image of Him who created him. He gives instructions for husbands and wives, parents and children, and servants and masters, teaching that whatever they do, they should do it heartily as to the Lord.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. | Since, then, You have been raised with Christ, set Your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. |
| 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. | Set Your minds on things above, not on earthly things. |
| 3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. | For You died, and Your life is now hidden with Christ in God. |
| 4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. | When Christ, Who is Your life, appears, then You also will appear with Him in glory. |
| 5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: | Mortify therefore Your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. |
| 6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: | Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. |
| 7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. | You used to walk in these ways, in the life You once lived. |
| 8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. | But now You also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of Your mouth. |
| 9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; | Do not lie to each other, since You have taken off Your old self with its practices |

|---|--|
| 10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: 11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. 12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. | and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator. Here there is no Gentile or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all. Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and longsuffering. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of You has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. |
|---|--|

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 14 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. | And over all these virtues put on charity, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in Your hearts, since as members of one body You were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among You richly as You teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in Your hearts. |
|---|---|

|--|---|
| 17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. 18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. 21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged. 22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: 23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; 24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. 25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. | And whatever You do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him. Wives, submit yourselves to Your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love Your wives and do not be harsh with them. Children, obey Your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord. Fathers, do not embitter Your children, or they will become discouraged. Slaves, obey Your earthly masters in everything. Do it not only when they are watching — not to win their favor — but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord. Whatever You do, work at it with all Your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since You know that You will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ You are serving. Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for their wrong, and there is no favoritism. |

Chapter 4

Paul instructs masters to treat their servants justly and urges the church to continue in prayer, to walk in wisdom toward outsiders, and to let their speech be always with grace seasoned with salt. He sends personal greetings from his companions, including Luke the beloved physician, and instructs the Colossians to exchange letters with the church at Laodicea.

| 1 | Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. | Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven. |
| 2 | Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; | Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. |
| 3 | Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: | And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. |
| 4 | That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. | Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. |
| 5 | Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time. | Be wise in the way You act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. |
| 6 | Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. | Let Your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that You may know how to answer everyone. |

- 7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord: Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a dear brother, a faithful minister, and a fellow servant in the Lord.
- 8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts; I am sending Him to You for the express purpose that You may know about our circumstances and that He may encourage Your hearts.
- 9 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here. He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear brother, who is one of You. They will tell You everything that is happening here.
- 10 Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;) My fellow prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.
- 11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me. Jesus, Who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jews among my co-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have proved a comfort to me.
- 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. Epaphras, who is one of You and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for You, that You may stand firm in all the will of God, mature and fully assured.
- 13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis. I vouch for Him that He is working hard for You and for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis.
- 14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. Our dear friend Luke, the doctor, and Demas send greetings.

| 15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house. | Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house. |
| 16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. | After this letter has been read to You, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans and that You in turn read the letter from Laodicea. |
| 17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it. | Tell Archippus: "See to it that You complete the ministry You have received in the Lord." |
| 18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen. | I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. |

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Barnabas (BAR-nah-bas) — Paul's early missionary companion — his given name was Joseph, but the apostles called him Barnabas ('son of encouragement') because of his generous and encouraging character.

1 Thessalonians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) and Timothy joining in the greeting (1:1). The letter is consistently in the first-person plural — Paul writes as part of a missionary team.

Date written: c. AD 50–51, from Corinth on Paul's second missionary journey. It is one of the earliest books of the New Testament — only Galatians and James may predate it.

Written to: The young church at Thessalonica, capital of the Roman province of Macedonia (modern Thessaloniki). Paul had only been there a few weeks (Acts 17:1–9) before being driven out by hostile Jews. He had been worried about whether the new converts would survive the persecution that followed.

Setting: Paul, separated from the Thessalonians, had sent Timothy back to check on them (3:1–2). Timothy returned to him at Corinth with good news of their continued faith. Paul writes this letter both to commend their endurance under persecution and to answer pastoral questions they had raised: (1) What happens to fellow believers who have died — will they miss the Lord's coming? (2) When will Christ return? (3) How should the church live in the meantime?

Where this sits historically: Written from Corinth under Claudius, around the same time Gallio served as proconsul of Achaia (Acts 18) — one of the earliest NT books, roughly twenty years after the resurrection.

Contemporaries: Silas and Timothy were Paul's coworkers at Corinth as the letter was sent, and 2 Thessalonians and possibly Galatians and James were composed in the same general window.

Big themes:

- The church's faith, love, and patient hope under persecution
- Paul's pastoral heart — his "absent in body, present in spirit" affection for them
- Sexual purity in the middle of a pagan culture
- Brotherly love and quiet, diligent work
- The Lord's return — the dead in Christ raised first, then those still alive caught up to meet Him in the air
- The day of the Lord, coming like a thief in the night
- Preparation through holy living
- The trinitarian benediction (5:23)
- The rapid-fire closing imperatives (5:16–22)

Key passages: 1 Thess 1:9–10 (turned to God from idols); 4:13–18 (the rapture passage); 5:1–11 (the day of the Lord); 5:16–22 (rapid imperatives); 5:23 (sanctification benediction).

How it fits: 1 Thessalonians is one of the earliest NT books and the first major NT passage on the rapture and the resurrection of the saints. Together with 2 Thessalonians, it forms the earliest sustained NT teaching on the last things. The closing imperatives in 5:16–22 — "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing." — are among the most quoted verses for daily Christian living.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small, little" — Formerly Saul of Tarsus; a Pharisee who persecuted the church before Christ met him on the road to Damascus (Acts 9). Now an apostle to the Gentiles. He founded the Thessalonian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–9).

> ■ NAME NOTE — Thessalonica (thes-uh-loh-NY-kuh) — Capital of the Roman province of Macedonia and a major seaport on the Via Egnatia. Paul preached here for only a few weeks before a Jewish mob drove him out (Acts 17:1–9). The young church he left behind is the recipient of this letter.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the Thessalonians, remembering their work of faith, labour of love, and patience of hope in the Lord Jesus Christ. He recalls how the gospel came to them not in word only but also in power and in the Holy Ghost, and how they turned from idols to serve the living and true God and to wait for His Son from heaven.

- 1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, From Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy — unto the church of the Thessalonians to the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father and in the which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, Lord Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to and peace, from God our Father, and You from God our Father and the Lord the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ.

■ NAME NOTE — Silvanus (sil-VAY-nus) — also called Silas in Acts — A leading member of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22) chosen by Paul as his partner on the second missionary journey. He was with Paul in Thessalonica when this church was founded. KJV uses the Latin form Silvanus in the epistles; modern translations and Acts use Silas.

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-oh-thee) — also Timotheus in KJV — "honoring God" — Paul's young protégé from Lystra (Acts 16:1–3), son of a Jewish mother and a Greek father. Paul sent Timothy back to Thessalonica to check on the church under persecution (3:1–6); his good report is the immediate occasion for this letter. KJV uses the Greek form Timotheus; the modern column uses the universally-known Timothy.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Brethren (BREH-thren) — KJV's plural for "brothers" in the church family. In the New Testament it regularly means "fellow believers" of both sexes — not only men. The modern column keeps the KJV word brethren because of how heavily it is used in Paul's letters; read it as "brothers and sisters in Christ."

We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

We always thank God for You all, mentioning You in our prayers,
- 3

Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; constantly remembering before our God and Father Your work that flows from faith, Your labor that flows from love, and Your patient endurance that flows from hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

We know, brethren loved by God, that He has chosen You.
- 5

For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

Our gospel did not come to You in word only, but also in power, in the Holy Ghost, and with deep conviction. You know the kind of men we were among You for Your sake.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a force or an influence — He is a Person, fully God, who dwells in every believer and gives power for life and witness.

- 6

And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

And You became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Ghost,
- 7

So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

so that You became examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

■ NAME NOTE — Macedonia (mas-eh-DOH-nee-uh) — The Roman province covering northern Greece. Paul received a vision of a Macedonian man calling for help (Acts 16:9), and through that vision the gospel first entered Europe. Its leading cities were Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea.

■ NAME NOTE — Achaia (uh-KAY-uh) — The Roman province covering southern Greece, including Corinth and Athens. Together, Macedonia and Achaia made up the whole of Greek territory under Rome. The Thessalonians' faith had become famous in both provinces.

| 8 | For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. | For from You the word of the Lord has rung out — not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place. Your faith toward God has spread so far that we do not need to say anything. |
| 9 | For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; | People themselves report about us what kind of welcome we had among You, and how You turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, |
| 10 | And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come. | and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead — Jesus, Who delivers us from the wrath to come. |

Paul reminds the Thessalonians that he and his companions were bold to speak the gospel amid much opposition, never using flattery or seeking glory from men. He recalls how he was gentle among them as a nursing mother cherishes her children, and how the Thessalonians received the word not as the word of men but as the word of God, which effectually works in those who believe.

| 1 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain: | For you yourselves, brethren, know that our coming to you was not in vain. |
| 2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. | Though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in the face of strong opposition. |
| 3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: | For our appeal was not made out of deceit, or uncleanness, or trickery. |
| 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. | But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak — not to please men, but God, Who tests our hearts. |
| 5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness: | For we never used flattering words, as you know, nor any cover-up for greed — God is our witness. |
| 6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. | Nor did we seek glory from men — not from You, nor from anyone else — though as apostles of Christ we could have made demands of You. |
| 7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: | Instead, we were gentle among You, like a nursing mother caring for her own children. |
| 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. | Because we loved You so dearly, we were delighted to share with You not only the gospel of God, but our own lives as well, because You had become dear to us. |

- 9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. For You remember, brethren, our labor and toil. We worked night and day so that we would not be a burden to any of You while we preached the gospel of God to You.
- 10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: You are witnesses, and God is also, how holy, just, and blameless our conduct was among You who believe —
- 11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, just as You know how, like a father with His own children, we exhorted, comforted, and charged every one of you,
- 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. that You would walk worthy of God, Who has called You into His own kingdom and glory.
- 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. For this reason we also thank God without ceasing: when You received the word of God which You heard from us, You welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it truly is — the word of God, which is at work in You who believe.
- 14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: For You, brethren, became followers of the churches of God in Judaea that are in Christ Jesus. You have suffered the same things from Your own countrymen that they have suffered from the Jews —
- 15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: the Jews who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have driven us out. They do not please God, and they are hostile to all men,

- 16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved. So they keep filling up the measure of their sins; but the wrath has come upon them at last.
- 17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire. But we, brethren, having been torn away from You for a short time — in presence, not in heart — were all the more eager and full of desire to see Your face again.
- 18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. Therefore we wanted to come to you — I, Paul, again and again — but Satan hindered us.

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tun) — "adversary" — The chief fallen angel; the deceiver and accuser of God's people, the personal enemy of God and of the saints. Here Paul attributes the obstacles to his return to Satan's direct opposition. Scripture treats Satan as a real and active person, not a symbol — but always already defeated by Christ.

- 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Is it not You — in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming?
- 20 For ye are our glory and joy. For You are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

Paul sent Timothy to Thessalonica to strengthen and encourage the believers in their afflictions, and Timothy returned with good news of their faith and love. Paul expresses great joy over their steadfastness and prays night and day that he may see them again and supply what is lacking in their faith.

Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

Therefore, when we could no longer endure not knowing, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone,
- NAME NOTE — Athens (ATH-enz) — The intellectual capital of ancient Greece, in the Roman province of Achaia. Paul preached on the Areopagus (Mars Hill) there about the "unknown god" (Acts 17:16–34). It was from Athens that he sent Timothy back to Thessalonica.
- 2

And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

and we sent Timothy — our brother and a minister of God and our fellow worker in the gospel of Christ — to strengthen You and comfort You concerning Your faith,

That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are appointed to this.

For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

For truly, when we were with You, we told You in advance that we were going to suffer tribulation, just as it has happened — and You know it.

For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

For this reason, when I could no longer endure not knowing, I sent to find out about Your faith — fearing that the tempter might have tempted You and that our labor would be in vain.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

Chapter 4

Paul urges the Thessalonians to abstain from fornication, to live quietly, work with their own hands, and walk honestly toward those outside. He comforts them concerning the dead in Christ, declaring that the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, and the dead in Christ shall rise first, then the living shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. | Finally then, brethren, we appeal to You and urge You in the Lord Jesus that, just as You received from us how You ought to walk and to please God, You would do so more and more. |
| 2 | For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. | For You know what commandments we gave You through the Lord Jesus. |

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (SANK-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — being made holy. Sanctification is the lifelong work of God in a believer, setting him apart from sin and shaping him to look like Christ. It is not the moment of conversion (that is justification) — it is the long, daily process of becoming what God has already declared us to be in Christ.

- | | | |

| 3 | For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: | For this is the will of God — your sanctification: that You abstain from fornication, |
|---|--|---|

- 4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; that each of You should know how to control His own body in sanctification and honor,
- 5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: not in the lust of evil desire, like the Gentiles who do not know God;
- 6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. and that no man overstep or take advantage of His brother in this matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such sins, as we have already warned You and solemnly testified.
- 7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.
- 8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. Therefore the one who rejects this teaching is not rejecting man, but God — who has also given to us His Holy Spirit.
- 9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. Now concerning brotherly love, You have no need that I write to You, for You yourselves are taught by God to love one another.
- 10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more; And indeed You do this toward all the brethren throughout Macedonia. But we appeal to You, brethren, to do so more and more —
- 11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you; and to make it Your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind Your own business, and to work with Your own hands, just as we commanded You,
- 12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing. so that You may walk honorably toward those who are outside, and that You may lack nothing.

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 13 | But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. | But I would not have You ignorant, brethren, concerning those who are asleep, so that You do not grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. |
| 14 | For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. | For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, in the same way God will bring with Him those also who sleep in Jesus. |
| 15 | For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. | For this we say to You by the word of the Lord: we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not precede those who are asleep. |
| 16 | For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: | For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first. |

■ WORD NOTE — Trump of God (TRUMP) — KJV's word for "trumpet." At Christ's coming a great trumpet blast announces His return and signals the resurrection of the dead in Christ. The "trump of God" is no human horn — it is heaven's own summons, sounded by God Himself, gathering His people to Himself at the last day.

- | | | |

| 17 | Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. | Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord. |
| 18 | Wherefore comfort one another with these words. | Therefore comfort one another with these words. |

Paul warns that the day of the Lord comes as a thief in the night, bringing sudden destruction on those who say "peace and safety," but believers are children of the light and should watch and be sober. He gives final instructions: rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing, give thanks in everything, quench not the Spirit, prove all things, and hold fast that which is good.

■ WORD NOTE — The Day of the Lord (DAY) — A great Bible phrase running from Joel through Revelation. It is the day when God acts in final judgment on the wicked and final salvation for His people. In the OT it is "the Day of the LORD" — the day Jehovah comes. In the NT, the day of the Lord comes through the return of Christ. The phrase covers both the judgment and the deliverance — wrath for the world, salvation for the saints.

| 4 | But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. | But You, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake You like a thief. |
| 5 | Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. | You are all children of light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. |

|---|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is more than ordinary patience — it is the steady refusal to grow bitter or to repay wrong with wrong, even when one is wronged again and again. KJV uses this word of God Himself (Ex 34:6; Rom 2:4) and commands it of believers toward each other.

2 Thessalonians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) and Timotheus (Timothy) joining him in the opening greeting (1:1). At the close, Paul writes the final salutation "with mine own hand" (3:17) as the authenticating mark of every genuine letter from him — almost certainly because a forged letter claiming to be from Paul had reached the Thessalonians (2:2).

Date written: c. AD 51–52, from Corinth, only a few months after 1 Thessalonians. Paul is still on the second missionary journey.

Written to: The church at Thessalonica, a leading city of Macedonia. Paul had evangelized there only briefly on his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–9) before being driven out by hostile Jews. The young church had remained dear to him, and 1 Thessalonians had been written to comfort them about loved ones who had died and to teach them about the Lord's return.

Setting: After 1 Thessalonians, the situation in Thessalonica had grown worse rather than better. False teaching — possibly carried by a forged letter pretending to come from Paul — was now claiming that "the day of Christ is at hand," meaning it had already arrived. The Thessalonians were unsettled and shaken. Worse, some had stopped working entirely; they were living as busybodies on the church's charity, expecting Christ at any moment. Paul writes to correct the error and to issue a sharp command: the day of Christ cannot come until certain events first take place — a great falling away, and the revelation of the man of sin — and meanwhile every brother must work for his own bread.

Where this sits historically: Written from Corinth in the late reign of Claudius, only months after 1 Thessalonians and just before Nero's accession in AD 54.

Contemporaries: Silas and Timothy were still with Paul at Corinth, and the recently written 1 Thessalonians was already circulating among the Macedonian churches.

Big themes: the persecuted church will be vindicated when Christ returns in flaming fire to take vengeance on its enemies; the day of Christ has NOT already come; a great falling away (apostasy) must precede that day; the man of sin — the son of perdition — must be revealed before Christ comes; the Lord will consume that Wicked one with the spirit of His mouth and destroy him with the brightness of His coming; God has from the beginning chosen His people to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit; the duty of orderly work; church discipline for the disorderly.

Key passages: 2 Thess 1:7–10 (the revelation of Christ in flaming fire); 2:1–12 (the man of sin); 2:13–17 (chosen to salvation through sanctification); 3:10–13 (the command to work).

How it fits: 2 Thessalonians is the chief NT text on the man of sin / son of perdition / the "Wicked one" whom Christ will destroy at His coming. Together with 1 Thessalonians, it forms the earliest extensive NT teaching on the second coming. It also gives the most concrete NT principle for church-level economic ethics: "If any would not work, neither should he eat." Both halves of the letter — the prophecy of the man of sin and the command to work — flow from the same pastoral concern: the day of Christ has not yet come, so the church must keep its feet on the ground and its hands at the plow.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the growing faith and love of the Thessalonians amid persecution, and assures them that God will repay with tribulation those who trouble them. He declares that the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, taking vengeance on those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel.

- Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:*

From Paul, and Silas, and Timothy — to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

■ NAME NOTE — Silvanus (sil-VAY-nus), also called Silas (SY-las) — A leading man among the brethren at Jerusalem (Acts 15:22) and Paul's chief companion on the second missionary journey (Acts 15:40 onward). The Modern column uses the shorter, more common name "Silas," which is how he is named in Acts; "Silvanus" is the Latin form used by Paul in his letters.

■ NAME NOTE — Timotheus (tih-MOH-thee-us), better known as Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — Paul's young protégé from Lystra; the son of a Greek father and a believing Jewish mother (Acts 16:1). The Modern column uses the universally known Anglicized form "Timothy." Paul calls him "my own son in the faith" (1 Tim 1:2) and writes him two of the Pastoral Epistles.

- Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

- 3
- We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;*

We are bound to thank God always for You, brethren, as it is fitting, because Your faith is growing greatly, and the charity of every one of you toward each other is increasing.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — Love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- 4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure: So we ourselves boast about You among the churches of God — about Your patience and Your faith in all the persecutions and tribulations that You endure.
- 5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: This is a clear sign of the righteous judgment of God — that You may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which You are also suffering.
- 6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; For it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble You,
- 7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, and to give You who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels,
- 8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: in flaming fire, taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; They shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power,
- 10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day. when He shall come to be glorified in His saints, and to be admired by all those who believe — because our testimony among You was believed — in that day.

Chapter 2

Paul urges the Thessalonians not to be troubled by claims that the day of Christ has already come, for that day will not come unless there is a falling away first and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who exalts himself above all that is called God. He reminds them that the mystery of iniquity is already at work, but the Lord shall consume the wicked one with the spirit of His mouth at His coming.

| 1 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, | Now we appeal to You, brethren, regarding the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our being gathered together to Him: |

That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

do not be quickly shaken in mind or troubled — not by any spirit, nor by any word, nor by any letter supposedly from us — claiming that the day of Christ has already come.

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

Let no man deceive You by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition —

■ WORD NOTE — Perdition (per-DISH-un) — Eternal ruin and destruction; the final, conscious loss of all things in the judgment of God. "The son of perdition" is a Hebrew-style title meaning "the one who belongs to perdition, who is destined for it." Christ uses the same phrase of Judas in John 17:12.

■ WORD NOTE — That man of sin / the son of perdition — A specific, future, individual figure prophesied here by Paul. He is the same person John calls "the antichrist" (1 John 2:18; 4:3) and "the beast" (Revelation 13). He will oppose and exalt himself above every god, sit in the temple of God, and proclaim himself to be God (v4). His coming is empowered by Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders (v9). He is destroyed by Christ at His second coming (v8). The KJV does NOT call him "the man of lawlessness" (which is the NIV/ESV reading from a different Greek text); the Textus Receptus reads "the man of sin," and the Modern column preserves that.

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

He opposes and exalts Himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped — so that He, as God, sits in the temple of God, showing Himself that He is God.

Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

Do You not remember that when I was still with You, I told You these things?

And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

And now You know what is holding Him back, so that He may be revealed in His own time.
- 7

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

For the mystery of iniquity is already at work; only He who now restrains will restrain, until he be taken out of the way.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-ik-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. The "mystery of iniquity" is the hidden working of lawlessness in the world, already at work in Paul's day, which will one day come into the open in the person of the man of sin.*

|---|--|

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (SANK-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — Being made holy; the lifelong process of being set apart for God. Sanctification is the Spirit's work in the believer, gradually making us more and more like Christ, until the work is completed at His coming.*

Chapter 3

Paul asks for prayer that the word of the Lord may spread freely and commands the church to withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly. He reminds them that he worked night and day so as not to be a burden, and declares that if any man will not work, neither should he eat.

1 Timothy

Author: Paul the apostle — one of the three "Pastoral Epistles" (1 Timothy, 2 Timothy, Titus) addressed to individual church leaders rather than congregations.

Date written: c. AD 62–64, after Paul's release from his first Roman imprisonment, during a period of further travel not recorded in Acts.

Written to: Timothy, Paul's "own son in the faith" (1:2), who had been left in charge of the church at Ephesus.

Setting: Paul has left Timothy in Ephesus to deal with false teachers, maintain sound doctrine, and establish proper church order. Timothy is young, apparently somewhat timid, and facing serious opposition. Paul writes to strengthen him and give him a clear mandate.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, after the apostle's release from house arrest around AD 62 and before Nero's persecution of Christians following the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Timothy ministered at Ephesus, Titus on Crete, and the second wave of Pauline letters (2 Timothy and Titus) followed soon after; Peter was likely already in Rome writing 1 Peter.

Big themes:

- Sound doctrine — false teachers are promoting "fables and endless genealogies" and speculative arguments; Paul repeatedly urges Timothy to hold fast to the "faithful saying" and the apostolic deposit
- Church order — 1 Timothy contains the NT's most detailed instructions for church leadership: qualifications for bishops (overseers) and deacons, instructions on prayer, and guidelines for widows
- "God was manifest in the flesh" — 3:16 is one of the great Christological confessions of the NT; the TR reading ("God was manifest in the flesh," not "He who was manifest") makes an explicit claim for the incarnation
- The role of women in the assembly — 2:11–15 addresses the ordering of public worship; the passage has been extensively discussed throughout church history
- Money and godliness — "the love of money is the root of all evil" (6:10); the rich are warned, and contentment with godliness is commended as "great gain"

Key passages: 1 Tim 1:15; 2:5; 3:16; 4:16; 6:10

How it fits: 1 Timothy is the NT's foundational manual for church leadership. Its qualifications for elders and deacons have governed church governance for two millennia. Written between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, it gives an inside view of the pastoral challenges the early church faced as it matured beyond its founding generation.

Chapter 1

Paul charges Timothy to remain at Ephesus and command certain men not to teach false doctrines or give heed to fables and endless genealogies. He declares that the law is good if used lawfully, gives thanks for his own calling despite being formerly a blasphemer and persecutor, and calls himself the chief of sinners whom Christ Jesus saved as a pattern for all who would believe.

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;
- Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
- To Timothy, my true son in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 3

As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,
- As I urged You when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that You may command certain people not to teach false doctrines

Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.
- or give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which produce questions rather than godly edifying which is in faith. So do.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- | | |

| 5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: | The goal of this instruction is charity out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith. |
| 6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; | Some have swerved from these and have turned aside to vain jangling. |
| 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. | They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm. |
| 8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; | We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. |
| 9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, | We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, |
| 10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; | for the sexually immoral, for those practicing homosexuality, for slave traders and liars and perjurers — and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine |
| 11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. | that conforms to the gospel concerning the glory of the blessed God, which He entrusted to me. |
| 12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; | I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that He considered me trustworthy, appointing me to His service. |

- | | |

| 13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. | Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief. |
| 14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. | The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. |
| 15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. | Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners — of whom I am the worst. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is strength held back. God is longsuffering toward sinners, bearing with them rather than judging immediately.

|---|---|
| 16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. | But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display His immense longsuffering as an example for those who would believe in Him and receive eternal life. |
| 17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. | Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. |
| 18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; | Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the battle well, |
| 19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: | holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith. |

- 20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.
- Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Words in this chapter:

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Macedonia (mas-eh-DO-nee-ah) — A region of northern Greece — Paul received a vision of a man from Macedonia calling for help; he brought the gospel to Europe through cities like Philippi and Thessalonica.

Chapter 2

Paul urges that prayers be made for all men, especially kings and those in authority, so that believers may lead quiet and peaceable lives. He declares that there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all.

- 1 I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;
- I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession, and thanksgiving be made for all people—

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. | for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. |
| 3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; | This is good, and pleases God our Savior, |
| 4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. | who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. |
| 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; | For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, |
| 6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time. | who gave Himself as a ransom for all people. This has now been witnessed to at the proper time. |
| 7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity. | And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle — I am telling the truth, I am not lying — and a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles. |
| 8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting. | Therefore I want the men everywhere to pray, lifting up holy hands without anger or disputing. |
| 9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; | In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly clothing, |
| 10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. | but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God. |
| 11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. | A woman should learn in quietness and full submission. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 12 | But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. | I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man; she must be quiet. |
| 13 | For Adam was first formed, then Eve. | For Adam was formed first, then Eve. |
| 14 | And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. | And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner. |
| 15 | Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety. | But women will be saved through childbearing — if they continue in faith, charity, and holiness with propriety. |

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Adam (AD-um) — The first man, formed from the dust of the earth — his name in Hebrew means 'man' or 'from the ground (adamah).'

Eve (EEV) — The first woman, made from Adam's rib — her name in Hebrew means 'living' or 'life-giver,' because she is the mother of all living.

Chapter 3

Paul sets forth the qualifications for bishops and deacons, requiring them to be blameless, sober, hospitable, and able to rule their own houses well. He writes so that Timothy may know how to conduct himself in the house of God, and declares the great mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. | Here is a trustworthy saying: Whoever aspires to be an overseer desires a noble task. |
| 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; | Now the overseer is to be above reproach, faithful to his wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, |
| 3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; | not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. |
| 4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; | He must manage His own family well and see that His children obey Him, and He must do so in a manner worthy of full respect. |
| 5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) | If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can He take care of God's church? |
| 6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. | He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil. |
| 7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. | He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap. |
| 8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; | In the same way, deacons are to be worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in too much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain. |
| 9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. | They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 10 | And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. | They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons. |
| 11 | Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. | In the same way, the women are to be worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything. |
| 12 | Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. | A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well. |
| 13 | For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. | Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus. |
| 14 | These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: | Although I hope to come to You soon, I am writing You these instructions |
| 15 | But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. | so that, if I am delayed, You will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. |
| 16 | And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. | Beyond all question, the mystery from which true godliness springs is great: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. |

Paul warns that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving. He charges Timothy to be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in charity, in spirit, in faith, and in purity, and not to neglect the gift that is in him.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; | The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, |
| 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; | Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron. |
| 3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. | They forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and who know the truth. |
| 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: | For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, |
| 5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer. | because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer. |

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 6 | If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. | If You point these things out to the brothers and sisters, You will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that You have followed. |
| 7 | But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. | Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train Yourself to be godly. |
| 8 | For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. | For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come. |
| 9 | This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. | This is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance. |
| 10 | For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. | For this reason we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, Who is the Savior of all people, especially of those who believe. |
| 11 | These things command and teach. | Command and teach these things. |
| 12 | Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. | Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in charity, in faith, and in purity. |
| 13 | Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. | Until I come, devote Yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching, and to teaching. |
| 14 | Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. | Do not neglect Your gift, which was given You through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on You. |

15	Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.	Be diligent in these matters; give Yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see Your progress.
16	Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.	Watch Your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if You do, You will save both Yourself and Your hearers.

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Chapter 5

Paul gives instructions on how to treat elders, widows, and various members of the church, teaching that the church should honor true widows and that those with families should care for their own. He instructs that elders who rule well should be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and doctrine.

1	Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;	Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but appeal to him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers,
2	The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.	older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 3 Honour widows that are widows indeed. | Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need. |
| 4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. | But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God. |
| 5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. | The widow who is really in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help. |
| 6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth. | But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives. |
| 7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. | Give the people these instructions, so that no one may be open to blame. |
| 8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. | Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. |
| 9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, | No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband, |
| 10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. | and is well known for her good deeds, such as bringing up children, showing hospitality, washing the feet of the Lord's people, helping those in trouble, and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds. |

- 11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry; As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry.
- 12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith. Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge.
- 13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. And besides, they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
- 14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. So I counsel younger widows to marry, to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander.
- 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan. Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.
- 16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. If any woman who is a believer has widows in her care, she should continue to help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.
- 17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching.
- 18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward. For Scripture says, "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain," and "The worker deserves his wages."

- | | |
|---|--|
| 19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. | Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses. |
| 20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. | But those elders who are sinning you are to reprove before everyone, so that the others may take warning. |
| 21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. | I charge You, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favoritism. |
| 22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. | Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, and do not share in the sins of others. Keep Yourself pure. |
| 23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. | Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine because of Your stomach and Your frequent illnesses. |
| 24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. | The sins of some are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them. |
| 25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid. | In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not obvious cannot remain hidden forever. |

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

Chapter 6

Paul instructs servants to honor their masters and warns against those who teach differently and do not consent to the words of the Lord Jesus Christ. He declares that the love of money is the root of all evil, and charges Timothy to fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, and keep the commandment without spot until the appearing of the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 1 Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. All who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their masters worthy of full respect, so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered.
- 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. Those who have believing masters should not show them disrespect just because they are fellow believers. Instead, they should serve them even better because their masters are dear to them as fellow believers and are devoted to the welfare of their servants. These are the things You are to teach and insist on.
- 3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; If anyone teaches otherwise and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching,
- 4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, they are conceited and understand nothing. They have an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions,

- | | | |

| 5 | Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. | and constant friction between people of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who suppose that gain is godliness: from such withdraw Yourself. |
| 6 | But godliness with contentment is great gain. | But godliness with contentment is great gain. |
| 7 | For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. | For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. |
| 8 | And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. | But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. |
| 9 | But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. | Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. |
| 10 | For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. | For the love of money is the root of all evil; while some coveted after it, they have erred from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. |
| 11 | But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. | But You, man of God, flee from all this and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. |
| 12 | Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. | Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which You were called when You made Your good confession in the presence of many witnesses. |

- 13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession; In the sight of God, Who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, Who while testifying before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you
- 14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; which God will bring about in His own time — God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords,
- 16 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen. who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To him be honor and might forever. Amen.
- 17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, Who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.
- 18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate; Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share.
- 19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.
- 20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called: Timothy, keep that which has been committed to your trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called,

- 21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen. which some have professed and in so doing have departed from the faith. Grace be with you all.

2 Timothy

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in 1:1. This is his final letter, written from a Roman dungeon in chains, awaiting execution under Nero.

Date written: c. AD 66–67, from Paul's second Roman imprisonment. Unlike his first imprisonment (a house arrest awaiting trial), Paul is now in a cold cell and expects to die soon (4:6).

Written to: Timothy, Paul's "dearly beloved son" in the faith (1:2). Timothy was a young pastor likely still serving the church at Ephesus. He had been raised in the Scriptures by his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice (1:5), and converted under Paul's ministry at Lystra on the first missionary journey.

Setting: Paul writes from a Roman dungeon. He is cold (4:13), abandoned by most of his companions (1:15; 4:10, 4:16), and expecting execution at any time — "the time of my departure is at hand" (4:6). The letter is deeply personal. It is partly a final charge to faithful ministry, and partly an urgent plea for Timothy to come quickly before winter (4:9, 4:21). Onesiphorus is praised for searching out Paul in his prison; Demas is named for forsaking him. Only Luke remains. Tradition holds that Paul was beheaded by Nero shortly after writing.

Where this sits historically: Written from a Roman dungeon at the height of Nero's persecution of Christians (AD 64–68), just before Paul's martyrdom on the Ostian Way and only a few years before Jerusalem fell to Titus in AD 70.

Contemporaries: Peter had likely already been crucified in Rome, Luke remained with Paul, and the Jewish revolt (begun AD 66) was raging in Judea as Paul wrote his final letter.

Big themes:

- Faithful endurance in ministry under persecution — "endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ" (2:3)
- The deposit of sound doctrine entrusted by Paul to Timothy, to be passed on to faithful men (2:2)
- The inspiration and sufficiency of Scripture — "All scripture is given by inspiration of God" (3:16–17)
- The apostle's confidence in Christ in the face of death — "I know whom I have believed" (1:12)
- The danger of false teachers in the last days, and the duty to preach the word (3:1–9; 4:1–4)
- The crown of righteousness laid up for all who love His appearing (4:8)
- Loneliness and the comfort of Christ — "Only Luke is with me" (4:11); "the Lord stood with me" (4:17)

Key passages: 2 Timothy 1:7; 2:15; 3:16–17; 4:2; 4:6–8

How it fits: 2 Timothy is Paul's last will and testament. It is the most personal of the Pastoral Epistles. Where 1 Timothy and Titus are concerned with church order, 2 Timothy is a dying apostle's farewell — solemn, intimate, full of the names of those who stood with him and those who fell away. The declaration of 3:16 ("All scripture is given by inspiration of God...") has shaped the church's doctrine of Scripture more than any other single verse.

Chapter 1

Paul writes to his beloved son Timothy, thanking God for Timothy's unfeigned faith and urging him not to be ashamed of the testimony of the Lord nor of Paul as His prisoner. He reminds Timothy that God has not given us the spirit of fear but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind, and charges him to hold fast the pattern of sound words.

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — KJV "Timotheus" — "honoring God" — Paul's "dearly beloved son" in the faith; converted under Paul's ministry at Lystra (Acts 16:1); half-Greek, half-Jewish; raised by his godly mother and grandmother in the Scriptures; pastor of the Ephesian church. The Modern column uses the Anglicized "Timothy," matching the title of the book.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

I thank God — whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience — as I remember You constantly in my prayers night and day.
- 4

Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.
- I am reminded of the sincere faith that is in You — the faith that first lived in Your grandmother Lois and in Your mother Eunice, and which, I am persuaded, lives in You also.

■ NAME NOTE — Lois (LOH-iss) — Timothy's grandmother; one of the earliest believers Paul names. She passed the faith on to her daughter Eunice, who passed it on to Timothy — a portrait of generational discipleship.

■ NAME NOTE — Eunice (YOO-niss) — "good victory" — Timothy's mother; a Jewish woman who married a Greek (Acts 16:1); she raised Timothy in the Hebrew Scriptures from a child (3:15).

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

- 8

Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
- So do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, or of me His prisoner. Instead, share in the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God.
- 9

Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a force or an influence — He is a person, fully God, who dwells in every believer and gives power for life and witness.

■ NAME NOTE — Onesiphorus (on-eh-SIF-or-us) — "bringing profit" — A Christian from Ephesus who searched out Paul in his Roman imprisonment and refreshed him. To be associated publicly with a condemned prisoner was dangerous; Onesiphorus did it anyway. Paul commends his household twice (here and at 4:19).

Chapter 2

Paul charges Timothy to be strong in grace and to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, committing what he has heard to faithful men who can teach others. He instructs Timothy to study to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, and to flee youthful lusts while pursuing righteousness, faith, charity, and peace.

- 1 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
- You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

- 2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. And the things that You have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses — commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.
- 3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. You therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
- 4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. No soldier on active duty gets entangled in the affairs of civilian life — his aim is to please the one who enlisted him.
- 5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. And if a man competes as an athlete, he is not crowned unless He competes by the rules.
- 6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits. The hardworking farmer must be the first to share in the crops.
- 7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. Consider what I say, and the Lord give You understanding in all things.
- 8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel —
- 9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. for which I suffer trouble, even as a criminal, to the point of chains. But the word of God is not chained.
- 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.
- 11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: This is a faithful saying: If we died with Him, we shall also live with Him;
- 12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we endure, we shall also reign with Him; if we deny Him, He also will deny us;

- | | |
|---|--|
| 13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. | if we are faithless, He remains faithful — He cannot deny Himself. |
| 14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. | Remind them of these things, charging them before the Lord not to quarrel about words. It accomplishes nothing — it only ruins those who listen. |
| 15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. | Study to show Yourself approved to God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. |
| 16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. | Shun profane and empty chatter, for it will lead to more and more ungodliness. |
| 17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; | And their word will eat away like a canker — among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, |
| 18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some. | who have strayed from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already happened, and they overthrow the faith of some. |

■ NAME NOTE — Hymenaeus and Philetus (hy-meh-NEE-us; fih-LEE-tus) — False teachers in the Ephesian region who taught that the resurrection had already taken place — likely spiritualizing it as something already received at conversion. Their error was destroying real faith. Hymenaeus is also named at 1 Timothy 1:20, where Paul says he has "delivered him unto Satan."

|---|--|
| 19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. | Nevertheless, the foundation of God stands firm, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let every one who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity." |
| 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. | In a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay — some for honor and some for dishonor. |

If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.
- So if anyone cleanses himself from these things, he will be a vessel for honor — sanctified, useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.
- 22

Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
- Flee youthful lusts. Pursue righteousness, faith, charity, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- 23

But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
- Avoid foolish and ignorant arguments, knowing that they breed strife.
- 24

And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,
- And the servant of the Lord must not be quarrelsome, but gentle to all, able to teach, patient,
- 25

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
- in meekness instructing those who oppose themselves — God perhaps will grant them repentance, so that they may come to the acknowledging of the truth,
- 26

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.
- and they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

Chapter 3

Paul warns that in the last days perilous times shall come, with men being lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, and lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. He reminds Timothy that all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution, and declares that all scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, reproof, correction, and instruction in righteousness.

■ WORD NOTE — Perilous (PER-ih-lus) — Dangerous, harsh, threatening. The Greek word here is the same one used in Matthew 8:28 to describe the violent demoniacs who were so fierce that no one could pass that way. Paul is warning Timothy that the days ahead are not just difficult — they are spiritually savage.

- 7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ever learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

■ NAME NOTE — Jannes and Jambres (JAN-eez; JAM-breez) — Jewish tradition names these as the two Egyptian magicians who opposed Moses before Pharaoh (Exodus 7); they imitated Moses's signs at first but were finally exposed. Paul cites them as types of the false teachers in the last days — men who counterfeit the truth but cannot in the end stand against it.

- 8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so these also resist the truth — men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Reprobate (REP-ro-bayt) — Rejected, disqualified, failing the test. Originally used of metal that proved counterfeit when tested; spiritually, of those who claim faith but are shown false when tried. To be "reprobate concerning the faith" is to be exposed as having no real share in it.

- 9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was. But they shall proceed no further, for their folly shall be made manifest to all men — as theirs also was.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is strength held back. God is longsuffering toward sinners, bearing with them rather than judging immediately, and He calls His servants to the same patience.

■ WORD NOTE — Doctrine (DOK-trin) — Teaching; specifically, the body of truth God has revealed. Doctrine is not academic theory — it is what we are to believe, live by, and pass on. Paul will use the word again in 3:16 ("profitable for doctrine") and 4:2–3.

- 10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

Chapter 4

Paul charges Timothy to preach the word in season and out of season, warning that the time will come when men will not endure sound doctrine but will heap to themselves teachers having itching ears. Paul declares that he has fought a good fight, finished his course, and kept the faith, and that a crown of righteousness is laid up for him which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give him at that day.

- 9

Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

Do Your diligence to come to me shortly.

■ NAME NOTE — Demas (DEE-mas) — Once named in Philemon (v24) and Colossians (4:14) as one of Paul's "fellow workers"; now Paul writes that Demas "hath forsaken me, having loved this present world." A solemn warning preserved in Scripture by name. The love of this present world has carried away those who once stood with the apostle.

■ NAME NOTE — Crescens (KRES-enz) — A companion of Paul who has gone to Galatia; nothing further is known of him.

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert and longtime companion of Paul (Galatians 2:1); the recipient of the Epistle to Titus; he has gone to Dalmatia (the coastland of modern Croatia).

- 10

For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia.

■ NAME NOTE — Luke (KJV "Lucas") — Greek physician; the close traveling companion of Paul on much of his ministry; author of the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts. At this final hour he is the only one of Paul's companions still at his side: "Only Luke is with me."

■ NAME NOTE — Mark (KJV "Marcus") — Cousin of Barnabas; abandoned Paul on the first missionary journey (Acts 13:13; 15:37–38), which once caused such a sharp division that Paul and Barnabas parted ways. Now Paul calls for him: "he is profitable to me for the ministry." A picture of restoration.

- 11

Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

■ NAME NOTE — Tychicus (TIK-ih-kus) — "fortunate" — A faithful messenger of Paul (Acts 20:4; Eph 6:21; Col 4:7); Paul has now sent him to Ephesus, very possibly carrying this very letter and relieving Timothy so Timothy can come to Rome.

| 13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments. | When you come, bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books — especially the parchments. |
| 14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: | Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm. The Lord will repay Him according to His works. |
| 15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words. | Be on guard against him yourself, for he has greatly opposed our words. |
| 16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge. | At my first defense no one stood with me — all forsook me. May it not be charged against them. |
| 17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. | But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the preaching might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. |
| 18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. | And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me to His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory for ever and ever. Amen. |

■ NAME NOTE — Prisca and Aquila (PRIS-kah; uh-KWILL-uh) — A Christian couple; tentmakers like Paul; close ministry partners across many years (Acts 18; Romans 16:3; 1 Corinthians 16:19). "Prisca" is the formal Latin name of which "Priscilla" is the affectionate form. They are now apparently at Ephesus, where Paul sends his greetings through Timothy.

■ NAME NOTE — Trophimus (TROF-ih-mus) — A Christian from Ephesus (Acts 20:4; 21:29); Paul has left him at Miletum because he was sick. A striking note: even an apostle whose handkerchiefs once healed the sick (Acts 19:12) does not now heal his own beloved companion. Healing is in God's hand, not Paul's.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. Do your diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen. The Lord Jesus Christ be with Your spirit. Grace be with You. Amen.

Titus

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in v1:1 as "a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ."

Date written: c. AD 62–66, between Paul's first and second Roman imprisonments. Titus is one of the three Pastoral Epistles (with 1 Timothy and 2 Timothy), written after Paul's release from his first Roman imprisonment and before his final arrest under Nero.

Written to: Titus, a Greek Christian convert and trusted ministry partner of Paul (Gal 2:1–3; 2 Cor 7–8). Paul had left him on the island of Crete to organize the churches there.

Setting: Paul had evangelized Crete with Titus during a missionary stop not recorded in Acts — probably between his release from his first Roman imprisonment (c. AD 62) and his second arrest (c. AD 67). He left Titus there to appoint elders in every city, correct unruly converts, and combat false teachers — especially Judaizers and those given to "Jewish fables." The letter gives Titus pastoral instructions on church order, qualifications for elders, and how sound doctrine produces godly living.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, when the emperor's rule was hardening toward Christians but no organized empire-wide persecution had yet begun.

Contemporaries: Titus served on Crete while Timothy ministered at Ephesus, Apollos was traveling (3:13), and Paul wrote 1 Timothy in the same window.

Big themes:

- Sound doctrine produces godly living — what we believe shapes how we live
- The qualifications of elders and bishops — character before gifting
- Roles in the household of faith — older men, older women, younger men, younger women, and servants
- The grace of God teaches us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts
- The glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ — one of the New Testament's clearest deity-of-Christ statements
- Salvation by grace through regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, not by works of righteousness
- How to handle heretics in the church — admonish twice, then reject

Key passages: Titus 1:5–9 (elder qualifications); 2:11–14 (grace teaches us); 3:5–7 (regeneration and justification)

How it fits: Titus is the middle Pastoral Epistle and the most concise of the three. With 1 and 2 Timothy, it forms Paul's practical handbook on how Christian churches should be ordered, what doctrine the church must teach, and how godly leaders are recognized and appointed. The doxology in 2:13 — "the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" — is one of the New Testament's clearest deity-of-Christ statements, the Father and the Son named together as the one great God of our salvation.

Chapter 1

Paul writes to Titus, whom he left in Crete to set things in order and ordain elders in every city. He sets forth the qualifications for elders — blameless, not self-willed, not given to wine, holding fast the faithful word — and warns against false teachers, especially those of the circumcision, who subvert whole houses for dishonest gain.

and has now in His own time made known His word through the preaching that was entrusted to me by the command of God our Saviour — to Titus, my own son in the faith we share: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert (Gal 2:3) and a trusted ministry partner of Paul, sent on hard assignments — first to Corinth, now to Crete. He is the recipient of this letter and the namesake of the book.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

- 5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: The reason I left You in Crete was this: that You should set in order the things that are still lacking, and ordain elders in every city, as I directed You.

■ NAME NOTE — Crete (KREET) — A large Mediterranean island south of Greece; the location of Titus's ministry and the setting of this letter.

- 6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly. An elder must be blameless — the husband of one wife, with faithful children who are not accused of wild living or rebellion.
- 7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; For a bishop must be blameless, as God's steward — not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain,
- 8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; but a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, and self-controlled,
- 9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. holding firmly to the faithful word as He has been taught, so that He may be able by sound doctrine both to encourage others and to refute those who contradict it.
- 10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: For there are many who are unruly — empty talkers and deceivers — especially those of the circumcision.
- 11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. Their mouths must be stopped. They are upsetting whole households, teaching things they ought not to teach — and all for dishonest gain.
- 12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. One of their own, a prophet of theirs, said, "The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

■ NAME NOTE — Cretians (KREE-shuns) — Inhabitants of Crete. Paul here quotes one of their own prophets — Epimenides of Crete, who lived in the 6th century BC.

■ WORD NOTE — Reprobate (REP-roh-bate) — failing the test; rejected after examination. A reprobate person or work is one God has tested and found worthless — unfit, disapproved, set aside. Paul says these false teachers claim to know God, but their works prove them rejected.

Chapter 2

Paul instructs Titus to teach sound doctrine: that aged men be sober, aged women reverent, young women love their husbands, and young men be sober-minded. He declares that the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: | But as for You, speak the things that are fitting for sound doctrine. |
| 2 | That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. | Teach the older men to be sober, dignified, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in charity, and in patience. |

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 3 | The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; | Teach the older women in the same way — that they be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not enslaved to much wine, but teachers of good things, |
| 4 | That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, | so that they may train the young women to love their husbands and to love their children, |
| 5 | To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. | to be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, kind, and obedient to their own husbands — so that the word of God is not spoken against. |
| 6 | Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded. | In the same way, urge the young men to be sober-minded. |
| 7 | In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, | In all things, show Yourself to be a pattern of good works. In Your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sincerity, |

- | | |

| 8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. | with sound speech that cannot be condemned — so that the opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about You. |
| 9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again; | Urge servants to be obedient to their own masters and to please them well in all things — not talking back, |
| 10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. | not stealing, but showing all good faithfulness, so that in everything they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour. |
| 11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, | For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, |
| 12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; | teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, |
| 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; | looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ — |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity is not just a bad act — it is the corruption beneath the act, the bent nature that keeps producing evil. Christ redeems us from iniquity itself, not just from individual sins.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. | who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for Himself a peculiar people, zealous for good works. |
| 15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee. | Speak these things, exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you. |

Chapter 3

Paul instructs Titus to remind believers to be subject to authorities, to be gentle, and to be ready for every good work. He declares that God saved us not by works of righteousness but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, and warns Titus to avoid foolish questions, genealogies, and contentions about the law.

■ WORD NOTE — Regeneration (ree-jen-er-AY-shun) — being born again; the new birth. Regeneration is the moment God gives spiritual life to a dead soul. It is not self-improvement; it is resurrection. The Holy Ghost washes us clean and makes us new from the inside out.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a force or an influence — He is a person, fully God, who dwells in every believer and gives power for life and witness.

■ NAME NOTE — Tychicus (TIK-ih-kus) — A Christian from Asia (Acts 20:4); a regular bearer of Paul's letters (Eph 6:21; Col 4:7; 2 Tim 4:12), and possibly the carrier of this letter to Titus.

■ NAME NOTE — Nicopolis (nih-KOP-oh-liss) — "city of victory" — A city in Epirus (northwest Greece) where Paul planned to spend the winter.

Philemon

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in v1 and v19, where he says he writes the letter "with mine own hand" and personally guarantees Onesimus's debt.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Paul's first Roman imprisonment. It was carried alongside Colossians by the same messengers, Tychicus and Onesimus (Col 4:7–9).

Written to: Philemon, a wealthy Christian in Colossae who hosted a house church. The letter is also addressed to his wife Apphia, to Archippus (possibly his son), and to the church meeting in his home.

Setting: Onesimus, a runaway slave belonging to Philemon, had come to Paul in Rome. There Onesimus heard the gospel from Paul and was converted to Christ. Now Paul is sending him back — not in chains, but as a beloved brother — with this letter asking Philemon to receive him no longer as a slave but as a fellow heir of Christ. The whole letter is a single sustained appeal.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, in a Roman world where slaves made up perhaps a third of the empire's population and runaway slaves could legally be killed by their masters.

Contemporaries: Tychicus and Onesimus carried this letter alongside Colossians and Ephesians, and Paul's coworkers Epaphras, Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke were all with him in Rome.

Big themes:

- Christian brotherhood transcends every earthly division — the master-slave relationship is dissolved in Christ
- Substitutionary love — Paul offers to pay Onesimus's debt out of his own pocket, a small picture of what Christ has done for every sinner
- Pastoral persuasion over command — Paul has apostolic authority but chooses to appeal, not to order
- The transforming power of the gospel — Onesimus, whose name means "profitable," was once unprofitable to Philemon; the gospel has now made him truly useful
- Forgiveness and reconciliation — the central pastoral concern of the letter
- The dignity of persons in Christ — Onesimus, a slave by Roman law, is called "a brother beloved" by Paul

Key passages: Philemon 1:6; 1:10–11; 1:15–16; 1:17–19

How it fits: Philemon is the shortest of Paul's letters and the most personal. It is the only NT letter that deals with a single, specific pastoral problem between two named Christians. It demonstrates that the gospel does not preach social revolution from the outside — it dissolves earthly hierarchies from the inside by remaking persons. The letter is a small portrait of the larger doctrine of imputation: Paul says, in effect, "Whatever Onesimus owes, put on my account." That is the gospel in miniature.

Chapter 1

Paul, writing as a prisoner, appeals to Philemon on behalf of his runaway slave Onesimus, who has become a believer under Paul's ministry. He asks Philemon to receive Onesimus no longer as a servant but as a beloved brother in Christ, and pledges to repay anything Onesimus owes.

And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house:

and to our beloved Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in Your house:

■ NAME NOTE — Philemon (fih-LEE-mon) — "kissing, affectionate" — A wealthy Christian in Colossae who hosted a house church; the recipient of this letter and the owner of the runaway slave Onesimus.

■ NAME NOTE — Apphia (AF-ee-ah) — "fruitful" — Almost certainly Philemon's wife; addressed alongside him in the opening greeting.

■ NAME NOTE — Archippus (ar-KIP-us) — "horse-master" — Possibly Philemon's son, or a leader in the Colossian church; called Paul's "fellow soldier" here, and given a charge in Colossians 4:17.

Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

I am Paul — an old man now, and a prisoner of Jesus Christ as well — and I am appealing to You for my son Onesimus, whose father I became while I was in chains. |
|---|--|

■ NAME NOTE — Onesimus (oh-NES-ih-mus) — "profitable, useful" — A runaway slave belonging to Philemon, converted to Christ through Paul's ministry in Rome; Paul plays on the meaning of his name in v11. Paul is sending him back to Philemon with this letter. Early Christian tradition holds that Onesimus later became bishop of Ephesus.

Welcome Him — he is my very heart. I would have liked to keep Him here with me, so that in Your place He could serve me while I am in chains for the gospel. |

- 14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. But I did not want to do anything without Your consent, so that whatever kindness You do would not be forced but would come from Your own free choice.
- 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever; Perhaps the reason He was separated from You for a little while was so that You might have Him back forever —
- 16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? no longer as a servant, but more than a servant — as a beloved brother. He is very dear to me, and how much more to You, both as a fellow man and as a brother in the Lord.
- 17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. So if You count me as a partner, welcome Him as You would welcome me.
- 18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; And if He has wronged You in any way, or owes You anything, charge it to my account.
- 19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. (Though I will not even mention that you owe me your very self.)
- 20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.
- 21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.
- 22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. And one thing more — prepare a guest room for me; for I am trusting that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

23

There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ
Jesus, sends You His greetings —

■ NAME NOTE — Epaphras (EP-ah-fras) — "lovely" — A native of Colossae, almost certainly the founder of the Colossian church (Col 1:7); a fellow prisoner with Paul in Rome; "always laboring fervently for you in prayers" (Col 4:12).

24

Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas,
my fellowlabourers.

and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke — my fellow workers.

■ NAME NOTE — Mark (also Marcus or John Mark) — Cousin of Barnabas; abandoned Paul on the first missionary journey (Acts 13:13; 15:37–38) but was later restored to usefulness in ministry (Col 4:10; 2 Tim 4:11); author of the Gospel of Mark.

■ NAME NOTE — Aristarchus (air-iss-TAR-kus) — "best ruler" — A Macedonian from Thessalonica (Acts 19:29; 20:4); accompanied Paul on the voyage to Rome (Acts 27:2) and shared his imprisonment there.

■ NAME NOTE — Demas (DEE-mas) — A companion of Paul during this imprisonment; later named in 2 Timothy 4:10 as one who forsook Paul, "having loved this present world." A solemn warning preserved in Scripture by name.

■ NAME NOTE — Luke (also Lucas) — Greek physician (Col 4:14); the close traveling companion of Paul on much of his ministry, including the voyage to Rome; author of the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts.

Hebrews

Author: Paul the apostle, traditionally — the KJV title ascribes it to Paul, and the early Eastern church consistently held Pauline authorship. The stylistic differences from Paul's other letters may reflect Luke's hand in translation from Aramaic or Paul's deliberate shift in register for a Jewish audience.

Date written: c. AD 64–68, before the destruction of the temple in AD 70 — the letter speaks of the Levitical sacrifices as ongoing.

Written to: Jewish Christians, likely in Palestine or Rome, who were under pressure to abandon Christianity and return to Judaism.

Setting: A community of Jewish believers is wavering. The temple still stands; the Levitical priesthood still functions; persecution is intensifying. The temptation to revert to the old covenant — with its visible sanctuary, hereditary priests, and ancestral prestige — is real. The author writes to demonstrate that Christ is better in every category.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero in the final years before the Jewish revolt against Rome (AD 66–70), while the Jerusalem temple still stood and its daily sacrifices continued.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote his final letters (1–2 Timothy, Titus) and Peter wrote 1–2 Peter in the same window, while the church at Jerusalem awaited the storm that would soon scatter it.

Big themes:

- Christ is better — better than angels (chs. 1–2), better than Moses (ch. 3), better than Joshua (ch. 4), better than Aaron (chs. 5–7), better sanctuary (chs. 8–9), better sacrifice (ch. 10)
- The great High Priest — Hebrews develops the priesthood of Christ more thoroughly than any other NT book; He is a priest "after the order of Melchisedec," entering the true heavenly sanctuary with His own blood
- The new covenant — Jeremiah 31 is quoted twice (chs. 8, 10) to show that the old covenant was always preparatory; Christ has inaugurated the new covenant that Jeremiah promised
- Faith — chapter 11, the "hall of faith," defines faith as "the substance of things hoped for" and catalogs OT believers who acted on promises they did not receive in their lifetime
- Do not draw back — five solemn warning passages (2:1–4; 3:7–4:13; 5:11–6:12; 10:26–39; 12:25–29) urge the readers not to abandon Christ

Key passages: Heb 1:1–3; 4:12; 7:25; 9:22; 11:1; 12:1–2

How it fits: Hebrews is the NT's commentary on Leviticus. Without Leviticus, much of Hebrews is obscure; without Hebrews, the sacrificial system of Leviticus is incomplete. It is the bridge between OT ceremonial law and NT fulfillment, showing Christ as both the priest and the sacrifice who ended the whole system by completing it.

Chapter 1

The author argues that God, who spoke in times past through the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, who is the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person. He demonstrates the Son's superiority over the angels by citing seven Old Testament passages proving that the Son is worshiped by angels and possesses an eternal throne.

| 3 | Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; | who being the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; |
| 4 | Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. | being made so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. |

| 6 | And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. | And again, when He brings in the firstbegotten into the world, He says, "And let all the angels of God worship Him." |
| 7 | And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. | And of the angels He says, "Who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire." |

- 8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. But to the Son He says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom."

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "sin" is missing the mark, iniquity is the bent nature that keeps pulling you away from God.

- 9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows."
- 10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: And, "You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Your hands."
- 11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; They shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall grow old as does a garment;
- 12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail. and as a vesture shall You fold them up, and they shall be changed; but You are the same, and Your years shall not fail."
- 13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? But to which of the angels did He say at any time, "Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool"?
- 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

sundry — Various; several different kinds — 'sundry times' in Hebrews 1:1 means 'many different ways and occasions.'

Chapter 2

The author warns against neglecting so great a salvation and explains why Christ was made a little lower than the angels — to taste death for every man. He argues that because the children partake of flesh and blood, Christ also took part of the same, that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

| 2 | For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; | For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward, |
| 3 | How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; | how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him, |

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" here is an older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is fully God — not a force or feeling, but a divine Person who lives in believers and empowers them.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not God overlooking sin — it is God paying the full price for sin Himself and then freely giving the benefit to those who trust Him.

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (SANK-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — being made holy; the lifelong process of being set apart for God. At the moment of salvation God declares you holy (justification); then He spends your whole life actually making you holy (sanctification). Both the one who sanctifies and those being sanctified share the same Father.

■ WORD NOTE — Atonement (uh-TONE-ment) — the payment for sin that brings God and man back together. The word literally contains "at-one-ment" — the making of two parties into one. Christ's atonement satisfied God's just anger against sin and restored the broken relationship between God and humanity.

17	Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.	Therefore in all things it behooved Him to be made like His brethren, that He might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18	For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.	For in that He Himself has suffered being tempted, He is able to succor those who are tempted.

Chapter 3

The author argues that Christ is worthy of more glory than Moses, as the builder of the house has more honour than the house itself. He warns against hardening the heart as Israel did in the wilderness, quoting Psalm 95, and urges believers to exhort one another daily lest any be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

1	Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;	Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus,

Chapter 4

The author urges believers to fear lest they fail to enter God's rest, as Israel failed through unbelief, and declares that there remains therefore a rest for the people of God. He declares that the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and exhorts believers to come boldly unto the throne of grace, since we have a great high priest, Jesus the Son of God, who can be touched with the feeling of our infirmities.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. Mercy is not ignoring sin — it is the sovereign choice of God to spare the guilty. At the throne of grace we find both mercy (not getting what we deserve) and grace (getting what we don't deserve).

Chapter 5

The author explains the role of the high priest, showing that Christ did not glorify Himself but was called by God, a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He rebukes the readers for being dull of hearing, still needing milk rather than strong meat, when by this time they ought to be teachers.

Chapter 6

The author urges believers to press on to maturity and delivers a solemn warning that it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, if they fall away, to be renewed again unto repentance. He assures them that God is not unrighteous to forget their work and labour of love, and points to the sure and steadfast anchor of God's oath and promise.

Chapter 7

The author argues that Melchisedec — king of Salem, priest of the most high God — was greater than Abraham, since Abraham paid tithes to him. He demonstrates that Christ's priesthood after the order of Melchisedec is superior to the Levitical priesthood, because He continues for ever with an unchangeable priesthood and is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. Unlike a contract between equals, God's covenants are initiated by Him, guaranteed by Him, and sealed in blood. The new covenant sealed by Christ's blood is better than every covenant that came before it.

Words in this chapter:

similitude — A likeness or visible form — used when God appears in a shape or when something resembles something else closely.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Chapter 8

The author declares that we have a high priest who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched and not man. He argues that Christ is the mediator of a better covenant established on better promises, quoting Jeremiah's prophecy of the new covenant in which God writes His laws on the heart.

Chapter 9

The author describes the earthly tabernacle and its ordinances of worship, then argues that Christ entered not into a man-made sanctuary but into heaven itself, appearing in the presence of God for us. He declares that without shedding of blood there is no remission, and that Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

1	Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.	Then truly the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEMP-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. In the ancient world a slave could be redeemed when someone paid the purchase price to set them free. Christ redeemed us from the slavery of sin by paying with His own blood — not with gold or silver, but with His life.

- 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,
- 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you. saying, "This is the blood of the testament which God has enjoined to you."
- 21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
- 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
- 23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
- 24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; ark of the covenant — The gold-covered wooden chest containing the Ten Commandments — the footstool of God's throne, housed in the tabernacle's Most Holy Place.

Words in this chapter:

mercy seat — The gold lid of the ark of the covenant — the place where the high priest sprinkled blood on the Day of Atonement to make atonement for Israel's sins.

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

candlestick — The golden lampstand in the tabernacle — a seven-branched stand of hammered gold that burned pure olive oil and lit the Holy Place; also called the menorah.

cherubim (CHAIR-uh-bim) — Powerful angelic beings — they guarded the Garden of Eden after the Fall and decorated the ark of the covenant; their appearance in Ezekiel has four faces and four wings.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

shewbread (SHOW-bred) — Twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on the golden table in the Holy Place each Sabbath — representing the twelve tribes before God; also called 'bread of the Presence.'

Chapter 10

The author argues that the law's sacrifices, offered year after year, can never make the worshippers perfect, but by one offering Christ has perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He warns that if we sin wilfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and exhorts believers not to forsake the assembling of themselves together.

Chapter 11

The author defines faith as the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen, then recounts the great cloud of witnesses who lived by faith. By faith Abel offered, by faith Noah built the ark, by faith Abraham obeyed, by faith Moses chose to suffer with the people of God, and all these obtained a good report through faith though they did not receive the promise.

■ WORD NOTE — Only begotten (OH-nlee bih-GOT-ten) — the unique, one-of-a-kind Son; Christ is God's Son in a way that no one else can be. The Greek word "monogenes" points to absolute uniqueness — not just firstborn or highly favored, but the only one of His kind. Isaac was Abraham's only begotten in the sense of the promise; Christ is the only begotten Son of God in an eternal and unrepeatable sense.

Words in this chapter:

only begotten — The unique, one-of-a-kind Son — Christ is God's Son in a way no one else can be; 'begotten' is not about birth but eternal relationship.

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Abel (AY-bel) — Adam and Eve's second son — a shepherd whose offering God accepted; murdered by his brother Cain; in the NT, a model of faith.

Cain (KAYN) — Adam and Eve's firstborn son — he killed his brother Abel and was sent away under God's curse to wander the earth.

Enoch (EE-nok) — A man who 'walked with God' — he did not die but was taken by God; ancestor of Noah; father of Methuselah.

Esau (EE-saw) — Isaac's firstborn son — hairy and a skilled hunter; sold his birthright to Jacob for lentil stew; ancestor of the Edomites.

Gideon (GID-ee-on) — A judge who defeated the Midianites with 300 men — God reduced his army to show the victory was His alone; his name means 'mighty warrior.'

Chapter 12

The author urges believers to run with patience the race set before them, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of their faith, who endured the cross for the joy that was set before Him. He teaches that God chastens those He loves as a father disciplines his children, and warns that if the Israelites did not escape who refused him that spoke on earth, much less shall we escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven.

- 8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. But if You be without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then are You bastards, and not sons.
- 9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: how much more shall we be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence; how much more shall we be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
- 10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. For they truly for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His holiness.
- 11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby. Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who are exercised thereby.

Chapter 13

The author gives practical exhortations: let brotherly love continue, be hospitable to strangers, honor marriage, be content with what you have, and remember those who have taught you the word of God. He declares that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever, and prays that the God of peace would make them perfect in every good work to do His will.

James

Author: James, the brother of the Lord — the leader of the Jerusalem church and one of the "pillars" Paul mentions in Galatians 2:9; martyred c. AD 62 according to Josephus.

Date written: c. AD 45–50, possibly the earliest of all NT letters, written before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15.

Written to: Jewish Christians scattered throughout the Roman world — "the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad" (1:1).

Setting: The early church is young and dispersed by persecution. Jewish believers are carrying their faith into a pagan world. The practical challenges of living as Christians amid poverty, partiality, conflict, and temptation are immediate and pressing.

Where this sits historically: Written from Jerusalem under Claudius before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15 — likely the earliest NT book, less than twenty years after the resurrection.

Contemporaries: Peter and John still ministered in Jerusalem, Paul and Barnabas were on their first missionary journey, and Galatians may have been composed in roughly the same window.

Big themes:

- Faith and works — James's most famous teaching: "faith without works is dead" (2:26); saving faith necessarily produces visible obedience — he does not contradict Paul but completes him, addressing a different error
- Trials and patience — the letter opens with the paradox that trials are occasions for joy, because they produce patience and maturity
- The tongue — chapter 3 contains the NT's most extended teaching on speech; the tongue is a small member but capable of setting a great fire
- Partiality — showing favoritism to the rich over the poor in the assembly is a violation of the royal law of love (ch. 2)
- Prayer — the prayer of a righteous man "availeth much" (5:16); Elijah is the example of what faith-filled prayer can accomplish

Key passages: Jas 1:2–4; 1:22; 2:17; 4:7–8; 5:16

How it fits: James is the NT's book of practical wisdom — the Proverbs of the NT in many ways. It was written to dispersed Jewish Christians who needed not more theology but more obedience. Luther's uneasiness with it ("epistle of straw") reflects a misreading; James and Paul attack different errors and are perfectly compatible. James serves as the NT's answer to mere theoretical faith.

Chapter 1

James instructs believers to count it all joy when they face various trials, for the trying of faith works patience. He teaches that every good and perfect gift comes from the Father of lights, that a man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and that believers must be doers of the word and not hearers only.

Chapter 2

James rebukes favoritism toward the rich in the assembly and teaches that if a man shows respect of persons he commits sin. He argues that faith without works is dead, citing Abraham who was justified by works when he offered Isaac, and Rahab who was justified by works when she received the messengers — for as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. Mercy is not ignoring sin — it is the sovereign choice of God to spare the guilty. James shows here that those who have received God's mercy must pass mercy on to others.

works, and by works was faith made perfect? |

■ WORD NOTE — Imputed (im-PYOO-ted) — credited to your account; charged against or counted for someone. When God imputes righteousness to a believer, He counts Christ's perfect record as belonging to that person. Our sin was imputed to Christ on the cross; His righteousness is imputed to us by faith.

Words in this chapter:

imputed — Credited to your account — our sin charged to Christ, His righteousness counted as ours.

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Chapter 3

James warns about the power of the tongue, declaring that it is a little member that boasts great things, a fire, a world of iniquity that no man can tame. He contrasts the wisdom from above — which is pure, peaceable, gentle, and full of mercy — with the wisdom that is earthly, sensual, and devilish, which produces envy and strife.

| 1 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. 2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. 3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. 4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. 5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! | My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. For in many things we all offend. ■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "sin" is missing the mark, iniquity is the bent nature underneath. James uses it to describe the whole disordered moral world that the tongue draws its power from.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one word — hell — where the original languages use several (Sheol, Hades, Gehenna). Here James uses the word for Gehenna, the Valley of Hinnom near Jerusalem, which was a burning garbage dump and became the picture of fiery, permanent judgment.

■ WORD NOTE — Similitude (sim-ILL-ih-tood) — likeness; the image or resemblance of something. James uses this word to remind us that every human being — no matter their status — bears the likeness of God. To curse a person is to curse someone made in God's image. The KJV preserves this distinctive word where modern translations often say simply "likeness."

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

similitude — A likeness or visible form — used when God appears in a shape or when something resembles something else closely.

Chapter 4

James identifies the source of quarrels and conflicts as the lusts that war within, and declares that friendship with the world is enmity with God. He calls on the proud to humble themselves before the Lord, warns against speaking evil of one another, and rebukes those who boast about tomorrow, saying their life is but a vapour that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? | From where come wars and fightings among you? Come they not from this — even from your lusts that war in your members? |
| 2 | Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. | You lust, and have not; you kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain; you fight and war, yet you have not, because you ask not. |
| 3 | Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. | You ask, and receive not, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it on your lusts. |
| 4 | Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. | You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. |
| 5 | Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? | Do you think that the scripture says in vain, "The spirit that dwells in us lusts to envy"? |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not God overlooking sin — it is God freely giving what we have not earned and could never earn. James shows that God gives more grace to the humble precisely because the humble know they have nothing to offer.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 6 | But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. | But He gives more grace. Therefore He says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." |
| 7 | Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. | Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. |

Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you doubleminded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up. Speak not evil one of another, brethren. Chapter 5

James warns the rich that their riches are corrupted and their gold and silver cankered, and that the hire of the labourers they kept back by fraud cries out to the Lord. He urges patience until the coming of the Lord, calls for prayer in affliction and praise in gladness, and declares that the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and that the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

- | | | |

| 1 | Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. | Come now, you rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come on you. |
| 2 | Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. | Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten. |
| 3 | Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days. | Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. You have heaped treasure together for the last days. |

- 4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. The hire of the laborers who have reaped down your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, cries; and the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.
- 5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter. You have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; you have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
- 6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you. You have condemned and killed the just; and he does not resist you.
- 7 *Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. The husbandman waits for the precious fruit of the earth, and has long patience for it, until He receive the early and latter rain.
- 8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh. Be also patient; establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord draws near.
- 9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest you be condemned; the judge stands before the door.
- 10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
- 11 *Behold, we count them happy which endure. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

- 12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath; but let your yes be yes, and your no, no, lest you fall into condemnation.
- 13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merry? Let him sing psalms.
- 14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord.
- 15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise Him up; and if He have committed sins, they shall be forgiven Him.
- 16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.
- 17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the earth by the space of three years and six months.
- 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.
- 19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him,

- 20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. let him know that he who converts the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

Words in this chapter:

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

1 Peter

Author: Peter the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) as his secretary (5:12) — Simon Peter, the fisherman from Galilee who became the chief of the apostles.

Date written: c. AD 62–64, from Rome ("Babylon" in 5:13), shortly before Nero's persecution began.

Written to: Jewish and Gentile Christians scattered throughout northern Asia Minor — Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia (1:1).

Setting: Persecution is mounting. Believers are experiencing social hostility, slander, and official harassment for their faith. Peter writes to help them understand why they suffer, how to endure it, and what hope lies beyond it.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome (coded as "Babylon" in 5:13) just before or at the outbreak of Nero's persecution following the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Silvanus served as Peter's secretary and Mark was at his side, while Paul ministered between his Roman imprisonments and the Pauline pastoral letters were taking shape.

Big themes:

- A living hope — the resurrection of Christ is the foundation of everything; believers have been "begotten again unto a lively hope" through it (1:3)
- Holiness in exile — believers are "strangers and pilgrims" in this world; their conduct must be distinctly holy among the Gentiles
- Suffering for righteousness — Peter addresses unjust suffering extensively, pointing always to Christ's example; He suffered without retaliating, leaving an example to follow
- Election and priesthood — believers are "a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation" (2:9); the language of Israel's covenant identity is now applied to the church
- Submission — to governing authorities, to masters, in marriage, in the church; the pattern of voluntary submission reflects Christ's own humility

Key passages: 1 Pet 1:3; 1:18–19; 2:9; 2:24; 5:7

How it fits: 1 Peter is the NT's primary letter on suffering — what it means, why it comes to believers, and how to endure it with hope. Written as Nero's persecution was beginning, it was immediately relevant. Its description of the church as a royal priesthood (2:9) has shaped Christian identity for twenty centuries. 2 Peter follows as Peter's final letter, written close to his death.

Chapter 1

Peter writes to the scattered believers, praising God for the living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ and for an inheritance incorruptible, reserved in heaven. He urges them to rejoice even in trials that prove their faith, to be holy in all conduct, and reminds them that they were redeemed not with corruptible things like silver and gold but with the precious blood of Christ.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

sanctification — Being made holy — the lifelong process of being set apart for God and growing to look more like Christ.

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Chapter 2

Peter instructs believers to desire the sincere milk of the word and describes them as living stones built up into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood. He calls them a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, and urges them to submit to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, pointing to Christ who suffered for us, leaving us an example that we should follow His steps.

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 3

Peter instructs wives to be in subjection to their own husbands, adorning themselves with the hidden man of the heart, and commands husbands to dwell with their wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the weaker vessel. He teaches that Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, and urges believers to be always ready to give an answer for the hope that is in them with meekness and fear.

- who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject to Him.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

quickened — Made alive — spiritually brought from death to life by God; used for resurrection and spiritual rebirth.

Noah (NO-ah) — The righteous man God chose to preserve humanity and the animals through the Flood — he built the ark at God's command; his name means 'rest' or 'comfort.'

Sarah (SAIR-ah) — Abraham's wife and mother of Isaac — her name means 'princess'; she laughed when told she would bear a son at age 90.

Chapter 4

Peter urges believers to arm themselves with the mind of Christ, to cease from sin, and not to think it strange when the fiery trial comes as though something unusual were happening. He teaches that judgment must begin at the house of God, and that those who suffer according to the will of God should commit the keeping of their souls to Him in well doing as unto a faithful Creator.

Chapter 5

Peter exhorts the elders to feed the flock of God willingly, not for dishonest gain, and as examples rather than as lords over those in their charge. He commands all believers to be clothed with humility, to cast all their care on God for He cares for them, and to be sober and vigilant because the devil walks about as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.

2 Peter

Author: Peter the apostle — the letter explicitly names "Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1) and claims eyewitness testimony of the Transfiguration (1:16–18). Peter wrote it knowing his death was imminent (1:14).

Date written: c. AD 64–68, shortly before Peter's martyrdom under Nero in Rome.

Written to: The same general audience as 1 Peter, and possibly to specific churches familiar with Paul's letters (3:15–16).

Setting: Peter is nearing death. False teachers have crept into the churches, denying the Lord, mocking the promise of Christ's return, and living licentiously. 2 Peter is his final charge — a warning and an encouragement — written with the urgency of a man who knows he has little time left.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome under Nero's persecution, in the final months before Peter's own martyrdom (traditionally by upside-down crucifixion) on the Vatican Hill.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote 2 Timothy as his own farewell in this same window, Jude composed his closely parallel warning soon after, and Mark was at hand as Peter's gospel scribe.

Big themes:

- Growth in grace — the letter opens with a call to add to faith: virtue, knowledge, self-control, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, charity; spiritual stagnation is not neutrality but blindness
- The certain return of Christ — mockers will say "Where is the promise of his coming?" (3:4); Peter answers that God's timing is not delay but patience, and the Day of the LORD will come like a thief
- False teachers — chapter 2 is an extended and vivid warning against false prophets; their character, methods, and judgment are described in detail
- The authority of Scripture — "holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (1:21); the divine inspiration of the OT prophetic word is explicitly stated
- The new heavens and new earth — the present heavens and earth will be dissolved by fire; the believer looks for "new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (3:13)

Key passages: 2 Pet 1:3–4; 1:20–21; 3:9; 3:13; 3:18

How it fits: 2 Peter is Peter's farewell letter, written in full awareness of his coming death. Its warning about false teachers who twist Scripture (including Paul's letters, 3:16) is directly relevant to every era of church history. Jude draws heavily on 2 Peter, sharing much of its content about false teachers. Together, 2 Peter and Jude are the NT's paired warnings against apostasy.

Chapter 1

Peter urges believers to add to their faith virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and charity, so they will never stumble. He affirms that he was an eyewitness of Christ's majesty on the holy mount, and declares that no prophecy of scripture is of any private interpretation, for holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. In the KJV, "Ghost" is the older English word for "Spirit." The Holy Ghost is God Himself, who dwells in every believer.

Words in this chapter:

Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Chapter 2

Peter warns that false teachers will bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and many will follow their destructive ways. He cites God's judgment on the fallen angels, the ancient world through the flood, and Sodom and Gomorrah as proof that the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When the Bible speaks of damnation, it means the judgment of those who reject God — a real and terrible consequence.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one word — "hell" — for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. It is a real place of divine judgment.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity is the corruption beneath the sinful act — the rot at the root that drives a person to rebel against God.

- 17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved forever.
- 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those who were clean escaped from those who live in error.
- 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption; for by whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
- 20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.
- 21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

- 22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. But it is happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog is turned to His own vomit again," and, "The sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire."

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Balaam (BAY-lam) — A pagan prophet hired by Balak to curse Israel — God turned his curses to blessings; he later advised Israel's enemies to lead Israel into sin.

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Noah (NO-ah) — The righteous man God chose to preserve humanity and the animals through the Flood — he built the ark at God's command; his name means 'rest' or 'comfort.'

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 3

Peter warns that scoffers will come in the last days, asking where is the promise of Christ's coming, but declares that the Lord is not slack concerning His promise — one day is with the Lord as a thousand years. He teaches that the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the earth and its works shall be burned up, so believers should live in holiness as they look for new heavens and a new earth wherein dwells righteousness.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

1 John

Author: John the apostle — the same author as the Gospel of John and Revelation; the letter's vocabulary, themes, and style are unmistakably Johannine, though the author does not name himself.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, late in John's life — contemporary with the Gospel of John and Revelation.

Written to: A broad circle of churches, probably in Asia Minor, where John exercised his final decades of ministry.

Setting: A proto-Gnostic teaching has arisen — likely an early form of Docetism — claiming that Jesus did not come "in the flesh" (that is, that the Christ was a spiritual being who only appeared to have a body). Those who held this view had left the congregations (2:19). John writes to confirm true believers and expose the error.

Where this sits historically: Written late in the reign of Domitian (AD 81–96), a generation after the destruction of Jerusalem, when emperor-worship and early gnostic teaching were both pressing on the churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, composing 2 John, 3 John, and Revelation in the same window, while Cerinthus and other proto-gnostic teachers were active in Ephesus.

Big themes:

- The Incarnation as non-negotiable — "that which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life" (1:1); physical, historical, bodily reality is the test of truth

- God is light — walking in the light means honest fellowship with God and with one another; confessing sin keeps that fellowship open

- God is love — chapter 4's sustained meditation on divine love is the NT's richest; "God is love" (4:8, 16) is one of Scripture's most quoted and most abused statements

- The Comma Johanneum — 5:7–8 contains the explicit Trinitarian statement: "there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one"

- Tests of genuine faith — the letter repeatedly offers tests: do you obey the commandments? Do you love the brothers? Do you confess that Jesus is the Christ come in the flesh?

Key passages: 1 John 1:9; 2:2; 3:1; 4:8; 5:7; 5:13

How it fits: 1 John is the pastoral companion to the Gospel of John — the Gospel asks "Do you believe?", the epistle asks "How do you know your faith is real?" Together they are the fullest NT exploration of what it means to know God. The Comma Johanneum (5:7) is the clearest explicit Trinitarian statement in the NT and belongs to the TR text this edition follows.

Chapter 1

John declares that he and the apostles are eyewitnesses of the Word of life, which was from the beginning, and that their message is that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. He teaches that if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

| 1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; | What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our own eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands — this is what we proclaim concerning the Word of life. |
| 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) | The life was revealed to us. We have seen it and testify to it, and we declare to You the eternal life which was with the Father and was revealed to us. |
| 3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. | We declare to You what we have seen and heard, so that You also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. |
| 4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. | We write this to make our joy complete. |
| 5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. | This is the message we have heard from Him and declare to You: God is light; in Him there is no darkness at all. |
| 6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: | If we claim to have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live out the truth. |
| 7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. | But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin. |

- | | | |

| 8 | If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. | If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. |
| 9 | If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. | If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. |
| 10 | If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. | If we claim we have not sinned, we make Him out to be a liar and His word is not in us. |

Words in this chapter:

fellowship (FEL-oh-ship) — sharing in common life with God and with other believers; walking together in the light propitiation (proh-PISH-ee-AY-shun) — the sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin

Chapter 2

John writes that if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and He is the propitiation for our sins and for the sins of the whole world. He warns against loving the world, for all that is in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — is not of the Father, and he identifies the antichrist spirit already at work in those who deny that Jesus is the Christ.

And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. | My dear children, I write this to You so that You will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense — Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. |

■ WORD NOTE — Propitiation (proh-PISH-ee-AY-shun) — the sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin. When the Bible says Jesus is our propitiation, it means He took the punishment we deserved so that God's wrath against our sin was fully paid.

This is how we know we are in Him. Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did. Dear friends, I am not writing a new command to You, but an old command which You have had from the beginning. This old command is the message You have heard. Yet I am writing You a new command. Its truth is seen in Him and in You, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining. |

- 9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister is still in the darkness.
- 10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light, and there is nothing in them to make them stumble.
- 11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes. But anyone who hates a brother or sister is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. They do not know where they are going, because the darkness has blinded them.
- 12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I am writing to You, dear children, because Your sins have been forgiven on account of His name.
- 13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. I am writing to You, fathers, because You know Him who is from the beginning. I am writing to You, young men, because You have overcome the evil one. I am writing to You, dear children, because You have known the Father.
- 14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. I write to You, fathers, because You know Him who is from the beginning. I write to You, young men, because You are strong, and the word of God lives in You, and You have overcome the evil one.
- 15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them.

- 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. For everything in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — comes not from the Father but from the world.
- 17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever.
- 18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. Dear children, this is the last hour; and as You have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour.
- 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But their going showed that none of them belonged to us.
- 20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. But You have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of You know the truth.
- 21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. I do not write to You because You do not know the truth, but because You do know it and because no lie comes from the truth.
- 22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Who is the liar? It is whoever denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist — denying the Father and the Son.
- 23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Chapter 3

John marvels at the love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called the sons of God, and declares that when Christ appears we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. He teaches that whoever is born of God does not practice sin, and that we should love one another not in word only but in deed and in truth, for hereby we know that we are of the truth.

- | | | |
| 1 | Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. | See what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called the sons of God; therefore the world knows us not, because it knew Him not. |
| 2 | Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. | Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. |
| 3 | And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. | All who have this hope in Him purify themselves, just as He is pure. |
| 4 | Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. | Everyone who sins breaks the law. In fact, sin is lawlessness. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Transgression is not just a mistake — it is a willful act of going beyond the boundary God has drawn.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 5 | And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin. | But You know that He appeared so that He might take away our sins. And in Him is no sin. |
|---|--|--|

- | | |
|---|---|
| 6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. | No one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has either seen him or known Him. |
| 7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. | Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as He is righteous. |
| 8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. | The one who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work. |
| 9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. | No one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in them. They cannot go on sinning, because they have been born of God. |
| 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. | This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not God's child, nor is anyone who does not love their brother and sister. |
| 11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. | For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. |
| 12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. | Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. |
| 13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. | Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. |

- 14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death.
- 15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life living in him.
- 16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.
- 17 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?
- 18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
- 19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in His presence.
- 20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. If our hearts condemn us, we know that God is greater than our hearts, and He knows everything.
- 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God
- 22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And receive from Him anything we ask, because we keep His commandments and do what pleases Him.

- 23

And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

And this is His command: to believe in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as He commanded us.
- 24

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

The one who keeps God's commands lives in Him, and He in them. And this is how we know that He lives in us: We know it by the Spirit He gave us.

Chapter 4

John commands believers to test the spirits, for many false prophets have gone out into the world: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess this is the spirit of antichrist. He declares that God is love, that love is of God, and that perfect love casts out fear — we love Him because He first loved us.

- 1

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: | This is how You can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God. |
| 3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. | And every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God; and this is that spirit of antichrist, of which You have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the world. |
| 4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. | You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. |
| 5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. | They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. |
| 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. | We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us. But whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood. |
| 7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. | Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. |
| 8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. | Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. |
| 9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. | This is how God showed His love among us: He sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. |

■ WORD NOTE — Only Begotten (OH-nlee beh-GOT-ten) — the unique, one-of-a-kind Son; Christ is God's Son in a way no one else can be. "Only begotten" does not mean God made Him — it means Jesus shares the very nature of the Father, unlike any other being.

- 10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
- 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.
- 12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. No one has ever seen God. But if we love one another, God lives in us and His love is made complete in us.
- 13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. This is how we know that we live in Him and He in us: He has given us of His Spirit.
- 14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son to be the Savior of the world.
- 15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in them and they in God.
- 16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them.
- 17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. This is how love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus.
- 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.
- 19 We love him, because he first loved us. We love because He first loved us.

20	If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?	Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen.
21	And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.	And He has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.

Words in this chapter:

only begotten — The unique, one-of-a-kind Son — Christ is God's Son in a way no one else can be; 'begotten' is not about birth but eternal relationship.

Chapter 5

John declares that whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and that this is the victory that overcomes the world — even our faith. He affirms the three that bear record in heaven — the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost — and these three are one, and writes that he has penned these things so that believers may know they have eternal life.

1	Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.	Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves His child as well.

| 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. | This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out His commands. |
| 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. | In fact, this is love for God: to keep His commands. And His commands are not burdensome. |
| 4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. | For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. |
| 5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? | Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God. |
| 6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. | This is the One who came by water and blood — Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit Who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. |
| 7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. | For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. |
| 8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. | And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one. |
| 9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. | We accept human testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which He has given about His Son. |

- 10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself; he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. Whoever believes in the Son of God accepts this testimony. Whoever does not believe God has made Him out to be a liar, because they have not believed the testimony God has given about His Son.
- 11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. And this is that testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.
- 12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. Whoever has the Son has life. Whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.
- 13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. These things have I written to You who believe on the name of the Son of God, that You may know that You have eternal life, and that You may believe on the name of the Son of God.
- 14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.
- 15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. And if we know that He hears us — whatever we ask — we know that we have what we asked of Him.
- 16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. If You see any brother or sister commit a sin that does not lead to death, You should pray and God will give them life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that You should pray about that.
- 17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death. All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

2 John

Author: The apostle John — the same author as the Gospel of John, 1 John, and 3 John. He identifies himself only as "the elder," a title fitting his old age and his position as the last surviving apostle and overseer of the churches of Asia Minor.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, where John spent the final years of his life. The letter is closely connected in time and concern to 1 John and 3 John.

Written to: "The elect lady and her children" — most likely a specific Christian woman and her family, though some readers have understood the phrase as a figurative address to a local church and its members. The companion letter, 3 John, is written to a man named Gaius.

Setting: John writes a brief, urgent note to warn against traveling false teachers — early proto-Gnostic deceivers who denied that Jesus Christ had come in real human flesh. He commands the elect lady not to receive such teachers into her home and not even to greet them, because to welcome them is to share in their evil work. Along the way he rejoices that her children are walking in the truth, and he promises a coming personal visit so that their joy may be full.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus near the end of Domitian's reign, when itinerant teachers carrying gnostic-style christological errors moved between the house churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John wrote 1 John, 3 John, and Revelation in the same period, while Polycarp and Ignatius — who would soon lead the next generation of churches — were already young men.

Big themes:

- Truth and love walk together — not in tension, but as one Christian path
- The test of true doctrine: confessing that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh
- The duty to refuse hospitality and even greeting to false teachers
- The danger of "going beyond" the doctrine of Christ — those who do not abide in it do not have God
- Joy in seeing the next generation walking in truth

Key passages: 2 John 1:4; 1:7; 1:9; 1:10

How it fits: 2 John is the second shortest book in the New Testament (3 John is shorter by Greek word count). Together with 3 John, it shows the aging apostle John still exercising careful pastoral oversight of the churches and standing watch against the proto-Gnostic christological heresy that was already entering the Christian community. It is a small but vital letter, holding the line on the person of Christ in just thirteen verses.

Chapter 1

John writes to the elect lady and her children, rejoicing that some of them walk in truth, and gives the commandment to love one another. He warns that many deceivers have entered the world who do not confess that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, and instructs that anyone who does not bring the doctrine of Christ should not be received into the house or given greeting.

| 1 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth; | From the elder — to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have come to know the truth — |
| 2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever. | because of the truth that lives in us and will be with us forever. |
| 3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. | Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never deserve — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. When God shows mercy, He does not give us what our sins have earned. Grace gives the good we did not deserve; mercy withholds the wrath we did deserve.

| 4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. | It gave me great joy to find some of Your children walking in the truth, just as we received commandment from the Father. |

■ WORD NOTE — Antichrist (AN-tee-krist) — In John's letters, "antichrist" is a category, not only a single end-times figure. Any teacher who denies that Jesus is the Christ, or who denies that He came in the flesh, is an antichrist. John says many such antichrists have already come (1 John 2:18). The denial of the real, bodily coming of Christ is the mark.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God has set; breaking a specific command. Here John speaks of someone who steps beyond the boundaries of Christ's doctrine — going further than what Christ has taught.

3 John

Author: The apostle John — the same John who wrote the Gospel of John, 1 John, and 2 John. He calls himself simply "the elder" (v1), a title fitting his old age and his apostolic authority over the churches of Asia Minor. This is the most personal of his three epistles.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, late in John's life — the same general period as 1 John and 2 John.

Written to: Gaius, a beloved Christian leader. His exact location is unknown — most likely a believer in one of the churches of Asia Minor under John's apostolic care. Gaius is a common name in the NT (Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14), and this Gaius cannot be certainly identified with any of those others.

Setting: John writes a short personal letter commending Gaius for his hospitality to traveling Christian missionaries — "the brethren" who had gone out for the sake of Christ's name. Word of Gaius's love and faithful service had reached John, and he wants Gaius to keep on receiving such men generously. But there is also a problem. In the same church (or a nearby one) a man named Diotrephes has been rejecting John's authority, slandering John with malicious words, refusing to welcome traveling Christians himself, and even excommunicating those members who would have welcomed them. John writes both to encourage Gaius and to put Diotrephes on notice that John will deal with him personally when he arrives. A third man, Demetrius, is commended by John — probably the very man carrying this letter.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus near the end of Domitian's reign, when itinerant gospel preachers traveled the Roman road network between Asian house churches that depended on local hospitality.

Contemporaries: John composed 1 John, 2 John, and Revelation in this same window, and the network of churches founded by Paul a generation earlier was now under John's aging oversight.

Big themes:

- Hospitality as a Christian duty — receiving traveling believers is partnership in the gospel
- Walking in the truth — the greatest joy of a spiritual father is to hear his children walking in truth
- Truth and love together — Christian love is never separated from doctrinal truth
- Servant-leadership versus self-promotion — Diotrephes "loveth to have the preeminence," which is the opposite of Christ
- Apostolic authority — John as "the elder" still oversees the churches in his old age, even by letter
- Imitating good, not evil — the man who does good is of God; the man who does evil has not seen God

- The power of personal example — Gaius, Diotrephes, and Demetrius are three living pictures of the choice every believer faces

Key passages: 3 John 1:4; 1:7; 1:9; 1:11

How it fits: 3 John is the shortest book in the entire New Testament by Greek word count. Together with 2 John, it shows the aged apostle John exercising real apostolic oversight by letter — answering pastoral problems one congregation at a time. It is a rare snapshot of how the early church handled the daily work of traveling ministry, hospitality, and church discipline. And it is a piercing warning. When a church leader begins to love being first more than he loves the truth, the damage reaches far beyond himself. 3 John holds up Gaius and Demetrius to be imitated, and holds up Diotrephes as a warning to every age of the church.

Chapter 1

John writes to Gaius, praising his faithfulness in showing hospitality to traveling brethren who went forth for Christ's name's sake. He condemns Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence and refuses to receive the brethren, and commends Demetrius, who has a good report from all men and from the truth itself.

- 1

The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

- From the elder — to my dearly loved friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

■ NAME NOTE — Gaius (GAY-us) — A common Roman name; this Gaius is a beloved Christian leader receiving the letter. He cannot be certainly identified with the other Gaiuses in the NT (Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14), but is clearly a man well known to John and faithful in the truth.

Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
- Dear friend, above all else I pray that you may prosper and be in good health — just as your soul is prospering.
- 3

For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
- I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and told me about the truth that is in you — how you are walking in the truth.

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.
- I have no greater joy than this: to hear that my children walk in truth.
- 5

Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
- Dear friend, you are acting faithfully in everything you do for the brethren — even when they are strangers to you.

| 7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. | For they went out for the sake of His name, taking nothing from the Gentiles. |

■ NAME NOTE — Diotrephes (dy-OT-rih-fees) — "nourished by Zeus" — A self-promoting leader in a local church who rejected John's apostolic authority, slandered him with malicious words, refused to welcome traveling Christians, and excommunicated members who did welcome them. His name is preserved in Scripture as a permanent warning against loving the first place more than the truth.

And not content with that, he refuses to receive the brethren himself, he stops those who would, and he throws them out of the church. |
| 11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. | Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God. |
| 12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true. | Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone — and by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true. |

■ NAME NOTE — Demetrius (dih-MEE-tree-us) — "belonging to Demeter" — A Christian commended by John, probably a traveling minister and most likely the very man carrying this letter to Gaius. His good character was confirmed by the testimony of all who knew him, by the truth itself, and by John's own apostolic word.

Jude

Author: Jude (Greek "Judas," the same Hebrew name as Judah) — he names himself in v1 as "the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James." He is the half-brother of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3). He is not Judas Iscariot, and not the apostle Judas (Thaddaeus).

Date written: Likely c. AD 65–80. The letter is closely related to 2 Peter in content and theme; whether 2 Peter draws on Jude or Jude on 2 Peter is debated, but the two letters fight the same fight.

Written to: A general Christian audience. The letter does not name a specific church but reads as a circular letter to churches threatened by false teachers who had crept in among them.

Setting: Jude had intended to write a different letter — a calmer treatment of "the common salvation." But circumstances forced him to write urgently. False teachers had slipped into the churches, turning the grace of God into a license for sin, denying Christ, defiling the flesh, and despising authority. Jude marshals Old Testament examples (unbelieving Israel in the wilderness, the fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrha), a prophecy attributed to Enoch, and the warnings of the apostles, to call believers to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero or in the years following his death (the "year of four emperors," AD 68–69), as proto-gnostic libertinism began infiltrating churches across the empire.

Contemporaries: Jude wrote in close parallel with 2 Peter, while the apostles Peter and Paul had recently been martyred and the Jewish revolt that would destroy Jerusalem was unfolding.

Big themes:

- The faith once for all delivered — apostolic doctrine is fixed and final, not to be revised
- Contending for the faith against false teachers who have crept in unawares
- Warning examples from OT history — God has not let rebellion go unpunished
- The certain judgment of apostates and the preserving power of God over true believers
- Mercy and fear toward those caught in error — pulling them out of the fire
- The doxology of the only wise God our Saviour — glory, majesty, dominion, and power

Key passages: Jude 1:3; 1:14–15; 1:20–21; 1:24–25

How it fits: Jude is a small but ferocious epistle — the NT's strongest single-letter warning against false teachers. Its closing doxology is among the most beloved passages in Scripture. With 2 Peter, it stands as the late apostolic-era warning to a church being infiltrated by libertine heretics who used grace as a cover for sin. The call to "earnestly contend for the faith" has marked every generation of Christians who have stood for the truth against compromise.

Chapter 1

Jude urges believers to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints, warning that ungodly men have crept into the church who turn the grace of God into lasciviousness. He cites the judgment on Israel in the wilderness, the fallen angels, and Sodom and Gomorrah, and closes with a doxology to Him who is able to keep them from falling and to present them faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:
- From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James — to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ:

■ NAME NOTE — Jude (JOOD) — Greek "Judas," the same Hebrew name as Judah. Brother of James and half-brother of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3). Not Judas Iscariot, and not the apostle Judas (Thaddaeus). He calls himself simply "the servant of Jesus Christ" — leaving aside any claim to family privilege.

■ NAME NOTE — James (JAYMS) — "James the Just," the brother of Jude and half-brother of Jesus; leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15); author of the Epistle of James. Jude identifies himself by this well-known brother rather than by his own relation to the Lord.

Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.
- May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to You.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. When God shows mercy, He does not give us what our sins deserve.

- 3

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.
- Beloved, I was making every effort to write to You about the salvation we share, when I found it necessary to write to You instead and urge You to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
- For certain men have crept in unnoticed — men long ago marked out for this condemnation — ungodly men who twist the grace of our God into a license for sin, and who deny the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn. Grace means God gives us favor and blessing not because we deserve it, but because of His own love and generosity. The false teachers Jude warns against were taking this gift and turning it into an excuse for sin.

■ WORD NOTE — Lasciviousness (luh-SIV-ee-us-ness) — unrestrained sensual indulgence; shameless wickedness, especially sexual. The false teachers were claiming that God's grace gave them freedom to live however they pleased.

|---|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Egypt (EE-jipt) — The land of Israel's slavery, from which God delivered them through Moses and the ten plagues. Jude's point: even those who came out of Egypt with God's mighty hand on them were destroyed in the wilderness if they refused to believe (1 Cor 10:1–11).

- | | |

| 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. | In the same way, Sodom and Gomorrha and the surrounding cities — which gave themselves over to fornication and went after strange flesh — are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. |

■ NAME NOTE — Sodom and Gomorrha (SOD-um, guh-MOR-ah) — The two cities God destroyed by fire and brimstone for their great wickedness, especially their sexual sin (Gen 19). Lot and his family were rescued before the destruction. Throughout Scripture, Sodom and Gomorrha stand as the proverbial example of God's judgment on the wicked.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 8 | Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. | In the same way, these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of those in high positions. |
| 9 | Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. | Yet even Michael the archangel, when he was contending with the devil and disputing about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against him a railing accusation, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." |

■ NAME NOTE — Michael (MY-kel) — "Who is like God?" — The archangel, the chief of the heavenly host and the defender of God's people (Dan 10:13, 12:1; Rev 12:7). He is the only angel in Scripture called "the archangel." Jude's point: even Michael would not pronounce his own judgment on the devil but called on the Lord to rebuke him — while these false teachers slander everything they do not understand.

| 10 | But these speak evil of those things which they know not: and what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. | But these men speak evil of things they do not understand; and the things they do understand by instinct — like unreasoning animals — in those very things they corrupt themselves. |
| 11 | Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. | Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, they have run greedily after the error of Balaam for profit, and they have perished in the rebellion of Korah. |

■ NAME NOTE — Cain (KAYN) — Adam and Eve's firstborn; he murdered his brother Abel out of envy because God accepted Abel's offering and rejected his own (Gen 4). A type of the false teacher's selfish rage and hatred of true worship.

■ NAME NOTE — Balaam (BAY-lam) — The hireling prophet of Numbers 22–24, who tried to curse Israel for money. Though God forced him to bless Israel, he later led Israel into sin for profit (Num 31:16). A type of the false teacher's greed.

■ NAME NOTE — Korah (KO-rah) — KJV spells him "Core." The Levite who, with Dathan and Abiram, rebelled against the God-given authority of Moses and Aaron; the earth opened and swallowed him alive (Num 16). A type of the false teacher's defiance of God-given authority.

■ NAME NOTE — Enoch (EE-nok) — "Dedicated" — The seventh generation from Adam (Gen 5:18–24); the man who "walked with God, and he was not; for God took him" — taken into glory without seeing death. Jude quotes a prophecy attributed to him about the Lord's coming judgment.

■ WORD NOTE — Sensual (SEN-shoo-ul) — in the KJV's sense, "fleshly," "natural," "worldly" — driven by the appetites of the body rather than the Spirit of God. Not just "sexual," but the whole life of a person who lives only by what the senses crave. These false teachers were natural men, devoid of the Holy Spirit.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. In the KJV, "Ghost" is the older English word for "Spirit." The Holy Ghost is God Himself, who dwells in every believer.

Revelation

Author: John the apostle, exiled on the island of Patmos — the book names its author as "John" four times (1:1, 1:4, 1:9, 22:8); early church testimony from Justin Martyr and Irenaeus onward identifies him as the apostle.

Date written: c. AD 95–96, during the reign of Domitian, who was actively persecuting Christians who refused to worship the emperor.

Written to: Seven specific churches in Asia Minor (Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, Laodicea), and through them the whole church in every age.

Setting: John is in exile on Patmos for his testimony. The Roman empire demands divine honors for the emperor. Christians who refuse are imprisoned, impoverished, and killed. The churches are under pressure to conform, compromise, or apostatize. John receives a vision of ultimate reality — the throne of God, the Lamb who was slain, and the final defeat of every power that opposes God.

Where this sits historically: Written under Domitian (AD 81–96) at the height of his demand to be addressed as "Dominus et Deus" (Lord and God), with John exiled to the Aegean penal island of Patmos.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, having outlived Peter and Paul by some thirty years; he wrote alongside his three epistles, and Clement of Rome would soon address the Corinthian church.

Big themes:

- The sovereignty of God over history — "the Lord God omnipotent reigneth" (19:6); every seal, trumpet, and bowl is opened from the throne; nothing happens outside God's control
- The Lamb who was slain — Jesus appears as a Lamb bearing the marks of slaughter (5:6); His death is the decisive event of history; worship in heaven centers on what He accomplished at the cross
- Letters to seven churches — chapters 2–3 contain Christ's personal assessments of seven real congregations; the commendations and warnings apply to every church in every era
- Judgment on Babylon — Rome (Babylon) and the beast represent every human system that demands what belongs only to God; its fall is certain and complete
- The new creation — chapters 21–22 describe the new Jerusalem descending from heaven; God dwelling with His people; no more death, pain, or curse; the tree of life restored

Key passages: Rev 1:8; 5:9–10; 19:11–16; 20:15; 22:20

How it fits: Revelation is the Bible's final word. It begins where Genesis ends — with a cursed earth — and ends where Genesis began — with God and man in a garden without curse. Every thread of Scripture is gathered: the Lamb of Genesis 22, the Passover of Exodus, the throne of 2 Samuel 7, the new covenant of Jeremiah 31, the dry bones of Ezekiel 37. The last promise is "Even so, come, Lord Jesus."

Chapter 1

John receives the Revelation of Jesus Christ on the island of Patmos and is commanded to write what he sees to the seven churches in Asia. He sees the Son of man standing among seven golden candlesticks, clothed in a garment down to the foot, His countenance like the sun shining in its strength, holding seven stars in His right hand.

| 1 | The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: | This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. God gave it to Him to show His servants what must soon take place. He sent it through His angel to His servant John. |
| 2 | Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. | John testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ — everything He saw. |
| 3 | Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. | Blessed is the one who reads, and blessed are those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it. The time is near. |
| 4 | John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; | John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace and peace to You from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come — and from the seven Spirits before His throne. |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve or earn. Every letter in the New Testament opens with grace — it is the foundation of everything God does for us in Christ.

- 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, And from Jesus Christ — the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood.

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (reh-DEMP-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. Jesus washed us from our sins in His own blood — that is the price He paid to redeem us from sin's power and penalty.

- 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. He has made us kings and priests to God His Father. To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
- 7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him — even those who pierced Him. All families of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.
- 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending," says the Lord, who is and who was and who is to come — the Almighty.

■ NAME NOTE — John (JON) — Hebrew Yohanan, "God is gracious" — The apostle and beloved disciple of Jesus, son of Zebedee, who received this vision while exiled on the island of Patmos. He also wrote the Gospel of John and three epistles.

- 9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. I, John, am your brother and partner in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are in Jesus Christ. I was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.
- 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day. I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet.

- 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. It said, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last." Then it said, "Write in a book what You see, and send it to the seven churches — to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."
- 12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; I turned to see the voice that spoke to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands.
- 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. In the middle of the lampstands stood one like the Son of Man. He was clothed with a robe reaching to His feet, and a golden sash was wrapped around His chest.
- 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; His head and hair were white as wool — as white as snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire.
- 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. His feet were like polished bronze, glowing as if refined in a furnace. His voice was like the sound of many waters.
- 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. In His right hand He held seven stars. Out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword. His countenance was like the sun shining in full strength.
- 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though dead. He laid His right hand on me and said, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last."

- 18

I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

"I am the Living One. I was dead, and now I am alive for ever and ever. Amen. I hold the keys of hell and of death."

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses this one word for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. Here in Revelation it refers to the place of the departed under Christ's authority.

- 19

Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

"Write the things You have seen, the things that are, and the things that will take place after this."
- 20

The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

"Here is the mystery of the seven stars You saw in My right hand and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches."

Words in this chapter:

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

Ephesus (EF-eh-sus) — A major city on the western coast of Asia Minor (modern Turkey) — home to the temple of Diana (Artemis); Paul planted a church here that he led for three years.

Patmos (PAT-mos) — A small rocky island in the Aegean Sea — where the apostle John was exiled and received the Revelation from Christ.

Chapter 2

Christ dictates letters to four churches: Ephesus, which has left its first love; Smyrna, which will suffer tribulation ten days but must be faithful unto death; Pergamos, which dwells where Satan's seat is but tolerates false teaching; and Thyatira, which suffers the woman Jezebel to teach and seduce His servants.

Words in this chapter:

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

candlestick — The golden lampstand in the tabernacle — a seven-branched stand of hammered gold that burned pure olive oil and lit the Holy Place; also called the menorah.

Balaam (BAY-lam) — A pagan prophet hired by Balak to curse Israel — God turned his curses to blessings; he later advised Israel's enemies to lead Israel into sin.

Balak (BAY-lak) — King of Moab who hired Balaam to curse Israel — his name means 'devastator'; he feared Israel after their defeat of the Amorites.

Jezebel (JEZ-eh-bel) — Ahab's Phoenician queen — aggressively promoted Baal worship and persecuted the prophets of God; killed Naboth to take his vineyard; eaten by dogs as prophesied.

Chapter 3

Christ dictates letters to three churches: Sardis, which has a name that it lives but is dead; Philadelphia, which has kept His word and will be kept from the hour of temptation that will come upon all the world; and Laodicea, which is lukewarm — neither cold nor hot — and will be spewed out of His mouth unless it repents.

■ NAME NOTE — Sardis (SAR-dis) — The capital city of the ancient kingdom of Lydia, famed for its wealth. The church there had a reputation for being alive but was spiritually dead, complacent and comfortable in its prosperity.

■ NAME NOTE — Philadelphia (fil-ah-DEL-fee-ah) — "brotherly love" — A city in Asia Minor lying on the road to the east. The church there is one of only two that receives no rebuke from Christ, praised for keeping His word faithfully despite limited strength.

| 10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. | "Because you have kept My word about patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world, to test those who live on the earth." |
| 11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. | "I am coming soon. Hold fast to what you have, so that no one takes your crown." |

- 12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name. "The one who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of My God. He will never leave it. I will write on Him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God — the new Jerusalem, which comes down from heaven from My God — and I will also write on Him My new name."
- 13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. "Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches."
- 14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God; "To the angel of the church in Laodicea write: These things are said by the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of God's creation."
- NAME NOTE — Laodicea (lay-OD-ih-SEE-ah) — A wealthy city in Asia Minor known for its banking, textile industry, and eye medicine. The church there is the only one that receives no praise — condemned as lukewarm, proud of its wealth but spiritually destitute.
- 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. "I know Your works — you are neither cold nor hot. I wish You were cold or hot."
- 16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. "Because You are lukewarm — neither hot nor cold — I am about to spit You out of my mouth."
- 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: "You say, 'I am rich; I have grown wealthy and need nothing.' But You do not know that You are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked."

Chapter 4

John sees a door opened in heaven and a throne set in heaven with One sitting on it, surrounded by twenty-four elders and four living creatures. The living creatures cry "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come," and the elders cast their crowns before the throne, worshiping Him who lives for ever and ever.

| 1 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. | After this I looked, and there before me was an open door in heaven. The first voice I had heard — like a trumpet — spoke to me again: "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." |
| 2 And immediately I was in the Spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. | At once I was in the Spirit. There before me was a throne in heaven, and Someone was seated on the throne. |
| 3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. | The One seated there looked like jasper and carnelian. Around the throne was a rainbow that looked like an emerald. |
| 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. | Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had golden crowns on their heads. |
| 5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. | From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and thunder. Before the throne seven lamps were blazing — these are the seven Spirits of God. |
| 6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. | Before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center around the throne were four living creatures, covered with eyes in front and behind. |

7	And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.	The first living creature was like a lion. The second was like a calf. The third had a face like a man. The fourth was like a flying eagle.
8	And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.	Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around and inside. Day and night they never stop saying: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come."
9	And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,	Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to Him who sits on the throne and lives for ever and ever,
10	The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,	The twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:
11	Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.	"You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power, for You created all things. By Your will they were created and exist."

Chapter 5

John sees a book sealed with seven seals in the right hand of Him who sits on the throne, and no man in heaven or earth is found worthy to open it. The Lamb who was slain — the Lion of the tribe of Judah — takes the book, and all heaven erupts in worship: "Thou art worthy...for Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy blood."

| 1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. | I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written on the inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals. |
| 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? | A mighty angel proclaimed with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" |
| 3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. | No one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or look into it. |
| 4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. | I wept greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look into it. |
| 5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. | Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and its seven seals." |

- 6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. Then I saw, in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders, a Lamb standing — it looked as though it had been slain. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth.
- 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. He came and took the scroll from the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.
- 8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. When He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
- 9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And they sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book and to open the seals thereof; for You were slain, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,
- 10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. and have made us to our God kings and priests, and we shall reign on the earth."
- 11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels surrounding the throne, the living creatures, and the elders. Their number was ten thousand times ten thousand — thousands upon thousands.

Chapter 6

The Lamb opens six seals. The first four bring the four horsemen — conquest, war, famine, and death. The fifth seal reveals the souls of martyrs under the altar crying, "How long, O Lord?" The sixth seal brings a great earthquake, the sun turns black, the moon becomes as blood, and the kings of the earth hide themselves, crying to the mountains to fall on them.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see. | I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come." |
| 2 | And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. | I looked, and there before me was a white horse. Its rider held a bow. A crown was given to him, and he rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest. |
| 3 | And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. | When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come." |
| 4 | And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. | Another horse came out — a fiery red one. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth and to make men kill one another. A great sword was given to him. |
| 5 | And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. | When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come." I looked, and there before me was a black horse. Its rider was holding a pair of scales in His hand. |
| 6 | And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. | Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's wages, and three quarts of barley for a day's wages. Do not damage the oil and the wine." |

- 7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come."
- 8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. I looked, and there before me was a pale horse. Its rider's name was Death, and Hell followed close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth — to kill by sword, famine, plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.
- 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony they had maintained.
- 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? They cried out with a loud voice, "How long, O Lord — holy and true — will You wait before You judge and avenge our blood on those who live on the earth?"
- 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Each of them was given a white robe. They were told to wait a little longer, until the full number of their fellow servants and brothers who were to be killed as they had been killed was completed.
- 12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair. The whole moon turned blood red.

| 13 | And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. | The stars of the sky fell to earth, like figs dropping from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind. |
| 14 | And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. | The sky receded like a scroll rolling up, and every mountain and island was moved from its place. |
| 15 | And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; | The kings of the earth, the great men, the rich, the military commanders, the mighty, and every slave and free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. |
| 16 | And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: | They called to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!" |
| 17 | For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand? | "The great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?" |

Words in this chapter:

seal (SEEL) — a mark of authority that secures a scroll; the Lamb opens the seven seals, each releasing a judgment on the earth wrath (RAWTH) — God's holy anger against sin; the great day of His wrath has come

Chapter 7

John sees four angels holding back the winds of the earth until one hundred forty-four thousand from the twelve tribes of Israel are sealed on their foreheads. He then sees a great multitude that no man can number, out of every nation and tongue, standing before the throne in white robes, who have come out of great tribulation and washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb.

- | | |

| 1 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. | After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so no wind would blow on the land, the sea, or any tree. |
| 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, | Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, holding the seal of the living God. He called out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: |
| 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. | "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." |
| 4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. | Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of the children of Israel. |
| 5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand. | From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed. From the tribe of Reuben 12,000. From the tribe of Gad 12,000. |

- 7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand. From the tribe of Simeon 12,000. From the tribe of Levi 12,000. From the tribe of Issachar 12,000.
- 8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. From the tribe of Zabulon 12,000. From the tribe of Joseph 12,000. From the tribe of Benjamin 12,000.
- 9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; After this I looked, and there was a great crowd that no one could count — from every nation, every family, every people and language. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.
- 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. They cried out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God Who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
- 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,
- 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. Saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God for ever and ever. Amen."

Chapter 8

The Lamb opens the seventh seal, and there is silence in heaven for about half an hour. Seven angels are given seven trumpets. The first four trumpets bring hail and fire mixed with blood, a burning mountain cast into the sea, a great star called Wormwood that poisons the waters, and darkness on a third of the sun, moon, and stars.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. | When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. |
| 2 | And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets. | I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. |
| 3 | And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. | Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer. He was given a great quantity of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne. |

- | | | |
| 4 | And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand. | The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the angel's hand. |
| 5 | And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. | Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth. There came thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake. |
| 6 | And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. | Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. |
| 7 | The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. | The first angel sounded his trumpet. Hail and fire mixed with blood were hurled down on the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up. |
| 8 | And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; | The second angel sounded his trumpet. Something like a huge mountain blazing with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood. |
| 9 | And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. | A third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. |
| 10 | And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; | The third angel sounded his trumpet. A great star blazing like a torch fell from the sky on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. |

| 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. 13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound! | The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters turned bitter like wormwood, and many people died from the waters, because they had turned bitter. The fourth angel sounded his trumpet. A third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars — so that a third of them turned dark. A third of the day had no light, and a third of the night as well. I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midair call out with a loud voice: "Woe! Woe! Woe to the people who live on the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!" |

The fifth trumpet opens the bottomless pit, and locusts with the power of scorpions torment men for five months — their king is the angel of the bottomless pit called Abaddon. The sixth trumpet releases four angels bound at the great river Euphrates, and an army of two hundred thousand thousand horsemen kills a third part of men, yet the rest do not repent of their idolatry or murders.

- | | | |
| 1 | And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. | The fifth angel sounded his trumpet. I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit. |
| 2 | And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. | When he opened the bottomless pit, smoke rose from it like smoke from a gigantic furnace. The sun and sky were darkened by the smoke from the pit. |
| 3 | And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. | Out of the smoke came locusts down on the earth. They were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth. |
| 4 | And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. | They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. |
| 5 | And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. | They were not given power to kill them, but only to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a person. |
| 6 | And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. | During those days people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them. |

- 7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore what looked like golden crowns. Their faces were like human faces.
- 8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.
- 9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. They had chests like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle.
- 10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. They had tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.
- 11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. They had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek his name is Apollyon.
- 12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. The first woe is past. Two other woes are still to come.
- 13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, The sixth angel sounded his trumpet. I heard a voice coming from the four horns of the golden altar before God.
- 14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

- 15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. The four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour, day, month, and year were released to kill a third of mankind.
- 16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million. I heard their number.
- 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. In my vision the horses and their riders wore breastplates of fiery red, dark blue, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions. Out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.
- 18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues — the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came out of their mouths.
- 19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt. The horses' power to harm was in their mouths and in their tails. Their tails were like snakes, with heads that could inflict injury.
- 20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk: The rest of mankind — those not killed by these plagues — still did not repent of the works of their hands. They did not stop worshipping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood — which cannot see, hear, or walk.
- 21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts. They did not repent of their murders, their sorceries, their fornication, or their thefts.

Chapter 10

John sees a mighty angel come down from heaven with a little book open in his hand, setting his right foot on the sea and his left on the earth. The angel swears by Him who lives for ever that there shall be time no longer, and when the seventh angel sounds, the mystery of God shall be finished. John eats the little book, which is sweet in his mouth but bitter in his belly.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: | Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his legs were like pillars of fire. |
| 2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth, | He was holding in his hand a little scroll, open. He placed his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. |
| 3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. | He called out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. When he called out, the seven thunders sounded with their voices. |

- 4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write. But I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down."
- 5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven.
- 6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: He swore by Him who lives for ever and ever — who created heaven and all that is in it, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it — and said, "There will be no more delay."
- 7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. "In the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as He announced to His servants the prophets."
- 8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. Then the voice I had heard from heaven spoke to me again: "Go, take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."
- 9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it. It will make your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey."

| 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. 11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings. | I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour. Then I was told, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings." |

John is told to measure the temple of God, and two witnesses prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days. The beast from the bottomless pit kills the witnesses, but after three and a half days the Spirit of life from God enters them and they ascend to heaven. The seventh trumpet sounds, and great voices in heaven declare, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ."

- | | |

| 1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. | I was given a reed like a measuring rod. The angel stood and said, "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count those who worship there." |
|--|--|

- 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. "But do not measure the outer court — leave it out. It has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample the holy city for forty-two months."
- 3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. "I will give power to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth."
- 4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.
- 5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. Anyone who wants to harm them must be killed in this way.
- 6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. They have power to shut up the sky so that no rain will fall during the time they are prophesying. They have power to turn the waters to blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they choose.
- 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit will make war against them and overcome them and kill them.
- 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city — which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt — where also their Lord was crucified.

- 9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. For three and a half days, people from every nation, family, language, and people will stare at their bodies and refuse to allow them to be buried.
- 10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. The people of the earth will celebrate and be glad. They will send each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.
- 11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them. They stood on their feet, and great terror struck those who saw them.
- 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. Then they heard a loud voice from heaven calling to them, "Come up here." They went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched.
- 13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. At that same hour there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.
- 14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. The second woe has passed. The third woe is coming soon.
- 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. The seventh angel sounded His trumpet. Great voices in heaven said, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever."

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 12

John sees a woman clothed with the sun who brings forth a man child destined to rule all nations with a rod of iron, and the child is caught up to God and His throne. A great red dragon — that old serpent called the Devil and Satan — is cast out of heaven, and Michael and his angels war against him. The dragon persecutes the woman, who is given wings to fly into the wilderness for a time, times, and half a time.

| 1 | And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: | A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. |
| 2 | And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. | She was pregnant and cried out in the pain of labor, about to give birth. |
| 3 | And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. | Then another sign appeared in heaven: a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads. |
| 4 | And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. | His tail swept a third of the stars from the sky and hurled them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born. |
| 5 | And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. | She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was caught up to God and to His throne. |

|----|--|---|
| 6 | And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. | The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared for her by God, where she would be cared for for 1,260 days. |
| 7 | And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, | Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. |
| 8 | And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. | But the dragon was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. |
| 9 | And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. | The great dragon was hurled down — that ancient serpent called the Devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him. |
| 10 | And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. | Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ. For the accuser of our brothers has been hurled down — He who accused them before our God day and night. |
| 11 | And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. | They overcame Him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony. They did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death. |
| 12 | Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. | Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you. He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short." |

| 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. 14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. | When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent's reach. Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent. But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. Then the dragon was furious with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring — those who keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus Christ. |

John sees a beast rise out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon gives his power and great authority, and all the world wonders after the beast. A second beast rises out of the earth, performing great signs and causing all to receive the mark of the beast — 666 — in their right hand or forehead, without which no man can buy or sell.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. | I stood on the sand of the seashore. Then I saw a beast rising out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on its horns, and on each head a name that blasphemed God. |
| 2 | And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. | The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority. |
| 3 | And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. | One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was filled with wonder and followed the beast. |
| 4 | And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? | People worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast and asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can wage war against it?" |

- 5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. The beast was given a mouth to speak proud words and blasphemies, and to exercise its authority for forty-two months.
- 6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. It opened its mouth to blaspheme God and to slander His name and His dwelling place and those who live in heaven.
- 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. It was given power to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. And it was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation.
- 8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast — all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb Who was slain from the foundation of the world.
- 9 If any man have an ear, let him hear. Whoever has ears, let them hear.
- 10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. "If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity they will go. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, with the sword they will be killed." This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of God's people.
- 11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. Then I saw a second beast, coming out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon.
- 12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. It exercised all the authority of the first beast on its behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.

- | | |
| 13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, | And it performed great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to the earth in full view of the people. |
| 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. | Because of the signs it was given power to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived the inhabitants of the earth. It ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. |
| 15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. | The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. |
| 16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: | It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, |
| 17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. | so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name. |
| 18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six. | This calls for wisdom. Let the person who has insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. That number is 666. |

John sees the Lamb standing on mount Sion with the hundred forty-four thousand who have His Father's name written on their foreheads. Three angels fly through heaven: the first proclaims the everlasting gospel, the second declares that Babylon is fallen, and the third warns that whoever receives the mark of the beast will drink of the wine of the wrath of God. The Son of man thrusts in His sickle and the earth is reaped.

- | | |
|---|---|
| ¹ And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. | Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 who had His Father's name written on their foreheads. |
| ² And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: | And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder. The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps. |
| ³ And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. | They sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. |

- 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they remained virgins. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They were purchased from among mankind and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb.
- 5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. And in their mouth was found no guile, for they are without fault before the throne of God.
- 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Then I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth — to every nation, tribe, language and people.
- 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. He said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water."
- 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries."
- 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives its mark on their forehead or hand,

- 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: they, too, will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of His wrath. They will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.
- 11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. And the smoke of their torment will rise for ever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name."
- 12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. This calls for patient endurance on the part of the people of God Who keep His commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.
- 13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them."
- 14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man with a crown of gold on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.
- 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. Then another angel came out of the temple and called in a loud voice to Him who was sitting on the cloud, "Take Your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe."

|---|---|
| 16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs. | So He who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested. Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and He too had a sharp sickle. Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to Him who had the sharp sickle, "Take Your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe." The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath. They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses' bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia. |

Words in this chapter:

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 15

John sees seven angels having the seven last plagues, in which the wrath of God is filled up. Those who have gotten victory over the beast stand on a sea of glass mingled with fire, singing the song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. The temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven is opened, and the seven angels are given seven golden vials full of the wrath of God.

For You alone are holy. All nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been made manifest." |
| 5 And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: | After this I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. |

6	And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.	Out of the temple came the seven angels carrying the seven plagues. They were clothed in pure white linen and wore golden sashes around their chests.
7	And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.	Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, Who lives for ever and ever.
8	And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man could enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.	The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power. No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

The seven vials of God's wrath are poured out. The first brings sores, the second and third turn the sea and rivers to blood, the fourth scorches men with fire, the fifth brings darkness on the beast's kingdom, the sixth dries up the Euphrates to prepare the way for the kings of the east, and the seventh brings the greatest earthquake in history and the fall of great Babylon.

1	And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.	I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath on the earth."

- 2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth. Painful, ugly sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.
- 3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. It turned to blood like that of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died.
- 4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they turned to blood.
- 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. I heard the angel of the waters say, "You are righteous, O Lord — You who are, and were, and are to come — because You have judged these things."
- 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. They shed the blood of saints and prophets, so You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it.
- 7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. I heard another voice from the altar say, "Yes, Lord God Almighty — Your judgments are true and righteous."
- 8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire.
- 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. People were seared by intense heat, and they cursed the name of God, Who had authority over these plagues. They refused to repent and give Him glory.

- 10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in agony
- 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. and cursed the God of heaven because of their pain and their sores. They refused to repent of what they had done.
- 12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water dried up to prepare the way for the kings of the east.
- 13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
- 14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. These are demonic spirits that perform signs. They go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them for battle on the great day of God Almighty.
- 15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. "I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays alert and keeps his clothes ready, so he will not go naked and be exposed to shame."
- 16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. They were gathered to the place called Armageddon in the Hebrew language.
- 17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came from the throne in the temple of heaven, saying, "It is done!"

Chapter 17

John sees the great whore sitting on a scarlet-colored beast with seven heads and ten horns, arrayed in purple and scarlet, holding a golden cup full of abominations, with the name MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS written on her forehead. The angel explains that the seven heads are seven mountains and seven kings, and the ten horns will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb shall overcome them.

| 1 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: | One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke to me. "Come," he said, "I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters." |
| 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. | The kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the people of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality. |
| 3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. | He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast. The beast was covered with names of blasphemy and had seven heads and ten horns. |
| 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: | The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with the abominations and filth of her immorality. |
| 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. | On her forehead was written a name — a mystery: BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. |

- 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.
- 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides — the beast with seven heads and ten horns."
- 8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. The beast you saw once was, now is not, and will come up out of the bottomless pit before going to his destruction. The people of the earth — those whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world — will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was, is not, and yet will come.
- 9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. This calls for a mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.
- 10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is reigning now, and the other has not yet come. When he does come, he must remain only a short while.
- 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. The beast who once was, and now is not, is himself an eighth king. He belongs to the seven, and he goes to his destruction.

| 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. 14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. 15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. 17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. 18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth. | The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom. They will receive authority as kings for one hour together with the beast. These kings all share one purpose, and they will give their power and authority to the beast. They will wage war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them — for He is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those with Him are called, chosen, and faithful. Then the angel said to me, "The waters where the prostitute sits are peoples, crowds, nations, and languages." The ten horns and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, eat her flesh, and burn her with fire. God has put it in their hearts to carry out His purpose. They agreed to give their power to the beast until God's words are fulfilled. The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth. |

An angel announces the fall of Babylon the great, which is become the habitation of devils and the hold of every foul spirit. A voice from heaven calls God's people to come out of her, and the merchants and kings of the earth weep and mourn over her destruction, for in one hour so great riches is come to nought. Heaven and the holy apostles and prophets rejoice, for God has avenged them on her.

- | | | |
| 1 | And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. | After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was lit up by his glory. |
| 2 | And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. | He cried out in a mighty voice: "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a home for demons and a haunt for every unclean spirit — a cage for every unclean and hateful bird." |
| 3 | For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. | All the nations drank the wine of the wrath of her immorality. The kings of the earth committed immorality with her. The merchants of the earth grew rich from the power of her excessive pleasures. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. | I heard another voice from heaven say: "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins or receive any of her plagues." |
| 5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. | Her sins have piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. |
| 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. | Pay her back as she has paid others. Give her double for what she has done. In the cup she mixed for others, pour her double the amount. |
| 7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. | Give her the same measure of torment and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself. In her heart she says, "I sit as queen. I am not a widow, and I will never mourn." |
| 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. | Therefore her plagues will come in a single day — death, mourning, and famine. She will be burned up with fire, for mighty is the Lord God Who judges her. |
| 9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, | The kings of the earth who committed immorality and shared in her luxury will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning. |
| 10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. | They will stand far off in fear of her torment and cry out: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, Babylon, that mighty city! In just one hour your judgment has come!" |

- 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their goods any longer —
- 12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, goods of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet cloth; every kind of citron wood; articles of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble;
- 13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine, olive oil, fine flour, and wheat; cattle, sheep, horses, and carriages; and human lives — the souls of people.
- 14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The fruit you craved is gone from you. All your luxury and splendor are lost to you — you will never find them again.
- 15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, The merchants who sold these things and grew rich from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment, weeping and mourning.
- 16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! They will cry out: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls!"

- 17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, In just one hour all that wealth has been destroyed! Every sea captain, every passenger, every sailor, and everyone who works on the sea stood far off
- 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning: "What city was ever like this great city?"
- 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich from her wealth! In just one hour she has been destroyed!"
- 20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets! God has judged her for the way she treated you.
- 21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying: "With this same violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again."
- 22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; The music of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters, will never be heard in you again. No craftsman of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again.

| 23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. | The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voice of a bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again. Your merchants were the great men of the earth, and all the nations were deceived by your sorceries. |
| 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. | In her was found the blood of prophets and saints — and of all who have been killed on the earth. |

A great multitude in heaven cries "Alleluia!" and the marriage supper of the Lamb is come. John sees heaven opened, and One called Faithful and True rides forth on a white horse — His name is THE WORD OF GOD, and on His vesture and thigh is written KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. The beast and the false prophet are cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

| 1 | And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God: | And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, to the Lord our God; |
| 2 | For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. | "His judgments are true and righteous. He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality. He has avenged the blood of His servants shed by her hand." |
| 3 | And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. | And again they said, "Alleluia!" And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. |
| 4 | And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. | And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God Who sat on the throne, saying, "Amen, Alleluia!" |
| 5 | And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. | A voice came from the throne, saying: "Praise our God, all You His servants, you who fear him, both small and great!" |
| 6 | And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. | And I heard as it were the voice of a great crowd, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For the Lord God omnipotent reigns!" |
| 7 | Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. | "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory! For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has made herself ready." |
| 8 | And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. | She was given fine linen, bright and clean, to wear. The fine linen stands for the righteous deeds of the saints. |

- 9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. Then the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb!" He added, "These are the true words of God."
- 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. I fell at His feet to worship Him, but He said to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with You and Your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
- 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. I saw heaven standing open, and there before me was a white horse. Its rider is called Faithful and True. He judges and makes war in righteousness.
- 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has a name written on Him that no one knows but himself.
- 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. He is dressed in clothing dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.
- 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. The armies of heaven followed Him on white horses, dressed in fine linen, white and clean.
- 15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. Out of His mouth comes a sharp sword to strike down the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the fierce wrath of God Almighty.
- 16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. On His clothing and on His thigh is written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

- 17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come! Gather together for the great supper of God."
- 18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. "Come and eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men — the flesh of horses and their riders — the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."
- 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage war against the rider on the horse and His army.
- 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. The beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed signs on his behalf — the signs by which he had deceived those who received the mark of the beast and worshiped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.
- 21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. The rest were killed by the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse. All the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Words in this chapter:

Alleluia (al-eh-LOO-yah) — Greek transliteration of Hebrew Hallelujah, 'Praise the LORD' — a shout of praise using God's name Yah (short for YHWH); KJV preserves the Greek form in Revelation.

Chapter 20

An angel binds Satan for a thousand years and casts him into the bottomless pit, and the saints reign with Christ for the thousand years. After the thousand years Satan is loosed, deceives the nations, and gathers them to battle, but fire comes down from God out of heaven and devours them, and the devil is cast into the lake of fire. John sees the great white throne judgment: the dead are judged according to their works, and whosoever is not found written in the book of life is cast into the lake of fire.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. | I saw an angel come down from heaven. He held the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in His hand. |
| 2 | And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, | He seized the dragon — that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan — and bound him for a thousand years. |
| 3 | And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. | He threw him into the bottomless pit, shut it, and sealed it over him so he could no longer deceive the nations. This would last until the thousand years were complete. After that, he must be released for a short time. |

- 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God. They had not worshipped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.
- 5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection.
- 6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. Blessed and holy is everyone who has part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them. They will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.
- 7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison.
- 8 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. He will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth — Gog and Magog — and gather them for battle. Their number will be like the sand of the sea.
- 9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them. They spread out across the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people and the beloved city. But fire came down from God out of heaven and consumed them.

Words in this chapter:

dragon — In the OT (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), 'dragon' is often used for a great sea-serpent and as a symbol of Egypt or chaos; in Revelation, the dragon is Satan himself.

Chapter 21

John sees a new heaven and a new earth, and the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. God shall dwell with His people, and He shall wipe away all tears from their eyes — there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, nor pain. The city has no need of the sun or the moon, for the glory of God lightens it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

|---|--|---|
| 1 | And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. | I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. |
| 2 | And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. | I, John, saw the holy city — the new Jerusalem — coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. |
| 3 | And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. | I heard a loud voice from heaven say: "The tabernacle of God is now with men. He will live with them, and they will be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God." |

■ WORD NOTE — Tabernacle (TAB-er-nak-ul) — the tent where God's presence dwelt among His people in the wilderness. Here in Revelation the word takes on its ultimate meaning: God will personally dwell with His people forever, in a way the old tent could only point to.

- 4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, sorrow, crying, or pain. All those former things will have passed away.
- 5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. He who sat on the throne said, "I am making all things new." He said to me, "Write this down, for these words are true and faithful."
- 6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He said to me, "It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. To anyone who is thirsty, I will give freely from the fountain of the water of life."
- 7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. The one who overcomes will inherit all things. I will be his God, and He will be My son.
- 8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars — their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone. This is the second death.
- 9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

- 10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.
- 11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; It shone with the glory of God. Its light was like that of a most precious stone — like a jasper, clear as crystal.
- 12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: It had a great and high wall with twelve gates. At the gates were twelve angels, and the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel were written on the gates.
- 13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. On the east were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.
- 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
- 15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.
- 16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. The city was laid out as a square — its length the same as its width. He measured the city with the rod: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, width, and height were all equal.
- 17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. He measured the wall as well: one hundred and forty-four cubits, by human measurement, which the angel used.

- 18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. The wall was built of jasper, and the city itself was pure gold, clear as glass.
- 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The foundations of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,
- 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolyte, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprasus, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.
- 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. The twelve gates were twelve pearls — each gate made from a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.
- 22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.
- 23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. The city has no need of the sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp.
- 24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. The nations of those who are saved will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory and honor into it.
- 25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there. Its gates will never be shut by day — and there will be no night there.

- | | | |
| 26 | And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. | The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it. |
| 27 | And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. | Nothing that defiles will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is shameful or false. Only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life will enter. |

John sees the pure river of the water of life proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, and the tree of life bearing twelve manner of fruits, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations. Christ declares, "I come quickly," and the Spirit and the bride say, "Come." A solemn warning is given: if any man adds to or takes away from the words of this prophecy, God shall add to him the plagues written in this book.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. | He showed me a pure river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb. |
|---|---|---|

- 2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. In the middle of the main street of the city, and on both sides of the river, stood the tree of life. It bears twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
- 3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: There will be no more curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and His servants will serve him.
- 4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. They will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.
- 5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. There will be no night there. They will need no lamp or sunlight, for the Lord God will give them light. They will reign forever and ever.
- 6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things that must soon take place."
- 7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. "I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
- 8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. I, John, saw and heard these things. When I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me.
- 9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. He said to me, "Do not do that. I am a fellow servant with You and Your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

- 10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. He said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near."
- 11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. Let the one who does wrong keep doing wrong. Let the one who is filthy stay filthy. Let the one who is righteous keep doing right. Let the one who is holy continue to be holy.
- 12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. "I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me. I will give to each person according to what they have done."
- 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last."
- 14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Blessed are those who keep His commandments. They will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city through the gates.
- 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Outside are the dogs, sorcerers, the sexually immoral, murderers, idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.
- 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify these things to You for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David — the bright and morning star."
- 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let the one who hears say, "Come." Let the one who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires it take the water of life freely.

18	For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:	I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to these things, God will add to Him the plagues that are written in this book.
19	And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.	If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away His part from the book of life, from the holy city, and from the things written in this book.
20	He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.	He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.
21	The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.	The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Words in this chapter:

grace — God's unearned kindness — a gift we could never earn or deserve, freely given.

The Bible is one story. It begins with God making all things and ending the workweek by walking with man in a garden, and it ends with God making all things new and ending the long ages by dwelling with man in a city that is itself a garden. Everything between the bookends is the story of how He got us back.
