- 13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it. So those who were engaged in the work labored, and the repairing went forward in their hands. They restored the house of God to its proper condition and strengthened it.
- 14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made utensils for the house of the LORD, both for the service and for the burnt offerings, and dishes for incense and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD regularly all the days of Jehoiada.
- 15 But Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died. But Jehoiada grew old and full of days, and died. He was one hundred thirty years old at His death.
- 16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house. They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and His house.
- 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them. Now after the death of Jehoiada the princes of Judah came and paid homage to the king. Then the king listened to them.
- 18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. They abandoned the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the groves and the idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.
- 19 Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. Yet He sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD. These testified against them. But they would not pay attention.

- 20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you. Then the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do You break the commandments of the LORD, so that You cannot prosper? Because You have forsaken the LORD, He has forsaken You.' "
- 21 And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. But they conspired against Him, and by command of the king they stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD.
- 22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it. Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had shown him, but killed his son. And when He was dying, He said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"
- 23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. At the end of the year the army of the Syrians came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.
- 24 For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash. Though the army of the Syrians had come with few men, the LORD delivered into their hand a very great army, because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. Thus they executed judgment on Joash.

And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.
- When they had departed from him, leaving him severely wounded, his servants conspired against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. They buried him in the city of David. But they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.
- 26

And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabite.
- Those who conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonite, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabite.
- 27

Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.
- Accounts of his sons and of the many oracles against him and of the rebuilding of the house of God are written in the commentary on the Book of the Kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Words in this chapter:

- burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.
- tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Amaziah of Judah — 796–767 BC

Chapter 25

Amaziah defeated the Edomites in the Valley of Salt but then brought back their gods and worshipped them. He challenged Joash king of Israel, was defeated, and Jerusalem's wall was broken down; he was later killed by conspirators.

| 1 | Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. | Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. He reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. |
| 2 | And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. | He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not with a whole heart. |
| 3 | Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. | As soon as the royal power was firmly his, he killed his servants who had struck down the king his father. |
| 4 | But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin. | But He did not put their children to death, according to what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, "Fathers shall not die because of their children, nor children die because of their fathers, but each one shall die for his own sin." |
| 5 | Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. | Then Amaziah assembled Judah and set them by fathers' houses under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those twenty years old and upward, and found that they were three hundred thousand choice men, fit for war, able to handle spear and shield. |
| 6 | He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver. | He hired also one hundred thousand mighty warriors from Israel for one hundred talents of silver. |

- 7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim. But a man of God came to Him and said, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with You, for the LORD is not with Israel, with all these Ephraimites.
- 8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down. But if You go, be strong for the battle. Yet God shall make You fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to cast down."
- 9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this. Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Israel?" The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give You much more than this."
- 10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger. Then Amaziah set apart the army that had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home again. And they became very angry with Judah and returned home in fierce anger.
- 11 And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. But Amaziah took courage and led his people out and went to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand men of Seir.
- 12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces. The people of Judah captured another ten thousand alive and took them to the top of a rock and threw them down from the top of the rock. They were all dashed to pieces.

- 13 But the soldiers of the army which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even unto Bethhoron, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil. But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, not letting them go with him to battle, raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-horon, and struck down three thousand people in them and took much plunder.
- 14 Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them. After Amaziah came from striking down the Edomites, he brought the gods of the men of Seir and set them up as His gods and worshiped them, making offerings to them.
- 15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand? Therefore the LORD was angry with Amaziah and sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have You sought the gods of a people who did not deliver their own people from Your hand?"
- 16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel. But as he was speaking, the king said to him, "Have we made you a royal counselor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?" So the prophet stopped, but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel."
- 17 Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face. Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one another in battle."

- 18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.
- 19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?
- 20 But Amaziah would not hear; for it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.
- 21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belongeth to Judah.
- 22 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.
- 23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, at Bethshemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits.
- Joash king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, "A thistle on Lebanon sent to a cedar on Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' and a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the thistle.
- You say, 'See, I have struck down Edom,' and your heart has lifted you up in boastfulness. But now stay at home. Why should you provoke trouble so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"
- But Amaziah would not listen, for it was of God, in order that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought the gods of Edom.
- So Joash king of Israel went up. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another in battle at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
- Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his home.
- Joash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem for four hundred cubits, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

Uzziah (Azariah) of Judah — 767–740 BC

Chapter 26

Uzziah reigned fifty-two years and prospered as long as he sought the LORD, building towers and maintaining a great army. But he grew proud and entered the temple to burn incense; God struck him with leprosy, and he lived in isolation until his death.

- | | | |
| 1 | Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah. | All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. |
| 2 | He built Eloth, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. | He built Eloth and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers. |
| 3 | Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. | Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign. He reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. |
| 4 | And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. | He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that His father Amaziah had done. |
| 5 | And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper. | He set Himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God, and as long as He sought the LORD, God made Him prosper. |
| 6 | And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. | He went out and made war against the Philistines and broke down the wall of Gath and the wall of Jabneh and the wall of Ashdod. He built cities in the territory of Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines. |

- 7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gurbaal, and the Mehunims. God helped Him against the Philistines and against the Arabians who lived in Gur-baal and against the Meunites.
- 8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly. The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread even to the border of Egypt, for he became very strong.
- 9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate and at the Valley Gate and at the Angle. He fortified them.
- 10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry. He built towers in the wilderness and cut out many cisterns, for he had large herds, both in the Shephelah and in the plain. He had farmers and vinedressers in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.
- 11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. Moreover, Uzziah had an army of soldiers, fit for war, who went to battle in divisions, according to the numbers in the muster made by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer, under the direction of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.
- 12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred. The whole number of the heads of fathers' houses of mighty warriors was two thousand six hundred.
- 13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. Under their command was an army of three hundred seven thousand five hundred who could make war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

- 14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones. Uzziah prepared for all the army shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging.
- 15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong. In Jerusalem he made machines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. And his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong.
- 16 But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. But when He was strong, He grew proud, to His destruction. For He was unfaithful to the LORD His God and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.
- 17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men: But Azariah the priest went in after him, with eighty priests of the LORD Who were men of valor,
- 18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God. They withstood King Uzziah and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary, for You have done wrong. It will bring You no honor from the LORD God."

- 19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense. Then Uzziah was angry. Now he had a censer in his hand to burn incense, and when He became angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on His forehead in the presence of the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense.
- 20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him. Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at Him. He was leprous in His forehead! And they rushed Him out quickly. He Himself hurried to go out, because the LORD had struck Him.
- 21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death, and being a leper lived in a separate house, for He was excluded from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son was over the king's household, governing the people of the land.
- 22 Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz wrote.
- 23 So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead. Uzziah slept with his fathers. They buried him with his fathers in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." And Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Words in this chapter:

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Jotham of Judah — 740–732 BC

Chapter 27

Jotham did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and became mighty because he ordered his ways before God. He built the upper gate of the temple, fortified cities, and defeated the Ammonites.

- | | | |
| 1 | Jotham was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. | Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. He reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. |
| 2 | And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly. | He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD according to all that His father Uzziah had done — except he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people still acted corruptly. |
| 3 | He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. | He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel. |
| 4 | Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. | He built cities in the hill country of Judah, and forts and towers on the wooded hills. |

He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay him, both the second year, and the third.
- 6

So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.
- 7

Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
- 8

He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
- 9

And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.
- He fought with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. And the Ammonites gave him that year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand cors of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The Ammonites paid him the same amount in the second and the third years.
- So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD His God.
- Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.
- He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. He reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.
- Jotham slept with his fathers. They buried him in the city of David, and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Ahaz of Judah — 732–715 BC

Chapter 28

Ahaz did not walk in the ways of the LORD but made images for the Baals and burned his sons in the fire. God delivered him into the hands of Syria and Israel, who killed and captured vast numbers; Ahaz then sought help from Assyria, which only oppressed him further.

- | | | |
| 1 | Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father: | Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign. He reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And He did not do what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as His father David had done, |
| 2 | For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim. | But He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even made metal images for the Baals, |
| 3 | Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. | He made offerings in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom and burned His sons as an offering, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel. |
| 4 | He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. | He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places and on the hills and under every green tree. |
| 5 | Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. | Therefore the LORD His God gave Him into the hand of the king of Syria, who defeated him and took captive a great number of His people and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with great force. |
| 6 | For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. | For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred twenty thousand from Judah in one day, all of them men of valor, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. |

- 7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king. Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son and Azrikam the commander of the palace and Elkanah the next in authority to the king.
- 8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. The people of Israel took captive two hundred thousand of their relatives, women, sons, and daughters. They also took much spoil from them and brought the spoil to Samaria.
- 9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven. But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded. He went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of Your fathers, was angry with Judah, He gave them into Your hand, but You have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven.
- 10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? Now You intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem, male and female, as Your slaves. Have You not sins of Your own against the LORD Your God?
- 11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you. Now hear me, and send back the captives from Your brothers whom You have taken, for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon You."

- 12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, Certain chiefs also of the men of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who were coming from the war
- 13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. Said to them, "You shall not bring the captives in here, for You propose to bring upon us guilt against the LORD in addition to our present sins and guilt. For our guilt is already great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."
- 14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly.
- 15 And the men which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria. The men who have been mentioned by name rose and took the captives, and with the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them. They clothed them, gave them sandals, provided them with food and drink, and anointed them, and carrying all the feeble among them on donkeys, they brought them to their brothers at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.
- 16 At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him. At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help.
- 17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives. For the Edomites had again invaded and defeated Judah and carried away captives.

- 18 The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Bethshemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shocho with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof; and they dwelt there. The Philistines had invaded the cities of the low country and of the south of Judah and had taken Bethshemesh, Ajalon, Gederoth, Shocho with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages. And they dwelt there.
- 19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD. For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had made Judah act sinfully and had been very unfaithful to the LORD.
- 20 And Tilgathpilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not. So Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came against Him and afflicted Him instead of strengthening Him.
- 21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not. For Ahaz took a portion from the house of the LORD and the house of the king and of the princes, and gave tribute to the king of Assyria. But it did not help him.
- 22 And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz. In the time of His distress He became yet more faithless to the LORD — this same King Ahaz.
- 23 For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. For He sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had defeated Him and said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them that they may help me." But they were the ruin of Him and of all Israel.

Words in this chapter:

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Jericho (JEHR-ih-ko) — The first city Israel conquered in Canaan — its walls fell when the priests blew their trumpets on the seventh day after seven days of marching; its name may mean 'city of the moon.'

Hezekiah of Judah — 715–686 BC

Chapter 29

Hezekiah reopened the doors of the temple in the first month of his reign and commanded the priests and Levites to cleanse the house of the LORD. The temple was consecrated in sixteen days, and Hezekiah restored the burnt offerings and the worship of God with singing and rejoicing.

| 1 | Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. | Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old. He reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. |
| 2 | And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. | He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. |
| 3 | He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. | In the first year of His reign, in the first month, He opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them. |
| 4 | And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, | He brought in the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square on the east. |
| 5 | And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. | And said to them, "Hear me, Levites! Now consecrate yourselves, and consecrate the house of the LORD, the God of Your fathers, and carry out the filth from the holy place. |

- 6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was evil in the sight of the LORD our God. They have forsaken Him and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD and turned their backs.
- 7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. They also shut the doors of the vestibule and put out the lamps and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel.
- 8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes. Therefore the wrath of the LORD came on Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of horror, of astonishment, and of hissing, as You see with Your own eyes.
- 9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. For our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.
- 10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us.
- 11 My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense. My sons, do not now be negligent, for the LORD has chosen You to stand in His presence, to minister to Him and to be His ministers and make offerings to Him."

- 12 Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah: Then the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites. Of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel. Of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah;
- 13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah: Of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel. Of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;
- 14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel. Of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei. Of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.
- 15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. They gathered their brothers and consecrated themselves and went in as the king had commanded, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.
- 16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron. The priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it. They brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it and carried it out to the brook Kidron.
- 17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. They began to consecrate on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. Then for eight days they consecrated the house of the LORD, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

- 18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof. Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the table for the bread of the Presence and all its utensils.
- 19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD. All the vessels that King Ahaz discarded during his reign when he was faithless, we have made ready and consecrated. They are before the altar of the LORD."
- 20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. Then Hezekiah the king rose early and gathered the officials of the city and went up to the house of the LORD.
- 21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And He commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD.
- 22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and threw it against the altar. And they slaughtered the rams and their blood was thrown against the altar. And they slaughtered the lambs and their blood was thrown against the altar.
- 23 And they brought forth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them: Then the male goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly. They laid their hands on them,

- 24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. The priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.
- 25 And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets. He stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the commandment of David and of Gad the king's seer and of Nathan the prophet, for the commandment was from the LORD through His prophets.
- 26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.
- 27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering be offered on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD began also, and the trumpets, accompanied by the instruments of David king of Israel.
- 28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.
- 29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped. When the offering was finished, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped.

- 30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness. They bowed down and worshiped.
- 31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings. Then Hezekiah said, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come near; bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." And the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings. All who were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings.
- 32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.
- 33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. The consecrated offerings were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.
- 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. But the priests were too few and could not flay all the burnt offerings, so until other priests had consecrated themselves, their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was finished — for the Levites were more upright in heart than the priests in consecrating themselves.

- 35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. Besides the great number of burnt offerings, there was the fat of the peace offerings, and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. Thus the service of the house of the LORD was restored.
- 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly. Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had prepared the people, for the thing came about suddenly.

Words in this chapter:

sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.

Gad (GAD) — Jacob's seventh son, by Zilpah (Leah's handmaid) — his tribe settled east of the Jordan; his name means 'good fortune.'

Eden (EE-den) — The garden God planted in the east as the first human home — meaning 'delight' or 'pleasure'; location east of which God placed cherubim after the Fall.

Chapter 30

Hezekiah invited all Israel and Judah to keep the Passover at Jerusalem; many from the north mocked the messengers, but some humbled themselves and came. They kept the feast for fourteen days with great joy — nothing like it since the days of Solomon.

- 7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see. Do not be like Your fathers and Your brothers, who were faithless to the LORD God of their fathers, so that He made them a desolation, as You see.
- 8 Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. Do not now be stiff-necked as Your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD and come to His sanctuary, which He has consecrated forever, and serve the LORD Your God, so that His fierce anger may turn away from You.
- 9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him. For if You return to the LORD, Your brothers and Your children will find compassion with their captors and return to this land. For the LORD Your God is gracious and merciful and will not turn away His face from You, if You return to Him."
- 10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. So the couriers went from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, and as far as Zebulun. But they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.
- 11 Nevertheless divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. However, some men of Asher, of Manasseh, and of Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.
- 12 Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD. The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the princes commanded by the word of the LORD.

- 13 And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. Many people came together in Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month, a very great assembly.
- 14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. They set to work and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem. All the altars for burning incense they took away and threw into the brook Kidron.
- 15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed, so they consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.
- 16 And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites. They took their accustomed posts according to the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests threw the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites.
- 17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves. Therefore the Levites had to slaughter the Passover lamb for everyone who was not clean, to consecrate it to the LORD.
- 18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one For a majority of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than as prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, "May the good LORD pardon everyone

- 19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. Who sets His heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of His fathers, even though not according to the sanctuary's rules of cleanness."
- 20 And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. The LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.
- 21 And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD. The people of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness, and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with all their might to the LORD.
- 22 And Hezekiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers. Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who showed good skill in the service of the LORD. So they ate the food of the festival for seven days, sacrificing peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD, the God of their fathers.
- 23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness. Then the whole assembly agreed together to keep the feast for another seven days. So they kept it for another seven days with gladness.
- 24 For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. For Hezekiah king of Judah gave the assembly one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep for offerings, and the princes gave the assembly one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And the priests consecrated themselves in great numbers.

Words in this chapter:

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

Asher (ASH-er) — Jacob's eighth son, by Zilpah — his tribe settled in the fertile coastal region of northern Canaan; his name means 'happy' or 'blessed.'

Isaac (EYE-zak) — The son God promised to Abraham and Sarah — his name means 'he laughs'; offered as a sacrifice on Mount Moriah, but God provided a ram instead.

Issachar (IS-ah-kar) — Jacob's ninth son by Leah — his tribe settled in the central valley of Canaan; his name means 'he is wages' or 'man of hire.'

Zebulun (ZEB-yoo-lun) — Jacob's tenth son by Leah — his tribe settled in the lowlands of Galilee; his name means 'honor' or 'exalted.'

Chapter 31

After the Passover, the people went out and destroyed the idols and high places throughout Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh. Hezekiah organized the priestly divisions and the people brought tithes and offerings in such abundance that heaps were piled up.

| 1 Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. | Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke in pieces the images and cut down the groves and threw down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. |
| 2 And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. | Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, division by division, each according to His service, the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to minister in the gates of the camp of the LORD and to give thanks and praise. |
| 3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD. | The contribution of the king from his own possessions was for the burnt offerings: the burnt offerings of morning and evening, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, the new moons, and the appointed feasts, as it is written in the Law of the LORD. |

- 4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD. He commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the Law of the LORD.
- 5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the firstfruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. As soon as the command was spread abroad, the people of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and of all the produce of the field. And they brought in abundantly the tithe of everything.
- 6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps. The people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of the dedicated things that had been dedicated to the LORD their God, and laid them in heaps.
- 7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. In the third month they began to pile up the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.
- 8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel. When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.
- 9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps.

- 10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store. Azariah the chief priest, who was of the house of Zadok, answered Him, "Since they began to bring the contributions into the house of the LORD, we have eaten and had enough and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people, so that we have this large amount left."
- 11 Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them, Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD. They prepared them.
- 12 And brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next. They faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes, and the dedicated things. The chief officer in charge of them was Conaniah the Levite, with Shimei his brother as second.
- 13 And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers assisting Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of King Hezekiah and Azariah the chief officer of the house of God.
- 14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things. Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the east gate, was over the freewill offerings to God, to apportion the contribution reserved for the LORD and the most holy offerings.

- 15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small: Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah were faithfully assisting Him in the cities of the priests, to distribute the portions to their brothers, old and young alike, by divisions,
- 16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses; Except those enrolled by genealogy, males from three years old and upward — all who entered the house of the LORD as the duty of each day required — for their service according to their offices, by their divisions.
- 17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses; The enrollment of the priests was according to their fathers' houses; that of the Levites from twenty years old and upward was according to their offices, by their divisions.
- 18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness: The enrollment included all their little children, their wives, their sons. Their daughters, the whole crowd, for they were faithful in consecrating themselves in holiness.
- 19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites. For the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of the pasturelands of their cities, or in each and every city, there were men who were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among the priests and to everyone among the Levites who was enrolled.
- 20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God. Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah. He did what was good and right and faithful before the LORD His God.

And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.
- Every work that He undertook in the service of the house of God and in accordance with the law and the commandments, seeking His God, He did with all His heart. He prospered.

Words in this chapter:

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

Chapter 32

Sennacherib king of Assyria invaded Judah; Hezekiah fortified Jerusalem, stopped the springs, and encouraged the people to trust the LORD. God sent an angel who destroyed the Assyrian army, and Sennacherib returned home in disgrace and was murdered by his own sons.

- 1

After these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.
- After these things and these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah and encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them for Himself.

And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,
- When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to fight against Jerusalem,

- 3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him. He planned with his officers and his mighty men to stop the water of the springs that were outside the city. They helped him.
- 4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? A great many people were gathered. They stopped all the springs and the brook that flowed through the land, saying, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find much water?"
- 5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance. He set to work resolutely and built up all the wall that was broken down and raised towers on it, and outside it he built another wall. He strengthened the Millo in the city of David. He also made weapons and shields in abundance.
- 6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying, He set combat commanders over the people and gathered them together to him in the square at the gate of the city and spoke encouragingly to them, saying,
- 7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him: "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or dismayed before the king of Assyria and all the horde that is with him, for there are more with us than with him.
- 8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. With Him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people took confidence from the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

- 9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying, After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria, who was besieging Lachish with all his forces, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying,
- 10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem? "Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, 'On what are you trusting, that you endure the siege in Jerusalem?
- 11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when He tells You, "The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"?
- 12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, "Before one altar you shall worship, and on it you shall make your offerings"?
- 13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand? Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to deliver their lands out of my hand?
- 14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand? Who among all the gods of those nations that my fathers devoted to destruction was able to deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand?

- 15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand? Now, therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you in this fashion, and do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver His people from my hand or from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand!"
- 16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. His servants said still more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.
- 17 He wrote also letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. He wrote letters to cast contempt on the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who have not delivered their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver his people from my hand."
- 18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. They shouted it with a loud voice in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten and terrify them, in order that they might take the city.
- 19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man. They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as they spoke of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.
- 20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. Then Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this and cried to heaven.

- 21 And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels slew him there with the sword. The LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty warriors and commanders and officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to His own land. And when He came into the house of His god, some of His own sons struck Him down there with the sword.
- 22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side. So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all His enemies. He provided for them on every side.
- 23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. Many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from that time onward.
- 24 In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign. In those days Hezekiah became sick and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD. He answered Him and gave Him a sign.
- 25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. But Hezekiah did not make return according to the benefit done to him, for his heart was proud. Therefore wrath came upon him and Judah and Jerusalem.
- 26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah. But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both He and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

- 27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels; Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. He made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of desirable objects;
- 28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. Storehouses also for the yield of grain, wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds.
- 29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much. He likewise provided cities for himself and flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very great possessions.
- 30 This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. This same Hezekiah closed the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
- 31 Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. So in the matter of the envoys of the princes of Babylon, who had been sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been done in the land, God left Him to himself, in order to test Him and to know all that was in His heart.
- 32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

- 33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.
- Hezekiah slept with his fathers. They buried him in the upper part of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Words in this chapter:

- Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'
- Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'
- Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Manasseh of Judah — 686–642 BC

Amon of Judah — 642–640 BC

Chapter 33

Manasseh reigned fifty-five years and committed the worst abominations of any king, rebuilding the high places and setting up idols in the temple. God allowed him to be captured by Assyria; in his affliction he repented, and God restored him. His son Amon reigned wickedly and was assassinated.

- 1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem: Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign. He reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

■ NAME NOTE — Manasseh (muh-NASS-uh) — "causing to forget" — The son of Hezekiah who became the most wicked king of Judah, reigning fifty-five years. He rebuilt the high places, set up idol altars in the temple, and practiced sorcery. Yet after God allowed Assyria to capture him, he repented in prison, and God restored him to his throne — a remarkable picture of grace.

- 2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD drove out before the people of Israel.
- 3 For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had broken down. He erected altars to the Baals, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven and served them.
- 4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever. He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem shall my name be forever."
- 5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.
- 6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. He caused His children to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom. He also observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

- 7 And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever: The carved image of the idol that he had made he set in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever,
- 8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. I will no more remove the foot of Israel from the land that I appointed for your fathers, if only they will be careful to do all that I have commanded them, all the law, the statutes, and the rules given through Moses."
- 9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel. Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the people of Israel.
- 10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken. The LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people. But they paid no attention.
- 11 Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. Therefore the LORD brought upon them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks and bound him with chains of bronze and brought Him to Babylon.
- 12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, When He was in distress, He entreated the favor of the LORD His God and humbled Himself greatly before the God of His fathers.

- 13 And prayed unto him: and he was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he was God. He prayed to Him. God was moved by His entreaty and heard His plea and brought Him again to Jerusalem into His kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.
- 14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. Afterward he built an outer wall for the city of David west of Gihon, in the valley, and for the entrance into the Fish Gate, and carried it around Ophel, and raised it to a very great height. He also put commanders of the army in all the fortified cities in Judah.
- 15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. He took away the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that He had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.
- 16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings and thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. He also restored the altar of the LORD and offered on it sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving. He commanded Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only. Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to Him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, they are in the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

- 19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers. His prayer also, and how God was moved by His entreaty, and all His sin and His trespass, and the places where He built high places and set up the groves and the graven images before He humbled Himself, they are written in the Chronicles of the Seers.
- 20 So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead. So Manasseh slept with his fathers. They buried him in his house. And Amon his son reigned in his place.
- 21 Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem. Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned two years in Jerusalem.
- 22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them; He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father had done. Amon sacrificed to all the images that Manasseh his father had made, and served them.
- 23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more. He did not humble Himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself, but this Amon incurred guilt more and more.
- 24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house. His servants conspired against him and put him to death in His house.
- 25 But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead. But the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon. And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Words in this chapter:

wizards — Those who practice magic or consult familiar spirits — KJV term for male practitioners of the occult; forbidden in Israel.

Josiah (jo-ZY-ah) — The reforming king of Judah who rediscovered the Book of the Law — tore down idols and restored temple worship; his name means 'the LORD heals' or 'supported by the LORD.'

Josiah of Judah — 640–609 BC

Chapter 34

Josiah began to seek the LORD as a boy and in his twelfth year purged Judah of idols. During temple repairs the Book of the Law was found; Josiah tore his clothes, consulted the prophetess Huldah, and renewed the covenant before the LORD.

- | | | |
| 1 | Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years. | Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign. He reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. |
| 2 | And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left. | He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left. |

- 3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet a boy, he began to seek the God of David his father, and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, the groves, and the carved and the molten images.
- 4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. They broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence. He cut down the images that were on high above them. He broke in pieces the groves and the carved images and the molten images, made dust of them, and scattered it over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.
- 5 And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. He also burned the bones of the priests on their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.
- 6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their mattocks round about. In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around,
- 7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem. He broke down the altars and the groves and beat the graven images into powder and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

- 8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. Now in the eighteenth year of His reign, when He had purged the land and the house, He sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD His God.
- 9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem. They came to Hilkiah the high priest and delivered the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the gatekeepers, had collected from Manasseh and Ephraim and from all the remnant of Israel and from all Judah and Benjamin and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house: They gave it to the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. And the workmen who were working in the house of the LORD gave it for repairing and restoring the house.
- 11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. They gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, and timber for binders and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let go to ruin.
- 12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. The men did the work faithfully. Over them were set Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to have oversight. The Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music,

- 13 Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters. Were over the burden-bearers and directed all who did work in every kind of service. And some of the Levites were scribes and officials and gatekeepers.
- 14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given by Moses. While they were bringing out the money that had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD given through Moses.
- 15 And Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan. Then Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.
- 16 And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they do it. Shaphan brought the book to the king, and further reported to the king, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing.
- 17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD and have given it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen."
- 18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king. Then Shaphan the secretary told the king, "Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it before the king.
- 19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes.

- 20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying, The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the secretary, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,
- 21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book. "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book."
- 22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect. So Hilkiah and those whom the king had sent went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe — she lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter — and they spoke to her to that effect.
- NAME NOTE — Huldah (HUL-duh) — "weasel" — A prophetess in Jerusalem during the reign of King Josiah. When the Book of the Law was discovered in the temple, the king's officials consulted her rather than Jeremiah or Zephaniah. She confirmed that God's judgment would come upon Judah for its unfaithfulness, but that Josiah would be spared because of his tender heart.
- 23 And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me, She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me,
- 24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah: Thus says the LORD, I will bring disaster upon this place and upon its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book that was read before the king of Judah.

- 25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. Because they have forsaken me and have made offerings to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.
- 26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard; But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall You say to Him, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Regarding the words that You have heard,
- 27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD. Because Your heart was penitent and You humbled Yourself before God when You heard His words against this place and its inhabitants, and You have humbled Yourself before me and have torn Your clothes and wept before me, I also have heard You, declares the LORD.
- 28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again. I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes shall not see all the disaster that I will bring upon this place and its inhabitants.' " And they brought back word to the king.
- 29 Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

- 30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the priests and the Levites, all the people both great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.
- 31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. The king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes, with all His heart and all His soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.
- 32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. Then He made all who were present in Jerusalem and in Benjamin join in it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
- 33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers. Josiah took away all the abominations from all the territory that belonged to the people of Israel and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. All His days they did not turn away from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Words in this chapter:

scribes — Professional experts in the Law of Moses — they copied Scripture and interpreted it; often allied with the Pharisees in opposing Jesus.

Chapter 35

Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD such as had not been kept since the days of Samuel. Afterward Josiah went out against Pharaoh Necho of Egypt at Megiddo and was mortally wounded; all Judah mourned for him.

| 1 Moreover Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. | Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem. And they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. |
| 2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD, | He appointed the priests to their offices and encouraged them in the service of the house of the LORD. |
| 3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel, | He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. You need not carry it on Your shoulders. Now serve the LORD Your God and His people Israel. |
| 4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. | Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses by your divisions, following the written directions of David king of Israel and the written directions of Solomon his son. |
| 5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites. | Stand in the holy place according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of your brothers the lay people, and according to the division of the Levites by fathers' house. |

- 6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. Slaughter the Passover lamb and consecrate yourselves, and prepare for Your brothers, to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses."
- 7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance. Then Josiah contributed to the lay people, as Passover offerings for all who were present, lambs and young goats from the flock to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possessions.
- 8 And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. His officials contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and three hundred bulls.
- 9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen. Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand lambs and five hundred bulls.
- 10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment. When the service had been prepared for, the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions according to the king's command.
- 11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites played them. They slaughtered the Passover lamb, and the priests threw the blood that they received from them while the Levites played the animals.

- 12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen. They set aside the burnt offerings that they might distribute them according to the groupings of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the bulls.
- 13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people. They roasted the Passover lamb with fire according to the rule. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, in cauldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the lay people.
- 14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. Afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy offering the burnt offerings and the fat parts until night; so the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
- 15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. The singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place according to the command of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. The gatekeepers were at each gate. They did not need to depart from their service, for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.
- 16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. So all the service of the LORD was prepared that day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah.

- 17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. The people of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days.
- 18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. No Passover like it had been kept in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as was kept by Josiah, and the priests and the Levites. All Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.
- 20 After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Carchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him.
- 21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not. But Neco sent envoys to him, saying, "What have we to do with each other, king of Judah? I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with which I am at war. And God has commanded me to hurry. Cease opposing God, Who is with me, lest He destroy you."
- 22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. Nevertheless, Josiah did not turn away from him, but disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, but came to fight in the plain of Megiddo.

| 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. | His acts, from first to last, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. |

Words in this chapter:

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Samuel (SAM-yoo-el) — A prophet and the last of the judges — dedicated to God from birth; anointed both Saul and David as king; his name means 'heard of God' or 'asked of God.'

Megiddo (meh-GID-oh) — A strategic city at the pass through the Carmel range — site of many decisive battles; in Revelation, Armageddon (Har-Megiddo) is the great final battlefield.

- 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and the abominations that he did, and what was found against Him, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.
- 9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign. He reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.
- 10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. In the spring of the year King Nebuchadnezzar sent and brought him to Babylon, with the precious vessels of the house of the LORD, and made His brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.
- 11 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

- 12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. He did what was evil in the sight of the LORD His God. He did not humble Himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.
- 13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel. He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God. He stiffened His neck and hardened His heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 14 Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. All the officers of the priests and the people likewise were greatly unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations. And they polluted the house of the LORD that He had made holy in Jerusalem.
- 15 And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent persistently to them by His messengers, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.
- 16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy. But they kept mocking the messengers of God, despising His words and scoffing at His prophets, until the wrath of the LORD rose against His people, until there was no remedy.
- 17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand. Therefore he brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or aged. He gave them all into his hand.

- 18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon. All the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.
- 19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. They burned the house of God and broke down the wall of Jerusalem and burned all its palaces with fire and destroyed all its precious vessels.
- 20 And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: He took into exile in Babylon those who had escaped from the sword. They became servants to Him and to His sons until the establishment of the kingdom of Persia,
- 21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years. To fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. All the days that it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.
- 22 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all His kingdom and also put it in writing:

- 23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up. "Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has charged me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all his people, may the LORD His God be with Him. Let Him go up.' "

Words in this chapter:

Cyrus (SY-rus) — The Persian king who conquered Babylon and issued the decree allowing the Jews to return home — named in Isaiah's prophecy 150 years before his birth.

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Persia (PER-zhah) — The empire that conquered Babylon in 539 BC — Cyrus, Darius, and Xerxes (Ahasuerus) were Persian kings; they allowed the Jews to return from exile.

THE PERSIAN PERIOD BEGINS — 538 BC

Babylon has fallen to Cyrus the Persian without a single battle — the city taken in a night while Belshazzar feasted. In his first year as king of the new empire, Cyrus issues a decree allowing the Jews to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple — exactly as the prophet Isaiah had foretold, naming Cyrus by name two centuries before he was born (Isaiah 44:28; 45:1). The seventy years of exile, measured out by Jeremiah, are ending. Persia will reign over the known world for the next two hundred years, and the Old Testament closes inside its borders.

Ezra

Author: Ezra the priest, traditionally — Jewish and Christian tradition consistently names him as the author of both Ezra and Nehemiah, which were originally a single scroll.

Date written: c. 457–440 BC, compiled from official Persian records, letters, and Ezra's personal memoirs.

Written to: The Jewish community in Jerusalem and the returned exiles, to establish the legitimacy of the restoration and its leadership.

Setting: The Babylonian exile is over. Cyrus the Great has issued his decree allowing the Jews to return. Over roughly eighty years, two waves of exiles come back to Jerusalem — the first under Zerubbabel, the second under Ezra himself.

Where this sits historically: c. 538–458 BC, the early Persian period; Cyrus the Great's decree (538 BC) opens the book, and Ezra's own arrival under Artaxerxes I (458 BC) closes it.

Contemporaries: The prophets Haggai and Zechariah at the temple rebuild (520 BC); Daniel still alive in early years; Nehemiah arrives in Jerusalem soon after Ezra; Persia ruled by Cyrus, Darius I, Xerxes, and Artaxerxes I across the span.

Big themes:

- Restoration — God keeps His promises; the seventy years of exile end exactly as Jeremiah prophesied
- The temple — rebuilding the house of God is the central act of the return and faces fierce opposition
- The word of God — Ezra's ministry is defined by reading, studying, and teaching the law
- Separation — the returned community must not intermarry with the surrounding peoples; the purity of the covenant line matters
- Persian sovereignty — God works through pagan kings (Cyrus, Darius, Artaxerxes) to accomplish His purposes

Key passages: Ezra 1:1–3; 3:11; 6:14; 7:10; 9:6

How it fits: Ezra is the direct sequel to 2 Chronicles — the last verse of Chronicles and the first verses of Ezra overlap. The book bridges the gap between captivity and the restoration community. Nehemiah continues the story, and together the two books complete the OT historical narrative.

Chapter 1

In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, the LORD stirred his spirit to decree that the Jews could return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple. Cyrus also returned the gold and silver vessels Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the house of God.

■ NAME NOTE — Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-uh-bel) — "seed of Babylon" or "born in Babylon" — A descendant of King David who led the first wave of Jewish exiles back from Babylon to Jerusalem. He served as governor of Judah and oversaw the rebuilding of the temple's foundation. He appears in the genealogy of Christ (Matt 1:12).

■ NAME NOTE — Jeshua (JESH-oo-uh) — "the LORD is salvation" — The high priest who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel and led the spiritual restoration of Israel. He and Zerubbabel together rebuilt the altar and laid the temple's foundation. Also called Joshua the son of Jozadak; his name is the Hebrew form of "Jesus."

Words in this chapter:

Thummim (THUM-im) — One of two sacred objects kept in the high priest's breastplate alongside the Urim — together they were God's tool for giving yes/no answers to Israel's leaders.

Urim (YOOR-im) — One of two sacred objects kept in the high priest's breastplate — used to seek God's guidance on important decisions; its exact form is unknown.

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Mordecai (MOR-deh-ky) — Esther's cousin and guardian — refused to bow to Haman; uncovered a plot against the king; ultimately honored above Haman; his name may be Babylonian in origin.

Nehemiah (nee-heh-MY-ah) — A cupbearer to the Persian king who returned to rebuild Jerusalem's walls — a man of prayer and practical leadership; his name means 'the LORD comforts.'

Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

Tirshatha (ter-SHAY-thah) — The Persian title given to Nehemiah (and to Zerubbabel in Ezra 2:63) — a title meaning 'governor' or 'his excellency'; used in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah.

Chapter 3

The returned exiles built the altar and offered burnt offerings in the seventh month, then laid the foundation of the temple in the second year. The old men who remembered Solomon's temple wept, while the younger generation shouted for joy.

| 1 And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. | When the seventh month came, and the people of Israel were in the towns, the people gathered as one man to Jerusalem. |

- 3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening. They set the altar in its place, for fear was on them because of the peoples of the lands. They offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, burnt offerings morning and evening.
- 4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required; They kept the Feast of Booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number according to the rule, as each day required,
- 5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. After that the regular burnt offerings, the offerings at the new moon and at all the appointed feasts of the LORD, and the offerings of everyone who made a freewill offering to the LORD.
- 6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.
- 7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia. So they gave money to the masons and the carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the Sidonians and the Tyrians to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

- 8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.
- 9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.
- 10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.
- 11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.
- Now in the second year after their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak made a beginning, together with the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites and all who had come to Jerusalem from the captivity. They appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to supervise the work of the house of the LORD.
- Jeshua with His sons and His brothers, and Kadmiel and His sons, the sons of Judah, together supervised the workmen in the house of God, along with the sons of Henadad and the Levites, their sons and brothers.
- When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments came forward with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the directions of David king of Israel.
- They sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD, "For He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel." And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

Words in this chapter:

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

Feast of Tabernacles — Also called the Feast of Booths — a seven-day harvest festival where Israel lived in temporary shelters, remembering the wilderness wandering.

Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-ah-bel) — The governor who led the first return of exiles from Babylon — laid the foundation of the second temple; his name means 'born in Babylon' or 'seed of Babylon.'

Chapter 4

The adversaries of Judah offered to help build the temple but were refused; they then hired counselors to frustrate the work and wrote accusations to the Persian kings. The building was halted until the second year of Darius.

- 1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel,
- 2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither. They approached Zerubbabel and the heads of fathers' houses and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we worship your God as you do. We have been sacrificing to Him ever since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria who brought us here."
- 3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses in Israel said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we alone will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."
- 4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, Then the people of the land discouraged the people of Judah and made them afraid to build
- 5 And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. They hired counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.
- 6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

- 7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue. In the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam and Mithredath and Tabeel and the rest of their associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated.
- 8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:
- 9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates — the judges, the governors, the officials, the Persians, the men of Erech, the Babylonians, the men of Susa, that is, the Elamites,
- 10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time. The rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River —
- 11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. This is a copy of the letter that they sent to him, to Artaxerxes the king: "Your servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.
- 12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations. Be it known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are finishing the walls and repairing the foundations.

- 13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings. Now be it known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and the royal revenue will be harmed.
- 14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king; Now because we eat the salt of the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king's dishonor, therefore we send and inform the king,
- 15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed. In order that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. So shall you find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have stirred up sedition within it from of old. That was why this city was laid waste.
- 16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river. We make known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls finished, you will then have no possession in the province Beyond the River."
- 17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time. Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe and the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and to the rest beyond the river: Peace, and at such a time.
- 18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me. The letter that you sent to us has been plainly read before me.

Chapter 5

Haggai and Zechariah prophesied to the Jews, and Zerubbabel and Jeshua resumed building the temple. Tattenai the governor questioned their authority and wrote to Darius asking whether Cyrus had indeed issued a decree.

| 4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building? | They also asked them this: "What are the names of the men who are building this building?" |

- 5 But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter. But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews. They did not stop them until the report should reach Darius and then an answer be returned by letter concerning it.
- 6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shetharboznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king: This is a copy of the letter that Tatnai the governor on this side the river, and Shetharboznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent to Darius the king.
- 7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace. They sent him a report, in which was written as follows: "To Darius the king, all peace.
- 8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the house of the great God. It is being built with huge stones, and timber is laid in the walls. This work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.
- 9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? Then we asked those elders and spoke to them thus: 'Who gave you a decree to build this house and to finish this structure?'
- 10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them. We also asked them their names, for your information, that we might write down the names of their leaders.
- 11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up. This was their reply to us: 'We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.

- 12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. But because our fathers had angered the God of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house and carried away the people to Babylon.
- 13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree that this house of God should be rebuilt.
- 14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; The gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought into the temple of Babylon, these Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon. They were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.
- 15 And he said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. He said to him, "Take these vessels, go and put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its site."
- 16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished. Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God that is in Jerusalem, and from that time until now it has been in building. It is not yet finished.'

- 17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.
- Therefore, if it seems good to the king, let search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see whether a decree was issued by Cyrus the king for the rebuilding of this house of God in Jerusalem. And let the king send us his pleasure in this matter."

Words in this chapter:

Cyrus (SY-rus) — The Persian king who conquered Babylon and issued the decree allowing the Jews to return home — named in Isaiah's prophecy 150 years before his birth.

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-ah-bel) — The governor who led the first return of exiles from Babylon — laid the foundation of the second temple; his name means 'born in Babylon' or 'seed of Babylon.'

Chapter 6

Darius found Cyrus's decree in the archives and ordered the temple work to continue with full support from the royal treasury. The temple was completed and dedicated with joy, and the returned exiles kept the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

- 1 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.
- Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in Babylon, in the house of the archives where documents were stored.

- 2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: In Ecbatana, the citadel that is in the province of Media, a scroll was found on which this was written: "A record.
- 3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits; In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king issued a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be rebuilt, the place where sacrifices were offered, and let its foundations be retained. Its height shall be sixty cubits and its breadth sixty cubits,
- 4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house: With three layers of great stones and one layer of timber. Let the cost be paid from the royal treasury.
- 5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God. Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought back to the temple in Jerusalem, each to its place. You shall put them in the house of God."
- 6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence: "Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, keep away from there.
- 7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place. Let the work on this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this house of God on its site.

- 8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered. Moreover, I make a decree regarding what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God. The cost is to be paid to these men in full and without delay from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province Beyond the River.
- 9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail: Whatever is needed — bulls, rams, or sheep for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, or oil, as the priests at Jerusalem require — let that be given to them day by day without fail,
- 10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. That they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.
- 11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. Also I make a decree: if anyone alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of his house. Being set up, let him be hanged on it. His house shall be made a dunghill.
- 12 And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed. May the God Who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who shall put out a hand to alter this, or to destroy this house of God that is in Jerusalem. I Darius make a decree; let it be done with all diligence."

- 13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shetharboznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shetharboznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.
- 14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. The elders of the Jews built and prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished their building by decree of the God of Israel and by decree of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of Persia;
- 15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. This house was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.
- 16 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, The people of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the returned exiles, celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.
- 17 And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.
- 18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. They set the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their divisions, for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

Words in this chapter:

sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.

passover — The annual feast commemorating Israel's deliverance from Egypt — the LORD 'passed over' the houses marked with blood and spared the firstborn.

■ NAME NOTE — Ezra (EZ-ruh) — "help" — A priest and scribe descended from Aaron through the line of the high priests. He led the second wave of exiles from Babylon to Jerusalem under the authority of King Artaxerxes. He was devoted to studying, practicing, and teaching the Law of the LORD, and led a national repentance over the people's intermarriage with foreign nations.

- 7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. There went up also some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.
- 8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.
- 9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babylonia, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was on Him.
- 10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments. For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the LORD, and to do it and to teach His statutes and rules in Israel.
- 11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel: This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, a man learned in matters of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes for Israel:
- 12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time. Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven: perfect peace, and at such a time.
- 13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. I make a decree that anyone of the people of Israel or their priests or Levites in my kingdom, who freely offers to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.

- 14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand; For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to make inquiries about Judah and Jerusalem according to the Law of your God, which is in your hand,
- 15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, Also to carry the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,
- 16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem: With all the silver and gold that you shall find in the whole province of Babylon, and with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, offered willingly for the house of their God that is in Jerusalem.
- 17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. With this money, then, you shall with all diligence buy bulls, rams, and lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and you shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God that is in Jerusalem.
- 18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God. Whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and gold, you may do, according to the will of your God.
- 19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem. The vessels that have been given you for the service of the house of your God, You shall deliver before the God of Jerusalem.
- 20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. Whatever else is required for the house of your God, which it falls to you to provide, you may provide it out of the king's treasury.

- 21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, I, Artaxerxes the king, make a decree to all the treasurers in the province Beyond the River: Whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, requires of you, let it be done with all diligence,
- 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. Up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred cors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.
- 23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? Whatever is decreed by the God of heaven, let it be done in full for the house of the God of heaven, lest His wrath be against the realm of the king and his sons.
- 24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. We also notify you that it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll on anyone of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, the temple servants, or other servants of this house of God.
- 25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not. You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people in the province Beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God. And those who do not know them, you shall teach.
- 26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. Whoever will not obey the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be strictly executed on him, whether death or banishment or confiscation of his goods or imprisonment."

- 27 Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem: Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who put such a thing as this into the heart of the king, to beautify the house of the LORD that is in Jerusalem,
- 28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me. Who extended to me His mercy before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty officers. I took courage, for the hand of the LORD my God was on me. I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Words in this chapter:

Aaron (AIR-on) — Moses's older brother and Israel's first high priest — spokesperson for Moses before Pharaoh; his descendants served as priests throughout Israel's history.

Ezra (EZ-rah) — A priest and scribe who led a group of exiles back from Babylon — restored the Law among the returned community; his name means 'help.'

Phinehas (FIN-ee-as) — Aaron's grandson, son of Eleazar — his zeal for God stopped a plague; received a covenant of perpetual priesthood; his name may mean 'dark-skinned.'

- 13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males. Of the sons of Adonikam, those who came last, their names being Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty men.
- 14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males. Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur, and with them seventy men.
- 15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. I gathered them to the river that runs to Ahava, and there we camped three days. As I reviewed the people and the priests, I found there none of the sons of Levi.
- 16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leading men, and for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of insight.
- 17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God. I sent them to Iddo, the leading man at the place Casiphia, telling them what to say to Iddo and his brothers and the temple servants at the place Casiphia, namely, to send us ministers for the house of our God.

- 18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; By the good hand of our God on us, they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, son of Israel, namely Sherebiah with His sons and kinsmen, eighteen;
- 19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty; Also Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, with his kinsmen and their sons, twenty;
- 20 Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name. Besides two hundred twenty of the temple servants, whom David and his officials had set apart to attend the Levites. These were all mentioned by name.
- 21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.
- 22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemy on our way, since we had told the king, "The hand of our God is for good on all who seek Him, and the power of His wrath is against all who forsake Him."
- 23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us. So we fasted and implored our God for this. He listened to our entreaty.
- 24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their kinsmen with them.

- 25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered: I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the vessels, the offering for the house of our God that the king and his counselors and his lords and all Israel there present had offered.
- 26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents; I weighed out into their hands six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels worth a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold,
- 27 Also twenty basons of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. Twenty bowls of gold worth a thousand darics, and two vessels of fine bright bronze as precious as gold.
- 28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy, and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of Your fathers.
- 29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. Guard them and keep them until You weigh them before the chief priests and the Levites and the heads of fathers' houses in Israel at Jerusalem, within the chambers of the house of the LORD."
- 30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God. So the priests and the Levites took over the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem, to the house of our God.
- 31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us. He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambushes on the way.

They aided the people and the house of God. |

Words in this chapter:

Daniel (DAN-yel) — A young Judean nobleman taken to Babylon — remained faithful to God despite pressure; received visions of world empires and the end of days; his name means 'God is my judge.'

Jonathan (JON-ah-than) — Saul's son and David's closest friend — showed remarkable loyalty to David even against his father's wishes; his name means 'the LORD has given.'

Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 9

Ezra learned that the people, priests, and Levites had intermarried with the surrounding pagan nations. He tore his garments and fell on his face before God, praying a confession of guilt and shame for the nation's unfaithfulness.

- 1 Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. After these things had been done, the officials approached me and said, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.
- 2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands. And the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass."

- 3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished. As soon as I heard this, I tore my garment and my cloak and pulled hair from my head and beard and sat appalled.
- 4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice. Then all who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away, gathered to me while I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.
- 5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, At the evening sacrifice I rose from my fasting, with my garment and my cloak torn, and fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD my God,
- 6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. Saying: "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift my face to You, my God, for our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.
- 7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. From the days of our fathers to this day we have been in great guilt. And for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plundering, and to utter shame, as it is today.
- 8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. But now for a little space grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

- 9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. For we are slaves. Yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery, but has extended to us His mercy before the kings of Persia, to grant us some reviving to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us protection in Judah and Jerusalem.
- 10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, Now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments,
- 11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness. Which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, "The land that You are entering, to take possession of it, is a land impure with the impurity of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations that have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness.
- 12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. Therefore do not give Your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters for Your sons, and never seek their peace or prosperity, that You may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to Your children forever.'
- 13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this; After all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, seeing that You, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserved and have given us such a remnant as this,

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Amorites (AM-oh-rytes) — A major Canaanite people group — their two kings Sihon and Og were defeated by Israel east of the Jordan; their name may mean 'westerners' or 'highlanders.'

Canaanites (KAY-nan-ytes) — The original inhabitants of the Promised Land — descendants of Ham's son Canaan; Israel was commanded to drive them out because of their wickedness.

Hittites (HIT-ytes) — A Canaanite people group (distinct from the Hittite Empire) — Abraham bought the cave of Machpelah from a Hittite; Uriah, one of David's warriors, was a Hittite.

Jebusites (JEB-yoo-zytes) — The original inhabitants of Jerusalem (called Jebus) — David captured their stronghold and made Jerusalem his capital; his name comes from 'Jebus.'

Moabites (MO-ah-bytes) — The people of Moab, descendants of Lot's son — Ruth was a Moabite; Israel was forbidden from destroying Moab because of their kinship with Lot.

Perizzites (PEHR-ih-zytes) — One of the peoples of Canaan — mentioned alongside the other Canaanite nations that Israel was to drive out; their name may mean 'village dwellers.'

Chapter 10

The people gathered to Ezra weeping, and Shecaniah proposed a covenant to put away the foreign wives. Ezra made the leaders swear to it; a great assembly gathered in Jerusalem, and within three months the investigation was completed and the guilty were listed.

- 1 Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore. While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children gathered to Him out of Israel, for the people wept bitterly.
- 2 And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, addressed Ezra: "We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel in spite of this.
- 3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. Therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the Law.
- 4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it. Arise, for it is your task. We are with you; be strong and do it."

- 5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware. Then Ezra arose and made the leading priests and Levites and all Israel take an oath that they would do as had been said. So they took the oath.
- 6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And when He came there, He did eat no bread, nor drink water, for He mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.
- 7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the returned exiles that they should assemble at Jerusalem,
- 8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away. That whoever did not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.
- 9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. And all the people sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the heavy rain.

- 10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the guilt of Israel. Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have broken faith and married foreign women, and so increased the guilt of Israel.
- 11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. Now then make confession to the LORD, the God of Your fathers and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from the foreign wives."
- 12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do. Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "It is so; we must do as You have said.
- 13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing. But the people are many. It is a time of heavy rain; we cannot stand in the open. Nor is this a task for one day or for two, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.
- 14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us. Let our officials stand for the whole assembly. Let all in our cities who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders and judges of every city, until the fierce wrath of our God over this matter is turned away from us."
- 15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

- 16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. Then the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.
- 17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month. By the first day of the first month they had come to the end of all the men who had married foreign women.
- 18 And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. Now there were found some of the sons of the priests who had married foreign women: of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.
- 19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass. They pledged themselves to put away their wives. Their guilt offering was a ram of the flock for their guilt.
- 20 And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah. Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.
- 21 And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah. Of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.
- 22 And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasa. Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa.
- 23 Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. Of the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

- 24 Of the singers also; Eliashib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.
- 25 Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. Of Israel: of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.
- 26 And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.
- 27 And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.
- 28 Of the sons also of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai. Of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.
- 29 And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth. Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.
- 30 And of the sons of Pahathmoab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. Of the sons of Pahath-moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.
- 31 And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon,
- 32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah. Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.
- 33 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei. Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
- 34 Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel, Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,
- 35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi,
- 36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37	Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau,	Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasu,
38	And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,	Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

40	Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,	Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
41	Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,	Azareel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,
42	Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.	Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.
43	Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.	Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.
44	All these had taken strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children.	All these had married foreign women. Some of the women had even borne them children.

Words in this chapter:

Elijah (eh-LY-jah) — A prophet of the northern kingdom who confronted King Ahab and the prophets of Baal — did not die but was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; his name means 'my God is the LORD.'

Ishmael (ISH-mee-el) — Abraham's son by Hagar — the angel promised he would be a 'wild man' whose hand would be against every man; ancestor of the Arab peoples.

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Nehemiah

Author: Nehemiah, primarily — large sections are written in first-person memoir. Ezra the priest likely compiled or edited the final form, as Ezra-Nehemiah was originally one scroll.

Date written: c. 432–420 BC, after Nehemiah's second term as governor concluded.

Written to: The Jewish community in Jerusalem and the diaspora, to record the completion of the restoration under Nehemiah's leadership.

Setting: Nearly a century after the first exiles returned under Zerubbabel. Jerusalem's temple has been rebuilt, but the city walls lie in ruins — leaving the people defenseless and the city dishonored. Nehemiah, cupbearer to the Persian king Artaxerxes, receives word of this and obtains royal permission to go and rebuild.

Where this sits historically: The events fall in 445–433 BC under the Persian king Artaxerxes I (Longimanus), with Sanballat governing Samaria and Tobiah ruling in Ammon as Nehemiah's chief opponents.

Contemporaries: Ezra was teaching the law in Jerusalem, Malachi was prophesying against priestly corruption and mixed marriages, and the Persian empire stretched from India to the Aegean under Artaxerxes.

Big themes:

- Prayer and action — Nehemiah's response to every crisis is first to pray, then to act; the book is saturated with brief, urgent prayers
- Opposition — Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem use ridicule, threat, conspiracy, and compromise to stop the work; Nehemiah refuses every distraction
- The wall — rebuilding Jerusalem's walls in fifty-two days is presented as an act of God, not merely human effort
- Covenant renewal — Ezra reads the law to the assembled people (ch. 8), and the nation makes a written commitment to keep it
- Persistent reform — Nehemiah's second term (ch. 13) shows how quickly the community reverts; reform must be continually renewed

Key passages: Neh 1:5–6; 2:17–18; 4:14; 6:15–16; 8:8

How it fits: Nehemiah completes the restoration narrative that began in Ezra. Together, Ezra-Nehemiah brings the OT historical books to their close. After Nehemiah, the OT falls silent for four hundred years until John the Baptist appears. Malachi, written in this same era, ends with the promise of Elijah's return.

Nehemiah, cupbearer to King Artaxerxes in Susa, received word from his brother Hanani that Jerusalem's walls were broken down and its gates burned. Nehemiah wept, fasted, and prayed, confessing Israel's sins and asking God for favor before the king.

- 6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, to hear the prayer Your servant prays before You day and night for the people of Israel. I confess the sins we have committed against You — yes, I and my father's house have sinned.
- 7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses. We have acted very corruptly against you. We have not kept the commandments, statutes, and judgments you commanded your servant Moses.
- 8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations: Please remember the word you commanded your servant Moses: 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the peoples;
- 9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there. but if you return to me and keep my commandments and do them, then even if your exiles are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen for my name to dwell.'
- 10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. These are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power and your strong hand.

- 11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer. O Lord, please let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants who delight to fear your name. Give your servant success today, and grant him favor in the presence of this man." For I was the king's cupbearer.

Words in this chapter:

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Nehemiah (nee-heh-MY-ah) — A cupbearer to the Persian king who returned to rebuild Jerusalem's walls — a man of prayer and practical leadership; his name means 'the LORD comforts.'

Chapter 2

The king noticed Nehemiah's sadness and granted him letters and an escort to go to Jerusalem and rebuild the walls. Nehemiah inspected the ruined walls by night and rallied the people to build, despite the mockery of Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem.

- 1 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, wine was before him. I took up the wine and gave it to the king. I had never before been sad in his presence.

■ NAME NOTE — Artaxerxes (ar-tah-ZERK-seez) — "great warrior" — Artaxerxes I Longimanus, king of Persia c. 465–424 BC. He authorized both Ezra's mission (Ezra 7) and Nehemiah's governorship to rebuild Jerusalem's walls. His decree is the basis for the prophetic timeline of Daniel 9:25.

- 2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, So the king said to me, "Why is your countenance sad, since you are not sick? This can only be sadness of heart." Then I was very much afraid.
- 3 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my countenance not be sad, when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"
- 4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. The king said to me, "What do you want?" So I prayed to the God of heaven,
- 5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, please send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, so that I may rebuild it."

- 6 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. The king said to me (with the queen sitting beside him), "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" It pleased the king to send me. I gave him a time.
- 7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; I also said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the governors of the region beyond the River, so that they will let me pass through until I reach Judah;
- 8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress of the temple, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy." The king granted these requests, for the good hand of my God was on me.
- 9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. Then I came to the governors of the region beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officers and horsemen with me.
- 10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard this, it troubled them greatly that someone had come to seek the welfare of the people of Israel.

■ NAME NOTE — Sanballat (san-BAL-at) — "Sin (the moon-god) has given life" — Governor of Samaria, a Horonite (from Beth-horon). The chief opponent of Nehemiah's rebuilding project, who used mockery, threats, conspiracy, and false accusations to try to stop the work.

■ NAME NOTE — Tobiah (toh-BY-ah) — "the LORD is good" — An Ammonite official allied with Sanballat against Nehemiah. Despite his Israelite-sounding name, he opposed the rebuilding and later infiltrated the temple itself, being given a chamber by the priest Eliashib (13:4–7).

- 17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in — how Jerusalem lies in ruins with its gates burned down. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a disgrace."
- 18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work. I also told them about the good hand of my God on me, and about the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, "Let us rise up and build." So they committed themselves to the good work.
- 19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king? But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and despised us, saying, "What is this thing you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"
- 20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem. I replied to them, "The God of heaven will give us success. We His servants will rise up and build. But you have no share, no right, and no claim in Jerusalem."

Words in this chapter:

countenance — A person's face and its expression — especially the look that shows someone's inner mood, favor, or displeasure.

dragon — In the OT (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), 'dragon' is often used for a great sea-serpent and as a symbol of Egypt or chaos; in Revelation, the dragon is Satan himself.

Chapter 3

The chapter records the sections of the wall rebuilt by each family, priest, and guild, gate by gate around the circuit of Jerusalem from the Sheep Gate back to the Sheep Gate.

| 1 | Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel. | Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his fellow priests and built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set its doors in place, consecrating it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. |
| 2 | And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri. | Next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built. |
| 3 | But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. | The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, bolts, and bars in place. |
| 4 | And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. | Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Next to them Meshullam the son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. |
| 5 | And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their LORD. | Next to them the Tekoites made repairs, though their nobles would not stoop to serve their Lord. |

- 6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Jeshanah Gate; they laid its beams and set its doors, bolts, and bars in place.
- 7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river. Next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite made repairs — the men of Gibeon and Mizpah — who were under the authority of the governor of the region beyond the River.
- 8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall. Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him Hananiah, one of the perfumers, made repairs. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.
- 9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem. Next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs.
- 10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabneiah. Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house. Next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs.
- 11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces. Malchijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.
- 12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters. Next to him Shallum the son of Hallohesh, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs — he and his daughters.

- 13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate. Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it and set its doors, bolts, and bars in place, and also repaired a thousand cubits of wall to the Refuse Gate.
- 14 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Bethhacerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. Malchijah the son of Rechab, ruler of the district of Beth-hacerem, repaired the Refuse Gate. He rebuilt it and set its doors, bolts, and bars in place.
- 15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, even unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. Shallun the son of Col-hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, roofed it, and set its doors, bolts, and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Shelah near the king's garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David.
- 16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Bethzur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty. After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth-zur, made repairs as far as the tombs of David, and as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Warriors.
- 17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. After him the Levites made repairs — Rehum the son of Bani. Next to him Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district.
- 18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. After him their fellow Levites made repairs — Bavvai the son of Henadad, ruler of the other half of the district of Keilah.

Words in this chapter:

Benjamin (BEN-jah-min) — Jacob's twelfth and youngest son, Rachel's second — his tribe settled around Jerusalem; his name means 'son of my right hand.'

Gibeon (GIB-ee-on) — A Hivite city that tricked Joshua into a peace treaty — its inhabitants became servants of Israel; Solomon offered sacrifices here where God appeared to him in a dream.

Jericho (JEHR-ih-ko) — The first city Israel conquered in Canaan — its walls fell when the priests blew their trumpets on the seventh day after seven days of marching; its name may mean 'city of the moon.'

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 4

Sanballat and Tobiah mocked the rebuilding and then plotted a military attack; Nehemiah armed the workers and set half the men as guards. The builders worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other, and the work continued day and night.

- | | |
| 1 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. | When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he was furious and greatly enraged. He ridiculed the Jews, |
| 2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? | saying before his associates and the army of Samaria, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish it in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubble — burned ones at that?" |

- 3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. Tobiah the Ammonite was nearby and said, "Whatever they are building — even a fox could break down their stone wall!"
- 4 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: Hear us, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity.
- 5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders. Cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.
- 6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work. So we rebuilt the wall, and the whole wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.
- 7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repair of Jerusalem's walls was progressing and the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.
- 8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and throw it into confusion.
- 9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. But we prayed to our God and set a guard as protection against them day and night.
- 10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing; there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall."

- 11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. Our enemies said, "Before they know it or see us, we will be right among them and kill them and put an end to the work."
- 12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. When the Jews who lived near them came to us, they kept warning us ten times over, "From all the places where they live they will attack us."
- 13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. So I stationed men in the lower parts of the space behind the wall, in open places. I stationed them by families, with their swords, spears, and bows.
- 14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. After looking things over I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives, and your homes."
- 15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. When our enemies heard that we knew their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to His own work.
- 16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. From that day on, half of my servants worked on construction while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The officers stood behind the whole house of Judah

| 17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. 18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me. 19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. 20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us. 21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared. 22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. 23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing. | who were building on the wall. Those who carried loads did their work with one hand holding the load and the other hand holding a weapon. Each builder wore his sword at his side while he worked. The man who sounded the trumpet stayed close to me. I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "The work is extensive and spread out. We are widely separated on the wall, one far from another. Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us." So we carried on the work with half of the men holding spears, from the break of dawn until the stars came out. At that time I also told the people, "Let every man and his servant stay inside Jerusalem at night, so that they can stand guard by night and work by day." So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who were with me ever took off our clothes, except every one put them off for washing. |

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Chapter 5

The people cried out against the wealthy nobles who were charging interest and seizing their lands and children during the famine. Nehemiah rebuked the nobles, made them return what they had taken, and set an example by refusing the governor’s food allowance for twelve years.

- | | | |
| 1 | And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews. | Now there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their fellow Jews. |
| 2 | For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live. | Some were saying, "We, our sons and daughters, are many. We must get grain so that we can eat and stay alive." |
| 3 | Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth. | Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields, vineyards, and houses to get grain because of the famine." |
| 4 | There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards. | Still others said, "We have had to borrow money for the king's tax on our fields and vineyards." |

- 5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards. "Now our flesh is the same as our brothers' flesh; our children are the same as theirs. Yet we are forcing our sons and daughters into slavery. Some of our daughters are already enslaved. We are powerless to help, for our fields and vineyards now belong to others."
- 6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. When I heard their outcry and these words, I was very angry.
- 7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. After thinking it over, I confronted the nobles and officials and said to them, "You are charging interest on loans to your own brothers!" So I called a great assembly to deal with them.
- 8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer. I said to them, "We, as best we could, have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to the nations. But now you are selling your own brothers. They must be bought back by us?" They were silent and could find nothing to say.
- 9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Should you not walk in the fear of our God, so that the reproach of our enemies will not fall on us?"
- 10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury. "I myself, my brothers, and my servants are also lending money and grain to the people. But let us stop this practice of charging interest.

- 11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, and also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. Please give back to them this very day their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses, and also the interest you are charging them — a hundredth of the money, grain, new wine, and olive oil."
- 12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. They replied, "We will restore it and will require nothing more from them. We will do exactly as you say." So I called the priests and made the nobles and officials swear an oath to do what they had promised.
- 13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise. I also shook out my garment and said, "In this way may God shake out every man from his house and from his property who does not keep this promise. May He be shaken out and emptied!" And all the assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. The people did as they had promised.
- 14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. Furthermore, from the day I was appointed as their governor in the land of Judah — from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years — neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.
- 15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. The earlier governors who preceded me had placed heavy burdens on the people, taking forty shekels of silver from them for food and wine. Their subordinates also lorded it over the people. But I did not act this way, out of the fear of God.

| 16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. 17 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us. 18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. 19 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people. | I also devoted myself to the work on this wall and acquired no land. All my servants were gathered there for the work. Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, in addition to those who came to us from the surrounding nations. Each day one ox, six choice sheep, and birds were prepared for me. Every ten days skins of wine of all kinds were provided. Yet I did not demand the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on these people was already heavy. Remember me favorably, my God, for all that I have done for this people. |

Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem tried four times to lure Nehemiah to a meeting to harm him, then hired a false prophet to frighten him into hiding in the temple. Nehemiah refused every trap, and the wall was finished in fifty-two days.

| 1 Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) | When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that there was no gap left in it — although at that time I had not yet set the doors in the gates — |
| 2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. | Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me saying, "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me. |
| 3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? | So I sent messengers to them saying, "I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?" |
| 4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. | They sent the same message to me four times, and each time I sent the same reply. |
| 5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; | Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. |
| 6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words. | In it was written: "It is reported among the nations — and Geshem confirms it — that you and the Jews are planning to rebel, and that is why you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you intend to become their king. |

- 7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. You have also appointed prophets to proclaim about you in Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now this report will go to the king. So come, let us meet together."
- 8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. I sent a reply saying, "Nothing of what you say has happened. You are inventing it all yourself."
- 9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands. For they were all trying to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will drop from the work. It will not be done." But now, O God, strengthen my hands.
- 10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee. Then I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his home. He said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, for they are coming to kill you — indeed, tonight they are coming to kill you."
- 11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Could someone like me enter the temple to save his life? I will not go in."
- 12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. I realized that God had not sent him, but that He had spoken this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired Him.

- 13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. He was hired to frighten me, so that I would act in this way and sin. Then they could give me a bad reputation and discredit me.
- 14 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear. Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these deeds of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to intimidate me.
- 15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days. So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days.
- 16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God. When all our enemies heard of it, all the surrounding nations were afraid and fell greatly in their own estimation, for they saw that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.
- 17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them. Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters kept coming to them.
- 18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah. For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah. His son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.
- 19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear. They also kept telling me about his good deeds and reporting my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Chapter 7

After the wall was completed, Nehemiah appointed gatekeepers, singers, and Levites, and placed his brother Hanani in charge. The chapter records the genealogy of those who first returned from exile with Zerubbabel — the same register as Ezra 2.

| 1 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, | When the wall was rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites were appointed. |
| 2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. | I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, for he was a faithful man who feared God more than many. |
| 3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. | I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun is hot. While the guards are still on duty, let them shut and bar the doors. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own homes." |

- 4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were few and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.
- 5 And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein, My God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. I found the genealogical record of those who had come up in the first return. I found written in it:
- 6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town:
- 7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of Israel was: They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of Israel:
- 8 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two. the descendants of Parosh — 2,172;

- 37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one. of Lod, Hadid, and Ono — 721;
- 38 The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty. of Senaah — 3,930.
- 39 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three. The priests: the descendants of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua — 973;
- 40 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two. of Immer — 1,052;
- 41 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven. of Pashhur — 1,247;
- 42 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen. of Harim — 1,017.

- 43 The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four. The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of the descendants of Hodevah — 74.
- 44 The singers: the children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight. The singers: the descendants of Asaph — 148.
- 45 The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, an hundred thirty and eight. The gatekeepers: the descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai — 138.
- 46 The Nethinims: the children of Ziha, the children of Hashupha, the children of Tabbaoth, The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, Hashupha, Tabbaoth,
- 47 The children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon, Keros, Sia, Padon,
- 48 The children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Shalmal, Lebana, Hagaba, Shalmal,
- 49 The children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, Hanan, Giddel, Gahar,
- 50 The children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda,
- 51 The children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaseah, Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah,
- 52 The children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephishesim, Besai, Meunim, Nephushesim,
- 53 The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur,
- 54 The children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, Bazlith, Mehida, Harsha,
- 55 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, Barkos, Sisera, Temah,
- 56 The children of Nezhiah, the children of Hatipha. Nezhiah, and Hatipha.

- 57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, The descendants of Solomon's servants: the descendants of Sotai, Sophereth, Perida,
- 58 The children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, Jaala, Darkon, Giddel,
- 59 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon. Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-hazzebaim, and Amon.
- 60 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two. All the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants were 392.
- 61 And these were they which went up also from Telmelah, Telharsesha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel. The following came up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer. But they could not prove their ancestral houses or their descent, whether they were from Israel:
- 62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two. the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda — 642.
- 63 And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by their name).
- 64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. These searched for their entries in the genealogical records. But they could not be found. They were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.

- 65 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. The governor told them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until there was a priest serving with Urim and Thummim.
- 66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, The whole assembly together numbered 42,360,
- 67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. besides their male and female servants, who numbered 7,337. They also had 245 male and female singers.
- 68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: Their horses numbered 736, their mules 245,
- 69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses. their camels 435. Their donkeys 6,720.
- 70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasury a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. Some of the heads of families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 gold coins, 50 bowls, and 530 priestly garments.
- 71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver. Some of the heads of families gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 gold coins and 2,200 pounds of silver.
- 72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold coins, 2,000 pounds of silver, and 67 priestly garments.

- 73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities. The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all Israel settled in their towns. When the seventh month came, the people of Israel were in their towns.

Words in this chapter:

Thummim (THUM-im) — One of two sacred objects kept in the high priest's breastplate alongside the Urim — together they were God's tool for giving yes/no answers to Israel's leaders.

Urim (YOOR-im) — One of two sacred objects kept in the high priest's breastplate — used to seek God's guidance on important decisions; its exact form is unknown.

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Mordecai (MOR-deh-ky) — Esther's cousin and guardian — refused to bow to Haman; uncovered a plot against the king; ultimately honored above Haman; his name may be Babylonian in origin.

Nebuchadnezzar (neb-yoo-kud-NEZ-er) — King of Babylon who destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews into exile — later humbled by God and acknowledged God's sovereignty; his name means 'Nabu, protect my firstborn son.'

Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — David's son and Israel's wisest and wealthiest king — built the first temple in Jerusalem; his name means 'peace' (shalom).

Tirshatha (ter-SHAY-thah) — The Persian title given to Nehemiah (and to Zerubbabel in Ezra 2:63) — a title meaning 'governor' or 'his excellency'; used in the books of Ezra and Nehemiah.

Chapter 8

Ezra read the Book of the Law aloud to all the people from morning until midday at the Water Gate, and the Levites helped the people understand it. The people wept when they heard the law, but Nehemiah told them to rejoice; they then celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles.

- 1 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

All the people gathered together as one in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.
- 2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly — both men and women and all who could understand — on the first day of the seventh month.
- 3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

He read from it in the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men, the women, and those who could understand. All the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.
- 4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform that had been made for the occasion. Standing beside him on his right were Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam.
- 5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above them. When he opened it, all the people stood up.

- 6 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Ezra praised the LORD, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen!" lifting up their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.
- 7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah — the Levites — helped the people understand the Law while the people stood in their places.
- 8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. They read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining it so that the people could understand what was being read.
- 9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD Your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.
- 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength. Nehemiah said to them, "Go, eat rich food and drink sweet drinks, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is Your strength."
- 11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. The Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for this day is holy; do not grieve."

- 12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them. Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions and celebrate with great joy, because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.
- 13 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. On the second day the heads of families of all the people, together with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to study the words of the Law.
- 14 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: They found written in the Law that the LORD had commanded through Moses that the people of Israel should live in shelters during the feast of the seventh month,
- 15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. that they should proclaim in all their towns and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hill country and bring back branches of olive, wild olive, myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees to make shelters," as it is written.
- 16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. So the people went out and brought branches and built shelters for themselves — each on His rooftop, in His courtyard, in the courts of the house of God, in the square at the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.

Words in this chapter:

Ezra (EZ-rah) — A priest and scribe who led a group of exiles back from Babylon — restored the Law among the returned community; his name means 'help.'

Joshua (JOSH-oo-ah) — Moses's successor who led Israel into Canaan — his name means 'the LORD saves'; the same Hebrew name as Jesus.

Chapter 9

The Israelites assembled in fasting and sackcloth and confessed their sins. The Levites led a long prayer recounting God's faithfulness from Abraham through the exodus, the wilderness, the conquest, the judges, and the exile, acknowledging that God was just in all that had come upon them.

| 1 Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them. | On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the people of Israel assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dirt on their heads. |
| 2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. | Those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their ancestors. |
| 3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. | They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter confessing and worshipping the LORD their God. |

| 6 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. | You are the LORD, You alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You preserve all of them. The host of heaven worships You. |

- 7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; You are the LORD God, Who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and gave Him the name Abraham.
- 8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: You found His heart faithful before You and made a covenant with Him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites — to give it to His descendants. You have kept Your promise, for You are righteous.
- 9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea; You saw the affliction of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cry by the Red Sea.
- 10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his servants, and against all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly they treated our ancestors. You made a name for yourself that endures to this day.
- 11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. You divided the sea before them, so they passed through it on dry ground. But their pursuers you hurled into the depths, like a stone into mighty waters.
- 12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. You led them with a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night to light the way they were to take.

- 13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments: You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments.
- 14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant: You made known to them your holy Sabbath and gave them commandments, statutes, and a law through your servant Moses.
- 15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them. You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger and brought forth water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in and possess the land you had sworn with your hand to give them.
- 16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, But they and our ancestors acted arrogantly. They became stubborn and did not obey your commandments.
- 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. They refused to listen and did not remember the wonders you performed among them. They stiffened their necks and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return to slavery. But you are a God ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, longsuffering and of great kindness, and you did not abandon them.
- 18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; Even when they made for themselves a golden calf and said, 'This is your God Who brought you up out of Egypt,' and committed great blasphemies,

- 19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Yet you in your great mercy did not abandon them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud did not stop leading them by day, nor the pillar of fire by night to light their way.
- 20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. You gave your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths, and you gave them water when they were thirsty.
- 21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. For forty years you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing; their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.
- 22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. You gave them kingdoms and peoples and divided the lands among them. They took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan.
- 23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven and brought them into the land you had told their ancestors to enter and possess.
- 24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. So their descendants went in and possessed the land. You subdued the Canaanites before them and handed their kings and the peoples of the land over to them, to do with as they pleased.

- 25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness. They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns already dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. They ate and were satisfied and became well-fed and lived in luxury in your great goodness.
- 26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. But they were disobedient and rebelled against you. They threw your law behind their backs and killed your prophets who had warned them to return to you. They committed terrible blasphemies.
- 27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. So you handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. But when they cried out to you in the time of their suffering, you heard from heaven, and according to your great mercy you gave them deliverers who rescued them from the hands of their enemies.
- 28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; But as soon as they had relief, they did evil again before you. So you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies. They ruled over them. Then when they cried out to you again, you heard from heaven and delivered them many times in your mercy.

- 29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. You warned them to return to your law. But they acted arrogantly and did not obey your commandments. They sinned against your ordinances — by which a person will live if he does them. They stubbornly turned their backs, stiffened their necks, and would not listen.
- 30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. For many years you bore with them. You warned them by your Spirit through your prophets, yet they would not listen. So you handed them over to the peoples of the surrounding lands.
- 31 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God. Yet in your great mercy you did not utterly destroy them or abandon them, for you are a gracious and merciful God.
- 32 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day. Now therefore, our God — the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, Who keeps covenant and mercy — do not let all the hardship seem small to you that has come upon us: our kings, our officials, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors. All your people, from the days of the kings of Assyria to this day.
- 33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly: You have been righteous in all that has come upon us, for you have acted faithfully and we have acted wickedly.

| 34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. | Our kings, our officials, our priests, and our ancestors have not kept your law or paid attention to your commandments and warnings you gave them. |
| 35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. | Even in their own kingdom, despite all your great goodness toward them and despite the broad and fertile land you gave them, they did not serve you and did not turn from their wicked ways. |
| 36 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: | See, we are slaves today — slaves in the land you gave to our ancestors so they could eat its fruit and its good gifts. |

Words in this chapter:

longsuffering — Patient endurance with difficult people — God's slowness to anger, not because sin doesn't matter but because He is patient.

sabbath (SAB-ath) — The seventh day of the week, set apart for rest and worship — instituted at creation; Israel was commanded to do no work on this day.

Amorites (AM-oh-rytes) — A major Canaanite people group — their two kings Sihon and Og were defeated by Israel east of the Jordan; their name may mean 'westerners' or 'highlanders.'

- Canaanites (KAY-nan-ytes) — The original inhabitants of the Promised Land — descendants of Ham's son Canaan; Israel was commanded to drive them out because of their wickedness.
- Girgashites (GER-gah-shytes) — One of the seven Canaanite nations — listed among the peoples that Israel displaced; little else is known about them beyond their name.
- Hittites (HIT-ytes) — A Canaanite people group (distinct from the Hittite Empire) — Abraham bought the cave of Machpelah from a Hittite; Uriah, one of David's warriors, was a Hittite.
- Jebusites (JEB-yoo-zytes) — The original inhabitants of Jerusalem (called Jebus) — David captured their stronghold and made Jerusalem his capital; his name comes from 'Jebus.'

Chapter 10

The leaders, Levites, and priests sealed a written covenant, and the people bound themselves by oath to walk in God’s law. They pledged not to intermarry with surrounding peoples, to keep the Sabbath, to support the temple with the yearly third-of-a-shekel tax, and to bring their tithes and firstfruits.

- 28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding; The rest of the people — the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, together with their wives, sons, and daughters, all who had knowledge and understanding —
- 29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our LORD, and his judgments and his statutes; joined their brothers, their nobles, and bound themselves with a curse and an oath to walk in God's Law, which was given through Moses the servant of God, and to observe and keep all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His ordinances and statutes.
- 30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons: We would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land or take their daughters for our sons.
- 31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. If the peoples of the land bring goods or any grain to sell on the Sabbath, we would not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any holy day. We would forego the produce of the seventh year and the cancellation of every debt.
- 32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of God; We also took on the obligation to give a third of a shekel each year for the service of the house of God:

- 33 For the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of God. for the bread of the Presence, the regular grain offering, the regular burnt offering, the Sabbaths, the new moons, the appointed festivals, the holy things, the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of God.
- 34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law: We also cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people for the wood offering, to bring it to the house of our God by our ancestral houses at appointed times each year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.
- 35 And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD: We obligated ourselves to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of every fruit tree year by year to the house of the LORD,
- 36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God: to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister there, the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks.
- 37 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. We would also bring to the priests in the storerooms of the house of our God the first of our dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, wine, and oil. And we would bring the tithe of our ground to the Levites, for it is the Levites who collect the tithes in all our agricultural towns.

- 38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. The priest, a son of Aaron, shall accompany the Levites when they receive the tithes, and the Levites shall bring up a tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.
- 39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God. For the people of Israel and the descendants of Levi shall bring the contribution of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the vessels of the sanctuary are kept, where the ministering priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers are. We will not neglect the house of our God.

Words in this chapter:

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

sin offering — A sacrifice made to atone for unintentional sins — covering guilt and restoring the worshipper's standing before God.

meat — Food in general — in the KJV, 'meat' often means any food, not specifically flesh; 'meat offering' is a grain offering.

shewbread (SHOW-bred) — Twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on the golden table in the Holy Place each Sabbath — representing the twelve tribes before God; also called 'bread of the Presence.'

vituals (VIT-ulz) — Food provisions — supplies of food for a journey or army; also spelled 'victuals.'

firstfruits — The first portion of the harvest offered to God — acknowledging that all produce belongs to Him and comes from His hand.

| 1 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. | The leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots to bring one in ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine tenths remained in the other towns. |
| 2 And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem. | The people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem. |
| 3 Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants. | These are the leaders of the province who settled in Jerusalem. (But in the towns of Judah, everyone lived on his own property in their towns — Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants.) |
| 4 And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. - 5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. Maaseiah the son of Baruch, son of Col-hozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of Shiloni.
- 6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men. All the descendants of Perez who settled in Jerusalem were 468 capable men.
- 7 And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. From the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshiah.
- 8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. after him Gabbai and Sallai — 928.
- 9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city. Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second in charge of the city.
- 10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin. From the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,
- 11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God. Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub — the officer in charge of the house of God,
- 12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah, their brothers who did the work of the temple — 822. Adaiah the son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah,

- 13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, his brothers, heads of families — 242. Amashai the son of Azareel, son of Ahasai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,
- 14 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men. their brothers, men of great ability — 128. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.
- 15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; From the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni;
- 16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God. Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the heads of the Levites, who were in charge of the outside work of the house of God;
- 17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. Mattaniah the son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, who was the leader of the opening of prayer and thanksgiving, and Bakbukiah, second among his brothers. Abda the son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.
- 18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four. All the Levites in the holy city were 284.
- 19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two. The gatekeepers — Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers who kept watch at the gates — were 172.
- 20 And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. The rest of Israel — priests and Levites — were in all the towns of Judah, each on his own inherited property.

- 21 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims. The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.
- 22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, from the descendants of Asaph. The singers were responsible for the service of the house of God.
- 23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day. For there was a royal command concerning them, and a fixed provision for the singers each day.
- 24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the descendants of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's agent in all matters concerning the people.
- 25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjatharba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof, As for the villages with their fields: some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath-arba and its villages, in Dibon and its villages, in Jekabzeel and its villages,
- 26 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethphelet, in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth-pelet,

- 15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai; for Harim, Adna; for Meraioth, Helkai;
- 16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; for Iddo, Zechariah; for Ginnethon, Meshullam;
- 17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai; for Abijah, Zichri; for Miniamin, for Moadiah, Piltai;
- 18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; for Bilgah, Shammua; for Shemaiah, Jehonathan;
- 19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; for Joiarib, Mattenai; for Jedaiah, Uzzi;
- 20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; for Sallai, Kallai; for Amok, Eber;
- 21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel. for Hilkiah, Hashabiah; for Jedaiah, Nethanel.
- 22 The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian. The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were recorded as heads of families, as were the priests, until the reign of Darius the Persian.
- 23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. The sons of Levi, the heads of families, were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.
- 24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward. The heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, group corresponding to group.
- 25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers standing guard at the thresholds of the gates.

- 26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe. These served in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.
- 27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from wherever they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy — with thanksgiving, singing, cymbals, harps, and lyres.
- 28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi; The sons of the singers gathered from the surrounding region around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites,
- 29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmavet: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem. from Beth-gilgal and from the farms of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem.
- 30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. The priests and the Levites purified themselves. They purified the people, the gates, and the wall.
- 31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate: Then I brought the leaders of Judah up on top of the wall and appointed two large choirs to give thanks. One went in procession to the right along the top of the wall toward the Refuse Gate.
- 32 And after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, Behind them went Hoshaiiah and half of the leaders of Judah,
- 33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,
- 34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

- 35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph: some of the sons of the priests with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Michaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph;
- 36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. his brothers Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God. Ezra the scribe walked ahead of them.
- 37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. At the Fountain Gate they went straight up the stairs of the City of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, to the Water Gate on the east.
- 38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall; The second choir giving thanks went to the left. I followed it with half of the people along the top of the wall, past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall,
- 39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate. over the Gate of Ephraim, over the Jeshanah Gate, over the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They came to a halt at the Gate of the Guard.
- 40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me: So both choirs took their places in the house of God, and so did I, along with half of the officials with me,

- 41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; the priests Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets,
- 42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly, with Jezrahiah as their leader.
- 43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. That day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The joy of Jerusalem was heard far away.
- 44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited. On that day men were appointed over the storerooms for the contributions, the firstfruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the Law from the fields of the towns for the priests and Levites, for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who were serving.
- 45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.
- 46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. For long ago in the days of David and Asaph, there were directors of the singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

- 47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.
- In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the portion for the sons of Aaron.

Words in this chapter:

Aaron (AIR-on) — Moses's older brother and Israel's first high priest — spokesperson for Moses before Pharaoh; his descendants served as priests throughout Israel's history.

Jeremiah (jair-eh-MY-ah) — The 'weeping prophet' who warned Judah before the Babylonian exile — suffered greatly for his message; his name means 'the LORD throws' or 'the LORD exalts.'

Jonathan (JON-ah-than) — Saul's son and David's closest friend — showed remarkable loyalty to David even against his father's wishes; his name means 'the LORD has given.'

Joseph (JO-zef) — Jacob's eleventh son, Rachel's firstborn — sold by his brothers into slavery in Egypt; rose to become Pharaoh's second-in-command; his name means 'may he add.'

Levi (LEE-vy) — Jacob's third son by Leah — ancestor of the priestly tribe that served in the tabernacle and temple; his name means 'attached' or 'joined.'

Zerubbabel (zeh-RUB-ah-bel) — The governor who led the first return of exiles from Babylon — laid the foundation of the second temple; his name means 'born in Babylon' or 'seed of Babylon.'

Chapter 13

On Nehemiah's return from Babylon he found that Tobiah had been given a room in the temple courts, the Levites had not received their portions, the Sabbath was being profaned by merchants, and Jews had married foreign women. Nehemiah expelled Tobiah, restored the tithes, shut the gates on the Sabbath, and rebuked those who had intermarried.

| 1 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; | On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud to the people. In it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God, |
| 2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. | because they had not met the people of Israel with bread and water but had hired Balaam to curse them — though our God turned the curse into a blessing. |
| 3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. | When the people heard this law, they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. |
| 4 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah: | Before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been placed in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God, and who was related to Tobiah, |
| 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. | had prepared for him a large room where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, the tithes of grain, new wine, and oil, which were commanded for the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests. |

After some time I asked leave of the king |

- 7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. I returned to Jerusalem. I then discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.
- 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. This made me very angry. I threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.
- 9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense. I gave orders. They cleansed the rooms. Then I brought back the vessels of the house of God, the grain offering, and the frankincense.
- 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. I also learned that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them, so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had fled each to his own field.
- 11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. So I confronted the officials and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" I gathered the Levites together and restored them to their posts.
- 12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine, and oil to the storehouses.
- 13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren. I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and alongside them Hanan the son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah. They were considered trustworthy. It was their duty to distribute the portions to their brothers.

- 14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof. Remember me, O my God, for this, and do not blot out my faithful deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for its service.
- 15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain, loading it on donkeys — as well as wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads — and bringing them to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I warned them against selling food on that day.
- 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Residents of Tyre who lived there were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling it on the Sabbath to the people of Judah and in Jerusalem.
- 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? So I confronted the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing you are doing, profaning the Sabbath?
- 18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. Did not your ancestors do the same things, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Now you are bringing more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

- 19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. When it began to grow dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my own servants at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.
- 20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.
- 21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. And from that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. Then I warned them and said to them, "Why are you staying near the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you." From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.
- 22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy. Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy.
- 23 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.
- 24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and could not speak the language of Judah.

- 25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor shall you take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.
- 26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin in this very way? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God. God made him king over all Israel. Yet even He was led into sin by foreign women.
- 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? Must we now hear that you too are doing all this great evil, being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?"
- 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.
- 29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priests and the Levites.
- 30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business; So I cleansed them from everything foreign and assigned duties to the priests and Levites, each to his own task,
- 31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good. I arranged for the supply of wood at appointed times and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Words in this chapter:

Balaam (BAY-lam) — A pagan prophet hired by Balak to curse Israel — God turned his curses to blessings; he later advised Israel's enemies to lead Israel into sin.

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Esther

Author: Unknown — possibly Mordecai, as suggested by the book's detailed knowledge of Persian court customs and the internal mention of Mordecai's records (Est 9:20). Jewish tradition also names Ezra or the men of the Great Synagogue.

Date written: c. 460–400 BC, during the reign of Ahasuerus (Xerxes I of Persia).

Written to: The Jewish diaspora throughout the Persian empire, to explain the origin of the feast of Purim and to encourage the scattered nation.

Setting: The Jews who did not return to Jerusalem under Zerubbabel remain scattered throughout the Persian empire. Esther is one of them — an orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai, who becomes queen of Persia without the king knowing she is Jewish. When Haman the Agagite plots the extermination of all Jews in the empire, everything turns on whether Esther will risk her life to intervene.

Where this sits historically: The story unfolds c. 483–473 BC at Susa under Xerxes I (Ahasuerus), in the years between his failed invasion of Greece (Thermopylae and Salamis, 480 BC) and his assassination in 465 BC.

Contemporaries: The second temple had been finished a generation earlier under Zerubbabel, Haggai, and Zechariah, while Ezra and Nehemiah would arrive in Jerusalem only after Esther's day.

Big themes:

- Providence — God's name never appears in the book, yet His hand is unmistakable behind every coincidence, delay, and reversal
- Courage — Esther's decision to approach the king unsummoned, knowing it may cost her life, is one of Scripture's great acts of courage
- Reversal — the gallows Haman built for Mordecai is the gallows he hangs on; the day planned for Jewish extermination becomes a day of Jewish victory
- Jewish identity in exile — Mordecai's refusal to bow to Haman and Esther's willingness to identify as a Jew both at great personal cost
- The feast of Purim — the celebration established in chapter 9 is still observed by Jewish communities worldwide

Key passages: Est 2:17; 4:14; 4:16; 6:13; 8:17

How it fits: Esther is set during the reign of Xerxes I, between Ezra chapters 6 and 7 — after the temple is rebuilt but before Ezra's mission. It shows that God protects His people even among those who never returned to the land. The survival of the Jewish people in Persia ensures that the messianic line continues.

Chapter 1

King Ahasuerus held a great banquet in Susa and on the seventh day commanded Queen Vashti to appear before his guests, but she refused. On the advice of his counselors, the king deposed Vashti and decreed that every man should rule his own household.

- 12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the chamberlains. The king became furious and his anger burned within him.
- 13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment: Then the king consulted the wise men who knew the laws and customs, for it was the king's practice to consult experts in law and justice.
- 14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;) His closest advisers were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan — the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king and sat in the first ranks of the kingdom.
- 15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains? He asked, "According to the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti, because she has not obeyed the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the chamberlains?"
- 16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the officials, "Queen Vashti has done wrong not only to the king but also to all the officials and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.
- 17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. For this deed of the queen will become known to all women. They will despise their husbands in their eyes, when it is reported that King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him but she did not come.

- 18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath. This very day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's conduct will be telling the same thing to all the king's officials, and there will be no end of contempt and anger.
- 19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she. If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him and let it be written into the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed — that Vashti is never again to come before King Ahasuerus. Let the king give her royal position to someone better than she.
- 20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small. When the decree made by the king is proclaimed throughout his entire kingdom — for it is vast — all the wives will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least."
- 21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan: This pleased the king and the officials, and the king did as Memucan proposed.
- 22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people. He sent letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, proclaiming that every man should be master in his own household.

Words in this chapter:

Persia (PER-zhah) — The empire that conquered Babylon in 539 BC — Cyrus, Darius, and Xerxes (Ahasuerus) were Persian kings; they allowed the Jews to return from exile.

Chapter 2

A search was made for a new queen; Esther, a Jewish orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai, was chosen and crowned. Mordecai uncovered a plot by two of the king's chamberlains to assassinate Ahasuerus, and the matter was recorded in the royal chronicles.

| 3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them: | Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all these beautiful young women to the house of the women in the citadel of Shushan. | 4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so. | Then let the young woman who pleases the king become queen instead of Vashti." This advice pleased the king. He followed it. |

■ NAME NOTE — Mordecai (MOR-deh-ky) — Possibly from Babylonian "Marduk" — Esther's older cousin and guardian, a Benjamite descendant of Kish. He sat at the king's gate, refused to bow to Haman, uncovered a plot against the king, and was ultimately exalted to second in the kingdom.

The young woman was fair and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter. |

■ NAME NOTE — Esther (ES-ter) — "star" (Persian); her Hebrew name Hadassah means "myrtle" — A Jewish orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai, who became queen of Persia and risked her life to save the Jewish people from Haman's genocide plot.

| 8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. | When the king's order and decree were proclaimed and many young women were brought to the citadel of Shushan under the care of Hegai, Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who was in charge of the women. |

- 9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. The young woman pleased him and won his favor. He quickly provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned seven chosen young women from the king's palace to attend her and moved her and her attendants to the best place in the house of the women.
- 10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. Esther had not revealed her people or her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to reveal it.
- 11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her. Every day Mordecai would walk back and forth near the courtyard of the house of the women to find out how Esther was doing and what was happening to her.
- 12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;) Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months of preparation prescribed for the women — six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and other cosmetics for women.
- 13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. In this way a young woman went to the king: she was given whatever she asked for to take with her from the house of the women to the king's palace.

- 14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name. In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain who was in charge of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.
- 15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. When the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail — the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his daughter — to go to the king, she asked for nothing except what Hegai the king's chamberlain, who was in charge of the women, suggested. Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.
- 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus in his royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
- 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. The king loved Esther more than all the other women. She won his grace and favor more than all the other young women. He placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.
- 18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. Then the king gave a great banquet — Esther's banquet — for all his officials and servants. He granted a holiday to the provinces and distributed gifts with royal generosity.

| 19 | And when virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate. | When young women were gathered together a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate. |
| 20 | Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him. | Esther had still not revealed her family background or her people, just as Mordecai had instructed her. Esther continued to follow Mordecai's directions just as she had when she was being raised by him. |
| 21 | In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. | During those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus. |
| 22 | And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name. | Mordecai found out about it and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king in Mordecai's name. |
| 23 | And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king. | When the matter was investigated and found to be true, the two chamberlains were both hanged on a tree. This was recorded in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence. |

The king promoted Haman the Agagite above all the princes, but Mordecai refused to bow to him. Enraged, Haman persuaded the king to issue a decree to destroy all the Jews in the empire on a date chosen by casting lots (Purim).

■ NAME NOTE — Haman (HAY-man) — "magnificent" — The son of Hammedatha the Agagite, exalted to chief minister of Persia. His hatred of Mordecai drove him to plot the extermination of all Jews in the empire. He was ultimately hanged on the gallows he had built for Mordecai.

- 3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment? Then the king's servants at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"
- 4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. When they spoke to him day after day and he would not listen, they told Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's reason would be accepted, for he had told them that he was a Jew.
- 5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. When Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor, Haman was enraged.
- 6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. But he scorned the idea of laying hands on Mordecai alone, since they had told him Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews — the people of Mordecai — throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.
- 7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur — that is, the lot — before Haman, from day to day and from month to month. It fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.
- 8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their customs are different from those of every other people. They do not keep the king's laws. It is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.

- 9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them. I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for those who carry out this business."
- 10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.
- 11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, and the people also, to do with them as seems good to you."
- 12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. On the thirteenth day of the first month the royal scribes were summoned. They wrote out all Haman's orders to the king's lieutenants, to the governors of each province, and to the officials of each people — to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.
- 13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with orders to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jews — young and old, women and children — on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.

Mordecai mourned in sackcloth and sent word to Esther urging her to go before the king to plead for her people. Esther agreed, telling Mordecai to gather the Jews to fast for three days, declaring, 'If I perish, I perish.'

- 2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. He went as far as the front of the king's gate, for no one was allowed to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.
- 3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. In every province wherever the king's command and decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and lamenting. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.
- 4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not. When Esther's young women and her chamberlains came and told her, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent clothes for Mordecai to wear instead of his sackcloth. But he would not accept them.
- 5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's chamberlains who had been assigned to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find out what was happening and why.
- 6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate. So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city before the king's gate.
- 7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Mordecai told him everything that had happened and the exact amount of silver Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

- 8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. He also gave him a copy of the written decree issued in Shushan for their destruction, so that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her. He told him to urge Esther to go before the king to beg for mercy and to plead with him for her people.
- 9 And Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. Hathach went back and reported Mordecai's words to Esther.
- 10 Again Esther spake unto Hathach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; Then Esther told Hathach to go back with this message for Mordecai:
- 11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king in the inner court without being summoned, there is one law — that he be put to death, unless the king holds out the golden scepter so that he may live. I have not been summoned to come before the king for thirty days."
- 12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words. When they reported Esther's words to Mordecai,
- 13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, "Do not think that in the king's palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews."

| 14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? 15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer, 16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. 17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him. | For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows whether you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?" Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: "Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Shushan and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My young women and I will fast the same way. Then I will go to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish." So Mordecai went away and did everything Esther had commanded him. |

Esther put on her royal robes and entered the king's court; the king extended his scepter and offered her up to half the kingdom. Esther invited the king and Haman to a banquet, then to a second banquet the next day. Haman went home rejoicing but was enraged again at Mordecai, and his wife urged him to build a gallows.

- 1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, opposite the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the throne room, facing the entrance.
- 2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she won favor in his sight. He held out to her the golden scepter that was in his hand. Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.
- 3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

The king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you, even to half the kingdom."
- 4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet I have prepared for him."
- 5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

The king said, "Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet Esther had prepared.

- 6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted to you. What is your request? Even to half the kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."
- 7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; Esther replied, "My petition and request is this:
- 8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said. If I have found favor in the king's sight and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet I will prepare for them. Tomorrow I will do as the king has said."
- 9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. Haman went out that day joyful and in good spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed any sign of respect for him, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai.
- 10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home. He sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh,
- 11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman told them about his vast wealth and his many sons, and all the ways the king had honored him and elevated him above the other officials and servants of the king.

Chapter 6

That night the king could not sleep and had the royal chronicles read to him, discovering that Mordecai had never been honored for saving his life. The king asked Haman how to honor a man the king delights in; Haman, thinking it was himself, described a lavish reward — then was humiliated when he had to bestow it on Mordecai.

- 1 On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. That night the king could not sleep. He ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought and read to him.
- 2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus. It was found recorded that Mordecai had reported on Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.
- 3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him. The king asked, "What honor and recognition has been given to Mordecai for this?" His attendants replied, "Nothing has been done for him."
- 4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. The king asked, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on the gallows he had prepared for him.
- 5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. The king's attendants said, "Haman is standing in the court." The king said, "Bring him in."

- 6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? So Haman came in. The king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "Who would the king want to honor more than me?"
- 7 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, So Haman said to the king, "For the man the king delights to honor,
- 8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: let royal robes be brought — robes that the king has worn — and a horse that the king has ridden, with a royal crown placed on its head.
- 9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. Let the robes and the horse be handed over to one of the king's most noble officials. Let him robe the man the king delights to honor and lead him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!"
- 10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. The king said to Haman, "Go at once. Take the robes and the horse, as you have suggested, and do this for Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Do not leave out anything you have mentioned."

Chapter 7

At Esther's second banquet she revealed her Jewish identity and accused Haman of plotting to destroy her people. The king was furious; when Haman fell on Esther's couch pleading for mercy, the king had him hanged on the very gallows Haman had built for Mordecai.

| 5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? | Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do this?" |

- 6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. Esther said, "A foe and an enemy — this wicked Haman!" Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.
- 7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. The king rose in his anger from the banquet and went into the palace garden. Haman, realizing that the king had decided his fate, stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.
- 8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. The king returned from the palace garden to the room where they were drinking wine, and Haman had thrown himself on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king said, "Will he even assault the queen in my presence, in my own house?" As soon as the words left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.
- 9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon. Then Harbonah, one of the chamberlains in attendance on the king, said, "Look — the gallows standing at Haman's house, fifty cubits high, which Haman himself prepared for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king." The king said, "Hang him thereon."
- 10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified. So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath subsided.

Words in this chapter:

Esther (ES-ter) — A Jewish woman who became queen of Persia — risked her life to save the Jewish people from Haman's plot; her name may mean 'star' (Persian) or 'hidden.'

Mordecai (MOR-deh-ky) — Esther's cousin and guardian — refused to bow to Haman; uncovered a plot against the king; ultimately honored above Haman; his name may be Babylonian in origin.

Chapter 8

The king gave Haman's estate to Esther and his signet ring to Mordecai. Since the first decree could not be revoked, the king authorized Mordecai to write a new decree allowing the Jews to defend themselves; the Jews had light, gladness, and joy.

And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her. | That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her. |
| 2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. | The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed Mordecai over the estate of Haman. |

- 5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces: She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and if it seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews throughout all the king's provinces.
- 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred? For how can I endure to see the calamity that is coming to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my family?"
- 7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews. King Ahasuerus replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the estate of Haman. They have hanged him on the gallows because he stretched out his hand against the Jews.
- 8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse. Now you may write in the king's name whatever seems good to you concerning the Jews, and seal it with the king's signet ring, for a decree written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring cannot be revoked."

- 9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. The royal scribes were summoned at that time — it was the third month, the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day. Everything Mordecai commanded was written to the Jews and to the lieutenants, governors, and officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia — 127 provinces — to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, and also to the Jews in their own script and language.
- 10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed the letters with the king's signet ring. He sent the letters by couriers on horseback — riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries —
- 11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, Granting the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves, to destroy, kill, and annihilate any armed force of any people or province that might attack them, their children and women, and to plunder the property of their enemies,
- 12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. All on a single day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus — on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

On the thirteenth day of Adar the Jews struck down their enemies throughout the empire, killing Haman's ten sons. The feast of Purim was established as an annual two-day celebration on the fourteenth and fifteenth of Adar to remember their deliverance.

- 1 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;) In the twelfth month — the month of Adar — on the thirteenth day, when the king's command and decree were about to be carried out, on the very day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them, it was turned around so that the Jews themselves overpowered those who hated them.
- 2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people. The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to attack those who sought to harm them. No one could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen on all peoples.
- 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. All the officials of the provinces, the lieutenants, the governors, and the royal administrators supported the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them.

| 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. | For Mordecai was prominent in the king's palace. His fame was spreading throughout all the provinces, for he was growing more and more powerful. |
| 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them. | The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them. They did as they pleased to those who hated them. |
| 6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. | In the citadel of Shushan the Jews killed and destroyed 500 men. |
| 7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, | They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, |
| 8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, | Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, |
| 9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, | Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha — |
| 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. | The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder. |
| 11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. | On that day the number of those killed in the citadel of Shushan was reported to the king. |
| 12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done. | The king said to Queen Esther, "In the citadel of Shushan the Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what is your further request? It shall be done." |

- 13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Shushan also be permitted tomorrow to act according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."
- 14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. So the king commanded this to be done. The decree was issued in Shushan, and Haman's ten sons were hanged.
- 15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand. The Jews in Shushan assembled again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed 300 men in Shushan. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
- 16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, The rest of the Jews in the king's provinces assembled and defended themselves, gaining relief from their enemies. They killed 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
- 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. On the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.
- 18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews in Shushan had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days of the month. They rested on the fifteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

- 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another. This is why the rural Jews — those who live in villages without walls — celebrate the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of gladness and feasting, a holiday, and a time for sending gifts of food to one another.
- 20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,
- 21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, Directing them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar each year
- 22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. As the days on which the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month in which their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a holiday — so that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.
- 23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; So the Jews agreed to what they had already begun to practice and to what Mordecai had written to them.
- 24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; For Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the Pur — that is, the lot — to crush and destroy them.

- 25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. But when Esther came before the king, he ordered by letter that his wicked device which he had devised against the Jews should turn back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
- 26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, Therefore these days are called Purim, from the word Pur. Because of all the instructions in this letter and of what they had seen and experienced concerning this matter,
- 27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; The Jews established and accepted as a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who joined them, that without fail they would celebrate these two days every year as written and at the appointed time.
- 28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. These days of Purim are to be remembered and celebrated by every generation, every family, every province, and every city. These days of Purim will never cease among the Jews, nor will the memory of them fade from their descendants.
- 29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim. Then Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, together with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

Job

Author: Unknown — possibly Job himself, Moses, or another ancient writer. Jewish tradition suggests Moses.

Date written: Patriarchal era setting (c. 2000–1500 BC); one of the oldest books in the Bible.

Written to: Israel and all believers who ask why the righteous suffer.

Setting: The land of Uz, during the patriarchal period. Job is a wealthy, God-fearing man whom God allows Satan to test.

Where this sits historically: The events fall in the patriarchal era (c. 2000–1500 BC), before the giving of the Mosaic law and before Israel existed as a nation, in an age when wealth was measured in livestock and a man like Job offered sacrifices as his own household priest.

Contemporaries: Job belongs to the same general world as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the wisdom traditions of Edom and Arabia (Eliphaz comes from Teman in Edom) were flourishing alongside him.

Big themes:

- The suffering of the righteous and the mystery of God's purposes
- God's absolute sovereignty over creation and all events
- The failure of "retribution theology" — the friends' insistence that suffering always means hidden sin
- The limits of human wisdom before the infinite God
- God's answer from the whirlwind — not an explanation but a revelation of Himself
- Restoration — God vindicates Job and restores him double

Key passages: 1:21; 13:15; 19:25–27; 28:28; 38:1–4; 42:5–6

How it fits: Job is the Bible's deepest exploration of theodicy. Job's cry "I know that my redeemer liveth" (19:25) reaches beyond his own suffering to anticipate the coming Christ who will stand upon the earth.

Chapter 1

Job was a perfect and upright man in the land of Uz, the greatest of all the men of the east. Satan challenged Job's motives before God, and the LORD permitted Satan to destroy Job's possessions and children. Job fell to the ground, worshipped, and did not sin.

1	There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.	There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was perfect and upright, one who feared God and shunned evil.

Chapter 2

Satan returned before the LORD and received permission to strike Job's body. Job's wife urged him to curse God and die, but Job refused and did not sin with his lips. His three friends arrived and sat with him in silence for seven days.

Chapter 6

Job replies to Eliphaz, declaring that his grief is heavier than the sand of the sea. He wishes God would crush him and end his life, and rebukes his friends as unreliable as a dried-up brook.

Chapter 11

Zophar begins his first speech, rebuking Job for his many words and insisting that God is exacting less punishment than Job's iniquity deserves. He declares that the wisdom of God is higher than heaven and deeper than hell, and urges Job to repent.

Chapter 12

Job responds with biting sarcasm, telling his friends that wisdom will die with them. He declares that even the beasts know God's hand governs all things, and describes God's sovereign power to tear down nations, expose counsellors, and overthrow the mighty.

- 1 And Job answered and said, And Job answered and said:
 2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. "No doubt but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.
 3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these? But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yes, who does not know such things as these?
 4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn. I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calls on God, and He answers Him; the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

- 5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease. He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.
- 6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly. The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure, into whose hand God brings abundantly.
- 7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach you; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell you.
- 8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee. Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you; and the fishes of the sea shall declare to you.
- 9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this? Who does not know in all these that the hand of the LORD has wrought this?
- 10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.
- 11 Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat? Does not the ear try words? And the mouth taste its meat?
- 12 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding. With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.
- 13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding. With Him is wisdom and strength; He has counsel and understanding.
- 14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening. See, He breaks down, and it cannot be built again; He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening.
- 15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth. See, He withholds the waters, and they dry up; also He sends them out, and they overturn the earth.
- 16 With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his. With Him is strength and wisdom; the deceived and the deceiver are His.

| 17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools. | He leads counsellors away spoiled, and makes the judges fools. |
| 18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle. | He looses the bond of kings, and girds their loins with a girdle. |
| 19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty. | He leads princes away spoiled, and overthrows the mighty. |
| 20 He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged. | He removes away the speech of the trusty, and takes away the understanding of the aged. |
| 21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. | He pours contempt on princes, and weakens the strength of the mighty. |
| 22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. | He discovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. |
| 23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again. | He increases the nations, and destroys them; he enlarges the nations, and confines them again. |
| 24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. | He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. |

Job meditates on the frailty of man, born of woman and full of trouble like a flower that is cut down. He observes that a tree has hope if cut down, but when a man dies he lies down and rises not, and he longs for God to hide him in the grave until His wrath is past.

Chapter 21

Job directly challenges the retribution theology of his friends, pointing out that the wicked often prosper, live long, and die in peace. He asks why the wicked are not punished in their own lifetime and declares that his friends' answers are nothing but falsehood.

Chapter 25

Bildad delivers his third and briefest speech, declaring that dominion and fear belong to God. He argues that no man born of woman can be clean before God, since even the moon and stars are not pure in His sight.

Chapter 26

Job responds with a rebuke, asking how Bildad has helped the powerless. He then exalts God's majesty, describing how God hangs the earth on nothing, stretches out the north over the empty place, and commands the sea -- yet these are only the edges of His ways.

Chapter 28

Job speaks a great poem on wisdom, declaring that man can mine silver and gold from the earth but cannot discover where wisdom dwells. It is hidden from the eyes of all living and cannot be purchased with gold or precious stones. God alone understands its way: "The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom."

Chapter 31

Job delivers his final oath of innocence, swearing that he has not lusted, lied, oppressed the poor, trusted in gold, or worshipped the sun and moon. He calls for God to answer him and signs his defense, wishing his adversary had written a book.

Chapter 32

The three friends fell silent, and the young Elihu the son of Barachel burned with anger -- against Job for justifying himself rather than God, and against the friends for condemning Job without answer. Elihu declares he can no longer hold back and must speak what the Spirit within him compels.

| 10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity. | Therefore listen to me, You men of understanding: far be it from God, that He should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that He should commit iniquity. |
| 11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. | For the work of a man shall he render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. |
| 12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert
judgment. | Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment. |

- 13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world? Who has given Him a charge over the earth? Or who has disposed the whole world?
- 14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath; If He set His heart on man, if He gather to Himself His spirit and His breath,
- 15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust. all flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again to dust.
- 16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words. If now You have understanding, hear this; listen to the voice of my words.
- 17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just? Shall even He that hates right govern? And will you condemn him that is most just?
- 18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly? Is it fit to say to a king, 'You are wicked'? And to princes, 'You are ungodly'?
- 19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands. How much less to Him that does not accept the persons of princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? For they are all the work of His hands.
- 20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away; and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.
- 21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings. For His eyes are on the ways of man, and He sees all His goings.
- 22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
- 23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God. For He will not lay on man more than right, that He should enter into judgment with God.

- 24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead. He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their place.
- 25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed. Therefore He knows their works, and He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
- 26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others; He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others,
- 27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways: because they turned back from Him, and would not consider any of His ways,
- 28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted. so that they cause the cry of the poor to come to Him, and He hears the cry of the afflicted.
- 29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only: When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble? And when He hides His face, who then can see Him? Whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only —
- 30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared. that the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.
- 31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: Surely it is fit to be said to God, 'I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more;
- 32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more. that which I do not see teach me; if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.'
- 33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest. Should it be according to Your mind? He will recompense it, whether You refuse, or whether You choose; and not I; therefore speak what You know.

Chapter 35

Elihu argues that man's righteousness or wickedness does not affect God but only other men. He explains that the oppressed cry out but do not ask where God their maker is, and that God does not answer the empty cries of the proud.

Chapter 36

Elihu continues, declaring that God is mighty and does not despise any. He argues that God uses suffering to open the ears of the righteous and deliver them from affliction, and warns Job not to turn to iniquity. He then begins to exalt God's greatness in the storm.

Chapter 38

The LORD answers Job out of the whirlwind, demanding to know where Job was when He laid the foundations of the earth. God interrogates Job with unanswerable questions about the sea, the dawn, the storehouses of snow, the constellations, and the rain -- revealing that Job cannot comprehend even the natural order, let alone the moral one.

Chapter 39

God continues His speech, asking Job whether he can govern the wild goats, the unicorn, the ostrich, the horse, or the hawk. Each creature displays God's sovereign design beyond human control, and God challenges Job's right to question the One who orders all living things.

Chapter 42

Job repented in dust and ashes, confessing that he had spoken of things too wonderful for him. The LORD rebuked the three friends for not speaking rightly and commanded them to offer sacrifices while Job prayed for them. God restored Job's fortunes double and blessed his latter end more than his beginning.

| 7 | And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. | And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against You, and against Your two friends; for You have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. |

- 8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.
- 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.
- 10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.
- 11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

- So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them; the LORD also accepted Job.
- And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends; also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.
- Then came to Him all His brethren, and all His sisters, and all they that had been of His acquaintance before, and ate bread with Him in His house; and they bemoaned Him, and comforted Him over all the evil that the LORD had brought on Him; every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.
- So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.
- He had also seven sons and three daughters.

Psalms

Author: Multiple — David (73 Psalms), Asaph (12), the Sons of Korah (11), Solomon (2), Moses (1 — Psalm 90), Ethan (1 — Psalm 89), and 50 anonymous "orphan" Psalms with no named author.

Date written: c. 1400 BC (Moses, Psalm 90) to the post-exile period c. 500 BC (Psalms 126, 137) — roughly a thousand-year span of worship and prayer.

Written to: Israel for corporate worship; the church for devotion and prayer.

Setting: The Psalter was Israel's hymnal — sung in Temple worship, at pilgrimage festivals, and in personal prayer. The five "books" within the Psalms (1–41, 42–72, 73–89, 90–106, 107–150) mirror the five books of Moses. Each book closes with a doxology, and the entire collection moves from lament toward praise, culminating in the five "Hallelujah" Psalms (146–150).

Where this sits historically: Spans nearly a thousand years — from Moses at Sinai (c. 1400 BC) through David and Solomon's united kingdom (1000–930 BC), the Assyrian and Babylonian crises, and on to the post-exilic return under Persia (c. 500 BC).

Contemporaries: The composers wrote alongside the historical narrative from Joshua to Nehemiah, with later editors gathering the collection during the time of Ezra; many psalms parallel events recorded in 1–2 Samuel and 1–2 Chronicles.

Big themes:

- Praise and worship — the Psalms teach God's people how to praise Him in every season of life
- Lament and honest suffering before God — more than a third of the Psalms are cries of pain, showing that faith does not require pretending
- Trust in the LORD as refuge and fortress — the dominant metaphor of the Psalter
- The kingship of God and the Messianic hope — the "royal Psalms" (2, 45, 72, 110) point to Christ's eternal reign
- Creation declaring God's glory — "The heavens declare the glory of God" (19:1)
- The Torah as light and lamp — Psalm 119, the longest chapter in the Bible, is an extended love poem to God's Word
- Repentance and confession — Psalm 51 is the Bible's greatest prayer of contrition
- God's covenant faithfulness — "His mercy endures forever" is the refrain of Psalm 136 and the heartbeat of the whole collection

Key passages: 1:1–3; 19:1; 22:1; 23; 51:10; 100; 119:105; 139:1–4

How it fits: Psalms is the most-quoted Old Testament book in the New Testament. More Messianic prophecy comes from the Psalms than from any other book. Jesus quoted Psalm 22:1 on the cross — "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" — and the early church sang and prayed the Psalms as its first hymnbook. Every human emotion finds voice here, and every voice finds its way back to God.

Psalm 1

The psalmist celebrates the man who delights in the law of the LORD. The righteous are like a tree planted by streams of water; the ungodly are like chaff driven away by the wind.

1	Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.	Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers.
2	But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.	But His delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law He meditates day and night.
3	And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.	He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither — whatever He does prospers.
4	The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.	Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.
5	Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.	Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
6	For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.	For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

Psalm 2

The nations rage against the LORD and His anointed, but God laughs from heaven and declares His King installed on Zion. The psalm warns earthly rulers to kiss the Son and take refuge in Him before His wrath is kindled.

| 1 | Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? | Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain? |
| 2 | The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, | The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against His anointed, saying, |
| 3 | Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. | "Let us break their chains," they say, "and throw off their shackles." |
| 4 | He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision. | He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall have them in derision. |

| 11 | Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. | Serve the LORD with fear and celebrate His rule with trembling. |

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Kiss His Son, or He will be angry and Your way will lead to Your destruction, for His wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

■ NAME NOTE — Zion (ZY-on) — God's holy hill in Jerusalem; the place where the LORD set His king (v6). Throughout the Psalms, Zion is the earthly seat of God's reign and a symbol of His eternal kingdom.

Psalm 3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

The psalmist cries out to the LORD as enemies multiply against him. He confesses God as his shield and the lifter of his head, and lies down in peace because the LORD sustains him.

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

LORD, how many are my foes! How many rise up against me!

■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — King of Israel, "a man after God's own heart" (1 Samuel 13:14). David wrote 73 of the 150 Psalms — more than any other author. He was shepherd, warrior, fugitive, and king, and his songs span every human emotion.

■ NAME NOTE — Absalom (AB-sah-lom) — "father of peace" — David's third son, who led a rebellion against his father and seized the throne by force (2 Samuel 15–18). David fled Jerusalem in grief. Absalom was killed in battle, and David mourned him bitterly.

There is no help for him in God.
Selah.
- Many there are who say of my soul,
"There is no help for Him in God."
Selah.

■ WORD NOTE — Selah (SEE-lah) — A musical or liturgical pause marker found 71 times in the Psalms. Its exact meaning is uncertain, but it likely signals a pause for reflection, a musical interlude, or a crescendo. When you see "Selah," stop and let the words sink in.

- 3

But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.
- But You, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, the One who lifts my head high.
- 4

- I will not fear though tens of thousands assail me on every side.
- 7

Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.
- Arise, LORD! Deliver me, my God! Strike all my enemies on the jaw; break the teeth of the wicked.
- 8

Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.
- From the LORD comes deliverance. May Your blessing be on Your people.

Psalm 4

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist calls on God for relief from distress and rebukes those who turn his glory into shame. He declares that the LORD has set apart the godly and lies down in peace, for God alone makes him dwell in safety.

1	Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.	Answer me when I call to You, my righteous God. Give me relief from my distress; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

■ WORD NOTE — Neginoth (NEG-ih-noth) — "stringed instruments." A musical direction in the Psalm title indicating this song was to be accompanied by harps, lyres, or other stringed instruments.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God withholding the wrath we have earned. In the Psalms, the cry for mercy is the cry of a sinner who knows he has no claim on God except God's own goodness.

2	O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.	How long will You people turn my glory into shame? How long will You love delusions and seek false gods?
3	But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.	Know that the LORD has set apart His faithful servant for Himself; the LORD hears when I call to Him.
4	Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.	Tremble and do not sin; when You are on Your beds, search Your hearts and be silent.
5	Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.	Offer the sacrifices of the righteous and trust in the LORD.
6	There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.	There are many who say, "Who will show us any good?" LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance on us.

7	Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.	Fill my heart with joy when their grain and new wine abound.
8	I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.	In peace I will lie down and sleep, for You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist asks God to hear his morning prayer and lead him in righteousness. He contrasts the wicked, whose throats are open graves, with the righteous who take refuge in God and are surrounded by His favor as with a shield.

1	Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.	Listen to my words, LORD, consider my lament.
2	Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.	Hear my cry for help, my King and my God, for to You I pray.
3	My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.	In the morning, LORD, You hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before You and wait expectantly.
4	For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.	For You are not a God Who is pleased with wickedness; with You, evil people are not welcome.

- 5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. The arrogant cannot stand in Your presence. You hate all who do wrong;

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity is the corruption beneath the sinful act — the bent nature that produces evil deeds.

- 6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. You destroy those who tell lies. The bloodthirsty and deceitful You, LORD, detest.
- 7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy; and in Your fear I will worship toward Your holy temple.
- 8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face. Lead me, LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies — make Your way straight before me.
- 9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue. Not a word from their mouth can be trusted; their heart is filled with malice. Their throat is an open grave; with their tongues they tell lies.
- 10 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee. Declare them guilty, O God! Let their intrigues be their downfall. Banish them for their many sins, for they have rebelled against You.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Where "iniquity" is the twisted nature, "transgression" is the deliberate act of crossing God's boundary.

| 11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee. | But let all who take refuge in You be glad; let them ever sing for joy. Spread Your protection over them, that those who love Your name may rejoice in You. |
| 12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield. | Surely, LORD, You bless the righteous; you surround them with your favor as with a shield. |

Psalm 6

To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist pleads with the LORD not to rebuke him in anger, for his bones are troubled and his soul is greatly vexed. He begs God to return and save him for His mercy's sake, weeping on his bed every night.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. | LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath. |
| 2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed. | Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am faint; heal me, LORD, for my bones are in agony. |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 3 | My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long? | My soul is in deep anguish. How long, LORD, how long? |
| 4 | Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake. | Turn, LORD, and deliver me; save me because of Your mercy. |
| 5 | For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks? | Among the dead no one proclaims your name. Who praises you from the grave? |
| 6 | I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears. | I am worn out from my groaning. All night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears. |
| 7 | Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies. | My eyes grow weak with sorrow; they fail because of all my foes. |
| 8 | Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping. | Away from me, all You who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping. |
| 9 | The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer. | The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer. |
| 10 | Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly. | All my enemies will be overwhelmed with shame and anguish; they will turn back and suddenly be put to shame. |

| 1 O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me: | LORD my God, I take refuge in You; save and deliver me from all who pursue me, |
| 2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver. | or they will tear me apart like a lion and rip me to pieces with no one to rescue me. |
| 3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands; | LORD my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands — |
| 4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:) | if I have repaid my ally with evil or without cause have robbed my foe — |
| 5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah. | then let my enemy pursue and overtake me; let Him trample my life to the ground and make me sleep in the dust. |
| 6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded. | Arise, LORD, in Your anger; rise up against the rage of my enemies. Awake, my God; decree justice. |
| 7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high. | Let the assembled peoples gather around You, while You sit enthroned over them on high. |
| 8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me. | Let the LORD judge the peoples. Vindicate me, LORD, according to my righteousness, according to my integrity, O Most High. |

Psalm 8

To the chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist marvels at the excellency of God's name in all the earth and asks what man is that God should be mindful of him. God has crowned man with glory and honour and given him dominion over the works of His hands.

Psalm 9

To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist praises God with his whole heart and recounts how his enemies turned back and perished. He declares that the LORD reigns forever, judges the world in righteousness, and is a refuge for the oppressed in times of trouble.

1	I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.	I will give thanks to You, LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all Your wonderful deeds.
2	I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.	I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing the praises of Your name, O Most High.
3	When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.	My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before You.
4	For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.	For You have upheld my right and my cause, sitting enthroned as the righteous judge.

| 5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever. | You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name for ever and ever. |
| 6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them. | Endless ruin has overtaken my enemies; you have uprooted their cities — even the memory of them has perished. |
| 7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment. | The LORD reigns forever; He has established His throne for judgment. |
| 8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness. | He rules the world in righteousness and judges the peoples with equity. |
| 9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. | The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. |
| 10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. | Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek You. |
| 11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings. | Sing the praises of the LORD, enthroned in Zion; proclaim among the nations what he has done. |
| 12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble. | For He who avenges blood remembers; he does not ignore the cries of the afflicted. |
| 13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death: | LORD, see how my enemies persecute me! Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death, |
| 14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation. | that I may show forth all Your praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion; I will rejoice in Your salvation. |

The psalmist asks why the LORD stands far off while the wicked devour the poor. He describes the arrogant man who says in his heart that God has forgotten, then calls on the LORD to arise, break the arm of the wicked, and defend the fatherless and oppressed.

- | | |

| 1 Why standest thou afar off, O LORD?
why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble? | Why, LORD, do You stand far off?
Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble? |
| 2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined. | In his arrogance the wicked man hunts down the weak, who are caught in the schemes he devises. |
| 3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth. | He boasts about the cravings of His heart; He blesses the greedy and reviles the LORD. |
| 4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God:
God is not in all his thoughts. | In his pride the wicked man does not seek him; in all his thoughts there is no room for God. |
| 5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them. | His ways are always prosperous; your laws are rejected by him; he sneers at all his enemies. |
| 6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity. | He says to himself, "Nothing will ever shake me." He swears, "No one will ever do me harm." |
| 7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity. | His mouth is full of lies and threats;
trouble and evil are under his tongue. |
| 8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor. | He lies in wait near the villages; from ambush he murders the innocent. His eyes watch in secret for his victims; |
| 9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net. | like a lion in cover he lies in wait. He lies in wait to catch the helpless; he catches the helpless and drags them off in his net. |
| 10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones. | His victims are crushed, they collapse;
they fall under his strength. |

| 11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it. 12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble. 13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it. 14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless. 15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none. 16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land. 17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear: 18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress. | He says to himself, "God will never notice; He covers His face and never sees." Arise, LORD! Lift up Your hand, O God. Do not forget the helpless. Why does the wicked man revile God? Why does He say to himself, "He won't call me to account"? But You, God, see the trouble of the afflicted; You consider their grief and take it in hand. The victims commit themselves to You; You are the helper of the fatherless. Break the arm of the wicked man; call the evildoer to account for his wickedness that would not otherwise be found out. The LORD is King for ever and ever; the nations will perish from his land. You, LORD, hear the desire of the afflicted; You encourage them, and You listen to their cry, to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no longer oppress. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares his trust in the LORD when told to flee like a bird. He affirms that the LORD is in His holy temple, His eyes test the children of men, and He rains snares on the wicked while the righteous behold His face.

| 1 | In the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain? | In the LORD I take refuge. How then can You say to me: "Flee like a bird to Your mountain. |
| 2 | For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart. | For look, the wicked bend their bows; they set their arrows against the strings to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart. |

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist cries for help because the godly are vanishing and the faithful are failing among men. Liars and flatterers fill the earth, but the LORD promises to arise and protect the poor, for His words are pure as silver tried seven times.

1	Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.	Help, LORD, for the godly man ceases; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.
2	They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.	Everyone lies to their neighbor; they flatter with their lips but harbor deception in their hearts.
3	The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:	May the LORD silence all flattering lips and every boastful tongue —
4	Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?	those who say, "By our tongues we will prevail; our own lips will defend us — who is lord over us?"
5	For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.	"Because the poor are plundered and the needy groan, I will now arise," says the LORD. "I will protect them from those who malign them."

6	The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.	the words of the LORD are flawless, like silver purified in a crucible, like gold refined seven times.
7	Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.	You, LORD, will keep the needy safe and will protect us forever from the wicked,
8	The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.	The wicked walk on every side when the vilest men are exalted.

Psalm 13

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist cries "How long?" four times, pleading with the LORD not to forget him. He moves from desperate lament to trust in God's mercy and closes singing praise because the LORD has dealt bountifully with him.

1	How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?	How long, LORD? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me?
2	How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?	How long must I wrestle with my thoughts and day after day have sorrow in my heart? How long will my enemy triumph over me?
3	Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;	Look on me and answer, LORD my God. Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death,

- | | | |

| 4 | Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved. | my enemy will say, "I have overcome Him," and my foes will rejoice when I fall. |

| 6 | I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me. | I will sing the LORD's praise, for He has been good to me. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares that the fool says in his heart there is no God. The LORD looks down from heaven and finds that all have turned aside -- there is none that does good, not even one. He longs for the salvation of Israel to come out of Zion.

| 1 | The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. | The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, their deeds are vile; there is no one who does good. |
| 2 | The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. | The LORD looks down from heaven on all mankind to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God. |
| 3 | They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. | All have turned away, all have become corrupt; there is no one who does good, not even one. |

| 4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD. | Do all these evildoers know nothing? They devour my people as though eating bread; they never call on the LORD. |
| 5 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous. | But there they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present in the company of the righteous. |
| 6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge. | You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor. But The LORD is their refuge. |
| 7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad. | Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores His people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad! |

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist asks who may dwell in the LORD's tabernacle and on His holy hill. The answer is the one who walks uprightly, speaks truth, does no evil to his neighbor, keeps his oath even when it hurts, and takes no bribe against the innocent.

Psalm 16

Michtam of David.

The psalmist trusts God as his refuge and portion, declaring that the LORD is always at his right hand. He rejoices that God will not leave his soul in hell nor allow His Holy One to see corruption -- a psalm the apostles applied directly to the resurrection of Christ.

Psalm 17

A Prayer of David.

The psalmist pleads for the LORD to hear his righteous cause and examine his heart. He prays for deliverance from the wicked who surround him like a lion crouching to spring, and asks God to arise, confront them, and satisfy him with His likeness when he awakes.

- | | | |

| 1 | Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips. | Hear me, LORD, my plea is just; listen to my cry. Hear my prayer — it does not rise from deceitful lips. |
| 2 | Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal. | Let my vindication come from You; may Your eyes see what is right. |
| 3 | Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress. | Though You probe my heart, though You examine me at night and test me, You will find that I have planned no evil; my mouth has not transgressed. |
| 4 | Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer. | As for what others do — by the word of Your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent. |
| 5 | Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not. | My steps have held to Your paths; my feet have not stumbled. |
| 6 | I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech. | I call on You, my God, for You will answer me; turn Your ear to me and hear my prayer. | their babes. | 14 By Your hand save me from such people, LORD, from those of this world whose reward is in this life. May wicked fill their bellies; may their children gorge themselves on it, and may there be leftovers for their little ones. |

Psalm 18

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

The psalmist praises the LORD as his rock, fortress, and deliverer after being rescued from all his enemies. He recounts how God shook the earth, parted the heavens, and rode on a cherub to save him, and declares that the LORD lives and is worthy to be praised among the nations.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | I will love thee, O LORD, my strength. | I love You, LORD, my strength. |
| 2 | The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. | The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. |
| 3 | I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies. | I called to the LORD, Who is worthy of praise. I have been saved from my enemies. |
| 4 | The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. | The cords of death entangled me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me. |
| 5 | The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me. | The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 6 | In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears. | In my distress I called to the LORD; I cried to my God for help. From His temple He heard my voice; my cry came before Him, into His ears. |
| 7 | Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth. | The earth trembled and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains shook; they trembled because He was angry. |
| 8 | There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. | Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from His mouth, burning coals blazed out of it. |
| 9 | He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet. | He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under His feet. |
| 10 | And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind. | He mounted the cherubim and flew; He soared on the wings of the wind. |
| 11 | He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. | He made darkness His covering, His canopy around Him — the dark rain clouds of the sky. |
| 12 | At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire. | Out of the brightness of His presence clouds advanced, with hailstones and bolts of lightning. |
| 13 | The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire. | The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded. |
| 14 | Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. | He shot his arrows and scattered the enemy, with great bolts of lightning he routed them. |

- 15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at Your rebuke, LORD, at the blast of breath from Your nostrils.
- 16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters. He reached down from on high and took hold of me; He drew me out of deep waters.
- 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me. He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.
- 18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. They confronted me in the day of my disaster. But The LORD was my support.
- 19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me. He brought me out into a spacious place; He rescued me because He delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I am not guilty of turning from my God.
- 22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me. All His laws are before me; I have not turned away from His decrees.
- 23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity. I have been blameless before Him and have kept myself from sin.
- 24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

- 25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright; To the faithful You show Yourself faithful, to the blameless You show Yourself blameless,
- 26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward. to the pure You show Yourself pure, but to the devious You show Yourself shrewd.
- 27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks. You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.
- 28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. You, LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.
- 29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall. With Your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.
- 30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. As for God, His way is perfect: the LORD's word is flawless; He shields all who take refuge in Him.
- 31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God? For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?
- 32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. It is God Who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure.
- 33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; He causes me to stand on the heights.
- 34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great. You make Your saving help my shield, and Your right hand sustains me; Your help has made me great.
- 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip. You provide a broad path for my feet, so that my ankles do not give way.

- 37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. I pursued my enemies and overtook them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.
- 38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet. I crushed them so that they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.
- 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. You armed me with strength for battle; You humbled my adversaries before me.
- 40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. You made my enemies turn their backs in flight. I destroyed my foes.
- 41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not. They cried for help, but there was no one to save them — to the LORD. But He did not answer.
- 42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets. I beat them as fine as windblown dust; I trampled them like mud in the streets.
- 43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me. You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations. People I did not know now serve me,
- 44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me. foreigners cower before me; as soon as they hear of me, they obey me.
- 45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places. They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds.
- 46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted. The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God my Savior!
- 47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me. He is the God Who avenges me, who subdues nations under me,

- 48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. who saves me from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from a violent man You rescued me.
- 49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name. Therefore I will praise You, LORD, among the nations; I will sing the praises of your name.
- 50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore. He gives his king great victories; he shows mercy to his anointed, to David and to his descendants forever.

Psalm 19

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares that the heavens proclaim God's glory and the skies display His handiwork. He then celebrates the perfection of the LORD's law, which revives the soul and makes wise the simple, and prays to be kept from presumptuous sins.

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of His hands.

- | | |
| 2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. | Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge. |
| 3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. | They have no speech, they use no words; no sound is heard from them. |
| 4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, | Yet their voice goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world. In the heavens God has pitched a tent for the sun. |
| 5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race. | It is like a bridegroom coming out of His chamber, like a champion rejoicing to run His course. |
| 6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof. | It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other; nothing is deprived of its warmth. |
| 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. | The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul. The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise
the simple. |
| 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. | The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart. The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes. |
| 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether. | The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever. The decrees of the LORD are firm. All of them are righteous. |
| 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. | They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold; they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the honeycomb. |

Psalm 20

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The people pray for the king before battle, asking the LORD to send him help from Zion and grant him victory. They declare that some trust in chariots and some in horses, but they will remember the name of the LORD their God.

Psalm 21

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The king rejoices in the LORD's strength and the victories God has given him. The psalm celebrates God's blessings on the king -- life, honor, and a crown of gold -- and prophesies the destruction of all the king's enemies by the hand of the LORD.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice! | The king rejoices in your strength, LORD. How great is His joy in the victories You give! |
| 2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah. | You have granted Him His heart's desire and have not withheld the request of His lips. |
| 3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head. | You came to greet Him with rich blessings and placed a crown of pure gold on His head. |
| 4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever. | He asked You for life, and You gave it to Him — length of days, for ever and ever. |
| 5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him. | Through the victories You gave, His glory is great; You have bestowed on Him splendor and majesty. |
| 6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance. | For You have made Him most blessed forever; You have made Him exceedingly glad with Your countenance. |
| 7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved. | For the king trusts in the LORD; through the mercy of the Most High He will not be shaken. |
| 8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee. | Your hand will lay hold on all Your enemies; Your right hand will seize Your foes. |

Psalm 22

To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist cries out "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" and describes pierced hands and feet, bones out of joint, and enemies casting lots for his garments -- a prophetic portrait of the crucifixion. He vows that all the ends of the earth will turn to the LORD.

- | | | |
| 1 | My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? | My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Why are You so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? |
| 2 | O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent. | O my God, I cry in the daytime, but You hear not; and in the night season, and am not silent. |
| 3 | But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel. | Yet You are enthroned as the Holy One; You are the one Israel praises. |
| 4 | Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. | Our fathers trusted in You; they trusted, and You delivered them. |
| 5 | They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded. | To You they cried out and were saved; in You they trusted and were not put to shame. |
| 6 | But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. | But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people. |
| 7 | All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, | All who see me mock me; they hurl insults, shaking their heads. |
| 8 | He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him. | "He trusts in the LORD," they say, "let the LORD rescue Him. Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him." |
| 9 | But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts. | Yet You brought me out of the womb; You made me trust in You, even at my mother's breast. |
| 10 | I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly. | From birth I was cast on You; from my mother's womb You have been my God. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 11 | Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help. | Do not be far from me, for trouble is near and there is no one to help. |
| 12 | Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. | Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan encircle me. |
| 13 | They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion. | Roaring lions that tear their prey open their mouths wide against me. |
| 14 | I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. | I am poured out like water. All my bones are out of joint. My heart has turned to wax; it has melted within me. |
| 15 | My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death. | My mouth is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; You lay me in the dust of death. |
| 16 | For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet. | Dogs surround me, a pack of villains encircles me; they pierce my hands and my feet. |
| 17 | I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me. | All my bones are on display; people stare and gloat over me. |
| 18 | They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. | They divide my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment. |
| 19 | But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me. | But You, LORD, do not be far from me. You are my strength; come quickly to help me. |
| 20 | Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog. | Deliver me from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dogs. |
| 21 | Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns. | Save me from the lion's mouth; for You have heard me from the horns of the unicorns. |

- 22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee. I will declare Your name to my people; in the assembly I will praise You.
- 23 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel. You who fear the LORD, praise Him! All You descendants of Jacob, honor him! Revere him, all you descendants of Israel!
- 24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hidden his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard. For He has not despised or scorned the suffering of the afflicted one; He has not hidden His face from Him but has listened to His cry for help.
- 25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him. From You comes the theme of my praise in the great assembly; before those who fear You I will fulfill my vows.
- 26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever. The poor will eat and be satisfied; those who seek the LORD will praise Him — may Your hearts live forever!
- 27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD. All the families of the nations will bow down before him,
- 28 For the kingdom is the LORD'S: and he is the governor among the nations. for dominion belongs to the LORD and He rules over the nations.
- 29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul. All the rich of the earth will feast and worship; all who go down to the dust will kneel before Him — those who cannot keep themselves alive.
- 30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. Posterity will serve Him; future generations will be told about the Lord.

- 31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.
- They will proclaim His righteousness, declaring to a people yet unborn: He has done it!

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares the LORD is his shepherd and he shall not want. God leads him beside still waters, restores his soul, prepares a table before his enemies, and anoints his head with oil -- goodness and mercy shall follow him all the days of his life.

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

5	Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.	You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over.
6	Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.	Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalm 24

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares that the earth is the LORD's and all that is in it. He asks who may ascend the hill of the LORD and answers: the one with clean hands and a pure heart. The psalm calls for the everlasting doors to be lifted up so the King of glory may come in.

1	The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.	The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world. All who live in it;
2	For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.	for He founded it on the seas and established it on the waters.
3	Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?	Who may ascend the mountain of the LORD? Who may stand in His holy place?
4	He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.	The one who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not trust in an idol or swear by a false god.

5	He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.	They will receive blessing from the LORD and vindication from God their Savior.
6	This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.	Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek your face, God of Jacob.
7	Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.	Lift up Your heads, You gates; be lifted up, You ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.
8	Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.	Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
9	Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.	Lift up Your heads, You gates; lift them up, You ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.
10	Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.	Who is He, this King of glory? The LORD of hosts — He is the King of glory. Selah.

| 14 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant. | The LORD confides in those who fear Him; He makes His covenant known to them. |
| 15 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net. | My eyes are ever on the LORD, for only He will release my feet from the snare. |
| 16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted. | Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted. |
| 17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses. | Relieve the troubles of my heart and free me from my anguish. |
| 18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins. | Look on my affliction and my distress and take away all my sins. |
| 19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred. | See how numerous are my enemies and how fiercely they hate me! |
| 20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee. | Guard my life and rescue me; do not let me be put to shame, for I take refuge in You. |
| 21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee. | May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope, LORD, is in You. |
| 22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles. | Deliver Israel, O God, from all their troubles! |

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-eh-nant) — A binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. When God makes a covenant, He binds Himself to keep it — it is not a negotiation but a divine guarantee.

Psalm 26

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist asks the LORD to judge him, declaring that he has walked in integrity and has not sat with vain persons or dissemblers. He loves the habitation of God's house and asks to be gathered not with sinners but redeemed by mercy.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide. | Vindicate me, LORD, for I have led a blameless life; I have trusted in the LORD and have not faltered. |
| 2 | Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart. | Test me, LORD, and try me, examine my heart and my mind; |
| 3 | For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth. | for I have always been mindful of Your mercy and have lived in reliance on Your faithfulness. |
| 4 | I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers. | I do not sit with the deceitful, nor do I associate with hypocrites. |
| 5 | I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked. | I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked. |

Psalm 27

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares the LORD is his light and salvation and asks whom he shall fear. He desires one thing above all -- to dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Though father and mother forsake him, the LORD will take him up, and he resolves to wait on the LORD and be of good courage.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? | The LORD is my light and my salvation — whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life — of whom shall I be afraid? |
| 2 | When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. | When the wicked advance against me to devour me, it is my enemies and my foes who will stumble and fall. |
| 3 | Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. | Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then I will be confident. |
| 4 | One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple. | One thing I ask from the LORD, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to seek Him in His temple. |
| 5 | For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. | For in the day of trouble He will keep me safe in His dwelling; He will hide me in the shelter of His sacred tent and set me high upon a rock. |
| 6 | And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD. | Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me; at His sacred tent I will sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD. |
| 7 | Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me. | Hear my voice when I call, LORD; be merciful to me and answer me. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 8 | When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek. | My heart says of You, "Seek His face!" Your face, LORD, I will seek. |
| 9 | Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation. | Do not hide Your face from me, do not turn Your servant away in anger; You have been my help. Do not reject me or forsake me, God my Savior. |
| 10 | When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up. | Though my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will receive me. |
| 11 | Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. | Teach me Your way, LORD; lead me in a straight path because of my oppressors. |
| 12 | Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. | Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes, for false witnesses rise up against me, spouting malicious accusations. |
| 13 | I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. | I remain confident of this: I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living. |
| 14 | Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD. | Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart and wait for the LORD. |

Psalm 28

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist cries to the LORD his rock, pleading not to be drawn away with the wicked who speak peace to their neighbors but have mischief in their hearts. He blesses the LORD who has heard his supplications and become his strength and shield.

- | | |
| 1 Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. | To You, LORD, I call; You are my Rock, do not turn a deaf ear to me. For if You remain silent, I will be like those who go down to the pit. |
| 2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle. | Hear the voice of my supplications when I cry to You, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy oracle. |

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist calls the mighty to give the LORD glory and strength. The voice of the LORD thunders over the waters, breaks the cedars of Lebanon, shakes the wilderness, and strips the forests bare -- and in His temple everything declares His glory.

1	Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.	Give to the LORD, O You mighty, give to the LORD glory and strength.
2	Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.	Give to the LORD the glory due to His name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

Psalm 30

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

The psalmist praises the LORD for lifting him from the depths and healing him. He testifies that God's anger lasts a moment but His favor lasts a lifetime: weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. | I will exalt You, LORD, for You lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me. |
| 2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. | LORD my God, I called to You for help, and You healed me. |
| 3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. | LORD, You have brought up my soul from the grave; You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. |
| 4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. | Sing to the LORD, O You saints of His, and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness. |
| 5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. | For His anger lasts only a moment. But His favor lasts a lifetime; weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning. |
| 6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved. | When I felt secure, I said, "I will never be shaken." |
| 7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled. | LORD, when You favored me, You made my royal mountain stand firm; but when You hid Your face, I was dismayed. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist takes refuge in the LORD and commits his spirit into God's hands. He describes being forgotten like a dead man out of mind while enemies conspire against him, yet he trusts in the LORD's goodness and urges all the saints to love God and be of good courage.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 1 | In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness. | In You, LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame; deliver me in Your righteousness. |
| 2 | Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me. | Turn Your ear to me, come quickly to my rescue; be my rock of refuge, a strong fortress to save me. |
| 3 | For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me. | Since You are my rock and my fortress, for the sake of Your name lead and guide me. |
| 4 | Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength. | Keep me free from the trap that is set for me, for You are my refuge. |
| 5 | Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth. | Into Your hands I commit my spirit; deliver me, LORD, my faithful God. |
| 6 | I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD. | I hate those who cling to worthless idols; as for me, I trust in the LORD. |
| 7 | I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; | I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy, for You have considered my trouble; You have known my soul in adversities. |
| 8 | And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room. | You have not given me into the hands of the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place. |
| 9 | Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly. | Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weak with sorrow, my soul and body with grief. |
| 10 | For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed. | My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning; my strength fails because of my affliction, and my bones grow weak. |

- 11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me. Because of all my enemies, I am the utter contempt of my neighbors and an object of dread to my closest friends — those who see me on the street flee from me.
- 12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel. I am forgotten as though I were dead; I have become like broken pottery.
- 13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. For I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side!" They conspire against me and plot to take my life.
- 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God. But I trust in You, LORD; I say, "You are my God."
- 15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me. My times are in Your hands; deliver me from the hands of my enemies, from those who pursue me.
- 16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake. Let Your face shine on Your servant; save me in Your mercy.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. Let me not be ashamed, LORD, for I have called on You; let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous. Let their lying lips be silenced, for with pride and contempt they speak arrogantly against the righteous.
- 19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! How abundant are the good things that You have stored up for those who fear You, that You bestow in the sight of all, on those who take refuge in You.

Psalm 32

A Psalm of David. Maschil.

The psalmist declares blessed the man whose transgression is forgiven and whose sin is covered. He confesses that when he kept silent his bones wasted away, but when he acknowledged his sin the LORD forgave the iniquity of his heart. He calls the righteous to rejoice and shout for joy.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

| 9 | Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee. | Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to You. |
| 10 | Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about. | Many are the woes of the wicked. But The LORD's mercy surrounds the one who trusts in him. |
| 11 | Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. | Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, You righteous; sing, all You who are upright in heart! |

Psalm 33

The psalmist calls the righteous to praise the LORD with harp and new song. He celebrates God's word that made the heavens, His sovereignty that overrules the counsel of nations, and His watchful eye over those who fear Him and hope in His mercy.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. | Sing joyfully to the LORD, You righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise Him. |

| 2 | Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings. | Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to Him on the ten-stringed lyre. |
| 3 | Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise. | Sing to Him a new song; play skillfully, and shout for joy. |
| 4 | For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth. | For the word of the LORD is right and true; He is faithful in all He does. |
| 5 | He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD. | He loves righteousness and judgment; the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD. |
| 6 | By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. | By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, their starry host by the breath of His mouth. |
| 7 | He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses. | He gathers the waters of the sea into jars; He puts the deep into storehouses. |
| 8 | Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. | Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him. |

Psalm 34

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

The psalmist vows to bless the LORD at all times and invites the humble to magnify God with him. He testifies that the LORD delivers those who fear Him, that the angel of the LORD encamps around them, and that many are the afflictions of the righteous but the LORD delivers him out of them all.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | I will bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. | I will extol the LORD at all times; His praise will always be on my lips. |
| 2 | My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. | I will glory in the LORD; let the afflicted hear and rejoice. |
| 3 | O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together. | Glorify the LORD with me; let us exalt His name together. |
| 4 | I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. | I sought the LORD. He answered me; He delivered me from all my fears. |
| 5 | They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed. | Those who look to Him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame. |
| 6 | This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. | This poor man called. The LORD heard Him; He saved Him out of all His troubles. |
| 7 | The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. | The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him. He delivers them. |
| 8 | O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. | Taste and see that the LORD is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him. |
| 9 | O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. | Fear the LORD, You His holy people, for those who fear Him lack nothing. |

- 10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing. The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
- 11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. Come, my children, listen to me; I will teach You the fear of the LORD.
- 12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days,
- 13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. keep Your tongue from evil and Your lips from telling lies;
- 14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous. His ears are attentive to their cry;
- 16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. but the face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to blot out their name from the earth.
- 17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. The righteous cry out. The LORD hears them; He delivers them from all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
- 19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all. The righteous person may have many troubles. But The LORD delivers Him from them all;
- 20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. he protects all His bones, not one of them will be broken.
- 21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. Evil will slay the wicked; the foes of the righteous will be condemned.

- 22

The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.
- The LORD will rescue His servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist calls on the LORD to take up shield and spear and fight against those who persecute him without cause. He describes false witnesses who repay his good with evil, and asks God to vindicate him and put his enemies to shame.

- 1

Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.
- Contend, LORD, with those who contend with me; fight against those who fight against me.
- 2

Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.
- Take up shield and armor; arise and come to my aid.
- 3

Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.
- Brandish spear and javelin against those who pursue me. Say to me, "I am Your salvation."
- 4

Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.
- May those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame; may those who plot my ruin be turned back in dismay.

- 5 *Let them be as chaff before the wind:
and let the angel of the LORD chase them.* May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away;
- 6 *Let their way be dark and slippery:
and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.* may their path be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
- 7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul. Since they hid their net for me without cause and without cause dug a pit for me,
- 8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall. may ruin overtake them by surprise — may the net they hid entangle them, may they fall into the pit, to their ruin.
- 9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation. Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in His salvation.
- 10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him? My whole being will exclaim, "Who is like You, LORD? You rescue the poor from those too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them."
- 11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not. Ruthless witnesses come forward; they question me on things I know nothing about.
- 12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul. They repay me evil for good and leave me like one bereaved.
- 13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom. Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered,
- 14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother. I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother. I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for my mother.

- 15 *But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together:
yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not:* But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; assailants gathered against me without my knowledge. They slandered me without ceasing.
- 16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth. Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked; they gnashed their teeth at me.
- 17 *Lord, how long wilt thou look on?
rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.* How long, Lord, will You look on?
Rescue me from their ravages, my precious life from these lions.
- 18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people. I will give You thanks in the great assembly; among the throngs I will praise You.
- 19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause. Do not let those gloat over me who are my enemies without cause; do not let those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.
- 20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land. They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.
- 21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it. They sneer at me and say, "Aha! Aha!
With our own eyes we have seen it."
- 22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me. LORD, You have seen this; do not be silent. Do not be far from me, Lord.
- 23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord. Awake, and rise to my defense!
Contend for me, my God and Lord.
- 24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me. Vindicate me in Your righteousness, LORD my God; do not let them gloat over me.

Psalm 36

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

The psalmist describes the wicked who have no fear of God and flatter themselves in their own eyes. He contrasts this with the LORD whose mercy reaches to the heavens, whose faithfulness to the clouds, and in whose light we see light.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. | I have a message from God in my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked: there is no fear of God before their eyes. |
| 2 | For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful. | In their own eyes they flatter themselves too much to detect or hate their sin. |
| 3 | The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good. | The words of their mouths are wicked and deceitful; they fail to act wisely or do good. |
| 4 | He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil. | Even on their beds they plot evil; they commit themselves to a sinful course and do not reject what is wrong. |
| 5 | Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds. | Your mercy, LORD, is in the heavens, and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds. |
| 6 | Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. | Your righteousness is like the highest mountains, Your justice like the great deep. You, LORD, preserve both people and animals. |
| 7 | How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings. | How excellent is Your lovingkindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings. |
| 8 | They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. | They feast on the abundance of Your house; You give them drink from Your river of delights. |
| 9 | For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light. | For with You is the fountain of life; in Your light we see light. |

10	O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.	Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
11	Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.	May the foot of the proud not come against me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12	There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.	See how the evildoers lie fallen — thrown down, not able to rise!

Psalm 37

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist counsels against fretting over evildoers, for they shall soon be cut down like grass. He urges trust in the LORD, delight in Him, and commitment of one's way to God, promising that the meek shall inherit the earth and the righteous shall never be forsaken.

1	Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.	Do not fret because of those who are evil or be envious of those who do wrong;
2	For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.	for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 3 | Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. | Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture. |
| 4 | Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. | Take delight in the LORD. He will give You the desires of Your heart. |
| 5 | Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. | Commit Your way to the LORD; trust in Him and He will do this: |
| 6 | And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. | He will make Your righteous reward shine like the dawn, Your vindication like the noonday sun. |
| 7 | Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. | Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him; do not fret when people succeed in their ways, when they carry out their wicked schemes. |
| 8 | Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. | Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret — it leads only to evil. |
| 9 | For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. | For those who are evil will be destroyed, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land. |
| 10 | For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be. | A little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look for them, they will not be found. |
| 11 | But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. | But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy peace and prosperity. |
| 12 | The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. | The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them; |
| 13 | The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming. | but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming. |

- 14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation. The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.
- 15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken. But their swords will pierce their own hearts. Their bows will be broken.
- 16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked. Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;
- 17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous. for the power of the wicked will be broken. But The LORD upholds the righteous.
- 18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever. The blameless spend their days under the LORD's care. Their inheritance will endure forever.
- 19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied. In times of disaster they will not wither; in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.
- 20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away. But the wicked will perish: though the LORD's enemies are like the flowers of the field, they will be consumed, they will go up in smoke.
- 21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth. The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;
- 22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off. those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those He curses will be destroyed.
- 23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way. The LORD makes firm the steps of the one who delights in him;
- 24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand. though He may stumble, He will not fall, for the LORD upholds Him with His hand.

- 25 *I have been young, and now am old;
yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.* I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.
- 26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed. They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be a blessing.
- 27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore. Turn from evil and do good; then You will dwell in the land forever.
- 28 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off. For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake His faithful ones.
Wrongdoers will be completely destroyed; the seed of the wicked will perish.
- 29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever. The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment. The mouths of the righteous utter wisdom. Their tongues speak what is just.
- 31 *The law of his God is in his heart;
none of his steps shall slide.* The law of their God is in their hearts;
their feet do not slip.
- 32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him. The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, intent on putting them to death;
- 33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. but the LORD will not leave them in the power of the wicked or let them be condemned when brought to trial.
- 34 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. Hope in the LORD and keep His way.
He will exalt You to inherit the land;
when the wicked are destroyed, you will see it.
- 35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree. I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a luxuriant native tree,

36	Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.	but He soon passed away and was no more; though I looked for Him, He could not be found.
37	Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.	Consider the blameless, observe the upright; a future awaits those who seek peace.
38	But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.	But all sinners will be destroyed; there will be no future for the wicked.
39	But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.	The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD; He is their stronghold in time of trouble.
40	And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.	The LORD helps them and delivers them; He delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in Him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

The psalmist groans under the LORD's chastening hand, confessing that his iniquities have gone over his head like a heavy burden. His wounds stink, his friends stand far off, and his enemies plot against him, yet he waits silently for the LORD and pleads: do not forsake me.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. | LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath. |
| 2 | For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore. | Your arrows have pierced me, and Your hand has come down on me. |
| 3 | There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin. | Because of Your wrath there is no health in my body; there is no soundness in my bones because of my sin. |
| 4 | For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me. | My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear. |
| 5 | My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness. | My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly. |
| 6 | I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long. | I am bowed down and brought very low; all day long I go about mourning. |
| 7 | For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh. | My back is filled with searing pain; there is no health in my body. |
| 8 | I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart. | I am feeble and utterly crushed; I groan in anguish of heart. |
| 9 | Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee. | All my longings lie open before You, Lord; my sighing is not hidden from You. |
| 10 | My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me. | My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes. |
| 11 | My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off. | My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbors stay far away. |

Psalm 39

To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist resolves to guard his tongue but cannot hold back his grief. He asks the LORD to show him the measure of his days and confesses that every man at his best state is altogether vanity. He prays: spare me before I go away and am no more.

my tongue from sin; I will put a muzzle on my mouth while in the presence of the wicked." | meditated, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue: |

| 4 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it

My hope is in You. Save me from all my transgressions; do not make me the scorn of fools. I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for You are the one who has done this. Remove Your scourge from me; I am overcome by the blow of Your hand. When You rebuke and discipline anyone for their sin, you consume their wealth like a moth — surely everyone is but a breath. Hear my prayer, LORD, listen to my cry for help; do not be deaf to my weeping. I dwell with You as a foreigner, a stranger, as all my ancestors were. Look away from me, that I may enjoy life again before I depart and am no more." |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist testifies that the LORD pulled him out of a horrible pit and set his feet on a rock. He declares that God desires no sacrifice or offering but an open ear, and says, "In the volume of the book it is written of me -- I delight to do your will." He closes pleading for swift deliverance.

- | | |
| 1 I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. | I waited patiently for the LORD; He turned to me and heard my cry. |
| 2 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. | He lifted me out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire; He set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand. |
| 3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD. | He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God. Many will see and fear the LORD and put their trust in Him. |
| 4 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. | Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, Who does not look to the proud, to those who turn aside to false gods. |
| 5 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. | Many, LORD my God, are the wonders You have done, the things You planned for us. None can compare with You; were I to speak and tell of Your deeds, they would be too many to declare. |

| 6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required. | Sacrifice and offering You did not desire — but my ears You have opened — burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not require. |
| 7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, | Then I said, "Here I am, I have come — it is written about me in the scroll. |
| 8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. | I desire to do Your will, my God; Your law is within my heart." |
| 9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. | I proclaim Your saving acts in the great assembly; I do not seal my lips, LORD, as You know. |
| 10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation. | I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation. I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great congregation. |
| 11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. | Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, LORD; let Your lovingkindness and Your truth continually preserve me. |
| 12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me. | For troubles without number surround me; my sins have overtaken me. I cannot see. They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails within me. |
| 13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me. | Be pleased to save me, LORD; come quickly, LORD, to help me. |

|--|---|
| 14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil. | May all who want to take my life be put to shame and confusion; may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace. |
| 15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha. | May those who say to me, "Aha! Aha!" be appalled at their own shame. |
| 16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified. | But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; may those who long for Your saving help always say, "The LORD is great!" |
| 17 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God. | But as for me, I am poor and needy; may the Lord think of me. You are my help and my deliverer; You are my God, do not delay. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist pronounces blessing on the one who considers the poor. He confesses his own sin, describes the betrayal of a close friend who lifted his heel against him, and closes with a doxology blessing the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. | Blessed are those who have regard for the weak; the LORD delivers them in times of trouble. |
| 2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies. | The LORD protects and preserves them — they are counted among the blessed in the land — He does not give them over to the desire of their foes. |
| 3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. | The LORD sustains them on their sickbed and restores them from their bed of illness. |
| 4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. | I said, "Have mercy on me, LORD; heal me, for I have sinned against You." |
| 5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish? | My enemies say of me in malice, "When will He die and His name perish?" |
| 6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it. | When one of them comes to see me, He speaks falsely, while His heart gathers slander; then He goes out and spreads it around. |
| 7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt. | All my enemies whisper together against me; they imagine the worst for me, saying, |
| 8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more. | "A vile disease has afflicted Him; He will never get up from the place where He lies." |
| 9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. | Even my close friend, someone I trusted, one who shared my bread, has turned against me. |

10	But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.	But may You have mercy on me, LORD; raise me up, that I may repay them.
11	By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.	I know that You are pleased with me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.
12	And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.	Because of my integrity You uphold me and set me in Your presence forever.
13	Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.	Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

Psalm 42

To the chief Musician. Maschil, for the Sons of Korah.

The psalmist pants for God as a deer pants for streams of water, his soul thirsting for the living God. Tears are his food day and night as enemies taunt him, yet he preaches to his own soul: "Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him."

1	As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.	As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God.

■ NAME NOTE — Sons of Korah (KOHR-ah) — Levitical singers and temple musicians. Their ancestor Korah led a rebellion against Moses and was swallowed by the earth (Numbers 16), but his sons were spared. Their descendants became worship leaders, and eleven Psalms bear their name (42–49, 84–85, 87–88). Their songs often express deep longing for God's presence.

| 2 | My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God? | My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God? |
| 3 | My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God? | My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me all day long, "Where is your God?" |
| 4 | When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday. | These things I remember as I pour out my soul: how I used to go to the house of God under the protection of the Mighty One with shouts of joy and praise among the festive throng. |
| 5 | Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance. | Why are You cast down, O my soul? And why are You disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance. |
| 6 | O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar. | My soul is downcast within me; therefore I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon — from Mount Mizar. |
| 7 | Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. | Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls; all your waves and breakers have swept over me. |
| 8 | Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life. | Yet the LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer to the God of my life. |

The psalmist pleads with God to judge his cause against an ungodly nation and send out His light and truth to lead him to the holy hill. He again commands his own soul to hope in God, for he shall yet praise the LORD, the health of his countenance.

2	For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?	You are God my stronghold. Why have You rejected me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?
3	O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.	Send me Your light and Your faithful care, let them lead me; let them bring me to Your holy mountain, to the place where You dwell.
4	Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.	Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my joy and my delight. I will praise You with the lyre, O God, my God.

To the chief Musician for the Sons of Korah. Maschil.

The people recall how God drove out nations for their fathers, yet now He has cast them off and scattered them among the heathen. They protest their faithfulness, declaring that they are killed all the day long and counted as sheep for the slaughter, and plead with God to awake and redeem them.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. | We have heard with our ears, O God;
our fathers have told us what work
You did in their days, in the times of old. |
| 2 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out. | How you drove out the heathen with your hand, and planted them; how you afflicted the people, and cast them out. |
| 3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them:
but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them. | They did not get the land in possession by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them; but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your countenance, because you had a favor to them. |
| 4 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob. | You are my King and my God, Who decrees victories for Jacob. |
| 5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us. | Through you we push back our enemies; through your name we trample our foes. |
| 6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. | I put no trust in my bow, my sword does not bring me victory; |
| 7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us. | but you give us victory over our enemies, you put our adversaries to shame. |
| 8 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah. | In God we make our boast all day long.
We will praise your name forever. |
| 9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies. | But now you have rejected and humbled us; you no longer go out with our armies. |
| 10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves. | You made us retreat before the enemy, and our adversaries have plundered us. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen. | You gave us up to be devoured like sheep and have scattered us among the nations. |
| 12 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price. | You sold your people for a pittance, gaining nothing from their sale. |
| 13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us. | You have made us a reproach to our neighbors, the scorn and derision of those around us. |
| 14 Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people. | You have made us a byword among the nations; the peoples shake their heads at us. |
| 15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, | I live in disgrace all day long, and my face is covered with shame |
| 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger. | at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me, because of the enemy, who is bent on revenge. |
| 17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant. | All this came upon us, though we had not forgotten you; we had not been false to your covenant. |
| 18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way; | Our hearts had not turned back; our feet had not strayed from your path. |
| 19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death. | But you crushed us and made us a haunt for jackals; you covered us over with deep darkness. |
| 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god; | If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god, |
| 21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart. | would not God have discovered it, since He knows the secrets of the heart? |

22	Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.	Yet for your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.
23	Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.	Awake, Lord! Why do you sleep? Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever.
24	Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?	Why do you hide your face and forget our misery and oppression?
25	For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.	We are brought down to the dust; our bodies cling to the ground.
26	Rise up for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.	Rise up and help us; rescue us because of your mercy.

Psalm 45

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, for the Sons of Korah. Maschil. A Song of loves.

The psalmist celebrates a royal wedding, praising the king as fairer than the children of men and declaring his throne eternal. The queen stands in gold of Ophir, and the psalm promises that the king's name shall be remembered in all generations.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. | My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king; my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer. |
| 2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever. | You are the most excellent of men and your lips have been anointed with grace, since God has blessed you forever. |
| 3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty. | Gird your sword on your side, you mighty one; clothe yourself with splendor and majesty. |
| 4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. | In your majesty ride forth victoriously in the cause of truth, humility and justice; let your right hand achieve awesome deeds. |
| 5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee. | Let your sharp arrows pierce the hearts of the king's enemies; let the nations fall beneath your feet. |
| 6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre. | Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a scepter of justice will be the scepter of Your kingdom. |
| 7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. | You love righteousness and hate wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has set You above Your companions by anointing You with the oil of joy. |
| 8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad. | All your robes are fragrant with myrrh and aloes and cassia; from palaces adorned with ivory the music of the strings makes you glad. |
| 9 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir. | Daughters of kings are among your honored women; at your right hand is the royal bride in gold of Ophir. |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house; | Listen, daughter, and pay careful attention: forget your people and your father's house. |
| 11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him. | Let the king be enthralled by your beauty; honor him, for he is your lord. |
| 12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour. | The city of Tyre will come with a gift, people of wealth will seek your favor. |
| 13 The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold. | All glorious is the princess within her chamber; her gown is interwoven with gold. |
| 14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee. | In embroidered garments she is led to the king; her virgin companions follow her — those brought to be with her. |
| 15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace. | Led in with joy and gladness, they enter the palace of the king. |
| 16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth. | Your sons will take the place of your fathers; you will make them princes throughout the land. |
| 17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever. | I will perpetuate your memory through all generations; therefore the nations will praise you for ever and ever. |

To the chief Musician for the Sons of Korah. A Song upon Alamoth.

The psalmist declares God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Though the earth be removed and mountains fall into the sea, God dwells in the midst of His city and commands: "Be still, and know that I am God."

Psalm 47

To the chief Musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

The psalmist calls all nations to clap their hands and shout to God, for the LORD Most High is a great King over all the earth. God has ascended with a shout and the sound of a trumpet; He reigns over the nations and sits on His holy throne.

1	O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.	Clap Your hands, all You nations; shout to God with cries of joy.

Psalm 48

A Song and Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

The psalmist praises the greatness of the LORD in the city of our God. Mount Zion, beautiful for situation, is the joy of the whole earth; when kings see her they marvel and flee. The psalm calls God's people to walk about Zion and count her towers.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness. | Great is the LORD, and most worthy of praise, in the city of our God, His holy mountain. |
| 2 | Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. | Beautiful in its loftiness, the joy of the whole earth, like the heights of Zaphon is Mount Zion, the city of the Great King. |
| 3 | God is known in her palaces for a refuge. | God is in her citadels; He has shown Himself to be her fortress. |
| 4 | For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together. | When the kings joined forces, when they advanced together, |
| 5 | They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. | they saw her and were astounded; they fled in terror. |
| 6 | Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail. | Trembling seized them there, pain like that of a woman in labor. |
| 7 | Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. | You destroyed them like ships of Tarshish shattered by an east wind. |
| 8 | As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. | As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God; God will establish it forever. Selah. |
| 9 | We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple. | We have thought of Your lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of Your temple. |
| 10 | According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. | Like Your name, O God, Your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is filled with righteousness. |

11	Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.	Mount Zion rejoices, the villages of Judah are glad because of Your judgments.
12	Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.	Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers,
13	Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.	consider well her ramparts, view her citadels, that You may tell of them to the next generation.
14	For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.	For this God is our God for ever and ever; He will be our guide even to the end.

Psalm 49

To the chief Musician. A Psalm for the Sons of Korah.

The psalmist addresses all peoples with a wisdom meditation on death and riches. No man can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for his soul; the wise and the fool alike perish and leave their wealth to others. Man that is in honour and understands not is like the beasts that perish.

1	Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:	Hear this, all you peoples; listen, all who live in this world,
2	Both low and high, rich and poor, together.	both low and high, rich and poor alike:

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 3 | My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding. | My mouth will speak words of wisdom; the meditation of my heart will give you understanding. |
| 4 | I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp. | I will turn my ear to a proverb; with the harp I will expound my riddle: |
| 5 | Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about? | Why should I fear when evil days come, when wicked deceivers surround me — |
| 6 | They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; | those who trust in their wealth and boast of their great riches? |
| 7 | None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him: | No one can redeem the life of another or give to God a sufficient ransom for them — |
| 8 | (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) | the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough — |
| 9 | That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption. | so that they should live on forever and not see decay. |
| 10 | For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others. | For all can see that the wise die, that the foolish and the senseless also perish, leaving their wealth to others. |
| 11 | Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. | Their tombs will remain their houses forever, their dwellings for endless generations, though they had named lands after themselves. |
| 12 | Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish. | People, despite their wealth, do not endure; they are like the beasts that perish. |
| 13 | This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah. | This is the fate of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings. |

| 14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling. 15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah. 16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; 17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him. 18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself. 19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light. 20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish. | They are like sheep and are destined to die; death will be their shepherd (but the upright will prevail over them in the morning). Their forms will decay in the grave, far from their princely mansions. But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, for He shall receive me. Selah. Do not be overawed when others grow rich, when the splendor of their houses increases; for they will take nothing with them when they die, their splendor will not descend with them. Though while they live they count themselves blessed — and people praise you when you prosper — they will join those who have gone before them, who will never again see the light of life. People who have wealth but lack understanding are like the beasts that perish. |

A Psalm of Asaph.

God summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting and shines forth from Zion. He rebukes His people for trusting in sacrifice while ignoring obedience, asking whether He eats the flesh of bulls or drinks the blood of goats. He commands: offer thanksgiving and call on Me in the day of trouble.

- 1 The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to where it sets.

■ NAME NOTE — Asaph (AY-saf) — "gatherer" — Chief musician appointed by David; a seer and worship leader (1 Chronicles 16:4–5; 2 Chronicles 29:30). Twelve Psalms bear his name (50, 73–83). His Psalms often confront Israel with God's justice and call the people to genuine worship rather than empty ritual.

- 2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined. From Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth.
- 3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. Our God comes and will not be silent; a fire devours before Him, and around Him a tempest rages.
- 4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people. He summons the heavens above, and the earth, that He may judge His people:
- 5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice. "Gather to me this consecrated people, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
- 6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah. the heavens proclaim His righteousness, for He is a God of justice.

| 21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself; but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes. | When you did these things and I kept silent, you thought I was exactly like you. But I now arraign you and set my accusations before you. |
| 22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver. | Consider this, You who forget God, or I will tear You to pieces, with no one to rescue you: |
| 23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God. | Those who sacrifice thank offerings honor me, and to the blameless I will show my salvation." |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

The psalmist confesses his sin against God and pleads for mercy according to the LORD's lovingkindness. He cries, "Create in me a clean heart, O God," and asks not to be cast from God's presence or to have the Holy Spirit taken from him. The sacrifice God desires is a broken and contrite heart.

| 1 | Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:
according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions. | Have mercy on me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies blot out my transgressions. |
| 2 | Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. | Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. |
| 3 | For I acknowledge my transgressions:
and my sin is ever before me. | For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. |
| 4 | Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. | Against You, You only, have I sinned and done what is evil in Your sight; so You are right in Your verdict and justified when You judge. |
| 5 | Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. | Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. |
| 6 | Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom. | Yet You desired faithfulness even in the womb; You taught me wisdom in that secret place. |
| 7 | Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. | Cleanse me with hyssop. I will be clean; wash me. I will be whiter than snow. |
| 8 | Make me to hear joy and gladness;
that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice. | Let me hear joy and gladness; let the bones You have crushed rejoice. |
| 9 | Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. | Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity. |
| 10 | Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. | Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. |

Psalm 52

To the chief Musician. Maschil. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

The psalmist rebukes a mighty man who boasts in evil, whose tongue is like a sharp razor. God will uproot him from the land of the living, and the righteous will see it and laugh. The psalmist trusts in the mercy of God forever and ever.

| 1 | Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually. | Why do you boast of evil, you mighty hero? Why do you boast all day long, you who are a disgrace in the eyes of God? |
| 2 | Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. | You who practice deceit, your tongue plots destruction; it is like a sharpened razor. |
| 3 | Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah. | You love evil rather than good, falsehood rather than speaking the truth. |
| 4 | Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue. | You love every harmful word, you deceitful tongue! |
| 5 | God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah. | Surely God will bring you down to everlasting ruin: He will snatch you up and pluck you from your tent; He will uproot you from the land of the living. |
| 6 | The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him: | The righteous will see and fear; they will laugh at you, saying, |

- 7

Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

"Here now is the man who did not make God His stronghold but trusted in His great wealth and grew strong by destroying others!"
- 8

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
- 9

I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

I will praise you forever, because you have done it; and I will wait on your name, for it is good, before your saints.

Psalm 53

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath. Maschil. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist repeats the charge that the fool denies God and that all have turned aside -- there is none that does good, not even one. God has scattered the bones of those who encamp against His people, and the psalm longs for salvation to come out of Zion.

- 1

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt. Their ways are vile; there is no one who does good.

Psalm 54

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil. A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself with us?

The psalmist cries for God to save him by His name when strangers rise against him and oppressors seek his soul. He trusts that God is his helper and vows to freely sacrifice and praise the LORD's name, for He has delivered him from all trouble.

Psalm 55

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist is overwhelmed by terror and wishes for the wings of a dove to fly away and be at rest. He grieves that a familiar friend has betrayed him, one with whom he walked to the house of God. He casts his burden on the LORD, trusting that God will sustain him.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication. | Listen to my prayer, O God, do not ignore my plea; |
| 2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise; | hear me and answer me. My thoughts trouble me and I am distraught |
| 3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me. | because of what my enemy is saying, because of the threats of the wicked; for they bring down suffering on me and assail me in their anger. |
| 4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me. | My heart is in anguish within me; the terrors of death have fallen on me. |
| 5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me. | Fear and trembling have beset me; horror has overwhelmed me. |
| 6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest. | I said, "Oh, that I had the wings of a dove! I would fly away and be at rest. |
| 7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. | I would flee far away and stay in the desert; |
| 8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest. | I would hurry to my place of shelter, far from the tempest and storm." |
| 9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city. | Lord, confuse the wicked, confound their words, for I see violence and strife in the city. |
| 10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it. | Day and night they prowl about on its walls; malice and abuse are within it. |
| 11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets. | Destructive forces are at work in the city; threats and lies never leave its streets. |

- 12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him: If an enemy were insulting me, I could endure it; if a foe were rising against me, I could hide.
- 13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance. But it is you, a man like myself, my companion, my close friend,
- 14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company. with whom I once enjoyed sweet fellowship at the house of God, as we walked about among the worshippers.
- 15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them. Let death seize them, and let them go down alive into hell, for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
- 16 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me. As for me, I call to God. The LORD saves me.
- 17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. Evening, morning and noon I cry out in distress. He hears my voice.
- 18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me. He rescues me unharmed from the battle waged against me, even though many oppose me.
- 19 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah: because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God. God, Who is enthroned from of old, who does not change — He will hear them and humble them, because they have no fear of God.
- 20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant. My companion attacks His friends; He violates His covenant.
- 21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords. His talk is smooth as butter, yet war is in His heart; His words are more soothing than oil, yet they are drawn swords.

Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
- 23

But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.
- Cast Your cares on the LORD and He will sustain You; He will never let the righteous be shaken.

But You, God, will bring down the wicked into the pit of decay; the bloodthirsty and deceitful will not live out half their days. But as for me, I trust in You.

Psalm 56

To the chief Musician upon Jonathelemrechokim. Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

The psalmist declares that when he is afraid he will trust in God, and in God he will not fear what flesh can do to him. His enemies twist his words and watch his steps, but God records his tears in a bottle. He will walk before God in the light of the living.

- 1

Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.
- 2

Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.
- Be merciful to me, my God, for my enemies are in hot pursuit; all day long they press their attack.

My adversaries pursue me all day long; in their pride many are attacking me.

Psalm 58

To the chief Musician. Altaschith. Michtam of David.

The psalmist challenges corrupt judges who devise wickedness in their hearts and distribute violence in the earth. The wicked are like a deaf serpent that will not listen to the voice of the charmer. He calls on God to break their teeth and melt them away, that men may say there is a God that judges in the earth.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men? | Do you rulers indeed speak justly? Do you judge people with equity? |
| 2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth. | No, in your heart you devise injustice, and your hands mete out violence on the earth. |
| 3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. | Even from birth the wicked go astray; from the womb they are wayward, spreading lies. |
| 4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear; | Their venom is like the venom of a snake, like that of a cobra that has stopped its ears, |
| 5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely. | that will not heed the tune of the charmer, however skillful the enchanter may be. |
| 6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD. | Break the teeth in their mouths, O God; LORD, tear out the fangs of those lions! |
| 7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces. | Let them vanish like water that flows away; when they draw the bow, let their arrows fall short. |
| 8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun. | May they be like a slug that melts away as it moves along, like a stillborn child that never sees the sun. |
| 9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath. | Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns — whether they be green or dry — the wicked will be swept away. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. | The righteous will be glad when they are avenged, when they dip their feet in the blood of the wicked. |
| 11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth. | Then people will say, "Surely the righteous still are rewarded; surely there is a God Who judges the earth." |

To the chief Musician. Altschith. Michtam of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

The psalmist pleads for deliverance from enemies who surround his house like snarling dogs. Though they lie in wait with no cause, he trusts that God will scatter them and let all Israel know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. He will sing of God's strength and mercy every morning.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me. | Deliver me from my enemies, O God; be my fortress against those who are attacking me. |
| 2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men. | Deliver me from evildoers and save me from those who are after my blood. |

- 3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. See how they lie in wait for me! Fierce men conspire against me for no offense or sin of mine, LORD.
- 4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold. I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me. Arise to help me; look on my plight!
- 5 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah. You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen; be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.
- 6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. They return at evening, snarling like dogs, and prowl about the city.
- 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear? See what they spew from their mouths — the words from their lips are sharp as swords. They think, "Who can hear us?"
- 8 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision. But You laugh at them, LORD; You scoff at all those nations.
- 9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence. You are my strength, I watch for You; You, God, are my fortress,
- 10 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies. my God on whom I can rely. God will go before me and will let me gloat over those who slander me.

Psalm 60

To the chief Musician upon Shushaneduth. Michtam of David, to teach; when he strove with Aramnaharaim and with Aramzobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

The psalmist laments that God has cast off and scattered His people after a military defeat. Yet God has spoken in His holiness, claiming Shechem, Succoth, Gilead, Ephraim, and Judah as His own. Through God the people will do valiantly, for it is He who shall tread down their enemies.

| 1 O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again. | You have rejected us, God, and burst upon us; You have been angry — now restore us! |
| 2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh. | You have shaken the land and torn it open; mend its fractures, for it is quaking. |
| 3 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment. | You have shown your people desperate times; you have given us wine that makes us stagger. |
| 4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. | But for those who fear you, you have raised a banner to be unfurled against the bow. |
| 5 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me. | Save us and help us with your right hand, that those you love may be delivered. |
| 6 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. | God has spoken in His holiness: "I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. |
| 7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver; | Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim is my helmet, Judah is my scepter. |

12	Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.	With God we will gain the victory. He will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 61

To the chief Musician upon Neginah. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist cries to God from the end of the earth, overwhelmed and longing for the rock that is higher than he. He asks to dwell in God's tabernacle forever and to take refuge in the shelter of His wings. He prays for the king's life to be prolonged through many generations.

1	Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.	Hear my cry, O God; listen to my prayer.
2	From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.	From the ends of the earth I call to you, I call as my heart grows faint; lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

3	For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.	For you have been my refuge, a strong tower against the foe.
4	I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.	I long to dwell in your tent forever and take refuge in the shelter of your wings.
5	For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.	For You, God, have heard my vows; You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.
6	Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.	Increase the days of the king's life, his years for many generations.
7	He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.	He shall abide before God forever; prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve Him.
8	So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.	Then I will ever sing in praise of your name and fulfill my vows day after day.

Psalm 62

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares that his soul waits only on God, who alone is his rock, salvation, and defense. He rebukes those who plot against him with lying mouths, and counsels all to trust in God at all times, for power and mercy belong to the LORD.

Psalm 63

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

The psalmist thirsts for God in a dry and parched land and declares that God's lovingkindness is better than life. He meditates on God through the night watches, rejoices in the shadow of His wings, and trusts that those who seek his life will go into the lower parts of the earth.

1	O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;	You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek You; I thirst for You, my whole being longs for You, in a dry and parched land where there is no water.
2	To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.	I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.
3	Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.	Because your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise you.
4	Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.	I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.

| 5 | My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips: | I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips my mouth will praise you. |
| 6 | When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches. | On my bed I remember you; I think of you through the watches of the night. |
| 7 | Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice. | Because you are my help, I sing in the shadow of your wings. |
| 8 | My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me. | I cling to you; your right hand upholds me. |
| 9 | But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth. | Those who want to kill me will be destroyed; they will go down to the depths of the earth. |
| 10 | They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes. | They will be given over to the sword and become food for jackals. |
| 11 | But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped. | But the king will rejoice in God; all who swear by God will glory in Him, while the mouths of liars will be silenced. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist asks God to hide him from the secret counsel of the wicked, who sharpen their tongues like swords. But God will shoot at them with His own arrow suddenly, and their own tongues will bring them to ruin. All men shall fear and declare the work of God.

Psalm 65

To the chief Musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

The psalmist praises God in Zion for hearing prayer and forgiving transgressions. He celebrates God's awesome works in nature -- setting fast the mountains, stilling the seas, and crowning the year with goodness so that the pastures and valleys shout for joy and sing.

1	Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.	Praise awaits You, our God, in Zion; to You our vows will be fulfilled.
2	O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.	You who answer prayer, to you all people will come.
3	Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.	When we were overwhelmed by sins, you forgave our transgressions.
4	Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.	Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts! We are filled with the good things of your house, of your holy temple.

- 5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea: You answer us with awesome and righteous deeds, God our Savior, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas,
- 6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power: who formed the mountains by your power, having armed yourself with strength,
- 7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people. who stilled the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.
- 8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice. The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonders; where morning dawns, where evening fades, you call forth songs of joy.
- 9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it. You care for the land and water it; you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with grain, for so you have ordained it.
- 10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof. You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.
- 11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness. You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance.
- 12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side. The grasslands of the wilderness overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness.

- 13 *The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.*
- The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with grain;
they shout for joy and sing.

Psalm 66

To the chief Musician. A Song or Psalm.

The psalmist calls all the earth to make a joyful noise to God and to come see His awesome works. He recounts how God turned the sea to dry land, brought His people through fire and water into a wealthy place, and hears prayer because He has not turned away His mercy.

- 1 Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:
- Shout for joy to God, all the earth!
- 2 *Sing forth the honour of his name:
make his praise glorious.*
- Sing the glory of his name; make his praise glorious.
- 3 Say unto God, How terrible are thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.
- Say to God, "How awesome are Your deeds! So great is Your power that Your enemies cringe before You.
- 4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.
- All the earth bows down to you; they sing praise to you, they sing the praises of your name."

- 5 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men. Come and see what God has done, His awesome deeds for mankind!
- 6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the waters on foot — come, let us rejoice in him.
- 7 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah. He rules forever by his power, his eyes watch the nations — let not the rebellious rise up against him.
- 8 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Praise our God, all peoples, let the sound of His praise be heard;
- 9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved. he has preserved our lives and kept our feet from slipping.
- 10 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. For You, God, tested us; You refined us like silver.
- 11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins. You brought us into prison and laid burdens on our backs.
- 12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place. You let people ride over our heads; we went through fire and water, but you brought us to a place of abundance.
- 13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, I will come to your temple with burnt offerings and fulfill my vows to you —
- 14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble. vows my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.
- 15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah. I will sacrifice fat animals to you and an offering of rams; I will offer bulls and goats.
- 16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul. Come and hear, all you who fear God; let me tell you what He has done for me.

| 17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue. | I cried out to him with my mouth; his praise was on my tongue. |
| 18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me: | If I had cherished sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened; |
| 19 But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer. | but God has surely listened and has heard my prayer. |
| 20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me. | Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer, nor His mercy from me. |

Psalm 67

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm or Song.

The psalmist asks God to be merciful and cause His face to shine on His people, so that His way may be known on earth and His salvation among all nations. He calls all the peoples to praise God and asks the earth to yield her increase.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah. | God be merciful to us, and bless us, and cause His countenance to shine on us. Selah. |
|---|---|

2	That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.	so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.
3	Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.	May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you.
4	O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah.	May the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you rule the peoples with equity and guide the nations of the earth.
5	Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.	May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you.
6	Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.	The land yields its harvest; God, our God, blesses us.
7	God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.	May God bless us still, so that all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

Psalm 68

To the chief Musician. A Psalm or Song of David.

The psalmist calls on God to arise and scatter His enemies like smoke. He celebrates the LORD as a father of the fatherless, a God who rides on the heavens and led His people through the wilderness. He recounts God's triumphant ascent to the high place, receiving gifts for men, and praises His awesome power from the sanctuary.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. | May God arise, may His enemies be scattered; may His foes flee before Him. |
| 2 | As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God. | May you blow them away like smoke — as wax melts before the fire, may the wicked perish before God. |
| 3 | But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice. | But may the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; may they be happy and joyful. |
| 4 | Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him. | Sing to God, sing in praise of His name, extol Him who rides on the clouds; rejoice before Him — His name is the LORD. |
| 5 | A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation. | A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling. |
| 6 | God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land. | God sets the lonely in families, He leads out the prisoners with singing; but the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land. |
| 7 | O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah: | When You, God, went out before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness, |
| 8 | The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel. | the earth shook, the heavens poured down rain, before God, the One of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel. |
| 9 | Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary. | You gave abundant showers, O God; You refreshed Your weary inheritance. |
| 10 | Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor. | Your people settled in it, and from Your bounty, God, You provided for the poor. |

- 11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it. The Lord announces the word, and the women who proclaim it are a mighty throng:
- 12 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil. "Kings and their armies flee in haste; the women at home divide the plunder."
- 13 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold. Even while You sleep among the sheep pens, the wings of my dove are sheathed with silver, its feathers with shining gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon. When the Almighty scattered the kings in the land, it was like snow fallen on Zalmon.
- 15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan. Mount Bashan, majestic mountain, Mount Bashan, rugged mountain,
- 16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever. why gaze in envy, You rugged mountain, at the mountain where God chooses to reign, where the LORD Himself will dwell forever?
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands; the Lord has come from Sinai into His sanctuary.
- 18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them. When You ascended on high, You took many captives; You received gifts from people, even from the rebellious — that You, LORD God, might dwell there.
- 19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah. Praise be to the Lord, to God our Savior, who daily bears our burdens.

- 20 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto GOD the Lord belong the issues from death. He who is our God is the God of salvation; and to GOD the Lord belong the issues from death.
- 21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses. Surely God will crush the heads of His enemies, the hairy crowns of those who go on in their sins.
- 22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea: The Lord says, "I will bring them from Bashan; I will bring them from the depths of the sea,
- 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same. that Your feet may wade in the blood of Your foes, while the tongues of Your dogs have their share."
- 24 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary. Your procession, God, has come into view, the procession of my God and King into the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels. In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them are the young women playing the timbrels.
- 26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel. Praise God in the great congregation; praise the LORD in the assembly of Israel.
- 27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. There is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them, there the great throng of Judah's princes, and there the princes of Zebulun and of Naphtali.
- 28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us. Summon Your power, God; show us Your strength, our God, as You have done before.
- 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee. Because of Your temple at Jerusalem kings will bring You gifts.

Psalm 69

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist sinks in deep mire as waters rise to his neck, crying for God to save him. Zeal for God's house has consumed him, and the reproaches of those who reproach God have fallen on him. He prophetically describes being given gall and vinegar to drink and calls on God to vindicate him -- a psalm the apostles applied to Christ's suffering.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Save me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul. | Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck. |
| 2 | I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. | I sink in the miry depths, where there is no foothold. I have come into the deep waters; the floods engulf me. |
| 3 | I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God. | I am worn out calling for help; my throat is parched. My eyes fail, looking for my God. |
| 4 | They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away. | Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head; many are my enemies without cause, those who seek to destroy me. I am forced to restore what I did not steal. |
| 5 | O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. | You, God, know my folly; my guilt is not hidden from You. |
| 6 | Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. | Let not those who wait on You, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake; let not those who seek You be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. |
| 7 | Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face. | For I endure scorn for Your sake, and shame covers my face. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children. | I am a foreigner to my own family, a stranger to my own mother's children; |
| 9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me. | for zeal for Your house consumes me, and the insults of those who insult You fall on me. |
| 10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach. | When I weep and fast, I must endure scorn; |
| 11 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them. | when I put on sackcloth, people make sport of me. |
| 12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. | Those who sit at the gate mock me. I am the song of the drunkards. |
| 13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation. | But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD, in an acceptable time; O God, in the multitude of Your mercy hear me, in the truth of Your salvation. |
| 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters. | Rescue me from the mire, do not let me sink; deliver me from those who hate me, from the deep waters. |
| 15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me. | Do not let the floodwaters engulf me or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me. |
| 16 Hear me, O LORD; for thy lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies. | Hear me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good; turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies. |
| 17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily. | Do not hide Your face from Your servant; answer me quickly, for I am in trouble. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 18 | Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies. | Come near and rescue me; deliver me because of my foes. |
| 19 | Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee. | You know how I am scorned, disgraced and shamed; all my enemies are before You. |
| 20 | Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. | Scorn has broken my heart and has left me helpless; I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters. But I found none. |
| 21 | They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. | They put gall in my food and gave me vinegar for my thirst. |
| 22 | Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. | May the table set before them become a snare; may it become retribution and a trap. |
| 23 | Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake. | May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see. Their backs be bent forever. |
| 24 | Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them. | Pour out Your wrath on them; let Your fierce anger overtake them. |
| 25 | Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents. | May their place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in their tents. |
| 26 | For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded. | For they persecute those You wound and talk about the pain of those You hurt. |
| 27 | Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness. | Charge them with crime upon crime; do not let them share in Your salvation. |
| 28 | Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous. | May they be blotted out of the book of life and not be listed with the righteous. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 29 | But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high. | But as for me, afflicted and in pain — may Your salvation, God, protect me. |
| 30 | I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving. | I will praise God's name in song and glorify Him with thanksgiving. |
| 31 | This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs. | This will please the LORD more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hooves. |
| 32 | The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God. | The poor will see and be glad — you who seek God, may Your hearts live! |
| 33 | For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners. | The LORD hears the needy and does not despise His captive people. |
| 34 | Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein. | Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and all that move in them, |
| 35 | For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession. | for God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah. Then people will settle there and possess it; |
| 36 | The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein. | the children of His servants will inherit it, and those who love his name will dwell there. |

Psalm 70

The psalmist urgently pleads for God to hasten to deliver him. He asks that those who seek his life be put to shame, while those who seek God rejoice. Poor and needy, he declares God is his help and deliverer and begs the LORD not to delay.

1	Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD.	Hasten, O God, to save me; come quickly, LORD, to help me.
2	Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.	May those who want to take my life be put to shame and confusion; may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.
3	Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.	May those who say to me, "Aha! Aha!" turn back because of their shame.
4	Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.	But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You; may those who long for Your saving help always say, "The LORD is great!"
5	But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.	But as for me, I am poor and needy; come quickly to me, O God. You are my help and my deliverer; LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

The psalmist, now old and gray-headed, takes refuge in the LORD who has been his trust from youth and his hope from his mother's womb. He asks God not to cast him off in the time of old age, and vows to praise God's righteousness and declare His wondrous works to the next generation.

|--|---|
| 1 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust:
let me never be put to confusion. | In You, LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame. |
| 2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me. | In Your righteousness, rescue me and deliver me; turn Your ear to me and save me. |
| 3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort:
thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress. | Be my rock of refuge, to which I can always go; give the command to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress. |
| 4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. | Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of those who are evil and cruel. |
| 5 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD:
thou art my trust from my youth. | For You are my hope, O Lord GOD; You are my trust from my youth. |
| 6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee. | From birth I have relied on You; You brought me forth from my mother's womb. I will ever praise You. |
| 7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge. | I have become a sign to many; You are my strong refuge. |
| 8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day. | My mouth is filled with Your praise, declaring Your splendor all day long. |
| 9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength
faileth. | Do not cast me away when I am old; do not forsake me when my strength is gone. |
| 10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, | For my enemies speak against me; those who wait to kill me conspire together. |
| 11 Saying, God hath forsaken him:
persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him. | They say, "God has forsaken Him; pursue Him and seize Him, for no one will rescue him." |

- 12 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help. Do not be far from me, my God; come quickly, God, to help me.
- 13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt. May my accusers perish in shame; may those who want to harm me be covered with scorn and disgrace.
- 14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more. As for me, I will always have hope; I will praise You more and more.
- 15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. My mouth will tell of Your righteous deeds, of Your saving acts all day long — though I know not how to relate them all.
- 16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only. I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD; I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours only.
- 17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works. Since my youth, God, You have taught me, and to this day I declare Your marvelous deeds.
- 18 Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come. Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my God, till I declare Your power to the next generation, Your mighty acts to all who are to come.
- 19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee! Your righteousness, God, reaches to the heavens, You who have done great things. Who is like You, God?
- 20 Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth. Though You have made me see troubles, many and bitter, You will restore my life again; from the depths of the earth You will again bring me up.
- 21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side. You will increase my honor and comfort me once more.

Psalm 72

The psalmist prays for the king to judge the people with righteousness and the poor with justice. The king's dominion shall reach from sea to sea, all kings shall fall down before him, and his name shall endure forever. The psalm closes with a doxology: blessed be the LORD God of Israel who alone does wondrous things.

| 2 | He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment. | May he judge your people in righteousness, your afflicted ones with justice. |
| 3 | The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness. | May the mountains bring prosperity to the people, the hills the fruit of righteousness. |
| 4 | He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. | May he defend the afflicted among the people and save the children of the needy; may he crush the oppressor. |
| 5 | They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations. | May he endure as long as the sun, as long as the moon, through all generations. |
| 6 | He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth. | May he be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the earth. |
| 7 | In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth. | In his days may the righteous flourish and prosperity abound till the moon is no more. |

Psalm 73

A Psalm of Asaph.

The psalmist nearly stumbles when he envies the prosperity of the wicked, who seem to suffer no pain and grow fat with ease. But when he enters the sanctuary of God, he understands their end -- they are set in slippery places. He concludes that God is the strength of his heart and his portion forever.

- 1

Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.

■ NAME NOTE — Asaph (AY-saf) — "gatherer" — A Levite musician appointed by David as chief singer before the ark of the covenant (1 Chr 16:4–5). Asaph is credited with twelve Psalms (50, 73–83). His descendants continued as temple musicians for centuries. These Psalms wrestle with the justice of God, the fate of the wicked, and the faithfulness of God to Israel.

- 2

But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; I had nearly lost my foothold.
- 3

For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

For I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- 4

For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

They have no struggles; their bodies are healthy and strong.
- 5

They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

They are not in trouble as other men, nor are they plagued like other men.
- 6

Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

Therefore pride is their necklace; they clothe themselves with violence.

- 7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. From their callous hearts comes iniquity; their evil imaginations have no limits.
- 8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily. They scoff, and speak with malice; with arrogance they threaten oppression.
- 9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth. Their mouths lay claim to heaven. Their tongues take possession of the earth.
- 10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance.
- 11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High? They say, "How would God know? Does the Most High know anything?"
- 12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. This is what the wicked are like — always free of care, they go on amassing wealth.
- 13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence. Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure and have washed my hands in innocence.
- 14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning. All day long I have been afflicted, and every morning brings new punishments.
- 15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children. If I had spoken out like that, I would have betrayed your children.
- 16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; When I tried to understand all this, it troubled me deeply
- 17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end. till I entered the sanctuary of God; then I understood their final destiny.
- 18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction. Surely you place them on slippery ground; you cast them down to ruin.

Psalms 74

Maschil of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Maschil (MAS-kil) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "a contemplation" or "a skillful psalm." It marks a Psalm meant for instruction or deep meditation — a teaching song.

The psalmist laments the destruction of the sanctuary, where enemies have roared, set up their ensigns, smashed the carved work, and burned God's dwelling place to the ground. He pleads with God to remember His covenant, arise, and no longer allow the foolish to reproach His name.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture? | O God, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smolder against the sheep of Your pasture? |
| 2 | Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt. | Remember the nation you purchased long ago, the people of your inheritance, whom you redeemed — Mount Zion, where you lived. |
| 3 | Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary. | Turn your steps toward these everlasting ruins, all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary. |
| 4 | Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. | Your enemies roar in the midst of your congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. |

- 5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. They behaved like men wielding axes to cut through a thicket of trees.
- 6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers. They smashed all the carved paneling with their axes and hatchets.
- 7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. They burned your sanctuary to the ground; they defiled the dwelling place of your Name.
- 8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. They said in their hearts, "We will crush them completely!" They burned every place where God was worshiped in the land.
- 9 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. We are given no signs from God; no prophets are left, and none of us knows how long this will be.
- 10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? How long will the enemy mock you, God? Will the foe revile your name forever?
- 11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom. Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take it from the folds of your garment and destroy them!
- 12 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth. But God is my King from long ago; He brings salvation on the earth.
- 13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters. It was you who split open the sea by your power; you broke the heads of the monster in the waters.
- 14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness. It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan and gave it as food to the creatures of the desert.
- 15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers. It was you who opened up springs and streams; you dried up the ever-flowing rivers.

Psalm 75

To the chief Musician, Altaschith, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Altaschith (al-TAS-kith) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "Do not destroy." It may indicate the tune to which the Psalm was sung, or a plea that forms the theme of the song.

The people give thanks because God's name is near and His wondrous works declare it. God speaks, warning the arrogant not to lift up the horn, for promotion comes neither from the east nor the west -- it is God who judges, putting down one and setting up another. The wicked shall drink the dregs of His cup of wrath.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. | We praise You, God, we praise You, for Your Name is near; people tell of Your wonderful deeds. |
| 2 | When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. | You say, "I choose the appointed time; it is I who judge with equity. |
| 3 | The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah. | When the earth and all its people quake, it is I who hold its pillars firm. |
| 4 | I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn: | To the arrogant I say, 'Boast no more,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horns. |
| 5 | Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck. | Do not lift your horns against heaven; do not speak so defiantly.' " |
| 6 | For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. | No one from the east or the west or from the desert can exalt themselves. |
| 7 | But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another. | It is God Who judges: He brings one down, He exalts another. |

8	For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.	In the hand of the LORD is a cup full of foaming wine mixed with spices; He pours it out. All the wicked of the earth drink it down to its very dregs.
9	But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.	As for me, I will declare this forever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob,
10	All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.	who says, "I will cut off the horns of all the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up."

Psalm 76

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Neginoth (NEG-ih-noth) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "stringed instruments." It directs the musicians to accompany the Psalm with harps, lyres, or other stringed instruments.

The psalmist celebrates God's victory from Zion, where He broke the weapons of war and judged the earth. All are called to fear the God who cuts off the spirit of rulers and terrifies the kings of the earth.

1	In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel.	God is renowned in Judah; in Israel His name is great.

| 2 | In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. | his tent is in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion. |
| 3 | There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah. | There he broke the flashing arrows, the shields and the swords, the weapons of war. |
| 4 | Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey. | You are radiant with light, more majestic than mountains rich with game. |
| 5 | The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands. | The valiant lie plundered, they sleep their last sleep; not one of the warriors can lift his hands. |
| 6 | At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep. | At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both horse and chariot lie still. |
| 7 | Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? | It is you alone who are to be feared. Who can stand before you when you are angry? |
| 8 | Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still, | From heaven you pronounced judgment, and the land feared and was quiet — |
| 9 | When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah. | when You, God, rose up to judge, to save all the afflicted of the land. |
| 10 | Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain. | Human wrath brings you praise, and the survivors of your wrath are restrained. |
| 11 | Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. | Make vows to the LORD Your God and fulfill them; let all the neighboring lands bring gifts to the One to be feared. |
| 12 | He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth. | He breaks the spirit of rulers; He is feared by the kings of the earth. |

Psalm 77

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph.

■ NAME NOTE — Jeduthun (jeh-DOO-thun) — "praising" — One of three chief musicians appointed by David to lead worship (alongside Asaph and Heman). His name appears in the titles of Psalms 39, 62, and 77, likely indicating a musical style, choir, or tune associated with his tradition.

The psalmist cries out to God in deep distress, unable to sleep or be comforted, wondering whether the Lord has forgotten His mercy. He turns from despair to remembrance, recalling God's mighty works at the Red Sea and His faithful leading of Israel through Moses and Aaron.

| 1 | I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me. | I cried out to God for help; I cried out to God to hear me. |
| 2 | In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted. | When I was in distress, I sought the Lord; at night I stretched out untiring hands. I would not be comforted. |
| 3 | I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. | I remembered you, God. I groaned; I meditated, and my spirit grew faint. |
| 4 | Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak. | You kept my eyes from closing; I was too troubled to speak. |
| 5 | I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times. | I thought about the former days, the years of long ago; |

- 6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search. I remembered my songs in the night. My heart meditated and my spirit asked:
- 7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more? "Will the Lord reject forever? Will He never show His favor again?
- 8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore? Has his mercy vanished forever? Has his promise failed for all time?
- 9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah. Has God forgotten to be merciful? Has He in anger withheld His compassion?"
- 10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High. Then I thought, "To this I will appeal: the years when the Most High stretched out His right hand.
- 11 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old. I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember Your miracles of long ago.
- 12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings. I will consider all Your works and meditate on all Your mighty deeds."
- 13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God? Your ways, God, are holy. What god is as great as our God?
- 14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people. You are the God Who performs miracles; You display Your power among the peoples.
- 15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. With your mighty arm you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.
- 16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled. The waters saw You, God, the waters saw You and writhed; the very depths were convulsed.
- 17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad. The clouds poured down water, the heavens resounded with thunder; your arrows flashed back and forth.

18	The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.	Your thunder was heard in the whirlwind, your lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and quaked.
19	Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.	Your path led through the sea, your way through the mighty waters, though your footprints were not seen.
20	Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.	You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

Maschil of Asaph.

Asaph recounts Israel's history from the exodus through the wilderness to David's kingship, tracing a pattern of God's mighty deliverance met by the people's stubborn rebellion. Despite Israel's repeated unfaithfulness, God shows compassion again and again, finally choosing Judah, Zion, and David to shepherd His people.

1	Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.	My people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.
2	I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:	I will open my mouth with a parable; I will utter hidden things, things from of old —

- 3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, His power, and the wonders He has done.
- 5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children,
- 6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born. They in turn would tell their children.
- 7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget His deeds but would keep His commands.
- 8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God. They would not be like their ancestors — a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal to God, whose spirits were not faithful to Him.
- 9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned back on the day of battle;
- 10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law; they did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by His law.
- 11 And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them. They forgot what he had done, the wonders he had shown them.
- 12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He did miracles in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.

- 13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. He divided the sea and led them through; he made the water stand up like a wall.
- 14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. He guided them with the cloud by day and with light from the fire all night.
- 15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them water as abundant as the seas;
- 16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. he brought streams out of a rocky crag and made water flow down like rivers.
- 17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness. But they continued to sin against Him, rebelling in the wilderness against the Most High.
- 18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust. They willfully put God to the test by demanding the food they craved.
- 19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? They spoke against God; they said, "Can God really spread a table in the wilderness?"
- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? True, He struck the rock, and water gushed out, streams flowed abundantly, but can He also give us bread? Can He supply meat for His people?"
- 21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; When the LORD heard them, He was furious; His fire broke out against Jacob. His wrath rose against Israel,
- 22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation: for they did not believe in God or trust in His deliverance.
- 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, Yet He gave a command to the skies above and opened the doors of the heavens;

- 24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. he rained down manna for the people to eat, he gave them the grain of heaven.
- 25 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. Man ate angels' food; He sent them meat to the full.
- 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind. He let loose the east wind from the heavens and by His power made the south wind blow.
- 27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea: He rained meat down on them like dust, birds like sand on the seashore.
- 28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations. He made them come down inside their camp, all around their tents.
- 29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; They ate till they were gorged — he had given them what they craved.
- 30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths, But before they turned from what they craved, even while the food was still in their mouths,
- 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. God's anger rose against them; He put to death the sturdiest among them, cutting down the young men of Israel.
- 32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works. In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; in spite of His wonders, they did not believe.
- 33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. So He ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
- 34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God. Whenever God slew them, they would seek Him; they eagerly turned to Him again.
- 35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.

- 36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues. But then they would flatter Him with their mouths, lying to Him with their tongues;
- 37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. their hearts were not loyal to Him, they were not faithful to His covenant.
- 38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. Yet He was merciful; He forgave their iniquities and did not destroy them. Time after time He restrained His anger and did not stir up His full wrath.
- 39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. He remembered that they were but flesh, a passing breeze that does not return.
- 40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the wasteland!
- 41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. Again and again they put God to the test; they vexed the Holy One of Israel.
- 42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy. They did not remember His power — the day He redeemed them from the oppressor,
- 43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan: the day He displayed His signs in Egypt, His wonders in the region of Zoan.
- 44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink. He turned their river into blood; they could not drink from their streams.
- 45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them. He sent swarms of flies that devoured them, and frogs that devastated them.

- 46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust. He gave their crops to the grasshopper, their produce to the locust.
- 47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost. He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
- 48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He gave over their cattle to the hail, their livestock to bolts of lightning.
- 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them. He unleashed against them His hot anger, His wrath, indignation and hostility — a band of destroying angels.
- 50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence; He prepared a path for His anger; He did not spare them from death but gave them over to the plague.
- 51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham: He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.
- 52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. But he brought his people out like a flock; he led them like sheep through the wilderness.
- 53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. He guided them safely, so they were unafraid; but the sea engulfed their enemies.
- 54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased. so he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand had taken.
- 55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. He drove out nations before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance; he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.
- 56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High; they did not keep His statutes.

- 57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. Like their ancestors they were disloyal and faithless, as unreliable as a faulty bow.
- 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. They angered Him with their high places; they aroused His jealousy with their idols.
- 59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel: When God heard them, He was furious; He rejected Israel completely.
- 60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which He placed among men,
- 61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand. He sent the ark of His might into captivity, His splendor into the hands of the enemy.
- 62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance. He gave His people over to the sword;
He was furious with His inheritance.
- 63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage. Fire consumed their young men. Their young women had no wedding songs;
- 64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation. their priests were put to the sword.
Their widows could not weep.
- 65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine. Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep, as a warrior wakes from the stupor of wine.
- 66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach. He beat back His enemies; He put them to everlasting shame.
- 67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim: Then he rejected the tents of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;
- 68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved. but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loved.

69	And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.	He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that he established forever.
70	He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:	He chose David his servant and took him from the sheep pens;
71	From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.	from tending the sheep he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel his inheritance.
72	So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.	David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skillful hands he led them.

Psalm 79

A Psalm of Asaph.

The psalmist laments the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple by invading nations, crying out to God over the unburied dead and the mockery of enemies. He pleads for God to pour out His wrath on the nations and to show mercy to His suffering people for the sake of His name.

1	O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.	O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple, they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.

| 2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth. | They have left the dead bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your own people for the animals of the wild. |
| 3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them. | They have poured out blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there is no one to bury the dead. |
| 4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us. | We are objects of contempt to our neighbors, of scorn and derision to those around us. |
| 5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire? | How long, LORD? Will You be angry forever? How long will Your jealousy burn like fire? |
| 6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name. | Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name; |
| 7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place. | for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland. |
| 8 O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low. | Do not hold against us the sins of past generations; may your mercy come quickly to meet us, for we are in desperate need. |
| 9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. | Help us, God our Savior, for the glory of your name; deliver us and forgive our sins for your name's sake. |
| 10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed. | Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Before our eyes, make known among the nations that you avenge the outpoured blood of your servants. |

The psalmist pleads with the Shepherd of Israel to shine forth and restore His people, using the image of a vine transplanted from Egypt that once filled the land but now lies broken and burned. The repeated refrain begs God to turn them again and cause His countenance to shine, that they may be saved.

| 13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it. | Boars from the forest ravage it, and insects from the fields feed on it. |
| 14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine; | Return, we ask, O God of hosts; look down from heaven, see, and visit this vine, |
| 15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself. | the root Your right hand has planted, the son You have raised up for Yourself. |
| 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance. | It is burned with fire, it is cut down; they perish at the rebuke of Your countenance. |
| 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself. | Let your hand rest on the man at your right hand, the son of man you have raised up for yourself. |
| 18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name. | Then we will not turn away from you; revive us. We will call on your name. |
| 19 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. | Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause Your countenance to shine; and we shall be saved. |

Psalm 81

God calls Israel to joyful worship, reminding them of His deliverance from Egypt and His longing to bless them. He laments that His people would not listen, and declares that if they had obeyed, He would have subdued their enemies and fed them with the finest wheat and honey from the rock.

Psalm 82

God stands in the divine assembly and rebukes the unjust rulers who show partiality to the wicked and fail to defend the poor and fatherless. He declares that though they are called gods, they will die like men, and He calls on God to rise up and judge the whole earth.

1	God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.	God presides in the great assembly; He renders judgment among the gods:
2	How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.	"How long will you defend the unjust and show partiality to the wicked?
3	Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.	Defend the weak and the fatherless; uphold the cause of the poor and the oppressed.
4	Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.	Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked.
5	They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.	The 'gods' know nothing, they understand nothing. They walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6	I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.	I said, 'You are gods; You are all sons of the Most High.'
7	But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.	But You shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.
8	Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.	Rise up, O God, judge the earth, for all the nations are your inheritance.

Psalm 83

The psalmist urgently pleads with God not to remain silent as a coalition of nations conspires to destroy Israel and wipe out its name. He calls on God to do to these enemies what He did to Midian, Sisera, and Jabin, so that all may know that JEHOVAH alone is the Most High over all the earth.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God. | O God, do not remain silent; do not turn a deaf ear, do not stand aloof, O God. |
| 2 | For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. | See how Your enemies growl, how Your foes rear their heads. |
| 3 | They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones. | With cunning they conspire against Your people; they plot against those You cherish. |
| 4 | They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance. | "Come," they say, "let us destroy them as a nation, so that Israel's name is remembered no more." |

The psalmist expresses deep longing for the courts of the LORD, declaring that even a single day in God's house is better than a thousand elsewhere. He pronounces blessings on those whose strength is in the LORD and who set their hearts on pilgrimage to Zion.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! | How lovely are Your tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! |
| 2 | My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. | My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. |
| 3 | Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God. | Yes, the sparrow has found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young — even Your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God. |
| 4 | Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah. | Blessed are those who dwell in Your house; they are ever praising You. |
| 5 | Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them. | Blessed are those whose strength is in You, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage. |

8	O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.	O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.
9	Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.	Look, O God our shield, and look on the face of Your anointed.
10	For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.	Better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.
11	For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.	For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor; no good thing does He withhold from those whose walk is blameless.
12	O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.	O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

The psalmist recalls how the LORD showed favor to His land and forgave His people, then pleads for revival and renewed mercy. He envisions a day when mercy and truth meet together, righteousness and peace kiss, and the LORD gives what is good so that the land yields its harvest.

Psalm 86

David pleads for mercy as a poor and needy servant, declaring that among the gods there is none like the LORD who is good, ready to forgive, and plenteous in mercy. He asks God for an undivided heart, protection from arrogant foes, and a sign of His goodness.

- | | | |

You, Lord; no deeds can compare with
Yours. |
| 9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O
Lord; and shall glorify thy name. | All the nations you have made will come and worship before You, Lord;
they will bring glory to Your name. |
| 10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone. | For You are great and do marvelous deeds; You alone are God. |
| 11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name. | Teach me Your way, LORD, that I may rely on Your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear
Your name. |
| 12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore. | I will praise You, Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify Your name forever. |
| 13 For great is thy mercy toward me:
and thou hast delivered my soul from

Psalm 87

The psalmist celebrates Zion as God's beloved city, founded on the holy mountains and loved above all the dwellings of Jacob. God Himself registers the peoples of the nations as born in Zion, declaring that all the fountains of life spring from her.

- 1

His foundation is in the holy mountains.

He has founded his city on the holy mountain.
- 2

The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the other dwellings of Jacob.
- 3

Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

Glorious things are said of You, city of God:

4	I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.	"I will record Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge me — Philistia too, and Tyre, along with Cush — and will say, 'This one was born in Zion.' "
5	And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.	Indeed, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one were born in her, and the Most High Himself will establish her."
6	The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.	The LORD will write in the register of the peoples: "This one was born in Zion."
7	As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.	As they make music they will sing, "All my fountains are in You."

Psalm 88

The psalmist cries out from the brink of death, overwhelmed by God's wrath, abandoned by friends, and surrounded by darkness with no relief in sight. This is the darkest psalm in the Psalter — it ends without resolution, with darkness as the psalmist's only companion.

1	O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:	LORD, You are the God Who saves me; day and night I cry out to You.
2	Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;	May my prayer come before You; turn Your ear to my cry.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 3 | For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave. | I am overwhelmed with troubles and my life draws near to death. |
| 4 | I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength: | I am counted among those who go down to the pit; I am like one without strength. |
| 5 | Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand. | I am set apart with the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom You remember no more, who are cut off from Your care. |
| 6 | Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps. | You have put me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths. |
| 7 | Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah. | Your wrath lies heavily on me; You have overwhelmed me with all Your waves. |
| 8 | Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth. | You have taken from me my closest friends and have made me repulsive to them. I am confined and cannot escape; |
| 9 | Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee. | my eyes are dim with grief. I call to You, LORD, every day; I spread out my hands to You. |
| 10 | Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah. | Do You show Your wonders to the dead? Do their spirits rise up and praise You? |
| 11 | Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction? | Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave, or Your faithfulness in destruction? |
| 12 | Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? | Are Your wonders known in the place of darkness, or Your righteous deeds in the land of oblivion? |
| 13 | But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee. | But I cry to You for help, LORD; in the morning my prayer comes before You. |

14	LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?	Why, LORD, do You reject me and hide Your face from me?
15	I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.	From my youth I have suffered and been close to death; I have borne Your terrors and am in despair.
16	Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.	Your wrath has swept over me; Your terrors have destroyed me.
17	They came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together.	All day long they surround me like a flood; they have completely engulfed me.
18	Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.	You have taken from me friend and neighbor — darkness is my closest friend.

Psalm 89

Ethan celebrates God's covenant with David, praising His faithfulness and His sworn oath to establish David's throne forever. But the psalm turns to anguish as the psalmist confronts the apparent ruin of that covenant — the king is cast down, the crown defiled — and he cries out, asking how long the LORD will hide Himself.

| 1 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations. | I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever; with my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness to all generations. |
| 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens. | For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever; Your faithfulness You shall establish in the very heavens. |
| 3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, | You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant, |
| 4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah. | 'I will establish your line forever and make your throne firm through all generations.' " |
| 5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints. | The heavens praise Your wonders, LORD, Your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones. |
| 6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD? | For who in the skies above can compare with the LORD? Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings? |
| 7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. | In the council of the holy ones God is greatly feared; He is more awesome than all who surround Him. |
| 8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee? | O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like You? Or to Your faithfulness round about You? |
| 9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. | You rule over the surging sea; when its waves mount up, You still them. |
| 10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm. | You crushed Rahab like one of the slain; with Your strong arm You scattered Your enemies. |

- 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them. The heavens are Yours, and Yours also the earth; You founded the world and all that is in it.
- 12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name. You created the north and the south; Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at Your name.
- 13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand. Your arm is endowed with power; Your hand is strong, Your right hand exalted.
- 14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Justice and judgment are the habitation of Your throne; mercy and truth shall go before Your face.
- 15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance. Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
- 16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. They rejoice in Your name all day long; they celebrate Your righteousness.
- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted. For You are their glory and strength, and by Your favor You exalt our horn.
- 18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king. Indeed, our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.
- 19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Then You spoke in vision to Your holy one, and said, "I have laid help on one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him: I have found David my servant; with my sacred oil I have anointed him.

| 21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him. | My hand will sustain him; surely my arm will strengthen him. |
| 22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him. | The enemy will not get the better of him; the wicked will not oppress him. |
| 23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him. | I will crush his foes before him and strike down his adversaries. |
| 24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted. | But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn be exalted. |
| 25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. | I will set his hand over the sea, his right hand over the rivers. |
| 26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation. | He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, the Rock my Savior.' |
| 27 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. | I will appoint him to be my firstborn, the most exalted of the kings of the earth. |
| 28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. | My mercy I will keep for him forever, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. |
| 29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven. | I will establish his line forever, his throne as long as the heavens endure. |
| 30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; | If his sons forsake my law and do not follow my statutes, |
| 31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; | if they violate my decrees and fail to keep my commands, |
| 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. | I will punish their sin with the rod, their iniquity with flogging; |

- 33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. Nevertheless my lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him, nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
- 34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. I will not violate my covenant or alter what my lips have uttered.
- 35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness — and I will not lie to David —
- 36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me. that his line will continue forever and his throne endure before me like the sun;
- 37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah. it will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky."
- 38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. But you have cast off and abhorred; you have been angry with your anointed.
- 39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. You have renounced the covenant with your servant and have defiled his crown in the dust.
- 40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin. You have broken through all his walls and reduced his strongholds to ruins.
- 41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours. All who pass by have plundered him; he has become the scorn of his neighbors.
- 42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice. You have exalted the right hand of his foes; you have made all his enemies rejoice.
- 43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Indeed, you have turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.

Psalm 90

Moses meditates on God's eternity against the brevity of human life, noting that a thousand years are like a day in God's sight and man's years are but seventy or eighty. He prays that God would teach His people to number their days, satisfy them with mercy, and establish the work of their hands.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations. | Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. |
| 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. | Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God. |
| 3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. | You turn man to destruction, and say, "Return, you children of men." |
| 4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night. | A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. |
| 5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up. | Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death — they are like the new grass of the morning: |
| 6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. | In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered. |
| 7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. | We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation. |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance. | You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your countenance. |
| 9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told. | All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan. |
| 10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. | Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass. We fly away. |
| 11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. | If only we knew the power of your anger! Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due. |
| 12 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. | Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. |
| 13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants. | Relent, LORD! How long will it be? Have compassion on Your servants. |
| 14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. | O satisfy us early with Your mercy, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. |
| 15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil. | Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble. |
| 16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children. | May Your deeds be shown to Your servants, Your splendor to their children. |
| 17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it. | May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us — yes, establish the work of our hands. |

Psalm 91

The psalmist declares that whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will be protected from pestilence, terror, and every danger, with angels guarding their way. God Himself speaks the closing promise: because the faithful one has set his love on the LORD, He will deliver, honor, and satisfy him with long life.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. | Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. |
| 2 | I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. | I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." |
| 3 | Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. | Surely He will save You from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. |
| 4 | He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. | He will cover You with His feathers, and under His wings You will find refuge; His faithfulness will be Your shield and rampart. |
| 5 | Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; | You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, |

| 10 | There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. | no harm will overtake You, no disaster will come near Your tent. |
| 11 | For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. | For He will command His angels concerning You to guard You in all Your ways; |
| 12 | They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. | they will lift You up in their hands, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone. |
| 13 | Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. | You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent. |
| 14 | Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. | Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him; I will set him on high, because he has known my name. |
| 15 | He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. | He will call on me. I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. |
| 16 | With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation. | With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation." |

Psalm 92

The psalmist declares it good to praise the LORD with music, rejoicing in God's works and the downfall of the wicked. While evildoers spring up like grass only to be destroyed, the righteous flourish like palm trees and cedars, bearing fruit even in old age.

Psalm 93

The psalmist proclaims that the LORD reigns, robed in majesty and armed with strength, His throne established from all eternity. Mightier than the roaring seas, the LORD on high is supreme, and His statutes stand forever firm.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | The LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. | The LORD reigns, He is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength; indeed, the world is established, firm and secure. |
| 2 | Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. | Your throne was established long ago; You are from all eternity. |
| 3 | The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves. | The seas have lifted up, LORD, the seas have lifted up their voice; the seas have lifted up their pounding waves. |
| 4 | The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea. | Mightier than the thunder of the great waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea — the LORD on high is mighty. |
| 5 | Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever. | Your statutes, LORD, stand firm; holiness adorns Your house for endless days. |

Psalm 94

The psalmist calls on the God of vengeance to rise up against the wicked who crush His people, slay the widow, and murder the fatherless. He finds comfort in knowing that the LORD will not abandon His inheritance, and that God's discipline brings blessing while the wicked face certain destruction.

- | | |

| 1 O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself. | The LORD is a God Who avenges. O
God Who avenges, shine forth. |
| 2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth:
render a reward to the proud. | Rise up, Judge of the earth; pay back to the proud what they deserve. |
| 3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? | How long, LORD, will the wicked,
how long will the wicked be jubilant? |
| 4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? | They pour out arrogant words; all the evildoers are full of boasting. |
| 5 They break in pieces thy people, O
LORD, and afflict thine heritage. | They crush Your people, LORD; they oppress Your inheritance. |
| 6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. | They slay the widow and the foreigner;
they murder the fatherless. |
| 7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it. | They say, "The LORD does not see;
the God of Jacob takes no notice." |
| 8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise? | Take notice, You senseless ones among the people; you fools, when will you become wise? |
| 9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? | Does He who fashioned the ear not hear? Does he who formed the eye not see? |
| 10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? | Does He who disciplines nations not punish? Does he who teaches mankind lack knowledge? |

- 11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
- 12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law; Blessed is the one You discipline, LORD, the one You teach from Your law;
- 13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be dugged for the wicked. you grant them relief from days of trouble, till a pit is dug for the wicked.
- 14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. For the LORD will not reject His people; He will never forsake His inheritance.
- 15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. Judgment will again be founded on righteousness. All the upright in heart will follow it.
- 16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will take a stand for me against evildoers?
- 17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. Unless the LORD had given me help, I would soon have lived in the silence of death.
- 18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up. When I said, "My foot slips," Your mercy, O LORD, held me up.
- 19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul. When anxiety was great within me, Your consolation brought me joy.
- 20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? Can a corrupt throne be allied with You — a throne that brings on misery by its decrees?
- 21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. The wicked band together against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.
- 22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. But the LORD has become my fortress, and my God the rock in whom I take refuge.

- 23

And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.
- He will repay them for their sins and destroy them for their wickedness; the LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

The psalmist calls the people to sing joyfully to the LORD, their Maker and Shepherd, and to worship before Him with thanksgiving. He warns them not to harden their hearts as Israel did at Meribah and Massah, where God swore in His wrath that the rebellious generation would never enter His rest.

- 1

O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
- Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD; let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
- 2

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
- Let us come before Him with thanksgiving and extol Him with music and song.
- 3

For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
- For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods.
- 4

In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.
- In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him.

| 5 | The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land. | The sea is His, for He made it. His hands formed the dry land. |
| 6 | O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker. | Come, let us bow down in worship, let us kneel before the LORD our Maker; |
| 7 | For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice, | for He is our God and we are the people of his pasture, the flock under his care. Today, if only You would hear His voice, |

The psalmist calls all the earth to sing a new song to the LORD, declaring His glory among the nations and proclaiming that all other gods are mere idols. Creation itself — the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the trees of the forest — rejoices because the LORD comes to judge the world in righteousness.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 1 | O sing unto the LORD a new song:
sing unto the LORD, all the earth. | Sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth. |
| 2 | Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day. | Sing to the LORD, praise His name;
proclaim His salvation day after day. |
| 3 | Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people. | Declare His glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples. |
| 4 | For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods. | For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; He is to be feared above all gods. |
| 5 | For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens. | For all the gods of the nations are idols. But The LORD made the heavens. |
| 6 | Honour and majesty are before him:

of nations, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. |
| 8 | Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. | Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name; bring an offering and come into
His courts. |
| 9 | O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth. | Worship the LORD in the splendor of His holiness; tremble before Him, all the earth. |
| 10 | Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved:
he shall judge the people righteously. | Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns." The world is firmly established, it cannot be moved; He will judge the peoples with equity. |

- | | |

Psalm 100

A Psalm of praise.

The psalmist calls all the earth to shout for joy and worship the LORD with gladness, entering His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise. He declares that the LORD is good, His mercy everlasting, and His truth endures to all generations.

1	Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.	Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.
2	Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.	Worship the LORD with gladness; come before Him with joyful songs.
3	Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.	Know that the LORD is God. It is He who made us. We are his; we are his people, the sheep of His pasture.
4	Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.	Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name.
5	For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.	For the LORD is good; His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endures to all generations.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

The afflicted psalmist pours out his complaint, describing his days vanishing like smoke and his body wasting away in lonely grief. Yet he turns from his suffering to God's eternal throne, trusting that the LORD will rebuild Zion, appear in glory, and show compassion on a future generation.

| 1 | Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee. | Hear my prayer, LORD; let my cry for help come to You. |
| 2 | Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily. | Do not hide Your face from me when I am in distress. Turn Your ear to me; when I call, answer me quickly. |
| 3 | For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth. | For my days vanish like smoke; my bones burn like glowing embers. |
| 4 | My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread. | My heart is blighted and withered like grass; I forget to eat my food. |
| 5 | By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin. | In my distress I groan aloud and am reduced to skin and bones. |
| 6 | I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert. | I am like a desert owl, like an owl among the ruins. |

| 8 | Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me. | All day long my enemies taunt me; those who rail against me use my name as a curse. |
| 9 | For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping. | For I eat ashes as my food and mingle my drink with tears |

- 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down. because of Your great wrath, for You have taken me up and thrown me aside.
- 11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass. My days are like the evening shadow; I wither away like grass.
- 12 But thou, O LORD, shall endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations. But You, LORD, sit enthroned forever; Your renown endures through all generations.
- 13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come. You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favor to her; the appointed time has come.
- 14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof. For her stones are dear to Your servants; her very dust moves them to pity.
- 15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory. The nations will fear the name of the LORD, all the kings of the earth will revere Your glory.

| 23 He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days. | In the course of my life He broke my strength; He cut short my days. |
| 24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations. | So I said: "Do not take me away, my God, in the midst of my days; Your years go on through all generations. |
| 25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. | In the beginning You laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands. |
| 26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: | They will perish, but You remain; they will all wear out like a garment. Like clothing You will change them and they will be discarded. |
| 27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end. | But You remain the same, and Your years will never end. |
| 28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee. | The children of Your servants will live in Your presence; their descendants will be established before You." |

Psalm 103

A Psalm of David.

David calls his soul to bless the LORD, cataloging God's benefits — forgiveness, healing, redemption, lovingkindness, and the renewal of youth. He celebrates God's mercy, which is as high as the heavens, His compassion like a father's, and His covenant love that endures from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him.

| 1 | Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. | Praise the LORD, my soul; all my inmost being, praise His holy name. |
| 2 | Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: | Praise the LORD, my soul, and forget not all His benefits — |
| 3 | Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; | who forgives all Your sins and heals all Your diseases, |
| 4 | Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; | who redeems Your life from destruction, who crowns You with lovingkindness and tender mercies, |
| 5 | Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. | who satisfies Your desires with good things so that Your youth is renewed like the eagle's. |
| 6 | The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed. | The LORD works righteousness and justice for all the oppressed. |
| 7 | He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel. | He made known his ways to Moses, his deeds to the people of Israel. |
| 8 | The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. | The LORD is merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy. |
| 9 | He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever. | He will not always accuse, nor will He harbor His anger forever; |

- 10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.
- 11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. as far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
- 13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him. As a father has compassion on His children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him;
- 14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust. for He knows how we are formed, He remembers that we are dust.

Psalm 105

The psalmist recounts God's faithfulness to His covenant with Abraham, tracing His providential hand through the stories of Joseph, the plagues of Egypt, the exodus, and the wilderness provision. The purpose of all God's mighty works is that His people might keep His statutes and observe His laws.

| 1 | O give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people. | Give praise to the LORD, proclaim His name; make known among the nations what he has done. |
| 2 | Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works. | Sing to Him, sing praise to Him; tell of all His wonderful acts. |
| 3 | Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. | Glory in His holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice. |
| 4 | Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore. | Look to the LORD and His strength; seek His face always. |
| 5 | Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; | Remember the wonders He has done, His miracles, and the judgments He pronounced, |
| 6 | O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. | you his servants, the descendants of Abraham, his chosen ones, the children of Jacob. |
| 7 | He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth. | He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. | He remembers His covenant forever, the promise He made, for a thousand generations, |
| 9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; | the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac. |
| 10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: | He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant: |
| 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: | "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit." |
| 12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. | When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it, |
| 13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; | they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another. |
| 14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes; | He allowed no one to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings: |
| 15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. | Saying, "Touch not my anointed, and do my prophets no harm." |
| 16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread. | He called down famine on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food; |
| 17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: | he sent a man before them — Joseph, sold as a slave. |
| 18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: | They bruised his feet with shackles, his neck was put in irons, |
| 19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him. | till what He foretold came to pass, till the word of the LORD proved Him true. |
| 20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free. | The king sent and released him, the ruler of peoples set him free. |

- 21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance: He made him master of his household, ruler over all he possessed,
- 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom. to instruct his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.
- 23 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. Then Israel entered Egypt; Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.
- 24 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies. The LORD made His people very fruitful; He made them too numerous for their foes,
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants. whose hearts He turned to hate His people, to conspire against His servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
- 27 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. They performed his signs among them, his wonders in the land of Ham.
- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word. He sent darkness and made the land dark — for had they not rebelled against his words?
- 29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish. He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.
- 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings. Their land teemed with frogs, which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.
- 31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts. He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land. He turned their rain into hail, with lightning throughout their land;
- 33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts. he struck down their vines and fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.

- 34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number, He spoke, and the locusts came, grasshoppers without number;
- 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground. they ate up every green thing in their land, ate up the produce of their soil.
- 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength. Then he struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their manhood.
- 37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold, and from among their tribes no one faltered.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them. Egypt was glad when they left, because dread of Israel had fallen on them.
- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night. He spread out a cloud as a covering, and a fire to give light at night.
- 40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. They asked. He brought them quail; he fed them well with the bread of heaven.
- 41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed like a river in the desert.
- 42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham.
- 43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy;
- 44 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people; he gave them the lands of the nations. They fell heir to what others had toiled for —
- 45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD. that they might keep His precepts and observe His laws. Praise the LORD.

Psalm 106

The psalmist confesses Israel's long history of sin — from the Red Sea to the golden calf, from Baal-peor to the sacrifice of children to idols — showing a repeating cycle of rebellion, judgment, and God's merciful deliverance. Despite it all, God remembers His covenant and relents according to the multitude of His mercies.

|---|--|---|
| 1 | Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. | Praise the LORD. Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; His mercy endures forever. |
| 2 | Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise? | Who can proclaim the mighty acts of the LORD or fully declare His praise? |
| 3 | Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times. | Blessed are those who act justly, who always do what is right. |
| 4 | Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation; | Remember me, LORD, when You show favor to Your people; come to my aid when You save them, |
| 5 | That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance. | that I may enjoy the prosperity of Your chosen ones, that I may share in the joy of Your nation and join Your inheritance in giving praise. |

- 6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly. We have sinned with our fathers; we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedly.
- 7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. Our fathers did not understand Your wonders in Egypt; they did not remember the multitude of Your mercies; but provoked Him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
- 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. Yet He saved them for His name's sake, to make His mighty power known.
- 9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. He rebuked the Red Sea. It dried up; He led them through the depths as through a desert.
- 10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. He saved them from the hand of the foe; from the hand of the enemy he redeemed them.
- 11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left. The waters covered their adversaries; not one of them survived.
- 12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise. Then they believed His promises and sang His praise.
- 13 They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel: But they soon forgot what He had done and did not wait for His plan to unfold.
- 14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert. In the desert they gave in to their craving; in the wilderness they put God to the test.
- 15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. So He gave them what they asked for, but sent a wasting disease among them.
- 16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD. In the camp they grew envious of Moses and of Aaron, who was consecrated to the LORD.
- 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan; it buried the company of Abiram.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked. | Fire blazed among their followers; a flame consumed the wicked. |
| 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image. | At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped an idol cast from metal. |
| 20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. | They exchanged their glorious God for an image of a bull, which eats grass. |
| 21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt; | They forgot the God Who saved them, who had done great things in Egypt, |
| 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea. | miracles in the land of Ham and awesome deeds by the Red Sea. |
| 23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. | So he said he would destroy them — had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him to keep his wrath from destroying them. |
| 24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: | Then they despised the pleasant land; they did not believe his promise. |
| 25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD. | They grumbled in their tents and did not obey the LORD. |
| 26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness: | So He swore to them with uplifted hand that He would make them fall in the wilderness, |
| 27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. | make their descendants fall among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands. |
| 28 They joined themselves also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. | They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods; |
| 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. | they aroused the LORD's anger by their wicked deeds, and a plague broke out among them. |

- 30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was checked.
- 31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. This was credited to Him as righteousness for endless generations to come.
- 32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: By the waters of Meribah they angered the LORD, and trouble came to Moses because of them;
- 33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. for they rebelled against the Spirit of God, and rash words came from Moses' lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them: They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them,
- 35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.
- 36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. They worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.
- 37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to false gods.
- 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was desecrated by their blood.
- 39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. They defiled themselves by what they did; by their deeds they prostituted themselves.
- 40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. Therefore the LORD was angry with His people and abhorred His inheritance.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. | He gave them into the hands of the nations. Their foes ruled over them. |
| 42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. | Their enemies oppressed them and subjected them to their power. |
| 43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. | Many times He delivered them, but they provoked Him with their counsel and were brought low for their iniquity. |
| 44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: | Yet He took note of their distress when He heard their cry; |
| 45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. | And He remembered for them His covenant, and relented according to the multitude of His mercies. |
| 46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives. | He caused all who held them captive to show them mercy. |
| 47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise. | Save us, LORD our God, and gather us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in Your praise. |
| 48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD. | Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Let all the people say, "Amen!" Praise the LORD. |

The psalmist calls the redeemed to give thanks, recounting four portraits of human distress — wanderers in the desert, prisoners in darkness, fools near death, and sailors in a storm — each delivered by crying out to the LORD. The refrain repeats: let them praise the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. | Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; His mercy endures forever. |
| 2 | Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; | Let the redeemed of the LORD tell their story — those He redeemed from the hand of the enemy, |
| 3 | And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. | those He gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south. |
| 4 | They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. | Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no way to a city where they could settle. |
| 5 | Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. | They were hungry and thirsty, and their lives ebbed away. |
| 6 | Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. | Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and He delivered them from their distress. |
| 7 | And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. | He led them by a straight way to a city where they could settle. |
| 8 | Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! | Let them give thanks to the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind, |

- 9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness. for He satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.
- 10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; Some sat in darkness and deep shadow, prisoners suffering in iron chains,
- 11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High: because they had rebelled against God's commands and despised the counsel of the Most High.
- 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help. So He subjected them to bitter labor; they stumbled and there was no one to help.
- 13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses. Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them from their distress.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder. He brought them out of darkness and deep shadow and broke away their chains.
- 15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Let them give thanks to the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind,
- 16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder. for He breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron.
- 17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted. Some became fools through their rebellious ways and suffered affliction because of their iniquities.
- 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death. They loathed all food and drew near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses. Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and He saved them from their distress.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. | He sent out His word and healed them;
He rescued them from the grave. |
| 21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! | Let them give thanks to the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind. |
| 22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. | Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and tell of His works with songs of joy. |
| 23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters; | Some went out on the sea in ships; they were merchants on the mighty waters. |
| 24 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep. | They saw the works of the LORD, His wonderful deeds in the deep. |
| 25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof. | For He spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves. |
| 26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble. | They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths; in their peril their courage melted away. |
| 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end. | They reeled and staggered like drunkards; they were at their wits' end. |
| 28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses. | Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and He brought them out of their distress. |
| 29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. | He stilled the storm to a whisper; the waves of the sea were hushed. |
| 30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven. | They were glad when it grew calm, and He guided them to their desired haven. |

- 31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! Let them give thanks to the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind.
- 32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. Let them exalt Him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.
- 33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground; He turns rivers into a desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground,
- 34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. and fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who live there.
- 35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings. He turns the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs;
- 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation; there He brings the hungry to live, and they found a city where they could settle.
- 37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase. They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
- 38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease. He blesses them and their numbers grow greatly, and He does not let their herds diminish.
- 39 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow. Then their numbers decreased and they were humbled by oppression, calamity, and sorrow;
- 40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. he who pours contempt on nobles made them wander in a trackless waste.
- 41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock. But He lifted the needy out of their affliction and made their families like flocks of sheep.

- 42

The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

The upright see and rejoice, while all the wicked shut their mouths.
- 43

Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Whoever is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A Song or Psalm of David.

■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — The shepherd-king of Israel, youngest son of Jesse, anointed by Samuel, slayer of Goliath, and Israel's greatest king. God made an everlasting covenant with David that his throne would endure forever — fulfilled in Jesus Christ, "the son of David" (Matt 1:1). David is credited with writing roughly half the Psalms.

David praises God with a fixed heart, declaring God's mercy above the heavens and His sovereignty over all the lands of Israel and its neighbors. He asks God for help in battle, knowing that with God they will gain the victory, for the help of man is worthless.

- 1

O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
- 2

Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

Psalm 109

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

David cries out against enemies who repay his love with hatred and his friendship with lies, calling down detailed curses on the one who persecuted the poor and brokenhearted. He then turns to God for deliverance, declaring his own poverty and trusting that the LORD stands at the right hand of the needy.

| 17 | As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. | He loved to curse — may it come back on Him. He found no pleasure in blessing — may it be far from Him. |

- 18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. He wore cursing as His garment; it entered His body like water, like oil into His bones.
- 19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually. May it be like a cloak wrapped about Him, like a belt tied forever around Him.
- 20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul. May this be the LORD's payment to my accusers, to those who speak evil against me.
- 21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me. But do for me, O GOD the Lord, for Your name's sake; because Your mercy is good, deliver me.
- 22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
- 23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth; I am tossed up and down as the locust. I fade away like an evening shadow; I am shaken off like a locust.
- 24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness. My knees give way from fasting; my body is thin and gaunt.
- 25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shook their head. I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they shake their heads.
- 26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy: Help me, LORD my God; save me according to Your mercy.
- 27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it. Let them know that it is Your hand, that You, LORD, have done it.
- 28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice. While they curse, may You bless; may those who attack me be put to shame, but may Your servant rejoice.
- 29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. May my accusers be clothed with disgrace and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.

- 30

I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

With my mouth I will greatly praise the LORD; in the midst of the crowd I will praise Him.
- 31

For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

For He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save their lives from those who would condemn them.

Psalm 110

A Psalm of David.

The LORD speaks to David's Lord, commanding Him to sit at His right hand until His enemies are made His footstool, and swearing an irrevocable oath that He is a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. This is the most-quoted psalm in the New Testament, pointing directly to Christ as both King and eternal Priest.

- 1

The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

The LORD says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."
- 2

The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

The LORD will extend Your mighty scepter from Zion, saying, "Rule in the midst of Your enemies!"

| 4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. | The LORD has sworn and will not change His mind: "You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek." |

■ NAME NOTE — Melchizedek (mel-KIZ-eh-dek) — "king of righteousness" — The mysterious king of Salem and priest of the Most High God who blessed Abraham (Gen 14:18–20). He appears without genealogy, without record of birth or death, and is used in Hebrews 5–7 as a type of Christ — who is both King and Priest forever.

Psalm 114

The psalmist celebrates the exodus in vivid poetic imagery: the sea fled, the Jordan turned back, the mountains skipped like rams, and the hills like lambs. All creation trembles at the presence of the God of Jacob, who turns rock into pools of water.

1	When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;	When Israel came out of Egypt, Jacob from a people of foreign tongue,
2	Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.	Judah became God's sanctuary, Israel His domain.
3	The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.	The sea looked and fled, the Jordan turned back;
4	The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.	the mountains leaped like rams, the hills like lambs.
5	What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?	Why was it, sea, that you fled? Why, Jordan, did you turn back?
6	Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?	Why, mountains, did you leap like rams, you hills, like lambs?
7	Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob;	Tremble, earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob,
8	Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.	who turned the rock into a pool, the hard rock into springs of water.

Psalm 115

The psalmist contrasts the living God in heaven, who does whatever He pleases, with the lifeless idols of the nations — silver and gold that cannot see, hear, or speak. He calls Israel, the house of Aaron, and all who fear the LORD to trust in Him as their help and shield.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake. | Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to Your name give glory, for Your mercy, and for Your truth's sake. |
| 2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God? | Why do the nations say, "Where is their God?" |
| 3 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased. | Our God is in heaven; He does whatever pleases Him. |
| 4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. | Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. |
| 5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: | They have mouths, but cannot speak; eyes, but cannot see. |
| 6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: | They have ears, but cannot hear; noses, but cannot smell. |
| 7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. | They have hands, but cannot feel; feet, but cannot walk; nor can they utter a sound with their throats. |
| 8 They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them. | Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them. |
| 9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield. | All You Israelites, trust in the LORD — He is their help and shield. |
| 10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield. | House of Aaron, trust in the LORD — He is their help and shield. |
| 11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield. | You who fear Him, trust in the LORD — He is their help and shield. |
| 12 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron. | The LORD remembers us and will bless us: He will bless His people Israel, He will bless the house of Aaron, |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great. | he will bless those who fear the LORD — small and great alike. |
| 14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children. | May the LORD cause You to flourish, both You and Your children. |
| 15 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth. | May You be blessed by the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. |
| 16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men. | The highest heavens belong to the LORD, but the earth He has given to mankind. |
| 17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence. | It is not the dead who praise the LORD, those who go down to the place of silence; |
| 18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD. | it is we who extol the LORD, both now and forevermore. Praise the LORD. |

Psalm 116

The psalmist declares his love for the LORD who heard his cry when the cords of death entangled him and delivered his soul from death, his eyes from tears, and his feet from stumbling. He asks what he can render to the LORD for all His benefits, and answers by lifting the cup of salvation and paying his vows in the presence of all God's people.

- | | | |

| 1 | I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications. | I love the LORD, for He heard my voice; He heard my cry for mercy. |
| 2 | Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live. | Because He turned His ear to me, I will call on Him as long as I live. |
| 3 | The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow. | The cords of death entangled me, the anguish of hell came over me; I was overcome by distress and sorrow. |
| 4 | Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul. | Then I called on the name of the LORD: "LORD, save me!" |
| 5 | Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful. | The LORD is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion. |
| 6 | The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me. | The LORD protects the unwary; when I was brought low, He saved me. |
| 7 | Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee. | Return to Your rest, my soul, for the LORD has been good to You. |
| 8 | For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. | For You, LORD, have delivered me from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling, |
| 9 | I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living. | that I may walk before the LORD in the land of the living. |
| 10 | I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted: | I trusted in the LORD when I said, "I am greatly afflicted"; |
| 11 | I said in my haste, All men are liars. | in my alarm I said, "Everyone is a liar." |
| 12 | What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me? | What shall I return to the LORD for all His goodness to me? |
| 13 | I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD. | I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD. |
| 14 | I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people. | I will fulfill my vows to the LORD in the presence of all His people. |

Psalm 119

The longest chapter in the Bible is an acrostic poem of 176 verses divided into twenty-two sections, one for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, with every verse in each section beginning with that letter. The psalmist pours out sustained devotion to God's word — His law, statutes, precepts, commandments, and testimonies — pleading for understanding, delighting in obedience, and finding light, comfort, and life in Scripture through every trial.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD. | Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to the law of the LORD. |
| 2 | Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart. | Blessed are those who keep His statutes and seek Him with all their heart — |
| 3 | They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways. | they do no wrong but follow His ways. |
| 4 | Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently. | You have laid down precepts that are to be fully obeyed. |
| 5 | O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes! | O that my ways were directed to keep
Your statutes! |
| 6 | Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments. | Then I would not be put to shame
when I consider all Your commands. |
| 7 | I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments. | I will praise You with an upright heart
as I learn Your righteous laws. |
| 8 | I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly. | I will obey Your decrees; do not utterly forsake me. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 9 | Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. | How can a young person stay on the path of purity? By living according to Your word. |
| 10 | With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments. | I seek You with all my heart; do not let me stray from Your commands. |
| 11 | Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. | I have hidden Your word in my heart that I might not sin against You. |
| 12 | Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes. | Praise be to You, LORD; teach me Your decrees. |
| 13 | With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth. | With my lips I recount all the laws that come from Your mouth. |
| 14 | I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches. | I rejoice in following Your statutes as one rejoices in great riches. |
| 15 | I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. | I meditate on Your precepts and consider Your ways. |
| 16 | I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. | I delight in Your decrees; I will not neglect Your word. |
| 17 | Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word. | Be good to Your servant while I live, that I may obey Your word. |
| 18 | Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. | Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in Your law. |
| 19 | I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me. | I am a stranger on earth; do not hide Your commands from me. |
| 20 | My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times. | My soul is consumed with longing for Your laws at all times. |
| 21 | Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments. | You rebuke the arrogant, who are accursed, those who stray from Your commands. |
| 22 | Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies. | Remove from me their scorn and contempt, for I keep Your statutes. |

- 23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes. Though rulers sit together and slander me, Your servant will meditate on Your decrees.
- 24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counsellors. Your statutes are my delight; they are my counselors.
- 25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word. I am laid low in the dust; preserve my life according to Your word.
- 26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes. I gave an account of my ways and You answered me; teach me Your decrees.
- 27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works. Cause me to understand the way of Your precepts, that I may meditate on Your wonderful deeds.
- 28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word. My soul is weary with sorrow; strengthen me according to Your word.
- 29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously. Keep me from deceitful ways; be gracious to me and teach me Your law.
- 30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me. I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I have set my heart on Your laws.
- 31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame. I hold fast to Your statutes, LORD; do not let me be put to shame.
- 32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. I run in the path of Your commands, for You have broadened my understanding.
- 33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Teach me, LORD, the way of Your decrees, that I may follow it to the end.
- 34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Give me understanding, so that I may keep Your law and obey it with all my heart.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 35 | Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. | Direct me in the path of Your commands, for there I find delight. |
| 36 | Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. | Turn my heart toward Your statutes and not toward selfish gain. |
| 37 | Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way. | Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to Your word. |
| 38 | Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear. | Fulfill Your promise to Your servant, so that You may be feared. |
| 39 | Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good. | Take away the disgrace I dread, for Your laws are good. |
| 40 | Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness. | How I long for Your precepts! In Your righteousness preserve my life. |
| 41 | Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word. | Let Your mercies come also to me, O LORD, even Your salvation, according to Your word. |
| 42 | So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word. | then I can answer anyone who taunts me, for I trust in your word. |
| 43 | And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments. | Never take Your word of truth from my mouth, for I have put my hope in Your laws. |
| 44 | So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever. | I will always obey Your law, for ever and ever. |
| 45 | And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. | I will walk about in freedom, for I have sought out Your precepts. |
| 46 | I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. | I will speak of Your statutes before kings and will not be put to shame, |
| 47 | And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. | for I delight in Your commands because I love them. |

- 48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. I reach out for Your commands, which I love, and I meditate on Your decrees.
- 49 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope. Remember Your word to Your servant, for You have given me hope.
- 50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me. My comfort in my suffering is this: Your promise preserves my life.
- 51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law. The arrogant mock me without restraint, but I do not turn from Your law.
- 52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD; and have comforted myself. I remember, LORD, Your ancient laws, and I find comfort in them.
- 53 Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law. Indignation grips me because of the wicked, who have forsaken your law.
- 54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. Your decrees are the theme of my song wherever I lodge.
- 55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law. In the night, LORD, I remember Your name, that I may keep Your law.
- 56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts. This has been my practice: I obey Your precepts.
- 57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words. You are my portion, LORD; I have promised to obey Your words.
- 58 I intreated thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word. I have sought Your face with all my heart; be gracious to me according to Your promise.
- 59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. I have considered my ways and have turned my steps to Your statutes.
- 60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. I will hasten and not delay to obey Your commands.

- 61 The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law. Though the wicked bind me with ropes, I will not forget your law.
- 62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments. At midnight I rise to give you thanks for your righteous laws.
- 63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts. I am a friend to all who fear you, to all who follow your precepts.
- 64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes. The earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy; teach me Your statutes.
- 65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word. Do good to Your servant, LORD, according to Your word.
- 66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments. Teach me knowledge and good judgment, for I trust Your commands.
- 67 Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I obey Your word.
- 68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes. You are good, and what You do is good; teach me Your decrees.
- 69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. Though the arrogant have smeared me with lies, I keep Your precepts with all my heart.
- 70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law. Their hearts are callous and unfeeling, but I delight in Your law.
- 71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. It was good for me to be afflicted so that I might learn Your decrees.
- 72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. The law from Your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of silver and gold.
- 73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. Your hands made me and formed me; give me understanding to learn Your commands.

- 74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word. May those who fear You rejoice when they see me, for I have put my hope in Your word.
- 75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. I know, LORD, that Your laws are righteous, and that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.
- 76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant. Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant.
- 77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight. Let Your compassion come to me that I may live, for Your law is my delight.
- 78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts. May the arrogant be put to shame for wronging me without cause; but I will meditate on Your precepts.
- 79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies. May those who fear You turn to me, those who understand Your statutes.
- 80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed. May I wholeheartedly follow Your decrees, that I may not be put to shame.
- 81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word. My soul faints with longing for Your salvation, but I have put my hope in Your word.
- 82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me? My eyes fail, looking for Your promise; I say, "When will You comfort me?"
- 83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes. Though I am like a wineskin in the smoke, I do not forget Your decrees.
- 84 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? How long must Your servant wait? When will You punish my persecutors?

- 85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law. The arrogant dig pits for me, contrary to Your law.
- 86 *All thy commandments are faithful:
they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.* All Your commands are trustworthy; help me, for I am being persecuted without cause.
- 87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts. They almost wiped me from the earth, but I have not forsaken Your precepts.
- 88 *Quicken me after thy lovingkindness;
so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.* Quicken me according to Your lovingkindness, so I shall keep the testimony of Your mouth.
- 89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven. Your word, LORD, is eternal; it stands firm in the heavens.
- 90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. Your faithfulness continues through all generations; You established the earth, and it endures.
- 91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants. Your laws endure to this day, for all things serve You.
- 92 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction. If Your law had not been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
- 93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me. I will never forget Your precepts, for by them You have preserved my life.
- 94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts. Save me, for I am Yours; I have sought out Your precepts.
- 95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies. The wicked are waiting to destroy me, but I will ponder your statutes.
- 96 *I have seen an end of all perfection:
but thy commandment is exceeding broad.* To all perfection I see a limit, but your commands are boundless.
- 97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Oh, how I love your law! I meditate on it all day long.

- 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. Your commands are always with me and make me wiser than my enemies.
- 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. I have more insight than all my teachers, for I meditate on your statutes.
- 10 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts. I have more understanding than the elders, for I obey your precepts.
- 10 I have refrained my feet from every evil way; that I might keep thy word. I have kept my feet from every evil path so that I might obey your word.
- 10 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me. I have not departed from your laws, for you yourself have taught me.
- 10 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth! How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
- 10 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. I gain understanding from your precepts; therefore I hate every wrong path.
- 10 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.
- 10 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments. I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws.
- 10 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word. I have suffered much; preserve my life, LORD, according to Your word.
- 10 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments. Accept, LORD, the willing praise of my mouth, and teach me Your laws.
- 10 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law. Though I constantly take my life in my hands, I will not forget Your law.
- 11 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts. The wicked have set a snare for me, but I have not strayed from your precepts.

Psalm 120

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist cries to the LORD in distress over lying tongues and deceitful lips, lamenting that he lives among those who hate peace. He has dwelt too long among hostile strangers, and when he speaks peace, they want war.

1	In my distress I cried unto the LORD,	I call on the LORD in my distress, and
	and he heard me.	He answers me.
2	Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying	Save me, LORD, from lying lips and
	lips, and from a deceitful tongue.	from deceitful tongues.
3	What shall be given unto thee? or	What will He do to You, and what
	what shall be done unto thee, thou	more besides, You deceitful tongue?
	false tongue?
4	Sharp arrows of the mighty, with	He will punish You with a warrior's
	coals of juniper.	sharp arrows, with burning coals of the broom bush.

5	Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!	Woe to me that I stay in Meshech, that I live among the tents of Kedar!
6	My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.	Too long have I lived among those who hate peace.
7	I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.	I am for peace; but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist lifts his eyes to the hills and asks where his help comes from, answering that it comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. The LORD neither slumbers nor sleeps but watches over His people, shading them by day and guarding them by night, preserving their going out and coming in forevermore.

1	I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.	I lift up my eyes to the mountains — where does my help come from?
2	My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.	My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.
3	He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.	He will not let Your foot slip — he who watches over you will not slumber;
4	Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.	indeed, He who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
5	The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.	The LORD watches over You — the LORD is Your shade at Your right hand;

6	The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.	the sun will not harm You by day, nor the moon by night.
7	The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.	The LORD will keep You from all harm — He will watch over Your life;
8	The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.	the LORD will watch over Your coming and going both now and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of degrees, of David.

David rejoices at the call to go to the house of the LORD, celebrating Jerusalem as the city where the tribes go up to give thanks and where the thrones of judgment stand. He prays for the peace of Jerusalem, asking prosperity for those who love her.

1	I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.	I rejoiced with those who said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD."
2	Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.	Our feet are standing in Your gates, Jerusalem.
3	Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:	Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.
4	Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.	That is where the tribes go up — the tribes of the LORD — to praise the name of the LORD according to the statute given to Israel.

5	For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.	There stand the thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.
6	Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.	Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who love you be secure.
7	Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.	May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels."
8	For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.	For the sake of my family and friends, I will say, "Peace be within you."
9	Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.	For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek Your prosperity.

Psalm 123

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist lifts his eyes to God who is enthroned in heaven, comparing himself to a servant watching the hand of his master, waiting for mercy. He pleads for the LORD's compassion because his soul is full of the contempt and scorn of the proud.

1	Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.	To You I lift up my eyes, O You who dwell in the heavens.

| 2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us. | As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a female servant look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till He shows us His mercy. |
| 3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. | Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us, for we have endured no end of contempt. |
| 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud. | We have endured no end of ridicule from the arrogant, of contempt from the proud. |

Psalm 124

A Song of degrees, of David.

David declares that if the LORD had not been on Israel's side, their enemies would have swallowed them alive and the flood would have swept them away. He blesses the LORD who did not give them over as prey, affirming that their help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist declares that those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever, surrounded by the LORD as the mountains surround Jerusalem. He prays for peace on Israel and affirms that the scepter of the wicked will not rest on the land allotted to the righteous.

1	They that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.	Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever.
2	As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.	As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds His people both now and forevermore.

- 3

For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

The scepter of the wicked will not remain over the land allotted to the righteous, for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil.
- 4

Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

LORD, do good to those who are good, to those who are upright in heart.
- 5

As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

But those who turn to crooked ways the LORD will banish with the evildoers. Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist recalls the joy of the LORD's restoration of Zion, when the captives returned with laughter and singing so great that even the nations said the LORD had done great things. He prays for further restoration, declaring that those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

- 1

When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dreamed.
- 2

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."

3	The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.	The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.
4	Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.	Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.
5	They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.	Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.
6	He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.	Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them.

Psalm 127

A Song of degrees, for Solomon.

Solomon declares that unless the LORD builds the house and watches over the city, the builders and watchmen labor in vain. Children are a heritage from the LORD, and the man whose quiver is full of them is blessed.

1	Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.	Unless the LORD builds the house, the builders labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the guards stand watch in vain.
2	It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.	In vain You rise early and stay up late, toiling for food to eat — for He grants sleep to those He loves.

3	Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.	Children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward from Him.
4	As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.	Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth.
5	Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.	Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their opponents in court.

Psalm 128

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist pronounces blessings on the man who fears the LORD and walks in His ways: he will eat the fruit of his labor, his wife will be like a fruitful vine, and his children like olive shoots around his table. He prays that this man would see the prosperity of Jerusalem and peace upon Israel all the days of his life.

1	Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.	Blessed are all who fear the LORD, Who walk in obedience to Him.
2	For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands; happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.	You will eat the fruit of Your labor; blessings and prosperity will be Yours.
3	Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.	Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within Your house; Your children will be like olive shoots around Your table.
4	Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.	Yes, this will be the blessing for the man who fears the LORD.

5	The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.	May the LORD bless You from Zion; may You see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of Your life.
6	Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.	May You live to see Your children's children — peace be on Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist recalls how Israel has been greatly oppressed from its youth, yet its enemies have not prevailed against it. He prays that all who hate Zion will be put to shame and wither like grass on a rooftop that dries before it grows.

1	Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:	"They have greatly oppressed me from my youth" — let Israel say —

Psalm 130

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist cries to the LORD from the depths, pleading for a hearing and confessing that if God kept a record of sins, no one could stand. He places his hope in the LORD's word, waiting for Him more than watchmen wait for the morning, and calls Israel to hope in the LORD's plenteous redemption.

1	Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.	Out of the depths I cry to You, LORD;
2	Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.	Lord, hear my voice. Let Your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.
3	If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?	If You, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?
4	But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.	But with You there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve You.
5	I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.	I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in His word I put my hope.

6	My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.	I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.
7	Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.	Israel, put Your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is mercy and with Him is full redemption.
8	And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.	He Himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of degrees, of David.

David declares that his heart is not proud nor his eyes haughty, and he does not concern himself with great matters beyond him. He has calmed and quieted his soul like a weaned child with its mother, and he calls Israel to hope in the LORD forevermore.

1	LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.	My heart is not proud, LORD, my eyes are not haughty; I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.
2	Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.	But I have calmed and quieted myself, I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content.

3	Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.	Israel, put Your hope in the LORD both now and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist recalls David's oath to find a dwelling place for the LORD and pleads with God to remember David's hardships and faithfulness. God in turn swears an oath to David that his descendants will sit on his throne forever, and that He has chosen Zion as His resting place, where He will bless the faithful and clothe the priests with salvation.

Psalm 135

The psalmist calls the servants of the LORD to praise His name, declaring that He does whatever pleases Him in heaven and on earth, in the seas and in the depths. He recounts God's mighty acts in Egypt and against the kings of Canaan, and contrasts the living God with the lifeless idols of the nations.

1	Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.	Praise the LORD. Praise the name of the LORD; praise Him, You servants of the LORD,
2	Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God,	You who minister in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.

|----|---|---|
| 3 | Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant. | Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing praise to His name, for that is pleasant. |
| 4 | For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure. | For the LORD has chosen Jacob to be his own, Israel to be his treasured possession. |
| 5 | For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods. | I know that the LORD is great, that our Lord is greater than all gods. |
| 6 | Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places. | The LORD does whatever pleases Him, in the heavens and on the earth, in the seas and all their depths. |
| 7 | He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures. | He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth; He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses. |
| 8 | Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast. | He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, the firstborn of people and animals. |
| 9 | Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants. | He sent his signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants. |
| 10 | Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings; | He struck down many nations and killed mighty kings — |
| 11 | Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan: | Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan, and all the kings of Canaan — |
| 12 | And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people. | and he gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to his people Israel. |
| 13 | Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations. | Your name, LORD, endures forever; Your renown, LORD, through all generations. |
| 14 | For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants. | For the LORD will vindicate His people and have compassion on His servants. |

| 15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. | The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. |
| 16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; | They have mouths, but cannot speak; eyes, but cannot see. |
| 17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths. | They have ears, but cannot hear; nor is there breath in their mouths. |
| 18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them. | Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them. |
| 19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron: | All You Israelites, praise the LORD; house of Aaron, praise the LORD; |
| 20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD. | house of Levi, praise the LORD; You who fear Him, praise the LORD. |
| 21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD. | Praise be to the LORD from Zion, to Him who dwells in Jerusalem. Praise the LORD. |

Psalm 137

The exiles weep by the rivers of Babylon, unable to sing the songs of Zion in a foreign land while their captors taunt them for a song. The psalmist vows never to forget Jerusalem and pronounces a fierce blessing on the one who repays Babylon for what she did to Israel.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion. | By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion. |
| 2 | We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof. | There on the poplars we hung our harps, |
| 3 | For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. | for there our captors asked us for songs, our tormentors demanded songs of joy; they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!" |
| 4 | How shall we sing the LORD'S song in a strange land? | How can we sing the songs of the LORD while in a foreign land? |
| 5 | If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. | If I forget You, Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill. |

6	If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.	May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember You, if I do not consider Jerusalem my highest joy.
7	Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.	Remember, LORD, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. "Tear it down," they cried, "tear it down to its foundations!"
8	O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.	O daughter of Babylon, who are to be destroyed, happy shall He be who rewards you as you have served us.
9	Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.	Blessed is the one who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

Psalm 138

A Psalm of David.

David praises the LORD with his whole heart before the gods, giving thanks for His lovingkindness and truth, declaring that God has magnified His word above all His name. Psalm 139

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

David marvels at God's complete knowledge of him — every thought, every word, every movement known before it happens — and at God's inescapable presence in the heights of heaven, the depths of hell, and the farthest sea. He praises the LORD for forming him in his mother's womb, and asks God to search his heart and lead him in the everlasting way.

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 1 | O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. | You have searched me, LORD, and You know me. |
| 2 | Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. | You know when I sit and when I rise; You perceive my thoughts from far away. |
| 3 | Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways. | You discern my going out and my lying down; You are familiar with all my ways. |
| 4 | For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether. | Before a word is on my tongue You, LORD, know it completely. |
| 5 | Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me. | You hem me in behind and before, and You lay Your hand upon me. |
| 6 | Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. | Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. |
| 7 | Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? | Where can I go from Your Spirit? Where can I flee from Your presence? |
| 8 | If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there. | If I go up to the heavens, You are there; if I make my bed in hell, You are there. |

| 11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me. | If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me," |
| 12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. | even the darkness will not be dark to You; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to You. |
| 13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. | For You created my inmost being; You knit me together in my mother's womb. |
| 14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. | I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Your works are wonderful, I know that full well. |
| 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. | My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. |
| 16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. | Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in Your book before one of them came to be. |
| 17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! | How precious to me are Your thoughts, God! How vast is the sum of them! |
| 18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee. | Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand — when I awake, I am still with You. |
| 19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men. | If only You, God, would slay the wicked! Away from me, you who are bloodthirsty! |

- | | | |

| 20 | For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain. | They speak of you with evil intent; your adversaries misuse your name. |
| 21 | Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? | Do I not hate those who hate You, LORD, and abhor those who are in rebellion against You? |
| 22 | I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies. | I have nothing but hatred for them; I count them my enemies. |
| 23 | Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: | Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. |
| 24 | And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. | See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. |

Psalm 140

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

David pleads with the LORD to rescue him from violent and evil men who sharpen their tongues like serpents and plot his downfall. He trusts that the LORD upholds the cause of the afflicted and the rights of the poor, and prays that the mischief of the wicked falls back on their own heads.

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 1 | Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man; preserve me from the violent man; | Rescue me, LORD, from evildoers; protect me from the violent, |
| 2 | Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war. | who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day. |
| 3 | They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. | They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent's; the poison of vipers is on their lips. |
| 4 | Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings. | Keep me safe, LORD, from the hands of the wicked; protect me from the violent, who devise ways to trip my feet. |
| 5 | The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah. | The arrogant have hidden a snare for me; they have spread out the cords of their net and set traps for me along my path. |
| 6 | I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD. | I say to the LORD, "You are my God." Hear, LORD, my cry for mercy. |
| 7 | O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. | O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle. |
| 8 | Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah. | Do not grant the wicked their desires, LORD; do not let their plans succeed, or they will become proud. |
| 9 | As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. | May the heads of those who surround me be covered with the trouble their lips have caused. |
| 10 | Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again. | May burning coals fall on them; may they be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, never to rise. |

11	Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.	May slanderers not be established in the land; may disaster hunt down the violent.
12	I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.	I know that the LORD secures justice for the poor and upholds the cause of the needy.
13	Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.	Surely the righteous will praise your name, and the upright will live in Your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm of David.

David prays that his words and worship would rise before God like incense, asking the LORD to set a guard over his mouth and keep his heart from evil. He would rather be rebuked by the righteous than anointed by the wicked, and he looks to the LORD alone as his refuge.

1	LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.	I call to You, LORD, come quickly to me; hear me when I call to You.
2	Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.	May my prayer be set before You like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

| 3 | Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips. | Set a guard over my mouth, LORD; keep watch over the door of my lips. |
| 4 | Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties. | Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil so that I take part in wicked deeds along with those who are evildoers; do not let me eat their delicacies. |
| 5 | Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities. | Let a righteous man strike me — that is a kindness; let Him rebuke me — that is oil on my head. My head will not refuse it, for my prayer will still be against the deeds of evildoers. |
| 6 | When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. | Their rulers will be thrown down from the cliffs, and the wicked will learn that my words were well spoken. |
| 7 | Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth. | They will say, "As one plows and breaks up the earth, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the grave." |
| 8 | But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute. | But my eyes are to You, O GOD the Lord; in You is my trust; leave not my soul destitute. |
| 9 | Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity. | Keep me safe from the traps set by evildoers, from the snares they have laid for me. |
| 10 | Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape. | Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety. |

Psalm 142

Maschil of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave.

David, praying from a cave, pours out his complaint before the LORD, declaring that no one cares for his soul and there is no refuge left. He cries out to God as his only portion in the land of the living, trusting that the LORD will deal bountifully with him.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | I cried unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication. | I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy. |
| 2 | I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble. | I pour out before Him my complaint; before Him I tell my trouble. |
| 3 | When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me. | When my spirit grows faint within me, it is You who watch over my way. In the path where I walk people have hidden a snare for me. |
| 4 | I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul. | Look and see, there is no one at my right hand; no one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no one cares for my life. |
| 5 | I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. | I cry to You, LORD; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living." |
| 6 | Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. | Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need; rescue me from those who pursue me, for they are too strong for me. |
| 7 | Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me. | Set me free from my prison, that I may praise Your name. Then the righteous will gather about me because of your goodness to me. |

A Psalm of David.

David pleads with the LORD to hear his prayer and not enter into judgment with him, for no living person is righteous before God. Crushed by enemies and overwhelmed in spirit, he remembers God's past works, stretches out his hands, and asks to be taught God's will and led on level ground.

Psalm 144

A Psalm of David.

David blesses the LORD as his Rock who trains his hands for war, his fortress and deliverer, and he marvels that God pays attention to mortal man who is like a breath. He asks God to part the heavens and come down, to rescue him from enemies, and prays for a blessed nation whose God is the LORD.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Blessed be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight: | Praise be to the LORD my Rock, who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle. |
| 2 | My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me. | He is my loving God and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me. |
| 3 | LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him! | LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of Him? Or the son of man, that You make account of Him? |
| 4 | Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away. | They are like a breath; their days are like a fleeting shadow. |
| 5 | Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. | Part Your heavens, LORD, and come down; touch the mountains, so that they smoke. |
| 6 | Send thine lightnings, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them. | Send forth lightning and scatter the enemy; shoot your arrows and rout
them. |
| 7 | Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children; | Reach down Your hand from on high; deliver me and rescue me from the mighty waters, from the hands of foreigners |
| 8 | Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. | whose mouths are full of lies, whose right hands are deceitful. |

| 9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee. 10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword. 11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood: 12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace: 13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets: 14 That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets. 15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD. | I will sing a new song to You, my God; on the ten-stringed lyre I will make music to You, to the One who gives victory to kings, who delivers his servant David. From the deadly sword deliver me; rescue me from the hands of foreigners whose mouths are full of lies, whose right hands are deceitful. Then our sons in their youth will be like well-nurtured plants, and our daughters will be like pillars carved to adorn a palace. Our barns will be filled with every kind of provision. Our sheep will increase by thousands, by tens of thousands in our fields; our oxen will draw heavy loads. There will be no breaching of walls, no going into captivity, no cry of distress in our streets. Blessed is the people of whom this is true; blessed is the people whose God is the LORD. |

Psalm 145

David's Psalm of praise.

David exalts the LORD as King, declaring His greatness unsearchable and His mighty acts worthy of praise from one generation to the next. The LORD is gracious, merciful, longsuffering, good to all, faithful in all His words, and near to all who call on Him in truth.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | I will extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever. | I will exalt You, my God the King; I will praise your name for ever and ever. |
| 2 | Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. | Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever. |
| 3 | Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. | Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; His greatness no one can fathom. |
| 4 | One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. | One generation commends Your works to another; they tell of Your mighty acts. |
| 5 | I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works. | They speak of the glorious splendor of Your majesty — and I will meditate on Your wonderful works. |
| 6 | And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. | They tell of the power of Your awesome works — and I will proclaim Your great deeds. |
| 7 | They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness. | They celebrate Your abundant goodness and joyfully sing of Your righteousness. |
| 8 | The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. | The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, longsuffering, and of great mercy. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 9 | The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. | The LORD is good to all; He has compassion on all He has made. |
| 10 | All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee. | All Your works shall praise You, O LORD; and Your saints shall bless You. |
| 11 | They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; | They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk of Your power, |
| 12 | To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom. | to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom. |
| 13 | Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. | Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations. |
| 14 | The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down. | The LORD upholds all who fall and lifts up all who are bowed down. |
| 15 | The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season. | The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food at the proper time. |
| 16 | Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing. | You open Your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing. |
| 17 | The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. | The LORD is righteous in all His ways, and holy in all His works. |
| 18 | The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. | The LORD is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth. |
| 19 | He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them. | He fulfills the desires of those who fear Him; He hears their cry and saves them. |
| 20 | The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy. | The LORD watches over all who love Him, but all the wicked he will destroy. |

21	My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.	My mouth will speak in praise of the LORD. Let every creature praise His holy name for ever and ever.

Psalm 146

The psalmist resolves to praise the LORD all his life, warning against trusting in princes whose plans perish when they die. The LORD keeps faith forever, executes justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry, sets prisoners free, opens the eyes of the blind, and reigns forever.

1	Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.	Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD, my soul.
2	While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.	I will praise the LORD all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.
3	Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.	Put not Your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
4	His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.	When their spirit departs, they return to the ground; on that very day their plans come to nothing.

Psalm 147

The psalmist praises the LORD who rebuilds Jerusalem, gathers the outcasts of Israel, and heals the brokenhearted, while also numbering the stars and calling them each by name. He sends snow, frost, and ice, then melts them with His wind, and He has revealed His word and statutes to Israel as to no other nation.

Psalm 148

The psalmist calls all creation to praise the LORD — angels, sun, moon, stars, and the heavens above, then fire, hail, snow, wind, mountains, trees, beasts, birds, kings, and all peoples below. He has exalted the horn of His people, and His name alone is excellent.

| 1 Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights. | Praise the LORD. Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise Him in the heights above. |
| 2 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts. | Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His heavenly hosts. |
| 3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light. | Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all You shining stars. |
| 4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. | Praise Him, You highest heavens and You waters above the skies. |
| 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created. | Let them praise the name of the LORD, for at His command they were created, |
| 6 He hath also stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass. | and He established them for ever and ever — he issued a decree that will never pass away. |

Psalm 150

The final psalm calls everything and everyone to praise the LORD in His sanctuary with every instrument — trumpet, harp, lyre, timbrel, strings, pipe, and cymbals. It closes the entire Psalter with the command: let everything that has breath praise the LORD.

1	Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.	Praise the LORD. Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in His mighty firmament.

Proverbs

Author: Primarily Solomon the son of David, king of Israel — named at 1:1, 10:1, and 25:1 ("proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out"). Chapter 30 is attributed to Agur the son of Jakeh, and chapter 31 to King Lemuel, recording the prophecy his mother taught him.

Date written: c. 970–700 BC. Solomon composed the original collections during his reign (c. 970–930 BC). The "men of Hezekiah" copied out additional proverbs of Solomon around 700 BC (25:1). The dates of Agur and Lemuel are unknown.

Written to: Young men of Israel — and by extension, all who seek wisdom. The repeated address "my son" runs throughout the first nine chapters, establishing the tone of a father instructing his children in the way of the LORD.

Setting: The royal court and the home. A father sits with his son and passes down the hard-won wisdom of generations — what to pursue, what to avoid, how to speak, how to work, how to fear God. The setting is everyday life: the marketplace, the field, the gate of the city, the marriage bed, the table of a ruler.

Where this sits historically: Composed mostly during Solomon's reign (c. 970–930 BC) at the height of the united kingdom's wealth and influence, with a later editorial expansion under King Hezekiah of Judah around 700 BC.

Contemporaries: Solomon ruled while the Phoenician king Hiram, the queen of Sheba, and Pharaoh of Egypt looked on; the Hezekiah-era additions were made while Isaiah and Micah prophesied and Assyria threatened Jerusalem.

Big themes:

- The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge and wisdom (1:7, 9:10) — this is the foundation on which everything else in the book rests
- Wisdom personified as a woman calling aloud in the streets, inviting the simple to turn in and live (1:20–33, 8:1–36, 9:1–6)
- The sharp contrast between the wise and the foolish, the righteous and the wicked — nearly every verse in chapters 10–29 sets one against the other
- Warnings against adultery and the "strange woman" whose house is the way to hell (2:16–19, 5:1–23, 6:20–35, 7:1–27)
- Diligence versus laziness — the ant and the sluggard (6:6–11, 24:30–34)
- The power of the tongue — life and death are in it (10:19–21, 12:18, 15:1–4, 18:21)
- The virtuous woman of chapter 31 — the portrait of a woman who fears the LORD and whose works praise her in the gates

Key passages: 1:7; 3:5–6; 9:10; 22:6; 31:10–31

How it fits: Proverbs is the practical application of the fear of God — what wisdom looks like lived out day by day. If the Psalms teach Israel how to worship, Proverbs teaches Israel how to live. It stands between Job (which asks why the righteous suffer) and Ecclesiastes (which asks what life means under the sun), giving the everyday answer: fear the LORD, walk uprightly, guard your tongue, do your work, love your wife, raise your children, and trust that God sees all.

Chapter 1

The father introduces the purpose of Proverbs — to give wisdom, instruction, and knowledge — and lays the foundation: the fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. He warns his son against the enticement of sinners, and Wisdom herself cries in the streets, promising security to those who listen and ruin to those who refuse.

Chapter 2

The father instructs his son to seek wisdom as eagerly as silver and hidden treasure, promising that the LORD gives wisdom and guards the paths of the just. Wisdom delivers from the way of the evil man and from the strange woman whose house leads to death.

1	My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;	My son, if You will receive my words and treasure up my commandments with You,
2	So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;	so that You incline Your ear to wisdom and apply Your heart to understanding;

understanding; | if You cry out for knowledge and lift up Your voice for understanding; |
| 4 | If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; | if You seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures, |
| 5 | Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God. | then You will understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of
God. |
| 6 | For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding. | For the LORD gives wisdom; out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding. |
| 7 | He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly. | He stores up sound wisdom for the righteous; he is a shield to those who walk uprightly. |
| 8 | He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints. | He guards the paths of justice, and preserves the way of His saints. |
| 9 | Then shalt thou understand

Chapter 3

The father urges his son to trust in the LORD with all his heart and lean not on his own understanding, promising that God directs the paths of those who acknowledge Him in all their ways. He exalts wisdom as more precious than rubies and as the very means by which God founded the earth.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 | My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: | My son, do not forget my law, but let Your heart keep my commandments. |
| 2 | For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee. | For they will add length of days, long life, and peace to You. |
| 3 | Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart: | Do not let mercy and truth forsake You; bind them around Your neck; write them on the tablet of Your heart. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. In the KJV, "mercy" often translates Hebrew chesed — the loyal, covenant love of God toward His people.

|---|--|--|
| 4 | So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. | So You will find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man. |
| 5 | Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. | Trust in the LORD with all Your heart, and lean not on Your own understanding. |
| 6 | In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. | In all Your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct Your paths. |
| 7 | Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. | Do not be wise in Your own eyes; fear the LORD and depart from evil. |
| 8 | It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones. | It will be health to Your body and marrow to Your bones. |
| 9 | Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: | Honor the LORD with Your substance, and with the firstfruits of all Your increase. |

- | | |

| 10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine. | So Your barns will be filled with plenty, and Your presses will burst out with new wine. |
| 11 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction: | My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor be weary of His correction. |
| 12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. | For whom the LORD loves He corrects, even as a father the son in whom He delights. |
| 13 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. | Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gains understanding. |
| 14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. | For her gain is better than the gain of silver, and her profit better than fine gold. |
| 15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her. | She is more precious than rubies, and all the things you can desire cannot be compared to her. |
| 16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour. | Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand are riches and honor. |
| 17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. | Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. |
| 18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her. | She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her, and happy is everyone who keeps her. |
| 19 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens. | By wisdom the LORD has founded the earth; by understanding He has established the heavens. |
| 20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew. | By His knowledge the depths are broken open, and the clouds drop down the dew. |

- 21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion: My son, do not let them depart from Your eyes; keep sound wisdom and discretion.
- 22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck. So they will be life to Your soul and grace to Your neck.
- 23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble. Then You will walk on Your way safely, and Your foot will not stumble.
- 24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet. When You lie down, You will not be afraid; You will lie down, and Your sleep will be sweet.
- 25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. Do not be afraid of sudden fear, nor of the desolation of the wicked when it comes.
- 26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken. For the LORD will be Your confidence, and will keep Your foot from being caught.
- 27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it. Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in the power of Your hand to do it.
- 28 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee. Do not say to Your neighbor, "Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give," when You have it with You.
- 29 Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee. Do not devise evil against Your neighbor, since He lives securely beside You.
- 30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. Do not contend with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.
- 31 Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. Do not envy the oppressor, and choose none of His ways.
- 32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous. For the perverse are an abomination to the LORD; but His secret is with the righteous.

33	The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.	The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked; but he blesses the habitation of the just.
34	Surely he scorneth the scorers: but he giveth grace to the lowly.	Surely He scorns the scorers; but He gives grace to the lowly.
35	The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.	The wise will inherit glory; but shame will be the promotion of fools.

Chapter 4

The father passes down the instruction he received from his own father, pleading with his sons to get wisdom above all else and guard their hearts, for out of them flow the issues of life. He commands them to keep their eyes fixed straight ahead and to ponder the path of their feet.

1	Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.	Listen, my children, to the instruction of a father, and pay attention to know understanding.
2	For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.	For I give you good doctrine; do not forsake my law.
3	For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.	For I was my father's son, tender and the only beloved in the sight of my mother.

| 4 | He taught me also, and said unto me,
Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live. | He also taught me, and said to me, "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live. |
| 5 | Get wisdom, get understanding:
forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth. | Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget, nor turn aside from the words of my mouth. |
| 6 | Forsake her not, and she shall

Chapter 6

The father warns against surety for a stranger, laziness (sending the sluggard to the ant for instruction), and the seven things the LORD hates: a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a scheming heart, feet that run to evil, a false witness, and one who sows discord. He closes with a sustained warning against adultery, which brings wounds and dishonor that cannot be wiped away.

| 1 | My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger, | My son, if You have become surety for Your friend, if You have struck Your hand in pledge for a stranger, |
| 2 | Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth. | you are snared by the words of Your mouth; You are caught by the words of Your mouth. |
| 3 | Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend. | Do this now, my son, and deliver Yourself when You have come into the hand of Your friend: go, humble Yourself, and plead urgently with Your friend. |
| 4 | Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids. | Give no sleep to Your eyes, nor slumber to Your eyelids. |
| 5 | Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler. | Deliver Yourself like a roe from the hand of the hunter, and like a bird from the hand of the fowler. |
| 6 | Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise: | Go to the ant, You sluggard; consider her ways and be wise. |
| 7 | Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, | She has no guide, overseer, or ruler, |
| 8 | Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest. | yet she provides her food in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. |
| 9 | How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep? | How long will You sleep, sluggard? When will You arise from Your sleep? |
| 10 | Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep: | A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep — |

- 11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man. so Your poverty will come like a wanderer, and Your need like an armed man.
- 12 A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth. A worthless person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth.
- 13 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers; He winks with His eyes, He speaks with His feet, He points with His fingers.
- 14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord. Perversity is in His heart; He devises mischief continually; He sows discord.
- 15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy. Therefore His calamity will come suddenly; suddenly He will be broken without remedy.
- 16 These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: These six things the LORD hates; yes, seven are an abomination to Him:
- 17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, a proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood;
- 18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that are swift in running to mischief;
- 19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren. a false witness who speaks lies, and one who sows discord among brethren.
- 20 My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: My son, keep Your father's commandment, and do not forsake the law of Your mother.
- 21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. Bind them continually on Your heart; tie them around Your neck.
- 22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. When You walk, it will lead You; when You sleep, it will keep You; and when You awake, it will speak with You.

- 23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life: For the commandment is a lamp, the law is a light, and reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
- 24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. to keep You from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.
- 25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids. Do not lust after her beauty in Your heart, nor let her take You with her eyelids.
- 26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. For by means of a harlot a man is reduced to a piece of bread, and an adulteress will hunt for the precious life.
- 27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can a man take fire to his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?
- 28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? Can one walk on hot coals, and His feet not be burned?
- 29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. So is He who goes in to his neighbor's wife; whoever touches her will not be innocent.
- 30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; Men do not despise a thief if He steals to satisfy Himself when He is hungry,
- 31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. but if He is found out, He must restore sevenfold; He must give all the substance of His house.
- 32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding; he who does so destroys his own soul.
- 33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. He will get wounds and dishonor, and His reproach will not be wiped away.
- 34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance. For jealousy is the rage of a man; therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

- 35

He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.
- He will not accept any ransom, nor will He be content though You give many gifts.

Chapter 7

The father describes watching from his window as a young man without sense walks into the trap of the strange woman, who flatters him with her words and leads him to her bed. He is like an ox going to the slaughter; her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

- 1

My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.
- My son, keep my words, and store up my commandments with you.
- 2

*Keep my commandments, and live;
and my law as the apple of thine eye.*
- Keep my commandments and live, and my law as the apple of your eye.
- 3

Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.
- Bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.
- 4

Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:
- Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your kinswoman,
- 5

That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.
- so that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the stranger who flatters with her words.

Chapter 8

Wisdom calls aloud at the gates of the city, declaring that she offers truth, counsel, and strength, and that kings reign and princes decree justice by her. She reveals that she was with God before creation, brought forth before the mountains, rejoicing always before Him — and those who find her find life.

| 1 | Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice? | Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift up her voice? |
| 2 | She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths. | She stands on the top of high places, by the way, where the paths meet. |
| 3 | She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors. | She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors: |
| 4 | Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. | "To you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of man. |
| 5 | O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart. | O you simple ones, understand wisdom; and you fools, be of an understanding heart. |
| 6 | Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things. | Hear, for I will speak of excellent things, and the opening of my lips will be right things. |

| 8 | All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them. | All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing twisted or perverse in them. |
| 9 | They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge. | They are all plain to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge. |

- 10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold. Receive my instruction, and not silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.
- 11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it. For wisdom is better than rubies, and all the things one may desire cannot be compared to her.
- 12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions. I, Wisdom, dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of clever inventions.
- 13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. The fear of the LORD is to hate evil; pride and arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth, I hate.
- 14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength. Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom; I am understanding; I have strength.
- 15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.
- 16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
- 17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. I love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently will find me.
- 18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness. Riches and honor are with me, enduring riches and righteousness.
- 19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver. My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold, and my revenue better than choice silver.
- 20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment: I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice,
- 21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures. so that I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth, and I will fill their treasures.

- 22 The LORD possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His way, before His works of old.
- 23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth was.
- 24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water. When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.
- 25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth: Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth,
- 26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. while as yet He had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
- 27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth: When He prepared the heavens, I was there; when He set a circle on the face of the deep,
- 28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep: when He established the clouds above, when He strengthened the fountains of the deep,
- 29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: when He gave to the sea His decree, that the waters should not pass His command, when He appointed the foundations of the earth —
- 30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; then I was beside Him, as one brought up with Him; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him,
- 31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth, and my delights were with the sons of men.
- 32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. Now therefore, listen to me, my children, for blessed are those who keep my ways.
- 33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Hear instruction and be wise; do not refuse it.

34	Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.	Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.
35	For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.	For whoever finds me finds life, and will obtain favor from the LORD.
36	But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.	But He who sins against me wrongs his own soul; all those who hate me love death."

Chapter 9

Wisdom builds her house and sets her table, inviting the simple to turn in and live, while the foolish woman sits at her door and calls to the same passersby with stolen waters and secret bread. Between these two invitations stands the pivotal declaration: the fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.

1	Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:	Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn out her seven pillars.
2	She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.	She has slaughtered her beasts; she has mixed her wine; she has also set her table.

| 3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city, | She has sent out her maidens; she cries out from the highest places of the city, |
| 4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, | "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." As for him who lacks understanding, she says to Him, |
| 5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled. | "Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed. |
| 6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding. | Forsake foolishness and live; go in the way of understanding." |
| 7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot. | He who corrects a scorner gets shame for himself, and He who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blot. |
| 8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee. | Do not correct a scorner, lest He hate You; rebuke a wise man, and He will love You. |
| 9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning. | Give instruction to a wise man, and He will be yet wiser; teach a just man, and He will increase in learning. |
| 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding. | The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. |
| 11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased. | For by me Your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to Your life. |
| 12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it. | If You are wise, You are wise for Yourself; but if You scorn, You alone will bear it. |
| 13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing. | A foolish woman is clamorous; she is simple and knows nothing. |
| 14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, | For she sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, |

15	To call passengers who go right on their ways:	to call to those who pass by, who go straight on their ways:
16	Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,	"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." And as for Him who lacks understanding, she says to Him,
17	Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.	"Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant."
18	But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.	But He does not know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of hell.

Chapter 10

Contrasting proverbs address the difference between the wise son and the foolish, the hand of the diligent and the hand of the slack, the mouth of the righteous and the mouth of the wicked. The chapter sets the dominant pattern for the next twenty chapters: righteousness brings life, wickedness brings ruin.

1	The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.	The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father; but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

Chapter 11

Contrasting proverbs address the destruction of the wicked and the deliverance of the righteous, the ruin that pride brings and the wisdom that humility preserves. Repeated themes include the power of integrity versus the treachery of the unfaithful, and the generosity that leads to increase versus the withholding that leads to want.

|----|--|---|
| 1 | A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight. | A false balance is an abomination to the LORD; but a just weight is His delight. |
| 2 | When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom. | When pride comes, then comes shame; but with the lowly is wisdom. |
| 3 | The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them. | The integrity of the upright will guide them; but the perverseness of transgressors will destroy them. |
| 4 | Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death. | Riches do not profit in the day of wrath; but righteousness delivers from death. |
| 5 | The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. | The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way; but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness. |
| 6 | The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness. | The righteousness of the upright will deliver them; but transgressors will be caught in their own wickedness. |
| 7 | When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth. | When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish, and the hope of unjust men perishes. |
| 8 | The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead. | The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked takes his place. |
| 9 | An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered. | A hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor; but through knowledge the just will be delivered. |
| 10 | When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting. | When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices, and when the wicked perish, there is shouting. |

- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 11 | By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. | By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted; but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. |
| 12 | He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace. | He who lacks wisdom despises his neighbor; but a man of understanding holds his peace. |
| 13 | A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter. | A talebearer reveals secrets; but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter. |
| 14 | Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety. | Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in the multitude of counselors there is safety. |
| 15 | He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure. | He who is surety for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who hates being surety is secure. |
| 16 | A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches. | A gracious woman retains honor, and strong men retain riches. |
| 17 | The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh. | The merciful man does good for his own soul; but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh. |
| 18 | The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward. | The wicked does a deceitful work; but to him who sows righteousness there will be a sure reward. |
| 19 | As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death. | As righteousness leads to life, so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death. |
| 20 | They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight. | Those who are of a perverse heart are an abomination to the LORD; but those who are upright in their way are His delight. |
| 21 | Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. | Though hand join in hand, the wicked will not be unpunished; but the seed of the righteous will be delivered. |

- | | |

| 22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion. | Like a jewel of gold in a swine's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion. |
| 23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. | The desire of the righteous is only good; but the expectation of the wicked is wrath. |
| 24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. | There is one who scatters, yet increases more; and there is one who withholds more than is right, but it tends to poverty. |
| 25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself. | The generous soul will be made rich, and he who waters will himself be watered. |
| 26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it. | The people will curse him who withholds grain; but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it. |
| 27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him. | He who diligently seeks good procures favor; but he who seeks mischief, it will come to him. |
| 28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch. | He who trusts in his riches will fall; but the righteous will flourish like a branch. |
| 29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart. | He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart. |
| 30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise. | The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise. |
| 31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner. | If the righteous are recompensed on the earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner! |

Chapter 12

Contrasting proverbs address the value of accepting correction, the faithfulness of the righteous versus the deceit of the wicked, and the power of words to wound or to heal. The diligent hand rules while the slack hand serves, and the way of a fool is right in his own eyes.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish. | Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge; but he who hates correction is brutish. |
| 2 | A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn. | A good man obtains favor from the LORD; but a man of wicked devices he will condemn. |
| 3 | A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. | A man will not be established by wickedness; but the root of the righteous will not be moved. |
| 4 | A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones. | A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband; but she who causes shame is like rottenness in His bones. |
| 5 | The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. | The thoughts of the righteous are right; but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. |
| 6 | The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. | The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood; but the mouth of the upright will deliver them. |

- | | |

| 7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand. | The wicked are overthrown and are no more; but the house of the righteous will stand. |
| 8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised. | A man will be commended according to his wisdom; but he who is of a perverse heart will be despised. |
| 9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread. | He who is despised yet has a servant is better than he who honors himself yet lacks bread. |
| 10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his animal: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. | A righteous man regards the life of his animal; but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. |
| 11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding. | He who tills his land will be satisfied with bread; but he who follows worthless persons lacks understanding. |
| 12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit. | The wicked desire the spoil of evil men; but the root of the righteous yields fruit. |
| 13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble. | The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips; but the just will come out of trouble. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Where "iniquity" is the twisted nature, transgression is the specific act of stepping over the boundary.

| 14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him. | A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth, and the recompense of a man's hands will be repaid to him. |
| 15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise. | The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; but he who listens to counsel is wise. |
| 16 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame. | A fool's wrath is known at once; but a prudent man covers shame. |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 17 | An honest witness delivereth true testimony: but a false witness deceit. | An honest witness delivers true testimony; but a false witness, deceit. |
| 18 | There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health. | There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword; but the tongue of the wise brings health. |
| 19 | The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment. | The lip of truth will be established forever; but a lying tongue is only for a moment. |
| 20 | Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy. | Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil; but to the counselors of peace there is joy. |
| 21 | There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief. | No evil will happen to the just; but the wicked will be filled with mischief. |
| 22 | Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight. | Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD; but those who deal truly are His delight. |
| 23 | A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness. | A prudent man conceals knowledge; but the heart of fools proclaims foolishness. |
| 24 | The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute. | The hand of the diligent will rule; but the slothful will be under tribute. |
| 25 | Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad. | Heaviness in the heart of a man makes it stoop; but a good word makes it glad. |
| 26 | The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them. | The righteous is more excellent than his neighbor; but the way of the wicked seduces them. |
| 27 | The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious. | The slothful man does not roast what he has caught; but the substance of a diligent man is precious. |

- 28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death. In the way of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death.

Chapter 15

Contrasting proverbs address the power of the tongue — a soft answer turns away wrath, but harsh words stir up anger — and the eyes of the LORD that are in every place, watching the evil and the good. Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure with trouble.

| 19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud. | It is better to be of a humble spirit with the lowly than to divide the spoil with the proud. |

- 20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he. He who handles a matter wisely will find good, and whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is He.
- 21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning. The wise in heart will be called prudent, and the sweetness of the lips increases learning.
- 22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly. Understanding is a wellspring of life to Him who has it; but the instruction of fools is folly.
- 23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips. The heart of the wise teaches His mouth and adds learning to His lips.
- 24 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and health to the bones.
- 25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the ways of death.
- 26 He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him. He who labors, labors for himself, for his mouth urges Him on.
- 27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire. An ungodly man digs up evil, and on His lips there is as a burning fire.
- 28 A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends. A perverse man sows strife, and a whisperer separates close friends.
- 29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good. A violent man entices His neighbor and leads Him into a way that is not good.
- 30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass. He shuts His eyes to devise perverse things; moving His lips, He brings evil to pass.
- 31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. The gray head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness.

| 4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue. | A wicked doer gives heed to false lips, and a liar gives ear to a destructive tongue. |
| 5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished. | Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker, and he who is glad at calamities will not be unpunished. |
| 6 Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. | Children's children are the crown of old men, and the glory of children is their fathers. |
| 7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince. | Excellent speech is not fitting for a fool, much less are lying lips for a prince. |
| 8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth. | A gift is like a precious stone in the eyes of Him who has it; wherever it turns, it prospers. |
| 9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; and he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends. | He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates close friends. |
| 10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool. | A rebuke enters more deeply into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool. |
| 11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. | An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against Him. |
| 12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. | Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. |
| 13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house. | Whoever rewards evil for good, evil will not depart from His house. |
| 14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with. | The beginning of strife is like releasing water; therefore stop contention before it breaks out. |
| 15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD. | He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, even both of them are an abomination to the LORD. |

- 16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it? Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, when He has no heart for it?
- 17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity. A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity.
- 18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend. A man without understanding strikes hands in pledge and becomes surety in the presence of His friend.
- 19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction. He who loves transgression loves strife, and he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.
- 20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief. He who has a perverse heart finds no good, and he who has a perverse tongue falls into mischief.
- 21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy. He who fathers a fool does so to his sorrow, and the father of a fool has no joy.
- 22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones. A merry heart does good like a medicine; but a broken spirit dries the bones.
- 23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment. A wicked man takes a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.
- 24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. Wisdom is before Him who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.
- 25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him. A foolish son is a grief to His father, and bitterness to her who bore Him.
- 26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity. Also, to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for fairness.
- 27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit. He who has knowledge spares his words, and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28	Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.	Even a fool, when He holds His peace, is counted wise, and He who shuts his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

Chapter 18

Contrasting proverbs address the danger of isolation, the fool who delights only in expressing his own opinion, the power of the tongue (death and life are in its power), and the name of the LORD as a strong tower where the righteous run and are safe. A man who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor of the LORD.

1	Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.	Through desire a man who has separated himself seeks and quarrels against all sound wisdom.
2	A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.	A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing His own heart.
3	When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.	When the wicked comes, contempt also comes, and with dishonor comes reproach.

| 1 | Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. | Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whoever is deceived by them is not wise. |
| 2 | The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul. | The fear of a king is like the roaring of a lion; whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own soul. |
| 3 | It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling. | It is an honor for a man to cease from strife; but every fool will be meddling. |
| 4 | The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing. | The sluggard will not plow because of the cold; therefore He will beg in harvest and have nothing. |
| 5 | Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out. | Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out. |
| 6 | Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find? | Most men will proclaim each His own goodness; but a faithful man who can find? |

- 7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him. The just man walks in His integrity; His children are blessed after Him.
- 8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes. A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with His eyes.
- 9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin? Who can say, "I have made my heart clean; I am pure from my sin"?
- 10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD. Different weights and different measures, both alike are an abomination to the LORD.
- 11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right. Even a child is known by His doings, whether His work is pure and whether it is right.
- 12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them. The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the LORD has made them both.
- 13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread. Do not love sleep, lest You come to poverty; open Your eyes, and You will be satisfied with bread.
- 14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth. "It is worthless, it is worthless," says the buyer; but when He is gone on His way, then He boasts.
- 15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel. There is gold and a multitude of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
- 16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. Take the garment of Him who is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge from Him for a strange woman.
- 17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel. Bread of deceit is sweet to a man, but afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.
- 18 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war. Every purpose is established by counsel, and with good advice wage war.

| 19 He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets; therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips. | He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets; therefore do not associate with Him who flatters with His lips. |
| 20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness. | Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be put out in deep darkness. |
| 21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed. | An inheritance may be gained hastily at the beginning, but its end will not be blessed. |
| 22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee. | Do not say, "I will repay evil"; wait on the LORD, and He will save You. |
| 23 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good. | Different weights are an abomination to the LORD, and a false balance is not good. |
| 24 Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way? | A man's steps are of the LORD; how then can a man understand his own way? |
| 25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry. | It is a snare for a man to vow rashly something holy, and afterward to consider His vows. |
| 26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them. | A wise king scatters the wicked and brings the wheel over them. |
| 27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. | The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. |
| 28 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy. | Mercy and truth preserve the king, and his throne is upheld by mercy. |
| 29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head. | The glory of young men is their strength, and the beauty of old men is the grey head. |

30	The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.	The bruises of a wound cleanse away evil, and so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

Chapter 21

Contrasting proverbs address the king's heart in the LORD's hand, the sacrifice of the wicked as an abomination, and the futility of human plans against the counsel of the LORD. The chapter warns that whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor will himself cry and not be heard.

1	The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.	The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wills.
2	Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.	Every way of a man is right in his own eyes; but the LORD ponders the hearts.
3	To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.	To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
4	An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.	A high look, a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked are sin.

| 18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. | The wicked will be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. |
| 19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. | It is better to live in the wilderness than with a contentious and angry woman. |
| 20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up. | There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise, but a foolish man squanders it. |
| 21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour. | He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honor. |
| 22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof. | A wise man scales the city of the mighty and casts down the strength of its confidence. |
| 23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles. | Whoever keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. |
| 24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath. | Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who deals in proud wrath. |
| 25 The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour. | The desire of the slothful kills him, for his hands refuse to labor. |
| 26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not. | He covets greedily all the day long; but the righteous gives and does not spare. |
| 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind? | The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination; how much more when he brings it with a wicked mind! |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 28 | A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly. | A false witness will perish; but the man who hears speaks steadily. |
| 29 | A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way. | A wicked man hardens his face; but as for the upright, he establishes his way. |
| 30 | There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD. | There is no wisdom, nor understanding, nor counsel against the LORD. |
| 31 | The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD. | The horse is prepared for the day of battle; but safety is of the LORD. |

| 7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. | The rich rules over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender. |
| 8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail. | He who sows iniquity will reap vanity, and the rod of His anger will fail. |
| 9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor. | He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed, for he gives of His bread to the poor. |
| 10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease. | Cast out the scorner, and contention will go out; strife and reproach will cease. |
| 11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend. | He who loves pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king will be his friend. |
| 12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor. | The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and He overthrows the words of the transgressor. |
| 13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets. | The slothful man says, "There is a lion outside; I will be slain in the streets!" |
| 14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein. | The mouth of strange women is a deep pit; He who is abhorred by the LORD will fall into it. |

- 15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction will drive it far from Him.
- 16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want. He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and He who gives to the rich, will surely come to poverty.
- 17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge. Bow down Your ear and hear the words of the wise, and apply Your heart to my knowledge.
- 18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips. For it is a pleasant thing if You keep them within You; they will be ready on Your lips.
- 19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee. So that Your trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to You this day, even to You.
- 20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, Have I not written to You excellent things in counsels and knowledge,
- 21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee? so that I might make You know the certainty of the words of truth, that You might answer the words of truth to those who send to You?
- 22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: Do not rob the poor because He is poor, nor oppress the afflicted in the gate,
- 23 For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them. for the LORD will plead their cause, and plunder the soul of those who plundered them.
- 24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go: Make no friendship with an angry man, and with a furious man do not go,
- 25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul. lest You learn His ways and bring a snare to Your soul.

Chapter 23

The wise man warns against craving a ruler's delicacies, laboring only to be rich, eating the bread of a man with an evil eye, and the sorrow of those who linger long at the wine. He pleads with his son to give him his heart and to let his eyes observe the father's ways.

| 3 | Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat. | Do not desire his delicacies, for they are deceitful food. |
| 4 | Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom. | Do not labor to be rich; cease from your own wisdom. |
| 5 | Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven. | Will you set your eyes on what is not? For riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away like an eagle toward heaven. |
| 6 | Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats: | Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye, nor desire his delicacies, |
| 7 | For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee. | for as he thinks in his heart, so is he. "Eat and drink," he says to you, but his heart is not with you. |

The wise man warns against envying the wicked and counsels the value of wisdom, strength in adversity, and rescuing those being led to death. The chapter closes with the lesson of the sluggard's vineyard — overgrown and broken down — teaching that poverty comes like an armed man to the one who loves sleep.

| 1 | Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them. | Do not be envious of evil men, nor desire to be with them. |
| 2 | For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. | For their heart studies destruction, and their lips talk of mischief. |
| 3 | Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: | Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established. |
| 4 | And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. | And by knowledge the chambers will be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. |
| 5 | A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength. | A wise man is strong; indeed, a man of knowledge increases strength. |
| 6 | For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety. | For by wise counsel you will wage your war, and in the multitude of counselors there is safety. |
| 7 | Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate. | Wisdom is too high for a fool; he does not open his mouth in the gate. |
| 8 | He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. | He who devises to do evil will be called a mischievous person. |
| 9 | The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. | The thought of foolishness is sin, and the scorner is an abomination to men. |

| 12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? | if you say, "We did not know it," does not he who ponders the heart consider it? And he who keeps your soul, does he not know it? And will he not render to every man according to his works? |
| 13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: | My son, eat honey, because it is good, and the honeycomb, which is sweet to your taste. |
| 14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. | So will the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul; when you have found it, there will be a reward, and your expectation will not be cut off. |
| 15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place: | Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;
do not plunder his resting place. |
| 16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. | For a just man falls seven times and rises again; but the wicked will fall into mischief. |
| 17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth: | Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles, |
| 18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. | lest the LORD see it and it displease
Him, and He turn away His wrath from

| 19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked: | Do not fret yourself because of evil
men, nor be envious of the wicked, |

- 20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out. for there will be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked will be put out.
- 21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king; and meddle not with them that are given to change: My son, fear the LORD and the king, and do not associate with those who are given to change,
- 22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both? for their calamity will rise suddenly, and who knows the ruin of them both?
- 23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. These things also belong to the wise: It is not good to show partiality in judgment.
- 24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous," him the people will curse, and nations will abhor him;
- 25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. but to those who rebuke him there will be delight, and a good blessing will come on them.
- 26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer. Every man will kiss the lips of him who gives a right answer.
- 27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house. Prepare your work outside, and make it ready for yourself in the field; afterward build your house.
- 28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.
- 29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work. Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me; I will repay the man according to his work."
- 30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; I went by the field of the slothful and by the vineyard of the man without understanding,

31	And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.	and it was all grown over with thorns, nettles had covered its surface, and its stone wall was broken down.
32	Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.	Then I saw and considered it well; I looked on it and received instruction.
33	Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:	A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep —
34	So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.	so your poverty will come like a wanderer, and your need like an armed man.

Chapter 25

The Hezekiah collection begins with proverbs about conduct before kings, the value of a timely word, and the danger of false boasting. Memorable images abound: cold water to a weary soul, vinegar on a wound, coals of fire on an enemy's head, and a city without walls for the man who has no self-control.

1	These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.	These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

Chapter 26

Contrasting proverbs address the fool (honor is not fitting for him, and answering him requires discernment), the sluggard who turns on his bed like a door on its hinges, and the danger of deceit, gossip, and flattering lips. The meddler, the tale-bearer, and the man who hides hatred behind fair words are all exposed.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool. | Like snow in summer and rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool. |
| 2 | As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come. | Like the bird that wanders and the swallow in flight, so a causeless curse will not come to rest. |
| 3 | A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. | A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the fool's back. |
| 4 | Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. | Do not answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him. |
| 5 | Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. | Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. |
| 6 | He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage. | He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks damage. |
| 7 | The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. | The legs of the lame are not equal, and so is a parable in the mouth of fools. |
| 8 | As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool. | Like one who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honor to a fool. |
| 9 | As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. | Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. |
| 10 | The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors. | The great God Who formed all things rewards both the fool and the transgressors. |
| 11 | As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly. | As a dog returns to his vomit, so a fool returns to his folly. |
| 12 | Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him. | Do you see a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope for a fool than for him. |

- | | |
|---|--|
| 13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. | The slothful man says, "There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets!" |
| 14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed. | As the door turns on its hinges, so does the slothful on his bed. |
| 15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth. | The slothful hides his hand in his bosom; it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth. |
| 16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason. | The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men who can give a reason. |
| 17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears. | He who passes by and meddles in a strife not belonging to him is like one who takes a dog by the ears. |
| 18 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death, | Like a madman who casts firebrands, arrows, and death, |
| 19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport? | so is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not in sport?" |
| 20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth. | Where there is no wood, the fire goes out, and where there is no talebearer, strife ceases. |
| 21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife. | As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man for kindling strife. |
| 22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly. | The words of a talebearer are like wounds, and they go down to the innermost parts of the belly. |
| 23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. | Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. |
| 24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; | He who hates disguises it with his lips and stores up deceit within him; |

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 25 | When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart. | when he speaks fair words, do not believe him, for there are seven abominations in his heart. |
| 26 | Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation. | Though his hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness will be shown before the whole congregation. |
| 27 | Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him. | Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and he who rolls a stone, it will return on him. |
| 28 | A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin. | A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it, and a flattering mouth works ruin. |

Chapter 27

Contrasting proverbs address the uncertainty of tomorrow, the value of open rebuke over hidden love, the sharpening of friend by friend as iron sharpens iron, and the restless stirring of envy. The chapter urges diligence in knowing the state of one's flocks, for riches do not endure forever.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. | Do not boast of tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth. |
|---|---|---|

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 2 | Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips. | Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. |
| 3 | A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both. | A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty, but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both. |
| 4 | Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? | Wrath is cruel and anger is outrageous, but who is able to stand before envy? |
| 5 | Open rebuke is better than secret love. | Open rebuke is better than secret love. |
| 6 | Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. | Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful. |
| 7 | The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. | The full soul loathes a honeycomb, but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet. |
| 8 | As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place. | As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his place. |
| 9 | Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. | Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart, and so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel. |
| 10 | Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off. | Do not forsake your own friend, or your father's friend, and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is near than a brother far off. |
| 11 | My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me. | My son, be wise and make my heart glad, that I may answer him who reproaches me. |
| 12 | A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished. | A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished. |

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 13 | Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. | Take the garment of him who is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge from him for a strange woman. |
| 14 | He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. | He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it will be counted a curse to him. |
| 15 | A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike. | A continual dripping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike. |
| 16 | Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself. | Whoever hides her hides the wind, and the ointment of his right hand betrays itself. |
| 17 | Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. | Iron sharpens iron, and so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend. |
| 18 | Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured. | Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who waits on his master will be honored. |
| 19 | As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man. | As in water face answers to face, so the heart of man to man. |
| 20 | Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied. | Hell and destruction are never full, and so the eyes of man are never satisfied. |
| 21 | As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. | As the refining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold, so is a man tested by his praise. |
| 22 | Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him. | Though you should grind a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet his foolishness will not depart from him. |
| 23 | Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds. | Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, and look well to your herds, |
| 24 | For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation? | for riches are not forever, and does the crown endure to every generation? |

25	The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.	The hay appears, the tender grass shows itself, and the herbs of the mountains are gathered.
26	The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.	The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.
27	And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.	You will have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and for the maintenance of your maidens.

Chapter 28

Contrasting proverbs address the boldness of the righteous versus the flight of the wicked, the ruler who oppresses the poor, and the blessings that come to the faithful versus the haste that leads to poverty. He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, but whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

1	The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.	The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

| 2 | For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof; but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged. | For the transgression of a land, its princes are many; but by a man of understanding and knowledge, its state will be prolonged. |
| 3 | A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food. | A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaves no food. |
| 4 | They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. | Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; but those who keep the law contend with them. |
| 5 | Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things. | Evil men do not understand judgment; but those who seek the LORD understand all things. |
| 6 | Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich. | Better is the poor who walks in His uprightness than He who is perverse in his ways, though he be rich. |
| 7 | Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father. | Whoever keeps the law is a wise son; but he who is a companion of riotous men shames his father. |
| 8 | He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. | He who by usury and unjust gain increases his substance will gather it for Him who will pity the poor. |
| 9 | He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. | He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even His prayer will be an abomination. |
| 10 | Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession. | Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way will himself fall into His own pit; but the upright will have good things in possession. |
| 11 | The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out. | The rich man is wise in his own conceit, but the poor who has understanding sees through him. |

- | | |

| 12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. | When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves. |
| 13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. | He who covers his sins will not prosper; but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy. |
| 14 Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. | Happy is the man who fears always; but he who hardens his heart will fall into mischief. |
| 15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people. | Like a roaring lion and a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over a poor people. |
| 16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days. | The prince who lacks understanding is also a great oppressor; but he who hates covetousness will prolong his days. |
| 17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him. | A man who does violence to the blood of any person will flee to the pit; let no man hold him back. |
| 18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once. | Whoever walks uprightly will be saved; but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once. |
| 19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough. | He who tills his land will have plenty of bread; but he who follows worthless persons will have poverty enough. |
| 20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent. | A faithful man will abound with blessings; but he who hastens to be rich will not be innocent. |
| 21 To have respect of persons is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress. | To show partiality is not good, for a piece of bread that man will transgress. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him. | He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye and does not consider that poverty will come on him. |
| 23 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue. | He who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than he who flatters with the tongue. |
| 24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer. | Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "It is no transgression," is the companion of a destroyer. |
| 25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat. | He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife; but he who puts his trust in the LORD will be made rich. |
| 26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered. | He who trusts in his own heart is a fool; but whoever walks wisely will be delivered. |
| 27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse. | He who gives to the poor will not lack; but he who hides his eyes will have many a curse. |
| 28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase. | When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous increase. |

Chapter 29

Contrasting proverbs address the ruler who loves justice versus the ruler who listens to lies, the rod of correction that gives wisdom versus the child left to himself who brings shame, and the fear of man that brings a snare versus trust in the LORD that brings safety. Where there is no vision, the people perish.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. | He who, being often corrected, hardens his neck will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy. |
| 2 | When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn. | When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people mourn. |
| 3 | Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance. | Whoever loves wisdom rejoices his father; but he who keeps company with harlots wastes his substance. |
| 4 | The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it. | The king by judgment establishes the land; but he who receives bribes
overthrows it. |
| 5 | A man that flattereth his neighbour
spreadeth a net for his feet. | A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet. |
| 6 | In the transgression of an evil man
there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice. | In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare; but the righteous sings and rejoices. |
| 7 | The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it. | The righteous considers the cause of the poor; but the wicked does not care to know it. |
| 8 | Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath. | Scornful men bring a city into a snare;
but wise men turn away wrath. |
| 9 | If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest. | If a wise man contends with a foolish man, whether he rages or laughs, there is no rest. |

- | | | |

| 10 | The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul. | The bloodthirsty hate the upright; but the just seek his soul. |
| 11 | A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards. | A fool utters all his mind; but a wise man keeps it in till afterward. |
| 12 | If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked. | If a ruler listens to lies, all his servants become wicked. |
| 13 | The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes. | The poor and the deceitful man meet together; the LORD enlightens the eyes of both. |
| 14 | The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever. | The king who faithfully judges the poor, his throne will be established forever. |
| 15 | The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. | The rod and reproof give wisdom; but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame. |
| 16 | When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall. | When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases; but the righteous will see their fall. |
| 17 | Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul. | Correct your son, and he will give you rest; indeed, he will give delight to your soul. |
| 18 | Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he. | Where there is no vision, the people perish; but he who keeps the law, happy is he. |
| 19 | A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer. | A servant will not be corrected by words, for though he understands, he will not answer. |

Chapter 30

Agur speaks of his own ignorance before God, asks who has ascended into heaven, and prays for neither poverty nor riches. He catalogues the wonders of creation in numbered proverbs — things too wonderful, things never satisfied, things that are stately in their stride — exposing human pride against the backdrop of God's inscrutable works.

■ NAME NOTE — Agur (AY-gur) — "gatherer" — Son of Jakeh; an otherwise unknown wise man whose words make up chapter 30. His humble confession ("I am more brutish than any man") and his prayer for neither poverty nor riches (30:7–9) are among the most striking passages in Proverbs.

■ NAME NOTE — Jakeh (JAY-keh) — Father of Agur. Nothing else is known of him. His name appears only here in all of Scripture.

Chapter 31

King Lemuel's mother teaches him to avoid women and wine, to open his mouth for the voiceless and judge righteously for the poor, and the chapter closes with the acrostic portrait of the virtuous woman whose price is far above rubies. She works willingly, provides for her household, stretches out her hand to the poor, and fears the LORD — and her works praise her in the gates.

Ecclesiastes

Author: Solomon — called "the Preacher" (Hebrew Qoheleth). He identifies himself as "the son of David, king in Jerusalem" in 1:1, and his unmatched wisdom, wealth, and building projects (chapters 1–2) match the biblical portrait of Solomon exactly.

Date written: c. 935 BC, late in Solomon's reign — after a lifetime of unparalleled wisdom, wealth, pleasure, and achievement had shown him that none of these things satisfy apart from God.

Written to: Israel, and all who seek meaning in life. The Preacher addresses "the sons of men" throughout the book; his conclusions are universal.

Setting: Solomon looks back over everything he has pursued — wisdom, pleasure, labor, riches, fame — and delivers his verdict: "Vanity of vanities; all is vanity." The Hebrew word hebel (translated "vanity" in the KJV) means "breath" or "vapor" — something that appears for a moment and then vanishes. The book is not despair; it is realism. Every earthly pursuit is fleeting, but God's work endures forever. The Preacher's final answer is not emptiness but reverence: "Fear God, and keep his commandments."

Where this sits historically: Written near the end of Solomon's reign (c. 935 BC), shortly before the kingdom divided in 930 BC under his son Rehoboam, and while the Egyptian, Phoenician, and early Aramean kingdoms surrounded a Jerusalem at its zenith.

Contemporaries: Solomon composed it alongside Proverbs and the Song of Solomon, while Jeroboam was beginning to rise in the north and the prophet Ahijah of Shiloh was already announcing the coming division of the kingdom.

Big themes:

- The vanity of all earthly pursuits — wisdom, pleasure, labor, and wealth all end in the same grave
- The fear of God as life's conclusion — the book's answer to its own question (12:13–14)
- The limits of human wisdom — even the wisest man cannot find out all that God does (3:11; 8:17)
- The certainty of death as the great leveler — one event happens to the righteous and the wicked alike (9:2–3)
- Enjoyment of life as God's gift within its proper bounds — eating, drinking, and finding good in one's labor are from the hand of God (2:24; 3:13; 5:18–19)
- Time and seasons — God has appointed a time for everything, and everything is beautiful in its time (3:1–11)

Key passages: 1:2; 3:1–8; 5:2; 7:29; 12:1; 12:13–14

How it fits: Ecclesiastes is the counterweight to Proverbs. Proverbs teaches that wisdom, diligence, and the fear of the LORD lead to prosperity and blessing. Ecclesiastes answers: even prosperity is vanity without God. Together the two books give a complete picture — pursue wisdom, work hard, enjoy God's gifts, but hold it all loosely, because nothing under the sun lasts. Only what God does endures forever.

Chapter 1

The Preacher declares that all is vanity and that there is nothing new under the sun. He introduces himself as king over Israel in Jerusalem and recounts how he set his heart to search out all things by wisdom, finding that even wisdom itself brings grief and sorrow.

- 1

The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

■ NAME NOTE — Solomon / the Preacher (SOL-oh-mun / PREE-chur) — Solomon, son of David, king of Israel, the wisest and wealthiest man of his age. The Hebrew title Qoheleth means "one who assembles" or "the Preacher" — one who gathers people to hear wisdom. Solomon does not name himself directly in Ecclesiastes but identifies himself by his office and lineage in 1:1 and 1:12.

- 2

Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher, "vanity of vanities; all is vanity."

■ WORD NOTE — Vanity (VAN-ih-tee) — Hebrew hebel, meaning "breath, vapor, fleeting." The KJV's "vanity of vanities" is the Preacher's verdict on all earthly striving apart from God. The word does not mean "pointless" in the modern slang sense — it means temporary, like a breath that appears and vanishes. This is the most repeated word in Ecclesiastes (appearing over 30 times) and the key to the whole book.

- 3

What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

What does a man gain from all his labor at which he works under the sun?
- 4

One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

One generation passes away, and another generation comes, but the earth remains forever.
- 5

The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries back to the place where it rose.
- 6

The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

The wind goes toward the south and turns about to the north. It whirls about continually, and the wind returns again on its circuits.

- 7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again. All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place from which the rivers come, there they return again.
- 8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. All things are full of labor; a man cannot put it into words. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.
- 9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. That which has been is what shall be, and that which is done is what shall be done. There is no new thing under the sun.
- 10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. Is there anything of which it may be said, "See, this is new"? It has already been in ancient times, which were before us.
- 11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after. There is no memory of former things, nor will there be any memory of things to come among those who come after.
- 12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem. I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.
- 13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith. I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom all things that are done under heaven. This heavy task God has given to the sons of man, to be busy with.
- 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. I have seen all the works that are done under the sun, and all is vanity and vexation of spirit.
- 15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered. What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

Chapter 2

The Preacher tests himself with pleasure, laughter, wine, great building projects, wealth, and every delight, and concludes that all of it is vanity and vexation of spirit. He observes that the wise man and the fool share the same death, and that the only good is to eat, drink, and find enjoyment in one's labor as a gift from God.

| 1 I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity. 2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it? 3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. 4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards: 5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits: 6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: 7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me: 8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. | I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth, so enjoy pleasure." But this also was vanity. I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?" I sought in my heart to give myself to wine, while my heart still guided me with wisdom, and to take hold of folly. I wanted to see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their life. I made great works for myself. I built houses for myself and planted vineyards. I made gardens and orchards for myself, and I planted in them trees of every kind of fruit. I made pools of water for myself, to water the woods that brought forth trees. I obtained menservants and maidservants, and I had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than all who were in Jerusalem before me. I also gathered for myself silver and gold, and the special treasure of kings and provinces. I obtained men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, with musical instruments of all kinds. |
|--|--|

- 9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. So I became great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me.
- 10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour. Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I withheld my heart from no joy, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor. This was my portion of all my labor.
- 11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. Then I looked on all the works my hands had done, and on the labor I had toiled to do. All was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.
- 12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done. Then I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. For what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.
- 13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.
- 14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all. The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. Yet I also saw that one event happens to them all.
- 15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me. Why then was I more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity.

- 16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. For there is no lasting memory of the wise more than of the fool, since in the days to come all will be forgotten. And how does the wise man die? Just like the fool.
- 17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. For all is vanity and vexation of spirit.
- 18 Yea, I hated all my labour wherein I had laboured under the sun: seeing that I must leave it unto the man that shall be after me. I hated all my labor at which I had worked under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me.
- 19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all my labor at which I have worked and shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.
- 20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. So I turned to make my heart despair of all the labor at which I had worked under the sun.
- 21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For there is a man whose labor is done with wisdom, knowledge, and fairness, yet he must leave it as a portion to a man who has not labored in it. This also is vanity and a great evil.
- 22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? For what does a man have from all his labor and from the vexation of his heart, at which he has labored under the sun?
- 23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity. For all his days are sorrows, and his work is grief. Even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

24	There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.	There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink, and to let his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.
25	For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?	For who can eat, or who can enjoy it, more than I?
26	For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.	For God gives to the man who is good in his sight wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and heaping up, that he may give it to the one who is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Chapter 3

The Preacher declares that there is a time for everything — a time to be born and a time to die, a time to weep and a time to laugh. He observes that God has made everything beautiful in its time and set eternity in the hearts of men, yet no one can find out the full work of God. He notes that man and beast share the same breath and the same death, and all return to dust.

- 18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts. I said in my heart concerning the state of the sons of men, that God might test them, and that they might see they themselves are like beasts.
- 19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity. For what happens to the sons of men also happens to beasts; one thing happens to them both. As one dies, so dies the other. They all have one breath, so that a man has no advantage over a beast, for all is vanity.

Chapter 4

The Preacher considers the oppressions done under the sun and sees that the oppressed have no comforter. He observes that all labor and skillful work spring from envy, that two are better than one, and that a threefold cord is not quickly broken. He notes that even a poor wise child is better than an old foolish king.

I saw the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter. On the side of their oppressors there was power, but they had no comforter. |
| 2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive. | Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead more than the living who are still alive. |
| 3 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. | And better than them both is he who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. |
| 4 Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. Yet there is no end to all his labor, nor is his eye satisfied with riches. Nor does he ask, "For whom do I labor, and deprive my soul of good?" This also is vanity; it is a heavy task. |

The Preacher warns against rash words before God and urges that vows be paid promptly. He observes that the lover of money is never satisfied, that riches kept bring harm to their owner, and that a man leaves the world as naked as he entered it. He concludes that it is good and fitting to eat, drink, and enjoy one's labor, for this is God's gift.

| 1 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. | Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Be more ready to hear than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not consider that they do evil. |
| 2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. | Do not be rash with your mouth, and let not your heart be quick to utter anything before God. For God is in heaven and you on earth, therefore let your words be few. |
| 3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words. | For a dream comes through much business, and a fool's voice is known by many words. |
| 4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. | When you vow a vow to God, do not delay to pay it, for He has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you have vowed. |
| 5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. | It is better not to vow than to vow and not pay. |

- 6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, and do not say before the angel that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?
- 7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God. For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also various vanities. But fear God.
- 8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they. If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of judgment and justice in a province, do not marvel at the matter. For he who is higher than the highest regards it, and there are higher ones over them.
- 9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field. Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king himself is served by the field.
- 10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity. He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver, nor he who loves abundance with increase. This also is vanity.
- 11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? When goods increase, those who eat them increase. And what good is there for the owners, except to see them with their eyes?
- 12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. The sleep of a working man is sweet, whether he eats little or much. But the abundance of the rich will not let him sleep.
- 13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt. There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun: riches kept for their owners to their own hurt.

He shall take nothing from his labor that he can carry away in his hand. And this also is a grievous evil: in every way as he came, so shall he go. And what profit has he who has labored for the wind? All his days he also eats in darkness, and he has much sorrow, sickness, and wrath. This is what I have seen: it is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor at which he works under the sun all the days of his life that God gives Him. For this is His portion. And every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given Him power to eat from them, to take His portion and to rejoice in His labor — this is the gift of God. For he shall not much remember the days of his life, because God keeps Him busy with the joy of His heart. |

The Preacher describes the evil of a man to whom God gives wealth, honor, and everything he desires, yet God does not give him the power to enjoy it. He argues that a stillborn child is better off than such a man, and that no one knows what is good for man in the days of his vain life.

| 1 | There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: | There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: |
| 2 | A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. | A man to whom God has given riches, wealth, and honor, so that He lacks nothing for His soul of all that He desires, yet God does not give Him the power to enjoy them, but a stranger eats them. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease. |
| 3 | If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. | If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and he has no burial — I say that a stillborn child is better than he. |
| 4 | For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness. | For it comes in with vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. |
| 5 | Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other. | Moreover it has not seen the sun, nor known anything. This has more rest than the other. |

What does the poor man have, who knows how to walk before the living? Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit. That which has been is named already, and it is known that it is man. Chapter 7

The Preacher offers proverbs on wisdom: a good name is better than precious ointment, sorrow is better than laughter, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud. He warns against being overly righteous or overly wicked and observes that there is not a just man on earth who does good and does not sin. He concludes that God made man upright, but men have sought out many inventions.

| 1 | A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth. | A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of one's birth. |
| 2 | It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. | It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of all men, and the living will lay it to his heart. |
| 3 | Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better. | Sorrow is better than laughter, for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better. |
| 4 | The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. | The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. |
| 5 | It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. | It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools. |
| 6 | For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. | For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. |
| 7 | Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart. | Surely oppression drives a wise man mad, and a bribe destroys the heart. |
| 8 | Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. | Better is the end of a thing than its beginning, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. |
| 9 | Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. | Do not be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. |

- 10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this. Do not say, "What is the cause that the former days were better than these?" For you do not inquire wisely about this.
- 11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun. Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and by it there is profit to those who see the sun.
- 12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it. For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense; but the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.
- 13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked? Consider the work of God, for who can make straight what He has made crooked?
- 14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him. In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God has set the one over against the other, so that man should find nothing of what shall be after Him.
- 15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness. All things I have seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his wickedness.
- 16 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldst thou destroy thyself? Do not be overly righteous, nor make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself?
- 17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldst thou die before thy time? Do not be overly wicked, nor be a fool. Why should you die before your time?

| 18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all. | It is good that you should take hold of this, and also from the other do not withdraw your hand. For he who fears God shall come forth from them all. |
| 19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city. | Wisdom strengthens the wise more than ten mighty men who are in the city. |
| 20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. | For there is not a just man on earth who does good and does not sin. |
| 21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: | Also do not take to heart every word that is spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you. |
| 22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others. | For often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. |
| 23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. | All this I have proved by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me. |
| 24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out? | That which is far off and exceedingly deep — who can find it out? |
| 25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: | I applied my heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness. |
| 26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. | And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands are like bands. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her. |

The Preacher counsels obedience to the king and observes that no man has power over the day of death. He notes that because sentence against evil is not carried out quickly, men are emboldened to sin, yet he knows it shall be well with those who fear God. He concludes that no man can find out all the work of God, no matter how hard he searches.

And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. |

| 2 | I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. | I counsel you to keep the king's commandment, because of the oath of God. |
| 3 | Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. | Do not be hasty to go out of his presence. Do not persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him. |
| 4 | Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou? | Where the word of a king is, there is power, and who may say to him, "What are you doing?" |
| 5 | Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment. | Whoever keeps the commandment shall feel no evil thing, and a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgment. |
| 6 | Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. | Because for every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. |
| 7 | For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be? | For he does not know what shall be, for who can tell him when it shall be? |
| 8 | There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it. | No man has power over the spirit to retain the spirit, nor has He power in the day of death. There is no discharge in that war, nor shall wickedness deliver those who are given to it. |
| 9 | All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt. | All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time when one man rules over another to his own hurt. |

- 10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had done so. This also is vanity.
- 11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Because sentence against an evil work is not carried out speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
- 12 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and his days are prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with those who fear God, Who fear before Him.
- 13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. But it shall not be well with the wicked, nor shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.
- 14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. There is a vanity that is done on the earth: there are just men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.
- 15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun. Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat and to drink and to be merry. For this shall remain with him from his labor the days of his life, which God gives Him under the sun.

Chapter 9

The Preacher observes that one event — death — happens to all alike, to the righteous and the wicked. He urges men to eat, drink, and enjoy life with the wife they love, for there is no work or wisdom in the grave. He notes that the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong, and that wisdom, though better than weapons of war, is often despised.

- | | | |

| 1 | For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. | For all this I considered in my heart, to declare all this: that the righteous and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God. No man knows either love or hatred by all that is before them. |
| 2 | All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. | All things come alike to all: one event happens to the righteous and to the wicked, to the good and to the clean and to the unclean, to him who sacrifices and to him who does not sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; and he who swears, so is he who fears an oath. |
| 3 | This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. | This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun: that one event happens to all. Indeed, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. |
| 4 | For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. | For to him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. |
| 5 | For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. | For the living know that they shall die, but the dead know nothing. They have no more a reward, for the memory of them is forgotten. |
| 6 | Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun. | Also their love, their hatred, and their envy have now perished. Nor have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. |

- | | | |

| 7 | Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works. | Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God now accepts your works. |
| 8 | Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment. | Let your garments always be white, and let your head lack no ointment. |
| 9 | Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun. | Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of the life of your vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all the days of your vanity. For that is your portion in this life, and in your labor at which you work under the sun. |
| 10 | Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. | Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might, for there is no work, nor planning, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, where you are going. |
| 11 | I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. | I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to men of understanding, nor favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. |
| 12 | For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them. | For man also does not know his time. Like the fish that are taken in a cruel net, and like the birds that are caught in the snare, so are the sons of men snared in an evil time when it falls suddenly upon them. |
| 13 | This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me: | This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me: |

Chapter 10

The Preacher teaches that a little folly ruins a reputation for wisdom, just as dead flies spoil the ointment. He offers proverbs on rulers and fools: woe to the land whose king is a child, and blessed is the land whose king is the son of nobles. He warns that even a secret curse against the king may be carried by a bird of the air.

|---|---|--|
| 1 | Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour. | Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking smell. So does a little folly to him who has a reputation for wisdom and honor. |
| 2 | A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left. | A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. |
| 3 | Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool. | And also, when he who is a fool walks by the way, his wisdom fails him, and he tells everyone that he is a fool. |
| 4 | If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences. | If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your place, for yielding pacifies great offenses. |
| 5 | There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: | There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, like an error that proceeds from the ruler: |
| 6 | Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place. | Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. |
| 7 | I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth. | I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. |
| 8 | He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him. | He who digs a pit shall fall into it, and whoever breaks through a hedge, a serpent shall bite him. |
| 9 | Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby. | Whoever moves stones shall be hurt by them, and he who splits wood shall be endangered by it. |

- 10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. If the iron is blunt, and he does not sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength. But wisdom is profitable to direct.
- 11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better. Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment, and a babbler is no better.
- 12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious, but the lips of a fool swallow up himself.
- 13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.
- 14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? A fool also is full of words. A man cannot tell what shall be, and what shall be after him, who can tell him?
- 15 The labour of the foolish wearith every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city. The labor of fools wearies every one of them, because none of them knows how to go to the city.
- 16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!
- 17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat at the proper time, for strength and not for drunkenness!
- 18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through. By much laziness the building decays, and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.
- 19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things. A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes merry, but money answers all things.

| 20 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter. | Do not curse the king, not even in your thought, and do not curse the rich in your bedchamber. For a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which has wings shall tell the matter. |

The Preacher urges generosity — cast your bread upon the waters — and diligence in labor, for no man knows what disaster may come. He counsels the young man to rejoice in his youth and walk in the ways of his heart, but warns that God will bring every action into judgment.

Chapter 12

The Preacher urges the young to remember their Creator before old age comes, describing the decline of the body in vivid metaphor — the keepers of the house tremble, the grinders cease, and the silver cord is loosed. He repeats his verdict that all is vanity and delivers the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God and keep His commandments, for God shall bring every work into judgment.

Song of Solomon

Author: Solomon — the opening verse attributes the song to him by name: "The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's." He is both the named author and one of the two principal speakers.

Date written: c. 970–930 BC, during the reign of Solomon. The lush imagery of gardens, spices, and imported luxuries fits the wealth and peace of Solomon's early kingdom.

Written to: Israel as a whole. Though it reads as a private love poem between a bridegroom and his bride, Jewish tradition placed it in the canon as a picture of God's covenant love for His people, and Christian tradition reads it as a picture of Christ's love for His church.

Setting: The poem moves between the royal court in Jerusalem, the countryside of northern Israel (Lebanon, Sharon, Hermon, Carmel, Engedi), and the vineyards and gardens where the lovers meet. There is no single narrative arc — it is a cycle of songs celebrating desire, separation, reunion, and the permanence of love.

Where this sits historically: Composed early in Solomon's reign (c. 970–960 BC) at the height of the united kingdom, when trade with Phoenicia and Egypt brought the spices, cedars, and luxuries the poem celebrates.

Contemporaries: Solomon wrote alongside Proverbs and Ecclesiastes; the prophet Nathan had recently advised David, and Hiram of Tyre was Solomon's ally in trade and temple-building.

Big themes:

- The goodness of married love — God created physical desire, and Scripture celebrates it within the covenant of marriage
- Longing and seeking — the bride repeatedly searches for her beloved, picturing the soul's pursuit of God
- The exclusivity of love — "I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine" (6:3) — love demands faithfulness
- The strength of love — "love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave" (8:6) — a statement about the unbreakable nature of true commitment
- Beauty in creation — the poem overflows with imagery drawn from nature: gardens, vineyards, lilies, gazelles, mountains, spices
- Christ and the church — the NT applies bridegroom/bride language to Christ and His people (Ephesians 5:25–32; Revelation 19:7–9); this book is the OT seed of that theology

Key passages: Song of Solomon 2:10–13; 2:16; 4:7; 6:3; 8:6–7

How it fits: Song of Solomon is the only book of the Bible devoted entirely to the celebration of romantic love. It stands in the Wisdom literature alongside Proverbs (which warns against adultery) and Ecclesiastes (which says earthly pleasures are fleeting) — and it answers both by showing that love within God's design is not fleeting but "a most vehement flame" that "many waters cannot quench" (8:6–7). The early church fathers and the Reformers alike read it as a double portrait: the literal celebration of marriage, and the spiritual picture of Christ who pursues, wins, and delights in His bride the church.

Chapter 1

The bride longs for her beloved's kisses and praises his love as better than wine. She describes herself as dark but lovely, explains that her brothers made her keep the vineyards, and asks where her beloved feeds his flock. The bridegroom praises her beauty, comparing her to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

| 3 | Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth; therefore do the virgins love thee. | Because of the fragrance of your good ointments, your name is like ointment poured out. Therefore the young women love you. |
| 4 | Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee. | Draw me, and we will run after you. The king has brought me into his chambers. We will be glad and rejoice in you; we will remember your love more than wine. The upright love you. |

■ NAME NOTE — Solomon (SOL-oh-mon) — "peace" — Son of David and Bathsheba; third king of Israel; builder of the Temple in Jerusalem; renowned for his God-given wisdom (1 Kings 3:12) and for his wealth and his many marriages (1 Kings 11:1–3). He is the named author of this song.

My mother's sons were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept. |

■ NAME NOTE — Kedar (KEE-dar) — "dark" — A son of Ishmael (Genesis 25:13) and the Arabian tribe descended from him; known for their black goat-hair tents. The bride compares her sun-darkened skin to these tents.

Chapter 3

The bride searches for her beloved by night through the city streets and finds him after passing the watchmen. She charges the daughters of Jerusalem not to stir up love until it pleases. The poem then describes Solomon's royal procession from the wilderness, his bed guarded by sixty mighty men, and the crown his mother placed on him on his wedding day.

Chapter 4

The bridegroom praises his bride from head to foot — her eyes like doves, her hair like a flock of goats, her lips like scarlet thread — and declares there is no flaw in her. He calls her from Lebanon and says she has stolen his heart. He describes her as a garden enclosed, a fountain sealed, overflowing with every precious spice. The bride invites the winds to blow upon her garden so its fragrance may reach her beloved.

■ NAME NOTE — Gilead (GIL-ee-ad) — "rocky region" — The mountainous territory east of the Jordan River, known for its rich pastureland, its flocks, and its healing balm (Jeremiah 8:22). The flocks of Gilead were proverbially beautiful.

Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. |

■ NAME NOTE — Lebanon (LEB-ah-non) — "white" (from its snow-capped peaks) — The mountain range north of Israel, famous for its towering cedars. Solomon imported cedar from Lebanon to build the Temple (1 Kings 5:6). In the Song it represents majesty, fragrance, and remote beauty.

■ NAME NOTE — Amana (ah-MAH-nah) — "firmness, constancy" — A peak in the Anti-Lebanon range, near the source of the Abana River (2 Kings 5:12). Listed alongside Hermon as a high, wild place.

■ NAME NOTE — Shenir (SHEE-nir) — The Amorite name for Mount Hermon (Deuteronomy 3:9); sometimes used for a neighboring peak in the same range.

■ NAME NOTE — Hermon (HER-mon) — "sacred mountain" — The highest peak in the region (over 9,000 feet), marking the northern boundary of the Promised Land. Its snow-fed streams water the Jordan River. Psalm 133:3 compares the dew of Hermon to the blessing of God.

Chapter 5

The bridegroom enters his garden. The bride hesitates to open the door to her beloved, and when she rises he is gone. She searches for him through the city and the watchmen strike and wound her. The daughters of Jerusalem ask what makes her beloved special, and she describes him in lavish detail — his head like fine gold, his eyes like doves, his mouth most sweet — declaring he is altogether lovely.

Chapter 6

The daughters of Jerusalem ask where the beloved has gone, and the bride answers that he has gone down to his garden. She declares, "I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine." The bridegroom praises her beauty as like Tirzah and awesome as an army with banners. Among sixty queens and eighty concubines, his dove, his undefiled one, stands alone. The daughters call for the Shulamite to return.

| 4 | Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners. | You are beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners. |

■ NAME NOTE — Tirzah (TIR-zah) — "pleasant, delightful" — An ancient Canaanite city that later served as the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel before Omri built Samaria (1 Kings 16:23). Its beauty was proverbial — the bridegroom compares his bride to Tirzah and Jerusalem in the same breath.

|--|--|

■ NAME NOTE — Amminadib (ah-MIN-ah-dib) — "my people are willing / my noble people" — A name of uncertain reference in this verse. Some read it as a proper name; others take it as a description ("my princely people"). The KJV preserves the form; the sense is that the speaker was suddenly swept up as if riding in a royal chariot.

- 13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies. Return, return, O Shulamite! Return, return, that we may look upon you! What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the dance of two companies.

■ NAME NOTE — Shulamite (SHOO-lah-mite) — The title given to the bride. It may be the feminine form of "Solomon" (both from the Hebrew root shalom, "peace"), making her "the peaceful one" — Solomon's counterpart. Others connect it to the village of Shunem in the Jezreel Valley.

Chapter 7

The bridegroom praises the bride from foot to head — her feet in sandals, her stature like a palm tree, her head like Carmel. The bride declares, "I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me," and invites him to go out into the fields and vineyards where she will give him her love.

- 1 How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman. *How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! ■ NAME NOTE — Heshbon (HESH-bon) — "reckoning" — An ancient city east of the Jordan, originally the capital of Sihon king of the Amorites (Numbers 21:26), later an Israelite city. Known for its pools and reservoirs.

■ NAME NOTE — Bathrabbim (bath-RAB-im) — "daughter of many" — A gate of the city of Heshbon; named for the multitudes who passed through it.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (dah-MAS-kus) — One of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world; capital of Syria (Aram). Located northeast of Israel, it was both a trading partner and a recurring enemy throughout Israel's history.

Chapter 8

The bride longs for open affection with her beloved and again charges the daughters of Jerusalem not to awaken love before its time. She declares that love is strong as death, jealousy fierce as the grave, and its flames are a most vehement flame that many waters cannot quench. The brothers speak of guarding their young sister, and the bride offers her own vineyard freely, telling Solomon to keep his thousand.

If I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me. I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house — she who taught me. I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranate. His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem: do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases. Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? |--|---|

■ WORD NOTE — A most vehement flame — The Hebrew here is shalhebethyah, literally "the flame of the LORD" (or "the flame of Yah"). This is the only place in the Song where God's name appears. The KJV renders it "a most vehement flame," but the underlying Hebrew declares that the fire of true love is kindled by God Himself.

■ NAME NOTE — Baalhamon (bay-al-HAY-mon) — "lord of a multitude" — A place name appearing only here in Scripture; the location of Solomon's vineyard. Its meaning fits the context: Solomon's vast holdings are contrasted with the bride's singular vineyard, which is hers alone.

Isaiah

Author: Isaiah son of Amoz — the book names him as its author (Isa 1:1), Christ quotes it as Isaiah's (Matt 12:17–21, 13:14–15), and the NT cites it more than any other OT prophet.

Date written: c. 740–680 BC, spanning the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Written to: The southern kingdom of Judah, with prophetic vision extending to Babylon, the nations, and the end of days.

Setting: The northern kingdom of Israel is about to fall to Assyria (722 BC). Judah faces the same threat and the same temptation — to trust foreign alliances rather than God. Isaiah ministers for over forty years through this crisis, warning of judgment and promising restoration.

Where this sits historically: Written under Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (c. 740–680 BC), as the Assyrian empire under Tiglath-Pileser III, Shalmaneser V, Sargon II, and Sennacherib destroyed Samaria in 722 BC and besieged Jerusalem in 701 BC.

Contemporaries: Micah, Hosea, and Amos were prophesying in the same window, while Jonah had recently been sent to Nineveh and the divided kingdom watched the northern tribes carried into Assyrian exile.

Big themes:

- The holiness of God — Isaiah's call vision (ch. 6) establishes the foundation: God is holy, man is unclean, and only a divine act of cleansing makes ministry possible

- Judgment on Judah and the nations — the first half of the book (chs. 1–39) pronounces judgment on sin and unfaithfulness

- The Servant of the LORD — four "Servant Songs" (42, 49, 50, 53) describe a figure who suffers for the sins of the people; chapter 53 is the clearest prophecy of the atonement in all the OT

- The new creation — the second half (chs. 40–66) promises comfort, restoration, and ultimately a new heavens and new earth

- Messianic prophecy — Isaiah contains more explicit messianic prophecies than any other OT book: the virgin birth (7:14), the child born (9:6), the shoot from Jesse's root (11:1), the suffering servant (53)

Key passages: Isa 6:3; 7:14; 9:6–7; 40:31; 53:5–6

How it fits: Isaiah stands at the turning point of OT history — the Assyrian threat, the Babylonian exile on the horizon, and the promise of a coming Servant who will do what no king could. The NT quotes Isaiah more than any other prophet. Jesus opened His ministry by reading Isaiah 61 in the synagogue at Nazareth.

Chapter 1

The LORD rebukes Judah as a sinful nation whose sacrifices and feasts He despises because their hands are full of blood. He calls them to wash themselves, cease doing evil, and learn to do good, promising that though their sins are as scarlet they shall be white as snow.

- 6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. From the sole of the foot even to the head, there is no soundness in it — only wounds, bruises, and festering sores. They have not been closed, nor bound up, nor soothed with ointment.
- 7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. Your country is desolate; Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour Your land in Your presence, and it is desolate, as if overthrown by strangers.
- 8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. The daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shelter in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.
- 9 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. Unless the LORD of hosts had left us a very small remnant, we would have been like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.
- 10 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. Hear the word of the LORD, You rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah!
- 11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. "What is the purpose of all Your sacrifices to Me?" says the LORD. "I am full of the burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fattened beasts. I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats.
- 12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? When You come to appear before Me, who has required this from Your hand, to trample My courts?

- 13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Bring no more empty offerings; incense is detestable to Me. The new moons, the sabbaths, the calling of assemblies — I cannot endure iniquity together with the solemn meeting.
- 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them. My soul hates Your new moons and Your appointed feasts. They are a burden to Me; I am weary of bearing them.
- 15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. When You spread out Your hands, I will hide My eyes from You. Even though You make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood.
- 16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean. Put away the evil of Your doings from before My eyes. Stop doing evil.
- 17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Learn to do good; seek justice, rebuke the oppressor, defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.
- 18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. "Come now, let us reason together," says the LORD. "Though Your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
- 19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: If You are willing and obedient, You shall eat the good of the land;
- 20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. but if You refuse and rebel, You shall be devoured with the sword." For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.
- 21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. How the faithful city has become a harlot! It was full of justice; righteousness lodged in her — but now murderers.

- 22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water: Your silver has become dross, Your wine mixed with water.
- 23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves. Everyone loves bribes and chases after rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, and the cause of the widow does not come before them.
- 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies: Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, declares: "I will rid Myself of My adversaries and avenge Myself on My enemies.
- 25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin: I will turn My hand against You and thoroughly purge away Your dross and remove all Your alloy.
- 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. I will restore Your judges as at the first, and Your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward You shall be called the City of Righteousness, the Faithful City."
- 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness. Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her penitents with righteousness.
- 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed. The destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
- 29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. They shall be ashamed of the oaks You have desired, and You shall be embarrassed because of the gardens You have chosen.

Words in this chapter:

burnt offering — A sacrifice completely consumed by fire on the altar — representing total dedication to God, holding nothing back.

incense — A fragrant offering burned on the golden altar in the tabernacle — symbolizing the prayers of God's people rising before Him.

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Judah (JOO-dah) — Jacob's fourth son by Leah — ancestor of the royal tribe from which David and ultimately Jesus descended; his name means 'praise.'

Gomorraah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 2

Isaiah prophesies that in the last days the mountain of the LORD's house will be exalted above the hills and all nations will flow to it. The LORD will judge among the nations and they will beat their swords into plowshares. He warns that the day of the LORD will bring low every proud and lofty thing.

All nations shall flow to it. |
| 3 | And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. | Many peoples shall come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. Words in this chapter:

Philistines (FIL-ih-steen) — Israel's most persistent enemies in the era of the judges and early monarchy — a sea-faring people from the Aegean who settled along Canaan's coast; gave their name to 'Palestine.'

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Bashan (BAY-shan) — A fertile plateau east of the Jordan and north of Gilead — known for its strong cattle; the kingdom of Og of Bashan who was defeated by Israel.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 3

The LORD declares He will remove from Jerusalem every supply and stay -- the mighty man, the judge, the prophet, and the elder. Children will rule over them and the people will oppress one another. The daughters of Zion are warned that their finery will be replaced with sackcloth and shame.

| 4 | And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. | "I will give them children as their princes, and infants shall rule over them. |
| 5 | And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable. | The people shall oppress one another — each man his neighbor. The young shall act arrogantly against the elder, and the lowly against the honorable." |
| 6 | When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand: | When a man grabs his brother in his father's house and says, "You have a coat — you be our ruler! Let this ruin be under your hand," |
| 7 | In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. | in that day he will protest: "I will not be a healer. In my house there is neither bread nor coat. Do not make me ruler of the people." |
| 8 | For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. | Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD, provoking His glorious presence. |
| 9 | The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. | The look on their faces testifies against them. They declare their sin like Sodom and do not hide it. Woe to them, for they have brought disaster on themselves! |
| 10 | Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. | Tell the righteous that it will go well with them, for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds. |
| 11 | Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. | Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for them, for what their hands have done will be done to them. |

- 12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths. As for My people, children oppress them, and women rule over them. O My people, your guides lead you astray and confuse the direction of your paths.
- 13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. The LORD rises to argue His case; He stands to judge the peoples.
- 14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of His people: "You have devoured the vineyard. The plunder of the poor is in Your houses.
- 15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts. What do You mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?" declares the Lord GOD of hosts.
- 16 Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: The LORD also says: "Because the daughters of Zion are proud and walk with their necks stretched out and their eyes flirting, strutting and mincing as they go, with jingling ornaments on their feet,
- 17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts. therefore the Lord will strike the scalp of the daughters of Zion with sores, and the LORD will lay their foreheads bare."
- 18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon, In that day the Lord will take away the finery of their ankle chains, their headbands, and their crescent necklaces,

Chapter 4

Isaiah prophesies that in that day seven women will take hold of one man. The Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious for the survivors of Israel, and the LORD will create over Mount Zion a cloud by day and a fire by night as a covering of glory.

Chapter 5

Isaiah sings the parable of the LORD's vineyard, which He planted and tended but which yielded only wild grapes. The LORD pronounces six woes -- against those who join house to house, who rise early to follow strong drink, who call evil good and good evil, who are wise in their own eyes, and who justify the wicked for a bribe.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 1 | Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: | Let me sing for my beloved a love song about his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. |
| 2 | And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. | He dug it up and cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in the middle of it and cut out a wine vat. He expected it to yield good grapes — but it yielded wild grapes. |
| 3 | And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. | "Now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. |

- 4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? What more could have been done for my vineyard that I have not done? When I expected it to yield good grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?
- 5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: Now let me tell You what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured. I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
- 6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. I will make it a wasteland — unpruned and unweeded — and briers and thorns shall come up. I will also command the clouds to rain no rain on it."
- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are His pleasant planting. He looked for justice, but found bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard a cry of distress.
- 8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no room left, and You alone live in the midst of the land!
- 9 In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant. The LORD of hosts said in my hearing, "Many houses shall be desolate — great and fine ones, with no one living in them."
- 10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah. Ten acres of vineyard shall produce only one bath of wine, and a homer of seed shall yield only an ephah of grain.

- 11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! Woe to those who rise early in the morning to run after strong drink, who stay up late into the night until wine inflames them!
- 12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands. They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute, and wine at their feasts — but they do not regard the work of the LORD, nor consider what His hands have done.
- 13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. Therefore My people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honored men are starving and their crowd is parched with thirst.
- 14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. Therefore hell has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure. Their glory, their crowd, their pomp, and all who rejoice among them descend into it.
- 15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: The lowly shall be brought down, the mighty humbled, and the eyes of the proud brought low.
- 16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. But the LORD of hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One shows Himself holy in righteousness.
- 17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. Then lambs shall graze as in their pasture, and strangers shall eat among the ruins of the rich.
- 18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope: Woe to those who drag iniquity along with cords of deceit, and sin as if pulling it with a cart rope,

- 19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! who say, "Let Him hurry and hasten His work so we can see it! Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come so we can know it!"
- 20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!
- 21 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight!
- 22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, champions at mixing strong drink,
- 23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deny justice to the innocent!
- 24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore, as a flame devours stubble and dry grass collapses into the fire, their root shall rot and their blossom blow away as dust — because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
- 25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Therefore the anger of the LORD burned against His people. He stretched out His hand against them and struck them. The mountains trembled, and their corpses lay like refuse in the streets. Yet for all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.

| 26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: 27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: 28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: 29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. 30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof. | He raises an ensign for distant nations and whistles for them from the ends of the earth. They come quickly, with great speed. None among them is weary or stumbles. None slumbers or sleeps. Their belts are not loosened; their sandal straps are not broken. Their arrows are sharp and their bows strung. Their horses' hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like a whirlwind. Their roaring is like a lion; they roar like young lions. They growl, seize the prey, and carry it off, with no one to rescue it. In that day they shall roar over them like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land — darkness and distress. The light is darkened by the clouds. |

Isaiah sees the Lord sitting on His throne, high and lifted up, with the seraphim crying, 'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts.' Isaiah cries out that he is undone as a man of unclean lips. A seraph touches his lips with a live coal from the altar, and the LORD commissions him to preach to a people who will hear but not understand.

| 1 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. | In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. |
| 2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. | Above Him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. |
| 3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. | One called to another and said, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!" |
| 4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. | The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of Him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. |
| 5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. | I said, "Woe is me! I am ruined, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips — yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" |

- 6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal in His hand, which He had taken from the altar with tongs.
- 7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged. He touched my mouth with it and said, "This has touched Your lips; Your iniquity is taken away and Your sin purged."
- 8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" I said, "Here I am. Send me."
- 9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. He said, "Go, and tell this people: 'Keep listening, but do not understand. Keep looking, but do not see.'"
- 10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. Make the heart of this people dull, make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes — lest they see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and turn and be healed."
- 11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, I said, "Lord, how long?" He answered, "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land is utterly desolate,
- 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. and the LORD has removed people far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.
- 13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof. Yet a tenth shall remain in it, and it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains when it is felled. The holy seed is its stump."

Words in this chapter:

seraphim (SEHR-ah-fim) — Fiery angelic beings seen in Isaiah's vision of God's throne — they had six wings and cried 'Holy, holy, holy'; their name means 'burning ones.'

Chapter 7

The LORD sends Isaiah to King Ahaz during the Syro-Ephraimite crisis to tell him not to fear Rezin and Pekah. Ahaz refuses to ask for a sign, so the LORD gives one Himself: a virgin shall conceive and bear a son and call his name Immanuel. Before the child is old enough to know good from evil, both enemy kings will be forsaken.

| 1 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. | In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not defeat it. |
| 2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. | When the house of David was told, "Syria is allied with Ephraim," the heart of Ahaz and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind. |

- 3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; The LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shearjashub, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the road to the field of the launderer.

■ NAME NOTE — Shearjashub (sheer-JAY-shub) — "a remnant shall return" — Isaiah's son, whose name was itself a sign of God's promise to preserve a remnant of Israel.

- 4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Tell Him: 'Be careful, stay calm, and do not be afraid. - 5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, Because Syria, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has plotted evil against You, saying,
- 6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: "Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it for ourselves and set up the son of Tabeal as king in the midst of it" —
- 7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass. thus says the Lord GOD: It shall not stand, and it shall not come to pass.
- 8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered so that it is no longer a people.
- 9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If You will not believe, You will not be established.' "
- 10 Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, The LORD spoke to Ahaz again, saying,

- 11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. "Ask a sign of the LORD Your God — let it be as deep as the grave or as high as heaven."
- 12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test."
- 13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Isaiah said, "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too small a thing for you to weary men, that you must weary my God also?"
- 14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign. A virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call His name Immanuel.
- 15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. He shall eat curds and honey when He knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.
- 16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings. For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted.
- 17 The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. The LORD will bring on You, on Your people, and on Your father's house, days such as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judah — the king of Assyria."
- 18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the far rivers of Egypt and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
- 19 And they shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. They shall all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the watering holes.

- 20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. In that day the Lord will shave with a hired razor — with those beyond the River, with the king of Assyria — the head and the hair of the legs. It will sweep away the beard also.
- 21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep; In that day a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep.
- 22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land. Because of the abundance of milk they give, he shall eat curds. Everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.
- 23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns. In that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines worth a thousand pieces of silver shall become briers and thorns.
- 24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns. Men will come there with bows and arrows, for all the land will be briers and thorns.
- 25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle. As for all the hills that used to be worked with a hoe, you will not go there for fear of briers and thorns. They will be places for oxen to roam and for sheep to trample.

Words in this chapter:

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Samaria (sah-MAIR-ee-ah) — The capital of the northern kingdom of Israel — built by King Omri; fell to Assyria in 722 BC; in NT times, the region between Judea and Galilee whose people were despised by Jews.

Immanuel (ih-MAN-yoo-el) — Hebrew name meaning 'God with us' — the sign promised in Isaiah 7:14, fulfilled in the birth of Jesus.

Chapter 8

The LORD instructs Isaiah to write on a great tablet the name Mahershalalhashbaz, and Isaiah's wife bears a son by that name as a sign that Assyria will plunder Damascus and Samaria. Isaiah warns the people not to fear man but to sanctify the LORD as their fear. He and his children are for signs and wonders in Israel.

- 1

Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Mahershalalhashbaz.
- The LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll and write on it in common script: Mahershalalhashbaz."

■ NAME NOTE — Mahershalalhashbaz (MAY-her-SHAL-al-HASH-baz) — "swift is the booty, speedy is the prey" — The name of Isaiah's son, given as a sign of the coming Assyrian conquest of Damascus and Samaria.

- 2

And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.
- I had it witnessed by Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah, reliable witnesses.
- 3

And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz.
- I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. The LORD said to me, "Call His name Mahershalalhashbaz."

- 4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. For before the boy knows how to say 'My father' or 'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria shall be carried off before the king of Assyria."
- 5 The LORD spake also unto me again, saying, The LORD spoke to me again, saying,
- 6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; "Because this people has rejected the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah,
- 7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks: therefore the Lord is about to bring up against them the waters of the River — mighty and many — the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will rise over all its channels and overflow all its banks.
- 8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. It shall sweep on into Judah, overflow, and pass through. It shall reach even to the neck, and its outspread wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel."
- 9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Band together, O peoples, and be shattered! Listen, all you distant lands. Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Prepare for battle, and be shattered!
- 10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. Devise a plan — it will come to nothing. State your case — it will not stand. For God is with us.
- 11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, For the LORD spoke to me with a strong hand and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,

- 12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. "Do not call 'conspiracy' everything this people calls a conspiracy. Do not fear what they fear or be in dread of it.
- 13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. The LORD of hosts — regard Him as holy. Let Him be Your fear and Your dread.
- 14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He will be a sanctuary, but also a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense to both houses of Israel — a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. Many shall stumble over it; they shall fall and be broken, be snared and taken."
- 16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. Bind up the testimony; seal the law among my disciples.
- 17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. I will wait for the LORD, Who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.
- 18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion. I and the children the LORD has given me are signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.
- 19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? When they say to You, "Seek those who have familiar spirits, and wizards that peep and mutter" — should not a people seek their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?

Words in this chapter:

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

familiar spirits — Demons or spirit-guides consulted by mediums and witches — strictly forbidden by God; communicating with them was punishable by death.

wizards — Those who practice magic or consult familiar spirits — KJV term for male practitioners of the occult; forbidden in Israel.

Chapter 9

Isaiah prophesies that the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. A child is born whose name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, and of His government and peace there shall be no end upon the throne of David. The LORD's anger against Israel is not yet turned away because the people do not repent.

| 1 | Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations. | But the gloom will not stay where there was distress. In the former time He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but in the latter time He will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. |
| 2 | The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. | The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. Those who lived in a land of deep darkness — a light has shone on them. |
| 3 | Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. | You have multiplied the nation and increased its joy. They rejoice before You as with joy at the harvest, as men are glad when they divide the plunder. |
| 4 | For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. | For the yoke of His burden, the staff on His shoulder, and the rod of His oppressor — You have broken these, as on the day of Midian. |
| 5 | For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire. | Every boot of the warrior in battle noise and every garment rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for fire. |

- 6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given. The government shall be on His shoulder, and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.
- 7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end — on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and uphold it with justice and righteousness from this time forth and forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.
- 8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will fall on Israel.
- 9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, All the people shall know — Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria — who say in pride and arrogance of heart,
- 10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. "The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with dressed stone. The sycamores have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."
- 11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together; The LORD raises the adversaries of Rezin against them and stirs up their enemies —
- 12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Syria on the east and Philistia on the west, and they devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.

- 13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts. Yet the people do not turn to him who struck them, nor seek the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day —
- 15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. the elder and honored man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.
- 16 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed. The leaders of this people lead them astray, and those they lead are swallowed up.
- 17 Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows, for everyone is godless and wicked, and every mouth speaks foolishness. For all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.
- 18 For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke. For wickedness burns like a fire; it devours briers and thorns. It kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.
- 19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother. Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is scorched, and the people are like fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother.
- 20 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm: They slice on the right and are still hungry; they devour on the left and are not satisfied. Each devours the flesh of His own arm —

- 21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim devours Manasseh; together they are against Judah. For all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.

Words in this chapter:

Naphtali (NAF-tah-ly) — Jacob's sixth son, by Bilhah — his tribe settled in Galilee near the Sea of Galilee; his name means 'my wrestling.'

Zebulun (ZEB-yoo-lun) — Jacob's tenth son by Leah — his tribe settled in the lowlands of Galilee; his name means 'honor' or 'exalted.'

Galilee (GAL-ih-lee) — The northern region of Israel — where Jesus grew up and performed most of His ministry; the disciples were mostly Galileans.

Jordan (JOR-dan) — The main river of Canaan — Israel crossed it miraculously to enter the Promised Land; Jesus was baptized in it by John.

Philistia (fiH-LIS-tee-ah) — The coastal plain south of Canaan — home of the Philistines, Israel's persistent enemies; their five main cities were Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

Chapter 10

The LORD pronounces woe on those who decree unrighteous decrees and rob the poor of their rights. He will use Assyria as the rod of His anger against Israel, but afterward He will punish the king of Assyria for his arrogance. A remnant of Israel will return and lean on the LORD in truth.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; | Woe to those who enact unjust laws and issue oppressive rulings, |
| 2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! | to deprive the poor of justice and rob the needy among My people of their rights — so that widows become their prey and they plunder the fatherless! |
| 3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? | What will You do on the day of punishment, when disaster comes from afar? To whom will You flee for help?
Where will You leave Your wealth? |
| 4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. | Nothing remains but to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain.
For all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out. |
| 5 O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. | Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger
— the staff in their hand is My fury! |
| 6 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. | I send Him against a godless nation; I command Him against the people of My wrath, to plunder and to take the spoil, and to trample them down like mud in the streets. |
| 7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. | But He does not intend this, nor does His heart think this way — his plan is to destroy and cut off many nations. |
| 8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings? | For He says, "Are not all my commanders kings?" |

- 15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. Shall the axe boast over him who swings it? Shall the saw magnify itself against him who wields it? That would be like a rod wielding the one who lifts it — like a staff lifting up a man who is not wood!
- 16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among His stout warriors; under His glory a fire will be kindled, burning like a blazing flame.
- 17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; The Light of Israel shall become a fire, and His Holy One a flame. It shall burn and devour His thorns and briers in one day.
- 18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth. It will destroy the glory of His forest and His fruitful land, both soul and body, and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.
- 19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. The remaining trees of His forest will be so few that a child could count them.
- 20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer lean on him who struck them, but will truly lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.
- 21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. A remnant shall return — the remnant of Jacob — to the Mighty God.

- 22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. Though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness.
- 23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. For the Lord GOD of hosts will carry out a full destruction — as decreed — throughout the land.
- 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: O My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He strikes you with the rod and lifts His staff against You as Egypt did.
- 25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. In just a little while My fury will be spent, and My anger will turn to their destruction.
- 26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. The LORD of hosts will brandish a whip against Him, as He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb. His staff will be over the sea, and He will lift it as He did in Egypt.
- 27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. In that day His burden will depart from Your shoulder, and His yoke from Your neck. The yoke will be broken because You have grown fat.
- 28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages: He has come to Aiath; He has passed through Migron; at Michmash He stores His supplies.
- 29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. They have crossed the pass; at Geba they make their camp for the night. Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul has fled.

Chapter 11

Isaiah prophesies that a rod shall come forth from the stem of Jesse and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, and He shall judge the poor with righteousness. The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots: | A shoot shall come from the stump of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow from His roots. |
| 2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; | The Spirit of the LORD shall rest on Him — the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. |
| 3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: | His delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what His eyes see, nor decide by what His ears hear, |
| 4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. | but with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and decide with fairness for the meek of the earth. He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. |
| 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. | Righteousness shall be the belt of His waist, and faithfulness the belt of His hips. |
| 6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. | The wolf shall live with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat. The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf shall be together, and a little child shall lead them. |

- 7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The cow and the bear shall graze together; their young shall lie down together. The lion shall eat straw like the ox.
- 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.
- 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.
- 10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. In that day the Root of Jesse shall stand as an ensign for the peoples. The nations shall seek him, and his resting place shall be glorious.
- 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. In that day the Lord shall reach out His hand a second time to recover the remnant of His people — from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.
- 12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. He shall set up an ensign for the nations and assemble the banished of Israel. He shall gather the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

| 13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. 14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. 15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. 16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt. | The envy of Ephraim shall depart, and the enemies of Judah shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim. They shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines to the west; together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall reach out their hands against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them. The LORD will dry up the tongue of the Sea of Egypt, and wave His hand over the River with His scorching breath. He will strike it into seven channels, and people will cross over on sandals. There shall be a highway for the remnant of His people remaining from Assyria — as there was for Israel on the day they came up out of Egypt. |

Words in this chapter:

Ammonites (AM-on-ytes) — The people of Ammon, descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi — frequently at war with Israel; Nahash and others attacked Israelite territory.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Ammon (AM-on) — The territory east of the Jordan — Ammonites descended from Lot's son Ben-ammi; frequently at war with Israel.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

cockatrice (KOK-ah-tris) — KJV word for a deadly serpent (likely a viper or basilisk) — used in Isaiah 11:8 and 14:29 to describe venomous snakes; a symbol of deadly evil.

Chapter 12

Isaiah gives a song of praise for the day of salvation. The redeemed will say, 'O LORD, I will praise You; though You were angry with me, Your anger is turned away.' They will draw water with joy from the wells of salvation and declare the LORD's doings among the peoples.

Chapter 13

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Babylon. The LORD musters an army for the day of His wrath, which will come as destruction from the Almighty. Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, will be overthrown as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and will never be inhabited again.

- | | |

| 5 | They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. | They come from a far country, from the end of the heavens — the LORD and the weapons of His indignation — to destroy the whole land. |
| 6 | Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. | Wail, for the day of the LORD is near! It shall come as destruction from the Almighty. |
| 7 | Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: | Therefore all hands shall grow faint and every man's heart melt. |
| 8 | And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. | They shall be terrified. Pangs and agony shall seize them. They shall writhe like a woman in labor. They shall look at one another in shock; their faces shall be ablaze. |
| 9 | Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. | The day of the LORD comes — cruel, with fury and burning anger — to make the land a desolation. He will destroy its sinners from it. |
| 10 | For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. | For the stars of heaven and their constellations shall not give their light. The sun shall be dark at its rising, and the moon shall not shine its light. |
| 11 | And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. | I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity. I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless. |
| 12 | I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. | I will make men scarcer than fine gold — rarer than the gold of Ophir. |

- 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts and in the day of His fierce anger.
- 14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. Like a hunted gazelle or a flock with no one to gather them, everyone shall turn to his own people and flee to His own land.
- 15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword. Everyone who is found will be stabbed through; everyone who is caught will fall by the sword.
- 16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished. Their infants shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be plundered and their wives violated.
- 17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. I am stirring up the Medes against them — they have no regard for silver and no delight in gold.
- 18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children. Their bows shall cut down young men. They shall have no compassion on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not pity children.
- 19 And Babylon, that glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. Babylon — the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pride of the Chaldeans — shall be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.
- 20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. It shall never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation. No Arab shall pitch a tent there; no shepherd shall rest his flock there.

Words in this chapter:

ensign — A signal banner or rallying flag — lifted high to gather troops or nations; used in prophecy for the Messiah drawing all peoples.

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Gomorrah (guh-MOR-ah) — A city destroyed alongside Sodom — both cities became proverbial for divine judgment on extreme sin.

Sodom (SOD-um) — A city destroyed by fire and brimstone from God because of its great wickedness — Lot and his family were rescued before its destruction; became a symbol of divine judgment.

Chapter 14

The LORD will have mercy on Jacob and set Israel in their own land. Israel will take up a taunt against the king of Babylon, who said in his heart he would ascend above the stars of God. He will be brought down to hell. The LORD also declares judgment against Assyria and Philistia.

- | | |

| 1 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob. | For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob and will again choose Israel and settle them in their own land. Foreigners will join them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob. |
| 2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. | The peoples will take them and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them as servants in the LORD's land. They shall take captive those who were their captors and rule over those who oppressed them. |
| 3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve, | In the day the LORD gives You rest from Your pain, Your turmoil, and the hard service You were forced to do, |
| 4 That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! | you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon: "How the oppressor has ceased, the fury ended! |
| 5 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers. | The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers, |
| 6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. | that struck the peoples in anger with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in fury with relentless persecution. |
| 7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing. | The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they break forth into singing. |

- 8 Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us. Even the cypress trees rejoice over You, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, 'Since You were laid low, no woodcutter comes up against us.'
- 9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. Hell beneath is stirred up to meet You when You come; it rouses the spirits of the dead for You — all the leaders of the earth. It raises from their thrones all the kings of the nations.
- 10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us? All of them will speak and say to You, 'Have You also become weak as we? Have You become like us?'
- 11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee. Your pride has been brought down to hell, along with the music of Your harps. Maggots are Your bed below, and worms cover You."
- 12 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! "How You have fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How You have been cut down to the ground — you who weakened the nations!
- 13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: You said in Your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God. I will sit on the mount of assembly, on the heights of the north.
- 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will be like the Most High.'
- 15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. But You are brought down to hell, to the far reaches of the pit."

- 16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; Those who see you shall stare at you and ponder over you: "Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,
- 17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners? who made the world like a wilderness and tore down its cities, who did not let his prisoners go home?"
- 18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house. All the kings of the nations lie in honor, each in his own tomb.
- 19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet. But you are cast out of your tomb like a rejected branch, clothed with the slain — with those who are pierced by the sword — who go down to the stones of the pit, like a trampled corpse.
- 20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned. You will not be joined with them in burial, because you destroyed your land and killed your people. The seed of evildoers shall never be mentioned again.
- 21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. Prepare a place to slaughter his sons for the iniquity of their fathers! They shall not rise to possess the earth or fill the face of the world with cities.
- 22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD. "I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts. "I will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offspring and descendants," says the LORD.
- 23 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts. "I will make it a possession of the bittern and pools of water. I will sweep it with the besom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

- 24 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: The LORD of hosts has sworn: "As I have planned, so shall it be. As I have purposed, so shall it stand:
- 25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. I will break the Assyrian in My land, and on My mountains trample Him underfoot. His yoke shall depart from them, and His burden from their shoulder."
- 26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. This is the purpose purposed for the whole earth; this is the hand stretched out over all the nations.
- 27 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who can annul it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?
- 28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden. In the year that King Ahaz died, this burden came:
- 29 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. Do not rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, that the rod that struck you is broken. For from the root of the serpent shall come a viper, and its fruit shall be a flying fiery serpent.
- 30 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant. The firstborn of the poor shall graze, and the needy shall lie down in safety. But I will kill your root with famine, and it shall slay your remnant.
- 31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times. Wail, O gate! Cry out, O city! You are melting away, O Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes from the north, and there is no straggler in its ranks.

Chapter 15

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Moab. In one night Ar of Moab is laid waste and Kir of Moab is destroyed. The people flee, weeping as they go, and the waters of Nimrim are desolate.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; | The burden of Moab. In a night Ar of Moab is laid waste and reduced to silence. In a night Kir of Moab is laid waste and reduced to silence. |
| 2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off. | They go up to the temple, to Dibon and the high places to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Every head is shaved and every beard cut off. |

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 3 | In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly. | In their streets they put on sackcloth. On their rooftops and in their squares, everyone wails, melting in tears. |
| 4 | And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him. | Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; their voices are heard as far as Jahaz. Therefore the warriors of Moab cry out; his soul trembles within him. |
| 5 | My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction. | My heart cries out for Moab. His fugitives flee to Zoar, to Eglath-shelishiyah. For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction. |
| 6 | For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing. | For the waters of Nimrim are desolate; the grass is withered, the vegetation fails, there is nothing green. |
| 7 | Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows. | Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have stored up they carry away over the Brook of the Willows. |
| 8 | For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerelim. | The cry has gone around the borders of Moab. Its wailing reaches to Eglaim; its wailing reaches to Beer-elim. |
| 9 | For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land. | For the waters of Dibon are full of blood; yet I will bring even more on Dibon — a lion for those of Moab who escape, and for the remnant of the land. |

Words in this chapter:

Moab (MO-ab) — The territory east of the Dead Sea — Moabites descended from Lot's son Moab; Ruth was a Moabite; Israel passed through Moab before entering Canaan.

Chapter 16

Isaiah continues the burden against Moab. The Moabites are counseled to send tribute to Zion, and a throne will be established in mercy in the tent of David. Moab howls for her destroyed fields and vineyards, and within three years her glory will be brought low.

- | | |

| 1 Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. | Send the tribute lamb to the ruler of the land — from Sela, through the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. |
| 2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. | Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon. |
| 3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth. | "Give counsel; grant justice. Make your shadow like night at noon. Hide the outcasts; do not betray the fugitive. |
| 4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. | Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you; be a shelter to them from the destroyer. When the oppressor is no more and destruction has ceased and the enemy has gone from the land, |
| 5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness. | then a throne shall be established in mercy, and on it shall sit in faithfulness, in the tent of David, one who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness." |

- 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so. We have heard of the pride of Moab — how proud he is — of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence. His boasts are empty.
- 7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kirhareth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken. Therefore Moab wails for Moab — everyone wails. For the raisin cakes of Kir-hareth you shall mourn — utterly stricken.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea. For the fields of Heshbon wither, the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have struck down its choice branches, which reached to Jazer and wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots spread out and crossed over the sea.
- 9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen. Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh, for over your summer fruit and your harvest the shout has fallen away.
- 10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease. Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field. In the vineyards there is no singing and no shouting. No one treads out wine in the presses; I have put an end to the harvest shout.
- 11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirhareth. Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a harp, and my inmost being for Kir-hareth.

| 12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. | When Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he shall not prevail. |
| 13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time. | This is the word the LORD spoke concerning Moab in the past. |
| 14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be condemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble. | But now the LORD has spoken:
"Within three years, like the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt — despite all His great crowd. What remains will be very small and weak." |

Words in this chapter:

sanctuary — The holy place — the sacred space set apart for God's presence; the inner section of the tabernacle or temple.

tabernacle — The tent of meeting — Israel's portable worship structure in the wilderness where God's presence dwelt among His people.

Chapter 17

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Damascus. Damascus will cease to be a city and become a ruinous heap. Israel's glory will also grow thin. In that day a man will look to his Maker rather than to altars made by his own hands.

- 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. The cities of Aroer are abandoned — left for flocks that shall lie down with no one to disturb them.
- 3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts. The fortress shall disappear from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus. The remnant of Syria shall be like the fading glory of the children of Israel, declares the LORD of hosts.
- 4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. In that day the glory of Jacob shall fade, and the fat of his body shall grow lean.
- 5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim. It shall be as when a reaper gathers standing grain and his arm harvests the ears — as when one gleans ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
- 6 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel. Yet gleanings shall be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten — two or three berries in the top of the highest branch, four or five on the branches of a fruitful tree, declares the LORD God of Israel.
- 7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. In that day men shall look to their Maker, and their eyes shall regard the Holy One of Israel.
- 8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images. They shall not look to the altars — the work of their hands — nor shall they regard what their fingers have made, either the groves or the images.

Chapter 19

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Egypt. The LORD rides on a swift cloud into Egypt, and the idols tremble. Egypt will be given over to a fierce king, the Nile will dry up, and the wise counselors of Pharaoh will become fools. In that day Egypt and Assyria will worship the LORD together with Israel, and Egypt will be called the LORD's people.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. | The burden of Egypt. The LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt tremble before Him, and the heart of Egypt melts within it. |
| 2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. | I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they shall fight — each against His brother and each against His neighbor — city against city, kingdom against kingdom. |
| 3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. | The spirit of Egypt shall fail within it, and I will confuse their counsel. They shall seek guidance from the idols, from the charmers, and from those who have familiar spirits, and from the wizards. |
| 4 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. | I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a harsh master, and a fierce king shall rule over them, declares the Lord, the LORD of hosts. |
| 5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up. | The waters of the Nile shall be dried up; the river shall be parched and dry. |
| 6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither. | Its canals shall stink; the streams of Egypt shall dry up. The reeds and rushes shall wither. |

- 7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. The plants along the Nile, at the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile shall dry up and blow away and be no more.
- 8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish. The fishermen shall mourn; all who cast hooks into the Nile shall grieve; those who spread nets on the water shall waste away.
- 9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded. Those who work with combed flax and those who weave white cloth shall be put to shame.
- 10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish. The weavers of Egypt shall be crushed; all who make wages shall be grieved.
- 11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? The princes of Zoan are complete fools; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give stupid advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings"?
- 12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt. Where then are Your wise men? Let them tell You and make known what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.
- 13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof. The princes of Zoan have become fools; the princes of Memphis are deluded. Those who are the cornerstone of her tribes have led Egypt astray.
- 14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit. The LORD has mixed into her a spirit of confusion, and they have made Egypt stagger in all its deeds, as a drunkard staggers in His vomit.

- 15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. There shall be nothing for Egypt to do — neither head nor tail, palm branch nor reed.
- 16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it. In that day the Egyptians shall be like women — trembling with fear because of the hand that the LORD of hosts shakes over them.
- 17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it. The land of Judah shall become a terror to Egypt. Whenever anyone mentions it, Egypt shall dread it because of the purpose the LORD of hosts has purposed against it.
- 18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction. In that day there shall be five cities in Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One shall be called the City of Destruction.
- 19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD. In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.
- 20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them. It shall be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to the LORD because of oppressors, He will send them a savior and defender, and He will deliver them.
- 21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it. The LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. They will worship with sacrifice and offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and keep them.

| 22 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them. 23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. 24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land: 25 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance. | The LORD will strike Egypt, striking but healing. They shall turn to the LORD, and He will respond to their pleas and heal them. In that day there shall be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians. In that day Israel shall be the third with Egypt and with Assyria — a blessing in the midst of the earth, whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt My people, Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance." |

The LORD commands Isaiah to walk naked and barefoot for three years as a sign that the king of Assyria will lead away Egyptian and Ethiopian captives, young and old, naked and barefoot. Those who trusted in Ethiopia and Egypt for deliverance will be ashamed.

| ¹ In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it; | In the year that the Tartan came to Ashdod — when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him — he fought against Ashdod and captured it. |
| ² At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. | At that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, remove the sackcloth from Your waist and take off Your sandals from Your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. |
| ³ And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia; | The LORD said, "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Cush, |
| ⁴ So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. | so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered — the shame of Egypt. |
| ⁵ And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. | They shall be terrified and put to shame because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their boast. |
| ⁶ And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape? | The inhabitants of this coastland shall say in that day, 'Such is our hope — those to whom we fled for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How shall we escape?' " |

Isaiah pronounces the burden of the desert of the sea -- Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and all the graven images of her gods are broken to the ground. He also pronounces burdens against Dumah and Arabia, declaring that within a year the glory of Kedar will fail.

| 1 The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land. | The burden of the Desert of the Sea. Like whirlwinds sweeping through the south, it comes from the desert, from a fearful land. |
| 2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. | A harsh vision has been shown to me. The traitor betrays, the destroyer destroys. "Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media!" I have put an end to all the groaning. |
| 3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. | Therefore my whole body is filled with anguish; pains have seized me like the pains of a woman in labor. I am too troubled to hear; I am too dismayed to see. |
| 4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me. | My heart reels; horror has overwhelmed me. The twilight I longed for has become dread for me. |
| 5 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield. | Prepare the table; set the watch; eat and drink. Arise, O princes! Oil the shield! |

- 6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth. For thus the Lord said to me: "Go, post a watchman; let him announce what he sees."
- 7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed: When he sees riders — horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels — let him listen carefully, very carefully.
- 8 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights: Then the watchman called out: "O Lord, I stand on the watchtower all day long; I have been stationed at my post every night.
- 9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground. And a troop of men is coming, horsemen in pairs!" He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon! All the carved images of her gods are shattered to the ground."
- 10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you. O my threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I now declare to You.
- 11 The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? The burden of Dumah. Someone is calling to me from Seir: "Watchman, how much of the night is left? Watchman, how much of the night is left?"
- 12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come. The watchman says, "Morning comes, and also night. If You will inquire, come back and inquire."
- 13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim. The burden against Arabia. In the thickets of Arabia You shall lodge, O caravans of Dedanites.

Chapter 22

Isaiah pronounces the burden of the valley of vision -- Jerusalem. The people prepare their defenses but do not look to the God who made them. The LORD calls for weeping and mourning, but they feast instead, saying, 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.' Shebna the steward is removed from office and replaced by Eliakim.

| 1 The burden of the valley of vision.
What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops? | The burden of the Valley of Vision.
What is wrong with You now, that
You have all gone up to the rooftops? |
| 2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle. | You who were full of commotion, a riotous and joyful city — your slain were not slain with the sword, nor did they die in battle. |
| 3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far. | All Your rulers fled together; they were captured without the bow. All of You who were found were captured, though You had fled far away. |
| 4 Therefore said I, Look away from me;
I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people. | Therefore I said, "Look away from me; let me weep bitterly. Do not labor to comfort me over the destruction of the daughter of my people." |
| 5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains. | For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of panic, of trampling, and of confusion in the Valley of Vision — a day of breaking down walls and of crying to the mountains. |
| 6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. | Elam bore the quiver, with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield. |
| 7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate. | Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen were positioned at the gate. |
| 8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest. | He stripped away the covering of Judah. In that day You looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. |

- 9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool. You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many. You collected the waters of the lower pool.
- 10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall. You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down houses to strengthen the wall.
- 11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago. You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool — but you did not look to Him who made it, nor regard Him who planned it long ago.
- 12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called for weeping and mourning, for shaving the head and putting on sackcloth.
- 13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die. Instead, there was joy and gladness, killing oxen, slaughtering sheep, eating meat, and drinking wine. "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"
- 14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. The LORD of hosts revealed Himself in my hearing: "This iniquity will not be forgiven You until You die," says the Lord GOD of hosts.
- 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "Go to this steward, to Shebna who is in charge of the household, and say to Him,
- 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock? "What have You here, and whom have You here, that You have cut out a tomb for Yourself here — cutting out a tomb on the height and carving a dwelling for Yourself in the rock?"

- 17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. The LORD is about to hurl You away, mighty man! He will seize You firmly
- 18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy master's house. and roll You up tightly like a ball and throw You into a wide land. There You shall die, and there Your glorious chariots shall be — a disgrace to Your master's house.'
- 19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down. I will thrust You from Your office, and You will be pulled down from Your post.
- 20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah: In that day I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, ■ NAME NOTE — Eliakim (eh-LY-ah-kim) — "God will raise up" — A faithful steward who replaced the unfaithful Shebna; a type of Christ, who holds the key of the house of David.

- 21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. I will clothe Him with Your robe and strengthen Him with Your belt. I will commit Your authority into His hand. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
- 22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. I will place on his shoulder the key of the house of David. What he opens, no one can shut; and what he shuts, no one can open.
- 23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. I will drive him like a peg into a firm place. He will become a throne of glory to his father's house.

|---|---|
| 24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. 25 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it. | They shall hang on him the whole honor of his father's house — offspring and offspring's children, every small vessel, from bowls to all the jars. In that day, declares the LORD of hosts, the peg that was driven into the firm place will give way. It will be cut down and fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut off. The LORD has spoken. |

Chapter 23

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Tyre. The merchant city of the sea will be laid waste, her merchants who were princes will be dishonored, and for seventy years Tyre will be forgotten. After seventy years the LORD will visit Tyre and her merchandise shall be devoted to the LORD.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. 2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. 3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. 4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. 5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre. 6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle. 7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. 8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth? | The burden of Tyre. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for Tyre is laid waste — without house or harbor! From the land of Cyprus this has been revealed to them. Be silent, O inhabitants of the coastland, You whom the merchants of Sidon crossing the sea have enriched. Over many waters came the grain of the Nile — the harvest of the River — and she was the marketplace of nations. Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken — the stronghold of the sea says, "I have neither labored nor given birth; I have not raised young men nor brought up young women." When the report reaches Egypt, they shall be in anguish over the report about Tyre. Cross over to Tarshish; wail, O inhabitants of the coastland! Is this Your joyful city, whose origin is from ancient days? Her feet shall carry her far away to stay in a distant land. Who has planned this against Tyre, the city that bestowed crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were among the honored of the earth? |
|---|---|

- 9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. The LORD of hosts has purposed it — to defile the pride of all glory, to dishonor all the honored of the earth.
- 10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. Cross Your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish — there is no restraint anymore.
- 11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof. He has stretched His hand over the sea; He has shaken the kingdoms. The LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy her strongholds.
- 12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. He said, "You shall no longer exult, O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Rise and cross over to Cyprus — even there You shall find no rest."
- 13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin. Look at the land of the Chaldeans — this people who were nothing! Assyria founded it for desert dwellers. They set up their siege towers, they stripped bare Tyre's palaces, and made it a ruin.
- 14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for Your stronghold is laid waste!
- 15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot. In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years — the length of one king's life. At the end of seventy years, Tyre shall sing like a harlot.
- 16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. "Take a harp; go around the city, O forgotten harlot! Play sweetly, sing many songs, so that You may be remembered."

- 17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth. At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre. She shall return to her wages and prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.
- 18 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing. Her profits and her wages shall be holy to the LORD. They shall not be stored or hoarded, but her gains shall go to those who live before the LORD — to eat their fill and wear fine clothing.

Chapter 24

The LORD will lay waste the whole earth, making it empty and turning it upside down. The earth mourns and the merry-hearted sigh. The earth is utterly broken down. The LORD of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His elders He will be glorified.

- 1 Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof. The LORD is making the earth empty and laying it waste. He is twisting its surface and scattering its inhabitants.

- | | | |

| 2 | And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him. | The same fate shall come on the people and the priest, the servant and his master, the maid and her mistress, the buyer and the seller, the lender and the borrower, the creditor and the debtor. |
| 3 | The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word. | The earth shall be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for the LORD has spoken this word. |
| 4 | The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. | The earth mourns and withers; the world fades and withers; the highest people of the earth fade away. |
| 5 | The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. | The earth is defiled by its inhabitants, for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. |
| 6 | Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. | Therefore a curse devours the earth; its inhabitants suffer for their guilt.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few men are left. |
| 7 | The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh. | The wine mourns; the vine fades. All the merry-hearted sigh. |
| 8 | The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. | The joyful tambourines are stilled; the noise of the jubilant has ceased; the joyful harp is silent. |
| 9 | They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. | No longer do they drink wine with singing. Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. | The city of chaos is broken down; every house is locked up so no one can enter. |
| 11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. | There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has turned to gloom; the gladness of the earth is banished. |
| 12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. | Desolation is left in the city; the gate is battered to ruins. |
| 13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. | For so it shall be in the midst of the earth among the nations — as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the grape harvest is done. |
| 14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. | They lift up their voices; they sing for joy. Over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west. |
| 15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. | Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. |
| 16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. | From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise — "Glory to the Righteous One!" But I say, "I am wasting away; I am wasting away! Woe to me! The treacherous deal treacherously; the treacherous deal very treacherously." |
| 17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. | Terror, pit, and snare are upon You, O inhabitant of the earth! |

- 18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. Whoever flees at the sound of terror shall fall into the pit, and whoever climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows from on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.
- 19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth is violently broken; the earth is split apart; the earth is shaken violently.
- 20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again. The earth staggers like a drunkard; it sways like a hut. Its transgression lies heavy upon it; it falls and will not rise again.
- 21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. In that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven in heaven, and the kings of the earth on the earth.
- 22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited. They shall be gathered together as prisoners are gathered in a pit. They shall be shut up in a prison, and after many days they shall be punished.
- 23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously. The moon shall be put to shame and the sun ashamed, for the LORD of hosts reigns on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and His glory is before His elders.

Words in this chapter:

covenant — A binding agreement — God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people.

transgression — Crossing the line God set — deliberately breaking a specific command He gave.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 25

Isaiah praises the LORD for His wonderful works and faithful counsels. The LORD will make a feast of rich food for all peoples on this mountain and will swallow up death forever. He will wipe away tears from all faces and remove the disgrace of His people.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. | O LORD, You are my God. I will exalt You; I will praise Your name. For You have done wonderful things — plans formed long ago, faithful and sure. |
| 2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built. | For You have made a city a heap of rubble, a fortified city a ruin — a palace of foreigners to be a city no more. It shall never be rebuilt. |
| 3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. | Therefore strong peoples will glorify You; cities of ruthless nations shall fear You. |
| 4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. | For You have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in His distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a storm against a wall, |

- 5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low. You subdued the noise of foreigners — like heat in a dry place — with the shadow of a cloud. The song of the ruthless was silenced.
- 6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. On this mountain the LORD of hosts will prepare for all peoples a feast of rich food — a feast of aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.
- 7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations.
- 8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it. He will swallow up death in victory. The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of His people He will take away from all the earth. The LORD has spoken.
- 9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. It shall be said in that day, "This is our God; we have waited for Him, and He has saved us. This is the LORD; we have waited for Him. Let us be glad and rejoice in His salvation."
- 10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill. For the hand of the LORD shall rest on this mountain, and Moab shall be trampled down in His place — as straw is trampled down in a manure pile.

- 11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands. He shall spread out His hands in the midst of it, as a swimmer spreads His hands to swim. His pride shall be laid low together with the skill of His hands.
- 12 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust. The high fortifications of Your walls He will bring down, lay low, and cast to the ground — to the dust.

Words in this chapter:

vail — The thick curtain separating the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place in the tabernacle — torn from top to bottom at Christ's death, opening the way to God.

Chapter 26

Isaiah sings a song of the strong city -- salvation is appointed for walls and bulwarks. The righteous nation that keeps the truth shall enter in. The LORD is the everlasting rock who brings down the lofty city. Isaiah longs for the LORD in the night and declares that the dead shall live and the earth shall cast out the dead.

- 1 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks. In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city. God appoints salvation as walls and ramparts.
- 2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in. Open the gates, so the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

- 11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them. O LORD, Your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see Your zeal for Your people and be ashamed. Let fire for Your adversaries consume them.
- 12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. O LORD, You will ordain peace for us, for You have also done all our works for us.
- 13 O LORD our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. O LORD our God, other lords besides You have ruled over us, but we acknowledge Your name alone.
- 14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. The dead do not live; departed spirits do not rise. You have punished them and destroyed them; You have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth. You have increased the nation, O LORD; You have increased the nation. You are glorified. You have extended all the borders of the land.
- 16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. O LORD, in distress they sought You; they poured out a whispered prayer when Your discipline was on them.
- 17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD. Like a pregnant woman who writhes and cries out in her pangs when she is near to giving birth, so were we before You, O LORD.

Chapter 27

In that day the LORD will punish leviathan the fleeing serpent with His great sword. He will keep His vineyard, watering it every moment. Jacob's iniquity will be purged when the altar stones are crushed, and in that day a great trumpet will sound and the outcasts of Israel will worship the LORD in Jerusalem.

| 1 In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea. | In that day the LORD with His hard and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent — Leviathan the twisting serpent — and He will slay the dragon that is in the sea. |
| 2 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine. | In that day, "A pleasant vineyard — sing of it! |
| 3 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day. | I, the LORD, am its keeper; every moment I water it. Lest anyone harm it, I keep it night and day. |
| 4 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together. | I have no fury. If briers and thorns confront Me in battle, I will march against them and burn them up together. |
| 5 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me. | Or let them take hold of My protection; let them make peace with Me — let them make peace with Me." |
| 6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit. | In days to come Jacob shall take root; Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots and fill the whole world with fruit. |
| 7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him? | Has He struck them as He struck those who struck them? Or have they been slain as their slayers were slain? |

- 8 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. Measure by measure, by exile, You contended with them. He removed them with His fierce wind on the day of the east wind.
- 9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up. By this the iniquity of Jacob shall be forgiven — this is the full fruit of removing his sin — when he makes all the altar stones like crushed chalk, so that the groves and images shall not stand up.
- 10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof. For the fortified city is alone, a deserted settlement, abandoned like a wilderness. Calves graze there; there they lie down and strip its branches.
- 11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour. When its branches wither, they are broken off; women come and make a fire with them. For this is a people without understanding; therefore He who made them will not have mercy on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor.
- 12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. In that day the LORD will thresh from the channel of the Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt, and You will be gathered one by one, O people of Israel.

- 13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem. In that day a great trumpet shall be blown, and those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were driven out to Egypt shall come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Words in this chapter:

leviathan (leh-VY-ah-than) — A great sea creature described in Job 41 — powerful and fearsome; used as a symbol of chaos that only God can subdue.

Euphrates (yoo-FRAY-teez) — One of the four rivers of Eden — the great river of Mesopotamia; the eastern boundary of the land promised to Abraham; runs through modern Iraq.

dragon — In the OT (Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel), 'dragon' is often used for a great sea-serpent and as a symbol of Egypt or chaos; in Revelation, the dragon is Satan himself.

Chapter 28

The LORD pronounces woe to the drunkards of Ephraim whose glorious beauty is a fading flower. He will lay in Zion a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation. He rebukes the scornful rulers of Jerusalem who have made a covenant with death, declaring that their agreement with hell shall not stand.

- 1 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine! Woe to the proud crown of Ephraim's drunkards, and to the fading flower of their glorious beauty — set on the head of the rich valley of those overcome with wine!

- 2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand. The Lord has one who is mighty and strong. Like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest — like a flood of mighty waters overflowing — He casts down to the earth with violence.
- 3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet: The proud crown of Ephraim's drunkards shall be trampled underfoot.
- 4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. The fading flower of their glorious beauty set on the head of the rich valley shall be like a first-ripe fig before the summer. Whoever sees it swallows it as soon as it is in his hand.
- 5 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people, In that day the LORD of hosts shall be a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty to the remnant of His people,
- 6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. a spirit of justice to Him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.
- 7 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. These also reel with wine and stagger with strong drink — priest and prophet reel with strong drink; they are overcome by wine. They stagger when seeing visions; they stumble when giving judgment.
- 8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean. All their tables are covered with vomit; not a spot is clean.

- 9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. "To whom will He teach knowledge, and to whom will He explain the message? Those just weaned from milk, those just taken from the breast?
- 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little."
- 11 For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. For by people of strange lips and with a foreign tongue the LORD will speak to this people,
- 12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. to whom He had said, "This is rest; give rest to the weary. This is refreshing." But they would not hear.
- 13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. The word of the LORD shall be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little — so that they may go, stumble backward, be broken, snared, and taken.
- 14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, You scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem!
- 15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Because You have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with hell we are in agreement. When the overwhelming scourge passes through, it will not come to us, for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter,"

- 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I am laying in Zion a stone — a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. Whoever believes will not be in a hurry.
- 17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line. Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters shall overflow the hiding place.
- 18 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. Your covenant with death will be annulled, and Your agreement with hell shall not stand. When the overwhelming scourge passes through, You will be beaten down by it.
- 19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report. As often as it passes through, it shall take You — morning by morning, by day and by night — and it shall be sheer terror to understand the message.
- 20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it. For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the cover too narrow to wrap oneself in.
- 21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act. For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim; He will be roused as in the Valley of Gibeon. He will do His work — His strange work — and perform His task — His alien task.
- 22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth. Now therefore do not mock, lest Your bonds be made strong. For I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts against the whole earth.

Chapter 29

The LORD pronounces woe to Ariel -- Jerusalem -- which He will besiege and bring low, yet the multitude of her enemies will be like a dream that vanishes. He rebukes those who seek to hide their plans from the LORD and those whose worship is mere lip service while their hearts are far from Him. Lebanon shall become a fruitful field and the deaf shall hear and the blind shall see.

| 1 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices. | Woe to Ariel — Ariel, the city where David camped! Add year to year; let the feasts run their cycle. |
| 2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel. | Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to Me like an altar hearth. |
| 3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee. | I will encamp against you all around; I will besiege you with towers and raise siegeworks against you. |
| 4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. | Brought down, you shall speak from the ground; your words shall come from the dust. Your voice shall be like a ghost's from the ground; from the dust your speech shall whisper. |
| 5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly. | But the crowd of your foes shall be like fine dust, and the crowd of the ruthless like passing chaff. It shall happen suddenly, in an instant. |

- 6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. You shall be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, earthquake, and great noise — with whirlwind, tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.
- 7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision. The crowd of all the nations that fight against Ariel — all who fight against her and her stronghold and distress her — shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.
- 8 It shall even be as when a hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. It shall be like a hungry man who dreams He is eating — then wakes, and is still hungry — or like a thirsty man who dreams He is drinking — then wakes, and is still faint with thirst. So shall the crowd of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.
- 9 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. Pause and wonder — blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not from strong drink.
- 10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. For the LORD has poured out on You a spirit of deep sleep. He has closed Your eyes — the prophets — and covered Your heads — the seers.
- 11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: The vision of all this has become to You like the words of a sealed book. When people give it to one who can read and say, "Read this," he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed."

- 12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. When they give it to one who cannot read and say, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."
- 13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: The Lord said: "Because this people draw near to Me with their mouth and honor Me with their lips, while their hearts are far from Me, and their fear of Me is a commandment taught by men,
- 14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. therefore I will again do a marvelous work among this people — a marvelous work and a wonder. The wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their discerning men shall be hidden."
- 15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the LORD, Who do their deeds in the dark and say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"
- 16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding? You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay — that the thing made should say of its maker, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say of Him who formed it, "He has no understanding"?
- 17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? Is it not yet a very little while until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be regarded as a forest?

They shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and stand in awe of the God of Israel. Those who go astray in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will accept instruction." |

Chapter 30

The LORD rebukes Judah for going down to Egypt for help and trusting in Pharaoh's shadow rather than in the LORD. He declares that in returning and rest they shall be saved, and in quietness and confidence shall be their strength, but they would not. The LORD will be gracious and will wait to show them mercy, and He will destroy Assyria with His voice.

| 1 | Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin: | "Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD, "who carry out plans that are not Mine, who make alliances, but not in My Spirit — adding sin to sin. |
| 2 | That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! | They go down to Egypt without asking Me, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh and seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt! |
| 3 | Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. | The protection of Pharaoh shall become your shame, and the shelter in Egypt's shadow your disgrace. |
| 4 | For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. | For their princes are at Zoan and their envoys reach Hanes. |

- 5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. Everyone shall be ashamed because of a people that cannot profit them — that brings neither help nor benefit, but only shame and disgrace."
- 6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them. The burden of the beasts of the south: through a land of trouble and anguish, of the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent — they carry their riches on the backs of young donkeys and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit them.
- 7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. Egypt's help is useless and empty; therefore I have called her "Rahab who sits still."
- 8 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: Now go, write it on a tablet before them; inscribe it in a book so it may be for the coming days, as a witness forever and ever.
- 9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD: For it is a rebellious people — lying children who will not hear the instruction of the LORD,
- 10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: who say to the seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us what is right. Tell us pleasing things; prophesy illusions.
- 11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. Leave the way; turn aside from the path. Stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!"
- 12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel: "Because You reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and rely on them,

- 13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. this iniquity shall be to You like a breach in a high wall, bulging out and about to collapse — it breaks suddenly, in an instant.
- 14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. It shall be broken like a potter's vessel that is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments no shard is found large enough to take fire from a hearth or scoop water from a cistern."
- 15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest You shall be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be Your strength." But You were unwilling.
- 16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. You said, "No! We will flee on horses" — therefore You shall flee. "We will ride on swift horses" — therefore Your pursuers shall be swift.
- 17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. A thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five You shall flee, until You are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like an ensign on a hill.
- 18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to You; He rises to show You mercy. For the LORD is a God of judgment. Blessed are all those who wait for Him.

- 19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. For a people shall dwell in Zion — in Jerusalem. You shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to You at the sound of Your cry. When He hears it, He will answer You.
- 20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers: Though the Lord gives You the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, Your Teacher will no longer hide Himself. Your eyes shall see Your Teacher.
- 21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Your ears shall hear a word behind You, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when You turn to the right or when You turn to the left.
- 22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. You shall defile Your carved idols overlaid with silver and Your gold-plated metal images. You shall scatter them like filthy rags. You shall say to them, "Be gone!"
- 23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. He will give rain for the seed with which You sow the ground, and bread — the produce of the ground — will be rich and plentiful. In that day Your cattle will graze in broad pastures.
- 24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. The oxen and the donkeys that work the ground will eat good fodder — winnowed with shovel and fork.

- 25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. On every high mountain and every high hill there shall be brooks running with water — in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.
- 26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. The light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold — like the light of seven days — in the day when the LORD binds up the brokenness of His people and heals the wounds He inflicted.
- 27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: The name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with His anger, heavy with cloud. His lips are full of fury, and His tongue is like a devouring fire.
- 28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. His breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck — to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to put a bridle on the jaws of the peoples that leads them astray.
- 29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

| 30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. 31 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. 32 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it. 33 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it. | The LORD will cause His majestic voice to be heard and show the descent of His arm — in furious anger — with consuming fire, with cloudburst, storm, and hailstones. For Assyria shall be terror-stricken at the voice of the LORD, when He strikes with His rod. Every stroke of the appointed staff that the LORD lays on them shall be to the sound of tambourines and harps. Battling with brandished fist, He fights them. For Topheth has long been prepared; it is made ready for the king. Its fire pit is made deep and wide, with plenty of fire and wood. The breath of the LORD, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it. |

Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

ensign — A signal banner or rallying flag — lifted high to gather troops or nations; used in prophecy for the Messiah drawing all peoples.

Assyria (ah-SEER-ee-ah) — The powerful empire based in northern Mesopotamia — conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC; their capitals included Nineveh.

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 31

The LORD pronounces woe on those who go down to Egypt for help, trusting in horses and chariots rather than looking to the Holy One of Israel. As a lion is not frightened by shepherds, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight for Mount Zion. Assyria will fall by a sword not of man.

| 2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. | Yet He also is wise and brings disaster; He does not take back His words. He will rise against the house of evildoers and against the helpers of those who do iniquity. |
| 3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. | The Egyptians are man and not God; their horses are flesh and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out His hand, the helper will stumble and the one who is helped will fall, and they will all perish together. |

| 4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof. 5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it. 6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. 7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. 8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. 9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem. | For thus the LORD said to me: "As a lion or a young lion growls over His prey, and when a band of shepherds is called out against Him He is not frightened by their shouting or disturbed by their noise — so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill." Like birds hovering, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem. He will protect and deliver it; He will spare and rescue it. Turn to Him from whom You have so deeply revolted, O children of Israel! For in that day everyone shall cast away His idols of silver and His idols of gold — which Your hands have sinfully made for You. And Assyria shall fall by a sword — not of man; a sword, not of mortals, shall devour Him. He shall flee from the sword, and His young men shall be put to forced labor. His rock shall pass away in terror, and His princes shall be panic-stricken at the ensign, declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem. |

Isaiah prophesies that a king will reign in righteousness and princes will rule in justice. Eyes that see will not be dim and ears that hear will listen. The careless women are warned that within a year they will tremble, for the harvest will fail. When the Spirit is poured out from on high, the wilderness will become a fruitful field and righteousness will produce peace.

| 2 | And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. | Each will be like a shelter from the wind, a refuge from the storm — like streams of water in a dry place, like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. |
| 3 | And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken. | The eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will listen. |
| 4 | The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly. | The heart of the hasty will understand and know, and the tongue of the stammerers will speak readily and clearly. |

Words in this chapter:

iniquity — Deep, twisted wrongdoing — stronger than 'sin'; the corruption beneath the sinful act, a bent toward evil.

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Chapter 33

The LORD pronounces woe to the destroyer who was not destroyed and the treacherous dealer. Isaiah calls on the LORD to be gracious, for He is the stability of Zion's times. The LORD will be the judge, lawgiver, and king who saves His people. Zion will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, and the inhabitants will not say they are sick, for the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

| 1 Woe to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee. | Woe to You, destroyer, who Yourself have not been destroyed — you traitor, whom no one has betrayed! When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed. When You stop betraying, they will betray You. |
| 2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. | O LORD, be gracious to us; we wait for You. Be our arm every morning — our salvation in time of trouble. |
| 3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered. | At the sound of the tumult, peoples flee; when You rise up, nations scatter. |
| 4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them. | Your plunder is gathered as the caterpillar gathers; as locusts leap, men leap on it. |
| 5 The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness. | The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. |

- 6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure. He will be the stability of Your times — wealth of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of the LORD is His treasure.
- 7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly. Their brave men cry in the streets; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.
- 8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man. The highways are deserted; the wayfarer ceases. The covenant is broken; the cities are despised; man is not regarded.
- 9 The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits. The land mourns and withers. Lebanon is ashamed and withers. Sharon is like a wilderness, and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruit.
- 10 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. "Now I will rise," says the LORD.
"Now I will be exalted; now I will lift Myself up.
- 11 Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. You conceive chaff; You give birth to stubble. Your breath is a fire that will consume You.
- 12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. The peoples shall be as if burned to lime — like thorns cut down, they shall be burned in the fire."
- 13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might. Hear, You who are far off, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge My might.
- 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless:
"Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting burnings?"

- 15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil; He who walks righteously and speaks honestly — who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes His hands free of bribes, who stops His ears from hearing of bloodshed and shuts His eyes from looking on evil —
- 16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure. he shall dwell on the heights. His place of defense shall be the fortress of rocks; His bread will be given Him, His water will be sure.
- 17 Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off. Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty; they shall see a land that stretches far.
- 18 Thine heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers? Your heart shall ponder the terror: "Where is the one who counted? Where is the one who weighed the tribute? Where is the one who counted the towers?"
- 19 Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand. You shall no longer see that fierce people — a people of obscure speech you could not understand, of a stammering tongue you could not comprehend.
- 20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken. Look on Zion, the city of our appointed feasts! Your eyes shall see Jerusalem, a quiet home, a tent that shall not be moved. Its stakes shall never be pulled up, and none of its cords shall be broken.

He will save us. Your tackle hangs loose; it cannot hold the mast firm or spread the sail. Then plunder and spoil in abundance will be divided; even the lame shall take the plunder. No inhabitant shall say, "I am sick." The people who live there will be forgiven their iniquity. |

The LORD summons all nations to hear His fury. His sword will come down on Edom, and the land will become burning pitch. The streams of Edom will be turned to pitch, its dust to brimstone, and it will not be quenched night or day. The wild beasts of the desert will possess it forever.

- | | |

| 1 Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it. | Draw near, O nations, to hear; listen, O peoples. Let the earth hear, and all that fills it — the world and all that comes from it. |
| 2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter. | For the LORD is enraged against all the nations and furious against all their armies. He has devoted them to destruction and given them over to slaughter. |
| 3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood. | Their slain shall be cast out, and the stench of their corpses shall rise. The mountains shall flow with their blood. |
| 4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree. | All the host of heaven shall rot away, and the skies shall roll up like a scroll. All their host shall fall like leaves falling from the vine — like leaves falling from the fig tree. |
| 5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment. | For My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; it shall come down on Edom — on the people I have given over to judgment. |
| 6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea. | The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood; it is gorged with fat — the blood of lambs and goats, the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom. |

- 7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. The unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls. Their land shall be soaked with blood, and their soil made rich with fat.
- 8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion. For the LORD has a day of vengeance — a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
- 9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch. Its streams shall be turned into pitch and its soil into sulfur; its land shall become burning pitch.
- 10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever. Night and day it shall not be quenched; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.
- 11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness. The cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl and the raven shall dwell in it. He shall stretch over it the line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.
- 12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing. Its nobles shall be nothing; they shall call the kingdom itself nothing. All its princes shall come to nothing.
- 13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and brambles in its fortresses. It shall be a home for dragons and a court for owls.

| 14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. 15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate. 16 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them. 17 And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein. | The wild beasts of the desert shall meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to His fellow. The screech owl shall rest there and find herself a place of rest. There the great owl shall make her nest and lay and hatch, and gather her young under her shadow. There shall the vultures be gathered, every one with her mate. Seek and read from the book of the LORD: not one of these shall be missing; none shall be without her mate. For the mouth of the LORD has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them. He has cast the lot for them; his hand has apportioned it to them with the measuring line. They shall possess it forever; from generation to generation they shall dwell in it. |

Words in this chapter:

Lot (LOT) — Abraham's nephew — he chose the fertile Jordan valley near Sodom; later rescued from Sodom's destruction by the angels; ancestor of Moab and Ammon.

Edom (EE-dom) — The territory south of the Dead Sea — Edomites were descendants of Esau (whose nickname was Edom, 'red'); their hostility to Israel is a recurring OT theme.

Chapter 35

The wilderness and the dry land will be glad, and the desert will blossom as the rose. The eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. The lame man shall leap like a deer and the tongue of the dumb shall sing. A highway called the way of holiness will be there, and the ransomed of the LORD shall return to Zion with singing and everlasting joy.

Chapter 36

In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against the fortified cities of Judah. Rabshakeh stood before the walls of Jerusalem and mocked the God of Israel, urging the people to surrender and not trust in Hezekiah or the LORD.

- | | |

| 1 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them. | In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. |
| 2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. | The king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the conduit of the upper pool on the road to the field of the launderer. |
| 3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder. | Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, came out to him along with Shebna the secretary and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder. |
| 4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? | The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What is this confidence in which you trust?'" |
| 5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? | You say — but they are empty words — "I have a plan and strength for war." On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me? |
| 6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him. | You are trusting in Egypt — that broken reed of a staff — which pierces the hand of any man who leans on it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him. |

- 7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar? But if You say to me, "We trust in the LORD our God," is He not the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar"?
- 8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them.
- 9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? How then can you repulse even one captain among the least of my master's servants — when you rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?
- 10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. Moreover, have I come up against this land without the LORD? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it." ' ' "
- 11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak to us in the language of Judah in the hearing of the people on the wall."
- 12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to Your master and to You — and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with You to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

- 13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria: Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!
- 14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you.
- 15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."
- 16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; Do not listen to Hezekiah.' For thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you will eat from his own vine and his own fig tree and drink from his own cistern,
- 17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. until I come and take you to a land like your own land — a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
- 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Beware lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
- 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they deliver Samaria from my hand?

Chapter 37

Hezekiah tore his clothes and went into the house of the LORD, then sent to Isaiah for a word from God. Isaiah declared that the LORD would put a hook in Sennacherib's nose and turn him back. Hezekiah spread Sennacherib's threatening letter before the LORD and prayed, and that night the angel of the LORD struck down 185,000 Assyrians.

- 1 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes and covered Himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the LORD.
- 2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
- 3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace. Children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.
- 4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left. It may be that the LORD Your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD Your God has heard. Therefore lift up Your prayer for the remnant that is left."
- 5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. The servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
- 6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master: 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words You have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have mocked Me.

- 7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land. I will put a spirit in Him, so that He shall hear a rumor and return to His own land. And I will make Him fall by the sword in His own land.' "
- 8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. The Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish.
- 9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Now the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, "He has set out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
- 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. "Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying that Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
- 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands — destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered?
- 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar? Did the gods of the nations deliver them — the nations my fathers destroyed — Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?
- 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, and the king of Ivah?" "

- 14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then He went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.
- 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:
- 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth. "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim — You alone are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.
- 17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear. Open Your eyes, O LORD, and see. Hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to mock the living God.
- 18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands,
- 19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. and have cast their gods into the fire — for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they were destroyed.
- 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only. So now, O LORD our God, save us from His hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone are the LORD."
- 21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because You have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,

- 22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. this is the word the LORD has spoken concerning Him: "The virgin daughter of Zion despises You and mocks You; the daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at You.
- 23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. Whom have You mocked and blasphemed? Against whom have You raised Your voice and lifted Your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel!
- 24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel. By Your servants You have mocked the Lord, and You have said, "With my many chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far reaches of Lebanon. I cut down its tall cedars and its choicest cypress trees. I came to its remotest summit, its densest forest.
- 25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places. I dug wells and drank water; I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt."
- 26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. Have You not heard that I determined long ago what I am now bringing to pass? I planned from ancient days that You would crush fortified cities into heaps of ruins.

- 27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. Their inhabitants had little power; they were dismayed and ashamed. They were like plants of the field, like tender green shoots, like grass on the housetops — blighted before it grows up.
- 28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. I know Your sitting down, Your going out and Your coming in, and Your raging against Me.
- 29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. Because Your raging against Me and Your arrogance have come to My ears, I will put My hook in Your nose and My bit in Your mouth, and I will turn You back on the way by which You came.'
- 30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. "And this shall be the sign for You: this year eat what grows of itself, in the second year what springs from that, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward.
- 32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.
- 33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there. He shall not come before it with a shield or cast up a siege ramp against it.

Words in this chapter:

cherubim (CHAIR-uh-bim) — Powerful angelic beings — they guarded the Garden of Eden after the Fall and decorated the ark of the covenant; their appearance in Ezekiel has four faces and four wings.

Eden (EE-den) — The garden God planted in the east as the first human home — meaning 'delight' or 'pleasure'; location east of which God placed cherubim after the Fall.

Haran (HEHR-an) — The city in upper Mesopotamia where Abraham's family stopped on the way from Ur — where Terah died and where Jacob later fled to Laban.

Nineveh (NIN-eh-veh) — The capital of Assyria — the great city to which Jonah was sent; when he preached, the whole city repented; it was later destroyed as Nahum prophesied.

Chapter 38

Hezekiah fell sick to the point of death, and Isaiah told him to set his house in order. Hezekiah prayed and wept, and the LORD added fifteen years to his life and delivered Jerusalem from Assyria. Hezekiah wrote a song of thanksgiving, praising the LORD who cast all his sins behind His back.

- 6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria and defend this city.
- 7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; This is the sign to You from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken:
- 8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. I will make the shadow on the sundial of Ahaz go back ten steps." So the sun turned back ten steps on the dial by which it had gone down.
- 9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness: A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:
- 10 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years. I said, "In the middle of my days I must depart. I am consigned to the gates of hell for the rest of my years."
- 11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. I said, "I shall not see the LORD — the LORD — in the land of the living. I shall look on man no more among the inhabitants of the world."
- 12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. My dwelling has been pulled up and removed from me like a shepherd's tent. I have rolled up my life like a weaver who cuts me off from the loom; from day to night You bring me to an end.
- 13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. I kept myself calm until morning — but like a lion He breaks all my bones. From day to night You bring me to an end.

- 14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me. Like a swallow or a crane I chirp; I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary from looking upward. O LORD, I am in distress; be my pledge of safety!
- 15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. What shall I say? For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it. I walk slowly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.
- 16 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live. O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. Restore me to health and make me live!
- 17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. In peace I had great bitterness — but in love You delivered my soul from the pit of destruction. For You have cast all my sins behind Your back.
- 18 For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth. For hell cannot praise You; death cannot celebrate You. Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.
- 19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth. The living — the living — he praises You, as I do this day. The father tells the children about Your faithfulness.
- 20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD. The LORD will save me, and we will sing my songs on stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.
- 21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs and apply it as a poultice to the boil, and He shall recover."

- 22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD? Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Chapter 39

Hezekiah showed the envoys of Merodachbaladan of Babylon all his treasure house, his armory, and everything in his storehouses. Isaiah rebuked him and prophesied that everything in the palace would one day be carried to Babylon, and his own descendants would serve as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

- 1 At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.
- 2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. Hezekiah welcomed them gladly and showed them his treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, and all that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.
- 3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" Hezekiah said, "They came to me from a far country — from Babylon."
- 4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. He said, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."
- 5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:
- 6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. The days are coming when all that is in Your house and all that Your fathers have stored up until this day shall be carried away to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

Words in this chapter:

Hezekiah (hez-eh-KY-ah) — One of Judah's best kings who trusted God during the Assyrian siege — he prayed and God destroyed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers overnight; his name means 'the LORD strengthens.'

Isaiah (eye-ZAY-ah) — The greatest of the writing prophets — prophesied Judah's punishment and Israel's future salvation; wrote about the Messiah in remarkable detail; his name means 'the LORD is salvation.'

Chapter 40

The LORD declares, 'Comfort My people,' and commands a voice to cry in the wilderness to prepare the way of the LORD. All flesh is grass, but the word of God stands forever. He who sits above the circle of the earth gives power to the faint, and those who wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength, mount up with wings as eagles, run and not be weary, walk and not faint.

- 2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem and proclaim to her that her hard service is ended — that her iniquity is pardoned — for she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.
- 3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. A voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a highway for our God."
- 4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain: Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.
- 5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.
- 6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field: A voice says, "Cry!" And He said, "What shall I cry?" All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field.
- 7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of the LORD blows on it. The people are grass.
- 8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God shall stand forever.
- 9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Go up on a high mountain, O Zion, bearer of good news. Lift up Your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, bearer of good news. Lift it up; do not be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is Your God!"

- 10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. The Lord GOD comes with might, and His arm rules for Him. His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.
- 11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. He tends his flock like a shepherd. He gathers the lambs in His arms and carries them close to His heart. He gently leads those that are with young.
- 12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand and marked off the heavens with a span — enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?
- 13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him? Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or as His counselor has taught Him?
- 14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding? Whom did He consult, and who gave Him understanding and taught Him the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge and showed Him the way of understanding?
- 15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. The nations are like a drop from a bucket and are counted as the dust on the scales. He takes up the coastlands like fine dust.
- 16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering. Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, nor its animals enough for a burnt offering.
- 17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are counted by Him as less than nothing and emptiness.

- 18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him? To whom then will You compare God? Or what likeness will You compare to Him?
- 19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains. A craftsman casts an idol, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold and casts silver chains for it.
- 20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved. He who is too poor for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot. He seeks out a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not totter.
- 21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth? Have You not known? Have You not heard? Has it not been told You from the beginning? Have You not understood from the foundations of the earth?
- 22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in: It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.
- 23 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity. He brings princes to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth as emptiness.
- 24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when He blows on them and they wither, and the wind carries them off like stubble.
- 25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One. "To whom then will You compare Me — that I should be equal?" says the Holy One.

Chapter 41

The LORD challenges the nations to bring their case before Him and asks who raised up the righteous man from the east. He declares to Israel, 'Fear not, for I am with you; I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you.' He will open rivers on bare heights and make the wilderness a pool of water. The idols of the nations are nothing, and their works are vanity.

| 1 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment. | Be silent before Me, O coastlands; let the peoples renew their strength. Let them approach and speak; let us come together for judgment. |
| 2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. | Who stirred up one from the east whom victory meets at every step? He gives up nations before Him, so that He tramples kings underfoot. He makes them like dust with his sword and like wind-blown chaff with his bow. |
| 3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. | He pursues them and passes on safely, by paths His feet have not trodden. |
| 4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he. | Who has done and brought this about — calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, the first, and with the last — I am He. |
| 5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came. | The coastlands see it and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble. They draw near and come. |

- 6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage. Everyone helps His neighbor and says to His brother, "Be strong!"
- 7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved. The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good." Then He fastens it with nails so it cannot be moved.
- 8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend. But you, Israel, My servant — Jacob, whom I have chosen — you are the seed of Abraham My friend.
- 9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. I took you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners, saying to you, "You are My servant. I have chosen you and not cast you off."
- 10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you; I will help you; I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.
- 11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. All who rage against you shall be put to shame and be disgraced. Those who fight against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.
- 12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. You shall seek those who strive against you, but shall not find them. Those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.

- 13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. For I, the LORD Your God, hold Your right hand. It is I who say to You, "Do not fear; I will help You."
- 14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Do not fear, You worm Jacob, you few men of Israel! I will help you, says the LORD; Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. I will make You a new threshing sledge with many sharp teeth. You shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and make the hills like chaff.
- 16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel. You shall winnow them, and the wind shall carry them away — the storm shall scatter them. You shall rejoice in the LORD and glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. When the poor and needy seek water and there is none — their tongue parched with thirst — I the LORD will answer them. The God of Israel will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will open rivers in bare heights and fountains in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water and the dry land springs of water.
- 19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together: I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree. I will place in the desert the cypress, the plane, and the pine together,

- 20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it. so that they may see and know, may consider and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this — the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- 21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. "Present Your case," says the LORD. "Bring forward Your strong arguments," says the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. Let them bring and tell us what will happen. Tell us the former things — what they were — so that we may consider them and know their outcome. Or declare to us the things to come.
- 23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. Tell us what is to come in the future, so we may know that You are gods. Do good, or do harm — that we may be filled with awe and fear.
- 24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you. You are less than nothing, and Your deeds are empty. Whoever chooses you is detestable.
- 25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay. I stirred up one from the north, and He has come — from the rising of the sun He calls on My name. He tramples on rulers like mortar, as the potter treads clay.
- 26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words. Who declared this from the beginning, so that we could know — or beforehand, that we might say, "He is right"? No one declared it, no one proclaimed it, no one heard your words.

Words in this chapter:

righteousness — Being in right standing with God — conforming to His standard; in the NT, the righteousness of Christ credited to believers.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Zion (ZY-on) — A hill in Jerusalem — originally the Jebusite fortress David captured; later used poetically for Jerusalem itself, and in the NT for the heavenly city.

Chapter 42

The LORD presents His Servant, on whom He has put His Spirit, who will bring justice to the nations. He will not cry out or raise His voice in the streets, and a bruised reed He will not break. The LORD calls this Servant as a covenant for the people and a light to the nations. Israel is blind and deaf though the LORD made them His witnesses.

- 9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. The former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare. Before they spring forth I tell You of them.
- 10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Sing to the LORD a new song, His praise from the end of the earth — you who go down to the sea, and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.
- 11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let the wilderness and its towns lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of the rocks sing — let them shout from the tops of the mountains.
- 12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands. Let them give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the coastlands.
- 13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies. The LORD goes out like a warrior — like a man of war he stirs up his zeal. He cries out and roars; He prevails against His enemies.
- 14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once. For a long time I have been silent; I have held Myself back and restrained Myself. Now I will cry out like a woman in labor — I will gasp and pant.
- 15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools. I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation. I will turn rivers into dry land and dry up the pools.

- 16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. I will lead the blind in ways they do not know; in paths that they have not known I will guide them. I will turn darkness before them into light and the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.
- 17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. They shall be turned back and utterly ashamed — those who trust in carved images, who say to metal idols, "You are our gods."
- 18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Hear, You deaf; look, you blind, that you may see!
- 19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant? Who is blind but My servant, or deaf like My messenger whom I send? Who is blind like My dedicated one, or blind like the servant of the LORD?
- 20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not. You see many things, but You do not observe them. His ears are open, but He does not hear.
- 21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable. The LORD was pleased, for His righteousness' sake, to make His law great and glorious.
- 22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. But this is a people plundered and looted; all of them are trapped in holes or hidden in prisons. They have become plunder with no one to rescue, spoil with no one to say, "Restore!"
- 23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come? Who among You will listen to this? Who will pay attention and hear for the time to come?

Was it not the LORD — He against whom we sinned? For they would not walk in His ways and would not obey His law. So He poured on Him the heat of His anger and the violence of war. It set Him on fire all around, but He did not understand. It burned Him, but He did not take it to heart. |

The LORD declares, 'Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine.' When Israel passes through the waters, the LORD will be with them. He blots out their transgressions for His own sake and will not remember their sins. He is doing a new thing -- making a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

| 1 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. 2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. 3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. 4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life. 5 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; 6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; 7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him. 8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. | But now thus says the LORD — He who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. - 9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble. Who among them can declare this and show us the former things? Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, that they may hear and say, "It is true."
- 10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. "You are My witnesses," declares the LORD, "and My servant whom I have chosen, so that You may know and believe Me and understand that I am He. Before Me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after Me.
- 11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour. I, even I, am the LORD, and besides Me there is no savior.
- 12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God. I declared, saved, and proclaimed — when there was no foreign god among You. You are My witnesses," declares the LORD, "and I am God.
- 13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it? Yes, and from ancient days I am He. There is no one who can deliver from My hand. I act, and who can reverse it?"
- 14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For Your sake I send to Babylon and bring them all down as fugitives — even the Chaldeans, in the ships that were their boast."
- 15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. I am the LORD, Your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, Your King.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; Thus says the LORD — who makes a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters,

- 17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow. who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior — they lie down together; they cannot rise; they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
- 18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. "Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old.
- 19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. I am about to do a new thing. Now it is springing forth — do You not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.
- 20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. The beast of the field shall honor Me — the dragons and the owls — for I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My chosen people,
- 21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise. the people whom I formed for Myself that they might declare My praise.
- 22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Yet you have not called on Me, O Jacob. You have grown weary of Me, O Israel.
- 23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. You have not brought Me your burnt offering sheep or honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings or wearied you with incense.
- 24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. You have not bought Me sweet cane with money, nor satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices. Instead, you have burdened Me with your sins; you have wearied Me with your iniquities.

| 25 | I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. | I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins. |
| 26 | Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. | Remind Me; let us argue together. Set forth your case, that you may be proved right. |
| 27 | Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me. | Your first father sinned, and your mediators transgressed against Me. |
| 28 | Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches. | Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary; I gave Jacob over to utter destruction and Israel to mockery. |

The LORD declares that He will pour out His Spirit on the descendants of Jacob, and they shall spring up like willows by the watercourses. He is the first and the last, and beside Him there is no God. Isaiah mocks those who make idols from a block of wood -- half they burn for fire and half they worship. The LORD will redeem Jacob and declares Cyrus His shepherd.

- 9 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. All who make carved idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless. Their witnesses see nothing and know nothing — so they will be put to shame.
- 10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? Who fashions a god or casts an idol that is profitable for nothing?
- 11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. All His companions shall be put to shame; the craftsmen are only human. Let them all assemble and stand. They shall be terrified; they shall be put to shame together.
- 12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint. The ironsmith takes a tool and works it over the coals. He fashions it with hammers and works it with His strong arm. He grows hungry, and His strength fails. He drinks no water and is faint.
- 13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. The carpenter measures with a line and marks it with a pencil. He shapes it with planes and marks it with a compass. He shapes it into the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to dwell in a house.
- 14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. He cuts down cedars — or chooses a cypress or an oak — letting it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it.

- 15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. Then it becomes fuel for a man — he takes part of it and warms himself; he kindles a fire and bakes bread. He also makes a god and worships it; He makes a carved image and bows down to it.
- 16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: Half of it He burns in the fire. With that half He roasts meat and is satisfied. He also warms Himself and says, "I am warm; I have seen the fire!"
- 17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. The other half He makes into a god — His idol. He bows down to it and worships it. He prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for You are my god!"
- 18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. They do not know; they do not understand. Their eyes are closed so they cannot see, and their hearts, so they cannot understand.
- 19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? No one reflects, no one has knowledge or understanding to say, "Half of it I burned in the fire. I also baked bread on its coals and roasted meat and ate it. Shall I make the rest of it detestable? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?"
- 20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? He is feeding on ashes; a deluded heart has led Him astray. He cannot deliver Himself or say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

- 21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. Remember these things, O Jacob — and Israel, for you are My servant. I formed you; you are My servant. O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me.
- 22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like a mist. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.
- 23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel. Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it! Shout, O depths of the earth! Break forth in singing, O mountains — O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and glorified himself in Israel.
- 24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer — who formed You from the womb: "I am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by Myself,
- 25 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish; who foils the omens of boasters and makes diviners look foolish, who turns wise men back and makes their knowledge nonsense,
- 26 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof; who confirms the word of His servant and fulfills the counsel of his messengers — who says of Jerusalem, 'She shall be inhabited,' and of the cities of Judah, 'They shall be built, and I will raise up their ruins,'
- 27 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: who says to the deep, 'Be dry; I will dry up Your rivers,'

- 28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid. who says of Cyrus, 'He is My shepherd, and he shall carry out all My purpose, saying of Jerusalem, "She shall be built," and of the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid." ' "

Words in this chapter:

Cyrus (SY-rus) — The Persian king who conquered Babylon and issued the decree allowing the Jews to return home — named in Isaiah's prophecy 150 years before his birth.

Chapter 45

The LORD speaks to Cyrus His anointed, whom He has called by name though Cyrus does not know Him. The LORD declares that He forms the light and creates darkness, makes peace and creates evil. He commands the heavens to drop down righteousness and declares that every knee shall bow to Him and every tongue shall swear allegiance.

- 1 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut; Thus says the LORD to His anointed — to Cyrus — whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before Him and strip kings of their armor, to open doors before Him so that gates shall not be shut:

- 2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron: "I will go before You and level the mountains. I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
- 3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. I will give You the treasures of darkness and the hoards in secret places, that You may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, who calls You by Your name.
- 4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. For the sake of Jacob My servant and Israel My chosen, I call you by your name; I give you a title of honor, though you do not know Me.
- 5 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: I am the LORD, and there is no other; besides Me there is no God. I equip You, though You do not know Me,
- 6 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. so that they may know from the rising of the sun and from the west that there is no one besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things. I form light and create darkness; I make peace and create calamity. I am the LORD Who does all these things.
- 8 Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. Rain down, O heavens, from above; let the clouds pour down righteousness. Let the earth open and let salvation and righteousness spring up together. I the LORD have created it.

- 9 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? Woe to Him who strives with His Maker — a clay pot among earthen vessels! Shall the clay say to the potter, "What are You making?" or "Your work has no handles"?
- 10 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth? Woe to Him who says to His father, "What are You begetting?" or to a woman, "With what are you in labor?"
- 11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel and His Maker: "Will You question Me about things to come, or give Me orders about the work of My hands?"
- 12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. I made the earth and created man on it. It was My hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.
- 13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts. I have stirred Him up in righteousness, and I will make all His ways level. He shall build My city and set My exiles free — not for price or reward," says the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. Thus says the LORD: "The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush and the Sabeans — men of tall stature — shall come over to You and be Yours. They shall follow You; they shall come over in chains and bow down to You. They will plead with You, saying, 'Surely God is in You, and there is no other — no other God.'"

- 15 Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. Truly, You are a God Who hides Himself, O God of Israel, the Savior.
- 16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols. All of them are put to shame and disgraced; together they go in disgrace — the makers of idols.
- 17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. But Israel is saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation. You shall not be put to shame or disgraced forever and ever.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else. For thus says the LORD — who created the heavens, who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, who established it, who did not create it empty but formed it to be inhabited: "I am the LORD, and there is no other.
- 19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right. I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness. I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, 'Seek Me in vain.' I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right.
- 20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, You survivors of the nations! They have no knowledge who carry about their wooden idols and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.
- 21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me. Declare and present Your case. Let them take counsel together. Who told this long ago? Who declared it of old? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other God besides Me — a righteous God and a Savior. There is none besides Me.

For I am God, and there is no other. By Myself I have sworn — from My mouth has gone out in righteousness a word that shall not return: "To Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear allegiance." Only in the LORD, it shall be said of Me, are righteousness and strength. To Him shall come and be ashamed all who were angry with Him. In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall be justified and shall glory. |

The LORD contrasts Himself with the gods of Babylon -- Bel bows down and Nebo stoops, carried as burdens on weary beasts. But the LORD has carried Israel from the womb and will carry them to old age. He calls a bird of prey from the east to accomplish His purpose, and His salvation shall not delay.

| 1 Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden; they are a burden to the weary beast. | Bel bows down; Nebo stoops. Their idols are loaded on animals, on beasts of burden. The things You carry are heavy loads — a burden for weary animals. |
| 2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity. | They stoop and bow down together. They cannot save the burden; they themselves go into captivity. |
| 3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb: | Listen to Me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel — you whom I have carried since birth, whom I have held since you came from the womb. |
| 4 And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you. | Even to your old age I am He. Even when your hair is gray I will carry you. I have made you, and I will bear you. I will carry you and deliver you. |
| 5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? | To whom will you liken Me and make Me equal? Who can you compare Me to, that we should be alike? |
| 6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship. | They pour out gold from a pouch and weigh silver on the scales. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god. Then they fall down and worship it. |
| 7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. | They carry it on their shoulders; they haul it and set it in its place, and there it stands. It cannot move from its spot. If one cries out to it, it does not answer. It cannot save anyone from trouble. |
| 8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors. | Remember this and stand firm. Take it to heart, you who have turned away. |

I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there is none like Me. I declare the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things not yet done. I say, "My purpose shall stand, and I will accomplish all My plan." I call a bird of prey from the east — the man of My purpose from a distant land. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass. I have planned it, and I will do it. Listen to Me, you stubborn of heart, you who are far from righteousness. I bring My righteousness near; it is not far off. My salvation will not be delayed. I will place salvation in Zion, and My glory in Israel. |

The LORD pronounces judgment on the virgin daughter of Babylon, who will come down from her throne and sit in the dust. She trusted in her wickedness and said, 'No one sees me.' Disaster will come on her suddenly. Her astrologers and stargazers cannot save her from the fire that will consume her.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate. | Come down and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon. Sit on the ground, for there is no throne for You — daughter of the Chaldeans. You will no longer be called tender and delicate. |
| 2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. | Take the millstones and grind flour. Remove Your veil; strip off Your skirt and bare Your leg; wade through the rivers. |
| 3 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man. | Your nakedness will be exposed. Your shame will be seen. I will take vengeance, and I will spare no one. |
| 4 As for our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. | Our Redeemer — the LORD of hosts is His name — is the Holy One of Israel. |
| 5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms. | Sit in silence. Go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans. For you will no longer be called mistress of kingdoms. |
| 6 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. | I was angry with My people. I profaned My inheritance and handed them over to You. But You showed them no mercy. You laid a heavy yoke even on the elderly. |

- 7 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it. You said, "I will be queen forever." You did not take these things to heart; You did not think about how it would end.
- 8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: So now listen to this, You lover of pleasure, who live so carelessly and say in Your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me. I will never be a widow; I will never lose my children."
- 9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments. Both of these shall come on You in a single day — the loss of children and widowhood. They shall come in full measure, despite Your many sorceries and the great power of Your spells.
- 10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me. You felt secure in Your wickedness and said, "No one sees me." Your wisdom and your knowledge led You astray. You said in Your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me."
- 11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know. So disaster shall come upon You, and You will not know how to charm it away. Calamity shall fall on You, and You will not be able to ward it off. Ruin shall come on You suddenly, before You know it.

|--|---|
| 12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail. | Keep on with Your spells and Your many sorceries, at which You have labored since Your youth. Perhaps You will succeed; perhaps You will strike fear into enemies. |
| 13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. | You are worn out with all Your advisers. Let them stand up now — those who gaze at the stars, who study the sky each month and predict what will happen to You. Let them save You from what is coming. |
| 14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. | They are like stubble. Fire will burn them up. They cannot save themselves from the power of the flame. This is no fire to warm Yourself at — no coals to sit beside. |
| 15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee. | So too will Your traders be — those You have worked with since Your youth. They will wander off, each going His own way. None of them will save You. |

The LORD rebukes Israel for swearing by His name without truth or righteousness. He declared former things long ago so they could not credit their idols. For His own name's sake He delays His anger, and He refines Israel in the furnace of affliction. He commands them to go forth from Babylon and declares there is no peace for the wicked.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. | Listen to this, O house of Jacob — you who are called by the name of Israel and came from the line of Judah. You swear by the name of the LORD and call on the God of Israel, but not in truth or in righteousness. |
| 2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name. | They call themselves citizens of the holy city and lean on the God of Israel — the LORD of hosts is His name. |
| 3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. | I declared the former things long ago. They went out from My mouth; I made them known. Then I acted suddenly, and they came to pass. |
| 4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; | I knew that You are stubborn — your neck is an iron tendon and Your forehead is bronze. |
| 5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them. | Therefore I told You these things long ago. Before they came to pass I declared them to You, so that You could not say, "My idol did them; my carved image or my cast idol commanded them." |

- 6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them. You have heard these things; look at all of them! Will You not declare it? From this time on I announce new things to You — hidden things You have not known.
- 7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. They are created now and not long ago; before today You had not heard of them, so that You could not say, "I already knew them."
- 8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. You had not heard; You did not know; Your ear was not opened long ago. For I knew that You would deal very treacherously. You were called a rebel from birth.
- 9 For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. For My name's sake I hold back My anger; for the sake of My praise I restrain it for You, so that I do not cut You off.
- 10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. I have refined You, but not as silver is refined. I have tried You in the furnace of affliction.
- 11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another. For My own sake — for My own sake — I do this. How can My name be dishonored? I will not give My glory to another.
- 12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called. I am he. I am the first, and I am the last.
- 13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together. My hand laid the foundation of the earth. My right hand spread out the heavens. When I call to them, they stand up together.

- 14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. Come together and listen, all of You. Which of the idols declared these things? The LORD loves Him. He will carry out His purpose against Babylon; His arm will be against the Chaldeans.
- 15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. I, I have spoken. I have called Him, I have brought Him, and His way will succeed.
- 16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me. Come near to Me; listen to this. From the beginning I have not spoken in secret. From the time it came to be, I was there. And now the Lord GOD has sent Me, along with His Spirit.
- 17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go: Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the LORD Your God, who teaches You what is good for You, who leads You in the way You should go.
- 18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: If only You had listened to My commandments! Then Your peace would have been like a river, and Your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
- 19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and Your children as countless as its grains. Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from My presence.
- 20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob. Go out from Babylon; flee from the Chaldeans! Declare this with shouts of joy; proclaim it and send it out to the end of the earth. Say, "The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob!"

He made water flow for them from the rock; He split the rock and the waters gushed out. |
| 22 | There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked. | "There is no peace," says the LORD, "for the wicked." |

Chapter 49

The Servant of the LORD declares that the LORD called Him from the womb and made His mouth like a sharp sword. The LORD says it is too small a thing for the Servant to restore only Israel -- He will also be a light to the nations. Kings shall see and arise, and princes shall worship. Zion says the LORD has forsaken her, but the LORD answers that He has engraved her on the palms of His hands.

- 1 Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name. Listen to Me, O coastlands; pay attention, You peoples from far away. The LORD called Me from the womb; He named Me from my mother's body.
- 2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me; He made My mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand He hid Me. He made Me a polished arrow; in His quiver He concealed Me.
- 3 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. He said to Me, "You are My servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
- 4 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God. But I said, "I have labored in vain. I have spent My strength for nothing and emptiness. Yet surely My right is with the LORD, and My reward is with My God."
- 5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength. And now the LORD says — He who formed Me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to him, for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD, and My God has become My strength —
- 6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. He says: "It is too small a thing for you to be My servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved ones of Israel. I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that My salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

- 7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee. Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel — His Holy One — to One deeply despised, rejected by the nation, the servant of rulers: "Kings shall see and stand up; princes, and they shall bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen You."
- 8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages; Thus says the LORD: "In a time of favor I have answered You, and in a day of salvation I have helped You. I will keep You and make You a covenant to the people, to restore the land and to apportion the desolate inheritances,
- 9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. saying to the prisoners, 'Come out,' and to those in darkness, 'Come into the light.' They shall feed along the paths, and their pasture shall be on all the bare heights.
- 10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them. They shall not hunger or thirst; neither scorching heat nor sun shall strike them. For He who has mercy on them will lead them, and by springs of water He will guide them.
- 11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. I will make all My mountains into roads, and My highways shall be raised up.
- 12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. See, these shall come from far away — from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Sinim.

- 13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted. Sing for joy, O heavens; shout, O earth. Break out into song, O mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people and will have mercy on His afflicted.
- 14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me. But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me; my Lord has forgotten me."
- 15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even if she could forget, I will not forget You.
- 16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. See, I have engraved You on the palms of My hands. Your walls are always before Me.
- 17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee. Your children hasten back. Those who destroyed You and laid You waste shall depart from You.
- 18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth. Lift up Your eyes and look around — all of them gather and come to You. As I live, declares the LORD, You shall wear them all as an ornament; You shall put them on like a bride.
- 19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. Your waste and desolate places — your ruined land — will surely now be too small for Your inhabitants, while those who swallowed You up are far away.

- 20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell. The children born during Your time of bereavement will yet say in Your hearing, "The place is too cramped for me; make room for me to live."
- 21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been? Then You will say in Your heart, "Who bore me these? I had lost my children; I was barren, exiled and put away. Who then raised these? I was left alone — where did these come from?"
- 22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will lift up My hand to the nations and set up My ensign to the peoples. They shall bring Your sons in their arms, and Your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.
- 23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Kings shall be Your foster fathers, and their queens Your nursing mothers. They shall bow down to You with their faces to the ground and lick the dust of Your feet. Then You will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for Me shall not be put to shame."
- 24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, and the lawful captive delivered? Can the prey be taken from the mighty man, or can the lawful captive be rescued?
- 25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. But thus says the LORD: "Even the captives of a mighty man shall be taken away, and the prey of a tyrant shall be rescued. I will contend with those who contend with You, and I will save Your children.

- 26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. I will make Your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with new wine. Then all people will know that I am the LORD Your Savior, Your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

Words in this chapter:

covenant — A binding agreement — God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people.

mercy — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment — God withholding the wrath we have earned.

ensign — A signal banner or rallying flag — lifted high to gather troops or nations; used in prophecy for the Messiah drawing all peoples.

Gentiles (JEN-tylz) — All non-Jewish peoples — in the OT, the nations outside Israel; in the NT, the Gentile mission is a major theme as the gospel goes to the whole world.

Jacob (JAY-kub) — Isaac's second son — father of the twelve tribes of Israel; God later renamed him Israel ('one who wrestles with God'); his name means 'he grasps the heel.'

Chapter 50

The LORD asks where the certificate of Israel's divorce is and declares that His arm is not shortened that it cannot save. The Servant of the LORD sets His face like flint and gives His back to those who strike Him and His cheeks to those who pluck out the beard. He trusts in the LORD and is not ashamed.

- 1 Thus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. Thus says the LORD: "Where is the certificate of divorce by which I sent Your mother away? Or to which of My creditors did I sell You? For Your iniquities You were sold, and for Your transgressions Your mother was sent away.
- 2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst. Why, when I came, was there no one? When I called, why did no one answer? Is My hand shortened so that it cannot redeem? Do I have no power to deliver? At My rebuke I dry up the sea; I make rivers a desert. Their fish rot because there is no water; they die of thirst.
- 3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth their covering."
- 4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned. The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of those who are taught, so that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning He wakens; He wakens My ear to listen as those who are taught.
- 5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious; I did not turn away.
- 6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. I gave My back to those who struck Me and My cheeks to those who pulled out the beard. I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

Chapter 51

The LORD calls those who pursue righteousness to look to Abraham and Sarah, from whom He called a nation out of one man. He will comfort Zion and make her wilderness like Eden. Israel is told to awake and put on strength; the cup of the LORD's fury that made them stagger will be taken from their hand and put into the hand of their tormentors.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. | Listen to Me, You who pursue righteousness, You who seek the LORD. Look to the rock from which You were cut and to the quarry from which You were dug. |
| 2 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. | Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you. I called him alone and blessed him and made him many. |
| 3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. | For the LORD will comfort Zion; He will comfort all her desolate places. He will make her wilderness like Eden and her desert like the garden of the LORD. Joy and gladness will be found in her — thanksgiving and the sound of singing. |
| 4 Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people. | Listen to Me, My people; give ear to Me, My nation. A law will go out from Me, and My justice shall be a light to the peoples. |

- 5 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust. My righteousness is near; My salvation has gone out; My arms will judge the peoples. The coastlands wait for Me, and in My arm they put their hope.
- 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished. Lift up Your eyes to the heavens and look at the earth beneath. The heavens shall vanish like smoke; the earth shall wear out like a garment; its inhabitants shall die like gnats. But My salvation will be forever, and My righteousness will never fail.
- 7 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings. Listen to Me, You who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law. Do not fear the reproach of men; do not be dismayed at their insults.
- 8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation. For the moth shall eat them like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool. But My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation to all generations.
- 9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD. Awake as in the days of old, the generations of long ago. Was it not You who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the dragon?
- 10 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? Was it not You who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep — who made the depths of the sea a road for the ransomed to cross over?

- 11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. So the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing. Everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
- 12 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; I, I am He who comforts you. Why then do you fear a man who is mortal — the son of man who is made like grass?
- 13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? You have forgotten the LORD Your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. You live in constant terror all day long because of the fury of the oppressor who is bent on destruction. But where is the fury of the oppressor now?
- 14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. The captive who crouches shall quickly be set free. He shall not die in the pit; His food shall not run out.
- 15 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name. For I am the LORD Your God, Who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar. The LORD of hosts is His name.
- 16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. I have put My words in Your mouth and covered You in the shadow of My hand — stretching out the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, "You are My people."

- 17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out. Wake up, wake up! Rise up, O Jerusalem — you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD the cup of His wrath. You have drunk to the dregs the cup that makes men stagger.
- 18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up. There is no one to guide her — none of all the children she has borne. There is no one to take her by the hand — none of all the children she has raised.
- 19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee? These two things have come on You — who will grieve with You? — devastation and destruction, famine and sword. By whom shall I comfort You?
- 20 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God. Your sons have fainted; they lie at the head of every street like an antelope caught in a net. They are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of Your God.
- 21 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine: So listen to this, You afflicted one, drunk — but not with wine.
- 22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again: Thus says Your Lord, the LORD — your God Who defends His people: "I am taking from Your hand the cup that made You stagger, the dregs of My cup of wrath. You shall never drink it again.
- 23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over. I will put it into the hand of Your tormentors, who said to You, 'Bow down so we can walk over You.' You made Your back like the ground and like a street for them to walk on."

Words in this chapter:

Sarah (SAIR-ah) — Abraham's wife and mother of Isaac — her name means 'princess'; she laughed when told she would bear a son at age 90.

Chapter 52

The LORD commands Zion to awake and put on her beautiful garments, for the uncircumcised and unclean shall no longer come into her. How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings of peace. The LORD's Servant shall be exalted and extolled, yet His appearance was marred more than any man, and He shall sprinkle many nations.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. | Wake up, wake up! Put on Your strength, O Zion. Put on Your beautiful clothes, O Jerusalem, the holy city. The uncircumcised and the unclean shall enter you no more. |
| 2 | Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. | Shake Yourself free from the dust; arise and take Your seat, O Jerusalem. Loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. |
| 3 | For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money. | For thus says the LORD: "You were sold for nothing, and You shall be redeemed without money." |

- 4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. For thus says the Lord GOD: "My people went down to Egypt at the start to stay there, and the Assyrian oppressed them for nothing.
- 5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Now what do I have here?" declares the LORD. "My people are taken away for nothing. Those who rule over them wail," declares the LORD, "and My name is continually despised all day long.
- 6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I. Therefore My people shall know My name. In that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here I am."
- 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of Him who brings good news — who announces peace, who brings good news of good things, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"
- 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they sing for joy. For eye to eye they shall see the LORD returning to Zion.
- 9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. Break forth together into singing, You waste places of Jerusalem! For the LORD has comforted His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem.
- 10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God. The LORD has bared His holy arm in the sight of all the nations. All the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

| 11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD. 12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward. 13 Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. 14 As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: 15 So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. | Depart, depart, go out from there! Touch nothing unclean. Go out from the middle of her; purify yourselves, You who carry the vessels of the LORD. For You shall not go out in haste, and You shall not go in flight. For the LORD will go before You, and the God of Israel will be Your rear guard. See, My servant shall act wisely. He shall be raised up and lifted high and greatly exalted. Just as many were appalled at Him — His appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and His form beyond human likeness — so He shall sprinkle many nations. Kings shall shut their mouths because of Him. For what they were not told they shall see, and what they had not heard they shall understand. |
