Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 53

Isaiah prophesies the suffering Servant, despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows acquainted with grief. He was wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray, and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He is led as a lamb to the slaughter, and by His knowledge He shall justify many.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? | Who has believed what He heard from us? To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? |
| 2 | For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. | He grew up before God like a tender shoot, like a root out of dry ground. He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him, and no beauty that we should desire Him. |
| 3 | He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. | He is despised and rejected of men — a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief. We hid our faces from Him; He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. |
| 4 | Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. | Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. Yet we thought He was stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. |
| 5 | But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. | But He was wounded for our transgressions; He was bruised for our iniquities. The chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed. |
| 6 | All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. | All we like sheep have gone astray. Each of us has turned to his own way. The LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. |

- 7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was oppressed and He was afflicted, yet He did not open His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. As a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He did not open His mouth.
- 8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. He was taken away by oppression and judgment. Who will declare His generation? He was cut off from the land of the living. For the transgression of My people He was stricken.
- 9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. He was assigned a grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, because He had done no violence and there was no deceit in His mouth.
- 10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He has put Him to grief. When You shall make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His offspring; He shall prolong His days. The purpose of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.
- 11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Out of the anguish of His soul He shall see and be satisfied. By His knowledge My righteous servant shall justify many, for He shall bear their iniquities.

- 12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.
- Therefore I will give Him a portion among the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong. Because He poured out His soul to death and was numbered with the transgressors, He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

transgression — Crossing the line God set — deliberately breaking a specific command He gave.

Chapter 54

The LORD calls the barren woman to sing, for her children will be more than those of the married woman. Her Maker is her husband -- the LORD of hosts is His name -- and He calls her back like a wife forsaken. No weapon formed against her shall prosper, and every tongue that rises against her in judgment she shall condemn.

- | | |
| 1 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. 2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; 3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. 4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more. 5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called. 6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God. 7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. | Sing, O barren woman — you who did not give birth! Break out into song and cry aloud, You who have never been in labor! For the children of the desolate woman will be more than the children of the married wife, says the LORD. Enlarge the place of Your tent; let the curtains of Your dwelling be stretched out wide. Do not hold back — lengthen Your ropes and drive Your stakes deep. For You will spread out to the right and to the left. Your descendants shall possess the nations and will settle the desolate cities. Do not fear, for You will not be ashamed. Do not be dismayed, for You will not be disgraced. You will forget the shame of Your youth, and You will no longer remember the reproach of Your widowhood. For Your Maker is Your husband — the LORD of hosts is His name. Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. He shall be called the God of all the earth. For the LORD has called You like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit — like a young wife when You were rejected, says Your God. For a brief moment I abandoned You, but with great mercies I will gather You. |

- 8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer. In a surge of anger I hid My face from You for a moment. But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on You, says the LORD Your Redeemer.
- 9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. For this is like the days of Noah to Me. As I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, and will not rebuke you.
- 10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee. For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but My kindness shall not depart from You. My covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the LORD Who has mercy on You.
- 11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires. O afflicted city — storm-tossed and not comforted — I will set Your stones in beautiful colors and lay Your foundations with sapphires.
- 12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones. I will make Your battlements of rubies, Your gates of jewels, and all Your walls of precious stones.
- 13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children. All Your children shall be taught by the LORD, and great shall be the peace of Your children.
- 14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee. You shall be established in righteousness. You shall be far from oppression — you shall not fear. You shall be far from terror — it shall not come near You.

| 15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake. 16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. 17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD. | If anyone stirs up strife, it is not from Me. Whoever gathers against you shall fall because of you. I have created the craftsman who blows the fire of coals and produces a weapon for His purpose. I have also created the destroyer to cause ruin. No weapon formed against You shall succeed. Every tongue that rises against You in judgment You shall refute. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is from Me, declares the LORD. |

The LORD invites everyone who thirsts to come to the waters and buy wine and milk without money and without price. He will make an everlasting covenant with His people -- the sure mercies of David. His thoughts are higher than man's thoughts, and His word shall not return to Him void but shall accomplish what He pleases.

| 1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. | Come, everyone who is thirsty — come to the waters! Even He who has no money — come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. |
| 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. | Why do You spend money for what is not bread, and Your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me and eat what is good. Let Your soul delight in rich food. |
| 3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. | Turn your ear and come to Me; listen, that your soul may live! I will make an everlasting covenant with you — the faithful mercies shown to David. |
| 4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. | I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. |
| 5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. | You shall call a nation You do not know, and a nation that did not know You shall run to You — because of the LORD Your God, the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified You. |
| 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: | Seek the LORD while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. |
| 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. | Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man His thoughts. Let Him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy on Him — to our God, for He will freely pardon. |

- | | |

| 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. 10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: 11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. 12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. 13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. | "For My thoughts are not Your thoughts, and Your ways are not My ways," declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than Your ways and My thoughts than Your thoughts. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there, but water the earth and make it bring forth and sprout — giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater — so shall My word be that goes out from My mouth. It shall not return to Me empty; it shall accomplish what I desire and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For You shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace. The mountains and the hills shall break out into singing before You, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle. This shall be a memorial to the LORD, an everlasting sign that shall not be removed. |

The LORD declares that His salvation is near and commands justice and righteousness. The foreigner who joins himself to the LORD shall not be separated from His people, and the eunuch who keeps the LORD's sabbaths will be given a name better than sons and daughters. The LORD's house will be called a house of prayer for all people. Israel's watchmen are blind and her shepherds cannot understand.

- | | |
| 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. | Thus says the LORD: "Keep justice and do righteousness, for My salvation is near to come and My righteousness to be revealed." |
| 2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. | Blessed is the man who does this — the son of man who holds it firmly — who keeps the Sabbath without defiling it, and keeps His hand from doing any evil. |
| 3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. | Let not the foreigner who has joined Himself to the LORD say, "The LORD will surely exclude me from His people." Let not the eunuch say, "I am a dry tree." |

- 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; For thus says the LORD to the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose what pleases Me and hold fast to My covenant:
- 5 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. "I will give them a memorial and a name within My house and within My walls, better than sons and daughters. I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off."
- 6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD — to serve Him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be His servants — everyone who keeps the Sabbath without defiling it and holds fast to My covenant —
- 7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people. even them I will bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar. For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.
- 8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him. The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, declares: "I will gather still others to Him besides those already gathered."
- 9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. Come to devour, all You animals of the field — all You animals in the forest.
- 10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. His watchmen are blind; they are all without knowledge. They are all silent dogs that cannot bark. They lie down and love to sleep.

Chapter 57

The righteous perish and no one takes it to heart. The LORD rebukes the idolaters who sacrifice children in the valleys and set up their bed on every high mountain. But to the contrite and humble spirit the LORD gives life, for He will not contend forever. He creates the fruit of the lips -- peace to him who is far off and to him who is near. There is no peace for the wicked.

- | | |
| 1 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. | The righteous man perishes, and no one takes it to heart. Godly men are taken away, with no one realizing that the righteous man is taken away from the evil that is coming. |
|---|---|

- 2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. He enters into peace. They rest in their places — each one who walked in his uprightness.
- 3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore. But come here, you children of a sorceress — you offspring of the adulterer and the prostitute.
- 4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, Who are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, offspring of deceit?
- 5 Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, burning your children in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks? You burn with lust among the oaks and under every green tree. You sacrifice your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks.
- 6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these? Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they are your lot. To them you have poured out drink offerings and have made grain offerings. Shall I relent for these things?
- 7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice. On a high and lofty mountain you made your bed. You went up there to offer your sacrifices.
- 8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. Behind the door and the doorpost you have put your symbol. Turning from Me, you uncovered yourself to another and went up. You enlarged your bed and made a bargain with them. You loved their bed; you chose their open company.

- 9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. You journeyed to the king with oil and lavished your perfumes. You sent your ambassadors far away; you sent them down even to the grave.
- 10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved. You were worn out by your many journeys, but you did not say, "It is hopeless." You found renewed strength, and so you were not discouraged.
- 11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not? Whom have you feared and been in awe of, that you have lied and not remembered Me, not taken Me to heart? Was I not silent for a long time, and so you do not fear Me?
- 12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee. I will expose your so-called righteousness and your deeds — they will not help you.
- 13 When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain; When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you! But the wind will carry them all away; a breath will take them. But he who takes refuge in Me shall possess the land and shall inherit My holy mountain.
- 14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people. He shall say: "Build up, build up — prepare the way! Remove every stumbling block from the road for My people."
- 15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. For thus says the One who is high and lifted up — who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I live in the high and holy place, and also with the one who is contrite and humble in spirit — to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the contrite."

The LORD rebukes Israel's fasts as empty rituals done for show while they oppress their workers. The true fast is to loose the bonds of wickedness, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and take in the homeless poor. Then their light will break forth as the morning, and the LORD will guide them continually and satisfy their soul in drought.

- | | |
| 1 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. | Cry out loudly; do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet. Declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins. |
| 2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. | Yet they seek Me daily and delight to know My ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the ordinances of their God. They ask Me for just decisions; they delight in drawing near to God. |
| 3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours. | "Why have we fasted and You do not see?" they say. "Why have we humbled ourselves and You take no notice?" Look — on the day of your fasting you pursue your own pleasure and oppress all your workers. |
| 4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. | You fast for strife and argument and to strike with a wicked fist. You do not fast as you do this day if you want your voice to be heard on high. |
| 5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? | Is this the fast I have chosen — a day for a man to humble himself? Is it to bow his head like a reed and to spread sackcloth and ashes? Will You call this a fast — a day acceptable to the LORD? |

- 6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is this not the fast I have chosen: to break the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke — to set the oppressed free and to break every yoke?
- 7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Is it not to share Your bread with the hungry and to bring the homeless poor into Your house — to cover the naked when You see them and not to turn away from Your own kin?
- 8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward. Then Your light shall break out like the dawn. Your healing shall spring up quickly. Your righteousness shall go before You; the glory of the LORD shall be Your rear guard.
- 9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity; Then You shall call, and the LORD will answer. You shall cry, and He will say, "Here I am." If You remove the yoke from Your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,
- 10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day: and if You pour Yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted — then Your light shall rise in the darkness, and Your gloom shall be as the noonday.
- 11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. The LORD will guide You continually and satisfy Your soul in dry times and make Your bones strong. You shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.

| 12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in. 13 If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: 14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. | Your people shall build up the ancient ruins; You shall raise up the age-old foundations. You shall be called the Repairer of the Breach, the Restorer of Streets to dwell in. If You turn back Your foot from the Sabbath — from doing Your pleasure on My holy day — and call the Sabbath a delight and the LORD's holy day honorable; if You honor it by not going Your own ways or seeking Your own pleasure or speaking Your own words, then You shall take delight in the LORD. I will make You ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed You with the heritage of Jacob your father. The mouth of the LORD has spoken. |

Isaiah declares that the LORD's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, but Israel's iniquities have separated them from God. Justice is far from them, truth has fallen in the street, and the LORD saw that there was no intercessor, so His own arm brought salvation. The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and the LORD's covenant promises that His Spirit and His words shall not depart from their mouth forever.

- | | |
| 1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: | The LORD's arm is not too short to save; His ear is not too dull to hear. |
| 2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. | But Your iniquities have separated You from Your God. Your sins have hidden His face from You, so that He does not hear. |
| 3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness. | Your hands are defiled with blood, Your fingers with iniquity. Your lips have spoken lies; Your tongue mutters wickedness. |
| 4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. | No one calls for justice; no one pleads truthfully. They trust in empty talk and speak lies. They conceive trouble and give birth to iniquity. |
| 5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper. | They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider's web. Whoever eats their eggs dies, and when one is cracked, a poisonous snake hatches. |
| 6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. | Their webs cannot be used as clothing; their deeds cannot cover themselves. Their works are works of iniquity, and acts of violence are in their hands. |
| 7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. | Their feet run to evil; they rush to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; ruin and destruction are in their paths. |

- 8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. The way of peace they do not know; there is no justice in their paths. They have made their roads crooked; no one who walks on them knows peace.
- 9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We look for light, but find darkness; we look for brightness, but walk in deep shadow.
- 10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men. We grope along the wall like the blind; we grope like those who have no eyes. We stumble at midday as in the twilight; among the healthy we are like the dead.
- 11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. We growl like bears; we moan mournfully like doves. We look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.
- 12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; For our transgressions are many before You, and our sins testify against us. Our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities —
- 13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. transgressing and denying the LORD, turning away from our God — speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and speaking lies from the heart.
- 14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away. Truth has stumbled in the public square, and honesty cannot enter.

- 15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. Truth is missing; whoever turns from evil becomes a target. The LORD saw it, and it displeased Him that there was no justice.
- 16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. He saw that there was no man, and was appalled that there was no one to intercede. So his own arm brought salvation to Him, and His righteousness sustained Him.
- 17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation on His head. He put on the garments of vengeance as His clothing, and wrapped Himself in zeal as a cloak.
- 18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence. According to their deeds, so He will repay — wrath to His adversaries, repayment to His enemies. To the distant shores He will render repayment.
- 19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him. So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up an ensign against Him.
- 20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD. The Redeemer shall come to Zion — to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, declares the LORD.

- 21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever. "And as for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit who is on You and My words that I have put in Your mouth shall not depart from Your mouth, or from the mouth of Your children, or from the mouth of Your children's children," says the LORD, "from now on and forever."

Chapter 60

Isaiah calls Zion to arise and shine, for her light has come and the glory of the LORD has risen upon her. Nations will come to her light and kings to the brightness of her rising. The wealth of the nations will flow to her, the sun will no longer be needed for light, and the LORD Himself will be her everlasting light.

- 1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. Arise, shine, for Your light has come! The glory of the LORD has risen on You.

- 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. For darkness shall cover the earth and thick darkness the peoples, but the LORD will rise on You, and His glory will be seen on You.
- 3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Nations shall come to Your light, and kings to the brightness of Your rising.
- 4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Lift up Your eyes and look around — all of them gather and come to You. Your sons shall come from far away, and Your daughters shall be carried at Your side.
- 5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. Then You shall see and be radiant; Your heart shall thrill and overflow. For the wealth of the sea shall be brought to You; the riches of the nations shall come to you.
- 6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD. A great number of camels shall cover You — the young camels of Midian and Ephah. All those from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to You; the rams of Nebaioth shall serve You. They shall come up with acceptance on My altar, and I will glorify My glorious house.
- 8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Who are these who fly like a cloud, like doves to their perches?

- 9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. Surely the coastlands wait for Me — the ships of Tarshish first — to bring Your sons from far away, their silver and gold with them, to the name of the LORD Your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified You.
- 10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Foreigners shall build Your walls, and their kings shall serve You. For in My anger I struck You, but in My favor I have had mercy on You.
- 11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought. Your gates shall always be open; day and night they shall not be shut — that people may bring You the wealth of the nations, with their kings being led in procession.
- 12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish. Those nations shall be completely destroyed.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious. The glory of Lebanon shall come to You — the cypress, the plane tree, and the pine — to beautify the place of My sanctuary. I will make the place of My feet glorious.
- 14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. The descendants of those who tormented You shall come bowing down to You. All who despised You shall bow at Your feet. They shall call You the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

- 15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Because You have been forsaken and hated — with no one passing through — I will make you a pride forever, a joy from age to age.
- 16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. You shall drink the milk of nations; You shall nurse at the breast of kings. You shall know that I, the LORD, am Your Savior and Your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness. Instead of bronze I will bring gold; instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze; instead of stones, iron. I will make Your officers peace and Your rulers righteousness.
- 18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. Violence shall no more be heard in Your land, nor devastation or destruction within Your borders. You shall call Your walls Salvation and Your gates Praise.
- 19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. The sun shall no longer be Your light by day, nor shall the moon give You its brightness by night. But the LORD shall be Your everlasting light, and Your God shall be Your glory.
- 20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended. Your sun shall no longer go down, and Your moon shall not withdraw. For the LORD shall be Your everlasting light, and the days of Your mourning shall be over.
- 21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. Your people shall all be righteous; they shall possess the land forever. They are the shoot of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified.

- 22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time. The smallest shall become a thousand, and the least shall become a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this quickly.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 61

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon the Servant to preach good tidings to the poor, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and to declare the acceptable year of the LORD and the day of vengeance. The LORD will give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.

- 1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, because the LORD has anointed Me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent Me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom to the captives and opening of the prison to those who are bound,
- 2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor and the day of vengeance of our God — to comfort all who mourn,
- 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

to grant to those who mourn in Zion — to give them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They shall be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.
- 4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations. They shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.
- 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

Strangers shall stand and tend Your flocks; foreigners shall be Your farmers and vinedressers.
- 6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

But You shall be called the Priests of the LORD; You shall be spoken of as the Ministers of our God. You shall eat the wealth of the nations and in their riches you shall boast.

| 7 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. | Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot. Therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs. |
| 8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. | For I the LORD love justice; I hate robbery and wrongdoing. I will faithfully give them their reward, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. |
| 9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed. | Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples. | 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. | I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall be joyful in my God. For He has clothed me with garments of salvation; He has covered me with a robe of righteousness — as a bridegroom adorns Himself with a crown, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. |
| 11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. | For as the earth brings forth its growth, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations. |

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

covenant — A binding agreement — God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Chapter 62

Isaiah declares he will not rest until the righteousness of Zion goes forth as brightness and her salvation as a lamp that burns. She shall be called by a new name, and the LORD will rejoice over her as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride. Watchmen are set on the walls of Jerusalem who shall never hold their peace day or night.

Chapter 63

Isaiah sees one coming from Edom with garments stained red, who has trodden the winepress of God's wrath alone. Isaiah recounts the LORD's lovingkindness and mercies toward Israel, how He carried them in the days of old and how they grieved His Holy Spirit. He prays for the LORD to look down from heaven and return for His people.

- | | |
| 1 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. | Who is this who comes from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah — this One who is glorious in His clothing, marching in the greatness of His strength? "It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save." |
| 2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? | Why is Your clothing red, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? |
| 3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. | "I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the peoples no one was with Me. I trod them in My anger and trampled them in My fury. Their lifeblood splattered on My garments, and I stained all My clothing. |
| 4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. | For the day of vengeance was in My heart, and the year of My redeemed had come. |
| 5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. | I looked, but there was no one to help. I was appalled that there was no one to assist. So My own arm brought salvation, and My fury upheld Me. |

- 6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. I trampled the peoples in My anger; I made them drunk in My fury. I poured out their lifeblood on the ground."
- 7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. I will tell of the mercies of the LORD — the praiseworthy acts of the LORD — according to all that the LORD has done for us, the great goodness to the house of Israel which He has shown them according to His mercy, according to the abundance of His mercies.
- 8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. For He said, "Surely they are My people — children who will not deal falsely." So He became their Savior.
- 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. In all their distress He too was distressed, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and in His mercy He redeemed them. He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.
- 10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit. So He turned to be their enemy; He Himself fought against them.
- 11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him? Then He remembered the days of old — of Moses and his people. Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? Where is He who put his Holy Spirit within him?

| 12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? | Who led them by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arm — dividing the waters before them — to make for Himself an everlasting name? |
| 13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? | Who led them through the deep as a horse through the wilderness, without stumbling? |
| 14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name. | Like cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest. So You led Your people, to make for Yourself a glorious name. |
| 15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained? | Look down from heaven and see — from Your holy and glorious dwelling. Where are Your zeal and Your might? The stirring of Your heart and Your mercies are withheld from me. |
| 16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting. | For You are our Father — though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us. You, O LORD, are our Father; our Redeemer from of old is Your name. |
| 17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance. | O LORD, why do You make us stray from Your ways and harden our heart from fearing You? Return for the sake of Your servants — the tribes of Your heritage. |
| 18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. | Your holy people possessed it for a little while, but our adversaries have trampled down Your sanctuary. |
| 19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name. | We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those who are not called by Your name. |

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Chapter 64

Isaiah pleads for the LORD to come down and make His name known to His adversaries. He confesses that all Israel's righteousnesses are as filthy rags, and they have all faded like a leaf. He asks the LORD not to be angry beyond measure and remembers that they are the clay and the LORD is the potter.

- | | | |
| 1 | Oh that thou wouldst rend the heavens, that thou wouldst come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence, | Oh, that You would tear open the heavens and come down — that the mountains might quake at Your presence |
| 2 | As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence! | as fire kindles brushwood and fire causes water to boil — to make Your name known to Your adversaries, and that the nations may tremble at your presence! |
| 3 | When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. | When You did awesome things we did not expect — You came down; the mountains quaked at Your presence. |

- 4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. From of old no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides You — who acts on behalf of those who wait for Him.
- 5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. You meet the one who rejoices in doing righteousness, those who remember You in Your ways. Look — You were angry, and we sinned. We have long continued in our sins, and shall we be saved?
- 6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy garment. We all wither like a leaf, and our iniquities carry us away like the wind.
- 7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. There is no one who calls on your name, who rouses himself to take hold of You. For You have hidden Your face from us and have consumed us because of our iniquities.
- 8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. But now, O LORD, You are our Father. We are the clay, and You are our potter. We are all the work of Your hand.
- 9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Do not be so angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity forever. Look — please look — we are all Your people!
- 10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Your holy cities have become a wilderness; Zion has become a wilderness; Jerusalem a desolation.

Will You keep silent and punish us so severely? |

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 65

The LORD declares that He was found by those who did not seek Him and spread out His hands to a rebellious people. He will bring judgment on those who forsake Him but will preserve a remnant. He will create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered. In the new Jerusalem there will be no more weeping, and the wolf and the lamb shall feed together.

| 2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; | All day long I have held out My hands to a rebellious people — who walk in a way that is not good, following their own thoughts, |
| 3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick; | a people who provoke Me to My face continually — sacrificing in gardens and burning incense on bricks, |
| 4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; | who sit in tombs and spend the night in secret places, who eat pig's meat with broth of detestable things in their pots, |
| 5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. | who say, "Keep to Yourself; do not come near me, for I am holier than You." These are smoke in My nostrils — a fire that burns all day. |
| 6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, | See, it is written before Me. I will not keep silent; I will repay. I will repay into their laps — |
| 7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom. | both Your iniquities and the iniquities of Your fathers together, says the LORD. Because they burned incense on the mountains and dishonored Me on the hills, I will measure their past deeds into their laps. |
| 8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all. | Thus says the LORD: "As new wine is found in the grape cluster and someone says, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for My servants' sake — I will not destroy them all. |

- 9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah an heir of My mountains. My chosen shall inherit it, and My servants shall live there.
- 10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me. Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for My people who have sought Me.
- 11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number. But You who forsake the LORD — who forget My holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny —
- 12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not. I will destine You to the sword, and You shall all bow down to the slaughter. Because when I called You did not answer; when I spoke You did not listen. You did evil in My sight and chose what I did not delight in.
- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed: Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "My servants shall eat, but You shall be hungry. My servants shall drink, but You shall be thirsty. My servants shall rejoice, but You shall be put to shame.
- 14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. My servants shall sing for joy of heart, but You shall cry out for pain of heart and shall wail for grief of spirit.
- 15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name: You shall leave Your name to My chosen as a curse, for the Lord GOD will put You to death and call His servants by another name.

- 16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes. So that whoever blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and whoever swears in the land shall swear by the God of truth. For the former troubles are forgotten; they are hidden from My eyes.
- 17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. For I create new heavens and a new earth. The former things shall not be remembered; they shall not come to mind.
- 18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create. For I create Jerusalem as a joy and her people as a gladness.
- 19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. I will rejoice in Jerusalem and take delight in My people. The sound of weeping shall no more be heard in her, nor the cry of distress.
- 20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not live out His years. The one who dies at a hundred years will be thought a youth, and the one who fails to reach a hundred shall be thought cursed.
- 21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall build houses and live in them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not build for another to live in; they shall not plant for another to eat. For like the days of a tree shall the days of My people be, and My chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 66

The LORD declares that heaven is His throne and the earth His footstool, and He looks to the one who is poor and of a contrite spirit and who trembles at His word. Zion shall bring forth her children in a day, and the LORD will comfort Jerusalem as a mother comforts her child. The LORD will come with fire and a whirlwind to judge all flesh, and the new heavens and the new earth shall remain before Him.

| 1 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? | Thus says the LORD: "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. What house would You build for Me? What place shall be My rest? |
| 2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. | All these things My hand has made — all these things came to be, declares the LORD. But this is the one I will look to: He who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at My word. |
| 3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. | He who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; He who presents a grain offering, like one who offers pig's blood; He who burns frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations. |
| 4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. | I also will choose harsh treatment for them and bring their fears on them. Because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not listen. They did evil in My sight and chose what I did not delight in. |

- 5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. Listen to the word of the LORD, You who tremble at His word. Your brothers who hate You and exclude You for My name's sake have said, "Let the LORD be glorified, so that we may see Your joy!" But they shall be put to shame.
- 6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies. A roaring sound from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD — repaying His enemies what they deserve!
- 7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Before she was in labor she gave birth. Before her pain came, she delivered a son.
- 8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be brought forth in a moment? For as soon as Zion was in labor, she gave birth to her children.
- 9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God. Shall I bring to the point of birth and not deliver? says the LORD. Shall I, who cause delivery, shut the womb? says Your God.
- 10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her: Rejoice with Jerusalem; be glad for her, all You who love her. Rejoice with her for joy, all You who mourn over her —
- 11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. that You may nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breast; that You may drink deeply and delight yourselves in the abundance of her glory.

- 12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees. For thus says the LORD: "I will extend peace to her like a river and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream. You shall nurse; You shall be carried on her hip and bounced on her knees.
- 13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort You. You shall be comforted in Jerusalem."
- 14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies. When You see this, Your heart shall rejoice; Your bones shall flourish like the grass. The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants, and his indignation to his enemies.
- 15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For the LORD will come with fire — with his chariots like a whirlwind — to repay His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire.
- 16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many. For by fire and by his sword the LORD will judge all flesh, and those slain by the LORD shall be many.
- 17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD. Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens — following one in the midst — eating pig's meat and the detestable thing and mice, shall come to an end together, declares the LORD.
- 18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory. For I know their works and their thoughts. The time is coming to gather all nations and tongues. They shall come and shall see My glory.

- 19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. I will set a sign among them. From those who escape I will send some to the nations — to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow; to Tubal and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have not heard My fame or seen My glory. They shall declare My glory among the nations.
- 20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. They shall bring all Your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the LORD — on horses, in chariots and wagons, on mules and on swift camels — to My holy mountain Jerusalem, declares the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.
- 21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the LORD.
- 22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. For as the new heavens and the new earth that I make shall remain before Me, declares the LORD, so shall Your offspring and Your name remain.
- 23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. From new moon to new moon, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, declares the LORD.
- 24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh. They shall go out and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against Me. For their worm shall not die, and their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Jeremiah

Author: Jeremiah the priest, with Baruch son of Neriah as his scribe — the book records Baruch writing the prophecies Jeremiah dictated (Jer 36:4) and Jeremiah's own purchase of land as a sign-act of hope (ch. 32).

Date written: c. 627–580 BC, spanning the final decades of Judah's existence through the destruction of Jerusalem and its aftermath.

Written to: The people of Judah — those remaining in the land, those already exiled to Babylon, and those who fled to Egypt.

Setting: Judah's final forty years. The Babylonian empire is rising. Five kings come and go. Jeremiah preaches a deeply unpopular message — surrender to Babylon, because this judgment is from God — and suffers imprisonment, beatings, and near-execution for it.

Where this sits historically: Written under Josiah, Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah (c. 627–580 BC), as Assyria collapsed (Nineveh fell 612 BC) and Nebuchadnezzar's Babylon rose to destroy Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Contemporaries: Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Nahum, and Obadiah all prophesied in this window, while Daniel and Ezekiel were carried captive to Babylon during Jeremiah's own lifetime.

Big themes:

- The reluctant prophet — Jeremiah protests his call, weeps over the people's sin, and is called "the weeping prophet"; he is the most personally revealed prophet in the OT
- Judgment inevitable — Jeremiah preaches for forty years that Jerusalem will fall; he is ignored, mocked, and imprisoned; the city falls exactly as he said
- The new covenant — Jeremiah 31:31–34 contains the OT's clearest promise of a new covenant written on the heart, quoted extensively in Hebrews 8
- The potter and the clay — God's sovereignty over nations is absolute; He shapes and reshapes according to His purposes
- Lament — the book contains more complaint psalms and personal anguish than any other prophetic book; faith does not eliminate suffering

Key passages: Jer 1:5; 17:9; 29:11; 31:31–34; 33:3

How it fits: Jeremiah prophesied during the events 2 Kings 22–25 records. He was the prophet whose seventy-year exile prediction Daniel read in Babylon (Dan 9:2). The new covenant he announced in chapter 31 becomes the foundation of everything the NT says about salvation and the church (Heb 8:6–13).

The LORD called Jeremiah before he was born and ordained him a prophet to the nations. Jeremiah protested that he was only a child, but the LORD touched his mouth and put His words in it. The LORD showed him two visions -- an almond branch and a boiling pot tilting from the north -- and promised to make him a fortified city against the whole land.

| 4 | Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: |
| 5 | Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. | "Before I formed You in the womb I knew You. Before You were born I sanctified You and ordained You a prophet to the nations." |
| 6 | Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. | I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! I do not know how to speak — I am only a child." |

- 7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a child.' You will go to everyone I send You to, and You will speak everything I command You.
- 8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with You to rescue You," says the LORD.
- 9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. Then the LORD reached out His hand and touched my mouth. He said to me, "I have put My words in Your mouth.
- 10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. See — today I appoint You over nations and kingdoms, to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."
- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. The word of the LORD came to me again: "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."
- 12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it. The LORD said, "You have seen correctly, for I am watching over My word to carry it out."
- 13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north. The word of the LORD came to me a second time: "What do You see?" I said, "I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north."
- 14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. The LORD said to me, "Disaster will break out from the north on all who live in this land.

- 15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. For I am calling all the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD. "They will come and each king will set His throne at the entrance of Jerusalem's gates. They will attack all its surrounding walls and all the towns of Judah.
- 16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands. I will pronounce judgment on them for all their wickedness. They have forsaken Me, burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the work of their own hands.
- 17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them. So prepare Yourself. Stand up and speak to them everything I command You. Do not be terrified by them, or I will terrify You before them.
- 18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. Today I have made You a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land — against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.
- 19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee. They will fight against You but will not overcome You, for I am with You to rescue You," says the LORD.

All who devoured Israel were held guilty, and disaster came on them," says the LORD. |
| 4 | Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: | Hear the word of the LORD, You house of Jacob — all you families of Israel. |
| 5 | Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? | This is what the LORD says: "What fault did Your ancestors find in Me, that they strayed so far? They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves. |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than 'sin' — it points to the corruption that lies beneath the sinful act itself."

| 6 | Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt? | They did not ask, 'Where is the LORD Who brought us up from Egypt? He led us through the desert, through a land of dry wasteland and deep darkness, through a land no one travels and no one lives in.' |
| 7 | And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination. | I brought You into a fertile land to enjoy its fruit and good things. But when You entered, You defiled My land and made My inheritance detestable. |
| 8 | The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit. | The priests did not ask, 'Where is the LORD?' Those who handled the law did not know Me. The leaders rebelled against Me. The prophets prophesied by Baal and followed useless things. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — "crossing the line God set; deliberately breaking a specific command He gave."

| 9 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. | "Therefore I will bring charges against You," says the LORD. "I will bring charges against Your grandchildren too. |
| 10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing: | Cross over to the coasts of Cyprus and look. Send to Kedar and observe closely. See if anything like this has happened: |
| 11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. | Has any nation ever changed its gods — even though they are not real gods at all? Yet My people have exchanged their Glory for something that has no value. |
| 12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. | Be shocked at this, You heavens! Shudder with great horror," says the LORD. |
| 13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. | "My people have committed two sins: They have abandoned Me, the spring of living water, and have dug their own cisterns — broken cisterns that hold no water. |
| 14 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled? | Is Israel a slave? Was He born into slavery? Why then has He become plunder? |
| 15 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant. | Lions have roared at Him and raised their voices. They have ruined His land. His cities are burned down with no one living in them. |
| 16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have fed on the crown of thy head. | Also the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of Your head. |

- 17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? Have You not brought this on Yourself by forsaking the LORD Your God when He led You in the way?
- 18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Now why go to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile? And why go to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates?
- 19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. Your own wickedness will punish You. Your unfaithfulness will correct You. Know and see how evil and bitter it is to forsake the LORD Your God and to have no fear of Me," says the Lord GOD of hosts.
- 20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. "Long ago I broke Your yoke and tore off Your chains. You said, 'I will not serve idols.' Yet on every high hill and under every green tree You lay down and played the harlot.
- 21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? I planted You as a choice vine — all good stock. How then have You turned into a corrupt, wild vine?
- 22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. Even if You scrub Yourself with lye and use plenty of soap, the stain of Your iniquity is still before Me," says the Lord GOD.
- 23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways; How can You say, 'I am not defiled — I have not followed the Baals'? Look at what You did in the valley. Know what You have done. You are a swift young camel running back and forth,

- 24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. a wild donkey at home in the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving. Who can hold her back when she is in heat? Any male that seeks her will find her easily in her season.
- 25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. Keep Your feet from going bare and Your throat from thirst. But You said, 'It is no use! I love foreign gods and must go after them.'
- 26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel is shamed — their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets.
- 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. They say to wood, 'You are my father,' and to stone, 'You gave birth to me.' They have turned their backs to Me and not their face. Yet when they are in trouble, they say, 'Come and save us.'
- 28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. Where then are the gods You made for Yourself? Let them come if they can save You when You are in trouble. For You have as many gods as You have cities, O Judah.
- 29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD. Why do You bring charges against Me? You have all rebelled against Me," says the LORD.
- 30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. I struck Your people in vain — they accepted no correction. Your sword has devoured Your prophets like a destroying lion.

Words in this chapter:

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Euphrates (yoo-FRAY-teez) — One of the four rivers of Eden — the great river of Mesopotamia; the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham; runs through modern Iraq.

The LORD compared Israel to a wife who has played the harlot with many lovers and yet asks to return. He called faithless Israel and treacherous Judah to repent, promising to give them shepherds after His own heart. He declared that in those days they will no longer speak of the ark of the covenant, for Jerusalem itself will be called the throne of the LORD.

| ¹ They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD. | God says: "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, can He take her back? Would not that land be completely defiled? But You have committed adultery with many partners — yet return to Me," says the LORD. |

- 2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. Look up at the bare heights and see: where have You not been lain with? You sat by the roadside waiting for lovers, like an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with Your whoredoms and with Your wickedness.
- 3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. Therefore the spring rains have been withheld and the late rains have not come. Yet You have a whore's forehead — you refuse to be ashamed.
- 4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth? Have You not just now called to Me, 'My Father, You are the friend of my youth'?
- 5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst. 'Will God be angry forever? Will He be angry to the end?' You say this, but You keep on doing evil."
- 6 The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot. In the days of King Josiah the LORD said to me: "Have You seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree and played the harlot there.
- 7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. After she had done all this, I said to her, 'Return to Me.' But she did not return. Her unfaithful sister Judah saw this.
- 8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. I saw that because backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah had no fear — she also went and played the harlot.

- 9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. Through the lightness of her whoredom she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.
- 10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD. Even after all this, her unfaithful sister Judah has not returned to Me with her whole heart — only in pretense," says the LORD.
- 11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. The LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah.
- 12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever. Go, proclaim this message toward the north: 'Return, faithless Israel,' says the LORD. 'I will not look on You in anger, for I am merciful,' says the LORD. 'I will not be angry forever.
- 13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD. Only acknowledge Your iniquity — that You have rebelled against the LORD Your God and scattered Your favors among foreign gods under every green tree, and that You have not obeyed Me," says the LORD.
- 14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: "Return, faithless children," says the LORD, "for I am Your master. I will take You — one from a city, two from a family — and bring You to Zion.
- 15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Then I will give You shepherds after My own heart, who will lead You with knowledge and understanding.

- 16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.
- In those days, when You have multiplied and grown in the land," says the LORD, "people will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' It will not come to mind or be remembered or missed. It will not be made again.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — "a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people."

- 17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.
- At that time Jerusalem will be called the throne of the LORD. All nations will gather there in the name of the LORD. They will no longer follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts.
- 18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.
- In those days Judah and Israel will come together from the land of the north to the land I gave Your ancestors as an inheritance.
- 19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.
- I said, 'How gladly would I treat You like a son and give You a pleasant land — the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.' I thought You would call Me 'My Father' and never turn away from Me.
- 20 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.
- But like a woman who is unfaithful to her husband, you have been unfaithful to Me, Israel," says the LORD.

Words in this chapter:

ark of the covenant — The gold-covered wooden chest containing the Ten Commandments — the footstool of God's throne, housed in the tabernacle's Most Holy Place.

whoredom — Sexual immorality — also used in the prophets to describe Israel's spiritual unfaithfulness to God, treating it as adultery against the covenant.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

The LORD called Israel to return and plow up fallow ground, and to circumcise their hearts. Jeremiah saw a vision of the coming destruction from the north -- the whole land laid waste, the cities broken down, and the heavens without light. The LORD declared that the whole land would be desolate, though He would not make a full end.

- | | | |
| 1 | If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove. | "If You return, Israel," says the LORD, "then return to Me. If You remove Your detestable idols from My sight, You will not wander away. |
| 2 | And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory. | You will swear, 'As the LORD lives' — in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. Then the nations will praise themselves by him, and in him they will boast." |
| 3 | For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns. | This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: "Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns. |
| 4 | Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. | Circumcise yourselves to the LORD and remove the hardness of Your hearts, You people of Judah and Jerusalem. Otherwise My anger will break out like fire and burn with no one to put it out — because of your evil deeds." |

- 5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defended cities. "Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem. Sound the trumpet throughout the land and cry out — gather together and say, 'Run to the fortified cities!'
- 6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. Raise the signal flag toward Zion. Flee for safety — do not delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, a great destruction.
- 7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. A lion has come out of His den, a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left His place to lay Your land waste. Your cities will be ruined, left without a single inhabitant.
- 8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. Because of this, put on sackcloth and mourn and wail, for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.
- 9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder. "On that day," says the LORD, "the king and the officials will lose heart. The priests will be horrified and the prophets will be stunned."
- 10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul. Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! You have truly deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throats!"

- 11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told: "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows toward My people — not to winnow or cleanse,
- 12 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them. but a full blast from those places. Now I will pronounce judgment against them."
- 13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. He comes up like clouds. his chariots are like a whirlwind. his horses are swifter than eagles. How terrible for us — we are ruined!
- 14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee? Jerusalem, wash the evil from Your heart so You may be saved. How long will You harbor wicked thoughts?
- 15 For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim. A voice announces from Dan — disaster proclaimed from the hills of Ephraim.
- 16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. "Warn the nations. Announce to Jerusalem: 'A besieging army is coming from a distant country, raising their voices against the cities of Judah.'
- 17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Like guards surrounding a field they close in on her on every side, because she has rebelled against Me," says the LORD.
- 18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart. Your own conduct and actions have brought this on You. This is Your punishment — how bitter it is! How it pierces to the heart!

- 19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. My anguish! My anguish! I writhe in pain. My heart is pounding. I cannot be silent, for I have heard the sound of the trumpet — the alarm of war.
- 20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. Disaster after disaster is proclaimed. The whole land is ruined. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my shelters in an instant.
- 21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? How long must I see the battle flag and hear the sound of the trumpet?
- 22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. "My people are foolish. They do not know Me. They are senseless children with no understanding. They are skilled at doing evil but do not know how to do good."
- 23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I looked at the earth — it was empty and formless. I looked at the sky — it had no light.
- 24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I looked at the mountains — they were shaking. All the hills were swaying.
- 25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I looked — there was no one. Every bird in the sky had flown away.
- 26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger. I looked — the fertile land was a desert. Every city was in ruins before the LORD, before His fierce anger.

They want to kill You. I hear a cry like that of a woman in labor, the anguish of a mother giving birth to her first child — the voice of Daughter Zion gasping for breath and stretching out her hands, saying, "How terrible for me! I am fainting before killers!" |

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Dan (DAN) — Jacob's fifth son, by Bilhah (Rachel's handmaid) — his tribe settled in the far north; his name means 'judge.'

Chapter 5

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to search the streets of Jerusalem for one man who executes judgment and seeks truth, and He would pardon the city. But the people had sworn falsely, refused correction, and broken the yoke. Their prophets prophesied lies and the priests ruled by their own power, and Jeremiah asked what would happen in the end.

| 1 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it. | "Roam through the streets of Jerusalem. Look around and take note. Search the public squares. See if You can find one person who acts justly and seeks truth. If You find one, I will forgive this city. |
| 2 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely. | Even when they say, 'As the LORD lives,' they are swearing falsely." |
| 3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. | LORD, do Your eyes not look for truth? You struck them but they felt no pain. You crushed them but they refused to be corrected. They made their faces harder than rock and refused to return. |

- 4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God. I thought, "These are only the poor and foolish — they do not know the way of the LORD or the law of their God."
- 5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. So I went to the leaders and spoke to them. They surely know the way of the LORD and the law of their God. But these also had broken the yoke together and snapped off the chains.
- 6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. Therefore a lion from the forest will attack them. A wolf from the desert will destroy them. A leopard will lurk near their cities. Everyone who comes out will be torn to pieces, because their transgressions are many and their rebellion is great.
- 7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. "How shall I pardon You for this? Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by gods that are not gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
- 8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. They are like well-fed, lusty stallions, each one neighing for another man's wife.
- 9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. "Should I not take revenge on a nation like this?"
- 10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's. Go through her vineyards and destroy them, but do not make a full end. Strip away her branches, for they do not belong to the LORD.

- 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have been completely unfaithful to Me," says the LORD.
- 12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: They have lied about the LORD, saying, "He will do nothing. No disaster will come upon us. We will not see sword or famine.
- 13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. The prophets are just hot air — the word of God is not in them. Let what they predict happen to them."
- 14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye have spoken this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. Therefore this is what the LORD God of hosts says: "Because You have spoken this, I will make My words fire in Your mouth, and this people will be the wood it consumes.
- 15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. I am bringing a distant nation against You, Israel," says the LORD. "It is an enduring nation, an ancient nation, whose language You do not know and whose speech You do not understand.
- 16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. Their quivers are like open graves. They are all mighty warriors.
- 17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fortified cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword. They will devour Your harvest and Your food — what Your sons and daughters should have eaten. They will devour Your flocks and Your herds. They will devour Your vines and Your fig trees. With the sword they will destroy Your fortified cities in which You trust.
- 18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you. "Yet even in those days," says the LORD, "I will not destroy You completely.

- 19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours. When You ask, 'Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?' you will tell them: 'Just as You abandoned the LORD and served foreign gods in Your own land, so You will serve foreigners in a land that is not Your own.'
- 20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, "Announce this to the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:
- 21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not: Listen to this, you foolish and senseless people — you who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear.
- 22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? Do You not fear Me?" says the LORD. "Do You not tremble before Me? I placed the sand as the boundary for the sea — a permanent limit it cannot cross. The waves may toss but they cannot prevail. They may roar but they cannot pass over it.
- 23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart. They have turned away and left.
- 24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. They do not say in their hearts, 'Let us fear the LORD our God, Who gives the autumn and spring rains in season and keeps for us the appointed weeks of harvest.'
- 25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you. Your iniquities have turned these blessings away. Your sins have kept good things from You.

They set traps to catch people. Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of dishonest gain. They have become great and grown rich. They have grown fat and sleek. They have surpassed all the limits of evil. They do not defend the rights of the fatherless or plead the case of the needy. "Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. Words in this chapter:

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 6

The LORD warned the children of Benjamin to flee from Jerusalem, for evil and destruction were coming from the north. The city was full of oppression, and the people had rejected the LORD's word. From the least to the greatest, everyone was given to covetousness, and the prophets and priests alike dealt falsely, crying 'Peace, peace' when there was no peace.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhaccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction. | "Flee for safety, people of Benjamin! Run from Jerusalem! Sound the trumpet in Tekoa. Raise a signal fire over Beth-haccerem, for disaster looms from the north — great destruction. |
| 2 | I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman. | I have likened the daughter of Zion to a beautiful and delicate woman. |
| 3 | The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. | Shepherds with their flocks will come against her. They will set up their tents around her and each will graze in His own area. |
| 4 | Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. | Prepare for war against her! Attack at noon. But we cry, 'How terrible for us — the day is fading and the evening shadows grow long.' |
| 5 | Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. | Attack by night and destroy her fortresses!" |
| 6 | For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. | This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Cut down her trees and build siege ramps against Jerusalem. This city must be punished. She is full of oppression. |

- 7 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds. As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps her evil fresh. Violence and destruction echo through her. Wounds and blows are all I see.
- 8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited. Take warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from You and make You a wasteland — an uninhabited land."
- 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Let them thoroughly glean Israel like a vineyard. Pass Your hand again over the branches, like a grape picker."
- 10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. To whom can I speak and give warning so they will listen? Their ears are closed — they cannot hear. The word of the LORD has become an offense to them. They find no pleasure in it.
- 11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. So I am full of the LORD's fury. I am worn out from holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together. For husband and wife alike will be taken, the old man and the very aged.
- 12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD. Their houses will be turned over to others — their fields and wives too — for I will stretch out My hand against those who live in this land," says the LORD.
- 13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. "From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for profit. From prophet to priest, all practice deceit.

- 14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. They treat my people's wounds as though they were nothing, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.
- 15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. Were they ashamed when they did these detestable things? No — they were not ashamed at all. They did not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen. When I punish them, they will stumble," says the LORD.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. This is what the LORD says: "Stand at the crossroads and look. Ask for the ancient paths — ask where the good way is — and walk in it. You will find rest for Your souls." But they said, "We will not walk in it."
- 17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. I appointed watchmen over You and said, "Listen for the sound of the trumpet." But they said, "We will not listen."
- 18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. Therefore listen, You nations. Take note, you witnesses, of what is happening to them.
- 19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it. Listen, earth: I am bringing disaster on this people — the result of their own scheming — because they have not listened to My words and have rejected My law.
- 20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me. What good to Me is the incense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable. Your sacrifices do not please Me."

- 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "I will put obstacles before this people. Fathers and sons together will stumble over them. Neighbors and friends will perish."
- 22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. This is what the LORD says: "A people are coming from the land of the north. A great nation is being stirred up from the ends of the earth."
- 23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion. They carry bow and spear. They are cruel and have no mercy. Their sound is like the roaring sea. They ride on horses, armed like men for battle against You, Daughter Zion."
- 24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail. We have heard the report and our hands fall limp. Anguish grips us — pain like a woman in labor.
- 25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side. Do not go out into the fields or walk on the roads, for the enemy has a sword, and terror is on every side.
- 26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. Put on sackcloth, my people, and roll in ashes. Mourn with bitter wailing as for an only son, for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.
- 27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way. "I have made You a tester and a fortress among my people, so You may observe and examine their ways."
- 28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. They are all hardened rebels — they go about spreading slander. They are bronze and iron — all of them corrupt.

- 29

The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

The bellows blow fiercely. The lead burns up in the fire. The smelter keeps on working in vain — the wicked are not removed.
- 30

Reprobate silver shall men call them; because the LORD hath rejected them.

They are called rejected silver, because the LORD has rejected them."

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

Chapter 7

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the temple gate to warn the people not to trust in lying words -- 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD' -- while they stole, murdered, committed adultery, and burned incense to Baal. He pointed to Shiloh, where He had set His name before, and destroyed it. He declared He would cast them out of His sight as He cast out Ephraim.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

"Stand at the gate of the LORD's house and proclaim this message there. Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all You people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD.'

- 3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Reform Your ways and Your actions and I will let You live in this place.
- 4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these. Do not trust in these deceptive words: 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!'
- 5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour; If You truly reform Your ways and Your actions — if You truly administer justice between people —
- 6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: if You do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if You do not follow other gods to Your own harm —
- 7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. then I will let You live in this place, in the land I gave Your ancestors forever and ever.
- 8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. But look — you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.
- 9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; You steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods You have not known before.
- 10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Then You come and stand before Me in this house that bears My name and say, "We are safe!" — so You can go on doing all these detestable things.
- 11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. Has this house, which bears My name, become a den of robbers in Your eyes? I have been watching!" declares the LORD.

- 12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. "Go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made My name to dwell and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.
- 13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not; And now, because You have done all these things," says the LORD, "and because I spoke to You again and again but You did not listen, and I called You but You did not answer —
- 14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. therefore I will do to this house which bears My name — the place You trust in, the place I gave to You and Your ancestors — what I did to Shiloh.
- 15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. I will drive You out of My presence, just as I drove out all Your relatives, all the people of Ephraim."
- 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. "So do not pray for this people. Do not offer any plea or prayer for them. Do not plead with Me, for I will not listen to You.
- 17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? Do You not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
- 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to arouse My anger.
- 19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? But am I the one they are provoking?" says the LORD. "Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?"

- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place — on people and animals, on the trees of the field and the crops of the ground. It will burn and not be quenched."
- 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Go ahead and add Your burnt offerings to Your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves!"
- 22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: For when I brought Your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not speak to them or command them about burnt offerings and sacrifices.
- 23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. But this is what I commanded them: 'Obey Me and I will be Your God and You will be My people. Walk in all the ways I command You, so that it may go well with You.'
- 24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward.
- 25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: From the day Your ancestors came out of Egypt until now, I sent My servants the prophets to You day after day.

- 26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. But they did not listen to Me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.
- 27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. When You tell them all this, they will not listen to You. When You call to them, they will not answer.
- 28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. So say to them, "This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or accepted correction. Truth has perished — it has vanished from their mouths."
- 29 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places: for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. Cut off Your hair and throw it away. Take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under His wrath."
- 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it. "The people of Judah have done evil in My eyes," says the LORD. "They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears My name and have defiled it.
- 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart. They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire — something I never commanded, nor did it enter My mind.

- 32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place. So the days are coming," says the LORD, "when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no room.
- 33 And the carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away. The bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the air and the animals of the earth. No one will drive them away.
- 34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate. I will end the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of the bride and groom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become a wasteland."

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Shiloh (SHY-lo) — The central sanctuary where the tabernacle rested for about 300 years after Joshua — where Hannah prayed for a son and where the young Samuel served Eli.

Chapter 8

The LORD declared that the bones of Jerusalem's kings, priests, and prophets would be spread before the sun and moon they had worshiped. The people refused to return, and even the stork knows her appointed times, but God's people do not know His judgment. Jeremiah wept for the hurt of his people, asking whether there was no balm in Gilead and no physician there.

- 1 At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

"At that time," says the LORD, "the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves.
- 2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

They will be spread out before the sun and the moon and all the stars of the sky — the things they loved and served and followed and consulted and worshiped. They will not be gathered up or buried but will be like dung on the surface of the ground.
- 3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

And death will be preferred to life by all the survivors of this evil family who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.
- 4 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

"Say to them, "This is what the LORD says: When people fall down, do they not get up? When someone turns away, do they not return?
- 5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

Why then have these people of Jerusalem turned away? Why do they cling to deceit and refuse to return?

- 6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle. I have listened carefully but they do not say what is right. Not one of them repents of their wickedness by asking, "What have I done?" Each one keeps charging ahead like a horse rushing into battle.
- 7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their migration; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD. Even the stork in the sky knows its appointed seasons. The dove, the swift, and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But My people do not know the requirements of the LORD.
- 8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain. How can You say, "We are wise and we have the law of the LORD"? Actually, the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely.
- 9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? The wise will be put to shame. They will be dismayed and caught. They have rejected the word of the LORD — what kind of wisdom do they have?
- 10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. Therefore I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain. From prophet to priest, all practice deceit.
- 11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. They dress the wound of my people as though it were nothing, saying, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.

- 12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. Were they ashamed when they committed these detestable acts? No — they felt no shame at all. They did not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen. When they are punished, they will stumble," says the LORD.
- 13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. "I will take away their harvest," says the LORD. "There will be no grapes on the vine, no figs on the fig tree, and the leaves will wither. What I have given them will be taken away."
- 14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there, for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish. He has given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.
- 15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, but behold trouble! We hoped for peace but no good has come. We hoped for a time of healing but found only terror.
- 16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein. The snorting of the enemy's horses is heard from Dan. The whole land trembles at the sound of the neighing of their powerful horses. They have come to devour the land and everything in it — the city and all who live there.
- 17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD. "I am sending poisonous snakes among You, vipers that cannot be charmed. They will bite You," says the LORD.

Words in this chapter:

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — A mountainous region east of the Jordan River — famous for its healing balm; Jeremiah's lament 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' refers to this area.

Chapter 9

Jeremiah wished his head were waters and his eyes a fountain of tears to weep day and night for his slain people. The LORD declared He would scatter them among nations they did not know, because they had forsaken His law. Let not the wise glory in wisdom, nor the mighty in might, nor the rich in riches, but let him who glories glory in knowing the LORD.

- | | | |
| 1 | Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! | If only my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears — I would weep day and night for the dead of my people. |
| 2 | Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. | If only I had a traveler's shelter in the desert, I would leave my people and go away from them. They are all adulterers — a crowd of traitors. |
| 3 | And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD. | "They bend their tongues like bows to shoot lies. They are not faithful to truth in the land. They go from one evil to another. They do not know Me," says the LORD. |
| 4 | Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders. | "Be on Your guard against Your friends. Do not trust any relative. Every brother is a deceiver and every friend spreads slander. |
| 5 | And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. | Friend deceives friend and no one tells the truth. They have trained their tongues to lie. They exhaust themselves with sinning. |
| 6 | Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD. | You live in the midst of deception. In their deceit they refuse to know Me," says the LORD. |

- 7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people? Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will refine and test them, for what else can I do because of the sin of my people?"
- 8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait. Their tongue is a deadly arrow. It speaks deceit. With their mouths they speak peace to their neighbors but in their hearts they set a trap for them.
- 9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. "Should I not take revenge on a nation like this?"
- 10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone. I will weep and wail over the mountains and take up a lament over the wilderness pastures. They are so desolate that no one travels through. The lowing of cattle is not heard. The birds of the air have flown and the animals are gone.
- 11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. "I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins — a haunt of jackals. I will make the towns of Judah desolate with no one living in them."
- 12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through? Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has been taught by the LORD to declare why the land is ruined and laid waste like a desert that no one passes through?
- 13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein; The LORD says: "Because they have abandoned My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed Me or followed My law —

- 14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them: instead they have followed the stubbornness of their own hearts and have gone after the Baals, as their fathers taught them to do."
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will feed this people with bitter food and give them poisoned water to drink.
- 16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them. I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known. I will pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them."
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come: This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Think about this and call for the wailing women to come. Send for the most skillful of them.
- 18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. Let them come quickly and wail over us, till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.
- 19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. The sound of wailing is heard from Zion: "We are ruined! We are deeply shamed because we have been driven from the land and our homes have been torn down."
- 20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation. Now listen, You women, to the word of the LORD. Open your ears to the words of His mouth. Teach Your daughters how to wail and each one her neighbor how to lament.

Words in this chapter:

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 10

The LORD warned Israel not to learn the ways of the nations or be dismayed at the signs of heaven. He mocked the idols -- wooden figures overlaid with gold and silver that cannot speak, walk, or do any good or evil. The LORD is the true God, the living God and everlasting King, who made the earth by His power and the world by His wisdom.

- | | | |
| 1 | Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: | Hear the word that the LORD speaks to You, house of Israel. |
| 2 | Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. | This is what the LORD says: "Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by the signs in the sky, even though the nations are terrified by them. |
| 3 | For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. | For the practices of the nations are worthless. They cut down a tree from the forest — the work of craftsmen with their axes. |
| 4 | They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. | They decorate it with silver and gold and fasten it with hammer and nails so it will not totter. |

- 5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go: be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good. Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field, these idols cannot speak. They must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them — they can do no harm, and they have no power to do good."
- 6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. There is no one like you, LORD. You are great and Your name is great in power.
- 7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee. Who should not fear You, King of the nations? That is what you deserve. Among all the wise of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like you.
- 8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities. They are all senseless and foolish. Their wooden idols teach nothing but lies.
- 9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men. Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. What skilled craftsmen make, what goldsmiths fashion — they dress the idols in blue and purple. All of them are the work of skilled people.
- 10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation. But the LORD is the true God. He is the living God, the eternal King. When He is angry the earth trembles. The nations cannot endure his wrath.
- 11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens. Tell them this: "These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens."

- 12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion. But God made the earth by His power. He founded the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.
- 13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. When He thunders, the waters in the heavens roar. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses.
- 14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. Everyone is senseless and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is shamed by His idol. The images He makes are a fraud — they have no breath in them.
- 15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. They are worthless, the objects of mockery. When their punishment comes, they will be destroyed.
- 16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name. He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things — including Israel, the tribe of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.
- 17 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress. Gather up Your belongings and prepare to leave the land, You who live under siege.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so. For this is what the LORD says: "At this time I will hurl out those who live in this land. I will bring distress on them so they will feel it."
- 19 Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it. How terrible my wound is! My injury is severe. But I said, "This is my sickness and I must endure it."

Chapter 11

The LORD reminded Jeremiah of the covenant He made with Israel when He brought them out of Egypt, commanding them to obey His voice. The people of Judah and Jerusalem had broken that covenant and returned to the iniquities of their fathers. The men of Anathoth, Jeremiah's own town, plotted against his life, and the LORD declared He would punish them.

| 1 | The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, | This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: |
| 2 | Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; | "Listen to the terms of this covenant and speak them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. |
| 3 | And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant, | Tell them this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Cursed is the man who does not obey the terms of this covenant — |
| 4 | Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God: | the covenant I commanded Your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace.' I said, 'Obey Me and do everything I command You. Then You will be My people and I will be Your God. |
| 5 | That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD. | Then I will fulfill the oath I swore to Your ancestors to give them a land flowing with milk and honey — as it is today.'" I said, "Amen, LORD." |

- 6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. The LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and obey them.
- 7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. For I warned Your ancestors again and again from the day I brought them out of Egypt until today — warning them earnestly: Obey Me.
- 8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead they all followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant, which I commanded them to follow but which they did not keep."
- 9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. The LORD said to me, "There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. They have returned to the iniquities of their ancestors who refused to listen to My words. They have followed other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant I made with their fathers.
- 11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I will bring on them a disaster they cannot escape. Though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.

- 12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense. But those gods will not save them at all when disaster strikes.
- 13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. You have as many gods as You have towns, Judah. You have set up as many altars to burn incense to Baal as there are streets in Jerusalem.'
- 14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble. So do not pray for this people. Do not offer any cry or prayer on their behalf, because I will not listen when they call to Me in the time of their distress.
- 15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. What does My beloved have to do in My house when she has done so many wicked things? Can the sacred meat avert Your punishment? When You do evil, You actually rejoice.
- 16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. The LORD called You a thriving olive tree, beautiful and full of fine fruit. But with a roar of a mighty storm He will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken.
- 17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal. The LORD of hosts, who planted You, has decreed disaster for You, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil — provoking Me by burning incense to Baal.

| 18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings. | The LORD revealed their plot to me so I knew about it, for at that time You showed me what they were doing. |
| 19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. | I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. I did not know they had plotted against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit. Let us cut Him off from the land of the living, so His name will be remembered no more." |
| 20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause. | But You, LORD of hosts, who judge righteously and test the heart and mind — let me see Your vengeance on them, for to You I have committed my cause. |
| 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand: | Therefore this is what the LORD says about the men of Anathoth who are seeking Your life and saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD or You will die by our hands" — |
| 22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine: | this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword. Their sons and daughters will die by famine. |
| 23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation. | Not one of them will survive, because I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment." |

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Chapter 12

Jeremiah asked the LORD why the way of the wicked prospers and the treacherous are at ease. The LORD answered that if Jeremiah could not keep up with footmen, how would he run with horses? The LORD declared He had forsaken His house and given His beloved into the hands of her enemies, but He would afterward return and have compassion and bring each nation back to their heritage.

| 1 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously? | You are always righteous, LORD, when I bring a case before You. Yet I want to speak with You about Your justice: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why do all the treacherous live at ease? |
| 2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins. | You have planted them and they have taken root. They grow and produce fruit. You are always on their lips but far from their hearts. |

- 3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. But You know me, LORD. You see me and test my heart's attitude toward You. Drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered. Set them apart for the day of killing.
- 4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end. How long will the land mourn and the grass of every field wither? Because of the wickedness of those who live there, the animals and birds have been swept away. Moreover, these people are saying, "He will not see what happens to us."
- 5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they deal treacherously with thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? "If You have raced with men on foot and they have worn You out, how can You compete with horses? If You stumble in safe country, how will You manage in the thickets by the Jordan?"
- 6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee. Even Your own brothers and Your father's family have betrayed You. They have raised a crowd to pursue You. Do not trust them, even when they speak kind words to You."
- 7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. "I will abandon My house. I will forsake My inheritance. I will give the one I love into the hands of her enemies.
- 8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. My inheritance has become to Me like a lion in the forest. She roars at Me — so I have rejected her.

- 9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. My inheritance is like a speckled bird of prey that other birds surround and attack. Come, gather all the wild animals. Bring them to devour.
- 10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. Many shepherds will ruin My vineyard. They will trample down My field. They will make My pleasant field a desolate wasteland.
- 11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. It will be made a wasteland — parched and desolate before Me. The whole land will be laid waste because no one takes it to heart.
- 12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace. Over all the barren heights in the desert, destroyers will come, for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other. No one will be safe.
- 13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD. They will plant wheat but harvest thorns. They will wear themselves out but gain nothing. They will be ashamed of their harvests because of the LORD's fierce anger."
- 14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. This is what the LORD says: "As for all My wicked neighbors who seize the inheritance I gave to My people Israel — I will uproot them from their lands and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them.

| 15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. 16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people. 17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD. | But after I have uprooted them, I will again have compassion on them and bring each one back to his own inheritance and his own land. And if they learn well the ways of My people and swear by My name, saying 'As the LORD lives' — just as they taught My people to swear by Baal — then they will be established among My people. But if any nation will not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it," says the LORD. |

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to buy a linen girdle and hide it in a hole by the Euphrates; when he retrieved it, the girdle was ruined. So the LORD would ruin the pride of Judah and Jerusalem. He warned that every bottle would be filled with wine -- a symbol of drunkenness and destruction -- and called the people to give glory to the LORD before He caused darkness.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. | This is what the LORD said to me:
"Go and buy a linen belt and put it around Your waist, but do not let it touch water." |
| 2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. | So I bought the belt as the LORD directed and put it on. |
| 3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: |
| 4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. | "Take the belt You bought and are wearing. Go now to the Euphrates and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks." |
| 5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. | So I went and hid it at the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded. |
| 6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. | Many days later the LORD said to me, "Go to the Euphrates now and get the belt I told You to hide there." |
| 7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. | So I went to the Euphrates and dug it up. I took the belt from the place where I had hidden it, but it was ruined and completely useless. |
| 8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. | "This is what the LORD says: In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. |

- 10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. These wicked people refuse to listen to My words. They follow the stubbornness of their own hearts and go after other gods to serve and worship them. They will be like this belt — completely useless.
- 11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. For just as a belt clings to a man's waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to Myself," says the LORD, "so they would be My people — My fame, My praise, and My glory. But they did not listen."
- 12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? "Tell them this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Every jar should be filled with wine.' They will reply, 'Don't we know very well that every jar should be filled with wine?'
- 13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill all who live in this land — the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem — with drunkenness.
- 14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them. I will smash them against each other — parents and children alike,' says the LORD. 'I will allow no pity, mercy, or compassion. I will destroy them.'"
- 15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken. Hear and pay attention. Do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.

| 16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. | Give glory to the LORD Your God before He brings darkness, before Your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light but He will turn it to deep darkness and change it to thick gloom. |
| 17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. | But if You do not listen, I will weep in secret because of Your pride. My eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears, because the LORD's flock will be taken captive. |
| 18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory. | Say to the king and to the queen mother: "Humble yourselves and sit down, for your glorious crowns have fallen from your heads." |
| 19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. | The cities of the south shall be shut up with no one to open them. All Judah shall be carried away captive — wholly carried away captive. |
| 20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? | Look up and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was entrusted to you — your beautiful flock? |
| 21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? | What will You say when the LORD sets over You those You Yourself taught to be Your allies? Will not pain grip You like that of a woman in labor? |
| 22 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. | And if You ask Yourself, "Why has this happened to me?" — it is because of Your great iniquity that Your skirts have been torn off and Your body violated. |

| 23 | Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. | Can an Ethiopian change His skin or a leopard its spots? Neither can You do good who are accustomed to doing evil. |
| 24 | Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness. | "I will scatter You like chaff driven by the desert wind. |
| 25 | This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. | This is Your lot — the portion I have decreed for you," says the LORD, "because You have forgotten Me and trusted in false gods. |
| 26 | Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear. | I will pull up Your skirts over Your face so Your shame may be seen — |
| 27 | I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be? | I have seen Your adulteries and Your neighings, the lewdness of Your whoredom and Your abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe to You, O Jerusalem! Will you not be made clean? When shall it once be?" |

The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. Judah mourned, the ground was parched, and even the deer abandoned their young. The LORD told Jeremiah not to pray for the people's good, and He rejected their fasts and offerings. The prophets who prophesied peace would themselves be consumed by sword and famine.

| 1 | The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth. | This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought: |
| 2 | Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. | "Judah mourns and its gates droop. The people sink to the ground in mourning, and the cry of Jerusalem goes up. |
| 3 | And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. | The nobles send their servants for water. They go to the cisterns but find no water. They return with empty jars. In shame and misery they cover their heads. |
| 4 | Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. | The ground is cracked because there is no rain in the land. The farmers are dismayed and cover their heads. |
| 5 | Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass. | Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass. |
| 6 | And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass. | Wild donkeys stand on the bare heights and pant for air like jackals. Their eyes grow dim because there is no food." |
| 7 | O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. | Although our iniquities testify against us, LORD, act for the sake of Your name. Our unfaithfulness has been great. We have sinned against You. |

- 8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? You are the hope of Israel, its Savior in times of distress. Why should You be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who only stays the night?
- 9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not. Why are You like a man taken by surprise, like a warrior who cannot save? You are among us, LORD, and we bear Your name. Do not forsake us!
- 10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. This is what the LORD says about this people: "They love to wander. They have not held back their feet. So the LORD does not accept them. He will now remember their iniquity and punish their sins."
- 11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for the good of this people.
- 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Even if they fast, I will not listen to their cry. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead I will destroy them by sword, famine, and plague."
- 13 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. I replied, "Ah, Lord GOD! The prophets keep telling them, 'You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give You lasting peace in this place.'"

- 14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. The LORD said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies in My name. I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to You false visions, worthless divinations, and the delusions of their own minds.
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. Therefore this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in My name but whom I did not send — and who say 'No sword or famine will touch this land': Those same prophets will die by sword and famine.
- 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. I will pour on them the calamity they deserve.
- 17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. "Speak this word to them: 'Let my eyes flow with tears night and day without stopping, for the virgin daughter of my people has suffered a crushing blow — a very serious wound.
- 18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not. If I go out into the countryside, I see those killed by the sword. If I go into the city, I see the ravages of famine. Both prophet and priest have gone to a land they do not know."

Do You despise Zion? Why have You struck us down with no healing for us? We hoped for peace but found no good. We hoped for a time of healing but found only terror. We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD — the iniquity of our fathers — for we have sinned against You. For the sake of Your name, do not reject us. Do not dishonor Your glorious throne. Remember Your covenant with us — do not break it. Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Do the skies themselves send down showers? No — it is You, LORD our God. So our hope is in You, for You are the one who does all this. |

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 15

The LORD declared that even if Moses and Samuel stood before Him, He would not relent toward this people. He appointed four forms of destruction -- the sword, dogs, birds, and beasts. Jeremiah complained of his sorrow, and the LORD promised that if he returned and separated the precious from the worthless, Jeremiah would be as God's mouth and the LORD would save him from the hand of the terrible.

- 1 Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.*

The LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before Me, My heart would not go out to this people. Send them away from My presence! Let them go!
- 2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.*

If they ask You, 'Where shall we go?' tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: Those destined for death, to death. Those for the sword, to the sword. Those for famine, to famine. Those for captivity, to captivity.'
- 3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.*

I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," says the LORD: "the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the air and the wild animals to devour and destroy.
- 4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.*

I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

- 5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest? Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Who will mourn for you? Who will stop to ask how you are?
- 6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. You have rejected Me," says the LORD. "You keep going backward. So I will reach out My hand and destroy You. I am weary of relenting.
- 7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways. I will winnow them with a winnowing fork at the gates of the land. I will bring bereavement and destruction on My people, for they have not changed their ways.
- 8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. Their widows will be more numerous than the sand of the sea. At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men. Suddenly I will bring on them anguish and terror.
- 9 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD. The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last. Her sun will set while it is still day. She will be disgraced and put to shame. As for the survivors, I will hand them over to the sword before their enemies," says the LORD.
- 10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. Woe to me, my mother, that You gave birth to me — a man with whom the whole land strives and quarrels. I have not lent or borrowed money, yet everyone curses me.

- 11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. The LORD said, "Surely I will free You for a good purpose. Surely I will make Your enemies plead with You in times of disaster and distress.
- 12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? Can a man break iron — iron from the north — or bronze?
- 13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. Your wealth and Your treasures I will give as plunder without charge — because of all Your sins throughout Your country.
- 14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you. I will enslave You to Your enemies in a land You do not know, for My anger has kindled a fire that will burn against You."
- 15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. LORD, You understand. Remember me and care for me. Avenge me on my persecutors. You are longsuffering — do not take me away. Know that for Your sake I suffer reproach.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — "patient endurance in the face of difficulty or provocation; God's slowness to anger and willingness to withhold punishment far longer than anyone deserves."

- 16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. When Your words came, I received them joyfully. Your word was the joy and delight of my heart, for I bear Your name, LORD God of hosts.
- 17 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation. I did not sit in the company of mockers or celebrate with them. Under Your hand I sat alone, because You had filled me with indignation.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Samuel (SAM-yoo-el) — A prophet and the last of the judges — dedicated to God from birth; anointed both Saul and David as king; his name means 'heard of God' or 'asked of God.'

Chapter 16

The LORD commanded Jeremiah not to take a wife or have children in this place, because sons and daughters born there would die of deadly diseases. He was not to enter a house of mourning or a house of feasting, for the LORD had taken away His peace, lovingkindness, and mercies from this people. Yet afterward the LORD would bring them back from all the lands where He had driven them.

- | | | |
| 1 | The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. | "You must not marry or have sons or daughters in this place." |
| 3 | For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; | For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the mothers who bear them and the fathers who father them: |
| 4 | They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. | "They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will lie like dung on the surface of the ground. They will perish by sword and famine. Their bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals." |

- 5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. For this is what the LORD says: "Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal. Do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn My blessing, My mercy, and My compassion from this people," says the LORD.
- 6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them: "Both high and low will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned. No one will cut themselves or shave their head for them.
- 7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. No one will offer food to comfort those who mourn for the dead — not even for a father or a mother. No one will give them a drink to console them.
- 8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. "And do not enter a house where people are feasting and sit down with them to eat and drink.
- 9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of the bride and groom in this place — in Your own lifetime and before Your eyes.
- 10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? When You tell these people all this and they ask You, 'Why has the LORD decreed such great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?'

- 11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; then say to them, 'It is because Your ancestors forsook Me,' says the LORD, 'and followed other gods and served and worshiped them. They forsook Me and did not keep My law.
- 12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me: And You have behaved worse than Your ancestors. Each of You follows the stubbornness of Your evil heart instead of obeying Me.
- 13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour. So I will throw You out of this land into a land neither You nor Your ancestors have known. There You will serve other gods day and night, for I will show You no favor.'
- 14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; "But the days are coming," says the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'
- 15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. but they will say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had driven them.' For I will restore them to the land I gave their ancestors.
- 16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. "But first I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down from every mountain and hill and from the crevices in the rocks.

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 17

The LORD declared that the sin of Judah was written with a pen of iron and engraved on the tablet of their heart. Cursed is the man who trusts in man, but blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, for he shall be like a tree planted by the waters. The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked -- who can know it? The LORD searches the heart and tests the mind.

- 4 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever. You will lose the inheritance I gave You. I will enslave You to Your enemies in a land You do not know, for You have kindled My anger, and it will burn forever."
- 5 Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. This is what the LORD says: "Cursed is the one who trusts in man — who depends on human strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD.
- 6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. That person will be like a bush in the desert. They will not see prosperity when it comes. They will live in the parched wilderness, in a salt land where no one lives.
- 7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is in the LORD.
- 8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. That person is like a tree planted by the water. It sends out its roots by the stream and does not fear when heat comes. Its leaves stay green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.
- 9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? The heart is more deceitful than anything else and desperately wicked. Who can understand it?
- 10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct — according to what their deeds deserve.

- 11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool. Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay is the person who gains riches by unjust means. When their life is half gone, their riches will desert them. In the end they will be shown to be a fool.
- 12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning — that is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. LORD, You are the hope of Israel. All who forsake You will be put to shame. Those who turn away from You will be written in the dust, for they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living water.
- 14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise. Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed. Save me and I will be saved, for You are the one I praise.
- 15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now. They keep saying to me, "Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now!"
- 16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. I have not run away from being Your shepherd. I have not desired the day of disaster. You know what passed my lips was said in Your presence.
- 17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil. Do not be a terror to me. You are my refuge in the day of disaster.
- 18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. Let those who persecute me be put to shame, but keep me from shame. Let them be terrified, but keep me from terror. Bring on them the day of disaster — destroy them with double destruction.

- 19 Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and stand at the Gate of the People, through which the kings of Judah come and go. Then stand at all the other gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: Say to them: 'Hear the word of the LORD, You kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone who comes through these gates.
- 21 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.
- 22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. Do not carry a load out of Your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded Your ancestors.
- 23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. Yet they did not listen or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and would not listen or accept correction.
- 24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; But if You are careful to obey Me," says the LORD, "and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it —

- 25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever. then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials — in chariots and on horses. The people of Judah and Jerusalem will come, and this city will be inhabited forever.
- 26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD. People will come from the cities of Judah and from the places about Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, meat offerings and incense, and sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD.
- 27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched. But if You do not listen to Me and keep the Sabbath day holy — if You carry loads through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath — then I will set fire to its gates. It will consume the palaces of Jerusalem and will not be quenched."

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Chapter 18

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the potter's house, where the potter reworked a marred vessel into another vessel as it pleased him. As the clay is in the potter's hand, so is Israel in the LORD's hand -- He can pluck up or build a nation as He chooses. The people plotted against Jeremiah, and he prayed for the LORD to deal with them in the time of His anger.

| 1 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, | This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: |
| 2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. | "Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give You My message." |
| 3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. | So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw Him working at the wheel. |
| 4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. | But the pot He was shaping from the clay was ruined in His hands. So the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to Him. |
| 5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. | "Can I not do with You, Israel, as this potter does?" says the LORD. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are You in My hand, Israel. |
| 7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; | If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed, |

- 8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not bring on it the disaster I had planned.
- 9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted,
- 10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. and if it does evil in My sight and does not obey Me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it.
- 11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am framing evil against you, and devising a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: Look — I am preparing a disaster for You and devising a plan against You. Turn from Your evil ways, each of You, and reform Your ways and Your actions.'
- 12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart. But they will reply, 'It is no use. We will continue with our own plans. Each of us will follow the stubbornness of our evil heart.'
- 13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "Ask the nations: Has anyone heard anything like this? A most horrible thing has been done by Virgin Israel.
- 14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes? Do its cool waters from distant sources ever stop flowing?

- 15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up; Yet My people have forgotten Me. They burn incense to worthless idols. They have stumbled off the ancient paths and walk on byways — roads not built up.
- 16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head. Their land will be laid waste — an object of lasting scorn. All who pass by will be appalled and will shake their heads.
- 17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. Like a wind from the east, I will scatter them before their enemies. I will show them My back and not My face in the day of their disaster."
- 18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. They said, "Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not cease, nor will counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says."
- 19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me. Listen to me, LORD. Hear what my accusers are saying.
- 20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them. Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit for me. Remember that I stood before You and spoke on their behalf to turn Your wrath away from them.

Hand them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives be made childless and widows. Let their men be killed and their young men struck down by the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring raiders against them — for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet. But You, LORD, know all their plots to kill me. Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 19

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to buy a potter's earthen bottle and go to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom. He prophesied that the valley would be called the Valley of Slaughter because of the innocent blood shed there. Jeremiah broke the bottle before the elders as a sign that the LORD would break Jerusalem and her people beyond repair.

- | | |

| 1 Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests; | This is what the LORD said: "Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people and some of the leading priests. |
| 2 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, | Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Proclaim there the words I tell You. |
| 3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. | Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, You kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it ring. |
| 4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents; | For they have forsaken Me and made this a foreign place. They have burned incense here to other gods that neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah ever knew. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. |

- 5 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind: They have built the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as offerings to Baal — something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter My mind.
- 6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. So the days are coming,' says the LORD, 'when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.
- 7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. In this place I will ruin the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies — at the hands of those who want to kill them. I will give their bodies as food for the birds of the air and the wild animals.
- 8 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof. I will devastate this city and make it an object of scorn. Everyone who passes by will be appalled and will scoff at all its wounds.
- 9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them. I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters. They will eat each other's flesh during the siege — the distress their enemies will inflict on them as they try to destroy them.'
- 10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, Then break the jar in front of the men who went with You

| 11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. 12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet: 13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods. 14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people, 15 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words. | and say to them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: I will smash this nation and this city just as this potter's jar is smashed and cannot be repaired. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no room to bury anyone.' This is what I will do to this place and to those who live here," says the LORD. "I will make this city like Topheth. The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place of Topheth — all the houses where they burned incense on the rooftops to all the starry hosts and poured out drink offerings to other gods." Jeremiah then returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent Him to prophesy, and He stood in the court of the LORD's house and said to all the people: "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I am going to bring on this city and on all the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked and would not listen to My words.'" |

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 20

Pashur the priest, chief governor of the temple, struck Jeremiah and put him in stocks. When released, Jeremiah renamed Pashur 'Magorissabib' -- terror on every side -- and prophesied that all Judah would be given to the king of Babylon. Jeremiah cursed the day he was born, crying that the word of the LORD had made him a reproach, yet it burned in his heart like fire and he could not hold it in.

- | | | |
| 1 | Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. | Now Pashhur son of Immer, the priest who was chief officer in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. |
| 2 | Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. | So Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in the LORD's temple. |

- 3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magorissabib. The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for You is not Pashhur but 'Terror on Every Side.'
- 4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make You a terror to Yourself and to all Your friends. You will watch them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will carry them away to Babylon or put them to the sword.
- 5 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. I will hand over to their enemies all the wealth of this city — all its produce and all its valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it all to Babylon as plunder.
- 6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. And You, Pashhur, and all who live in Your house will go into exile to Babylon. There You will die and be buried — you and all Your friends to whom You have prophesied lies."
- 7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. LORD, You deceived me and I was deceived. You overpowered me and prevailed. I am ridiculed all day long — everyone mocks me.

- 8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily. Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction. So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.
- 9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay. But if I say, "I will not mention His word or speak anymore in His name," His word burns in my heart like a fire — a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in. Indeed, I cannot.
- 10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side! Report Him! Let's report Him!" All my closest friends are waiting for me to slip. They say, "Perhaps He will be deceived, and then we can overpower Him and take our revenge."
- 11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten. But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior. So my persecutors will stumble and will not prevail. They will fail and be thoroughly ashamed — their dishonor will never be forgotten.
- 12 But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause. LORD of hosts, You who test the righteous and see the heart and mind — let me see Your vengeance on them, for to You I have committed my cause.
- 13 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers. Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD! For He has rescued the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked.
- 14 Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed. Cursed be the day I was born! May the day my mother gave birth to me not be blessed!

May He hear wailing in the morning and battle cries at noon. For He did not kill me in the womb — he who let my mother be my grave, her womb enlarged forever. Why did I ever come out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow and to end my days in shame? |

King Zedekiah sent to Jeremiah to inquire of the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem. The LORD answered that He Himself would fight against Judah with an outstretched hand and would deliver Zedekiah into Nebuchadnezzar's hand. He set before the people the way of life and the way of death -- whoever surrendered to the Chaldeans would live.

Chapter 22

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the king's house to demand justice and righteousness, warning that if they disobeyed, the palace would become a desolation. He pronounced judgment on Shallum, Jehoiakim, and Coniah, declaring that Coniah would be cast out and none of his descendants would prosper sitting on the throne of David.

- | | |
| 1 Thus saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, | This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and proclaim this message there. |
| 2 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates: | Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, You who sit on David's throne — you, your officials, and your people who come through these gates. |
| 3 Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. | This is what the LORD says: Do what is just and right. Rescue from the hand of the oppressor those who have been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place. |
| 4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. | If you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses — they and their officials and their people. |
| 5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. | But if You do not obey these commands, I swear by Myself,' says the LORD, 'that this palace will become a ruin.'" |
| 6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited. | For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah: "Though you are like Gilead to Me, like the summit of Lebanon, I will surely make you a desert, like towns not inhabited. |

- 7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. I will send destroyers against You, each armed with weapons. They will cut down Your finest cedars and throw them into the fire.
- 8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? People from many nations will pass by this city and ask one another, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?'
- 9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them. And the answer will be: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.'
- 10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. Do not weep for the dead king or mourn for Him. Rather weep bitterly for the one who is exiled, because he will never return or see His native land again.
- 11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more: For this is what the LORD says about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father Josiah as king of Judah but has gone from this place: "He will never return here.
- 12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more. He will die in the place where they have taken Him captive. He will not see this land again."
- 13 Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work; "Woe to Him who builds His palace by unrighteous means and His upper rooms by injustice — who makes His neighbors work for nothing, paying them no wages.

- | | |

| 14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. 15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? 16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD. 17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! | He says, 'I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.' So He makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar and decorates it in red. Does it make You a king to have more and more cedar? Did not Your father eat and drink and do justice and what is right? Then things went well for Him. He defended the cause of the poor and needy. Then things went well. Is that not what it means to know Me?' says the LORD. But Your eyes and Your heart are set only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood, on oppression and extortion." Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They will not mourn for him, saying, 'Alas, my brother!' or 'Alas, my sister!' They will not mourn for Him, saying, 'Alas, my master! Alas, His splendor!' |

■ NAME NOTE — Jehoiakim (jih-HOY-uh-kim) — "the LORD raises up" — king of Judah 609–598 BC, son of Josiah. He burned Jeremiah's scroll and was condemned by the prophet.

Raise Your voice in Bashan. Cry out from Abarim, for all Your allies are crushed. |

- 21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. I warned You when You felt secure, but You said, 'I will not listen!' This has been Your pattern since Your youth — you have not obeyed Me.
- 22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness. The wind will drive away all Your shepherds, and Your allies will go into exile. Then You will be ashamed and disgraced because of all Your wickedness.
- 23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail! You who live in Lebanon, who are nestled in cedar buildings, how You will groan when pain comes upon You — pain like that of a woman in labor!
- 24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; "As surely as I live," says the LORD, "even if You, Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would still pull You off.
- 25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. I will hand you over to those who seek your life, those you fear — Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Babylonians.
- 26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born. There you will die.
- 27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return. You will never come back to the land you long to return to."

28	Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?	Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot — an object no one wants? Why will he and his children be hurled out and thrown into a land they do not know?
29	O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.	Land! Land! Land! Hear the word of the LORD!
30	Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.	This is what the LORD says: "Record this man as childless — a man who will not prosper in his lifetime. None of His offspring will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling in Judah."

The LORD pronounced woe on the shepherds who scattered His flock, and promised to raise up a righteous Branch from David who would reign as king and execute judgment and justice -- whose name would be called THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. He rebuked the prophets of Jerusalem who prophesied lies in His name, committed adultery, and strengthened the hands of evildoers.

- 1 Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture!" says the LORD.
- 2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD. Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend My people: "Because You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not taken care of them, I will punish You for the evil You have done," says the LORD.
- 3 And I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. "I Myself will gather the remnant of My flock from all the countries where I have driven them. I will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and multiply.
- 4 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD. I will place shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified. Not one of them will be missing," says the LORD.
- 5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch — a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land.
- 6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. In His days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. This is the name by which He will be called: THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.
- 7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; "So the days are coming," says the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'

- 8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. but they will say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had driven them.' Then they will live in their own land."
- 9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness. My heart is broken within me because of the prophets. All my bones tremble. I am like a drunken man, like someone overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of His holy words.
- 10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right. The land is full of adulterers. Because of them the land mourns. The pleasant pastures in the desert are dried up. The prophets run in an evil course and use their power unjustly.
- 11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. "Both prophet and priest are godless. Even in My temple I find their wickedness," says the LORD.
- 12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. "Therefore their path will become slippery. They will be banished to darkness and there they will fall. I will bring disaster on them in the year I punish them," says the LORD.
- 13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. "Among the prophets of Samaria I saw something repulsive: They prophesied by Baal and led My people Israel astray.

- 14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. And among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen something horrible: They commit adultery and live a lie. They strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that not one of them turns from their wickedness. They are all like Sodom to Me. The people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says concerning the prophets: "I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land."
- 16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Harken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to You. They fill You with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.
- 17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. They keep saying to those who despise Me, 'The LORD says: You will have peace.' And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say, 'No harm will come to You.'
- 18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it? But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear His word? Who has listened and heard His word?
- 19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. A storm of the LORD has gone out in fury — a driving whirlwind. It will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

- 20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come You will understand it clearly.
- 21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. I did not send these prophets, yet they ran with their message. I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.
- 22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. But if they had stood in My council, they would have proclaimed My words to My people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.
- 23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? "Am I only a God nearby," says the LORD, "and not a God far away?"
- 24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?" says the LORD. "Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the LORD.
- 25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. "I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in My name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'
- 26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?
- 27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. They think the dreams they tell one another will make My people forget My name, just as their ancestors forgot My name through Baal worship.

- 28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD. Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has My word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?" says the LORD.
- 29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? "Is not My word like fire," says the LORD, "and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?"
- 30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Therefore I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal from one another words supposedly from Me.
- 31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith. I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who wag their own tongues and yet declare, 'The LORD declares.'
- 32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD. I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD. "They tell them and lead My people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least," says the LORD.
- 33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD. "When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask You, 'What is the burden of the LORD?' say to them, 'What burden? I will forsake You,' says the LORD.
- 34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. But if a prophet or priest or anyone else claims, 'This is a burden from the LORD,' I will punish that person and their household.

Words in this chapter:

Gomorraah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

After Nebuchadnezzar carried Jeconiah and the craftsmen of Judah to Babylon, the LORD showed Jeremiah two baskets of figs set before the temple. The good figs represented the exiles in Babylon, whom the LORD would watch over and bring back. The bad figs represented Zedekiah and those who remained in Jerusalem, whom the LORD would give up to be a curse among all nations.

| 1 The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. | After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried into exile from Jerusalem Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, together with the officials of Judah and the craftsmen and artisans of Jerusalem, and had taken them to Babylon — the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. |
| 2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. | One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen first. The other basket had very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten. |

- 3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. Then the LORD asked me, "What do You see, Jeremiah?" "Figs," I answered. "The good ones are very good, but the bad ones are so bad they cannot be eaten."
- 4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to me:
- 5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.'
- 6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.
- 7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD. They will be My people and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with all their heart.
- 8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt: "'But like the bad figs, which are so bad they cannot be eaten,' says the LORD, 'so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the survivors from Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt.'
- 9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. I will make them abhorrent and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth — a disgrace and a byword, an object of ridicule and cursing, wherever I banish them.

- And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.*

I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their ancestors."

Words in this chapter:

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Chapter 25

Jeremiah warned the people for twenty-three years, but they did not listen. The LORD declared that the whole land would be a desolation, and the nations would serve the king of Babylon seventy years. After seventy years the LORD would punish Babylon. Jeremiah took the cup of the wine of God's fury and made all the nations drink it, for the LORD was calling for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah and all those living in Jerusalem:

- 3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. "For twenty-three years — from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day — the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to You again and again, but You have not listened.
- 4 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. And though the LORD has sent all His servants the prophets to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention.
- 5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever: They said, 'Turn now, each of You, from Your evil ways and Your evil practices, and You can stay in the land the LORD gave to You and Your ancestors for ever and ever.
- 6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them. Do not arouse My anger with what Your hands have made. Then I will not harm You.'
- 7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. But You did not listen to Me," says the LORD, "and You have aroused My anger with what Your hands have made, bringing harm to yourselves.
- 8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: 'Because You have not listened to My words,

- 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. I will summon all the peoples of the north and My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,' says the LORD, 'and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy them and make them an object of horror and scorn — a ruin forever.
- 10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. I will remove from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and groom, the sound of millstones, and the light of every lamp.
- 11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. This whole land will become a ruin and a wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
- 12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation — the land of the Babylonians — for their iniquity,' says the LORD, 'and will make it desolate forever.
- 13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. I will bring on that land all the words I have spoken against it — everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.

- 14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. They themselves will be enslaved by many nations and great kings. I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."
- 15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from My hand this cup filled with the wine of My wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.
- 16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. When they drink it, they will stagger and go out of their minds because of the sword I will send among them."
- 17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me: So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations to whom he sent me drink it:
- 18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day; Jerusalem and the towns of Judah and its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn and cursing — as they are today;
- 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people,
- 20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines — those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod;
- 21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, Edom, Moab, and Ammon;

- 22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea;
- 23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners, Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in distant places;
- 24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert, all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert;
- 25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, all the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media;
- 26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another — all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Babylon will drink it too.
- 27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. "Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk and vomit, and fall to rise no more, because of the sword I will send among You.'
- 28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink. But if they refuse to take the cup from Your hand and drink, tell them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: You must drink it!
- 29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be altogether unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts. See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears My name, and will You indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword on all who live on the earth,' says the LORD of hosts."

- 30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. "Now prophesy all these words against them and say to them: 'The LORD will roar from on high. He will thunder from His holy dwelling and roar mightily against His land. He will shout like those who tread grapes — He will shout against all who live on the earth.
- 31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD. The uproar will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD will bring charges against the nations. He will judge all humanity. The wicked he will give over to the sword,' says the LORD.
- 32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'Look — disaster is spreading from nation to nation. A mighty storm is rising from the ends of the earth.'
- 33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground. At that time those slain by the LORD will be everywhere — from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered or buried. They will be like dung lying on the ground.
- 34 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel. Wail, You shepherds, and cry out! Roll in the dust, You leaders of the flock! For Your time to be slaughtered has come. You will fall and shatter like fine pottery.
- 35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. The shepherds will find no place to flee. The leaders of the flock will not escape.

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the temple court to speak all the words He commanded, withholding nothing. When the priests and prophets heard, they seized him and said he deserved to die. The princes and people defended Jeremiah, citing the precedent of Micah the prophet whom Hezekiah did not put to death, but Urijah the prophet was killed by King Jehoiakim.

- 1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD:
- 2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word: "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell them everything I command You. Do not omit a word.
- 3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from their evil way. Then I will relent and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done.
- 4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, Say to them, "This is what the LORD says: If You do not listen to Me and follow My law, which I have set before You,
- 5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; and if You do not listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I have sent to You again and again — though You have not listened —
- 6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. then I will make this house like Shiloh and this city a curse among all the nations of the earth."
- 7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD.

- 8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded Him to say, the priests and prophets and all the people seized him and said, "You must die!
- 9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. Why do You prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?" And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.
- 10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house. When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their seats at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house.
- 11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death! He has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"
- 12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words You have heard.
- 13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. Now reform Your ways and Your actions and obey the LORD Your God. Then the LORD will relent and not bring the disaster He has pronounced against You.

- 14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you. As for me, I am in Your hands. Do with me whatever You think is good and right.
- 15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears. But be assured of this: If You put me to death, You will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it. For in truth the LORD has sent me to You to speak all these words in Your hearing."
- 16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."
- 17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying, Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people:
- 18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.'
- 19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls. Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the LORD and seek His favor? And did not the LORD relent, so that He did not bring on them the disaster He had pronounced? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!"

- 20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjathjearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: Now Urijah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD. He prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.
- 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt; When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But Urijah heard of it and was afraid. He fled to Egypt.
- 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Achbor to Egypt, along with some other men.
- 23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. They brought Urijah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword and his body thrown into the burial ground of the common people.
- 24 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death. Furthermore, Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah and kept him from being handed over to the people to be put to death.

Words in this chapter:

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Josiah (jo-ZY-ah) — The reforming king of Judah who rediscovered the Book of the Law — tore down idols and restored temple worship; his name means 'the LORD heals' or 'supported by the LORD.'

Shiloh (SHY-lo) — The central sanctuary where the tabernacle rested for about 300 years after Joshua — where Hannah prayed for a son and where the young Samuel served Eli.

Chapter 27

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to make yokes and send them to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, declaring that He had given all these lands to Nebuchadnezzar. Any nation that refused to serve Babylon would be punished with sword, famine, and pestilence. The prophets who said the vessels of the LORD's house would soon return from Babylon were lying.

- 5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. With My great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and its people and animals, and I give it to anyone I please.
- 6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. Now I will give all your countries to My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will make even the wild animals subject to him.
- 7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. All nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his land comes. Then many nations and great kings will subjugate him.
- 8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under His yoke, I will punish that nation with sword, famine, and plague,' says the LORD, 'until I destroy it by His hand.
- 9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your fortune-tellers, or your sorcerers who tell you, "You will not serve the king of Babylon."
- 10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. They prophesy lies to you that will only serve to remove you far from your lands. I would banish you and you would perish.

- 11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to cultivate it and to live there,' says the LORD."
- 12 I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon. Serve him and his people, and you will live.
- 13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? Why will You and Your people die by the sword, famine, and plague with which the LORD has threatened every nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?
- 14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you.
- 15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you. I have not sent them," says the LORD. "They are prophesying lies in My name. Therefore I will banish You and You will perish — both You and the prophets who prophesy to You."
- 16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. Then I said to the priests and all these people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, 'Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to You.

- 17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste? Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin?
- 18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD of hosts that the articles remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon.
- 19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, For this is what the LORD of hosts says about the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands, and the other articles that remain in this city,
- 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried away Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem —
- 21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem; yes, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem:
- 22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place. "They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them," says the LORD. "Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place."

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Hananiah the prophet broke the yoke from Jeremiah's neck and prophesied that within two years the LORD would break the yoke of Babylon and bring back the vessels and the exiles. Jeremiah said amen, may the LORD do so, but the prophet who prophesies peace is only proven when his word comes to pass. The LORD sent Jeremiah back with yokes of iron and declared that Hananiah would die that year -- and he did.

| ¹ And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, | In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: |
| ² Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. | "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. |
| ³ Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: | Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon. |

- 4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"
- 5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD.
- 6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. He said, "Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words You have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD's house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon.
- 7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people; Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in Your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:
- 8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. From early times the prophets who came before You and me have prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many countries and great kingdoms.
- 9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him. But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if His prediction comes true."
- 10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.

- 11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. Hananiah said before all the people, "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.'" At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.
- 12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron. "Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place You will get a yoke of iron.'
- 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve Him. I will even give Him control over the wild animals."
- 15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent You, yet You have persuaded this nation to trust in lies.
- 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD. Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove You from the face of the earth. This very year You are going to die, because You have preached rebellion against the LORD.'
- 17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month. In the seventh month of that same year, the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah sent a letter to the exiles in Babylon, telling them to build houses, plant gardens, marry, and seek the peace of the city where the LORD had sent them. He promised that after seventy years the LORD would visit them and bring them back, declaring, 'I know the thoughts I think toward you, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.'

It said: |

- 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon; "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:
- 5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them; 'Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat what they produce.
- 6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished. Marry and have sons and daughters. Find wives for Your sons and give Your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Multiply there — do not decrease.
- 7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace. Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried You into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, You too will prosper.'
- 8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. Yes, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Do not let the prophets and diviners among You deceive You. Do not listen to the dreams You encourage them to have.
- 9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. They are prophesying lies to You in My name. I have not sent them,' says the LORD.
- 10 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. This is what the LORD says: 'When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to You and fulfill My good promise to bring You back to this place.

- 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. For I know the thoughts that I think toward You, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give You an expected end.
- 12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. Then You will call on Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to You.
- 13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. You will seek Me and find Me when You seek Me with all Your heart.
- 14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. I will be found by You,' says the LORD, 'and will bring You back from captivity. I will gather You from all the nations and places where I have banished you,' says the LORD, 'and will bring You back to the place from which I carried You into exile.'
- 15 Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; You may say, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon" —
- 16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow citizens who did not go into exile with You —
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. yes, this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will send sword, famine, and plague against them and I will make them like bad figs that are so rotten they cannot be eaten.

- 18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth — a curse and an object of horror, scorn, and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them.
- 19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. For they have not listened to My words," says the LORD, "words that I sent to them again and again through My servants the prophets. And You exiles have not listened either," says the LORD.
- 20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: Therefore, all You exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon, hear the word of the LORD.
- 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to You in My name: "I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before Your very eyes.
- 22 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: 'May the LORD treat You like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned in the fire.'

- 23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD. For they have done outrageous things in Israel — they have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives and have spoken in My name words I did not command. I know it and I am a witness to it," says the LORD.
- 24 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite:
- 25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in Your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the other priests. You told Zephaniah:
- 26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks. "The LORD has appointed You priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the house of the LORD over every madman who acts like a prophet. You should put Him in the stocks and the iron collar.
- 27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you? So why have You not rebuked Jeremiah from Anathoth, who acts as your prophet?"
- 28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. He has even sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what they produce."
- 29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet.
- 30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

Chapter 30

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write all His words in a book, for the days were coming when He would bring His people back from captivity. Though Jacob's trouble would be great, the LORD would save him out of it and break his yoke. The LORD would restore health to Zion and heal her wounds, and David's city would be rebuilt.

| 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, | This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: |
| 2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. | "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Write in a book all the words I have spoken to You. |
| 3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. | The days are coming,' says the LORD, 'when I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel and Judah,' says the LORD. 'I will bring them back to the land I gave their ancestors, and they will take possession of it.'" |
| 4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah. | These are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah: |
| 5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. | "This is what the LORD says: 'I hear a cry of fear — there is terror, not peace. |
| 6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? | Ask and see: Can a man bear children? Then why do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor, and every face turned deathly pale? |
| 7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. | How awful that day will be! No other will be like it. It will be a time of trouble for Jacob, but he will be saved out of it. |
| 8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: | In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will break the yoke off their necks and tear off their bonds. Foreigners will no longer enslave them. |

- 9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. Instead, they will serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.
- 10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. So do not be afraid, My servant Jacob,' says the LORD. 'Do not be dismayed, Israel. I will surely save You from a distant place — your descendants from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security, and no one will make them afraid.
- 11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished. I am with You and will save You,' says the LORD. 'Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy You. I will discipline You but only with justice. I will not let You go entirely unpunished.'
- 12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous. "This is what the LORD says: 'Your wound is incurable, Your injury beyond healing.
- 13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines. There is no one to plead your cause — no remedy for your sore, no healing for You.
- 14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased. All Your allies have forgotten You. They care nothing for You. I have struck You as an enemy would — with the punishment of the cruel — because Your iniquity is so great and Your sins so many.
- 15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee. Why do You cry out over Your wound? Your pain has no cure! Because of Your great iniquity and Your many sins I have done these things to You.

- 16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey. But all who devour You will be devoured. All Your enemies will go into exile. Those who plunder You will be plundered. All who make spoil of You I will despoil.
- 17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. But I will restore You to health and heal Your wounds,' says the LORD, 'because You are called an outcast, Zion for whom no one cares.'
- 18 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof. "This is what the LORD says: 'I will restore the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes. The city will be rebuilt on her ruins, and the palace will stand in its proper place.
- 19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing. I will add to their numbers, and they will not be decreased. I will bring them honor, and they will not be looked down on.
- 20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them. Their children will be as they were before, and their community will be established before Me. I will punish all who oppress them.
- 21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD. Their leader will be one of their own. Their ruler will arise from among them. I will bring Him near and He will come close to Me, for who is He who will devote himself to be close to Me?' says the LORD.

| 22 | And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. | 'So You will be My people, and I will be Your God.' |
| 23 | Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked. | See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath — a driving whirlwind. It will swirl down on the heads of the wicked. |
| 24 | The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it. | The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come You will understand this. |

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 31

The LORD declared His everlasting love for Israel and promised to build her again. Rachel weeps for her children, but the LORD tells her to stop weeping, for they shall come back from the enemy's land. The LORD will make a new covenant with Israel -- not like the one He made when He brought them out of Egypt -- writing His law on their hearts, and all shall know Him from the least to the greatest.

| 1 At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. | "At that time," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be My people." |
| 2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. | This is what the LORD says: "The people who survived the sword found grace in the desert. Israel is going to find rest." |
| 3 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. | The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying: "I have loved You with an everlasting love. I have drawn You with loving-kindness." |
| 4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry. | I will build You up again, and You will be rebuilt, Virgin Israel. Again You will take up Your tambourines and go out to dance with the joyful. |
| 5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. | Again You will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria. The farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit. |
| 6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. | There will be a day when watchmen cry out on the hills of Ephraim, 'Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.'" |

- 7 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. This is what the LORD says: "Sing with joy for Jacob. Shout for the greatest of the nations. Make your praises heard and say, 'LORD, save Your people, the remnant of Israel.'
- 8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither. See, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth. Among them will be the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labor — a great crowd will return.
- 9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. They will come with weeping. I will lead them beside streams of water on a level path where they will not stumble, because I am Israel's father and Ephraim is My firstborn son.
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock. Hear the word of the LORD, You nations. Proclaim it in distant coastlands: 'He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.'
- 11 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he. For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and has rescued him from the hand of those stronger than He.

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEM-shun) — "to buy back, to set free by paying a price. When God redeems His people, He pays the cost to release them from slavery, sin, or captivity."

- 12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion. They will rejoice in the goodness of the LORD — the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, the young of the flocks and herds. They will be like a well-watered garden and will sorrow no more.
- 13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. Then young women will dance and be glad — young men and old as well. I will turn their mourning into gladness. I will give them comfort and joy instead of sorrow.
- 14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD. I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and My people will be filled with My goodness," says the LORD.
- 15 Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. This is what the LORD says: "A voice is heard in Ramah — mourning and great weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."
- 16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. This is what the LORD says: "Restrain Your voice from weeping and Your eyes from tears, for Your work will be rewarded," says the LORD. "They will return from the land of the enemy.
- 17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border. So there is hope for Your descendants," says the LORD. "Your children will return to their own land.

- 18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God. "I have surely heard Ephraim's moaning: 'You disciplined me like an unruly calf, and I have been disciplined. Restore me and I will return, because You are the LORD my God.
- 19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. After I strayed, I repented. After I came to understand, I beat my chest. I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'
- 20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD. Is not Ephraim My dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against Him, I still remember Him. Therefore My heart yearns for Him. I will surely have mercy on Him," says the LORD.
- 21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities. "Set up road signs. Put up guideposts. Take note of the highway, the road that You take. Return, Virgin Israel. Return to Your towns.
- 22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man. How long will You wander, unfaithful daughter? The LORD will create a new thing on earth — a woman will surround a man."
- 23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "When I bring them back from captivity, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: 'The LORD bless You, You righteous dwelling, You sacred mountain.'

- 24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks. People will live together in Judah and all its towns — farmers and those who move about with their flocks.
- 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul. I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint."
- 26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.
- 27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will plant the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the offspring of people and of animals.
- 28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD. Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, to overthrow and destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," says the LORD.
- 29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. "In those days people will no longer say, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'
- 30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. Instead, everyone will die for their own iniquity. Whoever eats sour grapes — their own teeth will be set on edge.
- 31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

- 32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD: It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt — a covenant they broke, though I was a husband to them," says the LORD.
- 33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. "This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," says the LORD. "I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts. I will be their God and they will be My people.
- 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. No longer will they teach their neighbors, or say to one another, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest," says the LORD. "For I will forgive their iniquity and will remember their sin no more."
- 35 Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: This is what the LORD says, He who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar — the LORD of hosts is His name:
- 36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. "Only if these decrees vanish from My sight," says the LORD, "will Israel ever cease being a nation before Me."

- 37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD. This is what the LORD says: "Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done," says the LORD.
- 38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner. "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when this city will be rebuilt for Me from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.
- 39 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath. The measuring line will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah.
- 40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever. The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished."

Rachel (RAY-chel) — Jacob's beloved second wife, Laban's younger daughter — mother of Joseph and Benjamin; died giving birth to Benjamin; her name means 'ewe.'

Chapter 32

While Jerusalem was under siege, the LORD told Jeremiah to buy a field in Anathoth from his cousin Hanameel as a sign that houses and fields would be bought again in the land. Jeremiah obeyed and prayed, marveling at the LORD's power. The LORD confirmed that though He was giving the city to the Chaldeans because of Judah's sin, He would gather His people and make an everlasting covenant with them.

| 2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. | The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace of Judah. |

- 5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper. He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with Him,' says the LORD. 'If You fight against the Babylonians, You will not succeed.'"
- 6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me:
- 7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. 'Hanameel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field at Anathoth, because as next of kin it is Your right and duty to buy it.'""
- 8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanameel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, "Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is Your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for Yourself." I knew that this was the word of the LORD.
- 9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. So I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanameel and weighed out for Him seventeen shekels of silver.
- 10 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the silver on the scales.
- 11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open: I took both the sealed copy of the deed of purchase — the one containing the terms and conditions — and the unsealed copy.

- 12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.
- I gave this deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanameel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed and of all the Judeans sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

■ NAME NOTE — Baruch (BAIR-uk) — "blessed" — Jeremiah's faithful secretary and companion, who recorded the prophet's words and preserved his scrolls. He appears prominently from chapter 32 onward.

- 13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,
- In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions:
- 14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.
- "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Take both this sealed deed of purchase and this unsealed deed and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time.
- 15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.
- For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land."
- 16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,
- After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:
- 17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:
- "Ah, Lord GOD! You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for You.

- 18 Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, You show mercy to thousands and bring the punishment of the fathers' sins into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: Your purposes are great and Your deeds are mighty. Your eyes are open to all the ways of all people. You reward everyone according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve.
- 20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; You performed signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, in Israel and among all people, and have gained the renown that is still Yours.
- 21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror; You brought Your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror.
- 22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; You gave them this land You had sworn to give their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey You or follow Your law. They did not do what You commanded them to do. So You brought all this disaster on them.

- 24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of sword, famine, and plague, the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What You said has happened, as You now see.
- 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. And though the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians, You have said to me, Lord GOD: 'Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.'"
- 26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me? "I am the LORD, the God of all people. Is anything too hard for Me?
- 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it.
- 29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger. The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire. They will burn it down — along with the houses where the people aroused My anger by burning incense on their rooftops to Baal and pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

- 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in My sight from their youth. The people of Israel have done nothing but arouse My anger with what their hands have made," says the LORD.
- 31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face, From the day it was built until now, this city has aroused My anger and wrath, so that I must remove it from My sight.
- 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. The people of Israel and Judah have provoked Me by all the evil they and their kings, officials, priests, and prophets — the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem — have done.
- 33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. They turned their backs to Me and not their faces. Though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline.
- 34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it. They set up their vile images in the house that bears My name and defiled it.
- 35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech, though I never commanded — nor did it enter My mind — that they should do such a detestable thing to lead Judah into sin.

- 36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; "You are saying about this city, 'By sword, famine, and plague it will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon.' But this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:
- 37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banish them in My furious anger and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety.
- 38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God: They will be My people and I will be their God.
- 39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear Me and that all will then go well for them and for their children after them.
- 40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear Me, so that they will never turn away from Me.
- 41 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. I will rejoice in doing them good and will assuredly plant them in this land with all My heart and soul.
- 42 For thus saith the LORD; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them.

- 43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Once more fields will be bought in this land about which You say, 'It is a desolate wasteland, without people or animals — it has been given into the hands of the Babylonians.'
- 44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD. Men shall buy fields for money and subscribe evidences, seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, in the places about Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south. For I will cause their captivity to return," says the LORD.

redemption — To buy back, to set free by paying a price — God paid the cost of our sin through Christ's blood to free us.

Chapter 33

While Jeremiah was still imprisoned, the LORD told him to call and He would answer and show him great and mighty things. The LORD promised to heal Jerusalem, reveal abundance of peace and truth, and cause the Branch of Righteousness to spring forth from David. The covenant with David and with the Levitical priests would stand as firm as the LORD's covenant with day and night.

| 1 | Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying, | While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to Him a second time: |
| 2 | Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; the LORD is his name; | "This is what the LORD says, He who made the earth, the LORD Who formed it and established it — the LORD is His name: |
| 3 | Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. | Call to Me and I will answer You and show You great and mighty things You do not know. |
| 4 | For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword; | For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege ramps and the sword — |
| 5 | They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. | the houses where people fought the Babylonians but were filled with the bodies of those I struck down in My anger and wrath, those whose wickedness made Me hide My face from this city: |
| 6 | Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth. | 'Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it. I will heal My people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. |
| 7 | And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. | I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and will rebuild them as they were before. |

- 8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me. I will cleanse them from all the iniquity they have committed against Me, and I will forgive all their iniquities by which they sinned against Me and rebelled against Me.
- 9 And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it. Then this city will bring Me renown, joy, praise, and honor before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it. They will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.'
- 10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, "This is what the LORD says: 'You say about this place, "It is a desolate wasteland, without people or animals." Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted — inhabited by neither people nor animals — there will be heard once more
- 11 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD. the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and groom, and the voices of those who bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD, saying, "Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good. His mercy endures forever." For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before,' says the LORD.

- 12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'In this place, desolate and without people or animals — in all its towns — there will again be pastures where shepherds rest their flocks.
- 13 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD. In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of Him that counts them,' says the LORD.
- 14 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. "'The days are coming,' says the LORD, 'when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah.
- 15 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David's line. He will do what is just and right in the land.
- 16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The LORD Our Righteousness.'
- 17 For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; For this is what the LORD says: 'David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of Israel,

- 18 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. nor will the Levitical priests ever fail to have a man to stand before Me continually to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to present sacrifices."
- 19 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 20 Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; "This is what the LORD says: 'If You can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time,
- 21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. then My covenant with David My servant — and My covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before Me — can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.'
- 22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. I will make the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister before Me as countless as the stars in the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore."
- 23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. "Have You not noticed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms He chose'? So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation.
- 25 Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not made My covenant with day and night and established the laws of heaven and earth,

- 26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them. then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them."

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Chapter 34

Jeremiah told Zedekiah that the LORD would give Jerusalem to the king of Babylon and Zedekiah would be captured, but he would die in peace. The princes and people made a covenant to free their Hebrew slaves, then took them back into bondage. The LORD declared that because they profaned His name, He would give them to their enemies.

- 1 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying, While Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire He ruled were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding towns, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:

- 2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.
- 3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and given into his hands. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.
- 4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: Yet hear the word of the LORD, Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning You: You will not die by the sword.
- 5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD. You will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire in honor of Your fathers, the former kings who preceded You, so they will make a fire in Your honor and lament for You, saying, "Alas, master!" I Myself make this promise,' says the LORD."
- 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem
- 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah. while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out — Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

- 8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom for the slaves.
- 9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. Everyone was to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female. No one was to hold a fellow Hebrew in bondage.
- 10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free.
- 11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. But afterward they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.
- 12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with Your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said:

- 14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear. 'Every seventh year each of You must free any fellow Hebrew who has sold Himself to You. After He has served You six years, You must let Him go free.' But Your ancestors did not listen to Me or pay attention to Me.
- 15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: Recently You repented and did what is right in My sight: each of You proclaimed freedom to Your neighbors. You even made a covenant before Me in the house that bears My name.
- 16 But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids. But then You turned around and profaned My name. Each of You took back the male and female slaves You had set free. You forced them to become Your slaves again.
- 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. Therefore this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed Me — you have not proclaimed freedom to Your own people. So I now proclaim 'freedom' for You," says the LORD — "freedom to fall by the sword, plague, and famine. I will make You abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof, Those who have violated My covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before Me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then walked between its pieces.

- v22 — Jer 9:11

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to bring the Rechabites into the temple and offer them wine. They refused, saying their ancestor Jonadab had commanded them never to drink wine, build houses, or plant vineyards. The LORD held up the Rechabites as an example of obedience that shamed Judah, for Judah would not listen to the LORD though He spoke to them persistently.

| 1 | The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, | This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: |
| 2 | Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. | "Go to the community of the Rechabites and invite them to come to the house of the LORD into one of the side rooms. Then offer them wine." |
| 3 | Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniyah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; | So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all His sons — the whole community of the Rechabites. |

■ NAME NOTE — Rechabites (REE-kuh-bites) — descendants of Jonadab (Jehonadab) son of Rechab, who commanded his descendants to live in tents, plant no vineyards, and drink no wine as a sign of separation from Canaanite culture. Their obedience to their ancestor becomes a rebuke to Judah's disobedience to God.

- 5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the Rechabites and said, "Drink some wine."
- 6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever: But they replied, "We do not drink wine, because our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab gave us this command: 'Neither You nor Your descendants must ever drink wine.
- 7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers. Also You must never build houses, sow seed, or plant vineyards. You must never have any of these things. Instead You must always live in tents. Then You will live a long time in the land where You are strangers.'
- 8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; We have obeyed everything Jonadab son of Rechab our ancestor commanded us. Neither we nor our wives nor our sons nor our daughters have ever drunk wine
- 9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: or built houses or had vineyards, fields, or crops.
- 10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.
- 11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian and Aramean armies.' So we have been living in Jerusalem."
- 12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

- 13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.
- 14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.
- 15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.
- 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:
- "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, 'Will You not learn a lesson and obey My words?' says the LORD.
- Jonadab son of Rechab ordered His descendants not to drink wine, and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to You again and again, yet You have not obeyed Me.
- Again and again I sent all My servants the prophets to You. They said, "Each of You must turn from Your wicked ways and reform Your actions. Do not follow other gods to serve them. Then You will live in the land I have given to You and Your ancestors." But You have not paid attention or listened to Me.
- The descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the command their ancestor gave them, but this people has not obeyed Me.'

- 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered. Therefore this is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen. I called to them, but they did not answer.'
- 18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Rechabites, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed the command of Your ancestor Jonadab and have followed all His instructions and have done everything He ordered.'
- 19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a descendant to serve Me.'"

Words in this chapter:

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Josiah (jo-ZY-ah) — The reforming king of Judah who rediscovered the Book of the Law — tore down idols and restored temple worship; his name means 'the LORD heals' or 'supported by the LORD.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Chapter 36

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write all His words on a scroll. Baruch the scribe wrote at Jeremiah's dictation and read the scroll in the temple. King Jehoiakim had the scroll brought to him and cut it with a knife, piece by piece, and burned it in the fire. The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write another scroll, adding many similar words, and declared that Jehoiakim's dead body would be cast out.

- | | |
| 1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, | In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: |
| 2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. | "Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah until now. |
| 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil that I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. | Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to bring on them, they will each turn from their wicked ways. Then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin." |
| 4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. | So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to Him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll. |
| 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: | Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am restricted. I cannot go to the LORD's temple. |

- 6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. So You go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that You wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns.
- 7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD and will each turn from their wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great."
- 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house. Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. At the LORD's temple He read the words of the LORD from the scroll.
- 9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem. In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah.
- 10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people. From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.
- 11 When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

- 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.
- 13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. Micaiah told them everything He had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll.
- 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. Then all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll from which You have been reading to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in His hand.
- 15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. They said to Him, "Sit down, please, and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.
- 16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king."
- 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?"
- 18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. "Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll."

- 19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don't let anyone know where you are."
- 20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him.
- 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king. The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him.
- 22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment, with a fire burning in the firepot in front of him.
- 23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire.
- 24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear, nor did they tear their clothes.
- 25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

- 26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them. Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them.
- 27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned. "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up.
- 29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, "This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did You write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cut off both people and animals from it?"
- 30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. His body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.
- 31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not. I will punish Him and His children and His attendants for their wickedness. I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have not listened.""

- 32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words. So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah. As Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

Chapter 37

King Zedekiah sent to Jeremiah asking him to pray for the nation. Jeremiah warned that the Chaldeans would return and burn the city. When Jeremiah tried to leave Jerusalem, he was arrested as a deserter and thrown into a dungeon. Zedekiah secretly brought him out and asked for a word from the LORD, and Jeremiah told him he would be delivered into the king of Babylon's hand.

- 1 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. Zedekiah son of Josiah was made king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He reigned in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim.
- 2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah. Neither He nor His attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.
- 3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. King Zedekiah, however, sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to ask Jeremiah the prophet, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."
- 4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison. Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.
- 5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. Pharaoh's army had marched out of Egypt, and when the Babylonians who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.
- 6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet:
- 7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Me: 'Pharaoh's army, which has marched out to support you, will go back to its own land of Egypt.'
- 8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city. They will capture it and burn it down.'

- 9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. "This is what the LORD says: Do not deceive yourselves, thinking, 'The Babylonians will surely leave us.' They will not!
- 10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. Even if You were to defeat the entire Babylonian army that is attacking You and only wounded men were left in their tents, they would still rise up and burn this city down."
- 11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, After the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army,
- 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property among the people there.
- 13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans. But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!"
- 14 Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. "That's not true!" Jeremiah said. "I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah would not listen to him. Instead, he arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.
- 15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison. They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.

- 16 When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time.
- 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. Then King Zedekiah sent for him and had him brought to the palace, where He asked Him privately, "Is there any word from the LORD?" "Yes," Jeremiah replied, "you will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon."
- 18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison? Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you, Your attendants, or this people, that You have put me in prison?"
- 19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land'?
- 20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let my petition come before you. Please do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I will die there."
- 21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Words in this chapter:

Jonathan (JON-ah-than) — Saul's son and David's closest friend — showed remarkable loyalty to David even against his father's wishes; his name means 'the LORD has given.'

Chapter 38

The princes cast Jeremiah into a muddy cistern to die because his words discouraged the soldiers. Ebedmelech the Ethiopian persuaded the king to rescue him, and Jeremiah was pulled out with ropes and rags. Zedekiah secretly consulted Jeremiah, who told him that if he surrendered to Babylon the city would not be burned and he would live, but Zedekiah feared the Jews who had already defected.

- 1 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying, Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah had been telling all the people:
- 2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. "This is what the LORD says: 'Whoever stays in this city will die by sword, famine, or plague. But whoever goes over to the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives.'
- 3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. This is what the LORD says: 'This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.'

- 4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. Then the officials said to the king, "This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying. He is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin."
- 5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. "He is in your hands," King Zedekiah answered. "The king can do nothing to oppose you."
- 6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire. So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern. There was no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.
- 7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin; Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon — the king was sitting in the gate of Benjamin —
- 8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to him:
- 9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city. "My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city."

- 10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, "Take thirty men with you from here and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies."
- 11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and lowered them by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.
- 12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so. Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under your armpits under the cords." And Jeremiah did so,
- 13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.
- 14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. "I am going to ask you something," the king said to Jeremiah. "Do not hide anything from me."
- 15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me? Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I do give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

- 16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill You nor hand You over to those who want to kill You."
- 17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down. You and your family will live.'
- 18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand. But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians and they will burn it down. You yourself will not escape from their hands."
- 19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have already gone over to the Babylonians. The Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will abuse me."
- 20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. "They will not hand You over," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the LORD by doing what I tell You. Then it will go well with You and Your life will be spared.
- 21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: But if You refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me:

- 22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back. All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you: 'They misled you and overcame you — your trusted friends. Now that your feet are sunk in the mud, your friends have turned away.'
- 23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire. All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon. And this city will be burned down."
- 24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die.
- 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you — do not hide it from us or we will kill you' —
- 26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. then tell them, 'I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die there.'"
- 27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. All the officials did come to Jeremiah and question him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they said no more to him, for no one had heard his conversation with the king.

So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.
- And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Words in this chapter:

conversation — Conduct or way of life — in the KJV, 'conversation' almost never means talking; it means behavior and manner of living.

Chapter 39

Nebuchadnezzar's army broke through the walls of Jerusalem in the eleventh year of Zedekiah. Zedekiah fled but was captured near Jericho; his sons were killed before his eyes, then his eyes were put out and he was bound in chains for Babylon. Nebuzaradan burned the city but released Jeremiah and commanded that he be treated well. The LORD promised Ebedmelech that his life would be spared.

In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.
- This is how Jerusalem was captured: In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege to it.

And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.
- And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, the city wall was broken through.

- 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergalsharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officials of the king of Babylon.
- 4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled. They left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed toward the Arabah.
- 5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. But the Babylonian army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.
- 6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.
- 7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. Then he gouged out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.
- 8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. The Babylonians set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people. They broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

- 9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him and the rest of the people.
- 10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing. At that time he gave them vineyards and fields.
- 11 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard:
- 12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. "Take him and look after him. Don't harm him but do for him whatever he asks."
- 13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rabsaris, and Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon
- 14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.
- 15 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD had come to Him:

- 16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. "Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I will bring My words upon this city for evil and not for good. They shall be accomplished before You in that day.
- 17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. But I will rescue You on that day,' says the LORD. 'You will not be given into the hands of those You fear.
- 18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD. I will save You. You will not fall by the sword but will escape with Your life, because You trust in Me,' says the LORD."

Nebuzaradan released Jeremiah at Ramah and gave him the choice to go to Babylon or stay. Jeremiah chose to stay with Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor over the remnant in Judah. Gedaliah gathered the scattered people and told them to serve the Chaldeans and it would be well with them, but Johanan warned Gedaliah that Ishmael planned to murder him.

- ¹ The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard had released Him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon.
- ² And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him: "The LORD Your God decreed this disaster for this place.
- ³ Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

And the LORD has brought it about. He has done just as He said He would. All this happened because You people sinned against the LORD and did not obey Him.
- ⁴ And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

But today I am freeing You from the chains on Your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if You like, and I will look after You. But if You do not want to come, then don't. See, the whole land lies before You. Go wherever You please."

- 5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go. But before Jeremiah turned to go, Nebuzaradan added, "Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please." Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go.

■ NAME NOTE — Gedaliah (ged-uh-LY-uh) — "the LORD is great" — appointed governor over the remaining people of Judah after the fall of Jerusalem. He was assassinated not long after taking office (Jeremiah 41).

- 6 So Jeremiah went unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with Him among the people who were left behind in the land.
- 7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest in the land and had not been carried into exile to Babylon,
- 8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah — Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maachathite, and their men.

- 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians," he said. "Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.
- 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. I myself will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us. You are to harvest the wine, summer fruit, and olive oil, and put them in your storage jars. Live in the towns you have taken over."
- 11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; When all the Jews in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, over them,
- 12 Then they returned out of all places whither they were driven, even Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer fruit.
- 13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, of the royal family, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah and murdered him along with the Jews and Chaldean soldiers who were with him. He killed seventy of eighty men who came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria, and took the remnant captive. Johanan and his forces pursued Ishmael and rescued the captives, but Ishmael escaped to the Ammonites.

| 1 | Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. | In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king's officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there, |
| 2 | Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. | Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land. |
| 3 | Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war. | Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian soldiers who were there. |
| 4 | And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, | The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew about it, |
| 5 | That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. | eighty men who had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. They were bringing grain offerings and incense to the house of the LORD. |

- 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as He went. When He met them, He said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam."
- 7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him. When they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with Him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.
- 8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. But ten of them said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey hidden in a field." So He let them alone and did not kill them with the others.
- 9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain. Now the cistern where he threw all the bodies of the men he had killed was the large cistern that King Asa had made as part of his defense against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.
- 10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon. Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah — the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to Ammon.

- 11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, When Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed,
- 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool in Gibeon.
- 13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. When all the people Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers with him, they were glad.
- 14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned around and came over to Johanan son of Kareah.
- 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to Ammon.
- 16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon: Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him led away all the survivors from Mizpah who had been recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam — the soldiers, women, children, and court officials he had brought from Gibeon.
- 17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt

- 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land. to escape from the Babylonians. They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Johanan and the remnant asked Jeremiah to pray and inquire of the LORD whether they should stay in Judah or go to Egypt, swearing to obey whatever the LORD said. After ten days the LORD answered: if they stayed in the land He would build them up and plant them, but if they went to Egypt the sword and famine they feared would follow them there, and they would die.

- 1 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near, Then all the army officers, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached
- 2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:) and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please hear our petition and pray to the LORD your God for this entire remnant. For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few are left.

- 3 That the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do. Pray that the LORD Your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do."
- 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. "I have heard You," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will certainly pray to the LORD Your God as You have requested. I will tell You everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from You."
- 5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD Your God sends You to tell us."
- 6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God. Whether it is favorable or unfavorable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending You, so that it will go well with us, for we will obey the LORD our God."
- 7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.
- 8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, So He called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with Him and all the people from the least to the greatest.
- 9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him: He said to them: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom You sent me to present Your petition, says:

- 10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. 'If You stay in this land, I will build You up and not tear You down. I will plant You and not uproot You, for I am grieved over the disaster I have inflicted on You.
- 11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of Him,' says the LORD, 'for I am with You and will save You and deliver You from His hands.
- 12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. I will show You compassion so that He will have compassion on You and restore You to Your land.'
- 13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, But if You say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and so disobey the LORD Your God,
- 14 Saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: and if You say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the trumpet or be hungry for bread,'
- 15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; then hear the word of the LORD, You remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If You are determined to go to Egypt and You do go to settle there,
- 16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. then the sword You fear will overtake You there, and the famine You dread will follow You into Egypt, and there You will die.

- 17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by sword, famine, and plague. Not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.'
- 18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as My anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will My wrath be poured out on You when You go to Egypt. You will be a curse and an object of horror, a curse and a disgrace. You will never see this place again.'
- 19 The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. The LORD has told You, You remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Be sure of this: I warn You today
- 20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. that You made a fatal mistake when You sent me to the LORD Your God and said, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us everything He says and we will do it.'
- 21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you. I have told You today, but You still have not obeyed the LORD Your God in all He sent me to tell You.

- 22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn. So now, be sure of this: You will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where You want to go and settle."

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 43

Johanan and the proud men accused Jeremiah of lying and refused to obey the LORD's command to remain in Judah. They took the entire remnant, including Jeremiah and Baruch, and went down to Egypt. At Tahpanhes the LORD told Jeremiah to hide stones in the clay at the brickworks, for Nebuchadnezzar would set his throne over them and strike the land of Egypt.

- 1 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, When Jeremiah finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God — everything the LORD had sent Him to tell them —
- 2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there: Azariah son of Hoshaiiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'You must not go to Egypt to settle there.'
- 3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon. But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting You against us to hand us over to the Babylonians, so they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon."
- 4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD's command to stay in the land of Judah.
- 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah; Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.
- 6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. They included men, women, and children, the king's daughters, and everyone Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan — and also Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

- 7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes. So they entered Egypt in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.
- 8 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, In Tahpanhes the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; "While the Jews are watching, take some large stones with you and bury them in clay in the brick pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes.
- 10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. Then say to them, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. He will spread His royal canopy above them.
- 11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword. He will come and attack Egypt, bringing death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and the sword to those destined for the sword.
- 12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt. He will burn their temples and take their gods captive. As a shepherd wraps His garment around Him, so He will wrap Egypt around Himself and depart from there unharmed.
- 13 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire. There in the temple of the sun in Egypt He will demolish the sacred pillars and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt."

Jeremiah warned the Jews in Egypt that the LORD's anger had burned against Jerusalem because of their idolatry, and now they were provoking Him again by burning incense to the queen of heaven in Egypt. The people defiantly refused to listen, insisting they would continue their offerings to the queen of heaven. The LORD declared that the remnant in Egypt would be consumed by sword and famine.

| 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, | "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You saw the disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins |

- 3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. because of the evil they did to arouse My anger, in that they went to burn incense and to worship other gods that neither they nor You nor Your ancestors ever knew.
- 4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. Again and again I sent My servants the prophets, who said, 'Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!'
- 5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. But they did not listen or pay attention. They did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods.
- 6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day. Therefore My fierce anger was poured out. It raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.
- 7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; "Now this is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women, the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant?
- 8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Why arouse My anger with what Your hands have made, burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where You have come to live? You will destroy yourselves and make yourselves a curse and a disgrace among all the nations on earth.

- 9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? Have You forgotten the wickedness committed by Your ancestors and by the kings and queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by You and Your wives in the land of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem?
- 10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed My law and the decrees I set before You and Your ancestors.
- 11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on You and to destroy all Judah.
- 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt. They will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become a curse and an object of horror, a curse and a disgrace.
- 13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: I will punish those who live in Egypt with sword, famine, and plague, just as I punished Jerusalem.

- 14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live. None will return except a few fugitives."
- 15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great congregation, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present — a large assembly — and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah:
- 16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee. "We will not listen to the message You have spoken to us in the name of the LORD!
- 17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: and then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. We will certainly carry out every word that has come from our own mouths. We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm.
- 18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine."

- 19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men? The women added, "When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes impressed with her image and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands knowing it?"
- 20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying, Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him:
- 21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? "Did not the LORD remember and call to mind the incense burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by You and Your ancestors, Your kings and Your officials and the people of the land?
- 22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. When the LORD could no longer endure Your wicked actions and the detestable things You did, Your land became a curse and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today.
- 23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day. This disaster came on You because You burned incense and sinned against the LORD and did not obey the LORD or follow His law, His decrees, or His stipulations. That is why this disaster has come upon You, as You now see."

- 24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all You people of Judah in Egypt.
- 25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You and Your wives have done what You said You would do when You promised, 'We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.' Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep Your vows!
- 26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth. But hear the word of the LORD, all Jews living in Egypt: 'I swear by My great name,' says the LORD, 'that no one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke My name or swear, "As surely as the Lord GOD lives."
- 27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. For I am watching over them for harm, not for good. The Jews in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all destroyed.
- 28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs. Those who escape the sword and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few. Then the whole remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand — Mine or theirs.

- 29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: This will be the sign to You that I will punish You in this place,' says the LORD, 'so that You will know that My threats of harm against You will surely come true':
- 30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaohhophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life. 'I am going to give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies who want to kill him, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who wanted to kill him.'"

The LORD gave Jeremiah a personal word for Baruch the scribe, who had complained of his sorrow and weariness. The LORD told Baruch that He was about to tear down what He had built and uproot what He had planted over the whole land. He warned Baruch not to seek great things for himself, but promised that his life would be given to him as a prize wherever he went.

Chapter 46

The LORD pronounced judgment against Egypt and its army, which Nebuchadnezzar defeated at Carchemish by the Euphrates. Egypt's mighty men would flee and fall, and the LORD declared that Nebuchadnezzar would come and strike the land of Egypt. But the LORD promised Jacob not to fear, for He would save them from afar and discipline them in measure, though He would make a full end of the nations.

| 1 | The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles; | This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations: |
| 2 | Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaohnecho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah: | Concerning Egypt: This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: |
| 3 | Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. | "Prepare your shields, both large and small, and march out for battle! |
| 4 | Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines. | Harness the horses. Mount the steeds! Take your positions with helmets on! Polish your spears. Put on your armor! |
| 5 | Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD. | What do I see? They are terrified. They are retreating. Their warriors are defeated. They flee in haste without looking back — and there is terror on every side," says the LORD. |
| 6 | Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates. | "The swift cannot flee nor the strong escape. In the north by the River Euphrates they stumble and fall. |

- 7 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers? Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters?
- 8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof. Egypt rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters. She says, 'I will rise and cover the earth. I will destroy cities and their people.'
- 9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow. Come up, You horses! Rage, You chariots! Let the mighty men come forth — the Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield, and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.
- 10 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. But that day belongs to the Lord GOD of hosts — a day of vengeance, for vengeance on His foes. The sword will devour till it is satisfied, till it has quenched its thirst with blood. For the Lord GOD of hosts will offer sacrifice in the land of the north by the River Euphrates.
- 11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured. "Go up to Gilead and get balm, Virgin Daughter Egypt. But You multiply remedies in vain. There is no healing for You.
- 12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together. The nations will hear of your shame. Your cries will fill the earth. One warrior will stumble over another. Both will fall down together."

- 13 The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt. This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt:
- 14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee. "Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol. Proclaim it also in Memphis and Tahpanhes: 'Take Your positions and prepare yourselves, for the sword devours those around You.'
- 15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them. Why will Your warriors be laid low? They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.
- 16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. They will stumble repeatedly. They will fall over each other. They will say, 'Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native lands, away from the sword of the oppressor.'
- 17 There did they cry, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed. There they will cry out, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise. He has missed his opportunity.'
- 18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. 'As surely as I live,' says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, 'one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains, like Carmel by the sea.
- 19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant. Pack Your belongings for exile, You who live in Egypt, for Memphis will be laid waste and lie in ruins without anyone living there.'
- 20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north. Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming against her from the north.

- 21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation. The mercenaries in her ranks are like fattened calves. They too will turn and flee together. They will not stand their ground, for the day of disaster is coming on them — the time for them to be punished.
- 22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances in force. They will come against her with axes, like men who cut down trees.
- 23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable. They will chop down her forest,' says the LORD, 'dense though it be. They are more numerous than locusts, they cannot be counted.
- 24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. Daughter Egypt will be put to shame. She will be delivered into the hands of the people of the north."
- 25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him: The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to punish Amon god of Thebes, Pharaoh, Egypt, and its gods and kings, and those who rely on Pharaoh.
- 26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD. I will give them into the hands of those who seek their lives — Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Afterward, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past," says the LORD.

- 27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. "Do not be afraid, Jacob My servant. Do not be dismayed, Israel. I will surely save you from a distant place. I will bring your descendants back from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security. No one will make them afraid.
- 28 Fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished. Do not be afraid, Jacob My servant," says the LORD, "for I am with You. Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy You. I will discipline You but only in due measure. I will not let You go entirely unpunished."

Euphrates (yoo-FRAY-teez) — One of the four rivers of Eden — the great river of Mesopotamia; the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham; runs through modern Iraq.

Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — A mountainous region east of the Jordan River — famous for its healing balm; Jeremiah's lament 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' refers to this area.

Chapter 47

The LORD pronounced judgment against the Philistines. Waters would rise out of the north as a flood and overflow the land. Fathers would not turn back for their children because of feebleness of hands. The LORD's sword would devour Ashkelon and the remnant of the coast, and there would be no rest for it.

Words in this chapter:

Philistines (FIL-ih-steen) — Israel's most persistent enemies in the era of the judges and early monarchy — a sea-faring people from the Aegean who settled along Canaan's coast; gave their name to 'Palestine.'

Chapter 48

The LORD pronounced an extensive judgment against Moab. Every city would be destroyed, and Moab's horn was cut off. Moab had been at ease from his youth and trusted in his works and treasures, but Chemosh his god would go into captivity. The LORD declared woe upon Moab for the destroyer had come upon every city, yet He would bring back the captives of Moab in the latter days.

- 1 Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled; Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed. Concerning Moab: This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Woe to Nebo, for it will be ruined. Kiriathaim will be disgraced and captured. The stronghold will be disgraced and shattered.
- 2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be brought to silence, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee. Moab will be praised no more. In Heshbon people will plot her downfall: 'Come, let us put an end to that nation.' You too, Madmen, will be silenced. The sword will pursue You.
- 3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction. Listen to the cries from Horonaim — cries of great havoc and destruction.

|----|---|--|
| 4 | Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. | Moab will be broken. Her little ones will cry out. |
| 5 | For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction. | They go up the hill of Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go. On the road down to Horonaim anguished cries over the destruction are heard. |
| 6 | Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. | Flee! Run for Your lives! Become like a bush in the desert. |
| 7 | For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. | Since You trust in Your deeds and riches, You too will be taken captive. Chemosh will go into exile, together with His priests and officials. |
| 8 | And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken. | The destroyer will come against every town. Not one town will escape. The valley will be ruined and the plateau destroyed, because the LORD has spoken. |
| 9 | Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein. | Put salt on Moab, for she will be laid waste. Her towns will become desolate, with no one to live in them. |
| 10 | Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. | Cursed is the one who is lax in doing the LORD's work! Cursed is the one who keeps his sword from bloodshed! |
| 11 | Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. | "Moab has been at ease from her youth, settled like wine on its dregs, never poured from one jar to another — she has never gone into exile. So she tastes as she did, and her aroma is unchanged. |

- 12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. But days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will send men who pour from jars, and they will pour her out. They will empty her jars and smash her jugs.
- 13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as Israel was ashamed of Bethel, in which they trusted.
- 14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war? How can You say, 'We are warriors, men valiant in battle'?
- 15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded. Her finest young men will go down in the slaughter," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. "The fall of Moab is at hand. Her calamity will come quickly.
- 17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! Mourn for her, all who live around her, all who know her fame. Say, 'How the mighty scepter is broken, that glorious staff!'
- 18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds. Come down from Your glory and sit on the parched ground, You inhabitants of Daughter Dibon. For the one who destroys Moab will come up against you and ruin Your fortified cities.
- 19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done? Stand by the road and watch, you who live in Aroer. Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping, ask them, 'What has happened?'
- 20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled, Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered. Wail and cry out! Announce by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

- 21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, Judgment has come to the plateau — to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,
- 22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Bethdiblathaim, to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,
- 23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Bethgamul, and upon Bethmeon, to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon,
- 24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. to Kerioth and Bozrah — to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
- 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD. Moab's horn is cut off. Her arm is broken," says the LORD.
- 26 Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. "Make her drunk, for she has defied the LORD. Let Moab wallow in her vomit. Let her be an object of ridicule.
- 27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy. Was not Israel the object of Your ridicule? Was she caught among thieves, that You shake Your head in scorn whenever You speak of her?
- 28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. Abandon Your towns and dwell among the rocks, You who live in Moab. Be like a dove that makes its nest at the mouth of a cave.
- 29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart. We have heard of Moab's pride — her great pride — of her arrogance, her conceit, and the haughtiness of her heart.
- 30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it. I know her insolence," says the LORD, "but her boasts are empty — her deeds amount to nothing.
- 31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kirheres. Therefore I wail over Moab, for all Moab I cry out. I moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.

- 32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage. I weep for You, vine of Sibmah, more than I weep for Jazer. Your branches spread as far as the sea. They reached as far as Jazer. The destroyer has fallen on Your summer fruit and Your grape harvest.
- 33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab. I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses. No one treads grapes with shouts of joy. Although there are shouts, they are not shouts of joy.
- 34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz — from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.
- 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods. In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods," says the LORD.
- 36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished. "So My heart laments for Moab like the music of a pipe. My heart laments like a pipe for the people of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they acquired is gone.
- 37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. Every head is shaved and every beard cut off. Every hand is slashed and every waist is covered with sackcloth.

- 38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD. On all the rooftops in Moab and in the public squares there is nothing but mourning. For I have broken Moab like a jar that no one wants," says the LORD.
- 39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismay to all them about him. "How shattered she is! How they wail! How Moab turns her back in shame! Moab has become an object of ridicule, an object of horror to all those around her."
- 40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab. This is what the LORD says: "Look! An eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab.
- 41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. Kerioth will be captured and the strongholds taken. In that day the hearts of Moab's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.
- 42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD. Moab will be destroyed as a nation because she defied the LORD.
- 43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD. Terror and pit and snare await You, people of Moab," says the LORD.
- 44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. Whoever flees from the terror will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare. For I will bring on Moab the year of her punishment," says the LORD.

- 45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon — a blaze from the midst of Sihon. It burns the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of the noisy boasters.
- 46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives. Woe to You, Moab! The people of Chemosh are destroyed. Your sons are taken into exile and Your daughters into captivity.
- 47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab. Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in days to come," says the LORD. Here ends the judgment on Moab.

Words in this chapter:

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 49

The LORD pronounced judgment against Ammon for seizing the territory of Gad, against Edom for her pride in the clefts of the rock, against Damascus whose young men would fall in her streets, against Kedar and Hazor whom Nebuchadnezzar would strike, and against Elam whose bow the LORD would break. Yet the LORD would restore the fortunes of Ammon and Elam in the latter days.

- 1 Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

Concerning the Ammonites: Thus says the LORD: "Has Israel no sons? Has He no heir? Why then does their king inherit Gad, and His people dwell in His cities?
- 2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

But the days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites. It will become a mound of ruins, and its surrounding villages will be set on fire. Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out," says the LORD.
- 3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled! Cry, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth and lament. Run to and fro by the hedges, for their king shall go into captivity, and His priests and His princes together.
- 4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

Why do You boast of Your valleys, boast of Your flowing valleys, unfaithful daughter? You trust in Your riches and say, 'Who will attack me?'
- 5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

I will bring terror on You from all those around You," says the Lord GOD of hosts. "Every one of you will be driven away, and no one will gather the fugitives.
- 6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

Yet afterward, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites," says the LORD.

- 7 Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Concerning Edom: This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom decayed?"
- 8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him. Turn and flee! Hide in deep caves, you who live in Dedan! For I will bring disaster on Esau at the time I punish him.
- 9 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough. If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes? If thieves came during the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?
- 10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not. But I will strip Esau bare. I will uncover his hiding places so that he cannot conceal himself. His children, relatives, and neighbors will perish, and he will be no more.
- 11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me. Leave your fatherless children. I will keep them alive. Your widows too can trust in Me."
- 12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken it; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it. This is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, why should You go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must drink it.
- 13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes. I swear by Myself," says the LORD, "that Bozrah will become a ruin and a curse, an object of horror and disgrace. And all its towns will be in ruins forever."

- 14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. I have heard a message from the LORD. An envoy was sent to the nations to say, "Assemble yourselves to attack it! Rise up for battle!"
- 15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men. "Now I will make You small among the nations, despised by mankind.
- 16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. The terror You inspire and the pride of Your heart have deceived You, You who live in the clefts of the rocks, who occupy the heights of the hill. Though You build Your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring You down," says the LORD.
- 17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. "Edom will become an object of horror. All who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.
- 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown, along with their neighboring towns," says the LORD, "so no one will live there. No person will dwell in it.
- 19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland, I will chase Edom from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like Me and who can challenge Me? And what shepherd can stand against Me?"

- 20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them. Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Edom, what He has purposed against those who live in Teman: The young of the flock will be dragged away. He will completely destroy their pasture because of them.
- 21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea. At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble. Their cry will resound to the Red Sea.
- 22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.
- 23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Concerning Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are dismayed, for they have heard bad news. They are disheartened. There is anguish and sorrow, like the churning sea that cannot rest.
- 24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail. Damascus has become feeble. She has turned to flee and panic has gripped her. Anguish and pain have seized her, pain like that of a woman in labor.
- 25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! Why has the city of renown not been abandoned, the town in which I delight?
- 26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts. Surely, her young men will fall in the streets. All her soldiers will be silenced in that day," says the LORD of hosts.
- 27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad. "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus. It will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad."

- 28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east. Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked: This is what the LORD says: "Rise up! Advance against Kedar! Destroy the people of the East!
- 29 Their tents and their flocks shall be taken away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side. Their tents and their flocks will be taken. Their shelters will be carried off with all their goods and camels. People will shout to them, "Terror on every side!"
- 30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you. Flee quickly! Stay in deep caves, You who live in Hazor," says the LORD. "For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against You and formed a plan to destroy You.
- 31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. Rise up! Attack a nation at ease, that lives in confidence," says the LORD, "a nation that has neither gates nor bars. Its people live alone.
- 32 And their camels shall be for a booty, and the multitude of their cattle for a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD. Their camels will become plunder, and their large herds will be spoils of war. I will scatter to the winds those who are in distant places and will bring disaster on them from every side," says the LORD.
- 33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it. Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, a desolate place forever. No one will live there. No people will settle in it."
- 34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah:

| 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. 36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come. 37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them: 38 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD. 39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD. | "This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'See, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might. I will bring against Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the heavens. I will scatter them to all these winds, and there will not be a nation where Elam's exiles do not go. I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who seek their lives. I will bring disaster on them, even My fierce anger,' says the LORD. 'I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them. I will set My throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,' says the LORD. 'Yet in days to come I will restore the fortunes of Elam,' says the LORD." |

The LORD pronounced judgment against Babylon and the land of the Chaldeans. Babylon would be taken, Bel put to shame, and Merodach broken in pieces. Israel and Judah would seek the LORD with weeping and ask the way to Zion. The LORD would raise up an assembly of great nations from the north against Babylon, and she would become a desolation -- as she did to others, so it would be done to her.

| 1 The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. | This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians: |
| 2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. | "Announce and proclaim among the nations. Lift up a banner and proclaim it. Keep nothing back but say, 'Babylon will be captured. Bel will be put to shame. Marduk filled with terror. Her images will be put to shame and her idols filled with terror.' |
| 3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast. | A nation from the north will attack her and lay waste her land. No one will live in it. Both people and animals will flee away. |
| 4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. | "In those days, at that time," says the LORD, "the people of Israel and the people of Judah together will go in tears to seek the LORD their God. |

- 5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten. They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it. They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.
- 6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace. "My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray. They have wandered over mountain and hill and forgotten their resting place.
- 7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. Whoever found them devoured them. Their enemies said, 'We are not guilty, for they sinned against the LORD, their true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.'
- 8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks. Flee out of Babylon! Leave the land of the Babylonians and be like the goats that lead the flock.
- 9 For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain. For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the land of the north. They will take up their positions against her, and from the north she will be captured. Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.
- 10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. So Babylonia will be plundered. All who plunder her will have their fill," says the LORD.

- 11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls; "Because You rejoice and are glad, You who pillage My inheritance — because You frolic like a heifer threshing grain and neigh like stallions —
- 12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. your mother will be greatly ashamed. She who gave You birth will be disgraced. She will be the least of the nations — a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Because of the LORD's anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate. All who pass Babylon will be horrified and scoff because of all her wounds.
- 14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. "Take up Your positions around Babylon, all You who draw the bow. Shoot at her! Spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.
- 15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Shout against her on every side! She surrenders. Her towers fall. Her walls are torn down. Since this is the vengeance of the LORD, take vengeance on her. Do to her as she has done to others.
- 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land. Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with His sickle at harvest. Because of the oppressor's sword, each will return to their own people. Each will flee to their own land.

- 17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. "Israel is a scattered flock that lions have chased away. The first to devour them was the king of Assyria. The last to crush their bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."
- 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria."
- 19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead. But I will bring Israel back to their own pasture, and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan. Their appetite will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.
- 20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. In those days, at that time," says the LORD, "search will be made for Israel's iniquity, but there will be none, and for the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant I spare."
- 21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. "Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod. Pursue, kill, and completely destroy them," says the LORD. "Do everything I have commanded You."
- 22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. The noise of battle is in the land — the noise of great destruction!
- 23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth! How desolate is Babylon among the nations!

- 24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD. I set a trap for You, Babylon, and You were caught before You knew it. You were found and captured because You opposed the LORD.
- 25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. The LORD has opened His armory and brought out the weapons of His wrath, for the Sovereign LORD of hosts has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.
- 26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left. Come against her from afar. Break open her granaries. Pile her up like heaps of grain. Completely destroy her and leave no remnant.
- 27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. Kill all her young bulls. Let them go down to the slaughter! Woe to them! For their day has come — the time of their punishment.
- 28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. Listen to the fugitives and refugees from Babylon declaring in Zion how the LORD our God has taken His revenge, revenge for His temple.
- 29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow. Encamp all around her. Let no one escape. Repay her for her deeds. Do to her as she has done. For she has defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD. Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets. All her soldiers will be silenced in that day," says the LORD.

- 31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. "See, I am against You, arrogant one," says the Lord GOD of hosts. "For Your day has come — the time for You to be punished.
- 32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him. The arrogant one will stumble and fall and no one will help her up. I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are around her."
- 33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well. All their captors hold them fast, refusing to let them go.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. Yet their Redeemer is strong. The LORD of hosts is His name. He will vigorously defend their cause so that He may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon.
- 35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. "A sword against the Babylonians!" says the LORD — "against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men!
- 36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed. A sword against her false prophets! They will become fools. A sword against her warriors! They will be filled with terror.
- 37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed. A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks! They will become weaklings. A sword against her treasures! They will be plundered.

- 38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols. A drought on her waters! They will dry up. For it is a land of idols — idols that will go mad with terror.
- 39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation. So desert creatures and hyenas will live there, and there the owl will dwell. It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
- 40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein. As I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighboring towns," says the LORD, "so no one will live there. No people will settle in it.
- 41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. Look! An army is coming from the north. A great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.
- 42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon. They are armed with bows and spears. They are cruel and without mercy. Their sound is like the roaring sea as they ride on their horses. They come in battle formation — arrayed as one man — against You, Daughter Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and his hands hang limp. Anguish has gripped him, pain like that of a woman in labor.

Words in this chapter:

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Bashan (BAY-shan) — A fertile plateau east of the Jordan and north of Gilead — known for its strong cattle; the kingdom of Og of Bashan who was defeated by Israel.

Gomorrah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 51

The LORD declared He would raise up a destroying wind against Babylon and send fanners to fan her. Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand that made all the earth drunk, but now she was suddenly fallen and broken. The LORD commanded His people to flee out of her midst. Jeremiah wrote all the coming disaster on a scroll and sent it to Babylon with Seraiah, commanding him to tie a stone to it and cast it into the Euphrates as a sign that Babylon would sink and never rise again.

- | | | |
| 1 | Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind; | This is what the LORD says: "See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai. |
| 2 | And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. | I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her land. They will oppose her on every side in the day of her disaster. |
| 3 | Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host. | Let not the archer string his bow, nor let Him put on his armor. Do not spare her young men. Completely destroy her army. |
| 4 | Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets. | They will fall down slain in Babylon, fatally wounded in her streets. |

- 5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD of hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.
- 6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense. Flee from Babylon! Run for Your lives! Do not be destroyed because of her sins. It is time for the LORD's vengeance. He will repay her what she deserves.
- 7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand. She made the whole earth drunk. The nations drank her wine. Therefore they have now gone mad.
- 8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get balm for her pain — perhaps she can be healed.
- 9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. 'We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed. Let us leave her and each go to our own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies. It rises as high as the heavens.'
- 10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. The LORD has vindicated us. Come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done.
- 11 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple. "Sharpen the arrows! Take up the shields! The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes, because His purpose is to destroy Babylon. The LORD will take vengeance — vengeance for His temple.

- 12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon. Lift up a banner against the walls of Babylon! Reinforce the guard. Station the watchmen. Prepare an ambush! The LORD will carry out His purpose, His decree against the people of Babylon.
- 13 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness. You who live by many waters and are rich in treasures, Your end has come — the time for You to be cut off.
- 14 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee. The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself: I will fill You with troops, as with a swarm of locusts. They will shout in triumph over You.
- 15 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding. "He made the earth by His power. He founded the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.
- 16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. When He thunders, the waters in the heavens roar. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses.
- 17 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. Everyone is senseless and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is shamed by His idols. His images are a fraud — they have no breath in them.
- 18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. They are worthless, the objects of mockery. When their judgment comes, they will perish.

- 19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things — including the people of his inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.
- 20 Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; "You are My war club, My weapon for battle — with You I shatter nations. With You I destroy kingdoms.
- 21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; With You I shatter horse and rider. With You I shatter chariot and driver.
- 22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid; With You I shatter man and woman. With You I shatter old man and youth. With You I shatter young man and young woman.
- 23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers. With You I shatter shepherd and flock. With You I shatter farmer and oxen. With You I shatter governors and officials.
- 24 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD. But I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia for all the wrong they have done in Zion," says the LORD.
- 25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. "I am against You, destroying mountain, You who destroy the whole earth," says the LORD. "I will stretch out My hand against You, roll You off the cliffs, and make You a burned-out mountain.

- 26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD. No rock will be taken from You for a cornerstone, nor any stone for a foundation, for You will be desolate forever," says the LORD.
- 27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars. "Lift up a banner in the land! Blow the trumpet among the nations! Prepare the nations for battle against her. Summon against her these kingdoms: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander against her. Send up horses like a swarm of locusts.
- 28 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. Prepare the nations for battle against her — the kings of the Medes, their governors and all their officials, and all the countries they rule.
- 29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant. The land trembles and writhes, for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand — to lay waste the land of Babylon so that no one will live there.
- 30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken. Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting. They remain in their strongholds. Their strength is exhausted. They have become like women. Her dwellings are set on fire. The bars of her gates are broken.
- 31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, One courier follows another. Messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured,
- 32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. the river crossings seized, the marshes set on fire, and the soldiers terrified."

- 33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled. The time to harvest her will soon come."
- 34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out. "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured us, he has thrown us into confusion. He has made us an empty jar. Like a serpent he has swallowed us and filled his stomach with our delicacies, and then has spewed us out.
- 35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. May the violence done to our flesh be on Babylon," say the inhabitants of Zion. "May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia," says Jerusalem.
- 36 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "See, I will defend Your cause and take vengeance for You. I will dry up her sea and make her springs dry.
- 37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant. Babylon will become a heap of ruins, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and scorn, a place where no one lives.
- 38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps. Her people all roar like young lions. They growl like lion cubs.
- 39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD. But while they are aroused, I will set out a feast for them and make them drunk, so that they shout with laughter — then sleep forever and not wake," says the LORD.
- 40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats. "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.

- 41 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! How Sheshach will be captured, the boast of the whole earth seized! What a horror Babylon will be among the nations!
- 42 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of his waves. The sea will rise over Babylon. Its roaring waves will cover her.
- 43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby. Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert land — a land where no one lives and through which no one travels.
- 44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall. I will punish Bel in Babylon and make Him spew out what He has swallowed. The nations will no longer stream to him. And the wall of Babylon will fall.
- 45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD. Come out of her, My people! Run for Your lives! Run from the fierce anger of the LORD.
- 46 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. Do not lose heart or be afraid when rumors are heard in the land. One rumor comes this year, another the next — rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.
- 47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon. Her whole land will be disgraced and all her slain will fall within her.

- 48 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD. Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon, for out of the north destroyers will attack her," says the LORD.
- 49 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth. Babylon must fall because of Israel's slain, just as the slain in all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.
- 50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. You who have escaped the sword, leave and do not linger! Remember the LORD in a distant land and call Jerusalem to mind.
- 51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house. "We are disgraced, for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's house."
- 52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan. "But days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will punish her idols, and throughout her land the wounded will groan."
- 53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD. Even if Babylon reaches the sky and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers against her," says the LORD.
- 54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans: "The sound of a cry comes from Babylon — the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.
- 55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered: The LORD is destroying Babylon. He will silence her noisy din. Waves of enemies will rage like great waters. The roar of their voices will resound,

- 56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite. for a destroyer will come against Babylon. Her warriors will be captured, and their bows will be broken. For the LORD is a God of retribution. He will repay in full.
- 57 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. I will make her officials and wise men drunk, her governors, officers, and warriors as well. They will sleep forever and not wake," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Babylon's thick wall will be leveled and her high gates set on fire. The peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, the nations' labor is only fuel for the flames."
- 59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. This is the message Jeremiah gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when He went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of his reign.
- 60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. Jeremiah had written on a scroll about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon — all that had been recorded concerning Babylon.
- 61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words; He said to Seraiah, "When You get to Babylon, see that You read all these words aloud.

- 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. Then say, 'LORD, You have said You will destroy this place, so that neither people nor animals will live in it. It will be desolate forever.'
- 63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: When You finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates.
- 64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah. Then say, 'So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring on her. And her people will fall.'" The words of Jeremiah end here.

Words in this chapter:

dragon — In the OT (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), 'dragon' is often used for a great sea-serpent and as a symbol of Egypt or chaos; in Revelation, the dragon is Satan himself.

Chapter 52

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem, and in the fourth month the famine was severe. The city was broken up, Zedekiah was captured, and his sons were killed before his eyes. Nebuzaradan burned the temple, the palace, and every great house in Jerusalem, broke down the walls, and carried the people into exile. Jehoiachin was released from prison in Babylon and given a place at the king's table for the rest of his life.

| 1 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. | Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah. She was from Libnah. |
| 2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. | He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. |
| 3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. | It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end He thrust them from His presence. Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. |
| 4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. | So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They camped outside the city and built siege works all around it. |
| 5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. | The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. |
| 6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. | By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people. |
| 7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. | Then the city wall was broken through. Although the Babylonians had surrounded the city, all the soldiers fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden. They fled toward the Arabah. |

- 8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. But the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered.
- 9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him. He was captured and taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.
- 10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed all the officials of Judah.
- 11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death. Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon where he put him in prison till the day of his death.
- 12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.
- 13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire: He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building He burned down.
- 14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the imperial guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

- 15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon.
- 16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen. But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
- 17 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands, and the bronze Sea that were in the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.
- 18 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away. They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.
- 19 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away. The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, lampstands, dishes, and bowls used for drink offerings — whatever was made of pure gold or silver.
- 20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight. The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea, and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD — all these could not be weighed.

- 21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow. Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference. Each was four fingers thick and hollow.
- 22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these. The bronze capital on top of one pillar was five cubits high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar.
- 23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about. There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides. The total number of pomegranates above the surrounding network was one hundred.
- 24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank, and the three doorkeepers.
- 25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city. Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men and seven of the king's advisors. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land, and sixty of the common people who were found inside the city.
- 26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

- 27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land. There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed. So Judah went into exile, away from her land.
- 28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty: This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;
- 29 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons: in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year, 832 people from Jerusalem;
- 30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar, Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. in his twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan the commander of the imperial guard took into exile 745 Jews. There were 4,600 people in all.
- 31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison. In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Awel-Marduk became king of Babylon, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison.
- 32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon. He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
- 33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.

- 34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life. Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, until the day of his death.

Lamentations

Author: Jeremiah, traditionally — Jewish and early Christian tradition uniformly attribute the book to him, consistent with his eyewitness presence at Jerusalem's fall and his deep grief over the city.

Date written: c. 586 BC, in the immediate aftermath of Jerusalem's destruction by Nebuchadnezzar.

Written to: The surviving remnant in Judah and the exiles in Babylon, giving voice to the grief of a nation in ruins.

Setting: Jerusalem has fallen. The temple is burned. The royal family is dead or in chains. The population is deported or left in a devastated land. Lamentations is written in the smoking rubble of everything Israel held sacred.

Where this sits historically: Written in 586 BC, the year Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon broke through the walls, burned Solomon's temple, blinded King Zedekiah, and deported most of Judah to Babylon.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was still in the land (soon forced down to Egypt), Ezekiel and Daniel were already prophesying among the Babylonian exiles, and Obadiah had just announced Edom's doom for its role in Jerusalem's fall.

Big themes:

- Grief without denial — the book does not minimize the horror of what happened; it gives full expression to suffering, loss, and desolation as an act of honest faith
- Confession — Judah's suffering is acknowledged as deserved; the city sinned grievously and the LORD is righteous in His judgment
- The mercy of God in darkness — chapter 3 turns on one pivot: "It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed" (3:22); even in the worst judgment, His compassion does not fail
- Waiting on God — the response to catastrophe is not despair but a return to God, who alone can restore
- Acrostic structure — four of the five chapters are Hebrew acrostic poems (each verse beginning with a successive letter of the alphabet), showing careful artistry even in lamentation

Key passages: Lam 1:12; 3:22–23; 3:40; 5:19–21

How it fits: Lamentations is the emotional sequel to the narrative of 2 Kings 25. Where 2 Kings records the events, Lamentations records the grief. It stands as the OT's guide to suffering — how to feel the full weight of loss while still turning toward God. Its central verse (3:22–23) became one of the NT church's most beloved statements of hope.

Chapter 1

The poet mourns Jerusalem sitting alone like a widow, once great among the nations but now paying tribute. Her allies have betrayed her, her people have gone into captivity, and her enemies prosper because the LORD has afflicted her for her many transgressions. Jerusalem herself cries out that there is no sorrow like her sorrow and acknowledges that the LORD is righteous, for she has rebelled against His commands.

| 3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits. | Judah has gone into exile because of her suffering and harsh slavery. She lives among the nations and finds no rest. All her pursuers caught her in a narrow place. |
| 5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy. | Her enemies have become rulers. Her foes prosper. For the LORD has made her suffer because of her many transgressions. Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — "crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command." When the Bible speaks of Israel's transgressions, it means they deliberately broke the covenant with God.

- 6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer. All the splendor has left the daughter of Zion. Her princes are like deer that find no pasture. They flee without strength before the one who pursues them.
- 7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths. Jerusalem, in the days of her suffering and wandering, remembers all the precious things she had in days of old. When her people fell into enemy hands and there was no one to help, her enemies looked on and mocked at her downfall.
- 8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward. Jerusalem has sinned greatly. Therefore she has become filthy. All who honored her now despise her, for they have seen her shame. She herself sighs and turns away.
- 9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself. Her uncleanness clung to her skirts. She gave no thought to her future. Her fall was astonishing. She had no comforter. "O LORD, look on my suffering, for the enemy has triumphed."
- 10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation. The enemy stretched out his hand over all her treasures. She watched as nations entered her sanctuary — the nations you commanded should not enter your congregation.
- 11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile. All her people groan as they search for bread. They trade their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. "Look, O LORD, and take note, for I have become despised."

- 12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. "Is it nothing to You, all who pass by? Look and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow — the sorrow the LORD has brought on me in the day of His fierce anger."
- 13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day. From above He sent fire into my bones and it spread through them. He spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He has left me desolate, in misery all day long.
- 14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up. The yoke of my transgressions has been fastened by His hand. They are twisted together and laid on my neck. He has drained my strength. The LORD has handed me over to those I cannot resist.
- 15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. The Lord has rejected all my mighty warriors. He summoned an army against me to crush my young men. The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah like grapes in a winepress.
- 16 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. For these things I weep. My eyes overflow with tears. Any comforter who might restore me is far away. My children are desolate because the enemy has triumphed.
- 17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them. Zion stretches out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her. The LORD has commanded that Jacob's neighbors should be his enemies. Jerusalem is as unclean in their midst.

Words in this chapter:

Comforter — The Helper who walks alongside — the Holy Spirit, sent by Christ; some translations say 'Helper' or 'Advocate,' but KJV says Comforter.

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 2

The poet describes the LORD acting as an enemy against His own people — swallowing up the dwellings of Jacob, destroying the temple, and making Zion forget her festivals. Her prophets gave false visions and did not expose her iniquity. Children faint in the streets, women eat their own offspring, and the poet cries out for Zion to pour out her heart like water before the Lord.

| 1 How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger! | How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud of His anger! He has thrown down from heaven to earth the splendor of Israel. He did not remember His footstool in the day of His anger. |
| 2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. | The Lord has swallowed up without pity all the dwellings of Jacob. In his wrath he has torn down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah. He has brought them down to the ground. He has dishonored the kingdom and its princes. |

- 3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. In His fierce anger He has cut off every defender of Israel. He has pulled back His right hand from before the enemy. He has burned against Jacob like a blazing fire that consumes everything around it.
- 4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire. He has bent his bow like an enemy. He has taken His stand like a foe with His right hand raised. He has killed all who were precious in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion. He poured out His wrath like fire.
- 5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds. He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.
- 6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. He has torn down His tabernacle as easily as a garden shed. He has destroyed His appointed place. The LORD has made Zion forget her festivals and her Sabbaths. In His fierce anger He has rejected king and priest alike.
- 7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. The Lord has abandoned His altar and rejected His sanctuary. He has handed over the walls of her palaces to the enemy. They shout in the house of the LORD as on a day of appointed festival.

- 8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line; he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together. The LORD purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion. He stretched out the measuring line. He did not hold back His hand from destroying. He made the rampart and the wall lament. They sank into ruin together.
- 9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD. Her gates have sunk into the ground. He has destroyed and broken their bars. Her king and princes are among the nations. The law is no more. Her prophets receive no vision from the LORD.
- 10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence. They have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.
- 11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city. My eyes are worn out from weeping. My stomach churns. My heart is poured out on the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, as children and infants faint in the streets of the city.
- 12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom. They cry to their mothers, "Where is food and drink?" as they faint like wounded men in the streets of the city, as their lives pour out on their mothers' laps.

- 13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee? "What can I say to You? What can I compare to You, O daughter of Jerusalem? What can I equal you to, that I might comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? Your wound is as deep as the sea. Who can heal You?"
- 14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment. Your prophets have seen false and worthless visions for You. They did not expose Your iniquity to turn away Your captivity. The visions they proclaimed were lies and delusions.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than 'sin' — the corruption beneath the sinful act." When Lamentations speaks of iniquity, it points not just to what Israel did wrong, but to the deep moral corruption that drove their rebellion against God.

- 15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? All who pass by clap their hands at You. They hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city they called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?"
- 16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. All Your enemies open their mouths against You. They hiss and grind their teeth and say, "We have swallowed her up. This is the day we were waiting for. We have found it. We have seen it."

- 17 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries. The LORD has done what He planned. He has carried out His word that He commanded long ago. He has torn down without pity. He has let Your enemy gloat over You and has given power to Your foes.
- 18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease. Their heart cried out to the Lord. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears flow like a river day and night. Give Yourself no relief. Let Your eyes have no rest.
- 19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street. Rise, cry out in the night. At the beginning of every watch, pour out Your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift Your hands to Him for the lives of Your children, who faint from hunger on every street corner.
- 20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord? "Look, O LORD, and see who You have dealt with this way. Should women eat their own children, the babies they have carried? Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?"
- 21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied. "Young and old lie together in the dust of the streets. My young women and my young men have fallen by the sword. You have killed them in the day of Your anger. You have slaughtered without pity."

- 22 Thou hast called as in a solemn feast day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed. "You summoned terrors against me from every side, as though calling people to an appointed festival. In the day of the LORD's anger no one escaped. No one survived. The children I carried and raised, my enemy has destroyed."

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 3

The poet speaks as one who has suffered under God's wrath — driven into darkness, walled in, and torn apart. Yet in the middle of his despair he declares that it is because of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, that His compassions are new every morning, and that great is His faithfulness. He calls the people to examine their ways and return to the LORD, then cries out for God to judge his enemies.

- 1 I am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. I am the man who has seen suffering under the rod of God's wrath.
- 2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light. He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness rather than light.

- | | |
| 3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day. | He has turned His hand against me again and again, all day long. |
| 4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones. | He has worn away my flesh and skin.
He has broken my bones. |
| 5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail. | He has built up walls against me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship. |
| 6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old. | He has made me sit in darkness like those who have been dead for ages. |
| 7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy. | He has walled me in so I cannot escape. He has weighed me down with heavy chains. |
| 8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer. | Even when I cry out and call for help, He shuts out my prayer. |
| 9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked. | He has blocked my paths with cut stone. He has made my roads twisted and impassable. |
| 10 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places. | He has been to me like a bear lying in ambush, like a lion lurking in hiding. |
| 11 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate. | He dragged me off my path and tore me apart. He has left me desolate. |
| 12 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. | He bent his bow and set me as a target for his arrows. |
| 13 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins. | He drove the arrows from His quiver deep into my body. |
| 14 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day. | I have become the mockery of all my people — their song all day long. |
| 15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood. | He has filled me with bitterness. He has made me drink deeply of wormwood. |

- 16 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes. He has ground my teeth on gravel. He has pressed my face into the dust.
- 17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot prosperity. You have banished my soul from peace. I have forgotten what prosperity is.
- 18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD: I said, "My strength and my hope have perished from the LORD."
- 19 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. I remember my suffering and my wandering — the bitterness and the poison.
- 20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me. My soul remembers and is brought low within me.
- 21 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope. Yet this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:
- 22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. It is because of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed. His compassions never fail.
- 23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. They are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness.
- 24 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul. "Therefore I will hope in Him."
- 25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him. The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him.
- 26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD. It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.
- 27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.
- 28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him. Let Him sit alone in silence when God lays it on Him.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 29 | He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope. | Let Him put His face in the dust — there may yet be hope. |
| 30 | He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach. | Let Him offer His cheek to one who strikes Him. Let Him be filled with disgrace. |
| 31 | For the Lord will not cast off for ever: | For the Lord will not reject forever. |
| 32 | But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies. | Even if He brings grief, He will show compassion — so great is His mercy. |
| 33 | For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. | For He does not willingly afflict or grieve the children of men. |
| 34 | To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth, | He does not want to crush under His feet all the prisoners of the earth |
| 35 | To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, | or to deny a man his rights before the Most High |
| 36 | To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth not. | or to deprive a man of justice. The Lord does not approve of these things. |
| 37 | Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not? | Who can speak and have it happen if the Lord has not commanded it? |
| 38 | Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good? | Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both disaster and good things come? |
| 39 | Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? | Why should any living person complain when punished for His sins? |
| 40 | Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD. | Let us examine and test our ways and turn back to the LORD. |
| 41 | Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. | Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven. |
| 42 | We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned. | We have sinned and rebelled. You have not forgiven. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied. | You wrapped Yourself in anger and pursued us. You have killed without pity. |
| 44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through. | You covered Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer could pass through. |
| 45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people. | You have made us filth and garbage among the peoples. |
| 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. | All our enemies have opened their mouths against us. |
| 47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction. | We have experienced panic and the pit — devastation and destruction. |
| 48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people. | Rivers of tears flow from my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people. |
| 49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission, | My eyes will keep flowing without stopping |
| 50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven. | until the LORD looks down and sees from heaven. |
| 51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city. | My eyes bring me pain because of all the women of my city. |
| 52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause. | My enemies hunted me relentlessly like a bird — though I had done nothing wrong. |
| 53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me. | They threw me alive into a pit and dropped a stone on top of me. |
| 54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off. | The waters closed over my head. I said, "I am finished." |
| 55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon. | I called on Your name, O LORD, from the depths of the pit. |
| 56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry. | You heard my voice. Do not hide Your ear from my cry for relief, from my plea. |

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Chapter 4

The poet mourns how the gold has grown dim and the precious sons of Zion are counted as clay pots. Famine has devastated the city — children beg for bread, compassionate women have boiled their own children, and the punishment exceeds that of Sodom. The LORD has poured out His full wrath because of the sins of her prophets and priests. The poet warns Edom that the cup will pass to her as well.

| 1 | How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street. | How the gold has grown dim! How the finest gold has changed! The sacred stones lie scattered at every street corner. |
| 2 | The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! | The precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold — now they are counted as mere clay pots, the work of a potter's hands. |
| 3 | Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. | Even jackals nurse their young, but the daughter of my people has become heartless — like an ostrich in the desert. |
| 4 | The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them. | The nursing infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth from thirst. Children beg for bread, but no one gives them any. |
| 5 | They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. | Those who once ate fine food are starving in the streets. Those who grew up in luxury are picking through garbage heaps. |

- 6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her. The punishment for the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the penalty of Sodom, which was destroyed in a moment with no one to help her.
- 7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire: Her Nazarites were purer than snow and whiter than milk. They were more ruddy in body than rubies. Their appearance was like sapphire.
- 8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. Now their faces are blacker than soot. They are not recognized in the streets. Their skin has shrunk to their bones. It has dried up and become like wood.
- 9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field. Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger, who waste away, pierced by the lack of food from the fields.
- 10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people. Compassionate women boiled their own children. Their children became their food during the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof. The LORD has given full vent to His wrath. He has poured out His fierce anger. He set a fire in Zion that consumed her very foundations.
- 12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem. The kings of the earth could not believe — nor could any of the world's inhabitants — that an enemy or foe would ever enter the gates of Jerusalem.

- 13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her. It happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous within her.
- 14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, insomuch that men could not touch their garments. They staggered through the streets like blind men, so defiled with blood that no one could touch their clothing.
- 15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. "Go away! Unclean!" people cried to them. "Go away! Away! Do not touch!" When they fled and wandered, the nations said, "They will stay here no longer."
- 16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders. The LORD Himself scattered them. He will look on them no more. The people showed no respect to the priests and no honor to the elders.
- 17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us. Our eyes strained with watching for help that never came. We kept watch from our towers for a nation that could not save us.
- 18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. They hunt our steps so we cannot walk in our own streets. Our end is near. Our days are numbered. Our end has come.
- 19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. Our pursuers were swifter than eagles in the sky. They chased us over the mountains. They lay in ambush for us in the desert.
- 20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen. The anointed of the LORD — the breath of our life — was caught in their traps, the one of whom we said, "Under His shadow we will live among the nations."

But the cup will pass to you as well. You will get drunk and expose Yourself. Your punishment is complete, O daughter of Zion. He will not send you into exile again. Words in this chapter:

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 5

The poet pleads with the LORD to remember what has happened — their inheritance given to strangers, their people made orphans, servants ruling over them, and women violated in Zion. The joy of their hearts has ceased and their dancing has turned to mourning. Yet he affirms that the LORD reigns forever and pleads, "Turn us to Yourself, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old."

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach. | Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us. Look and see our disgrace. |
| 2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens. | Our inheritance has been given over to strangers, our homes to foreigners. |
| 3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows. | We have become orphans without a father. Our mothers are like widows. |
| 4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us. | We have had to buy our own water to drink. Our own wood costs us money. |
| 5 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest. | We are driven hard with a yoke on our necks. We labor with no rest. |
| 6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. | We stretched out our hands to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread to eat. |

| 10 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine. | Our skin has become as hot as an oven because of the burning heat of famine. |
| 11 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah. | Women were violated in Zion, young women in the cities of Judah. |
| 12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured. | Princes were hung up by their hands. The faces of the elders were shown no honor. |
| 13 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood. | Young men were put to work at the grinding stone. Boys staggered under loads of wood. |

Ezekiel

Author: Ezekiel son of Buzi, a priest — the book is written almost entirely in first person and dated with remarkable precision to specific days of the Babylonian calendar.

Date written: c. 593–571 BC, during the Babylonian exile; the dates given within the book span twenty-two years.

Written to: The Jewish exiles in Babylon, particularly the community at Tel-abib by the river Chebar.

Setting: Ezekiel is already in Babylon with the first wave of exiles (597 BC) when his ministry begins. He prophesies for over twenty years — while Jerusalem still stands, through its fall (586 BC), and into the early restoration period. He ministers to a community in shock, stripped of temple, land, and king.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied from 593 to 571 BC at the height of Nebuchadnezzar's Neo-Babylonian empire, beside the river Chebar in southern Mesopotamia, before, during, and after the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah preached in the dying days of Jerusalem, Daniel served in the Babylonian court, and Obadiah and Habakkuk both prophesied in the same Babylonian-era window.

Big themes:

- The glory of the LORD — the book opens with an overwhelming vision of God's throne-chariot (ch. 1) and traces where the glory goes: out of the temple (chs. 8–11), into exile, and back to a restored temple (chs. 40–48)
- Individual responsibility — "The soul that sinneth, it shall die" (18:4, 20); each person stands before God on their own account
- The valley of dry bones — the resurrection of a nation from death is one of the OT's most vivid prophetic images (ch. 37)
- Judgment on Israel and the nations — extended oracles against Jerusalem, Egypt, Tyre, and surrounding nations fill the middle section
- The restored temple — the final nine chapters describe an idealized temple in extraordinary detail, pointing to God's ultimate dwelling with His people

Key passages: Ezek 1:28; 11:19–20; 18:4; 36:26–27; 37:5

How it fits: Ezekiel is the exile's prophet, as Isaiah was the pre-exile prophet and Jeremiah the fall prophet. His temple vision in chapters 40–48 is the OT background to Revelation's new Jerusalem. His new heart/new spirit promise (36:26–27) is the OT's closest anticipation of the NT doctrine of regeneration.

Ezekiel sees a vision of four living creatures and the glory of the LORD above them. The wheels within wheels move wherever the Spirit directs, and above the firmament sits a throne of sapphire with a figure like fire surrounded by brightness like a rainbow.

| 4 And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. | I looked and saw a windstorm coming from the north — a great cloud with fire flashing from within it and brilliant light surrounding it. The center glowed like glowing metal from within the fire. |
| 5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. | From within it came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the form of a human being. |
| 6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings. | Each had four faces and four wings. |

- 7 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass. Their legs were straight. Their feet were like the hooves of a calf, gleaming like polished bronze.
- 8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. Under their wings on each of their four sides they had human hands. All four of them had faces and wings.
- 9 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; every one went straight forward. Their wings touched one another. They did not turn when they moved. Each one went straight forward.
- 10 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle. As for the form of their faces: each had a human face on the front, a lion's face on the right side, an ox's face on the left side, and an eagle's face on the back.
- 11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. Such were their faces. Their wings were spread upward. Two wings of each creature touched the wings of the creatures on either side, and two wings covered their bodies.
- 12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went. Each one moved straight forward. Wherever the Spirit would go, they went. They did not turn when they moved.
- 13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among them. The fire was bright, and lightning flashed from the fire.

- 14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. The living creatures moved back and forth like flashes of lightning.
- 15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces. As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of the four-faced creatures.
- 16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. The wheels and their construction gleamed like topaz. All four wheels looked the same. Each wheel appeared to be a wheel intersecting a wheel.
- 17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went. When they moved, they moved in any of the four directions without turning.
- 18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four. Their rims were high and awesome. All four rims were full of eyes all around.
- 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose with them.
- 20 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. Wherever the Spirit would go, the creatures went, and the wheels rose alongside them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

- 21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. When the creatures moved, the wheels moved. When the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose with them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.
- 22 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was something like a firmament, dazzling like crystal, stretched out overhead.
- 23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies. Under the firmament their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another. Each creature had two wings covering its body on each side.
- 24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings. When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty — a tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.
- 25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings. There came a voice from above the firmament over their heads. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.
- 26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. Above the firmament over their heads was something like a throne — it looked like sapphire. On the likeness of the throne above was a figure that looked like a man.

- 27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. I saw that from what appeared to be His waist up, He looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire. From His waist down He looked like fire, and brilliant light surrounded Him.
- 28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day — that was how the brilliant light around Him looked. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

firmament — The expanse of sky — what God spread out above the earth on Day Two of creation to separate the waters.

Ezekiel (eh-ZEE-kee-el) — A priest and prophet among the exiles in Babylon — received dramatic visions of God's glory and the future restoration of Israel; his name means 'God strengthens.'

Chapter 2

The LORD commissions Ezekiel to speak to a rebellious Israel, whether they listen or refuse. He is given a scroll written on both sides with words of lamentation, mourning, and grief.

| 1 And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. | He said to me, "Son of man, stand on Your feet, and I will speak with You." |
| 2 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. | As He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. I heard Him speaking to me. |
| 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. | He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending You to the children of Israel — to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have transgressed against Me to this very day." |
| 4 For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. | "They are stubborn and hard-hearted children. I am sending You to them, and You shall say to them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says.'" |
| 5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. | "Whether they listen or refuse — for they are a rebellious house — they will know that a prophet has been among them." |
| 6 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. | "And You, Son of man, do not be afraid of them. Do not be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns surround You and You live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or troubled by their looks, even though they are a rebellious house." |
| 7 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. | "You shall speak My words to them, whether they listen or refuse — for they are most rebellious." |

- | | | |

| 8 | But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee. | "But You, Son of man — listen to what I say to You. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open Your mouth and eat what I give You." |
| 9 | And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein: | I looked and saw a hand stretched out to me. In it was a scroll. |
| 10 | And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe. | He unrolled it before me. It was written on both sides — front and back — with words of lamentation, mourning, and grief. |

Words in this chapter:

son of man — a title God uses for Ezekiel throughout this book; emphasizes his humanity before the Almighty rebellious (ree-BEL-yus) — stubbornly defiant against God's authority; Israel is called a rebellious house

Chapter 3

Ezekiel eats the scroll and finds it sweet as honey. The LORD appoints him a watchman over Israel — if he fails to warn the wicked, their blood will be on his hands.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. | He said to me, "Son of man, eat what is in front of You. Eat this scroll, and then go speak to the house of Israel." |
|---|---|--|

- 2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.
- 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. He said to me, "Son of man, fill Your stomach and Your insides with this scroll I am giving You." I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.
- 4 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. He said to me, "Son of man, go now to the house of Israel and speak My words to them."
- 5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; "You are not being sent to a people with a foreign language that is hard to understand, but to the house of Israel."
- 6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. "Not to many peoples of strange speech and difficult language whose words You cannot understand. Surely, if I had sent You to them, they would have listened to You."
- 7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted. "But the house of Israel will not listen to You, because they will not listen to Me. The whole house of Israel is stubborn and hard-hearted."
- 8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. "I have made Your face as firm as their faces, and Your forehead as hard as their foreheads."
- 9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. "I have made Your forehead like the hardest stone — harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or troubled by their looks, even though they are a rebellious house."

- 10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. He said to me, "Son of man, take all My words that I speak to You into Your heart. Listen carefully with Your ears."
- 11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. "Go to the exiles, to the children of Your people. Speak to them and tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says' — whether they listen or refuse."
- 12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place. Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound: "Blessed be the glory of the LORD from His place!"
- 13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing. I heard the sound of the wings of the living creatures touching one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them — a great rumbling sound.
- 14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. The Spirit lifted me up and carried me away. I went in bitterness and anguish of spirit, but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.
- 15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days. I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who lived by the river Chebar. I sat among them, overwhelmed, for seven days.
- 16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:
- 17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. "Son of man, I have made You a watchman for the house of Israel. Hear the word from My mouth and warn them on My behalf."

- 18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "When I say to the wicked, 'You will certainly die,' and you do not warn him or speak to warn him from his wicked ways to save his life — that wicked man will die in his iniquity. But I will hold you responsible for his blood."
- 19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you warn the wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness or his wicked ways, he will die in his iniquity. But you will have saved yourself."
- 20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I put a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin. His righteous deeds will not be remembered, and I will hold you responsible for his blood."
- 21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took the warning. And you will have saved yourself."
- 22 And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee. The hand of the LORD came on me there, and He said to me, "Get up and go out to the plain. I will speak with You there."
- 23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face. I got up and went out to the plain. The glory of the LORD was standing there — like the glory I had seen by the river Chebar. I fell on my face.

- 24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. The Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke to me and said, "Go, shut Yourself inside Your house."
- 25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: "As for You, Son of man, they will put ropes on You and bind You, and You will not go out among the people."
- 26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. "I will make Your tongue stick to the roof of Your mouth so that You will be silent and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house."
- 27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house. "But when I speak with You, I will open Your mouth and You shall say to them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says.' Whoever will listen, let them listen. Whoever will refuse, let them refuse — for they are a rebellious house."

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Chapter 4

The LORD commands Ezekiel to act out the siege of Jerusalem on a clay tablet. He is to lie on his left side 390 days for Israel's iniquity and 40 days on his right side for Judah's, eating rationed bread baked over dung as a sign of the famine to come.

- 1 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem: "You, Son of man — take a clay tablet and set it in front of You. Draw the city of Jerusalem on it."
- 2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about. "Then put siege works against it. Build a siege wall. Raise up a ramp against it. Set up camps around it and put battering rams against it on every side."
- 3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. "Then take an iron plate and set it up as an iron wall between You and the city. Turn Your face toward it, and it will be under siege. Press the siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel."
- 4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. "Then lie on Your left side and put the iniquity of the house of Israel on Yourself. For the number of days You lie on it, You will bear their iniquity."
- 5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. "I have assigned You one day for each year of their iniquity — 390 days. That is how long You will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel."

- 6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year. "When You have finished that, lie down again on Your right side and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah for forty days. I have assigned You one day for each year."
- 7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it. "Turn Your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with Your arm bared, and prophesy against it."
- 8 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege. "I will tie You with ropes so You cannot turn from one side to the other until You have finished the days of Your siege."
- 9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. "Take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Put them in one container and make bread for Yourself. Eat it during the 390 days You lie on Your side."
- 10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it. "Eat it by weight — twenty shekels a day — measuring it out at set times."
- 11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink. "You will also drink water by measure — one sixth of a hin — drinking it at set times."
- 12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight. "Eat it like a barley cake and bake it over human dung in their sight."
- 13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them. The LORD said, "This is how the children of Israel will eat their defiled bread among the nations where I will drive them."

- 14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, I have never been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten anything that died on its own or was torn by wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth."
- 15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith. He said to me, "Very well. I will let You use cow's dung instead of human dung. Prepare Your bread over that."
- 16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment: He said to me, "Son of man, I am going to cut off the food supply in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight and in anxiety. They will drink water by measure and in despair."
- 17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity. "This is so they will lack bread and water. They will be appalled at one another and waste away because of their iniquity."

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 5

Ezekiel shaves his head and divides the hair into three parts — one burned, one struck with a sword, one scattered to the wind — picturing how Jerusalem's people will perish by famine, sword, and exile. The LORD declares He will execute unprecedented judgment because the city has defiled His sanctuary.

- | | |
| 1 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair. | "You, Son of man — take a sharp sword. Use it as a barber's razor and shave Your head and Your beard. Then take a scale and divide the hair into three parts." |
| 2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them. | "When the days of the siege are over, burn one third of the hair in the middle of the city. Take another third and strike it with the sword all around the city. Scatter the last third to the wind, and I will pursue them with a drawn sword." |
| 3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts. | "Take a few strands of hair and tuck them in the folds of Your robe." |
| 4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. | "Then take some of these and throw them into the fire and burn them. From there fire will spread to all the house of Israel." |

- 6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them. "She has rebelled against My laws and decrees more wickedly than the nations around her. She has rejected My laws and has not lived by My decrees."
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you; Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "Because You have been more unruly than the nations around you, not living by My decrees or following My laws — not even following the practices of the surrounding nations —"
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "I Myself am against You, and I will execute judgment in Your midst in the sight of the nations."
- 9 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations. "Because of all Your abominations, I will do to You what I have never done before and will never do again."
- 10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds. "In Your midst, fathers will eat their children and children will eat their fathers. I will execute judgment on You and scatter all Your survivors to every direction."

- 11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. "Therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because You have defiled My sanctuary with all Your vile images and detestable practices, I will cut You down. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity."
- 12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. "A third of Your people will die of plague and famine inside the city. A third will fall by the sword outside the walls. A third I will scatter to every direction and pursue with a drawn sword."
- 13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. "So My anger will be spent and My wrath against them satisfied. When I have vented My fury on them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in My zeal."
- 14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by. "I will make You a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by."
- 15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. "You will be a reproach and a mockery, a warning and a horror to the nations around you when I execute judgment on you in anger and fury and with stinging rebukes. I the LORD have spoken."

|---|---|

Chapter 6

The LORD pronounces judgment against the mountains of Israel and their high places. The altars and idols will be destroyed and the slain will fall among them, but a remnant will survive among the nations and remember the LORD.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto The word of the LORD came to me:
me, saying,

- 2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, "Son of man, turn Your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them."
- 3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. Say: "Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am bringing a sword against You, and I will destroy Your high places."
- 4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. "Your altars will be laid waste and Your incense altars will be broken. I will throw down Your slain before Your idols."
- 5 And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. "I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols and scatter Your bones around Your altars."
- 6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. "In all Your settlements, the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be laid waste, so that Your altars will be ruined and desolate, Your idols smashed and abolished, Your incense altars cut down, and everything You have made wiped out."
- 7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "The slain will fall among You, and You will know that I am the LORD."
- 8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. "But I will spare some — survivors of the sword among the nations when you are scattered through the lands."

- 9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. "Then Your survivors will remember Me among the heathen where they are taken captive. I was broken by their whorish hearts that turned from Me, and by their eyes that went after their idols. They will despise themselves for the evil they have done and for all their abominations."
- 10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them. "They will know that I am the LORD. I did not threaten in vain to bring this disaster on them."
- 11 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. This is what the Lord GOD says: "Clap Your hands and stamp Your foot and cry out, 'Alas!' over all the evil abominations of the house of Israel, for they will fall by sword, famine, and plague."
- 12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. "Those far away will die of plague. Those nearby will fall by the sword. Those who survive and are spared will die of famine. I will spend My fury on them."
- 13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols. "You will know that I am the LORD when their dead lie among their idols — around their altars, on every high hill, on every mountaintop, under every green tree and every leafy oak — the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols."

| 3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations. | "The end is now on You. I will unleash My anger against You and judge You according to Your ways. I will punish You for all Your abominations." |

- 4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "My eye will not spare You. I will have no pity. I will repay You for Your ways, and Your abominations will be among You. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 5 Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come. This is what the Lord GOD says: "Disaster! An unheard-of disaster — it is coming!"
- 6 An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come. "The end has come. The end has come. It has roused itself against You — it is here!"
- 7 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. "Doom has come on You, You who live in the land. The time has come. The day is near. There is confusion, not joy, on the mountains."
- 8 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations. "Soon I will pour out My wrath on You and spend My anger against You. I will judge You according to Your ways and punish You for all Your abominations."
- 9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth. "My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. I will repay You according to Your ways and the abominations among You. Then You will know that it is I the LORD Who strikes."
- 10 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded. "The day is here. It has come. Doom has burst forth. The rod has budded. Arrogance has blossomed."

- 11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs: neither shall there be wailing for them. "Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of the people will remain — not their wealth or anything of theirs. No one will mourn for them."
- 12 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. "The time has come. The day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice or the seller mourn, for wrath is on the whole crowd."
- 13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. "The seller will not recover what was sold even if He lives, for the vision concerns all the people. No one will turn back. Because of their iniquity, no one will be able to sustain their lives."
- 14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof. "They sound the trumpet and make everything ready, but no one goes into battle — for My wrath is on all of them."
- 15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. "The sword is outside. Plague and famine are inside. Those in the countryside will die by the sword. Those in the city will be consumed by famine and plague."
- 16 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. "Those who survive and escape will flee to the mountains. They will be like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning — each one over their own iniquity."
- 17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. "Every hand will go limp. Every knee will be weak as water."

- 18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. "They will put on sackcloth. Terror will cover them. Shame will be on every face and every head will be shaved."
- 19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity. "They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be discarded. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it — for it became the stumbling block of their iniquity."
- 20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them. "They took pride in their beautiful jewelry and used it to make their vile idols and detestable images. Therefore I will make it an unclean thing to them."
- 21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. "I will give it as plunder to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, and they will defile it."
- 22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. "I will turn My face away from them, and they will desecrate My treasured place. Robbers will break into it and defile it."
- 23 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. "Prepare chains, for the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence."
- 24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. "I will bring the most ruthless of heathen to take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the pride of the powerful, and their sanctuaries will be defiled."

Chapter 8

The Spirit transports Ezekiel in a vision to the temple in Jerusalem. He sees escalating abominations — an idol of jealousy at the gate, elders burning incense to carved images in secret, women weeping for Tammuz, and men bowing to the sun with their backs to the temple.

- 1 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me. In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house with the elders of Judah sitting in front of me. The hand of the Lord GOD fell on me there.
- 2 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber. I looked and saw a figure that looked like fire. From what appeared to be His waist down was fire. From His waist up He was brilliant — like glowing metal.
- 3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God brought me to Jerusalem — to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes God's jealousy stood.
- 4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain. The glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision I had seen in the plain.
- 5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. He said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." I looked toward the north, and there at the entrance north of the altar gate was this idol that provokes jealousy.

- 6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations. He said to me, "Son of man, do You see what they are doing — the great abominations the house of Israel is committing here, driving Me far from My sanctuary? But You will see even greater abominations."
- 7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then He brought me to the entrance of the court, and I looked and saw a hole in the wall.
- 8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. He said to me, "Son of man, dig through the wall." So I dug through the wall and saw a doorway.
- 9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here. He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked abominations they are doing here."
- 10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. I went in and looked, and I saw every form of crawling creature and unclean animal and all the idols of the house of Israel — carved all over the walls.
- 11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Standing before them were seventy of the elders of the house of Israel. Jaazaniah son of Shaphan stood among them. Each man had his incense burner in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.
- 12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He said to me, "Son of man, have You seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each of them is in His own room full of carved idols. They say, 'The LORD doesn't see us. The LORD has abandoned the land.'"

- 13 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. He also said to me, "You will see even greater abominations than these."
- 14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD's house. There I saw women sitting and weeping for Tammuz.
- 15 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. He said to me, "Do You see this, Son of man? You will see abominations even greater than these."
- 16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and at the entrance to the temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men. Their backs were toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east. They were bowing down to the sun in the east.
- 17 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. He said to me, "Have You seen this, Son of man? Is it a trivial thing for the house of Judah to do the abominations they are doing here? They have filled the land with violence and repeatedly provoked Me to anger. Look — they are even putting the branch to their nose."
- 18 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them. "Therefore I will deal with them in fury. My eye will not spare and I will have no pity. Even if they shout in My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 9

Six executioners with destroying weapons are summoned, along with a man in linen carrying a writing kit. The man marks the foreheads of those who grieve over Jerusalem's abominations, and the rest are slaughtered without pity — beginning at the sanctuary.

- 1 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. He called in my hearing with a loud voice, "Bring the executioners of the city here, each with a weapon of destruction in his hand."
- 2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar. Six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man dressed in linen who carried a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

- 3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub where it had been and moved to the threshold of the house. The LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit.
- 4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof. The LORD said to Him, "Go through the city — through Jerusalem — and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and mourn over all the abominations being done in the city."
- 5 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity: To the others He said in my hearing, "Follow Him through the city and strike. Do not let Your eye spare, and have no pity."
- 6 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. "Kill old men, young men, young women, little children, and women — but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the house.
- 7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city. He said to them, "Defile the house and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out and killed throughout the city.
- 8 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell on my face and cried out, "Ah, Lord GOD! Are You going to destroy all who remain in Israel when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem?"

- 9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not. He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is very great. The land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. They say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land. The LORD does not see.'"
- 10 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. "My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. I will bring their deeds on their own heads."
- 11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me. Then the man in linen with the writing kit came back and reported, "I have done as You commanded."

Chapter 10

Ezekiel sees the glory of the LORD depart from the threshold of the temple and stand over the cherubim. Coals of fire are scattered over the city, and the cherubim with their wheels rise from the earth as the glory moves to the east gate.

- | | | |
| 1 | Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. | I looked and saw that above the firmament over the heads of the cherubim there was something like a sapphire stone — the appearance of the likeness of a throne. |
| 2 | And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight. | The LORD spoke to the man in linen and said, "Go between the wheels under the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city." He went in as I watched. |
| 3 | Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. | The cherubim were standing on the south side of the house when the man went in. The cloud filled the inner court. |
| 4 | Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. | The glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the house. The house was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the radiance of the LORD's glory. |
| 5 | And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. | The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far as the outer court — like the voice of God Almighty when He speaks. |
| 6 | And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. | When God commanded the man in linen, "Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside the wheels. |

- 7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand to the fire between the cherubim. He took some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out.
- 8 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings. The cherubim appeared to have the form of human hands under their wings.
- 9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone. I looked and saw four wheels beside the cherubim — one wheel beside each cherub. The wheels gleamed like topaz.
- 10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. All four wheels looked the same — as if a wheel were within a wheel.
- 11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. When they moved, they went in any of the four directions without turning. They followed the direction the head was facing and did not turn as they moved.
- 12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. Their entire bodies — including their backs, hands, and wings — and the wheels were covered with eyes all around, all four of them.
- 13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel. As for the wheels, they were called "the whirling wheels" as I heard.

- 14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. Each of the cherubim had four faces: the first was the face of a cherub, the second a human face, the third a lion's face, and the fourth an eagle's face.
- 15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar. The cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the river Chebar.
- 16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them. When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side.
- 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still. When they rose, the wheels rose with them — for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.
- 18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims. Then the glory of the LORD departed from the threshold of the house and stopped above the cherubim.
- 19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. The cherubim spread their wings and rose up from the earth as I watched. The wheels were beside them as they went. They stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the LORD's house. The glory of the God of Israel was above them.
- 20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims. These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the river Chebar. I recognized that they were cherubim.

- 21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. Each had four faces and four wings. Under their wings was the likeness of human hands.
- 22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward. Their faces looked just like the faces I had seen by the river Chebar. Each one moved straight forward.

Words in this chapter:

cherubim (CHAIR-uh-bim) — Powerful angelic beings — they guarded the Garden of Eden after the Fall and decorated the ark of the covenant; their appearance in Ezekiel has four faces and four wings.

Chapter 11

The glory of the LORD departs from the city and stands on the mountain east of Jerusalem. Yet the LORD promises to gather His scattered people, give them one heart, put a new spirit within them, and replace their heart of stone with a heart of flesh.

- 1 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the LORD's house, which faces east. At the entrance of the gate I saw twenty-five men. Among them were Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah — leaders of the people.

- 2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city: The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked advice in this city."
- 3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh. "They say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This city is the pot, and we are the meat.'"
- 4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man. "Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, Son of man."
- 5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. The Spirit of the LORD came on me and said, "Speak: 'This is what the LORD says. That is what You have said, house of Israel. I know what comes into Your mind, every single one of those thoughts.'"
- 6 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. "You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead."
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "The bodies You have thrown down in this city are the meat, and this city is the pot — but I will bring You out of it."
- 8 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. "You dread the sword, so I will bring a sword against You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. "I will bring You out of the city and hand You over to foreigners. I will execute judgment on You."
- 10 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "You will fall by the sword. I will judge You at the border of Israel. You will know that I am the LORD."

- 11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel: "This city will not be Your pot, and You will not be the meat in it. I will judge You at the border of Israel."
- 12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you. "You will know that I am the LORD, for You have not lived by My statutes or followed My laws. Instead You have followed the practices of the heathen around you."
- 13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? While I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. I fell facedown and cried out, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You completely destroy the remnant of Israel?"
- 14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. "Son of man, the people of Jerusalem have said about your fellow exiles and all the house of Israel, "They are far from the LORD. This land has been given to us as our possession."
- 16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. "Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Although I sent them far away among the heathen and scattered them among the lands, yet I have been a small sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone."

- 17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. "Therefore say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will gather You from the peoples and assemble You from the lands where You have been scattered, and I will give You back the land of Israel."
- 18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. "When they return, they will remove all its vile images and detestable idols."
- 19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: "I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh."
- 20 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. "Then they will follow My statutes and keep My laws and carry them out. They will be My people, and I will be their God."
- 21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD. "But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols, I will bring their deeds on their own heads, declares the Lord GOD."
- 22 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. Then the cherubim spread their wings, and the wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was above them.
- 23 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city. The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stopped on the mountain to the east of the city.

- 24 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles in Babylonia. After this the vision I had seen went away from me.
- 25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me. I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

Words in this chapter:

cherubim (CHAIR-uh-bim) — Powerful angelic beings — they guarded the Garden of Eden after the Fall and decorated the ark of the covenant; their appearance in Ezekiel has four faces and four wings.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Chapter 12

The LORD commands Ezekiel to pack his belongings and dig through the wall in the sight of the people as a sign of exile. The prince in Jerusalem will carry his bags on his shoulder at twilight, and every vision and prophecy will shortly be fulfilled — no longer delayed.

- 1 The word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me: me, saying,

- 2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house. "Son of man, You live among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see, ears to hear but do not hear — for they are a rebellious house."
- 3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. "Son of man, pack Your belongings for exile and move out in the daytime as they watch. Move from Your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, even though they are a rebellious house."
- 4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity. "Bring out Your belongings by day as if going into exile. Then go out in the evening as they watch — as those who go into captivity go out."
- 5 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. "Dig through the wall in their sight and carry Your belongings out through it."
- 6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel. "Carry Your pack on Your shoulders and go out in the dark. Cover Your face so You cannot see the ground — for I have made You a sign to the house of Israel."
- 7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. I did as I was commanded. By day I brought out my belongings as though going into exile. In the evening I dug through the wall by hand. I carried my pack out in the dark and bore it on my shoulder as they watched.
- 8 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, In the morning the word of the LORD came to me:

- 9 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou? "Son of man, did the house of Israel — that rebellious house — not ask You what You were doing?"
- 10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them. "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: This message concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel who are there."
- 11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove and go into captivity. "Say: I am a sign to You. As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives."
- 12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. "The prince among them will put his pack on his shoulder in the dark and go out through the wall. They will dig a hole through the wall to carry him through. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land."
- 13 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. "I will throw My net over him and catch him in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it — and there he will die."
- 14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. "I will scatter in every direction all his helpers and all his troops, and I will pursue them with a drawn sword."
- 15 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries. "They will know that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the lands."

- 16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "But I will spare a few of them from sword, famine, and plague, so they may confess all their abominations among the heathen where they go. They will know that I am the LORD."
- 17 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness; "Son of man, eat Your bread while trembling and drink Your water in fear and anxiety."
- 19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein. "Say to the people of the land: This is what the Lord GOD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel. They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair. Their land will be stripped bare because of the violence of all who live there."
- 20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "The inhabited cities will lie in ruins and the land will become a wasteland. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 21 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? "Son of man, what is this proverb You have in the land of Israel: 'The days drag on and every vision fails to come true'?"

Chapter 13

The LORD condemns the false prophets of Israel who prophesy peace when there is no peace, whitewashing a flimsy wall. He also denounces the women who sew magic bands and veils to hunt souls for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread.

- | | |
| 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD; | "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Say to those who prophesy from their own imagination, 'Hear the word of the LORD!'" |
| 3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! | "This is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible it will be for the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing!" |
| 4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. | "Israel, Your prophets are like jackals among ruins." |
| 5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. | "You have not gone up to the breaks in the wall or repaired it for the house of Israel so it will stand firm in battle on the day of the LORD." |

- 6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word. "Their visions are false and their divinations a lie. They say, 'The LORD declares,' but the LORD has not sent them. Yet they expect their word to be confirmed."
- 7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken? "Have You not seen false visions and spoken lying divinations when You say, 'The LORD declares,' though I have not spoken?"
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have spoken false visions and seen lies, I am against You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. "My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and give lying predictions. They will not belong to the council of My people or be listed in the records of Israel or enter the land of Israel. You will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar: "Because they have led My people astray by saying 'Peace' when there is no peace — and because when a flimsy wall is built, they coat it with whitewash —"
- 11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. "tell those who coat it with whitewash that it will fall. A torrential rain will come. I will send great hailstones crashing down, and a violent wind will tear it apart."
- 12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it? "When the wall collapses, people will say to You, 'Where is the whitewash You covered it with?'"

- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: In My wrath I will send a violent wind. In My anger a torrential rain will fall, and in My fury great hailstones will pound it to destruction."
- 14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will tear down the wall You have covered with whitewash and level it to the ground so that its foundation will be exposed. When it falls, You will be destroyed in it. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it; "I will spend My wrath on the wall and on those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to You, 'The wall is gone, and so are those who whitewashed it.'"
- 16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD. "These are the prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Lord GOD."
- 17 Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, "Now, Son of man, set Your face against the daughters of Your people who prophesy from their own imagination. Prophesy against them."

- 18 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you? "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible it will be for the women who sew magic bands on every wrist and make veils for people of every height to trap souls. Will You trap the souls of My people and keep Your own souls alive?"
- 19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies? "You have defiled Me among My people for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread. By lying to My people who love a lie, You have killed those who should not die and kept alive those who should not live."
- 20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against Your magic bands with which You trap people like birds. I will tear them from Your arms and set free the people you have trapped."
- 21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will tear off Your veils and rescue My people from Your hands. They will no longer fall prey to Your power. You will know that I am the LORD."
- 22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life: "Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies when I had not caused them grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so preserved their lives —"

- 23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "therefore You will no longer see false visions or give predictions. I will rescue My people from Your hands. You will know that I am the LORD."

Chapter 14

Elders come to Ezekiel, but the LORD declares they have set up idols in their hearts. He warns that even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in a sinful land, they could save only themselves by their own righteousness — not their sons or daughters.

- 1 Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me. Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me.
- 2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them? "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and placed the stumbling block of their iniquity right in front of them. Should I let them inquire of Me at all?"

- 4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; "Speak to them and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: When any Israelite sets up idols in His heart and puts the stumbling block of His iniquity before Him, and then comes to a prophet — I the LORD will answer Him according to His many idols."
- 5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. "I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel who have all abandoned Me for their idols."
- 6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Repent. Turn from Your idols and turn away from all Your abominations."
- 7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself; "When any Israelite or any foreigner living in Israel separates Himself from Me, sets up idols in His heart, puts the stumbling block of His iniquity before Him, and comes to a prophet to ask Me something — I the LORD will answer Him Myself."
- 8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will set My face against that man and make him a sign and a byword. I will cut Him off from among My people. You will know that I am the LORD."

- 9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. "And if a prophet is deceived and speaks a message, I the LORD have allowed that prophet to be deceived. I will stretch out My hand against Him and destroy Him from among My people Israel."
- 10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him; "Both the prophet and the person who consults him will bear the punishment for their iniquity."
- 11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD. "This is so the house of Israel will no longer stray from Me and will no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. They will be My people and I will be their God, declares the Lord GOD."
- 12 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: "Son of man, when a land sins against Me by trespassing grievously, I will stretch out My hand against it and cut off its food supply. I will send famine on it and cut off man and beast from it."
- 14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD. "Even if these three men — Noah, Daniel, and Job — were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts: "If I send wild animals through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no one will travel through it because of the animals —"

- 16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate."
- 17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it: "Or if I bring a sword against that country and say, 'Let the sword pass through the land,' and I kill its people and their animals —"
- 18 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved."
- 19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast: "Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath on it with bloodshed to kill its people and their animals —"
- 20 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. "as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could not save son or daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness."
- 21 For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast? "For this is what the Lord GOD says: How much worse will it be when I send My four dreadful judgments against Jerusalem — sword, famine, wild animals, and plague — to kill its people and their animals!"

- 22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. "Yet there will be survivors — sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come to You, and when You see their behavior and their actions, You will be comforted about the disaster I have brought on Jerusalem — about everything I have brought on it."
- 23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD. "They will comfort You when You see how they have behaved. You will know that I did not do without cause everything I have done in it, declares the Lord GOD."

Words in this chapter:

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Noah (NO-ah) — The righteous man God chose to preserve humanity and the animals through the Flood — he built the ark at God's command; his name means 'rest' or 'comfort.'

Chapter 15

The LORD compares Jerusalem to a useless vine — its wood cannot even be made into a peg. Since it was worthless even when whole, how much more useless is it now that fire has burned it? The LORD will make the land desolate because of their unfaithfulness.

| 1 | And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? | "Son of man, what good is the wood of a grapevine compared to any other wood — to a branch from any of the trees of the forest?" |
| 3 | Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? | "Is wood from a vine ever used for anything useful? Can anyone make a peg from it to hang things on?" |
| 4 | Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the middle of it is burned. Is it meet for any work? | "No — it is thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire burns both ends and chars the middle. Is it then useful for anything?" |
| 5 | Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned? | "Even when it was whole it was not fit for any purpose. How much less can it be made into something useful when fire has burned and charred it?" |
| 6 | Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. | "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: As I have given the wood of the vine among the forest trees as fuel for fire, so I will treat the inhabitants of Jerusalem." |
| 7 | And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. | "I will set My face against them. Although they have escaped from one fire, another fire will consume them. You will know that I am the LORD when I set My face against them." |
| 8 | And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD. | "I will make the land desolate because they have committed a trespass, declares the Lord GOD." |

vine (VYNE) — a common biblical image for Israel; here God says the vine wood is useless when it bears no fruit

Chapter 16

The LORD tells Jerusalem's history as an allegory: she was an abandoned infant whom He rescued, raised, and married. She became exceedingly beautiful but played the harlot with every nation around her, worse than Sodom and Samaria — yet the LORD will remember His covenant and establish an everlasting covenant with her.

| 1 | Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, | "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her abominations." |
| 3 | And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite. | "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and birth were in the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite and Your mother a Hittite." |
| 4 | And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. | "On the day You were born, Your umbilical cord was not cut, You were not washed with water, You were not rubbed with salt, and You were not wrapped in cloths." |
| 5 | None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born. | "No one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for You. You were thrown out into the open field on the day You were born — despised and rejected." |
| 6 | And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live. | "Then I passed by and saw You there, struggling in Your blood. I said to You as You lay in Your blood, 'Live!' Yes, I said to You in Your blood, 'Live!'" |

- 7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare. "I made You grow like a plant of the field. You grew up and became tall. You came to have great beauty. Your breasts formed and Your hair grew, yet You were naked and bare."
- 8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swear unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine. "Later I passed by and looked at You, and You were old enough for love. I spread the corner of My garment over You and covered Your nakedness. I gave You My solemn oath and entered into a covenant with You, declares the Lord GOD, and You became Mine."
- WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — "a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people." When God entered into a covenant with Jerusalem, He made a permanent, binding commitment — not a casual contract but a sworn oath.
- 9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil. "I bathed You with water, washed the blood from You, and anointed You with oil."
- 10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk. "I dressed You in embroidered cloth and gave You fine leather sandals. I wrapped You in fine linen and covered You with costly fabric."
- 11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck. "I adorned You with jewelry. I put bracelets on Your wrists and a necklace around Your neck."
- 12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head. "I put a ring on Your nose, earrings in Your ears, and a beautiful crown on Your head."

- 13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom. "You were adorned with gold and silver. Your clothing was fine linen, costly fabric, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You grew very beautiful and became a queen."
- 14 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. "Your fame spread among the heathen because of your beauty, for it was perfect because of the splendor I gave You, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was. "But You trusted in Your beauty and used Your fame to become a harlot. You lavished Your favors on everyone who passed by and Your beauty became His."
- 16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. "You took some of Your clothes and made colorful shrines, where You played the harlot. Such things should not happen and should not occur."
- 17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them, "You also took the beautiful jewelry I gave You — the gold and silver — and You made for Yourself male idols and committed whoredom with them."
- 18 And tookest thy brodered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them. "You took Your embroidered clothes and covered them. You set My oil and My incense before them."

- 19 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD. "Also the food I gave You — the fine flour, olive oil, and honey I fed You — you offered as a fragrant aroma before them. That is what happened, declares the Lord GOD."
- 20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, "And You took Your sons and daughters whom You bore to Me and sacrificed them as food to idols. Was Your whoredom not enough?"
- 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them? "You slaughtered My children and sacrificed them to the idols."
- 22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood. "In all Your abominations and Your whoredom You did not remember the days of Your youth — when You were naked and bare, struggling in Your blood."
- 23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD;) "After all Your wickedness — how terrible it will be for You, declares the Lord GOD —"
- 24 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street. "you built Yourself a shrine and made Yourself a high place in every public square."
- 25 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy legs to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms. "At every street corner You built Your shrines and degraded Your beauty, offering Yourself to anyone who passed by and multiplying your whoredoms."
- 26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger. "You committed fornication with the Egyptians, Your neighbors of great flesh, and multiplied Your whoredoms to provoke Me to anger."

- 27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. "Therefore I stretched out My hand against You and reduced Your food supply. I handed You over to the desire of those who hate You — the daughters of the Philistines, who were appalled by Your shameless conduct."
- 28 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldst not be satisfied. "You also played the harlot with the Assyrians because You were never satisfied. You played the harlot with them and still could not be satisfied."
- 29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. "You multiplied Your whoredoms in the land of Canaan all the way to Chaldea, yet even then You were not satisfied."
- 30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; "How sick Your heart is, declares the Lord GOD, that You did all these things — the brazen acts of a shameless harlot."
- 31 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire; "When You built Your shrines at every street corner and Your high places in every public square, You were unlike a harlot — you refused payment."
- 32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband! "You were an adulterous wife who takes strangers instead of her own husband!"
- 33 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom. "Every harlot receives payment, but You gave gifts to all Your lovers, paying them to come to You from all around for Your whoredoms."

- 34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary. "You were the opposite of other women. No one solicited you — you solicited them. You paid Your lovers instead of receiving payment. You were completely different."
- 35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD: "Therefore, You harlot, hear the word of the LORD!"
- 36 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because You poured out Your lust and exposed Your nakedness in Your whoredom with Your lovers — with all Your vile idols — and because You gave them Your children's blood —"
- 37 Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. "therefore I am going to gather all Your lovers with whom You found pleasure — all those You loved and all those You hated. I will gather them against You from all around and strip You naked in front of them, and they will see Your complete nakedness."
- 38 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. "I will punish You as women who commit adultery and shed blood are punished. I will bring on You the blood of wrath and jealousy."
- 39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare. "I will hand You over to them, and they will tear down Your shrines and demolish Your high places. They will strip off Your clothes, take Your beautiful jewelry, and leave You naked and bare."

- 40 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords. "They will bring a crowd against You and stone You and cut You to pieces with their swords."
- 41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. "They will burn Your houses with fire and execute judgment on You in the sight of many women. I will put an end to Your whoredom, and You will no longer pay lovers."
- 42 So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. "Then My wrath against You will be spent and My jealousy will depart. I will be calm and no longer angry."
- 43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations. "Because You did not remember the days of Your youth but enraged Me with all these things — I will surely bring Your conduct down on Your own head, declares the Lord GOD. Did You not add indecency to all Your other abominations?"
- 44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. "Everyone who uses proverbs will apply this to You: 'Like mother, like daughter.'"
- 45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lothed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite. "You are a true daughter of Your mother, who despised her husband and her children. You are a true sister of Your sisters, who despised their husbands and children. Your mother was a Hittite and Your father an Amorite."

- 46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. "Your older sister is Samaria, who lives with her daughters to Your north. Your younger sister, who lives with her daughters to Your south, is Sodom."
- 47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways. "You have not merely walked in their ways or done their abominations. In a very short time You were more corrupt than they in all Your ways."
- 48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, Your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what You and Your daughters have done."
- 49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. "Now this was the iniquity of Your sister Sodom: she and her daughters had pride, fullness of bread, and abundance of idleness. They did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy."
- 50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. "They were haughty and did detestable things before Me. Therefore I removed them when I saw it."
- 51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done. "Samaria did not commit half Your sins. You have done more abominations than they have. By all the abominations You have done, You have made Your sisters look righteous."

- 52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters. "Bear Your own disgrace, for You have given Your sisters reason to appear righteous. Since You sinned more abominably than they did, they are more righteous than You. Be ashamed and bear Your disgrace, for You have made Your sisters appear righteous."
- 53 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: "But I will bring again their captivity — the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters — and I will bring again Your captives in the midst of them."
- 54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them. "so that You may bear Your disgrace and be ashamed of all You have done in becoming a comfort to them."
- 55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. "Your sisters — Sodom and her daughters, and Samaria and her daughters — will return to what they were before. You and Your daughters will also return to what You were before."
- 56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, "In Your days of pride You did not even mention Your sister Sodom."
- 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about. "That was before Your wickedness was exposed. Now You are the object of scorn for the daughters of Aram and all her neighbors, and for the daughters of the Philistines — all those around You who despise You."

| 58 | Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD. | "You will bear the consequences of Your lewdness and Your abominations, declares the LORD." |
| 59 | For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. | "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I will deal with You as You deserve, because You have despised the oath by breaking the covenant." |
| 60 | Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. | "Yet I will remember the covenant I made with You in the days of Your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with You." |

| 63 | That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD. | "Then when I make atonement for You for all You have done, You will remember and be ashamed and never open Your mouth again because of Your disgrace, declares the Lord GOD." |

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

whoredom — Sexual immorality — also used in the prophets to describe Israel's spiritual unfaithfulness to God, treating it as adultery against the covenant.

Philistines (FIL-ih-steen-z) — Israel's most persistent enemies in the era of the judges and early monarchy — a sea-faring people from the Aegean who settled along Canaan's coast; gave their name to 'Palestine.'

Canaan (KAY-nan) — The Promised Land — the territory from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean, promised to Abraham and his descendants; later renamed Israel.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 17

Ezekiel tells a riddle of two great eagles and a vine. The first eagle represents Babylon, which planted Zedekiah as a vassal king; but the vine turned toward a second eagle — Egypt — breaking the covenant. The LORD declares that He Himself will plant a tender twig on a high mountain, and it will become a noble cedar.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; "Son of man, set forth a riddle and tell a parable to the house of Israel."

- 3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: A great eagle with powerful wings, long feathers, and full plumage of varied colors came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar."
- 4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. "He broke off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of traders. He planted it in a city of merchants."
- 5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. "He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil. He put it beside plentiful waters and set it like a willow."
- 6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. "It sprouted and became a spreading vine — low-growing but wide. Its branches turned toward Him, and its roots grew down into the soil. So it became a vine, produced branches, and put out leafy boughs."
- 7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation. "But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. This vine bent its roots toward Him and stretched its branches toward Him, looking for water from the soil where it was planted."
- 8 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. "It had been planted in good soil beside abundant waters so it could produce branches, bear fruit, and become a splendid vine."

- 9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of its spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof. "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Will it thrive? Will not the first eagle pull up its roots and strip off its fruit so it withers? All its fresh growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots."
- 10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew. "Even though it was planted, will it thrive? Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strikes it — wither away in the very beds where it grew?"
- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; "Say to that rebellious house: Don't you know what these things mean? The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and its officials, and brought them back to Babylon."
- 13 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land: "He took a member of the royal family and made a covenant with him, binding him with an oath. He also took away the leading men of the land."
- 14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. "This was so that the kingdom would be kept low, unable to rise again — surviving only by keeping the covenant."

- 15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered? "But the king of Judah rebelled against Babylon by sending envoys to Egypt to get horses and a great army. Will he succeed? Can he break the covenant and escape?"
- 16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, He will die in Babylon — in the land of the king who put him on the throne and whose oath he despised and whose covenant He broke."
- 17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons: "Pharaoh with his mighty army and great forces will not help him in the war when siege ramps are built and siege towers erected to destroy many lives."
- 18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape. "He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his word and done all these things, he will not escape."
- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on His own head the oath He despised and the covenant He broke."
- 20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. "I will throw My net over Him and catch Him in My snare. I will bring Him to Babylon and enter into judgment with Him there for the trespass He committed against Me."

Chapter 18

The LORD declares that the soul that sins shall die — each person bears their own iniquity. A righteous man who turns to wickedness will die; a wicked man who repents and does what is right will live. The LORD takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked but calls all to repent and live.

| 1 | The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? | "What do You mean by using this proverb in the land of Israel: 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge'?" |
| 3 | As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. | "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, You will no longer use this proverb in Israel." |
| 4 | Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. | "Every soul belongs to Me — the soul of the father and the soul of the son alike. The soul that sins is the one who will die." |
| 5 | But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right, | "Suppose a man is righteous and does what is just and right." |
| 6 | And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman, | "He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of Israel. He does not defile His neighbor's wife or sleep with a woman during her period." |
| 7 | And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; | "He does not oppress anyone but returns what a borrower pledged. He does not commit robbery but gives His food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked." |

- 8 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man, "He does not lend money at interest or take a profit. He keeps His hand from wrongdoing and judges fairly between man and man."
- 9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD. "He follows My decrees and keeps My laws faithfully. That man is righteous. He will surely live, declares the Lord GOD."
- 10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things, "But suppose this man has a violent son who sheds blood and does any of these things —"
- 11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife, "though the father did not do any of them. The son eats at the mountain shrines, defiles his neighbor's wife,"
- 12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, "oppresses the poor and needy, commits robbery, does not return what he took as a pledge, looks to idols, and does detestable things."
- 13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him. "He lends at interest and takes a profit. Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely die. His blood will be on his own head."
- 14 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like, "But suppose this violent son has a son who sees all the sins his father committed, and though he sees them, he does not do such things."
- 15 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, "He does not eat at the mountain shrines or look to the idols of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor's wife."

- 16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment, "He does not oppress anyone or hold back any pledge. He does not commit robbery but gives his food to the hungry and provides clothing for the naked."
- 17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. "He withholds his hand from sin and takes no interest or profit. He keeps My laws and follows My decrees. He will not die for his father's iniquity. He will surely live."
- 18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, even he shall die in his iniquity. "But his father will die for his own iniquity, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people."
- 19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live. "Yet you say, 'Why? Does not the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes and done them, he will surely live."
- 20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. "The soul that sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him."
- 21 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. "But if a wicked person turns away from all his sins and keeps all My decrees, doing what is just and right — he will surely live. He will not die."

- 22 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live. "None of the offenses he has committed will be counted against him. Because of the righteous things he has done, he will live."
- 23 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live? "Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Lord GOD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?"
- 24 But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. "But if a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits iniquity, doing all the abominations the wicked person does, will they live? None of the righteous things they have done will be remembered. In their trespass that they have trespassed and in their sin that they have sinned, they will die."
- 25 Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal? "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear me, house of Israel: Is My way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?"
- 26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. "If a righteous person turns from their righteousness and commits sin, they die for it. They die because of the sin they have committed."
- 27 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. "But if a wicked person turns away from the wickedness they have committed and does what is just and right, they will save their life."

- 28 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. "Because they considered all the offenses they had committed and turned away from them, they will surely live. They will not die."
- 29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal? "Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Are My ways unfair, house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unfair?"
- 30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. "Therefore I will judge You, house of Israel, each one according to his own ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent! Turn away from all Your offenses. Then iniquity will not be Your downfall."
- 31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? "Rid yourselves of all the offenses You have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will You die, house of Israel?"
- 32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye. "For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and live!"

Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Chapter 19

Ezekiel takes up a lament for the princes of Israel. Their mother is pictured as a lioness whose cubs were captured — one taken to Egypt, the other to Babylon. She is then compared to a vine once fruitful and strong, now plucked up, withered, and burned with fire.

| 1 | Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, | "Take up a lament for the princes of Israel." |
| 2 | And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions. | "Say: What was your mother? A lioness among lions. She crouched down among young lions. She reared her cubs." |
| 3 | And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men. | "She brought up one of her cubs. He became a young lion. He learned to prey on animals. He devoured men." |
| 4 | The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt. | "The nations heard about him. He was caught in their pit. They led him away with hooks to the land of Egypt." |
| 5 | Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. | "When she saw that her hope was gone — her expectation had failed — she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion." |

- 7 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring. "He broke down their strongholds and devastated their towns. The land and everything in it was terrified by the sound of his roaring."
- 8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit. "Then the nations came against him from the surrounding regions. They spread their net over him and caught him in their pit."
- 9 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel. "With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They put him in prison so his roar would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel."
- 10 Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. "Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted beside the water. It was fruitful and full of branches because of the abundant water."
- 11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches. "Its branches were strong — fit to be a ruler's scepter. It grew tall and reached up to the clouds. It was conspicuous for its height and its many branches."
- 12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them. "But it was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the ground. The east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches were torn off and withered. Fire consumed them."
- 13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. "Now it is planted in the desert, in a dry and thirsty land."

- 14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation. "Fire spread from one of its main branches and consumed its fruit. No strong branch is left on it fit to be a ruler's scepter. This is a lament, and it is used as a lament."

Words in this chapter:

lamentation (lam-en-TAY-shun) — a funeral song of grief; this chapter is a lament over the princes of Israel sceptre (SEP-tur) — a rod of authority held by a ruler; symbolizes royal power

Chapter 20

Elders come to inquire of the LORD, but He refuses them and recounts Israel's long history of rebellion — in Egypt, in the wilderness, and in the land. Yet for the sake of His name, He will gather them from the nations, purge the rebels, and bring them to the mountain of Israel where they will serve Him.

- 1 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me. In the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD. They sat down in front of me.
- 2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Have You come to inquire of Me? As surely as I live, I will not let You inquire of Me, declares the Lord GOD."

- 4 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers: "Will You judge them? Will You judge them, Son of man? Confront them with the abominations of their fathers."
- 5 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God; "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel and raised My hand in oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, I made Myself known to them in Egypt. I raised My hand to them and said, 'I am the LORD Your God.'"
- 6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands: "On that day I swore to bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them — a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands."
- 7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. "I said to them: Each of You — throw away the vile things You set Your eyes on. Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD Your God."
- 8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. "But they rebelled against Me and would not listen. They did not throw away the vile things they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them and accomplish My anger against them in Egypt."
- 9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt. "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen among whom they lived. In their sight I made Myself known to Israel by bringing them out of Egypt."

- 10 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. "So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the desert."
- 11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. "I gave them My decrees and laws. The man who obeys them will live by them."
- 12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them. "I also gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between Me and them, so they would know that I am the LORD Who makes them holy."
- 13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. "But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the desert. They did not follow My decrees but rejected My laws — though the man who obeys them will live by them — and they greatly desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them in the desert and destroy them."
- 14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. "But I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen who had seen Me bring them out."
- 15 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; "Also, I swore to them in the desert that I would not bring them into the land I had given them — the land flowing with milk and honey, most beautiful of all lands —"
- 16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. "because they rejected My laws, did not follow My decrees, and desecrated My Sabbaths. Their hearts were devoted to their idols."

- 17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. "Yet I looked on them with pity. I did not destroy them or put an end to them in the desert."
- 18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: "I said to their children in the desert: Do not follow your fathers' decrees or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols."
- 19 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; "I am the LORD Your God. Follow My decrees and keep My laws and carry them out."
- 20 And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. "Keep My Sabbaths holy. They will be a sign between Me and You so You may know that I am the LORD Your God."
- 21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. "But the children rebelled against Me too. They did not follow My decrees or keep My laws — though the man who obeys them will live by them — and they desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them in the desert and accomplish My anger against them."
- 22 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. "But I held back My hand. I acted for the sake of My name, that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the heathen who had seen Me bring them out."
- 23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries; "Also, in the desert I swore to scatter them among the heathen and disperse them through the lands."

- 24 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. "This was because they had not obeyed My laws but had rejected My decrees and desecrated My Sabbaths, and their eyes had followed after their fathers' idols."
- 25 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live; "So I gave them over to statutes that were not good and laws through which they could not live."
- 26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD. "I let them become defiled through their gifts — sacrificing every firstborn — so that I could fill them with horror. Then they would know that I am the LORD."
- 27 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. "Therefore, Son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: In this also Your fathers blasphemed Me, in that they committed a trespass against Me."
- 28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. "When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices there. They brought their offerings that provoked Me. They placed their fragrant incense there and poured out their drink offerings."
- 29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah unto this day. "Then I said to them: What is this high place You go to? It is called Bamah to this day."

- 30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations? "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Will You defile yourselves the way Your ancestors did and lust after their vile images?"
- 31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. "When You offer Your gifts — when You sacrifice Your children in the fire — you continue to defile yourselves with all Your idols to this day. And should I let You inquire of Me, house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will not let You inquire of Me."
- 32 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. "What You have in mind will never happen — your thought that You will be like the heathen, like the peoples of the other lands, serving wood and stone."
- 33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you: "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will rule over You with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath."
- 34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. "I will bring You out from the nations and gather you from the countries where You have been scattered — with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath."
- 35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face. "I will bring You into the wilderness of the nations and there I will execute judgment on you face to face."
- 36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. "As I judged Your ancestors in the wilderness of Egypt, so I will judge You, declares the Lord GOD."

- 37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant: "I will take note of You as You pass under My rod, and I will bring You into the bond of the covenant."
- 38 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will purge You of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land where they are living as strangers, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts and with your idols. "As for You, house of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: Go and serve Your idols, every one of you! But afterward you will surely listen to Me and no longer profane My holy name with Your gifts and Your idols."
- 40 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. "For on My holy mountain — the high mountain of Israel — the whole house of Israel will serve Me in the land, declares the Lord GOD. There I will accept them. There I will require Your offerings and Your choice gifts, along with all Your holy things."
- 41 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. "I will accept You as a fragrant offering when I bring You out from the heathen and gather you from the lands where you have been scattered. I will be proved holy through You in the sight of the heathen."
- 42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers. "You will know that I am the LORD when I bring You into the land of Israel — the land I swore to give Your ancestors."

- 43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. "There You will remember Your conduct and all the actions by which You have defiled yourselves. You will despise yourselves for all the evil You have done."
- 44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. "You will know that I am the LORD when I deal with You for My name's sake and not according to Your evil ways and Your corrupt practices, house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD."
- 45 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 46 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field; "Son of man, set Your face toward the south. Preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the southern region."
- 47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein. "Say to the southern forest: Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to set fire to You, and it will consume every green tree and every dry tree in You. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it."
- 48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. "Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it. It will not be quenched."
- 49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables? Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! People are saying of me, 'Isn't he just telling parables?'"

Words in this chapter:

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Chapter 21

The LORD draws His sword from its sheath against the land of Israel — it is sharpened and polished for slaughter. The king of Babylon stands at the crossroads using divination, and the lot falls on Jerusalem. The crown will be removed until He comes whose right it is.

- 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 2 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, "Son of man, set Your face toward Jerusalem. Preach against the sanctuaries and prophesy against the land of Israel."
- 3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. "Say to the land of Israel: This is what the LORD says: I am against You. I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off from You both the righteous and the wicked."

- 4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: "Because I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will go out from its sheath against everyone from south to north."
- 5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more. "Then all flesh will know that I the LORD have drawn My sword from its sheath. It will not return again."
- 6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. "Groan, Son of man — groan with anguish and a broken heart before them."
- 7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD. "When they ask You why You are groaning, say: Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear and every hand will go limp. Every spirit will faint and every knee will be weak as water. It is coming! It will be fulfilled, declares the Lord GOD."
- 8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished: "Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord says: A sword, a sword is sharpened and polished —"
- 10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree. "sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Shall we rejoice? The sword despises every wooden scepter."

- 11 And he gave it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. "The sword is handed to the polisher to make it ready for the slayer's hand."
- 12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh. "Cry out and wail, Son of man, for it is destined for My people. It is for all the princes of Israel. They are thrown to the sword along with My people. Strike Your thigh in grief."
- 13 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD. "Testing will surely come. And what if the scepter, which the sword despises, does not continue? declares the Lord GOD."
- 14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers. "So prophesy, Son of man. Clap Your hands together. Let the sword strike twice, even three times. It is the sword for the slain — the sword for the great slaughter that surrounds them."
- 15 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter. "I have stationed the sword for slaughter at all their gates, so that hearts will melt with fear and many will stumble. Ah, it is made to flash like lightning! It is drawn for slaughter."
- 16 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set. "Slash to the right! Slash to the left! Wherever Your blade is aimed!"
- 17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have spoken it. "I too will clap My hands, and My wrath will be spent. I the LORD have spoken."
- 18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:

- 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city. "Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take. Both roads lead from the same country. Make a signpost where the road forks and leads to a city."
- 20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced. "Mark out one road for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites and another to Judah and fortified Jerusalem."
- 21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver. "For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen. He will cast lots with arrows, he will consult his idols, he will examine the liver."
- 22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a siege fort. "Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a siege ramp, and to erect siege works."
- 23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. "It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn oaths, but he will remind them of their guilt and take them captive."
- 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have made Your guilt known — your transgressions exposed and Your sins revealed in all You do — because You are brought to remembrance, You will be taken captive."

- 25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, "And You, profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come — the time of final punishment —"
- 26 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. "this is what the Lord GOD says: Take off the turban. Remove the crown. Things will not remain as they are. Lift up the lowly and bring down the proud."
- 27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. "A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin. It will not be restored until He comes to whom it rightfully belongs. To Him I will give it."
- 28 And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering: "Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says about the Ammonites and their contempt: A sword, a sword, drawn for slaughter — polished to consume, to flash like lightning —"
- 29 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end. "while false visions are seen for you and lying divinations are told about you. The sword will be laid on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come — the time of final punishment."
- 30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity. "Return the sword to its sheath! I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your origin."
- 31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and I will deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. "I will pour out My wrath on you and breathe out My fiery anger against you. I will hand you over to brutal men, skilled in destruction."

- 32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it. "You will be fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow throughout the land. You will be remembered no more, for I the LORD have spoken."

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Chapter 22

The LORD catalogs Jerusalem's sins: bloodshed, idolatry, dishonoring parents, oppressing the stranger, profaning the Sabbath. Princes, priests, prophets, and people alike are corrupt. The LORD sought someone to stand in the gap but found no one, and so He pours out His wrath.

- 1 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 2 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations. "Son of man, will You judge? Will You judge the city of bloodshed? Confront her with all her abominations."

- 3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself. "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: O city that brings on herself doom by shedding blood in her midst and defiles herself by making idols —"
- 4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries. "you have become guilty because of the blood You have shed and have become defiled by the idols You have made. You have brought Your days to a close, and the end of Your years has come. Therefore I have made You an object of scorn to the heathen and a laughingstock to all the countries."
- 5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed. "Those near and far will mock You — infamous city, full of turmoil."
- 6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood. "See how each of the princes of Israel who are in You uses His power to shed blood."
- 7 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. "In You they have treated father and mother with contempt. In You they have oppressed the foreigner and mistreated the fatherless and the widow."
- 8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths. "You have despised My holy things and desecrated My Sabbaths."
- 9 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in thee have they committed lewdness. "In You are slanderers bent on shedding blood. In You are those who eat at the mountain shrines and commit indecent acts."
- 10 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution. "In You men violate their fathers' wives. In You men rape women during their periods."

- 11 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. "In You one man commits a detestable offense with His neighbor's wife. Another shamefully defiles His daughter-in-law. Another violates His sister, His own father's daughter."
- 12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD. "In You people accept bribes to shed blood. You take interest and profit and make gain from Your neighbors by extortion. And You have forgotten Me, declares the Lord GOD."
- 13 Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee. "I will surely strike My hands together at the unjust gain You have made and at the blood that has been shed in You."
- 14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it. "Will Your courage hold out or Your hands remain strong in the day I deal with You? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it."
- 15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee. "I will scatter You among the heathen and disperse you through the countries. I will purge You of Your uncleanness."
- 16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. "When You have been defiled in the eyes of the heathen, you will know that I am the LORD."
- 17 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver. "Son of man, the house of Israel has become worthless to Me. They are all the impurities — bronze, tin, iron, and lead — left inside a furnace. They have become like slag from silver."

- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have all become slag, I will gather You into Jerusalem."
- 20 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. "As silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are gathered into a furnace to be melted with a blast of fire, so I will gather You in My anger and My wrath. I will put You in the furnace and melt You."
- 21 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. "I will gather You and blow on You with My fiery wrath. You will be melted inside the city."
- 22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you. "As silver is melted in a furnace, so You will be melted inside the city. Then You will know that I the LORD have poured out My wrath on You."
- 23 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. "Son of man, say to the land: You are a land that has not been cleansed or rained on in the day of wrath."
- 25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. "The conspiracy of her prophets in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing its prey. They devour people. They seize treasure and precious things. They make many widows within her."

- 26 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. "Her priests do violence to My law and profane My holy things. They do not distinguish between the holy and the common. They do not teach the difference between the unclean and the clean. They shut their eyes to My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them."
- 27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. "Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey — shedding blood and destroying lives to make unjust gain."
- 28 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. "Her prophets whitewash these deeds with false visions and lying divinations. They say, 'This is what the Lord GOD says,' when the LORD has not spoken."
- 29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. "The people of the land practice extortion and commit robbery. They oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the foreigner, denying them justice."
- 30 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. "I looked for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand before Me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found no one."
- 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD. "So I poured out My wrath on them and consumed them with My fiery anger. I brought down on their own heads all they had done, declares the Lord GOD."

Words in this chapter:

dross (DROSS) — the waste metal left after smelting; God says Israel has become dross — worthless impurity to be burned away profane (proh-FAYN) — to treat holy things as common; the priests have profaned God's sabbaths and sanctuary

Chapter 23

The LORD tells the allegory of two sisters, Aholah and Aholibah — Samaria and Jerusalem. Both played the harlot with the nations around them, lusting after Assyria and Babylon. Aholah fell first; yet Aholibah did not learn but surpassed her sister's whoredoms, and judgment comes upon her.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: | "Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother." |
| 3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity. | "They committed whoredoms in Egypt — whoredoms from their youth. Their breasts were pressed there, and the teats of their virginity were handled there." |

- 4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah. "The older was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were Mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem."
- 5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours, "Oholah engaged in whoredom while she was still Mine. She lusted after her lovers — the Assyrians, her neighbors."
- 6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. "They were officers dressed in blue, governors and commanders — all handsome young men, mounted horsemen."
- 7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself. "She gave herself as a harlot to all the elite men of Assyria, and she defiled herself with all their idols."
- 8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her. "She did not give up the whoredom she had begun in Egypt, where men had slept with her in her youth and fondled her virgin breasts and poured out their lust on her."
- 9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted. "Therefore I handed her over to her lovers — the Assyrians, after whom she lusted."
- 10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her. "They stripped her naked, took her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women, for judgment was executed on her."

- 11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms. "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet in her lust and whoredom she was more depraved than her sister."
- 12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men. "She too lusted after the Assyrians — governors and commanders, warriors in full dress, mounted horsemen — all handsome young men."
- 13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way, "I saw that she too had defiled herself. Both of them had gone the same way."
- 14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion, "But she carried her whoredom still further. She saw men carved on a wall — figures of Chaldeans drawn in red,"
- 15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity: "dressed with belts on their waists and flowing turbans on their heads — all of them looked like Babylonian commanders, like men of Chaldea, the land of their birth."
- 16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea. "At the sight of them she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea."
- 17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them. "Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust."
- 18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister. "When she carried on her whoredom openly and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister."

- 19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. "Yet she multiplied her whoredom, remembering the days of her youth when she had been a harlot in Egypt."
- 20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. "She lusted after their lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses."
- 21 So thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth. "So You longed for the lewdness of Your youth, when in Egypt Your bosom was caressed and Your young breasts fondled."
- 22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side; "Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stir up Your lovers against You — those You turned away from in disgust — and I will bring them against You from every side."
- 23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. "The Babylonians and all the Chaldeans — the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa — and all the Assyrians with them, all of them handsome young men, governors and commanders — great lords and renowned warriors — all of them riding horses."
- 24 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments. "They will come against You with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a crowd of people. They will take up positions against You on every side with armor and shields and helmets. I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge You by their own standards."

- 25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. "I will direct My jealous anger against You, and they will deal with You in fury. They will cut off Your nose and Your ears, and those who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away Your sons and daughters, and Your survivors will be consumed by fire."
- 26 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. "They will also strip off Your clothes and take away Your fine jewelry."
- 27 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. "So I will put an end to Your lewdness and the whoredom You began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt anymore."
- 28 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated: "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to hand You over to those You hate — to those You turned away from in disgust."
- 29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. "They will deal with You in hatred and take everything You have worked for, leaving You naked and bare. The shame of Your whoredom will be exposed — your lewdness and Your whoredoms."
- 30 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. "These things will be done to You because You have pursued the heathen with lust and defiled yourself with their idols."
- 31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand. "You have followed in the path of Your sister, so I will put her cup into Your hand."

- 32 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much. "This is what the Lord GOD says: You will drink Your sister's cup — a cup large and deep. You will be laughed at and mocked. The cup holds so much."
- 33 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. "You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow — the cup of ruin and desolation, the cup of Your sister Samaria."
- 34 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. "You will drink it and drain it dry and chew its pieces — and You will tear out Your own breasts. For I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD."
- 35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You have forgotten Me and thrust Me behind Your back, You must bear the consequences of Your lewdness and whoredom."
- 36 The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations; The LORD said to me, "Son of man, will You judge Oholah and Oholibah? Confront them with their abominations."
- 37 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them. "For they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols and even sacrificed their children — whom they bore to Me — as food for idols."
- 38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths. "They have also done this to Me: At that same time they defiled My sanctuary and desecrated My Sabbaths."

- 39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house. "On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered My sanctuary and desecrated it. That is what they did in My house."
- 40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thy face, and deckedst thyself with ornaments, "They even sent messengers for men who came from far away — when a messenger was sent to them, they came. For their sake You bathed Yourself, painted Your eyes, and put on Your jewelry."
- 41 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil. "You sat on an elegant couch with a table spread before it. On it You placed My incense and My oil."
- 42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabians from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. "The noise of a carefree crowd was around her. Drunkards were brought from the desert along with men of the common sort, and they put bracelets on the wrists of Oholah and Oholibah and beautiful crowns on their heads."
- 43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them? "Then I said about the one worn out by adultery, 'Now let them use her as a harlot, for that is all she is.'"
- 44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women. "And they slept with her as men sleep with a harlot. So they slept with Oholah and Oholibah, these shameless women."
- 45 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. "But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment due adulteresses and women who shed blood — because they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands."

Chapter 24

On the very day Nebuchadnezzar begins the siege of Jerusalem, the LORD gives Ezekiel the parable of the boiling pot full of rust and corruption. That evening Ezekiel's wife dies, and the LORD forbids him to mourn — a sign that when the temple falls, the people's grief will be too great for tears.

| 1 Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | In the ninth year, on the tenth day of the tenth month, the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. | "Son of man, write down this date — this very day — because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day." |
| 3 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it: | "Tell a parable to that rebellious house and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: Put on the pot. Put it on and pour water into it." |
| 4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. | "Put into it the pieces of meat — every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder. Fill it with the best bones." |
| 5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein. | "Take the pick of the flock. Pile the wood beneath it. Bring it to a boil and cook the bones in it." |
| 6 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. | "For this is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible for the city of bloodshed — the pot now encrusted with filth, whose deposit will not go away! Empty it piece by piece without casting lots for the pieces." |
| 7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; | "For the blood she shed is in her midst. She poured it on the bare rock. She did not pour it on the ground, where the dust would cover it." |

- 8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. "To stir up My wrath and take revenge, I put her blood on the bare rock so that it would not be covered."
- 9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: How terrible for the city of bloodshed! I too will pile the wood high."
- 10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. "So heap on the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well, mixing in the spices, and let the bones be charred."
- 11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed. "Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows, so that its impurities may be melted and its deposit burned away."
- 12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire. "It has frustrated all efforts. Its heavy deposit has not been removed — not even by fire."
- 13 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee. "Now Your impurity is lewdness. Because I tried to cleanse You but You would not be cleansed from Your impurity, You will not be clean again until My wrath against You has subsided."
- 14 I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD. "I the LORD have spoken. The time has come for Me to act. I will not hold back. I will not have pity. I will not relent. You will be judged according to Your conduct and Your actions, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:

- 16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. "Son of man, with one blow I am about to take away from You the delight of Your eyes. Yet do not lament or weep or let Your tears flow."
- 17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. "Groan quietly. Do not mourn for the dead. Keep Your turban on Your head and Your sandals on Your feet. Do not cover the lower part of Your face or eat the customary food of mourners."
- 18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. I spoke to the people in the morning, and that evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.
- 19 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so? The people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things mean for us? Why are You behaving this way?"
- 20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, I answered them, "The word of the LORD came to me:"
- 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. "Say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to desecrate My sanctuary — the stronghold You are so proud of, the delight of Your eyes, the desire of Your heart. The sons and daughters You left behind will fall by the sword."
- 22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. "And You will do as I have done. You will not cover the lower part of Your face or eat the bread of mourners."
- 23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another. "You will keep Your turbans on Your heads and Your sandals on Your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of Your sins and groan among yourselves."

- 24 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. "Ezekiel will be a sign to you. You will do just as He has done. When this happens, You will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, "And You, Son of man — on the day I take away their stronghold — their joy and pride, the delight of their eyes, their heart's desire — and their sons and daughters as well —"
- 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears? "on that day a fugitive will come to You and report it to You in person."
- 27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "At that time Your mouth will be opened. You will speak with the fugitive and be silent no more. You will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD."

Words in this chapter:

Ezekiel (eh-ZEE-kee-el) — A priest and prophet among the exiles in Babylon — received dramatic visions of God's glory and the future restoration of Israel; his name means 'God strengthens.'

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Chapter 25

The LORD pronounces judgment against four neighboring nations: Ammon for rejoicing over the temple's destruction, Moab for saying Judah is like all other nations, Edom for taking vengeance on Judah, and the Philistines for acting in revenge with spite. All will know that He is the LORD.

| 2 | Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them; | "Son of man, set Your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them." |
| 3 | And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity; | "Say to the Ammonites: Hear the word of the Lord GOD. - 8 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because Moab and Seir said, 'Look, the house of Judah has become like all the other heathen' —"
- 9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Bethjeshimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim, "therefore I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning at its frontier towns — Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim — the glory of that land."
- 10 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. "I will give it along with Ammon to the people of the East as a possession, so that Ammon will not be remembered among the nations."
- 11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "And I will execute judgment on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD."
- 12 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because Edom took revenge on the house of Judah and became very guilty by doing so —"
- 13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. "therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stretch out My hand against Edom and kill its people and their animals. I will lay it waste, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword."

Words in this chapter:

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 26

The LORD pronounces judgment against Tyre for rejoicing over Jerusalem's fall. Many nations will come against her like waves of the sea. Nebuchadnezzar will besiege her, her walls will be broken down, and her very stones and timbers will be cast into the waters. She will never be rebuilt.

| 1 | And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gate of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste: | "Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gate of the peoples is broken, and its doors have swung open to me. Now that she lies in ruins, I will prosper' —" |
| 3 | Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up. | "therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Tyre, and I will bring many nations against You, like the sea casting up its waves." |
| 4 | And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock. | "They will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will scrape away her rubble and make her a bare rock." |
| 5 | It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and it shall become a spoil to the nations. | "Out in the sea she will become a place to spread fishing nets, for I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD. She will become plunder for the nations." |
| 6 | And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD. | "Her settlements on the mainland will be ravaged by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD." |

- 7 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: From the north I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon — king of kings — with horses and chariots, with horsemen and a great army."

■ NAME NOTE — Nebuchadnezzar (neb-uh-kud-NEZ-er) — "Nabu protects the crown" — King of Babylon (605–562 BC), the greatest conqueror of the ancient Near East. He destroyed Jerusalem and its temple in 586 BC and took the Jews into exile in Babylon.

- 8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee. "He will ravage Your settlements on the mainland with the sword. He will set up siege works against You, build a ramp up to Your walls, and raise His shields against You."
- 9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers. "He will direct the blows of His battering rams against Your walls and demolish Your towers with His weapons."
- 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach. "his horses will be so many that their dust will cover You. Your walls will tremble at the noise of the war horses, wagons, and chariots when He enters Your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through."
- 11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. "The hooves of his horses will trample all Your streets. He will kill Your people with the sword, and Your strong pillars will fall to the ground."

- 12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water. "They will plunder Your wealth and loot Your merchandise. They will break down Your walls and demolish Your fine houses and throw Your stones, timber, and rubble into the sea."
- 13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard. "I will put an end to Your noisy songs, and the music of Your harps will be heard no more."
- 14 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. "I will make You a bare rock, and You will become a place to spread fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee? "This is what the Lord GOD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands tremble at the sound of Your fall, when the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place in Your midst?"
- 16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee. "Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at You."
- 17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! "They will take up a lament concerning You and say to You: 'How You are destroyed, You city of sailors — the renowned city, strong on the sea! She and her inhabitants spread their terror over all who lived there!'"

Chapter 27

Ezekiel takes up a lament for Tyre, depicting her as a magnificent merchant ship built from the finest materials and trading with all the known world. Her riches, wares, and merchants are catalogued in detail — but she will sink into the heart of the seas, and the nations will be horrified at her end.

- 9 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. "Veteran craftsmen of Byblos were on board as caulkers of Your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to You to trade for Your wares."
- 10 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. "Men of Persia, Lydia, and Put served as soldiers in Your army. They hung their shields and helmets on Your walls, bringing You splendor."
- 11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect. "Men of Arvad and Helech manned Your walls all around. The men of Gammad were in Your towers. They hung their shields around Your walls and brought Your beauty to perfection."
- 12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs. "Tarshish did business with You because of Your great wealth of goods. They exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for Your merchandise."
- 13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market. "Greece, Tubal, and Meshech traded with You. They bartered human beings and articles of bronze for Your wares."
- 14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules. "From Beth Togarmah they exchanged warhorses, work horses, and mules for Your merchandise."
- 15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony. "The men of Rhodes traded with You, and many coastlands were Your customers. They brought You ivory tusks and ebony as payment."

- 16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. "Aram did business with You because of Your many products. They exchanged turquoise, purple fabric, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies for Your merchandise."
- 17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm. "Judah and the land of Israel traded with You. They exchanged wheat from Minnith, and confections, honey, olive oil, and balm for Your wares."
- 18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool. "Damascus did business with You because of Your many products and Your great wealth. They offered wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar."
- 19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. "Vedan and Javan from Uzal bought Your merchandise. They exchanged wrought iron, cassia, and calamus for Your wares."
- 20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots. "Dedan traded in saddlecloths for riding."
- 21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants. "Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were Your customers. They traded with You in lambs, rams, and goats."
- 22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. "The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with You. For Your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all spices and precious stones and gold."
- 23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants. "Haran, Canneh, and Eden and merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad traded with You."

- 24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise. "In Your marketplace they traded with You in choice garments, blue fabric, embroidered work and multicolored rugs, and tightly wound cords."
- 25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas. "The ships of Tarshish served as carriers for Your wares. You were filled with heavy cargo as You sailed the sea."
- 26 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas. "Your oarsmen took You out to the high seas. But the east wind has shattered You in the heart of the sea."
- 27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin. "Your wealth, merchandise, and wares, Your mariners and sailors, Your caulkers, Your merchants and soldiers, and all the other people on board will sink into the heart of the sea on the day of Your shipwreck."
- 28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots. "The coastlands will quake when Your sailors cry out."
- 29 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; "All who handle the oars will abandon their ships. The mariners and all the sailors will stand on the shore."
- 30 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: "They will raise their voice and cry out bitterly over You. They will throw dust on their heads and roll in the ashes."

Chapter 28

The LORD condemns the prince of Tyre, who says "I am a god" in his pride, and declares he will die the death of the uncircumcised. A lament follows for the king of Tyre — once in Eden, full of wisdom and beauty, the anointed cherub on the holy mountain of God — cast down because of his corruption. The LORD also pronounces judgment on Sidon.

| 1 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God: | "Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre: This is what the Lord GOD says: In the pride of Your heart You say, 'I am a god. I sit on the throne of a god in the heart of the seas.' But You are a mere mortal and not a god, even though You think You are as wise as a god." |
| 3 Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee: | "Are You wiser than Daniel? Is no secret hidden from you?" |

| 4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: | "By Your wisdom and understanding You have gained wealth for Yourself and amassed gold and silver in Your treasuries." |
| 5 By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: | "By Your great skill in trading You have increased Your wealth, and because of Your wealth Your heart has grown proud." |
| 6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God; | "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because You think You are wise — as wise as a god —" |
| 7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. | "I am going to bring foreigners against You, the most ruthless of nations. They will draw their swords against Your beauty and wisdom and pierce Your shining splendor." |
| 8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas. | "They will bring You down to the pit, and You will die a violent death in the heart of the seas." |
| 9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee. | "Will You then say, 'I am a god,' in the presence of those who kill You? You will be just a mortal, not a god, in the hands of those who slay You." |
| 10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. | "You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners. For I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD." |
| 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |

- 12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. "Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: This is what the Lord GOD says: You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty."
- 13 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created. "You were in Eden, the garden of God. Every precious stone adorned You — ruby, topaz, and emerald, chrysolite, onyx, and jasper, lapis lazuli, turquoise, and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold. On the day You were created they were prepared."
- 14 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. "You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained You. You were on the holy mountain of God. You walked among the fiery stones."
- 15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. "You were blameless in Your ways from the day You were created till iniquity was found in You."
- 16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. "Through Your widespread trade You were filled with violence, and You sinned. So I drove You in disgrace from the mountain of God, and I expelled You, guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones."
- 17 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee. "Your heart became proud on account of Your beauty. You corrupted Your wisdom because of Your splendor. So I threw You to the earth. I made a spectacle of You before kings."

- 18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee. "By Your many sins and dishonest trade You have desecrated Your sanctuaries. So I made a fire come out from You, and it consumed You. I reduced You to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching."
- 19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more. "All the nations who knew you are appalled at you. You have come to a horrible end and will be no more."
- 20 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 21 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it, "Son of man, set Your face against Sidon. Prophesy against it."
- 22 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Sidon, and among You I will display My glory. They will know that I am the LORD when I inflict punishment on her and show Myself holy within her."
- 23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "I will send a plague upon her and make blood flow in her streets. The slain will fall within her, with the sword against her on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD."
- 24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the LORD GOD. "No longer will the people of Israel have malicious neighbors who are painful briars and sharp thorns. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."

- 25 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. "This is what the Lord GOD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the heathen where they have been scattered, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of the heathen. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to My servant Jacob."
- 26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God. "They will live there in safety and will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live in safety when I inflict punishment on all their neighbors who treated them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God."

Words in this chapter:

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Eden (EE-den) — The garden God planted in the east as the first human home — meaning 'delight' or 'pleasure'; location east of which God placed cherubim after the Fall.

Chapter 29

The LORD sets His face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon lying in his rivers who says "My river is my own; I have made it." Egypt will become a desolation for forty years, then be restored as a lowly kingdom. Nebuchadnezzar will receive the spoils of Egypt as wages for his service against Tyre.

I made it for myself.'" |

You will fall on the open field and not be gathered or picked up. I will give You as food to the wild animals and the birds." |

- 6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. "Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. You have been a staff of reed for the house of Israel."
- 7 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand. "When they grasped You with their hands, You splintered and tore open their shoulders. When they leaned on You, You broke and their backs were wrenched."
- 8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will bring a sword against You and kill Your people and their animals."
- 9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. "Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD. Because You said, 'The Nile is mine and I made it' —"
- 10 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia. "therefore I am against You and against Your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste, from Migdol to Aswan, as far as the border of Cush."
- 11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. "No foot of man or animal will pass through it. No one will live there for forty years."
- 12 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. "I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate forty years among ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries."

- 13 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered: "Yet this is what the Lord GOD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered."
- 14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom. "I will bring Egypt back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom."
- 15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. "It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations."
- 16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. "Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the people of Israel but will remind them of their sin in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."
- 17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, In the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:
- 18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it: "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre. Every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army got no reward from Tyre for the campaign he had led against it."

- 19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder it as pay for His army."
- 20 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. "I have given Him Egypt as a reward for His efforts because He and His army did it for Me, declares the Lord GOD."
- 21 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD. "On that day I will make a horn of the house of Israel grow, and I will open Your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Words in this chapter:

dragon — In the OT (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), 'dragon' is often used for a great sea-serpent and as a symbol of Egypt or chaos; in Revelation, the dragon is Satan himself.

Chapter 30

The LORD declares a day of doom for Egypt and her allies. The sword of Babylon will come against her, the rivers will be dried up, the idols destroyed, and the cities laid waste from Migdol to Syene. The LORD will break the arms of Pharaoh and strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon.

| 1 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, Woe worth the day! | "Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Wail and say, 'Alas for that day!'" |
| 3 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen. | "For the day is near — the day of the LORD is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of reckoning for the heathen." |
| 4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. | "A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will come upon Cush. When the slain fall in Egypt, her wealth will be carried away and her foundations torn down." |
| 5 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword. | "Cush and Put, Lydia and all Arabia, Libya and the people of the covenant land — they will all fall by the sword along with Egypt." |
| 6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. | "This is what the LORD says: The allies of Egypt will fall, and her proud strength will fail. From Migdol to Aswan they will fall by the sword within Egypt, declares the Lord GOD." |
| 7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. | "They will be desolate among desolate lands. Their cities will be among ruined cities." |
| 8 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed. | "They will know that I am the LORD when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are crushed." |

- 9 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh. "On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to frighten Cush out of her complacency. Anguish will take hold of them on the day of Egypt's doom, for it is surely coming."
- 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. "This is what the Lord GOD says: I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."
- 11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. "He and His army — the most ruthless of nations — will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain."
- 12 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it. "I will dry up the streams of the Nile and sell the land to evil men. By the hand of foreigners I will lay waste the land and everything in it. I the LORD have spoken."
- 13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. "This is what the Lord GOD says: I will destroy the idols and put an end to the images in Memphis. No longer will there be a prince in Egypt, and I will spread fear throughout the land."
- 14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No. "I will lay waste Upper Egypt, set fire to Zoan, and inflict punishment on Thebes."
- 15 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. "I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes."

- 16 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily. "I will set fire to Egypt. Pelusium will writhe in agony. Thebes will be torn apart. Memphis will be in constant distress."
- 17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity. "The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and the cities will go into captivity."
- 18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. "Dark will be the day at Tahpanhes when I break the yoke of Egypt. There her proud strength will come to an end. She will be covered with clouds, and her villages will go into captivity."
- 19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD. "So I will inflict punishment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD."
- 20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me:
- 21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword. "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage so that it may become strong enough to hold a sword."
- 22 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms — the good arm as well as the broken one — and make the sword fall from His hand."
- 23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. "I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries."

Chapter 31

The LORD compares Pharaoh to a great cedar in Lebanon — towering above all the trees, its top among the thick branches, envied by all the trees of Eden. But because it grew proud, it was cut down and cast to the earth by the most terrible of the nations, and all who dwelt in its shade departed.

| 1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness? | "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes: Who can be compared with you in your greatness?" |
| 3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs. | "Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches overshadowing the forest. It towered high, its top above the thick foliage." |
| 4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field. | "The waters nourished it and the deep springs made it grow tall. Their streams flowed all around its base and sent their channels to all the trees of the field." |
| 5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth. | "So it towered higher than all the trees of the field. Its boughs multiplied and its branches grew long, spreading because of the abundant water." |
| 6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations. | "All the birds of the sky nested in its boughs. All the wild animals gave birth under its branches. All the great nations lived in its shade." |
| 7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters. | "It was majestic in beauty with its spreading boughs, for its roots reached down to abundant waters." |

- 8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. "The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it, nor could the junipers equal its boughs, nor the plane trees compare with its branches. No tree in the garden of God could match its beauty."
- 9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. "I made it beautiful with abundant branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden in the garden of God."
- 10 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because it towered on high and set its top among the thick boughs, and because it was proud of its height —"
- 11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. "I handed it over to the ruler of the heathen, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside."
- 12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. "The most ruthless of foreign nations cut it down and left it. Its branches fell on the mountains and in all the valleys. Its boughs lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth left its shade and went away."
- 13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches: "All the birds settled on the fallen tree, and all the wild animals lived among its branches."

- 14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit. "No other trees by the waters are to grow tall and set their tops among the thick foliage. No other well-watered tree is to reach such a height. They are all destined for death — for the depths of the earth — among mortals who go down to the pit."
- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. "This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day it was brought down to hell I caused mourning. I covered the deep springs with darkness for it, I held back its streams, and the great waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field withered away."
- 16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. "I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to hell with those who go down to the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the finest and best of Lebanon — all the trees that were well-watered — were consoled in the depths of the earth."
- 17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen. "They too, like the great tree, had gone down to hell, to those killed by the sword — those who had lived in its shade among the heathen."

- 18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD. "Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with You in glory and greatness? Yet You too will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the depths of the earth. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Lord GOD."

Ezekiel takes up a lament for Pharaoh, comparing him to a great monster in the seas. The LORD will cast His net over Egypt and leave her carcass on the open field for the birds and beasts. Egypt will descend to the pit and lie among the uncircumcised with Assyria, Elam, Meshech, Tubal, Edom, and Sidon.

- 1 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, In the twelfth year, on the first day of the twelfth month, the word of the LORD came to me:

- 2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers. "Son of man, take up a lament concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him: You are like a lion among the nations. You are like a monster in the seas, thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet and muddying the streams."
- 3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net. "This is what the Lord GOD says: With a great throng of people I will cast My net over You, and they will haul You up in My net."
- 4 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee. "I will throw You on the land and hurl You on the open field. I will let all the birds of the sky settle on You and all the wild animals gorge themselves on You."
- 5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height. "I will spread Your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with Your remains."
- 6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee. "I will drench the land with Your flowing blood all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with Your flesh."
- 7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light. "When I snuff You out, I will cover the heavens and darken their stars. I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light."
- 8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD. "All the shining lights in the heavens I will darken over You. I will bring darkness over Your land, declares the Lord GOD."

- 9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known. "I will trouble the hearts of many peoples when I bring about Your destruction among the nations — among lands you have not known."
- 10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall. "I will cause many peoples to be appalled at You, and their kings will shudder with horror because of You when I brandish My sword before them. On the day of Your downfall each of them will tremble every moment for His own life."
- 11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you."
- 12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed. "By the swords of the mighty I will cause Your hordes to fall — the ruthless of all nations. They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes will be destroyed."
- 13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. "I will destroy all her cattle from beside abundant waters. No human foot will trouble them anymore, nor will the hooves of cattle churn them up."
- 14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD. "Then I will let her waters settle and make her streams flow like oil, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD. "When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of everything in it — when I strike down all who live there — then they will know that I am the LORD."

- 16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD. "This is the lament they will chant for her. The women of the nations will chant it. They will chant it over Egypt and all her hordes, declares the Lord GOD."
- 17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:
- 18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit. "Son of man, wail for the hordes of Egypt and consign to the earth below both her and the daughters of mighty nations, along with those who go down to the pit."
- 19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised. "Say: Are You more favored than others? Go down and be laid among the uncircumcised."
- 20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes. "They will fall among those killed by the sword. The sword is drawn. Drag her away and all her hordes."
- 21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword. "From within hell the mighty leaders will say of Egypt and her allies: 'They have come down and they lie with the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.'"
- 22 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword: "Assyria is there with her whole army. Her graves are all around her. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword."

- 23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. "Their graves are in the depths of the pit and her army lies around her grave. All of them fell by the sword — those who had spread terror in the land of the living."
- 24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. "Elam is there with all her hordes around her grave. All of them fell by the sword — uncircumcised, gone down to the depths of the earth. They had spread their terror in the land of the living, but they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit."
- 25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain. "A bed is made for her among the slain, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword. Because their terror was spread in the land of the living, they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. She is laid among the slain."
- 26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. "Meshech and Tubal are there, with all their hordes around their graves. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, though they spread their terror in the land of the living."

- 27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. "Do they not lie with the other uncircumcised warriors who have fallen, who went down to hell with their weapons of war, whose swords were placed under their heads? The punishment for their sins rested on their bones, though the terror of these warriors had stalked through the land of the living."
- 28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword. "You too, Pharaoh, will be broken and will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword."
- 29 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. "Edom is there, her kings and all her princes. Despite their power, they are laid with those killed by the sword. They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the pit."
- 30 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. "All the princes of the north and all the Sidonians are there. They went down with the slain in disgrace despite the terror caused by their power. They lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit."
- 31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. "Pharaoh — he and all his army — will see them and find comfort for all His hordes killed by the sword, declares the Lord GOD."

- 32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD. "Although I had Him spread terror in the land of the living, Pharaoh and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Lord GOD."

Chapter 33

The LORD restates Ezekiel's role as watchman for the house of Israel. He reaffirms that the righteous who turns to sin will die, and the wicked who repents will live. News arrives that Jerusalem has fallen. The LORD rebukes those still in the ruins who claim the land by right of Abraham, and He warns that the exiles listen to Ezekiel's words but do not act on them.

- 1 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman: "Son of man, speak to Your people and say to them: When I bring a sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make Him their watchman —"

- 3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; "and He sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people —"
- 4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. "then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning and the sword comes and takes His life, His blood will be on His own head."
- 5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. "Since He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, His blood will be on His own head. If He had taken warning, He would have saved Himself."
- 6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. "But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes someone's life, that person's life will be taken because of their sin, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their blood."
- 7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. "Son of man, I have made You a watchman for the house of Israel. So hear the word I speak and give them warning from Me."
- 8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. "When I say to the wicked, 'You wicked person, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you responsible for their blood."
- 9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. "But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sin, though you yourself will have been delivered."

- 10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? "Son of man, say to the house of Israel: 'This is what you are saying: Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?'"
- 11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? "Say to them: As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from Your evil ways! Why will You die, house of Israel?"
- 12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. "Son of man, say to your people: The righteousness of the righteous will not save them when they disobey. As for the wickedness of the wicked, they will not fall by it when they turn from it. The righteous person will not be able to live by their righteousness when they sin."
- 13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it. "If I tell the righteous person that they will surely live, but then they trust in their righteousness and do evil, none of their righteous acts will be remembered. They will die for the evil they have done."
- 14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; "And if I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' but they then turn away from their sin and do what is just and right —"

- 15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. "if they return what they took as a pledge for a loan, give back what they have stolen, follow the decrees that give life, and do no evil — they will surely live. They will not die."
- 16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. "None of the sins they have committed will be counted against them. They have done what is just and right. They will surely live."
- 17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. "Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' But it is their way that is not fair."
- 18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby. "If the righteous turn from their righteousness and do evil, they will die for it."
- 19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. "And if the wicked turn away from their wickedness and do what is just and right, they will live by doing so."
- 20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways. "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' I will judge each of you according to your own ways, house of Israel."
- 21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen!"
- 22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD had been on me. He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. My mouth was opened and I was silent no longer.

- 23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. "Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many. Surely the land has been given to us as our possession.'"
- 25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? "Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: You eat meat with the blood still in it, You look to Your idols, and You shed blood. Should You then possess the land?"
- 26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land? "You rely on Your sword, You do detestable things, and each of You defiles His neighbor's wife. Should You then possess the land?"
- 27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. "Say this to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: As surely as I live, those in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of plague."
- 28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through. "I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will become so desolate that no one will cross them."
- 29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed. "Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations they have committed."

- 30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD. "As for You, Son of man, Your people are talking together about You by the walls and at the doors of the houses. They say to one another, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.'"
- 31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. "My people come to You, as they usually do, and sit before You to hear Your words, but they do not put them into practice. Their mouths speak of love, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain."
- 32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not. "Indeed, to them You are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear Your words but do not put them into practice."
- 33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them. "When all this comes true — and it surely will — then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

transgression — Crossing the line God set — deliberately breaking a specific command He gave.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Chapter 34

The LORD condemns the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves instead of the flock, leaving the sheep scattered and prey to wild beasts. He declares He Himself will search for His sheep, gather them, and feed them on the mountains of Israel. He will set one shepherd over them — His servant David — and make a covenant of peace with them.

| 1 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks? | "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says to the shepherds: How terrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! | 3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. | "You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool, and slaughter the choice animals, but You do not take care of the flock." |
| 4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. | "You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally." |

- 5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered. "So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. When they were scattered, they became food for all the wild animals."
- 6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them. "My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them."
- 7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; "Therefore, You shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:"
- 8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; "As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because My flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals — and because My shepherds did not search for My flock but cared for themselves rather than for My flock —"
- 9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; "therefore, You shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:"
- 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. "This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for My flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them."
- 11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. "For this is what the Lord GOD says: I Myself will search for My sheep and look after them."

- 12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. "As a shepherd looks after His scattered flock when He is with them, so will I look after My sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness."
- 13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. "I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land."
- 14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel. "I will tend them in good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel."
- 15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. "I Myself will tend My sheep and have them lie down, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. "I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice."
- 17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats. "As for You, My flock, this is what the Lord GOD says: I will judge between one sheep and another — between rams and goats."

- 18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? "Is it not enough for You to feed on the good pasture? Must You also trample the rest of Your pasture with Your feet? Is it not enough for You to drink clear water? Must You also muddy the rest with Your feet?"
- 19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. "Must My flock feed on what You have trampled and drink what You have muddied with Your feet?"
- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says to them: I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep."
- 21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; "Because You shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with Your horns until You have driven them away —"
- 22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle. "I will save My flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another."
- 23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. "I will place over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will tend them. He will tend them and be their shepherd."
- 24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it. "I the LORD will be their God, and My servant David will be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken."
- 25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. "I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live in the desert and sleep in the forests in safety."

- 26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. "I will make them and the places surrounding My hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season. There will be showers of blessing."
- 27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. "The trees of the field will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops. The people will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them."
- 28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid. "They will no longer be plundered by the heathen, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live in safety, and no one will make them afraid."
- 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. "I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the heathen."
- 30 Then shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD. "Then they will know that I the LORD their God am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are My people, declares the Lord GOD."
- 31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD. "You My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, are people, and I am Your God, declares the Lord GOD."

Words in this chapter:

covenant — A binding agreement — God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Chapter 35

The LORD pronounces judgment against Mount Seir — Edom — because of her perpetual hatred against Israel and her desire to possess both nations' lands. Because she rejoiced when Israel's inheritance was desolate, the LORD will make her a perpetual desolation.

| 1 | Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, | "Son of man, set Your face against Mount Seir. Prophecy against it." |
| 3 | And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate. | "Say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Mount Seir. I will stretch out My hand against You and make You a desolate waste." |
| 4 | I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. | "I will turn Your towns into ruins and You will be desolate. Then You will know that I am the LORD." |
| 5 | Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end: | "Because You harbored an ancient hostility and delivered the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, the time their punishment reached its climax —" |

- 6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee. "therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will give You over to bloodshed and it will pursue You. Since You did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue You."
- 7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth by and him that returneth. "I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who come and go."
- 8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword. "I will fill Your mountains with the slain. Those killed by the sword will fall on Your hills, in Your valleys, and in all Your ravines."
- 9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will make You desolate forever and Your towns will not be inhabited. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there: "Because You said, 'These two nations and countries will be ours and we will take possession of them' — even though I the LORD was there —"
- 11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee. "therefore, as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will treat You in accordance with the anger and jealousy You showed in Your hatred of them. I will make Myself known among them when I judge You."
- 12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume. "Then You will know that I the LORD have heard all the contemptible things You have said against the mountains of Israel. You said, 'They have been laid waste and have been given over to us to devour.'"

- 2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession: "This is what the Lord GOD says: The enemy said of you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession.'"
- 3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people: "Therefore prophesy and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: Because they ravaged and hounded You from every side so that You became the possession of the rest of the heathen and the object of people's gossip and slander —"
- 4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about; "therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the deserted towns that have been plundered and ridiculed by the rest of the heathen around you —"
- 5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey. "this is what the Lord GOD says: In My burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the heathen, and against all Edom, for with wholehearted joy and spiteful minds they took My land as their possession so that they might plunder its pastureland."

- 6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: "Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: This is what the Lord GOD says: I speak in My jealous wrath because You have suffered the scorn of the heathen."
- 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame. "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I swear with uplifted hand that the heathen around you will also suffer scorn."
- 8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come. "But You, mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit for My people Israel, for they will soon come home."
- 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown: "I am concerned for You and will look on You with favor. You will be plowed and sown."
- 10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded: "I will multiply the number of people on You — even the whole house of Israel. The towns will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt."
- 11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. "I will increase the number of people and animals living on You, and they will be fruitful and become numerous. I will settle people on You as in the past and will make You prosper more than before. Then You will know that I am the LORD."
- 12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men. "I will cause people — My people Israel — to live on You. They will possess You, and You will be their inheritance. You will never again deprive them of their children."

- 13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations; "This is what the Lord GOD says: Because people say to You, 'You devour men and bereave Your nation of its children' —"
- 14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD. "therefore You will no longer devour men or make Your nation childless, declares the Lord GOD."
- 15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD. "No longer will I make You hear the taunts of the heathen. No longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause Your nation to fall, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman. "Son of man, when the house of Israel was living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness in My sight."
- 18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it: "So I poured out My wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols."
- 19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. "I dispersed them among the heathen, and they were scattered through the countries. I judged them according to their conduct and their actions."

- 20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. "And wherever they went among the heathen they profaned My holy name, for it was said of them, "These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave His land."
- 21 But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. "I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen where they had gone."
- 22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. "Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: It is not for Your sake, house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of My holy name, which You have profaned among the heathen where you have gone."
- 23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. "I will show the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the heathen — the name you have profaned among them. Then the heathen will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when I am proved holy through You before their eyes."
- 24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. "For I will take You out of the heathen. I will gather you from all the countries and bring You back into Your own land."
- 25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. "I will sprinkle clean water on You, and You will be clean. I will cleanse You from all Your impurities and from all Your idols."

- 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. "I will give You a new heart and put a new spirit in You. I will remove from You Your heart of stone and give You a heart of flesh."
- 27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. "And I will put My Spirit in You and move You to follow My decrees and be careful to keep My laws."
- 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. "Then You will live in the land I gave Your ancestors. You will be My people, and I will be Your God."
- 29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you. "I will save You from all Your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful and will not bring famine on You."
- 30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen. "I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that You will no longer suffer disgrace among the heathen because of famine."
- 31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. "Then You will remember Your evil ways and wicked deeds, and You will despise yourselves for Your sins and detestable practices."
- 32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. "I want You to know that I am not doing this for Your sake, declares the Lord GOD. Be ashamed and disgraced for Your conduct, house of Israel!"
- 33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded. "This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I cleanse You from all Your sins, I will resettle Your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt."

| 34 | And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. | "The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it." |
| 35 | And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited. | "They will say, 'This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.'" |
| 36 | Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. | "Then the heathen around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it." |
| 37 | Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock. | "This is what the Lord GOD says: Once again I will let the house of Israel ask Me to do this for them. I will increase their numbers like a flock." |
| 38 | As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD. | "Like flocks of sheep for offerings, like the flocks at Jerusalem during her appointed festivals, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD." |

Words in this chapter:

Eden (EE-den) — The garden God planted in the east as the first human home — meaning 'delight' or 'pleasure'; location east of which God placed cherubim after the Fall.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Chapter 37

The LORD sets Ezekiel in a valley of dry bones and commands him to prophesy to them. Breath enters the bones and they live — a vast army. The vision means Israel will be raised from the grave of exile and restored to their land. Ezekiel then joins two sticks together as a sign that Judah and Israel will become one nation under one king — the LORD's servant David.

| 1 | The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, | The hand of the LORD was on me, and He brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley. It was full of bones. |
| 2 | And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. | He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley. The bones were very dry. |
| 3 | And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. | He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I said, "Sovereign Lord GOD, You alone know." |
| 4 | Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. | Then He said to me, "Prophesy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!'" |
| 5 | Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: | "This is what the Lord GOD says to these bones: I will make breath enter You, and You will come to life." |
| 6 | And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. | "I will attach tendons to You and make flesh come on You and cover You with skin. I will put breath in You, and You will come to life. Then You will know that I am the LORD." |

- 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone.
- 8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.
- 9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. Then He said to me, "Prophesy to the breath. Prophesy, Son of man, and say to it: This is what the Lord GOD says: Come, breath, from the four winds and breathe into these slain, that they may live."
- 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath entered them. They came to life and stood up on their feet — a vast army.
- 11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone. We are cut off.'"
- 12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. "Therefore prophesy and say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: My people, I am going to open Your graves and bring You up from them. I will bring You back to the land of Israel."
- 13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, "Then You, My people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open Your graves and bring You up from them."

- 14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD. "I will put My Spirit in You and You will live, and I will settle You in Your own land. Then You will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD."
- 15 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, The word of the LORD came to me:
- 16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: "Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him.' Then take another stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Joseph — that is, to Ephraim — and all the house of Israel associated with him.'"
- 17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. "Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand."
- 18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? "When your people ask you, 'Won't you tell us what you mean by this?' —"
- 19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. "say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph — which is in Ephraim's hand — and of the Israelite tribes associated with Him, and join it to Judah's stick. I will make them into a single stick of wood. They will be one in My hand."
- 20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes. "Hold before their eyes the sticks You have written on."

- 21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: "Say to them: This is what the Lord GOD says: I will take the Israelites out of the heathen where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land."
- 22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: "I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over all of them and they will never again be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms."
- 23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. "They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offenses, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, and I will cleanse them. They will be My people, and I will be their God."
- 24 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. "My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow My laws and be careful to keep My decrees."
- 25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. "They will live in the land I gave to My servant Jacob, the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their children's children will live there forever, and David My servant will be their prince forever."

Words in this chapter:

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Chapter 38

The LORD declares that in the latter days, Gog of the land of Magog — chief prince of Meshech and Tubal — will lead a vast coalition against the restored Israel. But when Gog comes against the land, the LORD's fury will rise: He will strike with earthquake, pestilence, blood, flooding rain, great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

| 1 | And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, | "Son of man, set Your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophesy against Him." |

■ NAME NOTE — Gog (GAHG) — A name for the great end-time enemy who leads a coalition of nations against Israel. Possibly a title rather than a personal name. He leads armies from the land of Magog in the far north.

■ NAME NOTE — Magog (MAY-gog) — The land from which Gog comes, described as being in the far north. In prophecy it represents the nations that will gather against Israel in the last days (also referenced in Revelation 20:8).

| 3 | And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: | "Say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal." |
| 4 | And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords: | "I will turn You around, put hooks in Your jaws and bring You out with Your whole army — your horses, Your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords." |
| 5 | Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet: | "Persia, Cush, and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets." |
| 6 | Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee. | "Also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops — the many nations with You." |

- 7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them. "Get ready. Be prepared — you and all Your hordes assembled around You. You be their commander."
- 8 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them. "After many days You will be called to arms. In future years You will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety."
- 9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee. "You and all Your troops and the many nations with You will go up, advancing like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the land."
- 10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought: "This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day thoughts will come into Your mind and You will devise an evil scheme."
- 11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, "You will say, 'I will invade a land of unwalled villages. I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people — all of them living without walls and without gates and bars.'"
- 12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. "I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the center of the land."

- 13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil? "Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages will say to You, 'Have You come to plunder? Have You gathered Your hordes to loot — to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?'"
- 14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it? "Therefore, Son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: This is what the Lord GOD says: In that day, when My people Israel are living in safety, will You not know it?"
- 15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: "You will come from Your place in the far north, You and many nations with You — all of them riding on horses — a great horde, a mighty army."
- 16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. "You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, Gog, I will bring You against My land, so that the heathen may know Me when I am proved holy through You before their eyes."
- 17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? "This is what the Lord GOD says: You are the one I spoke of in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel. At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring You against them."
- 18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. "This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, My hot anger will be aroused, declares the Lord GOD."

Chapter 39

The LORD completes the prophecy against Gog: his armies will fall on the mountains of Israel, and it will take seven months to bury the dead and seven years to burn the weapons. The LORD will display His glory among the nations, and Israel will know that He is the LORD their God from that day forward.

- ¹ Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

"Son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: This is what the Lord GOD says: I am against You, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal."
- ² And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

"I will turn You around and drag You along. I will bring You from the far north and send You against the mountains of Israel."
- ³ And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

"Then I will strike Your bow from Your left hand and make Your arrows drop from Your right hand."
- ⁴ Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

"On the mountains of Israel You will fall — you and all Your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of carrion birds and to the wild animals."

- 5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. "You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD."
- 6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD. "I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in safety in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the LORD."
- 7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. "I will make My holy name known among My people Israel. I will no longer let My holy name be profaned. Then the heathen will know that I the LORD am the Holy One in Israel."
- 8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken. "It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Lord GOD. This is the day I have spoken of."
- 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years: "Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel — the small shields and large shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel."
- 10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. "They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Lord GOD."

- 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamongog. "On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel — in the valley of those who travel east toward the sea. It will block the way of travelers, because Gog and all His hordes will be buried there. It will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land. "For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land."
- 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD. "All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I display My glory will be a memorable day for them, declares the Lord GOD."
- 14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. "Men will be regularly employed to cleanse the land. They will travel throughout the land, and whenever they see human bones, they will set up a marker beside them until the grave-diggers have buried them in the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog. "As they travel through the land, when any of them sees a human bone, they will put up a marker beside it so that the grave-diggers may bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog."
- 16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land. "Also a town called Hamonah will be there. And so they will cleanse the land."

- 17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood. "Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: Call out to every kind of bird and all the wild animals: 'Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for You — the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There You will eat flesh and drink blood.'"
- 18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan. "'You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as though they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls — all of them fattened animals from Bashan.'"
- 19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. "'At the sacrifice I am preparing for You, You will eat fat till You are glutted and drink blood till You are drunk.'"
- 20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. "'At My table You will eat Your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind, declares the Lord GOD.'"
- 21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. "I will display My glory among the heathen, and all the heathen will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay on them."
- 22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. "From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God."

- 23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. "And the heathen will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they trespassed against Me. Therefore I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword."
- 24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them. "I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid My face from them."
- 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name; "Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name."
- 26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. "After they have borne their shame and all their trespasses whereby they trespassed against Me, when they lived safely in their land with no one to make them afraid —"
- 27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; "When I have brought them back from the nations and have gathered them from the countries of their enemies, I will be proved holy through them in the sight of many nations."
- 28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there. "Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, for though I sent them into exile among the heathen, I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind."

29	Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.	"I will no longer hide My face from them, for I will pour out My Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD."

In the twenty-fifth year of exile, the LORD brings Ezekiel in a vision to a high mountain in Israel and shows him a man with a measuring rod. The man measures the outer court, its gates — east, north, and south — and the inner court with its gates, tables for sacrifice, and chambers in meticulous detail.

1	In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.	In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month — fourteen years after the city had fallen — on that very day the hand of the LORD was on me and He brought me there.

- 2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south. In visions of God He brought me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city.
- 3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze. He was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in His hand.
- 4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel. The man said to me, "Son of man, look carefully and listen closely. Pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Report everything you see to the house of Israel."
- 5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall. It was one rod thick and one rod high.
- 6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad. Then he went to the east gate and climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate — it was one rod deep.

- 7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed. Each alcove was one rod long and one rod wide. Between the alcoves was a space of five cubits. The threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.
- 8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed. He measured the portico of the gateway — it was one rod deep.
- 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward. Then he measured the portico of the gateway: eight cubits. Its jambs were two cubits. The gateway portico faced the temple.
- 10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side. All three were the same size, and the jambs on each side were the same size.
- 11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gateway — ten cubits — and the length of the gateway — thirteen cubits.
- 12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit wide on each side. The alcoves were six cubits square.
- 13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. Then he measured the gateway from the top of one alcove to the top of the opposite one — a width of twenty-five cubits, opening facing opening.
- 14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. He measured along the jambs all around the interior of the gateway — sixty cubits — and the court extended to the gateway all around.

- 15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits.
- 16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees. The alcoves and the recesses inside the gateway all around, and likewise the portico, had narrow windows with palm trees decorating the jambs.
- 17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. Then he brought me into the outer court. There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all around the court. Thirty rooms faced the pavement.
- 18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement. The pavement alongside the gates corresponded to the length of the gates — this was the lower pavement.
- 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward. Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court — one hundred cubits on the east side and also on the north side.
- 20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. Then he measured the length and width of the north gate of the outer court.
- 21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. Its alcoves — three on each side — and its jambs and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

- 22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. Its windows, its portico, and its palm trees had the same measurements as those of the east gate. Seven steps led up to it with its portico facing them.
- 23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits. The inner court had a gate facing the north gate, just as it had one facing the east gate. He measured from one gate to the opposite gate — one hundred cubits.
- 24 After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. Then he led me to the south side. I saw a gate facing south. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others.
- 25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. The gateway and its portico had windows all around, like the windows of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico facing them, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on each side.
- 27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits. The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side — one hundred cubits.
- 28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate. He measured the south gate, and it had the same measurements as the others.

- 29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had the same measurements. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. The porticos all around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.
- 31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.
- 32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures. Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side and measured the gateway. It had the same measurements as the others.
- 33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had the same measurements. The gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.
- 35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures; Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others.

- 36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. Its alcoves, its jambs, and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.
- 37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps. Its portico faced the outer court. Palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.
- 38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering. A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings were washed.
- 39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings were slaughtered.
- 40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables. By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance of the north gateway, were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables.
- 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices. So there were four tables on one side and four on the other — eight tables in all — on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.
- 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

- 43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering. Double hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the sacrificial flesh.
- 44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms — one at the side of the north gate facing south, and another at the side of the south gate facing north.
- 45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house. He said to me, "The room facing south is for the priests who guard the temple."
- 46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him. "The room facing north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may come near the LORD to minister before Him."
- 47 So he measured the court; an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house. Then He measured the inner court — a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide, a perfect square. And the altar was in front of the temple.
- 48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico — five cubits on each side. The width of the gateway was fourteen cubits, and its projecting walls were three cubits wide on each side.

- 49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side. The portico was twenty cubits wide and twelve cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs, and there were pillars on each side of the jambs.

Words in this chapter:

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.

trespass offering — A guilt sacrifice specifically for violations against God or another person — required restitution plus a fifth more.

Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Chapter 41

The man measures the main hall of the temple, the most holy place, the walls, side chambers, and the building behind the temple. The walls are decorated with carved cherubim and palm trees, and the temple has a wooden altar described as the table that is before the LORD.

- 1 Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. Then the man brought me to the main hall and measured the jambs — six cubits wide on each side was the width of the entrance.
- 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits wide. He measured the main hall — forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.
- 3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance — two cubits thick. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits wide.
- 4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place. He measured the length of the inner sanctuary — twenty cubits — and its width — twenty cubits across the end of the main hall. He said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."
- 5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. Then he measured the wall of the temple — six cubits thick — and the width of the side rooms all around the temple — four cubits wide.
- 6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty on each level. They fit into recesses in the wall of the temple all around. So the rooms were supported by the temple wall but not inserted into it.

- 7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst. The side rooms around the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple went upward in stages, so the structure widened as it went higher. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle story.
- 8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it — the foundations of the side rooms were a full rod, or six long cubits, high.
- 9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within. The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple
- 10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. and the priests' rooms was twenty cubits wide all around the temple.
- 11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about. The entrance of the side rooms from the open area were on the north side and on the south side. The open area was five cubits wide all around.
- 12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits. The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and the building itself was ninety cubits long.

- 13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long; Then he measured the temple — it was a hundred cubits long. The courtyard at the back of the building, including its walls, was also a hundred cubits long.
- 14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. The width of the front of the temple and the courtyard to the east was also a hundred cubits.
- 15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court; He measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, with its galleries on each side — one hundred cubits.
- 16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered; The inner sanctuary, the outer hall, and the court — as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows and galleries around the three of them — were paneled with wood all around from ground level up to the windows.
- 17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure. The area above the outside of the entrance, and throughout the interior of the inner sanctuary, the outer hall, and all the walls around were decorated all around.
- 18 And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; The walls were carved with cherubim and palm trees. Between each cherub was a palm tree. Each cherub had two faces.
- 19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about. A human face was toward the palm tree on one side, and a lion's face was toward the palm tree on the other. They were carved all around the whole temple.

- 20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple. From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.
- 21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other. The doorposts of the outer sanctuary were square. In front of the Most Holy Place was something that looked like
- 22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD. a wooden altar — three cubits high and two cubits square. Its corners, its base, and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."
- 23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. The outer sanctuary and the Most Holy Place each had a double door.
- 24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. Each door had two panels — two swinging panels for each door.
- 25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without. On the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees, like those carved on the walls. A wooden overhang covered the front of the portico.
- 26 And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks. The sidewalls of the portico had narrow windows with palm trees on each side. The side rooms of the temple also had overhangs.

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Chapter 42

The man measures the priestly chambers on the north and south sides of the temple, where the priests will eat the most holy offerings and change their garments. He then measures the outer perimeter of the entire temple complex — five hundred cubits on each side — to separate the holy from the common.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north. | Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms opposite the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall on the north side. |
| 2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. | The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide. |
| 3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. | Facing the twenty cubits of the inner court and facing the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery in three tiers. |
| 4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north. | In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long. Their doors were on the north. |

- 5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. The upper rooms were narrower because the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building.
- 6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. The rooms on the top floor had no pillars, as the courts had. So they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors.
- 7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and to the outer court — fifty cubits long.
- 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits. The row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long. In contrast, the row on the side next to the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long.
- 9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court. The lower rooms had an entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.
- 10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building. On the south side along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall, were rooms
- 11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. with a passageway in front of them. These were like the rooms on the north. They had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions.

- 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.
- Similar to the doorways on the north were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passageway — the passageway parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.
- 13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.
- Then He said to me, "The north and south rooms facing the temple courtyard are the priests' rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings — the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings — for the place is holy."
- 14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.
- "Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people."
- 15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.
- When He had finished measuring inside the temple area, He led me out by the east gate and measured the area all around.
- 16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.
- He measured the east side with the measuring rod — five hundred cubits by the measuring rod all around.

17	He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.	He measured the north side — five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.
18	He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.	He measured the south side — five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.
19	He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.	He turned to the west side and measured — five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.
20	He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.	So He measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall all around it, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Words in this chapter:

- sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.
- trespass offering — A guilt sacrifice specifically for violations against God or another person — required restitution plus a fifth more.

Chapter 43

The glory of the LORD returns to the temple through the east gate — the same glory Ezekiel saw by the river Chebar. The LORD declares this is the place of His throne where He will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The measurements and consecration of the altar are given, along with seven days of purification offerings.

- 1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east: Then the man brought me to the gate facing east.
- 2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory. The glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with His glory.
- 3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face. The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when He came to destroy the city, and like the visions I had seen by the river Chebar. I fell facedown.
- 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east.
- 5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house. Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.
- 6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me. While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple.
- 7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. He said: "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel will never again defile My holy name — neither they nor their kings — by their whoredom and the funeral offerings for their kings at their death."

- 8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. "When they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in My anger."
- 9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. "Now let them put away from Me their whoredom and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will live among them forever."
- 10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. "Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider its perfection."
- 11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them. "If they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple — its arrangement, its exits and entrances, its whole design and all its regulations and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations."
- 12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. "This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple."

- 13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher base of the altar. These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits, that cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth: Its gutter is a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a rim of one span around the edge. And this is the height of the altar:
- 14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. From the gutter on the ground up to the lower ledge it is two cubits high and one cubit wide, and from the smaller ledge up to the larger ledge it is four cubits high and one cubit wide.
- 15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns. The altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns project upward from the hearth.
- 16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof. The altar hearth is twelve cubits long and twelve cubits wide — a square.
- 17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east. The upper ledge is also a square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide. All around the altar is a gutter of one cubit with a rim of half a cubit. The steps of the altar face east.
- 18 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. Then He said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood on the altar when it is built."

- 19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin offering. "You are to give a young bull as a sin offering to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who come near to minister before Me, declares the Lord GOD."
- 20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it. "You are to take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the upper ledge and all around the rim, and so purify the altar and make atonement for it."
- WORD NOTE — Atonement (uh-TONE-ment) — "the payment for sin that brings God and man back together." In the temple rituals, blood was used to cleanse the altar and make atonement — picturing how Christ's blood would one day make full atonement for human sin.
- 21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. "You are to take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the designated part of the temple area outside the sanctuary."
- 22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. "On the second day You are to offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering, and the altar is to be purified as it was purified with the bull."
- 23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. "When You have finished purifying it, You are to offer a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect."
- 24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD. "You are to offer them before the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD."

| 25 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. 26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. 27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD. | "For seven days You are to provide a male goat daily for a sin offering. You are also to provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect." "For seven days they are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it, thus dedicating it." "At the end of these days, from the eighth day on, the priests are to present Your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept You, declares the Lord GOD." |

peace offering — A shared sacrifice where parts went to God, the priest, and the worshipper — celebrating fellowship and restored relationship with God.

Chapter 44

The east gate of the sanctuary is to remain shut because the LORD has entered through it; only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. The Levites who went astray will serve in the temple but not approach the altar; only the sons of Zadok, who remained faithful, will minister before the LORD.

- 1 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east. It was shut.
- 2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. The LORD said to me, "This gate is to remain shut. It must not be opened. No one may enter through it. It is to remain shut because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it."
- 3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. "The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way."
- 4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face. Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell facedown.
- 5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. The LORD said to me, "Son of man, look carefully. Listen carefully. Pay attention to everything I tell You concerning all the regulations and instructions about the temple of the LORD. Note carefully the entrance to the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary."
- 6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, "Say to the rebellious house of Israel: This is what the Lord GOD says: Enough of Your detestable practices, house of Israel!"

- 7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations. "In addition to all Your other detestable practices, You brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart and flesh into My sanctuary, desecrating My temple while You offered Me food, fat, and blood. You broke My covenant by doing all these detestable things."
- 8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves. "Instead of carrying out Your duty in regard to My holy things, You put others in charge of My sanctuary."
- 9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel. "This is what the Lord GOD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter My sanctuary — not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites."
- 10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. "The Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray and who wandered from Me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin."
- 11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. "They may serve in My sanctuary, having supervisory duties at the gates of the temple and serving in it. They may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them."

- 12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. "But because they served the people in the presence of their idols and made the house of Israel fall into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Lord GOD."
- 13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. "They are not to come near to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or My most holy offerings. They must bear the shame of the detestable things they have done."
- 14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. "Yet I will put them in charge of the duties of the temple and all the work that is to be done in it."
- 15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: "But the Levitical priests, who are descendants of Zadok and who guarded My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, are to come near to minister before Me. They are to stand before Me to offer sacrifices of fat and blood, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. "They alone are to enter My sanctuary. They alone are to come near My table to minister before Me and perform My service."

- 17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. "When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen clothes. They must not wear any woolen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple."
- 18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. "They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments around their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire."
- 19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. "When they go out into the outer court where the people are, they are to take off the clothes they have been ministering in and are to leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that the people are not consecrated through contact with their garments."
- 20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. "They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep their hair trimmed."
- 21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. "No priest is to drink wine when He enters the inner court."
- 22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before. "They must not marry widows or divorced women. They may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests."
- 23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. "They are to teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean."

- 24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths. "In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to My ordinances. They are to keep My laws and My decrees for all My appointed festivals, and they are to keep My Sabbaths holy."
- 25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. "A priest must not defile Himself by going near a dead person. However, for a father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister He may make Himself unclean."
- 26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. "After a priest is cleansed, He must wait seven days."
- 27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD. "On the day He goes into the inner court of the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, He is to offer a sin offering for Himself, declares the Lord GOD."
- 28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession. "I am to be the only inheritance the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel. I will be their possession."
- 29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs. "They will eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Every devoted thing in Israel will belong to them."
- 30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be for the priests: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house. "The best of all the firstfruits and all Your special gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of Your ground meal so that a blessing may rest on Your household."

- 31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast. "The priests must not eat anything, bird or animal, found dead or torn by wild animals."

Words in this chapter:

poll — A single head — used in census contexts meaning 'per person'; 'every male by their polls' means 'each male individually.'

Chapter 45

The LORD designates a holy portion of the land for the sanctuary, the priests, the Levites, and the city. The prince is given his own land on either side and is charged to use just balances, weights, and measures. Regulations for the prince's offerings at Passover and the feast of tabernacles are established.

- 1 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. "When You divide the land by lot for an inheritance, you are to present to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district — twenty-five thousand cubits long and twenty thousand cubits wide. The entire area will be holy."

- 2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. "Of this, a section five hundred cubits square is to be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits of open land around it."
- 3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. "In the sacred district, measure off a section twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. In it will be the sanctuary — the Most Holy Place."
- 4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary. "It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary."
- 5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers. "An area twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in."
- 6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. "You are to give the city as its property an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long, adjoining the sacred portion. It will belong to all the house of Israel."

- 7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. "The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the city property. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border."
- 8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes. "This land will be his possession in Israel. And My princes will no longer oppress My people but will allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes."
- 9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. "This is what the Lord GOD says: You have gone far enough, princes of Israel! Give up Your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing My people, declares the Lord GOD."
- 10 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath. "You are to use accurate scales, an accurate ephah, and an accurate bath."
- 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. "The ephah and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer and the ephah a tenth of a homer. The homer is to be the standard measure for both."
- 12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. "The shekel is to consist of twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels equal one mina."

- 13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley: "This is the special gift You are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley."
- 14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer: "The prescribed portion of olive oil, measured by the bath, is a tenth of a bath from each cor, which consists of ten baths or one homer — for ten baths are equivalent to a homer."
- 15 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD. "Also one sheep is to be taken from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the people, declares the Lord GOD."
- 16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. "All the people of the land will be required to give this special gift to the prince in Israel."
- 17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel. "It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons, and the Sabbaths — at all the appointed festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel."
- 18 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary: "This is what the Lord GOD says: In the first month on the first day You are to take a young bull without defect and purify the sanctuary."

- 19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. "The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court."
- 20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house. "You are to do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. So you are to make atonement for the temple."
- 21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. "In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover. For seven days the bread eaten is to be without yeast."
- 22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering. "On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land."
- 23 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering. "Every day during the seven days of the festival He is to provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat as a sin offering each day."
- 24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah. "He is to provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."

- 25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.
- "During the seven days of the festival, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, He is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil."

Chapter 46

Regulations are given for the prince's worship at the east gate on the Sabbath and New Moon, and for the people's movement through the gates during the appointed feasts. The prince may give portions of his inheritance to his sons permanently but only lend to his servants. Ezekiel is shown the kitchens where the priests and ministers will boil the offerings.

- 1 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.
- "This is what the Lord GOD says: The gate of the inner court facing east is to be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it is to be opened."

- 2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. "The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He is to worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening."
- 3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. "On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance of that gateway."
- 4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. "The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect."
- 5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah, and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as He wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."
- 6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish. "On the day of the New Moon He is to offer a young bull, six lambs, and a ram, all without defect."
- 7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as He wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."

- 8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof. "When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico of the gateway, and he is to go out the same way."
- 9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it. "When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed festivals, whoever enters by the north gate to worship is to go out by the south gate, and whoever enters by the south gate is to go out by the north gate. No one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each is to go out through the opposite gate."
- 10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth. "The prince is to be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out."
- 11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. "At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering is to be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give, along with a hin of oil for each ephah."
- 12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go out; and after his going out, one shall shut the gate. "When the prince provides a freewill offering — whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings — as a freewill offering to the LORD, the east gate is to be opened for Him. He is to offer His burnt offering or His fellowship offerings as He does on the Sabbath day. Then He shall go out, and after He has gone out, the gate will be shut."

- 13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning. "Every day You are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD. You are to do this every morning."
- 14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. "You are also to provide a grain offering with it every morning — a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour. The grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance."
- 15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering. "So the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil shall be provided every morning as a regular burnt offering."
- 16 Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. "This is what the Lord GOD says: If the prince makes a gift from his inheritance to one of His sons, it will also belong to His descendants. It is to be their property by inheritance."
- 17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. "If, however, he makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, the servant may keep it until the year of freedom. At that time it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs to his sons only; it shall be theirs."
- 18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession. "The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people, driving them off their property. He is to give his sons their inheritance out of his own property, so that none of My people will be separated from his property."

- 19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north, which belonged to the priests. And I saw a place at the far end on the west side.
- 20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people. He said to me, "This is the place where the priests will cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people there."
- 21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. He then brought me out into the outer court and led me around to its four corners. In each corner of the outer court was another court —
- 22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure. enclosed courts forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide — all four of them were the same size.
- 23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about. Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stonework, with cooking places built below the ledge all around the inside.
- 24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people. He said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple are to cook the sacrifices of the people."

Chapter 47

Ezekiel sees water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, growing from ankle-deep to knee-deep to a river that cannot be crossed. Wherever the river flows, everything will live — even the Dead Sea will be healed and filled with fish. The boundaries of the restored land are set for the twelve tribes, and strangers who dwell among them will receive an inheritance.

- | | |
| 1 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar. | The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east, for the temple faced east. The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar. |
| 2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side. | Then he brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was trickling from the south side. |
| 3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles. | As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. |

- 4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist.
- 5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in — a river that no one could cross.
- 6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this?" Then he led me back to the bank of the river.
- 7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. When I arrived back at the bank, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river.
- 8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. He said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, where it enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into the sea, the salty water there becomes fresh."
- 9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. "Everything that lives and moves, wherever the rivers come, will live. There will be a very great number of fish, because these waters flow there and the waters will be healed. Everything will live wherever the river comes."

- 10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi even unto Eneglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. "Fishermen will stand along the shore. From En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds — like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea."
- 11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. "But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh. They will be left for salt."
- 12 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. "Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing."
- 13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. "This is what the Lord GOD says: These are the boundaries by which You are to divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph."
- 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance. "You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to Your ancestors, this land will become Your inheritance."
- 15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; "This is to be the boundary of the land: On the north side it will run from the Mediterranean Sea by the Hethlon road past Lebo Hamath to Zedad —"

- 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazarhatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran. "Berothah and Sibraim, which lie on the border between Damascus and Hamath, to Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran."
- 17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazarenan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. "The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan, along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern boundary."
- 18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side. "On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar. This will be the eastern boundary."
- 19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward. "On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern boundary."
- 20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side. "On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This will be the western boundary."
- 21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel. "You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel."

- 22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. "You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners residing among You and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites. Along with You they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel."
- 23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD. "In whatever tribe a foreigner resides, there You are to give them their inheritance, declares the Lord GOD."

Words in this chapter:

Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — A mountainous region east of the Jordan River — famous for its healing balm; Jeremiah's lament 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' refers to this area.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Chapter 48

The land is divided among the twelve tribes from north to south, with the holy portion in the center containing the sanctuary, the priestly and Levitical territories, and the city. The city has twelve gates named after the twelve tribes of Israel. The name of the city from that day forward shall be "The LORD is there."

- 1 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazarenan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan.

These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern end, Dan will have one portion. It will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo Hamath — Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath, extending from east to west.
- 2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

Adjoining the territory of Dan from east to west will be a portion for Asher.
- 3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

Adjoining the territory of Asher from east to west will be a portion for Naphtali.
- 4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

Adjoining the territory of Naphtali from east to west will be a portion for Manasseh.
- 5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

Adjoining the territory of Manasseh from east to west will be a portion for Ephraim.
- 6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

Adjoining the territory of Ephraim from east to west will be a portion for Reuben.
- 7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

Adjoining the territory of Reuben from east to west will be a portion for Judah.
- 8 And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

"Adjoining the territory of Judah from east to west will be the special gift you are to present — twenty-five thousand cubits wide and as long as any of the tribal portions from east to west — with the sanctuary in the center."

- 9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth. "The special portion You offer to the LORD will be twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide."
- 10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof. "This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be twenty-five thousand cubits on the north side, ten thousand cubits wide on the west side, ten thousand cubits wide on the east side, and twenty-five thousand cubits on the south side. The LORD's sanctuary will be in the center."
- 11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. "This will be for the consecrated priests — the sons of Zadok — who kept My charge and did not go astray when the Israelites went astray, as the Levites did."
- 12 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites. "It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites."
- 13 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. "Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. Its total length will be twenty-five thousand cubits and its width ten thousand cubits."
- 14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD. "They must not sell or exchange any of it. This is the best of the land and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD."

- 15 And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. "The remaining area — five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long — will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for open land. The city will be in the center."
- 16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. "These will be its measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500, the east side 4,500, and the west side 4,500."
- 17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. "The open land surrounding the city will be 250 cubits on the north, 250 on the south, 250 on the east, and 250 on the west."
- 18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the produce thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city. "What remains of the special portion will be ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand to the west, adjoining the sacred portion. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city."
- 19 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. "The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel."
- 20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. "The entire special portion will be a square, twenty-five thousand cubits on each side. Set it apart as the sacred portion, along with the property of the city."

- 21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. "What remains on both sides of the sacred portion and the city property will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the twenty-five thousand cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the twenty-five thousand cubits to the western border. Both of these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the center."
- 22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. "So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the center of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin."
- 23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. "As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin will have one portion from the east side to the west side."
- 24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Benjamin from east to west, Simeon will have one portion."
- 25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Simeon from east to west, Issachar will have one portion."
- 26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Issachar from east to west, Zebulun will have one portion."
- 27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion. "Adjoining the territory of Zebulun from east to west, Gad will have one portion."

- 28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea. "The southern boundary of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea."
- 29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD. "This is the land You are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, declares the Lord GOD."
- 30 And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures. "These are the exits of the city: Beginning on the north side, which is 4,500 cubits long —"
- 31 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. "the three gates on the north side will be named after the tribes of Israel: the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah, and the gate of Levi."
- 32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. "On the east side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin, and the gate of Dan."
- 33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun. "On the south side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar, and the gate of Zebulun."
- 34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali. "On the west side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher, and the gate of Naphtali."
- 35 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there. "The total circumference of the city will be 18,000 cubits. And the name of the city from that time on will be: THE LORD IS THERE."

Asher (ASH-er) — Jacob's eighth son, by Zilpah — his tribe settled in the fertile coastal region of northern Canaan; his name means 'happy' or 'blessed.'

Benjamin (BEN-jah-min) — Jacob's twelfth and youngest son, Rachel's second — his tribe settled around Jerusalem; his name means 'son of my right hand.'

Gad (GAD) — Jacob's seventh son, by Zilpah (Leah's handmaid) — his tribe settled east of the Jordan; his name means 'good fortune.'

Issachar (IS-ah-kar) — Jacob's ninth son by Leah — his tribe settled in the central valley of Canaan; his name means 'he is wages' or 'man of hire.'

Naphtali (NAF-tah-ly) — Jacob's sixth son, by Bilhah — his tribe settled in Galilee near the Sea of Galilee; his name means 'my wrestling.'

Reuben (ROO-ben) — Jacob's firstborn son by Leah — lost his birthright for sleeping with his father's concubine; his tribe settled east of the Jordan; his name means 'see, a son.'

Simeon (SIM-ee-on) — Jacob's second son by Leah — with Levi, he slaughtered the men of Shechem; his tribe was scattered in Israel; his name means 'he hears.'

Daniel

THE BABYLONIAN PERIOD BEGINS — 605 BC

Author: Daniel — the book is written partly in third person (chs. 1–6) and partly in first person (chs. 7–12); Christ Himself refers to "Daniel the prophet" (Matt 24:15), confirming his authorship.

Date written: c. 605–535 BC, spanning Daniel's entire career from captivity under Nebuchadnezzar to the early reign of Cyrus.

Written to: The Jewish exiles in Babylon and the scattered nation of Israel, to encourage faithfulness under foreign domination and to reveal God's plan for the ages.

Setting: Daniel is taken to Babylon as a youth in the first deportation (605 BC). He rises to high office in the Babylonian and then Persian courts, living as a faithful Jew among the most powerful empires in the world. He writes during the very period when the fate of nations is being decided.

Where this sits historically: Spans c. 605–535 BC under Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius the Mede, and Cyrus the Great — the rise and fall of the Neo-Babylonian empire and the dawn of the Medo-Persian empire that would let Israel return.

Contemporaries: Ezekiel ministered to the exiles by the river Chebar in Daniel's same lifetime, while Jeremiah prophesied (and then died) back in Judah and Egypt, and Cyrus's decree (538 BC) launched the return that Haggai and Zechariah would soon address.

Big themes:

- Faithfulness under pressure — Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego all face death rather than compromise; God is faithful to those who are faithful to Him
- God rules the kingdoms of men — Nebuchadnezzar's dream, his madness, Belshazzar's feast, and the succession of empires all demonstrate that no earthly king holds power apart from God
- Apocalyptic prophecy — the second half of Daniel contains visions of four world empires, a coming prince, the abomination of desolation, and the resurrection of the dead
- The Son of man — Daniel 7:13–14 contains the clearest OT vision of the Messiah receiving an everlasting kingdom; Jesus used this title for Himself
- Prayer — Daniel prays three times daily facing Jerusalem (6:10); his prayer in chapter 9 is the model of intercessory confession

Key passages: Dan 2:44; 3:17–18; 6:10; 7:13–14; 9:24

How it fits: Daniel bridges the exile and restoration periods. His seventy-weeks prophecy (ch. 9) is the OT's most precise messianic timetable. Jesus quoted Daniel in the Olivet Discourse; Revelation draws on Daniel's imagery throughout. Without Daniel, much of NT prophecy is inexplicable.

Chapter 1

Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem and carried off young men of Judah's nobility to serve in Babylon's court. Daniel and his three friends refused the king's food, ate only vegetables and water, and God gave them knowledge and wisdom ten times greater than all the magicians in the kingdom.

| 1 | In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. | In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. |
| 2 | And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. | The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the house of God. He carried these to the land of Shinar, to the house of His god, and placed the articles in the treasury of His god. |
| 3 | And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes; | The king told Ashpenaz, the chief of his court officials, to bring some of the people of Israel — those from the royal family and the nobility — |
| 4 | Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans. | young men without any physical defect, handsome, skilled in all wisdom, knowledgeable, quick to understand, and able to serve in the king's palace. He wanted them taught the language and literature of the Babylonians. |
| 5 | And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king. | The king assigned them a daily portion of his own food and wine. They were to be trained for three years, after which they would serve before the king. |

- 6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah: Among those chosen were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah — all from the tribe of Judah.

■ NAME NOTE — Daniel (DAN-yel) — "God is my judge" — A young man from the tribe of Judah taken captive to Babylon. He became one of the greatest prophets of the Old Testament, known for his faithfulness to God under intense pressure.

- 7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishaël, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. The chief official gave them new names. Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishaël he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

■ NAME NOTE — Hananiah / Shadrach (hah-NAY-nee-ah / SHAY-drak) — Hananiah means "the LORD is gracious." He was given the Babylonian name Shadrach, a pagan name honoring a Babylonian god. He is one of the three Hebrew men thrown into the fiery furnace.

■ NAME NOTE — Mishaël / Meshach (MISH-ay-el / MEE-shak) — Mishaël means "Who is what God is?" He was given the Babylonian name Meshach. One of Daniel's three faithful companions.

■ NAME NOTE — Azariah / Abednego (az-ah-RY-ah / ah-BED-nee-go) — Azariah means "the LORD has helped." He was given the Babylonian name Abednego, meaning "servant of Nebo," a Babylonian idol. One of Daniel's three faithful companions.

■ NAME NOTE — Nebuchadnezzar (neb-uh-kad-NEZ-er) — A Babylonian name meaning "may Nebo protect the boundary." He was the most powerful king of the Neo-Babylonian Empire, who conquered Jerusalem and carried Israel into captivity.

- 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's food or wine. He asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.
- 9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. God caused the chief official to show Daniel kindness and goodwill.

- 10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king. The chief official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who assigned your food and drink. If he sees that you look worse than the other young men your age, it will cost me my head before the king."
- 11 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah, Daniel then spoke to the steward whom the chief official had placed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah.
- 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. "Please test us for ten days," he said. "Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink."
- 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. Then compare our appearance with the young men who eat the king's food, and treat us according to what you see.
- 14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. The steward agreed to this and tested them for ten days.
- 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat. At the end of ten days, Daniel and his friends looked healthier and better nourished than all the young men who ate the king's food.
- 16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse. So the steward took away their portion of food and wine and gave them vegetables instead.
- 17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. God gave these four young men knowledge and skill in all literature and learning. Daniel also had the ability to understand all kinds of visions and dreams.

Words in this chapter:

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Cyrus (SY-rus) — The Persian king who conquered Babylon and issued the decree allowing the Jews to return home — named in Isaiah's prophecy 150 years before his birth.

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Chapter 2

Nebuchadnezzar demanded his wise men tell him his dream and its meaning, or die. Daniel prayed, and God revealed the vision: a great statue with a head of gold, chest of silver, belly of bronze, legs of iron, and feet of iron mixed with clay. A stone cut without hands struck the statue, destroyed it, and became a great mountain filling the whole earth.

- 1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him. In the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, he had dreams that troubled his spirit and kept him from sleeping.
- 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. The king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers to tell him what he had dreamed. They came and stood before the king.
- 3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream. The king told them, "I have had a dream that troubles me, and I must know what it means."
- 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation. The astrologers answered the king in Aramaic: "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it."
- 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. The king replied to the astrologers, "This is what I have firmly decided: if you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut to pieces and your houses turned into rubble."

- 6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. "But if you tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive gifts, rewards, and great honor from me. So tell me the dream and its interpretation."
- 7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. They answered again, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."
- 8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. The king replied, "I know for certain that you are trying to gain time, because you see that my decision is firm."
- 9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. "If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one punishment for you. You have agreed to lie to me in hopes that the situation will change. Tell me the dream, and then I will know that you can interpret it."
- 10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. The astrologers answered the king, "There is no one on earth who can do what the king asks. No king, however great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter, or astrologer."
- 11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. "What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live among men."
- 12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. Because of this, the king was enraged and furious. He ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon.

- 13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain. The decree was issued for the wise men to be put to death, and men were sent to find Daniel and his friends to kill them as well.
- 14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: Daniel spoke wisely and carefully to Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon.
- 15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. He asked Arioch, "Why has the king issued such a harsh decree?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel.
- 16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation. Daniel went to the king and asked for time, promising to give the king the interpretation.
- 17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: Daniel returned home and told Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah about the matter.
- 18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven about this mystery, so that He and His friends would not be executed with the rest of Babylon's wise men.
- 19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. During the night, the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven.
- 20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: Daniel said: "Praise be to the name of God forever and ever. Wisdom and power are His.

- 21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He changes times and seasons. He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those with understanding.
- 22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. He reveals deep and hidden things. He knows what lies in darkness, and light dwells with Him.
- 23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter. I thank You and praise You, O God of my fathers. You have given me wisdom and strength. You have made known to me what we asked of You — You have made known to us the king's dream."
- 24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon. "Do not execute the wise men," Daniel told him. "Bring me before the king and I will interpret the dream for him."
- 25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said, "I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king the interpretation."
- 26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? The king asked Daniel, whose Babylonian name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to tell me what I dreamed and what it means?"

- 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician, or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about.
- 28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the days to come. Your dream and the visions you had while lying in bed are these:
- 29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. As you lay in bed, O king, your thoughts turned to things that are to come, and the Revealer of mysteries showed you what will happen.
- 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart. This mystery has not been revealed to me because I have greater wisdom than anyone else. It has been revealed so that you, O king, may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your heart."
- 31 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. "O king, you saw a great statue. It was enormous, brilliant, and awe-inspiring as it stood before you.
- 32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, Its head was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze,
- 33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay.

- 34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. While you were watching, a stone was cut out — but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and crushed them.
- 35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were all crushed together and became like chaff on a summer threshing floor. The wind swept them away without leaving a trace. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.
- 36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. That was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation.
- 37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. You, O king, are a king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion, power, strength, and glory.
- 38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. In your hands He has placed all mankind, the animals of the field, and the birds of the air. He has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.
- 39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. After you, another kingdom will arise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom — one of bronze — will rule over the whole earth.
- 40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron. Just as iron breaks and crushes everything, this kingdom will crush and break all the others.

- 41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. The feet and toes you saw — partly of baked clay and partly of iron — mean that this kingdom will be divided. It will have some of the strength of iron, since you saw iron mixed with clay.
- 42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.
- 43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. As you saw iron mixed with clay, so people will mix, but they will not remain united, just as iron does not mix with clay.
- 44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. It will not be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever.
- 45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. This is the meaning of the stone cut from the mountain — not by human hands — that broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold to pieces. The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true, and its interpretation is reliable."

Nebuchadnezzar set up a golden image and commanded all to bow down to it. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused and were cast into a fiery furnace heated seven times hotter — but a fourth figure appeared with them in the fire, and they came out without even the smell of smoke on them.

| 1 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. | King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue ninety feet tall and nine feet wide and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. |
| 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. | He then sent word to gather the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other provincial officials to come to the dedication of the statue he had set up. |
| 3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. | So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the statue, and they stood before it. |
| 4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, | Then a herald called out loudly, "People of every nation and language, this is what you are commanded: |

- 5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up: As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, fall down and worship the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.
- 6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Anyone who does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."
- 7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. When the music played, all the peoples, nations, and men of every language fell down and worshipped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
- 8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. At this time some astrologers came forward and denounced the Jews.
- 9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever. They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!
- 10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image: You have issued a decree, O king, that everyone who hears the music must fall down and worship the gold statue.
- 11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Anyone who does not fall down and worship is to be thrown into a blazing furnace.

- 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. But there are some Jews you have appointed over the affairs of Babylon — Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego — who pay no attention to you, O king. They do not serve your gods and will not worship the gold statue you have set up."
- 13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought before him.
- 14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the gold statue I have set up?"
- 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? Now, if you are ready to fall down and worship the statue I made when you hear the music, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?"
- 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter.
- 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will rescue us from your hand, O king.

- 18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. But even if He does not, know this, O king: we will not serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up."
- 19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual.
- 20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. He commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.
- 21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. So these men were bound in their robes, tunics, turbans, and other clothes, and thrown into the blazing furnace.
- 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Because the king's order was so urgent and the furnace so hot, the flames killed the soldiers who threw Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego into it.
- 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. And the three men — Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego — fell, still tied up, into the blazing furnace.

- 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Didn't we throw three men into the fire?" They replied, "Certainly, O king."
- 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."
- 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire. Nebuchadnezzar approached the opening of the blazing furnace and called, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!" So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.
- 27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. The satraps, prefects, governors, and royal advisers crowded around and saw that the fire had not harmed them. Not a hair on their heads was singed, their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.
- 28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His angel and rescued His servants! They trusted in him and defied the king's command. They chose to give up their bodies rather than serve or worship any god except their own God."

Chapter 4

Nebuchadnezzar dreamed of a great tree cut down by a watcher from heaven. Daniel interpreted: the king would be driven from men and live like an animal for seven times until he acknowledged that the Most High rules the kingdoms of men. It came to pass exactly as Daniel said, and afterward Nebuchadnezzar praised and honored the King of heaven.

| 1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. | King Nebuchadnezzar, to all peoples, nations, and languages throughout the earth: May your peace be great! |
| 2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me. | It is my pleasure to tell You about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me. |
| 3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. | How great are His signs! How mighty His wonders! His kingdom is an eternal kingdom. His dominion lasts from generation to generation. |
| 4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace: | I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, living in comfort. |
| 5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. | I had a dream that frightened me. As I lay in bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind terrified me. |
| 6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream. | So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream. |

| 8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying, | Finally, Daniel came before me — the one named Belteshazzar after my god, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. I told Him the dream, saying, |

- 9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. "Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and no mystery is too hard for you. Here is my dream. Tell me its interpretation.
- 10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great. These were the visions I had while lying in bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the middle of the land. It was very tall.
- 11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: The tree grew large and strong, and its top touched the sky. It was visible to the ends of the earth.
- 12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the branches thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and it provided food for all. The wild animals rested in its shade and the birds lived in its branches. Every creature was fed from it.
- 13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven; In the vision, while I lay in bed, I saw a watcher and an holy one come down from heaven.
- 14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches: He called out loudly: 'Cut down the tree and trim off its branches. Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

- 15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: But leave the stump and its roots in the ground, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field. Let it be drenched with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth.
- 16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, until seven times pass over him.'
- 17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men. This sentence is decreed by the watchers, this decision by the holy ones. The purpose is that the living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. He gives them to anyone he pleases and sets over them the lowliest of men."
- 18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee. "This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now tell me its interpretation, Belteshazzar, because none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you."
- 19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies. Then Daniel, called Belteshazzar, was deeply troubled for a time, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you." Daniel replied, "My lord, may the dream apply to your enemies and its meaning to your foes!

- 20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth —
- 21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation: whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant, providing food for all, giving shelter to the wild animals and nesting places to the birds —
- 22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. that tree is you, O king! You have grown great and strong. Your greatness has reached to the heavens, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.
- 23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him; The king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven and saying, 'Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump and its roots in the ground, bound with iron and bronze in the grass of the field. Let him be drenched with dew and live with the animals until seven times pass over him.'
- 24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: This is the interpretation, O king. This is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king:

- 25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass over You until You acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he pleases.
- 26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule. The command to leave the stump means that Your kingdom will be restored to You when You acknowledge that Heaven rules.
- 27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity. Therefore, O king, please accept my advice. Break with Your sins by doing what is right, and put an end to Your iniquity by showing mercy to the poor. It may be that Your prosperity will continue."
- WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than 'sin' — the corruption beneath the sinful act." Where sin is missing the mark, iniquity is the warped nature that makes a person keep missing it.
- 28 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.
- 29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. Twelve months later, he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon.
- 30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty? He said, "Is not this great Babylon? I built it as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty."

- 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. Even as the words were on his lips, a voice came from heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, this is what is decreed for you: Your royal authority has been taken from you.
- 32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle. Seven times will pass over You until You acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he pleases."
- 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. Immediately that very hour the sentence was carried out. Nebuchadnezzar was driven away from people. He ate grass like cattle. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.
- 34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: At the end of that time I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High. I honored and glorified Him who lives forever. His dominion is an eternal dominion. His kingdom endures from generation to generation.
- 35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing. He does as He pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No one can hold back his hand or say to him, "What have You done?"

- 36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me. At the same time my sanity returned. My honor and splendor were restored for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles came to me, and I was restored to my throne. I became even greater than before.
- 37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase. Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven. Everything he does is right and all His ways are just. And those who walk in pride He is able to humble.

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Chapter 5

King Belshazzar held a great feast using the golden vessels taken from the temple in Jerusalem. A hand appeared and wrote on the wall: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. Daniel interpreted the writing — God had numbered Belshazzar's kingdom and finished it, weighed him and found him wanting. That very night Belshazzar was slain and Darius the Mede took the kingdom.

- 7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. The king called out to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. He said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me its interpretation shall be clothed in purple, have a gold chain placed around his neck, and be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."
- 8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof. All the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant.
- 9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonished. So King Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his countenance changed in him, and his nobles were baffled.
- 10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: The queen, hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, came into the banquet hall. She said, "O king, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you or your countenance be changed.
- 11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in Him. In the days of your father, this man was found to have light, understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar your father — your father the king — appointed him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners.

- 12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation. This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have a keen mind, knowledge, and understanding — able to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel; he will tell you what this means."
- 13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry? So Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, "Are you that Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?
- 14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, understanding, and outstanding wisdom.
- 15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing: The wise men and astrologers were brought before me to read this writing and tell me its meaning, but they could not give the interpretation.
- 16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom. I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you shall be clothed in purple, have a gold chain placed around your neck, and be made the third ruler in the kingdom."

- 17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation. Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.
- 18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour: O king, the Most High God gave Your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor.
- 19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. Because of the greatness He gave Him, all peoples, nations, and men of every language feared and trembled before Him. He put to death those He wanted to put to death; He spared those He wanted to spare; He promoted those He wanted to promote; He humbled those He wanted to humble.
- 20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: But when His heart became proud and His spirit grew arrogant, He was deposed from His royal throne and stripped of His glory.
- 21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will. He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal. He lived with the wild donkeys, ate grass like cattle, and His body was drenched with the dew of heaven — until He acknowledged that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men and sets over them whoever he chooses.
- 22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; But you, his son Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this.

- 23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: Instead, you have set yourself up against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels from His house brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone — which cannot see or hear or understand. But the God Who holds your very breath in His hand and controls all your ways — Him you have not honored.
- 24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written. Therefore He sent the hand that wrote this inscription.
- 25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. This is the inscription that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.
- 26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. This is what these words mean: MENE — God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.
- 27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. TEKEL — you have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.
- 28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. PERES — your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.
- 29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.
- 30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. That very night Belshazzar, king of the Chaldeans, was slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old. Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of sixty-two.

Words in this chapter:

candlestick — The golden lampstand in the tabernacle — a seven-branched stand of hammered gold that burned pure olive oil and lit the Holy Place; also called the menorah.

Chapter 6

Daniel's enemies tricked Darius into signing a decree forbidding prayer to anyone but the king for thirty days. Daniel continued praying three times daily toward Jerusalem and was cast into the den of lions. God shut the lions' mouths, and the next morning Daniel was found unharmed. Darius decreed that all should fear the God of Daniel.

1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom,

■ NAME NOTE — Darius (duh-RY-us) — Persian/Median name meaning "possessor" — Darius the Mede took Babylon after Belshazzar's death. He appointed Daniel as one of three chief administrators over the entire empire.

- 2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage. with three administrators over them, of whom Daniel was one. The satraps were accountable to them so that the king would not suffer any loss.
- 3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.
- 4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. At this, the administrators and satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs. But they could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent.
- 5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. Finally these men said, "We will never find any basis for charges against this Daniel unless it has to do with the law of his God."
- 6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. So these administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and said: "O King Darius, live forever!
- 7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions' den.

- 8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."
- 9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. So King Darius put the decree in writing.
- 10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. When Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as He had done before.
- 11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then these men came together and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.
- 12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not. So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: "Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or man except to you, O king, would be thrown into the lions' den?" The king answered, "The decree stands — in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."
- 13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day."

- 14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him. When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed. He was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.
- 15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed. Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed."
- 16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee. So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!"
- 17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation might not be changed.
- 18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him. Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating. No entertainment was brought to him, and he could not sleep.
- 19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den.

- 20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"
- 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. Daniel answered, "O king, live forever!
- 22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. My God sent his angel, and He shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in His sight. Nor have I done any wrong before you, O king."
- 23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God. The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. When Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.
- 24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den. At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. Before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.
- 25 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and men of every language throughout the land: "May you prosper greatly!

Words in this chapter:

Cyrus (SY-rus) — The Persian king who conquered Babylon and issued the decree allowing the Jews to return home — named in Isaiah's prophecy 150 years before his birth.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 7

Daniel will see a vision of four great beasts rising from the sea — a lion, a bear, a leopard, and a fourth beast dreadful and terrible with ten horns. The Ancient of days will sit in judgment, and one like the Son of man will come with the clouds of heaven and receive an everlasting kingdom that will never be destroyed.

- 7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast — terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.
- 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. While I was thinking about the horns, another horn — a little one — came up among them. Three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a man and a mouth that spoke boastfully.
- 9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. As I looked, thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took His seat. His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of His head was white like wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze.
- 10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. A river of fire was flowing, coming out from before Him. Thousands upon thousands attended Him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened.
- 11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.

- 12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time. The other beasts had been stripped of their authority, but were allowed to live for a period of time.
- 13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like the Son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.
- 14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. He was given authority, glory, and sovereign power. All peoples, nations, and men of every language worshiped Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.
- 15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. I, Daniel, was troubled in my spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me.
- 16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this. He told me and gave me the interpretation of these things:
- 17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth.
- 18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever — yes, forever and ever.

- 19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws — the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left.
- 20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell — the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully.
- 21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,
- 22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.
- 23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. He gave me this explanation: 'The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.
- 24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; He will subdue three kings.

| 25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. 26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. 27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. 28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart. | He will speak against the Most High and oppress His saints and try to change the set times and the laws. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will worship and obey Him.' This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was greatly troubled by my thoughts, and my countenance changed in me. But I kept the matter in my heart." |

Daniel will see a vision of a ram with two horns — Media and Persia — conquered by a he-goat with a great horn — Greece. The great horn will be broken and four kingdoms will arise in its place. A king of fierce countenance will arise in the latter time, destroying many and standing against the Prince of princes, but he will be broken without hand.

- 1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me.
- 2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam. In the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal.
- 3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal. The two horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one grew up later.
- 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. I watched the ram as it charged toward the west, north, and south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became great.
- 5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.

- 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and charged at it in great rage.
- 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. I watched it attack the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it. The goat knocked it to the ground and trampled on it, and no one could rescue the ram from its power.
- 8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. The goat became very great, but at the height of its power its large horn was broken off, and in its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.
- 9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew greatly toward the south and east and toward the Beautiful Land.
- 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.
- 11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was brought low.

- 12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered. Because of transgression, the host of the saints and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did and truth was thrown to the ground.
- 13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled — the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host that will be trampled underfoot?"
- 14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."
- 15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man.
- 16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision."

■ NAME NOTE — Gabriel (GAY-bree-el) — "God is my strength" — One of the named archangels in Scripture. He appears to Daniel to explain visions, and later to Zechariah and Mary in the New Testament.

- 17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision. As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell face down. He said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision concerns the time of the end."

- 18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and raised me to my feet.
- 19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be. He said: "I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time of the end.
- 20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.
- 21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king.
- 22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power. The four horns that replaced the one that was broken off represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power.
- 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a king of fierce countenance and understanding dark sentences will arise.
- 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men and the holy people.

Chapter 9

Daniel prayed and confessed the sins of his people, pleading for God's mercy on Jerusalem. The angel Gabriel appeared and revealed the prophecy of seventy weeks determined upon Israel — to finish transgression, make an end of sins, and bring in everlasting righteousness. Messiah the Prince will come and be cut off, and the city and sanctuary will be destroyed.

| 1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans; | In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus — a Mede by descent, who was made ruler over the Babylonian kingdom — |
| 2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. | in the first year of His reign, I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the LORD given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years. |
| 3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: | So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with Him in prayer and petition, in fasting, and in sackcloth and ashes. |
| 4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments; | I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed: "O Lord, the great and awesome God, Who keeps His covenant and mercy with all who love Him and keep His commandments — |
| 5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: | we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from Your commands and laws. |
| 6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. | We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. |

- 7 O LORD, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. O LORD, righteousness belongs to You, but to us confusion of face, as it is this day — the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where You have scattered us because of the trespass they have trespassed against You.
- 8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. O LORD, we and our kings, our princes, and our fathers are covered with shame because we have sinned against You.
- 9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him; The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him.
- 10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. We have not obeyed the LORD our God or kept the laws He gave us through His servants the prophets.
- 11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. All Israel has transgressed Your law and turned away, refusing to obey You. Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against You.
- 12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing on us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

- 13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us; yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our iniquities and giving attention to Your truth.
- 14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice. The LORD did not hesitate to bring disaster on us, for the LORD our God is righteous in everything He does; yet we have not obeyed Him.
- 15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. Now, O Lord our God, Who brought Your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for Yourself a name that endures to this day — we have sinned; we have done wickedly.
- 16 O LORD, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. O Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, turn away Your anger and wrath from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and Your people an object of scorn to all those around us.
- 17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of Your servant. For Your sake, O Lord, look with favor on Your desolate sanctuary.

- 18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. Give ear, O my God, and hear. Open Your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears Your Name. We do not make requests of You because we are righteous, but because of Your great mercy.
- 19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For Your sake, O my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your Name."
- 20 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the LORD my God for His holy hill —
- 21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice.
- 22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. He instructed me and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding.
- 23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. As soon as you began to pray, an answer was given, which I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision:

- 24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
- 25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.
- 26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.
- 27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.
- Seventy weeks are determined upon your people and upon your holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.
- Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. The street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.
- After the sixty-two weeks, Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself. The people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed.
- He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. In the middle of that week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. For the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Chapter 10

After three weeks of mourning and fasting, Daniel saw a vision of a glorious man clothed in linen by the river Tigris. The angel told Daniel he was greatly beloved and explained that the prince of Persia had withstood him twenty-one days until Michael came to help. He came to reveal what will happen to Daniel's people in the latter days.

The message was true, but the time appointed was long. He understood the message and had understanding of the vision. |

- 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel; On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Hiddekel —
- 5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz: I looked up and there before me was a man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist.
- 6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. His body was like topaz, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a crowd.
- 7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves.
- 8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision. I had no strength left; my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless.
- 9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, face down to the ground.
- 10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands. A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.

- 11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. He said, "Daniel, you who are greatly beloved, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up trembling.
- 12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. Then he continued, "Do not fear, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, Your words were heard, and I have come in response to them.
- 13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia. But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.
- NAME NOTE — Michael (MY-kul) — "Who is like God?" — One of the chief archangels. He is described as the great prince who stands guard over Israel. He appears in Daniel, Jude, and Revelation.
- 14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days. Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come."
- 15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was speechless.
- 16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. Then one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke. I said to the one standing before me, "O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come. But first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one supports me against them except Michael, your prince. |

The angel reveals a detailed prophecy of wars between the kings of the north and south — from Persia through Greece and the kingdoms that follow. A vile person will rise, set up the abomination of desolation, and exalt himself above every god. He will prosper until the indignation is accomplished, then come to his end with none to help him.

|---|--|---|
| 1 | Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him. | And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. |
| 2 | And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. | Now then, I will tell you the truth. Three more kings will appear in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. |
| 3 | And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. | Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases. |
| 4 | And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those. | After he has appeared, his empire will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted and given to others. |
| 5 | And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. | The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power. |

- 6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times. After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power will not last. In those days she will be betrayed, together with her royal escort and her father and the one who supported her.
- 7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail: One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious.
- 8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north. He will also seize their gods, their metal images, and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the North alone.
- 9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country.
- 10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.

- 11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated.
- 12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant.
- 13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped.
- 14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent men among your own people will rebel in fulfillment of the vision, but without success.
- 15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. Then the king of the North will come and build up siege works and capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their elite troops will not have the strength to stand.
- 16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. The invader will do as he pleases; no one will be able to stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it.

- 17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him. He will determine to come with the full power of his kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him.
- 18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back on him.
- 19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found. After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall, to be seen no more.
- 20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.
- 21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honor of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue.
- 22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant. Then an overwhelming army will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed.
- 23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power.

- 24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot, and wealth among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses — but only for a time.
- 25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. With a large army he will stir up his strength and courage against the king of the South. The king of the South will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to stand because of the plots devised against him.
- 26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. Those who eat from the king's provisions will try to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle.
- 27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time.
- 28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. The king of the North will return to his own country with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and then return to his own country.
- 29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before.

- 30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. Ships of the western coastlands will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant.
- 31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate. His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.
- 32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist Him.
- 33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days. Those who are wise will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered.
- 34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere will join them.
- 35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed. Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

- 36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done. The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.
- 37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all. He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all.
- 38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. Instead of them, he will honor a god of fortresses; a god unknown to His fathers. He will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.
- 39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain. He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge Him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.
- 40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. At the time of the end the king of the South will engage him in battle, and the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots and cavalry and a great fleet of ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through them like a flood.

Words in this chapter:

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 12

Michael the great prince will stand up, and there will be a time of trouble such as never was. Many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake — some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Daniel is told to seal the book until the time of the end, and he will rest and stand in his lot at the end of the days.

| 1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. | At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people — everyone whose name is found written in the book — will be delivered. |

- 5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank.
- 6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, "How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled?"
- 7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and I heard him swear by Him who lives forever, saying, "It will be for a time, times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed."
- 8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my lord, what shall be the end of these things? I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, "My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?"
- 9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. He replied, "Go your way, Daniel, because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.
- 10 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. Many will be purified, made spotless, and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. - 11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

- 12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.
- 13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days. As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance."

Words in this chapter:

firmament — The expanse of sky — what God spread out above the earth on Day Two of creation to separate the waters.

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Hosea

Author: Hosea son of Beeri — the book names him (Hos 1:1) and is written in a distinctive personal voice throughout; he is the only writing prophet from the northern kingdom.

Date written: c. 755–715 BC, spanning the reigns of four kings of Judah and the final years of the northern kingdom before Assyria destroyed it in 722 BC.

Written to: The northern kingdom of Israel (also called Ephraim in the book), though the warnings speak to the whole nation.

Setting: Israel is prosperous outwardly under Jeroboam II but spiritually corrupt — Baal worship has intermingled with the worship of the LORD. Hosea is commanded to marry a woman who proves unfaithful, and his marriage becomes a living parable of God's relationship with Israel.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 755–715 BC under Jeroboam II of Israel and the Judean kings Uzziah through Hezekiah, in the very years that the Assyrian empire under Tiglath-Pileser III and Shalmaneser V conquered Samaria in 722 BC.

Contemporaries: Amos was preaching in the north alongside Hosea, while Isaiah and Micah prophesied in the southern kingdom under the same threat from Assyria.

Big themes:

- Spiritual adultery — Israel's idolatry is repeatedly depicted as harlotry; the covenant is a marriage, and Baal worship is betrayal
- God's relentless love — despite Israel's unfaithfulness, God refuses to give them up entirely (11:8); His love persists through discipline
- Judgment as discipline, not abandonment — the Assyrian exile is the consequence of covenant breaking, but it is not the end of the story
- Return and restoration — the book ends with an invitation to return to the LORD and promises of restoration beyond the judgment
- Knowledge of God — "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge" (4:6); knowing God — not just knowing about Him — is the heart of covenant faithfulness

Key passages: Hos 1:2; 4:6; 6:6; 11:8–9; 14:4

How it fits: Hosea prophesied while Amos, Isaiah, and Micah were also active. His book is the first of the twelve Minor Prophets in canonical order. Matthew quotes Hosea 11:1 as fulfilled in the flight to Egypt (Matt 2:15); Paul quotes Hosea 1:10 and 2:23 to describe Gentile inclusion (Rom 9:25–26).

Chapter 1

The LORD commands Hosea to marry a wife of whoredoms as a picture of Israel's unfaithfulness. Gomer bears three children: Jezreel, Lo-ruhamah ("no mercy"), and Lo-ammi ("not My people"). Yet the LORD promises that in the very place where Israel was rejected, they will be called sons of the living God.

■ NAME NOTE — Hosea (ho-ZAY-uh) — "salvation" — A prophet of Israel in the 8th century BC. God called him to marry an unfaithful woman as a living picture of Israel's unfaithfulness to the LORD.

Words in this chapter:

whoredom — Sexual immorality — also used in the prophets to describe Israel's spiritual unfaithfulness to God, treating it as adultery against the covenant.

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Hosea (ho-ZAY-ah) — A prophet whose marriage to an unfaithful wife illustrated Israel's unfaithfulness to God — his name means 'salvation.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 2

The LORD charges unfaithful Israel like a husband charges his adulterous wife. She chased after her lovers and did not know that the LORD gave her the grain, wine, and oil. He will hedge up her way with thorns until she says, "I will go back to my first husband." Then the LORD will allure her, speak tenderly to her, and betroth her to Himself forever.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah. | Say to Your brothers, "My people," and to Your sisters, "My beloved." |
| 2 | Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; | Plead with Your mother — plead with her! For she is not My wife, and I am not her husband. Let her put away her whoredoms and her adulteries from between her breasts, |
| 3 | Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. | or I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day she was born. I will make her like a desert, turn her into a parched land, and let her die of thirst. |

- 4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms. I will not show mercy to her children, because they are the children of whoredoms.
- 5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink. Their mother has played the harlot and done shamefully. She said, "I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink."
- 6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths. Therefore I will block her path with thornbushes. I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.
- 7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. She will chase after her lovers but not catch them. She will look for them but not find them. Then she will say, "I will go back to my first husband, for I was better off then than now."
- 8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. She did not know that I was the one giving her the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil — and that I lavished silver and gold on her, which they used for Baal.
- 9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. Therefore I will take back My grain when it ripens and My new wine when it is ready. I will take away My wool and My linen, which I gave her to cover her nakedness.
- 10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand. So I will expose her shame before the eyes of her lovers, and no one will take her out of My hands.
- 11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. I will stop all her celebrations — her yearly festivals, her New Moons, her Sabbath days, all her appointed feasts.

- 12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. I will ruin her vines and her fig trees, which she said were payment from her lovers. I will turn them into a thicket, and wild animals will devour them.
- 13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD. I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals, when she adorned herself with rings and jewelry and went after her lovers — and forgot Me, declares the LORD.
- 14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. Therefore I am now going to draw her away and lead her into the desert, and speak tenderly to her.
- 15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. There I will give her back her vineyards and will make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. She will sing there as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up out of Egypt.
- 16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali. "In that day," declares the LORD, "you will call Me 'my husband.' You will no longer call Me 'my master.'"
- 17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name. I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips; no longer will their names be invoked.
- 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely. In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the birds in the sky, and the creatures that move along the ground. I will abolish the bow and sword and battle from the land, so that all may rest in safety.

| 19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies. 20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD. 21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth; 22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. 23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God. | I will betroth You to Me forever. I will betroth You in righteousness and justice, in love and mercy. I will betroth You in faithfulness, and You will know the LORD. In that day I will respond," declares the LORD — "I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth; the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil, and they will respond to Jezreel. I will plant her for Myself in the land. I will show mercy to the one I called 'Not My people.' I will say to those called 'Not My people,' 'You are My people,' and they will say, 'You are my God.' " |

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Chapter 3

The LORD commands Hosea to love his adulterous wife again and buy her back — a picture of how the LORD loves Israel despite her unfaithfulness. She is to remain faithful for many days, for Israel will abide many days without a king, without a prince, and without a sacrifice. Afterward they will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king.

| 1 Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine. | The LORD said to me, "Go, show Your love to Your wife again, though she is loved by another man and is an adulteress. Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love the sacred raisin cakes." |

| 3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee. | Then I told her, "You are to live with me many days; You must not play the harlot or be with any other man, and I will also be for You." |
| 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: | For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stone, without ephod or household gods. |
| 5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days. | Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days. |

ephod (EE-fod) — The high priest's sacred outer garment — a linen apron-like vestment with two onyx stones bearing the tribal names and holding the breastplate.

teraphim (TEHR-ah-fim) — Household idols used for divination — Rachel stole her father Laban's teraphim; Micah in Judges had teraphim; they represent false worship.

Chapter 4

The LORD brings a charge against Israel: there is no truth, no mercy, no knowledge of God in the land. "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." The priests feed on the people's sin, and the spirit of whoredoms has led them astray — they sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn incense under every green tree.

| 1 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. | Hear the word of the LORD, You Israelites! The LORD has a charge to bring against You who live in the land: there is no faithfulness, no mercy, no knowledge of God in the land. |
| 2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood. | There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and adultery. Violence breaks out, and bloodshed follows bloodshed. |
| 3 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. | Because of this the land dries up, and all who live in it waste away. | 4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest. | But let no one bring a charge; let no one accuse another. Your people are like those who bring charges against a priest. |

- 5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother. You stumble day and night, and the prophets stumble with You. So I will destroy Your mother —
- 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. Because You have rejected knowledge, I also reject You as My priests. Because You have ignored the law of Your God, I also will ignore Your children.
- 7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. The more priests there were, the more they sinned against Me; they exchanged their glory for something shameful.
- 8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity. They feed on the sins of My people and relish their iniquity.
- 9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings. And it will be: like people, like priests. I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.
- 10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD. They will eat but not have enough; they will commit whoredom but not increase, because they have left off to take heed to the LORD to give themselves
- 11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart. to whoredom. Old wine and new wine take away the heart of My people.
- 12 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God. They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of whoredoms has caused them to err; they have gone a whoring from under their God.

Words in this chapter:

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

whoredom — Sexual immorality — also used in the prophets to describe Israel's spiritual unfaithfulness to God, treating it as adultery against the covenant.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Chapter 5

Judgment falls on the priests, the people, and the royal house — all have gone deep into corruption. Ephraim and Judah will stumble in their iniquity. The LORD will tear them like a lion and go away until they acknowledge their guilt and seek His face in their affliction.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, O house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. | Hear this, You priests! Pay attention, you Israelites! Listen, you of the royal house! This judgment is against you: you have been a snare at Mizpah, a net spread out on Tabor. |
| 2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all. | The rebels are knee-deep in slaughter. I will discipline all of them. |
| 3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled. | I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me. Ephraim, You now commit whoredom; Israel is defiled. |

| 4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD. | Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. The spirit of whoredoms is in their midst; they do not know the LORD. |
| 5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them. | Israel's arrogance testifies against them. Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity; Judah also stumbles with them. |
| 6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them. | When they go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD, they will not find Him; He has withdrawn from them. |
| 7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions. | They are unfaithful to the LORD; they give birth to illegitimate children. Now their feasts will devour them and their fields. |
| 8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin. | Sound the trumpet in Gibeah, the horn in Ramah. Raise the battle cry in Beth Aven; lead on, Benjamin! |
| 9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be. | Ephraim will be laid waste on the day of reckoning. Among the tribes of Israel I proclaim what is certain. |
| 10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water. | Judah's leaders are like those who move boundary stones. I will pour out My wrath on them like a flood of water. |
| 11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment. | Ephraim is oppressed, trampled in judgment, intent on pursuing idols. |
| 12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness. | I am like a moth to Ephraim, like rot to the people of Judah. |

| 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. 14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him. 15 I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early. | When Ephraim saw His sickness, and Judah saw His sores, then Ephraim turned to Assyria, and sent to the great king for help. But He is not able to cure You, not able to heal Your sores. For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, like a great lion to Judah. I will tear them to pieces and go away; I will carry them off, with no one to rescue them. Then I will return to My place until they admit their guilt. And they will seek My face; in their misery they will earnestly seek Me. |

Israel calls out to return to the LORD who has torn them but will heal them. Yet the LORD responds: "Your goodness is like a morning cloud, and like the early dew it goes away." He desires mercy and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. Ephraim and Judah have transgressed the covenant.

| 1 | Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. | "Come, let us return to the LORD. He has torn us to pieces but He will heal us; He has injured us but He will bind up our wounds. |
| 2 | After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. | After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will restore us, that we may live in His presence. |
| 3 | Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. | Let us acknowledge the LORD; let us press on to know Him. | 4 | O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. | What can I do with You, Ephraim? What can I do with You, Judah? Your love is like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears. |
| 5 | Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. | Therefore I cut You in pieces with My prophets; I killed You with the words of My mouth — then My judgments go forth like the sun. |

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

Adam (AD-um) — The first man, formed from the dust of the earth — his name in Hebrew means 'man' or 'from the ground (adamah).'

Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — A mountainous region east of the Jordan River — famous for its healing balm; Jeremiah's lament 'Is there no balm in Gilead?' refers to this area.

Chapter 7

The iniquity of Ephraim and the wickedness of Samaria are exposed — they are full of deceit, theft, and drunkenness. Their kings fall one after another, and none of them call on the LORD. Ephraim is like a cake not turned — half-baked, mixing himself among the peoples, calling to Egypt and Assyria instead of the LORD.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without. | when I would heal Israel, the iniquity of Ephraim is exposed and the crimes of Samaria revealed. They practice deceit; thieves break into houses, bandits rob in the streets. |
| 2 | And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face. | But they do not realize that I remember all their evil deeds. Their sins engulf them; they are always before Me. |
| 3 | They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. | They delight the king with their wickedness, the princes with their lies. |
| 4 | They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened. | They are all adulterers, burning like an oven whose fire the baker need not stir from the kneading of the dough till it rises. |
| 5 | In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorn. | On the day of the festival of our king, the princes become inflamed with wine, and he joins hands with the mockers. |
| 6 | For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire. | Their hearts are like an oven; they approach him with intrigue. Their passion smolders all night; in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire. |
| 7 | They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. | All of them are hot as an oven; they devour their rulers. All their kings fall, and none of them calls on Me. |
| 8 | Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned. | Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat loaf not turned over. |

- 9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not. Foreigners sap his strength, but he does not realize it. His hair is sprinkled with gray, but he does not notice.
- 10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this. Israel's arrogance testifies against Him, but despite all this He does not return to the LORD His God or seek Him.
- 11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless — now calling to Egypt, now turning to Assyria.
- 12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. When they go, I will throw My net over them; I will pull them down like birds in the sky. When I hear them flocking together, I will catch them.
- 13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me. Woe to them, because they have fled from Me! Destruction to them, because they have rebelled against Me! I long to redeem them but they speak lies against Me.
- 14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. They do not cry out to Me from their hearts but wail on their beds. They slash themselves, appealing to their gods for grain and new wine, but they turn away from Me.
- 15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. I trained them and strengthened their arms, but they plot evil against Me.
- 16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt. They do not turn to the Most High; they are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their insolent words. For this they will be ridiculed in the land of Egypt.

Words in this chapter:

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 8

The trumpet sounds the alarm — an eagle hovers over the house of the LORD because Israel has broken the covenant and rebelled against the law. They set up kings without the LORD's approval and made idols of silver and gold. Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples; they will reap the whirlwind.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law. | Put the trumpet to Your lips! An eagle is over the house of the LORD because the people have broken My covenant and rebelled against My law. |
| 2 | Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee. | Israel cries out to Me, "O our God, we acknowledge You!" |
| 3 | Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him. | But Israel has rejected what is good; an enemy will pursue Him. |

- 4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off. They set up kings without My consent; they choose princes without My approval. With their silver and gold they make idols for themselves — to their own destruction.
- 5 Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency? Throw out Your calf-idol, O Samaria! My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of purity?
- 6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. This idol is from Israel! A craftsman has made it; it is not God. It will be broken in pieces, that calf of Samaria!
- 7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. They sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no head; it will produce no flour. Were it to yield grain, foreigners would swallow it up.
- 8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure. Israel is swallowed up; now she is among the nations like something no one wants.
- 9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. For they have gone up to Assyria like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has sold herself to lovers.
- 10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes. Even though they have sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them together. They will begin to waste away under the oppression of the mighty king.
- 11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin. Ephraim has built many altars for sin offerings, but these have become altars for sinning.

Words in this chapter:

sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Chapter 9

Israel will not rejoice like other nations, for she has gone a whoring from her God. The days of visitation and recompense have come. The prophet is called a fool, and Ephraim is snared. Because of the greatness of their iniquity, the LORD will cast them away — they will be wanderers among the nations.

- | | |

| 1 Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor. | Do not rejoice, O Israel; do not be jubilant like the other nations. For you have gone a whoring from your God; You have loved a reward upon every cornfloor. |
| 2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her. | Threshing floors and winepresses will not feed the people; the new wine will fail them. |
| 3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. | They will not remain in the LORD's land; Ephraim will return to Egypt and eat unclean food in Assyria. |
| 4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD. | They will not pour out wine offerings to the LORD, nor will their sacrifices please Him. Such sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; all who eat them will be unclean. This food will be for themselves; it will not come into the temple of the LORD. |
| 5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? | What will You do on the day of Your appointed festivals, on the feast days of the LORD? |
| 6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles. | Even if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them. Their treasures of silver will be taken over by nettles, and thorns will be in their tabernacles. |

- 7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred. The days of punishment are coming, the days of reckoning are at hand. Let Israel know this. Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great, the prophet is considered a fool, the inspired man a maniac.
- 8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim, yet snares await Him on all His paths, and hostility in the house of His God.
- 9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. They have sunk deep into corruption, as in the days of Gibeah. God will remember their iniquity; He will punish them for their sins.
- 10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert; when I saw your fathers, it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig tree. But when they came to Baal Peor, they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol and became as vile as the thing they loved.
- 11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception. Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird — no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.
- 12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! Even if they rear children, I will bereave them of every one. Woe to them when I turn away from them!
- 13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer. I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim will bring out their children to the slayer.

Chapter 10

Israel is a luxuriant vine that bears fruit for itself — the more prosperous the land, the more altars and images they built. Their altars will be broken down and their images destroyed. The LORD calls them to sow in righteousness and reap in mercy, to break up the fallow ground — but they have plowed wickedness and will reap iniquity.

- | | |
|---|---|
| ¹ Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images. ² Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images. ³ For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us? ⁴ They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field. ⁵ The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. ⁶ It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. ⁷ As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water. | Israel is an empty vine; He brings forth fruit for Himself. The more His fruit increased, the more altars He built; the better His land, the more goodly images they made. Their heart is deceitful, and now they must bear their guilt. The LORD will demolish their altars and destroy their sacred stones. Then they will say, "We have no king because we did not revere the LORD. But even if we had a king, what could He do for us?" They make many promises, take false oaths, and make agreements; therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a plowed field. The people of Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven. Its people will mourn over it, and so will its idolatrous priests — those who had rejoiced over its splendor, because it will be taken from them into exile. It will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced; Israel will be ashamed of its foreign alliances. Samaria and its king will float away like a twig on the surface of the waters. |
|---|---|

- 8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. The high places of wickedness will be destroyed — it is the sin of Israel. Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!" and to the hills, "Fall on us!"
- 9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them. Since the days of Gibeah, You have sinned, O Israel, and there you have remained. Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?
- 10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows. When I please, I will punish them; nations will be gathered against them to put them in bonds for their double sin.
- 11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods. Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; so I will put a yoke on her fair neck. I will drive Ephraim, Judah must plow, and Jacob must break up the ground.
- 12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. Sow righteousness for yourselves, reap the fruit of mercy, and break up Your unplowed ground; for it is time to seek the LORD, until He comes and showers His righteousness on You.
- 13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. But You have planted wickedness, You have reaped evil, You have eaten the fruit of deception. Because You have depended on Your own strength and on Your many warriors,

14	Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.	the roar of battle will rise against Your people, so that all Your fortresses will be devastated — as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.
15	So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.	So will it happen to you, Bethel, because your wickedness is great. When that day dawns, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Chapter 11

The LORD remembers how He loved Israel as a child and called His son out of Egypt. But the more He called them, the further they went from Him. He taught Ephraim to walk, took them by the arms, drew them with cords of love — yet they refused to return. "How shall I give you up, Ephraim?" His compassion is stirred; He will not execute the fierceness of His anger.

1	When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.	When Israel was a child, I loved Him, and out of Egypt I called My son.
---	---	---

- 2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. But the more they were called, the more they went away from Me. They kept sacrificing to the Baals and burning incense to carved idols.
- 3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them. It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them.
- 4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love. I lifted the yoke from their neck and bent down to feed them.
- 5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be His king, because they refused to return.
- 6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. A sword will flash in their cities; it will devour their false prophets and put an end to their plans.
- 7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him. My people are bent to backsliding from Me. Though they call to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him.
- 8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. How can I give You up, Ephraim? How can I hand You over, Israel? How can I treat You like Admah? How can I make You like Zeboim? My heart is changed within Me; all My compassion is aroused.
- 9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city. I will not carry out My fierce anger; I will not destroy Ephraim again. For I am God, and not a man — the Holy One among You. I will not come against their cities.

Ephraim feeds on wind and pursues the east wind — making treaties with Assyria and sending oil to Egypt. The LORD has a controversy with Judah as well. Jacob wrestled with the angel and prevailed; the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet He preserved them. Ephraim has provoked the LORD bitterly, and his blood will be left on him.

Chapter 13

When Ephraim spoke, men trembled — but he sinned through Baal and died. They continue to sin, making molten images. Therefore the LORD will be to them like a lion, like a leopard, like a bear robbed of her cubs. "O Israel, you have destroyed yourself, but in Me is your help." The LORD will ransom them from the power of the grave and redeem them from death.

- | | |
| 1 When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. | When Ephraim spoke, men trembled; He was exalted in Israel. But He became guilty of Baal worship and died. |
| 2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. | Now they sin more and more; they make cast idols from their silver, cleverly fashioned images — all of them the work of craftsmen. It is said of these people, "They offer human sacrifices and kiss the calf-idols." |
| 3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. | Therefore they will be like the morning mist, like the early dew that disappears, like chaff swirling from a threshing floor, like smoke escaping through a window. |
| 4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me. | But I am the LORD Your God, Who brought You out of Egypt. You shall acknowledge no God but Me, no Savior except Me. |
| 5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. | I cared for You in the desert, in the land of burning heat. |
| 6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me. | When I fed them, they were satisfied; when they were satisfied, they became proud; then they forgot Me. |
| 7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them: | So I will be like a lion to them, like a leopard I will lurk by the path. |

- 8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them. Like a bear robbed of her cubs, I will attack them and rip them open; like a lion I will devour them — a wild animal will tear them apart.
- 9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help. You are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against Me, against your helper.
- 10 I will be thy king; where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? Where is Your king, that He may save You? Where are Your rulers in all Your towns, of whom You said, "Give me a king and princes"?
- 11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath. So in My anger I gave You a king, and in My wrath I took Him away.
- 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid. The guilt of Ephraim is stored up; His sins are kept on record.
- 13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children. Pains as of a woman in childbirth come to him, but he is a child without wisdom; when the time arrives, He does not come to the opening of the womb.
- 14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes. I will deliver this people from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. O death, I will be Your plagues; O grave, I will be Your destruction. I will have no compassion.
- 15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels. Even though He thrives among His brothers, an east wind from the LORD will come, blowing in from the desert. His spring will fail and His well dry up. His storehouse will be plundered of all its treasures.

They will fall by the sword; their little ones will be dashed to the ground, their pregnant women ripped open. |

The LORD calls Israel to return and bring words of repentance: "Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously." Assyria will not save them, and they will no longer call their idols their gods. The LORD will heal their backsliding and love them freely — Israel will blossom like the lily and take root like the cedars of Lebanon.

- | | |

| 1 O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. | Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God. Your sins have been your downfall! |
| 2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. | Take words with You and return to the LORD. Say to Him: "Forgive all our iniquity and receive us graciously, that we may offer the fruit of our lips. |

We will never again say 'Our gods' to what our own hands have made, for in You the fatherless find mercy." "I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely, for My anger has turned away from Him. I will be like the dew to Israel; He will blossom like a lily. Like a cedar of Lebanon He will send down His roots; his young shoots will grow. His splendor will be like an olive tree, His fragrance like a cedar of Lebanon. People will again live in His shade. They will flourish like the grain; they will blossom like the vine, and His fame will be like the wine from Lebanon. Ephraim will say, 'What more have I to do with idols?' I will answer Him and care for Him. I am like a green pine tree; Your fruitfulness comes from Me." Who is wise? Let Him understand these things. Who is discerning? Let Him know them. The ways of the LORD are right; the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them. |

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Joel

Author: Joel son of Pethuel — the book names him (Joel 1:1); beyond this, nothing is known of his personal life or circumstances.

Date written: Uncertain — early date c. 835 BC (reign of Joash) is traditional; some place it later. The absence of any mention of Assyria or Babylon may support an early date.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem, in response to a catastrophic locust plague and drought.

Setting: A devastating locust swarm has stripped the land. The harvest is destroyed, the grain offering cannot be made, and the people face genuine famine. Joel uses this physical disaster as the entry point for one of the OT's most far-reaching prophetic visions — the Day of the LORD.

Where this sits historically: Date uncertain — traditionally placed c. 835 BC during the boy-king Joash's reign in Judah under the regency of Jehoiada the priest, before either the Assyrian or Babylonian crises had reached Jerusalem.

Contemporaries: Under the early date, Elisha was still ministering in the northern kingdom, Athaliah's house had just been overthrown, and Jehu's dynasty ruled Israel.

Big themes:

- The locust plague as divine judgment — the natural disaster is not random; it is the LORD calling His people to repentance
- The Day of the LORD — a recurring theme throughout the prophets; Joel develops it as a day of cosmic darkness, divine judgment on all nations, and ultimate deliverance for God's people
- True repentance — "rend your heart, and not your garments" (2:13); God wants inward return, not outward ritual
- The outpouring of the Spirit — Joel 2:28–32 promises that God will pour out His Spirit on all flesh; Peter quoted this passage on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:16–21)
- Restoration of the land — God promises to restore the years the locust has eaten (2:25); physical blessing follows spiritual return

Key passages: Joel 1:4; 2:12–13; 2:28–32; 3:14; 3:16

How it fits: Joel is brief but theologically pivotal — his Day of the LORD vision is the framework Amos, Zephaniah, and Revelation all build on. His Spirit-outpouring prophecy is the OT's clearest promise of Pentecost. Peter's identification of Pentecost with Joel 2 makes this short book one of the most NT-quoted of the Minor Prophets.

Chapter 1

A devastating plague of locusts has stripped the land bare — what one swarm left, the next devoured. The fields are ruined, the vines dried up, the grain offering and drink offering cut off from the house of the LORD. Joel calls the priests and elders to proclaim a solemn fast and cry out to the LORD, for the day of the LORD is at hand.

■ NAME NOTE — Joel (JO-el) — "the LORD is God" — A prophet of Judah. His book calls Israel to repentance in the face of a devastating locust plague and warns of the coming Day of the LORD.

| 2 | Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? | Hear this, You elders; listen, all who live in the land. Has anything like this ever happened in your days or in the days of Your ancestors? |
| 3 | Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. | Tell it to Your children, and let Your children tell it to their children, and their children to the next generation. |
| 5 | Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. | Wake up, You drunkards, and weep! Wail, all You drinkers of wine; wail because of the new wine, for it has been snatched from Your lips. |
| 6 | For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion. | A nation has invaded My land, powerful and without number; it has the teeth of a lion, the fangs of a lioness. |
| 7 | He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white. | It has laid waste My vines and ruined My fig trees. It has stripped off their bark and thrown it away, leaving their branches white. |

- | | |

| 8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. | Mourn like a young woman dressed in sackcloth grieving for the husband of her youth. |
| 9 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn. | Grain offerings and drink offerings have been cut off from the house of the LORD. The priests mourn, those who minister before the LORD. |
| 10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth. | The fields are ruined, the ground is dried up; the grain is destroyed, the new wine is dried up, the olive oil fails. |
| 11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished. | Despair, You farmers; wail, You vine growers; grieve for the wheat and the barley, because the harvest of the field is destroyed. |
| 12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men. | The vine is dried up and the fig tree is withered; the pomegranate, the palm and the apple tree — all the trees of the field — are dried up. Surely the people's joy is withered away. |
| 13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God. | Put on sackcloth, You priests, and mourn; wail, you who minister before the altar. Come, spend the night in sackcloth, You who minister before my God; for the grain offerings and drink offerings are withheld from the house of Your God. |
| 14 Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD. | Declare a holy fast; call a sacred assembly. Summon the elders and all who live in the land to the house of the LORD Your God, and cry out to the LORD. |

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Chapter 2

The trumpet sounds in Zion — a great army like locusts darkens the land, and the day of the LORD is near. Yet the LORD calls: "Turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning — rend your heart and not your garments." If they repent, the LORD will pour out His Spirit on all flesh — sons and daughters will prophesy, old men will dream dreams, young men will see visions.

| 1 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; | Sound the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on My holy mountain. Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming. It is close at hand — |
| 2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations. | a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness. Like dawn spreading across the mountains, a large and mighty army comes — such as never was in ancient times nor ever will be in ages to come. |
| 3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. | Before them fire devours; behind them a flame blazes. Before them the land is like the garden of Eden; behind them, a desert waste — nothing escapes them. |
| 4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. | They have the appearance of horses; they gallop along like cavalry. |
| 5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. | With a noise like that of chariots they leap over the mountaintops, like a crackling fire consuming stubble, like a mighty army drawn up for battle. |

- 6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. At the sight of them, nations are in anguish; every face turns pale.
- 7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: They charge like warriors; they scale walls like soldiers. They all march in line, not swerving from their course.
- 8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. They do not jostle each other; each marches straight ahead. They plunge through defenses without breaking ranks.
- 9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. They rush upon the city; they run along the wall. They climb into the houses; like thieves they enter through the windows.
- 10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining: Before them the earth shakes, the heavens tremble, the sun and moon are darkened, and the stars no longer shine.
- 11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? The LORD thunders at the head of His army; His forces are beyond number, and mighty is the army that obeys His command. The day of the LORD is great; it is dreadful. Who can endure it?
- 12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: "Even now," declares the LORD, "return to Me with all Your heart, with fasting and weeping and mourning."

- 13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Tear Your heart, and not Your garments. Return to the LORD Your God, for He is gracious and merciful, longsuffering, and of great kindness — and He relents from sending calamity.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — "patient endurance toward those who are difficult or rebellious; God's slowness to anger and His willingness to wait for sinners to repent."

- 14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God? Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave behind a blessing — grain offerings and drink offerings for the LORD Your God.
- 15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Sound the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly.
- 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Gather the people, consecrate the assembly; bring together the elders, gather the children, those nursing at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave His room and the bride her chamber.
- 17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Let the priests, who minister before the LORD, weep between the temple porch and the altar. Let them say, "Spare Your people, LORD. Do not make Your inheritance an object of scorn, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?' "
- 18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Then the LORD will be jealous for His land and take pity on His people.

- 19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen: The LORD will reply to them: "I am sending You grain, new wine, and olive oil, enough to satisfy You fully; never again will I make You an object of scorn to the nations.
- 20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things. I will drive the northern horde far from You, pushing it into a parched and barren land — its eastern ranks into the Dead Sea and its western ranks into the Mediterranean Sea. And its stench will go up; its smell will rise." Surely He has done great things!
- 21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things. Do not be afraid, land of Judah; be glad and rejoice. Surely the LORD has done great things!
- 22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength. Do not be afraid, You wild animals, for the pastures in the wilderness are becoming green. The trees are bearing their fruit; the fig tree and the vine yield their riches.
- 23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. Be glad, people of Zion, rejoice in the LORD Your God, for He has given You the autumn rains because He is faithful. He sends You abundant showers — both autumn and spring rains, as before.
- 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. The threshing floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

- 25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you. I will repay You for the years the locusts have eaten — the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm — My great army that I sent among You.
- 26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. You will have plenty to eat, until You are full, and You will praise the name of the LORD Your God, Who has worked wonders for You; never again will My people be shamed.
- 27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. Then You will know that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD Your God, and that there is no other; never again will My people be shamed.
- 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, Your old men will dream dreams, Your young men will see visions.
- 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. Even on My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days.
- 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth — blood and fire and billows of smoke.
- 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

- 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.
- And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, even among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Eden (EE-den) — The garden God planted in the east as the first human home — meaning 'delight' or 'pleasure'; location east of which God placed cherubim after the Fall.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 3

The LORD will gather all nations into the valley of Jehoshaphat and judge them for scattering His people and dividing His land. The nations are called to beat their plowshares into swords — but the LORD will roar from Zion. In that day the mountains will drip with new wine, the hills will flow with milk, and the LORD will dwell in Zion forever.

- 1 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, In those days and at that time, when I bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
- 2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land. I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will put them on trial for what they did to My inheritance, My people Israel — because they scattered My people among the nations and divided up My land.
- 3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink. They cast lots for My people and traded boys for harlots; they sold girls for wine to drink.
- 4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head; Now what have you against Me, Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia? Are you repaying Me for something I have done? If you are paying Me back, I will swiftly and speedily return on your own heads what you have done.
- 5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things: For you took My silver and My gold and carried off My finest treasures to your temples.
- 6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border. You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, that you might send them far from their homeland.
- 7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head: See, I am going to rouse them out of the places to which you sold them, and I will return on your own heads what you have done.

- 8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it. I will sell Your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, a nation far away." The LORD has spoken.
- 9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare for war! Rouse the warriors! Let all the fighting men draw near and attack.
- 10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Beat Your plowshares into swords and Your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weakling say, "I am strong!"
- 11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Come quickly, all You nations from every side, and assemble there. Bring down Your warriors, LORD!
- 12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Let the nations be roused; let them advance into the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge all the nations on every side.
- 13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, trample the grapes, for the winepress is full and the vats overflow — so great is their wickedness!
- 14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. Crowds upon crowds in the valley of decision! For the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
- 15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The sun and moon will be darkened, and the stars no longer shine.

| 16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. | The LORD will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem; the earth and the heavens will tremble. But the LORD will be a refuge for His people, a stronghold for the people of Israel. |
| 17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. | Then You will know that I, the LORD Your God, dwell in Zion, My holy mountain. Jerusalem will be holy; never again will foreigners invade her. |
| 18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. | In that day the mountains will drip new wine, and the hills will flow with milk; all the rivers of Judah will flow with waters. A fountain will come forth of the house of the LORD and will water the valley of Shittim. |
| 19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. | But Egypt will be desolate, Edom a desert waste, because of violence done to the people of Judah, in whose land they shed innocent blood. |
| 20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation. | Judah will be inhabited forever and Jerusalem through all generations. |
| 21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion. | For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed, for the LORD dwells in Zion. |

Words in this chapter:

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Philistia (fih-LIS-tee-ah) — The coastal plain south of Canaan — home of the Philistines, Israel's persistent enemies; their five main cities were Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

Amos

Author: Amos of Tekoa — "burden bearer" — a shepherd ("herdman") and a "gatherer of sycamore fruit" (7:14). He was a country prophet from the southern kingdom of Judah, called by God to leave his flocks and figs and prophesy in the northern kingdom of Israel. He was not trained in any prophetic school: "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son" (7:14).

Date written: c. 760–750 BC, during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (793–753 BC) and Uzziah of Judah (792–740 BC). Amos dates his own ministry "two years before the earthquake" (1:1) — possibly the same earthquake remembered two centuries later in Zechariah 14:5. Amos is the chronologically earliest of the writing prophets, among the oldest written sermons in Scripture.

Written to: The northern kingdom of Israel — and especially its corrupt religious center at Bethel and its prosperous nobility in Samaria.

Setting: The northern kingdom is at the peak of material prosperity under Jeroboam II. Borders are expanded; trade is flourishing; the wealthy build summer houses and winter houses, lie on beds of ivory, drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments. But underneath: the poor are sold for a pair of shoes; the helpless are crushed at the gate; merchants use false balances. The religion is feasts and tithes — at Bethel, at Gilgal, at Beersheba — but it is offered to a calf, not to the LORD. God sends Amos, a southerner and a working man with no prophetic pedigree, to declare that the LORD will spare them no longer. Amaziah the priest at Bethel orders Amos to go home; Amos refuses and prophesies the priest's own ruin.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 760–750 BC under Jeroboam II of Israel and Uzziah of Judah, two years before a famous earthquake (1:1), and roughly forty years before the Assyrians destroyed Samaria in 722 BC.

Contemporaries: Hosea was just beginning his ministry in the north, Jonah had recently been sent to Nineveh, and Isaiah and Micah would take up their callings in Judah within a generation.

Big themes:

- The universal scope of God's moral demand — the oracle against the nations in chapters 1–2 sweeps in a circle and lands on Judah and Israel last
- The inseparability of social justice from true worship — the LORD's hatred of religion that ignores oppression of the poor
- The day of the LORD as darkness, not light, for the impenitent (5:18–20)
- The famine of hearing the words of the LORD (8:11) — a more terrible judgment than hunger or thirst
- The LORD's freedom to use unschooled workmen as His prophets (7:14–15)
- The final hope — the raising up of the tabernacle of David that is fallen (9:11)

Key passages: Amos 3:7 (the LORD reveals His secret to His servants the prophets); 4:11 (a firebrand plucked out of the burning); 5:18–24 (the day of the LORD and the demand for justice); 7:14–15 (Amos's defense — "I was no prophet"); 8:11 (the famine of hearing the word of the LORD); 9:11–15 (the tabernacle of David rebuilt and the final restoration)

How it fits: Amos is the Old Testament's strongest prophetic cry for social justice — particularly the protection of the poor against economic and judicial oppression. Amos 9:11 ("the tabernacle of David that is fallen") is quoted by James in Acts 15:16 to establish, from the Old Testament itself, that God always intended to call Gentiles into His people through Christ. Amos demonstrates that the God of Israel is also the God of all the nations — and that He judges every nation, including His own, by the same righteous standard.

Chapter 1

The LORD roars from Zion and pronounces judgment on the nations surrounding Israel: Damascus, Gaza, Tyre, and Edom. For three transgressions and for four, He will not turn away their punishment — because of their cruelties in war, their slave trading, and their unrelenting rage.

- 1

The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.
- The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

■ NAME NOTE — Amos (AY-mos) — "burden bearer" — A shepherd and fig-tree farmer from Tekoa in Judah, called by God to prophesy to the northern kingdom of Israel. He was not a professional prophet but an ordinary working man (see 7:14–15).

■ NAME NOTE — Tekoa (teh-KOH-ah) — "pitching of tents" — A small town in the hill country of Judah, about ten miles south of Jerusalem and six miles south of Bethlehem. Amos's home; later the home of the wise woman who pleaded with David for Absalom (2 Samuel 14).

■ NAME NOTE — Uzziah (uh-ZY-ah) — "the LORD is my strength" — King of Judah, c. 792–740 BC; also called Azariah. A largely good king whose reign was long and prosperous, but who was struck with leprosy for proudly entering the temple to burn incense (2 Chronicles 26).

■ NAME NOTE — Jeroboam (jair-uh-BOH-am) — "the people contend" — Here, Jeroboam II, son of Joash, king of the northern kingdom of Israel c. 793–753 BC. Not to be confused with the first Jeroboam, who founded the northern kingdom and set up the calf shrines. The second Jeroboam was militarily and economically successful, but morally and religiously corrupt — the setting of Amos's prophecy.

- 2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither. He said: "The LORD will roar from Zion, and lift up His voice from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds will mourn, and the top of Carmel will wither."

■ NAME NOTE — Carmel (KAR-mel) — "garden, fruitful field" — A fertile mountain ridge in northern Israel running down to the Mediterranean coast near modern Haifa. Famous as the site of Elijah's contest with the prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18). Its proverbial fruitfulness makes the threat of its withering all the more striking.

- 3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron,

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Amos's signature phrase, "For three transgressions of X, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof," is repeated eight times in chapters 1 and 2 — a deliberate, mounting indictment that finally encircles God's own people Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (duh-MAS-kus) — Ancient capital of Syria (Aram), northeast of Israel. Israel's persistent enemy throughout the divided-kingdom period; Hazael and Ben-hadad were two of its most aggressive kings (v4).

- 4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad. I will send a fire on the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.
- 5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD. I will also break the bar of Damascus. I will cut off the people who live in the plain of Aven, and the one who holds the sceptre from the house of Eden. The people of Syria will go into captivity to Kir," says the LORD.

- 6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they carried away the whole population as captives, to deliver them up to Edom,

■ NAME NOTE — Gaza (GAH-zah) — "strong place" — The chief city of the five Philistine cities on the Mediterranean coast southwest of Israel. Strategically positioned on the trade route between Egypt and the north.

- 7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof: I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it will devour its palaces.
- 8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD. I will cut off the people who live in Ashdod, and the one who holds the sceptre from Ashkelon. I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish," says the Lord GOD.

■ NAME NOTE — Philistines (FIL-is-teens) — The non-Semitic people who occupied the coastal plain southwest of Israel; their five chief cities were Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Ekron, and Gath. Israel's most persistent enemy throughout the period of the Judges and the early monarchy. Amos says (9:7) that the LORD brought them from Caphtor (Crete) — making clear that even Israel's enemies are under the LORD's sovereign hand.

- 9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they delivered up the whole population of captives to Edom, and did not remember the brotherly covenant,

■ NAME NOTE — Tyrus (TY-rus) — The KJV form of Tyre, the great Phoenician trading city on the Mediterranean coast north of Israel. Allied with Israel in David and Solomon's day (the "brotherly covenant"); Hiram of Tyre supplied cedar for the temple. By Amos's day Tyre had broken faith and was trafficking Israelite captives to Edom.

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof. I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, and it will devour its palaces."

11 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because He pursued His brother with the sword and cast off all pity. His anger tore on without end, and He kept His wrath forever.

■ NAME NOTE — Edom (EE-dum) — "red" — The nation descended from Esau, Jacob's twin brother (Genesis 25:30; 36:1). Located south and east of the Dead Sea. Their constant hostility toward Israel — "his brother" — is treated by the prophets as a particularly grievous betrayal. The whole book of Obadiah is devoted to Edom's judgment.

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah. I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah."

13 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border,

■ NAME NOTE — Ammon (AM-un) — The nation descended from Lot's younger daughter (Genesis 19:38). Located east of the Jordan, north of Moab. Their capital was Rabbah (modern Amman, Jordan). Like Moab, Ammon was repeatedly at war with Israel.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind: I will kindle a fire on the wall of Rabbah, and it will devour its palaces, with shouting on the day of battle, with a tempest on the day of the whirlwind.

15	And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.	Their king will go into captivity, He and His princes together," says the LORD.

Chapter 2

The LORD continues His judgments against Moab and then turns to Judah and Israel. Israel is condemned for selling the righteous for silver and the poor for a pair of shoes, for oppressing the afflicted, and for profaning the LORD's holy name. God reminds them He brought them out of Egypt and raised up prophets among them — yet they silenced the prophets and corrupted the Nazarites.

1	Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:	This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because He burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime,
---	---	--

■ NAME NOTE — Moab (MOH-ab) — The nation descended from Lot's elder daughter (Genesis 19:37). Located east of the Dead Sea, between Edom and Ammon. Ruth the great-grandmother of David was a Moabitess (Ruth 1:4; Matthew 1:5). The crime named here — burning the bones of the king of Edom to lime — was a violation of common decency even against an enemy, and the LORD judges it.

- 2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet: I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kirioth. Moab will die in the midst of an uproar, with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet.
- 3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD. I will cut off the judge from her midst, and kill all her princes with Him," says the LORD.
- 4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked: This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they have despised the law of the LORD and have not kept His commandments, and their lies caused them to err — the lies their fathers walked after —

■ NAME NOTE — Judah (JOO-dah) — "praise" — The southern kingdom of God's people, with its capital at Jerusalem. After the death of Solomon the twelve tribes split: ten formed the northern kingdom of Israel; two (Judah and Benjamin) formed the southern kingdom of Judah. Amos's home. The oracle has been circling the pagan nations; now it turns inward — first on Judah, then on Israel.

- 5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem."
- 6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes; This is what the LORD says: "For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away its punishment. Because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes.

■ NAME NOTE — Israel (IZ-ree-el) — "he strives with God" — The name God gave to Jacob (Genesis 32:28). Here, the northern kingdom — ten tribes — with its capital at Samaria, its royal house in Jeroboam II, and its calf-shrines at Bethel and Dan. The oracle finally rests where it was always going to rest. Israel's catalog of crimes is far longer than any of the pagan nations'.

- 7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name: They pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek. A man and his father go in to the same young woman, to profane My holy name.
- 8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god. They lay themselves down on clothes taken in pledge beside every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.
- 9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and who was strong as the oaks. I destroyed His fruit from above, and His roots from beneath.
- 10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. I also brought You up from the land of Egypt, and led You forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.
- 11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. I raised up some of Your sons to be prophets, and some of Your young men to be Nazarites. Is it not so, You children of Israel?" says the LORD.
- 12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not. "But You gave the Nazarites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, 'Do not prophesy.'
- 13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves. I am pressed down under You, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.
- 14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself: Therefore flight will fail the swift, the strong will not gather His strength, and the mighty will not deliver Himself.

Chapter 3

"You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities." The LORD does nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets. Israel's enemies will surround the land, pull down her strongholds, and plunder her palaces — the altars of Bethel will be torn down.

| 1 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, | Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against You, children of Israel — against the whole family I brought up from the land of Egypt — saying: |

■ NAME NOTE — Egypt (EE-jipt) — The land of Israel's bondage and great deliverance. The exodus is the LORD's foundational saving act in the OT, repeatedly invoked by the prophets as the basis of His claim on Israel. Throughout Amos, the LORD reminds Israel: I brought you up out of Egypt — therefore you owe Me obedience.

| 5 | Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all? | Can a bird fall into a snare on the ground where no trap is set for Him? | 6 | Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it? | Will a trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? Will there be evil in a city, and the LORD has not done it? |
| 7 | Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. | Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. |

■ WORD NOTE — Secret (SEE-krit) — God's hidden counsel — His settled plan, kept from the world but disclosed to those He chooses. The LORD reveals His "secret" to His servants the prophets: He never sends judgment unannounced. Before the lion roars, the herald goes ahead. The Hebrew word (sod) carries the sense of intimate council — the prophet is admitted into the LORD's inner counsel and entrusted with His mind.

- 9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof. Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say: "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria. See the great tumults within her, and the oppressed in her midst."
- 10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. "For they do not know how to do right," says the LORD, "they who store up violence and robbery in their palaces."
- 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "An adversary will be even round about the land. He will bring down Your strength from You, and Your palaces will be plundered."
- 12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch. This is what the LORD says: "As the shepherd takes out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so will the children of Israel be taken out — those who dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus on a couch."
- 13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, "Hear and testify in the house of Jacob," says the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

■ NAME NOTE — Bethel (BETH-el) — "house of God" — A town about twelve miles north of Jerusalem. After the division of the kingdom, Jeroboam I set up a golden calf there, with a rival temple and priesthood, so the northern tribes would not return to Jerusalem to worship (1 Kings 12:28–33). By Amos's day it was the chief sanctuary of the northern kingdom — "the king's chapel" (7:13) — and the great target of his prophetic fire.

- 14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. "that on the day I visit the transgressions of Israel on Him, I will also visit the altars of Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.
- 15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD. I will strike the winter house along with the summer house. The houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will come to an end," says the LORD.

Chapter 4

The LORD rebukes the wealthy women of Samaria — the "kine of Bashan" — who oppress the poor and crush the needy. He sent famine, drought, blight, pestilence, and overthrow like Sodom — yet they did not return to Him. "Therefore prepare to meet your God, O Israel."

- 1 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink. Hear this word, You kine of Bashan on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor and crush the needy, who say to their masters, "Bring, and let us drink."

■ NAME NOTE — Bashan (BAY-shan) — The fertile high plateau east of the Sea of Galilee, famous in the OT for its rich pastureland and the fatness of its cattle (Psalm 22:12; Deuteronomy 32:14). "Kine of Bashan" — well-fed, sleek heifers — is Amos's withering nickname for the pampered noblewomen of Samaria, who grow fat by oppressing the poor and demanding that their husbands bring them more wine.

■ NAME NOTE — Gilgal (GIL-gal) — "circle of stones" — The site of Israel's first encampment after crossing the Jordan under Joshua (Joshua 4:19–20). A place of honorable memory had become, by Amos's day, a center of corrupt cultic worship. Amos's command "come to Bethel and transgress" is bitter irony — go ahead, keep doing your religion; you only multiply your guilt.

- 7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered. "I also withheld the rain from You, when there were yet three months to the harvest. I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another. One piece of ground was rained upon, and the piece on which it did not rain withered.
- 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. So two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, but they were not satisfied. Yet You have not returned to Me," says the LORD.
- 9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. "I have struck You with blasting and mildew. When Your gardens and Your vineyards and Your fig trees and Your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them. Yet You have not returned to Me," says the LORD.
- 10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. "I have sent among You the pestilence, after the manner of Egypt. Your young men I have slain with the sword, and have taken away Your horses. I have made the stench of Your camps come up into Your nostrils. Yet You have not returned to Me," says the LORD.
- 11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. "I have overthrown some of You, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. You were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning. Yet You have not returned to Me," says the LORD.
- 12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel. "Therefore this is what I will do to You, Israel. And because I will do this to You — prepare to meet Your God, Israel."

- 13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. For He who forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what is His thought; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth — the LORD, the God of hosts, is His name.

Chapter 5

Amos takes up a lament: "The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise." The LORD calls them to seek Him and live — to seek good and not evil, to establish justice in the gate. He despises their feast days and will not accept their offerings. "Let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."

- 1 Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel. Hear this word that I take up against You — a lamentation, house of Israel:
- 2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up. "The virgin of Israel is fallen — she will rise no more. She is forsaken on her land; there is none to raise her up."

■ NAME NOTE — Beersheba (beer-SHEE-bah) — "well of the oath" — A town in the far south of Judah, on the edge of the wilderness; associated with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who all worshipped the LORD there. By Amos's day Beersheba had also been turned into a popular pilgrim shrine for the northern Israelites. The LORD's command is striking: do not go on pilgrimage to these holy places — seek Me directly, and live.

- 9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress. who strengthens the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled comes against the fortress.
- 10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly. They hate the one who rebukes in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks uprightly.
- 11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them. Therefore, because You tread on the poor and take from Him burdens of wheat, You have built houses of hewn stone, but You will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, but You will not drink their wine.
- 12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right. For I know Your many transgressions and Your mighty sins. You afflict the just, You take a bribe, and You turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
- 13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in that time, for it is an evil time.
- 14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken. Seek good, and not evil, that You may live. And so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with You, as You have said.
- 15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate. It may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

- 16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing. Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, says: "Wailing will be in all streets, and in all the highways they will say, 'Alas! Alas!' They will call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.
- 17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD. And in all vineyards there will be wailing — for I will pass through Your midst," says the LORD.
- 18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. Woe to You who desire the day of the LORD! To what end is it for You? The day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great biblical theme: the day on which the LORD finally and openly intervenes in human history to judge the wicked and vindicate His people. The Israelites of Amos's day were looking forward to it as Israel's triumph and the nations' defeat. Amos turns the doctrine around: for impenitent Israel, the day of the LORD will be darkness, not light — because Israel itself has joined the nations in rebellion. The same theme runs through Joel, Zephaniah, Malachi, and finds its NT fulfillment in the second coming of Christ.

- 19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. It will be as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned His hand on the wall, and a serpent bit Him.
- 20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it? Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? Very dark, and no brightness in it?
- 21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. "I hate, I despise Your feast days, and I will not smell in Your solemn assemblies.
- 22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Though You offer Me burnt offerings and Your meat offerings, I will not accept them. I will not regard the peace offerings of Your fat beasts.

Chapter 6

Woe to the complacent in Zion and the overconfident in Samaria — they lie on beds of ivory, feast on lambs and calves, sing idle songs, and drink wine by the bowlful, yet they grieve not over the ruin of Joseph. Therefore they will go into captivity first among the captives, and the revelry of the loungers will cease.

■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — Israel's greatest king (c. 1010–970 BC), composer of many of the psalms, ancestor of the Messiah. Amos here names David as the model and inventor of sacred musical instruments — a contrast with the rich of Samaria, who use music for self-indulgence rather than for worship. David's name will return at the climax of the book (9:11) in the great promise of the rebuilt "tabernacle of David."

- 8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein. The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself, says the LORD the God of hosts: "I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces. Therefore I will deliver up the city and all that is in it."

Chapter 7

The LORD shows Amos three visions: a plague of grasshoppers and a fire — both of which He relents from after Amos intercedes — and a plumb line set against Israel, which He will not pass by again. Amaziah the priest of Bethel opposes Amos, but Amos replies that the LORD took him from following the flock and sent him to prophesy against Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Amaziah (am-uh-ZY-ah) — "the LORD is mighty" — The priest of Bethel (the king's chapel) in the days of Jeroboam II. He sends word to the king accusing Amos of conspiracy, and orders Amos to flee back to Judah and prophesy there for his bread. Amos answers him with one of the most striking self-defenses in all Scripture (vv14–15) — and then with the LORD's word of personal judgment on Amaziah himself (v17).

Chapter 8

The LORD shows Amos a basket of summer fruit — the end has come for Israel. He condemns those who trample the needy, who cannot wait for the Sabbath to end so they can cheat with dishonest scales. The LORD will send a famine — not of bread or water, but of hearing the words of the LORD — and they will search for His word but not find it.

Chapter 9

Amos sees the Lord standing beside the altar, commanding destruction — none will escape, whether they dig into hell or climb to heaven. Yet the LORD will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob. In that day He will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and Israel will be planted on their own land and never again be pulled up.

■ NAME NOTE — Ethiopia (ee-thee-OH-pee-ah) — In the OT, the land south of Egypt — also called Cush — modern Sudan / upper Nile region. Amos's point is sweeping: in the LORD's sovereign view of the nations, Israel is no more privileged by physical descent than the distant Ethiopians. The LORD's care over Israel's exodus is matched by His care over the Philistines and the Syrians — He is the God of all nations, who orders all migrations and judges all peoples by the same standard.

■ NAME NOTE — Caphtor (KAF-tor) — The original homeland of the Philistines, identified with Crete (or possibly Cyprus or the broader Aegean coast). The Philistines were sea-peoples who migrated to Canaan; Amos says here that the LORD Himself brought them — a startling claim that all the movements of all the nations are under His hand.

■ NAME NOTE — Kir (KEER) — The original homeland of the Syrians (Arameans); location uncertain, possibly east of the Tigris. Earlier in the book (1:5), Kir is also the destination of the Syrian exile. Amos's God is the God of every exodus, including those of Israel's enemies.

■ WORD NOTE — The tabernacle of David — The fallen royal house of David — his dynasty, his throne, his rule over the people of God. Amos's final word of hope: the LORD Himself will rebuild it. James quotes this verse at the Jerusalem Council in Acts 15:16–17 to prove from the OT that God always intended to call Gentiles ("the residue of men... and all the Gentiles, upon whom My name is called") into the people of God through the risen Son of David — Jesus Christ. The rebuilt tabernacle of David is the kingdom of the Messiah, into which Jews and Gentiles together are gathered.

Obadiah

Author: Obadiah, whose name means "servant of the LORD" or "worshipper of the LORD." Nothing certain is known about him personally. The name Obadiah appears twelve times in the Old Testament for various men, but none of them can be clearly identified with this prophet. His book and his name are all we have.

Date written: Two main views. (a) Around 845 BC, soon after the Edomite raid on Jerusalem during the reign of Jehoram (2 Chr 21:16–17); or (b) around 585 BC, soon after Edom's complicity in the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem (Ps 137:7; Lam 4:21–22). Either way, the book is addressed in the wake of Edom's gloating betrayal of Judah.

Written to: Edom — the descendants of Esau, Jacob's twin brother, who lived in the rocky highlands southeast of the Dead Sea (the region of Petra). By extension, the book is also written to comfort Judah.

Setting: Jerusalem has been violated by foreign invaders. Edom, instead of helping their brother nation, has stood on the heights mocking — even cutting off the escape routes of fleeing Jews. Obadiah pronounces God's judgment on Edom for their pride, their violence against their brother, and their gloating in Judah's day of disaster — while declaring that Israel's God will yet have the final word: "and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S."

Where this sits historically: Most likely written c. 586 BC, just after Nebuchadnezzar's Babylonian armies destroyed Jerusalem and Edom collaborated by hunting down fleeing Judeans.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was lamenting the fall of Jerusalem from within the ruined city, Ezekiel was already prophesying among the Babylonian exiles, and Daniel was serving in Nebuchadnezzar's court.

Big themes:

- Pride goes before destruction — Edom's mountain stronghold is no shield against God
- Kinship betrayed — the unique guilt of harming a brother
- God's judgment on the nations that harm His covenant people
- The indestructibility of God's purposes for Zion
- The eschatological day of the LORD — when the kingdoms of this world become the kingdom of our God

Key passages: Obadiah 1:3 (pride of heart); 1:10 (violence against thy brother Jacob); 1:15 (the day of the LORD); 1:17 (deliverance upon mount Zion); 1:21 (the kingdom shall be the LORD's)

How it fits: Obadiah is the shortest book in the Old Testament — only 21 verses. It is the OT's chief oracle against Edom and a primary text on the eschatological day of the LORD, when God will judge all nations and establish His kingdom. The final clause — "and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S" — anticipates the kingdom theme that runs through the rest of Scripture and reaches its consummation in Revelation 11:15.

Chapter 1

The LORD pronounces judgment against Edom for her pride and for her violence against her brother Jacob. Though she made her nest among the stars, she will be brought down. On the day Jerusalem fell, Edom stood by, rejoiced, looted, and cut off the fugitives. The day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen, and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

■ NAME NOTE — Mount Zion (ZY-on) — The Temple Mount in Jerusalem; in prophecy the seat of God's covenant kingdom; the dwelling place of the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE — Jacob (JAY-kub) — "supplanter" — Esau's twin; the father of the twelve tribes of Israel; renamed Israel by God (Gen 32:28). "The house of Jacob" = Israel.

- 18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it. The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau shall be stubble. They shall kindle in them and devour them, and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau. For the LORD has spoken it.

■ NAME NOTE — Joseph (JO-suff) — "may God add" — Jacob's eleventh son; sold into Egypt by his brothers; rose to be Pharaoh's second-in-command; saved his family in famine. "The house of Joseph" = the northern tribes (Ephraim and Manasseh).

- 19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. Those of the south shall possess the mount of Esau, and those of the plain shall possess the Philistines. They shall possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

■ WORD NOTE — the south — KJV consistently renders the Hebrew negeb as "the south" — a direction, not a transliterated place name. Modern translations often print "the Negev," but the KJV reading treats it as the southern region of Judah. The modern column preserves "the south."

- 20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south. The captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, as far as Zarephath. The captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

■ NAME NOTE — Sepharad (SEP-ah-rad) — Location uncertain — possibly Sardis in Asia Minor, or a region of Media; named here as the place of certain Israelite exiles.

- 21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's. And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

■ WORD NOTE — Saviours (SAYV-yurs) — KJV term for God-raised deliverers — leaders He uses to rescue His people and bring His justice. Modern translations often say "deliverers," but the KJV word points to the same Hebrew root from which we get the name Yeshua / Jesus. The final Saviour of mount Zion is Christ Himself, and through Him the kingdom belongs forever to the LORD.

Jonah

Author: Jonah son of Amittai — the same prophet named in 2 Kings 14:25 who prophesied during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (c. 793–753 BC). He was a native of Gath-hepher in Galilee, in the tribe of Zebulun.

Date written: 8th century BC. The events probably took place c. 780–760 BC, at the height of Assyria's cruelty against the surrounding nations.

Written to: A Hebrew audience. The book is a narrative about the prophet, not a sermon to Nineveh — Israel reads over Jonah's shoulder and sees its own heart.

Setting: The LORD commands Jonah to go to Nineveh — the capital of Assyria, the empire then threatening Israel — and cry against it for its wickedness. Jonah refuses. He boards a ship sailing the opposite direction, toward Tarshish (likely southern Spain — the far western edge of the known world). A great storm threatens the ship; Jonah confesses; the sailors throw him overboard at his own request; the LORD prepares a great fish to swallow him; Jonah prays from inside the fish's belly. After three days and three nights the fish vomits him onto dry land. The LORD's word comes a second time; this time Jonah obeys; the entire city of Nineveh repents in sackcloth and ashes; the LORD spares them. Jonah is furious. The book closes with God's gentle rebuke of His sulking prophet under a withered gourd.

Where this sits historically: The events fall c. 780–760 BC during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel and the Assyrian king Ashur-dan III, when Nineveh was the dominant metropolis of the ancient Near East.

Contemporaries: Elisha had recently died, Amos and Hosea would begin prophesying in the north within a generation, and Uzziah was reigning over Judah.

Big themes:

- The universal scope of God's mercy — reaching even to the worst of pagan empires
- The LORD's absolute sovereignty over the sea, the great fish, the gourd, the worm, and the east wind
- The resistance of the human heart to God's mercy toward those we hate
- Jonah as a type of Christ — three days and three nights in the fish picturing Christ's death and resurrection (Matt 12:39–40)
- The LORD's compassion on those who do not know their right hand from their left
- The failure of even a called prophet to share his Master's heart

Key passages: Jonah 1:1–3 (the call and the flight); 1:17 (the great fish); 2:9 ("Salvation is of the LORD"); 3:4–10 (the repentance of Nineveh); 4:2 (Jonah's complaint); 4:11 (the LORD's final question)

How it fits: Jonah is the most narratively unique of the Minor Prophets — a story about a prophet rather than a collection of his oracles. Jesus cites Jonah as a sign of His own death and resurrection (Matt 12:39–40; 16:4) and as a witness against the impenitent (Matt 12:41; Luke 11:32). The book is the OT's clearest picture of God's mercy reaching beyond Israel to the Gentiles — anticipating the gospel going to all nations. It is also the OT's most pointed exposure of the contradiction in the human heart when our preferences conflict with God's mercy.

Chapter 1

Jonah fled from the LORD's command to preach to Nineveh and boarded a ship to Tarshish. A great storm struck, the sailors cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. At his own word they threw him into the sea, and the storm ceased. The LORD prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and he was in its belly three days and three nights.

The LORD sent him to preach to Nineveh, the capital of Assyria — Israel's greatest enemy. His story is the OT's clearest single picture of God's mercy reaching to the Gentiles.

■ NAME NOTE — Amittai (uh-MIT-eye) — "truthful, faithful" — Jonah's father. Named only here and in 2 Kings 14:25.

■ NAME NOTE — Gath-hepher (GATH-HEE-fer) — Jonah's hometown (2 Kgs 14:25); a Galilean village in the tribe of Zebulun, a few miles north of Nazareth.

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their and cry against it; for their wickedness wickedness is come up before me. is come up before Me."

■ NAME NOTE — Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — Capital of the Assyrian Empire, on the east bank of the Tigris River (across from modern Mosul, Iraq). One of the largest cities of the ancient world — "an exceeding great city of three days' journey" (Jonah 3:3). The Assyrians were notorious for their cruelty in warfare.

■ NAME NOTE — Tarshish (TAR-shish) — A distant western port, almost certainly Tartessos in southern Spain. For a man fleeing an east-bound errand to Nineveh, Tarshish was "the ends of the earth" in the opposite direction.

■ NAME NOTE — Joppa (JOP-uh) — Ancient port on the Mediterranean coast (modern Jaffa, part of Tel Aviv); the natural harbor for any sea voyage out of Israel. Also where Peter received the vision of the great sheet (Acts 10).

| 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. They threw the cargo of the ship into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship; and He lay there fast asleep. |

- 8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou? Then they said to him, "Please tell us — on whose account has this trouble come on us? What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"
- 9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land. And He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."
- 10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. Then the men were greatly afraid and said to Him, "Why have You done this?" For the men knew that He was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because He had told them.
- 11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. Then they said to Him, "What shall we do to You, so that the sea may be calm for us?" — for the sea grew more and more stormy.
- 12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you. And He said to them, "Take me up and cast me into the sea, and the sea will be calm for You. For I know that this great storm is on You on my account."
- 13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them. Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring the ship back to land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them.
- 14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. Therefore they cried out to the LORD and said, "We beg You, O LORD, we beg You, do not let us perish for this man's life. Do not lay innocent blood on us, for You, O LORD, have done as it pleased You."

Chapter 2

From inside the belly of the great fish, Jonah prayed to the LORD. He cried out from the depths of the sea, and the LORD heard him. Jonah declared, "Salvation is of the LORD." The LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Out of the belly of hell I cried, and You heard my voice. |

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — The place of the dead and of God's judgment. KJV uses one word — "hell" — for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. Modern translations often substitute "Sheol," "the grave," or "the depths" — but the KJV preserves the single word "hell." Here Jonah is using it figuratively: from the depths of dying, as good as in the grave, he cried out and the LORD heard him.

All Your billows and Your waves passed over me. |

■ WORD NOTE — Corruption (kuh-RUP-shun) — Decay; the grave; the rotting that begins after death. KJV "brought up my life from corruption" means: You rescued me from the pit where my body would have rotted. Some modern translations say "the pit" — KJV keeps the stronger word.

■ WORD NOTE — Lying vanities (LYE-ing VAN-ih-teez) — KJV idiom for worthless idols. A "vanity" in KJV is something empty, hollow, with no real substance; "lying vanities" are the false gods that promise what they cannot deliver. Those who cling to them turn away from the only real Mercy there is.

Chapter 3

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: "Go to Nineveh." Jonah obeyed and preached, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The entire city believed God — from the king to the least of them — and put on sackcloth and fasted. God saw their repentance and relented from the disaster.

■ WORD NOTE — Sackcloth (SAK-kloth) — A coarse, rough cloth — usually of goat's hair — worn next to the skin as a sign of mourning, repentance, or grief. To put on sackcloth was to publicly humble oneself before God.

Chapter 4

Jonah was furious that the LORD spared Nineveh and admitted he fled precisely because he knew God was gracious and merciful, longsuffering and abundant in mercy. The LORD prepared a gourd for shade, then a worm to destroy it and a scorching east wind. He rebuked Jonah: "You pity the gourd — should I not pity Nineveh, with more than 120,000 persons who cannot tell their right hand from their left?"

- | | |
| 1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. | But it displeased Jonah greatly, and he was very angry. |
| 2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil. | And He prayed to the LORD and said, "I pray You, O LORD — was this not what I said when I was still in my own country? That is why I fled beforehand to Tarshish. For I knew that You are a gracious God, and merciful, longsuffering, and of great kindness, and One who repents of the evil. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suff-er-ing) — Patient with people who are difficult; slow to grow angry. KJV's distinctive rendering of the Hebrew "slow to anger." It pictures God bearing long with sinners — giving them time to repent, as He did with Nineveh. The same word describes God's patience with us (2 Pet 3:9).

- 5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city. So Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There He made Himself a booth and sat under it in the shade, until He might see what would become of the city.
- 6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd. And the LORD God prepared a gourd and made it grow up over Jonah, so that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver Him from His discomfort. So Jonah was very glad of the gourd.

■ WORD NOTE — Gourd (GORD) — A fast-growing leafy plant — probably the castor-oil plant or a kind of vine — with broad leaves that throw a wide shade. The point is not the species but that the LORD "prepared" it, just as He prepared the great fish, the worm, and the east wind. The whole book turns on what the LORD prepares.

- 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the root of the gourd that it withered. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it struck the gourd so that it withered.
- 8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live. And when the sun arose, God prepared a fierce east wind. The sun beat on the head of Jonah, so that he fainted. And he wished within himself to die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

■ WORD NOTE — East wind (EEST WIND) — In the geography of Israel, the east wind blew off the desert: hot, dry, and scorching — what we would call a sirocco. KJV calls it "vehement" — fierce, violent. It is the LORD's fourth and final "prepared" instrument in the book.

- 9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death. And God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry over the gourd?" And He said, "I do well to be angry, even to death."

- 10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: Then the LORD said, "You have had pity on the gourd, for which You did not labor, nor make it grow; which came up in a night and perished in a night.
- 11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle? And should I not spare Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand — and also much cattle?"

Micah

Author: Micah the Morasthite — his name means "who is like the LORD?" A contemporary of Isaiah, Micah came from Moresheth-gath in the Shephelah, the foothills of Judah southwest of Jerusalem. He was a country prophet rather than a court prophet — a man of the villages who knew the bite of corrupt judges, dishonest merchants, and grasping landowners firsthand.

Date written: c. 735–700 BC, during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah (1:1). His ministry spans the fall of the northern kingdom (722 BC) and the Assyrian invasion of Judah under Sennacherib (701 BC).

Written to: Both kingdoms — "Hear, all ye people" (1:2). The book addresses both Samaria, the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel, and Jerusalem, the capital of the southern kingdom of Judah.

Setting: Assyria is rising. The northern kingdom is in its final years and will fall to Sargon II in 722 BC. Judah is corrupt: princes who hate good and love evil, prophets who divine for money, priests who teach for hire, judges who take bribes, rich men full of violence, merchants with false balances, idolatry on the high places. Micah preaches judgment on both kingdoms — and then comfort: the LORD will gather a remnant; a ruler will come forth from Bethlehem Ephrathah whose goings forth are from everlasting; the mountain of the LORD's house will be established above the hills, and all nations shall flow to it.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 735–700 BC under Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah, through the Assyrian destruction of Samaria (722 BC) and Sennacherib's invasion of Judah (701 BC).

Contemporaries: Isaiah ministered in Jerusalem alongside Micah, while Hosea was still active in the dying northern kingdom and the Assyrian kings Tiglath-Pileser III, Shalmaneser V, Sargon II, and Sennacherib ruled in sequence.

Big themes:

- Judgment on the corrupt leaders of both Samaria and Jerusalem
- The social sins of injustice, oppression, false weights, and violence
- The future glory of the mountain of the LORD's house and the universal reign of peace
- The Messiah from Bethlehem whose origins are from everlasting (5:2)
- What the LORD requires (6:8 — do justly, love mercy, walk humbly)
- The LORD's incomparable mercy in pardoning iniquity and casting sins into the depths of the sea (7:18–20)
- The truth of God's covenant promises to Abraham and Jacob (7:20)

Key passages: Micah 4:1–3 (the mountain of the LORD's house); 5:2 (Bethlehem the birthplace of the Messiah); 6:6–8 (what doth the LORD require); 7:18–20 (Who is a God like unto thee).

How it fits: Micah is the Old Testament's clearest single prediction of the Messiah's birthplace — Bethlehem Ephrathah — quoted by the chief priests in Matthew 2:6 when Herod asked where the Christ should be born. Micah 6:8 — "do justly, love mercy, walk humbly with thy God" — is among the most quoted ethical passages in all of Scripture. With Isaiah, his contemporary, Micah is the major prophet of the 8th-century BC Assyrian crisis as it bore on Judah. He sees the storm coming, names the sins that brought it, and points past the storm to the Ruler from Bethlehem and to the God who delights in mercy.

Chapter 1

The LORD comes down from His holy temple to tread upon the high places of the earth. Samaria will be made a heap of rubble — her images beaten to pieces and her idols burned. The wound is incurable and reaches to the gate of Jerusalem itself. Micah mourns for the cities of Judah one by one.

■ NAME NOTE — Micah (MY-kuh) — "Who is like the LORD?" — A prophet from Moresheth-gath in the Shephelah of Judah, a contemporary of Isaiah. He prophesied during the 8th century BC, warning of judgment on both Israel and Judah while also foretelling the birth of the Messiah in Bethlehem. He is called "the Morasthite" — that is, the man from Moresheth.

■ NAME NOTE — Moresheth (MOR-eh-sheth) — Also called Moresheth-gath (1:14) — Micah's hometown, a small village in the Shephelah (the foothills of Judah) about twenty-five miles southwest of Jerusalem, near Gath and Lachish. Micah was a country prophet from a country town.

■ NAME NOTE — Samaria (suh-MAIR-ee-uh) — The capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel, built by King Omri on a hill he bought from Shemer (1 Kings 16:24). It stands here for the whole northern kingdom — the ten tribes — which fell to Assyria in 722 BC.

■ NAME NOTE — Jerusalem (juh-ROO-suh-lem) — "city of peace" — The capital of the southern kingdom of Judah, the city of David, the place of the temple. It stands here for the whole southern kingdom — Judah and Benjamin.

■ NAME NOTE — Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah — Three successive kings of Judah whose reigns span Micah's ministry (c. 750–686 BC). Jotham was a good king; Ahaz was wicked and brought idolatry into Jerusalem; Hezekiah was a great reformer whose prayer turned away the Assyrian invasion of 701 BC (2 Kings 18–20; Isaiah 36–39).

What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem? | Hear, all You peoples. Listen, O earth, and everything in it. Let the Lord GOD be a witness against you — the Lord from His holy temple. For the LORD comes forth out of His place. He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. The mountains will melt beneath Him, and the valleys will split apart — like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep slope. All this is for the transgression of Jacob and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? And what are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem? |

■ NAME NOTE — Jacob (JAY-kub) — "supplanter, heel-grabber" — The son of Isaac, grandson of Abraham. God renamed him Israel (Genesis 32:28). "Jacob" here stands for the whole covenant people descended from him — both kingdoms together.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Transgression is the open, deliberate stepping over of God's law — sin as rebellion, not just as mistake.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "transgression" is crossing the line, "iniquity" is the crooked, bent quality of a heart turned away from God.

I will pour down her stones into the valley, and I will lay bare her foundations. |

- 7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot. All her carved images will be beaten to pieces, and all her wages will be burned with fire. I will lay all her idols desolate, for she gathered them from the wages of a harlot, and to the wages of a harlot they will return.

■ WORD NOTE — Heathen (HEE-thun) — The nations outside Israel's covenant with God — the Gentiles in their idolatry and ignorance of the true God. KJV uses "heathen" throughout the prophets for these pagan peoples.

- 8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls. Therefore I will wail and howl. I will go stripped and naked. I will make a wailing like the dragons and a mourning like the owls.
- 9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. For her wound is incurable, and it has come even to Judah. It has reached the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.
- 10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust. Tell it not in Gath. Weep not at all. In the house of Aphrah, roll yourself in the dust.

■ NAME NOTE — Gath (GATH) — One of the five chief cities of the Philistines, the hometown of the giant Goliath. Micah's home village of Moresheth was nearby — "Moresheth-gath" means "Moresheth near Gath." "Tell it not in Gath" echoes David's lament for Saul (2 Samuel 1:20): do not let the enemies of God's people rejoice.

- 11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanen came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing. Pass on your way, you who live in Saphir, in shameful nakedness. The one who lives in Zaanen does not come out. The mourning of Beth-ezel will take from you its place to stand.
- 12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem. For the one who lives in Maroth waited anxiously for good — but evil came down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

- 13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. You who live in Lachish, harness the chariot to the swift horse. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in You.

■ NAME NOTE — Lachish (LAY-kish) — A major fortified city in the Shephelah of Judah, second only to Jerusalem in importance. Sennacherib of Assyria besieged and captured Lachish in 701 BC — a campaign he commemorated in carved reliefs in his palace at Nineveh. Micah says the sins of the northern kingdom had taken root here first.

- 14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel. Therefore You will give parting gifts to Moresheth-gath. The houses of Achzib will be a deception to the kings of Israel.
- 15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel. I will yet bring an heir to You, O inhabitant of Mareshah. The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

■ NAME NOTE — Adullam (uh-DUL-am) — A town in the Shephelah of Judah, famous for the cave where David hid from Saul and gathered his band of outcasts (1 Samuel 22:1). "The glory of Israel will come to Adullam" — that is, the leaders of the land will flee to caves and hiding places, as David once did.

- 16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee. Make Yourself bald and shave Your head for the children You delight in. Make Your baldness as wide as the eagle's, for they have gone from You into captivity.

Chapter 2

Woe to those who lie awake plotting wickedness and seize fields and houses by violence. The LORD plans disaster against this family of oppressors. False prophets tell the people what they want to hear, but the LORD will gather the remnant of Israel like sheep in a fold, and their king will pass through before them with the LORD at their head.

| 1 | Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand. | Woe to those who devise iniquity and plot evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they carry it out, because it is in the power of their hand. |
| 2 | And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. | They covet fields and seize them by violence. They covet houses and take them away. They oppress a man and his house, even a man and his inheritance. |
| 3 | Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am devising against this family an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil. | Therefore the LORD says: I am devising against this family a disaster from which You will not remove Your necks. You will not walk proudly, for this time is evil. |
| 4 | In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields. | In that day someone will take up a proverb against you and lament with a bitter lamentation, saying, "We are utterly ruined. He has changed the portion of my people. How He has taken it from me! He has turned away and divided our fields." |
| 5 | Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD. | Therefore You will have no one to cast a measuring line by lot in the congregation of the LORD. |

- 6 Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame. "Do not prophesy," they say to those who prophesy. They will not prophesy to them, so that disgrace will not overtake them.
- 7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly? O You who are called the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD restricted? Are these His doings? Do not My words do good to the one who walks uprightly?
- 8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war. Even lately My people have risen up as an enemy. You pull off the robe along with the garment from those who pass by securely, as men turning away from war.
- 9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever. You have cast out the women of My people from their pleasant houses. From their children You have taken away My glory forever.
- 10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction. Arise and depart, for this is not Your rest. Because it is defiled, it will destroy You with a grievous destruction.
- 11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people. If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies, saying, "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink" — he will be the prophet of this people.
- 12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. I will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob. I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like the sheep of Bozrah, like a flock in the middle of its fold. They will make a great noise because of the crowd of people.

■ WORD NOTE — The remnant (REM-nunt) — A key theological term in the Old Testament prophets. The "remnant" is the small faithful portion of God's people preserved through judgment — a believing minority left after the unfaithful many have fallen. Through the remnant God keeps His covenant promises alive. Paul applies the term to the saved among Israel in Romans 9–11.

- 13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.
- The One who breaks through has gone up before them. They have broken out, passed through the gate, and gone out by it. Their king will pass before them, and the LORD at their head.

Chapter 3

Micah rebukes the leaders of Israel who hate good and love evil, who tear the skin from the people and eat their flesh. The prophets lead the people astray — they cry "Peace" when they are fed, but declare war against those who give them nothing. Because of them, Zion will be plowed like a field and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble.

- 1 And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment?
- And I said, "Hear, I ask you, O heads of Jacob, and you princes of the house of Israel. Is it not for you to know justice?
- 2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;
- You who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin from off My people and the flesh from off their bones —

- 3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. who also eat the flesh of My people and strip their skin from them, who break their bones and chop them in pieces, like meat for the pot, like flesh within the cauldron."
- 4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. Then they will cry to the LORD, but He will not hear them. He will even hide His face from them at that time, because they have done evil in their deeds.
- 5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him: This is what the LORD says concerning the prophets who lead My people astray, who bite with their teeth and cry, "Peace" — but who prepare war against anyone who does not put food into their mouths:
- 6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Therefore it will be night to You, without a vision. It will be dark to You, without divination. The sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be dark over them.
- 7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners confounded. They will all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God.
- 8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin. But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.
- 9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity. Hear this, I ask you, you heads of the house of Jacob and princes of the house of Israel, who hate justice and pervert all that is right.

Chapter 4

In the last days the mountain of the LORD's house will be established above all mountains, and nations will flow to it. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and nation will not lift up sword against nation. Though Israel now goes into exile in Babylon, the LORD will redeem her there and gather her like sheaves to the threshing floor.

- 1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. But in the last days it will come to pass that the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established in the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills. And peoples will flow to it.
- 2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. Many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in His paths." For the law will go forth out of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
- 3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. He will judge among many peoples and rebuke strong nations far away. They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up a sword against nation, nor will they learn war any more.
- 4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. Every man will sit under his vine and under his fig tree, and no one will make them afraid, for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken it.
- 5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. For all peoples will walk, every one in the name of his god — but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.
- 6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted; In that day, says the LORD, I will assemble the lame. I will gather the one driven away, and the one I have afflicted.

- 13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion. For I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hooves bronze. You will beat in pieces many peoples, and I will consecrate their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

Chapter 5

Out of Bethlehem Ephratah — small among the clans of Judah — will come forth the ruler of Israel, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting. He will stand and shepherd His flock in the strength of the LORD. The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations like a lion among flocks of sheep, and the LORD will cut off all idols, witchcraft, and graven images.

- 1 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. Now gather Yourself in troops, O daughter of troops. He has laid siege against us. They will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek with a rod.

■ NAME NOTE — Bethlehem Ephratah (BETH-leh-hem EF-rah-tah) — Bethlehem means "house of bread"; Ephratah ("fruitful") is the older name of the district. Bethlehem was the hometown of David (1 Samuel 16:1) and the birthplace of Jesus Christ (Matthew 2:1, Luke 2:4). This verse is the Old Testament's single clearest prediction of the Messiah's birthplace — quoted by the chief priests to Herod in Matthew 2:6. "Whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting" testifies to the eternal pre-existence of the Christ.

When he treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight principal men. |

■ NAME NOTE — Assyria (uh-SEE-ree-uh) — The empire to the northeast of Israel, with its capital at Nineveh. In Micah's day Assyria was the rising power of the ancient world. It destroyed the northern kingdom (Samaria) in 722 BC and invaded Judah under Sennacherib in 701 BC. In this passage "the Assyrian" stands for every enemy of God's people that will be broken before the Messiah.

So He will deliver us from the Assyrian when He comes into our land and treads within our borders. The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass — which does not wait for man nor delay for the sons of men. |

■ WORD NOTE — Gentiles (JEN-tylez) — The nations outside Israel; the same peoples elsewhere called "heathen." "Gentile" comes from Latin and "heathen" from Old English, but both translate the same Hebrew word (goyim).

Chapter 6

The LORD brings His case against Israel before the mountains. He asks what He has done to weary them — He brought them out of Egypt, sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam before them. What does the LORD require? "To do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God." Yet the city is full of violence and deceit, and judgment will fall.

| 2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. | Hear, O mountains, the LORD's controversy — and You strong foundations of the earth. For the LORD has a controversy with His people, and He will plead with Israel. |
| 3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. | O My people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Testify against Me. |
| 4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. | For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of servants. I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. |
| 5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD. | O My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered Him — from Shittim to Gilgal — that You may know the righteousness of the LORD." |

■ NAME NOTE — Balak (BAY-lak) — King of Moab in the days of Moses; he hired the prophet Balaam to curse Israel as they camped on the plains of Moab before entering the Promised Land (Numbers 22–24). God turned every curse into a blessing.

■ NAME NOTE — Balaam (BAY-lum) — Son of Beor; a prophet from Pethor on the Euphrates whom Balak hired to curse Israel. Though he spoke true words from God when forced (Numbers 23–24), Balaam loved the wages of unrighteousness (2 Peter 2:15) and later led Israel into sin at Peor (Numbers 25, 31:16; Revelation 2:14).

■ NAME NOTE — Beor (BEE-or) — The father of Balaam.

■ NAME NOTE — Shittim (SHIT-tim) — Also called Abel-shittim; the last camp of Israel on the east side of the Jordan, on the plains of Moab opposite Jericho. It was here Balak and Balaam's plot unfolded and here Israel sinned with the daughters of Moab (Numbers 25).

■ NAME NOTE — Gilgal (GIL-gal) — The first camp of Israel west of the Jordan after they crossed on dry ground under Joshua. Here they were circumcised and kept the first Passover in the land (Joshua 4–5). "From Shittim to Gilgal" sums up Israel's miraculous entry into the Promised Land.

Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? |
| 7 | Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? | Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand rivers of oil? ■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. The Hebrew word here (chesed) is the great covenant word — God's faithful, loyal love to His people, which He commands them to show one another. KJV translates it "mercy" or "lovingkindness," never "steadfast love."

■ NAME NOTE — Omri (OM-ree) — King of the northern kingdom of Israel c. 885–874 BC; founder of the dynasty that included his son Ahab. Omri built Samaria as his capital (1 Kings 16:24) and "did worse than all that were before him" (1 Kings 16:25). His "statutes" were the corrupt patterns of idolatry and injustice he established.

■ NAME NOTE — Ahab (AY-hab) — Son of Omri; king of Israel c. 874–853 BC. He married Jezebel of Sidon, set up Baal worship in Samaria, and persecuted the prophets of the LORD (1 Kings 16–22). The "house of Ahab" stands for the most concentrated wickedness of the northern kingdom.

Chapter 7

Micah laments — the godly man has perished, every man hunts his brother with a net, and a man's enemies are the men of his own household. Yet "I will look to the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation." The LORD will shepherd His people again, the nations will see and be ashamed. Who is a God like the LORD — who pardons iniquity and casts all their sins into the depths of the sea?

For I am like one when they have gathered the summer fruits, like the grape gleanings of the vintage. There is no cluster to eat. My soul desired the firstripe fruit. |
| 2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net. | The good man has perished from the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood. Every man hunts his brother with a net. |
| 3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. | They do evil with both hands eagerly. The prince asks, and the judge asks for a bribe. The great man speaks out his evil desire, and so they weave it together. |

- 4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity. The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen — your visitation — comes. Now will be their confusion.
- 5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom. Do not trust in a friend. Do not put confidence in a guide. Keep the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.
- 6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. For the son dishonors the father. The daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies are the men of his own house.
- 7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me. Therefore I will look to the LORD. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.
- 8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me. Rejoice not against me, O my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.
- 9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness. I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against Him — until He pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light, and I will see His righteousness.
- 10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets. Then she who is my enemy will see it, and shame will cover her who said to me, "Where is the LORD Your God?" My eyes will see her. Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

■ NAME NOTE — Bashan (BAY-shun) — A rich pastoral region east of the Sea of Galilee, north of Gilead, famous for its fat cattle and oak forests (Psalm 22:12; Isaiah 2:13). Part of the inheritance of the half-tribe of Manasseh.

■ NAME NOTE — Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — The mountainous region east of the Jordan River, between Bashan to the north and Moab to the south. Settled by Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh; famed for its balm (Jeremiah 8:22).

■ NAME NOTE — Abraham (AY-bra-ham) — "father of a multitude" — The patriarch with whom God made the foundational covenant: "in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed" (Genesis 22:18). Micah closes the book by appealing to this oldest of God's promises — the mercy sworn to Abraham, kept across the generations, fulfilled at last in Christ (Galatians 3:16).

Nahum

Author: Nahum the Elkoshite (1:1). Nothing else is known of him personally — not his father's name, not his tribe, not the dates of his ministry. His name and his hometown are all that remain of the man himself.

Date written: Between 663 BC (when Thebes fell, mentioned as past in 3:8) and 612 BC (when Nineveh itself fell). Probably c. 650–620 BC.

Written to: Nineveh — the capital of the Assyrian Empire — and by extension to Judah, as comfort. The name "Nahum" means "comfort"; the whole book is the comfort that Assyria, the great oppressor, will fall.

Setting: A century before Nahum, the prophet Jonah had been sent to Nineveh, and the city had repented. By Nahum's day, Assyria had returned to its ferocious cruelty — sacking Israel (722 BC), besieging Jerusalem (701 BC), and ruling the ancient Near East with terror. Nahum prophesies the imminent and total destruction of Nineveh. His prophecy was fulfilled with stunning precision in 612 BC when a coalition of Medes, Babylonians, and Scythians sacked Nineveh so thoroughly that the city was lost to history until rediscovered in the 1840s.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 650–620 BC under the reigns of Manasseh and Josiah of Judah, after Assyria's sack of Thebes in 663 BC but before the coalition of Medes and Babylonians destroyed Nineveh in 612 BC.

Contemporaries: Zephaniah was preaching in Jerusalem in the same window, while Jeremiah was just beginning his ministry and the young king Josiah was preparing the reforms of 622 BC.

Big themes:

- The LORD is slow to anger but great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked (1:3)
- Divine judgment falls on nations that exalt themselves in cruelty
- The LORD is a stronghold in the day of trouble for those who trust Him (1:7)
- God's vengeance is real, righteous, and certain
- The eventual ruin of every oppressor — the comfort of the oppressed in God's certain justice

Key passages: Nahum 1:3 (slow to anger, great in power); 1:7 (the LORD is good, a stronghold); 1:15 (the feet of him that bringeth good tidings — quoted in Rom 10:15); 3:1 (woe to the bloody city).

How it fits: Nahum is the OT's chief oracle against Assyria. With Jonah (also addressed to Nineveh), it forms a two-book commentary on God's patience and God's wrath: Jonah preaches that God will spare a repentant Nineveh; Nahum, a century later, preaches that God will destroy an impenitent Nineveh. The doxological opening (1:2–8) is one of the OT's strongest celebrations of God's avenging holiness. Nahum 1:15's "feet of him that bringeth good tidings" is taken up by Paul in Romans 10:15 and applied to gospel preachers.

Chapter 1

The LORD is a jealous God who avenges and is furious — He will not acquit the wicked. He is longsuffering, but His way is in the whirlwind and the storm. He is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble, and He knows those who trust in Him. Nineveh's destruction is decreed — the LORD will make an utter end of her.

- 1

The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

A prophecy concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

■ NAME NOTE — Nahum (NAY-hum) — "comfort, consolation" — The Hebrew prophet who wrote this book; his very name proclaims the book's message: Assyria's fall is the comfort of God's oppressed people.

■ NAME NOTE — Elkoshite (EL-kosh-ite) — From Elkosh, an unknown town (possibly in southern Judah, possibly in Galilee; some traditions place it in Assyria itself among the Israelite exiles).

■ NAME NOTE — Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — Ancient capital of the Assyrian Empire on the east bank of the Tigris River (across from modern Mosul, Iraq); founded by Nimrod (Gen 10:11); the target of Jonah's preaching and now of Nahum's prophecy.

God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

God is jealous, and the LORD takes vengeance. The LORD takes vengeance and is filled with fury. The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries, and He reserves wrath for His enemies.
- 3

The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked. The LORD has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.

He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; He dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languishes.

■ NAME NOTE — Bashan, Carmel, Lebanon — Three famously fertile regions of the Levant; the LORD's anger withers them. Bashan is the rich pastureland east of the Sea of Galilee; Carmel is the fruitful mountain ridge by the Mediterranean; Lebanon is the famous land of the great cedars.

| 10 | For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry. | For while they are tangled together like thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they will be devoured like stubble fully dry. |
| 11 | There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor. | One has come out from You who plots evil against the LORD — a wicked counselor of Belial. |

■ NAME NOTE — Belial (BEE-lee-al) — Hebrew for "worthlessness" or "wickedness" personified; in some passages a title for the devil; here, the wicked counselor coming out of Nineveh.

Chapter 2

The destroyer advances against Nineveh — chariots race through the streets like lightning, the gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace dissolves. The city that was once the den of lions is plundered and emptied. The LORD of hosts declares He is against her, and her chariots will burn in the smoke.

| 1 | He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. | He who dashes in pieces has come up against your face. Guard the fortress, watch the road, brace Your loins, fortify Your power mightily. |
| 2 | For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches. | For the LORD will restore the excellency of Jacob as the excellency of Israel — for the emptiers have emptied them out and marred their vine branches. |
| 3 | The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken. | The shield of His mighty men is made red; the valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots are with flaming torches in the day of His preparation, and the fir spears are terribly shaken. |

Woe to the bloody city of Nineveh — full of lies, robbery, and endless prey. The crack of whips, the rumble of wheels, the flash of swords fill the streets. She was the mistress of witchcrafts who sold nations through her whoredoms. No fortress will save her, no army will deliver her — all who hear the news of her fall will clap their hands, for who has not felt her endless cruelty?

■ NAME NOTE — No / populous No (NO) — The KJV name for Thebes, the ancient capital of Upper Egypt, on the Nile. Famously well-defended by water and walls, it was nevertheless sacked by the Assyrians themselves in 663 BC — the event Nahum cites as an "if it happened to Thebes, it can happen to you" warning to Nineveh.

Habakkuk

Author: Habakkuk the prophet — he names himself in 1:1 and 3:1. He was very likely a Levitical temple musician, given the musical and liturgical features of chapter 3 ("Shigionoth," "Selah," and the closing dedication "To the chief singer on my stringed instruments").

Date written: c. 612–605 BC — after Assyria's fall and the destruction of Nineveh (612 BC), with Babylon (the Chaldeans) rising rapidly, but before Nebuchadnezzar's first invasion of Judah in 605 BC.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem — though the book is structured as a dialogue between the prophet and the LORD rather than as a sermon to the people.

Setting: Habakkuk is wrestling with God. He sees the wickedness of Judah — injustice, violence, perverted law, the wicked surrounding the righteous — and asks God how long this will go on. God answers: "Look — I am raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation, to punish you." Habakkuk is more troubled, not less. How can a holy God use a more wicked nation to punish a less wicked one? God answers again: the wicked will not endure; the just shall live by his faith; the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD. The book ends with the prophet's confession of trust — even when the fig tree does not blossom, even when the flock is cut off, "yet will I rejoice in the LORD."

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 612–605 BC under Jehoiakim of Judah, after Nineveh's fall (612 BC) and just before Nebuchadnezzar's first deportation of Judeans to Babylon (605 BC).

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was preaching the same coming Babylonian judgment in Jerusalem, Daniel was about to be deported to Nebuchadnezzar's court, and Zephaniah's recent oracles still echoed in Judah.

Big themes:

- The problem of evil and divine silence — how long will God let wickedness go on?
- God's sovereign use of pagan nations as instruments of judgment
- The certainty of God's holy character even when His ways are mysterious
- The just shall live by his faith — the cornerstone verse of the Reformation
- Woe to the proud and violent — five woes pronounced over the Chaldeans
- The LORD is in His holy temple — silence the only proper response
- Rejoicing in God even when every visible blessing fails

Key passages: Habakkuk 1:2–4 (the prophet's complaint); 1:13 (a holy God who cannot look on iniquity); 2:4 ("the just shall live by his faith"); 2:14 (the earth filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD); 2:20 (let all the earth keep silence); 3:17–19 (the great confession of faith).

How it fits: Habakkuk's "the just shall live by his faith" (2:4) is quoted three times in the New Testament — Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, and Hebrews 10:38 — and it is the verse whose meaning, when grasped by Martin Luther, sparked the Protestant Reformation. It is the Old Testament's clearest single statement of justification by faith. The closing confession (3:17–19) is among the most beloved expressions of faith in trial in all of Scripture.

Chapter 1

Habakkuk cries out to the LORD: "How long shall I cry, and You will not hear?" Violence and wickedness surround him. The LORD answers: He is raising up the Chaldeans — a bitter and swift nation — to execute judgment. Habakkuk is astonished: How can a holy God use a nation more wicked than Judah to punish them?

| 1 | The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see. | The burden that Habakkuk the prophet saw. |
|---|---|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Habakkuk (huh-BAK-uk) — "embrace" or "wrestler" — A prophet of Judah, very likely a Levitical temple musician, who wrestled with God in dialogue about evil and divine justice. His name is fitting: he embraces God and wrestles with Him at the same time.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 2 | O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save! | O LORD, how long shall I cry, and You will not hear? I cry out to You of violence, and You will not save. |
| 3 | Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention. | Why do You show me iniquity, and make me look on grievance? Plundering and violence are before me, and there are those who stir up strife and contention. |
| 4 | Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth. | Therefore the law is slack, and judgment never goes forth. The wicked surround the righteous, so wrong judgment proceeds. |
| 5 | Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you. | Look among the heathen, and consider, and be greatly amazed. For I will work a work in your days that you would not believe, even if it were told you. |

- 6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs. I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, who march through the breadth of the land to possess dwellings that are not theirs.

■ NAME NOTE — Chaldeans (kal-DEE-uns) — The Semitic people whose royal house dominated the neo-Babylonian Empire under Nabopolassar and his son Nebuchadnezzar. KJV consistently uses "Chaldeans" — never "Babylonians." They would invade Judah in 605, 597, and 586 BC, finally destroying Jerusalem and the temple.

- 7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves. They are terrible and dreadful. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.
- 8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat. Their horses are swifter than leopards and fiercer than evening wolves. Their horsemen spread themselves, and their horsemen come from far away. They fly like an eagle that hurries to eat.
- 9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand. They all come for violence. Their faces are set like the east wind, and they gather captives like sand.
- 10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it. They scoff at kings, and princes are a scorn to them. They mock every stronghold, for they heap up dust and take it.
- 11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god. Then his mind changes, and he passes over and offends, crediting his power to his god.

We shall not die. O LORD, You have ordained them for judgment, and, O mighty God, You have established them for correction. You are of purer eyes than to look on evil, and You cannot look on iniquity. Why then do You look on those who deal treacherously, and hold Your tongue when the wicked devours the man more righteous than he? You make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things that have no ruler over them. They take all of them up with the hook. Chapter 2

Habakkuk stands on his watchtower to wait for the LORD's answer. The LORD replies: "Write the vision and make it plain — the just shall live by his faith." Five woes follow against the arrogant conqueror — for plundering nations, building by bloodshed, filling the earth with violence, shaming his neighbor, and trusting in idols. "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."

1	I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.	I will stand on my watch and station myself on the tower. I will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.
2	And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.	The LORD answered me and said, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, so that He who reads it may run.
3	For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.	For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie. Though it waits, wait for it, because it will surely come; it will not delay.
4	Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.	His soul that is lifted up is not upright in Him, but the just shall live by His faith.
5	Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:	Also, because He transgresses by wine, He is a proud man, and He does not stay at home. He enlarges His desire as hell, and is like death, and cannot be satisfied. He gathers all nations to Himself and heaps to Himself all peoples.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HELL) — The place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant; the abode of the dead. KJV uses one word for what the Hebrew Sheol and Greek Hades/Gehenna name; modern translations sometimes weaken this to "the grave." Here in 2:5 the proud man's appetite is "enlarged as hell" — a bottomless hunger that swallows all and is never satisfied.

- 17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein. The violence done to Lebanon shall cover You, and the destruction of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city, and to all who live in it.

Chapter 3

Habakkuk prays in awe, remembering the LORD's mighty works — His glory covers the heavens, pestilence goes before Him, and He marches through the earth in indignation. Though the fig tree does not blossom, the vines fail, and the fields yield no food, yet Habakkuk will rejoice in the LORD and joy in the God of his salvation.

A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.
- A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

■ WORD NOTE — Shigionoth (shig-ee-OH-noth) — A musical or liturgical term in Hebrew; its precise meaning is uncertain. It appears in the title of Psalm 7 (in the singular, Shiggaion) and here in the plural. It likely indicates a passionate, irregular, or wandering style of song — fitting for the wild lyric that follows. Like Selah, it is preserved untranslated.

- 2

O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.
- O LORD, I have heard Your speech, and I was afraid. O LORD, revive
Your work in the midst of the years; in the midst of the years make it known.
In wrath remember mercy.

- God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of His praise.

■ WORD NOTE — Selah (SEH-lah) — A musical or liturgical interjection in Hebrew poetry; its meaning is uncertain — possibly "pause," "lift up," or a directive to the temple musicians to play an interlude. It appears throughout the Psalms and three times in this chapter (3:3, 3:9, 3:13). It is preserved untranslated as a feature of the original Hebrew text.

■ NAME NOTE — Teman (TEE-man) — A region of Edom, south of Judah; named for a grandson of Esau (Genesis 36:11). Often paired in Scripture with the wilderness setting of Israel's early encounters with God.

■ NAME NOTE — Paran (PAY-ran) — A mountainous region in the southern Sinai, associated with the giving of the law (Deuteronomy 33:2) and Israel's wilderness wanderings. Habakkuk pictures God advancing from the south, as at Sinai.

- I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.

■ NAME NOTE — Cushan (KOO-shan) — Likely a tribe of Midian or a region near it; otherwise obscure. Paired here with Midian as a southern people that trembled before the LORD's advance.

■ NAME NOTE — Midian (MID-ee-un) — A nomadic people descended from Abraham through Keturah (Genesis 25:1–2); recalled here for their defeat under Gideon (Judges 7), when the LORD threw their camp into terror.

- 8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation? Was the LORD displeased with the rivers? Was Your anger against the rivers? Was Your wrath against the sea, that You rode on Your horses and Your chariots of salvation?
- 9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers. Your bow was made quite bare, according to the oaths of the tribes, even Your word. Selah. You split the earth with rivers.
- 10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high. The mountains saw You and trembled. The overflowing of the water passed by. The deep uttered its voice, and lifted up its hands on high.
- 11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear. The sun and moon stood still in their habitation. At the light of Your arrows they went, and at the shining of Your glittering spear.
- 12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger. You marched through the land in indignation. You threshed the heathen in anger.
- 13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah. You went forth for the salvation of Your people, for salvation with Your anointed. You wounded the head of the house of the wicked, uncovering the foundation up to the neck. Selah.
- 14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. You struck through with his own staves the head of his villages. They came out like a whirlwind to scatter me. Their rejoicing was as if to devour the poor secretly.
- 15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters. You walked through the sea with Your horses, through the heap of great waters.

Zephaniah

Author: Zephaniah — whose name means "the LORD hides" or "the LORD has hidden." He names himself in 1:1 as the son of Cushi, the great-great-grandson of Hizkiah (Hezekiah) the godly king of Judah. This gives Zephaniah the most distinguished pedigree of any of the writing prophets — he is of royal blood, kin to the kings of Judah.

Date written: c. 640–625 BC, during the reign of Josiah (640–609 BC), king of Judah. The book most likely belongs to the early years of Josiah's reign, before the great reform of 622 BC, since it still describes idolatry rampant in Jerusalem — Baal worship, Malcham, the host of heaven, and the Chemarim priests still serving openly.

Written to: Judah and Jerusalem in the early years of Josiah's reign, with oracles also pronounced against the surrounding nations — Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia, and Assyria.

Setting: Judah had spent most of the previous century in deep apostasy under Manasseh and Amon. The young king Josiah was now on the throne. Reform was coming, but it had not yet come. Into this moment Zephaniah preached the great day of the LORD — a day of darkness and thick darkness, a day near and hastening greatly — first against Judah, then against the nations, and finally against all the earth. Yet beyond the judgment lies the surprising final note: a humble remnant gathered to call upon the LORD with one consent, and a singing King in the midst of His people.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 640–625 BC during the early years of Josiah's reign, while Assyria was tottering and Nabopolassar of Babylon was beginning to challenge it for empire.

Contemporaries: Jeremiah was beginning his ministry, Nahum was announcing Nineveh's doom, and the boy-king Josiah was preparing the great reform that would follow the rediscovery of the law in 622 BC.

Big themes:

- The great day of the LORD — dark, near, hastening — a day of wrath, trouble, darkness, and the trumpet
- The universal scope of God's judgment — Judah, the nations, and the whole earth all fall under the same day
- The call to seek the LORD, seek righteousness, seek meekness while the door is still open (2:3)
- The gathering of a poor and humble remnant who trust in the name of the LORD
- The King in the midst of His people — rejoicing over them with joy, resting in His love, rejoicing over them with singing (3:17)
- The conversion of the nations to a pure language calling upon the name of the LORD with one consent (3:9)

Key passages: Zephaniah 1:14–18 (the great day of the LORD); 2:3 (seek the LORD, seek meekness); 3:9 (a pure language); 3:14–17 (the singing King in the midst of His people)

How it fits: Zephaniah is the OT's clearest single oracle on the day of the LORD as a global, cosmic, eschatological day. The book moves in three movements: universal judgment falling first on Judah (ch. 1), then on the surrounding nations (ch. 2), then the final note — a singing King in the midst of a saved and rejoicing remnant (3:14–17). The image of the LORD rejoicing over His own people "with singing" is one of the most stunning portraits of God's affection for His people in all of Scripture. The book that opens with utter desolation closes with the heart of God making music over His redeemed.

Chapter 1

The LORD will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the land — man and beast, birds and fish, the stumbling blocks with the wicked. He will stretch out His hand against Judah and Jerusalem and cut off every remnant of Baal worship. The great day of the LORD is near — a day of wrath, distress, darkness, and alarm. Neither silver nor gold will deliver them.

■ NAME NOTE — Zephaniah (zef-uh-NY-uh) — "the LORD hides / has hidden" — A prophet of Judah, great-great-grandson of Hizkiah (Hezekiah); of royal lineage, and the most distinguished pedigree of any writing prophet.

■ NAME NOTE — Cushi (KOO-shy) — The father of Zephaniah the prophet. (Not to be confused with the messenger of 2 Samuel 18.)

■ NAME NOTE — Hizkiah (hiz-KY-uh) — KJV variant of Hezekiah; the godly king of Judah (715–686 BC) who trusted the LORD against the Assyrian invasion (2 Kgs 18–19; Isa 36–37); Zephaniah's royal ancestor.

■ NAME NOTE — Josiah (jo-SY-uh) — "the LORD supports" — King of Judah 640–609 BC; ascended the throne at age 8; led the last great reform of Judah's history after the high-priest Hilkiah found the book of the law in the temple (2 Kgs 22–23).

■ NAME NOTE — Amon (AY-mon) — King of Judah 642–640 BC; son of the wicked Manasseh and father of the godly Josiah; assassinated by his own servants after a brief reign of two years (2 Kgs 21:18–26).

■ NAME NOTE — Baal (BAY-al) — "lord, master" — The chief god of the Canaanites; a storm-and-fertility deity whose worship plagued Israel and Judah for centuries. The most persistent rival to the worship of the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE — Chemarims (KEM-ah-rims) — KJV term for the idolatrous black-robed priests of the high places; servants of false gods in Judah. The word appears again at 2 Kings 23:5 and Hosea 10:5.

■ WORD NOTE — Chemarims (KEM-ah-rims) — The KJV's word for the idolatrous priests of Judah's high places. They were the official priests of Baal and the false gods — black-robed servants of the very religions the LORD had commanded Israel to tear down. Josiah would later put them out of office (2 Kgs 23:5).

■ NAME NOTE — Malcham (MAL-kam) — KJV form of Milcom / Molech; the chief god of the Ammonites, worshiped with child sacrifice (1 Kgs 11:5; 2 Kgs 23:10). The double-worship described here — swearing by the LORD and by Malcham — is the very split-heart idolatry the prophets condemned.

■ WORD NOTE — Malcham — KJV form of Milcom, also called Molech in other passages. The Ammonite god to whom children were burned in the fire — the most savage idolatry of the surrounding nations. Solomon first brought this worship into Jerusalem (1 Kgs 11:5–7), and it festered there for centuries until Josiah destroyed it (2 Kgs 23:10).

The LORD has prepared a sacrifice; He has invited His guests. |

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great theme of the prophets, and the central theme of Zephaniah. It is a day fixed by God — a day of His direct action — when He breaks into history to judge sin, vindicate His people, and establish His kingdom. The day has near fulfillments (the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC, the fall of Nineveh in 612 BC) and a final, cosmic fulfillment yet to come. Zephaniah is the OT's clearest single oracle on this day.

Chapter 2

The LORD calls on the humble of the land to seek righteousness and meekness before the day of His anger. He pronounces judgment against the nations: Philistia will be destroyed, Moab and Ammon judged like Sodom and Gomorrah, Ethiopia will fall by the sword, and Assyria will be made desolate — Nineveh a dwelling for wild beasts.

- 1 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired; Gather yourselves together; gather together, O nation not desired,
- 2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you. before the decree brings forth, before the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon You, before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon You.

Chapter 3

Woe to Jerusalem — the oppressing city that does not obey the LORD. Her princes are roaring lions, her judges are evening wolves, her prophets are treacherous, her priests have profaned the sanctuary. Yet after judgment, the LORD will turn to the peoples a pure language. He will take away the proud and leave a meek and humble remnant. "The LORD your God in your midst is mighty; He will save, He will rejoice over you with joy, He will rest in His love, He will joy over you with singing."

■ WORD NOTE — One consent — KJV idiom meaning "with one shoulder" — like men shouldering the same yoke together. Haggai

Author: Haggai the prophet — his name means "festal" or "my feast." He is a post-exilic prophet contemporary with Zechariah; the book is structured around four dated messages he delivered in 520 BC.

Date written: 520 BC — the second year of Darius I of Persia. The book gives precise dates for each of the four messages: Aug 29, Oct 17, Dec 18, and again Dec 18 of that year.

Written to: The returned Jewish exiles in Jerusalem and Judah — especially their civil leader Zerubbabel (the governor) and their religious leader Joshua (the high priest).

Setting: About 16 years before Haggai prophesied, a first wave of Jewish exiles had returned from Babylon under Zerubbabel (538 BC) and begun rebuilding the temple. After laying the foundation, they had stopped — discouraged by opposition, distracted by their own homes, and content to leave God's house in ruins. By 520 BC, drought and economic hardship had set in. Haggai delivers four messages calling the people to "Consider your ways" — to see that their poverty is divine discipline for neglecting God's house — and to rise up and build. Within 23 days the work resumes; within four years the second temple is complete.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied in 520 BC under Darius I of Persia, eighteen years after Cyrus's decree had freed the exiles and only a few decades after the Persians had conquered Babylon.

Contemporaries: Zechariah began prophesying two months after Haggai, while Zerubbabel served as governor of Judah and Joshua as high priest; Ezra and Nehemiah would arrive in Jerusalem in the following generations.

Big themes:

- Covenant priorities — build God's house before paneling your own; what you put first reveals what you truly worship
- Divine providence — "I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come"
- The greater glory of the latter temple — fulfilled when Christ Himself walked into it
- Zerubbabel as God's chosen signet — the Messianic line preserved through the post-exilic governor of Judah
- The LORD of hosts — the One who stirs the spirit of leaders and people alike to do His work

Key passages: Hag 1:5–7 ("Consider your ways"); 2:6–9 (the desire of all nations and the glory of the latter house); 2:23 (Zerubbabel as signet).

How it fits: Haggai is one of three post-exilic prophets (with Zechariah and Malachi). Together, these three close the OT canon. Haggai is the shortest and most focused — four messages, one purpose: rebuild the temple. The Messianic note in 2:7 ("the desire of all nations") is quoted in Hebrews 12:26–27 as pointing forward to Christ. Zerubbabel appears in the genealogies of Matthew 1:12 and Luke 3:27, preserving the Davidic line through which the Christ would come.

Chapter 1

The returned exiles have built their own paneled houses while the LORD's house lies in ruins. Because of this, the LORD has withheld rain and blessing — they sow much but harvest little. Haggai calls them to go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. Zerubbabel, Joshua, and all the remnant obeyed, and the LORD stirred their spirit to begin the work.

■ NAME NOTE — Haggai (HAG-eye or HAG-ay-eye) — "festal, festive" — A post-exilic prophet of c. 520 BC; otherwise unknown personally. His four dated messages make up this book.

■ NAME NOTE — Darius (duh-RY-us) — Darius I "the Great," king of Persia 522–486 BC; the same Darius who appears in Ezra 5–6 and Daniel 6 (though Darius the Mede in Dan 6 is debated as a different ruler).

■ NAME NOTE — Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-uh-bul) — "seed of Babylon" or "born in Babylon" — Davidic-line governor of post-exilic Judah; led the first wave of returnees from Babylon (Ezra 2:2); rebuilt the foundation of the second temple; God's chosen signet (Hag 2:23); ancestor of Christ (Matt 1:12).

■ NAME NOTE — Shealtiel (sheh-AL-tee-el) — "I have asked of God" — Father of Zerubbabel; son of Jeconiah the captive king (Matt 1:12).

■ NAME NOTE — Joshua (JOSH-yoo-uh) — "the LORD saves" — The high priest of the post-exilic restoration (also called "Jeshua" in Ezra-Nehemiah). Featured prominently in the visions of Zechariah 3.

■ NAME NOTE — Josedech (JOS-eh-dek) — KJV "Josedech" (in Ezra-Nehemiah spelled "Jozadak"); the father of Joshua the high priest; carried into Babylon when Jerusalem fell (1 Chr 6:14–15).

Chapter 2

The LORD encourages the builders: though this temple seems as nothing compared to Solomon's, "The desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory." The glory of this latter house will be greater than the former. The LORD promises that from this day He will bless them, and He declares Zerubbabel His chosen servant — "I will make you as a signet ring, for I have chosen you."

Zechariah

Author: Zechariah ("the LORD remembers") the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet (1:1). A post-exilic prophet and almost certainly a priest as well — Iddo is listed among the priests who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel (Neh 12:4, 16). Zechariah is a contemporary of Haggai and a younger man; his ministry begins two months after Haggai's, and he is described in 2:4 as a "young man."

Date written: c. 520–480 BC. The eight night visions of chapters 1–6 are precisely dated to the second year of Darius the Persian (520 BC). The oracles of chapters 7–8 are dated to the fourth year of Darius (518 BC). Chapters 9–14 are undated and were likely composed several decades later, after the temple was complete and the post-exilic community had matured.

Written to: The returned Jewish exiles in Jerusalem and Judah — especially the two leaders of the restoration, Zerubbabel the governor and Joshua the high priest. Through them, the book speaks to the whole post-exilic remnant, and to the church in every age.

Setting: The same setting as Haggai. The temple foundation has been laid; the work has stalled for sixteen years; Haggai has just begun preaching the people back to work. Two months into Haggai's ministry, Zechariah begins his own. Where Haggai preaches with the urgency of a foreman, Zechariah preaches with the imagery of an apocalyptic seer — eight night visions in a single night (chs. 1–6), then two years of oracles on fasting and the future glory of Zion (chs. 7–8), then late in life, twin oracles of the coming King and the coming Day (chs. 9–14). Zechariah is the most extensively Messianic prophet of the OT after Isaiah.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied from 520 BC into the early decades of the fifth century under Darius I and possibly into the reign of Xerxes I, as the second temple was completed in 516 BC and the Persian empire stretched from Egypt to India.

Contemporaries: Haggai was prophesying alongside him in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel and Joshua led the post-exilic community, and across the empire Daniel had only recently died and Esther's generation was rising.

Big themes:

- God's jealous love for Zion — "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy" (1:14)
- The cleansing of the high priest as a type of justification — filthy garments removed, fine garments given, iniquity taken away (ch. 3)
- The BRANCH — the Messiah who is both King and Priest, who builds the temple of the LORD (3:8; 6:12–13)
- "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts" (4:6)
- The King coming to Zion lowly, riding on an ass (9:9)
- The betrayal of the Shepherd for thirty pieces of silver, thrown to the potter (11:12–13)
- The mourning over Him whom they have pierced (12:10)

- The smitten Shepherd and the scattered sheep (13:7)
- The Day of the LORD when His feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives (14:4)
- The universal reign of the LORD as King over all the earth (14:9)

Key passages: Zech 1:14–17; 3:8–10; 4:6; 6:12–13; 9:9; 11:12–13; 12:10; 13:1; 13:7; 14:4–9

How it fits: Zechariah is the most Messianic of the Minor Prophets and one of the most Messianic books in the entire OT. It is quoted or alluded to repeatedly in the Passion narratives — the King on a donkey (Matt 21:5; John 12:15), the thirty pieces of silver (Matt 27:9), the potter's field (Matt 27:9–10), the pierced One (John 19:37; Rev 1:7), the smitten Shepherd and scattered sheep (Matt 26:31). It is quoted heavily in the book of Revelation — the four horsemen, the two olive trees, the riders on the horses. Together with Daniel, Zechariah provides the OT framework for NT apocalyptic. The closing chapter (14) is the OT's clearest single picture of the second coming of Christ to the Mount of Olives.

Chapter 1

The LORD calls the people to return to Him, not to be like their fathers who ignored the prophets. Zechariah sees a vision of a man riding a red horse among the myrtle trees — the horsemen report that all the earth sits still and is at rest. The LORD declares He is sore displeased with the nations at ease and will return to Jerusalem with mercies; His house will be rebuilt.

■ NAME NOTE — Zechariah (zek-ah-RYE-ah) — "the LORD remembers" — A post-exilic prophet and priest who ministered alongside Haggai in Jerusalem beginning in 520 BC, in the second year of Darius the Persian. His name itself is the theme of his book: God remembers His covenant, His city, and His promise of Messiah.

■ NAME NOTE — Berechiah (ber-eh-KYE-ah) — "the LORD blesses" — The father of Zechariah, named here to identify the prophet. Christ refers to him in Matt 23:35.

■ NAME NOTE — Iddo (ID-doh) — "timely" or "His witness" — Zechariah's grandfather; one of the priests who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel (Neh 12:4, 16). This places Zechariah in a priestly line as well as a prophetic one.

■ WORD NOTE — LORD of hosts — A title that appears more than 50 times in Zechariah. "Hosts" means "armies" — the heavenly armies of angels and the starry hosts of the sky. The LORD of hosts is God as Commander of all heaven's forces and Ruler of all that He has made. Modern translations that render this "LORD Almighty" lose the military imagery; this version keeps the KJV form throughout.

- 8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. I saw in the night a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the valley. Behind Him were red horses, speckled horses, and white horses.
- 9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. Then I said, "My lord, what are these?" The angel who talked with me said, "I will show you what these are."
- 10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to go back and forth through the earth."
- 11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest. And they answered the angel of the LORD Who stood among the myrtle trees, saying, "We have gone back and forth through the earth, and all the earth sits still and is at rest."

■ WORD NOTE — The angel of the LORD — A figure who appears throughout the OT, often speaking and acting as God Himself yet distinguished from the Father. He receives worship that no created angel would receive (Josh 5:14), forgives sin (Ex 23:21), and identifies Himself as God (Ex 3:2–6). Christian tradition has long understood the angel of the LORD to be a pre-incarnate appearance of the Son of God — Christ before His birth in Bethlehem. He appears again and again in Zechariah, both interpreting visions and standing among His people.

- 12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years? Then the angel of the LORD answered, "O LORD of hosts, how long will You not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which You have had indignation these seventy years?"
- 13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words. And the LORD answered the angel who talked with me with good and comforting words.

- 14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. So the angel who spoke with me said to me, "Cry out, saying, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.'
- 15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. And I am greatly displeased with the heathen who are at ease. For I was only a little displeased, and they made the affliction worse.
- 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. Therefore this is what the LORD says: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. My house shall be built in it, says the LORD of hosts, and a measuring line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.'
- 17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem. Cry out again, saying, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: My cities shall yet overflow with prosperity. The LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.'
- 18 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns. Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and there were four horns.
- 19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" He answered me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."
- 20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters. And the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

- 21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it. Then I said, "What are these coming to do?" And He said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up His head. But these craftsmen have come to terrify them and to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Chapter 2

Zechariah sees a man with a measuring line going to measure Jerusalem. An angel declares that Jerusalem will be inhabited as towns without walls because of the multitude of people and cattle. The LORD Himself will be a wall of fire around her and the glory in her midst. "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for I am coming and I will dwell in your midst."

- 1 I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand. I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and there was a man with a measuring line in his hand.
- 2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. Then I said, "Where are You going?" And He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is."

- 3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, And the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet Him,
- 4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein: and said to Him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, because of the great number of men and cattle in it.
- 5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her. For I, says the LORD, will be a wall of fire all around her, and will be the glory in her midst.'
- 6 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. Up, up! Come out and flee from the land of the north, says the LORD. For I have spread You abroad as the four winds of heaven, says the LORD.
- 7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. Deliver Yourself, O Zion, You who live with the daughter of Babylon.
- 8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For this is what the LORD of hosts says: After the glory, He has sent Me to the nations that plundered you. For he who touches you touches the apple of his eye.
- 9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me. For I will shake My hand against them, and they shall become plunder for their servants. Then You shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.
- 10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion. For I am coming, and I will live in your midst, says the LORD.
- 11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be My people. Chapter 3

Zechariah sees Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, with Satan at his right hand to accuse him. The LORD rebukes Satan, strips Joshua's filthy garments, and clothes him with clean robes. The LORD promises to bring forth His servant the BRANCH and to remove the iniquity of the land in one day.

■ NAME NOTE — Joshua (JOSH-yoo-ah) — "the LORD saves" — The high priest of the post-exilic community, son of Jehozadak. The same name in Hebrew as the Joshua who succeeded Moses, and the same name in Hebrew as "Jesus" in the NT. Joshua and Zerubbabel together led the rebuilding of the temple (Ezra 3; Hag 1:1). Here in Zech 3, his cleansing pictures the justification of every sinner.

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tan) — "the adversary" or "the accuser" — The chief enemy of God and of God's people; the one who tempted Eve in Eden (Gen 3), accused Job before the throne (Job 1–2), and tempted Christ in the wilderness (Matt 4). Here he accuses Joshua the high priest, and is rebuked by the LORD Himself.

■ WORD NOTE — The BRANCH — A Messianic title used by Isaiah (Isa 11:1; "a Branch shall grow out of his roots"), Jeremiah (Jer 23:5; 33:15; "a righteous Branch"), and Zechariah (3:8; 6:12). The Hebrew word means a fresh green shoot springing from a cut-down tree — a picture of the Messiah coming from the line of David after the kingdom has been cut down. The KJV preserves it in all-caps as a name; the modern column keeps that exactly. In 6:12 the BRANCH builds the temple of the LORD and is both King and Priest — fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

■ NAME NOTE — Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-ah-bel) — "seed of Babylon" or "born in Babylon" — The governor of Judah after the return from exile; a descendant of David through King Jehoiachin, and an ancestor of Christ in both genealogies (Matt 1:12; Luke 3:27). He led the rebuilding of the temple alongside Joshua the high priest. Haggai and Zechariah both addressed prophecies directly to him; in Haggai 2:23 the LORD calls him "My signet ring," a sign of restored Davidic kingship.

Zechariah sees a flying scroll — the curse going out over the whole land against every thief and every one who swears falsely. He then sees a woman called Wickedness sitting in a basket, and two women with wings like the wings of a stork carry the basket away to the land of Shinar to build a house for it.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll. | Then I turned and lifted up my eyes and looked, and there was a flying scroll. |
| 2 | And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits. | And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits, and its width is ten cubits." |
| 3 | Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. | Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole earth. For everyone who steals shall be cut off according to what is written on this side of it, and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to what is written on the other side. |

- 4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. I will send it out, says the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief and the house of Him who swears falsely by My name. It shall remain in the middle of His house and shall consume it, with its timber and its stones."
- 5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. Then the angel who talked with me went out and said to me, "Lift up Your eyes now, and see what is going out."
- 6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth. And I said, "What is it?" And He said, "This is an ephah going out." He said further, "This is their appearance throughout the earth."
- 7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah. And a talent of lead was lifted up, and there was a woman sitting inside the ephah."
- 8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. And He said, "This is wickedness." And He thrust her back into the middle of the ephah, and threw the lead weight on its mouth.
- 9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and two women came out, with the wind in their wings. For they had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven.
- 10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah? Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they taking the ephah?"

Chapter 6

Zechariah sees four chariots with horses of different colors going out from between two mountains of brass — the four spirits of heaven going throughout the earth. The LORD commands Zechariah to make crowns for Joshua the high priest and declare: "The man whose name is the BRANCH shall build the temple of the LORD, and He shall bear the glory and sit and rule on His throne — and He shall be a priest on His throne."

Chapter 7

The people ask whether they should continue fasting as they have done during the seventy years of exile. The LORD replies: "When you fasted, did you really fast for Me?" He calls for true justice, mercy, and compassion — not empty rituals. Their fathers refused to listen and made their hearts like flint, so great wrath came from the LORD of hosts.

Chapter 8

The LORD declares He is jealous for Zion with great fury. He will return and dwell in Jerusalem, and it will be called the city of truth. Old men and old women will again sit in the streets, and boys and girls will play in them. The fasts of mourning will become feasts of joy. Many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem.

| 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. | "This is what the LORD of hosts says: I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. |

- 3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. This is what the LORD says: I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem shall be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the Holy Mountain.
- 4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. This is what the LORD of hosts says: Old men and old women shall yet live in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand because of his great age.
- 5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.
- 6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts. This is what the LORD of hosts says: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvelous in My eyes? says the LORD of hosts.
- 7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; This is what the LORD of hosts says: I will save My people from the east country and from the west country.
- 8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. And I will bring them, and they shall live in the midst of Jerusalem. They shall be My people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.
- 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. This is what the LORD of hosts says: Let Your hands be strong, You who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who spoke in the day the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

- 10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour. For before these days there were no wages for man, nor any wages for beast. Nor was there any peace for Him who went out or came in, because of the affliction, for I set every man against his neighbor.
- 11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days, says the LORD of hosts.
- 12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. For the seed shall be prosperous, the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew. And I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.
- 13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong. And it shall come to pass, that as You were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save You, and You shall be a blessing. Do not fear, but let Your hands be strong.
- 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not: For this is what the LORD of hosts says: As I purposed to punish You when Your fathers provoked Me to wrath, says the LORD of hosts, and I did not relent,
- 15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not. so again have I purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear.
- 16 These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: These are the things that You shall do: Speak every man the truth to his neighbor; execute the judgment of truth and peace in Your gates.

Chapter 9

The LORD pronounces judgment against the surrounding nations — Hadrach, Damascus, Tyre, Sidon, and the Philistine cities. "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Your King is coming to you — righteous and having salvation, lowly and riding upon a donkey." He will speak peace to the heathen, and His dominion will be from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth.

| 1 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD. | The burden of the word of the LORD against the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be its resting place. For the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD. |
|---|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Hadrach (HAY-drak) — An ancient Aramean district north of Damascus, mentioned in Assyrian records but only here in the Bible. Marks the northern starting point of the LORD's sweep of judgment across the lands surrounding Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (dah-MAS-kus) — The ancient capital of Syria (Aram), one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. The leading city of the northern enemies of Israel throughout the OT period.

| 2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise. | And Hamath shall also border on it, as shall Tyrus and Zidon, though they are very wise. |
|--|--|

■ NAME NOTE — Hamath (HAY-math) — A major Syrian city on the Orontes River, north of Damascus; the traditional northern boundary of Israel's promised territory (Num 13:21; 1 Kings 8:65).

■ NAME NOTE — Tyrus and Zidon (TYE-rus, ZYE-don) — The KJV forms of Tyre and Sidon, the two great Phoenician seaports on the Mediterranean coast north of Israel. Famous for wealth, seafaring, and ungodly pride (cf. Ezek 26–28). KJV spelling preserved.

| 3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. 4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. 5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. | And Tyrus built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like dust and fine gold like the mire of the streets. But the Lord will cast her out, and He will strike her power on the sea, and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashkelon shall see it and fear; Gaza also shall see it and be very sorrowful, and Ekron too, for her hope shall be put to shame. The king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. |

■ NAME NOTE — Ekron, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ashdod — Four of the five chief cities of the Philistines on the southern coastal plain of Palestine. (The fifth, Gath, is not mentioned here.) Long-standing enemies of Israel since the days of the Judges and Samuel.

And no oppressor shall pass through them any more, for now I have seen with My own eyes. Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! See, your King cometh unto you: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off. And He shall speak peace to the heathen. His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. As for you also, by the blood of your covenant I have sent out your prisoners from the pit in which there is no water. Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope. Even today I declare that I will give back double to you. For I have bent Judah for Myself, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and made you like the sword of a mighty man. |

■ NAME NOTE — Greece (Grees) — Here, the rising Greek power that would within two centuries conquer the Persian empire under Alexander the Great (333 BC). This is the only place in the OT where Greece is named directly as a future enemy of Israel — fulfilled in the Maccabean wars against the Seleucid Greeks two and a half centuries after Zechariah wrote.

Chapter 10

The LORD will give showers of rain — ask Him, not the idols and diviners who speak vanity. The LORD of hosts has visited His flock and will make them as His goodly horse in battle. From Judah will come the cornerstone, the tent peg, and the battle bow. He will strengthen Judah and save Joseph, whistling for them and gathering them, for He has redeemed them.

Chapter 11

Zechariah acts out a parable as a shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter. He takes two staffs — Beauty and Bands — and feeds the flock. He is paid thirty pieces of silver, which the LORD tells him to cast to the potter in the house of the LORD. He breaks both staffs: the covenant with the peoples, and the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

| 1 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars. | Open Your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour Your cedars. |
| 2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down. | Wail, O fir tree, for the cedar has fallen, because the mighty are ruined. Wail, O oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has come down. |
| 3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled. | There is the sound of the wailing of the shepherds, for their glory is ruined. There is the sound of the roaring of young lions, for the pride of the Jordan is ruined. |
| 4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter; | This is what the LORD my God says: "Feed the flock of the slaughter, |

- 5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not. whose owners slay them and hold themselves not guilty. And those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich!' And their own shepherds do not pity them.
- 6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD. But I will deliver every man into his neighbor's hand and into the hand of His king. They shall strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."
- 7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. So I fed the flock of slaughter, in particular the poor of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs. The one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands. And I fed the flock.
- 8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me. And in one month I cut off three shepherds. My soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
- 9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. Then I said, "I will not feed You. Let the one that is dying die, and the one that is to be cut off be cut off. And let the rest eat one another's flesh."
- 10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And I took my staff Beauty and broke it apart, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
- 11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And it was broken on that day. So the poor of the flock who watched me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

Chapter 12

The LORD will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the surrounding peoples and a burdensome stone for all nations — whoever lifts it will be cut to pieces. In that day the LORD will defend Jerusalem. "They shall look upon Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him as one mourns for an only son."

| 1 | The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. | The burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel, says the LORD, Who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within Him: |
| 2 | Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. | "I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the peoples round about, when they shall be in the siege against both Judah and Jerusalem. |
| 3 | And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it. | And on that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all peoples. All who try to lift it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it. |
| 4 | In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness. | On that day, says the LORD, I will strike every horse with terror and its rider with madness. And I will keep My eyes open on the house of Judah, and I will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. |

- 5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God. And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.'
- 6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem. On that day I will make the governors of Judah like a hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf. And they shall devour all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left. And Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, in Jerusalem.
- 7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah. The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves above Judah.
- 8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them. On that day the LORD shall defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And He who is feeble among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them.
- 9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass on that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.
- 10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the spirit of grace and of supplications. And they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him, as one mourneth for His only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him, as one that is in bitterness for His firstborn.

In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.
- On that day there shall be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

■ NAME NOTE — Hadadrimmon (had-ad-RIM-mon) — A place in the valley of Megiddon, almost certainly named for the death of King Josiah, who was killed in battle there by Pharaoh Necho (2 Kings 23:29; 2 Chron 35:22–25). The mourning for Josiah became a national lament, kept up for generations.

■ NAME NOTE — Megiddon (meh-GID-on) — The KJV form of Megiddo; a strategic fortress city at the pass into the plain of Jezreel. The site of many decisive battles in OT history; the name later becomes "Armageddon" (har-Megiddon, "mountain of Megiddo") in Rev 16:16.

- 12

And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;
- And the land shall mourn, every family by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;
- 13

The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;
- the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by itself, and their wives by themselves;
- 14

All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.
- all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

Chapter 13

On that day a fountain will be opened for sin and for uncleanness. The LORD will cut off the names of the idols and remove the unclean spirit and the false prophets from the land. "Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, against the man that is My fellow" — the shepherd will be struck and the sheep scattered. Two parts will be cut off, but a third will be refined through fire and will call on the LORD's name.

Chapter 14

The day of the LORD comes — all nations gather against Jerusalem, the city is taken, but the LORD goes forth to fight against those nations. His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, and it will split in two. Living waters will flow from Jerusalem, and the LORD will be king over all the earth. Every survivor from the nations will go up year by year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

■ WORD NOTE — The day of the LORD — A great theme of the prophets; the appointed day when the LORD brings final judgment on the wicked and final salvation to His people. Sometimes near (the fall of a particular kingdom), sometimes far (the second coming of Christ), and often both at once. Zechariah 14 is the OT's clearest single picture of the day of the LORD at the end of the age, when Christ returns to the Mount of Olives in person.

The city shall be taken, the houses plundered, and the women ravished. Half of the city shall go out into captivity, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. |
| 3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. | Then the LORD shall go out and fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle. |
| 4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. | And on that day His feet shall stand upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east. And the mount of Olives shall split in the middle toward the east and toward the west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain shall move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. |

■ NAME NOTE — The mount of Olives — A ridge running north and south just east of Jerusalem, across the Kidron Valley from the temple mount. The place where David fled from Absalom (2 Sam 15:30), where Ezekiel saw the glory of the LORD depart from the temple (Ezek 11:23), where Christ taught the Olivet discourse (Matt 24), agonized in Gethsemane (Matt 26:36), and from which He ascended into heaven (Acts 1:9–12) — with the promise that He would return to the same place "in like manner" (Acts 1:11). Zech 14:4 is the OT prophecy of that return.

- 5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee. And You shall flee to the valley of the mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal. Yes, You shall flee, just as You fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. And the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with You.

■ NAME NOTE — Azal (AY-zal) — A place east of Jerusalem; the far end of the new valley split open through the Mount of Olives. Mentioned only here in Scripture.

■ NAME NOTE — Uzziah (uh-ZYE-ah) — King of Judah c. 792–740 BC; one of the longer-reigning kings of the southern kingdom (2 Chron 26). The great earthquake "in the days of Uzziah" was so severe it was still remembered two centuries later in Zechariah's day, and Amos dated his prophecy by it (Amos 1:1).

- 6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark: And it shall come to pass on that day that the light shall not be clear, nor dark.
- 7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light. But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night. But it shall come to pass that at evening time it shall be light.
- 8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be. And it shall come to pass on that day that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. In summer and in winter it shall be so.
- 9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one. And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and His name one.

- 10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses. All the land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. And Jerusalem shall be lifted up and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel to the king's winepresses.
- 11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. And men shall live in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction. But Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.
- 12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth. And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem. Their flesh shall waste away while they stand on their feet, their eyes shall waste away in their sockets, and their tongue shall waste away in their mouth.
- 13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour. And it shall come to pass on that day that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them. They shall each seize the hand of His neighbor, and His hand shall rise up against the hand of His neighbor.
- 14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance. And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding heathen shall be gathered together — gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance.
- 15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague. And so shall be the plague on the horse, the mule, the camel, the ass, and all the animals that shall be in these camps, like this plague.

Malachi

Author: Malachi — whose name means "my messenger." It may be a personal name or a prophetic title for an unnamed prophet; the book gives no biographical data, no genealogy, and no royal date marker.

Date written: c. 460–430 BC, after the second temple has been rebuilt (1:10, 3:1) and the priesthood and tithing system are in operation again. He is contemporary with — or just after — Nehemiah's reforms (Neh 13), rebuking the same generation for the same sins: intermarriage, withholding tithes, and contempt for the temple service.

Written to: The post-exilic Jewish community in Judah — especially the priests (1:6–2:9), who are leading the people in cynicism rather than worship.

Setting: A century after the return from Babylon, the initial fervor has long faded. The temple has been rebuilt for nearly a century but is treated as a chore. The priests are offering blemished animals — the leftovers — and yawning at their service (1:6–14). Men are divorcing their faithful wives to marry pagan women (2:10–16). The people are withholding tithes (3:8–10). They cynically ask, "Where is the God of judgment?" and complain that it is vain to serve God (2:17, 3:14). Malachi confronts these sins with the same disputation pattern eight times over: God states a charge; the people protest, "Wherein?"; God answers. The book closes with the promise of the coming Day of the LORD — preceded by the return of Elijah — when the wicked shall be ashes under the soles of the feet of the righteous, and the Sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings.

Where this sits historically: Prophesied c. 460–430 BC under Persian rule (Artaxerxes I), alongside or just after Nehemiah's reforms, and a century after Cyrus had first let the exiles return.

Contemporaries: Nehemiah was governing Jerusalem and confronting the same sins of intermarriage and tithe-neglect, and Ezra had recently led his own reforms; after Malachi the OT prophetic voice falls silent for four hundred years.

Big themes:

- God's covenant love for Jacob over Esau — the bedrock answer to "Wherein hast thou loved us?"
- The LORD's hatred of profaned worship and blemished offerings — half-hearted religion offends Him more than no religion at all
- The LORD hates putting away — He is the witness of the marriage covenant and detests faithless divorce
- The cynicism of "It is vain to serve God" — and the LORD's answer: a book of remembrance, and a day when the righteous shall be discerned from the wicked
- The promised messenger preparing the way of the Lord (3:1) — fulfilled in John the Baptist
- The great and dreadful day of the LORD — burning as an oven for the wicked, healing in His wings for those who fear His name

- The promise of Elijah's return (4:5–6) — fulfilled in John the Baptist per our Lord's own word (Matt 11:14, 17:12–13)

Key passages: Mal 1:2 (Jacob have I loved); 2:16 (he hateth putting away); 3:1 (My messenger); 3:6 (I am the LORD, I change not); 3:10 (windows of heaven and tithes); 4:2 (Sun of righteousness); 4:5–6 (Elijah)

How it fits: Malachi is the last book of the Old Testament, closing the canon with two great promises: the messenger who will prepare the way (3:1), and the Elijah who will come before the great and dreadful day (4:5–6). After Malachi, four hundred silent years pass before the angel Gabriel speaks to Zacharias in Luke 1 about the birth of John the Baptist — the very messenger Malachi foretold. The last image of the OT is the Sun of righteousness arising with healing in His wings — the last Messianic picture before the New Testament itself begins.

Chapter 1

"I have loved you," says the LORD — yet Israel asks, "How have You loved us?" The LORD points to His choice of Jacob over Esau. The priests dishonor His name by offering polluted bread, blind and lame animals on His altar. "From the rising of the sun to its going down, My name shall be great among the heathen," but Israel has profaned it.

■ NAME NOTE — Malachi (MAL-uh-kye) — "my messenger" — Possibly a personal name; possibly a title for an unnamed prophet writing under his prophetic designation. The last canonical prophet of the Old Testament.

■ WORD NOTE — LORD of hosts (LORD of HOHSTS) — A divine title used by Malachi twenty-four times in just four chapters. "Hosts" means armies — the angelic armies of heaven and the starry hosts above. The title declares that the LORD commands every power in heaven and earth. He is not a local or limited God; He is the Commander of every army that exists.

■ NAME NOTE — Esau (EE-saw) — "hairy" — Jacob's twin brother; father of the Edomites. The Old Testament's standing symbol of profane indifference to spiritual blessing — he sold his birthright for a single meal (Heb 12:16–17).

■ NAME NOTE — Jacob (JAY-kub) — "supplanter" — Esau's twin brother; father of the twelve tribes of Israel. The Old Testament's standing symbol of God's electing love. Paul quotes this very verse in Romans 9:13 — "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."

■ NAME NOTE — Edom (EE-dum) — The nation descended from Esau, settled south of the Dead Sea in the rugged region around Mount Seir. A standing enemy of Israel throughout the OT.

- 8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. When You offer the blind animal as a sacrifice, is that not evil? When You offer the lame and the sick, is that not evil? Offer it now to Your governor — will He be pleased with You, or accept You favorably?" says the LORD of hosts.
- 9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts. "And now, plead with God that He will be gracious to us. This has come from Your hand — will He regard You favorably?" says the LORD of hosts.
- 10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand. "Oh that one of You would shut the temple doors, so that You would not kindle a useless fire on My altar! I have no pleasure in You," says the LORD of hosts, "nor will I accept an offering from Your hand.
- 11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts. For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, My name shall be great among the Gentiles. Chapter 2

The LORD rebukes the priests for failing to honor His name and corrupting the covenant of Levi. He condemns Judah for dealing treacherously — they have married the daughters of a foreign god and have broken faith with the wives of their youth. "The LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates putting away" — yet they have wearied the LORD with their words, saying, "Where is the God of judgment?"

■ NAME NOTE — Levi (LEE-vie) — Third son of Jacob; ancestor of the Levitical priesthood. "The covenant of Levi" is the perpetual covenant of priestly service first given in Numbers 18 and reaffirmed to Phinehas in Numbers 25:12–13. Malachi's complaint is that the present priests have corrupted that covenant.

- 8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. But You have departed from the way. You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts.
- 9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. "Therefore I have also made You contemptible and base before all the people, because you have not kept My ways but have been partial in the law."
- 10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers? Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why then do we deal treacherously each man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?
- 11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god. Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which He loved, and has married the daughter of a strange god.
- 12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts. The LORD will cut off the man who does this — the master and the scholar — from the tabernacles of Jacob, and the one who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts.
- 13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand. And this is another thing You do: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, so that He no longer regards the offering, nor receives it with good will from Your hand.

- 14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant. Yet You say, "For what reason?" Because the LORD has been the witness between You and the wife of Your youth, against whom You have dealt treacherously — though she is Your companion, and the wife of Your covenant.
- 15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. Did He not make them one, though He had the remainder of the Spirit? And why one? That He might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to Your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

■ WORD NOTE — Putting away (PUT-ing uh-WAY) — KJV term for divorce — literally, sending the wife away. The KJV preserves the active, deliberate force of the Hebrew: a man putting his wife away. The verse says the LORD hates this — not merely the broken result, but the deliberate act of casting off the wife of one's covenant.

- 16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. "For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates putting away — for it covers one's garment with violence," says the LORD of hosts. "Therefore take heed to Your spirit, that You do not deal treacherously."
- 17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment? You have wearied the LORD with Your words. Yet You say, "In what way have we wearied Him?" In that You say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of judgment?"

Chapter 3

The LORD will send His messenger to prepare the way, and the Lord they seek will suddenly come to His temple. He will be like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap, purifying the sons of Levi. The LORD rebukes Israel for robbing Him in tithes and offerings: "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, and prove Me now — I will open the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing you cannot contain." A book of remembrance is written for those who fear the LORD.

- 1 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. "I will send My messenger, and He shall prepare the way before Me. And the Lord whom You seek shall suddenly come to His temple — even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. He shall come," says the LORD of hosts.
- 2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: "But who can endure the day of His coming? Who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap.
- 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver. He shall purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver, that they may offer to the LORD an offering in righteousness.

■ WORD NOTE — Tithe (TYTHE) — The tenth part — a tenth of one's grain, herd, flock, and increase, brought into the storehouse of the LORD for the support of the priests, the Levites, the widow, the fatherless, and the stranger. To withhold the tithe is to rob God of what is His.

- 10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house. Prove Me now in this, says the LORD of hosts, and see if I will not open You the windows of heaven and pour You out a blessing so great there shall not be room enough to receive it.
- 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. "And I will rebuke the devourer for Your sakes, and He shall not destroy the fruits of Your ground. Nor shall Your vine cast her fruit before its time in the field," says the LORD of hosts.
- 12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts. "And all nations shall call You blessed, for You shall be a delightsome land," says the LORD of hosts.
- 13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee? "Your words have been harsh against Me," says the LORD. "Yet You say, 'What have we spoken against You?'"
- 14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept His ordinance, and that we have walked as mourners before the LORD of hosts?'
- 15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered. And now we call the proud blessed. Those who work wickedness are built up; those who tempt God go free."
- 16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. Then those who feared the LORD spoke often one to another, and the LORD listened and heard them. A book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared the LORD and who thought upon His name.

Chapter 4

The day is coming that will burn like an oven — the proud and the wicked will be stubble. But for those who fear the LORD's name, the Sun of righteousness will arise with healing in His wings. "Remember the law of Moses My servant." The LORD will send Elijah the prophet before the great and dreadful day of the LORD, and he will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers.

■ WORD NOTE — Sun of righteousness (SUN of RY-chuhs-ness) — A Messianic title found only here in all of Scripture. As the rising sun drives away the night and brings life, light, and warmth to a frozen world, so the Messiah rises upon those who fear His name. The phrase "with healing in his wings" pictures the sun's rays as outstretched wings carrying healing to the earth.

| 3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts. | You shall tread down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of Your feet on the day that I do this," says the LORD of hosts. |

■ NAME NOTE — Moses (MOH-ziz) — The leader of the Exodus and lawgiver of Israel; mediator of the old covenant. His law is here invoked at the very close of the OT canon as the standard the people must remember.

■ NAME NOTE — Horeb (HOR-eb) — Another name for Mount Sinai, the mountain where Moses received the law from the LORD.

■ NAME NOTE — Elijah (ee-LY-juh) — "my God is the LORD" — The ninth-century BC prophet who confronted Ahab and Jezebel, called down fire on Mount Carmel, and was taken up alive in a whirlwind (2 Kgs 2). Here promised to return before the great and dreadful day of the LORD. Our Lord Jesus identified John the Baptist as the Elijah promised here (Matt 11:14; 17:12–13).

THE 400 SILENT YEARS

Malachi's voice falls silent around 430 BC. For the next four centuries no prophet speaks for God in Israel — no vision, no oracle, no word from heaven. The Persian empire that allowed the temple to be rebuilt gives way to the Greek empire when Alexander the Great sweeps east in 332 BC, and Greek replaces Aramaic as the language of trade and learning. The Maccabean revolt of 167 BC liberates Jerusalem from the desecrations of Antiochus IV Epiphanes — but Rome arrives in 63 BC and absorbs Judea into its growing empire. During this long silence, Jewish scholars in Alexandria translate the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek (the Septuagint), and a body of literature is written that the 1611 KJV included as the Apocrypha — Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Sirach, Wisdom, and others — though these books are not part of the Protestant canon. When God speaks again, He speaks from Galilee, in the cry of an infant, four hundred years after Malachi laid down his pen.

Matthew

THE ROMAN PERIOD

Author: Matthew (also called Levi), one of the twelve apostles — a former tax collector who left everything to follow Jesus. Early church testimony from Papias (c. AD 125) onward consistently names him as the author.

Date written: c. AD 50–70, likely before the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70.

Written to: Primarily a Jewish audience — Matthew's Gospel is saturated with OT quotations and fulfillment formulas ("that it might be fulfilled") that would resonate most deeply with readers steeped in the Hebrew Scriptures.

Setting: The Roman province of Judea under occupation. Jesus of Nazareth, a carpenter from Galilee, launches a three-year public ministry, gathers twelve disciples, and fulfills dozens of OT prophecies before being crucified and rising from the dead.

Where this sits historically: Written under the early Roman Empire during the reigns of Claudius and Nero — likely before the Jewish War of AD 66–70 that ended with the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple under Titus.

Contemporaries: Mark and the early Pauline epistles (Galatians, 1–2 Thessalonians, 1–2 Corinthians, Romans) were being written in the same window, while James the brother of the Lord still led the Jerusalem church.

Big themes:

- Jesus as the Jewish Messiah — Matthew opens with a genealogy tracing Jesus to Abraham and David; He is the long-promised King
- The kingdom of heaven — Matthew uses this phrase thirty-two times; the Sermon on the Mount (chs. 5–7) is the kingdom's constitution
- Fulfillment of Scripture — Matthew quotes the OT more than any other Gospel, showing repeatedly that Jesus's life, death, and resurrection happened "that it might be fulfilled"
- Discipleship — the Great Commission (28:18–20) bookends a Gospel that is centrally concerned with making and teaching disciples
- The five discourses — Matthew organizes Jesus's teaching into five great blocks (chs. 5–7, 10, 13, 18, 24–25), possibly echoing the five books of Moses

Key passages: Matt 1:21; 5:3–12; 16:16; 26:28; 28:18–20

How it fits: Matthew stands first in the NT canon as the bridge between the two Testaments — the OT's promises on one side, Christ's fulfillment on the other. It is the most quoted Gospel in the early church fathers. Mark, Luke, and John each present the same story from different angles; together the four Gospels give the complete portrait of Christ.

Chapter 1

Matthew traces the genealogy of Jesus Christ from Abraham through David to Joseph. An angel appears to Joseph in a dream, telling him that Mary's child is conceived by the Holy Ghost and that He shall be called JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins.

- 1

The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

This is the book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

■ NAME NOTE — Jesus (JEE-zus) — "the LORD saves" — The name given by the angel, meaning God rescues His people from their sins. He is also called Christ, meaning "Anointed One" or Messiah.

Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

Abraham begat Isaac, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat Judas and his brothers.

■ WORD NOTE — Begat (bih-GAT) — An old word meaning "fathered" or "became the father of." The KJV uses "begat" throughout the genealogies to show the direct line of descent. It is kept here because it is a distinctive term of KJV genealogies.

- 3

And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram; Judas begat Phares and Zara by Thamar; Phares begat Esrom; Esrom begat Aram.

- 4

And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon; Aram begat Aminadab; Aminadab begat Naasson; Naasson begat Salmon.

- 5

And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; Salmon begat Booz by Rachab; Booz begat Obed by Ruth; Obed begat Jesse.

- 6

And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

Jesse begat David the king; David the king begat Solomon by her who had been the wife of Urias.

And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa; Solomon begat Roboam; Roboam begat Abia; Abia begat Asa.

- 8

And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

Asa begat Josaphat; Josaphat begat Joram; Joram begat Ozias.

- 9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias; Ozias begat Joatham; Joatham begat Achaz; Achaz begat Ezekias.
- 10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; Ezekias begat Manasses; Manasses begat Amon; Amon begat Josias.
- 11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon: Josias begat Jechonias and his brothers, around the time they were carried away to Babylon.
- 12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel; After they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; Salathiel begat Zorobabel.
- 13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; Zorobabel begat Abiud; Abiud begat Eliakim; Eliakim begat Azor.
- 14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; Azor begat Sadoc; Sadoc begat Achim; Achim begat Eliud.
- 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; Eliud begat Eleazar; Eleazar begat Matthan; Matthan begat Jacob.
- 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ. Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, Who is called Christ.
- 17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations. So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations. From David to the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations. From the carrying away into Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

- 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. His mother Mary was pledged in marriage to Joseph. Before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Ghost.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — The Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. The KJV consistently uses "Ghost" where other translations say "Spirit." Both words translate the same Greek word. "Holy Ghost" is kept here as the KJV-faithful term.

- 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. Joseph her husband was a righteous man. He did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to divorce her quietly.
- 20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. While He was thinking about this, an angel of the Lord appeared to Him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. What is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.
- 21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. She will give birth to a son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins."
- 22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:
- 23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. "A virgin shall be with child and will give birth to a son. They shall call His name Emmanuel" — which means, God with us.
- 24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife: Joseph woke from sleep and did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him. He took Mary as his wife.

- 25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.
- He did not come together with her until she had given birth to her firstborn son.
He called His name JESUS.

Words in this chapter:

- Holy Ghost — The Holy Spirit — the third Person of the Trinity; KJV consistently uses 'Ghost' where modern translations say 'Spirit.'
- Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.
- Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'
- Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'
- Ruth (ROOTH) — A Moabite woman who left her homeland to stay with her mother-in-law Naomi — her loyalty and faith led to marriage with Boaz and a place in the lineage of Christ.
- Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

| 1 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, | Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of King Herod. Wise men from the east came to Jerusalem |
| 2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. | and asked, "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? We saw his star in the east and have come to worship Him." |
| 3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. | When King Herod heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. |
| 4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. | He gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people and asked them where Christ was to be born. |
| 5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, | They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judaea, for so it is written by the prophet: |
| 6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. | 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah. From you shall come a Governor who will shepherd My people Israel.'" |
| 7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. | Then Herod called the wise men secretly and questioned them carefully about the exact time the star had appeared. |
| 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. | He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young child. When you have found Him, bring word back to me, so that I may come and worship Him also." |

- 9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. After they had heard the king, they departed. The star they had seen in the east went before them until it came and stood over where the young child was.
- 10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with great joy.
- 11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother. They fell down and worshipped him. Opening their treasures, they presented Him with gifts — gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
- 12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way. Being warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their own country by another route.
- 13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. After they had departed, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. The angel said, "Get up, take the young child and his mother, and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."
- 14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: Joseph rose, took the young child and his mother by night, and departed to Egypt.
- 15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son. He stayed there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I have called My Son."

- 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men. Then Herod, seeing that the wise men had tricked him, was greatly enraged. He sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all its surrounding region, from two years old and under, according to the time he had carefully determined from the wise men.
- 17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremy:
- 18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not. "A voice was heard in Rama — lamentation and weeping and great mourning. Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be comforted, because they are no more."
- 19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt
- 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. and said, "Get up, take the young child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel. Those who sought the young child's life are dead."
- 21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. Joseph rose, took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.
- 22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: When he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judaea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned by God in a dream, He turned aside to the region of Galilee.

23	And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.	He came and lived in a city called Nazareth. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: "He shall be called a Nazarene."

Words in this chapter:

- scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.
- Herod (HEHR-od) — The Edomite king of Judea appointed by Rome — Herod the Great ordered the massacre of the infants in Bethlehem; later Herods appear throughout the NT.
- Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'
- Rachel (RAY-chel) — Jacob's beloved second wife, Laban's younger daughter — mother of Joseph and Benjamin; died giving birth to Benjamin; her name means 'ewe.'
- Bethlehem (BETH-leh-hem) — A town in Judah — birthplace of David and of Jesus; its name means 'house of bread'; Boaz and Ruth lived here.
- Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.
- Nazareth (NAZ-ah-reth) — The town in Galilee where Jesus grew up — hometown of Mary and Joseph; the Nazarenes rejected Jesus when He declared His mission in their synagogue.

Chapter 3

John the Baptist preaches repentance in the wilderness of Judaea, baptizing crowds in the Jordan. Jesus comes from Galilee to be baptized, and the heavens open as the Spirit descends like a dove and the Father declares, 'This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.'

- 1

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,
- In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judaea.*

■ NAME NOTE — John the Baptist (JON the BAP-tist) — "the LORD is gracious" — The forerunner of Jesus Christ, sent to prepare the way of the Lord. He preached repentance and baptized in the Jordan River.

And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
- He said, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."*
- 3

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
- This is the one spoken of by the prophet Esaias: "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.'"*
- 4

And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.
- John's clothes were made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.*
- 5

Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,
- Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and all the region around Jordan went out to him.*
- 6

And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.
- They were baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.*
- 7

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
- When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"*
- 8

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:
- Bring forth fruit in keeping with repentance.*

- 9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Do not think to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' I tell you, God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones.
- 10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
- 11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: I baptize You with water for repentance. But He who comes after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize You with the Holy Ghost and with fire.
- 12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire. His winnowing fork is in His hand. He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, gathering His wheat into the barn. But the chaff He will burn up with unquenchable fire."
- 13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be baptized by him.
- 14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? John tried to stop him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You — and do You come to me?"
- 15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. Jesus answered Him, "Allow it now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then John allowed it.

- 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: When Jesus was baptized, He went up immediately out of the water. The heavens were opened to Him. He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on Him.
- 17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. A voice from heaven said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Chapter 4

The Spirit leads Jesus into the wilderness, where Satan tempts Him three times and Jesus answers each temptation with Scripture. Jesus begins His public ministry in Galilee, calls His first disciples — Simon, Andrew, James, and John — and heals the sick throughout the region.

- 8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.
- 9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. He said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You will fall down and worship me."
- 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then Jesus said to Him, "Away from Me, Satan! For it is written: 'You shall worship the Lord Your God, and Him only shall You serve.'"
- 11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him. Then the devil left him. Angels came and ministered to him.
- 12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee; When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he departed to Galilee.
- 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim: Leaving Nazareth, He went and lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zabulon and Nephthalim.
- 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Esaias:
- 15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles; "The land of Zabulon and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles —
- 16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up. the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light. On those living in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned."
- 17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

- 18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. As Jesus was walking along the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers — Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother — casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.
- 19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make You fishers of men."
- 20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
- 21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. Going on from there, He saw two other brothers — James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother — in a boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them.
- 22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.
- 23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of sickness and every kind of disease among the people.
- 24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. News about Him spread throughout all Syria. They brought to Him all who were sick — those suffering from various diseases and pains, those possessed by demons, those who had seizures, and those who were paralyzed — and He healed them.

- 25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan. Large crowds followed Him from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

Words in this chapter:

divers — Various; diverse; several different — 'divers diseases' means various kinds of illness; not related to diving.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Chapter 5

Jesus delivers the Sermon on the Mount, beginning with the Beatitudes. He teaches about the law, anger, lust, oaths, loving one's enemies, and the calling of His followers to be salt and light in the world.

- 1 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him: Seeing the crowds, He went up on a mountain. When He sat down, His disciples came to Him.
- 2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying, He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:

- | | | |

| 3 | Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. | "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. |
| 4 | Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. | Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. |
| 5 | Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. | Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. |
| 6 | Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. | Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled. |
| 7 | Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. | Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. It is not the same as grace — mercy holds back judgment, while grace gives a gift we do not deserve.

| 10 | Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven. | Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. |
| 11 | Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. | Blessed are You when men insult You, persecute You, and falsely say all kinds of evil against You for My sake. |
| 12 | Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you. | Rejoice and be greatly glad, for great is Your reward in heaven. In the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before You. |

- 13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything — it is thrown out and trampled underfoot by men.
- 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid. You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.
- 15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. No one lights a lamp and puts it under a basket, but on a lampstand. It gives light to everyone in the house.
- 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Let Your light shine before men in this way, so that they may see Your good works and glorify Your Father who is in heaven.
- 17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. Do not think that I came to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them.
- 18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Truly I tell You, until heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle will pass from the Law until all is fulfilled.
- 19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever does and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
- 20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. I tell You that unless Your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, You will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

- 21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: You have heard that it was said to the people of old, 'You shall not murder,' and 'Whoever murders will be in danger of judgment.'
- 22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. But I tell You that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause will be in danger of judgment. Whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' will be in danger of the council. Whoever says, 'You fool,' will be in danger of hell fire.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — The place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word, "hell," for several different Hebrew and Greek words — Sheol, Hades, and Gehenna. All refer to the realm of judgment and are kept as "hell" throughout this translation.

- 23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; So if You bring Your gift to the altar and there remember that Your brother has something against You,
- 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. leave Your gift there before the altar. Go and be reconciled to Your brother first, and then come and offer Your gift.
- 25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Settle quickly with Your opponent while You are on the way to court with Him. Otherwise He may hand You over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and You will be thrown into prison.
- 26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. Truly I tell You, You will not get out until You have paid the very last penny.
- 27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.'

- 28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. But I tell You that anyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in His heart.
- 29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. If Your right eye causes You to sin, pluck it out and throw it away. It is better for You that one part of Your body perish than that Your whole body be thrown into hell.
- 30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. If Your right hand causes You to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for You that one part of Your body perish than that Your whole body go into hell.
- 31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: It has been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'
- 32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. But I tell You that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery. Whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.
- 33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: Again, You have heard that it was said to the people of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall keep the oaths You made to the Lord.'
- 34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne: But I tell You, do not swear at all — not by heaven, for it is God's throne;
- 35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. not by the earth, for it is His footstool; not by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

- 36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. Do not swear by Your head, for You cannot make one hair white or black.
- 37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Let Your word be 'Yes, yes' or 'No, no.' Whatever is more than this comes from evil.
- 38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.'
- 39 But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. But I tell You, do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to Him as well.
- 40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. If someone wants to sue you and take your coat, let him have Your cloak as well.
- 41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain. If someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles.
- 42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away. Give to the one who asks you. Do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.
- 43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. You have heard that it was said, 'Love Your neighbor and hate Your enemy.'
- 44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; But I tell You, love Your enemies. Bless those who curse You. Do good to those who hate You. Pray for those who mistreat You and persecute You.
- 45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. This is how You show You are children of Your Father in heaven. He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good. He sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

46	For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?	If You love only those who love You, what reward do You have? Even the tax collectors do the same.
47	And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?	If You greet only Your brothers, what more are You doing than others? Even the tax collectors do the same.
48	Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.	Be perfect, therefore, as Your Father in heaven is perfect."

Words in this chapter:

candlestick — The golden lampstand in the tabernacle — a seven-branched stand of hammered gold that burned pure olive oil and lit the Holy Place; also called the menorah.

Chapter 6

Jesus continues the Sermon on the Mount, teaching about giving, prayer, and fasting in secret rather than for public display. He teaches the Lord's Prayer and instructs His disciples not to store up treasures on earth but to seek first the kingdom of God.

1	Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.	"Be careful not to do Your acts of charity before men in order to be seen by them. If You do, You will have no reward from Your Father in heaven.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn or deserve. Grace is the opposite of wages — it is freely given out of God's love, not because of anything we have done.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. | So when You give to the needy, do not sound a trumpet before Yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, to receive honor from men. Truly I tell You, they have their reward in full. |
| 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: | When You give to the needy, do not let Your left hand know what Your right hand is doing, |
| 4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly. | so that Your giving may be in secret. Your Father who sees in secret will reward You openly. |
| 5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. | When You pray, do not be like the hypocrites. They love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners, to be seen by men. Truly I tell You, they have their reward in full. |
| 6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. | But when You pray, go into Your room and shut the door. Pray to Your Father who is in secret. Your Father who sees in secret will reward You openly. |
| 7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. | When You pray, do not use empty repetition as the heathen do. They think they will be heard because of their many words. |
| 8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him. | Do not be like them, for Your Father knows what You need before You ask Him. |

- 9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Pray in this way: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name.
- 10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
- 11 Give us this day our daily bread. Give us this day our daily bread.
- 12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
- 13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.'
- 14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: If You forgive men their trespasses, Your heavenly Father will also forgive You.
- 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. But if You do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will Your Father forgive Your trespasses.
- 16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. When You fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites. They put on a sad countenance so that men can see they are fasting. Truly I tell You, they have their reward in full.
- 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; When You fast, anoint Your head and wash Your face,
- 18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. so that You do not appear to men to be fasting, but only to Your Father who is in secret. Your Father who sees in secret will reward You openly.
- 19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

- 20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal.
- 21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. Where Your treasure is, there Your heart will be also.
- 22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. The lamp of the body is the eye. If Your eye is sound, Your whole body will be full of light.
- 23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! But if Your eye is evil, Your whole body will be full of darkness. If the light in You is darkness, how great is that darkness!
- 24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. No one can serve two masters. He will either hate the one and love the other, or He will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.
- 25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Therefore I tell You, do not be anxious about Your life — what You will eat or what You will drink — or about Your body, what You will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes?
- 26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Look at the birds of the air. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns, yet Your heavenly Father feeds them. Are You not much more valuable than they?
- 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? Which of You by worrying can add a single hour to His life?

|---|--|
| 28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? 31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. 33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. | Why are You anxious about clothes? Consider the lilies of the field — how they grow. They do not toil or spin. Yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. If God so clothes the grass of the field — which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven — will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek all these things. Your heavenly Father knows that you need all of them. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble." |

Words in this chapter:

charity — Love that gives itself for others — in 1 Corinthians 13, the KJV word for sacrificial, selfless, godly love.

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

mammon (MAM-un) — An Aramaic word for wealth or riches — Jesus used it as a personified rival to God, warning that no one can serve both God and Mammon.

Chapter 7

Jesus concludes the Sermon on the Mount with teaching about judging others, asking and receiving from God, the narrow gate, and recognizing false prophets by their fruits. He closes with the parable of the wise man who built his house on a rock and the foolish man who built on sand.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Judge not, that ye be not judged. | "Do not judge, so that You will not be judged. |
| 2 | For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. | With the judgment You use, You will be judged. With the measure You use, it will be measured back to You. |
| 3 | And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? | Why do You see the speck in Your brother's eye but do not notice the plank in Your own eye? |
| 4 | Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? | How can You say to Your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of Your eye,' when there is a plank in Your own eye? |

- 5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye. You hypocrite! First take the plank out of Your own eye. Then You will see clearly to remove the speck from Your brother's eye.
- 6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Do not give what is holy to dogs. Do not throw Your pearls before swine, lest they trample them underfoot and turn and tear You to pieces.
- 7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: Ask, and it will be given to You. Seek, and You will find. Knock, and it will be opened to You.
- 8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Everyone who asks receives. Everyone who seeks finds. To everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.
- 9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone? Which of You, if His son asks for bread, will give Him a stone?
- 10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? Or if He asks for a fish, will He give Him a snake?
- 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? If You then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to Your children, how much more will Your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!
- 12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. So in everything, do to others what You would have them do to You. This is the Law and the Prophets.
- 13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Enter through the narrow gate. Wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many go through it.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. | Narrow is the gate and difficult is the way that leads to life, and few find it. |
| 15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. | Watch out for false prophets. They come to You in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. |
| 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? | You will know them by their fruits. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? |
| 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. | Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, and every bad tree bears evil fruit. |
| 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. | A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. |
| 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. | Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. |
| 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. | So You will know them by their fruits. |
| 21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. | Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven — but only the one who does the will of My Father in heaven. |
| 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? | Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and cast out demons in Your name, and do many mighty works in Your name?' |
| 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. | Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew You. Depart from Me, You who practice iniquity.' |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing. Stronger than the word "sin" — it points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself. Where sin is a miss of the mark, iniquity is the inner crookedness that causes the missing.

- 24

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does them will be like a wise man who built His house on the rock.
- 25

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

The rain came down, the floods rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house — but it did not fall, because it was built on the rock.
- 26

And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built His house on the sand.
- 27

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

The rain came down, the floods rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house — and it fell. Great was its fall."
- 28

And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

When Jesus had finished these sayings, the crowds were amazed at His teaching,
- 29

For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

for He taught them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

Words in this chapter:

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Chapter 8

Jesus heals a leper, the centurion's servant, and Peter's mother-in-law, then casts out demons and heals many who are sick. He calms a violent storm on the sea and drives a legion of demons out of two men in the country of the Gergesenes.

| 1 | When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. | When Jesus came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. |
| 2 | And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. | A man with leprosy came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean." |
| 3 | And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. | Jesus stretched out His hand and touched Him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." Immediately His leprosy was cleansed. |
| 4 | And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. | Jesus said to Him, "See that You tell no one. Go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." |
| 5 | And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, | When Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading with Him, |

■ NAME NOTE — Capernaum (kuh-PER-nay-um) — A city on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee that became the base of Jesus' ministry in Galilee.

|---|--|---|
| 6 | And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. | and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed and in terrible pain." |
|---|--|---|

- 7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. Jesus said to Him, "I will come and heal Him."
- 8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy for You to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.
- 9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. For I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to one, 'Go,' and He goes; to another, 'Come,' and He comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and He does it."
- 10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. When Jesus heard this, He was amazed. He said to those who followed, "Truly I tell You, I have not found such great faith — not even in Israel.
- 11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you that many will come from the east and the west and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.
- 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
- 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour. Jesus said to the centurion, "Go. Let it be done for you as you have believed." And His servant was healed that very hour.
- 14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever.

- 15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them. He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and began to serve Him.
- 16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: When evening came, they brought to Him many who were possessed with demons. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick.
- 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses. This was to fulfill what was spoken by Esaias the prophet: "He himself took our infirmities and carried our sicknesses."
- 18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. When Jesus saw large crowds around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side.
- 19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. A certain scribe came and said to Him, "Master, I will follow You wherever You go."
- 20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Jesus said to Him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."
- 21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."
- 22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead. But Jesus said to Him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."
- 23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him. When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.
- 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves. But Jesus was asleep.

- 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. His disciples came and woke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"
- 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are You afraid, O You of little faith?" Then He rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm.
- 27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! The men were amazed, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!"
- 28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. When He arrived on the other side in the country of the Gergesenes, two men possessed with demons came out of the tombs to meet Him. They were so fierce that no one could pass that way.
- 29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? They cried out, "What do You want with us, Jesus, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the appointed time?"
- 30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. A large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away.
- 31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. The demons begged Him, "If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs."
- 32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. He said to them, "Go." They came out and went into the pigs. The whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the waters.

- 33

And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the city, and reported everything — including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.
- 34

And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

The whole city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Words in this chapter:

centurion (sen-TYUR-ee-un) — A Roman army officer commanding approximately 100 soldiers — several centurions in the NT show unusual faith in Jesus.

Chapter 9

Jesus heals a paralytic, forgives his sins, and calls Matthew the tax collector to follow Him. He raises a ruler's daughter from the dead, heals a woman with a twelve-year flow of blood, gives sight to two blind men, and casts out a demon from a mute man.

- 1

And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

Jesus got into the boat, crossed over, and came to His own city.

■ NAME NOTE — Matthew (MATH-yoo) — "gift of God" — A tax collector called by Jesus to be one of His twelve apostles. He is also the author of this Gospel.

- 10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. As Jesus reclined at table in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples.
- 11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? When the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, "Why does Your Master eat with tax collectors and sinners?"
- 12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. When Jesus heard this, He said, "Those who are well have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick do.
- 13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
- 14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? Then the disciples of John came to him and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?"
- 15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast. Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn while the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken from them, and then they will fast.
- 16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. The patch pulls away from the garment and the tear becomes worse.
- 17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins burst, the wine spills out, and the skins are ruined. They put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

- 18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. While He was saying these things, a ruler came and knelt before Him, saying, "My daughter has just died. But come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live."
- 19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. Jesus rose and followed Him, and so did His disciples.
- 20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment: A woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the edge of His garment.
- 21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole. She said to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I will be healed."
- 22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. Jesus turned and saw her. He said, "Take courage, daughter. Your faith has made You well." The woman was healed from that moment.
- 23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, When Jesus came to the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd,
- 24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. He said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping." They laughed at Him.
- 25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose. When the crowd had been put outside, He went in and took her by the hand. The girl arose.
- 26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land. The report of this spread throughout all that land.

- 27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us. As Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"
- 28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. When He entered the house, the blind men came to Him. Jesus said to them, "Do You believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."
- 29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. Then He touched their eyes, saying, "Let it be done to You according to Your faith."
- 30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. Their eyes were opened. Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about this."
- 31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country. But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout all that region.
- 32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. As they were going out, they brought to Him a mute man who was possessed with a demon.
- 33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"
- 34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils. But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons."
- 35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

36	But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.	When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd.
37	Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;	He said to His disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.
38	Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.	Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."

Words in this chapter:

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Pharisees (FAIR-ih-seez) — The most influential Jewish religious party in the NT — strict observers of the Law and its oral traditions; many became opponents of Jesus; their name means 'separated ones.'

Chapter 10

Jesus sends the twelve apostles out with authority to heal the sick, raise the dead, and cast out demons, instructing them to go only to the lost sheep of Israel. He warns them of persecution, teaches them not to fear those who can kill the body, and declares that whoever confesses Him before men, He will confess before the Father.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. | Jesus called His twelve disciples to Him and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. |
| 2 | Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; | These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; |

■ NAME NOTE — Peter (PEE-ter) — "rock" — The Greek form of the Aramaic name Cephas. Simon was given this name by Jesus, signifying his role as a leader among the apostles.

| 4 | Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. | Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. |

■ NAME NOTE — Judas Iscariot (JOO-dus iss-KAIR-ee-ut) — The meaning of "Iscariot" is uncertain — likely "man of Kerioth," a town in Judea. He was the apostle who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver.

| 5 | These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: | Jesus sent out these twelve and commanded them, "Do not go in the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter any city of the Samaritans. |
| 6 | But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. | Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. |
| 7 | And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. | As You go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is near.' |
| 8 | Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give. | Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely You have received — freely give. |

- 9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, Take no gold or silver or copper money in Your belts,
- 10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat. nor a bag for the journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor a staff. The worker is worthy of His food.
- 11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. Whatever city or town You enter, find out who is worthy in it, and stay there until You leave.
- 12 And when ye come into an house, salute it. When You enter a house, greet it.
- 13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. If the house is worthy, let Your peace come on it. If it is not worthy, let Your peace return to You.
- 14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. If anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, when You leave that house or city, shake the dust off Your feet.
- 15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. Truly I tell You, it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that city.
- 16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. I am sending You out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.
- 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; Be on guard against men, for they will hand You over to councils and flog You in their synagogues.

- 18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.
- 19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. When they hand You over, do not worry about how or what You will say. What You are to say will be given to You in that hour.
- 20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you. For it is not You who speaks, but the Spirit of Your Father speaking through You.
- 21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death. Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father His child. Children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.
- 22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved. You will be hated by all for My name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.
- 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come. When they persecute You in one city, flee to the next. Truly I tell You, You will not have gone through all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.
- 24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. A disciple is not above His teacher, nor a servant above His master.
- 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household? It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of his household!

- 26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. So do not fear them. There is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known.
- 27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light. What you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops.
- 28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
- 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge.
- 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
- 31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. So do not be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.
- 32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. So everyone who acknowledges Me before men, I will also acknowledge before My Father who is in heaven.
- 33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.
- 34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword.
- 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. For I came to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

| 42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. | Whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple — truly I tell you, he will certainly not lose his reward." |

Words in this chapter:

publican — A Jewish tax collector working for Rome — despised by fellow Jews as a traitor and swindler; also called 'tax collectors' in modern translations.

Samaritans (sah-MEHR-ih-tanz) — People of mixed descent who lived in Samaria after the Assyrian conquest — Jews despised them as half-breeds who had corrupted their religion; Jesus's parable of the Good Samaritan shocked His audience.

Gomorrah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 11

John the Baptist, imprisoned, sends messengers to ask Jesus if He is the promised Messiah, and Jesus points to His miracles as evidence. Jesus rebukes the cities of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum for their unbelief and invites the weary and heavy-laden to come to Him for rest.

|---|---|---|
| 1 | And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities. | When Jesus had finished giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their cities. |
| 2 | Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, | When John heard in prison about the works of Christ, He sent word through His disciples |
| 3 | And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? | and asked Him, "Are You the One who is to come, or should we look for another?" |
| 4 | Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: | Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: |

- 5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.
- 6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. Blessed is the one who does not stumble on account of Me."
- 7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
- 8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. What then did You go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Those who wear fine clothes are in kings' houses.
- 9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. What did You go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell You — and more than a prophet.
- 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. This is the one of whom it is written: 'I am sending My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.'
- 11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. Truly I tell You, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist. Yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than He.
- 12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been advancing forcefully, and forceful men lay hold of it.
- 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

- 14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come. And if You are willing to accept it, He is Elias who was to come.
- 15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.
- 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, To what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others:
- 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. 'We played the flute for You and You did not dance. We sang a lament and You did not mourn.'
- 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'
- 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children. The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look at this man — a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is proved right by her deeds."
- 20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not: Then Jesus began to denounce the cities where most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent.
- 21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. "Woe to You, Chorazin! Woe to You, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in You had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
- 22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. But I tell You, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for You.

- 23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. And You, Capernaum — will You be lifted up to heaven? No, You will go down to hell. For if the mighty works done in You had been done in Sodom, it would have remained to this day.
- 24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. But I tell You, it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom on the day of judgment than for You."
- 25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. At that time Jesus said, "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned and revealed them to little children.
- 26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. Yes, Father, for this was Your gracious will.
- 27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him. All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son — and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.
- 28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Come to Me, all You who are weary and burdened, and I will give You rest.
- 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. Take My yoke on You and learn from Me, for I am meek and lowly in heart. You will find rest for Your souls.
- 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Words in this chapter:

raiment — Clothing; garments — used throughout the KJV for both everyday clothes and royal dress.

Capernaum (kah-PER-nah-um) — A town on the northern shore of the Sea of Galilee — Jesus's base of operations for His Galilean ministry; home of Peter; where many miracles were performed.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 12

The Pharisees accuse Jesus of breaking the Sabbath when His disciples pluck grain, and Jesus heals a man with a withered hand on the Sabbath. The Pharisees attribute His power to Beelzebub, and Jesus warns that blasphemy against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven. He declares that His true family are those who do the will of His Father.

|---|---|--|
| 1 | At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat. | At that time Jesus walked through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick heads of grain and eat them. |
| 2 | But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day. | When the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath." |
| 3 | But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him; | He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him — |

- 4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests? how he entered the house of God and ate the showbread, which was not lawful for Him to eat, nor for those with Him, but only for the priests?
- 5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless? Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break the Sabbath and yet are guiltless?
- 6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple. I tell you, something greater than the temple is here.
- 7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. If you had known what this means — 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice' — you would not have condemned the guiltless.
- 8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day. For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
- 9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue: Departing from there, He went into their synagogue.
- 10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. A man was there with a withered hand. They asked Jesus, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" — so they could accuse Him.
- 11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? He said to them, "Which of You, if He has one sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out?
- 12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days. How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

- 13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other. Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and it was restored — as whole as the other.
- 14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him. The Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.
- 15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all; Jesus, knowing this, withdrew from there. Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all.
- 16 And charged them that they should not make him known: He warned them not to make Him known,
- 17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, so that what was spoken by Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled:
- 18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. "My servant whom I have chosen, My beloved in whom My soul delights — I will put My Spirit on Him, and He will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.
- 19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets. He will not quarrel or cry out. No one will hear his voice in the streets.
- 20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick He will not snuff out, until He leads justice to victory.
- 21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust. In His name the Gentiles will hope."
- 22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Him. He healed him, so that the mute man both spoke and saw.

- 23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? All the people were amazed and said, "Can this be the Son of David?"
- 24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils. But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man casts out demons only by Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons."
- 25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to ruin. Every city or house divided against itself will not stand.
- 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
- 27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. If I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your own sons cast them out? They will be your judges.
- 28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come to You.
- 29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. How can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless He first ties up the strong man? Then He can rob His house.
- 30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Whoever is not with Me is against Me. Whoever does not gather with Me scatters.
- 31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. Therefore I tell You, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men. But the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven.

- 32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven — not in this age or in the age to come.
- 33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad. The tree is known by its fruit.
- 34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. You brood of vipers! How can You speak good things when You are evil? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks.
- 35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. The good man brings good things out of His good treasure. The evil man brings evil things out of His evil treasure.
- 36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. I tell You that on the day of judgment, men will give account for every careless word they speak.
- 37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. By Your words You will be justified, and by Your words You will be condemned."
- 38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Master, we want to see a sign from You."
- 39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: He answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign. But no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonas.

- 40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. For just as Jonas was in the belly of the great fish three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights.
- 41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and something greater than Jonas is here.
- 42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. The queen of the south will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it. For she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and something greater than Solomon is here.
- 43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finds none.
- 44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished. Then it says, 'I will return to my house from where I came.' When it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order.
- 45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and live there. The final state of that man is worse than the first. So it will be with this evil generation."
- 46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. While He was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak with Him.

47	Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.	Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak with You."
48	But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?	He replied to the one who told him, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?"
49	And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!	Stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers.
50	For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.	Whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

Words in this chapter:

- shewbread (SHOW-bred) — Twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on the golden table in the Holy Place each Sabbath — representing the twelve tribes before God; also called 'bread of the Presence.'
- sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.
- Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — The capital of Assyria — the great city to which Jonah was sent; when he preached, the whole city repented; it was later destroyed as Nahum prophesied.

Chapter 13

Jesus teaches the crowds in parables, including the sower, the wheat and tares, the mustard seed, the leaven, the hidden treasure, the pearl of great price, and the dragnet. His own people in Nazareth reject Him, and He marvels at their unbelief.

| 1 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side. | That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the sea. |
| 2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. | Large crowds gathered around Him, so He got into a boat and sat down. All the crowd stood on the shore. |
| 3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; | He spoke many things to them in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. |
| 4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: | As He sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and ate them up. |
| 5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: | Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. They sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. |
| 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. | When the sun rose, they were scorched. Since they had no root, they withered away. |
| 7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: | Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. |
| 8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. | Still other seeds fell on good soil and produced a crop — a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold. |
| 9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. | Whoever has ears, let him hear." |
| 10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? | The disciples came and asked Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?" |

- 11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. He answered, "It has been given to You to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.
- 12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Whoever has, more will be given to him, and he will have great abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from Him.
- 13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. This is why I speak to them in parables — because seeing, they do not see; and hearing, they do not hear or understand.
- 14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: In them the prophecy of Esaias is fulfilled: 'You will keep on hearing but never understand, and You will keep on seeing but never perceive.
- 15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. For this people's heart has grown dull. Their ears are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes and hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn — and I would heal them.'
- 16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. But blessed are Your eyes, because they see, and Your ears, because they hear.
- 17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Truly I tell You, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what You see but did not see it, and to hear what You hear but did not hear it.

- 18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. Hear then the parable of the sower.
- 19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in His heart. This is what was sown along the path.
- 20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.
- 21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. But He has no root in Himself. He lasts only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, He quickly falls away.
- 22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
- 23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. As for what was sown on good ground, this is the one who hears the word and understands it. He produces fruit — some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."
- 24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.
- 25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. While men were sleeping, His enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, then went away.

- 26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. When the grain sprouted and formed heads, the weeds also appeared.
- 27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? The servants of the master came and said to Him, 'Sir, did You not sow good seed in Your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'
- 28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? He said to them, 'An enemy did this.' The servants asked Him, 'Do You want us to go and pull them up?'
- 29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. He said, 'No, lest when You gather the weeds You root up the wheat with them.
- 30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I will tell the reapers: Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."
- 31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field.
- 32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it grows, it becomes the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."
- 33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. He spoke another parable to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened."

- 34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them: Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables. He did not say anything to them without using a parable.
- 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: "I will open My mouth in parables. I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."
- 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. Then Jesus sent the crowds away and went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."
- 37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.
- 38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The field is the world. The good seed are the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one.
- 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the world. The reapers are the angels.
- 40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. As the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this world.
- 41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom everything that causes sin and all who practice iniquity.

- 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. They will throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
- 43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let him hear.
- 44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again. Then in his joy he went and sold everything He had and bought that field.
- 45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls.
- 46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it. When He found one pearl of great value, He went and sold everything He had and bought it.
- 47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind.
- 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. When it was full, men drew it to shore. They sat down and sorted the good fish into containers, but threw out the bad ones.
- 49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, So it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous
- 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. and throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.
- 51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Jesus said to them, "Have You understood all these things?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."

| 1 | At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, | At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus. |
| 2 | And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him. | He said to His servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him." |
| 3 | For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. | For Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison, for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. |

■ NAME NOTE — Herodias (heh-ROH-dee-us) — The wife of Herod Philip who left him to live with his brother Herod Antipas, the tetrarch. John the Baptist rebuked this unlawful marriage, which led to his imprisonment and death.

| 6 | But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod. | When Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the guests and pleased Herod. |
| 7 | Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask. | He therefore promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. |
| 8 | And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger. | Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here the head of John the Baptist on a platter." |
| 9 | And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her. | The king was grieved, but because of his oath and his guests, he commanded it to be given. |
| 10 | And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison. | He sent and had John beheaded in the prison. |
| 11 | And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother. | His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. |
| 12 | And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus. | John's disciples came and took the body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus. |
| 13 | When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities. | When Jesus heard this, He withdrew from there by boat to a remote place by Himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities. |
| 14 | And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick. | When Jesus came ashore, He saw a large crowd. He was moved with compassion for them and healed their sick. |

- 15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals. When evening came, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy themselves food."
- 16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat. Jesus said, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."
- 17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. They said to Him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish."
- 18 He said, Bring them hither to me. He said, "Bring them here to Me."
- 19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. He directed the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and two fish, He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.
- 20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full. They all ate and were satisfied. They picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.
- 21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children. The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.
- 22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away.
- 23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone. After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on a mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone.

- 24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary. The boat was already far from shore, being tossed by the waves, for the wind was against them.
- 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. In the fourth watch of the night — between three and six in the morning — Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.
- 26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. "It is a ghost!" they said, and they cried out in fear.
- 27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. But Jesus immediately spoke to them: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."
- 28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water. Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to You on the water."
- 29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus.
- 30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. But when He noticed the strong wind, He was afraid. Beginning to sink, He cried out, "Lord, save me!"
- 31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? Immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught Him. He said, "O You of little faith, why did You doubt?"
- 32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased. When they got into the boat, the wind died down.
- 33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. Those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God."
- 34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

- 35

And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

The men of that place recognized Him and sent word throughout all the surrounding region. They brought to Him all who were sick.
- 36

And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

They begged Him to let them touch even the edge of His garment. All who touched it were completely healed.

Chapter 15

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for placing their traditions above the commandments of God and teaches that what defiles a man comes from the heart, not from unwashed hands. He heals the daughter of a Canaanite woman and feeds four thousand men with seven loaves and a few fish.

- 1

Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

Then some scribes and Pharisees came from Jerusalem to Jesus and said,
- 2

Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

"Why do Your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don't wash their hands before they eat."

- 3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? He answered, "Why do You also break the commandment of God for the sake of Your tradition?"
- 4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. God commanded, 'Honor Your father and Your mother,' and 'Whoever curses his father or mother must be put to death.'
- 5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; But You say that if anyone tells his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might have received from me is a gift devoted to God,'
- 6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. he need not honor His father or mother. You have nullified the word of God for the sake of Your tradition.
- 7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied well about you when he said,
- 8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.
- 9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. Their worship of Me is empty, for they teach human rules as though they were God's commands."
- 10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: He called the crowd to Him and said, "Listen and understand.
- 11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. It is not what goes into the mouth that makes a person unclean. It is what comes out of the mouth that makes a person unclean."

- 12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"
- 13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. He answered, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.
- 14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Leave them alone. They are blind guides leading the blind. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."
- 15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable. Peter said to him, "Explain this parable to us."
- 16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Jesus said, "Are You still so slow to understand?"
- 17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? Don't You see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?
- 18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and those things make a person unclean.
- 19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: From the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, and slander.
- 20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man. These are what make a person unclean. But eating with unwashed hands does not make a person unclean."
- 21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. Jesus left from there and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

- 22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil. A Canaanite woman from that region came to Him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is badly tormented by a demon."
- 23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. He did not answer her a word. His disciples came and urged Him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us."
- 24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."
- 25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. But she came and knelt before Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"
- 26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."
- 27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."
- 28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour. Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, Your faith is great! Let it be done for You as You wish." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.
- 29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there. Jesus left that place and went along the Sea of Galilee. He went up on a hillside and sat down.

- 30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them: Large crowds came to Him, bringing the lame, the blind, the mute, the crippled, and many others, and laid them at His feet. He healed them.
- 31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel. The crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. They praised the God of Israel.
- 32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way. Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "I feel compassion for this crowd. They have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way."
- 33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude? His disciples said to Him, "Where would we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a large crowd?"
- 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. Jesus asked them, "How many loaves do You have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."
- 35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. He told the crowd to sit down on the ground.
- 36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to the disciples. The disciples gave them to the crowd.
- 37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full. They all ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

| 38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. | The number of those who ate was four thousand men, besides women and children. |
| 39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala. | After sending the crowd away, He got into the boat and went to the region of Magdala. |

Chapter 16

The Pharisees and Sadducees demand a sign, and Jesus warns His disciples of their leaven. Peter confesses that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God, and Jesus reveals that He must go to Jerusalem, suffer, be killed, and rise again on the third day.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. | The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested Him by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven. |
|---|---|

- 2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. He replied, "When evening comes, You say, 'It will be good weather, for the sky is red.'
- 3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? And in the morning You say, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to read the sky, but You cannot read the signs of the times.
- 4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed. A wicked and unfaithful generation asks for a sign. No sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." He left them and went away.
- 5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. When the disciples crossed to the other side of the lake, they had forgotten to bring bread.
- 6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Jesus said to them, "Watch out — be on guard against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. They discussed this among themselves, saying, "He said this because we didn't bring bread."
- 8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Knowing their discussion, Jesus said, "You of little faith, why are You talking among yourselves about having no bread?
- 9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Don't You remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets You gathered?
- 10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets You gathered?

- 11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? How do You not understand that I was not talking about bread? Guard yourselves against the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
- 12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. Then they understood that He was not telling them to guard against the leaven in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.
- 13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
- 14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others say Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
- 15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? "But who do you say I am?" He asked.
- 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."
- 17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. Jesus replied, "Blessed are You, Simon son of Jonah! Flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father in heaven.
- 18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church. The gates of hell will not overcome it.

- 19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."
- 20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ. Then He instructed the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.
- 21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. From that time on, Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem. He would suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes. He would be killed, and on the third day be raised to life.
- 22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This will never happen to You!"
- 23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me. You are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men."
- 24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wants to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up His cross, and follow Me.
- 25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. Whoever wants to save his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.
- 26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? What does it profit a man to gain the whole world yet lose his own soul? What can a man give in exchange for his soul?

Chapter 17

Jesus is transfigured on a high mountain before Peter, James, and John, and His face shines like the sun as Moses and Elijah appear with Him. He heals a demon-possessed boy the disciples could not cure and tells Peter to pay the temple tax with a coin found in a fish's mouth.

- | | |

| 1 And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, | Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother and led them up a high mountain by themselves. |
| 2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. | There He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. |
| 3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. | Moses and Elijah appeared and were talking with him. |
| 4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. | Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I will make three shelters — one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." |
| 5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him. | While He was still speaking, a bright cloud came over them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him!" |
| 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid. | When the disciples heard this, they fell face down and were terrified. |
| 7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid. | Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," He said. "Do not be afraid." |
| 8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. | When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. |
| 9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. | As they came down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Tell no one what you have seen until the Son of Man is raised from the dead." |

- 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come? His disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
- 11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things. Jesus replied, "Elijah does come first, and will restore all things.
- 12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them. But I tell You, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize Him but did to Him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands."
- 13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist. Then the disciples understood that He was talking to them about John the Baptist.
- 14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, When they came to the crowd, a man came to Jesus, knelt before Him, and said,
- 15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. "Lord, have mercy on my son. He has seizures and suffers greatly. He often falls into the fire and often into the water.
- 16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him. I brought Him to Your disciples, but they could not heal Him."
- 17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with You? How long shall I put up with You? Bring Him here to Me."
- 18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of Him. The boy was healed from that very hour.

- 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out? Afterward the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"
- 20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. He said to them, "Because of Your unbelief. Truly I tell You, if You have faith as small as a mustard seed, You can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for You."
- 21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting. But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.
- 22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men: While they were gathered in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.
- 23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised to life." The disciples were deeply grieved.
- 24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and asked, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"
- 25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? "Yes, He does," Peter replied. When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke to Him first: "What do You think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect taxes — from their own sons or from others?"
- 26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free. "From others," Peter answered. "Then the sons are exempt," Jesus said to Him.

| 27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee. | But so that we may not offend them, go to the sea and cast a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, and when You open its mouth, You will find a coin. Take it and give it to them for My tax and Yours." |

Jesus teaches about humility, warning His disciples that they must become like little children to enter the kingdom of heaven. He tells the parable of the lost sheep and the parable of the unforgiving servant, and instructs on how to handle sin within the church.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? | At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" |
| 2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, | He called a little child over and set Him in the middle of them. |

- 3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. He said, "Truly I tell You, unless You change and become like little children, You will never enter the kingdom of heaven.
- 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
- 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. And whoever welcomes a little child like this in My name welcomes Me.
- 6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble — it would be better for Him to have a large millstone hung around His neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.
- 7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to stumble! Such things must come, but woe to the person through whom they come!
- 8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. If Your hand or Your foot causes You to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. It is better to enter life lame or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into everlasting fire.
- 9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. If Your eye causes You to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away. It is better to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell fire.
- 10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. See that You do not look down on one of these little ones. I tell You that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven.

- 11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. The Son of Man came to save what was lost.
- 12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? What do You think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one wanders away, will He not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off?
- 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. If He finds it, truly I tell You, He is happier over that one sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not wander off.
- 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish. In the same way, it is not the will of Your Father in heaven that any of these little ones should perish.
- 15 Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. If Your brother sins against You, go and show Him His fault — just between the two of You. If He listens to You, You have won Your brother back.
- 16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. But if He will not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be confirmed by the testimony of two or three witnesses.
- 17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. If He refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If He refuses to listen even to the church, treat Him as You would a pagan or a tax collector.
- 18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Truly I tell You, whatever You bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever You loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

- 19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. Again, truly I tell You, if two of You on earth agree about anything You ask for, it will be done for You by My Father in heaven.
- 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. For where two or three gather in My name, I am there with them."
- 21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother when He sins against me? Up to seven times?"
- 22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Jesus answered, "I tell You, not seven times, but seventy times seven.
- 23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. The kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with His servants.
- 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. As He began the accounting, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to Him.
- 25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. Since He could not pay, the master ordered that He, his wife, His children, and all that He had be sold to repay the debt.
- 26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. The servant fell on his knees before him. "Be patient with me," he begged, "and I will pay back everything."
- 27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. The servant's master felt compassion for him, released Him, and forgave the debt.

Chapter 19

Jesus teaches on marriage and divorce, blesses little children, and tells a rich young man to sell all he has and follow Him. The young man goes away sorrowful, and Jesus tells His disciples it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.

| 1 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan; | When Jesus had finished saying these things, He left Galilee and went to the region of Judea on the other side of the Jordan. |
| 2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there. | Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. |
| 3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? | Some Pharisees came to test Him. They asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?" |
| 4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, | He answered, "Have You not read that He who created them from the beginning made them male and female, |
| 5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? | and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'? |

- 6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate."
- 7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? "Why then," they asked, "did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?"
- 8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of Your hard hearts. But it was not this way from the beginning.
- 9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. I tell You that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another commits adultery."
- 10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. The disciples said to Him, "If that is how it is between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry."
- 11 But he said unto them, Not all men can receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. Jesus replied, "Not everyone can accept this teaching — only those to whom it has been given.
- 12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it. Some are born without the ability to marry. Some are made that way by others. And some choose to live that way for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who can accept this accept it."

- 13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. Then little children were brought to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.
- 14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me and do not stop them. The kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
- 15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence. He placed His hands on them and then left from there.
- 16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? A man came to Jesus and asked, "Master, what good thing must I do to have eternal life?"
- 17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. Jesus said, "Why do You ask Me about what is good? There is only One who is good. If You want to enter life, keep the commandments."
- 18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, "Which ones?" he asked. Jesus replied, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,
- 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. honor Your father and mother, and love Your neighbor as Yourself."
- 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? The young man said, "I have kept all these. What do I still lack?"
- 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. Jesus answered, "If You want to be perfect, go and sell what You own and give the money to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Then come and follow Me."

- 22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. When the young man heard this, He went away sad, because He had great wealth.
- 23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I tell You, it is hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven.
- 24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. Again I tell You, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God."
- 25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceeding amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?"
- 26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Jesus looked at them and said, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."
- 27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? Peter answered him, "We have left everything to follow You! What then will there be for us?"
- 28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell You, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, You who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for My sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life.

- 30
- But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.*

But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

Chapter 20

Jesus tells the parable of the laborers in the vineyard, where those hired last receive the same wage as those hired first. He foretells His crucifixion and resurrection a third time, rebukes the ambition of James and John's mother, and heals two blind men near Jericho.

- 1

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.
- 2

And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

He agreed to pay the workers a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.
- 3

And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

About nine in the morning He went out and saw others standing idle in the marketplace.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 4 | And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. | He told them, "You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay You what is right." So they went. |
| 5 | Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. | He went out again about noon and at three in the afternoon and did the same. |
| 6 | And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? | About five in the afternoon He went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, "Why have You been standing here all day doing nothing?" |
| 7 | They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. | "Because no one has hired us," they answered. He said to them, "You also go and work in my vineyard." |
| 8 | So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. | When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to His foreman, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first." |
| 9 | And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. | The workers hired about five in the afternoon came, and each received a denarius. |
| 10 | But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. | When the workers hired first came, they expected to receive more. But each of them also received a denarius. |
| 11 | And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, | When they received it, they grumbled against the landowner. |

- 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. "These workers hired last worked only one hour," they said, "and You have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and heat of the day."
- 13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? He answered one of them, "Friend, I am not treating You unfairly. Didn't You agree to work for a denarius?"
- 14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Take Your pay and go. I want to give the last worker hired the same as I gave You.
- 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are You envious because I am generous?"
- 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen. So the last will be first, and the first will be last. For many are called, but few are chosen."
- 17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them, As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside and said to them,
- 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, "We are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death
- 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. and hand Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged, and crucified. On the third day He will be raised to life."
- 20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her sons. She knelt down and asked something of Him.

- 21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. "What do You want?" He asked. She said, "Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at Your right hand and the other at Your left in Your kingdom."
- 22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. Jesus replied, "You don't know what You are asking. Can You drink the cup I am going to drink?" "We can," they answered.
- 23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink from My cup. But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant — it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."
- 24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren. When the other ten disciples heard about this, they were indignant at the two brothers.
- 25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. Jesus called them together and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.
- 26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister; It is not to be that way with You. Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant,
- 27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: and whoever wants to be first must be your slave —
- 28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 29 | And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. | As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. |
| 30 | And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. | Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!" |
| 31 | And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. | The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they cried out all the louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!" |
| 32 | And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you? | Jesus stopped and called them. "What do You want Me to do for You?" He asked. |
| 33 | They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. | "Lord," they answered, "we want our eyes to be opened." |
| 34 | So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him. | Jesus felt compassion for them and touched their eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed Him. |

Jesus enters Jerusalem riding on a donkey as crowds cry 'Hosanna to the Son of David.' He drives out the money changers from the temple, curses a fig tree that withers, and challenges the chief priests and elders with the parables of the two sons and the wicked husbandmen.

- | | |

| 1 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, | When they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples ahead. |
| 2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me. | He said to them, "Go into the village ahead of You, and at once You will find a donkey tied there, with her colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to Me. |
| 3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. | If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and He will send them right away." |
| 4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, | This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: |
| 5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. | "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'See, your King comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" |
| 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them, | The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. |
| 7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. | They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them. |

- 8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.
- 9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. The crowds that went ahead of Him and those that followed shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"
- 10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"
- 11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee. The crowds answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."
- 12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, Jesus entered the temple of God and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves.
- 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. He said to them, "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,' but You have made it a den of thieves."
- 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. The blind and the lame came to Him at the temple, and He healed them.
- 15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things He did, and the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant.

- 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? "Do You hear what these children are saying?" they asked Him. "Yes," Jesus replied. "Have You never read, 'From the mouths of children and infants You have ordained praise'?"
- 17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there. He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where He stayed that night.
- 18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered. Early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He was hungry.
- 19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. Seeing a fig tree by the road, He went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, "May You never bear fruit again!" At once the fig tree withered.
- 20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. "How did the fig tree wither so quickly?" they asked.
- 21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. Jesus replied, "Truly I tell You, if You have faith and do not doubt, You can do not only what was done to the fig tree, but also say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and it will be done.
- 22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. Whatever You ask for in prayer, if You believe, You will receive."
- 23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? Jesus entered the temple, and while He was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You this authority?"

- 24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things. Jesus replied, "I will also ask You one question. If You answer Me, I will tell You by what authority I do these things.
- 25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him? John's baptism — where did it come from? From heaven, or from men?" They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Then why didn't You believe Him?'"
- 26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet. But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the people, for they all regard John as a prophet."
- 27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." He said to them, "Neither will I tell You by what authority I am doing these things.
- 28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. What do You think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.'
- 29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went. 'I will not,' he answered, but later He changed His mind and went.
- 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. The father went to the second son and said the same. He answered, 'I will, sir,' but He did not go.
- 31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. Which of the two did the will of His father?" "The first," they answered. Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell You, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of You.

- 32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe Him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed Him. And even after You saw this, You did not repent and believe Him.
- 33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country: Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then He rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.
- 34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it. When harvest time approached, He sent His servants to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit.
- 35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. But the farmers seized His servants. They beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.
- 36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. Then He sent more servants than the first group, and they treated them the same way.
- 37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. Last of all, He sent His son to them. "They will respect my son," he said.
- 38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance. But when the farmers saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come, let us kill Him and take His inheritance."
- 39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. So they seized Him, threw Him out of the vineyard, and killed Him.
- 40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will He do to those farmers?"

- 41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end," they replied, "and He will rent the vineyard to other farmers who will give Him His share at harvest time."
- 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Jesus said to them, "Have You never read in the Scriptures: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. The Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"
- 43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. Therefore I tell You that the kingdom of God will be taken from You and given to a people who will produce its fruit.
- 44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on."
- 45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they knew He was speaking about them.
- 46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet. They looked for a way to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the crowd, because the people regarded him as a prophet.

Words in this chapter:

Hosanna (ho-ZAN-ah) — Hebrew cry meaning 'Save us, we pray!' — used as a shout of praise and welcome for the coming King.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 22

Jesus tells the parable of the marriage feast, where those first invited refuse to come and the king sends his servants into the highways. The Pharisees, Sadducees, and Herodians test Him with questions about paying tribute to Caesar, the resurrection, and the greatest commandment.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said, | Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying, |
| 2 | The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, | "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for His son. |
| 3 | And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. | He sent His servants to call those who had been invited to the banquet, but they refused to come. |
| 4 | Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. | Then He sent more servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.' |
| 5 | But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: | But they paid no attention and went away — one to His field, another to His business. |
| 6 | And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. | The rest seized His servants, mistreated them, and killed them. |

- 7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.
- 8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited were not worthy.'
- 9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. Go to the street corners and invite anyone you find to the banquet.'
- 10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both bad and good. The wedding hall was filled with guests.
- 11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.
- 12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. "Friend," he asked, "how did you get in here without wedding clothes?" The man had no answer.
- 13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the king told the servants, "Tie him hand and foot and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
- 14 For many are called, but few are chosen. For many are called, but few are chosen."
- 15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. Then the Pharisees went out and made plans to trap Jesus in His words.

- 16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. They sent their disciples to Him along with the Herodians. "Master," they said, "we know You are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God truthfully. You are not influenced by others, because You pay no attention to who they are.
- 17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? Tell us then, what is Your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
- 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are You trying to trap Me?"
- 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. Show Me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought Him a denarius.
- 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? He asked them, "Whose image is this, and whose inscription?"
- 21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's. "Caesar's," they replied. He said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and give to God what is God's."
- 22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way. When they heard this, they were amazed. They left Him and went away.
- 23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him with a question.
- 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. "Master," they said, "Moses told us that if a man dies without children, his brother must marry the widow and have children for him.

- 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother: Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother.
- 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh.
- 27 And last of all the woman died also. Last of all, the woman died.
- 28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. So then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven? They all had her."
- 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. Jesus replied, "You are wrong because You know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God.
- 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. At the resurrection, people will neither marry nor be given in marriage. They will be like the angels in heaven.
- 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, But about the resurrection of the dead — have You not read what God said to You:
- 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead but of the living."
- 33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine. When the crowd heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.
- 34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they came together.
- 35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, One of them, a lawyer, tested Him with this question:
- 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law? "Master, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

|---|---|
| 37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. | Jesus replied, "Love the Lord Your God with all Your heart and with all Your soul and with all Your mind. |
| 38 This is the first and great commandment. | This is the first and greatest commandment. |
| 39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. | And the second is like it: Love Your neighbor as Yourself. |
| 40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. | All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments." |
| 41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, | While the Pharisees were gathered, Jesus asked them, |
| 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. | "What do You think about the Christ? Whose son is He?" "The son of David," they replied. |
| 43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, | He said to them, "How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls Him 'Lord'? For He says, |
| 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? | "The LORD said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand until I put Your enemies under Your feet." |
| 45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son? | If then David calls him 'Lord,' how can he be his son?" |
| 46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions. | No one could answer him a word, and from that day on no one dared to question him any further. |

Words in this chapter:

Sadducees (SAD-yoo-seez) — A Jewish priestly party that controlled the temple — they rejected the resurrection, angels, and oral tradition; they opposed both Jesus and the apostles.

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Chapter 23

Jesus pronounces seven woes on the scribes and Pharisees, calling them hypocrites, blind guides, and whitewashed tombs. He laments over Jerusalem, declaring that her house is left desolate and that she will not see Him again until she says, 'Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord.'

| 3 | All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. | So practice and obey everything they tell you. But do not follow their example, because they do not practice what they teach. |

| 5 | But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, | Everything they do is done for people to see. They make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long. |

■ WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. The KJV uses "damnation" and "damned" where some modern translations say "judgment" or "condemnation." The KJV word is stronger — it points to the ultimate, irreversible verdict of God against unrepentant sin.

- 15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when You have won Him, You make Him twice as much a child of hell as You are.
- 16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! Woe to You, blind guides! You say, "If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing. But if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by His oath."
- 17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?
- 18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. You also say, "If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing. But if anyone swears by the gift on the altar, he is bound by His oath."
- 19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred?
- 20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. Therefore, whoever swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it.
- 21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. Whoever swears by the temple swears by it and by the One who lives in it.
- 22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon. And whoever swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the One who sits on it.

- 23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You give a tenth of Your spices — mint, anise, and cumin. But You have neglected the more important matters of the law: judgment, mercy, and faith. You should have practiced these without neglecting the others.
- 24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.
- 25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.
- 26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside will also be clean.
- 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean.
- 28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. In the same way, on the outside You appear righteous to others, but on the inside You are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
- 29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, Woe to You, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous.

- 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. You say, "If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part in shedding the blood of the prophets."
- 31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets. By saying this, You testify against yourselves that You are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.
- 32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. Go ahead, then, and complete what Your ancestors started!
- 33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will You escape the damnation of hell?
- 34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: Therefore I am sending You prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them You will kill and crucify. Others You will flog in Your synagogues and pursue from town to town.
- 35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. So on you will come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.
- 36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. Truly I tell you, all this will come on this generation.
- 37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you! How often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing!

- 38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. Your house is left to you desolate.
- 39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. For I tell you, you will not see Me again until you say, "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord."

Words in this chapter:

damnation — God's final judgment against sin — eternal separation from God; the sentence passed on unrepentant sinners.

phylacteries (fih-LAK-ter-eez) — Small leather boxes containing Scripture verses, strapped to the forehead and arm during prayer — a Jewish practice based on Deuteronomy 6:8.

Abel (AY-bel) — Adam and Eve's second son — a shepherd whose offering God accepted; murdered by his brother Cain; in the NT, a model of faith.

Zacharias (zak-ah-RY-as) — A priest and the father of John the Baptist — struck mute when he doubted the angel's announcement; his name means 'the LORD remembers.'

Chapter 24

Jesus foretells the destruction of the temple and the signs of His second coming, including wars, famines, false prophets, and the abomination of desolation. He warns His disciples to watch and be ready, for the Son of man will come at an hour they do not expect.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. | Jesus left the temple and was walking away when His disciples came up to point out the temple buildings to Him. |
| 2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. | He said to them, "Do You see all these things? Truly I tell You, not one stone here will be left on another — every one will be thrown down." |
| 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? | As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen? And what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the world?" |
| 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. | Jesus answered, "Watch out that no one deceives you. |
| 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. | Many will come in My name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. |
| 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. | You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that You are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. |
| 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. | Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. |
| 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows. | All these are the beginning of sorrows. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. | Then You will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death. You will be hated by all nations because of Me. |
| 10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. | At that time many will fall away. They will betray one another and hate one another. |
| 11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. | Many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. |
| 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. | Because iniquity will increase, the love of most will grow cold. |
| 13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. | But the one who stands firm to the end will be saved. |
| 14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. | And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. |
| 15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) | So when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of through the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place — let the reader understand — |
| 16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: | then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. |
| 17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: | Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house. |
| 18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. | Let no one in the field go back to get his cloak. |
| 19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! | Woe to pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days! |

- 20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day: Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.
- 21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now — and never will be again.
- 22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened.
- 23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. At that time if anyone says to you, 'Here is the Christ!' or 'There He is!' do not believe it.
- 24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. False christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders — so great as to deceive even the elect, if that were possible.
- 25 Behold, I have told you before. I have told You this ahead of time.
- 26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not. So if anyone tells you, 'He is out in the desert,' do not go out. Or, 'He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.
- 27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.
- 28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.

- 29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: Immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light. The stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
- 30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven. All the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
- 31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. He will send His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.
- 32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branches become tender and put out leaves, You know that summer is near.
- 33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. In the same way, when You see all these things, You know that it is near, right at the door.
- 34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled. Truly I tell You, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.
- 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.
- 36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But about that day or hour no one knows — not even the angels in heaven — but My Father only.
- 37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

- 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, In the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, right up to the day Noah entered the ark.
- 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. They knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and swept them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.
- 40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two men will be in the field — one will be taken and the other left.
- 41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill — one will be taken and the other left.
- 42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore keep watch, because You do not know on what day Your Lord will come.
- 43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, He would have stayed awake and not let His house be broken into.
- 44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. So You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when You do not expect Him.
- 45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom the master has put in charge of his household to give them their food at the proper time?
- 46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. It will go well for that servant whose master finds Him doing this when He returns.
- 47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. Truly I tell You, He will put Him in charge of all His possessions.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 48 | But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; | But suppose that servant is wicked and says to Himself, "My master is delayed," |
| 49 | And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; | and He begins to strike His fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. |
| 50 | The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, | The master of that servant will come on a day He does not expect and at an hour He is not aware of. |
| 51 | And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. | He will cut Him to pieces and assign Him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. |

Words in this chapter:

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Noah (NO-ah) — The righteous man God chose to preserve humanity and the animals through the Flood — he built the ark at God's command; his name means 'rest' or 'comfort.'

Chapter 25

Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins, the parable of the talents, and describes the final judgment when the Son of man separates the nations as a shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Those who served the least of His brethren enter eternal life, and those who did not are cast into everlasting punishment.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. | At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. |
| 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. | Five of them were foolish and five were wise. |
| 3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: | The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. |
| 4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. | The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. |
| 5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept. | The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. |
| 6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him. | At midnight the cry rang out: "Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet Him!" |
| 7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. | Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. |
| 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. | The foolish ones said to the wise, "Give us some of Your oil — our lamps are going out." |
| 9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. | "No," they replied, "there may not be enough for both us and You. Go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves." |
| 10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. | But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The ones who were ready went in with Him to the wedding banquet. The door was shut. |

- 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. Later the others also came. "Lord! Lord!" they said. "Open the door for us!"
- 12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. But He replied, "Truly I tell You, I do not know You."
- 13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. Therefore keep watch, because You do not know the day or the hour.
- 14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. It is like a man going on a journey who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them.
- 15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. To one He gave five talents, to another two talents, and to another one talent — each according to His ability. Then He went on His journey.
- 16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. The man who had received five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more.
- 17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. In the same way, the one with two talents gained two more.
- 18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. But the man who had received one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.
- 19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.
- 20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. The man who had received five talents came and brought the other five. "Master," he said, "you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more."

- 21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"
- 22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them. The man with two talents also came. "Master," he said, "you entrusted me with two talents. See, I have gained two more."
- 23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"
- 24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: Then the man who had received one talent came. "Master," he said, "I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.
- 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. Here is what belongs to you."
- 26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed: His master replied, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed?
- 27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury. Then you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

- 28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents. Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten talents.
- 29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.
- 30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And throw that worthless servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
- 31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne.
- 32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people from one another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
- 33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. He will put the sheep on His right and the goats on His left.
- 34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: Then the King will say to those on his right, "Come, you who are blessed by My Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
- 35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: For I was hungry and you gave Me food. I was thirsty and you gave Me drink. I was a stranger and you took Me in.
- 36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. I was naked and you clothed Me. I was sick and you looked after Me. I was in prison and you came to visit Me."

- 37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink?"
- 38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
- 39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? When did we see You sick or in prison and go to visit You?"
- 40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. The King will reply, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me."
- 41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: Then He will say to those on His left, "Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels."
- 42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat. I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink.
- 43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. I was a stranger and you did not take Me in. I was naked and you did not clothe Me. I was sick and in prison and you did not visit Me."
- 44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? They also will answer, "Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not help You?"
- 45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. He will reply, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me."

Chapter 26

Jesus observes the Last Supper with His disciples, institutes the new covenant in His blood, and prays in agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. Judas betrays Him with a kiss, and Jesus is arrested, tried before Caiaphas and the Sanhedrin, and denied three times by Peter.

| 1 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples, | When Jesus had finished all these teachings, He said to His disciples, |
| 2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified. | "As You know, the Passover is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified." |
| 3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, | Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people gathered at the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas. |

| 4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him. | They made plans to arrest Jesus secretly and kill Him. |
| 5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people. | "But not during the feast," they said, "or there may be a riot among the people." |
| 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, | While Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, |
| 7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat. | a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume and poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. |
| 8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? | When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked. |
| 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor. | "This could have been sold for a great deal of money and given to the poor." |
| 10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. | Aware of their reaction, Jesus said to them, "Why are You bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for Me. |
| 11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. | The poor You will always have with You, but You will not always have Me. |
| 12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. | When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial. |
| 13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her. | Truly I tell You, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her." |
| 14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, | Then one of the twelve — the one called Judas Iscariot — went to the chief priests |

- 15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?" They counted out thirty silver coins for him.
- 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him. From that time on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.
- 17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"
- 18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell Him, 'The Master says: My time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with My disciples at Your house.'"
- 19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover. So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.
- 20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the twelve.
- 21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. While they were eating, He said, "Truly I tell You, one of You will betray Me."
- 22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? They were deeply grieved and began to say to Him one after another, "Surely not I, Lord?"
- 23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. He answered, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with Me will betray Me."

- 24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for Him if He had not been born."
- 25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said. Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, "Surely not I, Master?" Jesus answered, "You have said it."
- 26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to His disciples. He said, "Take and eat; this is My body."
- 27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of You.
- 28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. This is My blood of the new testament, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins.
- 29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom. I tell You, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with You in My Father's kingdom."
- 30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
- 31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. Then Jesus told them, "This very night You will all fall away because of Me. For it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'
- 32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. But after I am raised, I will go ahead of You into Galilee."

- 33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Peter declared, "Even if all the others fall away because of You, I never will."
- 34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Jesus answered, "Truly I tell You, this very night, before the rooster crows, You will deny Me three times."
- 35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples. Peter said, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny You." And all the other disciples said the same.
- 36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. Then Jesus went with His disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and He said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."
- 37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him and began to be sorrowful and deeply troubled.
- 38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. He said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me."
- 39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt. Going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will."
- 40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Could you not keep watch with Me for one hour?"
- 41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

- 42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done."
- 43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.
- 44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. So He left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.
- 45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Then He returned to the disciples and said to them, "Are You still sleeping and resting? The hour has come. The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.
- 46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. Rise! Let us go! My betrayer is approaching."
- 47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. While He was still speaking, Judas — one of the twelve — arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and elders of the people.
- 48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. Now the betrayer had arranged a sign with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him."
- 49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him. Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Master!" and kissed him.
- 50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. Jesus replied, "Friend, why have You come?" Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus, and arrested Him.

- 51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear. Then one of Jesus' companions reached out His hand, drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.
- 52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. "Put Your sword back in its place," Jesus said. "For all who draw the sword will die by the sword.
- 53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? Do You think I cannot call on My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels?
- 54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"
- 55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. At that hour Jesus said to the crowd, "Have You come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as though I were a criminal? Every day I sat in the temple teaching, and You did not arrest Me.
- 56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. But all this has taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.
- 57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had assembled.
- 58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end. But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He went in and sat with the guards to see how things would turn out.

- 59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; The chief priests and the whole council looked for false testimony against Jesus so they could put Him to death.
