- 17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: and He went out, carrying His own cross, to the place called the Place of a Skull — in the Hebrew, Golgotha.
- 18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. There they crucified Him, along with two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.

- 19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. It was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.
- 21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'"
- 22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written. Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."
- 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His garments and divided them into four parts — one for each soldier. But His tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.
- 24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did. So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be." This was to fulfill the Scripture: "They divided My clothes among them, and for My clothing they cast lots." These things the soldiers did.
- 25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. Standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

- 26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to His mother, "Woman, see Your son!"
- 27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. Then He said to the disciple, "See your mother!" From that hour the disciple took her into his own home.
- 28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now finished, said — to fulfill the Scripture — "I am thirsty."
- 29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. A jar full of sour wine was standing there. They put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to His mouth.
- 30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished." He bowed His head and gave up the ghost.
- 31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) sought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross on the Sabbath — for that Sabbath was a high day — so they asked Pilate to have their legs broken and the bodies taken away.
- 32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the other who had been crucified with Him.
- 33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

- 34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.
- 35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. The one who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows He is telling the truth, so that You also may believe.
- 36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of His bones will be broken."
- 37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. And again another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they pierced."
- 38 And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus. After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea — who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly, for fear of the Jews — asked Pilate for permission to take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away Jesus' body.
- 39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight. Nicodemus also came — the man who had first come to Jesus at night — bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.
- 40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the Jewish burial custom.
- 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. Now there was a garden in the place where He was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid.

- 42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Chapter 20

Mary Magdalene comes to the tomb early on the first day of the week and finds it empty. The risen Jesus appears to her, then to the disciples behind locked doors, showing them His hands and His side. Thomas, absent the first time, sees Jesus eight days later and confesses, 'My Lord and my God.'

- 1 The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre. On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark. She saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb.
- 2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him. She ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple — the one whom Jesus loved — and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."
- 3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. Peter went out, along with the other disciple, and they were going to the tomb.
- 4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. Both were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.
- 5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in.
- 6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, Then Simon Peter came, following him, and he went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there,

- 7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself. and the face cloth that had been on His head — not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself.
- 8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. He saw and believed.
- 9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead.
- 10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home. Then the disciples went back to their own homes.
- 11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. As she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb.
- 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. She saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain — one at the head and one at the feet.
- 13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. They said to her, "Woman, why are You weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him."
- 14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know it was Jesus.

- 15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are You weeping? Whom are You seeking?" Thinking He was the gardener, she said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him."
- 16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him, "Rabboni!" — which means Master.
- 17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to My brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to My Father and Your Father, and to My God and Your God.'"
- 18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. Mary Magdalene went and told the disciples, "I have seen the Lord" — and she told them what He had said to her.
- 19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with You."
- 20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.
- 21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with You. As the Father has sent Me, so I am sending You."

- 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Ghost.
- 23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. If You forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven. If you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained."
- 24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. Now Thomas, one of the twelve — called Didymus — was not with them when Jesus came.
- 25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. So the other disciples told Him, "We have seen the Lord." But He said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in His hands, put my finger into the nail marks, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe."
- 26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas was with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Eight days later, His disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked, but Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with You."
- 27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Do not be faithless, but believing."
- 28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"
- 29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. Jesus said to Him, "Because You have seen Me, You have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

Chapter 21

The risen Jesus appears to seven disciples at the Sea of Tiberias and directs them to a miraculous catch of 153 fish. He restores Peter with three questions — 'Do you love Me?' — and commissions him to feed His sheep. Jesus foretells Peter's death and speaks concerning the beloved disciple.

- 5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. Jesus said to them, "Children, have You caught any fish?" They answered Him, "No."
- 6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and You will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.
- 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment — for he was stripped for work — and threw himself into the sea.
- 8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes. The other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from land — only about a hundred yards.
- 9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid on it and bread.
- 10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish You have just caught."
- 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken. So Simon Peter went and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish — a hundred and fifty-three of them. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.
- 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?" They knew it was the Lord.
- 13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish.

- 14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. This was now the third time that Jesus revealed Himself to the disciples after He had risen from the dead.
- 15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. When they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me more than these?" He said to Him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love You." He said to Him, "Feed My lambs."
- 16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He said to Him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You." He said to Him, "Tend My sheep."
- 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He said to Him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do You love Me?" He said to Him, "Lord, You know all things. You know that I love You." Jesus said to Him, "Feed My sheep."
- 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Truly, truly, I say to You, when You were young, You used to dress Yourself and go wherever You wanted. But when You are old, You will stretch out Your hands and another will dress You and carry You where You do not want to go."
- 19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. He said this to show by what kind of death Peter would glorify God. After saying this, He said to Him, "Follow Me."

| 20 | Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? | Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following — the one who had also leaned against him at supper and had said, "Lord, who is it that will betray You?" |
| 21 | Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? | When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" |
| 22 | Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. | Jesus said to Him, "If I want Him to wait until I come, what is that to You? You follow Me." |
| 23 | Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? | So this word spread among the brothers that that disciple would not die. Yet Jesus had not said to Him that He would not die, but, "If I want Him to wait until I come, what is that to You?" |
| 24 | This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true. | This is the disciple who testifies about these things and who wrote these things down. We know that his testimony is true. |
| 25 | And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen. | There are also many other things that Jesus did. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would need to be written. Amen. |

Acts

Author: Luke, the physician — Acts is the direct sequel to the Gospel of Luke, addressed to the same Theophilus and continuing the narrative from the ascension of Christ.

Date written: c. AD 62, ending abruptly with Paul under house arrest in Rome — a natural stopping point if Luke wrote before Paul's trial concluded.

Written to: Theophilus and the wider Gentile world, to provide an orderly account of the gospel's spread from Jerusalem to Rome.

Setting: The risen Christ has ascended. Fifty days later the Holy Spirit falls on the gathered disciples. Acts traces the next thirty years — from that upper room in Jerusalem to Paul in chains in the capital of the empire.

Where this sits historically: Spans the reigns of Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius, and Nero (c. AD 30–62), ending with Paul under house arrest in Nero's Rome before the persecutions that followed the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote most of his epistles (Galatians through Romans, and the prison letters) during the events Acts narrates, while Peter, James, Barnabas, Silas, Timothy, and Apollos all played active roles in the spreading church.

Big themes:

- The Holy Spirit — He is the book's main actor; the Spirit empowers, directs, corrects, and sends throughout; Acts cannot be understood apart from Pentecost
- The gospel to all nations — Acts traces the exact progression Jesus promised: "Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (1:8)
- The church is born — Acts records the first sermons, the first converts, the first persecution, the first Gentile believers, and the first missionary journeys
- Peter and Paul — the book divides roughly in half between Peter's ministry (chs. 1–12) and Paul's three missionary journeys and arrest (chs. 13–28)
- Persecution and growth — the church does not grow despite persecution; it often grows through it; every attempt to stop the gospel accelerates it

Key passages: Acts 1:8; 2:38; 4:12; 8:37; 17:31

How it fits: Acts is the hinge between the Gospels and the Epistles. It explains how the church got from a room in Jerusalem to congregations in Corinth, Ephesus, Rome, and beyond. Every Pauline epistle was written to churches or people mentioned in Acts. Without Acts, the NT letters float without their historical anchor.

Pauline epistles tied to Acts:

| Letter | Date | Acts moment |

|---|---|---|

| James | c. AD 45–49 | Before the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15) |

Galatians	c. AD 48–49	Around the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15)
1 Thessalonians	c. AD 50–51	Second missionary journey, from Corinth (Acts 17–18)
2 Thessalonians	c. AD 51–52	Shortly after 1 Thessalonians (Acts 18)
1 Corinthians	c. AD 55	Third journey, from Ephesus (Acts 19)
2 Corinthians	c. AD 56	From Macedonia, after leaving Ephesus (Acts 20)
Romans	c. AD 57	End of third journey, from Corinth (Acts 20)
Ephesians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Philippians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Colossians	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)
Philemon	c. AD 60–62	Roman house arrest (Acts 28)

Chapter 1

Jesus commanded His apostles to wait in Jerusalem for the promise of the Holy Ghost, then ascended into heaven from the Mount of Olives. The disciples returned to Jerusalem, continued in prayer, and chose Matthias to replace Judas as the twelfth apostle.

This same Jesus, Who has been taken from You into heaven, will come back in the same way You have seen Him go into heaven." |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity points to the corruption beneath the sinful act itself — the bent nature that produces evil deeds.

- 19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so that field is called in their language Aceldama, that is, Field of Blood.
- 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take. "For," said Peter, "it is written in the book of Psalms: 'May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,' and, 'May another take his place of leadership.'"
- 21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, "Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus was with us,
- 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. beginning from John's baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. One of these must become a witness with us of His resurrection."
- 23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. They put forward two men: Joseph called Barsabas, also known as Justus, and Matthias.
- 24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, Then they prayed, "Lord, You know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two You have chosen
- 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs."

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God has set; breaking a specific command. Where "sin" is missing the mark, "transgression" is deliberately stepping over a known boundary.

Chapter 2

The Holy Ghost fell on the day of Pentecost, and the apostles spoke in tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. Peter preached to the crowd, proclaiming the resurrection of Christ, and about three thousand souls were baptized and added to the church.

- | | |
| 1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. | When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. |
| 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. | Suddenly a sound like a violent rushing wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. |
| 3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. | They saw what appeared to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. |
| 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. | All of them were filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability. |
| 5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. | Now there were living in Jerusalem devout Jews from every nation under heaven. |
| 6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language. | When this sound was heard, a crowd gathered in confusion, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. |
| 7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? | Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans?" |

- 8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? "Then how is it that each of us hears them in our own native language?"
- 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, "Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea, and Cappadocia; from Pontus and Asia,
- 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, from Phrygia and Pamphylia; from Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism;
- 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. Cretans and Arabians — we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own languages!"
- 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this? They were all amazed and perplexed. "What does this mean?" they asked one another.
- 13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. But others mocked them and said, "They have had too much wine."
- 14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: Then Peter stood up with the eleven, raised his voice, and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all who live in Jerusalem, listen carefully and let me explain this to you."
- 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. "These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It is only nine in the morning."
- 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; "No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:"

- 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: "In the last days, God says, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams."
- 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: "On My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy."
- 19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: "I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below — blood and fire and billows of smoke."
- 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come: "'The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.'"
- 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. "'And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'"
- 22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: "Men of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to You through miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did among You through Him, as You yourselves know."
- 23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: "This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge, and you, with the help of wicked men, put Him to death by nailing Him to the cross."

| 24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. | "But God raised him from the dead, freeing Him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on Him." |
| 25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: | "David said about him: 'I saw the Lord always before me. Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.'" |
| 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: | "Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest in hope," |
| 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. | "because You will not abandon me to hell, nor will You let Your Holy One see decay." |

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one English word — "hell" — to translate several Hebrew and Greek words (Sheol, Hades, Gehenna). In Acts 2:27, it refers to the place of the departed, from which God did not allow Christ to remain.

| 34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, | "For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said, 'The LORD said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand |
| 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool. | until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.'" |
| 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. | "Therefore let all Israel be certain of this: God has made this Jesus, whom You crucified, both Lord and Christ." |
| 37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? | When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" |
| 38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. | Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of Your sins. You will receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve or earn. Grace is not a reward for good behavior — it is God freely giving what we do not merit because of His love.

They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, |
| 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved. | praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. |

Chapter 3

Peter healed a man lame from birth at the temple gate called Beautiful, commanding him to walk in the name of Jesus Christ. He then preached to the astonished crowd, calling them to repentance and declaring Jesus as the promised prophet spoken of by Moses.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. | One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer — at three in the afternoon. |
| 2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; | A man crippled from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple. |
| 3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. | When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. |
| 4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. | Peter looked straight at him, and so did John. "Look at us," Peter said. |
| 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them. | So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them. |
| 6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. | Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give You. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk." |
| 7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength. | Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up. At once the man's feet and ankles became strong. |
| 8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. | He jumped to his feet and began to walk. He went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping and praising God. |
| 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God: | When all the people saw him walking and praising God, |

- 10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him. they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the Beautiful Gate. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.
- 11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. While the man held on to Peter and John, all the people came running to them at the place called Solomon's Porch, utterly astonished.
- 12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? When Peter saw this, he said to them, "Men of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness?"
- 13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go. "The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob — the God of our fathers — has glorified His Son Jesus. You handed Him over to be killed and denied Him before Pilate, even though he had decided to let him go."
- 14 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; "You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to You."
- 15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. "You killed the author of life, but God raised Him from the dead. We are witnesses of this."
- 16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. "By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through Him that has completely healed Him, as You can all see."

■ WORD NOTE — *Faith (FAYTH) — trust and confidence placed in God and His Word. Faith is not merely believing facts — it is personally relying on God, taking Him at His word, and acting on that trust.

| 17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. | "Now, brothers, I know that You acted in ignorance, as did Your leaders." |
| 18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. | "But this is how God fulfilled what He had foretold through all the prophets — that His Christ would suffer." |
| 19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; | "Repent therefore, and turn back, so that Your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord," |
| 20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: | "and that He may send the Christ Who has been appointed for You — Jesus." |
| 21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. | "Heaven must receive Him until the time comes for God to restore everything, as He promised long ago through His holy prophets." |
| 22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. | "For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people. You must listen to everything He tells you.'" |
| 23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. | "'Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from among his people.'" |

Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

"All the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have foretold these days."

Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

"You are the children of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.'"

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. God's covenants are not mere contracts — they are sacred, unbreakable commitments backed by His own character.

Chapter 4

The priests and Sadducees arrested Peter and John for preaching the resurrection, but the number of believers grew to about five thousand. Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, declared before the council that salvation is found in no other name than Jesus Christ.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees came up to them.

Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

- 3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide. They seized Peter and John and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening.
- 4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand.
- 5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, The next day the rulers, elders, and scribes met in Jerusalem.
- 6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and all the others of the high priest's family were there.
- 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"
- 8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people,
- 9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; if we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame, and asked how he was healed,
- 10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. then know this, You and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom You crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you completely healed."
- 11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. "Jesus is the stone You builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone."

- 12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved."
- 13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and realized that they were ordinary men with no formal education, they were astonished. They recognized that these men had been with Jesus.
- 14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say.
- 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, They ordered them to leave the council and then talked the matter over among themselves.
- 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. "What are we going to do with these men?" they asked. "Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed a notable miracle, and we cannot deny it."
- 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. "But to stop this from spreading further among the people, we must warn them to speak no longer to anyone in this name."
- 18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. They called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.
- 19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. But Peter and John replied, "Which is right in God's eyes — to listen to you or to Him? You be the judges."

- 20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. "As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard."
- 21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done. After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened.
- 22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed. The man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.
- 23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them. On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported what the chief priests and elders had said to them.
- 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: When the people heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. "Lord," they said, "You made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them."
- 25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? "You spoke through the mouth of your servant David: 'Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?'"
- 26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. "'The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord and against His anointed one.'"
- 27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, "Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against Your holy Child Jesus, whom You anointed."

- 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. "They did what Your power and will had decided beforehand should happen."
- 29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, "Now, Lord, see their threats and enable Your servants to speak Your word with great boldness."
- 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus. "Stretch out Your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of Your holy Child Jesus."
- 31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness. After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Ghost and spoke the word of God boldly.
- 32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any possession was his own, but they shared everything they had.
- 33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on them all.
- 34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, There were no needy persons among them. Those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales,
- 35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. and placed it at the apostles' feet. It was distributed to anyone who had need.

Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

sold a field he owned, brought the money, and placed it at the apostles' feet.

Chapter 5

Ananias and Sapphira lied to the Holy Ghost about the price of their land and both fell dead, bringing great fear on the whole church. The apostles performed many signs and wonders, were arrested again by the high priest, and were beaten but rejoiced that they were counted worthy to suffer for the name of Christ.

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property.

And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

With his wife's full knowledge He kept back part of the money for Himself and brought only a portion and placed it at the apostles' feet.

But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Ghost and kept for Yourself some of the money You received for the land?"

- 4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. "Didn't the property belong to You before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at Your disposal? What made You think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God."
- 5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. When Ananias heard this, He fell down and died. Great fear seized all who heard what had happened.
- 6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him. Some young men came forward, wrapped up His body, carried Him out, and buried Him.
- 7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.
- 8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?" "Yes," she said, "that is the price."
- 9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! The feet of the men who buried Your husband are at the door, and they will carry You out also."
- 10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. At that moment she fell down at His feet and died. The young men came in, found her dead, and carried her out and buried her beside her husband.
- 11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things. Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

- 12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. The apostles performed many signs and wonders among the people. All the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Porch.
- 13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them; but the people magnified them. No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people.
- 14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.) Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number.
- 15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them. As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and placed them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.
- 16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. Crowds also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those troubled by unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.
- 17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, Then the high priest and all his associates — who were members of the sect of the Sadducees — were filled with jealousy.
- 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.
- 19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, saying,
- 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. "Go, stand in the temple courts and tell the people all about this new life."

- 21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. At daybreak they entered the temple courts and began to teach. When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin — the full assembly of the elders of Israel — and sent to the jail for the apostles.
- 22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, But when the officers arrived at the jail, they did not find them there. They went back and reported,
- 23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. "We found the jail securely locked with the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside."
- 24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this, they were baffled and wondered what this could lead to.
- 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then someone came and reported, "The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts and teaching the people."
- 26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them.
- 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, Having brought the apostles, they placed them before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest.

- 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."
- 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Peter and the other apostles replied, "We must obey God rather than men."
- 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. "The God of our fathers raised Jesus from the dead — whom You killed by hanging Him on a tree."
- 31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. "God exalted Him to His own right hand as Prince and Savior to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel."
- 32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. "We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God has given to those who obey Him."
- 33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death.
- 34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.
- 35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men. Then He addressed the council: "Men of Israel, consider carefully what You intend to do to these men."

- 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. "Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to Him. He was killed, all His followers were scattered, and it all came to nothing."
- 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. "After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered."
- 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: "Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone. Let them go. If their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail."
- 39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. "But if it is from God, You will not be able to stop these men. You will only find yourselves fighting against God."
- 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in, had them flogged, commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
- 41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. The apostles left the Sanhedrin rejoicing because they had been counted worthy to suffer disgrace for the Name.
- 42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

Chapter 6

The apostles appointed seven men, including Stephen, to serve the daily distribution so that they could devote themselves to prayer and the word. Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders, and his opponents in the synagogue brought false witnesses against him before the council.

| 1 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. | In those days when the number of disciples was growing, the Hellenistic Jews complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. |
| 2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. | So the twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, "It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables." |
| 3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. | "Brothers, choose seven men from among You who are known to be full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom. | 4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. | "We will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word." |
| 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: | This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost; also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. |

■ NAME NOTE — Stephen (STEE-vun) — "crown" — One of the first seven deacons of the Jerusalem church. A man of great faith and power, he became the first Christian martyr, stoned to death for his bold testimony of Christ (Acts 7).

■ NAME NOTE — Philip (FIL-ip) — "lover of horses" — One of the seven deacons. He later became known as Philip the Evangelist, preaching in Samaria and leading the Ethiopian eunuch to faith in Christ (Acts 8).

Chapter 7

Stephen delivered a sweeping defense before the council, tracing Israel's history from Abraham through Moses to Solomon. He accused them of resisting the Holy Ghost as their fathers had done, and they stoned him to death as he saw heaven opened and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God.

| 1 Then said the high priest, Are these things so? | Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are these charges true?" |
| 2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, | Stephen replied: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran." |
| 3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. | "He said to him, 'Leave your country and your people and go to the land I will show you.'" |
| 4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, after his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. | "So he left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. After his father died, God sent him to this land where you are now living." |

- 5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. "God gave him no inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. But God promised Him that He and His descendants after Him would possess the land, even though at that time Abraham had no child."
- 6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. "God spoke to Him this way: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land, and they will be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.'"
- 7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. "'But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,' God said, 'and afterward they will come out and worship me in this place.'"
- 8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs. "Then He gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs."
- 9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, "Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, they sold him as a slave into Egypt. But God was with Him
- 10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the favor of Pharaoh king of Egypt. So Pharaoh made him ruler over Egypt and all his household."
- 11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. "Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our ancestors could not find food."

- 12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. "When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers there on their first visit."
- 13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. "On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family."
- 14 And Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. "After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family, seventy-five in all."
- 15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, "Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our ancestors died."
- 16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. "Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor in Shechem for a certain sum of money."
- 17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, "As the time drew near for God to fulfill His promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased."
- 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph. "Then a different king, who knew nothing about Joseph, became ruler of Egypt."
- 19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. "He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our ancestors by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die."
- 20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months: "At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child. For three months he was raised in his father's house."

- 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. "When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and raised him as her own son."
- 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. "Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action."
- 23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. "When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites."
- 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: "He saw one of them being mistreated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defense and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian."
- 25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. "Moses thought that his own people would realize that God was using Him to rescue them, but they did not."
- 26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? "The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting. He tried to make peace between them and said, 'Men, you are brothers; why are you hurting each other?'"
- 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? "But the man who was mistreating the other pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?'"
- 28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday? "'Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'"
- 29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons. "When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he lived as an outsider and had two sons."

- 30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. "After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the wilderness near Mount Sinai."
- 31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, "When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord say:"
- 32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. "'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.' Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look."
- 33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground. "Then the Lord said to Him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.'"
- 34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. "'I have indeed seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to set them free. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt.'"
- 35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. "This is the same Moses they had rejected with the words, 'Who made you ruler and judge?' He is the one God sent to be their ruler and deliverer through the angel that appeared to him in the bush."
- 36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. "He led them out and performed wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness."
- 37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear. "This is the Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people.'"

- 38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us: "He was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors. He received living words to pass on to us."
- 39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, "But our ancestors refused to obey him. They rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt."
- 40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. "They told Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt — we don't know what has happened to him.'"
- 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. "That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and celebrated what their own hands had made."
- 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? "But God turned away from them and gave them over to the worship of the heavenly bodies. This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets: 'Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings for forty years in the wilderness, house of Israel?'"
- 43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. "'You have taken up the tabernacle of Molek and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.'"
- 44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen. "Our ancestors had the tabernacle of witness with them in the wilderness. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen."

■ WORD NOTE — Tabernacle (TAB-ur-nak-ul) — the tent of meeting; Israel's portable worship structure where God's presence dwelt among His people. God gave Moses the exact design for this tent on Mount Sinai, and it served as the center of Israelite worship until Solomon built the permanent temple.

What kind of house will You build for me? says the Lord. Or where will my resting place be?" |
| 50 Hath not my hand made all these things? | "Has not my hand made all these things?" |
| 51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. | "You stubborn people! You are uncircumcised in heart and ears. You are just like Your ancestors — you always resist the Holy Ghost." |

- 52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: "Was there ever a prophet Your ancestors did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered Him."
- 53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. "You who have received the law that was given through angels but have not obeyed it."
- 54 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and ground their teeth at Him.
- 55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, But Stephen, full of the Holy Ghost, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.
- 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. "Look," he said, "I see heaven open and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God."
- 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at Him.
- 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.
- 59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. While they were stoning Him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."
- 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. Then He fell on His knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When He had said this, He fell asleep.

Chapter 8

A great persecution scattered the church from Jerusalem, and Philip went down to Samaria where many believed and were baptized. Philip then met the Ethiopian eunuch on the road to Gaza, preached Jesus to him from Isaiah, and baptized him after the eunuch confessed his faith in Christ.

| 1 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. | Saul approved of Stephen's death. On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judaea and Samaria. |
| 2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. | Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. |
| 3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. | But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison. |
| 4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. | Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. |
| 5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. | Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed Christ there. |
| 6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. | When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. |

- 7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. With shrieks, unclean spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed.
- 8 And there was great joy in that city. So there was great joy in that city.
- 9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: Now for some time a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great,
- 10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and said, "This man is rightly called the Great Power of God."
- 11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his sorcery.
- 12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. But when they believed Philip as he proclaimed the good news of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.
- 13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done. Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles he saw.
- 14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to Samaria.

- 15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: When they arrived, they prayed for the new believers there that they might receive the Holy Ghost,
- 16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) because the Holy Ghost had not yet come on any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.
- 17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.
- 18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, When Simon saw that the Holy Ghost was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, He offered them money
- 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Ghost."
- 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Peter answered: "May your money go to destruction with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money."
- 21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. "You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God."
- 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee. "Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord in the hope that He may forgive you for having such a thought in your heart."
- 23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. "For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin."

- 24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me. Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me so that nothing you have said may happen to me."
- 25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans. After they had further proclaimed the word of the Lord and testified about Jesus, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.
- 26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert. Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road — the desert road — that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza."
- 27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of the Kandake — queen of the Ethiopians. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship,
- 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the prophet.
- 29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."
- 30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou redest? Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.
- 31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him. "How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

- 32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: This is the passage of Scripture the eunuch was reading: "He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he did not open his mouth."
- 33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth. "In His humiliation He was deprived of justice. Who can speak of His descendants? For His life was taken from the earth."
- 34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about — himself or someone else?"
- 35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus. Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told Him the good news about Jesus.
- 36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What prevents me from being baptized?"
- 37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." The eunuch answered, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."
- 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. He gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him.
- 39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on His way rejoicing.

- 40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea. Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled through that region, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Chapter 9

Saul was struck down by a light from heaven on the road to Damascus, and the Lord Jesus spoke to him directly. Ananias laid hands on him, his sight was restored, and he was baptized. Saul immediately began preaching Christ in the synagogues, and the disciples in Jerusalem eventually accepted him through Barnabas.

| 1 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, | Meanwhile, Saul was still threatening to kill the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest |
| 2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. | and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way — whether men or women — he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. |
| 3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: | As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. |
| 4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? | He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?" |
| 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. | "Who are You, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom You are persecuting," He replied. "It is hard for You to kick against the goads." |

- 6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. Trembling and astonished, Saul asked, "Lord, what do you want me to do?" The Lord said to Him, "Get up and go into the city. You will be told what you must do."
- 7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone.
- 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus.
- 9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink. For three days he was blind and did not eat or drink anything.
- 10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to Him in a vision, "Ananias!" "Yes, Lord," He answered.
- 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, The Lord told Him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying."
- 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight. "In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight."
- 13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem: "Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your people in Jerusalem."

- 14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name. "And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name."
- 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is My chosen instrument to carry My name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel."
- 16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. "I will show him how much he must suffer for My name."
- 17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing His hands on Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, Who appeared to You on the road as You were coming here, has sent me so that You may see again and be filled with the Holy Ghost."
- 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized.
- 19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. After taking some food, he regained his strength. Saul spent several days with the disciples in Damascus.
- 20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God. At once He began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God.
- 21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests? All those who heard him were astonished and asked, "Isn't he the man who caused havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name? And hasn't he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?"

- 22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ. Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.
- 23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him: After many days had gone by, the Jewish leaders conspired to kill Him.
- 24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. But Saul learned of their plot. Day and night they kept watch at the city gates in order to kill him.
- 25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket. But his followers took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.
- 26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple. When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple.
- 27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to Him, and how in Damascus He had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.
- 28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.
- 29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. He talked and debated with the Hellenistic Jews, but they tried to kill him.
- 30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. When the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

- 31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied. Then the church throughout Judaea, Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace and was strengthened. Living in the fear of the Lord and encouraged by the Holy Ghost, it increased in numbers.
- 32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. As Peter traveled about the country, he went to visit the Lord's people who lived at Lydda.
- 33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy. There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years.
- 34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. "Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals You. Get up and roll up Your mat." Immediately Aeneas got up.
- 35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord. All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw Him and turned to the Lord.
- 36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha — which in Greek is Dorcas. She was always doing good and helping the poor.
- 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber. About that time she became sick and died. Her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room.
- 38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Please come at once!"

Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
- Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.
- 40

But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
- Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up.
- 41

And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.
- He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive.
- 42

And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.
- This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.
- 43

And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.
- Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.

Chapter 10

The centurion Cornelius received a vision from God directing him to send for Peter, and Peter received a vision declaring all foods clean. Peter went to Cornelius's house and preached the gospel, and the Holy Ghost fell on the Gentiles, who spoke in tongues and were baptized.

There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,
- At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment.

■ NAME NOTE — Cornelius (cor-NEE-lee-us) — "horn" — A Roman centurion stationed at Caesarea, described as devout and God-fearing. He became the first Gentile convert recorded in Acts, marking a turning point in the mission of the church to all nations.

| 2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. | He and all his household were devout and God-fearing; He gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. |
| 3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. | One day at about three in the afternoon He had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, Who came to Him and said, "Cornelius!" |
| 4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. | Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked. The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God." |
| 5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: | "Now send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter." |
| 6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. | "He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea." |
| 7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; | When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants. |
| 8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. | He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa. |
| 9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: | About noon the following day, as the men were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. |

| 10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, | He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. |
| 11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: | He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. |
| 12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. | It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles and birds. |
| 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. | Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat." |
| 14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean. | "Surely not, Lord!" Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean." |
| 15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. | The voice spoke to him a second time: "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean." |
| 16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. | This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven. |
| 17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, | While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found out where Simon's house was and stopped at the gate. |
| 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there. | They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there. |

- 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to Him, "Three men are looking for You."
- 20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. "Get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."
- 21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? Peter went down and said to the men, "I'm the one you're looking for. Why have you come?"
- 22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. The men replied, "We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man, who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told Him to ask you to come to His house so that He could hear what you have to say."
- 23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him. Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests. The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the believers from Joppa went along.
- 24 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends. The following day he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends.
- 25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence.
- 26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. But Peter made him get up. "Stand up," he said, "I am only a man myself."

- 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together. While talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.
- 28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. He said to them: "You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with or visit a Gentile. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean."
- 29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? "So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I ask why you sent for me?"
- 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. At three in the afternoon I was praying in my house, when suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me
- 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. and said, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor.'"
- 32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. "'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, who lives by the sea.'"
- 33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. "So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us."
- 34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: Then Peter began to speak: "I now truly see that God shows no favoritism,"

- 35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. "but accepts from every nation the one who fears him and does what is right."
- 36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) "You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, Who is Lord of all."
- 37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; "You know what has happened throughout the province of Judaea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached —"
- 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. "how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and power, and how He went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with Him."
- 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: "We are witnesses of everything He did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed Him by hanging Him on a tree,"
- 40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; "but God raised Him from the dead on the third day and caused Him to be seen."
- 41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. "He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen — by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead."
- 42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. "He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead."

| 43 | To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. | "All the prophets testify about Him that everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name." |
| 44 | While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. | While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all who heard the message. |
| 45 | And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. | The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Ghost had been poured out even on Gentiles. |
| 46 | For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, | For they heard them speaking in tongues and praising God. Then Peter said, |
| 47 | Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? | "Surely no one can stand in the way of their being baptized with water. They have received the Holy Ghost just as we have." |
| 48 | And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days. | So He ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days. |

Peter reported to the Jerusalem church how God gave the Holy Ghost to the Gentiles, and the brethren glorified God, saying He had also granted repentance to the Gentiles. The scattered believers preached the word as far as Antioch, where Barnabas and Saul taught a great number, and the disciples were first called Christians.

| 16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. | "Then I remembered what the Lord had said: 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Ghost.'" |
| 17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? | "So if God gave them the same gift He gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was I to think that I could stand in God's way?" |
| 18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life. | When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance to life." |

- 19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. Now those who had been scattered by the persecution that broke out when Stephen was killed traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, spreading the word only among Jews.
- 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. Some of them, however, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus.
- 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. The Lord's hand was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.
- 22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. News of this reached the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.
- 23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. When he arrived and saw what the grace of God had done, He was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.
- 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.
- 25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul.
- 26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. When he found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.

Chapter 12

Herod killed James the brother of John and imprisoned Peter, but an angel of the Lord delivered Peter from prison by night. Herod searched for Peter without success and later accepted divine praise from the crowd at Caesarea; an angel of the Lord struck him, and he was eaten of worms and died.

| 1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. | It was about this time that King Herod arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to persecute them. |
| 2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. | He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword. |
| 3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) | When he saw that this met with approval among the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Festival of Unleavened Bread. |

- 4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after Easter.
- 5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for Him.
- 6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries stood guard at the entrance.
- 7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. "Quick, get up!" he said, and the chains fell off Peter's wrists.
- 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. Then the angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals." And Peter did so. "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me," the angel told him.
- 9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision.
- 10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him.

- 11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know without a doubt that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's clutches and from everything the Jewish people were hoping would happen."
- 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying. When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying.
- 13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer the door.
- 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed she ran back without opening the door and exclaimed, "Peter is at the door!"
- 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. "You're out of your mind," they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."
- 16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished. But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.
- 17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place. Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell James and the other brothers and sisters about this," he said, and then he left for another place.
- 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter.

- 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode. After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then Herod went from Judaea to Caesarea and stayed there.
- 20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country. He had been quarreling with the people of Tyre and Sidon; they now joined together and sought an audience with him. After securing the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king's country for their food supply.
- 21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people.
- 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man. They shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not of a man."
- 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost. Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel of the Lord struck Him down, and He was eaten by worms and died.
- 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied. But the word of God continued to spread and flourish.
- 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark. When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission, they returned from Jerusalem, taking with them John, also called Mark.

Chapter 13

The Holy Ghost sent Barnabas and Saul from Antioch on the first missionary journey, and they sailed to Cyprus where Saul — now called Paul — struck the sorcerer Elymas blind. Paul preached in the synagogue at Antioch in Pisidia, declaring justification by faith in Christ, and many Gentiles believed.

| 1 | Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. | Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. |
| 2 | As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. | While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Ghost said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." |
| 3 | And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. | So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off. |
| 4 | So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. | The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. |
| 5 | And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister. | When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper. |
| 6 | And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus: | They traveled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, |
| 7 | Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. | who was an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. |

| 8 | But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. | But Elymas the sorcerer — for that is what his name means — opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith. |
| 9 | Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, | Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, looked straight at Elymas |

■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small" or "humble" — The apostle formerly known as Saul of Tarsus. A Pharisee who had persecuted the church, Paul was dramatically converted on the road to Damascus (Acts 9). He became the greatest missionary of the early church, author of thirteen New Testament epistles, and the apostle to the Gentiles.

| 10 | And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? | and said, "You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?" |
| 11 | And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. | "Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind for a time, not even able to see the light of the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over Him, and He groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand. |
| 12 | Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. | When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord. |
| 13 | Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem. | From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem. |
| 14 | But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. | From Perga they went on to Antioch in Pisidia. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down. |

- 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a word of exhortation for the people, please speak."
- 16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand and said: "Fellow Israelites and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me."
- 17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it. "The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt and with mighty power He led them out of that country."
- 18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness. "For about forty years He endured their conduct in the wilderness."
- 19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot. "And when He had destroyed seven nations in Canaan, He gave their land to His people as their inheritance."
- 20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. "All this took about 450 years. After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet."
- 21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years. "Then the people asked for a king, and he gave them Saul son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years."
- 22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will. "After removing Saul, he made David their king. God testified concerning Him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after My own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'"

- 23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: "From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as He promised."
- 24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. "Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel."
- 25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose. "As John was completing his work, he said: 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not the one You are looking for. But there is someone coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'"
- 26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. "Fellow children of Abraham and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent."
- 27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him. "The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus, yet in condemning Him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath."
- 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. "Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed."
- 29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. "When they had carried out all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb."
- 30 But God raised him from the dead: "But God raised him from the dead,"
- 31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. "and for many days He was seen by those who had traveled with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to our people."

- 32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, "We tell you the good news: what God promised our ancestors
- 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: 'You are My Son; today have I begotten You.'
- 34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. "God raised him from the dead so that He will never be subject to decay. As God has said, 'I will give you the sure mercies of David.'"
- 35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. "So it is also stated elsewhere: 'You will not let your Holy One see decay.'"
- 36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: "Now when David had served God's purpose in His own generation, He fell asleep; He was buried with His ancestors and His body decayed."
- 37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption. "But the One whom God raised from the dead did not see decay."
- 38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: "Therefore, my friends, I want You to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to You."
- 39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. "Through Him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses."

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fyde) — declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. Justification is not being made righteous by our actions — it is God the Judge pronouncing us "not guilty" because Jesus paid our penalty.

- 40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; "Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to You:"
- 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you. "'Look, You scoffers, wonder and perish, for I am going to do something in your days that you would never believe, even if someone told you.'"
- 42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak further about these things on the next Sabbath.
- 43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.
- 44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.
- 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. They began to contradict what Paul was saying and heaped abuse on him.
- 46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles."

| 47 | For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. | "For this is what the Lord has commanded us: 'I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'" |
| 48 | And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. | When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord; and all who were appointed for eternal life believed. |
| 49 | And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. | The word of the Lord spread through the whole region. |
| 50 | But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. | But the Jewish leaders stirred up the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region. |
| 51 | But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. | So they shook the dust off their feet as a warning to them and went to Iconium. |
| 52 | And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost. | And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost. |

Chapter 14

Paul and Barnabas preached in Iconium, fled to Lystra and Derbe, and at Lystra Paul healed a man crippled from birth. The crowd tried to worship them as gods, but Jews from Antioch and Iconium stirred up the people, stoned Paul, and left him for dead. He rose up, and they returned through the cities strengthening the disciples.

| 1 | And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. | At Iconium Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue. They spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. |
| 2 | But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. | But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the other Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. |
| 3 | Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. | So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of His grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders. |
| 4 | But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. | The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles. |
| 5 | And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, | There was a plot afoot among both Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, to mistreat them and stone them. |
| 6 | They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about: | But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country, |
| 7 | And there they preached the gospel. | where they continued to preach the gospel. |
| 8 | And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: | In Lystra there sat a man who was lame. He had been lame from birth and had never walked. |

- 9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed
- 10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. and called out, "Stand up on your feet!" At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.
- 11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"
- 12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. Barnabas they called Jupiter, and Paul they called Mercurius because he was the chief speaker.
- 13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.
- 14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting:
- 15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: "Friends, why are you doing this? We too are only human, like you. We are bringing you good news, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, Who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and everything in them."
- 16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. "In the past, He let all nations go their own way."

- 17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. "Yet He has not left Himself without testimony: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; He provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy."
- 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them. Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.
- 19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.
- 20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. But after the disciples had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.
- 21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, They preached the gospel in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,
- 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said.
- 23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust.
- 24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia.

| 25 | And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: | When they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. |
| 26 | And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. | From Attalia they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. |
| 27 | And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. | On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. |
| 28 | And there they abode long time with the disciples. | They stayed there a long time with the disciples. |

Men from Judaea insisted that Gentile believers must be circumcised to be saved, so Paul and Barnabas went to Jerusalem for the apostles and elders to settle the matter. James declared that Gentiles should not be burdened with the law beyond a few necessary things, and the council sent a letter confirming this decision. Paul and Barnabas parted ways over John Mark, with Barnabas sailing to Cyprus and Paul choosing Silas for his second journey.

| 1 | And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. | Some men came down from Judaea and began teaching the brothers. They said, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." |
| 2 | When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. | Paul and Barnabas strongly disagreed and debated with these men. It was decided that Paul and Barnabas, along with some others, should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. |

| 3 | And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. | Sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria. They reported the conversion of the Gentiles, and this brought great joy to all the brothers. |
| 4 | And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. | When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them. |
| 5 | But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. | But some believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and said, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and commanded to keep the law of Moses." |
| 6 | And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter. | The apostles and elders gathered together to consider this matter. |
| 7 | And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. | After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a long time ago God chose among us that through my mouth the Gentiles would hear the word of the gospel and believe. |
| 8 | And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; | God, Who knows the heart, confirmed this by giving them the Holy Ghost, just as He did to us. |
| 9 | And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. | He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. |
| 10 | Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? | So why do You put God to the test by placing on the disciples a burden that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? |

- 11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we are saved, just as they are."
- 12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. The whole crowd became silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they described the miracles and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.
- 13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: When they finished speaking, James said, "Brothers, listen to me.
- 14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. Simeon has described how God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for His name.
- 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, This agrees with the words of the prophets, as it is written:
- 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: 'After this I will return and rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen. I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,
- 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord — all the Gentiles on whom My name is called,' says the Lord, who does all these things.
- 18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. God has known all His works from the beginning of the world.
- 19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: Therefore my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God.
- 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. Instead we should write to them to abstain from things polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from things that are strangled, and from blood.

- 21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. For from ancient generations Moses has had those who proclaim him in every city. He is read in the synagogues every Sabbath day."
- 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to send chosen men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas — Judas called Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers.
- 23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: They wrote a letter by their hand which said: "The apostles and elders and brothers, to the brothers of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: Greetings.
- 24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words and unsettled your souls — saying you must be circumcised and keep the law — we gave them no such instruction.
- 25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, So it seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
- 26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who will also report the same things to you by word of mouth.
- 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; It seemed good to the Holy Ghost and to us to place no greater burden on You than these necessary things:

- 29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. Abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. If You keep yourselves from these, You will do well. Farewell."
- 30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle: When the men were sent off, they went to Antioch. Gathering the congregation together, they delivered the letter.
- 31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation. When the people read it, they rejoiced at the encouragement it gave.
- 32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, encouraged the brothers with many words and strengthened them.
- 33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. After they had stayed there for some time, the brothers sent them off in peace to the apostles.
- 34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. But Silas chose to remain there.
- 35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. Paul and Barnabas also stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, along with many others.
- 36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. Some days later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the brothers in every city where we preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."
- 37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. Barnabas wanted to take with them John, who was called Mark.

| 38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. | Paul did not think it wise to take him, since he had left them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. |
| 39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; | There was such a sharp disagreement between them that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. |
| 40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. | Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of God. |
| 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches. | He traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches. |

Chapter 16

Paul chose Timothy as a companion, and the Spirit directed them to Macedonia where Lydia believed and was baptized at Philippi. Paul cast a spirit of divination out of a slave girl, was beaten and imprisoned with Silas, and at midnight an earthquake opened the prison doors. The jailer and his household believed and were baptized that night.

| 3 | Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek. | Paul wanted Timothy to travel with him. He took him and circumcised him because of the Jews in that region, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. |
| 4 | And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. | As they traveled through the cities, they delivered to the believers the decisions that had been handed down by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. |
| 5 | And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily. | So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew in number every day. |
| 6 | Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, | They traveled through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Ghost from preaching the word in Asia. |
| 7 | After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not. | When they came to Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit did not allow them. |
| 8 | And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas. | Passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas. |
| 9 | And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. | A vision appeared to Paul during the night — a man of Macedonia was standing and appealing to him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." |
| 10 | And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them. | After Paul had seen the vision, we immediately sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them. |

- 17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. She followed Paul and the rest of us and cried out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, Who are telling You the way of salvation."
- 18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. She kept doing this for many days. Paul became greatly troubled. He turned and said to the spirit, "I command You in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." It came out that very hour.
- 19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, When her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.
- 20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, They brought them before the magistrates, saying, "These men are Jews and are greatly disturbing our city.
- 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. They are teaching customs that are not lawful for us to accept or practice, since we are Romans."
- 22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. The crowd joined in the attack against them. The magistrates tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered them to be beaten with rods.
- 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: After inflicting many blows on them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them securely.
- 24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. Receiving this order, he put them in the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

- 25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.
- 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. All the doors immediately flew open, and everyone's chains were loosened.
- 27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. The jailer woke up and saw the prison doors standing open. He drew his sword and was about to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped.
- 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. But Paul called out loudly, "Do not harm yourself — we are all here!"
- 29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, The jailer called for lights and rushed in. Trembling, he fell down before Paul and Silas.
- 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? He brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"
- 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. They said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and You will be saved — you and Your household."
- 32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. They spoke the word of the Lord to Him and to all who were in His house.
- 33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. He took them that same hour of the night and washed their wounds. He and His entire household were baptized right away.

| 34 | And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. | He brought them into His house and set food before them. He rejoiced greatly, having believed in God with His entire household. |
| 35 | And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go. | When day came, the magistrates sent officers with the order, "Release those men." |
| 36 | And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. | The jailer reported these words to Paul: "The magistrates have sent word to release you. Go now and leave in peace." |
| 37 | But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. | But Paul said to the officers, "They beat us publicly without a trial — and we are Roman citizens! They threw us into prison, and now they want to send us away secretly? No. Let them come themselves and lead us out." |
| 38 | And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. | The officers reported this to the magistrates. When they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed. |
| 39 | And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. | They came and apologized to them. They led them out and asked them to leave the city. |
| 40 | And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed. | Paul and Silas left the prison and went to Lydia's house. They saw the brothers, encouraged them, and then departed. |

Paul preached in Thessalonica where some Jews and many Greeks believed, but the unbelieving Jews stirred up a mob. The brethren sent Paul and Silas to Berea where the people searched the scriptures daily, and Paul went on to Athens where he preached on Mars' hill, declaring the unknown God and the resurrection of Christ.

- 1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: Passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.
- 2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, As was his custom, Paul went in to them and for three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,
- 3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ. explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus, whom I am proclaiming to You, is the Christ," He said.
- 4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a great number of devout Greeks and a good many leading women.
- 5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. But the unbelieving Jews were filled with jealousy. They recruited some wicked men from the marketplace, gathered a mob, and threw the city into an uproar. They attacked the house of Jason, looking for Paul and Silas to bring them before the crowd.
- 6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; When they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city rulers, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too!
- 7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. Jason has welcomed them. They all act against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king — Jesus."

- 8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. These things stirred up the crowd and the city rulers who heard them.
- 9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go. They made Jason and the others post bond, and then released them.
- 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews.
- 11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. The people of Berea were more honorable than those in Thessalonica. They received the word with great eagerness and searched the Scriptures every day to see if these things were true.
- 12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few. Many of them believed, as did a good number of prominent Greek women and men.
- 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. When the Jews of Thessalonica learned that Paul was proclaiming the word of God at Berea, they came there too and stirred up the crowds.
- 14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still. The brothers immediately sent Paul away to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind.
- 15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. Those escorting Paul brought him as far as Athens. They left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible.

- 16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry. While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled to see how full of idols the city was.
- 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him. So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and with the devout people, and in the marketplace every day with those he met.
- 18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection. Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also debated with Him. Some said, "What is this chatterbox trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be proclaiming foreign gods" — because He was preaching Jesus and the resurrection.
- 19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? They took hold of Him and brought Him to the Areopagus. They said, "May we know what this new teaching is that You are presenting?"
- 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. Some of the things You say sound strange to us. We want to know what they mean."
- 21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.
- 22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. Paul stood in the middle of Mars' hill and said, "Men of Athens, I see that in every way you are too superstitious.

- 23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you. As I walked around and looked carefully at the things You worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. It is this very God — whom You worship without knowing — that I am declaring to You.
- 24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; God, Who made the world and everything in it, is Lord of heaven and earth. He does not live in temples made by human hands.
- 25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; He is not served by human hands as though He needed anything, since He Himself gives life and breath and everything to everyone.
- 26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; From one blood He made every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth. He determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands.
- 27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: He did this so that people would seek God and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him — though He is not far from each one of us.
- 28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. For in Him we live and move and have our being. As some of Your own poets have said, 'We are His offspring.'
- 29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. Since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the Godhead is like gold or silver or stone — shaped by human skill and imagination.

■ WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. When Paul says the Godhead cannot be made of gold or stone, he means God in His full divine nature is beyond anything crafted by human hands.

Chapter 18

Paul came to Corinth, lived with Aquila and Priscilla, and worked as a tentmaker while preaching in the synagogue every sabbath. The Lord told Paul in a vision not to be afraid, and he stayed a year and six months teaching the word. Apollos, an eloquent Alexandrian Jew, began preaching in Ephesus and was instructed more perfectly by Aquila and Priscilla.

- 2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome;) and came unto them. There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them.
- 3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. Since he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and they worked together — for they were tentmakers by trade.
- 4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.
- 5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself entirely to the word. He testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
- 6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. When they resisted and insulted Him, He shook out His clothes and said to them, "Your blood is on Your own heads. I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."
- 7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. He left from there and went to the house of a man named Justus, a worshipper of God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.
- 8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with His entire household. Many of the Corinthians who heard also believed and were baptized.

- 9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: The Lord spoke to Paul one night in a vision: "Do not be afraid. Keep speaking — do not be silent.
- 10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. For I am with you, and no one will lay a hand on you to harm you. I have many people in this city."
- 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. Paul stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- 12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat.
- 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law. They said, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways contrary to the law."
- 14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If this were a matter of wrongdoing or serious crime, I would have reason to hear your complaint.
- 15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters. But since it is a question about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves. I am not willing to be a judge of such matters."
- 16 And he drave them from the judgment seat. He drove them away from the judgment seat.
- 17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things. Then all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio paid no attention to any of it.

- 18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. Paul stayed on for many more days. Then he said farewell to the brothers and sailed for Syria, with Priscilla and Aquila. He had his head shaved at Cenchrea because he had made a vow.
- 19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. They came to Ephesus, where he left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.
- 20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not; When they asked him to stay longer, he declined.
- 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus. He said farewell to them, saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return to you again if God wills." Then He sailed from Ephesus.
- 22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch. When he landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, then went down to Antioch.
- 23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. After spending some time there, he left and traveled through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.
- 24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus. A Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well-versed in the Scriptures.
- 25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. He had been taught the way of the Lord. He spoke with great enthusiasm and taught accurately the things about Jesus, though He knew only the baptism of John.

Chapter 19

Paul arrived in Ephesus, laid hands on twelve disciples who received the Holy Ghost, and taught for two years so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word. God worked special miracles through Paul, and the seven sons of Sceva were overpowered by an evil spirit. The silversmith Demetrius stirred up a riot because Paul's preaching threatened the worship of Diana.

| 12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. | Even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were brought to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. |

- 13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. Some itinerant Jewish exorcists also tried invoking the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits. They would say, "I command You by the Jesus whom Paul preaches."
- 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.
- 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? The evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know — but who are you?"
- 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. The man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered all of them. He attacked with such force that they fled from the house naked and wounded.
- 17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. This became known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus. Fear came over all of them, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor.
- 18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds. Many who had believed came and openly confessed what they had done.
- 19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. Many who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they counted up the value, it came to fifty thousand pieces of silver.
- 20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. In this way the word of God grew mightily and spread.

- 21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.
- 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.
- 23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.
- 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;
- 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.
- 26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:
- 27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.
- After these things were completed, Paul resolved in the Spirit to travel through Macedonia and Achaia and then go to Jerusalem. He said, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."
- He sent two of his helpers — Timothy and Erastus — to Macedonia, while he himself stayed in Asia for a while.
- About that time there arose a serious disturbance about the Way.
- A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Diana, provided a great deal of business for the craftsmen.
- He called them together, along with the workers in similar trades, and said, "Men, you know that our prosperity comes from this business.
- You see and hear that this Paul has persuaded and turned away a great many people — not only in Ephesus but almost throughout all Asia. He says that gods made by human hands are not real gods.
- Our trade is in danger of falling into disrepute. Not only that, but the temple of the great goddess Diana may be discredited and her greatness destroyed — she whom all Asia and the world worship."

- 28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. When they heard this, they were filled with rage and began shouting, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
- 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre. The city was filled with confusion. They seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's traveling companions, and rushed together into the theater.
- 30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. Paul wanted to go in to the crowd, but the disciples would not let him.
- 31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre. Even some of the leading officials of Asia who were his friends sent word urging him not to venture into the theater.
- 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. Some shouted one thing and some another. The assembly was in confusion. Most of the people did not even know why they had gathered.
- 33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people. Some from the crowd pulled Alexander forward, the Jews having pushed him out front. Alexander motioned with his hand and wanted to make a defense to the crowd.
- 34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all shouted together for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

Chapter 20

Paul traveled through Macedonia and Greece, and at Troas he preached until midnight when the young man Eutychus fell from a window and was taken up dead, but Paul embraced him and his life came back. Paul called the Ephesian elders to Miletus and warned them that grievous wolves would enter among them, commending them to God and to the word of His grace.

- 16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so he would not have to spend time in Asia. He was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.
- 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. From Miletus he sent word to Ephesus and called for the elders of the church.
- 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, When they came to him, he said to them, "You know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day I arrived in Asia.
- 19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: I served the Lord with great humility, with tears, and through trials that came from the plots of the Jews.
- 20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, I did not hold back anything that was helpful to you. I taught you publicly and from house to house.
- 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. I declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Now I am going to Jerusalem, compelled by the Spirit. I do not know what will happen to me there.
- 23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. Only I know that in every city the Holy Ghost warns me that chains and hardship await me.

- 24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. None of these things move me. I do not count my life of any value to myself, so long as I can finish the race and complete the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus — to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.
- 25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more. Now I know that none of You among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God will see my face again.
- 26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. Therefore I declare to You this day that I am innocent of the blood of everyone.
- 27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. For I did not hold back from declaring to You the whole counsel of God.
- 28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. Pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost has made You overseers. Shepherd the church of God, which He purchased with His own blood.
- 29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. I know that after I leave, fierce wolves will come in among You and will not spare the flock.
- 30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them. Even from Your own group, men will arise speaking twisted things in order to draw disciples away after them.
- 31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. So stay alert. Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each one of you night and day with tears.

Chapter 21

Paul sailed to Jerusalem despite warnings from the brethren that bonds and afflictions awaited him. He met with James and the elders and agreed to purify himself at the temple, but Jews from Asia stirred up the crowd against him. The Roman soldiers rescued Paul from the mob and allowed him to address the people.

| 7 | And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. | We completed our voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and stayed with them one day. |

- 8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. The next day we left and came to Caesarea. We entered the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven, and stayed with him.
- 9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.
- 10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. While we were staying there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judaea.
- 11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. Coming to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own hands and feet with it, and said, "The Holy Ghost says this: 'The Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.'"
- 12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. When we heard this, both we and the local people begged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.
- 13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."
- 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. When He could not be persuaded, we stopped urging Him and said, "The will of the Lord be done."
- 15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. After these days we packed our bags and went up to Jerusalem.

- 16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us and brought us to the home of Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we were to stay.
- 17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly.
- 18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. The next day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present.
- 19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. After greeting them, Paul reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through His ministry.
- 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: When they heard this, they praised the Lord. They said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and they are all zealous for the law.
- 21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. They have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses — telling them not to circumcise their children or walk according to the customs.
- 22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. What is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.
- 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; Do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow.

- 24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. Take them and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses so they can have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that the reports about you are false — that you yourself also live in obedience to the law.
- 25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. As for the Gentiles who have believed, we have sent them a letter with our decision that they should abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what is strangled, and from sexual immorality."
- 26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. Then Paul took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them and went into the temple. He announced the completion of the days of purification, when an offering would be made for each of them.
- 27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from Asia saw him in the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,
- 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this place! He has also brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place."

- 29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul and assumed Paul had brought him into the temple.
- 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut. The whole city was stirred up and the people came running together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and the doors were immediately shut.
- 31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. While they were trying to kill him, a report reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
- 32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul. He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
- 33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done. The commander came up, arrested Paul, and ordered him to be chained with two chains. He then asked who he was and what he had done.
- 34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another. Since the commander could not find out the facts because of the uproar, he ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks.
- 35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people. When Paul reached the steps, the soldiers had to carry him because of the violent pressure of the crowd.
- 36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him. The crowd followed, shouting, "Away with him!"

Chapter 22

Paul spoke to the crowd in Hebrew, telling them of his conversion on the road to Damascus and his commission to preach to the Gentiles. The crowd listened until he mentioned the Gentiles, then cried out for his death. The chief captain ordered him to be examined by scourging, but Paul revealed his Roman citizenship and was spared.

I was educated at the feet of Gamaliel and trained thoroughly in the law of our fathers. I was just as zealous for God as all of you are today.
- 4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. I persecuted the followers of this Way to the death, binding and delivering both men and women to prison.
- 5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify to this. I also received letters from them to the brothers in Damascus. I went there to arrest those people and bring them back to Jerusalem to be punished.
- 6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. As I was traveling and approaching Damascus, around noon a very bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.
- 7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?'
- 8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' He said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom You are persecuting.'
- 9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. My companions saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the One speaking to me.

- 10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. I asked, 'What shall I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go into Damascus. There You will be told everything You are appointed to do.'
- 11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. Since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand of those who were with me into Damascus.
- 12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, A man named Ananias, a devout man according to the law who had a good reputation among all the Jews living there,
- 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him. came to me, stood beside me, and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' That very hour I was able to see him.
- 14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Righteous One and to hear his voice.
- 15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. For you will be His witness to all people of what you have seen and heard.
- 16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. Now, why do you wait? Get up, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name.'
- 17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance; When I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance

- 18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me. and saw the Lord saying to me, 'Hurry and leave Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me.'
- 19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat those who believed in You in every synagogue.
- 20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him. And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I myself was standing by, approving of his death, and keeping the clothes of those who were killing him.'
- 21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. But He said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'
- 22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live. The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, "Away with such a man from the earth! He is not fit to live!"
- 23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and hurling dust into the air,
- 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him. the commander ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks. He directed that he be examined by flogging so he could find out why they were shouting against him like this.
- 25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? As they stretched him out for the flogging, Paul said to the centurion standing nearby, "Is it lawful for you to flog a Roman citizen who has not been condemned?"

|---|---|
| 26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. | When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and said, "Be careful what you do. This man is a Roman citizen." |
| 27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea. | The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me — are you a Roman citizen?" Paul said, "Yes." |
| 28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born. | The commander replied, "I paid a large sum for my citizenship." Paul said, "But I was born a citizen." |
| 29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. | Those who were about to question him withdrew at once. The commander himself was alarmed when he realized Paul was a Roman citizen and he had put him in chains. |
| 30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them. | The next day, wanting to find out the real reason Paul was being accused by the Jews, the commander released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole council to assemble. He brought Paul down and set him before them. |

Paul stood before the council and set the Pharisees against the Sadducees by declaring his hope in the resurrection of the dead. The Lord stood by Paul that night and told him he must also bear witness at Rome. More than forty Jews conspired to kill Paul, but his nephew uncovered the plot, and the chief captain sent Paul by night under heavy guard to the governor Felix at Caesarea.

- 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth. The high priest Ananias commanded those standing near him to strike him on the mouth.
- 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by ordering me to be struck."
- 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? Those standing nearby said, "Are you insulting God's high priest?"
- 5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. Paul said, "Brothers, I did not know that he was the high priest. It is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"
- 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. When Paul saw that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he called out in the council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I am on trial for my hope in the resurrection of the dead."
- 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.
- 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. The Sadducees say there is no resurrection, and no angel or spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge all of these.
- 9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. There was a great uproar. Some of the scribes who were on the Pharisees' side stood up and argued strongly: "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

- 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle. When the argument became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn apart by them, he ordered the soldiers to go down, take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.
- 11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage! As you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome."
- 12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. When day came, some Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath. They said they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.
- 13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy. There were more than forty of them who made this oath.
- 14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul. They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul.
- 15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. Now then, together with the council, make a request to the commander to bring Paul down to you tomorrow, as if you were going to examine his case more carefully. We are ready to kill him before he gets here."
- 16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. But the son of Paul's sister heard about this plot. He went into the barracks and told Paul.

- 17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him. Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander. He has something to tell him."
- 18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee. The centurion took the young man to the commander and said, "The prisoner Paul called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you."
- 19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me? The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside privately, and asked, "What is it you have to tell me?"
- 20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as if they intend to inquire more carefully into his case."
- 21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. Do not agree to it. More than forty of them are lying in ambush for him. They have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, waiting for your promise."
- 22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me. The commander dismissed the young man with a warning: "Tell no one that you have reported this to me."

- 23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; He called two of his centurions and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready to march to Caesarea, along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at nine tonight."
- 24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. He also told them to provide horses for Paul to ride, so he could be brought safely to Felix the governor.
- 25 And he wrote a letter after this manner: He wrote a letter as follows:
- 26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting. "Claudius Lysias, to His Excellency the governor Felix: Greetings.
- 27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman. This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. I came with my troops and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen.
- 28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council: Wanting to know what charge they were bringing against him, I brought him before their council.
- 29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. I found that he was accused about questions of their law, but no charge against him deserved death or imprisonment.
- 30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Fare thee well. When I was informed that there was a plot against this man, I sent him to you at once. I have also told his accusers to present their case before you. Farewell."

The high priest Ananias and the orator Tertullus brought charges against Paul before Governor Felix, accusing him of being a ringleader of sedition. Paul defended himself, declaring his faith in the resurrection and his clear conscience before God. Felix heard him often over two years but left him in prison, hoping for a bribe.

| 2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, | When Paul was summoned, Tertullus began the prosecution: "Since through you we enjoy great peace, and since reforms are being made for this nation through your foresight, |
| 3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. | we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, with all gratitude. |
| 4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. | But not to take up too much of your time, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. |
| 5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: | We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. |
| 6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. | He even tried to desecrate the temple, so we seized him. |
| 7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, | But the commander Lysias came and took him away from us by force, |
| 8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. | commanding his accusers to come before you. By questioning him yourself, you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we bring against him." |
| 9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so. | The Jews also joined in the accusation, asserting that these things were true. |

- 10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: When the governor motioned for Paul to speak, Paul replied, "Knowing that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I am glad to make my defense.
- 11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. You can verify that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.
- 12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone or stirring up a crowd — not in the temple, not in the synagogues, not anywhere in the city.
- 13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me. They cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me.
- 14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: However, I do admit this to you: I worship the God of our fathers according to the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything written in the Law and in the Prophets.
- 15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. I have the same hope in God that these men themselves hold — that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.
- 16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Because of this I always try to keep my conscience clear before God and before men.
- 17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. After many years away, I came to Jerusalem to bring gifts for the poor to my nation and to present offerings.

- 18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult. Some Jews from Asia found me doing this in the temple — I had been purified and there was no crowd, no riot.
- 19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me. They are the ones who should be here before you to bring charges, if they have anything against me.
- 20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, Or let these men here state what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the council —
- 21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. unless it was for this one thing I called out while standing among them: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'
- 22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your cause. Felix, who had a fairly accurate understanding of the Way, adjourned the hearing. He said, "When the commander Lysias comes down, I will decide your case."
- 23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard but to give him some freedom and to allow his friends to take care of his needs.
- 24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. Some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus.
- 25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. As Paul talked about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix grew frightened and said, "That's enough for now. When I find a convenient time, I will send for you."

| 26 | He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. | At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him. |
| 27 | But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a favour, left Paul bound. | After two years, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. Wanting to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison. |

Festus succeeded Felix as governor, and the Jews pressed their case against Paul. When Festus proposed sending him back to Jerusalem, Paul appealed to Caesar. King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and Festus presented Paul's case to them, having found no charge worthy of death.

| 1 | Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem. | Three days after arriving in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem. |
| 2 | Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, | The chief priests and leading men of the Jews presented their case against Paul to Festus and urged him |
| 3 | And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. | to grant them a favor by having Paul transferred to Jerusalem — for they were planning to ambush and kill him along the way. |
| 4 | But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. | Festus answered that Paul was being held at Caesarea and that he himself would be going there soon. |

- 5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. "Let those among you who are able come down with me," he said, "and if this man has done anything wrong, they can press charges against him there."
- 6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting in the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought. After staying with them more than ten days, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day he took his seat on the judgment bench and ordered Paul to be brought in.
- 7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him. They brought many serious charges against him that they could not prove.
- 8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all. Paul said in his defense, "I have committed no offense against the Jewish law, against the temple, or against Caesar."
- 9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried before me there on these charges?"
- 10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. Paul replied, "I am standing before Caesar's court, where I should be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well.
- 11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar. If I am guilty and have done something worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges these men are bringing against me are false, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

- 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go. Festus conferred with his council and then replied, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go."
- 13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus. Some days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.
- 14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: Since they spent several days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king. He said, "There is a man here left as a prisoner by Felix.
- 15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him. When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him and asked for a verdict against him.
- 16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over any man to be condemned before he has faced his accusers and had a chance to defend himself against the charges.
- 17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth. When they came here, I did not delay. The very next day I sat on the judgment bench and ordered the man to be brought in.
- 18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: When his accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected.

- 19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. Instead they had some disputes with Him about their own religion and about a man named Jesus Who had died, whom Paul claimed was alive.
- 20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. Since I was unsure how to investigate such questions, I asked whether He would be willing to go to Jerusalem to stand trial on these matters.
- 21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar. But when Paul appealed to be held over for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him held until I could send him to Caesar."
- 22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself." "Tomorrow," said Festus, "you will hear him."
- 23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great ceremony and entered the audience hall along with the military commanders and leading men of the city. At Festus's command, Paul was brought in.
- 24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him — both in Jerusalem and here — shouting that he should not be allowed to live any longer.
- 25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him. I found that he had done nothing deserving death. But since he himself has appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

Chapter 26

Paul made his defense before King Agrippa, recounting his former life as a Pharisee, his conversion on the road to Damascus, and his commission to preach to both Jews and Gentiles. Agrippa said, "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian," and both Agrippa and Festus agreed that Paul had done nothing worthy of death or bonds.

I tried to force them to blaspheme. My rage against them was so great that I even hunted them down in foreign cities.
- 12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests.

- 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me. About noon, O king, I saw a light from heaven — brighter than the sun — blazing around me and those traveling with me.
- 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. We all fell to the ground. I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'
- 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. I asked, 'Who are You, Lord?' The Lord replied, 'I am Jesus, whom You are persecuting.'
- 16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; Now get up and stand on Your feet. I have appeared to You for this purpose — to appoint You as a servant and a witness of what You have seen and what I will show You.

- 19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: So, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.

- 20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. First to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem, throughout all the region of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, I declared that they should repent and turn to God and show their repentance by their deeds.

- 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. that the Christ would suffer, and that He would be the first to rise from the dead, and would bring light to our own people and to the Gentiles."
- 24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. While Paul was making his defense, Festus interrupted loudly: "You are out of your mind, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane."
- 25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. Paul replied, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus. What I am saying is true and reasonable.
- 26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. The king knows about these things. I can speak freely to him. I am certain that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner.

Chapter 27

Paul sailed for Rome as a prisoner and warned the crew that the voyage would end in disaster, but the centurion ignored him. A violent storm called Euroclydon drove the ship for fourteen days, and an angel told Paul that all aboard would be saved. The ship ran aground on the island of Melita, and all two hundred seventy-six souls escaped safely to land.

- 5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. When we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we reached Myra in Lycia.
- 6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board.
- 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; We sailed slowly for many days and with difficulty arrived off Cnidus. The wind did not allow us to continue, so we sailed along the sheltered side of Crete, past Salmone.
- 8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea. We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.
- 9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them, Much time had passed, and sailing had become dangerous because by now it was past the Day of Atonement. So Paul warned them,

- 10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives. "Men, I can see that this voyage is going to result in disaster and great loss — not only to the cargo and the ship, but to our own lives as well."
- 11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul. But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the ship's owner than by what Paul said.
- 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west. Since the harbor was not suitable for wintering, most of the crew voted to sail on. They hoped to reach Phoenix and winter there — a harbor in Crete facing southwest and northwest.
- 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete. When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had what they wanted. They weighed anchor and sailed along the coast of Crete.
- 14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. But before long a violent wind called Euroclydon swept down from the island.
- 15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. The ship was caught by the storm and could not face the wind, so we gave way to it and were driven along.
- 16 And running under a certain island which is called Claudia, we had much work to come by the boat: As we passed to the lee of a small island called Claudia, we were barely able to secure the lifeboat.
- 17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven. When they had hoisted it up, they used ropes to brace the hull of the ship. Fearing they would run aground on the sandbars, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along.

- 18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship; We were being violently battered by the storm, so the next day they began throwing the cargo overboard.
- 19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship. On the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.
- 20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away. When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.
- 21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not sailed from Crete. You would have avoided this damage and loss.
- 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship. But now I urge you to keep up your courage. Not one of you will lose his life — only the ship will be lost.
- 23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me
- 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'
- 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. So keep up your courage, men. I believe God that it will happen exactly as He told me.
- 26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island. But we must run aground on some island."

- 27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country; On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea. About midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land.
- 28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms. They took soundings and found the water was twenty fathoms deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was fifteen fathoms deep.
- 29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. Afraid that we would run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.
- 30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors lowered the lifeboat into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow.
- 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. But Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."
- 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall away.
- 33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. "For fourteen days," he said, "you have been in suspense and have gone without food — you have not eaten anything.
- 34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. Now I urge you to eat something. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head."

- 35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. After he said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then He broke it and began to eat.
- 36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves.
- 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. There were 276 of us on the ship.
- 38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.
- 39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. When daylight came, they did not recognize the land. But they saw a bay with a sandy beach, and they decided to run the ship aground there if they could.
- 40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. They cut away the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that held the rudders, hoisted the foresail to the wind, and headed for the beach.
- 41 But striking into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. But they struck a sandbar and the ship ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, while the stern was broken to pieces by the force of the waves.
- 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping.

| 43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: 44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land. | But the centurion wanted to spare Paul's life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. The rest followed, some on planks and some on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely. |

On Melita, Paul was bitten by a viper but suffered no harm, and he healed the father of Publius and many others on the island. Paul arrived at Rome and dwelt two whole years in his own hired house under guard, preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

| 6 | Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. | The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god. |
| 7 | In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously. | Near that place was the estate of the leading man of the island, whose name was Publius. He welcomed us and showed us generous hospitality for three days. |
| 8 | And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him. | His father was sick in bed with fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him. He prayed and laid his hands on the man and healed him. |
| 9 | So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed: | When this happened, the rest of the sick people on the island came and were healed. |
| 10 | Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary. | They honored us in many ways. When we were about to sail, they supplied us with everything we needed. |
| 11 | And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. | After three months we sailed in a ship of Alexandria that had wintered at the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux. |
| 12 | And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. | We put in at Syracuse and stayed three days. |

- 13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli: From there we sailed around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.
- 16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. When we arrived in Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard. Paul was allowed to live by himself with a soldier to guard him.
- 17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Three days later Paul called together the local Jewish leaders. When they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, though I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was handed over to the Romans as a prisoner from Jerusalem.
- 18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. After examining me, they wanted to release me, because there was no charge against me that deserved death.
- 19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of. But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar — not that I had any accusation to bring against my own nation.

- 20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. For this reason I have asked to see you and speak with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain."
- 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee. They replied, "We have not received any letters from Judaea about you, nor have any of the brothers who have come here reported or said anything bad about you.
- 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. But we want to hear what you think, for we know that people everywhere are speaking against this sect."
- 23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. They set a day to meet with Him, and a large number came to where He was staying. From morning until evening He explained and testified about the kingdom of God. He tried to persuade them about Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets.
- 24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not. Some were convinced by what He said, but others refused to believe.
- 25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, They disagreed among themselves and began to leave. Romans

Author: Paul the apostle — the opening verse names him, and the personal details throughout (especially ch. 16) are consistent with his other letters. Tertius served as his scribe (16:22).

Date written: c. AD 57, from Corinth, during Paul's third missionary journey, before his final visit to Jerusalem.

Written to: The church at Rome — a congregation Paul had not yet visited, composed of both Jewish and Gentile believers.

Setting: Paul is planning his first visit to Rome and wants to prepare the church theologically, then use Rome as a base for a mission to Spain. He writes his most systematic letter as an introduction to his gospel.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero in the relatively peaceful early years of his reign, just years after Claudius had expelled the Jews from Rome (AD 49) and shortly before Paul's arrest in Jerusalem.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote alongside the composition of 1–2 Corinthians, while Phebe of Cenchrea, Aquila, Priscilla, Timothy, and many others named in chapter 16 were active in the gospel mission.

Big themes:

- The righteousness of God — all have sinned and fall short; God provides righteousness as a free gift through faith in Christ

- Justification by faith alone — Abraham was justified by faith before circumcision (ch. 4); the law cannot save, only condemn; faith in Christ is the only basis of acceptance before God

- The wrath of God — chapters 1–3 establish that all mankind is under divine judgment; the good news requires this bad news as its foundation

- Sanctification — chapters 6–8 address the believer's life: dead to sin, alive to God, walking by the Spirit

- God's sovereign plan for Israel and the Gentiles — chapters 9–11 are the most thorough NT treatment of election, Israel's hardening, and the future of the Jewish people

Key passages: Rom 1:16–17; 3:23–24; 5:8; 6:23; 8:28; 10:9–10

How it fits: Romans is the NT's fullest systematic statement of the gospel. Luther called it "the chief part of the New Testament and the very purest gospel." It is the theological foundation on which Galatians, Ephesians, and all of Paul's other letters rest. No book in the NT has done more to shape Christian doctrine.

Chapter 1

Paul introduces himself and declares that the gospel is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes. He argues that God's wrath is revealed against all ungodliness, because men suppress the truth and worship the creature rather than the Creator, and God gives them over to a reprobate mind.

- 10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. asking that somehow, by God's will, I may at last succeed in coming to You.
- 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; I long to see You, so that I may share some spiritual gift to strengthen You—
- 12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both Yours and mine.
- 13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. I do not want You to be unaware, brothers, that I have often intended to come to You but have been hindered until now, so that I might have some fruit among You as well as among the rest of the Gentiles.
- 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. I am under obligation both to Greeks and to non-Greeks, both to the wise and to the foolish.
- 15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. So I am eager to preach the gospel to You also who are in Rome.
- 16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes — to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
- 17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. In it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, as it is written: "The just shall live by faith."
- 18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness.

So they are without excuse. |

■ WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. When Paul says God's "Godhead" is seen in creation, he means the very essence of what God is — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — is visible in the things He made.

- 26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: For this reason God gave them over to vile affections. Even their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature.
- 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was met. In the same way the men abandoned natural relations with women and burned with desire for one another. Men committed shameful acts with men and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.
- 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, He gave them over to a corrupt mind to do things that should not be done.

Chapter 2

Paul argues that the moralist who judges others is equally guilty before God, because God judges impartially according to truth. He warns that the Jew who boasts in the law yet breaks it dishonors God, and that true circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter.

- 17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God, Now if You call Yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast in God—
- 18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; if You know His will and approve what is excellent because You are instructed from the law—

- 22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? You who say one should not commit adultery, do You commit adultery? You who hate idols, do You rob temples?
- 23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? You who boast in the law, do You dishonor God by breaking the law?
- 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written. "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of You," as it is written.
- 25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. Circumcision has value if You obey the law, but if You break the law, Your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

Such a person's praise is not from men but from God. |

Chapter 3

Paul concludes that all people — Jew and Gentile — are under sin and that no flesh is justified by the deeds of the law. The righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe, and God set forth Christ as a propitiation through His blood.

| 2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God. | Much in every way. First, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God. |
| 3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? | What if some were unfaithful? Does their unfaithfulness cancel out the faithfulness of God? |

- 4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. Not at all! Let God be true though every man a liar, as it is written: "That you may be justified in Your words, and prevail when You are judged."
- 5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) But if our unrighteousness highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous in bringing His wrath? I am speaking in human terms.
- 6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world? Not at all! For then how could God judge the world?
- 7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner? But if through my lie God's truth abounds to His glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner?
- 8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just. And why not do evil so that good may come — as some slander us by saying that we preach? Their damnation is just.
- WORD NOTE — Damnation (dam-NAY-shun) — God's final judgment against sin; eternal separation from God. When Paul says "their damnation is just," he means those who twist the gospel into a license for sin deserve God's condemnation.
- 9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; What then? Are we Jews any better off? No, not at all. We have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin,
- 10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: as it is written: "There is no one righteous, not even one.
- 11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God.

- 12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. All have turned away. Together they have become worthless. There is no one who does good — not even one."
- 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: "Their throat is an open grave. With their tongues they have practiced deceit. The poison of asps is under their lips."
- 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: "Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."
- 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood: "Their feet are swift to shed blood."
- 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways: "Ruin and misery are in their paths."
- 17 And the way of peace have they not known: "The way of peace they have not known."
- 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes. "There is no fear of God before their eyes."
- 19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.
- 20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. Therefore no flesh will be justified in His sight by works of the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.
- 21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; But now the righteousness of God has been revealed apart from the law, though the law and the prophets testify to it.
- 22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: This righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction,

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fyde) — being declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. Justification is God's verdict: "Not guilty." It is not earned — it is received by faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEMP-shun) — to buy back, to set free by paying a price. Christ's death was the ransom price that purchased our freedom from sin and its penalty.

■ WORD NOTE — Propitiation (proh-PISH-ee-AY-shun) — the sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin. When Paul says Jesus is our propitiation, he means Christ took the punishment we deserved so God's wrath against our sin was fully paid.

Chapter 4

Paul argues that Abraham was justified by faith, not works, and that his faith was counted to him for righteousness before he was circumcised. The promise came through the righteousness of faith so that it might be by grace and be sure to all the seed — not to those of the law only, but to all who share Abraham's faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Imputed (im-PYOO-ted) — credited to your account. Our sin was charged to Christ; His righteousness is credited to us. When God imputes righteousness, He counts it as ours even though we did not earn it.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Iniquity is not just what you do wrong, but the bent nature inside you that drives it.

| 9 | Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. | Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? | 10 | How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. | How then was it counted? Was it before or after he was circumcised? It was not after but before he was circumcised. |

Paul declares that being justified by faith brings peace with God and access to His grace. He argues that as sin and death entered the world through Adam, much more does the free gift of righteousness and life abound through Jesus Christ to all who receive it.

Chapter 6

Paul argues that believers who have been baptized into Christ's death must not continue in sin, because they have died to sin and are alive to God. He instructs them to yield their members as instruments of righteousness, for sin shall not have dominion over those who are under grace, not the law.

Chapter 7

Paul explains that believers are dead to the law through the body of Christ, freed to serve in newness of spirit. He describes the inner struggle with sin: the law is holy and good, but sin dwelling in the flesh wages war against the mind, so that the good he would do he does not, and the evil he would not do he practices.

|---|---|

- 2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. A married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as He lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.
- 3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. So if she joins with another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.
- 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. Likewise, my brothers, You also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that You may belong to another — to Him who was raised from the dead — that we might bear fruit for God.
- 5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. When we were in the flesh, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.
- 6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.
- 7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Not at all! I would not have known sin except through the law. I would not have known what it was to covet if the law had not said, "You shall not covet."

| 8 | But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead. | But sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetousness. Apart from the law, sin is dead. |
| 9 | For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. | I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. |
| 10 | And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death. | The very commandment that was meant to bring life proved to bring death to me. |
| 11 | For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. | Sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. |
| 12 | Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. | So the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good. |
| 13 | Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. | Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? Not at all! It was sin, producing death in me through what is good, so that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become extremely sinful. |
| 14 | For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. | We know that the law is spiritual. But I am fleshly, sold under sin. |
| 15 | For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. | I do not understand what I am doing. I do not do what I want to do, but I do what I hate. |
| 16 | If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. | If I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. |
| 17 | Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. | So it is no longer I who do it, but sin that lives in me. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. | I know that nothing good lives in me — that is, in my flesh. The desire to do good is present in me, but I cannot carry it out. |
| 19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. | I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do — I keep on doing it. |
| 20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. | If I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin living in me that does it. |
| 21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. | So I find this law at work: whenever I want to do good, evil is right there with me. |
| 22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: | I delight in the law of God in my inner being, |
| 23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. | but I see another law at work in my members, waging war against the law of my mind and taking me captive to the law of sin that is at work in my members. |
| 24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? | What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? |
| 25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. | Thanks be to God — through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with my mind I myself serve the law of God, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin. |

Paul declares that there is no condemnation for those in Christ Jesus who walk after the Spirit, and that the Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God. He argues that all things work together for good to those who love God, and that nothing — neither death, nor life, nor any creature — shall be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

| 1 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. | There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, Who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. |
| 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death. | For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death. |
| 3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: | For what the law could not do, because it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as an offering for sin. He condemned sin in the flesh, |
| 4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. | so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. |
| 5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. | Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh. Those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. |
| 6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. | The mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace. |
| 7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. | The mind set on the flesh is hostile to God — it does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. |
| 8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. | Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. |

- 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in You. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, He does not belong to Him.
- 10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if Christ is in You, then even though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit gives life because of righteousness.
- 11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. If the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in You, He who raised Christ from the dead will also quicken Your mortal bodies through His Spirit who lives in You.
- 12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. So then, brothers, we are not obligated to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
- 13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For if You live according to the flesh, You will die. But if by the Spirit You put to death the deeds of the body, You will live.
- 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
- 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. You have not received a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear. You have received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba, Father."
- 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.

- 17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. If we are children, then we are heirs — heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ — if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.
- 18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing to the glory that will be revealed in us.
- 19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the eager longing of creation waits for the revealing of the sons of God.
- 20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, For the creation was subjected to frustration — not by its own choice but by the will of the One who subjected it — in hope
- 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.
- 22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth up to the present time.
- 23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. Not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption — the redemption of our bodies.
- 24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? We are saved in hope. But hope that is seen is not hope — who hopes for what He already sees?
- 25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

- 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.
- 27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. He who searches the hearts knows what the Spirit's mind is, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.
- 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.
- 29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Those He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers.
- 30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. Those He predestined He also called; those He called He also justified; those He justified He also glorified.
- 31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? What shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?
- 32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? He who did not spare his own Son but delivered him up for us all — will He not also, along with Him, freely give us all things?
- 33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God Who justifies.

Chapter 9

Paul expresses great sorrow for Israel and argues that God's word has not failed, because not all who are of Israel are truly Israel. He defends God's sovereign right to show mercy on whom He will and to harden whom He will, as the potter has power over the clay.

Chapter 10

Paul declares that Israel has a zeal for God but not according to knowledge, seeking to establish their own righteousness rather than submitting to the righteousness of God. He proclaims that whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved, and that faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

Chapter 11

Paul argues that God has not cast away Israel, for a remnant according to the election of grace remains. He uses the olive tree to illustrate how Gentile branches were grafted in and warns them not to boast, declaring that blindness in part has happened to Israel until the fulness of the Gentiles comes in, and so all Israel shall be saved.

| 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. | "Lord, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me." |
| 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. | But what was God's answer to Him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." |
| 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. | So too, at the present time, there is a remnant chosen by grace. |
| 6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. | And if it is by grace, it is no longer by works — otherwise grace would no longer be grace. |
| 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded | What then? What Israel was seeking, it did not obtain, but the elect did obtain it. The others were hardened, |
| 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. | as it is written: "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, to this very day." |
| 9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: | David says: "Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution to them. |
| 10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back away. | Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and make their backs bend forever." |

- 11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. I ask then: did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, through their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous.
- 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? Now if their transgression brings riches to the world, and their failure brings riches to the Gentiles, how much more will their fullness bring!
- 13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make the most of my ministry,
- 14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to jealousy and save some of them.
- 15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? For if their rejection brought reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?
- 16 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. If the firstfruits are holy, the whole batch is holy. If the root is holy, so are the branches.
- 17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; If some of the branches were broken off, and you — a wild olive shoot — were grafted in among them to share in the richness of the olive root,
- 18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. do not boast over those branches. If you do boast, remember that it is not you who supports the root, but the root that supports you.
- 19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in."

- 20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: True. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid.
- 21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you either.
- 22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. Consider therefore the goodness and severity of God — severity toward those who fell, but goodness toward you, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you too will be cut off.
- 23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
- 24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? After all, if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more easily will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree!
- 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. I do not want you to be unaware of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.
- 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob: Then all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The Deliverer will come from Zion. He will turn godlessness away from Jacob.
- 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. This is My covenant with them when I take away their sins."

| 28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. | As regards the gospel, they are enemies for your sake. But as regards election, they are beloved for the sake of the patriarchs. |
| 29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance. | For the gifts and the calling of God are without repentance. |
| 30 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: | Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, |
| 31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy. | so they too have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they also may now receive mercy. |
| 32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all. | For God has confined all men in disobedience so that He may show mercy to all. |

| 34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? | "For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His adviser?" |
| 35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? | "Or who has given a gift to Him that He should be repaid?" |
| 36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen. | For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen. |

Chapter 12

Paul urges believers to present their bodies as a living sacrifice and to be transformed by the renewing of their minds. He instructs them on the use of spiritual gifts within the body of Christ and on practical duties: love without hypocrisy, patience in tribulation, hospitality, and overcoming evil with good.

Chapter 13

Paul instructs believers to submit to governing authorities, for the powers that be are ordained of God, and whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God. He summarizes the law in the command to love one's neighbor and urges the church to put on the armour of light, for salvation is nearer than when they first believed.

Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: | Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God. Therefore whoever resists the authority resists what God has ordained, and those who resist will bring damnation on themselves. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. | 4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. | For he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid — He does not carry the sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer. |
| 5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. | Therefore it is necessary to be in submission, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. |
| 6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. | This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, devoting themselves to this very thing. |
| 7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. | Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed. |
| 8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. | Owe no one anything except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. |
| 9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. | The commandments — you shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet — and any other commandment are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbor as yourself." |
| 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. | Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law. |

Paul instructs believers to receive the weak in faith without passing judgment on disputable matters such as eating and observing days. He argues that every person shall give account of himself to God, and that the kingdom of God is not about food and drink but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

| 4 | Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand. | Who are You to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And He will stand, for the Lord is able to make Him stand. |
| 5 | One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. | One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. |
| 6 | He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. | Whoever observes the day, observes it to the Lord. Whoever eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God. Whoever does not eat, abstains to the Lord and gives thanks to God. |
| 7 | For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. | For none of us lives to Himself, and none of us dies to Himself. |
| 8 | For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. | If we live, we live to the Lord; if we die, we die to the Lord. Whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. |
| 9 | For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. | For this very reason Christ died and came back to life — that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living. |
| 10 | But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. | Why then do You judge Your brother? Or why do You look down on Your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. |
| 11 | For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. | As it is written: "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God." |

- 12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.
- 13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. Let us therefore stop judging one another. Instead, make up Your mind not to put a stumbling block or obstacle in Your brother's way.
- 14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. I am convinced, as one who is in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself. But to the one who considers something to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
- 15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. If Your brother is grieved because of what You eat, You are no longer walking charitably. Do not destroy by Your food the one for whom Christ died.
- 16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of: Do not let what You consider good to be spoken of as evil.
- 17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
- 18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. Whoever serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.
- 19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. So then, let us pursue what makes for peace and what builds one another up.
- 20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for anyone to eat in a way that causes someone else to stumble.

| 21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. 22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. 23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin. | It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else that will cause Your brother to stumble or be offended or made weak. The faith that You have, keep between Yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves. But whoever doubts is damned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith — and everything that does not come from faith is sin. |

Paul urges the strong to bear with the weak and to follow Christ's example of selflessness, declaring that Christ became a minister to the Jews and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. He shares his ambition to preach where Christ has not been named and outlines his plans to visit Rome on his way to Spain.

- | | |

| 1 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. 3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. 4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. | We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build Him up. For even Christ did not please Himself, but as it is written: "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that through the endurance and encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. |

| 5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: | May the God of endurance and encouragement grant You to be of one mind with one another, in keeping with Christ Jesus, |
| 6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. | so that together You may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God. | Therefore accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us, to the glory of God. |
| 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: | I tell You that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness — to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs— |
| 9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. | and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. As it is written: "Therefore I will praise You among the Gentiles, and sing to Your name." |
| 10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. | Again it says: "Rejoice, You Gentiles, together with His people." |
| 11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. | And again: "Praise the Lord, all You Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise Him." |
| 12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. | And again Isaiah says: "The Root of Jesse will come — He who rises to rule the Gentiles. In him the Gentiles will hope." |
| 13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. | May the God of hope fill You with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Ghost You may overflow with hope. |

| 14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. | I myself am satisfied about You, my brothers, that You yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another. |
| 15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, | But I have written to You rather boldly on some points, as a reminder to You, because of the grace God gave me |
| 16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. | to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest in the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable — sanctified by the Holy Ghost. |

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctified (SANK-tih-fyde) — made holy; set apart for God. Sanctification is the ongoing work of the Holy Ghost in the believer's life, making us more like Christ and setting us apart from the world.

Chapter 16

Paul commends Phoebe to the church and greets many believers by name, including Priscilla and Aquila who risked their own necks for his life. He warns them to mark those who cause divisions contrary to the doctrine they have learned and closes with a doxology to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Sosthenes named as co-sender (1:1); Paul founded the Corinthian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 18).

Date written: c. AD 54–55, from Ephesus during Paul's third missionary journey, in response to reports and questions from the Corinthian church.

Written to: The church at Corinth — a congregation in one of the most cosmopolitan and morally corrupt port cities in the Roman empire, plagued by factionalism, sexual immorality, and theological confusion.

Setting: Corinth was a city of extraordinary wealth, social diversity, and sexual license. The church reflected its environment — divided over personalities, tolerating open sin, misusing spiritual gifts, and confused about the resurrection. Paul writes to correct, instruct, and restore order.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus during the early years of Nero's reign, while Gallio's earlier ruling at Corinth (Acts 18, c. AD 51) had established a legal precedent of Roman tolerance toward Paul's mission.

Contemporaries: Apollos, Cephas (Peter), Timothy, and Sosthenes were all active leaders in this same window, and Paul wrote this letter shortly before composing 2 Corinthians and Romans.

Big themes:

- The cross as the center — against Corinthian boasting in wisdom and eloquence, Paul insists that "Christ crucified" is the only message that has power to save

- Church unity — factionalism ("I am of Paul," "I am of Apollos") is rebuked; the church is one body with many members

- Holiness in a pagan city — sexual immorality, lawsuits between believers, and idol-food are all addressed with the reminder that believers are temples of the Holy Ghost

- Charity — chapter 13 defines the love that must govern every exercise of spiritual gifts; without it, everything is nothing

- The resurrection — chapter 15 is the NT's fullest treatment of Christ's bodily resurrection and the resurrection of believers; it is the foundation of the whole Christian faith

Key passages: 1 Cor 1:18; 6:19–20; 13:4–7; 15:3–4; 15:55–57

How it fits: 1 Corinthians is the most practical of Paul's major letters — it addresses nearly every disorder a congregation can face. Chapter 13 on charity and chapter 15 on the resurrection are among the most read passages in all of Scripture. It was written from Ephesus shortly before Romans.

Chapter 1

Paul rebukes the Corinthians for their divisions, as some claim to follow Paul, Apollos, Cephas, or Christ. He argues that the preaching of the cross is foolishness to those who perish but the power of God to those who are saved, and that God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise.

| 1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, | Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, and our brother Sosthenes, |
| 2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: | To the church of God that is in Corinth — to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints — together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: |
| 3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. | Grace to You and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; | I give thanks to my God always for You because of the grace of God that was given You in Christ Jesus. |
| 5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; | In Him You were enriched in every way — in all speech and in all knowledge— |
| 6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: | because the testimony about Christ was confirmed in You. |
| 7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: | You are not lacking in any spiritual gift as You wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. | He will also keep You firm to the end, so that You will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. | God is faithful, by whom You were called into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. |

- 10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. I urge You, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of You agree and that there be no divisions among You. Be united in the same mind and the same judgment.
- 11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. It has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among You, my brothers.
- 12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. What I mean is this: each of You says, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ."
- 13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul? Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul?
- 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; I am thankful that I baptized none of You except Crispus and Gaius,
- 15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. so that no one can say you were baptized in my name.
- 16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.
- 17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel — not with wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.
- 18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For the message of the cross is foolishness to them that perish, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

- 19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will set aside the understanding of the intelligent."
- 20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? Where is the wise man? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?
- 21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of what is preached to save those who believe.
- 22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom,
- 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but we preach Christ crucified — a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,
- 24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.
- 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
- 26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: Brothers, consider Your calling: not many of You were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth.
- 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.

- 28

And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

God chose the lowly things of this world, the despised things — and the things that are not — to bring to nothing the things that are,
- 29

That no flesh should glory in his presence.

so that no one may boast before God.
- 30

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

It is because of Him that You are in Christ Jesus, Who has become for us wisdom from God — that is, our righteousness, sanctification, and redemption—

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (sank-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — being made holy; the lifelong process of being set apart for God. Justification is the one-time verdict of "not guilty." Sanctification is the ongoing work of God making us holy in our daily lives.

Chapter 2

Paul recalls that he came to Corinth not with eloquent wisdom but in weakness, determined to know nothing except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. Chapter 3

Paul calls the Corinthians carnal because of their jealousy and strife, saying he planted and Apollos watered but God gave the increase. He warns that each man's work will be tested by fire, and that the temple of God is holy — for if any man destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him.

| 1 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. | Brothers, I could not address You as spiritual people but as people of the flesh — as infants in Christ. |
| 2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. | I fed You with milk, not solid food, for You were not ready for it. Indeed, You are still not ready, |
| 3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? | for You are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and strife among You, are You not of the flesh and walking like mere men? |
| 4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? | For when someone says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," are you not merely human? |
| 5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? | What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. |
| 6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. | I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. |
| 7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. | So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God Who gives the growth. |
| 8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. | He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. |
| 9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. | We are God's co-workers. You are God's field, God's building. |
| 10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. | By the grace God gave me, I laid a foundation as a skilled builder, and someone else is building on it. Each one must be careful how he builds. |

- 11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. For no one can lay any other foundation than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.
- 12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; Whether anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw—
- 13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. each one's work will become clear. The Day will bring it to light, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what kind of work each has done.
- 14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward. If what He has built survives, He will receive a reward.
- 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. If His work is burned up, He will suffer loss — though He Himself will be saved, but only as through fire.
- 16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? Do You not know that You are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in You?
- 17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy Him. For God's temple is holy, and You are that temple.
- 18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in the ways of this age, He should become a fool so that He may become wise.
- 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. The wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their own craftiness."
- 20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. And again: "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile."

Chapter 4

Paul teaches that apostles are stewards of the mysteries of God and that it is the Lord who judges, so they should not judge before the time. He contrasts the Corinthians' pride with the apostles' suffering, and warns them as a father that he will come to them and test not their words but their power.

- 5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. Therefore do not judge anything before the appointed time — wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of the heart. Then each person will receive His praise from God.
- 6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another. I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, so that you may learn from us the meaning of "not beyond what is written," so that none of You will be puffed up in favor of one against another.
- 7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? For who makes You different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? If You received it, why do You boast as if You did not receive it?
- 8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. Already You have all You want! Already You have become rich! Without us You have become kings! How I wish You really were kings, so that we might be kings with You!
- 9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. For I think that God has set forth us apostles last, as men appointed to death; for we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.
- 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. We are fools for Christ's sake, but You are so wise in Christ! We are weak, but You are strong! You are honored, but we are despised!

- 11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty. We are poorly clothed, brutally treated, and have no settled home.
- 12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure it.
- 13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. When we are slandered, we answer kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the garbage of the world — right up to this moment.
- 14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. I am not writing this to shame You, but to warn You as my dear children.
- 15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Even if You had ten thousand guardians in Christ, You do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became Your father through the gospel.
- 16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. I urge You, then, be imitators of me.
- 17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. That is why I sent You Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind You of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.
- 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. Some of You have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to You.
- 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. But I will come to You soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.
- 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. For the kingdom of God is not in words but in power.

Paul rebukes the church for tolerating a man living in fornication with his father's wife and commands them to deliver him to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that his spirit may be saved. He instructs them to purge out the old leaven, for Christ our passover is sacrificed for us, and not to keep company with any so-called brother living in open sin.

| 2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. | And You are proud! Should You not rather have mourned? The one who did this should be removed from your midst. |

| 7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. | 10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. | not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, for then You would have to go out of the world. |
| 11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat. | But now I am writing to You not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is sexually immoral, greedy, an idolater, a slanderer, a drunkard, or a swindler — not even to eat with such a person. |
| 12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within? | What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are You not to judge those inside? |
| 13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person. | God will judge those outside. "Remove the wicked person from among you." |

Paul rebukes believers for taking disputes before unbelieving judges instead of settling them within the church. He warns that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God and declares that the body is the temple of the Holy Ghost — therefore they must flee fornication and glorify God in their body.

| 2 | Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? | Do You not know that the saints will judge the world? | 6 | But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers. | Instead, one brother takes another to court — and this before unbelievers! |
| 7 | Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why not rather be cheated? |

- 8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Instead, You yourselves wrong and cheat — and You do this to Your brothers!
- 9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Do You not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor the effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

- 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be mastered by anything.
- 13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. "Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food," and God will do away with both. But the body is not for sexual immorality — it is for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.
- 14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. God raised the Lord and will also raise us by His power.
- 15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid. Do You not know that Your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and join them to a prostitute? Not at all!

Chapter 7

Paul addresses questions about marriage, teaching that each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband, and that the married should not seek to be loosed. He counsels the unmarried and widows that it is good to remain single as he is, but if they cannot exercise self-control, it is better to marry than to burn.

Likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. |
| 5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. | Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan does not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. |
| 6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. | I say this as a concession, not as a command. |
| 7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. | I wish that all men were as I am. But each person has his own gift from God — one of one kind and one of another. |
| 8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. | To the unmarried and to widows I say: it is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am. |
| 9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. | But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. It is better to marry than to burn with passion. |
| 10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: | To the married I give this charge — not I, but the Lord — a wife must not separate from her husband. |
| 11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. | But if she does separate, she must either remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife. |

- 12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. To the rest I say — I, not the Lord — if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever and she is willing to live with Him, He must not divorce her.
- 13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. And if a woman has a husband who is an unbeliever and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him.
- 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his believing wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.
- 15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace. But if the unbeliever leaves, let them leave. The brother or sister is not bound in such circumstances. God has called us to live in peace.
- 16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife? How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?
- 17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches. Each person should live the life the Lord has assigned to Him and to which God has called Him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.
- 18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not seek to become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.
- 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. What matters is keeping the commandments of God.

- 20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Each person should remain in the condition in which he was called.
- 21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it trouble you — although if you can gain your freedom, do so.
- 22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant. For the one who was a slave when called in the Lord is the Lord's free man. Likewise, the one who was free when called is Christ's slave.
- 23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. You were bought with a price; do not become servants of men.
- 24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God. Brothers, each person should remain with God in the condition in which He was called.
- 25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. Now concerning virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.
- 26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be. I think that in view of the present distress, it is good for a man to remain as he is.
- 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. Are You bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are You free from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
- 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you. But if You do marry, You have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare You that.

- 29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; What I mean, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on, those who have wives should live as if they had none;
- 30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; those who mourn, as if they did not mourn; those who rejoice, as if they did not rejoice; those who buy, as if they did not own anything;
- 31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. those who make use of the world, as if they did not make full use of it. For the present form of this world is passing away.
- 32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord: I want You to be free from anxiety. The unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord — how He may please the Lord.
- 33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife. But the married man is concerned about worldly things — how He may please his wife—
- 34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. and His interests are divided. The unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is concerned about worldly things — how she may please her husband.
- 35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. I am saying this for Your own benefit, not to put any restriction on You, but to promote what is right and to help You give Your undivided attention to the Lord.

36	But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.	If any man thinks He is behaving improperly toward His virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and need so requires, let Him do as He will — he does not sin: let them marry.
37	Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.	But the man who stands firm in his resolve — who is under no compulsion but has control over his own desire and has made up his mind to keep her as his fiancée — does well.
38	So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.	So then, he who marries his fiancée does well, and he who does not marry does even better.
39	The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.	A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only in the Lord.
40	But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.	In my judgment, she is happier if she remains unmarried. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Paul addresses food offered to idols, teaching that an idol is nothing and that there is one God and one Lord Jesus Christ. He warns that knowledge puffs up but charity builds up, and that believers must be careful not to use their liberty in a way that causes a weaker brother to stumble.

- 4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one. So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: we know that an idol is nothing in the world and that there is no God but one.

And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things were made and through whom we exist.
- 7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some people, still accustomed to idols, eat such food as if it were really sacrificed to an idol, and their weak conscience is defiled.
- 8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. Food does not bring us near to God — we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.
- 9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. Be careful, however, that Your freedom does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

| 10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; 11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? 12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. 13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend. | For if someone with a weak conscience sees you, who have knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, will He not be encouraged to eat what is sacrificed to idols? So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by Your knowledge. When You sin against Your brothers in this way and wound their weak conscience, You sin against Christ. Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to fall, I will never eat meat again, rather than cause my brother to stumble. |

Paul defends his apostleship and his right to financial support from those he serves, though he has not used that right so as not to hinder the gospel. He declares that he makes himself servant to all in order to win more, and disciplines his body like an athlete so that after preaching to others he himself is not disqualified.

| 4 Have we not power to eat and to drink? | Do we not have the right to eat and to drink? |
| 5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? | Do we not have the right to take a believing wife along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas? |
| 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working? | Or is it only I and Barnabas who have no right to stop working for a living? |
| 7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? | Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Who tends a flock and does not drink the milk from the flock? |
| 8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? | Do I say this on human authority? Does not the law also say the same? |
| 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? | For in the law of Moses it is written: "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain." Is it about oxen that God is concerned? |
| 10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. | Surely He says this for our sake, doesn't He? Yes, it was written for us, because the one who plows and the one who threshes should both work in the hope of sharing in the harvest. |
| 11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things? | If we sowed spiritual seed among you, is it too much to reap a material harvest from you? |
| 12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ. | If others exercise this right over You, should we not even more? But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we endure everything so as not to put any obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. |

- 13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Do You not know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the offerings of the altar?
- 14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.
- 15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to get such treatment. I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of this boast.
- 16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, since I am compelled to preach it. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!
- 17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. If I do this voluntarily, I have a reward. But if not voluntarily, I am still entrusted with a stewardship.
- 18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel. What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and not make full use of my rights in the gospel.
- 19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. Though I am free from everyone, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them.

- 20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; To the Jews I became like a Jew in order to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law, so I might win those under the law.
- 21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. To those outside the law I became like one outside the law — not being outside God's law but inside Christ's law — in order to win those outside the law.
- 22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some.
- 23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.
- 24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. Do You not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize.
- 25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. Everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. They do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.
- 26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: Therefore I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight like a man beating the air.
- 27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway. No, I beat my body and make it my slave, so that after preaching to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

Chapter 10

Paul warns that Israel's failures in the wilderness were written for our example, and urges them to flee from idolatry. He teaches that the cup of blessing and the bread are a communion in the blood and body of Christ, and that believers cannot partake of the Lord's table and the table of devils. Whether they eat or drink, they should do all to the glory of God.

| 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. | We must not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did — and in one day twenty-three thousand of them fell. |

- 9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. We must not test Christ, as some of them did — and were killed by snakes.

The bread that we break — is it not a participation in the body of Christ?
- 17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.
- 18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? Consider the people of Israel: do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

- 19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? What am I saying then? That food sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything?
- 20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. No, I am saying that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want You to be participants with demons.
- 21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the Lord's table and the table of demons.

- 23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not. "All things are lawful," but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up.
- 24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor.
- 25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: Eat whatever is sold in the market without raising any question on the grounds of conscience.

Chapter 11

Paul teaches on head coverings, declaring that the head of every man is Christ, the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. He rebukes the Corinthians for their divisions at the Lord's supper and delivers the institution of communion, warning that whoever eats and drinks unworthily eats and drinks damnation to himself.

- 2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. I praise You for remembering me in everything and for holding to the traditions just as I passed them on to You.
- 3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. I want You to know that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God.
- 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors His head.
- 5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven. Every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head — it is just as if she had her head shaved.
- 6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or her head shaved, she should cover her head.
- 7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of the man.
- 8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man. For man did not come from woman, but woman from man.
- 9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man. Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.
- 10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels. For this reason a woman ought to have power on her head, because of the angels.
- 11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.

- 12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God. For as woman was made from man, so man is now born of woman. And everything comes from God.
- 13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered? Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?
- 14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears his hair long, it is a disgrace to him,
- 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her as a covering.
- 16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no such practice — nor do the churches of God.
- 17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. In the following instructions I do not praise you, because your meetings do more harm than good.
- 18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. First of all, when you come together as a church, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it.
- 19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you are approved.
- 20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. When you come together in one place, it is not really to eat the Lord's Supper.
- 21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. For when you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anyone else. One remains hungry while another gets drunk.

- 22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? Certainly not!
- 23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to You: the Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, took bread,
- 24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said: "Take, eat — this is My body which is broken for You. Do this in remembrance of Me."
- 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new testament in My blood. Do this, as often as You drink it, in remembrance of Me."
- 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. For as often as You eat this bread and drink this cup, You proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.
- 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.
- 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. A person should examine Himself before eating the bread and drinking the cup.
- 29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the Lord's body eats and drinks damnation to Himself.

| 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. | But if we judged ourselves properly, we would not come under judgment. |
| 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. | When we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world. |

The other matters I will set in order when I come. |

Chapter 12

Paul teaches that there are diversities of gifts but the same Spirit, and that the Spirit distributes to each one individually as He wills. He uses the human body to illustrate that every member is necessary — the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you" — and that God has set the members in the body as it pleases Him.

| 3 | Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. | Therefore I want You to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says "Jesus is cursed," and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Ghost. |
| 4 | Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. | There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. |
| 5 | And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. | There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. |
| 6 | And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. | There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. |

| 11 | But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. | All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and He gives them to each one just as he determines. |
| 12 | For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. | Just as a body, though one, has many parts, and all the parts, though many, form one body — so it is with Christ. |

- 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body — whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free — and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.
- 14 For the body is not one member, but many. Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.
- 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.
- 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason stop being part of the body.
- 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?
- 18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be.
- 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? If they were all one part, where would the body be?
- 20 But now are they many members, yet but one body. As it is, there are many parts, but one body.
- 21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need You!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need You!"
- 22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary,

- 23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. and those we think less honorable we clothe with special honor. Our unpresentable parts are treated with special modesty,
- 24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: while our presentable parts have no such need. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lack it,
- 25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.
- 26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it. If one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.
- 27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. Now You are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.
- 28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helpful deeds, gifts of leadership, and different kinds of tongues.
- 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?
- 30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret?
- 31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way. But eagerly desire the greater gifts. And now I will show You the most excellent way.

Chapter 13

Paul declares that without charity, all gifts are nothing — tongues, prophecy, knowledge, and even faith that moves mountains amount to nothing without love. Charity suffers long and is kind, does not envy or boast, bears all things and endures all things. Prophecies, tongues, and knowledge will pass away, but faith, hope, and charity abide — and the greatest of these is charity.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
- If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but have not charity, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. In 1 Corinthians 13, Paul uses this word where most modern translations say "love." The KJV uses "charity" because this kind of love is not mere feeling — it is the highest, most self-giving love that comes from God Himself.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
- If I have the gift of prophecy and can understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have faith that can move mountains, but have not charity, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
- If I give all I possess to the poor and give my body to be burned, but have not charity, I gain nothing.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
- Charity is patient. Charity is kind. It does not envy. It does not boast. It is not proud.

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
- It does not behave rudely. It is not self-seeking. It is not easily angered. It keeps no record of wrongs.

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
- It does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

7	Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.	It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
8	Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.	Charity never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.
9	For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.	For we know in part and we prophesy in part,
10	But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.	but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.
11	When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.	When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me.
12	For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.	Now we see through a glass, darkly — but then face to face. Now I know in part; but then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.
13	And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.	And now these three remain: faith, hope, and charity. But the greatest of these is charity.

Chapter 14

Paul teaches that prophecy is greater than tongues in the assembly because it edifies the church, while tongues without interpretation edify only the speaker. He instructs that all things in worship must be done decently and in order, with no more than two or three speaking in tongues, and each in turn with an interpreter.

| 1 | Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. | Pursue charity, and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially prophecy. |
| 2 | For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. | For anyone who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God. No one understands him — he utters mysteries in the Spirit. |
| 3 | But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. | But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and comfort. |
| 4 | He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. | The one who speaks in a tongue builds himself up, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. |
| 5 | I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. | I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have You prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he also interprets, so that the church may be built up. |
| 6 | Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? | Now, brothers, if I come to You speaking in tongues, what good will I be to You unless I bring some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? |
| 7 | And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? | Even lifeless instruments, like the flute or harp, must give distinct notes — otherwise how will anyone know what is being played? |
| 8 | For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle? | If the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle? |

- 9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air. So it is with You. Unless You speak words that can be understood, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air.
- 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning.
- 11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. If then I do not understand the meaning of what someone is saying, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker will be a foreigner to me.
- 12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church. So it is with You. Since You are eager for spiritual gifts, try to excel in those that build up the church.
- 13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. For this reason, the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret what He says.
- 14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. If I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.
- 15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind.
- 16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest? Otherwise, if You are praising God in the spirit, how can someone who does not understand say "Amen" to your thanksgiving? He does not know what You are saying.
- 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. You may be giving thanks very well, but the other person is not built up.

- 18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of You.
- 19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. But in the church I would rather speak five words with my mind to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.
- 20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men. Brothers, do not be childish in Your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in Your thinking be mature.
- 21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. In the law it is written: "With people of strange tongues and other lips I will speak to this people, and even then they will not hear Me, says the Lord."
- 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe. So then tongues are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for believers, not unbelievers.
- 23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that You are out of Your minds?
- 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: But if an unbeliever or someone who does not understand comes in while everyone is prophesying, He will be convicted by all and judged by all.
- 25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth. The secrets of His heart will be revealed. He will fall down and worship God, declaring, "God is truly among You."

- 26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. What then shall we say, brothers? When You come together, each one has a hymn, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Everything must be done to build up the church.
- 27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. If anyone speaks in a tongue, two — or at most three — should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret.
- 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. If there is no interpreter, the speaker should keep quiet in the church and speak to Himself and to God.
- 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge. Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said.
- 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop.
- 31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted. For You can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may learn and be encouraged.
- 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. The spirits of the prophets are subject to the control of prophets.
- 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints. For God is not a God of disorder but of peace — as in all the churches of the saints.
- 34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law. Let Your women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also says the law.

It is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. Did the word of God originate with You? Or are You the only people it has reached? If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I am writing to You is the Lord's command. If anyone ignores this, he will be ignored. Therefore, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. But everything should be done in a proper and orderly way. |

Paul declares the gospel: that Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again the third day according to the scriptures, and appeared to more than five hundred brethren. He argues that if Christ is not risen then faith is vain, but now Christ is risen and become the firstfruits of them that slept. He reveals the mystery that at the last trumpet the dead shall be raised incorruptible and death shall be swallowed up in victory.

- 12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of You say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
- 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised.
- 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is Your faith.
- 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that He raised Christ from the dead. But He did not raise Him if in fact the dead are not raised.
- 16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either.
- 17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. And if Christ has not been raised, Your faith is futile; You are still in Your sins.
- 18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.
- 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.
- 20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
- 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man.
- 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be quickened.

- 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. But each in His own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at His coming those who belong to Christ.
- 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. Then comes the end, when He delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.
- 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.
- 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.
- 27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. For He has put everything under His feet. Now when it says that everything has been put under Him, it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put everything under Christ.
- 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. When all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to the One who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all.
- 29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them?
- 30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? And why do we endanger ourselves every hour?
- 31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. I face death every day — as surely as I boast about You in Christ Jesus our Lord.

- 32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. If I fought wild beasts at Ephesus with nothing more than human motives, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."
- 33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Do not be misled: "Bad company corrupts good character."
- 34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. Come back to Your senses and stop sinning. Some people are ignorant of God — I say this to Your shame.
- 35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?"
- 36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die: How foolish! What You sow does not come to life unless it dies.
- 37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: When You sow, You do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed — perhaps wheat or something else.
- 38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. But God gives it a body as He has determined, and to each kind of seed its own body.
- 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. Not all flesh is the same: people have one kind, animals have another, birds another, and fish another.
- 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly bodies is different from that of the earthly bodies.
- 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. The sun has one kind of glory, the moon another, and the stars another. And star differs from star in glory.

- 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable.
- 43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.
- 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.
- 45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living soul." The last Adam became a quickening spirit.
- 46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.
- 47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. The first man was from the earth — earthy. The second man is the Lord from heaven.
- 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. As was the man from the earth, so also are those who are of the earth. As is the Man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.
- 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the man of earth, we will also bear the image of the Man from heaven.
- 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
- 51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, Listen, I tell you a mystery: we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—

| 52 | In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. | in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. The trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. |
| 53 | For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. | For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. |
| 54 | So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. | So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." |
| 55 | O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? | "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" |
| 56 | The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. | The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. |
| 57 | But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. | But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 58 | Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. | Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move You. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, knowing that Your labor in the Lord is not in vain. |

Paul gives instructions for the collection for the saints in Jerusalem, directing each person to set aside something on the first day of the week. He outlines his travel plans, commends Timothy and Apollos to them, and closes with exhortations to watch, stand fast in the faith, and let all things be done with charity.

| 2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. | On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and save it up, as he may prosper, so that there will be no collections when I come. |

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in 1:1 and 10:1, and writes with great emotional intensity from beginning to end. Timothy joins him in the greeting (1:1) but Paul is plainly the author.

Date written: c. AD 56, from somewhere in Macedonia, during Paul's third missionary journey. The letter was written between 1 Corinthians and Romans.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small, humble" — Born Saul of Tarsus; a Pharisee and persecutor of the early church who was confronted by the risen Christ on the road to Damascus and became the great apostle to the Gentiles. He founded the Corinthian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 18) and wrote them at least four letters, of which 1 and 2 Corinthians survive.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Corinth (KOR-inth) — A wealthy Greek seaport on the narrow isthmus joining mainland Greece to the Peloponnese; the commercial capital of southern Greece. Famous for its luxury, two harbors, the temple of Aphrodite, and notorious sexual immorality. Paul spent a year and a half there founding the church (Acts 18) and to it he addressed both Corinthian epistles.

Written to: The church at Corinth, the wealthy Greek port city Paul had founded on his second missionary journey (Acts 18), and to which he had already written 1 Corinthians.

Setting: After 1 Corinthians, Paul made a brief "painful visit" to Corinth (2:1) and then wrote a "severe letter" (2:3–4; 7:8) calling the church to discipline a particular sinner. Titus carried that letter and returned to Paul in Macedonia with the news that the church had repented and disciplined the offender. Greatly relieved, Paul wrote 2 Corinthians — partly to express his joy at their repentance and his pastoral love for them; partly to defend his apostolic authority against rival "super-apostles" (11:5; 12:11) who had infiltrated Corinth; and partly to organize the offering for the suffering saints in Jerusalem (chs. 8–9).

Where this sits historically: Written from Macedonia under Nero (c. AD 56), shortly after Paul had been driven out of Ephesus by the silversmiths' riot (Acts 19) and only a year before he carried the Jerusalem collection to Judea.

Contemporaries: Titus, Timothy, Luke, and Silas were Paul's coworkers in Macedonia at this time, while Peter ministered eastward and James continued to lead the Jerusalem church awaiting Paul's relief offering.

Big themes: the comfort of God in tribulation (1:3–11); the new covenant ministry of glory (ch. 3); treasure in earthen vessels (ch. 4); the ministry of reconciliation (5:11–21); generosity in giving (chs. 8–9); the defense of Paul's apostleship against false apostles (chs. 10–13); Paul's "thorn in the flesh" and the sufficiency of grace (12:7–10); the Trinitarian benediction (13:14).

Key passages: 2 Corinthians 1:3–4; 3:18; 4:7–10; 4:17–18; 5:17–21; 8:9; 9:6–8; 12:9–10; 13:14.

How it fits: 2 Corinthians is the most personal and emotional of Paul's letters. It is the chief NT text on Christian suffering and comfort, on the new covenant ministry, on substitutionary atonement (5:21), and on the principles of Christian giving. The Trinitarian benediction in 13:14 is the most explicit Trinitarian formula in the New Testament.

Chapter 1

Paul blesses God as the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation so that we may comfort others. He defends his sincerity toward the Corinthians and explains that he delayed his visit not out of fickleness but to spare them pain.

- 1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

From Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and from Timothy our brother — to the church of God which is at Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — also Timotheus in older KJV spelling — "honoring God" — Paul's beloved younger co-worker; the son of a Jewish-Christian mother (Eunice) and a Greek father. Paul met him at Lystra on the second missionary journey (Acts 16:1–3) and treated him almost as a son in the faith. Paul wrote him two personal letters (1 and 2 Timothy).

■ NAME NOTE — Achaia (uh-KAY-yuh) — The Roman province covering southern Greece, including Corinth and Athens; Corinth was its capital. When Paul addresses "all the saints in all Achaia" he includes the believers in surrounding towns who looked to the Corinthian church.

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace to You from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Every time Paul opens a letter with "grace and peace," he is reminding you that everything God does for you comes freely, out of His love alone.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort,

| 4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. 5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. 6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. 7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. | who comforts us in all our tribulation, so that we are able to comfort those who are in any kind of trouble, with the same comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow into our lives, so also through Christ our consolation overflows. If we are afflicted, it is for Your consolation and salvation, which is at work as You patiently endure the same sufferings that we also suffer. And if we are comforted, it is for Your consolation and salvation. And our hope for You is steadfast, because we know that as You share in the sufferings, so also You will share in the consolation. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. It is not the same as grace (which gives good things we don't deserve) — mercy holds back the punishment we do deserve.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: | Brothers, we do not want You to be unaware of the trouble we faced in Asia. We were pressed beyond measure, beyond our own strength, so that we despaired even of life itself. |
|--|---|

■ NAME NOTE — Asia (AY-zhuh) — The Roman province on the western coast of modern-day Turkey, with Ephesus as its capital. This is not the whole continent but the region where Paul had ministered for nearly three years (Acts 19). The "trouble in Asia" likely refers to the riot at Ephesus or to some other near-death affliction Paul suffered there.

- | | |

| 9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: | Indeed, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God Who raises the dead. |
|--|--|

- 10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; He delivered us from such a great death, and He still delivers us; in Him we have set our hope that He will yet deliver us,
- 11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. as You also help together by praying for us, so that thanks may be given by many people on our behalf for the gracious gift granted to us through the prayers of many.
- 12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. Our boast is this: the testimony of our conscience that we have conducted ourselves in the world — and especially toward You — in simplicity and godly sincerity, not by fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God.
- 13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end; For we write nothing to You other than what You read and understand. And I hope You will understand it fully,
- 14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. just as You have understood us in part — that we are Your boast, even as You are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.
- 15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit; Because of this confidence, I planned to come to You first, so that You might have a double blessing:
- 16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea. to pass through Your city on my way to Macedonia, then to come back to You from Macedonia, and have You send me on my way to Judaea.

When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?
- When I planned this, was I being fickle? Or do I make my plans according to the flesh, ready to say "yes, yes" and "no, no" in the same breath?
- 18

But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.
- But as surely as God is faithful, our word to You was not "yes" and "no."
- 19

For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay; but in him was yea.
- For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Who was preached among You by us — by me and Silas and Timothy — was not "yes" and "no," but in him it has always been "yes."

■ NAME NOTE — Silas (SY-lus) — also Silvanus in this verse — A leading member of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22); Paul's traveling companion through much of the second missionary journey, including the founding of the Corinthian church (Acts 18:5). Silvanus is the Latin form; Silas is the Greek shortened form used in Acts. Both refer to the same man.

Cross-References:

For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
- For all the promises of God find their "yes" in Him, and through Him also our "Amen" is spoken, to the glory of God.
- 21

Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;
- Now it is God Who establishes us with You in Christ, and who has anointed us.
- 22

Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
- He has also sealed us as His own, and has given us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge of what is to come.
- 23

Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.
- I call God as my witness — He sees my soul — that it was to spare You that I did not come to Corinth again.

- 24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand. Not that we have dominion over Your faith — rather, we work together with You for Your joy, for it is by faith that You stand.

Chapter 2

Paul explains that his earlier letter was written out of much affliction and tears, not to grieve them but so they would know his abundant love. He urges them to forgive and comfort the repentant offender, lest Satan gain an advantage, and describes the triumphal spread of the gospel as a sweet fragrance of Christ.

- 1 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness. So I made up my mind not to make another painful visit to You.
- 2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? For if I cause You grief, who is left to make me glad but the very one whom I have grieved?
- 3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. And this is the very reason I wrote what I did — so that when I came I would not be saddened by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence in You all, that my joy would be the joy of You all.
- 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to You with many tears — not to grieve You, but to let You know the overflowing love I have for You.
- 5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all. But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me alone but in some measure all of You — I do not want to put the matter too heavily.
- 6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many. The punishment imposed on Him by the majority is enough for such a man.

| 7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. 8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things. 10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ; 11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. | So now You should rather forgive Him and comfort Him, or He may be overwhelmed by too much sorrow. So I appeal to You to reaffirm Your love for Him. This is the very reason I wrote — to put You to the test and see whether You would be obedient in everything. Anyone you forgive, I also forgive. And what I have forgiven — if I have forgiven anything — I have forgiven for Your sakes in the presence of Christ, so that Satan would not gain the advantage over us — for we are not ignorant of his devices. |

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tun) — "the adversary, the accuser" — The fallen angel who opposes God and tempts and accuses God's people. Paul's warning here is sober: the devil exploits unforgiveness in a church to divide and destroy it.

|---|---|
| 12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia. | When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, the Lord had opened a door for me there. But I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took my leave of them and went on into Macedonia. |

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert and trusted co-worker of Paul; one of his most reliable troubleshooters. Paul sent him to Corinth with the "severe letter" and waited anxiously in Macedonia for his return (2:13; 7:6–7, 13–15). Paul later left him to organize the church on Crete, and addressed the epistle to Titus to him there.

■ NAME NOTE — Macedonia (mas-eh-DO-nee-ah) — A Roman province in northern Greece. Paul received the famous "Macedonian vision" in Acts 16 calling him to bring the gospel into Europe; from it came the churches at Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea. Paul is writing this letter from somewhere in Macedonia, probably Philippi.

Chapter 3

Paul declares that the Corinthians themselves are his letter of commendation, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God on the tables of the heart. He contrasts the ministry of the old covenant — the letter that kills — with the ministry of the new covenant — the Spirit that gives life — and declares that where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you? | Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others do, letters of recommendation to You or from You? |

|---|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. A covenant is stronger than a contract — it is a vow that changes who you are to each other. Here Paul contrasts the old covenant (the law of Moses) with the new covenant (life in the Spirit through Christ).

Chapter 4

Paul declares that the god of this world has blinded the minds of unbelievers, but God has shined the light of the knowledge of His glory in the face of Jesus Christ. He describes the treasure of the gospel carried in earthen vessels, and though outwardly perishing, the inward man is renewed day by day — for the afflictions are light and momentary compared to the eternal weight of glory.

Chapter 5

Paul teaches that when our earthly body is dissolved, we have a building of God eternal in the heavens, and that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. He declares that if any man is in Christ he is a new creature, and that God has given us the ministry of reconciliation — for He made Christ, who knew no sin, to be sin for us, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

- 5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. Now He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, Who also has given us the Spirit as an earnest of what is to come.
- 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord —
- 7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) for we walk by faith, not by sight.
- 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. We are confident, I say, and we would prefer rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.
- 9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. So we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be pleasing to Him.
- 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for the things done in the body, according to what He has done, whether good or bad.
- 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. Therefore, knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is plain also to Your consciences.
- 12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. We are not commending ourselves to You again, but giving You reason to be proud of us — so You will have an answer for those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart.
- 13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. If we are out of our minds, it is for God; and if we are in our right mind, it is for You.

- 14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: For the love of Christ constrains us, because we have come to this conclusion: that one died for all, and therefore all died.
- 15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.
- 16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. From now on, then, we regard no man after the flesh. Even if we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know Him so no longer.
- 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. Therefore if any man be in Christ, He is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
- 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; And all things are of God, Who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation:
- 19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. namely, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
- 20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were appealing through us; we plead with You in Christ's stead — be reconciled to God.
- 21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Chapter 6

Paul urges the Corinthians not to receive the grace of God in vain and describes the hardships of his ministry — in afflictions, labors, watchings, and fastings. He commands them to be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers, for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness, or what communion has light with darkness.

| 1 We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. | As workers together with Him, we plead with you also not to receive the grace of God in vain. |
| 2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) | For He says, "In the acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you." Now is the acceptable time; now is the day of salvation. |
| 3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed: | We give no offense in anything, so that our ministry may not be blamed; |
| 4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, | but in everything we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, |
| 5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; | in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in sleepless nights, in fastings; |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult or slow; God's slowness to anger. It is not weakness — it is the power to keep loving when you have every reason to give up. God is longsuffering toward sinners, not wanting any to perish.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the old English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is fully God — He comforts, teaches, convicts of sin, and gives new life to those who believe.

■ NAME NOTE — Belial (BEE-lee-al) — "worthlessness, wickedness" — A Hebrew word that became a name for Satan, the supreme worthless one. To call someone a "son of Belial" in the OT was to call them godless and depraved. Paul here uses Belial as a personal name for the devil — the absolute moral opposite of Christ.

Chapter 7

Paul urges the Corinthians to cleanse themselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit and expresses his joy over Titus's report of their repentance. He distinguishes godly sorrow, which produces repentance leading to salvation, from the sorrow of the world, which produces death.

In every way you have shown yourselves to be clear in this matter. |
| 12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. | So then, though I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but so that our earnest care for you might be made plain to you in the sight of God. |

Paul holds up the generosity of the Macedonian churches as an example, urging the Corinthians to complete the collection they began the year before. He reminds them that the Lord Jesus Christ, though He was rich, became poor for their sakes, so that through His poverty they might be rich.

| 1 Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; | Now, brothers, we want You to know about the grace of God which has been given to the churches of Macedonia: |
| 2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. | how in the midst of a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the riches of their generosity. |
| 3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; | For I testify that they gave according to their ability — yes, and beyond their ability — entirely on their own, |
| 4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. | begging us with much entreaty that we would receive their gift and let them share in the ministry to the saints. |
| 5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. | And they did this not as we had hoped — they first gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us, by the will of God. |
| 6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. | So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, he would also complete this grace in you as well. |
| 7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. | But as you abound in everything — in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love for us — see that you abound in this grace also. |

- 8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. I am not speaking by commandment, but by occasion of the eagerness of others — and to test the sincerity of your love.
- 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. For You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ — that though He was rich, yet for Your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might be rich.
- 10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago. And in this I give my advice: this is best for You, who began a year ago not only to give but also to be eager to give.
- 11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. Now finish doing it, so that just as You were ready in willingness, You may also complete it out of what You have.
- 12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For if the willingness is there first, the gift is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he does not have.
- 13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: I do not mean that others should be eased and You burdened,
- 14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: but that there should be equality — that now at this time Your abundance may supply their lack, so that their abundance may also supply Your lack, that there may be equality.
- 15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. As it is written: "He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack."
- 16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you. But thanks be to God, Who put the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

Chapter 9

Paul encourages the Corinthians to give generously to the collection, teaching that he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. He declares that God loves a cheerful giver and is able to make all grace abound toward them, so that they always have sufficiency in all things.

| 1 | For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: | As concerning the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you, |
| 2 | For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. | for I know your eagerness, of which I boast to the Macedonians, saying that Achaia was ready a year ago — and your zeal has stirred up the majority of them. |
| 3 | Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: | Yet I have sent the brothers so that our boasting about you would not be in vain in this matter, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be. |
| 4 | Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. | Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we — not to say you — would be ashamed of this same confident boasting. |
| 5 | Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. | So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go ahead to you and arrange beforehand the bounty you had promised, so that it would be ready as a generous gift and not as a grudging one. |
| 6 | But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. | But this I say: he which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. |

- 11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. You will be enriched in everything for all generosity, which through us produces thanksgiving to God.
- 12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God.
- 13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; While by the proof of this ministry they glorify God for Your confessed obedience to the gospel of Christ, and for Your generous giving to them and to all men,
- 14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. and by their prayer for You, in which they long after You for the exceeding grace of God in You.
- 15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift. Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift!

Chapter 10

Paul defends his authority, declaring that though he walks in the flesh, he does not war after the flesh — the weapons of his warfare are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. He warns those who accuse him of being bold only in letters that when he comes in person, his actions will match his words.

- 11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. Let such a person consider this: what we are in word by letters when absent, such we will also be in deed when present.
- 12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. For we dare not class or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
- 13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but only according to the measure of the sphere which God has assigned to us — a measure that reaches even to You.
- 14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: For we are not stretching ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to You — for we did come as far as You with the gospel of Christ.

Paul warns that false apostles disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness, just as Satan transforms himself into an angel of light. He reluctantly boasts of his sufferings — beaten, stoned, shipwrecked, in perils on every side — to show that his credentials surpass those of the false teachers troubling Corinth.

| 4 | For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. | For if someone comes preaching another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if You receive another spirit, which You have not received, or another gospel, which You have not accepted — you bear with Him easily enough. |
| 5 | For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. | For I consider that I am in no way behind the very chiefest apostles. |
| 6 | But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things. | Even though I am untrained in speech, I am not so in knowledge — but in every way we have been thoroughly made known to You in all things. |
| 7 | Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? | Did I commit an offence by humbling myself so that You might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to You free of charge? |
| 8 | I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service. | I robbed other churches, taking wages from them, to serve You. |
| 9 | And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. | And when I was with You and in need, I was a burden to no one. For what I lacked, the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied. And in everything I have kept myself from being burdensome to You, and so will I continue to keep myself. |
| 10 | As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. | As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. |
| 11 | Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth. | Why? Because I do not love You? God knows I do. |

- 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. But what I am doing, I will continue to do, in order to cut off the opportunity from those who want one — so that in their boasting they may be found just as we are.
- 13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.
- 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. And no wonder — for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
- 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. It is no great thing, then, if his ministers also are transformed as ministers of righteousness — whose end shall be according to their works.
- 16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. I say again, let no man think me a fool. But if you do, then receive me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little.
- 17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. What I am saying, I do not say according to the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
- 18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. Since many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.
- 19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. For you suffer fools gladly, since you yourselves are so wise.
- 20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. For you put up with it if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man strikes you on the face.
- 21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. To my shame, I say that we were too weak for that! But in whatever anyone is bold — I speak foolishly — I am bold also.

- 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.
- 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool.) I am more so — in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more often, in deaths frequently.
- 24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. From the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one.
- 25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been adrift on the deep.
- 26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; I have been in journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils from my own countrymen, in perils from the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
- 27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
- 28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches. Besides all those outward things, there is what comes on me daily: the care of all the churches.
- 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not? Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is offended, and I do not burn with grief?
- 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. If I must boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weaknesses.

The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

■ NAME NOTE — Damascus (duh-MAS-kus) — The ancient capital of Syria, northeast of Galilee; one of the oldest continuously inhabited cities in the world. It was on the road to Damascus that Saul of Tarsus was confronted by the risen Christ and converted (Acts 9). Paul's escape from the city in a basket, told here, is also recorded in Acts 9:23–25.

■ NAME NOTE — Aretas (AIR-uh-tas) — Aretas IV, king of the Nabataean Arabs, whose territory bordered Damascus. He ruled from roughly 9 BC to AD 40. His daughter had been married to Herod Antipas before Herod divorced her for Herodias, sparking enmity between Aretas and the Herods. At this time Aretas held political control of Damascus, and his governor was hunting for Paul.

Paul tells of a man caught up to the third heaven who heard unspeakable words, and reveals that he was given a thorn in the flesh to keep him humble. The Lord told him, "My grace is sufficient for thee: for My strength is made perfect in weakness," and Paul declares that when he is weak, then he is strong.

■ WORD NOTE — Thorn in the flesh — A painful, persistent affliction. Paul does not say what his "thorn" was — it may have been a physical ailment, an opposition, or some other ongoing trouble. The lesson is not what the thorn was, but what it did: it kept Paul humble and made him lean wholly on the sufficient grace of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Reprobate (REH-pruh-bayt) — Failed, rejected, disqualified after testing. The Greek word was used of metal that did not pass the assay test. To be "reprobate" is to be exposed as counterfeit — a Christian whose claim to faith does not stand up under examination.

Galatians

Author: Paul the apostle — one of the most personally intense of his letters; he writes with urgency and at one point anger at a church he founded being led astray.

Date written: c. AD 48–49 (early date) or c. AD 53–55 (later date); possibly the earliest of Paul's letters if written before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15.

Written to: The churches of Galatia — a region in central Asia Minor (modern Turkey) where Paul had planted congregations on his first missionary journey.

Setting: After Paul left, Jewish-Christian teachers (Judaizers) entered the Galatian churches insisting that Gentile believers must be circumcised and keep the Mosaic law in addition to faith in Christ. Paul writes in alarm: this is not a minor adjustment but a different gospel entirely.

Where this sits historically: Written under Claudius (early date) or early Nero (later date), at the dawn of the Gentile mission and either just before or just after the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15 settled the question of circumcision.

Contemporaries: Peter, Barnabas, James the brother of the Lord, and Titus all appear in the letter's narrative, with the Jerusalem Council taking place around the same window.

Big themes:

- Justification by faith alone — the Judaizers are perverting the gospel; a man is not justified "by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ" (2:16)

- No other gospel — Paul pronounces a double curse on anyone who preaches a different gospel, even if an angel preaches it

- Freedom in Christ — believers are no longer under the law as a covenant of obligation; Christ has set them free

- The fruit of the Spirit — chapter 5 contrasts walking in the flesh with walking in the Spirit, listing the nine-fold fruit that the Spirit produces

- The cross — "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ" (6:14)

Key passages: Gal 1:8–9; 2:16; 2:20; 3:13; 5:22–23

How it fits: Galatians is Romans in miniature — compressed, urgent, and personal. Luther called it his "Katie von Bora" (his dear wife). It is the Magna Carta of Christian liberty, the clearest NT statement that salvation is by faith apart from works of law. Every time the church drifts toward works-righteousness, Galatians is the corrective.

Chapter 1

Paul marvels that the Galatians are so quickly turning to a different gospel and pronounces a curse on anyone who preaches another gospel than what they received. He defends his apostleship, declaring that the gospel he preaches came not from man but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

| 2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: | and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Paul uses grace as his opening word in every letter because it sums up the entire gospel — God gives freely, not because of anything we do, but because of who He is.

Chapter 2

Paul recounts going up to Jerusalem where the apostles added nothing to his gospel, and how he withstood Peter to his face at Antioch for withdrawing from the Gentiles. He declares that a man is not justified by the works of the law but by the faith of Jesus Christ, and that he is crucified with Christ — the life he now lives, he lives by the faith of the Son of God.

| 1 Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. | Then after fourteen years, I went up again to Jerusalem, this time with Barnabas. I took Titus along also. |

- 2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. I went in response to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I did this privately with those held in high esteem, for fear that I was running or had run my race in vain.
- 3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek.
- 4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: This matter arose because some false brothers had been secretly brought in. They crept in to spy out the freedom we have in Christ Jesus, wanting to bring us into slavery.
- 5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with You.
- 6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) they in conference added nothing to me: As for those who were held in high esteem — whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism — they added nothing to my message.
- 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; On the contrary, they recognized that I had been entrusted with the task of preaching the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised.
- 8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) For God Who worked through Peter as an apostle to the circumcised also worked through me as an apostle to the Gentiles.

- 9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision. James, Cephas, and John, those regarded as pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.
- 10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.
- 11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed. But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
- 12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself, fearing those of the circumcision group.
- 13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation. The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray.
- 14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all: "You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?"
- 15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, We who are Jews by birth and not sinful Gentiles

■ WORD NOTE — Justified (JUS-tih-fide) — declared not guilty by God; legally counted as righteous because of Christ. To be justified is not to be made morally perfect — it is to be declared innocent in God's courtroom. God counts Christ's perfect record as yours the moment you believe.

So we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law — because by works of the law no flesh will be justified. |
| 17 | But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid. | But if, in seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are also found to be sinners, does that mean Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not! |
| 18 | For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. | If I rebuild what I tore down, I prove that I am a transgressor. |
| 19 | For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. | For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. |
| 20 | I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. | I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body I live by faith in the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself for me. |
| 21 | I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. | I do not set aside the grace of God. For if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing! |

Paul rebukes the foolish Galatians, asking whether they received the Spirit by the works of the law or by the hearing of faith. He argues that the law was a schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that the promise to Abraham came through faith, and that in Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek, bond nor free, male nor female — all are one in Christ Jesus.

- | | |

| 1 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? | O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched You, that You should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been clearly set forth, crucified among You? |
| 2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? | I would like to learn just one thing from You: Did You receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by believing what You heard? |
| 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? | Are You so foolish? After beginning by means of the Spirit, are You now trying to finish by means of the flesh? |
| 4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain. | Have You experienced so much in vain — if it really was in vain? |
| 5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? | So again I ask: does God give You His Spirit and work miracles among You by the works of the law, or by Your believing what You heard? |
| 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. | So also: "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to Him for righteousness." |
| 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. | Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham. |
| 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. | Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: "All nations will be blessed through you." |
| 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. | So those who rely on faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith. |

- 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse, as it is written: "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law."
- 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. Clearly no one who relies on the law is justified before God, because "the righteous will live by faith."
- 12 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, it says, "The person who does these things will live by them."
- 13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us — for it is written: "Cursed is every one that hangs on a tree."
- 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. A covenant is stronger than a contract — it is an unbreakable vow. Paul's point here is that God's covenant with Abraham cannot be cancelled by the law that came 430 years later.

- 15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Brothers and sisters, let me take an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or add to a human covenant that has been duly established, so it is in this case.
- 16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. Scripture does not say "and to seeds," meaning many people, but "and to Your seed," meaning one person, who is Christ.

- 17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. What I mean is this: the law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise.
- 18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on the promise. But God in His grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (tranz-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. It is stronger than just "doing wrong" — it means you knew where the boundary was and stepped over it deliberately. The law made Israel's transgressions plain and visible.

- 19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was given through angels and entrusted to a mediator.
- 20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. A mediator, however, implies more than one party; but God is one.
- 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Not at all! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.
- 22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But Scripture has shut up everyone under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

| 23 | But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. | Before this faith came, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. |
| 24 | Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. | Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. |
| 25 | But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. | But after faith has come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. |
| 26 | For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. | You are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. |
| 27 | For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. | For all of You who were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. |
| 28 | There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. | There is neither Jew nor Greek, neither slave nor free, neither male nor female, for You are all one in Christ Jesus. |
| 29 | And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. | If You belong to Christ, then You are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise. |

Chapter 4

Paul explains that before faith came, we were kept under the law like children under tutors, but when the fulness of time came, God sent forth His Son to redeem those under the law so they might receive the adoption of sons. He uses the allegory of Sarah and Hagar to illustrate the difference between the bondage of the law and the freedom of the promise.

- 2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. He is subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by his father.
- 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: So also, when we were children, we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world.
- 4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,
- 5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption as sons.
- 6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Because You are His sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, the Spirit Who calls out, "Abba, Father."
- 7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. Therefore You are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
- 8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods. Formerly, when You did not know God, You were enslaved to those who by nature are not gods.
- 9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? But now that You know God — or rather are known by God — how is it that You are turning back to those weak and miserable forces? Do You wish to be enslaved by them all over again?
- 10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. You are observing special days, months, seasons, and years.
- 11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. I fear for You, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on You.
- 12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. I plead with You, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like You. You did me no wrong.

- 13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. As You know, it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to You.
- 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. And my temptation which was in my flesh You did not despise or reject; but You received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
- 15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Where, then, is Your blessing? I can testify that, if You could have done so, You would have torn out Your eyes and given them to me.
- 16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Have I now become Your enemy by telling You the truth?
- 17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. Those people are zealous to win You over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate You from us, so that You may have zeal for them.
- 18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you. It is good to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always and not only when I am with You.
- 19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, My dear children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in You—
- 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you. how I wish I could be with You now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about You!
- 21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? Tell me, You who want to be under the law, are You not aware of what the law says?
- 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman.

- 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a divine promise.
- 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. These things are being taken figuratively: the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves — this is Hagar.
- 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that now is, and is in bondage with her children.
- 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.
- 27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. For it is written: "Rejoice, you who are childless. Break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor. For the desolate woman has more children than she who has a husband."
- 28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise.
- 29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now.
- 30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman."
- 31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free. Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Chapter 5

Paul urges the Galatians to stand fast in the liberty of Christ and not to submit again to the yoke of bondage, warning that if they are circumcised as a requirement for salvation, Christ profits them nothing. He contrasts the works of the flesh — fornication, idolatry, hatred, and the like — with the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. | It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery. |
| 2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. | Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to You at all. |
| 3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. | Again I testify to every man who is circumcised that he is a debtor to do the whole law. |
| 4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. | You who are trying to be justified by the law have been alienated from Christ; You have fallen away from grace. |
| 5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. | For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope. |
| 6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. | For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love. |
| 7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? | You were running a good race. Who cut in on You to keep You from obeying the truth? |
| 8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. | That kind of persuasion does not come from the One who calls you. |
| 9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. | A little leaven leavens the whole lump. |

- 10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. I am confident in the Lord that You will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion will have to pay the penalty, whoever he may be.
- 11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished.
- 12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you. As for those who are disturbing You, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!
- 13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use Your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love.
- 14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love Your neighbor as Yourself."
- 15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another. If You keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or You will be destroyed by each other.
- 16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. So I say, walk by the Spirit, and You will not gratify the desires of the flesh.
- 17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are in conflict with each other, so that You are not to do whatever You want.
- 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law. But if You are led by the Spirit, You are not under the law.

|----|--|--|
| 19 | Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, | The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, and debauchery; |
| 20 | Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, | idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions; |
| 21 | Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. | and envy, murders, drunkenness, carousing, and the like. I warn You, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. It is one of the nine fruits of the Spirit listed here. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is the strength to keep loving when you have every reason to give up.

Chapter 6

Paul instructs believers to restore the fallen in meekness, to bear one another's burdens, and to do good to all men especially those of the household of faith. He warns not to be deceived — God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap — and closes by declaring that neither circumcision nor uncircumcision matters, but a new creature in Christ.

- | | |

| 1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. | Brothers, if a man is overtaken in a fault, you who are spiritual should restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering Yourself, lest You also be tempted. |
| 2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. | Carry each other's burdens, and in this way You will fulfill the law of Christ. |
| 3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. | If anyone thinks he is something when he is not, he deceives Himself. |
| 4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. | Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take pride in Himself alone, without comparing Himself to someone else. |
| 5 For every man shall bear his own burden. | For each one should carry his own load. |
| 6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. | Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. |

| 8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. | Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction. Whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. |
| 9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. | Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. Paul closes with this blessing — peace and mercy — as a summary of what God gives to all who walk by the rule of the gospel.

Ephesians

Author: Paul the apostle — a prisoner at the time of writing (3:1, 4:1, 6:20); one of the four "Prison Epistles" written during his Roman imprisonment.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Rome during Paul's first imprisonment.

Written to: The church at Ephesus, and possibly circulated to neighboring churches in Asia Minor.

Setting: Paul spent three years in Ephesus (Acts 19–20), his longest stay in any city. The church there was mature and well-taught. Writing from prison, Paul composes what many consider his most exalted letter — elevated in tone, sweeping in scope, almost entirely without personal corrections.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, while the apostle awaited trial in chains and Burrus or Tigellinus served as Praetorian Prefect.

Contemporaries: Tychicus carried this letter alongside Colossians and Philemon, while Luke, Timothy, Aristarchus, and Epaphras were with Paul in Rome and Peter ministered in the eastern provinces.

Big themes:

- Election and grace — God chose believers in Christ before the foundation of the world; salvation begins in eternity past with the Father's sovereign choice
- The church as the body of Christ — Ephesians contains the NT's richest ecclesiology; the church is Christ's body, His bride, His temple, and the fullness of Him who fills all in all
- Jew and Gentile united — the "middle wall of partition" between Jew and Gentile has been broken down; in Christ there is one new man
- Walking worthy — chapters 4–6 apply the theological foundation of chapters 1–3; knowing who you are in Christ determines how you live
- Spiritual warfare — the full armour of God (6:10–18) is needed because believers fight not against flesh and blood but against spiritual powers

Key passages: Eph 1:4–5; 2:8–9; 2:14; 4:4–6; 6:10–11

How it fits: Ephesians is the high-water mark of NT ecclesiology. It is the companion letter to Colossians, written at the same time and delivered by the same messenger. Where Romans answers "How is a man saved?", Ephesians answers "What has God made of those who are saved?" Together they are Paul's masterwork.

Chapter 1

Paul blesses God for choosing believers in Christ before the foundation of the world and predestinating them to the adoption of children according to the good pleasure of His will. He prays that the Ephesians would know the hope of their calling, the riches of God's inheritance in the saints, and the exceeding greatness of His power toward those who believe.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Ephesians is perhaps the deepest explanation of grace in all of Paul's letters. He will show that salvation, adoption, redemption, and eternal life all come purely by grace — not by anything we do.

- | | |

| 2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. | Grace and peace to You from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: | Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. |
| 4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: | For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight in love. |
| 5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, | He predestined us for adoption as His sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with His pleasure and will— |
| 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. | to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He has made us accepted in the beloved. |

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (rih-DEM-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. In the ancient world, a slave could be redeemed when someone paid the price to free them. Christ paid the price — His own blood — to redeem us from the slavery of sin and death.

| 10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: | to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment — to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. |
| 11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: | In Him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of Him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of His will, |
| 12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. | so that we, who were the first to put our hope in Christ, might be to the praise of His glory. |

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the old English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost seals every believer at the moment of salvation — He is God's mark of ownership, the guarantee that you belong to Him forever.

Chapter 2

Paul teaches that believers were dead in trespasses and sins but God, who is rich in mercy, quickened them together with Christ — by grace they are saved through faith, and that not of themselves, it is the gift of God, not of works. He declares that Christ has broken down the wall of partition between Jew and Gentile, making of the two one new man in Himself.

■ WORD NOTE — Quickened (KWIK-end) — made alive; spiritually brought from death to life by God. This is not physical resurrection — it is the moment God breathes new spiritual life into someone who was dead in sin. Only God can do this; no one can quicken themselves.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (tranz-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. It is stronger than just "doing wrong" — it means stepping deliberately over a known boundary. Paul pairs it with "sins" to show the full depth of human guilt before God.

- | | | |
| 1 | And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; | God quickened You — you who were dead in Your transgressions and sins, |
| 2 | Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: | in which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience. |
| 3 | Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. | Among whom we all also had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God's mercy means He withholds the wrath we have earned. Ephesians 2 is one of the greatest mercy passages in the Bible — we were dead, deserving wrath, and God responded with mercy and love.

- | | | |
|---|---|--|

| 5 | Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) | even when we were dead in sins, He quickened us together with Christ — it is by grace You have been saved. |

|--|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. The Gentiles had been strangers to God's covenants — the promises made to Abraham, Moses, and David. Through Christ, they are now brought inside those promises.

Chapter 3

Paul reveals the mystery hidden from past ages: that the Gentiles are fellow heirs with Israel, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. He prays that the Ephesians would be strengthened with might by the Spirit in the inner man and would know the love of Christ which passes knowledge.

Chapter 4

Paul urges believers to walk worthy of their calling with humility, gentleness, and longsuffering, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit. He teaches that Christ gave apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers to build up the body until all come to the unity of the faith, and instructs them to put off the old man and put on the new man created in righteousness and true holiness.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. It is one of the core virtues Paul lists for the Christian walk. Longsuffering does not just endure — it endures without becoming bitter or harsh.

Chapter 5

Paul instructs believers to walk in love as Christ loved us and gave Himself for us, to have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, and to walk circumspectly, redeeming the time. He teaches on marriage, declaring that husbands are to love their wives as Christ loved the church and gave Himself for it, and that this is a great mystery concerning Christ and the church.

| 1 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; | Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children |
| 2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. | and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. |
| 3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints; | But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among You, as is fitting for saints, |
| 4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. | Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not fitting, but rather the giving of thanks. |
| 5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. | For this You know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. |
| 6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. | Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God's wrath comes on those who are disobedient. |
| 7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them. | Therefore do not be partners with them. |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: | For You were once darkness, but now You are light in the Lord. Live as children of light |
| 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) | (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, righteousness, and truth) |
| 10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. | and find out what pleases the Lord. |
| 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. | Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. |
| 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. | It is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. |
| 13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. | But everything exposed by the light becomes visible — and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. |
| 14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. | This is why it is said: "Wake up, sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on You." |
| 15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, | Be very careful, then, how You live — not as unwise but as wise, |
| 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. | making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. |
| 17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. | Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. |
| 18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; | Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to reckless behavior. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; | speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from Your heart to the Lord, |
| 20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; | always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. |
| 21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. | Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. |
| 22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. | Wives, submit yourselves to Your own husbands as You do to the Lord. |
| 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. | For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, His body, of which He is the Savior. |
| 24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. | Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. |
| 25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; | Husbands, love Your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her |

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctify (SANK-tih-fy) — to set apart as holy; to make clean and consecrated for God. Sanctification is the lifelong process of being made holy. Here Christ sanctifies the church — He sets her apart, cleanses her, and makes her fit to stand before God without spot or blemish.

He who loves his wife loves himself. After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church— For we are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones. "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh." This is a profound mystery — but I am talking about Christ and the church. However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves Himself, and the wife must respect her husband. |

Paul instructs children to obey their parents, fathers not to provoke their children, servants to obey their masters as unto Christ, and masters to treat their servants justly. He commands believers to put on the whole armour of God — the belt of truth, breastplate of righteousness, shield of faith, helmet of salvation, and sword of the Spirit — to stand against the wiles of the devil.

| 5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; | Servants, be obedient to those who are Your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ, |
| 6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; | Obey not only when they are watching — as those who want to please men — but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from Your heart. |
| 7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: | Serve wholeheartedly, as if You were serving the Lord, not people, |
| 8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. | because You know that the Lord will reward each one for whatever good he does, whether he is slave or free. |
| 9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. | And, You masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that Your Master also is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with Him. |
| 10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. | Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. |
| 11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. | Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. |

- 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.
- 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground. After you have done everything, stand.

- 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.
- 18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; Pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.
- 19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel,

Philippians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Timothy named as co-sender (1:1); one of the four Prison Epistles written during Paul's Roman imprisonment.

Date written: c. AD 61–62, from Rome.

Written to: The church at Philippi — the first church Paul planted in Europe (Acts 16), a congregation with whom he had a uniquely warm and trusting relationship.

Setting: Paul is in prison, facing a possible death sentence. The Philippians have sent a financial gift via Epaphroditus, who then became seriously ill. Paul writes to thank them, report on his situation, address minor tensions in the church, and warn against Judaizing teachers.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome late in Paul's first imprisonment under Nero, after Burrus's death (AD 62) when the climate for Christians in the empire was beginning to harden.

Contemporaries: Timothy and Epaphroditus were at Paul's side, while the prison letters Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon were composed in this same window.

Big themes:

- Joy — "rejoice" and "joy" appear sixteen times in four chapters; this is the most joyful of Paul's letters, written from a prison cell

- The mind of Christ — the great Christ-hymn of 2:5–11 is the NT's fullest statement of the incarnation; Christ, though equal to God, took the form of a servant and humbled Himself to the cross

- Contentment — Paul has learned "in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content" (4:11); contentment is not a personality trait but a learned discipline

- Partnership in the gospel — the Philippians are Paul's ministry partners; he uses the language of business partnership (koinonia) to describe their shared investment in the gospel

- Pressing toward the mark — the Christian life is an active, forward-straining pursuit of knowing Christ and attaining the resurrection

Key passages: Phil 1:21; 2:5–8; 3:10; 4:7; 4:11–13

How it fits: Philippians is the most personal of Paul's congregational letters. Written in chains, it is the NT's proof that joy is not circumstantial. Chapter 2's Christ-hymn is one of the most studied Christological passages in the NT, and 4:6–7 on prayer and peace has comforted the church in every generation since.

Chapter 1

Paul thanks God for the Philippians' partnership in the gospel and prays that their love would abound more and more in knowledge. He declares that his imprisonment has served to advance the gospel, and that for him to live is Christ and to die is gain, though he remains confident that he will stay and continue with them for their joy and progress in the faith.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift you could never earn or deserve. Paul writes Philippians from prison, yet the letter is full of joy. That joy is rooted in grace — the certainty that God's favor rests on His people not because of what they do but because of what Christ has done.

| 6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: | being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. |
| 7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. | It is right for me to feel this way about all of You, since I have You in my heart. - 8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. For God is my witness, how greatly I long for You all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.
- 9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; And this is my prayer: that Your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,
- 10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; so that You may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,
- 11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ — to the glory and praise of God.
- 12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; Now I want You to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually served to advance the gospel.
- 13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.
- 14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. And because of my chains, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord and dare all the more to proclaim the gospel without fear.
- 15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.
- 16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.

- 17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.
- 18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,
- 19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, for I know that through Your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.
- 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.
- 21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.
- 22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!
- 23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far;
- 24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. but it is more necessary for You that I remain in the body.
- 25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of You for Your progress and joy in the faith,

- 26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. so that through my being with You again Your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.
- 27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see You or only hear about You in my absence, I will know that You stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel
- 28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. without being frightened in any way by those who oppose You. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that You will be saved — and that by God.
- 29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; For it has been granted to You on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him,
- 30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me. since You are going through the same struggle You saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Paul urges the Philippians to be like-minded, esteeming others better than themselves, and points to Christ, who though He was in the form of God made Himself of no reputation, took the form of a servant, humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death — even the death of the cross. He instructs them to work out their own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in them both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

- 1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, Therefore if You have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from His love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion,

- 12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. Therefore, my dear friends, as You have always obeyed — not only in my presence but now much more in my absence — continue to work out Your salvation with fear and trembling,
- 13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. for it is God Who works in You to will and to act in order to fulfill His good purpose.
- 14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings: Do everything without grumbling or arguing,
- 15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; so that You may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation. Then You will shine among them like stars in the sky
- 16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain. as You hold firmly to the word of life. This will enable me to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.
- 17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from Your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of You.
- 18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me. So You too should be glad and rejoice with me.
- 19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about You.
- 20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. I have no one else like him who will genuinely care for your welfare.
- 21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

| 22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel. 23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me. 24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly. 25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants. 26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick. | But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel. I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon. But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs. For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Here Paul uses it in a broader sense: God's compassion shown to Epaphroditus in sparing his life. Mercy is not only judicial — it also describes every moment God tenderly holds back suffering from those He loves.

Chapter 3

Paul warns against those who put confidence in the flesh, listing his own impressive credentials as a Hebrew of the Hebrews and a Pharisee, but counting all things loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus his Lord. He presses toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, and declares that our citizenship is in heaven.

Chapter 4

Paul urges the Philippians to rejoice in the Lord always and to be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving to let their requests be made known to God. He teaches them to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, and lovely, and declares that he can do all things through Christ who strengthens him.

Colossians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Timothy named as co-sender (1:1); one of the four Prison Epistles.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Rome, delivered by Tychicus along with Ephesians and the letter to Philemon.

Written to: The church at Colossae — a congregation in the Lycus Valley of Asia Minor that Paul had not personally founded; it was planted by Epaphras (1:7).

Setting: A "Colossian heresy" has emerged — a syncretistic teaching combining Jewish elements (circumcision, food laws, calendar observance) with angel worship and mystical "philosophy." It amounts to adding requirements to Christ for full spiritual experience. Paul's response is to lift Christ higher.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, just years after a devastating earthquake (AD 60) had struck the Lycus Valley cities of Colossae, Laodicea, and Hierapolis.

Contemporaries: Epaphras, Tychicus, Onesimus, Aristarchus, Luke, and Mark were all with Paul as he wrote, and Ephesians and Philemon were carried alongside this letter.

Big themes:

- The supremacy of Christ — the great Christ-hymn of 1:15–20 is the most exalted statement of Christ's pre-eminence in the NT; He is before all things, the firstborn of all creation, and in Him all things hold together

- Complete in Christ — believers are "complete in him" (2:10); nothing needs to be added to Christ for full standing before God

- The new life in Christ — chapters 3–4 move from doctrine to practice; the old self is put off, the new self put on, and all of life is done "in the name of the Lord Jesus"

- False philosophy — "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit" (2:8); the Colossian error is the template for every subsequent attempt to supplement the gospel

- The mystery revealed — the gospel hidden for ages is now made known: "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (1:27)

Key passages: Col 1:15–18; 1:27; 2:8–10; 3:1–3; 3:17

How it fits: Colossians is the companion letter to Ephesians — both written at the same time, delivered by the same messenger, addressing similar themes. Where Ephesians focuses on the church as Christ's body, Colossians focuses on Christ as the head of that body. The TR reading of 1:14 — "redemption through his blood" — grounds the letter's soteriology in the atonement.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the Colossians' faith and prays that they would be filled with the knowledge of God's will. He declares the supremacy of Christ — the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature, by whom all things were created — and that in Him all fulness dwells, and through His blood He has reconciled all things to Himself.

- 1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,
- Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- To God's holy people in Colosse, the faithful brothers and sisters in Christ: grace and peace to You from God our Father.

We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
- We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for You,

Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
- because we have heard of Your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love You have for all God's people—
- 5

For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
- the hope stored up for You in heaven and about which You have already heard in the true message of the gospel

Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
- that has come to You. In the same way, the gospel is bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world — just as it has been doing among You since the day You heard it and truly understood God's grace.
- 7

As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
- You learned it from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf,

| 8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit. | and who also told us of Your love in the Spirit. |
| 9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; | For this reason, since the day we heard about You, we have not stopped praying for You. We continually ask God to fill You with the knowledge of His will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives, |
| 10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; | so that You may live a life worthy of the Lord and please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, |

- | | |
|--|---|
| 11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; | being strengthened with all power according to His glorious might so that You may have great endurance and longsuffering, and giving joyful thanks to the Father, |
| 12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: | who has qualified You to share in the inheritance of His holy people in the kingdom of light. |
| 13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: | For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son He loves, |

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (reh-DEMP-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. In the ancient world, a slave could be redeemed — bought out of bondage. Christ redeemed us from sin's slavery by paying with His own blood. We were bought back at infinite cost.

| 29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily. | To this end I strenuously contend with all the energy Christ so powerfully works in me. |

Chapter 2

Paul warns against being deceived by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, and declares that in Christ dwells all the fulness of the godhead bodily. He teaches that believers are complete in Christ, that the handwriting of ordinances against them was nailed to the cross, and that no man should judge them in matters of food, drink, holy days, or sabbaths.

| 8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. | See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ. |

- 9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. For in Christ all the fullness of the Godhead lives in bodily form,

■ WORD NOTE — Godhead (GOD-hed) — the divine nature of God; the Trinity considered as one being. Paul says the entire Godhead — Father, Son, and Holy Ghost — fully dwells in bodily form in Jesus Christ. This is a key verse on Christ's full divinity.

Cross-References:

- 10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: and in Christ You have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every power and authority.
- 11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: In Him also You were circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ,
- 12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. having been buried with Him in baptism, in which You were also raised with Him through Your faith in the working of God, Who raised Him from the dead.
- 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; When You were dead in Your sins and in the uncircumcision of Your flesh, God made You alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins,
- 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us. He has taken it away, nailing it to the cross.
- 15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

- 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration, or a Sabbath day.
- 17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.
- 18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify You. Such a person also goes into great detail about what they have seen; they are puffed up with idle notions by their unspiritual mind.
- 19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. They have lost connection with the head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.
- 20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, Since You died with Christ to the elemental spiritual forces of this world, why, as though You still belonged to the world, do You submit to its rules:
- 21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not; "Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!"?
- 22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men? These rules, which have to do with things that all perish with use, are based on merely human commands and teachings.
- 23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh. Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom with their self-imposed worship, their false humility, and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Chapter 3

Paul instructs believers to set their affection on things above, to put to death the earthly members — fornication, uncleanness, evil desire, and covetousness — and to put on the new man renewed in knowledge after the image of Him who created him. He gives instructions for husbands and wives, parents and children, and servants and masters, teaching that whatever they do, they should do it heartily as to the Lord.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. | Since, then, You have been raised with Christ, set Your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. |
| 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. | Set Your minds on things above, not on earthly things. |
| 3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. | For You died, and Your life is now hidden with Christ in God. |
| 4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. | When Christ, Who is Your life, appears, then You also will appear with Him in glory. |
| 5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: | Mortify therefore Your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry. |
| 6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: | Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. |

| 8 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. | But now You also put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of Your mouth. |

Paul instructs masters to treat their servants justly and urges the church to continue in prayer, to walk in wisdom toward outsiders, and to let their speech be always with grace seasoned with salt. He sends personal greetings from his companions, including Luke the beloved physician, and instructs the Colossians to exchange letters with the church at Laodicea.

1 Thessalonians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) and Timothy joining in the greeting (1:1). The letter is consistently in the first-person plural — Paul writes as part of a missionary team.

Date written: c. AD 50–51, from Corinth on Paul's second missionary journey. It is one of the earliest books of the New Testament — only Galatians and James may predate it.

Written to: The young church at Thessalonica, capital of the Roman province of Macedonia (modern Thessaloniki). Paul had only been there a few weeks (Acts 17:1–9) before being driven out by hostile Jews. He had been worried about whether the new converts would survive the persecution that followed.

Setting: Paul, separated from the Thessalonians, had sent Timothy back to check on them (3:1–2). Timothy returned to him at Corinth with good news of their continued faith. Paul writes this letter both to commend their endurance under persecution and to answer pastoral questions they had raised: (1) What happens to fellow believers who have died — will they miss the Lord's coming? (2) When will Christ return? (3) How should the church live in the meantime?

Where this sits historically: Written from Corinth under Claudius, around the same time Gallio served as proconsul of Achaia (Acts 18) — one of the earliest NT books, roughly twenty years after the resurrection.

Contemporaries: Silas and Timothy were Paul's coworkers at Corinth as the letter was sent, and 2 Thessalonians and possibly Galatians and James were composed in the same general window.

Big themes:

- The church's faith, love, and patient hope under persecution
- Paul's pastoral heart — his "absent in body, present in spirit" affection for them
- Sexual purity in the middle of a pagan culture
- Brotherly love and quiet, diligent work
- The Lord's return — the dead in Christ raised first, then those still alive caught up to meet Him in the air
- The day of the Lord, coming like a thief in the night
- Preparation through holy living
- The trinitarian benediction (5:23)
- The rapid-fire closing imperatives (5:16–22)

Key passages: 1 Thess 1:9–10 (turned to God from idols); 4:13–18 (the rapture passage); 5:1–11 (the day of the Lord); 5:16–22 (rapid imperatives); 5:23 (sanctification benediction).

How it fits: 1 Thessalonians is one of the earliest NT books and the first major NT passage on the rapture and the resurrection of the saints. Together with 2 Thessalonians, it forms the earliest sustained NT teaching on the last things. The closing imperatives in 5:16–22 — "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing." — are among the most quoted verses for daily Christian living.

> ■ NAME NOTE — Paul (PAWL) — "small, little" — Formerly Saul of Tarsus; a Pharisee who persecuted the church before Christ met him on the road to Damascus (Acts 9). Now an apostle to the Gentiles. He founded the Thessalonian church on his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–9).

> ■ NAME NOTE — Thessalonica (thes-uh-loh-NY-kuh) — Capital of the Roman province of Macedonia and a major seaport on the Via Egnatia. Paul preached here for only a few weeks before a Jewish mob drove him out (Acts 17:1–9). The young church he left behind is the recipient of this letter.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the Thessalonians, remembering their work of faith, labour of love, and patience of hope in the Lord Jesus Christ. He recalls how the gospel came to them not in word only but also in power and in the Holy Ghost, and how they turned from idols to serve the living and true God and to wait for His Son from heaven.

- 1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, From Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy — unto the church of the Thessalonians to the church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father and in the which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, Lord Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to and peace, from God our Father, and You from God our Father and the Lord
the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ.

■ NAME NOTE — Silvanus (sil-VAY-nus) — also called Silas in Acts — A leading member of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:22) chosen by Paul as his partner on the second missionary journey. He was with Paul in Thessalonica when this church was founded. KJV uses the Latin form Silvanus in the epistles; modern translations and Acts use Silas.

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-oh-thee) — also Timotheus in KJV — "honoring God" — Paul's young protégé from Lystra (Acts 16:1–3), son of a Jewish mother and a Greek father. Paul sent Timothy back to Thessalonica to check on the church under persecution (3:1–6); his good report is the immediate occasion for this letter. KJV uses the Greek form Timotheus; the modern column uses the universally-known Timothy.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Brethren (BREH-thren) — KJV's plural for "brothers" in the church family. In the New Testament it regularly means "fellow believers" of both sexes — not only men. The modern column keeps the KJV word brethren because of how heavily it is used in Paul's letters; read it as "brothers and sisters in Christ."

We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

We always thank God for You all, mentioning You in our prayers,

Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; constantly remembering before our God and Father Your work that flows from faith, Your labor that flows from love, and Your patient endurance that flows from hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

We know, brethren loved by God, that He has chosen You.
- 5

For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

Our gospel did not come to You in word only, but also in power, in the Holy Ghost, and with deep conviction. You know the kind of men we were among You for Your sake.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a force or an influence — He is a Person, fully God, who dwells in every believer and gives power for life and witness.

And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

And You became followers of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Ghost,
- 7

So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

so that You became examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

■ NAME NOTE — Macedonia (mas-eh-DOH-nee-uh) — The Roman province covering northern Greece. Paul received a vision of a Macedonian man calling for help (Acts 16:9), and through that vision the gospel first entered Europe. Its leading cities were Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea.

■ NAME NOTE — Achaia (uh-KAY-uh) — The Roman province covering southern Greece, including Corinth and Athens. Together, Macedonia and Achaia made up the whole of Greek territory under Rome. The Thessalonians' faith had become famous in both provinces.

Paul reminds the Thessalonians that he and his companions were bold to speak the gospel amid much opposition, never using flattery or seeking glory from men. He recalls how he was gentle among them as a nursing mother cherishes her children, and how the Thessalonians received the word not as the word of men but as the word of God, which effectually works in those who believe.

- 2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention. Though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God in the face of strong opposition.
- 3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: For our appeal was not made out of deceit, or uncleanness, or trickery.
- 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts. But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak — not to please men, but God, Who tests our hearts.
- 5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness: For we never used flattering words, as you know, nor any cover-up for greed — God is our witness.
- 6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. Nor did we seek glory from men — not from You, nor from anyone else — though as apostles of Christ we could have made demands of You.
- 7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: Instead, we were gentle among You, like a nursing mother caring for her own children.
- 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. Because we loved You so dearly, we were delighted to share with You not only the gospel of God, but our own lives as well, because You had become dear to us.
- 9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. For You remember, brethren, our labor and toil. We worked night and day so that we would not be a burden to any of You while we preached the gospel of God to You.

- 10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe: You are witnesses, and God is also, how holy, just, and blameless our conduct was among You who believe —
- 11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, just as You know how, like a father with His own children, we exhorted, comforted, and charged every one of you,
- 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory. that You would walk worthy of God, Who has called You into His own kingdom and glory.
- 13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe. For this reason we also thank God without ceasing: when You received the word of God which You heard from us, You welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it truly is — the word of God, which is at work in You who believe.
- 14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: For You, brethren, became followers of the churches of God in Judaea that are in Christ Jesus. You have suffered the same things from Your own countrymen that they have suffered from the Jews —
- 15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men: the Jews who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and have driven us out. They do not please God, and they are hostile to all men,
- 16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles so that they might be saved. So they keep filling up the measure of their sins; but the wrath has come upon them at last.

But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
- But we, brethren, having been torn away from You for a short time — in presence, not in heart — were all the more eager and full of desire to see Your face again.
- 18

Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
- Therefore we wanted to come to you — I, Paul, again and again — but Satan hindered us.

■ NAME NOTE — Satan (SAY-tun) — "adversary" — The chief fallen angel; the deceiver and accuser of God's people, the personal enemy of God and of the saints. Here Paul attributes the obstacles to his return to Satan's direct opposition. Scripture treats Satan as a real and active person, not a symbol — but always already defeated by Christ.

Paul urges the Thessalonians to abstain from fornication, to live quietly, work with their own hands, and walk honestly toward those outside. ■ WORD NOTE — *Trump of God (TRUMP) — KJV's word for "trumpet." At Christ's coming a great trumpet blast announces His return and signals the resurrection of the dead in Christ. The "trump of God" is no human horn — it is heaven's own summons, sounded by God Himself, gathering His people to Himself at the last day.

Chapter 5

Paul warns that the day of the Lord comes as a thief in the night, bringing sudden destruction on those who say "peace and safety," but believers are children of the light and should watch and be sober. He gives final instructions: rejoice evermore, pray without ceasing, give thanks in everything, quench not the Spirit, prove all things, and hold fast that which is good.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, You have no need that anything be written to You.

For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

For You yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.
- 3

For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

When they shall say, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes upon them, like labor pains upon a woman with child — and they shall not escape.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

But You, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake You like a thief.

Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

You are all children of light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness.

Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

Therefore let us not sleep as others do, but let us watch and be sober.
- 7

For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.

■ WORD NOTE — *The Day of the Lord (DAY) — A great Bible phrase running from Joel through Revelation. It is the day when God acts in final judgment on the wicked and final salvation for His people. In the OT it is "the Day of the LORD" — the day Jehovah comes. In the NT, the day of the Lord comes through the return of Christ. The phrase covers both the judgment and the deliverance — wrath for the world, salvation for the saints.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is more than ordinary patience — it is the steady refusal to grow bitter or to repay wrong with wrong, even when one is wronged again and again. KJV uses this word of God Himself (Ex 34:6; Rom 2:4) and commands it of believers toward each other.

2 Thessalonians

Author: Paul the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) and Timotheus (Timothy) joining him in the opening greeting (1:1). At the close, Paul writes the final salutation "with mine own hand" (3:17) as the authenticating mark of every genuine letter from him — almost certainly because a forged letter claiming to be from Paul had reached the Thessalonians (2:2).

Date written: c. AD 51–52, from Corinth, only a few months after 1 Thessalonians. Paul is still on the second missionary journey.

Written to: The church at Thessalonica, a leading city of Macedonia. Paul had evangelized there only briefly on his second missionary journey (Acts 17:1–9) before being driven out by hostile Jews. The young church had remained dear to him, and 1 Thessalonians had been written to comfort them about loved ones who had died and to teach them about the Lord's return.

Setting: After 1 Thessalonians, the situation in Thessalonica had grown worse rather than better. False teaching — possibly carried by a forged letter pretending to come from Paul — was now claiming that "the day of Christ is at hand," meaning it had already arrived. The Thessalonians were unsettled and shaken. Worse, some had stopped working entirely; they were living as busybodies on the church's charity, expecting Christ at any moment. Paul writes to correct the error and to issue a sharp command: the day of Christ cannot come until certain events first take place — a great falling away, and the revelation of the man of sin — and meanwhile every brother must work for his own bread.

Where this sits historically: Written from Corinth in the late reign of Claudius, only months after 1 Thessalonians and just before Nero's accession in AD 54.

Contemporaries: Silas and Timothy were still with Paul at Corinth, and the recently written 1 Thessalonians was already circulating among the Macedonian churches.

Big themes: the persecuted church will be vindicated when Christ returns in flaming fire to take vengeance on its enemies; the day of Christ has NOT already come; a great falling away (apostasy) must precede that day; the man of sin — the son of perdition — must be revealed before Christ comes; the Lord will consume that Wicked one with the spirit of His mouth and destroy him with the brightness of His coming; God has from the beginning chosen His people to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit; the duty of orderly work; church discipline for the disorderly.

Key passages: 2 Thess 1:7–10 (the revelation of Christ in flaming fire); 2:1–12 (the man of sin); 2:13–17 (chosen to salvation through sanctification); 3:10–13 (the command to work).

How it fits: 2 Thessalonians is the chief NT text on the man of sin / son of perdition / the "Wicked one" whom Christ will destroy at His coming. Together with 1 Thessalonians, it forms the earliest extensive NT teaching on the second coming. It also gives the most concrete NT principle for church-level economic ethics: "If any would not work, neither should he eat." Both halves of the letter — the prophecy of the man of sin and the command to work — flow from the same pastoral concern: the day of Christ has not yet come, so the church must keep its feet on the ground and its hands at the plow.

Chapter 1

Paul gives thanks for the growing faith and love of the Thessalonians amid persecution, and assures them that God will repay with tribulation those who trouble them. He declares that the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, taking vengeance on those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel.

■ NAME NOTE — Silvanus (sil-VAY-nus), also called Silas (SY-las) — A leading man among the brethren at Jerusalem (Acts 15:22) and Paul's chief companion on the second missionary journey (Acts 15:40 onward). The Modern column uses the shorter, more common name "Silas," which is how he is named in Acts; "Silvanus" is the Latin form used by Paul in his letters.

■ NAME NOTE — Timotheus (tih-MOH-thee-us), better known as Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — Paul's young protégé from Lystra; the son of a Greek father and a believing Jewish mother (Acts 16:1). The Modern column uses the universally known Anglicized form "Timothy." Paul calls him "my own son in the faith" (1 Tim 1:2) and writes him two of the Pastoral Epistles.

- 2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God Grace and peace to You from God our our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

- 3 We are bound to thank God always We are bound to thank God always for

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — Love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

Chapter 2

Paul urges the Thessalonians not to be troubled by claims that the day of Christ has already come, for that day will not come unless there is a falling away first and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who exalts himself above all that is called God. He reminds them that the mystery of iniquity is already at work, but the Lord shall consume the wicked one with the spirit of His mouth at His coming.

|--|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Perdition (per-DISH-un) — Eternal ruin and destruction; the final, conscious loss of all things in the judgment of God. "The son of perdition" is a Hebrew-style title meaning "the one who belongs to perdition, who is destined for it." Christ uses the same phrase of Judas in John 17:12.

■ WORD NOTE — That man of sin / the son of perdition — A specific, future, individual figure prophesied here by Paul. He is the same person John calls "the antichrist" (1 John 2:18; 4:3) and "the beast" (Revelation 13). He will oppose and exalt himself above every god, sit in the temple of God, and proclaim himself to be God (v4). His coming is empowered by Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders (v9). He is destroyed by Christ at His second coming (v8). The KJV does NOT call him "the man of lawlessness" (which is the NIV/ESV reading from a different Greek text); the Textus Receptus reads "the man of sin," and the Modern column preserves that.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. The "mystery of iniquity" is the hidden working of lawlessness in the world, already at work in Paul's day, which will one day come into the open in the person of the man of sin.

■ WORD NOTE — Sanctification (SANK-tih-fih-KAY-shun) — Being made holy; the lifelong process of being set apart for God. Sanctification is the Spirit's work in the believer, gradually making us more and more like Christ, until the work is completed at His coming.

1 Timothy

Author: Paul the apostle — one of the three "Pastoral Epistles" (1 Timothy, 2 Timothy, Titus) addressed to individual church leaders rather than congregations.

Date written: c. AD 62–64, after Paul's release from his first Roman imprisonment, during a period of further travel not recorded in Acts.

Written to: Timothy, Paul's "own son in the faith" (1:2), who had been left in charge of the church at Ephesus.

Setting: Paul has left Timothy in Ephesus to deal with false teachers, maintain sound doctrine, and establish proper church order. Timothy is young, apparently somewhat timid, and facing serious opposition. Paul writes to strengthen him and give him a clear mandate.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, after the apostle's release from house arrest around AD 62 and before Nero's persecution of Christians following the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Timothy ministered at Ephesus, Titus on Crete, and the second wave of Pauline letters (2 Timothy and Titus) followed soon after; Peter was likely already in Rome writing 1 Peter.

Big themes:

- Sound doctrine — false teachers are promoting "fables and endless genealogies" and speculative arguments; Paul repeatedly urges Timothy to hold fast to the "faithful saying" and the apostolic deposit

- Church order — 1 Timothy contains the NT's most detailed instructions for church leadership: qualifications for bishops (overseers) and deacons, instructions on prayer, and guidelines for widows

- "God was manifest in the flesh" — 3:16 is one of the great Christological confessions of the NT; the TR reading ("God was manifest in the flesh," not "He who was manifest") makes an explicit claim for the incarnation

- The role of women in the assembly — 2:11–15 addresses the ordering of public worship; the passage has been extensively discussed throughout church history

- Money and godliness — "the love of money is the root of all evil" (6:10); the rich are warned, and contentment with godliness is commended as "great gain"

Key passages: 1 Tim 1:15; 2:5; 3:16; 4:16; 6:10

How it fits: 1 Timothy is the NT's foundational manual for church leadership. Its qualifications for elders and deacons have governed church governance for two millennia. Written between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, it gives an inside view of the pastoral challenges the early church faced as it matured beyond its founding generation.

Chapter 1

Paul charges Timothy to remain at Ephesus and command certain men not to teach false doctrines or give heed to fables and endless genealogies. He declares that the law is good if used lawfully, gives thanks for his own calling despite being formerly a blasphemer and persecutor, and calls himself the chief of sinners whom Christ Jesus saved as a pattern for all who would believe.

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;
- Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
- To Timothy, my true son in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 3

As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,
- As I urged You when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that You may command certain people not to teach false doctrines

Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.
- or give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which produce questions rather than godly edifying which is in faith. So do.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

- | | |

| 5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: | The goal of this instruction is charity out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith. |

| 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. | They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm. |
| 8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; | We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. |
| 9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, | We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, |
| 10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; | for the sexually immoral, for those practicing homosexuality, for slave traders and liars and perjurers — and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine |
| 11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. | that conforms to the gospel concerning the glory of the blessed God, which He entrusted to me. |
| 12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; | I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that He considered me trustworthy, appointing me to His service. |

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is strength held back. God is longsuffering toward sinners, bearing with them rather than judging immediately.

Chapter 2

Paul urges that prayers be made for all men, especially kings and those in authority, so that believers may lead quiet and peaceable lives. He declares that there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all.

Chapter 3

Paul sets forth the qualifications for bishops and deacons, requiring them to be blameless, sober, hospitable, and able to rule their own houses well. He writes so that Timothy may know how to conduct himself in the house of God, and declares the great mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, and received up into glory.

| 1 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work. | Here is a trustworthy saying: Whoever aspires to be an overseer desires a noble task. |
| 2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; | Now the overseer is to be above reproach, faithful to his wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, |
| 3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; | not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. |
| 4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; | He must manage His own family well and see that His children obey Him, and He must do so in a manner worthy of full respect. |
| 5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) | If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can He take care of God's church? |
| 6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. | He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil. |
| 7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. | He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap. |
| 8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; | In the same way, deacons are to be worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in too much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain. |
| 9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. | They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience. |

- | | | |
|----|---|--|
| 10 | And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. | They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons. |
| 11 | Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. | In the same way, the women are to be worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything. |
| 12 | Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. | A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well. |
| 13 | For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. | Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus. |
| 14 | These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: | Although I hope to come to You soon, I am writing You these instructions |
| 15 | But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. | so that, if I am delayed, You will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. |
| 16 | And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. | Beyond all question, the mystery from which true godliness springs is great: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. |

Paul warns that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving. He charges Timothy to be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in charity, in spirit, in faith, and in purity, and not to neglect the gift that is in him.

| 3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. | They forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and who know the truth. |

| 6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. | If You point these things out to the brothers and sisters, You will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that You have followed. |
| 7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. | Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train Yourself to be godly. |
| 8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. | For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come. |

| 12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. | Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in charity, in faith, and in purity. |
| 13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. | Until I come, devote Yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching, and to teaching. |
| 14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. | Do not neglect Your gift, which was given You through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on You. |
| 15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. | Be diligent in these matters; give Yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see Your progress. |
| 16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee. | Watch Your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if You do, You will save both Yourself and Your hearers. |

Paul gives instructions on how to treat elders, widows, and various members of the church, teaching that the church should honor true widows and that those with families should care for their own. He instructs that elders who rule well should be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and doctrine.

| 2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity. | older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity. |
| 3 Honour widows that are widows indeed. | Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need. |
| 4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. | But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God. |
| 5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. | The widow who is really in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help. |

| 8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. | Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, and especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. |
| 9 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, | No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband, |

- 10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. and is well known for her good deeds, such as bringing up children, showing hospitality, washing the feet of the Lord's people, helping those in trouble, and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds.
- 11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry; As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry.
- 12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith. Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge.
- 13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. And besides, they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
- 14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. So I counsel younger widows to marry, to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander.
- 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan. Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.
- 16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. If any woman who is a believer has widows in her care, she should continue to help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.
- 17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

| 19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses. | Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses. |
| 20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear. | But those elders who are sinning you are to reprove before everyone, so that the others may take warning. |
| 21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. | I charge You, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favoritism. |
| 22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. | Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, and do not share in the sins of others. Keep Yourself pure. |
| 23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. | Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine because of Your stomach and Your frequent illnesses. |
| 24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. | The sins of some are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them. |
| 25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid. | In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not obvious cannot remain hidden forever. |

Paul instructs servants to honor their masters and warns against those who teach differently and do not consent to the words of the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Timothy

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in 1:1. This is his final letter, written from a Roman dungeon in chains, awaiting execution under Nero.

Date written: c. AD 66–67, from Paul's second Roman imprisonment. Unlike his first imprisonment (a house arrest awaiting trial), Paul is now in a cold cell and expects to die soon (4:6).

Written to: Timothy, Paul's "dearly beloved son" in the faith (1:2). Timothy was a young pastor likely still serving the church at Ephesus. He had been raised in the Scriptures by his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice (1:5), and converted under Paul's ministry at Lystra on the first missionary journey.

Setting: Paul writes from a Roman dungeon. He is cold (4:13), abandoned by most of his companions (1:15; 4:10, 4:16), and expecting execution at any time — "the time of my departure is at hand" (4:6). The letter is deeply personal. It is partly a final charge to faithful ministry, and partly an urgent plea for Timothy to come quickly before winter (4:9, 4:21). Onesiphorus is praised for searching out Paul in his prison; Demas is named for forsaking him. Only Luke remains. Tradition holds that Paul was beheaded by Nero shortly after writing.

Where this sits historically: Written from a Roman dungeon at the height of Nero's persecution of Christians (AD 64–68), just before Paul's martyrdom on the Ostian Way and only a few years before Jerusalem fell to Titus in AD 70.

Contemporaries: Peter had likely already been crucified in Rome, Luke remained with Paul, and the Jewish revolt (begun AD 66) was raging in Judea as Paul wrote his final letter.

Big themes:

- Faithful endurance in ministry under persecution — "endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ" (2:3)

- The deposit of sound doctrine entrusted by Paul to Timothy, to be passed on to faithful men (2:2)

- The inspiration and sufficiency of Scripture — "All scripture is given by inspiration of God" (3:16–17)

- The apostle's confidence in Christ in the face of death — "I know whom I have believed" (1:12)

- The danger of false teachers in the last days, and the duty to preach the word (3:1–9; 4:1–4)

- The crown of righteousness laid up for all who love His appearing (4:8)

- Loneliness and the comfort of Christ — "Only Luke is with me" (4:11); "the Lord stood with me" (4:17)

Key passages: 2 Timothy 1:7; 2:15; 3:16–17; 4:2; 4:6–8

How it fits: 2 Timothy is Paul's last will and testament. It is the most personal of the Pastoral Epistles. Where 1 Timothy and Titus are concerned with church order, 2 Timothy is a dying apostle's farewell — solemn, intimate, full of the names of those who stood with him and those who fell away. The declaration of 3:16 ("All scripture is given by inspiration of God...") has shaped the church's doctrine of Scripture more than any other single verse.

Chapter 1

Paul writes to his beloved son Timothy, thanking God for Timothy's unfeigned faith and urging him not to be ashamed of the testimony of the Lord nor of Paul as His prisoner. He reminds Timothy that God has not given us the spirit of fear but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind, and charges him to hold fast the pattern of sound words.

to Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace to You from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

■ NAME NOTE — Timothy (TIM-uh-thee) — KJV "Timotheus" — "honoring God" — Paul's "dearly beloved son" in the faith; converted under Paul's ministry at Lystra (Acts 16:1); half-Greek, half-Jewish; raised by his godly mother and grandmother in the Scriptures; pastor of the Ephesian church. The Modern column uses the Anglicized "Timothy," matching the title of the book.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

I thank God — whom I serve, as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience — as I remember You constantly in my prayers night and day.

Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

I long to see You. I remember Your tears, and I want to be filled with joy.

When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.
- I am reminded of the sincere faith that is in You — the faith that first lived in Your grandmother Lois and in Your mother Eunice, and which, I am persuaded, lives in You also.

■ NAME NOTE — Lois (LOH-iss) — Timothy's grandmother; one of the earliest believers Paul names. She passed the faith on to her daughter Eunice, who passed it on to Timothy — a portrait of generational discipleship.

■ NAME NOTE — Eunice (YOO-niss) — "good victory" — Timothy's mother; a Jewish woman who married a Greek (Acts 16:1); she raised Timothy in the Hebrew Scriptures from a child (3:15).

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.
- For this reason I remind You to stir up the gift of God which is in You through the laying on of my hands.
- 7

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
- For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
- 8

Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
- So do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, or of me His prisoner. Instead, share in the afflictions of the gospel, according to the power of God.
- 9

Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,
- He has saved us and called us with a holy calling — not because of our works, but because of His own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,
- 10

But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." The Holy Ghost is not a force or an influence — He is a person, fully God, who dwells in every believer and gives power for life and witness.

■ NAME NOTE — Phygellus and Hermogenes (fy-JEL-us; her-MOJ-eh-neeZ) — Two men in the province of Asia (likely Ephesus) who deserted Paul during his imprisonment. Nothing else is known of them — their names are preserved only as a warning.

May the Lord grant that He find mercy from the Lord on that day! And You know very well how many ways He ministered to me at Ephesus.

■ NAME NOTE — Onesiphorus (on-eh-SIF-or-us) — "bringing profit" — A Christian from Ephesus who searched out Paul in his Roman imprisonment and refreshed him. To be associated publicly with a condemned prisoner was dangerous; Onesiphorus did it anyway. Paul commends his household twice (here and at 4:19).

Chapter 2

Paul charges Timothy to be strong in grace and to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, committing what he has heard to faithful men who can teach others. He instructs Timothy to study to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, and to flee youthful lusts while pursuing righteousness, faith, charity, and peace.

Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

And the things that You have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses — commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.

■ NAME NOTE — Hymenaeus and Philetus (hy-meh-NEE-us; fih-LEE-tus) — False teachers in the Ephesian region who taught that the resurrection had already taken place — likely spiritualizing it as something already received at conversion. Their error was destroying real faith. Hymenaeus is also named at 1 Timothy 1:20, where Paul says he has "delivered him unto Satan."

| 21 | If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. | So if anyone cleanses himself from these things, he will be a vessel for honor — sanctified, useful for the Master, prepared for every good work. |

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

Chapter 3

Paul warns that in the last days perilous times shall come, with men being lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, and lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God. ■ NAME NOTE — Jannes and Jambres (JAN-eez; JAM-breez) — Jewish tradition names these as the two Egyptian magicians who opposed Moses before Pharaoh (Exodus 7); they imitated Moses's signs at first but were finally exposed. Paul cites them as types of the false teachers in the last days — men who counterfeit the truth but cannot in the end stand against it.

- | | | |

■ WORD NOTE — Reprobate (REP-ro-bayt) — Rejected, disqualified, failing the test. Originally used of metal that proved counterfeit when tested; spiritually, of those who claim faith but are shown false when tried. To be "reprobate concerning the faith" is to be exposed as having no real share in it.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — patient endurance with people who are difficult; God's slowness to anger. Longsuffering is not weakness — it is strength held back. God is longsuffering toward sinners, bearing with them rather than judging immediately, and He calls His servants to the same patience.

■ WORD NOTE — Doctrine (DOK-trin) — Teaching; specifically, the body of truth God has revealed. Doctrine is not academic theory — it is what we are to believe, live by, and pass on. Paul will use the word again in 3:16 ("profitable for doctrine") and 4:2–3.

Chapter 4

Paul charges Timothy to preach the word in season and out of season, warning that the time will come when men will not endure sound doctrine but will heap to themselves teachers having itching ears. ■ NAME NOTE — Demas (DEE-mas) — Once named in Philemon (v24) and Colossians (4:14) as one of Paul's "fellow workers"; now Paul writes that Demas "hath forsaken me, having loved this present world." A solemn warning preserved in Scripture by name. The love of this present world has carried away those who once stood with the apostle.

■ NAME NOTE — Crescens (KRES-enz) — A companion of Paul who has gone to Galatia; nothing further is known of him.

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert and longtime companion of Paul (Galatians 2:1); the recipient of the Epistle to Titus; he has gone to Dalmatia (the coastland of modern Croatia).

■ NAME NOTE — Luke (KJV "Lucas") — Greek physician; the close traveling companion of Paul on much of his ministry; author of the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts. At this final hour he is the only one of Paul's companions still at his side: "Only Luke is with me."

■ NAME NOTE — Mark (KJV "Marcus") — Cousin of Barnabas; abandoned Paul on the first missionary journey (Acts 13:13; 15:37–38), which once caused such a sharp division that Paul and Barnabas parted ways. Now Paul calls for him: "he is profitable to me for the ministry." A picture of restoration.

■ NAME NOTE — Tychicus (TIK-ih-kus) — "fortunate" — A faithful messenger of Paul (Acts 20:4; Eph 6:21; Col 4:7); Paul has now sent him to Ephesus, very possibly carrying this very letter and relieving Timothy so Timothy can come to Rome.

■ NAME NOTE — Prisca and Aquila (PRIS-kah; uh-KWILL-uh) — A Christian couple; tentmakers like Paul; close ministry partners across many years (Acts 18; Romans 16:3; 1 Corinthians 16:19). "Prisca" is the formal Latin name of which "Priscilla" is the affectionate form. They are now apparently at Ephesus, where Paul sends his greetings through Timothy.

■ NAME NOTE — Trophimus (TROF-ih-mus) — A Christian from Ephesus (Acts 20:4; 21:29); Paul has left him at Miletum because he was sick. A striking note: even an apostle whose handkerchiefs once healed the sick (Acts 19:12) does not now heal his own beloved companion. Healing is in God's hand, not Paul's.

Titus

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in v1:1 as "a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ."

Date written: c. AD 62–66, between Paul's first and second Roman imprisonments. Titus is one of the three Pastoral Epistles (with 1 Timothy and 2 Timothy), written after Paul's release from his first Roman imprisonment and before his final arrest under Nero.

Written to: Titus, a Greek Christian convert and trusted ministry partner of Paul (Gal 2:1–3; 2 Cor 7–8). Paul had left him on the island of Crete to organize the churches there.

Setting: Paul had evangelized Crete with Titus during a missionary stop not recorded in Acts — probably between his release from his first Roman imprisonment (c. AD 62) and his second arrest (c. AD 67). He left Titus there to appoint elders in every city, correct unruly converts, and combat false teachers — especially Judaizers and those given to "Jewish fables." The letter gives Titus pastoral instructions on church order, qualifications for elders, and how sound doctrine produces godly living.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero between Paul's two Roman imprisonments, when the emperor's rule was hardening toward Christians but no organized empire-wide persecution had yet begun.

Contemporaries: Titus served on Crete while Timothy ministered at Ephesus, Apollos was traveling (3:13), and Paul wrote 1 Timothy in the same window.

Big themes:

- Sound doctrine produces godly living — what we believe shapes how we live
- The qualifications of elders and bishops — character before gifting
- Roles in the household of faith — older men, older women, younger men, younger women, and servants
- The grace of God teaches us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts
- The glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ — one of the New Testament's clearest deity-of-Christ statements
- Salvation by grace through regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, not by works of righteousness
- How to handle heretics in the church — admonish twice, then reject

Key passages: Titus 1:5–9 (elder qualifications); 2:11–14 (grace teaches us); 3:5–7 (regeneration and justification)

How it fits: Titus is the middle Pastoral Epistle and the most concise of the three. With 1 and 2 Timothy, it forms Paul's practical handbook on how Christian churches should be ordered, what doctrine the church must teach, and how godly leaders are recognized and appointed. The doxology in 2:13 — "the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ" — is one of the New Testament's clearest deity-of-Christ statements, the Father and the Son named together as the one great God of our salvation.

Chapter 1

Paul writes to Titus, whom he left in Crete to set things in order and ordain elders in every city. He sets forth the qualifications for elders — blameless, not self-willed, not given to wine, holding fast the faithful word — and warns against false teachers, especially those of the circumcision, who subvert whole houses for dishonest gain.

■ NAME NOTE — Titus (TY-tus) — A Greek convert (Gal 2:3) and a trusted ministry partner of Paul, sent on hard assignments — first to Corinth, now to Crete. He is the recipient of this letter and the namesake of the book.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. Mercy is God withholding the wrath we have earned. Grace gives us what we don't deserve; mercy spares us from what we do deserve. Both flow from God's heart toward sinners.

Chapter 2

Paul instructs Titus to teach sound doctrine: that aged men be sober, aged women reverent, young women love their husbands, and young men be sober-minded. He declares that the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, teaching us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Charity (CHAIR-ih-tee) — love that gives itself for others; sacrificial, selfless, godly love. Modern translations often say "love," but charity carries a fuller meaning — it is love that costs something, love that chooses others over self, the kind of love that only God can produce in us.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity is not just a bad act — it is the corruption beneath the act, the bent nature that keeps producing evil. Christ redeems us from iniquity itself, not just from individual sins.

Paul instructs Titus to remind believers to be subject to authorities, to be gentle, and to be ready for every good work. ■ WORD NOTE — Regeneration (ree-jen-er-AY-shun) — being born again; the new birth. Regeneration is the moment God gives spiritual life to a dead soul. It is not self-improvement; it is resurrection. The Holy Ghost washes us clean and makes us new from the inside out.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — *the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. "Ghost" is the older English word for "spirit." ■ NAME NOTE — Tychicus (TIK-ih-kus) — A Christian from Asia (Acts 20:4); a regular bearer of Paul's letters (Eph 6:21; Col 4:7; 2 Tim 4:12), and possibly the carrier of this letter to Titus.

Philemon

Author: Paul the apostle — he names himself in v1 and v19, where he says he writes the letter "with mine own hand" and personally guarantees Onesimus's debt.

Date written: c. AD 60–62, from Paul's first Roman imprisonment. It was carried alongside Colossians by the same messengers, Tychicus and Onesimus (Col 4:7–9).

Written to: Philemon, a wealthy Christian in Colossae who hosted a house church. The letter is also addressed to his wife Apphia, to Archippus (possibly his son), and to the church meeting in his home.

Setting: Onesimus, a runaway slave belonging to Philemon, had come to Paul in Rome. There Onesimus heard the gospel from Paul and was converted to Christ. Now Paul is sending him back — not in chains, but as a beloved brother — with this letter asking Philemon to receive him no longer as a slave but as a fellow heir of Christ. The whole letter is a single sustained appeal.

Where this sits historically: Written during Paul's first Roman imprisonment under Nero, in a Roman world where slaves made up perhaps a third of the empire's population and runaway slaves could legally be killed by their masters.

Contemporaries: Tychicus and Onesimus carried this letter alongside Colossians and Ephesians, and Paul's coworkers Epaphras, Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke were all with him in Rome.

Big themes:

- Christian brotherhood transcends every earthly division — the master-slave relationship is dissolved in Christ

- Substitutionary love — Paul offers to pay Onesimus's debt out of his own pocket, a small picture of what Christ has done for every sinner

- Pastoral persuasion over command — Paul has apostolic authority but chooses to appeal, not to order

- The transforming power of the gospel — Onesimus, whose name means "profitable," was once unprofitable to Philemon; the gospel has now made him truly useful

- Forgiveness and reconciliation — the central pastoral concern of the letter

- The dignity of persons in Christ — Onesimus, a slave by Roman law, is called "a brother beloved" by Paul

Key passages: Philemon 1:6; 1:10–11; 1:15–16; 1:17–19

How it fits: Philemon is the shortest of Paul's letters and the most personal. It is the only NT letter that deals with a single, specific pastoral problem between two named Christians. It demonstrates that the gospel does not preach social revolution from the outside — it dissolves earthly hierarchies from the inside by remaking persons. The letter is a small portrait of the larger doctrine of imputation: Paul says, in effect, "Whatever Onesimus owes, put on my account." That is the gospel in miniature.

Chapter 1

Paul, writing as a prisoner, appeals to Philemon on behalf of his runaway slave Onesimus, who has become a believer under Paul's ministry. He asks Philemon to receive Onesimus no longer as a servant but as a beloved brother in Christ, and pledges to repay anything Onesimus owes.

■ NAME NOTE — Philemon (fih-LEE-mon) — "kissing, affectionate" — A wealthy Christian in Colossae who hosted a house church; the recipient of this letter and the owner of the runaway slave Onesimus.

■ NAME NOTE — Apphia (AF-ee-ah) — "fruitful" — Almost certainly Philemon's wife; addressed alongside him in the opening greeting.

■ NAME NOTE — Archippus (ar-KIP-us) — "horse-master" — Possibly Philemon's son, or a leader in the Colossian church; called Paul's "fellow soldier" here, and given a charge in Colossians 4:17.

I am Paul — an old man now, and a prisoner of Jesus Christ as well — and I am appealing to You for my son Onesimus, whose father I became while I was in chains. |
|---|--|

■ NAME NOTE — Onesimus (oh-NES-ih-mus) — "profitable, useful" — A runaway slave belonging to Philemon, converted to Christ through Paul's ministry in Rome; Paul plays on the meaning of his name in v11. Paul is sending him back to Philemon with this letter. Early Christian tradition holds that Onesimus later became bishop of Ephesus.

- 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever; Perhaps the reason He was separated from You for a little while was so that You might have Him back forever —
- 16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? no longer as a servant, but more than a servant — as a beloved brother. He is very dear to me, and how much more to You, both as a fellow man and as a brother in the Lord.
- 17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. So if You count me as a partner, welcome Him as You would welcome me.
- 18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account; And if He has wronged You in any way, or owes You anything, charge it to my account.
- 19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. (Though I will not even mention that you owe me your very self.)
- 20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord.
- 21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say. Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.
- 22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. And one thing more — prepare a guest room for me; for I am trusting that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus; Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends You His greetings —

■ NAME NOTE — Epaphras (EP-ah-fras) — "lovely" — A native of Colossae, almost certainly the founder of the Colossian church (Col 1:7); a fellow prisoner with Paul in Rome; "always laboring fervently for you in prayers" (Col 4:12).

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers. and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke — my fellow workers.

■ NAME NOTE — Mark (also Marcus or John Mark) — Cousin of Barnabas; abandoned Paul on the first missionary journey (Acts 13:13; 15:37–38) but was later restored to usefulness in ministry (Col 4:10; 2 Tim 4:11); author of the Gospel of Mark.

■ NAME NOTE — Aristarchus (air-iss-TAR-kus) — "best ruler" — A Macedonian from Thessalonica (Acts 19:29; 20:4); accompanied Paul on the voyage to Rome (Acts 27:2) and shared his imprisonment there.

■ NAME NOTE — Demas (DEE-mas) — A companion of Paul during this imprisonment; later named in 2 Timothy 4:10 as one who forsook Paul, "having loved this present world." A solemn warning preserved in Scripture by name.

■ NAME NOTE — Luke (also Lucas) — Greek physician (Col 4:14); the close traveling companion of Paul on much of his ministry, including the voyage to Rome; author of the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts.

Hebrews

Author: Paul the apostle, traditionally — the KJV title ascribes it to Paul, and the early Eastern church consistently held Pauline authorship. The stylistic differences from Paul's other letters may reflect Luke's hand in translation from Aramaic or Paul's deliberate shift in register for a Jewish audience.

Date written: c. AD 64–68, before the destruction of the temple in AD 70 — the letter speaks of the Levitical sacrifices as ongoing.

Written to: Jewish Christians, likely in Palestine or Rome, who were under pressure to abandon Christianity and return to Judaism.

Setting: A community of Jewish believers is wavering. The temple still stands; the Levitical priesthood still functions; persecution is intensifying. The temptation to revert to the old covenant — with its visible sanctuary, hereditary priests, and ancestral prestige — is real. The author writes to demonstrate that Christ is better in every category.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero in the final years before the Jewish revolt against Rome (AD 66–70), while the Jerusalem temple still stood and its daily sacrifices continued.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote his final letters (1–2 Timothy, Titus) and Peter wrote 1–2 Peter in the same window, while the church at Jerusalem awaited the storm that would soon scatter it.

Big themes:

- Christ is better — better than angels (chs. 1–2), better than Moses (ch. 3), better than Joshua (ch. 4), better than Aaron (chs. 5–7), better sanctuary (chs. 8–9), better sacrifice (ch. 10)

- The great High Priest — Hebrews develops the priesthood of Christ more thoroughly than any other NT book; He is a priest "after the order of Melchisedec," entering the true heavenly sanctuary with His own blood

- The new covenant — Jeremiah 31 is quoted twice (chs. 8, 10) to show that the old covenant was always preparatory; Christ has inaugurated the new covenant that Jeremiah promised

- Faith — chapter 11, the "hall of faith," defines faith as "the substance of things hoped for" and catalogs OT believers who acted on promises they did not receive in their lifetime

- Do not draw back — five solemn warning passages (2:1–4; 3:7–4:13; 5:11–6:12; 10:26–39; 12:25–29) urge the readers not to abandon Christ

Key passages: Heb 1:1–3; 4:12; 7:25; 9:22; 11:1; 12:1–2

How it fits: Hebrews is the NT's commentary on Leviticus. Without Leviticus, much of Hebrews is obscure; without Hebrews, the sacrificial system of Leviticus is incomplete. It is the bridge between OT ceremonial law and NT fulfillment, showing Christ as both the priest and the sacrifice who ended the whole system by completing it.

Chapter 1

The author argues that God, who spoke in times past through the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, who is the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person. He demonstrates the Son's superiority over the angels by citing seven Old Testament passages proving that the Son is worshiped by angels and possesses an eternal throne.

- But to the Son He says, "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-IK-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "sin" is missing the mark, iniquity is the bent nature that keeps pulling you away from God.

Chapter 2

The author warns against neglecting so great a salvation and explains why Christ was made a little lower than the angels — to taste death for every man. He argues that because the children partake of flesh and blood, Christ also took part of the same, that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

■ WORD NOTE — Atonement (uh-TONE-ment) — the payment for sin that brings God and man back together. The word literally contains "at-one-ment" — the making of two parties into one. Christ's atonement satisfied God's just anger against sin and restored the broken relationship between God and humanity.

Chapter 3

The author argues that Christ is worthy of more glory than Moses, as the builder of the house has more honour than the house itself. He warns against hardening the heart as Israel did in the wilderness, quoting Psalm 95, and urges believers to exhort one another daily lest any be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

Chapter 4

The author urges believers to fear lest they fail to enter God's rest, as Israel failed through unbelief, and declares that there remains therefore a rest for the people of God. He declares that the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and exhorts believers to come boldly unto the throne of grace, since we have a great high priest, Jesus the Son of God, who can be touched with the feeling of our infirmities.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. Mercy is not ignoring sin — it is the sovereign choice of God to spare the guilty. At the throne of grace we find both mercy (not getting what we deserve) and grace (getting what we don't deserve).

Chapter 5

The author explains the role of the high priest, showing that Christ did not glorify Himself but was called by God, a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. He rebukes the readers for being dull of hearing, still needing milk rather than strong meat, when by this time they ought to be teachers.

Chapter 6

The author urges believers to press on to maturity and delivers a solemn warning that it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, if they fall away, to be renewed again unto repentance. He assures them that God is not unrighteous to forget their work and labour of love, and points to the sure and steadfast anchor of God's oath and promise.

Chapter 7

The author argues that Melchisedec — king of Salem, priest of the most high God — was greater than Abraham, since Abraham paid tithes to him. He demonstrates that Christ's priesthood after the order of Melchisedec is superior to the Levitical priesthood, because He continues for ever with an unchangeable priesthood and is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people. Unlike a contract between equals, God's covenants are initiated by Him, guaranteed by Him, and sealed in blood. The new covenant sealed by Christ's blood is better than every covenant that came before it.

Chapter 8

The author declares that we have a high priest who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched and not man. He argues that Christ is the mediator of a better covenant established on better promises, quoting Jeremiah's prophecy of the new covenant in which God writes His laws on the heart.

Chapter 9

The author describes the earthly tabernacle and its ordinances of worship, then argues that Christ entered not into a man-made sanctuary but into heaven itself, appearing in the presence of God for us. He declares that without shedding of blood there is no remission, and that Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

Chapter 10

The author argues that the law's sacrifices, offered year after year, can never make the worshippers perfect, but by one offering Christ has perfected for ever them that are sanctified. He warns that if we sin wilfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and exhorts believers not to forsake the assembling of themselves together.

Chapter 11

The author defines faith as the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen, then recounts the great cloud of witnesses who lived by faith. By faith Abel offered, by faith Noah built the ark, by faith Abraham obeyed, by faith Moses chose to suffer with the people of God, and all these obtained a good report through faith though they did not receive the promise.

- 3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
- 4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh. By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of His gifts; and by it He being dead yet speaks.
- 5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him; for before His translation He had this testimony, that He pleased God.
- 6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.
- 7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of His house; by which He condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.
- 8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterward receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he went.

- 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise;
- 10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. for he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
- 11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised.
- 12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the seashore innumerable.
- 13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
- 14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
- 15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.
- 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one; therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared for them a city.

■ WORD NOTE — Only begotten (OH-nlee bih-GOT-ten) — the unique, one-of-a-kind Son; Christ is God's Son in a way that no one else can be. The Greek word "monogenes" points to absolute uniqueness — not just firstborn or highly favored, but the only one of His kind. Isaac was Abraham's only begotten in the sense of the promise; Christ is the only begotten Son of God in an eternal and unrepeatable sense.

The author urges believers to run with patience the race set before them, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of their faith, who endured the cross for the joy that was set before Him. He teaches that God chastens those He loves as a father disciplines his children, and warns that if the Israelites did not escape who refused him that spoke on earth, much less shall we escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven.

Chapter 13

The author gives practical exhortations: let brotherly love continue, be hospitable to strangers, honor marriage, be content with what you have, and remember those who have taught you the word of God. He declares that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever, and prays that the God of peace would make them perfect in every good work to do His will.

James

Author: James, the brother of the Lord — the leader of the Jerusalem church and one of the "pillars" Paul mentions in Galatians 2:9; martyred c. AD 62 according to Josephus.

Date written: c. AD 45–50, possibly the earliest of all NT letters, written before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15.

Written to: Jewish Christians scattered throughout the Roman world — "the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad" (1:1).

Setting: The early church is young and dispersed by persecution. Jewish believers are carrying their faith into a pagan world. The practical challenges of living as Christians amid poverty, partiality, conflict, and temptation are immediate and pressing.

Where this sits historically: Written from Jerusalem under Claudius before the Jerusalem Council of Acts 15 — likely the earliest NT book, less than twenty years after the resurrection.

Contemporaries: Peter and John still ministered in Jerusalem, Paul and Barnabas were on their first missionary journey, and Galatians may have been composed in roughly the same window.

Big themes:

- Faith and works — James's most famous teaching: "faith without works is dead" (2:26); saving faith necessarily produces visible obedience — he does not contradict Paul but completes him, addressing a different error

- Trials and patience — the letter opens with the paradox that trials are occasions for joy, because they produce patience and maturity

- The tongue — chapter 3 contains the NT's most extended teaching on speech; the tongue is a small member but capable of setting a great fire

- Partiality — showing favoritism to the rich over the poor in the assembly is a violation of the royal law of love (ch. 2)

- Prayer — the prayer of a righteous man "availeth much" (5:16); Elijah is the example of what faith-filled prayer can accomplish

Key passages: Jas 1:2–4; 1:22; 2:17; 4:7–8; 5:16

How it fits: James is the NT's book of practical wisdom — the Proverbs of the NT in many ways. It was written to dispersed Jewish Christians who needed not more theology but more obedience. Luther's uneasiness with it ("epistle of straw") reflects a misreading; James and Paul attack different errors and are perfectly compatible. James serves as the NT's answer to mere theoretical faith.

Chapter 1

James instructs believers to count it all joy when they face various trials, for the trying of faith works patience. He teaches that every good and perfect gift comes from the Father of lights, that a man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and that believers must be doers of the word and not hearers only.

Chapter 2

James rebukes favoritism toward the rich in the assembly and teaches that if a man shows respect of persons he commits sin. He argues that faith without works is dead, citing Abraham who was justified by works when he offered Isaac, and Rahab who was justified by works when she received the messengers — for as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

| 9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. | but if You have respect to persons, You commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors. |

| 12 | So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. | So speak, and so do, as those who shall be judged by the law of liberty. |

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MUR-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. Mercy is not ignoring sin — it is the sovereign choice of God to spare the guilty. James shows here that those who have received God's mercy must pass mercy on to others.

- | | | |

| 22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? | Do you see how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? |

■ WORD NOTE — Imputed (im-PYOO-ted) — credited to your account; charged against or counted for someone. When God imputes righteousness to a believer, He counts Christ's perfect record as belonging to that person. Our sin was imputed to Christ on the cross; His righteousness is imputed to us by faith.

Chapter 3

James warns about the power of the tongue, declaring that it is a little member that boasts great things, a fire, a world of iniquity that no man can tame. He contrasts the wisdom from above — which is pure, peaceable, gentle, and full of mercy — with the wisdom that is earthly, sensual, and devilish, which produces envy and strife.

|---|--|

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (in-ik-wih-tee) — deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin" — the corruption beneath the sinful act. Where "sin" is missing the mark, iniquity is the bent nature underneath. James uses it to describe the whole disordered moral world that the tongue draws its power from.

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses one word — hell — where the original languages use several (Sheol, Hades, Gehenna). Here James uses the word for Gehenna, the Valley of Hinnom near Jerusalem, which was a burning garbage dump and became the picture of fiery, permanent judgment.

■ WORD NOTE — Similitude (sim-ILL-ih-tood) — likeness; the image or resemblance of something. James uses this word to remind us that every human being — no matter their status — bears the likeness of God. To curse a person is to curse someone made in God's image. The KJV preserves this distinctive word where modern translations often say simply "likeness."

Chapter 4

James identifies the source of quarrels and conflicts as the lusts that war within, and declares that friendship with the world is enmity with God. He calls on the proud to humble themselves before the Lord, warns against speaking evil of one another, and rebukes those who boast about tomorrow, saying their life is but a vapour that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

| 5 | Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? | Do you think that the scripture says in vain, "The spirit that dwells in us lusts to envy"? |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not God overlooking sin — it is God freely giving what we have not earned and could never earn. James shows that God gives more grace to the humble precisely because the humble know they have nothing to offer.

Chapter 5

James warns the rich that their riches are corrupted and their gold and silver cankered, and that the hire of the labourers they kept back by fraud cries out to the Lord. He urges patience until the coming of the Lord, calls for prayer in affliction and praise in gladness, and declares that the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and that the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

1 Peter

Author: Peter the apostle, with Silvanus (Silas) as his secretary (5:12) — Simon Peter, the fisherman from Galilee who became the chief of the apostles.

Date written: c. AD 62–64, from Rome ("Babylon" in 5:13), shortly before Nero's persecution began.

Written to: Jewish and Gentile Christians scattered throughout northern Asia Minor — Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia (1:1).

Setting: Persecution is mounting. Believers are experiencing social hostility, slander, and official harassment for their faith. Peter writes to help them understand why they suffer, how to endure it, and what hope lies beyond it.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome (coded as "Babylon" in 5:13) just before or at the outbreak of Nero's persecution following the Great Fire of AD 64.

Contemporaries: Silvanus served as Peter's secretary and Mark was at his side, while Paul ministered between his Roman imprisonments and the Pauline pastoral letters were taking shape.

Big themes:

- A living hope — the resurrection of Christ is the foundation of everything; believers have been "begotten again unto a lively hope" through it (1:3)

- Holiness in exile — believers are "strangers and pilgrims" in this world; their conduct must be distinctly holy among the Gentiles

- Suffering for righteousness — Peter addresses unjust suffering extensively, pointing always to Christ's example; He suffered without retaliating, leaving an example to follow

- Election and priesthood — believers are "a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation" (2:9); the language of Israel's covenant identity is now applied to the church

- Submission — to governing authorities, to masters, in marriage, in the church; the pattern of voluntary submission reflects Christ's own humility

Key passages: 1 Pet 1:3; 1:18–19; 2:9; 2:24; 5:7

How it fits: 1 Peter is the NT's primary letter on suffering — what it means, why it comes to believers, and how to endure it with hope. Written as Nero's persecution was beginning, it was immediately relevant. Its description of the church as a royal priesthood (2:9) has shaped Christian identity for twenty centuries. 2 Peter follows as Peter's final letter, written close to his death.

Chapter 1

Peter writes to the scattered believers, praising God for the living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ and for an inheritance incorruptible, reserved in heaven. He urges them to rejoice even in trials that prove their faith, to be holy in all conduct, and reminds them that they were redeemed not with corruptible things like silver and gold but with the precious blood of Christ.

Chapter 2

Peter instructs believers to desire the sincere milk of the word and describes them as living stones built up into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood. He calls them a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, and urges them to submit to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake, pointing to Christ who suffered for us, leaving us an example that we should follow His steps.

Chapter 3

Peter instructs wives to be in subjection to their own husbands, adorning themselves with the hidden man of the heart, and commands husbands to dwell with their wives according to knowledge, giving honour unto the weaker vessel. He teaches that Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God, and urges believers to be always ready to give an answer for the hope that is in them with meekness and fear.

Chapter 4

Peter urges believers to arm themselves with the mind of Christ, to cease from sin, and not to think it strange when the fiery trial comes as though something unusual were happening. He teaches that judgment must begin at the house of God, and that those who suffer according to the will of God should commit the keeping of their souls to Him in well doing as unto a faithful Creator.

Chapter 5

Peter exhorts the elders to feed the flock of God willingly, not for dishonest gain, and as examples rather than as lords over those in their charge. He commands all believers to be clothed with humility, to cast all their care on God for He cares for them, and to be sober and vigilant because the devil walks about as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.

2 Peter

Author: Peter the apostle — the letter explicitly names "Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1) and claims eyewitness testimony of the Transfiguration (1:16–18). Peter wrote it knowing his death was imminent (1:14).

Date written: c. AD 64–68, shortly before Peter's martyrdom under Nero in Rome.

Written to: The same general audience as 1 Peter, and possibly to specific churches familiar with Paul's letters (3:15–16).

Setting: Peter is nearing death. False teachers have crept into the churches, denying the Lord, mocking the promise of Christ's return, and living licentiously. 2 Peter is his final charge — a warning and an encouragement — written with the urgency of a man who knows he has little time left.

Where this sits historically: Written from Rome under Nero's persecution, in the final months before Peter's own martyrdom (traditionally by upside-down crucifixion) on the Vatican Hill.

Contemporaries: Paul wrote 2 Timothy as his own farewell in this same window, Jude composed his closely parallel warning soon after, and Mark was at hand as Peter's gospel scribe.

Big themes:

- Growth in grace — the letter opens with a call to add to faith: virtue, knowledge, self-control, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, charity; spiritual stagnation is not neutrality but blindness

- The certain return of Christ — mockers will say "Where is the promise of his coming?" (3:4); Peter answers that God's timing is not delay but patience, and the Day of the LORD will come like a thief

- False teachers — chapter 2 is an extended and vivid warning against false prophets; their character, methods, and judgment are described in detail

- The authority of Scripture — "holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (1:21); the divine inspiration of the OT prophetic word is explicitly stated

- The new heavens and new earth — the present heavens and earth will be dissolved by fire; the believer looks for "new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (3:13)

Key passages: 2 Pet 1:3–4; 1:20–21; 3:9; 3:13; 3:18

How it fits: 2 Peter is Peter's farewell letter, written in full awareness of his coming death. Its warning about false teachers who twist Scripture (including Paul's letters, 3:16) is directly relevant to every era of church history. Jude draws heavily on 2 Peter, sharing much of its content about false teachers. Together, 2 Peter and Jude are the NT's paired warnings against apostasy.

Chapter 1

Peter urges believers to add to their faith virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness, and charity, so they will never stumble. He affirms that he was an eyewitness of Christ's majesty on the holy mount, and declares that no prophecy of scripture is of any private interpretation, for holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

Peter warns that false teachers will bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and many will follow their destructive ways. He cites God's judgment on the fallen angels, the ancient world through the flood, and Sodom and Gomorrah as proof that the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished.

Chapter 3

Peter warns that scoffers will come in the last days, asking where is the promise of Christ's coming, but declares that the Lord is not slack concerning His promise — one day is with the Lord as a thousand years. He teaches that the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the earth and its works shall be burned up, so believers should live in holiness as they look for new heavens and a new earth wherein dwells righteousness.

1 John

Author: John the apostle — the same author as the Gospel of John and Revelation; the letter's vocabulary, themes, and style are unmistakably Johannine, though the author does not name himself.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, late in John's life — contemporary with the Gospel of John and Revelation.

Written to: A broad circle of churches, probably in Asia Minor, where John exercised his final decades of ministry.

Setting: A proto-Gnostic teaching has arisen — likely an early form of Docetism — claiming that Jesus did not come "in the flesh" (that is, that the Christ was a spiritual being who only appeared to have a body). Those who held this view had left the congregations (2:19). John writes to confirm true believers and expose the error.

Where this sits historically: Written late in the reign of Domitian (AD 81–96), a generation after the destruction of Jerusalem, when emperor-worship and early gnostic teaching were both pressing on the churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, composing 2 John, 3 John, and Revelation in the same window, while Cerinthus and other proto-gnostic teachers were active in Ephesus.

Big themes:

- The Incarnation as non-negotiable — "that which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life" (1:1); physical, historical, bodily reality is the test of truth

- God is light — walking in the light means honest fellowship with God and with one another; confessing sin keeps that fellowship open

- God is love — chapter 4's sustained meditation on divine love is the NT's richest; "God is love" (4:8, 16) is one of Scripture's most quoted and most abused statements

- The Comma Johanneum — 5:7–8 contains the explicit Trinitarian statement: "there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one"

- Tests of genuine faith — the letter repeatedly offers tests: do you obey the commandments? Do you love the brothers? Do you confess that Jesus is the Christ come in the flesh?

Key passages: 1 John 1:9; 2:2; 3:1; 4:8; 5:7; 5:13

How it fits: 1 John is the pastoral companion to the Gospel of John — the Gospel asks "Do you believe?", the epistle asks "How do you know your faith is real?" Together they are the fullest NT exploration of what it means to know God. The Comma Johanneum (5:7) is the clearest explicit Trinitarian statement in the NT and belongs to the TR text this edition follows.

Chapter 1

John declares that he and the apostles are eyewitnesses of the Word of life, which was from the beginning, and that their message is that God is light and in Him is no darkness at all. He teaches that if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

Chapter 2

John writes that if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and He is the propitiation for our sins and for the sins of the whole world. He warns against loving the world, for all that is in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — is not of the Father, and he identifies the antichrist spirit already at work in those who deny that Jesus is the Christ.

| 1 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: 2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. | My dear children, I write this to You so that You will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense — Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. |

■ WORD NOTE — Propitiation (proh-PISH-ee-AY-shun) — the sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin. When the Bible says Jesus is our propitiation, it means He took the punishment we deserved so that God's wrath against our sin was fully paid.

- 3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. We know that we have come to know Him if we keep His commandments.
- 4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. Whoever says, "I know him," but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in that person.
- 5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. But if anyone obeys his word, love for God is truly made complete in them. This is how we know we are in Him.
- 6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked. Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did.
- 7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning. Dear friends, I am not writing a new command to You, but an old command which You have had from the beginning. This old command is the message You have heard.
- 8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. Yet I am writing You a new command. Its truth is seen in Him and in You, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining.
- 9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. Anyone who claims to be in the light but hates a brother or sister is still in the darkness.
- 10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. Anyone who loves their brother and sister lives in the light, and there is nothing in them to make them stumble.
- 11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes. But anyone who hates a brother or sister is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. They do not know where they are going, because the darkness has blinded them.

I write to You, young men, because You are strong, and the word of God lives in You, and You have overcome the evil one. |
| 15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. | Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them. |
| 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. | For everything in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — comes not from the Father but from the world. |
| 17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. | The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever. |
| 18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. | Dear children, this is the last hour; and as You have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour. |

- 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But their going showed that none of them belonged to us.
- 20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things. But You have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of You know the truth.
- 21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. I do not write to You because You do not know the truth, but because You do know it and because no lie comes from the truth.
- 22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Who is the liar? It is whoever denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist — denying the Father and the Son.
- 23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.
- 24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. As for You, see that what You have heard from the beginning remains in You. If it does, You also will remain in the Son and in the Father.
- 25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. And this is what He promised us — eternal life.

Chapter 3

John marvels at the love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called the sons of God, and declares that when Christ appears we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. He teaches that whoever is born of God does not practice sin, and that we should love one another not in word only but in deed and in truth, for hereby we know that we are of the truth.

But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. All who have this hope in Him purify themselves, just as He is pure. |

- 4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. Everyone who sins breaks the law. In fact, sin is lawlessness.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Transgression is not just a mistake — it is a willful act of going beyond the boundary God has drawn.

- 6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. No one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has either seen him or known Him.
- 7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as He is righteous.
- 8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. The one who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.
- 9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. No one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in them. They cannot go on sinning, because they have been born of God.
- 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Anyone who does not do what is right is not God's child, nor is anyone who does not love their brother and sister.

- 11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.
- 12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous.
- 13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.
- 14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death.
- 15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life living in him.
- 16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.
- 17 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?
- 18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.
- 19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in His presence.

| 24 | And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. | The one who keeps God's commands lives in Him, and He in them. And this is how we know that He lives in us: We know it by the Spirit He gave us. |

John commands believers to test the spirits, for many false prophets have gone out into the world: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess this is the spirit of antichrist. He declares that God is love, that love is of God, and that perfect love casts out fear — we love Him because He first loved us.

- | | | |

| 1 | Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. | Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. |
| 2 | Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: | This is how You can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God. |

- | | |

| 3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. 4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. 5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. But whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood. Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed His love among us: He sent His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. |

■ WORD NOTE — Only Begotten (OH-nlee beh-GOT-ten) — the unique, one-of-a-kind Son; Christ is God's Son in a way no one else can be. "Only begotten" does not mean God made Him — it means Jesus shares the very nature of the Father, unlike any other being.

Chapter 5

John declares that whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and that this is the victory that overcomes the world — even our faith. He affirms the three that bear record in heaven — the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost — and these three are one, and writes that he has penned these things so that believers may know they have eternal life.

2 John

Author: The apostle John — the same author as the Gospel of John, 1 John, and 3 John. He identifies himself only as "the elder," a title fitting his old age and his position as the last surviving apostle and overseer of the churches of Asia Minor.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, where John spent the final years of his life. The letter is closely connected in time and concern to 1 John and 3 John.

Written to: "The elect lady and her children" — most likely a specific Christian woman and her family, though some readers have understood the phrase as a figurative address to a local church and its members. The companion letter, 3 John, is written to a man named Gaius.

Setting: John writes a brief, urgent note to warn against traveling false teachers — early proto-Gnostic deceivers who denied that Jesus Christ had come in real human flesh. He commands the elect lady not to receive such teachers into her home and not even to greet them, because to welcome them is to share in their evil work. Along the way he rejoices that her children are walking in the truth, and he promises a coming personal visit so that their joy may be full.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus near the end of Domitian's reign, when itinerant teachers carrying gnostic-style christological errors moved between the house churches of Asia Minor.

Contemporaries: John wrote 1 John, 3 John, and Revelation in the same period, while Polycarp and Ignatius — who would soon lead the next generation of churches — were already young men.

Big themes:

- Truth and love walk together — not in tension, but as one Christian path
- The test of true doctrine: confessing that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh
- The duty to refuse hospitality and even greeting to false teachers
- The danger of "going beyond" the doctrine of Christ — those who do not abide in it do not have God
- Joy in seeing the next generation walking in truth

Key passages: 2 John 1:4; 1:7; 1:9; 1:10

How it fits: 2 John is the second shortest book in the New Testament (3 John is shorter by Greek word count). Together with 3 John, it shows the aging apostle John still exercising careful pastoral oversight of the churches and standing watch against the proto-Gnostic christological heresy that was already entering the Christian community. It is a small but vital letter, holding the line on the person of Christ in just thirteen verses.

Chapter 1

John writes to the elect lady and her children, rejoicing that some of them walk in truth, and gives the commandment to love one another. He warns that many deceivers have entered the world who do not confess that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, and instructs that anyone who does not bring the doctrine of Christ should not be received into the house or given greeting.

| 1 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth; | From the elder — to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have come to know the truth — |
| 2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever. | because of the truth that lives in us and will be with us forever. |
| 3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. | Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never deserve — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. When God shows mercy, He does not give us what our sins have earned. Grace gives the good we did not deserve; mercy withholds the wrath we did deserve.

| 4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father. | It gave me great joy to find some of Your children walking in the truth, just as we received commandment from the Father. |
| 5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. | And now I beseech You, dear lady — not as though I were writing You a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning — that we love one another. |
| 6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it. | And this is love: that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as You have heard from the beginning, You should walk in it. |

■ WORD NOTE — Antichrist (AN-tee-krist) — In John's letters, "antichrist" is a category, not only a single end-times figure. Any teacher who denies that Jesus is the Christ, or who denies that He came in the flesh, is an antichrist. John says many such antichrists have already come (1 John 2:18). The denial of the real, bodily coming of Christ is the mark.

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God has set; breaking a specific command. Here John speaks of someone who steps beyond the boundaries of Christ's doctrine — going further than what Christ has taught.

3 John

Author: The apostle John — the same John who wrote the Gospel of John, 1 John, and 2 John. He calls himself simply "the elder" (v1), a title fitting his old age and his apostolic authority over the churches of Asia Minor. This is the most personal of his three epistles.

Date written: c. AD 85–95, from Ephesus, late in John's life — the same general period as 1 John and 2 John.

Written to: Gaius, a beloved Christian leader. His exact location is unknown — most likely a believer in one of the churches of Asia Minor under John's apostolic care. Gaius is a common name in the NT (Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14), and this Gaius cannot be certainly identified with any of those others.

Setting: John writes a short personal letter commending Gaius for his hospitality to traveling Christian missionaries — "the brethren" who had gone out for the sake of Christ's name. Word of Gaius's love and faithful service had reached John, and he wants Gaius to keep on receiving such men generously. But there is also a problem. In the same church (or a nearby one) a man named Diotrephes has been rejecting John's authority, slandering John with malicious words, refusing to welcome traveling Christians himself, and even excommunicating those members who would have welcomed them. John writes both to encourage Gaius and to put Diotrephes on notice that John will deal with him personally when he arrives. A third man, Demetrius, is commended by John — probably the very man carrying this letter.

Where this sits historically: Written from Ephesus near the end of Domitian's reign, when itinerant gospel preachers traveled the Roman road network between Asian house churches that depended on local hospitality.

Contemporaries: John composed 1 John, 2 John, and Revelation in this same window, and the network of churches founded by Paul a generation earlier was now under John's aging oversight.

Big themes:

- Hospitality as a Christian duty — receiving traveling believers is partnership in the gospel
- Walking in the truth — the greatest joy of a spiritual father is to hear his children walking in truth
- Truth and love together — Christian love is never separated from doctrinal truth
- Servant-leadership versus self-promotion — Diotrephes "loveth to have the preeminence," which is the opposite of Christ
- Apostolic authority — John as "the elder" still oversees the churches in his old age, even by letter
- Imitating good, not evil — the man who does good is of God; the man who does evil has not seen God

- The power of personal example — Gaius, Diotrophes, and Demetrius are three living pictures of the choice every believer faces

Key passages: 3 John 1:4; 1:7; 1:9; 1:11

How it fits: 3 John is the shortest book in the entire New Testament by Greek word count. Together with 2 John, it shows the aged apostle John exercising real apostolic oversight by letter — answering pastoral problems one congregation at a time. It is a rare snapshot of how the early church handled the daily work of traveling ministry, hospitality, and church discipline. And it is a piercing warning. When a church leader begins to love being first more than he loves the truth, the damage reaches far beyond himself. 3 John holds up Gaius and Demetrius to be imitated, and holds up Diotrephes as a warning to every age of the church.*

Chapter 1

John writes to Gaius, praising his faithfulness in showing hospitality to traveling brethren who went forth for Christ's name's sake. He condemns Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence and refuses to receive the brethren, and commends Demetrius, who has a good report from all men and from the truth itself.

- 1 The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, From the elder — to my dearly loved whom I love in the truth. friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

■ NAME NOTE — Gaius (GAY-us) — A common Roman name; this Gaius is a beloved Christian leader receiving the letter. He cannot be certainly identified with the other Gaiuses in the NT (Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14), but is clearly a man well known to John and faithful in the truth.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 2 | Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. | Dear friend, above all else I pray that you may prosper and be in good health — just as your soul is prospering. |
| 3 | For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth. | I rejoiced greatly when the brethren came and told me about the truth that is in you — how you are walking in the truth. |
| 4 | I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. | I have no greater joy than this: to hear that my children walk in truth. |
| 5 | Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers; | Dear friend, you are acting faithfully in everything you do for the brethren — even when they are strangers to you. |

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
| 6 | Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: | They have testified to your charity before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. |
| 7 | Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. | For they went out for the sake of His name, taking nothing from the Gentiles. |
| 8 | We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth. | So we ought to welcome such men, so that we may be fellow workers for the truth. |
| 9 | I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. | I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to have the preeminence among them, will not receive us. |

■ NAME NOTE — Diotrephes (dy-OT-rih-fees) — "nourished by Zeus" — A self-promoting leader in a local church who rejected John's apostolic authority, slandered him with malicious words, refused to welcome traveling Christians, and excommunicated members who did welcome them. His name is preserved in Scripture as a permanent warning against loving the first place more than the truth.

|----|--|--|
| 10 | Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. | So when I come, I will call attention to the things he is doing — chattering against us with malicious words. And not content with that, he refuses to receive the brethren himself, he stops those who would, and he throws them out of the church. |
| 11 | Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. | Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God. |
| 12 | Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true. | Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone — and by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true. |

■ NAME NOTE — Demetrius (dih-MEE-tree-us) — "belonging to Demeter" — A Christian commended by John, probably a traveling minister and most likely the very man carrying this letter to Gaius. His good character was confirmed by the testimony of all who knew him, by the truth itself, and by John's own apostolic word.

Jude

Author: Jude (Greek "Judas," the same Hebrew name as Judah) — he names himself in v1 as "the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James." He is the half-brother of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3). He is not Judas Iscariot, and not the apostle Judas (Thaddaeus).

Date written: Likely c. AD 65–80. The letter is closely related to 2 Peter in content and theme; whether 2 Peter draws on Jude or Jude on 2 Peter is debated, but the two letters fight the same fight.

Written to: A general Christian audience. The letter does not name a specific church but reads as a circular letter to churches threatened by false teachers who had crept in among them.

Setting: Jude had intended to write a different letter — a calmer treatment of "the common salvation." But circumstances forced him to write urgently. False teachers had slipped into the churches, turning the grace of God into a license for sin, denying Christ, defiling the flesh, and despising authority. Jude marshals Old Testament examples (unbelieving Israel in the wilderness, the fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrah), a prophecy attributed to Enoch, and the warnings of the apostles, to call believers to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered.

Where this sits historically: Written under Nero or in the years following his death (the "year of four emperors," AD 68–69), as proto-gnostic libertinism began infiltrating churches across the empire.

Contemporaries: Jude wrote in close parallel with 2 Peter, while the apostles Peter and Paul had recently been martyred and the Jewish revolt that would destroy Jerusalem was unfolding.

Big themes:

- The faith once for all delivered — apostolic doctrine is fixed and final, not to be revised
- Contending for the faith against false teachers who have crept in unawares
- Warning examples from OT history — God has not let rebellion go unpunished
- The certain judgment of apostates and the preserving power of God over true believers
- Mercy and fear toward those caught in error — pulling them out of the fire
- The doxology of the only wise God our Saviour — glory, majesty, dominion, and power

Key passages: Jude 1:3; 1:14–15; 1:20–21; 1:24–25

How it fits: Jude is a small but ferocious epistle — the NT's strongest single-letter warning against false teachers. Its closing doxology is among the most beloved passages in Scripture. With 2 Peter, it stands as the late apostolic-era warning to a church being infiltrated by libertine heretics who used grace as a cover for sin. The call to "earnestly contend for the faith" has marked every generation of Christians who have stood for the truth against compromise.

Chapter 1

Jude urges believers to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints, warning that ungodly men have crept into the church who turn the grace of God into lasciviousness. He cites the judgment on Israel in the wilderness, the fallen angels, and Sodom and Gomorrah, and closes with a doxology to Him who is able to keep them from falling and to present them faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

From Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James — to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ:

■ NAME NOTE — Jude (JOOD) — Greek "Judas," the same Hebrew name as Judah. Brother of James and half-brother of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3). Not Judas Iscariot, and not the apostle Judas (Thaddaeus). He calls himself simply "the servant of Jesus Christ" — leaving aside any claim to family privilege.

■ NAME NOTE — James (JAYMS) — "James the Just," the brother of Jude and half-brother of Jesus; leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15); author of the Epistle of James. Jude identifies himself by this well-known brother rather than by his own relation to the Lord.

Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to You.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — kindness given to someone who deserves punishment; God withholding the wrath we have earned. When God shows mercy, He does not give us what our sins deserve.

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

Beloved, I was making every effort to write to You about the salvation we share, when I found it necessary to write to You instead and urge You to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

- 4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
- For certain men have crept in unnoticed — men long ago marked out for this condemnation — ungodly men who twist the grace of our God into a license for sin, and who deny the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never earn. Grace means God gives us favor and blessing not because we deserve it, but because of His own love and generosity. The false teachers Jude warns against were taking this gift and turning it into an excuse for sin.

■ WORD NOTE — Lasciviousness (luh-SIV-ee-us-ness) — unrestrained sensual indulgence; shameless wickedness, especially sexual. The false teachers were claiming that God's grace gave them freedom to live however they pleased.

- 5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.
- I want to remind You — though You already know all of this — that the Lord, after saving His people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

■ NAME NOTE — Egypt (EE-jipt) — The land of Israel's slavery, from which God delivered them through Moses and the ten plagues. Jude's point: even those who came out of Egypt with God's mighty hand on them were destroyed in the wilderness if they refused to believe (1 Cor 10:1–11).

- 6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.
- And the angels who did not keep their original position of authority, but abandoned their proper dwelling — He has kept them in everlasting chains under darkness, reserved for the judgment of the great day.

- 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. In the same way, Sodom and Gomorrha and the surrounding cities — which gave themselves over to fornication and went after strange flesh — are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

■ NAME NOTE — Sodom and Gomorrha (SOD-um, guh-MOR-ah) — The two cities God destroyed by fire and brimstone for their great wickedness, especially their sexual sin (Gen 19). Lot and his family were rescued before the destruction. Throughout Scripture, Sodom and Gomorrha stand as the proverbial example of God's judgment on the wicked.

- 8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities. In the same way, these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and speak evil of those in high positions.
- 9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee. Yet even Michael the archangel, when he was contending with the devil and disputing about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against him a railing accusation, but said, "The Lord rebuke thee."

■ NAME NOTE — Michael (MY-kel) — "Who is like God?" — The archangel, the chief of the heavenly host and the defender of God's people (Dan 10:13, 12:1; Rev 12:7). He is the only angel in Scripture called "the archangel." Jude's point: even Michael would not pronounce his own judgment on the devil but called on the Lord to rebuke him — while these false teachers slander everything they do not understand.

- 10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: and what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. But these men speak evil of things they do not understand; and the things they do understand by instinct — like unreasoning animals — in those very things they corrupt themselves.
- 11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, they have run greedily after the error of Balaam for profit, and they have perished in the rebellion of Korah.

- NAME NOTE — Cain (KAYN) — Adam and Eve's firstborn; he murdered his brother Abel out of envy because God accepted Abel's offering and rejected his own (Gen 4). A type of the false teacher's selfish rage and hatred of true worship.
- NAME NOTE — Balaam (BAY-lam) — The hireling prophet of Numbers 22–24, who tried to curse Israel for money. Though God forced him to bless Israel, he later led Israel into sin for profit (Num 31:16). A type of the false teacher's greed.
- NAME NOTE — Korah (KO-rah) — KJV spells him "Core." The Levite who, with Dathan and Abiram, rebelled against the God-given authority of Moses and Aaron; the earth opened and swallowed him alive (Num 16). A type of the false teacher's defiance of God-given authority.

- 12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

These men are blemishes at your feasts of charity, feasting with you without any reverence — shepherds feeding only themselves. They are clouds without water, carried along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead and pulled up by the roots;
- 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.
- 14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these men, saying, "The Lord comes with ten thousands of His saints,

- NAME NOTE — Enoch (EE-nok) — "Dedicated" — The seventh generation from Adam (Gen 5:18–24); the man who "walked with God, and he was not; for God took him" — taken into glory without seeing death. Jude quotes a prophecy attributed to him about the Lord's coming judgment.

- 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

— sensual men, not having the Spirit. |

■ WORD NOTE — Sensual (SEN-shoo-ul) — in the KJV's sense, "fleshly," "natural," "worldly" — driven by the appetites of the body rather than the Spirit of God. Not just "sexual," but the whole life of a person who lives only by what the senses crave. These false teachers were natural men, devoid of the Holy Spirit.

■ WORD NOTE — Holy Ghost (HOH-lee GOHST) — the Holy Spirit; the third Person of the Trinity. In the KJV, "Ghost" is the older English word for "Spirit." The Holy Ghost is God Himself, who dwells in every believer.

Revelation

Author: John the apostle, exiled on the island of Patmos — the book names its author as "John" four times (1:1, 1:4, 1:9, 22:8); early church testimony from Justin Martyr and Irenaeus onward identifies him as the apostle.

Date written: c. AD 95–96, during the reign of Domitian, who was actively persecuting Christians who refused to worship the emperor.

Written to: Seven specific churches in Asia Minor (Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, Laodicea), and through them the whole church in every age.

Setting: John is in exile on Patmos for his testimony. The Roman empire demands divine honors for the emperor. Christians who refuse are imprisoned, impoverished, and killed. The churches are under pressure to conform, compromise, or apostatize. John receives a vision of ultimate reality — the throne of God, the Lamb who was slain, and the final defeat of every power that opposes God.

Where this sits historically: Written under Domitian (AD 81–96) at the height of his demand to be addressed as "Dominus et Deus" (Lord and God), with John exiled to the Aegean penal island of Patmos.

Contemporaries: John was the last surviving apostle, having outlived Peter and Paul by some thirty years; he wrote alongside his three epistles, and Clement of Rome would soon address the Corinthian church.

Big themes:

- The sovereignty of God over history — "the Lord God omnipotent reigneth" (19:6); every seal, trumpet, and bowl is opened from the throne; nothing happens outside God's control

- The Lamb who was slain — Jesus appears as a Lamb bearing the marks of slaughter (5:6); His death is the decisive event of history; worship in heaven centers on what He accomplished at the cross

- Letters to seven churches — chapters 2–3 contain Christ's personal assessments of seven real congregations; the commendations and warnings apply to every church in every era

- Judgment on Babylon — Rome (Babylon) and the beast represent every human system that demands what belongs only to God; its fall is certain and complete

- The new creation — chapters 21–22 describe the new Jerusalem descending from heaven; God dwelling with His people; no more death, pain, or curse; the tree of life restored

Key passages: Rev 1:8; 5:9–10; 19:11–16; 20:15; 22:20

How it fits: Revelation is the Bible's final word. It begins where Genesis ends — with a cursed earth — and ends where Genesis began — with God and man in a garden without curse. Every thread of Scripture is gathered: the Lamb of Genesis 22, the Passover of Exodus, the throne of 2 Samuel 7, the new covenant of Jeremiah 31, the dry bones of Ezekiel 37. The last promise is "Even so, come, Lord Jesus."

Chapter 1

John receives the Revelation of Jesus Christ on the island of Patmos and is commanded to write what he sees to the seven churches in Asia. He sees the Son of man standing among seven golden candlesticks, clothed in a garment down to the foot, His countenance like the sun shining in its strength, holding seven stars in His right hand.

| 1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: | This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. God gave it to Him to show His servants what must soon take place. He sent it through His angel to His servant John. |
| 2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. | John testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ — everything He saw. |
| 3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand. | Blessed is the one who reads, and blessed are those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it. The time is near. |
| 4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; | John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace and peace to You from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come — and from the seven Spirits before His throne. |

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve or earn. Every letter in the New Testament opens with grace — it is the foundation of everything God does for us in Christ.

|--|---|
| 5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, | And from Jesus Christ — the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood. |
|--|---|

■ WORD NOTE — Redemption (reh-DEMP-shun) — to buy back; to set free by paying a price. Jesus washed us from our sins in His own blood — that is the price He paid to redeem us from sin's power and penalty.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. | He has made us kings and priests to God His Father. To Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. |
| 7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. | He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him — even those who pierced Him. All families of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen. |
| 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. | "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending," says the Lord, who is and who was and who is to come — the Almighty. |

■ NAME NOTE — John (JON) — Hebrew Yohanan, "God is gracious" — The apostle and beloved disciple of Jesus, son of Zebedee, who received this vision while exiled on the island of Patmos. He also wrote the Gospel of John and three epistles.

|--|---|
| 9 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ. | I, John, am your brother and partner in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are in Jesus Christ. I was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. |
| 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, | I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day. I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet. |

- 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. It said, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last." Then it said, "Write in a book what You see, and send it to the seven churches — to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."
- 12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; I turned to see the voice that spoke to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands.
- 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. In the middle of the lampstands stood one like the Son of Man. He was clothed with a robe reaching to His feet, and a golden sash was wrapped around His chest.
- 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; His head and hair were white as wool — as white as snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire.
- 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. His feet were like polished bronze, glowing as if refined in a furnace. His voice was like the sound of many waters.
- 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. In His right hand He held seven stars. Out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword. His countenance was like the sun shining in full strength.
- 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though dead. He laid His right hand on me and said, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last."

- 18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; "I am the Living One. I was dead, and and, behold, I am alive for evermore, now I am alive for ever and ever.
Amen; and have the keys of hell and of Amen. I hold the keys of hell and of death. death."

■ WORD NOTE — Hell (HEL) — the place of God's eternal judgment for the unrepentant. The KJV uses this one word for the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna. Here in Revelation it refers to the place of the departed under Christ's authority.

Chapter 2

Christ dictates letters to four churches: Ephesus, which has left its first love; Smyrna, which will suffer tribulation ten days but must be faithful unto death; Pergamos, which dwells where Satan's seat is but tolerates false teaching; and Thyatira, which suffers the woman Jezebel to teach and seduce His servants.

■ NAME NOTE — Smyrna (SMER-nah) — A prosperous port city in Asia Minor known for its large Jewish population and fierce opposition to Christianity. The church there faced severe persecution. Modern-day Izmir, Turkey.

- 9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan. "I know your works, your tribulation, and your poverty — but you are rich. I know the slander of those who say they are Jews but are not, and are the synagogue of Satan."
- 10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. "Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. The devil is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life."
- 11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death. "Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death."
- 12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges; "To the angel of the church in Pergamos write: These things are said by the One who has the sharp two-edged sword."
- NAME NOTE — Pergamos (PER-gah-mos) — Also called Pergamum; a powerful city in Asia Minor and seat of Roman provincial authority. It contained a famous altar to Zeus and a major temple of emperor worship.
- 13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth. "I know your works and where you live — where Satan's throne is. You hold fast to My name and have not denied My faith, even in the days of Antipas, My faithful martyr, who was killed among you where Satan lives."

Chapter 3

Christ dictates letters to three churches: Sardis, which has a name that it lives but is dead; Philadelphia, which has kept His word and will be kept from the hour of temptation that will come upon all the world; and Laodicea, which is lukewarm — neither cold nor hot — and will be spewed out of His mouth unless it repents.

- 1

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

Chapter 4

John sees a door opened in heaven and a throne set in heaven with One sitting on it, surrounded by twenty-four elders and four living creatures. The living creatures cry "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come," and the elders cast their crowns before the throne, worshiping Him who lives for ever and ever.

- 2 And immediately I was in the Spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. At once I was in the Spirit. There before me was a throne in heaven, and Someone was seated on the throne.
- 3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. The One seated there looked like jasper and carnelian. Around the throne was a rainbow that looked like an emerald.
- 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold. Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had golden crowns on their heads.
- 5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and thunder. Before the throne seven lamps were blazing — these are the seven Spirits of God.
- 6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. Before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center around the throne were four living creatures, covered with eyes in front and behind.
- 7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. The first living creature was like a lion. The second was like a calf. The third had a face like a man. The fourth was like a flying eagle.
- 8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around and inside. Day and night they never stop saying: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come."

9	And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,	Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to Him who sits on the throne and lives for ever and ever,
10	The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,	The twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:
11	Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.	"You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power, for You created all things. By Your will they were created and exist."

John sees a book sealed with seven seals in the right hand of Him who sits on the throne, and no man in heaven or earth is found worthy to open it. The Lamb who was slain — the Lion of the tribe of Judah — takes the book, and all heaven erupts in worship: "Thou art worthy...for Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy blood."

2	And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?	A mighty angel proclaimed with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?"
3	And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.	No one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or look into it.

- 4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. I wept greatly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look into it.
- 5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and its seven seals."
- 6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. Then I saw, in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders, a Lamb standing — it looked as though it had been slain. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth.
- 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. He came and took the scroll from the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.
- 8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. When He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
- 9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And they sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book and to open the seals thereof; for You were slain, and have redeemed us to God by Your blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation,
- 10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. and have made us to our God kings and priests, and we shall reign on the earth."

- 11

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels surrounding the throne, the living creatures, and the elders. Their number was ten thousand times ten thousand — thousands upon thousands.
- 12

Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

They cried out with a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!"
- 13

And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea — all that is in them — saying: "Blessing and honor and glory and power be to Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb for ever and ever!"
- 14

And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

The four living creatures said, "Amen." The twenty-four elders fell down and worshipped Him who lives for ever and ever.

Chapter 6

The Lamb opens six seals. The first four bring the four horsemen — conquest, war, famine, and death. The fifth seal reveals the souls of martyrs under the altar crying, "How long, O Lord?" The sixth seal brings a great earthquake, the sun turns black, the moon becomes as blood, and the kings of the earth hide themselves, crying to the mountains to fall on them.

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come."

- 2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer. I looked, and there before me was a white horse. Its rider held a bow. A crown was given to him, and he rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest.
- 3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come."
- 4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword. Another horse came out — a fiery red one. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth and to make men kill one another. A great sword was given to him.
- 5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come." I looked, and there before me was a black horse. Its rider was holding a pair of scales in His hand.
- 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's wages, and three quarts of barley for a day's wages. Do not damage the oil and the wine."
- 7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see. When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come."

- 8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth. I looked, and there before me was a pale horse. Its rider's name was Death, and Hell followed close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth — to kill by sword, famine, plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.
- 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony they had maintained.
- 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? They cried out with a loud voice, "How long, O Lord — holy and true — will You wait before You judge and avenge our blood on those who live on the earth?"
- 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled. Each of them was given a white robe. They were told to wait a little longer, until the full number of their fellow servants and brothers who were to be killed as they had been killed was completed.
- 12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair. The whole moon turned blood red.
- 13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind. The stars of the sky fell to earth, like figs dropping from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind.

Chapter 7

John sees four angels holding back the winds of the earth until one hundred forty-four thousand from the twelve tribes of Israel are sealed on their foreheads. He then sees a great multitude that no man can number, out of every nation and tongue, standing before the throne in white robes, who have come out of great tribulation and washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb.

- 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, holding the seal of the living God. He called out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea:
- 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."
- 4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel. Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of the children of Israel.
- 5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand. From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed. From the tribe of Reuben 12,000. From the tribe of Gad 12,000.

- 9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; After this I looked, and there was a great crowd that no one could count — from every nation, every family, every people and language. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.
- 10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. They cried out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God Who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"
- 11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,
- 12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. Saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God for ever and ever. Amen."
- 13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? Then one of the elders asked me, "Who are these dressed in white robes, and from where did they come?"
- 14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. I answered, "Sir, you know." He said to me, "These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."
- 15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. "Therefore they are before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in His temple. He who sits on the throne will shelter them."

Chapter 8

The Lamb opens the seventh seal, and there is silence in heaven for about half an hour. Seven angels are given seven trumpets. The first four trumpets bring hail and fire mixed with blood, a burning mountain cast into the sea, a great star called Wormwood that poisons the waters, and darkness on a third of the sun, moon, and stars.

| 5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. | Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth. There came thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake. |
| 6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. | Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. |
| 7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. | The first angel sounded his trumpet. Hail and fire mixed with blood were hurled down on the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up. |
| 8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; | The second angel sounded his trumpet. Something like a huge mountain blazing with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood. |
| 9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed. | A third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed. |
| 10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; | The third angel sounded his trumpet. A great star blazing like a torch fell from the sky on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. |
| 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. | The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters turned bitter like wormwood, and many people died from the waters, because they had turned bitter. |

- 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. The fourth angel sounded his trumpet. A third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars — so that a third of them turned dark. A third of the day had no light, and a third of the night as well.
- 13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound! I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midair call out with a loud voice: "Woe! Woe! Woe to the people who live on the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!"

The fifth trumpet opens the bottomless pit, and locusts with the power of scorpions torment men for five months — their king is the angel of the bottomless pit called Abaddon. The sixth trumpet releases four angels bound at the great river Euphrates, and an army of two hundred thousand thousand horsemen kills a third part of men, yet the rest do not repent of their idolatry or murders.

| 4 | And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. | They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. |
| 5 | And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. | They were not given power to kill them, but only to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a person. |
| 6 | And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. | During those days people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them. |
| 7 | And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. | The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore what looked like golden crowns. Their faces were like human faces. |
| 8 | And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. | Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth. |
| 9 | And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. | They had chests like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. |
| 10 | And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. | They had tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months. |

- 11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. They had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek his name is Apollyon.
- 12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. The first woe is past. Two other woes are still to come.
- 13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, The sixth angel sounded his trumpet. I heard a voice coming from the four horns of the golden altar before God.
- 14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
- 15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. The four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour, day, month, and year were released to kill a third of mankind.
- 16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them. The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million. I heard their number.
- 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone. In my vision the horses and their riders wore breastplates of fiery red, dark blue, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions. Out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.
- 18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths. A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues — the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came out of their mouths.

Chapter 10

John sees a mighty angel come down from heaven with a little book open in his hand, setting his right foot on the sea and his left on the earth. The angel swears by Him who lives for ever that there shall be time no longer, and when the seventh angel sounds, the mystery of God shall be finished. John eats the little book, which is sweet in his mouth but bitter in his belly.

Chapter 11

John is told to measure the temple of God, and two witnesses prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days. The beast from the bottomless pit kills the witnesses, but after three and a half days the Spirit of life from God enters them and they ascend to heaven. The seventh trumpet sounds, and great voices in heaven declare, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ."

- 5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. Anyone who wants to harm them must be killed in this way.
- 6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. They have power to shut up the sky so that no rain will fall during the time they are prophesying. They have power to turn the waters to blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they choose.
- 7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit will make war against them and overcome them and kill them.
- 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city — which is spiritually called Sodom and Egypt — where also their Lord was crucified.
- 9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. For three and a half days, people from every nation, family, language, and people will stare at their bodies and refuse to allow them to be buried.
- 10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. The people of the earth will celebrate and be glad. They will send each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.

- 11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them. They stood on their feet, and great terror struck those who saw them.
- 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. Then they heard a loud voice from heaven calling to them, "Come up here." They went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched.
- 13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. At that same hour there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.
- 14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. The second woe has passed. The third woe is coming soon.
- 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. The seventh angel sounded His trumpet. Great voices in heaven said, "The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever."
- 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, The twenty-four elders who were seated on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshipped God,
- 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. Saying, "We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign."

| 18 | And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. | "The nations were angry, and your wrath has come. The time has come to judge the dead and to reward Your servants the prophets and the saints — those who fear Your name, both small and great — and to destroy those who destroy the earth." |
| 19 | And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail. | Then the temple of God in heaven was opened, and within His temple was seen the ark of His covenant. There came flashes of lightning, rumblings, thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm. |

John sees a woman clothed with the sun who brings forth a man child destined to rule all nations with a rod of iron, and the child is caught up to God and His throne. A great red dragon — that old serpent called the Devil and Satan — is cast out of heaven, and Michael and his angels war against him. The dragon persecutes the woman, who is given wings to fly into the wilderness for a time, times, and half a time.

| 1 | And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: | A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. |
| 2 | And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. | She was pregnant and cried out in the pain of labor, about to give birth. |

- 3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. Then another sign appeared in heaven: a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads.
- 4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. His tail swept a third of the stars from the sky and hurled them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born.
- 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter. Her child was caught up to God and to His throne.
- 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days. The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared for her by God, where she would be cared for for 1,260 days.
- 7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back.
- 8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. But the dragon was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven.
- 9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. The great dragon was hurled down — that ancient serpent called the Devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

- 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ. For the accuser of our brothers has been hurled down — He who accused them before our God day and night.
- 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. They overcame Him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony. They did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.
- 12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has gone down to you. He is filled with fury, because he knows that his time is short."
- 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.
- 14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent's reach.
- 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent.
- 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.

- 17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.
- Then the dragon was furious with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring — those who keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 13

John sees a beast rise out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon gives his power and great authority, and all the world wonders after the beast. A second beast rises out of the earth, performing great signs and causing all to receive the mark of the beast — 666 — in their right hand or forehead, without which no man can buy or sell.

- 1 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.
- I stood on the sand of the seashore. Then I saw a beast rising out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on its horns, and on each head a name that blasphemed God.
- 2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.
- The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.
- 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.
- One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was filled with wonder and followed the beast.

| 4 | And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? | People worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast and asked, "Who is like the beast? Who can wage war against it?" |
| 5 | And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. | The beast was given a mouth to speak proud words and blasphemies, and to exercise its authority for forty-two months. |
| 6 | And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. | It opened its mouth to blaspheme God and to slander His name and His dwelling place and those who live in heaven. |
| 7 | And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. | It was given power to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. And it was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. |
| 8 | And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. | All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast — all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb Who was slain from the foundation of the world. |
| 9 | If any man have an ear, let him hear. | Whoever has ears, let them hear. |
| 10 | He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. | "If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity they will go. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, with the sword they will be killed." This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of God's people. |
| 11 | And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. | Then I saw a second beast, coming out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon. |

- 12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. It exercised all the authority of the first beast on its behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.
- 13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, And it performed great signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to the earth in full view of the people.
- 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. Because of the signs it was given power to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived the inhabitants of the earth. It ordered them to set up an image in honor of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived.
- 15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed. The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed.
- 16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads,
- 17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.
- 18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six. This calls for wisdom. Let the person who has insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. That number is 666.

Chapter 14

John sees the Lamb standing on mount Sion with the hundred forty-four thousand who have His Father's name written on their foreheads. Three angels fly through heaven: the first proclaims the everlasting gospel, the second declares that Babylon is fallen, and the third warns that whoever receives the mark of the beast will drink of the wine of the wrath of God. The Son of man thrusts in His sickle and the earth is reaped.

| 1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. | Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 who had His Father's name written on their foreheads. |
| 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: | And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder. The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps. |
| 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth. | They sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. |
| 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. | These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they remained virgins. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They were purchased from among mankind and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. |
| 5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. | And in their mouth was found no guile, for they are without fault before the throne of God. |

- 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Then I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth — to every nation, tribe, language and people.
- 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. He said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water."
- 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries."
- 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives its mark on their forehead or hand,
- 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: they, too, will drink the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of His wrath. They will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.
- 11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. And the smoke of their torment will rise for ever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name."

- 12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. This calls for patient endurance on the part of the people of God Who keep His commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.
- 13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them."
- 14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man with a crown of gold on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.
- 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. Then another angel came out of the temple and called in a loud voice to Him who was sitting on the cloud, "Take Your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe."
- 16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. So He who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.
- 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and He too had a sharp sickle.
- 18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to Him who had the sharp sickle, "Take Your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe."

Chapter 15

John sees seven angels having the seven last plagues, in which the wrath of God is filled up. Those who have gotten victory over the beast stand on a sea of glass mingled with fire, singing the song of Moses and the song of the Lamb. The temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven is opened, and the seven angels are given seven golden vials full of the wrath of God.

Chapter 16

The seven vials of God's wrath are poured out. The first brings sores, the second and third turn the sea and rivers to blood, the fourth scorches men with fire, the fifth brings darkness on the beast's kingdom, the sixth dries up the Euphrates to prepare the way for the kings of the east, and the seventh brings the greatest earthquake in history and the fall of great Babylon.

- 2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image. The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth. Painful, ugly sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.
- 3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. It turned to blood like that of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died.
- 4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood. The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they turned to blood.
- 5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus. I heard the angel of the waters say, "You are righteous, O Lord — You who are, and were, and are to come — because You have judged these things."
- 6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. They shed the blood of saints and prophets, so You have given them blood to drink. They deserve it.
- 7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. I heard another voice from the altar say, "Yes, Lord God Almighty — Your judgments are true and righteous."
- 8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire.
- 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. People were seared by intense heat, and they cursed the name of God, Who had authority over these plagues. They refused to repent and give Him glory.

- 10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in agony
- 11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. and cursed the God of heaven because of their pain and their sores. They refused to repent of what they had done.
- 12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water dried up to prepare the way for the kings of the east.
- 13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
- 14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. These are demonic spirits that perform signs. They go out to the kings of the whole world to gather them for battle on the great day of God Almighty.
- 15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. "I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who stays alert and keeps his clothes ready, so he will not go naked and be exposed to shame."
- 16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. They were gathered to the place called Armageddon in the Hebrew language.
- 17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came from the throne in the temple of heaven, saying, "It is done!"

Chapter 17

John sees the great whore sitting on a scarlet-colored beast with seven heads and ten horns, arrayed in purple and scarlet, holding a golden cup full of abominations, with the name MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS written on her forehead. The angel explains that the seven heads are seven mountains and seven kings, and the ten horns will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb shall overcome them.

- 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. The kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the people of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality.
- 3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast. The beast was covered with names of blasphemy and had seven heads and ten horns.
- 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with the abominations and filth of her immorality.
- 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. On her forehead was written a name — a mystery: BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
- 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.
- 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides — the beast with seven heads and ten horns."

- 8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. The beast you saw once was, now is not, and will come up out of the bottomless pit before going to his destruction. The people of the earth — those whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world — will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was, is not, and yet will come.
- 9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. This calls for a mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.
- 10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is reigning now, and the other has not yet come. When he does come, he must remain only a short while.
- 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. The beast who once was, and now is not, is himself an eighth king. He belongs to the seven, and he goes to his destruction.
- 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom. They will receive authority as kings for one hour together with the beast.
- 13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These kings all share one purpose, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.
- 14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. They will wage war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them — for He is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those with Him are called, chosen, and faithful.

Chapter 18

An angel announces the fall of Babylon the great, which is become the habitation of devils and the hold of every foul spirit. A voice from heaven calls God's people to come out of her, and the merchants and kings of the earth weep and mourn over her destruction, for in one hour so great riches is come to nought. Heaven and the holy apostles and prophets rejoice, for God has avenged them on her.

- 3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. All the nations drank the wine of the wrath of her immorality. The kings of the earth committed immorality with her. The merchants of the earth grew rich from the power of her excessive pleasures.
- 4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. I heard another voice from heaven say: "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins or receive any of her plagues."
- 5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Her sins have piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.
- 6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. Pay her back as she has paid others. Give her double for what she has done. In the cup she mixed for others, pour her double the amount.
- 7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Give her the same measure of torment and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself. In her heart she says, "I sit as queen. I am not a widow, and I will never mourn."
- 8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. Therefore her plagues will come in a single day — death, mourning, and famine. She will be burned up with fire, for mighty is the Lord God Who judges her.
- 9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, The kings of the earth who committed immorality and shared in her luxury will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning.

- 10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. They will stand far off in fear of her torment and cry out: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, Babylon, that mighty city! In just one hour your judgment has come!"
- 11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their goods any longer —
- 12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, goods of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet cloth; every kind of citron wood; articles of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble;
- 13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine, olive oil, fine flour, and wheat; cattle, sheep, horses, and carriages; and human lives — the souls of people.
- 14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The fruit you craved is gone from you. All your luxury and splendor are lost to you — you will never find them again.
- 15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, The merchants who sold these things and grew rich from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment, weeping and mourning.

- 16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! They will cry out: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls!"
- 17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, In just one hour all that wealth has been destroyed! Every sea captain, every passenger, every sailor, and everyone who works on the sea stood far off
- 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city! and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning: "What city was ever like this great city?"
- 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning: "How terrible, how terrible — that great city, where all who had ships at sea grew rich from her wealth! In just one hour she has been destroyed!"
- 20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her. Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets! God has judged her for the way she treated you.
- 21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all. Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, saying: "With this same violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again."

No craftsman of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again. |
| 23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. | The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voice of a bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again. Your merchants were the great men of the earth, and all the nations were deceived by your sorceries. |
| 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. | In her was found the blood of prophets and saints — and of all who have been killed on the earth. |

A great multitude in heaven cries "Alleluia!" and the marriage supper of the Lamb is come. John sees heaven opened, and One called Faithful and True rides forth on a white horse — His name is THE WORD OF GOD, and on His vesture and thigh is written KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. The beast and the false prophet are cast alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

- 2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. "His judgments are true and righteous. He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality. He has avenged the blood of His servants shed by her hand."
- 3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever. And again they said, "Alleluia!" And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.
- 4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. And the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God Who sat on the throne, saying, "Amen, Alleluia!"
- 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. A voice came from the throne, saying: "Praise our God, all You His servants, you who fear him, both small and great!"
- 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. And I heard as it were the voice of a great crowd, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, "Alleluia! For the Lord God omnipotent reigns!"
- 7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. "Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory! For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has made herself ready."
- 8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. She was given fine linen, bright and clean, to wear. The fine linen stands for the righteous deeds of the saints.
- 9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. Then the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb!" He added, "These are the true words of God."

- 10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. I fell at His feet to worship Him, but He said to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with You and Your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
- 11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. I saw heaven standing open, and there before me was a white horse. Its rider is called Faithful and True. He judges and makes war in righteousness.
- 12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has a name written on Him that no one knows but himself.
- 13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. He is dressed in clothing dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.
- 14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. The armies of heaven followed Him on white horses, dressed in fine linen, white and clean.
- 15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. Out of His mouth comes a sharp sword to strike down the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the fierce wrath of God Almighty.
- 16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. On His clothing and on His thigh is written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

- 17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come! Gather together for the great supper of God."
- 18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. "Come and eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men — the flesh of horses and their riders — the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."
- 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage war against the rider on the horse and His army.
- 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. The beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed signs on his behalf — the signs by which he had deceived those who received the mark of the beast and worshipped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.
- 21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. The rest were killed by the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse. All the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Chapter 20

An angel binds Satan for a thousand years and casts him into the bottomless pit, and the saints reign with Christ for the thousand years. After the thousand years Satan is loosed, deceives the nations, and gathers them to battle, but fire comes down from God out of heaven and devours them, and the devil is cast into the lake of fire. John sees the great white throne judgment: the dead are judged according to their works, and whosoever is not found written in the book of life is cast into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

John sees a new heaven and a new earth, and the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. God shall dwell with His people, and He shall wipe away all tears from their eyes — there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, nor pain. The city has no need of the sun or the moon, for the glory of God lightens it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

- 4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, sorrow, crying, or pain. All those former things will have passed away.
- 5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. He who sat on the throne said, "I am making all things new." He said to me, "Write this down, for these words are true and faithful."
- 6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He said to me, "It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. To anyone who is thirsty, I will give freely from the fountain of the water of life."
- 7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. The one who overcomes will inherit all things. I will be his God, and He will be My son.

- 8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars — their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone. This is the second death.
- 9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."
- 10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.
- 11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; It shone with the glory of God. Its light was like that of a most precious stone — like a jasper, clear as crystal.
- 12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: It had a great and high wall with twelve gates. At the gates were twelve angels, and the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel were written on the gates.
- 13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. On the east were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.
- 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

- 15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.
- 16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. The city was laid out as a square — its length the same as its width. He measured the city with the rod: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, width, and height were all equal.
- 17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. He measured the wall as well: one hundred and forty-four cubits, by human measurement, which the angel used.
- 18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. The wall was built of jasper, and the city itself was pure gold, clear as glass.
- 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The foundations of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,
- 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolyte, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprasus, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.
- 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. The twelve gates were twelve pearls — each gate made from a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.
- 22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

Chapter 22

John sees the pure river of the water of life proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, and the tree of life bearing twelve manner of fruits, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations. Christ declares, "I come quickly," and the Spirit and the bride say, "Come." A solemn warning is given: if any man adds to or takes away from the words of this prophecy, God shall add to him the plagues written in this book.

Cross-References:

The Bible is one story. It begins with God making all things and ending the workweek by walking with man in a garden, and it ends with God making all things new and ending the long ages by dwelling with man in a city that is itself a garden. Everything between the bookends is the story of how He got us back.

- 2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. In the middle of the main street of the city, and on both sides of the river, stood the tree of life. It bears twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.
- 3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: There will be no more curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and His servants will serve him.
- 4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. They will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads.
- 5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. There will be no night there. They will need no lamp or sunlight, for the Lord God will give them light. They will reign forever and ever.
- 6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show His servants the things that must soon take place."
- 7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. "I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
- 8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. I, John, saw and heard these things. When I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me.
- 9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. He said to me, "Do not do that. I am a fellow servant with You and Your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

- 10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. He said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near."
- 11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. Let the one who does wrong keep doing wrong. Let the one who is filthy stay filthy. Let the one who is righteous keep doing right. Let the one who is holy continue to be holy.
- 12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. "I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me. I will give to each person according to what they have done."
- 13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last."
- 14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. Blessed are those who keep His commandments. They will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city through the gates.
- 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. Outside are the dogs, sorcerers, the sexually immoral, murderers, idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.
- 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to testify these things to You for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David — the bright and morning star."
- 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let the one who hears say, "Come." Let the one who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires it take the water of life freely.
