- 45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the command of David and his son Solomon.
- 46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. For long ago in the days of David and Asaph, there were directors of the singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

- 47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.
- In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the portion for the sons of Aaron.

Chapter 13

On Nehemiah's return from Babylon he found that Tobiah had been given a room in the temple courts, the Levites had not received their portions, the Sabbath was being profaned by merchants, and Jews had married foreign women. Nehemiah expelled Tobiah, restored the tithes, shut the gates on the Sabbath, and rebuked those who had intermarried.

- 1 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever; On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud to the people. In it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God,
- 2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. because they had not met the people of Israel with bread and water but had hired Balaam to curse them — though our God turned the curse into a blessing.
- 3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. When the people heard this law, they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.
- 4 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah: Before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been placed in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God, and who was related to Tobiah,

- 5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests. had prepared for him a large room where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the vessels, the tithes of grain, new wine, and oil, which were commanded for the Levites, the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.
- 6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king: While all this was happening I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had gone to the king. After some time I asked leave of the king
- 7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. I returned to Jerusalem. I then discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God.
- 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. This made me very angry. I threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room.
- 9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense. I gave orders. They cleansed the rooms. Then I brought back the vessels of the house of God, the grain offering, and the frankincense.
- 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field. I also learned that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them, so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had fled each to his own field.

- 11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. So I confronted the officials and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" I gathered the Levites together and restored them to their posts.
- 12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine, and oil to the storehouses.
- 13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren. I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, and alongside them Hanan the son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah. They were considered trustworthy. It was their duty to distribute the portions to their brothers.
- 14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof. Remember me, O my God, for this, and do not blot out my faithful deeds that I have done for the house of my God and for its service.
- 15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain, loading it on donkeys — as well as wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads — and bringing them to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I warned them against selling food on that day.
- 16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Residents of Tyre who lived there were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling it on the Sabbath to the people of Judah and in Jerusalem.

- 17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? So I confronted the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this evil thing you are doing, profaning the Sabbath?"
- 18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. Did not your ancestors do the same things, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Now you are bringing more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."
- 19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. When it began to grow dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my own servants at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.
- 20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.
- 21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. And from that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. Then I warned them and said to them, "Why are you staying near the wall? If you do this again, I will arrest you." From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.
- 22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy. Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy.

- 23 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.
- 24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and could not speak the language of Judah.
- 25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor shall you take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.
- 26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin in this very way? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God. God made him king over all Israel. Yet even He was led into sin by foreign women.
- 27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives? Must we now hear that you too are doing all this great evil, being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women?"
- 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.
- 29 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priests and the Levites.

Esther

Author: Unknown — possibly Mordecai, as suggested by the book's detailed knowledge of Persian court customs and the internal mention of Mordecai's records (Est 9:20). Jewish tradition also names Ezra or the men of the Great Synagogue.

Date written: c. 460–400 BC, during the reign of Ahasuerus (Xerxes I of Persia).

Written to: The Jewish diaspora throughout the Persian empire, to explain the origin of the feast of Purim and to encourage the scattered nation.

Setting: The Jews who did not return to Jerusalem under Zerubbabel remain scattered throughout the Persian empire. Esther is one of them — an orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai, who becomes queen of Persia without the king knowing she is Jewish. When Haman the Agagite plots the extermination of all Jews in the empire, everything turns on whether Esther will risk her life to intervene.

Where this sits historically: The story unfolds c. 483–473 BC at Susa under Xerxes I (Ahasuerus), in the years between his failed invasion of Greece (Thermopylae and Salamis, 480 BC) and his assassination in 465 BC.

Contemporaries: The second temple had been finished a generation earlier under Zerubbabel, Haggai, and Zechariah, while Ezra and Nehemiah would arrive in Jerusalem only after Esther's day.

Big themes:

- Providence — God's name never appears in the book, yet His hand is unmistakable behind every coincidence, delay, and reversal

- Courage — Esther's decision to approach the king unsummoned, knowing it may cost her life, is one of Scripture's great acts of courage

- Reversal — the gallows Haman built for Mordecai is the gallows he hangs on; the day planned for Jewish extermination becomes a day of Jewish victory

- Jewish identity in exile — Mordecai's refusal to bow to Haman and Esther's willingness to identify as a Jew both at great personal cost

- The feast of Purim — the celebration established in chapter 9 is still observed by Jewish communities worldwide

Key passages: Est 2:17; 4:14; 4:16; 6:13; 8:17

How it fits: Esther is set during the reign of Xerxes I, between Ezra chapters 6 and 7 — after the temple is rebuilt but before Ezra's mission. It shows that God protects His people even among those who never returned to the land. The survival of the Jewish people in Persia ensures that the messianic line continues.

Chapter 1

King Ahasuerus held a great banquet in Susa and on the seventh day commanded Queen Vashti to appear before his guests, but she refused. On the advice of his counselors, the king deposed Vashti and decreed that every man should rule his own household.

Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

This is what happened in the days of Ahasuerus — the Ahasuerus who reigned from India to Ethiopia over 127 provinces.
- NAME NOTE — Ahasuerus (ah-haz-yoo-EE-rus) — "mighty eye" — The Persian king identified with Xerxes I (c. 486–465 BC), ruler of the vast Persian empire from India to Ethiopia. His court at Shushan (Susa) is the setting for the entire book.

That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

In those days, when King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the citadel of Shushan,

In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

In the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all his officials and servants. The army of Persia and Media, the nobles and the governors of the provinces, were present before him,

When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

While he displayed the wealth of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his greatness for many days — 180 days.

And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

When those days were completed, the king gave a banquet lasting seven days for all the people present in the citadel of Shushan, from the greatest to the least, in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace.

Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.
- There were white, green, and blue hangings fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver on a pavement of red, blue, white, and black marble.

And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.
- Drinks were served in golden vessels — vessels of varying design — and the royal wine flowed freely, in keeping with the king's generosity.
- 8

And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.
- The drinking was by no fixed rule, for the king had instructed all the stewards of his household to serve each guest as he wished.
- 9

Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.
- Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.

■ NAME NOTE — Vashti (VASH-ty) — "beautiful" — The queen of Persia who refused the king's summons to display her beauty before his drunken guests. Her deposition opened the way for Esther to become queen.

On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,
- On the seventh day, when the king was in high spirits from wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas — the seven chamberlains who served King Ahasuerus —

- 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on. To bring Queen Vashti before the king wearing her royal crown, to display her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful.
- 12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by the chamberlains. The king became furious and his anger burned within him.
- 13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment: Then the king consulted the wise men who knew the laws and customs, for it was the king's practice to consult experts in law and justice.
- 14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;) His closest advisers were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan — the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king and sat in the first ranks of the kingdom.
- 15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains? He asked, "According to the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti, because she has not obeyed the command of King Ahasuerus delivered by the chamberlains?"
- 16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the officials, "Queen Vashti has done wrong not only to the king but also to all the officials and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

- 17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. For this deed of the queen will become known to all women. They will despise their husbands in their eyes, when it is reported that King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him but she did not come.
- 18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath. This very day the ladies of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's conduct will be telling the same thing to all the king's officials, and there will be no end of contempt and anger.
- 19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she. If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him and let it be written into the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed — that Vashti is never again to come before King Ahasuerus. Let the king give her royal position to someone better than she.
- 20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small. When the decree made by the king is proclaimed throughout his entire kingdom — for it is vast — all the wives will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least."
- 21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan: This pleased the king and the officials, and the king did as Memucan proposed.

Chapter 2

A search was made for a new queen; Esther, a Jewish orphan raised by her cousin Mordecai, was chosen and crowned. Mordecai uncovered a plot by two of the king's chamberlains to assassinate Ahasuerus, and the matter was recorded in the royal chronicles.

Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite;
- Now there was in the citadel of Shushan a Jew named Mordecai the son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite,

■ NAME NOTE — Mordecai (MOR-deh-ky) — Possibly from Babylonian "Marduk" — Esther's older cousin and guardian, a Benjaminite descendant of Kish. He sat at the king's gate, refused to bow to Haman, uncovered a plot against the king, and was ultimately exalted to second in the kingdom.

So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
- When the king's order and decree were proclaimed and many young women were brought to the citadel of Shushan under the care of Hegai, Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who was in charge of the women.

- 9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. The young woman pleased him and won his favor. He quickly provided her with her beauty treatments and special food. He assigned seven chosen young women from the king's palace to attend her and moved her and her attendants to the best place in the house of the women.
- 10 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. Esther had not revealed her people or her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to reveal it.
- 11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her. Every day Mordecai would walk back and forth near the courtyard of the house of the women to find out how Esther was doing and what was happening to her.
- 12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;) Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months of preparation prescribed for the women — six months with oil of myrrh and six months with perfumes and other cosmetics for women.
- 13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. In this way a young woman went to the king: she was given whatever she asked for to take with her from the house of the women to the king's palace.

- 14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name. In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain who was in charge of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.
- 15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her. When the turn came for Esther the daughter of Abihail — the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his daughter — to go to the king, she asked for nothing except what Hegai the king's chamberlain, who was in charge of the women, suggested. Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.
- 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus in his royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
- 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. The king loved Esther more than all the other women. She won his grace and favor more than all the other young women. He placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.
- 18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. Then the king gave a great banquet — Esther's banquet — for all his officials and servants. He granted a holiday to the provinces and distributed gifts with royal generosity.

| 2 | And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. | All the king's servants at the king's gate bowed down and paid honor to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor. |
| 3 | Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment? | Then the king's servants at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?" |
| 4 | Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. | When they spoke to him day after day and he would not listen, they told Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's reason would be accepted, for he had told them that he was a Jew. |
| 5 | And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. | When Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor, Haman was enraged. |
| 6 | And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. | But he scorned the idea of laying hands on Mordecai alone, since they had told him Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews — the people of Mordecai — throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus. |

- 7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur — that is, the lot — before Haman, from day to day and from month to month. It fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.
- 8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their customs are different from those of every other people. They do not keep the king's laws. It is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.
- 9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them. I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for those who carry out this business."
- 10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. So the king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.
- 11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, and the people also, to do with them as seems good to you."

- 12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. On the thirteenth day of the first month the royal scribes were summoned. They wrote out all Haman's orders to the king's lieutenants, to the governors of each province, and to the officials of each people — to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.
- 13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with orders to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jews — young and old, women and children — on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their goods.
- 14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day. A copy of the written decree was to be issued as law in every province, proclaimed to all peoples, so that they would be ready for that day.
- 15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed. The couriers went out urgently at the king's command, and the decree was issued in the citadel of Shushan. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was in confusion.

Chapter 4

Mordecai mourned in sackcloth and sent word to Esther urging her to go before the king to plead for her people. Esther agreed, telling Mordecai to gather the Jews to fast for three days, declaring, 'If I perish, I perish.'

- 1 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

When Mordecai learned all that had been done, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes. He went out into the middle of the city, wailing loudly and bitterly.
- 2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

He went as far as the front of the king's gate, for no one was allowed to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.
- 3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

In every province wherever the king's command and decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and lamenting. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.
- 4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

When Esther's young women and her chamberlains came and told her, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent clothes for Mordecai to wear instead of his sackcloth. But he would not accept them.
- 5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's chamberlains who had been assigned to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find out what was happening and why.
- 6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city before the king's gate.

- 7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Mordecai told him everything that had happened and the exact amount of silver Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.
- 8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. He also gave him a copy of the written decree issued in Shushan for their destruction, so that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her. He told him to urge Esther to go before the king to beg for mercy and to plead with him for her people.
- 9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. Hathach went back and reported Mordecai's words to Esther.
- 10 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai; Then Esther told Hathach to go back with this message for Mordecai:
- 11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king in the inner court without being summoned, there is one law — that he be put to death, unless the king holds out the golden scepter so that he may live. I have not been summoned to come before the king for thirty days."
- 12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words. When they reported Esther's words to Mordecai,
- 13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, "Do not think that in the king's palace you will escape any more than all the other Jews.

Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My young women and I will fast the same way. Then I will go to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish." |
| 17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him. | So Mordecai went away and did everything Esther had commanded him. |

Esther put on her royal robes and entered the king's court; the king extended his scepter and offered her up to half the kingdom. Esther invited the king and Haman to a banquet, then to a second banquet the next day. Haman went home rejoicing but was enraged again at Mordecai, and his wife urged him to build a gallows.

- 1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. On the third day Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, opposite the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the throne room, facing the entrance.
- 2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she won favor in his sight. He held out to her the golden scepter that was in his hand. Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.
- 3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. The king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given to you, even to half the kingdom."
- 4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet I have prepared for him."
- 5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. The king said, "Bring Haman quickly so that we may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet Esther had prepared.
- 6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. While they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It shall be granted to you. What is your request? Even to half the kingdom, it shall be fulfilled."
- 7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; Esther replied, "My petition and request is this:

- 14 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.
- his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a gallows made fifty cubits high, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go to the banquet with the king in good spirits." This pleased Haman. He had the gallows made.

Chapter 6

That night the king could not sleep and had the royal chronicles read to him, discovering that Mordecai had never been honored for saving his life. The king asked Haman how to honor a man the king delights in; Haman, thinking it was himself, described a lavish reward — then was humiliated when he had to bestow it on Mordecai.

- That night the king could not sleep. He ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought and read to him.
- 2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.
- It was found recorded that Mordecai had reported on Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.
- 3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.
- The king asked, "What honor and recognition has been given to Mordecai for this?" His attendants replied, "Nothing has been done for him."

- 4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. The king asked, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on the gallows he had prepared for him.
- 5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. The king's attendants said, "Haman is standing in the court." The king said, "Bring him in."
- 6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? So Haman came in. The king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "Who would the king want to honor more than me?"
- 7 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour, So Haman said to the king, "For the man the king delights to honor,
- 8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head: let royal robes be brought — robes that the king has worn — and a horse that the king has ridden, with a royal crown placed on its head.

And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.* That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her.
- 2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed Mordecai over the estate of Haman.
- 3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. Esther again spoke to the king. She fell at his feet and wept, pleading with him to avert the evil plan of Haman the Agagite and the plot he had devised against the Jews.
- 4 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, The king held out the golden scepter to Esther, and Esther rose and stood before the king.
- 5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces: She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and if it seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to revoke the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews throughout all the king's provinces.
- 6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred? For how can I endure to see the calamity that is coming to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my family?"

- 7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews. King Ahasuerus replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the estate of Haman. They have hanged him on the gallows because he stretched out his hand against the Jews.
- 8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse. Now you may write in the king's name whatever seems good to you concerning the Jews, and seal it with the king's signet ring, for a decree written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring cannot be revoked."
- 9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. The royal scribes were summoned at that time — it was the third month, the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day. Everything Mordecai commanded was written to the Jews and to the lieutenants, governors, and officials of the provinces from India to Ethiopia — 127 provinces — to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, and also to the Jews in their own script and language.
- 10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed the letters with the king's signet ring. He sent the letters by couriers on horseback — riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries —

| 1 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;) | In the twelfth month — the month of Adar — on the thirteenth day, when the king's command and decree were about to be carried out, on the very day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them, it was turned around so that the Jews themselves overpowered those who hated them. |
| 2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people. | The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to attack those who sought to harm them. No one could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen on all peoples. |
| 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. | All the officials of the provinces, the lieutenants, the governors, and the royal administrators supported the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. |

- 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. For Mordecai was prominent in the king's palace. His fame was spreading throughout all the provinces, for he was growing more and more powerful.
- 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them. The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them. They did as they pleased to those who hated them.
- 6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. In the citadel of Shushan the Jews killed and destroyed 500 men.
- 7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,
- 8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
- 9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha —
- 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
- 11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. On that day the number of those killed in the citadel of Shushan was reported to the king.
- 12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done. The king said to Queen Esther, "In the citadel of Shushan the Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. And what is your further request? It shall be done."

- 13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Shushan also be permitted tomorrow to act according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."
- 14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. So the king commanded this to be done. The decree was issued in Shushan, and Haman's ten sons were hanged.
- 15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand. The Jews in Shushan assembled again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed 300 men in Shushan. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
- 16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, The rest of the Jews in the king's provinces assembled and defended themselves, gaining relief from their enemies. They killed 75,000 of those who hated them. But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.
- 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. On the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.
- 18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews in Shushan had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days of the month. They rested on the fifteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

- 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another. This is why the rural Jews — those who live in villages without walls — celebrate the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of gladness and feasting, a holiday, and a time for sending gifts of food to one another.
- 20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,
- 21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, Directing them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar each year
- 22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. As the days on which the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month in which their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a holiday — so that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending gifts of food to one another and presents to the poor.
- 23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; So the Jews agreed to what they had already begun to practice and to what Mordecai had written to them.
- 24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; For Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the Pur — that is, the lot — to crush and destroy them.

- 25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. But when Esther came before the king, he ordered by letter that his wicked device which he had devised against the Jews should turn back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
- 26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, Therefore these days are called Purim, from the word Pur. Because of all the instructions in this letter and of what they had seen and experienced concerning this matter,
- 27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; The Jews established and accepted as a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who joined them, that without fail they would celebrate these two days every year as written and at the appointed time.
- 28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. These days of Purim are to be remembered and celebrated by every generation, every family, every province, and every city. These days of Purim will never cease among the Jews, nor will the memory of them fade from their descendants.
- 29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim. Then Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, together with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

Job

Author: Unknown — possibly Job himself, Moses, or another ancient writer. Jewish tradition suggests Moses.

Date written: Patriarchal era setting (c. 2000–1500 BC); one of the oldest books in the Bible.

Written to: Israel and all believers who ask why the righteous suffer.

Setting: The land of Uz, during the patriarchal period. Job is a wealthy, God-fearing man whom God allows Satan to test.

Where this sits historically: The events fall in the patriarchal era (c. 2000–1500 BC), before the giving of the Mosaic law and before Israel existed as a nation, in an age when wealth was measured in livestock and a man like Job offered sacrifices as his own household priest.

Contemporaries: Job belongs to the same general world as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the wisdom traditions of Edom and Arabia (Eliphaz comes from Teman in Edom) were flourishing alongside him.

Big themes:

- The suffering of the righteous and the mystery of God's purposes
- God's absolute sovereignty over creation and all events
- The failure of "retribution theology" — the friends' insistence that suffering always means hidden sin
- The limits of human wisdom before the infinite God
- God's answer from the whirlwind — not an explanation but a revelation of Himself
- Restoration — God vindicates Job and restores him double

Key passages: 1:21; 13:15; 19:25–27; 28:28; 38:1–4; 42:5–6

How it fits: Job is the Bible's deepest exploration of theodicy. Job's cry "I know that my redeemer liveth" (19:25) reaches beyond his own suffering to anticipate the coming Christ who will stand upon the earth.

Chapter 1

Job was a perfect and upright man in the land of Uz, the greatest of all the men of the east. Satan challenged Job's motives before God, and the LORD permitted Satan to destroy Job's possessions and children. Job fell to the ground, worshipped, and did not sin.

Chapter 14

Job meditates on the frailty of man, born of woman and full of trouble like a flower that is cut down. He observes that a tree has hope if cut down, but when a man dies he lies down and rises not, and he longs for God to hide him in the grave until His wrath is past.

Chapter 20

Zophar begins his second speech, insisting that the triumphing of the wicked is short. He describes how the sinner's ill-gotten wealth will be swallowed up, God's wrath will rain down on him, and the earth will rise up against him.

Chapter 26

Job responds with a rebuke, asking how Bildad has helped the powerless. He then exalts God's majesty, describing how God hangs the earth on nothing, stretches out the north over the empty place, and commands the sea -- yet these are only the edges of His ways.

Chapter 28

Job speaks a great poem on wisdom, declaring that man can mine silver and gold from the earth but cannot discover where wisdom dwells. It is hidden from the eyes of all living and cannot be purchased with gold or precious stones. God alone understands its way: "The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom."

Chapter 29

Job recalls the days of his former glory when God's candle shone on his head, when he sat as chief in the gate, and when the young men hid themselves and the aged arose in respect. He remembers how he delivered the poor, was eyes to the blind, and expected to die in comfort.

Chapter 32

The three friends fell silent, and the young Elihu the son of Barachel burned with anger -- against Job for justifying himself rather than God, and against the friends for condemning Job without answer. Elihu declares he can no longer hold back and must speak what the Spirit within him compels.

So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Chapter 35

Elihu argues that man's righteousness or wickedness does not affect God but only other men. He explains that the oppressed cry out but do not ask where God their maker is, and that God does not answer the empty cries of the proud.

Chapter 38

The LORD answers Job out of the whirlwind, demanding to know where Job was when He laid the foundations of the earth. God interrogates Job with unanswerable questions about the sea, the dawn, the storehouses of snow, the constellations, and the rain -- revealing that Job cannot comprehend even the natural order, let alone the moral one.

Chapter 39

God continues His speech, asking Job whether he can govern the wild goats, the unicorn, the ostrich, the horse, or the hawk. Each creature displays God's sovereign design beyond human control, and God challenges Job's right to question the One who orders all living things.

Chapter 42

Job repented in dust and ashes, confessing that he had spoken of things too wonderful for him. The LORD rebuked the three friends for not speaking rightly and commanded them to offer sacrifices while Job prayed for them. God restored Job's fortunes double and blessed his latter end more than his beginning.

Psalms

Author: Multiple — David (73 Psalms), Asaph (12), the Sons of Korah (11), Solomon (2), Moses (1 — Psalm 90), Ethan (1 — Psalm 89), and 50 anonymous "orphan" Psalms with no named author.

Date written: c. 1400 BC (Moses, Psalm 90) to the post-exile period c. 500 BC (Psalms 126, 137) — roughly a thousand-year span of worship and prayer.

Written to: Israel for corporate worship; the church for devotion and prayer.

Setting: The Psalter was Israel's hymnal — sung in Temple worship, at pilgrimage festivals, and in personal prayer. The five "books" within the Psalms (1–41, 42–72, 73–89, 90–106, 107–150) mirror the five books of Moses. Each book closes with a doxology, and the entire collection moves from lament toward praise, culminating in the five "Hallelujah" Psalms (146–150).

Where this sits historically: Spans nearly a thousand years — from Moses at Sinai (c. 1400 BC) through David and Solomon's united kingdom (1000–930 BC), the Assyrian and Babylonian crises, and on to the post-exilic return under Persia (c. 500 BC).

Contemporaries: The composers wrote alongside the historical narrative from Joshua to Nehemiah, with later editors gathering the collection during the time of Ezra; many psalms parallel events recorded in 1–2 Samuel and 1–2 Chronicles.

Big themes:

- Praise and worship — the Psalms teach God's people how to praise Him in every season of life
- Lament and honest suffering before God — more than a third of the Psalms are cries of pain, showing that faith does not require pretending
- Trust in the LORD as refuge and fortress — the dominant metaphor of the Psalter
- The kingship of God and the Messianic hope — the "royal Psalms" (2, 45, 72, 110) point to Christ's eternal reign
- Creation declaring God's glory — "The heavens declare the glory of God" (19:1)
- The Torah as light and lamp — Psalm 119, the longest chapter in the Bible, is an extended love poem to God's Word
- Repentance and confession — Psalm 51 is the Bible's greatest prayer of contrition
- God's covenant faithfulness — "His mercy endures forever" is the refrain of Psalm 136 and the heartbeat of the whole collection

Key passages: 1:1–3; 19:1; 22:1; 23; 51:10; 100; 119:105; 139:1–4

How it fits: Psalms is the most-quoted Old Testament book in the New Testament. More Messianic prophecy comes from the Psalms than from any other book. Jesus quoted Psalm 22:1 on the cross — "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" — and the early church sang and prayed the Psalms as its first hymnbook. Every human emotion finds voice here, and every voice finds its way back to God.

Psalm 1

The psalmist celebrates the man who delights in the law of the LORD. The righteous are like a tree planted by streams of water; the ungodly are like chaff driven away by the wind.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.	Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or stand in the way of sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers.
2	But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.	But His delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law He meditates day and night.
3	And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.	He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither — whatever He does prospers.
4	The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.	Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.
5	Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.	Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
6	For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.	For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

Psalm 2

The nations rage against the LORD and His anointed, but God laughs from heaven and declares His King installed on Zion. The psalm warns earthly rulers to kiss the Son and take refuge in Him before His wrath is kindled.

| 1 | Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? | Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain? |
| 2 | The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, | The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against His anointed, saying, |
| 3 | Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. | "Let us break their chains," they say, "and throw off their shackles." |
| 4 | He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision. | He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the Lord shall have them in derision. |
| 5 | Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure. | Then He rebukes them in His anger and terrifies them in His wrath, saying, |
| 6 | Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. | "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy mountain." |
| 7 | I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. | I will proclaim the LORD's decree: He said to me, "You are my Son; today I have become Your Father. |
| 8 | Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. | Ask me. I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth Your possession. |
| 9 | Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. | You will break them with a rod of iron; You will dash them to pieces like pottery." |
| 10 | Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth. | Therefore, You kings, be wise; be warned, you rulers of the earth. |
| 11 | Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. | Serve the LORD with fear and celebrate His rule with trembling. |

- 12

Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.
- Kiss His Son, or He will be angry and Your way will lead to Your destruction, for His wrath can flare up in a moment. Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

■ NAME NOTE — Zion (ZY-on) — God's holy hill in Jerusalem; the place where the LORD set His king (v6). Throughout the Psalms, Zion is the earthly seat of God's reign and a symbol of His eternal kingdom.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

The psalmist cries out to the LORD as enemies multiply against him. He confesses God as his shield and the lifter of his head, and lies down in peace because the LORD sustains him.

LORD, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.
- LORD, how many are my foes! How many rise up against me!

■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — King of Israel, "a man after God's own heart" (1 Samuel 13:14). David wrote 73 of the 150 Psalms — more than any other author. He was shepherd, warrior, fugitive, and king, and his songs span every human emotion.

■ NAME NOTE — Absalom (AB-sah-lom) — "father of peace" — David's third son, who led a rebellion against his father and seized the throne by force (2 Samuel 15–18). David fled Jerusalem in grief. Absalom was killed in battle, and David mourned him bitterly.

Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.
- Many there are who say of my soul, "There is no help for Him in God." Selah.

■ WORD NOTE — Selah (SEE-lah) — A musical or liturgical pause marker found 71 times in the Psalms. Its exact meaning is uncertain, but it likely signals a pause for reflection, a musical interlude, or a crescendo. When you see "Selah," stop and let the words sink in.

3	But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.	But You, LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, the One who lifts my head high.
4	I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.	I call out to the LORD. He answers me from His holy mountain.
5	I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.	I lie down and sleep; I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.
6	I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.	I will not fear though tens of thousands assail me on every side.
7	Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.	Arise, LORD! Deliver me, my God! Strike all my enemies on the jaw; break the teeth of the wicked.
8	Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.	From the LORD comes deliverance. May Your blessing be on Your people.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist calls on God for relief from distress and rebukes those who turn his glory into shame. He declares that the LORD has set apart the godly and lies down in peace, for God alone makes him dwell in safety.

1	Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.	Answer me when I call to You, my righteous God. Give me relief from my distress; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

■ WORD NOTE — Neginoth (NEG-ih-noth) — "stringed instruments." A musical direction in the Psalm title indicating this song was to be accompanied by harps, lyres, or other stringed instruments.

■ WORD NOTE — Mercy (MER-see) — Kindness given to someone who deserves punishment. God withholding the wrath we have earned. In the Psalms, the cry for mercy is the cry of a sinner who knows he has no claim on God except God's own goodness.

2	O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.	How long will You people turn my glory into shame? How long will You love delusions and seek false gods?
3	But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.	Know that the LORD has set apart His faithful servant for Himself; the LORD hears when I call to Him.
4	Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.	Tremble and do not sin; when You are on Your beds, search Your hearts and be silent.
5	Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.	Offer the sacrifices of the righteous and trust in the LORD.
6	There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.	There are many who say, "Who will show us any good?" LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance on us.
7	Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.	Fill my heart with joy when their grain and new wine abound.
8	I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.	In peace I will lie down and sleep, for You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist asks God to hear his morning prayer and lead him in righteousness. He contrasts the wicked, whose throats are open graves, with the righteous who take refuge in God and are surrounded by His favor as with a shield.

1	Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.	Listen to my words, LORD, consider my lament.
2	Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.	Hear my cry for help, my King and my God, for to You I pray.

- | | | |
| 3 | My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up. | In the morning, LORD, You hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before You and wait expectantly. |
| 4 | For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee. | For You are not a God Who is pleased with wickedness; with You, evil people are not welcome. |
| 5 | The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. | The arrogant cannot stand in Your presence. You hate all who do wrong; |

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIK-wih-tee) — Deep, twisted wrongdoing; stronger than "sin." Iniquity is the corruption beneath the sinful act — the bent nature that produces evil deeds.

- | | | |
| 6 | Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. | You destroy those who tell lies. The bloodthirsty and deceitful You, LORD, detest. |
| 7 | But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple. | But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy; and in Your fear I will worship toward Your holy temple. |
| 8 | Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face. | Lead me, LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies — make Your way straight before me. |
| 9 | For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue. | Not a word from their mouth can be trusted; their heart is filled with malice. Their throat is an open grave; with their tongues they tell lies. |
| 10 | Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee. | Declare them guilty, O God! Let their intrigues be their downfall. Banish them for their many sins, for they have rebelled against You. |

■ WORD NOTE — Transgression (trans-GRESH-un) — Crossing the line that God set; breaking a specific command. Where "iniquity" is the twisted nature, "transgression" is the deliberate act of crossing God's boundary.

| 12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield. | Surely, LORD, You bless the righteous; you surround them with your favor as with a shield. |

To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist pleads with the LORD not to rebuke him in anger, for his bones are troubled and his soul is greatly vexed. He begs God to return and save him for His mercy's sake, weeping on his bed every night.

7	Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.	My eyes grow weak with sorrow; they fail because of all my foes.
8	Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.	Away from me, all You who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping.
9	The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.	The LORD has heard my cry for mercy; the LORD accepts my prayer.
10	Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.	All my enemies will be overwhelmed with shame and anguish; they will turn back and suddenly be put to shame.

Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

The psalmist takes refuge in the LORD from those who pursue him and asks God to arise in judgment. He declares that God is a righteous judge who tests hearts and reins, and gives thanks to the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

To the chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist marvels at the excellency of God's name in all the earth and asks what man is that God should be mindful of him. God has crowned man with glory and honour and given him dominion over the works of His hands.

3	When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;	When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place,
4	What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?	what is man, that You are mindful of Him? And the son of man, that You visit Him?
5	For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.	For You have made Him a little lower than the angels and crowned Him with glory and honor.
6	Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:	You made Him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under His feet:
7	All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;	all flocks and herds, and the animals of the wild,
8	The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.	the birds in the sky, and the fish in the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas.
9	O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!	LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist praises God with his whole heart and recounts how his enemies turned back and perished. He declares that the LORD reigns forever, judges the world in righteousness, and is a refuge for the oppressed in times of trouble.

| 3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence. | My enemies turn back; they stumble and perish before You. |
| 4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right. | For You have upheld my right and my cause, sitting enthroned as the righteous judge. |
| 5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever. | You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name for ever and ever. |
| 6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them. | Endless ruin has overtaken my enemies; you have uprooted their cities — even the memory of them has perished. |
| 7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment. | The LORD reigns forever; He has established His throne for judgment. |
| 8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness. | He rules the world in righteousness and judges the peoples with equity. |
| 9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. | The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. |
| 10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee. | Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek You. |

- 14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. He shot his arrows and scattered the enemy, with great bolts of lightning he routed them.
- 15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at Your rebuke, LORD, at the blast of breath from Your nostrils.
- 16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters. He reached down from on high and took hold of me; He drew me out of deep waters.
- 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me. He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.
- 18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay. They confronted me in the day of my disaster. But The LORD was my support.
- 19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me. He brought me out into a spacious place; He rescued me because He delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I am not guilty of turning from my God.
- 22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me. All His laws are before me; I have not turned away from His decrees.

- 23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity. I have been blameless before Him and have kept myself from sin.
- 24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.
- 25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright; To the faithful You show Yourself faithful, to the blameless You show Yourself blameless,
- 26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward. to the pure You show Yourself pure, but to the devious You show Yourself shrewd.
- 27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks. You save the humble but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.
- 28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. You, LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns my darkness into light.
- 29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall. With Your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.
- 30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him. As for God, His way is perfect: the LORD's word is flawless; He shields all who take refuge in Him.
- 31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God? For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?
- 32 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. It is God Who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure.
- 33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; He causes me to stand on the heights.
- 34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms. He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

- 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great. You make Your saving help my shield, and Your right hand sustains me; Your help has made me great.
- 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip. You provide a broad path for my feet, so that my ankles do not give way.
- 37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed. I pursued my enemies and overtook them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.
- 38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet. I crushed them so that they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.
- 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me. You armed me with strength for battle; You humbled my adversaries before me.
- 40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me. You made my enemies turn their backs in flight. I destroyed my foes.
- 41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not. They cried for help, but there was no one to save them — to the LORD. But He did not answer.
- 42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets. I beat them as fine as windblown dust; I trampled them like mud in the streets.
- 43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me. You have delivered me from the attacks of the people; you have made me the head of nations. People I did not know now serve me,
- 44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me. foreigners cower before me; as soon as they hear of me, they obey me.

- | | | |
|----|---|---|
| 45 | The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places. | They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds. |
| 46 | The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted. | The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God my Savior! |
| 47 | It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me. | He is the God Who avenges me, who subdues nations under me, |
| 48 | He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. | who saves me from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from a violent man You rescued me. |
| 49 | Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name. | Therefore I will praise You, LORD, among the nations; I will sing the praises of your name. |
| 50 | Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore. | He gives his king great victories; he shows mercy to his anointed, to David and to his descendants forever. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares that the heavens proclaim God's glory and the skies display His handiwork. He then celebrates the perfection of the LORD's law, which revives the soul and makes wise the simple, and prays to be kept from presumptuous sins.

| 2 | Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart. | Test me, LORD, and try me, examine my heart and my mind; |
| 3 | For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth. | for I have always been mindful of Your mercy and have lived in reliance on Your faithfulness. |

4	I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.	I do not sit with the deceitful, nor do I associate with hypocrites.
5	I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.	I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.
6	I will wash mine hands in innocence: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD:	I wash my hands in innocence, and go about Your altar, LORD,
7	That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.	proclaiming aloud Your praise and telling of all Your wonderful deeds.
8	LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.	LORD, I love the house where You live, the place where Your glory dwells.
9	Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:	Do not take away my soul along with sinners, my life with those who are bloodthirsty,
10	In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.	in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.
11	But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.	I lead a blameless life; deliver me and be merciful to me.
12	My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the LORD.	My feet stand on level ground; in the great assembly I will praise the LORD.

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist declares the LORD is his light and salvation and asks whom he shall fear. He desires one thing above all -- to dwell in the house of the LORD forever. Though father and mother forsake him, the LORD will take him up, and he resolves to wait on the LORD and be of good courage.

- 2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me. Turn Your ear to me, come quickly to my rescue; be my rock of refuge, a strong fortress to save me.
- 3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me. Since You are my rock and my fortress, for the sake of Your name lead and guide me.
- 4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength. Keep me free from the trap that is set for me, for You are my refuge.
- 5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth. Into Your hands I commit my spirit; deliver me, LORD, my faithful God.
- 6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD. I hate those who cling to worthless idols; as for me, I trust in the LORD.
- 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy, for You have considered my trouble; You have known my soul in adversities.
- 8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room. You have not given me into the hands of the enemy but have set my feet in a spacious place.
- 9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly. Be merciful to me, LORD, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weak with sorrow, my soul and body with grief.
- 10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed. My life is consumed by anguish and my years by groaning; my strength fails because of my affliction, and my bones grow weak.
- 11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me. Because of all my enemies, I am the utter contempt of my neighbors and an object of dread to my closest friends — those who see me on the street flee from me.

- 12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel. I am forgotten as though I were dead; I have become like broken pottery.
- 13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life. For I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side!" They conspire against me and plot to take my life.
- 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God. But I trust in You, LORD; I say, "You are my God."
- 15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me. My times are in Your hands; deliver me from the hands of my enemies, from those who pursue me.
- 16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake. Let Your face shine on Your servant; save me in Your mercy.
- 17 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave. Let me not be ashamed, LORD, for I have called on You; let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.
- 18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous. Let their lying lips be silenced, for with pride and contempt they speak arrogantly against the righteous.
- 19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! How abundant are the good things that You have stored up for those who fear You, that You bestow in the sight of all, on those who take refuge in You.
- 20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. You shall hide them in the secret of Your presence from the pride of man; You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city. Blessed be the LORD, for He has shown me His marvellous kindness in a strong city.

For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
- In my alarm I said, "I am cut off from Your sight!" Yet You heard my cry for mercy when I called to You for help.

O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
- O love the LORD, all You His saints! For the LORD preserves the faithful, and plentifully rewards the proud doer.
- 24

Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.
- Be strong and take heart, all You who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

A Psalm of David. Maschil.

The psalmist declares blessed the man whose transgression is forgiven and whose sin is covered. He confesses that when he kept silent his bones wasted away, but when he acknowledged his sin the LORD forgave the iniquity of his heart. He calls the righteous to rejoice and shout for joy.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
- Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

■ WORD NOTE — Grace (GRAYS) — God's unearned kindness; a gift we could never deserve. Grace is not a reward for good behavior. It is God freely giving what we could never earn — forgiveness, life, and standing before Him — all because of Christ.

| 18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. | The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. |
| 19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all. | The righteous person may have many troubles. But The LORD delivers Him from them all; |
| 20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. | he protects all His bones, not one of them will be broken. |
| 21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. | Evil will slay the wicked; the foes of the righteous will be condemned. |
| 22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate. | The LORD will rescue His servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned. |

Psalm 35

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist calls on the LORD to take up shield and spear and fight against those who persecute him without cause. He describes false witnesses who repay his good with evil, and asks God to vindicate him and put his enemies to shame.

- 9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation. Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in His salvation.
- 10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him? My whole being will exclaim, "Who is like You, LORD? You rescue the poor from those too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them."
- 11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not. Ruthless witnesses come forward; they question me on things I know nothing about.
- 12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul. They repay me evil for good and leave me like one bereaved.
- 13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom. Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered,
- 14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother. I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother. I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for my mother.
- 15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the objects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not: But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; assailants gathered against me without my knowledge. They slandered me without ceasing.
- 16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth. Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked; they gnashed their teeth at me.
- 17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions. How long, Lord, will You look on? Rescue me from their ravages, my precious life from these lions.

- 18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people. I will give You thanks in the great assembly; among the throngs I will praise You.
- 19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause. Do not let those gloat over me who are my enemies without cause; do not let those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.
- 20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land. They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations against those who live quietly in the land.
- 21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it. They sneer at me and say, "Aha! Aha! With our own eyes we have seen it."
- 22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me. LORD, You have seen this; do not be silent. Do not be far from me, Lord.
- 23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord. Awake, and rise to my defense! Contend for me, my God and Lord.
- 24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me. Vindicate me in Your righteousness, LORD my God; do not let them gloat over me.
- 25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up. Do not let them think, "Aha, just what we wanted!" or say, "We have swallowed Him up."
- 26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me. May all who gloat over my distress be put to shame and confusion; may all who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

| 28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long. | My tongue will proclaim Your righteousness, Your praises all day long. |

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

The psalmist describes the wicked who have no fear of God and flatter themselves in their own eyes. He contrasts this with the LORD whose mercy reaches to the heavens, whose faithfulness to the clouds, and in whose light we see light.

10	O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.	Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
11	Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.	May the foot of the proud not come against me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12	There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.	See how the evildoers lie fallen — thrown down, not able to rise!

A Psalm of David.

The psalmist counsels against fretting over evildoers, for they shall soon be cut down like grass. He urges trust in the LORD, delight in Him, and commitment of one's way to God, promising that the meek shall inherit the earth and the righteous shall never be forsaken.

Psalm 38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

The psalmist groans under the LORD's chastening hand, confessing that his iniquities have gone over his head like a heavy burden. His wounds stink, his friends stand far off, and his enemies plot against him, yet he waits silently for the LORD and pleads: do not forsake me.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist pronounces blessing on the one who considers the poor. He confesses his own sin, describes the betrayal of a close friend who lifted his heel against him, and closes with a doxology blessing the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting.

| 1 | Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. | Blessed are those who have regard for the weak; the LORD delivers them in times of trouble. |
| 2 | The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies. | The LORD protects and preserves them — they are counted among the blessed in the land — He does not give them over to the desire of their foes. |
| 3 | The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. | The LORD sustains them on their sickbed and restores them from their bed of illness. |
| 4 | I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. | I said, "Have mercy on me, LORD; heal me, for I have sinned against You." |
| 5 | Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish? | My enemies say of me in malice, "When will He die and His name perish?" |
| 6 | And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it. | When one of them comes to see me, He speaks falsely, while His heart gathers slander; then He goes out and spreads it around. |
| 7 | All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt. | All my enemies whisper together against me; they imagine the worst for me, saying, |
| 8 | An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more. | "A vile disease has afflicted Him; He will never get up from the place where He lies." |
| 9 | Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me. | Even my close friend, someone I trusted, one who shared my bread, has turned against me. |

10	But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.	But may You have mercy on me, LORD; raise me up, that I may repay them.
11	By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.	I know that You are pleased with me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.
12	And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.	Because of my integrity You uphold me and set me in Your presence forever.
13	Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.	Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Amen and Amen.

To the chief Musician. Maschil, for the Sons of Korah.

The psalmist pants for God as a deer pants for streams of water, his soul thirsting for the living God. Tears are his food day and night as enemies taunt him, yet he preaches to his own soul: "Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him."

1	As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.	As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God.

■ NAME NOTE — Sons of Korah (KOHR-ah) — Levitical singers and temple musicians. Their ancestor Korah led a rebellion against Moses and was swallowed by the earth (Numbers 16), but his sons were spared. Their descendants became worship leaders, and eleven Psalms bear their name (42–49, 84–85, 87–88). Their songs often express deep longing for God's presence.

- 4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday. These things I remember as I pour out my soul: how I used to go to the house of God under the protection of the Mighty One with shouts of joy and praise among the festive throng.
- 5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance. Why are You cast down, O my soul? And why are You disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him for the help of His countenance.
- 6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar. My soul is downcast within me; therefore I will remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon — from Mount Mizar.
- 7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. Deep calls to deep in the roar of your waterfalls; all your waves and breakers have swept over me.
- 8 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life. Yet the LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song shall be with me, and my prayer to the God of my life.
- 9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? I say to God my Rock, "Why have You forgotten me? Why must I go about mourning, oppressed by the enemy?"
- 10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God? My bones suffer mortal agony as my foes taunt me, saying to me all day long, "Where is Your God?"
- 11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. Why are You cast down, O my soul? And why are You disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

The psalmist pleads with God to judge his cause against an ungodly nation and send out His light and truth to lead him to the holy hill. He again commands his own soul to hope in God, for he shall yet praise the LORD, the health of his countenance.

To the chief Musician for the Sons of Korah. Maschil.

The people recall how God drove out nations for their fathers, yet now He has cast them off and scattered them among the heathen. They protest their faithfulness, declaring that they are killed all the day long and counted as sheep for the slaughter, and plead with God to awake and redeem them.

A Psalm of Asaph.

God summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting and shines forth from Zion. He rebukes His people for trusting in sacrifice while ignoring obedience, asking whether He eats the flesh of bulls or drinks the blood of goats. He commands: offer thanksgiving and call on Me in the day of trouble.

1	The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.	The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to where it sets.

■ NAME NOTE — Asaph (AY-saf) — "gatherer" — Chief musician appointed by David; a seer and worship leader (1 Chronicles 16:4–5; 2 Chronicles 29:30). Twelve Psalms bear his name (50, 73–83). His Psalms often confront Israel with God's justice and call the people to genuine worship rather than empty ritual.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

The psalmist confesses his sin against God and pleads for mercy according to the LORD's lovingkindness. He cries, "Create in me a clean heart, O God," and asks not to be cast from God's presence or to have the Holy Spirit taken from him. The sacrifice God desires is a broken and contrite heart.

Psalm 59

To the chief Musician. Altaschith. Michtam of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

The psalmist pleads for deliverance from enemies who surround his house like snarling dogs. Though they lie in wait with no cause, he trusts that God will scatter them and let all Israel know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. He will sing of God's strength and mercy every morning.

To the chief Musician upon Shushaneduth. Michtam of David, to teach; when he strove with Aramnaharaim and with Aramzobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.

The psalmist laments that God has cast off and scattered His people after a military defeat. Yet God has spoken in His holiness, claiming Shechem, Succoth, Gilead, Ephraim, and Judah as His own. Through God the people will do valiantly, for it is He who shall tread down their enemies.

- 15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan. Mount Bashan, majestic mountain, Mount Bashan, rugged mountain,
- 16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever. why gaze in envy, You rugged mountain, at the mountain where God chooses to reign, where the LORD Himself will dwell forever?
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place. The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands; the Lord has come from Sinai into His sanctuary.
- 18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them. When You ascended on high, You took many captives; You received gifts from people, even from the rebellious — that You, LORD God, might dwell there.
- 19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah. Praise be to the Lord, to God our Savior, who daily bears our burdens.
- 20 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto GOD the Lord belong the issues from death. He who is our God is the God of salvation; and to GOD the Lord belong the issues from death.
- 21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses. Surely God will crush the heads of His enemies, the hairy crowns of those who go on in their sins.
- 22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea: The Lord says, "I will bring them from Bashan; I will bring them from the depths of the sea,
- 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same. that Your feet may wade in the blood of Your foes, while the tongues of Your dogs have their share."

- 24 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary. Your procession, God, has come into view, the procession of my God and King into the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels. In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them are the young women playing the timbrels.
- 26 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel. Praise God in the great congregation; praise the LORD in the assembly of Israel.
- 27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. There is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them, there the great throng of Judah's princes, and there the princes of Zebulun and of Naphtali.
- 28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us. Summon Your power, God; show us Your strength, our God, as You have done before.
- 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee. Because of Your temple at Jerusalem kings will bring You gifts.
- 30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war. Rebuke the beast among the reeds, the herd of bulls among the calves of the nations. Humbled, may the beast bring bars of silver. Scatter the nations who delight in war.
- 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God. Envoys will come from Egypt; Cush will submit herself to God.
- 32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah: Sing to God, You kingdoms of the earth, sing praise to the Lord,
- 33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice. to him who rides across the highest heavens, the ancient heavens, who thunders with mighty voice.

| 35 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God. | You, God, are awesome in Your sanctuary; the God of Israel gives power and strength to His people. Praise be to God! |

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

The psalmist sinks in deep mire as waters rise to his neck, crying for God to save him. Zeal for God's house has consumed him, and the reproaches of those who reproach God have fallen on him. He prophetically describes being given gall and vinegar to drink and calls on God to vindicate him -- a psalm the apostles applied to Christ's suffering.

The psalmist, now old and gray-headed, takes refuge in the LORD who has been his trust from youth and his hope from his mother's womb. He asks God not to cast him off in the time of old age, and vows to praise God's righteousness and declare His wondrous works to the next generation.

- 14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more. As for me, I will always have hope; I will praise You more and more.
- 15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. My mouth will tell of Your righteous deeds, of Your saving acts all day long — though I know not how to relate them all.
- 16 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only. I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD; I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours only.
- 17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works. Since my youth, God, You have taught me, and to this day I declare Your marvelous deeds.
- 18 Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come. Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my God, till I declare Your power to the next generation, Your mighty acts to all who are to come.
- 19 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee! Your righteousness, God, reaches to the heavens, You who have done great things. Who is like You, God?
- 20 Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth. Though You have made me see troubles, many and bitter, You will restore my life again; from the depths of the earth You will again bring me up.
- 21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side. You will increase my honor and comfort me once more.
- 22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel. I will praise You with the harp for Your faithfulness, my God; I will sing praise to You with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.
- 23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed. My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to You — I whom You have delivered.

24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

My tongue will tell of Your righteous acts all day long, for those who wanted to harm me have been put to shame and confusion.

Psalm 72

The psalmist prays for the king to judge the people with righteousness and the poor with justice. The king's dominion shall reach from sea to sea, all kings shall fall down before him, and his name shall endure forever. The psalm closes with a doxology: blessed be the LORD God of Israel who alone does wondrous things.

A Psalm of Asaph.

The psalmist nearly stumbles when he envies the prosperity of the wicked, who seem to suffer no pain and grow fat with ease. But when he enters the sanctuary of God, he understands their end -- they are set in slippery places. He concludes that God is the strength of his heart and his portion forever.

1	Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.	Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.

Maschil of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Maschil (MAS-kil) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "a contemplation" or "a skillful psalm." It marks a Psalm meant for instruction or deep meditation — a teaching song.

The psalmist laments the destruction of the sanctuary, where enemies have roared, set up their ensigns, smashed the carved work, and burned God's dwelling place to the ground. He pleads with God to remember His covenant, arise, and no longer allow the foolish to reproach His name.

Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.
- O God, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smolder against the sheep of Your pasture?*
- Remember the nation you purchased long ago, the people of your inheritance, whom you redeemed — Mount Zion, where you lived.*
- Turn your steps toward these everlasting ruins, all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary.*

| 4 | Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. | Your enemies roar in the midst of your congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs. |
| 5 | A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. | They behaved like men wielding axes to cut through a thicket of trees. |
| 6 | But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers. | They smashed all the carved paneling with their axes and hatchets. |
| 7 | They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. | They burned your sanctuary to the ground; they defiled the dwelling place of your Name. |
| 8 | They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land. | They said in their hearts, "We will crush them completely!" They burned every place where God was worshiped in the land. |
| 9 | We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long. | We are given no signs from God; no prophets are left, and none of us knows how long this will be. |
| 10 | O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? | How long will the enemy mock you, God? Will the foe revile your name forever? |
| 11 | Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom. | Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take it from the folds of your garment and destroy them! |
| 12 | For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth. | But God is my King from long ago; He brings salvation on the earth. |
| 13 | Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters. | It was you who split open the sea by your power; you broke the heads of the monster in the waters. |
| 14 | Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness. | It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan and gave it as food to the creatures of the desert. |

| 15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers. | It was you who opened up springs and streams; you dried up the ever-flowing rivers. |
| 16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun. | The day is yours, and yours also the night; you established the sun and moon. |
| 17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter. | It was you who set all the boundaries of the earth; you made both summer and winter. |
| 18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name. | Remember how the enemy has mocked you, LORD, how foolish people have reviled Your name. |
| 19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever. | Do not hand over the life of Your dove to wild beasts; do not forget the lives of Your afflicted people forever. |
| 20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty. | Have regard for Your covenant, because haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land. |
| 21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name. | Do not let the oppressed retreat in disgrace; may the poor and needy praise Your name. |
| 22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily. | Rise up, O God, and defend Your cause; remember how fools mock You all day long. |
| 23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually. | Do not ignore the clamor of Your adversaries, the uproar of Your enemies, which rises continually. |

To the chief Musician, Altaschith, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Altaschith (al-TAS-kith) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "Do not destroy." It may indicate the tune to which the Psalm was sung, or a plea that forms the theme of the song.

The people give thanks because God's name is near and His wondrous works declare it. God speaks, warning the arrogant not to lift up the horn, for promotion comes neither from the east nor the west -- it is God who judges, putting down one and setting up another. The wicked shall drink the dregs of His cup of wrath.

| 1 Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. | We praise You, God, we praise You, for Your Name is near; people tell of Your wonderful deeds. |
| 2 When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. | You say, "I choose the appointed time; it is I who judge with equity. |
| 3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah. | When the earth and all its people quake, it is I who hold its pillars firm. |
| 4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn: | To the arrogant I say, 'Boast no more,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horns. |
| 5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck. | Do not lift your horns against heaven; do not speak so defiantly.' " |
| 6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. | No one from the east or the west or from the desert can exalt themselves. |
| 7 But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another. | It is God Who judges: He brings one down, He exalts another. |
| 8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them. | In the hand of the LORD is a cup full of foaming wine mixed with spices; He pours it out. All the wicked of the earth drink it down to its very dregs. |

But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- 10

All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.
- As for me, I will declare this forever; I will sing praise to the God of Jacob, who says, "I will cut off the horns of all the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up."

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

■ WORD NOTE — Neginoth (NEG-ih-noth) — A Hebrew term in Psalm titles meaning "stringed instruments." It directs the musicians to accompany the Psalm with harps, lyres, or other stringed instruments.

The psalmist celebrates God's victory from Zion, where He broke the weapons of war and judged the earth. All are called to fear the God who cuts off the spirit of rulers and terrifies the kings of the earth.

The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
- God is renowned in Judah; in Israel His name is great. his tent is in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion. There he broke the flashing arrows, the shields and the swords, the weapons of war. You are radiant with light, more majestic than mountains rich with game. The valiant lie plundered, they sleep their last sleep; not one of the warriors can lift his hands. At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both horse and chariot lie still.

7	Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?	It is you alone who are to be feared. Who can stand before you when you are angry?
8	Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still,	From heaven you pronounced judgment, and the land feared and was quiet —
9	When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.	when You, God, rose up to judge, to save all the afflicted of the land.
10	Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.	Human wrath brings you praise, and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.
11	Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.	Make vows to the LORD Your God and fulfill them; let all the neighboring lands bring gifts to the One to be feared.
12	He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.	He breaks the spirit of rulers; He is feared by the kings of the earth.

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph.

■ NAME NOTE — Jeduthun (jeh-DOO-thun) — "praising" — One of three chief musicians appointed by David to lead worship (alongside Asaph and Heman). His name appears in the titles of Psalms 39, 62, and 77, likely indicating a musical style, choir, or tune associated with his tradition.

The psalmist cries out to God in deep distress, unable to sleep or be comforted, wondering whether the Lord has forgotten His mercy. He turns from despair to remembrance, recalling God's mighty works at the Red Sea and His faithful leading of Israel through Moses and Aaron.

18	The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.	Your thunder was heard in the whirlwind, your lightning lit up the world; the earth trembled and quaked.
19	Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.	Your path led through the sea, your way through the mighty waters, though your footprints were not seen.
20	Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.	You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Maschil of Asaph.

Asaph recounts Israel's history from the exodus through the wilderness to David's kingship, tracing a pattern of God's mighty deliverance met by the people's stubborn rebellion. Despite Israel's repeated unfaithfulness, God shows compassion again and again, finally choosing Judah, Zion, and David to shepherd His people.

1	Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.	My people, hear my teaching; listen to the words of my mouth.

- 2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: I will open my mouth with a parable; I will utter hidden things, things from of old —
- 3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. We will not hide them from their descendants; we will tell the next generation the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, His power, and the wonders He has done.
- 5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children,
- 6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: so the next generation would know them, even the children yet to be born. They in turn would tell their children.
- 7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget His deeds but would keep His commands.
- 8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God. They would not be like their ancestors — a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal to God, whose spirits were not faithful to Him.
- 9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned back on the day of battle;
- 10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law; they did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by His law.
- 11 And forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them. They forgot what he had done, the wonders he had shown them.

- 12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He did miracles in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.
- 13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. He divided the sea and led them through; he made the water stand up like a wall.
- 14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire. He guided them with the cloud by day and with light from the fire all night.
- 15 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them water as abundant as the seas;
- 16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. he brought streams out of a rocky crag and made water flow down like rivers.
- 17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness. But they continued to sin against Him, rebelling in the wilderness against the Most High.
- 18 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust. They willfully put God to the test by demanding the food they craved.
- 19 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness? They spoke against God; they said, "Can God really spread a table in the wilderness?"
- 20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? True, He struck the rock, and water gushed out, streams flowed abundantly, but can He also give us bread? Can He supply meat for His people?"
- 21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; When the LORD heard them, He was furious; His fire broke out against Jacob. His wrath rose against Israel,
- 22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation: for they did not believe in God or trust in His deliverance.

- 23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, Yet He gave a command to the skies above and opened the doors of the heavens;
- 24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. he rained down manna for the people to eat, he gave them the grain of heaven.
- 25 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. Man ate angels' food; He sent them meat to the full.
- 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind. He let loose the east wind from the heavens and by His power made the south wind blow.
- 27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea: He rained meat down on them like dust, birds like sand on the seashore.
- 28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations. He made them come down inside their camp, all around their tents.
- 29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; They ate till they were gorged — he had given them what they craved.
- 30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths, But before they turned from what they craved, even while the food was still in their mouths,
- 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. God's anger rose against them; He put to death the sturdiest among them, cutting down the young men of Israel.
- 32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works. In spite of all this, they kept on sinning; in spite of His wonders, they did not believe.
- 33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble. So He ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
- 34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God. Whenever God slew them, they would seek Him; they eagerly turned to Him again.

- 35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.
- 36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues. But then they would flatter Him with their mouths, lying to Him with their tongues;
- 37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant. their hearts were not loyal to Him, they were not faithful to His covenant.
- 38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath. Yet He was merciful; He forgave their iniquities and did not destroy them. Time after time He restrained His anger and did not stir up His full wrath.
- 39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. He remembered that they were but flesh, a passing breeze that does not return.
- 40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the wasteland!
- 41 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. Again and again they put God to the test; they vexed the Holy One of Israel.
- 42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy. They did not remember His power — the day He redeemed them from the oppressor,
- 43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan: the day He displayed His signs in Egypt, His wonders in the region of Zoan.
- 44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink. He turned their river into blood; they could not drink from their streams.

- 45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them. He sent swarms of flies that devoured them, and frogs that devastated them.
- 46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust. He gave their crops to the grasshopper, their produce to the locust.
- 47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost. He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
- 48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He gave over their cattle to the hail, their livestock to bolts of lightning.
- 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them. He unleashed against them His hot anger, His wrath, indignation and hostility — a band of destroying angels.
- 50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence; He prepared a path for His anger; He did not spare them from death but gave them over to the plague.
- 51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham: He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt, the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.
- 52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. But he brought his people out like a flock; he led them like sheep through the wilderness.
- 53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. He guided them safely, so they were unafraid; but the sea engulfed their enemies.
- 54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased. so he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand had taken.
- 55 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. He drove out nations before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance; he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.

- 56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High; they did not keep His statutes.
- 57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. Like their ancestors they were disloyal and faithless, as unreliable as a faulty bow.
- 58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. They angered Him with their high places; they aroused His jealousy with their idols.
- 59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel: When God heard them, He was furious; He rejected Israel completely.
- 60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which He placed among men,
- 61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand. He sent the ark of His might into captivity, His splendor into the hands of the enemy.
- 62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance. He gave His people over to the sword; He was furious with His inheritance.
- 63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage. Fire consumed their young men. Their young women had no wedding songs;
- 64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation. their priests were put to the sword. Their widows could not weep.
- 65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine. Then the Lord awoke as if from sleep, as a warrior wakes from the stupor of wine.
- 66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach. He beat back His enemies; He put them to everlasting shame.
- 67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim: Then he rejected the tents of Joseph, he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;

68	But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.	but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loved.
69	And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.	He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that he established forever.
70	He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:	He chose David his servant and took him from the sheep pens;
71	From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.	from tending the sheep he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel his inheritance.
72	So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.	David shepherded them with integrity of heart; with skillful hands he led them.

A Psalm of Asaph.

The psalmist laments the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple by invading nations, crying out to God over the unburied dead and the mockery of enemies. He pleads for God to pour out His wrath on the nations and to show mercy to His suffering people for the sake of His name.

Psalm 80

The psalmist pleads with the Shepherd of Israel to shine forth and restore His people, using the image of a vine transplanted from Egypt that once filled the land but now lies broken and burned. The repeated refrain begs God to turn them again and cause His countenance to shine, that they may be saved.

Psalm 89

Ethan celebrates God's covenant with David, praising His faithfulness and His sworn oath to establish David's throne forever. But the psalm turns to anguish as the psalmist confronts the apparent ruin of that covenant — the king is cast down, the crown defiled — and he cries out, asking how long the LORD will hide Himself.

faithfulness round about You? |
| 9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. | You rule over the surging sea; when its waves mount up, You still them. |
| 10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm. | You crushed Rahab like one of the slain; with Your strong arm You scattered Your enemies. |
| 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them. | The heavens are Yours, and Yours also the earth; You founded the world and all that is in it. |
| 12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name. | You created the north and the south;
Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at Your name. |

- 13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand. Your arm is endowed with power; Your hand is strong, Your right hand exalted.
- 14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Justice and judgment are the habitation of Your throne; mercy and truth shall go before Your face.
- 15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance. Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound; they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
- 16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted. They rejoice in Your name all day long; they celebrate Your righteousness.
- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted. For You are their glory and strength, and by Your favor You exalt our horn.
- 18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king. Indeed, our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.
- 19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people. Then You spoke in vision to Your holy one, and said, "I have laid help on one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him: I have found David my servant; with my sacred oil I have anointed him.
- 21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him. My hand will sustain him; surely my arm will strengthen him.
- 22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him. The enemy will not get the better of him; the wicked will not oppress him.
- 23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him. I will crush his foes before him and strike down his adversaries.

- | | |

| 24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted. | But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn be exalted. |
| 25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers. | I will set his hand over the sea, his right hand over the rivers. |
| 26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation. | He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, the Rock my Savior.' |
| 27 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. | I will appoint him to be my firstborn, the most exalted of the kings of the earth. |
| 28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. | My mercy I will keep for him forever, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. |
| 29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven. | I will establish his line forever, his throne as long as the heavens endure. |
| 30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; | If his sons forsake my law and do not follow my statutes, |
| 31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; | if they violate my decrees and fail to keep my commands, |
| 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. | I will punish their sin with the rod, their iniquity with flogging; |
| 33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail. | Nevertheless my lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him, nor allow my faithfulness to fail. |
| 34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. | I will not violate my covenant or alter what my lips have uttered. |
| 35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. | Once for all, I have sworn by my holiness — and I will not lie to David — |

- 36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me. that his line will continue forever and his throne endure before me like the sun;
- 37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah. it will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky."
- 38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. But you have cast off and abhorred; you have been angry with your anointed.
- 39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. You have renounced the covenant with your servant and have defiled his crown in the dust.
- 40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin. You have broken through all his walls and reduced his strongholds to ruins.
- 41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours. All who pass by have plundered him; he has become the scorn of his neighbors.
- 42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice. You have exalted the right hand of his foes; you have made all his enemies rejoice.
- 43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Indeed, you have turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.
- 44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground. You have put an end to his splendor and cast his throne to the ground.
- 45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah. You have cut short the days of his youth; you have covered him with a mantle of shame.
- 46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire? How long, LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever? How long will Your wrath burn like fire?

Psalm 90

Moses meditates on God's eternity against the brevity of human life, noting that a thousand years are like a day in God's sight and man's years are but seventy or eighty. He prays that God would teach His people to number their days, satisfy them with mercy, and establish the work of their hands.

| 6 | O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. | you his servants, the descendants of Abraham, his chosen ones, the children of Jacob. |
| 7 | He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth. | He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth. |
| 8 | He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. | He remembers His covenant forever, the promise He made, for a thousand generations, |
| 9 | Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; | the covenant he made with Abraham, the oath he swore to Isaac. |
| 10 | And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: | He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant: |
| 11 | Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: | "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion you will inherit." |
| 12 | When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. | When they were but few in number, few indeed, and strangers in it, |
| 13 | When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; | they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another. |
| 14 | He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes; | He allowed no one to oppress them; for their sake he rebuked kings: |

- 15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. Saying, "Touch not my anointed, and do my prophets no harm."
- 16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread. He called down famine on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food;
- 17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: he sent a man before them — Joseph, sold as a slave.
- 18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: They bruised his feet with shackles, his neck was put in irons,
- 19 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him. till what He foretold came to pass, till the word of the LORD proved Him true.
- 20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free. The king sent and released him, the ruler of peoples set him free.
- 21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance: He made him master of his household, ruler over all he possessed,
- 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom. to instruct his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.
- 23 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. Then Israel entered Egypt; Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.
- 24 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies. The LORD made His people very fruitful; He made them too numerous for their foes,
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants. whose hearts He turned to hate His people, to conspire against His servants.
- 26 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. He sent Moses his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
- 27 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. They performed his signs among them, his wonders in the land of Ham.

- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word. He sent darkness and made the land dark — for had they not rebelled against his words?
- 29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish. He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.
- 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings. Their land teemed with frogs, which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.
- 31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts. He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land. He turned their rain into hail, with lightning throughout their land;
- 33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts. he struck down their vines and fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.
- 34 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number, He spoke, and the locusts came, grasshoppers without number;
- 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground. they ate up every green thing in their land, ate up the produce of their soil.
- 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength. Then he struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their manhood.
- 37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes. He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold, and from among their tribes no one faltered.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them. Egypt was glad when they left, because dread of Israel had fallen on them.
- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night. He spread out a cloud as a covering, and a fire to give light at night.

| 40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. | They asked. He brought them quail; he fed them well with the bread of heaven. |
| 41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river. | He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed like a river in the desert. |
| 42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. | For he remembered his holy promise given to his servant Abraham. |
| 43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: | He brought out his people with rejoicing, his chosen ones with shouts of joy; |
| 44 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people; | he gave them the lands of the nations. They fell heir to what others had toiled for — |
| 45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD. | that they might keep His precepts and observe His laws. Praise the LORD. |

Psalm 106

The psalmist confesses Israel's long history of sin — from the Red Sea to the golden calf, from Baal-peor to the sacrifice of children to idols — showing a repeating cycle of rebellion, judgment, and God's merciful deliverance. Despite it all, God remembers His covenant and relents according to the multitude of His mercies.

| 26 | Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness: | So He swore to them with uplifted hand that He would make them fall in the wilderness, |

- 27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. make their descendants fall among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.
- 28 They joined themselves also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods;
- 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. they aroused the LORD's anger by their wicked deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
- 30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was checked.
- 31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. This was credited to Him as righteousness for endless generations to come.
- 32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: By the waters of Meribah they angered the LORD, and trouble came to Moses because of them;
- 33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips. for they rebelled against the Spirit of God, and rash words came from Moses' lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them: They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them,
- 35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.
- 36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. They worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.
- 37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to false gods.

- 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was desecrated by their blood.
- 39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. They defiled themselves by what they did; by their deeds they prostituted themselves.
- 40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. Therefore the LORD was angry with His people and abhorred His inheritance.
- 41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. He gave them into the hands of the nations. Their foes ruled over them.
- 42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. Their enemies oppressed them and subjected them to their power.
- 43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. Many times He delivered them, but they provoked Him with their counsel and were brought low for their iniquity.
- 44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: Yet He took note of their distress when He heard their cry;
- 45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. And He remembered for them His covenant, and relented according to the multitude of His mercies.
- 46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives. He caused all who held them captive to show them mercy.
- 47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise. Save us, LORD our God, and gather us from the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in Your praise.

Psalm 107

The psalmist calls the redeemed to give thanks, recounting four portraits of human distress — wanderers in the desert, prisoners in darkness, fools near death, and sailors in a storm — each delivered by crying out to the LORD. The refrain repeats: let them praise the LORD for His mercy and His wonderful works for mankind.

- 33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground; He turns rivers into a desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground,
- 34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. and fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who live there.
- 35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings. He turns the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs;
- 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation; there He brings the hungry to live, and they found a city where they could settle.
- 37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase. They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
- 38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease. He blesses them and their numbers grow greatly, and He does not let their herds diminish.
- 39 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow. Then their numbers decreased and they were humbled by oppression, calamity, and sorrow;
- 40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way. he who pours contempt on nobles made them wander in a trackless waste.
- 41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock. But He lifted the needy out of their affliction and made their families like flocks of sheep.

- 42

The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
- The upright see and rejoice, while all the wicked shut their mouths.

Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.
- Whoever is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A Song or Psalm of David.

■ NAME NOTE — David (DAY-vid) — "beloved" — The shepherd-king of Israel, youngest son of Jesse, anointed by Samuel, slayer of Goliath, and Israel's greatest king. God made an everlasting covenant with David that his throne would endure forever — fulfilled in Jesus Christ, "the son of David" (Matt 1:1). David is credited with writing roughly half the Psalms.

David praises God with a fixed heart, declaring God's mercy above the heavens and His sovereignty over all the lands of Israel and its neighbors. He asks God for help in battle, knowing that with God they will gain the victory, for the help of man is worthless.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

David cries out against enemies who repay his love with hatred and his friendship with lies, calling down detailed curses on the one who persecuted the poor and brokenhearted. He then turns to God for deliverance, declaring his own poverty and trusting that the LORD stands at the right hand of the needy.

- 17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. He loved to curse — may it come back on Him. He found no pleasure in blessing — may it be far from Him.
- 18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. He wore cursing as His garment; it entered His body like water, like oil into His bones.
- 19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually. May it be like a cloak wrapped about Him, like a belt tied forever around Him.
- 20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul. May this be the LORD's payment to my accusers, to those who speak evil against me.
- 21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me. But do for me, O GOD the Lord, for Your name's sake; because Your mercy is good, deliver me.
- 22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me. For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
- 23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth; I am tossed up and down as the locust. I fade away like an evening shadow; I am shaken off like a locust.
- 24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness. My knees give way from fasting; my body is thin and gaunt.

25	I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shook their head.	I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they shake their heads.
26	Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:	Help me, LORD my God; save me according to Your mercy.
27	That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.	Let them know that it is Your hand, that You, LORD, have done it.
28	Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.	While they curse, may You bless; may those who attack me be put to shame, but may Your servant rejoice.
29	Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.	May my accusers be clothed with disgrace and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
30	I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.	With my mouth I will greatly praise the LORD; in the midst of the crowd I will praise Him.
31	For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.	For He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save their lives from those who would condemn them.

A Psalm of David.

The LORD speaks to David's Lord, commanding Him to sit at His right hand until His enemies are made His footstool, and swearing an irrevocable oath that He is a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. This is the most-quoted psalm in the New Testament, pointing directly to Christ as both King and eternal Priest.

1	The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.	The LORD says to my lord: "Sit at my right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."
2	The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.	The LORD will extend Your mighty scepter from Zion, saying, "Rule in the midst of Your enemies!"

Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.
- Your troops will be willing on Your day of battle. Arrayed in holy splendor, Your young men will come to You like dew from the morning's womb.

The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
- The LORD has sworn and will not change His mind: "You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."

■ NAME NOTE — Melchizedek (mel-KIZ-eh-dek) — "king of righteousness" — The mysterious king of Salem and priest of the Most High God who blessed Abraham (Gen 14:18–20). He appears without genealogy, without record of birth or death, and is used in Hebrews 5–7 as a type of Christ — who is both King and Priest forever.

Psalm 119

The longest chapter in the Bible is an acrostic poem of 176 verses divided into twenty-two sections, one for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, with every verse in each section beginning with that letter. The psalmist pours out sustained devotion to God's word — His law, statutes, precepts, commandments, and testimonies — pleading for understanding, delighting in obedience, and finding light, comfort, and life in Scripture through every trial.

| 21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments. | You rebuke the arrogant, who are accursed, those who stray from Your commands. |
| 22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies. | Remove from me their scorn and contempt, for I keep Your statutes. |
| 23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes. | Though rulers sit together and slander me, Your servant will meditate on Your decrees. |
| 24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counsellors. | Your statutes are my delight; they are my counselors. |
| 25 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word. | I am laid low in the dust; preserve my life according to Your word. |
| 26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes. | I gave an account of my ways and You answered me; teach me Your decrees. |
| 27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works. | Cause me to understand the way of Your precepts, that I may meditate on Your wonderful deeds. |
| 28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word. | My soul is weary with sorrow; strengthen me according to Your word. |
| 29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously. | Keep me from deceitful ways; be gracious to me and teach me Your law. |
| 30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me. | I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I have set my heart on Your laws. |
| 31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame. | I hold fast to Your statutes, LORD; do not let me be put to shame. |
| 32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart. | I run in the path of Your commands, for You have broadened my understanding. |

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 33 | Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. | Teach me, LORD, the way of Your decrees, that I may follow it to the end. |
| 34 | Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. | Give me understanding, so that I may keep Your law and obey it with all my heart. |
| 35 | Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. | Direct me in the path of Your commands, for there I find delight. |
| 36 | Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. | Turn my heart toward Your statutes and not toward selfish gain. |
| 37 | Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way. | Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to Your word. |
| 38 | Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear. | Fulfill Your promise to Your servant, so that You may be feared. |
| 39 | Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good. | Take away the disgrace I dread, for Your laws are good. |
| 40 | Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness. | How I long for Your precepts! In Your righteousness preserve my life. |
| 41 | Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word. | Let Your mercies come also to me, O LORD, even Your salvation, according to Your word. |
| 42 | So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word. | then I can answer anyone who taunts me, for I trust in your word. |
| 43 | And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments. | Never take Your word of truth from my mouth, for I have put my hope in Your laws. |
| 44 | So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever. | I will always obey Your law, for ever and ever. |

- 45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. I will walk about in freedom, for I have sought out Your precepts.
- 46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. I will speak of Your statutes before kings and will not be put to shame,
- 47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved. for I delight in Your commands because I love them.
- 48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. I reach out for Your commands, which I love, and I meditate on Your decrees.
- 49 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope. Remember Your word to Your servant, for You have given me hope.
- 50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me. My comfort in my suffering is this: Your promise preserves my life.
- 51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law. The arrogant mock me without restraint, but I do not turn from Your law.
- 52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD; and have comforted myself. I remember, LORD, Your ancient laws, and I find comfort in them.
- 53 Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law. Indignation grips me because of the wicked, who have forsaken your law.
- 54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. Your decrees are the theme of my song wherever I lodge.
- 55 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law. In the night, LORD, I remember Your name, that I may keep Your law.
- 56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts. This has been my practice: I obey Your precepts.
- 57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words. You are my portion, LORD; I have promised to obey Your words.

| 58 | I intreated thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word. | I have sought Your face with all my heart; be gracious to me according to Your promise. |
| 59 | I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies. | I have considered my ways and have turned my steps to Your statutes. |
| 60 | I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments. | I will hasten and not delay to obey Your commands. |
| 61 | The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law. | Though the wicked bind me with ropes, I will not forget your law. |
| 62 | At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments. | At midnight I rise to give you thanks for your righteous laws. |
| 63 | I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts. | I am a friend to all who fear you, to all who follow your precepts. |
| 64 | The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes. | The earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy; teach me Your statutes. |
| 65 | Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word. | Do good to Your servant, LORD, according to Your word. |
| 66 | Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments. | Teach me knowledge and good judgment, for I trust Your commands. |
| 67 | Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. | Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I obey Your word. |
| 68 | Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes. | You are good, and what You do is good; teach me Your decrees. |
| 69 | The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. | Though the arrogant have smeared me with lies, I keep Your precepts with all my heart. |
| 70 | Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law. | Their hearts are callous and unfeeling, but I delight in Your law. |

- 71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. It was good for me to be afflicted so that I might learn Your decrees.
- 72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. The law from Your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of silver and gold.
- 73 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. Your hands made me and formed me; give me understanding to learn Your commands.
- 74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word. May those who fear You rejoice when they see me, for I have put my hope in Your word.
- 75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. I know, LORD, that Your laws are righteous, and that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.
- 76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant. Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant.
- 77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight. Let Your compassion come to me that I may live, for Your law is my delight.
- 78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts. May the arrogant be put to shame for wronging me without cause; but I will meditate on Your precepts.
- 79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies. May those who fear You turn to me, those who understand Your statutes.
- 80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed. May I wholeheartedly follow Your decrees, that I may not be put to shame.
- 81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word. My soul faints with longing for Your salvation, but I have put my hope in Your word.

- 82 *Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying,
When wilt thou comfort me?* My eyes fail, looking for Your promise; I say, "When will You comfort me?"
- 83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes. Though I am like a wineskin in the smoke, I do not forget Your decrees.
- 84 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? How long must Your servant wait? When will You punish my persecutors?
- 85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law. The arrogant dig pits for me, contrary to Your law.
- 86 *All thy commandments are faithful:
they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.* All Your commands are trustworthy; help me, for I am being persecuted without cause.
- 87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts. They almost wiped me from the earth, but I have not forsaken Your precepts.
- 88 *Quicken me after thy lovingkindness;
so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.* Quicken me according to Your lovingkindness, so I shall keep the testimony of Your mouth.
- 89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven. Your word, LORD, is eternal; it stands firm in the heavens.
- 90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth. Your faithfulness continues through all generations; You established the earth, and it endures.
- 91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants. Your laws endure to this day, for all things serve You.
- 92 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction. If Your law had not been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
- 93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me. I will never forget Your precepts, for by them You have preserved my life.
- 94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts. Save me, for I am Yours; I have sought out Your precepts.

- 95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies. The wicked are waiting to destroy me, but I will ponder your statutes.
- 96 I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. To all perfection I see a limit, but your commands are boundless.
- 97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Oh, how I love your law! I meditate on it all day long.
- 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. Your commands are always with me and make me wiser than my enemies.
- 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. I have more insight than all my teachers, for I meditate on your statutes.
- 10 I understand more than the ancients,
0 because I keep thy precepts. I have more understanding than the elders, for I obey your precepts.

- 10 Through thy precepts I get
4 understanding: therefore I hate every false way. I gain understanding from your precepts; therefore I hate every wrong path.
- 10 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and 5 a light unto my path. Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.
- 10 I have sworn, and I will perform it,
6 that I will keep thy righteous judgments. I have taken an oath and confirmed it, that I will follow your righteous laws.
- 10 I am afflicted very much: quicken me,

Psalm 120

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist cries to the LORD in distress over lying tongues and deceitful lips, lamenting that he lives among those who hate peace. He has dwelt too long among hostile strangers, and when he speaks peace, they want war.

Psalm 121

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist lifts his eyes to the hills and asks where his help comes from, answering that it comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. The LORD neither slumbers nor sleeps but watches over His people, shading them by day and guarding them by night, preserving their going out and coming in forevermore.

2	My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.	My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.
3	He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.	He will not let Your foot slip — he who watches over you will not slumber;
4	Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.	indeed, He who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
5	The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.	The LORD watches over You — the LORD is Your shade at Your right hand;
6	The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.	the sun will not harm You by day, nor the moon by night.

7	The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.	The LORD will keep You from all harm — He will watch over Your life;
8	The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.	the LORD will watch over Your coming and going both now and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of degrees, of David.

David rejoices at the call to go to the house of the LORD, celebrating Jerusalem as the city where the tribes go up to give thanks and where the thrones of judgment stand. He prays for the peace of Jerusalem, asking prosperity for those who love her.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.	I rejoiced with those who said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD."
2	Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.	Our feet are standing in Your gates, Jerusalem.
3	Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:	Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.
4	Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.	That is where the tribes go up — the tribes of the LORD — to praise the name of the LORD according to the statute given to Israel.
5	For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.	There stand the thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.
6	Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.	Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: "May those who love you be secure.
7	Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.	May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels."
8	For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.	For the sake of my family and friends, I will say, "Peace be within you."

Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek Your prosperity.

Psalms

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist lifts his eyes to God who is enthroned in heaven, comparing himself to a servant watching the hand of his master, waiting for mercy. He pleads for the LORD's compassion because his soul is full of the contempt and scorn of the proud.

| 1 | Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens. | To You I lift up my eyes, O You who dwell in the heavens. |
| 2 | Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us. | As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a female servant look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till He shows us His mercy. |
| 3 | Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt. | Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us, for we have endured no end of contempt. |
| 4 | Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud. | We have endured no end of ridicule from the arrogant, of contempt from the proud. |

A Song of degrees, of David.

David declares that if the LORD had not been on Israel's side, their enemies would have swallowed them alive and the flood would have swept them away. He blesses the LORD who did not give them over as prey, affirming that their help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

1	If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;	If the LORD had not been on our side — let Israel say —
2	If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:	if the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked us,
3	Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:	they would have swallowed us alive when their anger flared against us;
4	Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:	the flood would have engulfed us, the torrent would have swept over us,
5	Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.	the raging waters would have swept us away.
6	Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.	Praise be to the LORD, Who has not let us be torn by their teeth.
7	Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.	We have escaped like a bird from the fowler's snare; the snare has been broken, and we have escaped.
8	Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.	Our help is in the name of the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist declares that those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever, surrounded by the LORD as the mountains surround Jerusalem. He prays for peace on Israel and affirms that the scepter of the wicked will not rest on the land allotted to the righteous.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	They that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.	Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever.

| 2 | Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them. | Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them." |
| 3 | The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. | The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. |

4	Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.	Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.
5	They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.	Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy.
6	He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.	Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them.

A Song of degrees, for Solomon.

Solomon declares that unless the LORD builds the house and watches over the city, the builders and watchmen labor in vain. Children are a heritage from the LORD, and the man whose quiver is full of them is blessed.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.	Unless the LORD builds the house, the builders labor in vain. Unless the LORD watches over the city, the guards stand watch in vain.
2	It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.	In vain You rise early and stay up late, toiling for food to eat — for He grants sleep to those He loves.
3	Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.	Children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward from Him.
4	As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.	Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth.
5	Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.	Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their opponents in court.

Psalm 128

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist pronounces blessings on the man who fears the LORD and walks in His ways: he will eat the fruit of his labor, his wife will be like a fruitful vine, and his children like olive shoots around his table. He prays that this man would see the prosperity of Jerusalem and peace upon Israel all the days of his life.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.	Blessed are all who fear the LORD, Who walk in obedience to Him.
2	For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.	You will eat the fruit of Your labor; blessings and prosperity will be Yours.
3	Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.	Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within Your house; Your children will be like olive shoots around Your table.
4	Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.	Yes, this will be the blessing for the man who fears the LORD.
5	The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.	May the LORD bless You from Zion; may You see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of Your life.
6	Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.	May You live to see Your children's children — peace be on Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist recalls how Israel has been greatly oppressed from its youth, yet its enemies have not prevailed against it. He prays that all who hate Zion will be put to shame and wither like grass on a rooftop that dries before it grows.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:	"They have greatly oppressed me from my youth" — let Israel say —

2	Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.	"they have greatly oppressed me from my youth, but they have not gained the victory over me."
3	The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.	Plowmen have plowed my back and made their furrows long.
4	The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.	But the LORD is righteous; He has cut me free from the cords of the wicked.
5	Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.	May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.
6	Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withereth afore it groweth up:	May they be like grass on the roof, which withers before it can grow;
7	Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.	a reaper cannot fill His hands with it, nor one who gathers fill His arms.
8	Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.	May those who pass by not say to them, "The blessing of the LORD be on You; we bless You in the name of the LORD."

Psalm 130

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist cries to the LORD from the depths, pleading for a hearing and confessing that if God kept a record of sins, no one could stand. He places his hope in the LORD's word, waiting for Him more than watchmen wait for the morning, and calls Israel to hope in the LORD's plenteous redemption.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.	Out of the depths I cry to You, LORD;
2	Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.	Lord, hear my voice. Let Your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

3	If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?	If You, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?
4	But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.	But with You there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve You.
5	I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.	I wait for the LORD, my whole being waits, and in His word I put my hope.
6	My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.	I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.
7	Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.	Israel, put Your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is mercy and with Him is full redemption.
8	And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.	He Himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of degrees, of David.

David declares that his heart is not proud nor his eyes haughty, and he does not concern himself with great matters beyond him. He has calmed and quieted his soul like a weaned child with its mother, and he calls Israel to hope in the LORD forevermore.

Words in this chapter:

Cross-References:

1	LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.	My heart is not proud, LORD, my eyes are not haughty; I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.
2	Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.	But I have calmed and quieted myself, I am like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child I am content.
3	Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.	Israel, put Your hope in the LORD both now and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of degrees.

The psalmist recalls David's oath to find a dwelling place for the LORD and pleads with God to remember David's hardships and faithfulness. God in turn swears an oath to David that his descendants will sit on his throne forever, and that He has chosen Zion as His resting place, where He will bless the faithful and clothe the priests with salvation.

Psalm 137

The exiles weep by the rivers of Babylon, unable to sing the songs of Zion in a foreign land while their captors taunt them for a song. The psalmist vows never to forget Jerusalem and pronounces a fierce blessing on the one who repays Babylon for what she did to Israel.

Psalm 138

A Psalm of David.

David praises the LORD with his whole heart before the gods, giving thanks for His lovingkindness and truth, declaring that God has magnified His word above all His name. He trusts that though he walks in the midst of trouble, the LORD will stretch out His hand against his enemies and complete what He has begun.

Psalm 139

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

David marvels at God's complete knowledge of him — every thought, every word, every movement known before it happens — and at God's inescapable presence in the heights of heaven, the depths of hell, and the farthest sea. He praises the LORD for forming him in his mother's womb, and asks God to search his heart and lead him in the everlasting way.

Psalm 143

A Psalm of David.

David pleads with the LORD to hear his prayer and not enter into judgment with him, for no living person is righteous before God. Crushed by enemies and overwhelmed in spirit, he remembers God's past works, stretches out his hands, and asks to be taught God's will and led on level ground.

Psalm 147

The psalmist praises the LORD who rebuilds Jerusalem, gathers the outcasts of Israel, and heals the brokenhearted, while also numbering the stars and calling them each by name. He sends snow, frost, and ice, then melts them with His wind, and He has revealed His word and statutes to Israel as to no other nation.

Proverbs

Author: Primarily Solomon the son of David, king of Israel — named at 1:1, 10:1, and 25:1 ("proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out"). Chapter 30 is attributed to Agur the son of Jakeh, and chapter 31 to King Lemuel, recording the prophecy his mother taught him.

Date written: c. 970–700 BC. Solomon composed the original collections during his reign (c. 970–930 BC). The "men of Hezekiah" copied out additional proverbs of Solomon around 700 BC (25:1). The dates of Agur and Lemuel are unknown.

Written to: Young men of Israel — and by extension, all who seek wisdom. The repeated address "my son" runs throughout the first nine chapters, establishing the tone of a father instructing his children in the way of the LORD.

Setting: The royal court and the home. A father sits with his son and passes down the hard-won wisdom of generations — what to pursue, what to avoid, how to speak, how to work, how to fear God. The setting is everyday life: the marketplace, the field, the gate of the city, the marriage bed, the table of a ruler.

Where this sits historically: Composed mostly during Solomon's reign (c. 970–930 BC) at the height of the united kingdom's wealth and influence, with a later editorial expansion under King Hezekiah of Judah around 700 BC.

Contemporaries: Solomon ruled while the Phoenician king Hiram, the queen of Sheba, and Pharaoh of Egypt looked on; the Hezekiah-era additions were made while Isaiah and Micah prophesied and Assyria threatened Jerusalem.

Big themes:

- The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge and wisdom (1:7, 9:10) — this is the foundation on which everything else in the book rests

- Wisdom personified as a woman calling aloud in the streets, inviting the simple to turn in and live (1:20–33, 8:1–36, 9:1–6)

- The sharp contrast between the wise and the foolish, the righteous and the wicked — nearly every verse in chapters 10–29 sets one against the other

- Warnings against adultery and the "strange woman" whose house is the way to hell (2:16–19, 5:1–23, 6:20–35, 7:1–27)

- Diligence versus laziness — the ant and the sluggard (6:6–11, 24:30–34)

- The power of the tongue — life and death are in it (10:19–21, 12:18, 15:1–4, 18:21)

- The virtuous woman of chapter 31 — the portrait of a woman who fears the LORD and whose works praise her in the gates

Key passages: 1:7; 3:5–6; 9:10; 22:6; 31:10–31

How it fits: Proverbs is the practical application of the fear of God — what wisdom looks like lived out day by day. If the Psalms teach Israel how to worship, Proverbs teaches Israel how to live. It stands between Job (which asks why the righteous suffer) and Ecclesiastes (which asks what life means under the sun), giving the everyday answer: fear the LORD, walk uprightly, guard your tongue, do your work, love your wife, raise your children, and trust that God sees all.

Chapter 1

The father introduces the purpose of Proverbs — to give wisdom, instruction, and knowledge — and lays the foundation: the fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge. He warns his son against the enticement of sinners, and Wisdom herself cries in the streets, promising security to those who listen and ruin to those who refuse.

Chapter 4

The father passes down the instruction he received from his own father, pleading with his sons to get wisdom above all else and guard their hearts, for out of them flow the issues of life. He commands them to keep their eyes fixed straight ahead and to ponder the path of their feet.

Chapter 6

The father warns against surety for a stranger, laziness (sending the sluggard to the ant for instruction), and the seven things the LORD hates: a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a scheming heart, feet that run to evil, a false witness, and one who sows discord. He closes with a sustained warning against adultery, which brings wounds and dishonor that cannot be wiped away.

Chapter 8

Wisdom calls aloud at the gates of the city, declaring that she offers truth, counsel, and strength, and that kings reign and princes decree justice by her. She reveals that she was with God before creation, brought forth before the mountains, rejoicing always before Him — and those who find her find life.

- 29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: when He gave to the sea His decree, that the waters should not pass His command, when He appointed the foundations of the earth —
- 30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; then I was beside Him, as one brought up with Him; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing always before Him,
- 31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth, and my delights were with the sons of men.
- 32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. Now therefore, listen to me, my children, for blessed are those who keep my ways.
- 33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Hear instruction and be wise; do not refuse it.
- 34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.
- 35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD. For whoever finds me finds life, and will obtain favor from the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

But He who sins against me wrongs his own soul; all those who hate me love death."

Chapter 9

Wisdom builds her house and sets her table, inviting the simple to turn in and live, while the foolish woman sits at her door and calls to the same passersby with stolen waters and secret bread. Between these two invitations stands the pivotal declaration: the fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.

1 Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

Wisdom has built her house; she has hewn out her seven pillars.

2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

She has slaughtered her beasts; she has mixed her wine; she has also set her table.

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

She has sent out her maidens; she cries out from the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." As for him who lacks understanding, she says to Him,

5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

"Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

Forsake foolishness and live; go in the way of understanding."

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

He who corrects a scorner gets shame for himself, and He who rebukes a wicked man gets himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

Do not correct a scorner, lest He hate You; rebuke a wise man, and He will love You.

Chapter 15

Contrasting proverbs address the power of the tongue — a soft answer turns away wrath, but harsh words stir up anger — and the eyes of the LORD that are in every place, watching the evil and the good. Better is a little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure with trouble.

- 26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. My son, give me Your heart, and let Your eyes observe my ways.
- 27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit. For a harlot is a deep ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit.
- 28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men. She also lies in wait as for prey, and increases the transgressors among men.
- 29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes? Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has contentions? Who has babbling? Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?
- 30 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Those who linger long at the wine, those who go to seek mixed wine.
- 31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. Do not look on the wine when it is red, when it gives its color in the cup, when it moves itself rightly.
- 32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder. At the last, it bites like a serpent and stings like an adder.
- 33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things. Your eyes will look on strange women, and Your heart will utter perverse things.
- 34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. Yes, You will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea, or like one who lies on top of a mast.

- 35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again. "They have struck me," you will say, "but I was not hurt; they have beaten me, but I felt it not. When will I awake? I will seek it yet again."

Chapter 24

The wise man warns against envying the wicked and counsels the value of wisdom, strength in adversity, and rescuing those being led to death. The chapter closes with the lesson of the sluggard's vineyard — overgrown and broken down — teaching that poverty comes like an armed man to the one who loves sleep.

Chapter 25

The Hezekiah collection begins with proverbs about conduct before kings, the value of a timely word, and the danger of false boasting. Memorable images abound: cold water to a weary soul, vinegar on a wound, coals of fire on an enemy's head, and a city without walls for the man who has no self-control.

Chapter 26

Contrasting proverbs address the fool (honor is not fitting for him, and answering him requires discernment), the sluggard who turns on his bed like a door on its hinges, and the danger of deceit, gossip, and flattering lips. The meddler, the tale-bearer, and the man who hides hatred behind fair words are all exposed.

Chapter 29

Contrasting proverbs address the ruler who loves justice versus the ruler who listens to lies, the rod of correction that gives wisdom versus the child left to himself who brings shame, and the fear of man that brings a snare versus trust in the LORD that brings safety. Where there is no vision, the people perish.

Chapter 30

Agur speaks of his own ignorance before God, asks who has ascended into heaven, and prays for neither poverty nor riches. He catalogues the wonders of creation in numbered proverbs — things too wonderful, things never satisfied, things that are stately in their stride — exposing human pride against the backdrop of God's inscrutable works.

Ecclesiastes

Author: Solomon — called "the Preacher" (Hebrew Qoheleth). He identifies himself as "the son of David, king in Jerusalem" in 1:1, and his unmatched wisdom, wealth, and building projects (chapters 1–2) match the biblical portrait of Solomon exactly.

Date written: c. 935 BC, late in Solomon's reign — after a lifetime of unparalleled wisdom, wealth, pleasure, and achievement had shown him that none of these things satisfy apart from God.

Written to: Israel, and all who seek meaning in life. The Preacher addresses "the sons of men" throughout the book; his conclusions are universal.

Setting: Solomon looks back over everything he has pursued — wisdom, pleasure, labor, riches, fame — and delivers his verdict: "Vanity of vanities; all is vanity." The Hebrew word hebel (translated "vanity" in the KJV) means "breath" or "vapor" — something that appears for a moment and then vanishes. The book is not despair; it is realism. Every earthly pursuit is fleeting, but God's work endures forever. The Preacher's final answer is not emptiness but reverence: "Fear God, and keep his commandments."

Where this sits historically: Written near the end of Solomon's reign (c. 935 BC), shortly before the kingdom divided in 930 BC under his son Rehoboam, and while the Egyptian, Phoenician, and early Aramean kingdoms surrounded a Jerusalem at its zenith.

Contemporaries: Solomon composed it alongside Proverbs and the Song of Solomon, while Jeroboam was beginning to rise in the north and the prophet Ahijah of Shiloh was already announcing the coming division of the kingdom.

Big themes:

- The vanity of all earthly pursuits — wisdom, pleasure, labor, and wealth all end in the same grave
- The fear of God as life's conclusion — the book's answer to its own question (12:13–14)
- The limits of human wisdom — even the wisest man cannot find out all that God does (3:11; 8:17)
- The certainty of death as the great leveler — one event happens to the righteous and the wicked alike (9:2–3)
- Enjoyment of life as God's gift within its proper bounds — eating, drinking, and finding good in one's labor are from the hand of God (2:24; 3:13; 5:18–19)
- Time and seasons — God has appointed a time for everything, and everything is beautiful in its time (3:1–11)

Key passages: 1:2; 3:1–8; 5:2; 7:29; 12:1; 12:13–14

How it fits: Ecclesiastes is the counterweight to Proverbs. Proverbs teaches that wisdom, diligence, and the fear of the LORD lead to prosperity and blessing. Ecclesiastes answers: even prosperity is vanity without God. Together the two books give a complete picture — pursue wisdom, work hard, enjoy God's gifts, but hold it all loosely, because nothing under the sun lasts. Only what God does endures forever.

Chapter 1

The Preacher declares that all is vanity and that there is nothing new under the sun. He introduces himself as king over Israel in Jerusalem and recounts how he set his heart to search out all things by wisdom, finding that even wisdom itself brings grief and sorrow.

- The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

■ NAME NOTE — Solomon / the Preacher (SOL-oh-mun / PREE-chur) — Solomon, son of David, king of Israel, the wisest and wealthiest man of his age. The Hebrew title Qoheleth means "one who assembles" or "the Preacher" — one who gathers people to hear wisdom. Solomon does not name himself directly in Ecclesiastes but identifies himself by his office and lineage in 1:1 and 1:12.

Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.
- "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher, "vanity of vanities; all is vanity."

■ WORD NOTE — Vanity (VAN-ih-tee) — Hebrew hebel, meaning "breath, vapor, fleeting." The KJV's "vanity of vanities" is the Preacher's verdict on all earthly striving apart from God. The word does not mean "pointless" in the modern slang sense — it means temporary, like a breath that appears and vanishes. This is the most repeated word in Ecclesiastes (appearing over 30 times) and the key to the whole book.

Chapter 2

The Preacher tests himself with pleasure, laughter, wine, great building projects, wealth, and every delight, and concludes that all of it is vanity and vexation of spirit. He observes that the wise man and the fool share the same death, and that the only good is to eat, drink, and find enjoyment in one's labor as a gift from God.

| 3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life. | I sought in my heart to give myself to wine, while my heart still guided me with wisdom, and to take hold of folly. I wanted to see what was good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their life. |
| 4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards: | I made great works for myself. I built houses for myself and planted vineyards. |
| 5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits: | I made gardens and orchards for myself, and I planted in them trees of every kind of fruit. |
| 6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: | I made pools of water for myself, to water the woods that brought forth trees. |
| 7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me: | I obtained menservants and maidservants, and I had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than all who were in Jerusalem before me. |
| 8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. | I also gathered for myself silver and gold, and the special treasure of kings and provinces. I obtained men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, with musical instruments of all kinds. |
| 9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me. | So I became great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. |

- 10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour. Whatever my eyes desired, I did not keep from them. I withheld my heart from no joy, for my heart rejoiced in all my labor. This was my portion of all my labor.
- 11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun. Then I looked on all the works my hands had done, and on the labor I had toiled to do. All was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.
- 12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done. Then I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. For what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.
- 13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.
- 14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all. The wise man's eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. Yet I also saw that one event happens to them all.
- 15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. Then I said in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so it happens even to me. Why then was I more wise?" Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity.
- 16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. For there is no lasting memory of the wise more than of the fool, since in the days to come all will be forgotten. And how does the wise man die? Just like the fool.

- 17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. For all is vanity and vexation of spirit.
- 18 Yea, I hated all my labour wherein I had laboured under the sun: seeing that I must leave it unto the man that shall be after me. I hated all my labor at which I had worked under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me.
- 19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all my labor at which I have worked and shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.
- 20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. So I turned to make my heart despair of all the labor at which I had worked under the sun.
- 21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For there is a man whose labor is done with wisdom, knowledge, and fairness, yet he must leave it as a portion to a man who has not labored in it. This also is vanity and a great evil.
- 22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? For what does a man have from all his labor and from the vexation of his heart, at which he has labored under the sun?
- 23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity. For all his days are sorrows, and his work is grief. Even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.
- 24 There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink, and to let his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25	For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?	For who can eat, or who can enjoy it, more than I?
26	For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.	For God gives to the man who is good in his sight wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and heaping up, that he may give it to the one who is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Chapter 3

The Preacher declares that there is a time for everything — a time to be born and a time to die, a time to weep and a time to laugh. He observes that God has made everything beautiful in its time and set eternity in the hearts of men, yet no one can find out the full work of God. He notes that man and beast share the same breath and the same death, and all return to dust.

Chapter 4

The Preacher considers the oppressions done under the sun and sees that the oppressed have no comforter. He observes that all labor and skillful work spring from envy, that two are better than one, and that a threefold cord is not quickly broken. He notes that even a poor wise child is better than an old foolish king.

- 8 *There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? Nor does he ask, "For whom do I labor, and deprive my soul of good?" This also is vanity; it is a heavy task.

Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Chapter 5

The Preacher warns against rash words before God and urges that vows be paid promptly. He observes that the lover of money is never satisfied, that riches kept bring harm to their owner, and that a man leaves the world as naked as he entered it. He concludes that it is good and fitting to eat, drink, and enjoy one's labor, for this is God's gift.

Chapter 6

The Preacher describes the evil of a man to whom God gives wealth, honor, and everything he desires, yet God does not give him the power to enjoy it. He argues that a stillborn child is better off than such a man, and that no one knows what is good for man in the days of his vain life.

Chapter 7

The Preacher offers proverbs on wisdom: a good name is better than precious ointment, sorrow is better than laughter, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud. He warns against being overly righteous or overly wicked and observes that there is not a just man on earth who does good and does not sin. He concludes that God made man upright, but men have sought out many inventions.

Chapter 8

The Preacher counsels obedience to the king and observes that no man has power over the day of death. He notes that because sentence against evil is not carried out quickly, men are emboldened to sin, yet he knows it shall be well with those who fear God. He concludes that no man can find out all the work of God, no matter how hard he searches.

Chapter 9

The Preacher observes that one event — death — happens to all alike, to the righteous and the wicked. He urges men to eat, drink, and enjoy life with the wife they love, for there is no work or wisdom in the grave. He notes that the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong, and that wisdom, though better than weapons of war, is often despised.

Chapter 10

The Preacher teaches that a little folly ruins a reputation for wisdom, just as dead flies spoil the ointment. He offers proverbs on rulers and fools: woe to the land whose king is a child, and blessed is the land whose king is the son of nobles. He warns that even a secret curse against the king may be carried by a bird of the air.

Chapter 12

The Preacher urges the young to remember their Creator before old age comes, describing the decline of the body in vivid metaphor — the keepers of the house tremble, the grinders cease, and the silver cord is loosed. He repeats his verdict that all is vanity and delivers the conclusion of the whole matter: fear God and keep His commandments, for God shall bring every work into judgment.

Song of Solomon

Author: Solomon — the opening verse attributes the song to him by name: "The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's." He is both the named author and one of the two principal speakers.

Date written: c. 970–930 BC, during the reign of Solomon. The lush imagery of gardens, spices, and imported luxuries fits the wealth and peace of Solomon's early kingdom.

Written to: Israel as a whole. Though it reads as a private love poem between a bridegroom and his bride, Jewish tradition placed it in the canon as a picture of God's covenant love for His people, and Christian tradition reads it as a picture of Christ's love for His church.

Setting: The poem moves between the royal court in Jerusalem, the countryside of northern Israel (Lebanon, Sharon, Hermon, Carmel, Engedi), and the vineyards and gardens where the lovers meet. There is no single narrative arc — it is a cycle of songs celebrating desire, separation, reunion, and the permanence of love.

Where this sits historically: Composed early in Solomon's reign (c. 970–960 BC) at the height of the united kingdom, when trade with Phoenicia and Egypt brought the spices, cedars, and luxuries the poem celebrates.

Contemporaries: Solomon wrote alongside Proverbs and Ecclesiastes; the prophet Nathan had recently advised David, and Hiram of Tyre was Solomon's ally in trade and temple-building.

Big themes:

- The goodness of married love — God created physical desire, and Scripture celebrates it within the covenant of marriage

- Longing and seeking — the bride repeatedly searches for her beloved, picturing the soul's pursuit of God

- The exclusivity of love — "I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine" (6:3) — love demands faithfulness

- The strength of love — "love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave" (8:6) — a statement about the unbreakable nature of true commitment

- Beauty in creation — the poem overflows with imagery drawn from nature: gardens, vineyards, lilies, gazelles, mountains, spices

- Christ and the church — the NT applies bridegroom/bride language to Christ and His people (Ephesians 5:25–32; Revelation 19:7–9); this book is the OT seed of that theology

Key passages: Song of Solomon 2:10–13; 2:16; 4:7; 6:3; 8:6–7

How it fits: Song of Solomon is the only book of the Bible devoted entirely to the celebration of romantic love. It stands in the Wisdom literature alongside Proverbs (which warns against adultery) and Ecclesiastes (which says earthly pleasures are fleeting) — and it answers both by showing that love within God's design is not fleeting but "a most vehement flame" that "many waters cannot quench" (8:6–7). The early church fathers and the Reformers alike read it as a double portrait: the literal celebration of marriage, and the spiritual picture of Christ who pursues, wins, and delights in His bride the church.

Chapter 1

The bride longs for her beloved's kisses and praises his love as better than wine. She describes herself as dark but lovely, explains that her brothers made her keep the vineyards, and asks where her beloved feeds his flock. The bridegroom praises her beauty, comparing her to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

- 14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi. My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of Engedi.

■ WORD NOTE — Camphire (KAM-fire) — The KJV word for the henna plant, whose fragrant flower clusters were prized in the ancient Near East. Not related to modern camphor.

■ NAME NOTE — Engedi (en-GEE-dee) — "spring of the wild goat" — An oasis on the western shore of the Dead Sea, famous for its fresh water, vineyards, and aromatic plants. David hid from Saul in the caves of Engedi (1 Samuel 24:1).

Chapter 2

The bride calls herself the rose of Sharon and the lily of the valleys. The bridegroom calls her a lily among thorns. She describes sitting under his shadow with delight and being brought to his banqueting house, where his banner over her is love. He calls her to come away, for winter is past and the time of singing has come.

Chapter 4

The bridegroom praises his bride from head to foot — her eyes like doves, her hair like a flock of goats, her lips like scarlet thread — and declares there is no flaw in her. He calls her from Lebanon and says she has stolen his heart. He describes her as a garden enclosed, a fountain sealed, overflowing with every precious spice. The bride invites the winds to blow upon her garden so its fragrance may reach her beloved.

- 1 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead. How fair you are, my love! How fair you are! Your eyes are like doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats streaming down from Mount Gilead.

■ NAME NOTE — Lebanon (LEB-ah-non) — "white" (from its snow-capped peaks) — The mountain range north of Israel, famous for its towering cedars. Solomon imported cedar from Lebanon to build the Temple (1 Kings 5:6). In the Song it represents majesty, fragrance, and remote beauty.

■ NAME NOTE — Amana (ah-MAH-nah) — "firmness, constancy" — A peak in the Anti-Lebanon range, near the source of the Abana River (2 Kings 5:12). Listed alongside Hermon as a high, wild place.

■ NAME NOTE — Shenir (SHEE-nir) — The Amorite name for Mount Hermon (Deuteronomy 3:9); sometimes used for a neighboring peak in the same range.

■ NAME NOTE — Hermon (HER-mon) — "sacred mountain" — The highest peak in the region (over 9,000 feet), marking the northern boundary of the Promised Land. Its snow-fed streams water the Jordan River. Psalm 133:3 compares the dew of Hermon to the blessing of God.

Let my beloved come into his garden and eat its pleasant fruits.

Chapter 5

The bridegroom enters his garden. The bride hesitates to open the door to her beloved, and when she rises he is gone. She searches for him through the city and the watchmen strike and wound her. The daughters of Jerusalem ask what makes her beloved special, and she describes him in lavish detail — his head like fine gold, his eyes like doves, his mouth most sweet — declaring he is altogether lovely.

Chapter 6

The daughters of Jerusalem ask where the beloved has gone, and the bride answers that he has gone down to his garden. She declares, "I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine." The bridegroom praises her beauty as like Tirzah and awesome as an army with banners. Among sixty queens and eighty concubines, his dove, his undefiled one, stands alone. The daughters call for the Shulamite to return.

■ NAME NOTE — Tirzah (TIR-zah) — "pleasant, delightful" — An ancient Canaanite city that later served as the capital of the northern kingdom of Israel before Omri built Samaria (1 Kings 16:23). Its beauty was proverbial — the bridegroom compares his bride to Tirzah and Jerusalem in the same breath.

■ NAME NOTE — Amminadib (ah-MIN-ah-dib) — "my people are willing / my noble people" — A name of uncertain reference in this verse. Some read it as a proper name; others take it as a description ("my princely people"). The KJV preserves the form; the sense is that the speaker was suddenly swept up as if riding in a royal chariot.

Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

Return, return, O Shulamite! Return, return, that we may look upon you! What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the dance of two companies.

■ NAME NOTE — Shulamite (SHOO-lah-mite) — The title given to the bride. It may be the feminine form of "Solomon" (both from the Hebrew root shalom, "peace"), making her "the peaceful one" — Solomon's counterpart. Others connect it to the village of Shunem in the Jezreel Valley.

Chapter 8

The bride longs for open affection with her beloved and again charges the daughters of Jerusalem not to awaken love before its time. She declares that love is strong as death, jealousy fierce as the grave, and its flames are a most vehement flame that many waters cannot quench. The brothers speak of guarding their young sister, and the bride offers her own vineyard freely, telling Solomon to keep his thousand.

- WORD NOTE — A most vehement flame — *The Hebrew here is shalhebethyah, literally "the flame of the LORD" (or "the flame of Yah"). This is the only place in the Song where God's name appears. The KJV renders it "a most vehement flame," but the underlying Hebrew declares that the fire of true love is kindled by God Himself.*

- Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon. He leased the vineyard to keepers; each one was to bring a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.

■ NAME NOTE — Baalhamon (bay-al-HAY-mon) — "lord of a multitude" — A place name appearing only here in Scripture; the location of Solomon's vineyard. Its meaning fits the context: Solomon's vast holdings are contrasted with the bride's singular vineyard, which is hers alone.

Isaiah

Author: Isaiah son of Amoz — the book names him as its author (Isa 1:1), Christ quotes it as Isaiah's (Matt 12:17–21, 13:14–15), and the NT cites it more than any other OT prophet.

Date written: c. 740–680 BC, spanning the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Written to: The southern kingdom of Judah, with prophetic vision extending to Babylon, the nations, and the end of days.

Setting: The northern kingdom of Israel is about to fall to Assyria (722 BC). Judah faces the same threat and the same temptation — to trust foreign alliances rather than God. Isaiah ministers for over forty years through this crisis, warning of judgment and promising restoration.

Where this sits historically: Written under Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (c. 740–680 BC), as the Assyrian empire under Tiglath-Pileser III, Shalmaneser V, Sargon II, and Sennacherib destroyed Samaria in 722 BC and besieged Jerusalem in 701 BC.

Contemporaries: Micah, Hosea, and Amos were prophesying in the same window, while Jonah had recently been sent to Nineveh and the divided kingdom watched the northern tribes carried into Assyrian exile.

Big themes:

- The holiness of God — Isaiah's call vision (ch. 6) establishes the foundation: God is holy, man is unclean, and only a divine act of cleansing makes ministry possible

- Judgment on Judah and the nations — the first half of the book (chs. 1–39) pronounces judgment on sin and unfaithfulness

- The Servant of the LORD — four "Servant Songs" (42, 49, 50, 53) describe a figure who suffers for the sins of the people; chapter 53 is the clearest prophecy of the atonement in all the OT

- The new creation — the second half (chs. 40–66) promises comfort, restoration, and ultimately a new heavens and new earth

- Messianic prophecy — Isaiah contains more explicit messianic prophecies than any other OT book: the virgin birth (7:14), the child born (9:6), the shoot from Jesse's root (11:1), the suffering servant (53)

Key passages: Isa 6:3; 7:14; 9:6–7; 40:31; 53:5–6

How it fits: Isaiah stands at the turning point of OT history — the Assyrian threat, the Babylonian exile on the horizon, and the promise of a coming Servant who will do what no king could. The NT quotes Isaiah more than any other prophet. Jesus opened His ministry by reading Isaiah 61 in the synagogue at Nazareth.

Chapter 1

The LORD rebukes Judah as a sinful nation whose sacrifices and feasts He despises because their hands are full of blood. He calls them to wash themselves, cease doing evil, and learn to do good, promising that though their sins are as scarlet they shall be white as snow.

- Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth, for the LORD has spoken. I have nourished and raised children, and they have rebelled against Me.

The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.
- The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its master's stall, but Israel does not know; My people do not consider.

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.
- A sinful nation, a people loaded down with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD; they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger; they have turned away backward.

■ WORD NOTE — Iniquity (ih-NIH-kwih-tee) — "deep, twisted wrongdoing." Stronger than "sin" — it points to the corruption beneath the sinful act, the bent that produces the wrong.

And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.
- "I will give them children as their princes, and infants shall rule over them.

And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.
- The people shall oppress one another — each man his neighbor. The young shall act arrogantly against the elder, and the lowly against the honorable."

- 6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand: When a man grabs his brother in his father's house and says, "You have a coat — you be our ruler! Let this ruin be under your hand,"
- 7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. in that day he will protest: "I will not be a healer. In my house there is neither bread nor coat. Do not make me ruler of the people."
- 8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD, provoking His glorious presence.
- 9 The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. The look on their faces testifies against them. They declare their sin like Sodom and do not hide it. Woe to them, for they have brought disaster on themselves!
- 10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Tell the righteous that it will go well with them, for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
- 11 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for them, for what their hands have done will be done to them.
- 12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths. As for My people, children oppress them, and women rule over them. O My people, your guides lead you astray and confuse the direction of your paths.
- 13 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. The LORD rises to argue His case; He stands to judge the peoples.

- 14 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. The LORD enters into judgment with the elders and princes of His people: "You have devoured the vineyard. The plunder of the poor is in Your houses.
- 15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts. What do You mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?" declares the Lord GOD of hosts.
- 16 Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: The LORD also says: "Because the daughters of Zion are proud and walk with their necks stretched out and their eyes flirting, strutting and mincing as they go, with jingling ornaments on their feet,
- 17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts. therefore the Lord will strike the scalp of the daughters of Zion with sores, and the LORD will lay their foreheads bare."
- 18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon, In that day the Lord will take away the finery of their ankle chains, their headbands, and their crescent necklaces,

Chapter 5

Isaiah sings the parable of the LORD's vineyard, which He planted and tended but which yielded only wild grapes. The LORD pronounces six woes -- against those who join house to house, who rise early to follow strong drink, who call evil good and good evil, who are wise in their own eyes, and who justify the wicked for a bribe.

|---|---|

- 2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. He dug it up and cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vines. He built a watchtower in the middle of it and cut out a wine vat. He expected it to yield good grapes — but it yielded wild grapes.
- 3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard. "Now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.
- 4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes? What more could have been done for my vineyard that I have not done? When I expected it to yield good grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?
- 5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: Now let me tell You what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured. I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
- 6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. I will make it a wasteland — unpruned and unweeded — and briers and thorns shall come up. I will also command the clouds to rain no rain on it."
- 7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are His pleasant planting. He looked for justice, but found bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard a cry of distress.
- 8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no room left, and You alone live in the midst of the land!

- 9 *In mine ears said the LORD of hosts,
Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.* The LORD of hosts said in my hearing, "Many houses shall be desolate — great and fine ones, with no one living in them."
- 10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah. Ten acres of vineyard shall produce only one bath of wine, and a homer of seed shall yield only an ephah of grain.
- 11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them! Woe to those who rise early in the morning to run after strong drink, who stay up late into the night until wine inflames them!
- 12 *And the harp, and the viol, the tabret,
and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts:
but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.* They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute, and wine at their feasts — but they do not regard the work of the LORD, nor consider what His hands have done.
- 13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. Therefore My people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honored men are starving and their crowd is parched with thirst.
- 14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. Therefore hell has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure.
Their glory, their crowd, their pomp, and all who rejoice among them descend into it.
- 15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: The lowly shall be brought down, the mighty humbled, and the eyes of the proud brought low.
- 16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. But the LORD of hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One shows Himself holy in righteousness.

- 17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. Then lambs shall graze as in their pasture, and strangers shall eat among the ruins of the rich.
- 18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope: Woe to those who drag iniquity along with cords of deceit, and sin as if pulling it with a cart rope,
- 19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! who say, "Let Him hurry and hasten His work so we can see it! Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come so we can know it!"
- 20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!
- 21 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight!
- 22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, champions at mixing strong drink,
- 23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him! who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deny justice to the innocent!
- 24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore, as a flame devours stubble and dry grass collapses into the fire, their root shall rot and their blossom blow away as dust — because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

- 25 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Therefore the anger of the LORD burned against His people. He stretched out His hand against them and struck them. The mountains trembled, and their corpses lay like refuse in the streets. Yet for all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.
- 26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: He raises an ensign for distant nations and whistles for them from the ends of the earth. They come quickly, with great speed.
- 27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken: None among them is weary or stumbles. None slumbers or sleeps. Their belts are not loosened; their sandal straps are not broken.
- 28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind: Their arrows are sharp and their bows strung. Their horses' hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.
- 29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it. Their roaring is like a lion; they roar like young lions. They growl, seize the prey, and carry it off, with no one to rescue it.
- 30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof. In that day they shall roar over them like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land — darkness and distress. The light is darkened by the clouds.

Chapter 6

Isaiah sees the Lord sitting on His throne, high and lifted up, with the seraphim crying, 'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts.' Isaiah cries out that he is undone as a man of unclean lips. A seraph touches his lips with a live coal from the altar, and the LORD commissions him to preach to a people who will hear but not understand.

Chapter 7

The LORD sends Isaiah to King Ahaz during the Syro-Ephraimite crisis to tell him not to fear Rezin and Pekah. Ahaz refuses to ask for a sign, so the LORD gives one Himself: a virgin shall

Chapter 8

The LORD instructs Isaiah to write on a great tablet the name Mahershalalhashbaz, and Isaiah's wife bears a son by that name as a sign that Assyria will plunder Damascus and Samaria. Isaiah warns the people not to fear man but to sanctify the LORD as their fear. He and his children are for signs and wonders in Israel.

I had it witnessed by Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah, reliable witnesses.

- 3 And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz. I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. The LORD said to me, "Call His name Mahershalalhashbaz.
- 4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria. For before the boy knows how to say 'My father' or 'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria shall be carried off before the king of Assyria."
- 5 The LORD spake also unto me again, saying, The LORD spoke to me again, saying,
- 6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; "Because this people has rejected the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and rejoice in Rezin and the son of Remaliah,
- 7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks: therefore the Lord is about to bring up against them the waters of the River — mighty and many — the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will rise over all its channels and overflow all its banks.
- 8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. It shall sweep on into Judah, overflow, and pass through. It shall reach even to the neck, and its outspread wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel."
- 9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Band together, O peoples, and be shattered! Listen, all you distant lands. Prepare for battle, and be shattered! Prepare for battle, and be shattered!
- 10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. Devise a plan — it will come to nothing. State your case — it will not stand. For God is with us.

- 11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, For the LORD spoke to me with a strong hand and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,
- 12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. "Do not call 'conspiracy' everything this people calls a conspiracy. Do not fear what they fear or be in dread of it.
- 13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. The LORD of hosts — regard Him as holy. Let Him be Your fear and Your dread.
- 14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He will be a sanctuary, but also a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense to both houses of Israel — a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. Many shall stumble over it; they shall fall and be broken, be snared and taken."
- 16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. Bind up the testimony; seal the law among my disciples.
- 17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. I will wait for the LORD, Who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him.
- 18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion. I and the children the LORD has given me are signs and wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Isaiah prophesies that the people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. A child is born whose name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, and of His government and peace there shall be no end upon the throne of David. The LORD's anger against Israel is not yet turned away because the people do not repent.

- 1 Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations. But the gloom will not stay where there was distress. In the former time He treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali with contempt, but in the latter time He will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.
- 2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. Those who lived in a land of deep darkness — a light has shone on them.
- 3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. You have multiplied the nation and increased its joy. They rejoice before You as with joy at the harvest, as men are glad when they divide the plunder.
- 4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian. For the yoke of His burden, the staff on His shoulder, and the rod of His oppressor — You have broken these, as on the day of Midian.
- 5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire. Every boot of the warrior in battle noise and every garment rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for fire.
- 6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given. The government shall be on His shoulder, and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

- 7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end — on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and uphold it with justice and righteousness from this time forth and forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.
- 8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will fall on Israel.
- 9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, All the people shall know — Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria — who say in pride and arrogance of heart,
- 10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars. "The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with dressed stone. The sycamores have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."
- 11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together; The LORD raises the adversaries of Rezin against them and stirs up their enemies —
- 12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. Syria on the east and Philistia on the west, and they devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger has not turned away; His hand is still stretched out.
- 13 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts. Yet the people do not turn to him who struck them, nor seek the LORD of hosts.
- 14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day —

Chapter 10

The LORD pronounces woe on those who decree unrighteous decrees and rob the poor of their rights. He will use Assyria as the rod of His anger against Israel, but afterward He will punish the king of Assyria for his arrogance. A remnant of Israel will return and lean on the LORD in truth.

- 7 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. But He does not intend this, nor does His heart think this way — his plan is to destroy and cut off many nations.
- 8 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings? For He says, "Are not all my commanders kings?"
- 9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus? Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus?
- 10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; As my hand has reached the kingdoms of the idols, whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria —
- 11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? shall I not do to Jerusalem and her idols what I did to Samaria and her idols?"
- 12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks. When the Lord has finished all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will punish the boastful heart of the king of Assyria and his proud eyes.
- 13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man: For he says, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have understanding. I removed the boundaries of peoples, plundered their treasures, and like a warrior brought down those who sat on thrones."
- 14 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. My hand found the wealth of the peoples as one finds a bird's nest. As one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth. Not one wing fluttered, not a mouth opened, not a peep was heard."

- 15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood. Shall the axe boast over him who swings it? Shall the saw magnify itself against him who wields it? That would be like a rod wielding the one who lifts it — like a staff lifting up a man who is not wood!
- 16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. Therefore the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send wasting sickness among His stout warriors; under His glory a fire will be kindled, burning like a blazing flame.
- 17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; The Light of Israel shall become a fire, and His Holy One a flame. It shall burn and devour His thorns and briers in one day.
- 18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer fainteth. It will destroy the glory of His forest and His fruitful land, both soul and body, and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.
- 19 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them. The remaining trees of His forest will be so few that a child could count them.
- 20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer lean on him who struck them, but will truly lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.
- 21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God. A remnant shall return — the remnant of Jacob — to the Mighty God.

- 22 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness. Though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness.
- 23 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land. For the Lord GOD of hosts will carry out a full destruction — as decreed — throughout the land.
- 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt. Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: O My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He strikes you with the rod and lifts His staff against You as Egypt did.
- 25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. In just a little while My fury will be spent, and My anger will turn to their destruction.
- 26 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. The LORD of hosts will brandish a whip against Him, as He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb. His staff will be over the sea, and He will lift it as He did in Egypt.
- 27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. In that day His burden will depart from Your shoulder, and His yoke from Your neck. The yoke will be broken because You have grown fat.
- 28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages: He has come to Aiath; He has passed through Migron; at Michmash He stores His supplies.
- 29 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. They have crossed the pass; at Geba they make their camp for the night. Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul has fled.

- 3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: His delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what His eyes see, nor decide by what His ears hear,
- 4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. but with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and decide with fairness for the meek of the earth. He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.
- 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins. Righteousness shall be the belt of His waist, and faithfulness the belt of His hips.
- 6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. The wolf shall live with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat. - 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.
- 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. They shall not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain, for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

- 10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. In that day the Root of Jesse shall stand as an ensign for the peoples. The nations shall seek him, and his resting place shall be glorious.
- 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. In that day the Lord shall reach out His hand a second time to recover the remnant of His people — from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.
- 12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. He shall set up an ensign for the nations and assemble the banished of Israel. He shall gather the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
- 13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. The envy of Ephraim shall depart, and the enemies of Judah shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not trouble Ephraim.
- 14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. They shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines to the west; together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall reach out their hands against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

- 7 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: Therefore all hands shall grow faint and every man's heart melt.
- 8 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. They shall be terrified. Pangs and agony shall seize them. They shall writhe like a woman in labor. They shall look at one another in shock; their faces shall be ablaze.
- 9 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. The day of the LORD comes — cruel, with fury and burning anger — to make the land a desolation. He will destroy its sinners from it.
- 10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. For the stars of heaven and their constellations shall not give their light. The sun shall be dark at its rising, and the moon shall not shine its light.
- 11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity. I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless.
- 12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. I will make men scarcer than fine gold — rarer than the gold of Ophir.
- 13 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move out of its place, at the wrath of the LORD of hosts and in the day of His fierce anger.

- 14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. Like a hunted gazelle or a flock with no one to gather them, everyone shall turn to his own people and flee to His own land.
- 15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword. Everyone who is found will be stabbed through; everyone who is caught will fall by the sword.
- 16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished. Their infants shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be plundered and their wives violated.
- 17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it. I am stirring up the Medes against them — they have no regard for silver and no delight in gold.
- 18 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children. Their bows shall cut down young men. They shall have no compassion on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not pity children.
- 19 And Babylon, that glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. Babylon — the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and pride of the Chaldeans — shall be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.
- 20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there. It shall never be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation. No Arab shall pitch a tent there; no shepherd shall rest his flock there.
- 21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there. But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures. Owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

Chapter 14

The LORD will have mercy on Jacob and set Israel in their own land. Israel will take up a taunt against the king of Babylon, who said in his heart he would ascend above the stars of God. He will be brought down to hell. The LORD also declares judgment against Assyria and Philistia.

- 8 Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us. Even the cypress trees rejoice over You, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, 'Since You were laid low, no woodcutter comes up against us.'
- 9 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. Hell beneath is stirred up to meet You when You come; it rouses the spirits of the dead for You — all the leaders of the earth. It raises from their thrones all the kings of the nations.
- 10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us? All of them will speak and say to You, 'Have You also become weak as we? Have You become like us?'
- 11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee. Your pride has been brought down to hell, along with the music of Your harps. Maggots are Your bed below, and worms cover You."

| 4 | And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him. | Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; their voices are heard as far as Jahaz. Therefore the warriors of Moab cry out; his soul trembles within him. |
| 5 | My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction. | My heart cries out for Moab. Chapter 16

Isaiah continues the burden against Moab. The Moabites are counseled to send tribute to Zion, and a throne will be established in mercy in the tent of David. Moab howls for her destroyed fields and vineyards, and within three years her glory will be brought low.

| 1 Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. | Send the tribute lamb to the ruler of the land — from Sela, through the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion. |
| 2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon. | Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon. |
| 3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth. | "Give counsel; grant justice. Make your shadow like night at noon. Hide the outcasts; do not betray the fugitive. |
| 4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. | Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you; be a shelter to them from the destroyer. When the oppressor is no more and destruction has ceased and the enemy has gone from the land, |
| 5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness. | then a throne shall be established in mercy, and on it shall sit in faithfulness, in the tent of David, one who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness." |
| 6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so. | We have heard of the pride of Moab — how proud he is — of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence. His boasts are empty. |

- 7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kirhareth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken. Therefore Moab wails for Moab — everyone wails. For the raisin cakes of Kir-hareth you shall mourn — utterly stricken.
- 8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea. For the fields of Heshbon wither, the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have struck down its choice branches, which reached to Jazer and wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots spread out and crossed over the sea.
- 9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen. Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh, for over your summer fruit and your harvest the shout has fallen away.
- 10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease. Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field. In the vineyards there is no singing and no shouting. No one treads out wine in the presses; I have put an end to the harvest shout.
- 11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirhareth. Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a harp, and my inmost being for Kir-hareth.
- 12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. When Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he shall not prevail.

- 5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim. It shall be as when a reaper gathers standing grain and his arm harvests the ears — as when one gleanes ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
- 6 Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel. Yet gleanings shall be left in it, as when an olive tree is beaten — two or three berries in the top of the highest branch, four or five on the branches of a fruitful tree, declares the LORD God of Israel.
- 7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel. In that day men shall look to their Maker, and their eyes shall regard the Holy One of Israel.
- 8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images. They shall not look to the altars — the work of their hands — nor shall they regard what their fingers have made, either the groves or the images.
- 9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation. In that day their strong cities shall be like abandoned places in the forest, like the deserted summits that the Israelites abandoned — there shall be desolation.
- 10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips: For You have forgotten the God of Your salvation and have not remembered the Rock of Your strength. Therefore, though You plant pleasant gardens and set out slips of a foreign vine,
- 11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. though You make them grow on the day You plant them and make them blossom on the morning You sow, the harvest shall flee away on a day of grief and desperate sorrow.

| 5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up. | The waters of the Nile shall be dried up; the river shall be parched and dry. |
| 6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither. | Its canals shall stink; the streams of Egypt shall dry up. The reeds and rushes shall wither. |
| 7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. | The plants along the Nile, at the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile shall dry up and blow away and be no more. |

- 8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish. The fishermen shall mourn; all who cast hooks into the Nile shall grieve; those who spread nets on the water shall waste away.
- 9 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded. Those who work with combed flax and those who weave white cloth shall be put to shame.
- 10 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish. The weavers of Egypt shall be crushed; all who make wages shall be grieved.
- 11 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? The princes of Zoan are complete fools; the wise counselors of Pharaoh give stupid advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am a son of the wise, a son of ancient kings"?
- 12 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt. Where then are Your wise men? Let them tell You and make known what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.
- 13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof. The princes of Zoan have become fools; the princes of Memphis are deluded. Those who are the cornerstone of her tribes have led Egypt astray.
- 14 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit. The LORD has mixed into her a spirit of confusion, and they have made Egypt stagger in all its deeds, as a drunkard staggers in His vomit.
- 15 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do. There shall be nothing for Egypt to do — neither head nor tail, palm branch nor reed.

- 16 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it. In that day the Egyptians shall be like women — trembling with fear because of the hand that the LORD of hosts shakes over them.
- 17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it. The land of Judah shall become a terror to Egypt. Whenever anyone mentions it, Egypt shall dread it because of the purpose the LORD of hosts has purposed against it.
- 18 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction. In that day there shall be five cities in Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One shall be called the City of Destruction.
- 19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD. In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border.
- 20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them. It shall be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to the LORD because of oppressors, He will send them a savior and defender, and He will deliver them.
- 21 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it. The LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. They will worship with sacrifice and offering, and they will make vows to the LORD and keep them.

Isaiah pronounces the burden of the desert of the sea -- Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and all the graven images of her gods are broken to the ground. He also pronounces burdens against Dumah and Arabia, declaring that within a year the glory of Kedar will fail.

- 2 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. A harsh vision has been shown to me. The traitor betrays, the destroyer destroys. "Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media!" I have put an end to all the groaning.
- 3 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. Therefore my whole body is filled with anguish; pains have seized me like the pains of a woman in labor. I am too troubled to hear; I am too dismayed to see.
- 4 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me. My heart reels; horror has overwhelmed me. The twilight I longed for has become dread for me.
- 5 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield. Prepare the table; set the watch; eat and drink. Arise, O princes! Oil the shield!
- 6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth. For thus the Lord said to me: "Go, post a watchman; let him announce what he sees."
- 7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed: When he sees riders — horsemen in pairs, riders on donkeys, riders on camels — let him listen carefully, very carefully.
- 8 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights: Then the watchman called out: "O Lord, I stand on the watchtower all day long; I have been stationed at my post every night.

- 9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground. And a troop of men is coming, horsemen in pairs!" He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon! All the carved images of her gods are shattered to the ground."
- 10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you. O my threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, I now declare to You.
- 11 The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? The burden of Dumah. Someone is calling to me from Seir: "Watchman, how much of the night is left? Watchman, how much of the night is left?"
- 12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come. The watchman says, "Morning comes, and also night. If You will inquire, come back and inquire."
- 13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim. The burden against Arabia. In the thickets of Arabia You shall lodge, O caravans of Dedanites.
- 14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled. Bring water for the thirsty; the inhabitants of the land of Tema meet the fugitive with bread.
- 15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the fierce battle.
- 16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail: For thus the Lord has said to me: "Within a year, like the years of a hired worker, all the glory of Kedar shall come to an end.

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

The surviving archers of Kedar's warriors shall be few, for the LORD God of Israel has spoken."

Chapter 22

Isaiah pronounces the burden of the valley of vision -- Jerusalem. The people prepare their defenses but do not look to the God who made them. The LORD calls for weeping and mourning, but they feast instead, saying, 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.' Shebna the steward is removed from office and replaced by Eliakim.

1 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

The burden of the Valley of Vision. What is wrong with You now, that You have all gone up to the rooftops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

You who were full of commotion, a riotous and joyful city — your slain were not slain with the sword, nor did they die in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

All Your rulers fled together; they were captured without the bow. All of You who were found were captured, though You had fled far away.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

Therefore I said, "Look away from me; let me weep bitterly. Do not labor to comfort me over the destruction of the daughter of my people."

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

For the Lord GOD of hosts has a day of panic, of trampling, and of confusion in the Valley of Vision — a day of breaking down walls and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

Elam bore the quiver, with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

- 7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate. Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen were positioned at the gate.
- 8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest. He stripped away the covering of Judah. In that day You looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest.
- 9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool. You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many. You collected the waters of the lower pool.
- 10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall. You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down houses to strengthen the wall.
- 11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago. You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool — but you did not look to Him who made it, nor regard Him who planned it long ago.
- 12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth: In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called for weeping and mourning, for shaving the head and putting on sackcloth.
- 13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die. Instead, there was joy and gladness, killing oxen, slaughtering sheep, eating meat, and drinking wine. "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"
- 14 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. The LORD of hosts revealed Himself in my hearing: "This iniquity will not be forgiven You until You die," says the Lord GOD of hosts.

| 25 | In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it. | In that day, declares the LORD of hosts, the peg that was driven into the firm place will give way. It will be cut down and fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut off. The LORD has spoken. |

Isaiah pronounces the burden against Tyre. The merchant city of the sea will be laid waste, her merchants who were princes will be dishonored, and for seventy years Tyre will be forgotten. After seventy years the LORD will visit Tyre and her merchandise shall be devoted to the LORD.

|---|---|

- 9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. The LORD of hosts has purposed it — to defile the pride of all glory, to dishonor all the honored of the earth.
- 10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength. Cross Your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish — there is no restraint anymore.
- 11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof. He has stretched His hand over the sea; He has shaken the kingdoms. The LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy her strongholds.
- 12 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest. He said, "You shall no longer exult, O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Rise and cross over to Cyprus — even there You shall find no rest."
- 13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin. Look at the land of the Chaldeans — this people who were nothing! Assyria founded it for desert dwellers. They set up their siege towers, they stripped bare Tyre's palaces, and made it a ruin.
- 14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste. Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for Your stronghold is laid waste!
- 15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot. In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years — the length of one king's life. At the end of seventy years, Tyre shall sing like a harlot.
- 16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered. "Take a harp; go around the city, O forgotten harlot! Play sweetly, sing many songs, so that You may be remembered."

- 17

And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre. She shall return to her wages and prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.
- 18

And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

Her profits and her wages shall be holy to the LORD. They shall not be stored or hoarded, but her gains shall go to those who live before the LORD — to eat their fill and wear fine clothing.

Chapter 24

The LORD will lay waste the whole earth, making it empty and turning it upside down. The earth mourns and the merry-hearted sigh. The earth is utterly broken down. The LORD of hosts shall reign in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His elders He will be glorified.

Cross-References:

Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

The LORD is making the earth empty and laying it waste. He is twisting its surface and scattering its inhabitants.

And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

The same fate shall come on the people and the priest, the servant and his master, the maid and her mistress, the buyer and the seller, the lender and the borrower, the creditor and the debtor.

The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

The earth shall be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for the LORD has spoken this word.

| 4 | The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. | The earth mourns and withers; the world fades and withers; the highest people of the earth fade away. |
| 5 | The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. | The earth is defiled by its inhabitants, for they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. |
| 6 | Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. | Therefore a curse devours the earth; its inhabitants suffer for their guilt.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, and few men are left. |
| 7 | The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh. | The wine mourns; the vine fades. All the merry-hearted sigh. |
| 8 | The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. | The joyful tambourines are stilled; the noise of the jubilant has ceased; the joyful harp is silent. |
| 9 | They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. | No longer do they drink wine with singing. Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it. |
| 10 | The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. | The city of chaos is broken down; every house is locked up so no one can enter. |
| 11 | There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. | There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine; all joy has turned to gloom; the gladness of the earth is banished. |
| 12 | In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction. | Desolation is left in the city; the gate is battered to ruins. |

- 13 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. For so it shall be in the midst of the earth among the nations — as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the grape harvest is done.
- 14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. They lift up their voices; they sing for joy. Over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west.
- 15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.
- 16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise — "Glory to the Righteous One!" But I say, "I am wasting away; I am wasting away! Woe to me! The treacherous deal treacherously; the treacherous deal very treacherously."
- 17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth. Terror, pit, and snare are upon You, O inhabitant of the earth!
- 18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. Whoever flees at the sound of terror shall fall into the pit, and whoever climbs out of the pit shall be caught in the snare. For the windows from on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.
- 19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth is violently broken; the earth is split apart; the earth is shaken violently.

Chapter 25

Isaiah praises the LORD for His wonderful works and faithful counsels. The LORD will make a feast of rich food for all peoples on this mountain and will swallow up death forever. He will wipe away tears from all faces and remove the disgrace of His people.

- 3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. Therefore strong peoples will glorify You; cities of ruthless nations shall fear You.
- 4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. For You have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in His distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a storm against a wall,
- 5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low. You subdued the noise of foreigners — like heat in a dry place — with the shadow of a cloud. The song of the ruthless was silenced.
- 6 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. On this mountain the LORD of hosts will prepare for all peoples a feast of rich food — a feast of aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.
- 7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations.
- 8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it. He will swallow up death in victory. The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of His people He will take away from all the earth. The LORD has spoken.
- 9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. It shall be said in that day, "This is our God; we have waited for Him, and He has saved us. This is the LORD; we have waited for Him. Let us be glad and rejoice in His salvation."

Isaiah sings a song of the strong city -- salvation is appointed for walls and bulwarks. The righteous nation that keeps the truth shall enter in. The LORD is the everlasting rock who brings down the lofty city. Isaiah longs for the LORD in the night and declares that the dead shall live and the earth shall cast out the dead.

- 4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength: Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD JEHOVAH is an everlasting rock.
- 5 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. For He brings down those who dwell on high; He lays the lofty city low — lays it low to the ground, casts it to the dust.
- 6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. The foot shall trample it — the feet of the poor and the steps of the humble.
- 7 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just. The path of the righteous is level. You, who are upright, make the way of the righteous smooth.
- 8 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. In the path of Your judgments, O LORD, we wait for You. Your name and Your remembrance are the desire of our soul.
- 9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. My soul yearns for You in the night; my spirit within me earnestly seeks You. For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
- 10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. If favor is shown to the wicked, he does not learn righteousness. Even in the land of uprightness He deals corruptly and does not see the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them. O LORD, Your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see Your zeal for Your people and be ashamed. Let fire for Your adversaries consume them.

- 12 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. O LORD, You will ordain peace for us, for You have also done all our works for us.
- 13 O LORD our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. O LORD our God, other lords besides You have ruled over us, but we acknowledge Your name alone.
- 14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. The dead do not live; departed spirits do not rise. You have punished them and destroyed them; You have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth. You have increased the nation, O LORD; You have increased the nation. You are glorified. You have extended all the borders of the land.
- 16 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. O LORD, in distress they sought You; they poured out a whispered prayer when Your discipline was on them.
- 17 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD. Like a pregnant woman who writhes and cries out in her pangs when she is near to giving birth, so were we before You, O LORD.
- 18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. We were pregnant; we writhed — but we gave birth to wind. We have accomplished no deliverance in the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

In that day the LORD will punish leviathan the fleeing serpent with His great sword. He will keep His vineyard, watering it every moment. Jacob's iniquity will be purged when the altar stones are crushed, and in that day a great trumpet will sound and the outcasts of Israel will worship the LORD in Jerusalem.

- 10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof. For the fortified city is alone, a deserted settlement, abandoned like a wilderness. Calves graze there; there they lie down and strip its branches.

The LORD pronounces woe to the drunkards of Ephraim whose glorious beauty is a fading flower. He will lay in Zion a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation. - 12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. to whom He had said, "This is rest; give rest to the weary. This is refreshing." But they would not hear.
- 13 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken. The word of the LORD shall be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little — so that they may go, stumble backward, be broken, snared, and taken.
- 14 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, You scoffers, who rule this people in Jerusalem!
- 15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Because You have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with hell we are in agreement. When the overwhelming scourge passes through, it will not come to us, for we have made lies our refuge, and in falsehood we have taken shelter,"

- 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I am laying in Zion a stone — a tested stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation. Whoever believes will not be in a hurry.
- 17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line. He will do His work — His strange work — and perform His task — His alien task.
- 22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth. Now therefore do not mock, lest Your bonds be made strong. Chapter 29

The LORD pronounces woe to Ariel -- Jerusalem -- which He will besiege and bring low, yet the multitude of her enemies will be like a dream that vanishes. He rebukes those who seek to hide their plans from the LORD and those whose worship is mere lip service while their hearts are far from Him. Lebanon shall become a fruitful field and the deaf shall hear and the blind shall see.

| 1 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices. | Woe to Ariel — Ariel, the city where David camped! Add year to year; let the feasts run their cycle. |
| 2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel. | Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to Me like an altar hearth. |
| 3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee. | I will encamp against you all around; I will besiege you with towers and raise siegeworks against you. |
| 4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. | Brought down, you shall speak from the ground; your words shall come from the dust. Your voice shall be like a ghost's from the ground; from the dust your speech shall whisper. |
| 5 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly. | But the crowd of your foes shall be like fine dust, and the crowd of the ruthless like passing chaff. It shall happen suddenly, in an instant. |
| 6 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. | You shall be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder, earthquake, and great noise — with whirlwind, tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. |
| 7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision. | The crowd of all the nations that fight against Ariel — all who fight against her and her stronghold and distress her — shall be like a dream, a vision of the night. |

- 8 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. It shall be like a hungry man who dreams He is eating — then wakes, and is still hungry — or like a thirsty man who dreams He is drinking — then wakes, and is still faint with thirst. So shall the crowd of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.
- 9 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. Pause and wonder — blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not from strong drink.
- 10 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. For the LORD has poured out on You a spirit of deep sleep. He has closed Your eyes — the prophets — and covered Your heads — the seers.
- 11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: The vision of all this has become to You like the words of a sealed book. When people give it to one who can read and say, "Read this," he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed."
- 12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. When they give it to one who cannot read and say, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."
- 13 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: The Lord said: "Because this people draw near to Me with their mouth and honor Me with their lips, while their hearts are far from Me, and their fear of Me is a commandment taught by men,

- 14 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. therefore I will again do a marvelous work among this people — a marvelous work and a wonder. The wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their discerning men shall be hidden."
- 15 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the LORD, Who do their deeds in the dark and say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"
- 16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding? You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be regarded as the clay — that the thing made should say of its maker, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say of Him who formed it, "He has no understanding"?
- 17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? Is it not yet a very little while until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be regarded as a forest?
- 18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.
- 19 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. The humble shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy One of Israel.
- 20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off: For the ruthless shall come to nothing and the scoffer shall cease; and all who watch for evil shall be cut off —

The LORD rebukes Judah for going down to Egypt for help and trusting in Pharaoh's shadow rather than in the LORD. He declares that in returning and rest they shall be saved, and in quietness and confidence shall be their strength, but they would not. The LORD will be gracious and will wait to show them mercy, and He will destroy Assyria with His voice.

- 10 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits: who say to the seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us what is right. Tell us pleasing things; prophesy illusions.
- 11 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. Leave the way; turn aside from the path. Stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!"
- 12 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel: "Because You reject this word and trust in oppression and deceit and rely on them,
- 13 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. this iniquity shall be to You like a breach in a high wall, bulging out and about to collapse — it breaks suddenly, in an instant.
- 14 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. It shall be broken like a potter's vessel that is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments no shard is found large enough to take fire from a hearth or scoop water from a cistern."
- 15 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. For thus says the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest You shall be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be Your strength." But You were unwilling.
- 16 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. You said, "No! We will flee on horses" — therefore You shall flee. "We will ride on swift horses" — therefore Your pursuers shall be swift.

- 17 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. A thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five You shall flee, until You are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like an ensign on a hill.
- 18 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to You; He rises to show You mercy. For the LORD is a God of judgment. Blessed are all those who wait for Him.
- 19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. For a people shall dwell in Zion — in Jerusalem. You shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to You at the sound of Your cry. When He hears it, He will answer You.
- 20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers: Though the Lord gives You the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, Your Teacher will no longer hide Himself. Your eyes shall see Your Teacher.
- 21 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left. Your ears shall hear a word behind You, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when You turn to the right or when You turn to the left.
- 22 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. You shall defile Your carved idols overlaid with silver and Your gold-plated metal images. You shall scatter them like filthy rags. You shall say to them, "Be gone!"

- 23 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. He will give rain for the seed with which You sow the ground, and bread — the produce of the ground — will be rich and plentiful. In that day Your cattle will graze in broad pastures.
- 24 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. The oxen and the donkeys that work the ground will eat good fodder — winnowed with shovel and fork.
- 25 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. On every high mountain and every high hill there shall be brooks running with water — in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.
- 26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. The light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold — like the light of seven days — in the day when the LORD binds up the brokenness of His people and heals the wounds He inflicted.
- 27 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: The name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with His anger, heavy with cloud. His lips are full of fury, and His tongue is like a devouring fire.
- 28 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. His breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck — to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to put a bridle on the jaws of the peoples that leads them astray.

The LORD pronounces woe on those who go down to Egypt for help, trusting in horses and chariots rather than looking to the Holy One of Israel. As a lion is not frightened by shepherds, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight for Mount Zion. Assyria will fall by a sword not of man.

- 1 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong — but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel, nor seek the LORD!
- 2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. Yet He also is wise and brings disaster; He does not take back His words. He will rise against the house of evildoers and against the helpers of those who do iniquity.
- 3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. The Egyptians are man and not God; their horses are flesh and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out His hand, the helper will stumble and the one who is helped will fall, and they will all perish together.
- 4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof. For thus the LORD said to me: "As a lion or a young lion growls over His prey, and when a band of shepherds is called out against Him He is not frightened by their shouting or disturbed by their noise — so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill."
- 5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it. Like birds hovering, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem. He will protect and deliver it; He will spare and rescue it.
- 6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted. Turn to Him from whom You have so deeply revolted, O children of Israel!

Chapter 32

Isaiah prophesies that a king will reign in righteousness and princes will rule in justice. Eyes that see will not be dim and ears that hear will listen. The careless women are warned that within a year they will tremble, for the harvest will fail. When the Spirit is poured out from on high, the wilderness will become a fruitful field and righteousness will produce peace.

Chapter 33

The LORD pronounces woe on the destroyer who was not destroyed and the treacherous dealer. Isaiah calls on the LORD to be gracious, for He is the stability of Zion's times. The LORD will be the judge, lawgiver, and king who saves His people. Zion will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, and the inhabitants will not say they are sick, for the people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

- 5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment. For My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; it shall come down on Edom — on the people I have given over to judgment.
- 6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea. The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood; it is gorged with fat — the blood of lambs and goats, the fat of the kidneys of rams. For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah, a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
- 7 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness. The unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls. Their land shall be soaked with blood, and their soil made rich with fat.
- 8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion. For the LORD has a day of vengeance — a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
- 9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch. Its streams shall be turned into pitch and its soil into sulfur; its land shall become burning pitch.
- 10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever. Night and day it shall not be quenched; its smoke shall go up forever. From generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.
- 11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness. The cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl and the raven shall dwell in it. He shall stretch over it the line of confusion and the stones of emptiness.

Chapter 35

The wilderness and the dry land will be glad, and the desert will blossom as the rose. The eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. The lame man shall leap like a deer and the tongue of the dumb shall sing. A highway called the way of holiness will be there, and the ransomed of the LORD shall return to Zion with singing and everlasting joy.

Chapter 36

In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against the fortified cities of Judah. Rabshakeh stood before the walls of Jerusalem and mocked the God of Israel, urging the people to surrender and not trust in Hezekiah or the LORD.

- 3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder. Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, came out to him along with Shebna the secretary and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder.
- 4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? The Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah: 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What is this confidence in which you trust?'"
- 5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? You say — but they are empty words — "I have a plan and strength for war." On whom do you now rely, that you have rebelled against me?
- 6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him. You are trusting in Egypt — that broken reed of a staff — which pierces the hand of any man who leans on it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him.
- 7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar? But if You say to me, "We trust in the LORD our God," is He not the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar"?
- 8 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them.
- 9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? How then can you repulse even one captain among the least of my master's servants — when you rely on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

- 10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. Moreover, have I come up against this land without the LORD? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it." ' "
- 11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak to us in the language of Judah in the hearing of the people on the wall."
- 12 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you? But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to Your master and to You — and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with You to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"
- 13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria: Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!
- 14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you.
- 15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."

- 16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; Do not listen to Hezekiah.' For thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then each of you will eat from his own vine and his own fig tree and drink from his own cistern,
- 17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. until I come and take you to a land like your own land — a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
- 18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Beware lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
- 19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Did they deliver Samaria from my hand?
- 20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their lands from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand? "
- 21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."
- 22 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh. Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Chapter 37

Hezekiah tore his clothes and went into the house of the LORD, then sent to Isaiah for a word from God. Isaiah declared that the LORD would put a hook in Sennacherib's nose and turn him back. Hezekiah spread Sennacherib's threatening letter before the LORD and prayed, and that night the angel of the LORD struck down 185,000 Assyrians.

And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,* Now the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, "He has set out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,
- 10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. "Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying that Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
- 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands — destroying them utterly. And shall you be delivered?
- 12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar? Did the gods of the nations deliver them — the nations my fathers destroyed — Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar?

- 13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, and the king of Ivah?" "
- 14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then He went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.
- 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying:
- 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth. "O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, who is enthroned above the cherubim — You alone are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.
- 17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God. Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear. Open Your eyes, O LORD, and see. Hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to mock the living God.
- 18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands,
- 19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. and have cast their gods into the fire — for they were not gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they were destroyed.
- 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only. So now, O LORD our God, save us from His hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone are the LORD."

- 21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria: Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because You have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,
- 22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee. this is the word the LORD has spoken concerning Him: "The virgin daughter of Zion despises You and mocks You; the daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at You.
- 23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel. Whom have You mocked and blasphemed? Against whom have You raised Your voice and lifted Your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel!
- 24 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel. By Your servants You have mocked the Lord, and You have said, "With my many chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the far reaches of Lebanon. I cut down its tall cedars and its choicest cypress trees. I came to its remotest summit, its densest forest.
- 25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places. I dug wells and drank water; I dried up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt."
- 26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. Have You not heard that I determined long ago what I am now bringing to pass? I planned from ancient days that You would crush fortified cities into heaps of ruins.

- 27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. Their inhabitants had little power; they were dismayed and ashamed. They were like plants of the field, like tender green shoots, like grass on the housetops — blighted before it grows up.
- 28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. I know Your sitting down, Your going out and Your coming in, and Your raging against Me.
- 29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. Because Your raging against Me and Your arrogance have come to My ears, I will put My hook in Your nose and My bit in Your mouth, and I will turn You back on the way by which You came.'
- 30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. "And this shall be the sign for You: this year eat what grows of itself, in the second year what springs from that, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward.
- 32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.
- 33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there. He shall not come before it with a shield or cast up a siege ramp against it.

Hezekiah fell sick to the point of death, and Isaiah told him to set his house in order. Hezekiah prayed and wept, and the LORD added fifteen years to his life and delivered Jerusalem from Assyria. Hezekiah wrote a song of thanksgiving, praising the LORD who cast all his sins behind His back.

Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said, "Thus says the LORD: Set Your house in order, for You shall die and not recover."
- 2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD:
- 3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore. "Please, O LORD, remember how I have walked before You in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.
- 4 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah:
- 5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. "Go and say to Hezekiah: Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen Your tears. I will add fifteen years to Your life.
- 6 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria and defend this city.
- 7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; This is the sign to You from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken:
- 8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. I will make the shadow on the sundial of Ahaz go back ten steps." So the sun turned back ten steps on the dial by which it had gone down.

- 11 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world. I said, "I shall not see the LORD — the LORD — in the land of the living. I shall look on man no more among the inhabitants of the world."
- 12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. My dwelling has been pulled up and removed from me like a shepherd's tent. I have rolled up my life like a weaver who cuts me off from the loom; from day to night You bring me to an end.
- 13 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me. I kept myself calm until morning — but like a lion He breaks all my bones. From day to night You bring me to an end.
- 14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me. Like a swallow or a crane I chirp; I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary from looking upward. O LORD, I am in distress; be my pledge of safety!
- 15 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. What shall I say? For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it. I walk slowly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.
- 16 O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live. O Lord, by these things men live, and in all these is the life of my spirit. Restore me to health and make me live!

| 17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. | In peace I had great bitterness — but in love You delivered my soul from the pit of destruction. For You have cast all my sins behind Your back. |
| 18 For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth. | For hell cannot praise You; death cannot celebrate You. Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness. |
| 19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth. | The living — the living — he praises You, as I do this day. The father tells the children about Your faithfulness. |

| 21 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. | Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs and apply it as a poultice to the boil, and He shall recover." |
| 22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD? | Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?" |

Hezekiah showed the envoys of Merodachbaladan of Babylon all his treasure house, his armory, and everything in his storehouses. Isaiah rebuked him and prophesied that everything in the palace would one day be carried to Babylon, and his own descendants would serve as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

- 1 At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.
- 2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. Hezekiah welcomed them gladly and showed them his treasure house — the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.
- 3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" Hezekiah said, "They came to me from a far country — from Babylon."
- 4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. He said, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."
- 5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:
- 6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. The days are coming when all that is in Your house and all that Your fathers have stored up until this day shall be carried away to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD.

Chapter 40

The LORD declares, 'Comfort My people,' and commands a voice to cry in the wilderness to prepare the way of the LORD. All flesh is grass, but the word of God stands forever. He who sits above the circle of the earth gives power to the faint, and those who wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength, mount up with wings as eagles, run and not be weary, walk and not faint.

- 7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of the LORD blows on it. The people are grass.
- 8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God shall stand forever.
- 9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Go up on a high mountain, O Zion, bearer of good news. Lift up Your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, bearer of good news. Lift it up; do not be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, "Here is Your God!"
- 10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. The Lord GOD comes with might, and His arm rules for Him. His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.
- 11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young. He tends his flock like a shepherd. He gathers the lambs in His arms and carries them close to His heart. He gently leads those that are with young.

The LORD challenges the nations to bring their case before Him and asks who raised up the righteous man from the east. He declares to Israel, 'Fear not, for I am with you; I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you.' He will open rivers on bare heights and make the wilderness a pool of water. The idols of the nations are nothing, and their works are vanity.

- 2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow. Who stirred up one from the east whom victory meets at every step? He gives up nations before Him, so that He tramples kings underfoot. He makes them like dust with his sword and like wind-blown chaff with his bow.
- 3 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet. He pursues them and passes on safely, by paths His feet have not trodden.
- 4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he. Who has done and brought this about — calling forth the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, the first, and with the last — I am He.
- 5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came. The coastlands see it and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble. They draw near and come.
- 6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage. Everyone helps His neighbor and says to His brother, "Be strong!"
- 7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheneth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved. The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good." Then He fastens it with nails so it cannot be moved.
- 8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend. But you, Israel, My servant — Jacob, whom I have chosen — you are the seed of Abraham My friend.
- 9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away. I took you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners, saying to you, "You are My servant. I have chosen you and not cast you off."

- 10 Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you; I will help you; I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.
- 11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish. All who rage against you shall be put to shame and be disgraced. Those who fight against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.
- 12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. You shall seek those who strive against you, but shall not find them. Those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.
- 13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. For I, the LORD Your God, hold Your right hand. It is I who say to You, "Do not fear; I will help You."
- 14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel. Do not fear, You worm Jacob, you few men of Israel! I will help you, says the LORD; Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff. I will make You a new threshing sledge with many sharp teeth. You shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and make the hills like chaff.
- 16 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel. You shall winnow them, and the wind shall carry them away — the storm shall scatter them. You shall rejoice in the LORD and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

- 17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. When the poor and needy seek water and there is none — their tongue parched with thirst — I the LORD will answer them. The God of Israel will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. I will open rivers in bare heights and fountains in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water and the dry land springs of water.
- 19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together: I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree. I will place in the desert the cypress, the plane, and the pine together,
- 20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it. so that they may see and know, may consider and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this — the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- 21 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. "Present Your case," says the LORD. "Bring forward Your strong arguments," says the King of Jacob.
- 22 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come. Let them bring and tell us what will happen. Tell us the former things — what they were — so that we may consider them and know their outcome. Or declare to us the things to come.
- 23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together. Tell us what is to come in the future, so we may know that You are gods. Do good, or do harm — that we may be filled with awe and fear.

The LORD presents His Servant, on whom He has put His Spirit, who will bring justice to the nations. He will not cry out or raise His voice in the streets, and a bruised reed He will not break. The LORD calls this Servant as a covenant for the people and a light to the nations. Israel is blind and deaf though the LORD made them His witnesses.

- 9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. The former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare. Before they spring forth I tell You of them.
- 10 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Sing to the LORD a new song, His praise from the end of the earth — you who go down to the sea, and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.
- 11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. Let the wilderness and its towns lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of the rocks sing — let them shout from the tops of the mountains.
- 12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands. Let them give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the coastlands.
- 13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies. The LORD goes out like a warrior — like a man of war he stirs up his zeal. He cries out and roars; He prevails against His enemies.
- 14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once. For a long time I have been silent; I have held Myself back and restrained Myself. Now I will cry out like a woman in labor — I will gasp and pant.
- 15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools. I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation. I will turn rivers into dry land and dry up the pools.

- 16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. I will lead the blind in ways they do not know; in paths that they have not known I will guide them. I will turn darkness before them into light and the rough places into level ground. These are the things I will do, and I will not forsake them.
- 17 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. They shall be turned back and utterly ashamed — those who trust in carved images, who say to metal idols, "You are our gods."
- 18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Hear, You deaf; look, you blind, that you may see!
- 19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant? Who is blind but My servant, or deaf like My messenger whom I send? Who is blind like My dedicated one, or blind like the servant of the LORD?
- 20 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not. You see many things, but You do not observe them. His ears are open, but He does not hear.
- 21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable. The LORD was pleased, for His righteousness' sake, to make His law great and glorious.
- 22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. But this is a people plundered and looted; all of them are trapped in holes or hidden in prisons. They have become plunder with no one to rescue, spoil with no one to say, "Restore!"
- 23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come? Who among You will listen to this? Who will pay attention and hear for the time to come?

- 24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law. Who gave up Jacob to be plundered, and Israel to the robbers? Was it not the LORD — He against whom we sinned? For they would not walk in His ways and would not obey His law.
- 25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart. So He poured on Him the heat of His anger and the violence of war. It set Him on fire all around, but He did not understand. It burned Him, but He did not take it to heart.

The LORD declares, 'Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine.' When Israel passes through the waters, the LORD will be with them. He blots out their transgressions for His own sake and will not remember their sins. He is doing a new thing -- making a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

- 1 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. But now thus says the LORD — He who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by name; you are Mine.
- 2 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. When You pass through the waters, I will be with You. When You pass through the rivers, they shall not sweep over You. When You walk through the fire, You shall not be burned — the flame shall not consume You.
- 3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. For I am the LORD Your God, the Holy One of Israel, Your Savior. I give Egypt as Your ransom — Cush and Seba in exchange for You.

- 4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life. Because You are precious in My eyes and honored, and I love You, I give men in return for You and peoples in exchange for Your life.
- 5 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west; Do not fear, for I am with You. I will bring Your offspring from the east and gather You from the west.
- 6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; I will say to the north, 'Give them up,' and to the south, 'Do not hold them back.' Bring My sons from afar and My daughters from the ends of the earth —
- 7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him. everyone who is called by My name, whom I created for My glory — whom I formed and made."
- 8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Bring out the people who are blind, yet have eyes — who are deaf, yet have ears!
- 9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble. Who among them can declare this and show us the former things? Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, that they may hear and say, "It is true."
- 10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. "You are My witnesses," declares the LORD, "and My servant whom I have chosen, so that You may know and believe Me and understand that I am He. Before Me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after Me.
- 11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour. I, even I, am the LORD, and besides Me there is no savior.

- 12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God. I declared, saved, and proclaimed — when there was no foreign god among You. You are My witnesses," declares the LORD, "and I am God.
- 13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it? Yes, and from ancient days I am He. There is no one who can deliver from My hand. I act, and who can reverse it?"
- 14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For Your sake I send to Babylon and bring them all down as fugitives — even the Chaldeans, in the ships that were their boast."
- 15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. I am the LORD, Your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, Your King.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; Thus says the LORD — who makes a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters,
- 17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow. who brings forth chariot and horse, army and warrior — they lie down together; they cannot rise; they are extinguished, quenched like a wick:
- 18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. "Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old.
- 19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. I am about to do a new thing. Now it is springing forth — do You not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

- 20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen. The beast of the field shall honor Me — the dragons and the owls — for I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My chosen people,
- 21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise. the people whom I formed for Myself that they might declare My praise.
- 22 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Yet you have not called on Me, O Jacob. You have grown weary of Me, O Israel.
- 23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. You have not brought Me your burnt offering sheep or honored Me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings or wearied you with incense.
- 24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. You have not bought Me sweet cane with money, nor satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices. Instead, you have burdened Me with your sins; you have wearied Me with your iniquities.
- 25 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and I will not remember your sins.
- 26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Remind Me; let us argue together. Set forth your case, that you may be proved right.
- 27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me. Your first father sinned, and your mediators transgressed against Me.

- 28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches. Therefore I profaned the princes of the sanctuary; I gave Jacob over to utter destruction and Israel to mockery.

Chapter 44

The LORD declares that He will pour out His Spirit on the descendants of Jacob, and they shall spring up like willows by the watercourses. He is the first and the last, and beside Him there is no God. Isaiah mocks those who make idols from a block of wood -- half they burn for fire and half they worship. The LORD will redeem Jacob and declares Cyrus His shepherd.

- 8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any. Do not fear or be afraid. Have I not told You from of old and declared it? You are My witnesses! Is there a God besides Me? There is no Rock; I know not any."
- 9 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. All who make carved idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless. Their witnesses see nothing and know nothing — so they will be put to shame.
- 10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing? Who fashions a god or casts an idol that is profitable for nothing?
- 11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. All His companions shall be put to shame; the craftsmen are only human. Let them all assemble and stand. They shall be terrified; they shall be put to shame together.
- 12 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint. The ironsmith takes a tool and works it over the coals. He fashions it with hammers and works it with His strong arm. He grows hungry, and His strength fails. He drinks no water and is faint.

- 13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. The carpenter measures with a line and marks it with a pencil. He shapes it with planes and marks it with a compass. He shapes it into the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to dwell in a house.
- 14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. He cuts down cedars — or chooses a cypress or an oak — letting it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it.
- 15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. Then it becomes fuel for a man — he takes part of it and warms himself; he kindles a fire and bakes bread. He also makes a god and worships it; He makes a carved image and bows down to it.
- 16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: Half of it He burns in the fire. With that half He roasts meat and is satisfied. He also warms Himself and says, "I am warm; I have seen the fire!"
- 17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. The other half He makes into a god — His idol. He bows down to it and worships it. He prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for You are my god!"
- 18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. They do not know; they do not understand. Their eyes are closed so they cannot see, and their hearts, so they cannot understand.

- 19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? No one reflects, no one has knowledge or understanding to say, "Half of it I burned in the fire. I also baked bread on its coals and roasted meat and ate it. Shall I make the rest of it detestable? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?"
- 20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand? He is feeding on ashes; a deluded heart has led Him astray. He cannot deliver Himself or say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"
- 21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. Remember these things, O Jacob — and Israel, for you are My servant. I formed you; you are My servant. O Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me.
- 22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee. I have swept away your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like a mist. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.
- 23 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel. Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it! Shout, O depths of the earth! Break forth in singing, O mountains — O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and glorified himself in Israel.
- 24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself; Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer — who formed You from the womb: "I am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by Myself,

Chapter 45

The LORD speaks to Cyrus His anointed, whom He has called by name though Cyrus does not know Him. The LORD declares that He forms the light and creates darkness, makes peace and creates evil. He commands the heavens to drop down righteousness and declares that every knee shall bow to Him and every tongue shall swear allegiance.

Chapter 46

The LORD contrasts Himself with the gods of Babylon -- Bel bows down and Nebo stoops, carried as burdens on weary beasts. But the LORD has carried Israel from the womb and will carry them to old age. He calls a bird of prey from the east to accomplish His purpose, and His salvation shall not delay.

Chapter 47

The LORD pronounces judgment on the virgin daughter of Babylon, who will come down from her throne and sit in the dust. She trusted in her wickedness and said, 'No one sees me.' Disaster will come on her suddenly. Her astrologers and stargazers cannot save her from the fire that will consume her.

Chapter 48

The LORD rebukes Israel for swearing by His name without truth or righteousness. He declared former things long ago so they could not credit their idols. For His own name's sake He delays His anger, and He refines Israel in the furnace of affliction. He commands them to go forth from Babylon and declares there is no peace for the wicked.

| 1 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. | Listen to this, O house of Jacob — you who are called by the name of Israel and came from the line of Judah. You swear by the name of the LORD and call on the God of Israel, but not in truth or in righteousness. |
| 2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name. | They call themselves citizens of the holy city and lean on the God of Israel — the LORD of hosts is His name. |
| 3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. | I declared the former things long ago. They went out from My mouth; I made them known. Then I acted suddenly, and they came to pass. |
| 4 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass; | I knew that You are stubborn — your neck is an iron tendon and Your forehead is bronze. |
| 5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them. | Therefore I told You these things long ago. Before they came to pass I declared them to You, so that You could not say, "My idol did them; my carved image or my cast idol commanded them." |
| 6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them. | You have heard these things; look at all of them! Will You not declare it? From this time on I announce new things to You — hidden things You have not known. |

- 7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them. They are created now and not long ago; before today You had not heard of them, so that You could not say, "I already knew them."
- 8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb. You had not heard; You did not know; Your ear was not opened long ago. For I knew that You would deal very treacherously. You were called a rebel from birth.
- 9 For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off. For My name's sake I hold back My anger; for the sake of My praise I restrain it for You, so that I do not cut You off.
- 10 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction. I have refined You, but not as silver is refined. I have tried You in the furnace of affliction.
- 11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another. For My own sake — for My own sake — I do this. How can My name be dishonored? I will not give My glory to another.
- 12 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called. I am he. I am the first, and I am the last.
- 13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together. My hand laid the foundation of the earth. My right hand spread out the heavens. When I call to them, they stand up together.

- 14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. Come together and listen, all of You. Which of the idols declared these things? The LORD loves Him. He will carry out His purpose against Babylon; His arm will be against the Chaldeans.
- 15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. I, I have spoken. I have called Him, I have brought Him, and His way will succeed.
- 16 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me. Come near to Me; listen to this. From the beginning I have not spoken in secret. From the time it came to be, I was there. And now the Lord GOD has sent Me, along with His Spirit.
- 17 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go: Thus says the LORD, Your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the LORD Your God, who teaches You what is good for You, who leads You in the way You should go.
- 18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: If only You had listened to My commandments! Then Your peace would have been like a river, and Your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
- 19 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and Your children as countless as its grains. Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from My presence.
- 20 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob. Go out from Babylon; flee from the Chaldeans! Declare this with shouts of joy; proclaim it and send it out to the end of the earth. Say, "The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob!"

The Servant of the LORD declares that the LORD called Him from the womb and made His mouth like a sharp sword. The LORD says it is too small a thing for the Servant to restore only Israel -- He will also be a light to the nations. Kings shall see and arise, and princes shall worship. Zion says the LORD has forsaken her, but the LORD answers that He has engraved her on the palms of His hands.

- 5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength. And now the LORD says — He who formed Me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to him, for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD, and My God has become My strength —
- 6 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth. He says: "It is too small a thing for you to be My servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved ones of Israel. I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that My salvation may reach to the end of the earth."
- 7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee. Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel — His Holy One — to One deeply despised, rejected by the nation, the servant of rulers: "Kings shall see and stand up; princes, and they shall bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen You."
- 8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages; Thus says the LORD: "In a time of favor I have answered You, and in a day of salvation I have helped You. I will keep You and make You a covenant to the people, to restore the land and to apportion the desolate inheritances,
- 9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. saying to the prisoners, 'Come out,' and to those in darkness, 'Come into the light.' They shall feed along the paths, and their pasture shall be on all the bare heights.

- 10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them. They shall not hunger or thirst; neither scorching heat nor sun shall strike them. For He who has mercy on them will lead them, and by springs of water He will guide them.
- 11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. I will make all My mountains into roads, and My highways shall be raised up.
- 12 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. See, these shall come from far away — from the north and from the west, and these from the land of Sinim.
- 13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted. Sing for joy, O heavens; shout, O earth. Break out into song, O mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people and will have mercy on His afflicted.
- 14 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me. But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me; my Lord has forgotten me."
- 15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even if she could forget, I will not forget You.
- 16 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. See, I have engraved You on the palms of My hands. Your walls are always before Me.
- 17 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee. Your children hasten back. Those who destroyed You and laid You waste shall depart from You.

- 18 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth. Lift up Your eyes and look around — all of them gather and come to You. As I live, declares the LORD, You shall wear them all as an ornament; You shall put them on like a bride.
- 19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. Your waste and desolate places — your ruined land — will surely now be too small for Your inhabitants, while those who swallowed You up are far away.
- 20 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell. The children born during Your time of bereavement will yet say in Your hearing, "The place is too cramped for me; make room for me to live."
- 21 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been? Then You will say in Your heart, "Who bore me these? I had lost my children; I was barren, exiled and put away. Who then raised these? I was left alone — where did these come from?"
- 22 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. Thus says the Lord GOD: "I will lift up My hand to the nations and set up My ensign to the peoples. They shall bring Your sons in their arms, and Your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders."

- 23 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Kings shall be Your foster fathers, and their queens Your nursing mothers. They shall bow down to You with their faces to the ground and lick the dust of Your feet. Then You will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for Me shall not be put to shame."
- 24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, and the lawful captive delivered? Can the prey be taken from the mighty man, or can the lawful captive be rescued?
- 25 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. But thus says the LORD: "Even the captives of a mighty man shall be taken away, and the prey of a tyrant shall be rescued. I will contend with those who contend with You, and I will save Your children.
- 26 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. I will make Your oppressors eat their own flesh, and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with new wine. Then all people will know that I am the LORD Your Savior, Your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

The LORD asks where the certificate of Israel's divorce is and declares that His arm is not shortened that it cannot save. The Servant of the LORD sets His face like flint and gives His back to those who strike Him and His cheeks to those who pluck out the beard. He trusts in the LORD and is not ashamed.

- 1 Thus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. Thus says the LORD: "Where is the certificate of divorce by which I sent Your mother away? Or to which of My creditors did I sell You? For Your iniquities You were sold, and for Your transgressions Your mother was sent away.
- 2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst. Why, when I came, was there no one? When I called, why did no one answer? Is My hand shortened so that it cannot redeem? Do I have no power to deliver? At My rebuke I dry up the sea; I make rivers a desert. Their fish rot because there is no water; they die of thirst.

- 4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned. The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of those who are taught, so that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning He wakens; He wakens My ear to listen as those who are taught.
- 5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious; I did not turn away.
- 6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. I gave My back to those who struck Me and My cheeks to those who pulled out the beard. I did not hide My face from shame and spitting.

Chapter 51

The LORD calls those who pursue righteousness to look to Abraham and Sarah, from whom He called a nation out of one man. He will comfort Zion and make her wilderness like Eden. Israel is told to awake and put on strength; the cup of the LORD's fury that made them stagger will be taken from their hand and put into the hand of their tormentors.

- 10 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? Was it not You who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep — who made the depths of the sea a road for the ransomed to cross over?
- 11 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. So the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing. Everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
- 12 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; I, I am He who comforts you. Why then do you fear a man who is mortal — the son of man who is made like grass?

- 13 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? You have forgotten the LORD Your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. You live in constant terror all day long because of the fury of the oppressor who is bent on destruction. But where is the fury of the oppressor now?
- 14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail. The captive who crouches shall quickly be set free. He shall not die in the pit; His food shall not run out.
- 15 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name. For I am the LORD Your God, Who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar. The LORD of hosts is His name.
- 16 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. I have put My words in Your mouth and covered You in the shadow of My hand — stretching out the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, "You are My people."
- 17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out. Wake up, wake up! Rise up, O Jerusalem — you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD the cup of His wrath. You have drunk to the dregs the cup that makes men stagger.
- 18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up. There is no one to guide her — none of all the children she has borne. There is no one to take her by the hand — none of all the children she has raised.
- 19 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee? These two things have come on You — who will grieve with You? — devastation and destruction, famine and sword. By whom shall I comfort You?

They are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of Your God. So listen to this, You afflicted one, drunk — but not with wine. Thus says Your Lord, the LORD — your God Who defends His people: "I am taking from Your hand the cup that made You stagger, the dregs of My cup of wrath. You shall never drink it again. I will put it into the hand of Your tormentors, who said to You, 'Bow down so we can walk over You.' You made Your back like the ground and like a street for them to walk on." |

The LORD commands Zion to awake and put on her beautiful garments, for the uncircumcised and unclean shall no longer come into her. How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings of peace. The LORD's Servant shall be exalted and extolled, yet His appearance was marred more than any man, and He shall sprinkle many nations.

- 2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion. Shake Yourself free from the dust; arise and take Your seat, O Jerusalem. Loose the bonds from your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
- 3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money. For thus says the LORD: "You were sold for nothing, and You shall be redeemed without money."
- 4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. For thus says the Lord GOD: "My people went down to Egypt at the start to stay there, and the Assyrian oppressed them for nothing.
- 5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed. Now what do I have here?" declares the LORD. "My people are taken away for nothing. Those who rule over them wail," declares the LORD, "and My name is continually despised all day long.
- 6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I. Therefore My people shall know My name. In that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here I am."
- 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth! How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of Him who brings good news — who announces peace, who brings good news of good things, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!"
- 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion. Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they sing for joy. For eye to eye they shall see the LORD returning to Zion.

Chapter 53

Isaiah prophesies the suffering Servant, despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows acquainted with grief. He was wounded for our transgressions and bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray, and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He is led as a lamb to the slaughter, and by His knowledge He shall justify many.

| 2 | For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. | He grew up before God like a tender shoot, like a root out of dry ground. He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him, and no beauty that we should desire Him. |
| 3 | He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not. | He is despised and rejected of men — a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief. | 6 | All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. | All we like sheep have gone astray. Each of us has turned to his own way. The LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. |

- 7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was oppressed and He was afflicted, yet He did not open His mouth. He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter. As a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He did not open His mouth.
- 8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken. He was taken away by oppression and judgment. Who will declare His generation? He was cut off from the land of the living. For the transgression of My people He was stricken.
- 9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. He was assigned a grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, because He had done no violence and there was no deceit in His mouth.
- 10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him; He has put Him to grief. When You shall make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His offspring; He shall prolong His days. The purpose of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.
- 11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Out of the anguish of His soul He shall see and be satisfied. Chapter 54

The LORD calls the barren woman to sing, for her children will be more than those of the married woman. Her Maker is her husband -- the LORD of hosts is His name -- and He calls her back like a wife forsaken. No weapon formed against her shall prosper, and every tongue that rises against her in judgment she shall condemn.

- 4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more. Do not fear, for You will not be ashamed. Do not be dismayed, for You will not be disgraced. You will forget the shame of Your youth, and You will no longer remember the reproach of Your widowhood.
- 5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called. For Your Maker is Your husband — the LORD of hosts is His name. Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. He shall be called the God of all the earth.
- 6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God. For the LORD has called You like a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit — like a young wife when You were rejected, says Your God.
- 7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. For a brief moment I abandoned You, but with great mercies I will gather You.
- 8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer. In a surge of anger I hid My face from You for a moment. But with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on You, says the LORD Your Redeemer.
- 9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee. For this is like the days of Noah to Me. As I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, and will not rebuke you.
- 10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee. For the mountains may depart and the hills be removed, but My kindness shall not depart from You. My covenant of peace shall not be removed, says the LORD Who has mercy on You.

Chapter 55

The LORD invites everyone who thirsts to come to the waters and buy wine and milk without money and without price. He will make an everlasting covenant with His people -- the sure mercies of David. His thoughts are higher than man's thoughts, and His word shall not return to Him void but shall accomplish what He pleases.

| 1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. | Come, everyone who is thirsty — come to the waters! Even He who has no money — come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. |
| 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. | Why do You spend money for what is not bread, and Your wages for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me and eat what is good. Let Your soul delight in rich food. |
| 3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. | Turn your ear and come to Me; listen, that your soul may live! I will make an everlasting covenant with you — the faithful mercies shown to David. |
| 4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people. | I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. |
| 5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. | You shall call a nation You do not know, and a nation that did not know You shall run to You — because of the LORD Your God, the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified You. |
| 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: | Seek the LORD while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. |

- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man His thoughts. Let Him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy on Him — to our God, for He will freely pardon.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. "For My thoughts are not Your thoughts, and Your ways are not My ways," declares the LORD.
- 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than Your ways and My thoughts than Your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there, but water the earth and make it bring forth and sprout — giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater —
- 11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. so shall My word be that goes out from My mouth. It shall not return to Me empty; it shall accomplish what I desire and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.
- 12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. For You shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace. The mountains and the hills shall break out into singing before You, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
- 13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress tree; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle. This shall be a memorial to the LORD, an everlasting sign that shall not be removed.

The LORD declares that His salvation is near and commands justice and righteousness. The foreigner who joins himself to the LORD shall not be separated from His people, and the eunuch who keeps the LORD's sabbaths will be given a name better than sons and daughters. The LORD's house will be called a house of prayer for all people. Israel's watchmen are blind and her shepherds cannot understand.

| 2 | Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. | Blessed is the man who does this — the son of man who holds it firmly — who keeps the Sabbath without defiling it, and keeps His hand from doing any evil. |
| 3 | Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. | Let not the foreigner who has joined Himself to the LORD say, "The LORD will surely exclude me from His people." Let not the eunuch say, "I am a dry tree." |
| 4 | For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; | For thus says the LORD to the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose what pleases Me and hold fast to My covenant: |
| 5 | Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. | "I will give them a memorial and a name within My house and within My walls, better than sons and daughters. I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off." |

- 6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD — to serve Him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be His servants — everyone who keeps the Sabbath without defiling it and holds fast to My covenant —
- 7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people. even them I will bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar. For My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.
- 8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him. The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, declares: "I will gather still others to Him besides those already gathered."
- 9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. Come to devour, all You animals of the field — all You animals in the forest.
- 10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. His watchmen are blind; they are all without knowledge. They are all silent dogs that cannot bark. They lie down and love to sleep.
- 11 Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter. They are greedy dogs with an insatiable appetite. They are shepherds who have no understanding. They all look to their own way, each one seeking his own gain.
- 12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant. "Come," each one cries, "let me bring wine; let us drink our fill of strong drink. Tomorrow will be like today — even better!"

Chapter 57

The righteous perish and no one takes it to heart. The LORD rebukes the idolaters who sacrifice children in the valleys and set up their bed on every high mountain. But to the contrite and humble spirit the LORD gives life, for He will not contend forever. He creates the fruit of the lips -- peace to him who is far off and to him who is near. There is no peace for the wicked.

| 1 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. | The righteous man perishes, and no one takes it to heart. Godly men are taken away, with no one realizing that the righteous man is taken away from the evil that is coming. |
| 2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. | He enters into peace. They rest in their places — each one who walked in his uprightness. |
| 3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore. | But come here, you children of a sorceress — you offspring of the adulterer and the prostitute. |
| 4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, | Who are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, offspring of deceit? |
| 5 Inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, burning your children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks? | You burn with lust among the oaks and under every green tree. You sacrifice your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks. |
| 6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Shall I relent for these things? |

- 7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice. On a high and lofty mountain you made your bed. You went up there to offer your sacrifices.
- 8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. Behind the door and the doorpost you have put your symbol. Turning from Me, you uncovered yourself to another and went up. You enlarged your bed and made a bargain with them. You loved their bed; you chose their open company.
- 9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. You journeyed to the king with oil and lavished your perfumes. You sent your ambassadors far away; you sent them down even to the grave.
- 10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved. You were worn out by your many journeys, but you did not say, "It is hopeless." You found renewed strength, and so you were not discouraged.
- 11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not? Whom have you feared and been in awe of, that you have lied and not remembered Me, not taken Me to heart? Was I not silent for a long time, and so you do not fear Me?
- 12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee. I will expose your so-called righteousness and your deeds — they will not help you.
- 13 When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain; When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you! But the wind will carry them all away; a breath will take them. But he who takes refuge in Me shall possess the land and shall inherit My holy mountain.

- 14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people. He shall say: "Build up, build up — prepare the way! Remove every stumbling block from the road for My people."
- 15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. For thus says the One who is high and lifted up — who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I live in the high and holy place, and also with the one who is contrite and humble in spirit — to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the contrite."
- 16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made. For I will not contend forever, nor will I always be angry. For the spirit would grow faint before Me — the souls I have made.
- 17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart. Because of his iniquitous covetousness I was angry; I struck him and hid My face in anger. But he kept going back to the ways of his own heart.
- 18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners. I have seen his ways, but I will heal him. I will lead him and restore comfort to him and his mourners.
- 19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him. I create the fruit of the lips. Peace, peace to the one who is far and to the one who is near, says the LORD. I will heal Him.
- 20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. But the wicked are like the troubled sea — it cannot be quiet, and its waters toss up mud and mire.
- 21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. "There is no peace," says my God, "for the wicked."

Chapter 58

The LORD rebukes Israel's fasts as empty rituals done for show while they oppress their workers. The true fast is to loose the bonds of wickedness, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and take in the homeless poor. Then their light will break forth as the morning, and the LORD will guide them continually and satisfy their soul in drought.

| 1 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. | Cry out loudly; do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet. Declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins. |
| 2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. | Yet they seek Me daily and delight to know My ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the ordinances of their God. They ask Me for just decisions; they delight in drawing near to God. |
| 3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours. | "Why have we fasted and You do not see?" they say. "Why have we humbled ourselves and You take no notice?" Look — on the day of your fasting you pursue your own pleasure and oppress all your workers. |
| 4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. | You fast for strife and argument and to strike with a wicked fist. You do not fast as you do this day if you want your voice to be heard on high. |
| 5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? | Is this the fast I have chosen — a day for a man to humble himself? Is it to bow his head like a reed and to spread sackcloth and ashes? Will You call this a fast — a day acceptable to the LORD? |

- 6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is this not the fast I have chosen: to break the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke — to set the oppressed free and to break every yoke?
- 7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Is it not to share Your bread with the hungry and to bring the homeless poor into Your house — to cover the naked when You see them and not to turn away from Your own kin?
- 8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward. Then Your light shall break out like the dawn. Your healing shall spring up quickly. Your righteousness shall go before You; the glory of the LORD shall be Your rear guard.
- 9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity; Then You shall call, and the LORD will answer. You shall cry, and He will say, "Here I am." If You remove the yoke from Your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,
- 10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day: and if You pour Yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted — then Your light shall rise in the darkness, and Your gloom shall be as the noonday.
- 11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. The LORD will guide You continually and satisfy Your soul in dry times and make Your bones strong. You shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.

I will make You ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed You with the heritage of Jacob your father. The mouth of the LORD has spoken. |

Isaiah declares that the LORD's hand is not shortened that it cannot save, but Israel's iniquities have separated them from God. Justice is far from them, truth has fallen in the street, and the LORD saw that there was no intercessor, so His own arm brought salvation. The Redeemer shall come to Zion, and the LORD's covenant promises that His Spirit and His words shall not depart from their mouth forever.

| 1 Behold, the LORD'S hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: | The LORD's arm is not too short to save; His ear is not too dull to hear. |

- 2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. But Your iniquities have separated You from Your God. Your sins have hidden His face from You, so that He does not hear.
- 3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness. Your hands are defiled with blood, Your fingers with iniquity. Your lips have spoken lies; Your tongue mutters wickedness.
- 4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. No one calls for justice; no one pleads truthfully. They trust in empty talk and speak lies. They conceive trouble and give birth to iniquity.
- 5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper. They hatch the eggs of vipers and spin a spider's web. Whoever eats their eggs dies, and when one is cracked, a poisonous snake hatches.
- 6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their webs cannot be used as clothing; their deeds cannot cover themselves. Their works are works of iniquity, and acts of violence are in their hands.
- 7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths. Their feet run to evil; they rush to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; ruin and destruction are in their paths.
- 8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. The way of peace they do not know; there is no justice in their paths. They have made their roads crooked; no one who walks on them knows peace.

- 9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. Therefore justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We look for light, but find darkness; we look for brightness, but walk in deep shadow.
- 10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men. We grope along the wall like the blind; we grope like those who have no eyes. We stumble at midday as in the twilight; among the healthy we are like the dead.
- 11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us. We growl like bears; we moan mournfully like doves. We look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.
- 12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; For our transgressions are many before You, and our sins testify against us. Our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities —
- 13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. transgressing and denying the LORD, turning away from our God — speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and speaking lies from the heart.
- 14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away. Truth has stumbled in the public square, and honesty cannot enter.
- 15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment. Truth is missing; whoever turns from evil becomes a target. The LORD saw it, and it displeased Him that there was no justice.

- 16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. He saw that there was no man, and was appalled that there was no one to intercede. So his own arm brought salvation to Him, and His righteousness sustained Him.
- 17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke. He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation on His head. He put on the garments of vengeance as His clothing, and wrapped Himself in zeal as a cloak.
- 18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence. According to their deeds, so He will repay — wrath to His adversaries, repayment to His enemies. To the distant shores He will render repayment.
- 19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him. So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west, and His glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up an ensign against Him.
- 20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD. The Redeemer shall come to Zion — to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, declares the LORD.
- 21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever. "And as for Me, this is My covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit who is on You and My words that I have put in Your mouth shall not depart from Your mouth, or from the mouth of Your children, or from the mouth of Your children's children," says the LORD, "from now on and forever."

Chapter 60

Isaiah calls Zion to arise and shine, for her light has come and the glory of the LORD has risen upon her. Nations will come to her light and kings to the brightness of her rising. The wealth of the nations will flow to her, the sun will no longer be needed for light, and the LORD Himself will be her everlasting light.

All those from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD. |

- 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to You; the rams of Nebaioth shall serve You. They shall come up with acceptance on My altar, and I will glorify My glorious house.
- 8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Who are these who fly like a cloud, like doves to their perches?
- 9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. Surely the coastlands wait for Me — the ships of Tarshish first — to bring Your sons from far away, their silver and gold with them, to the name of the LORD Your God, and to the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified You.
- 10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Foreigners shall build Your walls, and their kings shall serve You. For in My anger I struck You, but in My favor I have had mercy on You.
- 11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought. Your gates shall always be open; day and night they shall not be shut — that people may bring You the wealth of the nations, with their kings being led in procession.
- 12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish. Those nations shall be completely destroyed.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious. The glory of Lebanon shall come to You — the cypress, the plane tree, and the pine — to beautify the place of My sanctuary. I will make the place of My feet glorious.

- 14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. The descendants of those who tormented You shall come bowing down to You. All who despised You shall bow at Your feet. They shall call You the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Because You have been forsaken and hated — with no one passing through — I will make you a pride forever, a joy from age to age.
- 16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. You shall drink the milk of nations; You shall nurse at the breast of kings. You shall know that I, the LORD, am Your Savior and Your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness. Instead of bronze I will bring gold; instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze; instead of stones, iron. I will make Your officers peace and Your rulers righteousness.
- 18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. Violence shall no more be heard in Your land, nor devastation or destruction within Your borders. You shall call Your walls Salvation and Your gates Praise.
- 19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. The sun shall no longer be Your light by day, nor shall the moon give You its brightness by night. But the LORD shall be Your everlasting light, and Your God shall be Your glory.

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon the Servant to preach good tidings to the poor, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and to declare the acceptable year of the LORD and the day of vengeance. The LORD will give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.

- 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. to grant to those who mourn in Zion — to give them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They shall be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.
- 4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations. They shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.
- 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. Strangers shall stand and tend Your flocks; foreigners shall be Your farmers and vinedressers.
- 6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves. But You shall be called the Priests of the LORD; You shall be spoken of as the Ministers of our God. You shall eat the wealth of the nations and in their riches you shall boast.
- 7 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them. Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot. Therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs.
- 8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. For I the LORD love justice; I hate robbery and wrongdoing. I will faithfully give them their reward, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

- 9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed. Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them shall acknowledge them — that they are a people the LORD has blessed.
- 10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD; my soul shall be joyful in my God. For He has clothed me with garments of salvation; He has covered me with a robe of righteousness — as a bridegroom adorns Himself with a crown, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
- 11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations. For as the earth brings forth its growth, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Isaiah declares he will not rest until the righteousness of Zion goes forth as brightness and her salvation as a lamp that burns. She shall be called by a new name, and the LORD will rejoice over her as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride. Watchmen are set on the walls of Jerusalem who shall never hold their peace day or night.

- 1 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth. For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be still, until her righteousness goes out like brightness and her salvation burns like a torch.

Chapter 63

Isaiah sees one coming from Edom with garments stained red, who has trodden the winepress of God's wrath alone. Isaiah recounts the LORD's lovingkindness and mercies toward Israel, how He carried them in the days of old and how they grieved His Holy Spirit. He prays for the LORD to look down from heaven and return for His people.

| 1 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. | Who is this who comes from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah — this One who is glorious in His clothing, marching in the greatness of His strength? "It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save." |
| 2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? | Why is Your clothing red, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress? |
| 3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. | "I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the peoples no one was with Me. I trod them in My anger and trampled them in My fury. Their lifeblood splattered on My garments, and I stained all My clothing. |
| 4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. | For the day of vengeance was in My heart, and the year of My redeemed had come. |
| 5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. | I looked, but there was no one to help.
I was appalled that there was no one to assist. So My own arm brought salvation, and My fury upheld Me. |
| 6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. | I trampled the peoples in My anger; I made them drunk in My fury. I poured out their lifeblood on the ground." |

- 7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. I will tell of the mercies of the LORD — the praiseworthy acts of the LORD — according to all that the LORD has done for us, the great goodness to the house of Israel which He has shown them according to His mercy, according to the abundance of His mercies.
- 8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. For He said, "Surely they are My people — children who will not deal falsely." So He became their Savior.
- 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old. In all their distress He too was distressed, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and in His mercy He redeemed them. He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.
- 10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit. So He turned to be their enemy; He Himself fought against them.
- 11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him? Then He remembered the days of old — of Moses and his people. Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? Where is He who put his Holy Spirit within him?
- 12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? Who led them by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arm — dividing the waters before them — to make for Himself an everlasting name?
- 13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? Who led them through the deep as a horse through the wilderness, without stumbling?

| 14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name. | Like cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest. So You led Your people, to make for Yourself a glorious name. |
| 15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained? | Look down from heaven and see — from Your holy and glorious dwelling. Where are Your zeal and Your might? The stirring of Your heart and Your mercies are withheld from me. |
| 16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting. | For You are our Father — though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us. You, O LORD, are our Father; our Redeemer from of old is Your name. |
| 17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for the sake of Your servants — the tribes of Your heritage. |
| 18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary. | Your holy people possessed it for a little while, but our adversaries have trampled down Your sanctuary. |
| 19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name. | We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those who are not called by Your name. |

Chapter 64

Isaiah pleads for the LORD to come down and make His name known to His adversaries. He confesses that all Israel's righteousnesses are as filthy rags, and they have all faded like a leaf. He asks the LORD not to be angry beyond measure and remembers that they are the clay and the LORD is the potter.

Chapter 65

The LORD declares that He was found by those who did not seek Him and spread out His hands to a rebellious people. He will bring judgment on those who forsake Him but will preserve a remnant. He will create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered. In the new Jerusalem there will be no more weeping, and the wolf and the lamb shall feed together.

- 20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed. No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not live out His years. The one who dies at a hundred years will be thought a youth, and the one who fails to reach a hundred shall be thought cursed.
- 21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall build houses and live in them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- 22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not build for another to live in; they shall not plant for another to eat. Chapter 66

The LORD declares that heaven is His throne and the earth His footstool, and He looks to the one who is poor and of a contrite spirit and who trembles at His word. Zion shall bring forth her children in a day, and the LORD will comfort Jerusalem as a mother comforts her child. The LORD will come with fire and a whirlwind to judge all flesh, and the new heavens and the new earth shall remain before Him.

- 3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. He who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; He who presents a grain offering, like one who offers pig's blood; He who burns frankincense, like one who blesses an idol. These have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations.
- 4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. I also will choose harsh treatment for them and bring their fears on them. Because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they did not listen. They did evil in My sight and chose what I did not delight in.
- 5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. Listen to the word of the LORD, You who tremble at His word. Your brothers who hate You and exclude You for My name's sake have said, "Let the LORD be glorified, so that we may see Your joy!" But they shall be put to shame.
- 6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies. A roaring sound from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD — repaying His enemies what they deserve!
- 7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Before she was in labor she gave birth. Before her pain came, she delivered a son.

- 8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? Shall a nation be brought forth in a moment? For as soon as Zion was in labor, she gave birth to her children.
- 9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God. Shall I bring to the point of birth and not deliver? says the LORD. Shall I, who cause delivery, shut the womb? says Your God.
- 10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her: Rejoice with Jerusalem; be glad for her, all You who love her. Rejoice with her for joy, all You who mourn over her —
- 11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. that You may nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breast; that You may drink deeply and delight yourselves in the abundance of her glory.
- 12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees. For thus says the LORD: "I will extend peace to her like a river and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream. You shall nurse; You shall be carried on her hip and bounced on her knees.
- 13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort You. You shall be comforted in Jerusalem."
- 14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies. When You see this, Your heart shall rejoice; Your bones shall flourish like the grass. The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants, and his indignation to his enemies.

- 15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For the LORD will come with fire — with his chariots like a whirlwind — to repay His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire.
- 16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many. For by fire and by his sword the LORD will judge all flesh, and those slain by the LORD shall be many.
- 17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD. Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens — following one in the midst — eating pig's meat and the detestable thing and mice, shall come to an end together, declares the LORD.
- 18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory. For I know their works and their thoughts. The time is coming to gather all nations and tongues. They shall come and shall see My glory.
- 19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles. I will set a sign among them. From those who escape I will send some to the nations — to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow; to Tubal and Javan, to the distant coastlands that have not heard My fame or seen My glory. They shall declare My glory among the nations.
- 20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. They shall bring all Your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the LORD — on horses, in chariots and wagons, on mules and on swift camels — to My holy mountain Jerusalem, declares the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.

- 21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD. And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the LORD.
- 22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. For as the new heavens and the new earth that I make shall remain before Me, declares the LORD, so shall Your offspring and Your name remain.
- 23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. From new moon to new moon, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, declares the LORD.
- 24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh. They shall go out and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against Me. For their worm shall not die, and their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.

Jeremiah

Author: Jeremiah the priest, with Baruch son of Neriah as his scribe — the book records Baruch writing the prophecies Jeremiah dictated (Jer 36:4) and Jeremiah's own purchase of land as a sign-act of hope (ch. 32).

Date written: c. 627–580 BC, spanning the final decades of Judah's existence through the destruction of Jerusalem and its aftermath.

Written to: The people of Judah — those remaining in the land, those already exiled to Babylon, and those who fled to Egypt.

Setting: Judah's final forty years. The Babylonian empire is rising. Five kings come and go. Jeremiah preaches a deeply unpopular message — surrender to Babylon, because this judgment is from God — and suffers imprisonment, beatings, and near-execution for it.

Where this sits historically: Written under Josiah, Jehoahaz, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah (c. 627–580 BC), as Assyria collapsed (Nineveh fell 612 BC) and Nebuchadnezzar's Babylon rose to destroy Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Contemporaries: Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Nahum, and Obadiah all prophesied in this window, while Daniel and Ezekiel were carried captive to Babylon during Jeremiah's own lifetime.

Big themes:

- The reluctant prophet — Jeremiah protests his call, weeps over the people's sin, and is called "the weeping prophet"; he is the most personally revealed prophet in the OT

- Judgment inevitable — Jeremiah preaches for forty years that Jerusalem will fall; he is ignored, mocked, and imprisoned; the city falls exactly as he said

- The new covenant — Jeremiah 31:31–34 contains the OT's clearest promise of a new covenant written on the heart, quoted extensively in Hebrews 8

- The potter and the clay — God's sovereignty over nations is absolute; He shapes and reshapes according to His purposes

- Lament — the book contains more complaint psalms and personal anguish than any other prophetic book; faith does not eliminate suffering

How it fits: Jeremiah prophesied during the events 2 Kings 22–25 records. He was the prophet whose seventy-year exile prediction Daniel read in Babylon (Dan 9:2). The new covenant he announced in chapter 31 becomes the foundation of everything the NT says about salvation and the church (Heb 8:6–13).

Chapter 1

The LORD called Jeremiah before he was born and ordained him a prophet to the nations. Jeremiah protested that he was only a child, but the LORD touched his mouth and put His words in it. The LORD showed him two visions -- an almond branch and a boiling pot tilting from the north -- and promised to make him a fortified city against the whole land.

Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

"Before I formed You in the womb I knew You. Before You were born I sanctified You and ordained You a prophet to the nations."

- 6 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! I do not know how to speak — I am only a child."
- 7 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a child.' You will go to everyone I send You to, and You will speak everything I command You."
- 8 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with You to rescue You," says the LORD.
- 9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. Then the LORD reached out His hand and touched my mouth. He said to me, "I have put My words in Your mouth."
- 10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. See — today I appoint You over nations and kingdoms, to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."
- 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. The word of the LORD came to me again: "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."
- 12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it. The LORD said, "You have seen correctly, for I am watching over My word to carry it out."
- 13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north. The word of the LORD came to me a second time: "What do You see?" I said, "I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north."
- 14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. The LORD said to me, "Disaster will break out from the north on all who live in this land."

- 15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah. For I am calling all the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD. "They will come and each king will set His throne at the entrance of Jerusalem's gates. They will attack all its surrounding walls and all the towns of Judah.
- 16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands. I will pronounce judgment on them for all their wickedness. They have forsaken Me, burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the work of their own hands.
- 17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them. So prepare Yourself. Stand up and speak to them everything I command You. Do not be terrified by them, or I will terrify You before them.
- 18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. Today I have made You a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land — against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.
- 19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee. They will fight against You but will not overcome You, for I am with You to rescue You," says the LORD.

Chapter 2

The LORD recalled Israel's early devotion as a young bride who followed Him through the wilderness. He charged them with forsaking the fountain of living waters and hewing out broken cisterns that can hold no water. Israel's own wickedness would correct her, for she had committed two evils -- forsaking the LORD and turning to worthless idols.

- 17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? Have You not brought this on Yourself by forsaking the LORD Your God when He led You in the way?
- 18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Now why go to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile? And why go to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates?
- 19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. Your own wickedness will punish You. Your unfaithfulness will correct You. Know and see how evil and bitter it is to forsake the LORD Your God and to have no fear of Me," says the Lord GOD of hosts.

- 20 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. "Long ago I broke Your yoke and tore off Your chains. You said, 'I will not serve idols.' Yet on every high hill and under every green tree You lay down and played the harlot.

- 22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. Even if You scrub Yourself with lye and use plenty of soap, the stain of Your iniquity is still before Me," says the Lord GOD.
- 23 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways; How can You say, 'I am not defiled — I have not followed the Baals'? Look at what You did in the valley. Know what You have done. You are a swift young camel running back and forth,
- 24 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. a wild donkey at home in the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving. Who can hold her back when she is in heat? Any male that seeks her will find her easily in her season.
- 25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go. Keep Your feet from going bare and Your throat from thirst. But You said, 'It is no use! I love foreign gods and must go after them.'
- 26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel is shamed — their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets.

- 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us. They say to wood, 'You are my father,' and to stone, 'You gave birth to me.' They have turned their backs to Me and not their face. Yet when they are in trouble, they say, 'Come and save us.'
- 28 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah. Where then are the gods You made for Yourself? Let them come if they can save You when You are in trouble. For You have as many gods as You have cities, O Judah.
- 29 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD. Why do You bring charges against Me? You have all rebelled against Me," says the LORD.
- 30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. I struck Your people in vain — they accepted no correction. Your sword has devoured Your prophets like a destroying lion.
- 31 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee? You of this generation, listen to the word of the LORD. Have I been a desert to Israel? A land of deep darkness? Why do My people say, 'We are free to roam — we will come to You no more'?
- 32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number. Does a young woman forget her jewelry? Does a bride forget her wedding clothes? Yet My people have forgotten Me for more days than can be counted.
- 33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways. How skilled you are at chasing love! You have even taught the wicked women your ways.

- 34 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these. On your clothes is found the blood of the innocent poor. You did not catch them breaking in — yet in spite of all this
- 35 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from him. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned. you say, 'I am innocent. Surely His anger has turned away from me.' But I will judge you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'
- 36 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria. Why do you run here and there, changing your alliances? You will be disappointed by Egypt just as you were disappointed by Assyria.
- 37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them. You will leave that place with Your hands on Your head, for the LORD has rejected those You trust. You will not succeed with their help.

The LORD compared Israel to a wife who has played the harlot with many lovers and yet asks to return. He called faithless Israel and treacherous Judah to repent, promising to give them shepherds after His own heart. He declared that in those days they will no longer speak of the ark of the covenant, for Jerusalem itself will be called the throne of the LORD.

- 1 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD. God says: "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, can He take her back? Would not that land be completely defiled? But You have committed adultery with many partners — yet return to Me," says the LORD.

- 2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lain with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness. Look up at the bare heights and see: where have You not been lain with? You sat by the roadside waiting for lovers, like an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with Your whoredoms and with Your wickedness.
- 3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed. Therefore the spring rains have been withheld and the late rains have not come. Yet You have a whore's forehead — you refuse to be ashamed.
- 4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth? Have You not just now called to Me, 'My Father, You are the friend of my youth'?
- 5 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest. 'Will God be angry forever? Will He be angry to the end?' You say this, but You keep on doing evil."
- 6 The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot. In the days of King Josiah the LORD said to me: "Have You seen what backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree and played the harlot there.
- 7 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. After she had done all this, I said to her, 'Return to Me.' But she did not return. Her unfaithful sister Judah saw this.
- 8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. I saw that because backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah had no fear — she also went and played the harlot.

- 9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. Through the lightness of her whoredom she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.
- 10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD. Even after all this, her unfaithful sister Judah has not returned to Me with her whole heart — only in pretense," says the LORD.
- 11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. The LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah.
- 12 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever. Go, proclaim this message toward the north: 'Return, faithless Israel,' says the LORD. 'I will not look on You in anger, for I am merciful,' says the LORD. 'I will not be angry forever.
- 13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD. Only acknowledge Your iniquity — that You have rebelled against the LORD Your God and scattered Your favors among foreign gods under every green tree, and that You have not obeyed Me," says the LORD.
- 14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: "Return, faithless children," says the LORD, "for I am Your master. I will take You — one from a city, two from a family — and bring You to Zion.
- 15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Then I will give You shepherds after My own heart, who will lead You with knowledge and understanding.

- 16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.
- In those days, when You have multiplied and grown in the land," says the LORD, "people will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' It will not come to mind or be remembered or missed. It will not be made again.

■ WORD NOTE — Covenant (KUV-uh-nunt) — "a binding agreement; God's solemn promise that establishes the relationship between Him and His people."

Chapter 4

The LORD called Israel to return and plow up fallow ground, and to circumcise their hearts. Jeremiah saw a vision of the coming destruction from the north -- the whole land laid waste, the cities broken down, and the heavens without light. The LORD declared that the whole land would be desolate, though He would not make a full end.

- 2 And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory. You will swear, 'As the LORD lives' — in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. Then the nations will praise themselves by him, and in him they will boast."
- 3 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns. This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: "Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.
- 4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Circumcise yourselves to the LORD and remove the hardness of Your hearts, You people of Judah and Jerusalem. Otherwise My anger will break out like fire and burn with no one to put it out — because of your evil deeds."
- 5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities. "Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem. Sound the trumpet throughout the land and cry out — gather together and say, 'Run to the fortified cities!'
- 6 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction. Raise the signal flag toward Zion. Flee for safety — do not delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, a great destruction.

- 7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. A lion has come out of His den, a destroyer of nations has set out. He has left His place to lay Your land waste. Your cities will be ruined, left without a single inhabitant.
- 8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. Because of this, put on sackcloth and mourn and wail, for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.
- 9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder. "On that day," says the LORD, "the king and the officials will lose heart. The priests will be horrified and the prophets will be stunned."
- 10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul. Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! You have truly deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throats!"
- 11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told: "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows toward My people — not to winnow or cleanse,

- 14 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee? Jerusalem, wash the evil from Your heart so You may be saved. How long will You harbor wicked thoughts?
- 15 For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim. A voice announces from Dan — disaster proclaimed from the hills of Ephraim.
- 16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. "Warn the nations. Announce to Jerusalem: 'A besieging army is coming from a distant country, raising their voices against the cities of Judah.'
- 17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Like guards surrounding a field they close in on her on every side, because she has rebelled against Me," says the LORD.
- 18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart. Your own conduct and actions have brought this on You. This is Your punishment — how bitter it is! How it pierces to the heart!
- 19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. My anguish! My anguish! I writhe in pain. My heart is pounding. I cannot be silent, for I have heard the sound of the trumpet — the alarm of war.
- 20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. Disaster after disaster is proclaimed. The whole land is ruined. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, my shelters in an instant.
- 21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? How long must I see the battle flag and hear the sound of the trumpet?

- 22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. "My people are foolish. They do not know Me. They are senseless children with no understanding. They are skilled at doing evil but do not know how to do good."
- 23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I looked at the earth — it was empty and formless. I looked at the sky — it had no light.
- 24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I looked at the mountains — they were shaking. All the hills were swaying.
- 25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I looked — there was no one. Every bird in the sky had flown away.
- 26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger. I looked — the fertile land was a desert. Every city was in ruins before the LORD, before His fierce anger.
- 27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. This is what the LORD says: "The whole land will be desolate, but I will not destroy it completely.
- 28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it. Because of this the earth will mourn and the sky grow dark, because I have spoken and will not relent. I have decided and will not turn back."
- 29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein. Every city will flee at the sound of the horsemen and archers. They will go into the thickets and climb among the rocks. Every city will be abandoned and no one will live in them.

- 30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life. You who are ruined, what will You do? Even if You dress in scarlet and put on gold jewelry, even if You paint Your eyes — you make Yourself beautiful for nothing. Your lovers despise You. They want to kill You.
- 31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers. I hear a cry like that of a woman in labor, the anguish of a mother giving birth to her first child — the voice of Daughter Zion gasping for breath and stretching out her hands, saying, "How terrible for me! I am fainting before killers!"

Chapter 5

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to search the streets of Jerusalem for one man who executes judgment and seeks truth, and He would pardon the city. But the people had sworn falsely, refused correction, and broken the yoke. Their prophets prophesied lies and the priests ruled by their own power, and Jeremiah asked what would happen in the end.

Cross-References:

- 1 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it. "Roam through the streets of Jerusalem. Look around and take note. Search the public squares. See if You can find one person who acts justly and seeks truth. If You find one, I will forgive this city.
- 2 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely. Even when they say, 'As the LORD lives,' they are swearing falsely."

- 3 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return. LORD, do Your eyes not look for truth? You struck them but they felt no pain. You crushed them but they refused to be corrected. They made their faces harder than rock and refused to return.
- 4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God. I thought, "These are only the poor and foolish — they do not know the way of the LORD or the law of their God."
- 5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. So I went to the leaders and spoke to them. They surely know the way of the LORD and the law of their God. But these also had broken the yoke together and snapped off the chains.
- 6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. Therefore a lion from the forest will attack them. A wolf from the desert will destroy them. A leopard will lurk near their cities. Everyone who comes out will be torn to pieces, because their transgressions are many and their rebellion is great.
- 7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. "How shall I pardon You for this? Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by gods that are not gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.
- 8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. They are like well-fed, lusty stallions, each one neighing for another man's wife.

- 9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. "Should I not take revenge on a nation like this?"
- 10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's. Go through her vineyards and destroy them, but do not make a full end. Strip away her branches, for they do not belong to the LORD.
- 11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have been completely unfaithful to Me," says the LORD.
- 12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: They have lied about the LORD, saying, "He will do nothing. No disaster will come upon us. We will not see sword or famine.
- 13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. The prophets are just hot air — the word of God is not in them. Let what they predict happen to them."
- 14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye have spoken this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. Therefore this is what the LORD God of hosts says: "Because You have spoken this, I will make My words fire in Your mouth, and this people will be the wood it consumes.
- 15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. I am bringing a distant nation against You, Israel," says the LORD. "It is an enduring nation, an ancient nation, whose language You do not know and whose speech You do not understand.
- 16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men. Their quivers are like open graves. They are all mighty warriors.

- 17 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fortified cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword. They will devour Your harvest and Your food — what Your sons and daughters should have eaten. They will devour Your flocks and Your herds. They will devour Your vines and Your fig trees. With the sword they will destroy Your fortified cities in which You trust.
- 18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you. "Yet even in those days," says the LORD, "I will not destroy You completely.
- 19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours. When You ask, "Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?" you will tell them: 'Just as You abandoned the LORD and served foreign gods in Your own land, so You will serve foreigners in a land that is not Your own.'
- 20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, "Announce this to the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:
- 21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not: Listen to this, you foolish and senseless people — you who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear.
- 22 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it? Do You not fear Me?" says the LORD. "Do You not tremble before Me? I placed the sand as the boundary for the sea — a permanent limit it cannot cross. The waves may toss but they cannot prevail. They may roar but they cannot pass over it.
- 23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart. They have turned away and left.

- 24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest. They do not say in their hearts, 'Let us fear the LORD our God, Who gives the autumn and spring rains in season and keeps for us the appointed weeks of harvest.'
- 25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you. Your iniquities have turned these blessings away. Your sins have kept good things from You.
- 26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. Among My people are wicked men who lurk like hunters crouching in ambush. They set traps to catch people.
- 27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of dishonest gain. They have become great and grown rich.
- 28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. They have grown fat and sleek. They have surpassed all the limits of evil. They do not defend the rights of the fatherless or plead the case of the needy.
- 29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? "Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. "Should I not take revenge on a nation like this?"
- 30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; Something horrible and shocking has happened in this land:
- 31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? The prophets prophesy lies. The priests rule by their own authority. And My people love it this way. But what will You do at the end of it all?"

Chapter 6

The LORD warned the children of Benjamin to flee from Jerusalem, for evil and destruction were coming from the north. The city was full of oppression, and the people had rejected the LORD's word. From the least to the greatest, everyone was given to covetousness, and the prophets and priests alike dealt falsely, crying 'Peace, peace' when there was no peace.

| 1 | O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhaccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction. | "Flee for safety, people of Benjamin! Run from Jerusalem! Sound the trumpet in Tekoa. Raise a signal fire over Beth-haccerem, for disaster looms from the north — great destruction. |
| 2 | I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman. | I have likened the daughter of Zion to a beautiful and delicate woman. |
| 3 | The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place. | Shepherds with their flocks will come against her. They will set up their tents around her and each will graze in His own area. |
| 4 | Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. | Prepare for war against her! Attack at noon. But we cry, 'How terrible for us — the day is fading and the evening shadows grow long.' |
| 5 | Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. | Attack by night and destroy her fortresses!" |
| 6 | For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. | This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Cut down her trees and build siege ramps against Jerusalem. This city must be punished. She is full of oppression. |
| 7 | As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds. | As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps her evil fresh. Violence and destruction echo through her. Wounds and blows are all I see. |

- 8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited. Take warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from You and make You a wasteland — an uninhabited land."
- 9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Let them thoroughly glean Israel like a vineyard. Pass Your hand again over the branches, like a grape picker."
- 10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. To whom can I speak and give warning so they will listen? Their ears are closed — they cannot hear. The word of the LORD has become an offense to them. They find no pleasure in it.
- 11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. So I am full of the LORD's fury. I am worn out from holding it in. "Pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together. For husband and wife alike will be taken, the old man and the very aged.
- 12 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD. Their houses will be turned over to others — their fields and wives too — for I will stretch out My hand against those who live in this land," says the LORD.
- 13 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. "From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for profit. From prophet to priest, all practice deceit.
- 14 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. They treat my people's wounds as though they were nothing, saying, 'Peace, peace,' when there is no peace.

- 15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. Were they ashamed when they did these detestable things? No — they were not ashamed at all. They did not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen. When I punish them, they will stumble," says the LORD.
- 16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. This is what the LORD says: "Stand at the crossroads and look. Ask for the ancient paths — ask where the good way is — and walk in it. You will find rest for Your souls." But they said, "We will not walk in it."
- 17 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. I appointed watchmen over You and said, "Listen for the sound of the trumpet." But they said, "We will not listen."
- 18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. Therefore listen, You nations. Take note, you witnesses, of what is happening to them.
- 19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it. Listen, earth: I am bringing disaster on this people — the result of their own scheming — because they have not listened to My words and have rejected My law.
- 20 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me. What good to Me is the incense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable. Your sacrifices do not please Me."

- 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "I will put obstacles before this people. Fathers and sons together will stumble over them. Neighbors and friends will perish."
- 22 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. This is what the LORD says: "A people are coming from the land of the north. A great nation is being stirred up from the ends of the earth."
- 23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion. They carry bow and spear. They are cruel and have no mercy. Their sound is like the roaring sea. They ride on horses, armed like men for battle against You, Daughter Zion."
- 24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail. We have heard the report and our hands fall limp. Anguish grips us — pain like a woman in labor.
- 25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side. Do not go out into the fields or walk on the roads, for the enemy has a sword, and terror is on every side.
- 26 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us. Put on sackcloth, my people, and roll in ashes. Mourn with bitter wailing as for an only son, for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.
- 27 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way. "I have made You a tester and a fortress among my people, so You may observe and examine their ways."
- 28 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters. They are all hardened rebels — they go about spreading slander. They are bronze and iron — all of them corrupt.

- 29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away. The bellows blow fiercely. The lead burns up in the fire. The smelter keeps on working in vain — the wicked are not removed.
- 30 Reprobate silver shall men call them; because the LORD hath rejected them. They are called rejected silver, because the LORD has rejected them."

Chapter 7

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the temple gate to warn the people not to trust in lying words -- 'The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD' -- while they stole, murdered, committed adultery, and burned incense to Baal. He pointed to Shiloh, where He had set His name before, and destroyed it. He declared He would cast them out of His sight as He cast out Ephraim.

- 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD:
- 2 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. "Stand at the gate of the LORD's house and proclaim this message there. Say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all You people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD.'
- 3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Reform Your ways and Your actions and I will let You live in this place.
- 4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these. Do not trust in these deceptive words: 'This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!'
- 5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour; If You truly reform Your ways and Your actions — if You truly administer justice between people —

- 6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: if You do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if You do not follow other gods to Your own harm —
- 7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever. then I will let You live in this place, in the land I gave Your ancestors forever and ever.
- 8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. But look — you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.
- 9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; You steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods You have not known before.
- 10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? Then You come and stand before Me in this house that bears My name and say, "We are safe!" — so You can go on doing all these detestable things.
- 11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD. Has this house, which bears My name, become a den of robbers in Your eyes? I have been watching!" declares the LORD.
- 12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. "Go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made My name to dwell and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.
- 13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not; And now, because You have done all these things," says the LORD, "and because I spoke to You again and again but You did not listen, and I called You but You did not answer —

- 14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. therefore I will do to this house which bears My name — the place You trust in, the place I gave to You and Your ancestors — what I did to Shiloh.
- 15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. I will drive You out of My presence, just as I drove out all Your relatives, all the people of Ephraim."
- 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. "So do not pray for this people. Do not offer any plea or prayer for them. Do not plead with Me, for I will not listen to You.
- 17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? Do You not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
- 18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to arouse My anger.
- 19 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? But am I the one they are provoking?" says the LORD. "Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?"
- 20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: "My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place — on people and animals, on the trees of the field and the crops of the ground. It will burn and not be quenched."

- 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Go ahead and add Your burnt offerings to Your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves!
- 22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: For when I brought Your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not speak to them or command them about burnt offerings and sacrifices.
- 23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. But this is what I commanded them: 'Obey Me and I will be Your God and You will be My people. Walk in all the ways I command You, so that it may go well with You.'
- 24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward.
- 25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: From the day Your ancestors came out of Egypt until now, I sent My servants the prophets to You day after day.
- 26 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. But they did not listen to Me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.
- 27 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. When You tell them all this, they will not listen to You. When You call to them, they will not answer.

- 28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. So say to them, "This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or accepted correction. Truth has perished — it has vanished from their mouths."
- 29 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places: for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. Cut off Your hair and throw it away. Take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under His wrath."
- 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it. "The people of Judah have done evil in My eyes," says the LORD. "They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears My name and have defiled it.
- 31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart. They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire — something I never commanded, nor did it enter My mind.
- 32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place. So the days are coming," says the LORD, "when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no room.
- 33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away. The bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the air and the animals of the earth. No one will drive them away.

- 34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate. I will end the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of the bride and groom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become a wasteland."

The LORD declared that the bones of Jerusalem's kings, priests, and prophets would be spread before the sun and moon they had worshiped. The people refused to return, and even the stork knows her appointed times, but God's people do not know His judgment. Jeremiah wept for the hurt of his people, asking whether there was no balm in Gilead and no physician there.

- 1 At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: "At that time," says the LORD, "the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of its officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves.
- 2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. They will be spread out before the sun and the moon and all the stars of the sky — the things they loved and served and followed and consulted and worshiped. They will not be gathered up or buried but will be like dung on the surface of the ground.
- 3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts. And death will be preferred to life by all the survivors of this evil family who remain in all the places where I have driven them," says the LORD of hosts.

- 4 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return? "Say to them, "This is what the LORD says: When people fall down, do they not get up? When someone turns away, do they not return?"
- 5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. Why then have these people of Jerusalem turned away? Why do they cling to deceit and refuse to return?
- 6 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle. I have listened carefully but they do not say what is right. Not one of them repents of their wickedness by asking, "What have I done?" Each one keeps charging ahead like a horse rushing into battle.
- 7 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their migration; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD. Even the stork in the sky knows its appointed seasons. The dove, the swift, and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But My people do not know the requirements of the LORD.
- 8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain. How can You say, "We are wise and we have the law of the LORD"? Actually, the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely.
- 9 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? The wise will be put to shame. They will be dismayed and caught. They have rejected the word of the LORD — what kind of wisdom do they have?
- 10 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. Therefore I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain. From prophet to priest, all practice deceit.

- 11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. They dress the wound of my people as though it were nothing, saying, "Peace, peace," when there is no peace.
- 12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. Were they ashamed when they committed these detestable acts? No — they felt no shame at all. They did not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen. When they are punished, they will stumble," says the LORD.
- 13 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. "'I will take away their harvest,' says the LORD. 'There will be no grapes on the vine, no figs on the fig tree, and the leaves will wither. What I have given them will be taken away.'"
- 14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there, for the LORD our God has doomed us to perish. He has given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.
- 15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, but behold trouble! We hoped for peace but no good has come. We hoped for a time of healing but found only terror.
- 16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein. The snorting of the enemy's horses is heard from Dan. The whole land trembles at the sound of the neighing of their powerful horses. They have come to devour the land and everything in it — the city and all who live there.

Jeremiah wished his head were waters and his eyes a fountain of tears to weep day and night for his slain people. The LORD declared He would scatter them among nations they did not know, because they had forsaken His law. Let not the wise glory in wisdom, nor the mighty in might, nor the rich in riches, but let him who glories glory in knowing the LORD.

- 2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. If only I had a traveler's shelter in the desert, I would leave my people and go away from them. They are all adulterers — a crowd of traitors.
- 3 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD. "They bend their tongues like bows to shoot lies. They are not faithful to truth in the land. They go from one evil to another. They do not know Me," says the LORD.
- 4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders. "Be on Your guard against Your friends. Do not trust any relative. Every brother is a deceiver and every friend spreads slander.
- 5 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity. Friend deceives friend and no one tells the truth. They have trained their tongues to lie. They exhaust themselves with sinning.
- 6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD. You live in the midst of deception. In their deceit they refuse to know Me," says the LORD.
- 7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people? Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will refine and test them, for what else can I do because of the sin of my people?
- 8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait. Their tongue is a deadly arrow. It speaks deceit. With their mouths they speak peace to their neighbors but in their hearts they set a trap for them.
- 9 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD. "Should I not take revenge on a nation like this?"

- 10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone. I will weep and wail over the mountains and take up a lament over the wilderness pastures. They are so desolate that no one travels through. The lowing of cattle is not heard. The birds of the air have flown and the animals are gone.
- 11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. "I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins — a haunt of jackals. I will make the towns of Judah desolate with no one living in them."
- 12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through? Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has been taught by the LORD to declare why the land is ruined and laid waste like a desert that no one passes through?
- 13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein; The LORD says: "Because they have abandoned My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed Me or followed My law —
- 14 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them: instead they have followed the stubbornness of their own hearts and have gone after the Baals, as their fathers taught them to do."
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will feed this people with bitter food and give them poisoned water to drink."

- 16 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them. I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known. I will pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them."
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come: This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Think about this and call for the wailing women to come. Send for the most skillful of them.
- 18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. Let them come quickly and wail over us, till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.
- 19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. The sound of wailing is heard from Zion: "We are ruined! We are deeply shamed because we have been driven from the land and our homes have been torn down."
- 20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation. Now listen, You women, to the word of the LORD. Open your ears to the words of His mouth. Teach Your daughters how to wail and each one her neighbor how to lament.
- 21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets. "Death has climbed through our windows and entered our palaces. It has cut off the children from the streets and the young men from the public squares."
- 22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them. Say, "This is what the LORD declares: Dead bodies will lie like manure on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper with no one to gather them."

- 23 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: This is what the LORD says: "Let not the wise boast of their wisdom. Let not the strong boast of their strength. Let not the rich boast of their riches.
- 24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD. But let those who boast boast in this — that they understand and know Me, that I am the LORD, Who exercises mercy, justice, and righteousness on earth. In these I delight," says the LORD.
- 25 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised; "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh —
- 26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart. Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all who live in the wilderness in distant places. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

Chapter 10

The LORD warned Israel not to learn the ways of the nations or be dismayed at the signs of heaven. He mocked the idols -- wooden figures overlaid with gold and silver that cannot speak, walk, or do any good or evil. The LORD is the true God, the living God and everlasting King, who made the earth by His power and the world by His wisdom.

Cross-References:

- 1 Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: Hear the word that the LORD speaks to You, house of Israel.

- 2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. This is what the LORD says: "Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by the signs in the sky, even though the nations are terrified by them.
- 3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. For the practices of the nations are worthless. They cut down a tree from the forest — the work of craftsmen with their axes.
- 4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not. They decorate it with silver and gold and fasten it with hammer and nails so it will not totter.
- 5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go: be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good. Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field, these idols cannot speak. They must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them — they can do no harm, and they have no power to do good."
- 6 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might. There is no one like you, LORD. You are great and Your name is great in power.
- 7 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee. Who should not fear You, King of the nations? That is what you deserve. Among all the wise of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like you.
- 8 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities. They are all senseless and foolish. Their wooden idols teach nothing but lies.
- 9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men. Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. What skilled craftsmen make, what goldsmiths fashion — they dress the idols in blue and purple. All of them are the work of skilled people.

- 10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation. But the LORD is the true God. He is the living God, the eternal King. When He is angry the earth trembles. The nations cannot endure his wrath.
- 11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens. Tell them this: "These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens."
- 12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion. But God made the earth by His power. He founded the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.
- 13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. When He thunders, the waters in the heavens roar. He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses.
- 14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. Everyone is senseless and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is shamed by His idol. The images He makes are a fraud — they have no breath in them.
- 15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. They are worthless, the objects of mockery. When their punishment comes, they will be destroyed.
- 16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name. He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these, for he is the Maker of all things — including Israel, the tribe of His inheritance. The LORD of hosts is His name.

- 17 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress. Gather up Your belongings and prepare to leave the land, You who live under siege.
- 18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so. For this is what the LORD says: "At this time I will hurl out those who live in this land. I will bring distress on them so they will feel it."
- 19 Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it. How terrible my wound is! My injury is severe. But I said, "This is my sickness and I must endure it."
- 20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. My tent is ruined and all its ropes are snapped. My children are gone from me and are no more. No one is left to set up my tent or hang the curtains.
- 21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered. The shepherds are senseless and do not seek the LORD. So they do not prosper and all their flock is scattered.
- 22 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons. Listen! The report is coming — great commotion from the land of the north. It will make the towns of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals.
- 23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. LORD, I know that people's lives are not their own. It is not for them to direct their own steps.
- 24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Correct me, LORD, but with justice — not in Your anger, or You will reduce me to nothing.

Chapter 11

The LORD reminded Jeremiah of the covenant He made with Israel when He brought them out of Egypt, commanding them to obey His voice. The people of Judah and Jerusalem had broken that covenant and returned to the iniquities of their fathers. The men of Anathoth, Jeremiah's own town, plotted against his life, and the LORD declared He would punish them.

Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.* Then I will fulfill the oath I swore to Your ancestors to give them a land flowing with milk and honey — as it is today." I said, "Amen, LORD."
- 6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. The LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and obey them.
- 7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. For I warned Your ancestors again and again from the day I brought them out of Egypt until today — warning them earnestly: Obey Me.
- 8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead they all followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant, which I commanded them to follow but which they did not keep."
- 9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. The LORD said to me, "There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. They have returned to the iniquities of their ancestors who refused to listen to My words. They have followed other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant I made with their fathers.

- 11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them. Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I will bring on them a disaster they cannot escape. Though they cry out to Me, I will not listen to them.
- 12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble. The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense. But those gods will not save them at all when disaster strikes.
- 13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal. You have as many gods as You have towns, Judah. You have set up as many altars to burn incense to Baal as there are streets in Jerusalem.'
- 14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble. So do not pray for this people. Do not offer any cry or prayer on their behalf, because I will not listen when they call to Me in the time of their distress.
- 15 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest. What does My beloved have to do in My house when she has done so many wicked things? Can the sacred meat avert Your punishment? When You do evil, You actually rejoice.
- 16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. The LORD called You a thriving olive tree, beautiful and full of fine fruit. But with a roar of a mighty storm He will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken.

- 17 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal. The LORD of hosts, who planted You, has decreed disaster for You, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil — provoking Me by burning incense to Baal.
- 18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings. The LORD revealed their plot to me so I knew about it, for at that time You showed me what they were doing.
- 19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. I did not know they had plotted against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit. Let us cut Him off from the land of the living, so His name will be remembered no more."
- 20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause. But You, LORD of hosts, who judge righteously and test the heart and mind — let me see Your vengeance on them, for to You I have committed my cause.
- 21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand: Therefore this is what the LORD says about the men of Anathoth who are seeking Your life and saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD or You will die by our hands" —
- 22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine: this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword. Their sons and daughters will die by famine.

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

Not one of them will survive, because I will bring disaster on the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment."

Chapter 12

Jeremiah asked the LORD why the way of the wicked prospers and the treacherous are at ease. The LORD answered that if Jeremiah could not keep up with footmen, how would he run with horses? The LORD declared He had forsaken His house and given His beloved into the hands of her enemies, but He would afterward return and have compassion and bring each nation back to their heritage.

1 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

You are always righteous, LORD, when I bring a case before You. Yet I want to speak with You about Your justice: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why do all the treacherous live at ease?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

You have planted them and they have taken root. They grow and produce fruit. You are always on their lips but far from their hearts.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

But You know me, LORD. You see me and test my heart's attitude toward You. Drag them away like sheep to be slaughtered. Set them apart for the day of killing.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

How long will the land mourn and the grass of every field wither? Because of the wickedness of those who live there, the animals and birds have been swept away. Moreover, these people are saying, "He will not see what happens to us."

- 5 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they deal treacherously with thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? "If You have raced with men on foot and they have worn You out, how can You compete with horses? If You stumble in safe country, how will You manage in the thickets by the Jordan?"
- 6 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee. Even Your own brothers and Your father's family have betrayed You. They have raised a crowd to pursue You. Do not trust them, even when they speak kind words to You."
- 7 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. "I will abandon My house. I will forsake My inheritance. I will give the one I love into the hands of her enemies.
- 8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. My inheritance has become to Me like a lion in the forest. She roars at Me — so I have rejected her.
- 9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. My inheritance is like a speckled bird of prey that other birds surround and attack. Come, gather all the wild animals. Bring them to devour.
- 10 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. Many shepherds will ruin My vineyard. They will trample down My field. They will make My pleasant field a desolate wasteland.
- 11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart. It will be made a wasteland — parched and desolate before Me. The whole land will be laid waste because no one takes it to heart.

- 12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace. Over all the barren heights in the desert, destroyers will come, for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other. No one will be safe.
- 13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD. They will plant wheat but harvest thorns. They will wear themselves out but gain nothing. They will be ashamed of their harvests because of the LORD's fierce anger."
- 14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. This is what the LORD says: "As for all My wicked neighbors who seize the inheritance I gave to My people Israel — I will uproot them from their lands and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them.
- 15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. But after I have uprooted them, I will again have compassion on them and bring each one back to his own inheritance and his own land.
- 16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people. And if they learn well the ways of My people and swear by My name, saying 'As the LORD lives' — just as they taught My people to swear by Baal — then they will be established among My people.
- 17 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD. But if any nation will not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it," says the LORD.

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to buy a linen girdle and hide it in a hole by the Euphrates; when he retrieved it, the girdle was ruined. So the LORD would ruin the pride of Judah and Jerusalem. He warned that every bottle would be filled with wine -- a symbol of drunkenness and destruction -- and called the people to give glory to the LORD before He caused darkness.

| 1 | Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. | This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and buy a linen belt and put it around Your waist, but do not let it touch water." |
| 2 | So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. | So I bought the belt as the LORD directed and put it on. |
| 3 | And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: |
| 4 | Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. | "Take the belt You bought and are wearing. Go now to the Euphrates and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks." |
| 5 | So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. | So I went and hid it at the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded. |
| 6 | And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there. | Many days later the LORD said to me, "Go to the Euphrates now and get the belt I told You to hide there." |
| 7 | Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. | So I went to the Euphrates and dug it up. I took the belt from the place where I had hidden it, but it was ruined and completely useless. |
| 8 | Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me: |

- 9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. "This is what the LORD says: In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.
- 10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing. These wicked people refuse to listen to My words. They follow the stubbornness of their own hearts and go after other gods to serve and worship them. They will be like this belt — completely useless.
- 11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. For just as a belt clings to a man's waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to Myself," says the LORD, "so they would be My people — My fame, My praise, and My glory. But they did not listen."
- 12 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? "Tell them this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Every jar should be filled with wine.' They will reply, 'Don't we know very well that every jar should be filled with wine?'
- 13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. Then tell them, "This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill all who live in this land — the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem — with drunkenness.
- 14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them. I will smash them against each other — parents and children alike,' says the LORD. 'I will allow no pity, mercy, or compassion. I will destroy them.'"

- 15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken. Hear and pay attention. Do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.
- 16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. Give glory to the LORD Your God before He brings darkness, before Your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light but He will turn it to deep darkness and change it to thick gloom.
- 17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. But if You do not listen, I will weep in secret because of Your pride. My eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears, because the LORD's flock will be taken captive.
- 18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory. Say to the king and to the queen mother: "Humble yourselves and sit down, for your glorious crowns have fallen from your heads."
- 19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. The cities of the south shall be shut up with no one to open them. All Judah shall be carried away captive — wholly carried away captive.
- 20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? Look up and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was entrusted to you — your beautiful flock?
- 21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? What will You say when the LORD sets over You those You Yourself taught to be Your allies? Will not pain grip You like that of a woman in labor?

Chapter 14

The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. Judah mourned, the ground was parched, and even the deer abandoned their young. The LORD told Jeremiah not to pray for the people's good, and He rejected their fasts and offerings. The prophets who prophesied peace would themselves be consumed by sword and famine.

| 1 | The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth. | This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought: |
| 2 | Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. | "Judah mourns and its gates droop. The people sink to the ground in mourning, and the cry of Jerusalem goes up. |
| 3 | And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads. | The nobles send their servants for water. They go to the cisterns but find no water. They return with empty jars. In shame and misery they cover their heads. |
| 4 | Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads. | The ground is cracked because there is no rain in the land. The farmers are dismayed and cover their heads. |
| 5 | Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass. | Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass. |
| 6 | And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass. | Wild donkeys stand on the bare heights and pant for air like jackals. Their eyes grow dim because there is no food." |
| 7 | O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee. | Although our iniquities testify against us, LORD, act for the sake of Your name. Our unfaithfulness has been great. We have sinned against You. |
| 8 | O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night? | You are the hope of Israel, its Savior in times of distress. Why should You be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who only stays the night? |

- 9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not. Why are You like a man taken by surprise, like a warrior who cannot save? You are among us, LORD, and we bear Your name. Do not forsake us!
- 10 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. This is what the LORD says about this people: "They love to wander. They have not held back their feet. So the LORD does not accept them. He will now remember their iniquity and punish their sins."
- 11 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for the good of this people.
- 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Even if they fast, I will not listen to their cry. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead I will destroy them by sword, famine, and plague."
- 13 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. I replied, "Ah, Lord GOD! The prophets keep telling them, 'You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give You lasting peace in this place.'"
- 14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake I unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart. The LORD said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies in My name. I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to You false visions, worthless divinations, and the delusions of their own minds."

- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. Therefore this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in My name but whom I did not send — and who say 'No sword or famine will touch this land': Those same prophets will die by sword and famine.
- 16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them. And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and the sword. There will be no one to bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. I will pour on them the calamity they deserve.
- 17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. "Speak this word to them: 'Let my eyes flow with tears night and day without stopping, for the virgin daughter of my people has suffered a crushing blow — a very serious wound.
- 18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not. If I go out into the countryside, I see those killed by the sword. If I go into the city, I see the ravages of famine. Both prophet and priest have gone to a land they do not know."
- 19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! Have You completely rejected Judah? Do You despise Zion? Why have You struck us down with no healing for us? We hoped for peace but found no good. We hoped for a time of healing but found only terror.

The LORD declared that even if Moses and Samuel stood before Him, He would not relent toward this people. He appointed four forms of destruction -- the sword, dogs, birds, and beasts. Jeremiah complained of his sorrow, and the LORD promised that if he returned and separated the precious from the worthless, Jeremiah would be as God's mouth and the LORD would save him from the hand of the terrible.

- 3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy. I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," says the LORD: "the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the air and the wild animals to devour and destroy.
- 4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.
- 5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest? Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Who will mourn for you? Who will stop to ask how you are?
- 6 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. You have rejected Me," says the LORD. "You keep going backward. So I will reach out My hand and destroy You. I am weary of relenting.
- 7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways. I will winnow them with a winnowing fork at the gates of the land. I will bring bereavement and destruction on My people, for they have not changed their ways.
- 8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city. Their widows will be more numerous than the sand of the sea. At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men. Suddenly I will bring on them anguish and terror.

- 9 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD. The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last. Her sun will set while it is still day. She will be disgraced and put to shame. As for the survivors, I will hand them over to the sword before their enemies," says the LORD.
- 10 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. Woe to me, my mother, that You gave birth to me — a man with whom the whole land strives and quarrels. I have not lent or borrowed money, yet everyone curses me.
- 11 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. The LORD said, "Surely I will free You for a good purpose. Surely I will make Your enemies plead with You in times of disaster and distress.
- 12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? Can a man break iron — iron from the north — or bronze?
- 13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. Your wealth and Your treasures I will give as plunder without charge — because of all Your sins throughout Your country.
- 14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you. I will enslave You to Your enemies in a land You do not know, for My anger has kindled a fire that will burn against You."
- 15 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. LORD, You understand. Remember me and care for me. Avenge me on my persecutors. You are longsuffering — do not take me away. Know that for Your sake I suffer reproach.

■ WORD NOTE — Longsuffering (LONG-suf-er-ing) — "patient endurance in the face of difficulty or provocation; God's slowness to anger and willingness to withhold punishment far longer than anyone deserves."

Chapter 16

The LORD commanded Jeremiah not to take a wife or have children in this place, because sons and daughters born there would die of deadly diseases. He was not to enter a house of mourning or a house of feasting, for the LORD had taken away His peace, lovingkindness, and mercies from this people. Yet afterward the LORD would bring them back from all the lands where He had driven them.

| 1 | The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, | The word of the LORD came to me: |
| 2 | Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. | "You must not marry or have sons or daughters in this place." |
| 3 | For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land; | For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the mothers who bear them and the fathers who father them: |
| 4 | They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. | "They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will lie like dung on the surface of the ground. They will perish by sword and famine. Their bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals." |
| 5 | For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies. | For this is what the LORD says: "Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal. Do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn My blessing, My mercy, and My compassion from this people," says the LORD. |

- 6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them: "Both high and low will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned. No one will cut themselves or shave their head for them.
- 7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. No one will offer food to comfort those who mourn for the dead — not even for a father or a mother. No one will give them a drink to console them.
- 8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. "And do not enter a house where people are feasting and sit down with them to eat and drink.
- 9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of the bride and groom in this place — in Your own lifetime and before Your eyes.
- 10 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? When You tell these people all this and they ask You, 'Why has the LORD decreed such great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?'
- 11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; then say to them, 'It is because Your ancestors forsook Me,' says the LORD, 'and followed other gods and served and worshiped them. They forsook Me and did not keep My law.

- 12 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me: And You have behaved worse than Your ancestors. Each of You follows the stubbornness of Your evil heart instead of obeying Me.
- 13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour. So I will throw You out of this land into a land neither You nor Your ancestors have known. There You will serve other gods day and night, for I will show You no favor.'
- 14 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; "But the days are coming," says the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'
- 15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers. but they will say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had driven them.' For I will restore them to the land I gave their ancestors.
- 16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks. "But first I will send for many fishermen," says the LORD, "and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down from every mountain and hill and from the crevices in the rocks.
- 17 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. My eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from Me, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes.

Chapter 17

The LORD declared that the sin of Judah was written with a pen of iron and engraved on the tablet of their heart. Cursed is the man who trusts in man, but blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, for he shall be like a tree planted by the waters. The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked -- who can know it? The LORD searches the heart and tests the mind.

- 2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills. Even their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.
- 3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders. My mountain in the open country — I will give away Your wealth and all Your treasures as plunder, along with Your high places, because of sin throughout Your land.
- 4 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever. You will lose the inheritance I gave You. I will enslave You to Your enemies in a land You do not know, for You have kindled My anger, and it will burn forever."
- 5 Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. This is what the LORD says: "Cursed is the one who trusts in man — who depends on human strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD.
- 6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. That person will be like a bush in the desert. They will not see prosperity when it comes. They will live in the parched wilderness, in a salt land where no one lives.
- 7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is in the LORD.
- 8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. That person is like a tree planted by the water. It sends out its roots by the stream and does not fear when heat comes. Its leaves stay green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.

- 9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? The heart is more deceitful than anything else and desperately wicked. Who can understand it?
- 10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. I the LORD search the heart and test the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct — according to what their deeds deserve.
- 11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool. Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay is the person who gains riches by unjust means. When their life is half gone, their riches will desert them. In the end they will be shown to be a fool.
- 12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary. A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning — that is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. LORD, You are the hope of Israel. All who forsake You will be put to shame. Those who turn away from You will be written in the dust, for they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living water.
- 14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise. Heal me, LORD, and I will be healed. Save me and I will be saved, for You are the one I praise.
- 15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now. They keep saying to me, "Where is the word of the LORD? Let it come now!"
- 16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. I have not run away from being Your shepherd. I have not desired the day of disaster. You know what passed my lips was said in Your presence.
- 17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil. Do not be a terror to me. You are my refuge in the day of disaster.

- 18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. Let those who persecute me be put to shame, but keep me from shame. Let them be terrified, but keep me from terror. Bring on them the day of disaster — destroy them with double destruction.
- 19 Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and stand at the Gate of the People, through which the kings of Judah come and go. Then stand at all the other gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: Say to them: 'Hear the word of the LORD, You kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone who comes through these gates.
- 21 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.
- 22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. Do not carry a load out of Your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded Your ancestors.
- 23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. Yet they did not listen or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and would not listen or accept correction.
- 24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; But if You are careful to obey Me," says the LORD, "and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it —

- 25 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever. then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials — in chariots and on horses. The people of Judah and Jerusalem will come, and this city will be inhabited forever.
- 26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD. People will come from the cities of Judah and from the places about Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, meat offerings and incense, and sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD.
- 27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched. But if You do not listen to Me and keep the Sabbath day holy — if You carry loads through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath — then I will set fire to its gates. It will consume the palaces of Jerusalem and will not be quenched."

Chapter 18

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the potter's house, where the potter reworked a marred vessel into another vessel as it pleased him. As the clay is in the potter's hand, so is Israel in the LORD's hand -- He can pluck up or build a nation as He chooses. The people plotted against Jeremiah, and he prayed for the LORD to deal with them in the time of His anger.

| 2 | Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words. | "Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give You My message." |
| 3 | Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. | So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw Him working at the wheel. |
| 4 | And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. | But the pot He was shaping from the clay was ruined in His hands. So the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to Him. |
| 5 | Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, | Then the word of the LORD came to me: |
| 6 | O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel. | "Can I not do with You, Israel, as this potter does?" says the LORD. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are You in My hand, Israel. |
| 7 | At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; | If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed, |
| 8 | If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them. | and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not bring on it the disaster I had planned. |
| 9 | And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; | And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted, |
| 10 | If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them. | and if it does evil in My sight and does not obey Me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it. |

- 11 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am framing evil against you, and devising a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good. Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: Look — I am preparing a disaster for You and devising a plan against You. Turn from Your evil ways, each of You, and reform Your ways and Your actions.'
- 12 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart. But they will reply, 'It is no use. We will continue with our own plans. Each of us will follow the stubbornness of our evil heart.'
- 13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing. Therefore this is what the LORD says: "Ask the nations: Has anyone heard anything like this? A most horrible thing has been done by Virgin Israel.
- 14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes? Do its cool waters from distant sources ever stop flowing?
- 15 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up; Yet My people have forgotten Me. They burn incense to worthless idols. They have stumbled off the ancient paths and walk on byways — roads not built up.
- 16 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head. Their land will be laid waste — an object of lasting scorn. All who pass by will be appalled and will shake their heads.
- 17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. Like a wind from the east, I will scatter them before their enemies. I will show them My back and not My face in the day of their disaster."

- 18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. They said, "Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. Surely the teaching of the law by the priest will not cease, nor will counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says."
- 19 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me. Listen to me, LORD. Hear what my accusers are saying.
- 20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them. Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit for me. Remember that I stood before You and spoke on their behalf to turn Your wrath away from them.
- 21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle. So give their children over to famine. Hand them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives be made childless and widows. Let their men be killed and their young men struck down by the sword in battle.
- 22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring raiders against them — for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet.
- 23 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger. But You, LORD, know all their plots to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity or blot out their sins from Your sight. Let them be overthrown before You. Deal with them in the time of Your anger.

Chapter 19

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to buy a potter's earthen bottle and go to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom. He prophesied that the valley would be called the Valley of Slaughter because of the innocent blood shed there. Jeremiah broke the bottle before the elders as a sign that the LORD would break Jerusalem and her people beyond repair.

Chapter 20

Pashur the priest, chief governor of the temple, struck Jeremiah and put him in stocks. When released, Jeremiah renamed Pashur 'Magorissabib' -- terror on every side -- and prophesied that all Judah would be given to the king of Babylon. Jeremiah cursed the day he was born, crying that the word of the LORD had made him a reproach, yet it burned in his heart like fire and he could not hold it in.

- 1 Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. Now Pashhur son of Immer, the priest who was chief officer in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.
- 2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. So Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in the LORD's temple.
- 3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magor-missabib. The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for You is not Pashhur but 'Terror on Every Side.'
- 4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make You a terror to Yourself and to all Your friends. You will watch them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will carry them away to Babylon or put them to the sword.
- 5 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. I will hand over to their enemies all the wealth of this city — all its produce and all its valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it all to Babylon as plunder.

- 6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. And You, Pashhur, and all who live in Your house will go into exile to Babylon. There You will die and be buried — you and all Your friends to whom You have prophesied lies."
- 7 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. LORD, You deceived me and I was deceived. You overpowered me and prevailed. I am ridiculed all day long — everyone mocks me.
- 8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily. Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction. So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.
- 9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay. But if I say, "I will not mention His word or speak anymore in His name," His word burns in my heart like a fire — a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in. Indeed, I cannot.
- 10 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. I hear many whispering, "Terror on every side! Report Him! Let's report Him!" All my closest friends are waiting for me to slip. They say, "Perhaps He will be deceived, and then we can overpower Him and take our revenge."
- 11 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten. But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior. So my persecutors will stumble and will not prevail. They will fail and be thoroughly ashamed — their dishonor will never be forgotten.

King Zedekiah sent to Jeremiah to inquire of the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar besieged Jerusalem. The LORD answered that He Himself would fight against Judah with an outstretched hand and would deliver Zedekiah into Nebuchadnezzar's hand. He set before the people the way of life and the way of death -- whoever surrendered to the Chaldeans would live.

Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.
- "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against You the weapons of war that are in Your hands — the ones You are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians who are outside the wall besieging You. I will bring those weapons into the center of this city.

- I Myself will fight against You with outstretched hand and powerful arm — in anger, in fury, and in great wrath.

- 6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence. I will strike the inhabitants of this city — both people and animals. They will die of a terrible plague.
- 7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. After that,' says the LORD, 'I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the people of this city who survive the plague, the sword, and the famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to their enemies who seek their lives. Chapter 22

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the king's house to demand justice and righteousness, warning that if they disobeyed, the palace would become a desolation. He pronounced judgment on Shallum, Jehoiakim, and Coniah, declaring that Coniah would be cast out and none of his descendants would prosper sitting on the throne of David.

- 3 Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. This is what the LORD says: Do what is just and right. Rescue from the hand of the oppressor those who have been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place.
- 4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. If you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses — they and their officials and their people.
- 5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. But if You do not obey these commands, I swear by Myself,' says the LORD, 'that this palace will become a ruin.'"
- 6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited. For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah: "Though you are like Gilead to Me, like the summit of Lebanon, I will surely make you a desert, like towns not inhabited.
- 7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. I will send destroyers against You, each armed with weapons. They will cut down Your finest cedars and throw them into the fire.
- 8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? People from many nations will pass by this city and ask one another, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?'
- 9 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them. And the answer will be: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.'

- 10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. Do not weep for the dead king or mourn for Him. Rather weep bitterly for the one who is exiled, because he will never return or see His native land again.
- 11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more: For this is what the LORD says about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father Josiah as king of Judah but has gone from this place: "He will never return here.
- 12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more. He will die in the place where they have taken Him captive. He will not see this land again."
- 13 Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work; "Woe to Him who builds His palace by unrighteous means and His upper rooms by injustice — who makes His neighbors work for nothing, paying them no wages.
- 14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion. He says, 'I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.' So He makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar and decorates it in red.
- 15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? Does it make You a king to have more and more cedar? Did not Your father eat and drink and do justice and what is right? Then things went well for Him.
- 16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD. He defended the cause of the poor and needy. Then things went well. Is that not what it means to know Me?' says the LORD.

- 17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. But Your eyes and Your heart are set only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood, on oppression and extortion."
- 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: "They will not mourn for him, saying, 'Alas, my brother!' or 'Alas, my sister!' They will not mourn for Him, saying, 'Alas, my master! Alas, His splendor!'"

■ NAME NOTE — Jehoiakim (jih-HOY-uh-kim) — "the LORD raises up" — king of Judah 609–598 BC, son of Josiah. He burned Jeremiah's scroll and was condemned by the prophet.

- 19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. He will have the burial of a donkey — dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.
- 20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed. "Go up to Lebanon and cry out. Raise Your voice in Bashan. Cry out from Abarim, for all Your allies are crushed.
- 21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. I warned You when You felt secure, but You said, 'I will not listen!' This has been Your pattern since Your youth — you have not obeyed Me.
- 22 The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness. The wind will drive away all Your shepherds, and Your allies will go into exile. Then You will be ashamed and disgraced because of all Your wickedness.

- 23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail! You who live in Lebanon, who are nestled in cedar buildings, how You will groan when pain comes upon You — pain like that of a woman in labor!
- 24 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; "As surely as I live," says the LORD, "even if You, Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would still pull You off.
- 25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. I will hand you over to those who seek your life, those you fear — Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Babylonians.
- 26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born. There you will die.
- 27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return. You will never come back to the land you long to return to."
- 28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot — an object no one wants? Why will he and his children be hurled out and thrown into a land they do not know?
- 29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD. Land! Land! Land! Hear the word of the LORD!
- 30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah. This is what the LORD says: "Record this man as childless — a man who will not prosper in his lifetime. None of His offspring will succeed in sitting on the throne of David or ruling in Judah."

Chapter 23

The LORD pronounced woe on the shepherds who scattered His flock, and promised to raise up a righteous Branch from David who would reign as king and execute judgment and justice -- whose name would be called THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS. He rebuked the prophets of Jerusalem who prophesied lies in His name, committed adultery, and strengthened the hands of evildoers.

- 7 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; "So the days are coming," says the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'
- 8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. but they will say, 'As the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had driven them.' Then they will live in their own land."
- 9 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness. My heart is broken within me because of the prophets. All my bones tremble. I am like a drunken man, like someone overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of His holy words.
- 10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right. The land is full of adulterers. Because of them the land mourns. The pleasant pastures in the desert are dried up. The prophets run in an evil course and use their power unjustly.
- 11 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. "Both prophet and priest are godless. Even in My temple I find their wickedness," says the LORD.

- 12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. "Therefore their path will become slippery. They will be banished to darkness and there they will fall. I will bring disaster on them in the year I punish them," says the LORD.
- 13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. "Among the prophets of Samaria I saw something repulsive: They prophesied by Baal and led My people Israel astray.
- 14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah. And among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen something horrible: They commit adultery and live a lie. They strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that not one of them turns from their wickedness. They are all like Sodom to Me. The people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."
- 15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says concerning the prophets: "I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land."
- 16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to You. They fill You with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

- 17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. They keep saying to those who despise Me, 'The LORD says: You will have peace.' And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say, 'No harm will come to You.'
- 18 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it? But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear His word? Who has listened and heard His word?
- 19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. A storm of the LORD has gone out in fury — a driving whirlwind. It will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.
- 20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart. In days to come You will understand it clearly.
- 21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. I did not send these prophets, yet they ran with their message. I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.
- 22 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. But if they had stood in My council, they would have proclaimed My words to My people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.
- 23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? "Am I only a God nearby," says the LORD, "and not a God far away?"
- 24 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?" says the LORD. "Do I not fill heaven and earth?" says the LORD.

- 25 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. "I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in My name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'"
- 26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?
- 27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. They think the dreams they tell one another will make My people forget My name, just as their ancestors forgot My name through Baal worship.
- 28 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully: what is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD. Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has My word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?" says the LORD.
- 29 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? "Is not My word like fire," says the LORD, "and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?"
- 30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Therefore I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who steal from one another words supposedly from Me.
- 31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith. I am against the prophets," says the LORD, "who wag their own tongues and yet declare, 'The LORD declares.'
- 32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD. I am against those who prophesy false dreams," says the LORD. "They tell them and lead My people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least," says the LORD.

- 33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD. "When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask You, 'What is the burden of the LORD?' say to them, 'What burden? I will forsake You,' says the LORD.
- 34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. But if a prophet or priest or anyone else claims, 'This is a burden from the LORD,' I will punish that person and their household.
- 35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken? This is what each of You keeps saying to Your friends and fellow Israelites: 'What is the LORD's answer?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?'
- 36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. But You must no longer mention 'a burden from the LORD,' because every person's own word becomes their burden, and so You distort the words of the living God — the LORD of hosts, our God.
- 37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken? This is what You keep saying to a prophet: 'What is the LORD's answer to You?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?'
- 38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD; Although You claim, 'This is a burden from the LORD,' this is what the LORD says: You used the words 'a burden from the LORD,' even though I told You that You must not claim this.

After Nebuchadnezzar carried Jeconiah and the craftsmen of Judah to Babylon, the LORD showed Jeremiah two baskets of figs set before the temple. The good figs represented the exiles in Babylon, whom the LORD would watch over and bring back. The bad figs represented Zedekiah and those who remained in Jerusalem, whom the LORD would give up to be a curse among all nations.

| 1 The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. 2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. | After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried into exile from Jerusalem Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, together with the officials of Judah and the craftsmen and artisans of Jerusalem, and had taken them to Babylon — the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen first. The other basket had very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten. |

- 3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. Then the LORD asked me, "What do You see, Jeremiah?" "Figs," I answered. "The good ones are very good, but the bad ones are so bad they cannot be eaten."
- 4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to me:
- 5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.'
- 6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.
- 7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD. They will be My people and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with all their heart.
- 8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt: "'But like the bad figs, which are so bad they cannot be eaten,' says the LORD, 'so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the survivors from Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt.'
- 9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. I will make them abhorrent and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth — a disgrace and a byword, an object of ridicule and cursing, wherever I banish them.

- 10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers. I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their ancestors."

Jeremiah warned the people for twenty-three years, but they did not listen. The LORD declared that the whole land would be a desolation, and the nations would serve the king of Babylon seventy years. After seventy years the LORD would punish Babylon. Jeremiah took the cup of the wine of God's fury and made all the nations drink it, for the LORD was calling for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth.

- 5 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever: They said, 'Turn now, each of You, from Your evil ways and Your evil practices, and You can stay in the land the LORD gave to You and Your ancestors for ever and ever.
- 6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them. Do not arouse My anger with what Your hands have made. Then I will not harm You.'
- 7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. But You did not listen to Me," says the LORD, "and You have aroused My anger with what Your hands have made, bringing harm to yourselves.
- 8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts says: 'Because You have not listened to My words,
- 9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. I will summon all the peoples of the north and My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,' says the LORD, 'and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy them and make them an object of horror and scorn — a ruin forever.

- 10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle. I will remove from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and groom, the sound of millstones, and the light of every lamp.
- 11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. This whole land will become a ruin and a wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
- 12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation — the land of the Babylonians — for their iniquity,' says the LORD, 'and will make it desolate forever.
- 13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. I will bring on that land all the words I have spoken against it — everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations.
- 14 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. They themselves will be enslaved by many nations and great kings. I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."
- 15 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from My hand this cup filled with the wine of My wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.
- 16 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. When they drink it, they will stagger and go out of their minds because of the sword I will send among them."

- 17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me: So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations to whom he sent me drink it:
- 18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day; Jerusalem and the towns of Judah and its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn and cursing — as they are today;
- 19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people,
- 20 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines — those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod;
- 21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, Edom, Moab, and Ammon;
- 22 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea;
- 23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners, Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who are in distant places;
- 24 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert, all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert;
- 25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, all the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media;

- 26 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another — all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Babylon will drink it too.
- 27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. "Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk and vomit, and fall to rise no more, because of the sword I will send among You.'
- 28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink. But if they refuse to take the cup from Your hand and drink, tell them, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: You must drink it!
- 29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be altogether unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts. See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears My name, and will You indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword on all who live on the earth,' says the LORD of hosts."
- 30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. "Now prophesy all these words against them and say to them: 'The LORD will roar from on high. He will thunder from His holy dwelling and roar mightily against His land. He will shout like those who tread grapes — He will shout against all who live on the earth.'

- 31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD. The uproar will resound to the ends of the earth, for the LORD will bring charges against the nations. He will judge all humanity. The wicked he will give over to the sword,' says the LORD.
- 32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. This is what the LORD of hosts says: 'Look — disaster is spreading from nation to nation. A mighty storm is rising from the ends of the earth.'
- 33 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground. At that time those slain by the LORD will be everywhere — from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered or buried. They will be like dung lying on the ground.
- 34 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel. Wail, You shepherds, and cry out! Roll in the dust, You leaders of the flock! For Your time to be slaughtered has come. You will fall and shatter like fine pottery.
- 35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. The shepherds will find no place to flee. The leaders of the flock will not escape.
- 36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture. Hear the cry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock — for the LORD is destroying their pasture.
- 37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD. The peaceful meadows will be laid waste because of the LORD's fierce anger.

- 38 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger. Like a lion He has left His den, for their land has become desolate because of the sword of the oppressor and because of the LORD's fierce anger.

Chapter 26

The LORD sent Jeremiah to the temple court to speak all the words He commanded, withholding nothing. When the priests and prophets heard, they seized him and said he deserved to die. The princes and people defended Jeremiah, citing the precedent of Micah the prophet whom Hezekiah did not put to death, but Urijah the prophet was killed by King Jehoiakim.

- 1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD:
- 2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word: "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell them everything I command You. Do not omit a word.
- 3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from their evil way. Then I will relent and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done.
- 4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, Say to them, "This is what the LORD says: If You do not listen to Me and follow My law, which I have set before You,

- 5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; and if You do not listen to the words of My servants the prophets whom I have sent to You again and again — though You have not listened —
- 6 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. then I will make this house like Shiloh and this city a curse among all the nations of the earth."
- 7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD.
- 8 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded Him to say, the priests and prophets and all the people seized him and said, "You must die!
- 9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. Why do You prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?" And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.
- 10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house. When the officials of Judah heard these things, they came up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their seats at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house.
- 11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death! He has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"

- 12 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words You have heard.
- 13 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. Now reform Your ways and Your actions and obey the LORD Your God. Then the LORD will relent and not bring the disaster He has pronounced against You.
- 14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you. As for me, I am in Your hands. Do with me whatever You think is good and right.
- 15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears. But be assured of this: If You put me to death, You will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it. For in truth the LORD has sent me to You to speak all these words in Your hearing."
- 16 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."
- 17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying, Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people:

- 18 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.'
- 19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls. Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the LORD and seek His favor? And did not the LORD relent, so that He did not bring on them the disaster He had pronounced? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!"
- 20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjathjearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: Now Urijah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD. He prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.
- 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt; When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But Urijah heard of it and was afraid. He fled to Egypt.
- 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Achbor to Egypt, along with some other men.

Chapter 27

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to make yokes and send them to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, declaring that He had given all these lands to Nebuchadnezzar. Any nation that refused to serve Babylon would be punished with sword, famine, and pestilence. The prophets who said the vessels of the LORD's house would soon return from Babylon were lying.

- 4 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters; Give them a message for their masters and say, 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Tell this to Your masters:
- 5 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. With My great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and its people and animals, and I give it to anyone I please.
- 6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. Now I will give all your countries to My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will make even the wild animals subject to him.
- 7 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. All nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his land comes. Then many nations and great kings will subjugate him.
- 8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under His yoke, I will punish that nation with sword, famine, and plague,' says the LORD, 'until I destroy it by His hand.
- 9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your fortune-tellers, or your sorcerers who tell you, "You will not serve the king of Babylon."

- 10 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. They prophesy lies to you that will only serve to remove you far from your lands. I would banish you and you would perish.
- 11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to cultivate it and to live there,' says the LORD."
- 12 I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon. Serve him and his people, and you will live.
- 13 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? Why will You and Your people die by the sword, famine, and plague with which the LORD has threatened every nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?
- 14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you.
- 15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you. I have not sent them," says the LORD. "They are prophesying lies in My name. Therefore I will banish You and You will perish — both You and the prophets who prophesy to You."

- 16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. Then I said to the priests and all these people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, 'Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to You.
- 17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste? Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin?
- 18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD of hosts that the articles remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon.
- 19 For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, For this is what the LORD of hosts says about the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands, and the other articles that remain in this city,
- 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried away Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem —
- 21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem; yes, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem:

- 22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place. 'They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them,' says the LORD. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.'

Hananiah the prophet broke the yoke from Jeremiah's neck and prophesied that within two years the LORD would break the yoke of Babylon and bring back the vessels and the exiles. Jeremiah said amen, may the LORD do so, but the prophet who prophesies peace is only proven when his word comes to pass. The LORD sent Jeremiah back with yokes of iron and declared that Hananiah would die that year -- and he did.

- 1 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people:
- 2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.
- 3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon: Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon.

- 4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' says the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"
- 5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD.
- 6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. He said, "Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words You have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD's house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon.
- 7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people; Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in Your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:
- 8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. From early times the prophets who came before You and me have prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many countries and great kingdoms.
- 9 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him. But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if His prediction comes true."
- 10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.

- 11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. Hananiah said before all the people, "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.'" At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.
- 12 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron. "Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place You will get a yoke of iron.'
- 14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve Him. I will even give Him control over the wild animals."
- 15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent You, yet You have persuaded this nation to trust in lies.
- 16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD. Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove You from the face of the earth. This very year You are going to die, because You have preached rebellion against the LORD.'
- 17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month. In the seventh month of that same year, the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah sent a letter to the exiles in Babylon, telling them to build houses, plant gardens, marry, and seek the peace of the city where the LORD had sent them. He promised that after seventy years the LORD would visit them and bring them back, declaring, 'I know the thoughts I think toward you, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.'

- 8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. Yes, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Do not let the prophets and diviners among You deceive You. Do not listen to the dreams You encourage them to have.
- 9 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD. They are prophesying lies to You in My name. I have not sent them,' says the LORD.
- 10 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. This is what the LORD says: 'When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to You and fulfill My good promise to bring You back to this place.
- 11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. For I know the thoughts that I think toward You, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give You an expected end.
- 12 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. Then You will call on Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to You.
- 13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. You will seek Me and find Me when You seek Me with all Your heart.

- 14 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive. I will be found by You,' says the LORD, 'and will bring You back from captivity. I will gather You from all the nations and places where I have banished you,' says the LORD, 'and will bring You back to the place from which I carried You into exile.'
- 15 Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; You may say, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon" —
- 16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow citizens who did not go into exile with You —
- 17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. yes, this is what the LORD of hosts says: "I will send sword, famine, and plague against them and I will make them like bad figs that are so rotten they cannot be eaten.
- 18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth — a curse and an object of horror, scorn, and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them.
- 19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. For they have not listened to My words," says the LORD, "words that I sent to them again and again through My servants the prophets. And You exiles have not listened either," says the LORD.

- 20 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: Therefore, all You exiles whom I sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon, hear the word of the LORD.
- 21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to You in My name: "I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before Your very eyes.
- 22 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: 'May the LORD treat You like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned in the fire.'
- 23 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD. For they have done outrageous things in Israel — they have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives and have spoken in My name words I did not command. I know it and I am a witness to it," says the LORD.
- 24 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite:
- 25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in Your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the other priests. You told Zephaniah:

- 26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks. "The LORD has appointed You priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the house of the LORD over every madman who acts like a prophet. You should put Him in the stocks and the iron collar.
- 27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you? So why have You not rebuked Jeremiah from Anathoth, who acts as your prophet?"
- 28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them. He has even sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what they produce."
- 29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet.
- 30 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie: "Send this message to all the exiles: 'This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to You, even though I did not send Him, and has persuaded You to trust in lies —
- 32 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for My people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD. therefore this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and His descendants. He will have no one left among this people, nor will he see the good things I will do for My people,' says the LORD, 'because He has preached rebellion against the LORD.'"

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write all His words in a book, for the days were coming when He would bring His people back from captivity. Though Jacob's trouble would be great, the LORD would save him out of it and break his yoke. The LORD would restore health to Zion and heal her wounds, and David's city would be rebuilt.

- 8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him: In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'I will break the yoke off their necks and tear off their bonds. Foreigners will no longer enslave them.
- 9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them. Instead, they will serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.
- 10 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid. So do not be afraid, My servant Jacob,' says the LORD. 'Do not be dismayed, Israel. I will surely save You from a distant place — your descendants from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security, and no one will make them afraid.
- 11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished. I am with You and will save You,' says the LORD. - 12 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous. "This is what the LORD says: 'Your wound is incurable, Your injury beyond healing.
- 13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines. There is no one to plead your cause — no remedy for your sore, no healing for You.

- 14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased. All Your allies have forgotten You. They care nothing for You. I have struck You as an enemy would — with the punishment of the cruel — because Your iniquity is so great and Your sins so many.
- 15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee. Why do You cry out over Your wound? Your pain has no cure! Because of Your great iniquity and Your many sins I have done these things to You.
- 16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey. But all who devour You will be devoured. All Your enemies will go into exile. Those who plunder You will be plundered. All who make spoil of You I will despoil.
- 17 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. But I will restore You to health and heal Your wounds,' says the LORD, 'because You are called an outcast, Zion for whom no one cares.'
- 18 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof. "This is what the LORD says: 'I will restore the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes. The city will be rebuilt on her ruins, and the palace will stand in its proper place.
- 19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing. Chapter 31

The LORD declared His everlasting love for Israel and promised to build her again. Rachel weeps for her children, but the LORD tells her to stop weeping, for they shall come back from the enemy's land. | 3 | The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. | The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying: "I have loved You with an everlasting love. I have drawn You with loving-kindness." |
| 4 | Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry. | I will build You up again, and You will be rebuilt, Virgin Israel. Again You will take up Your tambourines and go out to dance with the joyful. |
| 5 | Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. | Again You will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria. The farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit. |

- 15 Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not. This is what the LORD says: "A voice is heard in Ramah — mourning and great weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."
- 16 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. This is what the LORD says: "Restrain Your voice from weeping and Your eyes from tears, for Your work will be rewarded," says the LORD. - 19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth. After I strayed, I repented. After I came to understand, I beat my chest. I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'

- 20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD. Is not Ephraim My dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against Him, I still remember Him. Therefore My heart yearns for Him. I will surely have mercy on Him," says the LORD.
- 21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities. "Set up road signs. Put up guideposts. Take note of the highway, the road that You take. Return, Virgin Israel. Return to Your towns.
- 22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man. How long will You wander, unfaithful daughter? The LORD will create a new thing on earth — a woman will surround a man."
- 23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "When I bring them back from captivity, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: 'The LORD bless You, You righteous dwelling, You sacred mountain.'
- 24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks. People will live together in Judah and all its towns — farmers and those who move about with their flocks.
- 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul. I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint."
- 26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.

- 27 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will plant the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the offspring of people and of animals.
- 28 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD. Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, to overthrow and destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," says the LORD.
- 29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. "In those days people will no longer say, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.'
- 30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. Instead, everyone will die for their own iniquity. Whoever eats sour grapes — their own teeth will be set on edge.
- 31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: "The days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.
- 32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD: It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt — a covenant they broke, though I was a husband to them," says the LORD.

- 33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. "This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," says the LORD. "I will put My law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts. I will be their God and they will be My people.
- 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. No longer will they teach their neighbors, or say to one another, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest," says the LORD. "For I will forgive their iniquity and will remember their sin no more."
- 35 Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: This is what the LORD says, He who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar — the LORD of hosts is His name:
- 36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. "Only if these decrees vanish from My sight," says the LORD, "will Israel ever cease being a nation before Me."
- 37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD. This is what the LORD says: "Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done," says the LORD.

While Jerusalem was under siege, the LORD told Jeremiah to buy a field in Anathoth from his cousin Hanameel as a sign that houses and fields would be bought again in the land. Jeremiah obeyed and prayed, marveling at the LORD's power. The LORD confirmed that though He was giving the city to the Chaldeans because of Judah's sin, He would gather His people and make an everlasting covenant with them.

- 3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, "Why do You prophesy as You do? You say, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.
- 4 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape the Babylonians but will certainly be given into the hands of the king of Babylon. He will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes.
- 5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper. He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with Him,' says the LORD. 'If You fight against the Babylonians, You will not succeed.'"
- 6 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me:
- 7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. 'Hanameel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field at Anathoth, because as next of kin it is Your right and duty to buy it.'"

- 13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying, In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions:
- 14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Take both this sealed deed of purchase and this unsealed deed and put them in a clay jar so they will last a long time.
- 15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land. For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land."
- 16 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:
- 17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: "Ah, Lord GOD! You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for You.
- 18 Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, You show mercy to thousands and bring the punishment of the fathers' sins into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 19 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: Your purposes are great and Your deeds are mighty. Your eyes are open to all the ways of all people. You reward everyone according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve.

- 20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; You performed signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, in Israel and among all people, and have gained the renown that is still Yours.
- 21 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror; You brought Your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror.
- 22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; You gave them this land You had sworn to give their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey.
- 23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey You or follow Your law. They did not do what You commanded them to do. So You brought all this disaster on them.
- 24 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of sword, famine, and plague, the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What You said has happened, as You now see.
- 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. And though the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians, You have said to me, Lord GOD: 'Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.'
- 26 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

- 27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me? "I am the LORD, the God of all people. Is anything too hard for Me?
- 28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it.
- 29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger. The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire. They will burn it down — along with the houses where the people aroused My anger by burning incense on their rooftops to Baal and pouring out drink offerings to other gods.
- 30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD. The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in My sight from their youth. The people of Israel have done nothing but arouse My anger with what their hands have made," says the LORD.
- 31 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face, From the day it was built until now, this city has aroused My anger and wrath, so that I must remove it from My sight.
- 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. The people of Israel and Judah have provoked Me by all the evil they and their kings, officials, priests, and prophets — the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem — have done.

- 33 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction. They turned their backs to Me and not their faces. Though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline.
- 34 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it. They set up their vile images in the house that bears My name and defiled it.
- 35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech, though I never commanded — nor did it enter My mind — that they should do such a detestable thing to lead Judah into sin.
- 36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; "You are saying about this city, 'By sword, famine, and plague it will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon.' But this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:
- 37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banish them in My furious anger and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety.
- 38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God: They will be My people and I will be their God.
- 39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them: I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear Me and that all will then go well for them and for their children after them.

Chapter 33

While Jeremiah was still imprisoned, the LORD told him to call and He would answer and show him great and mighty things. The LORD promised to heal Jerusalem, reveal abundance of peace and truth, and cause the Branch of Righteousness to spring forth from David. The covenant with David and with the Levitical priests would stand as firm as the LORD's covenant with day and night.

- 10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, "This is what the LORD says: 'You say about this place, "It is a desolate wasteland, without people or animals." - 21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. then My covenant with David My servant — and My covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before Me — can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.'
- 22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me. I will make the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister before Me as countless as the stars in the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore."

So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation.
- 25 Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not made My covenant with day and night and established the laws of heaven and earth,

- 26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them. then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them."

Jeremiah told Zedekiah that the LORD would give Jerusalem to the king of Babylon and Zedekiah would be captured, but he would die in peace. The princes and people made a covenant to free their Hebrew slaves, then took them back into bondage. The LORD declared that because they profaned His name, He would give them to their enemies.

- 2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, "This is what the LORD says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.
- 3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and given into his hands. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.

- 4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: Yet hear the word of the LORD, Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning You: You will not die by the sword.
- 5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD. You will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire in honor of Your fathers, the former kings who preceded You, so they will make a fire in Your honor and lament for You, saying, "Alas, master!" I Myself make this promise,' says the LORD."
- 6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem
- 7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah. while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out — Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.
- 8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom for the slaves.
- 9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. Everyone was to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female. No one was to hold a fellow Hebrew in bondage.

- 10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free.
- 11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. But afterward they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.
- 12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with Your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said:
- 14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear. 'Every seventh year each of You must free any fellow Hebrew who has sold Himself to You. After He has served You six years, You must let Him go free.' But Your ancestors did not listen to Me or pay attention to Me.
- 15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: Recently You repented and did what is right in My sight: each of You proclaimed freedom to Your neighbors. You even made a covenant before Me in the house that bears My name.

- 16 But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids. But then You turned around and profaned My name. Each of You took back the male and female slaves You had set free. You forced them to become Your slaves again.
- 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. Therefore this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed Me — you have not proclaimed freedom to Your own people. So I now proclaim 'freedom' for You," says the LORD — "freedom to fall by the sword, plague, and famine. I will make You abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth.
- 18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof, Those who have violated My covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before Me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then walked between its pieces.
- 19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf; The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who walked between the pieces of the calf —
- 20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth. I will give them into the hands of their enemies who want to kill them. Their bodies will be food for the birds of the air and the wild animals.

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to bring the Rechabites into the temple and offer them wine. They refused, saying their ancestor Jonadab had commanded them never to drink wine, build houses, or plant vineyards. The LORD held up the Rechabites as an example of obedience that shamed Judah, for Judah would not listen to the LORD though He spoke to them persistently.

■ NAME NOTE — Rechabites (REE-kuh-bites) — descendants of Jonadab (Jehonadab) son of Rechab, who commanded his descendants to live in tents, plant no vineyards, and drink no wine as a sign of separation from Canaanite culture. Their obedience to their ancestor becomes a rebuke to Judah's disobedience to God.

| 9 | Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: | or built houses or had vineyards, fields, or crops. |

- 10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.
- 11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian and Aramean armies.' So we have been living in Jerusalem."
- 12 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, 'Will You not learn a lesson and obey My words?' says the LORD.
- 14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me. Jonadab son of Rechab ordered His descendants not to drink wine, and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to You again and again, yet You have not obeyed Me.

- 15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me. Again and again I sent all My servants the prophets to You. They said, "Each of You must turn from Your wicked ways and reform Your actions. Do not follow other gods to serve them. Then You will live in the land I have given to You and Your ancestors." But You have not paid attention or listened to Me.
- 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me: The descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the command their ancestor gave them, but this people has not obeyed Me.'
- 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered. Therefore this is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen. I called to them, but they did not answer.'"
- 18 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you: Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Rechabites, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed the command of Your ancestor Jonadab and have followed all His instructions and have done everything He ordered.'
- 19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a descendant to serve Me.'"

Chapter 36

The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write all His words on a scroll. Baruch the scribe wrote at Jeremiah's dictation and read the scroll in the temple. King Jehoiakim had the scroll brought to him and cut it with a knife, piece by piece, and burned it in the fire. The LORD commanded Jeremiah to write another scroll, adding many similar words, and declared that Jehoiakim's dead body would be cast out.

| 1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, | In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: |
| 2 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. | "Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah until now. |
| 3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil that I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. | Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to bring on them, they will each turn from their wicked ways. Then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin." |
| 4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. | So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to Him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll. |
| 5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: | Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am restricted. I cannot go to the LORD's temple. |

- 6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities. So You go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that You wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns.
- 7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD and will each turn from their wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great."
- 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house. Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. At the LORD's temple He read the words of the LORD from the scroll.
- 9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem. In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah.
- 10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people. From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.
- 11 When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,

- 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.
- 13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. Micaiah told them everything He had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll.
- 14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. Then all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll from which You have been reading to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in His hand.
- 15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. They said to Him, "Sit down, please, and read it to us." So Baruch read it to them.
- 16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king."
- 17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?"
- 18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. "Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll."

- 19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don't let anyone know where you are."
- 20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him.
- 21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king. The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him.
- 22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him. It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment, with a fire burning in the firepot in front of him.
- 23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire.
- 24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words. The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear, nor did they tear their clothes.
- 25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

- 26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them. Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them.
- 27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:
- 28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned. "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up.
- 29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast? Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, "This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did You write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cut off both people and animals from it?"
- 30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. His body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.
- 31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not. I will punish Him and His children and His attendants for their wickedness. I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have not listened."

- 32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words. So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah. As Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

King Zedekiah sent to Jeremiah asking him to pray for the nation. Jeremiah warned that the Chaldeans would return and burn the city. When Jeremiah tried to leave Jerusalem, he was arrested as a deserter and thrown into a dungeon. Zedekiah secretly brought him out and asked for a word from the LORD, and Jeremiah told him he would be delivered into the king of Babylon's hand.

- 1 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. Zedekiah son of Josiah was made king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He reigned in place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim.
- 2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah. Neither He nor His attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.
- 3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. King Zedekiah, however, sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to ask Jeremiah the prophet, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."
- 4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison. Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

- 5 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. Pharaoh's army had marched out of Egypt, and when the Babylonians who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.
- 6 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet:
- 7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Me: 'Pharaoh's army, which has marched out to support you, will go back to its own land of Egypt.
- 8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city. They will capture it and burn it down.'
- 9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. "This is what the LORD says: Do not deceive yourselves, thinking, 'The Babylonians will surely leave us.' They will not!
- 10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. Even if You were to defeat the entire Babylonian army that is attacking You and only wounded men were left in their tents, they would still rise up and burn this city down."
- 11 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, After the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army,
- 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property among the people there.

- 13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.
- 14 Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.
- 15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.
- 16 When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;
- 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.
- 18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?
- But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!"
- "That's not true!" Jeremiah said. "I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah would not listen to him. Instead, he arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.
- They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.
- Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time.
- Then King Zedekiah sent for him and had him brought to the palace, where He asked Him privately, "Is there any word from the LORD?" "Yes," Jeremiah replied, "you will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon."
- Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you, Your attendants, or this people, that You have put me in prison?"

- 19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, "The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land"?
- 20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let my petition come before you. Please do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I will die there."
- 21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

The princes cast Jeremiah into a muddy cistern to die because his words discouraged the soldiers. Ebedmelech the Ethiopian persuaded the king to rescue him, and Jeremiah was pulled out with ropes and rags. Zedekiah secretly consulted Jeremiah, who told him that if he surrendered to Babylon the city would not be burned and he would live, but Zedekiah feared the Jews who had already defected.

- 1 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying, Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehukal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah had been telling all the people:

- 2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. "This is what the LORD says: 'Whoever stays in this city will die by sword, famine, or plague. But whoever goes over to the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives.'
- 3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. This is what the LORD says: 'This city will certainly be given into the hands of the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.'
- 4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. Then the officials said to the king, "This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying. He is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin."
- 5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. "He is in your hands," King Zedekiah answered. "The king can do nothing to oppose you."
- 6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire. So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern. There was no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.
- 7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin; Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon — the king was sitting in the gate of Benjamin —

- 8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to him:
- 9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city. "My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city."
- 10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, "Take thirty men with you from here and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he dies."
- 11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and lowered them by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.
- 12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so. Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under your armpits under the cords." And Jeremiah did so,
- 13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

- 14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. "I am going to ask you something," the king said to Jeremiah. "Do not hide anything from me."
- 15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me? Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I do give you counsel, you will not listen to me."
- 16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill You nor hand You over to those who want to kill You."
- 17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down. You and your family will live."
- 18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand. But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians and they will burn it down. You yourself will not escape from their hands."

- 19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have already gone over to the Babylonians. The Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will abuse me."
- 20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. "They will not hand You over," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the LORD by doing what I tell You. Then it will go well with You and Your life will be spared."
- 21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: But if You refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me:
- 22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back. All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you: 'They misled you and overcame you — your trusted friends. Now that your feet are sunk in the mud, your friends have turned away.'
- 23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire. All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon. And this city will be burned down."
- 24 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die."

- 25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you — do not hide it from us or we will kill you' —
- 26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. then tell them, 'I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die there.'"
- 27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. All the officials did come to Jeremiah and question him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they said no more to him, for no one had heard his conversation with the king.
- 28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Nebuchadnezzar's army broke through the walls of Jerusalem in the eleventh year of Zedekiah. Zedekiah fled but was captured near Jericho; his sons were killed before his eyes, then his eyes were put out and he was bound in chains for Babylon. Nebuzaradan burned the city but released Jeremiah and commanded that he be treated well. The LORD promised Ebedmelech that his life would be spared.

- 1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. This is how Jerusalem was captured: In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege to it.
- 2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up. And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, the city wall was broken through.
- 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergalsharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officials of the king of Babylon.
- 4 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled. They left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed toward the Arabah.
- 5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. But the Babylonian army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him.
- 6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. The king of Babylon also slaughtered all the nobles of Judah.

- 7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. Then he gouged out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.
- 8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem. The Babylonians set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people. They broke down the walls of Jerusalem.
- 9 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him and the rest of the people.
- 10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing. At that time he gave them vineyards and fields.
- 11 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard:
- 12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. "Take him and look after him. Don't harm him but do for him whatever he asks."
- 13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rabсарis, and Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon

- 14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.
- 15 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD had come to Him:
- 16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. "Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I will bring My words upon this city for evil and not for good. They shall be accomplished before You in that day.
- 17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. But I will rescue You on that day,' says the LORD. 'You will not be given into the hands of those You fear.
- 18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD. I will save You. You will not fall by the sword but will escape with Your life, because You trust in Me,' says the LORD."

Nebuzaradan released Jeremiah at Ramah and gave him the choice to go to Babylon or stay. Jeremiah chose to stay with Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor over the remnant in Judah. Gedaliah gathered the scattered people and told them to serve the Chaldeans and it would be well with them, but Johanan warned Gedaliah that Ishmael planned to murder him.

- 1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon. The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard had released Him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon.
- 2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him: "The LORD Your God decreed this disaster for this place.
- 3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you. And the LORD has brought it about. He has done just as He said He would. All this happened because You people sinned against the LORD and did not obey Him.
- 4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go. But today I am freeing You from the chains on Your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if You like, and I will look after You. But if You do not want to come, then don't. See, the whole land lies before You. Go wherever You please."

- 5 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go. But before Jeremiah turned to go, Nebuzaradan added, "Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please." Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go.

■ NAME NOTE — Gedaliah (ged-uh-LY-uh) — "the LORD is great" — appointed governor over the remaining people of Judah after the fall of Jerusalem. He was assassinated not long after taking office (Jeremiah 41).

- 6 So Jeremiah went unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land. So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with Him among the people who were left behind in the land.
- 7 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest in the land and had not been carried into exile to Babylon,

- 8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah — Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maachathite, and their men.
- 9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians," he said. "Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.
- 10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. I myself will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us. - 11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; When all the Jews in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, over them,
- 12 Then they returned out of all places whither they were driven, even Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer fruit.

Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, of the royal family, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah and murdered him along with the Jews and Chaldean soldiers who were with him. He killed seventy of eighty men who came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria, and took the remnant captive. Johanan and his forces pursued Ishmael and rescued the captives, but Ishmael escaped to the Ammonites.

- 1 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king's officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there,
- 2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.
- 3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war. Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian soldiers who were there.
- 4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew about it,
- 5 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. eighty men who had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. They were bringing grain offerings and incense to the house of the LORD.
- 6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as He went. When He met them, He said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam."

- 7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him. When they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with Him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.
- 8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. But ten of them said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey hidden in a field." So He let them alone and did not kill them with the others.
- 9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain. Now the cistern where he threw all the bodies of the men he had killed was the large cistern that King Asa had made as part of his defense against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.
- 10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon. Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah — the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to Ammon.
- 11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, When Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed,

- 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool in Gibeon.
- 13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. When all the people Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers with him, they were glad.
- 14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah. All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned around and came over to Johanan son of Kareah.
- 15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to Ammon.
- 16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon: Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him led away all the survivors from Mizpah who had been recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam — the soldiers, women, children, and court officials he had brought from Gibeon.
- 17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt

- 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land. to escape from the Babylonians. They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

Johanan and the remnant asked Jeremiah to pray and inquire of the LORD whether they should stay in Judah or go to Egypt, swearing to obey whatever the LORD said. After ten days the LORD answered: if they stayed in the land He would build them up and plant them, but if they went to Egypt the sword and famine they feared would follow them there, and they would die.

- 2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:) and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please hear our petition and pray to the LORD your God for this entire remnant. For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few are left.

- 4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. "I have heard You," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will certainly pray to the LORD Your God as You have requested. I will tell You everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from You."
- 5 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD Your God sends You to tell us."
- 6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God. Whether it is favorable or unfavorable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending You, so that it will go well with us, for we will obey the LORD our God."
- 7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah.
- 8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, So He called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with Him and all the people from the least to the greatest.
- 9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him: He said to them: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom You sent me to present Your petition, says:

- 10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. 'If You stay in this land, I will build You up and not tear You down. I will plant You and not uproot You, for I am grieved over the disaster I have inflicted on You.
- 11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of Him,' says the LORD, 'for I am with You and will save You and deliver You from His hands.
- 12 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. I will show You compassion so that He will have compassion on You and restore You to Your land.'
- 13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, But if You say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and so disobey the LORD Your God,
- 14 Saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: and if You say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the trumpet or be hungry for bread,'
- 15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; then hear the word of the LORD, You remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If You are determined to go to Egypt and You do go to settle there,
- 16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. then the sword You fear will overtake You there, and the famine You dread will follow You into Egypt, and there You will die.

- 17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by sword, famine, and plague. Not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.'
- 18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as My anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will My wrath be poured out on You when You go to Egypt. You will be a curse and an object of horror, a curse and a disgrace. You will never see this place again.'
- 19 The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. The LORD has told You, You remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Be sure of this: I warn You today
- 20 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. that You made a fatal mistake when You sent me to the LORD Your God and said, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us everything He says and we will do it.'
- 21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you. I have told You today, but You still have not obeyed the LORD Your God in all He sent me to tell You.

- 22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn. So now, be sure of this: You will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where You want to go and settle."

Johanan and the proud men accused Jeremiah of lying and refused to obey the LORD's command to remain in Judah. They took the entire remnant, including Jeremiah and Baruch, and went down to Egypt. At Tahpanhes the LORD told Jeremiah to hide stones in the clay at the brickworks, for Nebuchadnezzar would set his throne over them and strike the land of Egypt.

- 4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD's command to stay in the land of Judah.
- 5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah; Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.
- 6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. They included men, women, and children, the king's daughters, and everyone Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan — and also Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

Jeremiah warned the Jews in Egypt that the LORD's anger had burned against Jerusalem because of their idolatry, and now they were provoking Him again by burning incense to the queen of heaven in Egypt. The people defiantly refused to listen, insisting they would continue their offerings to the queen of heaven. The LORD declared that the remnant in Egypt would be consumed by sword and famine.

- 1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt — in Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis — and in Upper Egypt:
- 2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You saw the disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins
- 3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. because of the evil they did to arouse My anger, in that they went to burn incense and to worship other gods that neither they nor You nor Your ancestors ever knew.
- 4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. Again and again I sent My servants the prophets, who said, 'Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!'
- 5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. But they did not listen or pay attention. They did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods.
- 6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day. Therefore My fierce anger was poured out. It raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

- 7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; "Now this is what the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women, the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant?
- 8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Why arouse My anger with what Your hands have made, burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where You have come to live? You will destroy yourselves and make yourselves a curse and a disgrace among all the nations on earth.
- 9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? Have You forgotten the wickedness committed by Your ancestors and by the kings and queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by You and Your wives in the land of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem?
- 10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed My law and the decrees I set before You and Your ancestors.
- 11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on You and to destroy all Judah.

- 12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt. They will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become a curse and an object of horror, a curse and a disgrace.
- 13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: I will punish those who live in Egypt with sword, famine, and plague, just as I punished Jerusalem.
- 14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live. None will return except a few fugitives."
- 15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great congregation, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present — a large assembly — and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, said to Jeremiah:
- 16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee. "We will not listen to the message You have spoken to us in the name of the LORD!

- 17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: and then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. We will certainly carry out every word that has come from our own mouths. We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm.
- 18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine."
- 19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men? The women added, "When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes impressed with her image and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands knowing it?"
- 20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying, Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him:
- 21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? "Did not the LORD remember and call to mind the incense burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by You and Your ancestors, Your kings and Your officials and the people of the land?

- 22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. When the LORD could no longer endure Your wicked actions and the detestable things You did, Your land became a curse and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today.
- 23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day. This disaster came on You because You burned incense and sinned against the LORD and did not obey the LORD or follow His law, His decrees, or His stipulations. That is why this disaster has come upon You, as You now see."
- 24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all You people of Judah in Egypt.
- 25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You and Your wives have done what You said You would do when You promised, 'We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.' Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep Your vows!

- 26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth. But hear the word of the LORD, all Jews living in Egypt: 'I swear by My great name,' says the LORD, 'that no one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke My name or swear, "As surely as the Lord GOD lives."
- 27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. For I am watching over them for harm, not for good. The Jews in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all destroyed.
- 28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs. Those who escape the sword and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few. Then the whole remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand — Mine or theirs.
- 29 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: This will be the sign to You that I will punish You in this place,' says the LORD, 'so that You will know that My threats of harm against You will surely come true':
- 30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaohhophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life. 'I am going to give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies who want to kill him, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who wanted to kill him.'"

Chapter 45

The LORD gave Jeremiah a personal word for Baruch the scribe, who had complained of his sorrow and weariness. The LORD told Baruch that He was about to tear down what He had built and uproot what He had planted over the whole land. He warned Baruch not to seek great things for himself, but promised that his life would be given to him as a prize wherever he went.

Chapter 46

The LORD pronounced judgment against Egypt and its army, which Nebuchadnezzar defeated at Carchemish by the Euphrates. Egypt's mighty men would flee and fall, and the LORD declared that Nebuchadnezzar would come and strike the land of Egypt. But the LORD promised Jacob not to fear, for He would save them from afar and discipline them in measure, though He would make a full end of the nations.

- 12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together. The nations will hear of your shame. Your cries will fill the earth. One warrior will stumble over another. Both will fall down together."
- 13 The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt. This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt:

- 14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee. "Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol. Proclaim it also in Memphis and Tahpanhes: 'Take Your positions and prepare yourselves, for the sword devours those around You.'
- 15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them. Why will Your warriors be laid low? They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.
- 16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. They will stumble repeatedly. They will fall over each other. They will say, 'Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native lands, away from the sword of the oppressor.'
- 17 There did they cry, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed. There they will cry out, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise. He has missed his opportunity.'
- 18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. 'As surely as I live,' says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, 'one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains, like Carmel by the sea.'
- 19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant. Pack Your belongings for exile, You who live in Egypt, for Memphis will be laid waste and lie in ruins without anyone living there.'
- 20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north. Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly is coming against her from the north.
- 21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation. The mercenaries in her ranks are like fattened calves. They too will turn and flee together. They will not stand their ground, for the day of disaster is coming on them — the time for them to be punished.

- 22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances in force. They will come against her with axes, like men who cut down trees.
- 23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable. They will chop down her forest,' says the LORD, 'dense though it be. They are more numerous than locusts, they cannot be counted.
- 24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. Daughter Egypt will be put to shame. She will be delivered into the hands of the people of the north."
- 25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him: The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I am about to punish Amon god of Thebes, Pharaoh, Egypt, and its gods and kings, and those who rely on Pharaoh.
- 26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD. I will give them into the hands of those who seek their lives — Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Afterward, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past," says the LORD.
- 27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. "Do not be afraid, Jacob My servant. Do not be dismayed, Israel. I will surely save you from a distant place. I will bring your descendants back from the land of their exile. Jacob will again have peace and security. No one will make them afraid.

- 28 Fear not thou, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.
- Do not be afraid, Jacob My servant," says the LORD, "for I am with You. Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you, I will not completely destroy You. I will discipline You but only in due measure. I will not let You go entirely unpunished."

Chapter 47

The LORD pronounced judgment against the Philistines. Waters would rise out of the north as a flood and overflow the land. Fathers would not turn back for their children because of feebleness of hands. The LORD's sword would devour Ashkelon and the remnant of the coast, and there would be no rest for it.

Chapter 48

The LORD pronounced an extensive judgment against Moab. Every city would be destroyed, and Moab's horn was cut off. Moab had been at ease from his youth and trusted in his works and treasures, but Chemosh his god would go into captivity. The LORD declared woe upon Moab for the destroyer had come upon every city, yet He would bring back the captives of Moab in the latter days.

- 2 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be brought to silence, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee. Moab will be praised no more. In Heshbon people will plot her downfall: 'Come, let us put an end to that nation.' You too, Madmen, will be silenced. The sword will pursue You.
- 3 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction. Listen to the cries from Horonaim — cries of great havoc and destruction.
- 4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. Moab will be broken. Her little ones will cry out.
- 5 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction. They go up the hill of Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go. On the road down to Horonaim anguished cries over the destruction are heard.
- 6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. Flee! Run for Your lives! Become like a bush in the desert.
- 7 For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. Since You trust in Your deeds and riches, You too will be taken captive. Chemosh will go into exile, together with His priests and officials.
- 8 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken. The destroyer will come against every town. Not one town will escape. The valley will be ruined and the plateau destroyed, because the LORD has spoken.
- 9 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein. Put salt on Moab, for she will be laid waste. Her towns will become desolate, with no one to live in them.

- 10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. Cursed is the one who is lax in doing the LORD's work! Cursed is the one who keeps his sword from bloodshed!
- 11 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. "Moab has been at ease from her youth, settled like wine on its dregs, never poured from one jar to another — she has never gone into exile. So she tastes as she did, and her aroma is unchanged.
- 12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. But days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will send men who pour from jars, and they will pour her out. They will empty her jars and smash her jugs.
- 13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as Israel was ashamed of Bethel, in which they trusted.
- 14 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war? How can You say, 'We are warriors, men valiant in battle'?
- 15 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded. Her finest young men will go down in the slaughter," says the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.
- 16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast. "The fall of Moab is at hand. Her calamity will come quickly.
- 17 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod! Mourn for her, all who live around her, all who know her fame. Say, 'How the mighty scepter is broken, that glorious staff!'

- 18 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds. Come down from Your glory and sit on the parched ground, You inhabitants of Daughter Dibon. For the one who destroys Moab will come up against you and ruin Your fortified cities.
- 19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done? Stand by the road and watch, you who live in Aroer. Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping, ask them, "What has happened?"
- 20 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled, Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered. Wail and cry out! Announce by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed.
- 21 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, Judgment has come to the plateau — to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,
- 22 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Bethdiblathaim, to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,
- 23 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Bethgamul, and upon Bethmeon, to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon,
- 24 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. to Kerioth and Bozrah — to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
- 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD. Moab's horn is cut off. Her arm is broken," says the LORD.
- 26 Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. "Make her drunk, for she has defied the LORD. Let Moab wallow in her vomit. Let her be an object of ridicule.
- 27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy. Was not Israel the object of Your ridicule? Was she caught among thieves, that You shake Your head in scorn whenever You speak of her?

- 28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth. Abandon Your towns and dwell among the rocks, You who live in Moab. Be like a dove that makes its nest at the mouth of a cave.
- 29 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart. We have heard of Moab's pride — her great pride — of her arrogance, her conceit, and the haughtiness of her heart.
- 30 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it. I know her insolence," says the LORD, "but her boasts are empty — her deeds amount to nothing.
- 31 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kirheres. Therefore I wail over Moab, for all Moab I cry out. I moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.
- 32 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage. I weep for You, vine of Sibmah, more than I weep for Jazer. Your branches spread as far as the sea. They reached as far as Jazer. The destroyer has fallen on Your summer fruit and Your grape harvest.
- 33 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting. Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab. I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses. No one treads grapes with shouts of joy. Although there are shouts, they are not shouts of joy.
- 34 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz — from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

- 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods. In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods," says the LORD.
- 36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished. "So My heart laments for Moab like the music of a pipe. My heart laments like a pipe for the people of Kir Hareseth. The wealth they acquired is gone.
- 37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth. Every head is shaved and every beard cut off. Every hand is slashed and every waist is covered with sackcloth.
- 38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD. On all the rooftops in Moab and in the public squares there is nothing but mourning. For I have broken Moab like a jar that no one wants," says the LORD.
- 39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismay to all them about him. "How shattered she is! How they wail! How Moab turns her back in shame! Moab has become an object of ridicule, an object of horror to all those around her."
- 40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab. This is what the LORD says: "Look! An eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab.
- 41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. Kerioth will be captured and the strongholds taken. In that day the hearts of Moab's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.
- 42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD. Moab will be destroyed as a nation because she defied the LORD.

- 43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD. Terror and pit and snare await You, people of Moab," says the LORD.
- 44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. Whoever flees from the terror will fall into a pit. Whoever climbs out of the pit will be caught in a snare. For I will bring on Moab the year of her punishment," says the LORD.
- 45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon — a blaze from the midst of Sihon. It burns the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of the noisy boasters.
- 46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives. Woe to You, Moab! The people of Chemosh are destroyed. Your sons are taken into exile and Your daughters into captivity.
- 47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab. Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in days to come," says the LORD. Here ends the judgment on Moab.

Chapter 49

The LORD pronounced judgment against Ammon for seizing the territory of Gad, against Edom for her pride in the clefts of the rock, against Damascus whose young men would fall in her streets, against Kedar and Hazor whom Nebuchadnezzar would strike, and against Elam whose bow the LORD would break. Yet the LORD would restore the fortunes of Ammon and Elam in the latter days.

- 1 Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? Concerning the Ammonites: Thus says the LORD: "Has Israel no sons? Has He no heir? Why then does their king inherit Gad, and His people dwell in His cities?
- 2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD. But the days are coming," says the LORD, "when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites. It will become a mound of ruins, and its surrounding villages will be set on fire. Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out," says the LORD.
- 3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together. Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled! Cry, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth and lament. Run to and fro by the hedges, for their king shall go into captivity, and His priests and His princes together.
- 4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? Why do You boast of Your valleys, boast of Your flowing valleys, unfaithful daughter? You trust in Your riches and say, 'Who will attack me?'
- 5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth. I will bring terror on You from all those around You," says the Lord GOD of hosts. "Every one of you will be driven away, and no one will gather the fugitives.
- 6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD. Yet afterward, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites," says the LORD.

- 7 Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Concerning Edom: This is what the LORD of hosts says: "Is there no longer wisdom in Teman? Has counsel perished from the prudent? Has their wisdom decayed?"
- 8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him. Turn and flee! Hide in deep caves, you who live in Dedan! For I will bring disaster on Esau at the time I punish him.
- 9 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough. If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes? If thieves came during the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?
- 10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not. But I will strip Esau bare. I will uncover his hiding places so that he cannot conceal himself. His children, relatives, and neighbors will perish, and he will be no more.
- 11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me. Leave your fatherless children. I will keep them alive. Your widows too can trust in Me."
- 12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken it; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it. This is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, why should You go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must drink it.
- 13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes. I swear by Myself," says the LORD, "that Bozrah will become a ruin and a curse, an object of horror and disgrace. And all its towns will be in ruins forever."

- 14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. I have heard a message from the LORD. An envoy was sent to the nations to say, "Assemble yourselves to attack it! Rise up for battle!"
- 15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men. "Now I will make You small among the nations, despised by mankind.
- 16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. The terror You inspire and the pride of Your heart have deceived You, You who live in the clefts of the rocks, who occupy the heights of the hill. Though You build Your nest as high as the eagle's, from there I will bring You down," says the LORD.
- 17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. "Edom will become an object of horror. All who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.
- 18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it. As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown, along with their neighboring towns," says the LORD, "so no one will live there. No person will dwell in it.
- 19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland, I will chase Edom from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like Me and who can challenge Me? And what shepherd can stand against Me?"

- 20 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them. Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Edom, what He has purposed against those who live in Teman: The young of the flock will be dragged away. He will completely destroy their pasture because of them.
- 21 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea. At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble. Their cry will resound to the Red Sea.
- 22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah. In that day the hearts of Edom's warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.
- 23 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Concerning Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are dismayed, for they have heard bad news. They are disheartened. There is anguish and sorrow, like the churning sea that cannot rest.
- 24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail. Damascus has become feeble. She has turned to flee and panic has gripped her. Anguish and pain have seized her, pain like that of a woman in labor.
- 25 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! Why has the city of renown not been abandoned, the town in which I delight?
- 26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts. Surely, her young men will fall in the streets. All her soldiers will be silenced in that day," says the LORD of hosts.
- 27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad. "I will set fire to the walls of Damascus. It will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad."

- 28 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east. Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked: This is what the LORD says: "Rise up! Advance against Kedar! Destroy the people of the East!
- 29 Their tents and their flocks shall be taken away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side. Their tents and their flocks will be taken. Their shelters will be carried off with all their goods and camels. People will shout to them, "Terror on every side!"
- 30 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you. Flee quickly! Stay in deep caves, You who live in Hazor," says the LORD. "For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against You and formed a plan to destroy You.
- 31 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone. Rise up! Attack a nation at ease, that lives in confidence," says the LORD, "a nation that has neither gates nor bars. Its people live alone.
- 32 And their camels shall be for a booty, and the multitude of their cattle for a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD. Their camels will become plunder, and their large herds will be spoils of war. I will scatter to the winds those who are in distant places and will bring disaster on them from every side," says the LORD.
- 33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it. Hazor will become a haunt of jackals, a desolate place forever. No one will live there. No people will settle in it."
- 34 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah:

I will bring disaster on them, even My fierce anger,' says the LORD. 'I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them. I will set My throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,' says the LORD. 'Yet in days to come I will restore the fortunes of Elam,' says the LORD." |

The LORD pronounced judgment against Babylon and the land of the Chaldeans. Babylon would be taken, Bel put to shame, and Merodach broken in pieces. Israel and Judah would seek the LORD with weeping and ask the way to Zion. The LORD would raise up an assembly of great nations from the north against Babylon, and she would become a desolation -- as she did to others, so it would be done to her.

| 1 The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. | This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians: |

- 2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces. "Announce and proclaim among the nations. Lift up a banner and proclaim it. Keep nothing back but say, 'Babylon will be captured. Bel will be put to shame. Marduk filled with terror. Her images will be put to shame and her idols filled with terror.'
- 3 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast. A nation from the north will attack her and lay waste her land. No one will live in it. Both people and animals will flee away.
- 4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. "In those days, at that time," says the LORD, "the people of Israel and the people of Judah together will go in tears to seek the LORD their God.
- 5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten. They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it. They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.
- 6 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace. "My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray. They have wandered over mountain and hill and forgotten their resting place.
- 7 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. Whoever found them devoured them. Their enemies said, 'We are not guilty, for they sinned against the LORD, their true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their ancestors.'

- 8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks. Flee out of Babylon! Leave the land of the Babylonians and be like the goats that lead the flock.
- 9 For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain. For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the land of the north. They will take up their positions against her, and from the north she will be captured. Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.
- 10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. So Babylonia will be plundered. All who plunder her will have their fill," says the LORD.
- 11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls; "Because You rejoice and are glad, You who pillage My inheritance — because You frolic like a heifer threshing grain and neigh like stallions —
- 12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. your mother will be greatly ashamed. She who gave You birth will be disgraced. She will be the least of the nations — a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.
- 13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Because of the LORD's anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate. All who pass Babylon will be horrified and scoff because of all her wounds.
- 14 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. "Take up Your positions around Babylon, all You who draw the bow. Shoot at her! Spare no arrows, for she has sinned against the LORD.

- 15 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Shout against her on every side! She surrenders. Her towers fall. Her walls are torn down. Since this is the vengeance of the LORD, take vengeance on her. Do to her as she has done to others.
- 16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land. Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with His sickle at harvest. Because of the oppressor's sword, each will return to their own people. Each will flee to their own land.
- 17 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. "Israel is a scattered flock that lions have chased away. The first to devour them was the king of Assyria. The last to crush their bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."
- 18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. Therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, says: "I will punish the king of Babylon and his land as I punished the king of Assyria."
- 19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead. But I will bring Israel back to their own pasture, and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan. Their appetite will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.
- 20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. In those days, at that time," says the LORD, "search will be made for Israel's iniquity, but there will be none, and for the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant I spare."

- 21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. "Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod. Pursue, kill, and completely destroy them," says the LORD. "Do everything I have commanded You.
- 22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. The noise of battle is in the land — the noise of great destruction!
- 23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth! How desolate is Babylon among the nations!
- 24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD. I set a trap for You, Babylon, and You were caught before You knew it. You were found and captured because You opposed the LORD.
- 25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. The LORD has opened His armory and brought out the weapons of His wrath, for the Sovereign LORD of hosts has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.
- 26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left. Come against her from afar. Break open her granaries. Pile her up like heaps of grain. Completely destroy her and leave no remnant.
- 27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. Kill all her young bulls. Let them go down to the slaughter! Woe to them! For their day has come — the time of their punishment.
- 28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. Listen to the fugitives and refugees from Babylon declaring in Zion how the LORD our God has taken His revenge, revenge for His temple.

- 29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow. Encamp all around her. Let no one escape. Repay her for her deeds. Do to her as she has done. For she has defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.
- 30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD. Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets. All her soldiers will be silenced in that day," says the LORD.
- 31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. "See, I am against You, arrogant one," says the Lord GOD of hosts. "For Your day has come — the time for You to be punished.
- 32 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him. The arrogant one will stumble and fall and no one will help her up. I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are around her."
- 33 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go. This is what the LORD of hosts says: "The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well. All their captors hold them fast, refusing to let them go.
- 34 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. Yet their Redeemer is strong. The LORD of hosts is His name. He will vigorously defend their cause so that He may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon.
- 35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. "A sword against the Babylonians!" says the LORD — "against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men!

- 36 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed. A sword against her false prophets! They will become fools. A sword against her warriors! They will be filled with terror.
- 37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed. A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks! They will become weaklings. A sword against her treasures! They will be plundered.
- 38 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols. A drought on her waters! They will dry up. For it is a land of idols — idols that will go mad with terror.
- 39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation. So desert creatures and hyenas will live there, and there the owl will dwell. It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
- 40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein. As I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighboring towns," says the LORD, "so no one will live there. No people will settle in it.
- 41 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. Look! An army is coming from the north. A great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

- 42 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon. They are armed with bows and spears. They are cruel and without mercy. Their sound is like the roaring sea as they ride on their horses. They come in battle formation — arrayed as one man — against You, Daughter Babylon.
- 43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. The king of Babylon has heard reports about them, and his hands hang limp. Anguish has gripped him, pain like that of a woman in labor.
- 44 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland, I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant. Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this? Who is like Me and who can challenge Me? And what shepherd can stand against Me?
- 45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Babylon, what He has purposed against the land of the Babylonians: The young of the flock will be dragged away. Their pasture will be appalled at their fate.
- 46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations. At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will tremble. Its cry will resound among the nations.

Chapter 51

The LORD declared He would raise up a destroying wind against Babylon and send fanners to fan her. Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand that made all the earth drunk, but now she was suddenly fallen and broken. The LORD commanded His people to flee out of her midst. Jeremiah wrote all the coming disaster on a scroll and sent it to Babylon with Seraiah, commanding him to tie a stone to it and cast it into the Euphrates as a sign that Babylon would sink and never rise again.

| 1 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind; | This is what the LORD says: "See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai. |
| 2 And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. | I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her land. They will oppose her on every side in the day of her disaster. |
| 3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host. | Let not the archer string his bow, nor let Him put on his armor. Do not spare her young men. Completely destroy her army. |
| 4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets. | They will fall down slain in Babylon, fatally wounded in her streets. |
| 5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. | For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD of hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel. |
| 6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompense. | Flee from Babylon! Run for Your lives! Do not be destroyed because of her sins. It is time for the LORD's vengeance. He will repay her what she deserves. |

- 7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's hand. She made the whole earth drunk. The nations drank her wine. Therefore they have now gone mad.
- 8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken. Wail over her! Get balm for her pain — perhaps she can be healed.
- 9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. 'We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed. Let us leave her and each go to our own land, for her judgment reaches to the skies. It rises as high as the heavens.'
- 10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. The LORD has vindicated us. Come, let us tell in Zion what the LORD our God has done.
